PART I.

TREATIES, ENGAGEMENTS, AND SANADS

RELATING TO THE

UNITED PROVINCES OF AGRA AND OUDH.

I.—RAMPUR.

The first settlers of the Rohilla Afghans were two brothers, Shah Alam and Husain Khan. The son of the first of these, Daud Khan, achieved some distinction in the earlier part of the eighteenth century. But the rise of the family is owing mainly to his son, Ali Muhammad Khan, who was adopted by Daud Khan. Ali Muhammad by his successes on his father's death collected many Afghan adventurers, and for his services against the Bara Saiyids he received the title of Nawab and a grant of the greater part of Rohilkhand. He happened to offend the Subadar of Oudh, who repaired to Delhi, and by his representations induced the King of Delhi, Muhammad Shah, to take the field against the Rohilla Chief. Ali Muhammad was compelled to surrender, and was made to relinquish his territory, and to deliver two of his sons as hostages.

Not long afterwards he was placed in charge of Sirhind, but taking advantage of the confusion in the first months of the Emperor's reign, consequent on the invasion of Ahmad Shah Abdali; he passed into Rohilkhand and made good his supremacy over the province. In the next reign he obtained a confirmation of this territory from the son of Muhammad Shah.

Previous to his death, he made a disposition in favour of his six sons, and till the return from captivity of his two elder sons (who had been seized by Ahmad Shah) and the majority of his other sons, he entrusted his territory to the guardianship of Hafiz Rahmat Khan, the brother, and Dudi Khan, the cousin, of Daud Khan. Not long after his death the two sons were released. The final arrangement made by the guardians was to place Faizulla in a jagir comprising Rampur Katra, estimated to be worth six lakhs per annum.
When the Marathas had in 1771 placed Shah Alam on the throne of Delhi, they turned their attention to the conquest of the Rohilla country. Alarmed by their approach, the Rohillas temporized with them, and meanwhile proposed an alliance with the Nawab of Oudh. In 1772 an alliance offensive and defensive (No. I) was concluded, by which the Rohillas agreed to pay to the Nawab forty lakhs of rupees, on condition of his expelling the Marathas.

After the Marathas had extorted from the Emperor the grant of the districts of Allahabad and Kora, the Nawab became thoroughly alarmed and applied to the English, who were bound by Treaty to assist him. At a conference with Warren Hastings at Benares, the Nawab procured the promise of troops to assist him in his designs against the Rohillas, who were unable to resist the Marathas and who had failed in their pecuniary obligations. The Wazir also made a treaty with the Emperor, in which it was stipulated that the Emperor should assist him in the expedition, and receive a share of the conquered territory.

The Rohillas, who resisted the invasion of their country, were defeated after a most gallant struggle, in which Hafiz Rahmat was slain. Faizulla Khan withdrew with the remains of the Rohilla army to the hills, and after some negotiations and petty skirmishes, an Agreement (No. II), known as the Treaty of Lal Dhang, was made between him and the Nawab in 1774 under the British guarantee, by which he was secured in the State of Rampur, on condition of military service to the Wazir. In 1783 the obligation of service was commuted (No. III) under the guarantee of the British Government to a cash payment of Rs. 15,00,000.

On the death of Faizulla Khan, disturbances broke out in the family. Muhammad Ali Khan, the eldest son, was murdered by his brother, Ghulam Muhammad Khan, who usurped the jagir. As the State was held under British guarantee, the aid of British troops was given to the Nawab of Oudh in ejecting the usurper and installing Ahmad Ali Khan, the son of Muhammad Ali Khan. A preliminary Agreement (No. IV) was executed in 1794 between the British Government, the Nawab, and the Rohilla tribe, after which in the same year Ahmad Ali Khan was restored by Treaty (No. V) under British guarantee to a portion of the State, the rest being annexed to Rohilkhand.

On the cession of Rohilkhand to the British Government in 1801, the family were continued in their possessions.
Ahmad Ali Khan died in 1839. The succession of his only daughter was rejected, and the next heir, Muhammad Said Khan, the eldest son of Ghulam Muhammad Khan, was put in possession of the State. An Engagement (No. VI) was taken from him in 1840 that he would govern his State rightly, and provide for the inferior Rohilla Chiefs. A similar Engagement (No. VII) was taken in 1855 from Muhammad Yusuf Ali Khan, the eldest son and successor of Muhammad Said Khan.

For his services during the rebellion of 1857, Muhammad Yusuf Ali Khan received in 1860 a grant of land (No. VIII), yielding Rs. 1,28,527-4-0. It was at first proposed to cede the pargana of Kasipur, but for greater compactness villages on the Moradabad and Bareilly frontier were afterwards substituted. An error occurred in the allotment of a portion of this land, owing to the similarity in the name of some villages situated respectively within British and Rampur limits, but this was subsequently (in 1894) rectified by an Agreement (No. IX). In terms of the grant, dated the 7th November 1864, these villages were assigned in full sovereignty "with only this stipulation that existing rightful tenures were to be respected."

In 1864 the Nawab ceded to the British Government in full sovereignty the land required for the railway to be constructed through his jagir, and also agreed to exempt from duty all traffic passing through his territory (Nos. X and XI). In 1891 the Darbar agreed to contribute a loan of Rs. 47,00,000 towards the construction of a standard gauge line from Bareilly, via Rampur, to Moradabad, giving the land required free of cost, and ceding to the British Government full jurisdiction within the limits of the railway.

Muhammad Yusuf Ali Khan was created a Knight of the Order of the Star of India, and was in 1862 assured by Sanad (No. XII) that on failure of natural heirs, any succession to the administration of his State, which might be legitimate according to Muhammadan law would be upheld. He died in April 1865, and was succeeded by his eldest son, Muhammad Kalb Ali Khan, who entered into an Agreement (No. XIII) similar to that taken from his father in 1855 (No. VII).

Muhammad Kalb Ali Khan was created a Knight Grand Commander of the Order of the Star of India in 1875, and a Companion of the Indian Empire in 1878. At the Delhi Darbar of 1877, he received the title of Councillor of the Empress of India, and was granted a personal salute of 15 guns for life, his ordinary salute being 13 guns.
Muhammad Kalb Ali Khan died on the 23rd March 1887, and was succeeded by his son, Muhammad Mushtak Ali Khan, who had been previously, in 1884, acknowledged by the Government as heir-apparent. He entered into an Agreement (No. XIV) similar to that taken from Muhammad Kalb Ali Khan in 1865 (No. XIII). Owing to his weak health, and consequent inability to give the requisite personal attention to the administration, the Government appointed a Council of State consisting of a Vice-President and two Members, with the Nawab himself as President, to conduct the administration.

On Muhammad Mushtak Ali Khan's death on the 25th February 1889, the right of succession of his eldest son and duly recognized heir, Muhammad Hamid Ali Khan, a youth of 14, was declared on the 27th of the same month. The Council of State, with the same Vice-President and Members, was constituted a Council of Regency, with more closely defined powers, and with Sahibzada Safdar Ali Khan, half-brother of the late Nawab Muhammad Yusuf Ali Khan, as President to administer the State during the minority of Muhammad Hamid Ali Khan. General Azim-ud-din Khan was appointed Vice-President of the Council of Regency. He was murdered in April 1891; and the President, Sahibzada Safdar Ali Khan, having resigned in the following July, Major Vincent of the Central India Horse was appointed to be President, and to discharge also the duties of Vice-President.

The young Chief's training was entrusted to Captain Colvin as his governor, and Mr. H. O. Budden as his tutor. In order to complete his education the Nawab went on a tour round the world, and while in England was presented to Her late Majesty Queen Victoria. On the 4th April 1894 Muhammad Hamid Ali Khan was installed as Nawab, the Council of Regency being replaced by an Administrative Council. On the 1st June 1896 the Nawab was invested with full powers, and the Administrative Council was abolished, the Nawab entering into the usual agreement with the British Government (No. XV). On the 22nd June 1897 Muhammad Hamid Ali Khan was appointed an Honorary Major in the 9th Hodson's Horse.

In 1899 an Agreement (No. XVI) was concluded for the effective control and discipline of the Rampur Imperial Service Troops when serving beyond the State frontiers.
The Nawab signed a revised Agreement (No. XVII) in 1899 ceding full and exclusive power and jurisdiction of every kind over the portions of the Bareilly-Rampur-Moradabad Railway lying within the limits of his State.

Muhammad Hamid Ali Khan was present at the Imperial Darbar held at Delhi on the 1st January 1903, and at Lucknow on the occasion of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales' visit in December 1905. The Nawab's eldest son is Sahibzada Hasan Ali Khan Bahadur, born on the 3rd October 1900.

The area of the Rampur territory is about 892 square miles; and the population, according to the census of 1901, is 533,212. The gross revenue of the State amounts to 35 lakhs a year.

The military force, including irregulars, consists (1905) of 293 Imperial Service cavalry, 205 artillery men, 28 serviceable guns, 149 cavalry, 40 camel sowars, 1,912 infantry and 74 armed police.

The State is liable to pay nazaranah on succession.

The Ruler or Wali of Rampur has the hereditary title of 'Farzand-i-Dilpixir Daulat-i-Inglisia', and he is entitled to a salute of 13 guns, which was finally approved in Her Majesty's Order in Council of the 26th June 1867.
NO. I.

TRANSLATION of a TREATY entered into between the VIZIER of the EMPIRE, SHUJAH-UL-DOWLA, and the ROHILLA SIRDARS, reciprocally interchanged,—13th June 1772.

First.—Friendship is established between us, and we, Haffiz Rhamut Khan and Zabitah Khan, and all the other Rohilla Sardars, great and small, have agreed and determined with the Vizier of the Empire, Shujah-ul-Dowla, that we adhere to the substance of this writing, and never deviate from this Agreement; that we esteem his friends as our friends, and his enemies as our enemies, and that we and our heirs, during our lives, shall adhere firmly to this our Oath and Agreement, that we shall be united and joined together for the protection of the country of the Vizier of the Empire and of our own country; and if any enemy (which God forbid) should make an attempt against us and the Vizier, we, the Rohilla Sardars and the Vizier of the Empire, shall use our joint endeavours to oppose him; we also, all the Rohilla Sardars, shall also join and unite in any measures that may be determined by the Vizier of the Empire for the benefit of the Nabob Mahomed Zabitah Khan. We, both parties swear by the Almighty, His Prophet, and the sacred Koran, that we will firmly adhere to this solemn Agreement, nor ever deviate from this our Treaty.

This Treaty confirmed by oath, and sealed in the presence of General Sir Robert Barker.

Written on the 11th of the month Rubba-ul-awul, 1186 Hegira, or 13th June 1772.

(Sd.) WILLIAM DavY, Persian Interpreter.

TRANSLATION of the AGREEMENT given by HAFFIZ RHAMUT KHAN to the VIZIER.

As the Vizier of the Empire, the Nabob Shujah-ul-Dowla, will put the Rohilla Sardars in full possession of their country, it is at his own option to effect it either by peace or war. Should, the Mahrattas at this time, without coming to an engagement or peace being established, cross the river, and retreat owing to the rainy season, and after that is elapsed, commit disturbances in the country of the Rohillas, the quelling of these disturbances shall belong to the Vizier. The Rohilla Sardars, after the aforesaid business, do agree to pay the sum of 40 lakhs of rupees on the following terms; viz., as the Mahrattas are now committing disorders in the country of the Rohillas, the Vizier shall march from Shahabad to such place as may be thought proper to arrive at, in order that the Rohilla dependents may come out of the jungles and arrive at their own homes.
The sum of ten lakhs of rupees shall then be paid in ready money, in part of the stipulation, and 30 lakhs of rupees shall be discharged in three years, beginning from the Fussellee year 1186.

This Agreement is sealed in the presence of General Sir Robert Barker.

No. II.

Treaty, under the Hands and Seals of the Nabob Shujah-ul-Dowla Behaudeer and Colonel Champion, — 1774.

A friendship having been entered into between me and Fzyoollah Khan. I have agreed to give him the country of Rampore and some other districts dependent thereupon, producing altogether an annual revenue of 14,75,000 rupees, and I have stipulated that Fzyoollah Khan shall retain in his service five thousand troops, and not a single man more; I therefore give this written Engagement, that I will, at all times, and on all occasions, support the honor and character of Fzyoollah Khan, and will promote his interest and advantage to the utmost of my power, upon the following conditions: That Fzyoollah Khan shall enter into no connection with any person, but myself, and that he shall hold no correspondence with any person, except the English Chiefs; that he shall consider my friends as his friends, and my enemies as his enemies; and that with whomsoever I shall make war, Fzyoollah Khan shall send two or three thousand men according to his ability, to join my forces: and if I march in person, Fzyoollah Khan shall himself accompany me with his troops; and if, on account of the smallness of the number of the forces he is to retain in his service, he is not able to accompany me, I will then appoint him three or four thousand more troops, that he may accompany me with a good army, and I will be at the expense of supporting them. Upon the performance of these conditions, I have agreed to give the said countries, at the afore-mentioned revenue, to Fzyoollah Khan, and to promote his interest and advantage to the utmost of my power.

If Fzyoollah Khan fulfil the Articles of his Treaty, and adheres steadily to it, God willing, I will not neglect whatever may be for his advantage.

He shall send the remainder of the Rohillas on the other side of the river.

I have sworn by the holy Koran, calling God and His Prophet to witness to the performance of these Articles.

Colonel Champion's Seal.

The Vizier's Seal.
TREATY, under the Hands and Seals of FYZOOLLAH KHAN and COLONEL CHAMPION,—October 1774.

A friendship having taken place between the Nabob Vizier-ul-Moolk Behauder and me, and the Nabob Vizier having been graciously pleased to bestow on me a country, I have sworn on the holy Koran, calling God and His Prophet to witness to what I engage, that I will always, whilst I live, continue in submission and obedience to the Nabob Vizier; that I will retain in my service five thousand men, stipulated by the Nabob Vizier, and not a single man more; that with whomsoever the Nabob Vizier shall engage in hostilities, I will assist him; and that if the Nabob Vizier shall send an army against any enemy, I will also send two or three thousand of my troops to join them; and if he goes in person against any enemy, I will personally attend him with my forces: that I will have no connection with any person, but the Nabob Vizier, and will hold no correspondence with any one, the English Chiefs excepted; that whatsoever the Nabob Vizier directs I will execute; and that I will at all times, and on all occasions, both in adversity and prosperity, continue his firm associate.

I have sworn on the holy Koran, calling God and His Prophet to witness to the performance of these Articles: may God and His Prophet punish me if I act contrary to them.

TRANSLATION of a writing given by MAJOR WILLIAM PALMER to the NABOB FYZOOLLAH KHAN,—17th February 1783.

Whereas Treaties of various Articles having subsisted formerly between the late Vizier Shujah-ul-Dowla, and the present Vizier, Ausuf-ul-Dowla, with the Nabob Fyzoolah Khan, one Article contained in those Treaties was, that the Nabob Fyzoolah Khan should, whenever His Excellency sent his troops upon service, supply a force to join them of two or three thousand men. This has been the occasion of disputes and doubts.

(Sd.) J. P. AURIOL, Secretary, between the parties. Therefore the Nabob

* October 1774.
Fyozoollah Khan has through me requested His Excellency the Vizier to remit that Article by which he is bound to supply a force occasionally; instead of which he agrees to pay fifteen lakhs of rupees in the following manner: five lakhs to be paid immediately, five lakhs in the Khereef, and two lakhs in the Rubby of the year 1191 Fussellee; and the remaining three lakhs in the beginning of the Khereef of the Fussellee year 1192.
His Excellency the Vizier has also agreed upon these conditions to remit the obligation by that Article in the former Treaties, from this date, the fourteenth of Rubby-ul-Awal in the Hegira year 1197, the rest of the Articles remaining in full force. I, who am deputed on the part of His Excellency the Vizier, and the gentlemen of the Council, engage that the Nabob Vizier shall not expect a supply of troops, and should he demand it, the gentlemen with him, on the part of the gentlemen of the Council, shall remonstrate against his demands, provided the Nabob Fyozoollah Khan complies with all the Articles contained in the Treaty between His Excellency and him, excepting that Article by which he is to supply a force, and that the Nabob Fyozoollah Khan do not encourage or protect the farmers of the Nabob's country in his own country. His Excellency the Vizier will, on his part, comply with the Articles of the former Treaty, and the Officers of his Government will not protect or encourage any of Fyozoollah Khan's farmers in their districts. I agree to have the Treaty on the part of His Excellency the Vizier for disengaging the Nabob Fyozoollah Khan from the obligation of supplying a force, and the paper of guarantee from the gentlemen of the Council, wrote and sent to the Nabob Fyozoollah Khan.

TRANSLATION of the preliminary ENGAGEMENT between the NABOB VIZIER-UL-MOMALIK ASUF JAH, AUSUF-UL-DOWLA YEHEHA KHAN BEHAUDER, HUZZUBER JUNG, the ENGLISH COMPANY, and the ROHILLA TRIBE,—29th November 1794.

ARTICLE 1.

When this preliminary Engagement shall be executed, hostilities shall cease between the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Asuf Jah Behauder and his allies and the Rohilla army.

ARTICLE 2.

The Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Asuf Jah Behauder agrees, that he has pardoned the family of the Nabob Fyzoollah Khan, deceased, and their adherents, the faults which they have committed;* thus Golam Mahomed Khan has delivered an account of the treasure which was left by the Nabob Fyzoollah Khan, at his death, to the period that he had charge of it. From that treasure the sum of one lakh and four thousand gold mohurs has been expended since Golam Mahomed Khan left the Rohilla camp; this being deducted, the balance is the sum demanded.

ARTICLE 3.

The Rohilla army agree that they will give over in deposit to the Company whatever may remain of the treasure of the family of Fyzoollah Khan, deceased.

ARTICLE 4.

The Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Asuf Jah Behauder agrees, that he will bestow on Ahmed Ally Khan, the grandson of the Nabob Fyzoollah Khan, deceased, mehals in Jaghire, at the annual jumma of ten lakhs of rupees, and that the town of Rampore shall be a part of the said jaghire; and as Ahmed Ally Khan is a minor, therefore Nussur Ullah Khan Behauder, son of Abdoola Khan, deceased, shall be nominated the guardian of Ahmed Ally Khan, and the manager of the said jaghire, until Ahmed Ally Khan shall arrive at the age of —— years.

ARTICLE 5.

When the Rohilla army shall have given over the treasure, as is expressed in the third Article, the armies of the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik

ENGAGEMENT of GUARANTEE by the Hon'ble the English EAST INDIA COMPANY between the VIZIER-UL-MOMALIK HINDOOSTAN NABOB ASUF-UL-DOWLA, AUSUF JAH YEHEHA KHAN BEHAUDER, HUZZUBBER JUNG, and the NABOB AHMED ALLY KHAN BEHAUDER,—13th December 1794.

Whereas, by a preliminary Engagement, dated the 5th Jemmadie-ul-Awul, 1209 Hegira, corresponding with the 29th November 1794 of the Christian era, and bearing the seals of the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder, of Mr. George Frederick Cherry, Resident at the Court of the said Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder, on the part of the Hon'ble the English East India Company, and of the Nabob Nussur Ulla Khan Behauder on the part of the Rohilla army, a copy of which is annexed, the said Company have agreed to be the guarantee to the performance of the stipulations thereof by the said Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder on one part, and by the Nabob Nussur Ulla Khan Behauder on the other; accordingly the said George Frederick Cherry agrees, in the name of the Hon'ble Sir John Shore, Baronet, Governor-General of the affairs of the said Company in India, to the following Articles:

ARTICLE 1.

The Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder, having declared by the second Article of the said preliminary Engagement that he has pardoned the family of the Nabob Fyzoollah Khan, deceased, and their adherents, the faults which they have committed, the Hon'ble the English East India Company engage, pursuant to the said Article of the said Engagement, that the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder shall not give any trouble to the said family and their adherents, on account of any act committed by them prior to the 5th of Jemmudie-ul-Awul, 1209 Hegira.

ARTICLE 2.

The Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder, having by the fourth Article of the said Engagement. declared that he will grant a jaghire, in the name of Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder, the grandson to the Nabob Fyzoollah Khan, deceased, and having, pursuant thereto, delivered into the hands of the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder a Sunnud or Deed of Grant, bearing his seal, and containing on the back thereof the names of the mehals, with the jumma of each, comprising the jaghire, and dated the 7th Jemmudie-el-Saany, 1209 Hegira, the said Company engage to guarantee the possessions of the said mehals to the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder, according to the conditions expressed in the said Sunnud, and free from demands on account of jowfeer.

ARTICLE 3.

It having been agreed in the fourth Article of the said Engagement that the Nabob Nussur Ulla Khan Behauder, son of the Nabob Abdoolah Khan, deceased, shall be the guardian of the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder and the manager of the Jaghire, until the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years; the said Company hereby agree to acknowledge this nomination, and to consider the seal of the said Nabob Nussur Ulla Khan Behauder, so long as he remains the guardian of the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder and the manager of the jaghire, as the seal of the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder.

ARTICLE 4.

It having been agreed in the third Article of the said Engagement that the treasure or the family of the Nabob Fyzoollah Khan, deceased, shall be deposited with the said Company, and the said Company having accordingly received the sum of three lakhs and twenty-two thousand gold mohurs in deposit, which sum of three lakhs and twenty-two thousand gold mohurs has been paid to the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder as a nuzzer-annah from the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder for the jaghire, and in lieu of all right of zubtee or confiscation of the property of the late Nabob Fyzoollah Khan and Mahomed Ally Khan, deceased, the Company agree that there shall be no further pecuniary demands among the parties concerned in these Engagements, on any account whatever, arising from them.

ARTICLE 5.

When the Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years, the said Company agree that this Engagement of Guarantee shall remain in full force, and no new Engagement of Guarantee shall be necessary; and if (which God forbid) the Nabob Nussur Ulla Khan Behauder shall die, or, on any account, be removed from the office of guardian of the Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder and manager of his jaghire, the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder shall, with the advice of the said Company, select a person from among the tribe of Rohillas, and shall nominate such person to the said office.

Article 6.

The said Nabob Nussur Ulla Khan Behauder having entered into a kabooleat or engagement to the said Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder, bearing date the 7th of Jemmadi-ul-Saany, 1209 Hegira, on the part of the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder, the said Company agree to guarantee to the said Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder the performance of the said kabooleat by the Nabob Nussur Ulla Khan Behauder, on the part of the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder, and will consider any deviation therefrom a breach of the allegiance and fidelity due from the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder to the said Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder.

Article 7.

This Engagement being signed and sealed by the said George Frederick Cherry, on the part of the said Company, and ratified by the signature of the Honorable Sir John Shore, Baronet, Governor-General, and the seal of the said Company, in two counterparts; one counterpart thereof has been delivered to the said Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder, and the other to the said Nabob Nussur Ulla Khan Behauder. In like manner, the kabooleat or engagement mentioned in the sixth Article hereof, bearing the seal of the said Nabob Nussur Ulla Khan Behauder, being executed in two counterparts; one counterpart thereof has been delivered to the said Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder, and the other to the said George Frederick Cherry; and the Sunned, bearing the seal of the said Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder, specified in the second Article hereof, has been delivered to the Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder, of which a copy has been delivered to the said George Frederick Cherry, attested by the seal of the said Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder as a true copy.

TRANSLATION of the KABOOLEAT or ENGAGEMENT entered into by the NABOB AHMED ALLY KHAN BEHAUDER to the NABOB VIZIER-UL-MOMALIK AUSUF JAH BEHAUDER,—30th December 1794.

Whereas by a preliminary Engagement, dated the 5th Jemmadie-ul-Awul, 1209 Hegira, corresponding with the 29th November 1794 of the Christian Era, and bearing the seals of the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder, of Mr. George Frederick Cherry, Resident at the Court of the said Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder, on the part of the English East India Company, and of the Nabob Nussur Ulla Khan Behauder, on the part of the Rohilla tribe, a copy of which is annexed, certain stipulations were agreed to by the said Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder on one part, and by the said Rohilla tribe on the other; accordingly I, the said Nussur Ulla Khan Behauder, being thereby nominated to be the guardian of the Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder and the manager of the jaghire therein mentioned, agree for myself as the guardian of the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder and as the manager of the jaghire, and for the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder as the jaghiredar, to the following Articles:

ARTICLE 1.

The Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder having declared, by the second Article of the said preliminary Engagement, that he has pardoned the family of the Nabob Fyzoolah Khan, deceased, and their adherents, the faults which they have committed, I engage, pursuant to the said Article of the said Engagement, that there shall not be any trouble given to anyone of the said family or their adherents, on account of any act committed by them prior to the 5th Jemmadie-ul-Awul, 1209 Hegira.

ARTICLE 2.

The Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder, having, by the fourth Article of the said Engagement, declared that he will grant a jaghire in the name of the Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder, the grandson to the Nabob Fyzoolah Khan, deceased, and having, pursuant thereto, delivered into the hands of the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder a Sunnud or Deed of Grant, bearing his seal and containing on the back thereof the names of the mehals, with the jumma of each, composing the jaghire, and dated the 7th Jemmadie-ul-Saany, 1209 Hegira, I agree to educate the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder in the principles of true obedience and fidelity to the said Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder, and in conformity to the conditions expressed in the said Sunnud, that I will manage the jaghire according to those conditions, and that I will, to the best of my abilities, impress on the minds of all the Rohillas, and others subsisting on the produce of the said jaghire, gratitude to the said Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder for his benevolence to them, and fidelity and allegiance to him, through their jaghiredar, the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder.
ARTICLE 3.

It having been agreed in the fourth Article of the said Engagement, that I, Nusser Ulla Khan, son of the Nabob Abdoola Khan, deceased, shall be the guardian of the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder, and the manager of the jaghire, until the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years, I promise that, having in view the benefit of the Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder, I will execute this duty to the best of my abilities.

ARTICLE 4.

It having been agreed in the third Article of the said Engagement, that the treasure of the family of the Nabob Fyzoollah Khan, deceased, shall be deposited with the English East India Company, and the said Company having accordingly received the sum of three lakhs and twenty-two thousand gold mohurs in deposit, which sum has been paid to the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Ausuf Jah Behauder, as a nuzzaranah from the Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder for the jaghire, and in lieu of all the rights of zubtee or confiscation of the property of the late Nabob Fyzoollah Khan and Mahomed Ally Khan, deceased, I agree that there shall be no further pecuniary demands among the parties concerned in these Engagements, on any account whatever, arising from them.

ARTICLE 5.

I promise that Golam Mahomed Khan shall not, at any time, reside in any place within the jaghire nor exercise any influence or authority in the management thereof, nor in the affairs of the said Nabob Ahmed Ally Khan Behauder.

ARTICLE 6.

I promise that the sum of one thousand five hundred Lucknow Sicca Rupees per month shall be paid to the said Company at Lucknow, beginning with the 1st of December 1794 Christian Era, or 6th of Jemmadie-ul-Awul, 1209 Hegira, from the produce of the Jaghire, for the support of the said Golam Mahomed Khan.

ARTICLE 7.

I promise that the sums undermentioned shall be paid monthly, at Rampore, to the sons of the Nabob Fyzoollah Khan, deceased, as specified herein, for their support, from the beginning of the Fussellie year 1202—

TRANSLATION of the WAJIB-UL ARZ delivered by NUSSUR ULLA KHAN, with the answers written to each question.

Received 30th December 1794.

Question 1.

The family of Golam Mahomed Khan will reside, for the present, in the house at Rampur; and when he shall send for them, let their departure, or stay, depend on the pleasure of the Begam.

Answer 1.

Golam Mahomed Khan will act as he pleases, with respect to the residence of his family.
Question 2.

Let no impediment be thrown in the way of the payments of the arrears to the Circar, debts, and tekarry, &c., which may be due from any one ryots, and those in the mehals, which are separated from the jaghire of the late Nabob; let a perwannah be given by the Presence to the Nazim of Bareilly, to cause these dues to be paid according to accounts.

Answer 2.

The jaghiredar has nothing to do with the arrears, debts, and tekarry of the Circar of Fyzoollah Khan, deceased, in those mehals which have been resumed.

Question 3.

Let those portions of land, the property of the Afghans, officers, &c., in the old jaghire, which were bestowed on them by Fyzoollah Khan, be confirmed and continued to them.

Answer 3.

This rests with the jaghiredar in the mehals of his jaghire.

Question 4.

Toolseram Khajanchee, who in consequence of the events of the times, went away and retired to Delhi, where the people belonging to Shaw Nizam-ud-Din and the Mahrattas molest him, and do not permit him to return; as the accounts of the Circar, those of the troops, and of the jaghire depend upon him, I hope that His Excellency will write to the Nazims of Delhi to prevent them from giving Toolseram molestation, that he may come here, and be replaced in his charge.

Answer 4.

The letter has been written by His Excellency.

Question 5.

Whatsoever property may have been forcibly seized by any one, at the time of the flight from Rampore, I hope an order may be issued by the Presence to the Nazim of Bareilly, to restore it to the proprietor on investigation.

Answer 5.

An answer, founded on justice, will be given by the Presence to whoever shall apply for his property and effects.

Question 6.

The Circar chucks, which were purchased by Fyzoollah Khan from Rajah

Khanmul, deceased, and have to this time been possessed by him, I now hope that an order may be issued to the Nazim of Bareilly to release them.

Question 7.

There are several places, lands, and chucks of villages, purchased by Sunnoo Khan, Golam Ally-ud-Deen Khan, &c., and other Afghans, which are exempt from the revenue of the Circar lands, and have been possessed by those persons, until they went to the foot of the hills; I hope that a perwannah of exemption will now be issued to the Nazim of Bareilly.

Answer 7.

The jaghiredar possesses the power of this Article in the mehals belonging to his jaghire.

Question 8.

I hope an order may be issued to the Nazim of Bareilly, relative to those who may reside in the villages belonging to the Vizier, and may commit robberies in the jaghire of Ahmed Ally Khan, and that the perwannah may be to this effect: "On investigation to punish the thieves, and to return the stolen property to the inhabitants of the jaghire."

Answer 8.

In this respect, whatever was the custom during the time of Fyzoollah Khan, will now be adhered to.

Question 9.

Let the duties receivable on the merchandize of the Afghans be continued as they were formerly, and let not the custom-house officers of the Circar demand more.

Answer 9.

The rule observed during the time of Fyzoollah Khan, in this respect, will now be adhered to.

Question 10.

During the time of Fyzoollah Khan, the concerns Dad-o-situl of the time of Haffiz Ramut, be they with whom they will, were stopped by the Vizier, so that no one could be molested on account of old concerns; now also, should any one apply to the Presence in this respect, let them not be listened to.

Answer 10.

Question II.

The village Sahebgunge, in per-gunnah Huzrutnagon, exempt from revenue, was bestowed in jaghire by Fyzoollah Khan on Sahet Roy, deceased: I hope that a perwannah may now be granted, continuing this village free.

Translation of a Khureeta addressed by His Highness the Nawab Mahomed Yoosuf Ali Khan of Rampore to the Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor of the N.-W. Provinces.

After paying the usual compliments, acknowledges receipt of the Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor's letter regarding a petition presented to the Government of India by Chowbey Girdharee Lall and other zemindars of the villages conferred in reward on His Highness in the districts of Moradabad and Bareilly, in which they pray that on the expiration of the present settlement, their proprietary rights may be maintained; and with reference to the confident hope expressed by the Lieutenant-Governor that he (the Nawab) will not fail to consider the rightful claims of the petitioners, begs to assure His Honour that if it please the Almighty the rights of these zemindars as well as those of others in the same situation, will be duly respected and regarded, inasmuch as he has made it a point of his administration to govern his subjects by the recognized principles of equity and justice which obtain under the British rule.

(True abstract translation.)

(Sd.) Deokurn Shookle, Translator.

No. IX.

Abstract Translation of a Khut from His Highness
Nawab Yoosuf Ali Khan, K.S.I.,—dated the 22nd
March 1864.

I understand that you have expressed a desire to rectify the mistakes that have occurred in the assignment to me by Government of certain villages in reward. I have much pleasure in intimating my willingness to comply with your wishes in the matter of the transfer of the villages of Pipura and Chuckerpore, assessed respectively at Rupees 662 and 1,019, situated within British territory, as desired by Government, on the following conditions:

1st.—That I continue in possession of them as Maafedar.

2nd.—That they be subject to the Civil, Criminal, and Revenue Regulations in force in British territory.

As regards your proposal to the exchange of Mouzahs Pipura and Chuckerpore (in Serowlee), assessed at Rupees 140 and 232, in lieu of Pipura, assessed at Rupees 286 and Bhikunpore at Rupees 225, in Pergunnah Chowmehla, I beg to inform you that I accept the exchange, confident that you have well considered the necessity for this arrangement.

No. X.

Translation of a Khut from His Highness Nawab Yoosuf Ali Khan Bahadoor of Rampur, K.S.I.,— dated the 7th June 1864.

Your kind letter, with enclosures, dated 5th instant, relative to land required free of cost for the railway line that may pass through my territory, has been duly received by me, and I beg to acquaint you in reply, that as I consider myself bound, in appreciation of the favors conferred on me by Her Majesty's Government, to comply with the wishes of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India, I have no objection to make over the land for the purpose required.

No. XI.

Translation of a Khut from His Highness the Nawab Yoosuf Ali Khan Bahadoor, K.S.I.,—dated the 23rd December 1864.

I have much pleasure in acknowledging receipt of your communication dated 16th December 1864, with its enclosures, from the Government, North-Western Provinces, No. 222A., dated 1st October 1864, enquiring whether the land required for railway purposes from this State is to be given up to Government in full sovereignty, and whether, after the completion of the line, the goods in transit through my territory will be subject to any duty.

In reply, I beg to inform you that I have no hesitation in giving up the land in full sovereignty to the British Government. As regards the levy of duty on goods passing through my territory, I beg to state that Government in orders, No. , dated 15th April 1845, to the address of the Board, and to the Agent, Lieutenant-Governor, Rohilcund, No. 9, dated 8th May 1845, ruled that the 5,000 maunds of salt and 20 maunds of opium annually obtained by me from Oudh and elsewhere for consumption, should be exempted from duty on its transit to Rampore. Under these circumstances, all traffic that passes through my territory will be similarly exempted from duty; but if goods are exposed for sale in the market, they will be subject to the usual duty.

No. XII,

Adoption Sunnud granted to Nawab Mohamed Yoosuf Ali Khan, of Rampore,—11th March 1862.

Her Majesty being desirous that the governments of the several Princes and Chiefs of India who now govern their own territories should be perpetuated, and that the representation and dignity of their houses should be continued, I hereby, in fulfilment of this desire, convey to you the assurance that, on failure of natural heirs, any succession to the Government of your State which may be legitimate according to Mahomedan law will be upheld.

Be assured that nothing shall disturb the Engagement thus made to you so long as your house is loyal to the Crown and faithful to the conditions of the Treaties, Grants, or Engagements which record its obligations to the British Government.

11th March 1862.

(Sd.) Canning.
No. XIII.

Translation of the Agreement entered into by Nawab Mahomed Kulb Ali Khan Bahadoor, of Rampore, dated the 15th Ramzan 1828, Higree, corresponding with 10th June 1865 A.D.

NO. XVI.

AGREEMENT entered into between His Excellency the Governor-General of India and His Highness the Nawab of Rampur, 1899.

Whereas His Highness Nawab Muhammad Hamid Ali Khan Bahadur, Farzand Dilpizir Daulat Englishiah, Nawab of Rampur, maintains a force of Imperial Service Troops for the purpose of co-operating, if need be, in the defence of the British Empire, and

Whereas it is necessary that the Imperial Service Troops of the Rampur State, when associated with troops of the British Army, should be under the orders of the Officer Commanding the combined forces, and subject to the like discipline and control as the officers and soldiers of Her Majesty's Indian Army, and

Whereas it is not the wish or intention of the Government of India that a British officer should be appointed to command any corps of Imperial Service Troops, though British officers are employed in order to instruct and inspect the said troops,

It is hereby agreed between the Governor-General of India of the one part and His Highness Nawab Muhammad Hamid Ali Khan Bahadur, Farzand Dilpizir Daulat Englishiah, Nawab of Rampur, of the other, as follows, namely—

1. Whenever the said troops or any portion thereof are moved beyond the frontier of the said State, they shall be attached to the command and under the orders of the Officer Commanding the District, Contingent or Force in which they are employed, and such officer shall, by virtue of this agreement, be authorised to administer in respect to the said troops, so serving, the military laws and regulations to which they are subject under the laws of the said State, and for that purpose and for the due preservation of discipline among the same, to convene all such courts, and to issue all such orders, and to pass all such judgments and sentences, and generally to exercise all such authority as may be lawfully convened, issued, passed and exercised by the authorities of the Rampur State, when the said troops are serving within the territorial limits of the said State: Provided always that the execution of every sentence so passed in British territory shall be carried out under the orders of His Highness Nawab Muhammad Hamid Ali Khan Bahadur, Farzand Dilpizir Daulat Englishiah, Nawab of Rampur, or of some persons to whom the requisite authority has been delegated by him.
2. In order further to ensure efficiency of the said Imperial Service Troops, and the maintenance of discipline among them when serving along with Her Majesty's forces, the said His Highness Nawab Muhammad Hamid Ali Khan Bahadur, Farzand Dilpizir Daulat Englishia, Nawab of Rampur, has embodied in the disciplinary law of his State, applicable to the said Imperial Service Troops when employed on active service either within or without British India, the provisions, mutatis mutandis, of the Indian Articles of War for the time being in force. The due application and enforcement of the said provisions in respect of the Imperial Service Troops aforesaid shall be carried out under the authority of the Officer Commanding the District, Contingent or Force aforesaid.

No. XVII.

AGREEMENT entered into by His Highness the Nawab of Rampur, dated the 13th September 1899.

I, Nawab Mohamed Hamid Ali Khan, Bahadur, Farzand Dilpizir Daulat Englishia, Nawab of Rampur State, hereby cede to the British Government full and exclusive power and jurisdiction of every kind over the lands in the said State, which are, or may hereafter be, occupied by the Bareilly-Rampur-Moradabad Railway (including all lands occupied for stations, for out-buildings and for other railway purposes), and over all persons and things whatsoever within the said lands.

The 13th September 1899.

Hamid Ali Khan,
Nawab of Rampur.

H. Z. Darrah,
Offg. Commr., Rohilkhand Division, and Agent to the Lieut.-Gouv., N.-W. P., for Rampur.
II.—GARHWAL OR TEHRI.

The early history of the Garhwal Rajas is obscure. They claim descent from the Solar race, and are of the Kshatriya caste. For many generations the chiefs had absolute sway over the whole of Garhwal on both sides of the Alaknanda, paying, however, a nominal tribute to the Emperors of Delhi. The first Raja of the line was Kanak Pal. Kalyan Sah, the 38th prince of the line, was invested with the title of "Sah" by the Emperor Nasir-ud-din of Delhi; from this time the Rajas of Tehri have been styled "Sah."

In 1804 the Nepalese extended their conquests to Garhwal and expelled Raja Pradyumna (or Parduman) Sah, who took refuge in the plains. He collected a force of some 12,000 men, with whom he entered the Dun, having resolved to make an attempt to recover his kingdom. In this he was unsuccessful, and in an action fought at Khurbura near Dehra, he perished with most of his Garhwali retainers (January 1804). His son, Sudarshan Sah, having escaped from the Gurkhas, fled to the plains and joined the English.

On the termination of the Nepal war in 1815 that portion of his hereditary possessions which lay to the west of the Alaknanda river was restored in 1820 to Raja Sudarshan Sah by Sanad (No. XVIII); the lands to the east of the rivers Alaknanda and Mandakini, the Dehra Dun, and the pargana of Raingarh were retained by the British Government.

During the mutinies of 1857 the Raja rendered valuable assistance to Government. He died in June 1859 without legitimate issue, and in accordance with the terms of the treaty the State lapsed to Government; but in consideration of the services of Sudarshan Sah, his eldest illegitimate son, Bhawani Singh, was allowed to succeed (No. XIX). Bhawani Singh subsequently (in 1862) received a Sanad (No. XX), guaranteeing him the right of adoption. Raja Bhawani Singh died in December 1871, and was succeeded by his eldest son, Pratap Sah. On the occasion of the Delhi Darbar, held on the 1st January 1877, Raja Pratap Sah was granted a personal salute of 11 guns, which was subsequently changed in 1878 to a permanent salute. He died in February 1887, and was succeeded by his son, Kirti Sah, who was born on the 19th January 1874. During the latter’s minority a Council of Regency was formed, presided over by Guleria, mother of the Raja. Kirti Sah was installed on the 17th March 1892, the Council being retained as a consultative one. In 1898 the Council was abolished altogether. The Raja, who was educated at the Mayo College, Ajmer, married a daughter of Rana Padamjung, son of Maharaja Jang Bahadur of Nepal, by whom he has a son and heir, Tika Sahib Narendra Sah, born on the 3rd August 1898.
Kirti Sah was created a Companion of the Star of India in 1899, and a Knight Commander of the same Order in 1903. He visited Europe in 1900.

In 1865 Raja Bhawani Sing leased (No. XXI) his forests for Rs. 10,000 a year to the British Government for a period of 20 years, with effect from the 1st May 1864. The lease was renewed in 1885 for another 20 years by Raja Pratab Sah for Rs. 12,000 a year (No. XXII), but in June 1887 Government relinquished the Sheopuri portion of the forests and the rent was reduced to Rs. 9,000. On the expiry of the lease in 1905 the present Raja granted a fresh one (No. XXIII) for 20 years on terms somewhat more favourable to himself. He also leased certain Chir forests in the Tons Valley in 1895 for 20 years (No. XXIV).

The area of the Tehri State is 4,180 square miles; and the population 268,885, according to the census of 1901. The land revenue is Rs. 95,800 and the total revenue from all sources averaged during the last three years about Rs. 6,30,000. The State has (1904) 111 sepoys and 2 serviceable guns.

Nazarana is taken on succession.

The Raja is entitled to a salute of 11 guns, fixed in 1878.
No. XVIII.

Sunnud granted to the Rajah of Gurhwal under the seal and signature of the Governor-General—dated 4th March 1820.

Whereas the Provinces heretofore forming the Raj of Gurhwal have come into the possession of the British Government, and whereas Rajah Soodersun Sah, a descendant of the ancient Rajah of that country, has evinced his zeal and attachment to the British Government, the Governor-General in Council has conferred on Soodersun Sah, his heirs and successors, in perpetuity on the conditions hereinafter expressed, the whole of the Territory of Gurhwal, with the following exceptions, that is to say, 1st.—The districts situated to the eastward of the River Aliakumunda, and to the eastward of the River Mundagunnee, above its confluence with the afore-mentioned river. 2ndly.—The Deyrah Dhoon. 3rdly.—The Pergunnah of Raeen Gurh. It will be the duty of the Rajah to make such settlement of the country now conferred upon him as shall be calculated to promote the happiness and welfare of the inhabitants, and to govern his subjects with justice, and to collect the revenues which he will appropriate to his own use. He is further required to prohibit and prevent the traffic in slaves, which is forbidden by the Regulations of the British Government. Whenever the British Government shall have occasion to require from the Rajah assistance in Begars, or supplies for the use of its troops, the Rajah is to provide the same to the extent of his ability, to afford every facility to the subjects of the British Government and others trading in his territory, or with the countries beyond it, and is at all times to conform to the directions of the British Government and its officers. The Rajah is not to alienate or mortgage any part of his possessions without the knowledge and consent of the British Government. While these conditions shall be faithfully observed, the British Government will guarantee the Rajah and his posterity in the secure possession of the country now conferred upon him and will defend him against his enemies.

The 4th March 1820.

Translation of a Sunnud granting the Territory of Gurhwal to Rajah Bhowan Singh—dated 6th September 1859.

Be it known to the chowdhories, canongoes and zemindars of the Gurhwal Ilqa, that the Chief of Gurhwal having died, leaving no legitimate issue, the above territory has lapsed to the Government, with proprietary rights therein, but in consideration of the firm attachment and steady friendship of the late Rajah, and the valuable services which he rendered in 1857, the Government has resolved to confer upon Bhowan Singh, son of the deceased, and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, the Territory of Gurhwal which was in the possession of the late Rajah, I therefore do hereby grant to Bhowan Singh and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, the title of Rajah, and the State of Gurhwal.

Be it also known that British subjects, both Native and European, shall have free access into the Rajah’s territories for commerce or otherwise; that they shall receive the same consideration and protection as the subjects of the Rajah; that the Government shall have power to make roads through the Gurhwal Territory, and that this grant has been made on condition of good behaviour and of service, military and political, in time of danger and disturbance.

ADOPTION SUNKUD granted to RAJAH BHOWAN SING, of GURHWAL—11th March 1862.

Her Majesty being desirous that the Governments of the several Princes and Chiefs of India, who now govern their own territories, should be perpetuated, and that the representation and dignity of their houses should be continued, in fulfilment of this desire this Sunnud is given to you to convey to you the assurance, that on failure of natural heirs the British Government will recognize and confirm any adoption of a successor made by yourself or by any future Chief of your State that may be in accordance with Hindoo law and the customs of your race.

Be assured that nothing shall disturb the Engagement thus made to you so long as your house is loyal to the Crown, and faithful to the conditions of the Treaties, Grants, or Engagements which record its obligations to the British Government.

NO. XXI.

AGREEMENT for the lease to the BRITISH GOVERNMENT of the forests in the territory of RAJAH BHOWANY SHAH, CHIEF of GURHWAL, for 20 years, from 1st May 1864 to 30th April 1884 A.D., entered into by RAJAH BHOWANY SHAH and LIEUTENANT-COLONEL H. RAMSAY, COMMISSIONER on behalf of GOVERNMENT—dated 2nd October 1865.

The conditions of this lease, which shall be equally binding on the Rajah and the said Government, are set forth in the following paragraphs:

1st.—The Rajah Bhowany Shah hereby makes over in lease to the British Government all the forests of his territory, and declares that all his right, title and interest in the timber and trees standing or felled lying within his said territory, is hereby transferred to the said Government, and the said Government is competent to appoint a Conservator with the requisite establishment for the protection of those forests.

2nd.—The said Government is authorised to take steps for the more complete conservation of any portion of the Deodar Forest comprised within the forests hereby leased to it, and may prohibit the grazing of cattle, or opening of thoroughfares therein, but so that no person is thereby made to suffer loss within such portion of forest, and the said Government may, from time to time, issue such orders as it may think proper for the more effectual protection of the trees.

3rd.—No person save the said Government shall have the right to cut or carry away timber (from the forests), but the privilege hereto enjoyed by the ryots of taking wood for building houses, for burning, for making ploughs, and generally for agricultural purposes, shall continue intact.

4th.—No person shall be entitled to clear ground for building in the Deodar Forest, nor shall any one be permitted to cultivate the cleared ground in the midst of such forest.

5th.—The Rajah shall aid to the utmost of his power in the protection of the forests, and in the punishment of persons infringing the forest rules and regulations.

6th.—The rules and regulations laid down by the Conservator in regard to the forests having been approved by the Rajah, shall be enforced, and the Rajah shall regard any infringement of those rules as an offence, and shall punish the offender.

7th.—The forest lying in Juanpoor shall be exempted from the conditions of this lease for two years, but after the 1st May 1866, it shall be deemed to be included in this lease.

8th.—The Rajah shall be competent to take whatever timber he may need for his personal use, or for the private requirements of his family.

9th.—The British Government shall be entitled to make roads which may require to pass through fields containing standing crops, but shall be bound to make compensation for the loss thereby inflicted; on such compensation being paid, the Rajah will not object to the construction of the road.

10th.—The said Government shall have power to float down timber by means of streams, or open out roads for their conveyance, and to levy a tax on all timber floated down such streams or carried by such roads within the Rajah's territory. If any person shall float timber down such stream without having the Conservator's pass by him, or if the timber shall not correspond with the description given in the pass, such timber shall be deemed the property of Government, and the Conservator or his subordinate shall have power to confiscate it.

11th.—The sum of Rs. 10,000 shall be paid yearly by the British Government on fulfilment of the above recorded provisions, as consideration for the lease of all the Forests in the Rajah's territory.
12th.—The above recorded provisions shall hold good for 20 years from the 1st May 1864, but on expiration of that period, the British Government shall be competent to continue the lease for another term of 20 years, and similarly on expiration of the second term of 20 years shall be entitled to renew it for a further term, but the consideration to be paid for each such subsequent lease shall be determined by mutual agreement and consent of both parties, viz., of the British Government and the Rajah Sahib.

This agreement shall be signed by both the contracting parties, and one copy of it shall be deposited with the British Government, and another copy be kept by the Rajah.

Executed this 2nd day of October 1865.

NO. XXII.

RENEWED LEASE of TEHRI FORESTS executed in 1885.

1. The Raja Partab Sah of Tehri hereby places at the disposal of the British Government the deodar forests in the Tons and Pabar valleys and the Sheopuri forests within his territory, the boundaries of which are set out in the schedule annexed. No person save the said Government shall have the right to take timber out of the said forests; but any privileges hitherto enjoyed by the ryots of taking wood for building houses, for burning, for making ploughs, and generally for agricultural purposes, shall continue intact.

2. The said Government is authorised to take steps for the more complete conservation of any portion of the forests hereby placed at its disposal. The said Government may prohibit the grazing of cattle or opening of thoroughfares therein, with due regard to the existing privileges of villages which have hitherto exercised the right of grazing; and the Conservator of Forests may from time to time issue such further orders, with the approval of the Raja, as he may think proper for the more effectual protection of the trees.

3. No person shall be entitled to clear ground for building in the forest referred to in clause 2, nor shall any one be permitted to cultivate on the cleared ground in the midst of such forests.

4. The Raja shall aid to the utmost of his power in the protection of the forests and in the punishment of persons infringing the forest rules and regulations.

5. The rules and regulations laid down by the Conservator in regard to the forests having been approved by the Raja, shall be enforced, and the Raja shall regard any infringement of those rules as an offence and shall punish the offender.

6. The Raja shall be competent to take whatever timber he may need for his personal use or for the private requirements of his family.
7. The British Government shall be entitled to make roads which may require to pass through fields containing standing crops, but shall be bound to make compensation for the loss thereby inflicted. On such compensation being paid, the Raja will not object to the construction of the road.

8. The sum of Rupees 12,000 shall be paid yearly by the British Government in fullilment of the above recorded provisions as consideration for the lease.

9. The above recorded provision shall hold good for twenty years from the 1st May 1885, and on the expiry of that period the British Government shall be entitled to renew it for a further term; but the consideration for such subsequent lease shall be determined by mutual agreement and consent of both parties (namely, of the British Government and of the Raja of Tehri) and based upon the fair value of the timber to be annually taken out. One copy of this Agreement, after it has been signed by or on behalf of both the contracting parties, shall be deposited with the British Government and another copy shall be kept by the Raja.

NOTE.—The above lease was submitted to the Government of India, Home Department (Forests), under letter No. 244-F.—12-59, dated 20th April 1885. Since its execution the Sheopuri Forests have been relinquished (30th June 1887) by Government, and instead of Rs. 12,000 (Article 8) Rs 9,000 are now paid by the British Government.

No. XXIII.

Lease of Tehri Forests executed in 1904.

This Indenture made the ninth day of September 1904 between H. H. Raja Sir Kirti Sah, of Tehri, of the one part, and the Secretary of State for India in Council (hereinafter called "the Secretary of State") of the other part.

Whereas by an indenture of lease executed on the first day of May 1885 the forests lands specified in the Schedule thereto attached (together with certain other lands) were demised by the then Raja of Tehri, H. H. Raja Partab Sah, to the Secretary of State for a term of twenty years commencing from the 1st day of May 1885, and whereas the said Raja Sir Kirti Sah, the present Raja of Tehri, (hereinafter called "the Raja") has agreed to grant to the Secretary of State a fresh lease in respect of the forest lands specified in the Schedule A hereto attached (hereinafter called the "forests") and more particularly delineated in the plan or map hereunto appended, upon the terms and conditions hereinafter appearing, now this indenture witnesseth and it is hereby agreed between the parties hereto that in consideration of the covenants hereinafter set forth and of the sums agreed to be paid by the Secretary of State to the said Raja, the said Raja doth hereby demise unto the Secretary of State for a period of twenty years commencing from the date at which the said lease of first of May 1885 shall terminate, that is to say, for a period of twenty years from the first day of May 1905 all the forest lands specified in the Schedule A hereto attached (hereinafter called "the forests") and more particularly delineated in the plan or map hereunto appended upon the following conditions, that is to say:

1. The Secretary of State shall have the exclusive right to remove timber from the said forests subject to the right hereby reserved of the said Raja to remove such timber as he may require for his personal use or for the private and personal requirements of his own family.

2. The Secretary of State shall maintain and permit the privileges hitherto enjoyed by ryots of removing wood for building purposes, for burning, for ploughs and for agricultural purposes generally.

3. The Secretary of State shall be entitled to take such steps as he may deem necessary for the protection and conservation of the said forests and subject to the grazing privileges hitherto accorded may prohibit and control the grazing of cattle or the opening of new thoroughfares in the said forests and may from time to time with the approval of the said Raja issue such further rules and regulations as may be deemed expedient for the protection and conservation of the said forests.

4. No person shall be permitted to clear land for the purpose of building or cultivation within the said forests without the previous permission of the Secretary of State.

5. The Raja shall aid to the utmost of his power in the protection and conservation of the said forests and shall punish all persons infringing the orders, rules and regulations prescribed for the said forests.
6. The Secretary of State shall be entitled to construct such buildings, slides, roads, bridges, or other works as may by him be deemed necessary for the exploitation of the forests provided that he shall in every case give fair and reasonable compensation for any loss or damage occasioned thereby to standing crops.

7. The Secretary of State shall pay to the said Raja eighty per cent. of the net profits accruing from the use of the said forests and shall render yearly accounts to the said Raja paying to him the said percentage at the Dehra Dun Treasury on or before the 1st day of August in every year commencing from the 1st day of August 1906.

8. In preparing the said accounts, all direct charges incurred on account of buildings, roads, planting operations, fire protection, export works and the like, shall be included under the heading of expenditure, and the Division and Direction charges shall be based on the proportion that the total gross revenue and expenditure of the forests herein leased bear to the whole revenue and expenditure respectively of the Division and of the Circle, exclusive of the Direction Division.

9. On the expiration of the said period of twenty years covered by these presents the Secretary of State shall have the option of renewal of these presents for a further term of twenty years, but the consideration to be paid for such renewal shall be determined by the mutual agreement and consent of both the parties hereto.

No. XXIV.

LEASE of the Tehri CHIR FORESTS executed in 1895.

AN AGREEMENT made the 6th day of June One thousand eight hundred and ninety-five between His Highness Raja Kirti Sah of Tehri (hereinafter called "the Raja") and the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India in Council (hereinafter called "the Secretary of State").

Whereas the Raja has agreed to lease certain portions of Chir forests in the Tons valley situated within his territory being 46,143 acres in extent or thereabouts to the Secretary of State for a term of 20 years, the said lease to be renewable on its expiry for a further term of 20 years.

AND WHEREAS the said portions of the Chir forests have been demarcated by the officers of the Forest Department in conjunction with officials deputed by the Tehri Darbar:

NOW IT IS HEREBY AGREED as follows:—

1. In consideration of the sum to be paid as hereinafter mentioned, the Raja hereby leases to the Secretary of State for a term of 20 years the aforesaid portions of the Chir forests in the Tons valley, the portions of the Chir forests hereby leased (hereinafter referred to as the "leased forests") being delineated in the map attached to these presents and their boundaries more particularly set forth in the schedule hereto.

2. The Secretary of State shall pay yearly to the Tehri Darbar a sum representing 80 per cent. of the net annual profits accruing from the leased forests.

3. No person save the Secretary of State shall have the right to take Chir timber out of the leased forests; but any privileges hitherto enjoyed by the ryots of taking wood for building houses, for burning, for making ploughs, and generally for agricultural purposes, shall continue and be maintained intact.

4. The Secretary of State is authorized to take steps for the more complete conservation of any portion of the leased forests, and he may prohibit the grazing of cattle or opening of thoroughfares therein, with due regard to the existing privileges of villages which have hitherto exercised the right of grazing, etc., and the Conservator of Forests may from time to time issue such further orders, with the approval of the Raja, as he may think proper, for the more effectual protection of the trees.

(5) No person shall be entitled to clear land for building purposes in the leased forests, or be permitted to cultivate any ground within the boundaries of the leased forests.

(6) The Raja shall aid to the utmost of his power in the protection of the leased forests and in the punishment of persons infringing the forest rules and regulations, but cannot be responsible for such infringements.

(7) The rules and regulations laid down by the Conservator of Forests in regard to the leased forests having been approved by the Raja shall be enforced, and the Raja shall regard any infringement of these rules as an offence, and shall punish the offender.

(8) The Raja shall be entitled to take whatever timber he may need for his personal use, or for the private requirements of his family.

(9) The Secretary of State shall be entitled to make any roads which he may require for the proper management of the leased forests; but if such roads are constructed in fields whether containing standing crops or not, he shall be bound to make compensation for any damage thereby caused.

(10) A balance-sheet showing the receipts and expenditure in connection with the management of the leased forests shall be sent annually for the information of the Darbar. Only such forest establishment as is specially and solely employed in working the forests shall be shown in the expenditure, and the total expenditure shall be limited to Rs. 4,000 a year or thereabouts.

(11) This agreement shall hold good for 20 years from 1st November 1895, and on the expiry of that period the Secretary of State shall be entitled to a renewal of it on the same terms and conditions for a further period of 20 years; provided always that the consideration for such further period shall be open to revision on the mutual agreement and consent of both parties.

(12) One copy of this agreement, after it has been signed by or on behalf of both the contracting parties, shall be deposited with the Government of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh on behalf of the Secretary of State, and another copy shall be made over to the Raja.

III.—FARRUKHABAD.

Before the cession of Rohilkhand to the British Government the Farrukhabad territory was almost entirely surrounded by the dominions of the Wazir of Oudh. A tribute of Rs. 4,50,000 was paid by the Nawab Rais of Farrukhabad to the Wazir. This tribute was ceded to the British Government by the Treaty with the Wazir of the 10th November 1801 (No. XLVII). In 1802 the Nawab ceded (No. XXV) the sovereignty of the province to the British Government, who settled on him and his heirs and successors a stipend of Rs. 1,08,000 a year.

The last Nawab Rais of Farrukhabad, Tafazzul Husain, rebelled in 1857. He surrendered on the 7th January 1859 under the proclamation of amnesty, and was tried before a Special Commission on various counts, charging him, first, with rebelling and waging war against the British Government, and acting as a leader and instigator in revolt; and, secondly, with being a principal and accessory, both before and after the fact, to the murder of many British subjects, Eurasian and Native. He was convicted and sentenced to death, and all his property was adjudged to be confiscated. But it came out on the trial, and was pleaded by the prisoner as a bar to the execution of the sentence, that before his surrender a letter had been written to him by Major Barrow, the Special Commissioner with the camp of the Commander-in-Chief, in which he was invited to surrender; and that in this letter he was told that pardon had been extended to all who had not personally committed the murder of British subjects, and that if he had not personally committed the murder of British subjects he might surrender without apprehension. Government condemned and disavowed this act of Major Barrow, but forebore in consequence of it from carrying out the capital sentence, on condition that Tafazzul Husain should immediately quit the British territories for ever. He was carried to Aden and sent across the frontier in the direction of Mecca, and warned that, if ever he set foot on British territory, the sentence of death which had been passed upon him would be carried out.

Tafazzul Husain died at Mecca on the 19th February 1882. His son, Asghar Husain Khan, is still alive and in receipt of a hereditary pension of Rs. 260-0-5 a month.

As regards the Treaty of 1802, it was held that, as between the British Government and the Nawab Rais, the treaty was cancelled by Tafazzul Husain's rebellion, but that this breach of engagement by Tafazzul Husain did not of itself affect the right of third parties recognized or created by the treaty. The pension guaranteed by Article 2, and the property and annual payments guaranteed by Articles 3, 4, and 7, were therefore resumed, and a small subsistence allowance was granted to those who were dependent on these payments and had no other means of support, provided they took no part in and gave no encouragement to rebellion. But the pensions guaranteed by Article 5 and the rent-free land and jagirs alluded to in Article 8 were continued to the holders, provided they were not implicated in rebellion, and did not hold their pensions or lands on condition of service, the performance of which was no longer possible. These pensions have now been commuted to a large extent.
No. XXV.

TREATY with the NABOB of FURRUCKABAD—4th June 1802.

Treaty between the Honourable East India Company and the Nabob Imdad Hoossain Khan, for ceding to the Honourable the East India Company, in perpetual sovereignty, the province of Furruckabad and its dependencies, in commutation of the tribute hitherto payable by the said Nabob to the Honourable Company, concluded on the one part by the Honourable Henry Wellesley, Lieutenant-Governor of the Ceded Provinces in Oudh, by virtue of full powers vested in him for that purpose by His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General, and on the other part by the Nabob Imdad Hoossain Khan Behauder, Nasser Jung, on behalf of himself, his heirs and successors.

ARTICLE 1.

It is hereby stipulated and agreed that the province of Furruckabad and its dependencies shall be ceded, in perpetual sovereignty, to the Honourable the East India Company, from the commencement of the Fussel e year 1210, the Nabob transferring to the Company his right and property in the same, with the exceptions hereafter mentioned.

ARTICLE 2.

With a view of providing for the maintenance and dignity of the Nabob Imdad Hoossain Khan Behauder, it is agreed that he shall receive a monthly allowance of nine thousand Rupees (or one lakh and eight thousand Rupees annually) which allowance shall be continued to his heirs and successors, and shall not be subject to any diminution, from any cause whatsoever. And it is further agreed that the said Nabob shall be treated on all occasions with the attention, respect, and honour due to his rank and situation, and to a friend of the British Government.

ARTICLE 3.

The Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor engages that two thousand Rupees yearly shall be allowed for the expenses of the Imaumbarah; and that the amount of three thousand six hundred Rupees yearly, for the payment of the allowances to the separate mehals of the late Nabob Mozuffer Jung, hitherto paid by Omroo Begum, shall be distributed hereafter by the Nabob, who shall deliver the receipts for the same to the Company's Civil Officer; provided it should be found that these allowances have not been regularly paid by Omroo Begum.

ARTICLE 4.

In compliance with the Nabob's desire, the gardens formerly the property of his father, the village of Sereyah Neamutpoor, the forfeited houses in Furruckabad, and the property of the Ranee Souheb, shall be considered as his exclusive property, if there should appear to be no other person legally entitled to such property.
ARTICLE 5.

As the detailed list given in by the Nabob, of family connections and attendants, under the head of pensions, and the list delivered in by Kherud Mund Khan, are in many respects different, and as it is the intention of the British Government that provision should be made for persons whose claims to pensions shall appear to be well founded, it is hereby agreed that the rights of the different claimants shall be inquired into by the civil officer appointed by the British Government, in conjunction with the Nabob, and that Sunnuds shall be granted, under their joint seals and signatures, agreeably to which Sunnuds the pensioners shall be paid by the Nabob, who will deliver their receipts to the Company’s Civil Officer.

ARTICLE 6.

The authority of the Court of Adawlut shall not extend to the person of the Nabob; but as his connections and dependants are undefined, and as it is the object of the British Government to introduce a fair and impartial administration of justice throughout the province of Furruckabad, it is agreed that whatever complaints may be preferred against any of the Nabob’s dependants, shall, in the first instance, be referred to the Nabob, and, in the event of the complainant not receiving speedy justice, or being dissatisfied with the Nabob’s decision, the complaint shall be decided in the Court of Adawlut.

ARTICLE 7.

In compliance with the Nabob’s request, allowances shall be granted to the undermentioned persons, to be continued so long as their conduct shall be satisfactory to the British Government and to the Nabob:

- Emaum Khan ... Rs. 5,000 annually.
- Parmul Khan and Muhammad Khan... 5,000
- Rhodan Buksh, Phi Vakeel, on the part of the Nabob, to attend the Civil Officer appointed to Furruckabad... 4,000
- Ahmed Buksh and Muhammad Zellah... 2,000

ARTICLE 8.

The rent-free lands, the daily and yearly pensions, and the jaghires, shall be continued, if upon a fair investigation they shall appear to have been established previously to the death of Mozuffer Jung.

ARTICLE 9.

This Treaty, consisting of nine Articles, having been settled and concluded at the City of Bareilly, on the 4th day of June 1802, corresponding with the 3rd day of Suffer, 1217 Hegira, the Honourable Henry Wellesley, Lieutenant-Governor of the Ceded Provinces in Oudh, has delivered to the Nabob Imdad Hoossain Khan, Nasser Jung Behaudee, a copy of the same in English and Persian, under his seal and signature, and the said Nabob has delivered to the Honourable Henry Wellesley, Lieutenant-Governor of the Ceded Provinces, another copy of the same, under his seal and signature, and the Honourable Henry Wellesley engages to procure within the space of thirty days, a ratification of the Treaty, under the seal and signature of His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General.

(Sd.)
HENRY WELLESLEY.

N.B.—This Treaty was ratified by the Governor-General in Council, the 24th June 1802.
IV.—BENARES.

This family was founded by Mansa Ram, Zamindar of Gangapur, who died in 1740, and was succeeded by his son, Raja Balwant Singh. Balwant Singh joined Shah Alam and Shuja-ud-Daula in their invasion of Bengal in 1763. He joined the British camp with the Emperor after the battle of Baxar, and in the arrangements made with the Emperor in 1764,* his zamindari was transferred from Oudh to the British Government. The arrangements thus made were disapproved by the Home Government, and when the Treaty of 1765 was concluded with Shuja-ud-Daula, the estate of Raja Balwant Singh was restored to Oudh, the Nawab engaging to continue him in possession on condition of his paying the same revenue as before (see Art. 5 of Treaty of 1765, No. XXXIV).

In 1770, on the death of Balwant Singh, the Wazir of Oudh wished to dispossess the family, but the British Government compelled him to recognize the succession of Chait Singh (son of Balwant Singh by a Rajput mistress) and to grant him (in 1773) a Sanad (No. XXVI) under their guarantee. By the Treaty concluded with the Nawab Wazir of Oudh in 1775 (No. XXXIX) the sovereignty of the districts dependent on Raja Chait Singh was ceded in perpetuity to the British Government. A Sanad (No. XXVII) was however given to the Raja in 1776 confirming him in his zamindari, and the civil and criminal administration thereof, subject to an annual net payment of Sicca Rupees 22,66,180, and on condition of his adopting measures for the interest and security of the country and the preservation of the peace. The Raja was also allowed to coin money.

In 1778 it was proposed that the Raja should be required to pay a subsidy of five lakhs of rupees for the maintenance of three battalions of sepoys. He consented to the arrangement for one year. The contribution was again levied in 1779 and in 1780, and the Raja was also required to employ his cavalry for the general service of the State. Chait Singh manifested great reluctance to meet these demands and to fulfil his feudal obligations to the British Government. He was also believed to be secretly disaffected and to have corresponded with the enemies of the British Government, and he was therefore put under arrest in his own house in September 1781, by order of Warren Hastings, the Governor General, who had proceeded in person to Benares to confer with the Raja. A tumult ensued, in which the military guard over the Raja were cut down and the Raja escaped. Chait Singh collected his troops, and appealed for aid to some of the princes of Hindustan. But his troops were defeated in several petty skirmishes, and the rebellion was crushed. Raja Chait Singh was deprived of his estate, which was given in September 1781 (No. XXVIII) to his nephew, Raja Mahip Narayan, lineal grandson of Raja Balwant Singh by a daughter, the offspring of his wife, Rani Gulab Kunwar, on payment of a yearly tribute of forty lakhs of Benares Sicca Rupees, subject to deductions as compensation for the loss of certain rights enjoyed by his predecessors (No. XXIX). The civil and criminal administration of the city of Benares, together with the power of the mint, were taken out of the new Raja’s hands. Raja Chait Singh took refuge with Sindhiya, and died at Gwalior in 1810.

In 1794 an Agreement (No. XXX) was concluded with Raja Mahip Narayan for the purpose of introducing into the province of Benares the same system of judicial and revenue administration as had been established in 1793 in the provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, the Raja agreeing to accept one lakh of rupees a year in commutation of his rights in the province, exclusive of the jagirs and altomgha grants constituting his Family Domains; in these the Raja or his officers were to retain jurisdiction in revenue matters or charity ground, etc., subject to the Collector’s advice and the orders of the Governor General in Council.

Raja Mahip Narayan died in September 1794, and was succeeded by his son, Udit Narayan Singh. On the 30th September 1796 Udit Narayan Singh was granted a Sanad (No. XXXI). In 1826 Mr. W. W. Bird was appointed Special Commissioner to enquire into the grievances which were alleged to be rife in the Family Domains, especially in the pargana of Bhadodi. In consequence of Mr. Bird’s report Bengal Regulation VII of 1828 was passed, and was amended subsequently by Act XIV of 1881.

Raja Udit Narayan Singh died on the 4th April 1833, and was succeeded by his nephew and adopted son, Ishwari Prasad Narayan Singh, who was granted a Sanad (No. XXXII), dated the 29th July 1835. For his loyal services in the mutiny, he received from the Government of India in 1839, as a personal distinction, the title of “Maharaja Bahadur.” In March 1865 the Maharaja received the assurance by a Sanad (No. XXXIII) that, on failure of natural heirs, Government will permit and confirm any adoption of a successor made by himself or by any future Chief of his Estate that may be in accordance with Hindu law and the customs of his race. On the 1st January 1877 he was created a Knight Grand Commander of the Star of India. Maharaja Ishwari Prasad died in June 1889, and was succeeded by his nephew and adopted son, Prabhu Narayan Singh. The title of "Maharaja Bahadur" was conferred upon Prabhu Narayan Singh in the same year, together with the privilege, which was enjoyed by his immediate predecessor, of being addressed by the title of "Highness", both being personal distinctions. He was also created a Knight Grand Commander of the Indian Empire on the 1st January 1898.

The relations of the Raja with the paramount power in respect of his Family Domains are defined by Bengal Regulation VII of 1828, and Act XIV of 1881 passed in amendment thereof. In the management of the Family Domains the Raja exercises the powers of a Collector of Land Revenue, and as such is subordinate to the Superintendent appointed by the Government to supervise the general administration of the Domains. The Commissioner of the Benares Division is ex-officio Superintendent, but his judicial functions are delegated to the Deputy Superintendent, a member of the Civil Service specially appointed for the purpose. The Courts of the Family Domains maintained by the Raja exercise jurisdiction in revenue matters and civil disputes relating to land, subject to appeal to the Superintendent and the Board of Revenue of the United Provinces. The criminal administration is in the hands of the Magistrates of Benares and Mirzapur. Under the orders of the Government of India, a revenue settlement of the lands constituting the Family Domains was made by a British officer, the operations lasting from 1831 to 1836. A second settlement of the three parganas was carried out between 1864 and 1888. The Family Domains have been specially exempted from the operation of Act XVIII of 1871 (Road Cess Act), but by Act III of 1904 the Raja is empowered to levy a local rate from the tenants of the Domains, and to apply it to local purposes. The Domains are also exempted from the operations of the Patwaris Act, but the Raja levies a patwari cess and maintains a staff of kanungos and patwaris.

The Family Domains consist of the parganas of Kaswar Raja or Gangapur in the Benares district, and Kera Mangraur (or Chakia) and Bhadohi in the district of Mirzapur. Their area is 983 square miles, with a population, according to the census of 1901, of 438,544. The rental is estimated at Rs. 10,30,109 out of which Rs. 3,12,577 are paid as revenue to the British Government.

The Raja of Benares receives a salute of 13 guns, which was finally approved in Her Majesty's Order in Council of the 26th June 1867.
No. XXVI.

TRANSLATION of the new KOWLNAMA, or AGREEMENT, given by the Nawab Shujah-ul-Dowlah to Rajah Cheyt Sing,—6th September 1773.

The affairs of the zemindary and tahud of the Circar of Benares, and Circar Chunara, and of the mehals of Juanpoor, Bejeypoor, Buddohy, Suknesegurrah, Mulboos Khan, Circar Gazeepoor, Sikinderpoor, Khereed Shadeyabat, Toppeh Serinch, etc., which were under the charge of Rajah Bulwunt Sing, deceased, I do hereby grant and confirm unto you, upon their former footing: it is necessary that, after deducting the nankar and half of the jaghire of Buddohy, you monthly and annually pay into the treasury of the Circar the established and stated payments. By the favour of God, whatever is promotive of your honour shall be performed, and exclusive of the jumma specified in the kaboolat of the present Fussullee year 1178, no increase shall ever hereafter be demanded, and if you remain firm and steady in your obedience and in the payment of your rents, no harm shall, by any means, happen to your ryots or country. By the Word of God, and of the Holy Koran, and of the blessed Imaums, this Agreement is made between me and my heirs, and you and your heirs, and it shall never be deviated from.

Dated this 18th day of the moon Femmadi-e-ul-Saany, in the year 1177 Hegira, answering to the 6th September 1773 English style.

No. XXVII.

Translation of the Sunnud granted to Rajah Cheyt Sing, for the Zemindary of Gazeepore, Benares, etc.,—15th April 1776.

Be it known to the mutsuddies in office, present and to come, canongoes, mukudums, ryots, cultivators, to all the inhabitants and people resident and belonging to Circar Benares, Gazeepore, and Chunara, in the Soubah of Allahabad; that whereas, by virtue of a Treaty with the Nabob Ausul-ul-Dowlah, concluded on the 20th of Rubby-ul-Ewul, 1189 Hegira, or 21st of May 1775, the government and sovereignty of the Circars above-mentioned has been ceded to the Honourable East India Company, from the 4th of Jemmamie-ul-Awul, 1189 Hegira, or 4th July 1775; the said East India Company, therefore, pursuant to the rights thereby obtained, do confirm unto Rajah Cheyt Sing the zemindary, aumeeny, and foujedarry of the said Circars, agreeably to the zimmun, together with the kutwallies of Juanpore and Benares, and the Mint of Benares, from the said date. Whatever gold and silver shall be coined in the Mint, the said Rajah shall coin conformably to his muchulka; he is not to be in the smallest particular remiss in the observation and execution of the several duties incumbent on him. He is to behave with moderation and kindness to the ryots and people; to promote the cultivation and increase of inhabitants and produce of the lands; expelling thieves, nightly assaulters, and robbers; and so effectually punishing the disturbers of the peace, that no trace of them may be seen; and he is to pay a tribute of 23,40,249 Benares Muchleedar Rupees or 22,66,180 Calcutta Siccas, annually, to the Company's treasurers. Should he receive orders to pay the above revenue at Benares, he shall, in that case, pay the sum of 23,40,249 Benares Muchleedar Rupees, each rupee to weigh ten massa, and to contain two ruttees and two chowls of alloy, and no more: should the weight be less or the alloy more, he shall make up the deficiency. Whenever the money shall not be wanted at Benares, he is to remit the annual amount of 22,66,180 Sicca Rupees, punctually, agreeably to his kists, by monthly payments at Calcutta. In consideration of which he shall be allowed a deduction of 2 per cent., amounting in all to Sicca Rupees 44,434-14-5, account hindowunny, which being deducted, the net amount is 22,21,745-1-15 Sicca Rupees of Calcutta, which he is to pay at that place. After the settlement of accounts at the end of the year, he shall, in the customary manner, receive credit for his payments; and he is by no means to collect the prohibited Abwab of the Durgah of His Majesty. This Sunnud being granted is to remain in force. You, the mutsuddies and persons above-mentioned, are to regard the said Rajah as the truly and lawfully possessed of the zemindary, aumeeny, and foujedarry of the above Circars; and to acknowledge his authority in the several acts appertaining thereunto. Know that we have here issued the most strict and positive commands, and obey them accordingly.

Written on the 25th of Suffer, 17th Sun, or 15th April 1776.

Signed by the Governor-General and Council.
The Zimmun.

The office of the zemindary of Circar Benares, Gauzepore, Chandara, the kutwally, the duties of the Mint, in the Soubah of Allahabad, have been conferred upon the great Chief, Rajah Cheyt Sing Behauder, also the aumeeny and foujedarry.

Mehals 19, viz.:

Circar Benares, Chandara, Circar Gauzepore, Mehals of Jaunpore, comprehending maul and duties, Havely Mahumud Abad, Benares; the Labs Daums, or for supplying clothing to the King; Pergunnah Bhadury; the Talook of Sukramrow, in Chandar; Suktegar, Bidgepooor, Secunderpore, Threed; Shadyabad, Tuppa Seringa; the kutwally and duties of Benares, free; ditto ditto of Jaunpore, ditto; the mehal of the Mint of Benares, ditto; the Benares Mulkeemi, or brokeraje; the Sungwozinee, or stone-weighing of Benares, and the other mehals; yatesaundby, or office of Mutesaub of Benares.

POTTAH granted to CHEYT SING.

This Pottah, containing the underwritten stipulations, is granted unto Rajah Cheyt Sing Behauder.

Circar Benares, Gauzepore, Chunar, and the mehals of Circar of Jaunpore comprehending the maul and duties, Havely Mahumud Abad, Benares; the Khasdums in Pergunnah Bhaudry; Talook of Sunkeramrow, in Pergunnah Chunara; Suktesgurra, Bijeepoor, Circar Gauzepoor, Pergunnah Sekunderpore Khurreed, Shadyabad, Patna, Sirkunjia, including the kutwally duties of Jaunpore and Benares; the Mint of Benares; the mokeemy, yatisaub, and stone-weighing, both maul and duties; and the Dewanny dustoor, excepting the nankar of half the jaghire of Bhaudree, the exempted jaghire, and ayma, which have been inserted for a length of time in the accounts as deductions; all the articles of the Tahud are settled upon you from the 4th Jemmadie-ul-Auwul, 1189 Hegira, or the 4th July 1775 English, at a stipulation per annum of 23,40,249 Mahidar Benares Rupees, not short of the weight of ten massa each, and not containing a greater portion of alloy than two ruttees and two berinjies, agreeable to your muchulka and kabooleat. This sum you will therefore pay. But should it not suit the convenience of the Company to receive it at Benares, you are to pay it in Calcutta, in Sicca Rupees of Calcutta, amounting in which specie to 22,66,180 Sicca Rupees. The amount of the hoondeean, or exchange, allowed you at the rate of 2 per cent., is Rupees 44,434-14-5, which being deducted, the net sum will be 22,71,745-7-15 Sicca Rupees of Calcutta. This you are to pay without the least deduction or depreciation whatever in the course of each year, by monthly payments agreeable to your separate kistbundy. This you are to pay without any allowance for Sebundy. You will remit the money to Calcutta, without fail. conformable to the said kistbundy.

KABOOLEAT or AGREEMENT executed by RAJAH CHEYT SING, for the ZEMINDARY of BENARES, etc.

Whereas a Treaty has been concluded between the English East India Company and the Nabob Asoph-ul-Dowlah Chia Cawn Behauder, Huzzubber Jung, Nazim of the Soubah of Allahabad, under date the 20th of Rubbee-ul-Awul, 1189 Hegira, or the 21st of May 1775 Christian, whereby the sovereignty of the Circars Benares, Gazeeapore, Chunara, etc. hath been ceded to the English East India Company, from the 4th of Jammadie-ul-Awul 1189 Hegira, or the 4th July 1775 Christian, and the Company having granted the zemindary, the aumeeny, and the foujedarry of the aforesaid Circars, together with the kutwallies of Benares, and Juanpore, etc., and the Mint of Benares, unto me, from the above date; I do hereby voluntarily consent and agree, under my hand, that whatever coins shall be struck in the said Mint shall be conformable to a separate obligation which I have executed under date the 25th of Zhigâ, in the 17th year of the reign, and delivered to the Government for the Company. It shall be my duty to do everything that may be needful and usual for the interest and security of the country; provide for the welfare of the inhabitants; to be attentive to the increase of cultivation and improvement of the revenues; to use my endeavours in such manner to expel robbers and assassins, and to punish offenders of every kind that not a trace of them may be left. And I will pay the annual revenue of Government, being at Benares, Muchlidar Rupees of Benares 23,10,249, each Rupee to weigh no less than 10 massa, and to contain no more alloy than 2 ruttees and 2 chowls; any deficiency of this standard to be made good. If the Government shall not have occasion to receive the same at Benares, I will in such case pay it at Calcutta annually, by monthly payments, according to kistbundy, and conformably to the tufussul zile or particulars in the margin, the sum being Calcutta Sicca rupees 22,66,180, including nuzzerenah, etc., but deducting on account of hoondyan or exchange a premium of 2 per cent., which premium of 2 per cent., upon the whole sum, being Sicca Rupees 44,434-14-5, I will accordingly deduct before remitting the remainder to the Company's treasury at Calcutta, so that after the deduction of exchange I shall pay net and without further deduction into the treasury at Calcutta the sum of Calcutta Sicca Rupees 22,21,745-1-15 at the end of each year; after payment of the same and observing the conditions agreed upon, I shall receive a release or discharge in full, wherefore I have written this Agreement to be adhered to accordingly.

In the margin follows a list of monthly instalments.

Signed by the Raja.

Seal of the Rajah.

Dated 25th Suffer, 17th Sun, corresponding with the 15th April 1776 Christian.

Translation of Rajah Cheyt Sing's Agreement relative to duties.

Whereas the duties of the sayers dependent on me have been fixed and decreed in the presence of the Governor at the following rates, which are to be taken from the English and Indostan Merchants, without distinction; for this cause I give in writing that I will demand no more, nor will consent to an exemption in favour of any man, excepting broadcloth, and lead and copper purchased at the Company, which shall be accompanied by a letter from the Governor; on these I will consider the duties as excused and discontinued, nor in any respect interrupt or impede them.

KABOOLEAT of RAJAH MAHIPNARAIN BEHAUDER,—14th September 1781.

I, Rajah Mahipnarain Behauder:

Whereas, the zamindarry of the Circar of Benares and Chunar, and the mehals of the Circar of Jawenpoor, both maul and sayrer, and Havely Mahomedabad, Benares, and the daums of the Mulboos Khana, and the Pergunah Bheddohee, and the Talook of Sungramow, dependent on the Pergunah of Chanda, and Suktsugur and Cunteel, called Beedjeypoor, and the Circar of Gazeepoor, and the Pergunah of Secunderpore, and Kheerud and Shaaduabad, and Tuppee Serinchah, with the maul and sayrer and Kutwally of Jawenpoor, and the Moukeeenee and Yettisaub, and Sangwozinee of Benares, and the entire mehals, both maul and sayrer, with the dustoor dewanny of the Soubah Illahabad, besides the Mehal of Keeraghur, of which the mauIlguarry is appropriated to the Circar of the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Aosuf-ud-Dowlah Behauder, and the mehals of the jaghires held by the Rozeenadars, and the expenses agreeably to the Husubminhayeey, or account of deductions, has been given in perpetuity to me from the Honourable Company, at the fixed and perpetual yearly sum of forty lakhs of Benares Sicca Rupees, of full weight and standard, I have agreed to it, of my own free and entire will; and of that amount the sum of 6,666,666-10-10 (six lakhs, sixty-six thousand, six hundred and sixty-six Rupees, ten annas and ten gundas) having been remitted and deducted on account of the devastations, &c., in the two months' disturbances for this year 1189 Fussellee, I have acknowledged, without hesitation, the remaining sum of 33,333-5-10 (thirty-three lakhs, thirty-three thousand, three hundred and thirty-three Rupees, five annas and ten gundas) of Benares Sicca standard, to be due from me, as the Maulwajib of the Circar for the said year; and having written and delivered under my seal, upon a separate paper, the kistbundy of it, I engage and deliver in writing to this effect, that I will, agreeably to the kistbundy, month by month, without excuse or delay, duly pay the Khazana Aumeera of the Circar in the town of Benares; and at the end of the year I will take a receipt and discharge the whole. And the jumma of the next year, 1190 Fussellee, having been settled for the entire sum of forty lakhs of Benares Siccas, as the perpetual and fixed sum for every year, that I also do include in this kabooleat, and engage that I will without excuse or delay, agreeably to the kists of the same, discharge, month by month, the Khazana Aumeera of the Circar, and that I will, without fail, pay the money of the Rozeenadars, &c., conformably to the Husubminhayee, and take a receipt for it; and that employing myself in the duties and affairs in my zemindarry, I will not neglect or be deficient in any one point of diligence and care, but I will behave with the greatest attention to the ryots, and to all people of every rank; and I will exert my utmost abilities in the cultivation and population of the country, and the increase of the revenues, so that it may improve daily: and I will act with such vigour in expelling thieves, night robbers, murderers, and all evil-doers, that not one of them shall remain within my zemindarry, and that no crimes and offences shall be heard of. I have, therefore, delivered these few lines in the nature of kabooleat, that it may be made use of when necessary.

Dated the 1st of Assin, 1189 Fussellee, answering to the 14th September 1781.

Requests of Rajah Mahipnarain, to which he is hopeful that the Governor-General's signature may be affixed.

Article 1.

Of the Mint and the Adaalet, &c., agreeably to the following list, whatever part shall be divided from my bundobust, I hope that the receipts of that may be deducted in the maulguzarry. 1, The Mint; 2, The Adaalet; 3, The Foujedarry; 4, The Kutwally of Benares; 5, The Nekhal; 6, The Brokerage from strangers; 7, The Farlashe; 8, The Rumar Khana; 9, The Dustoor upon rings.

Answer to Article 1.

Of the Mint and Adaalet, &c., agreeably to the above list, whatever may be the average receipts for the five last years shall be deducted in the maulguzarry; but for the tax upon strangers, which out of regard to the welfare of the people and the population of the country, I have annulled, you shall have no deduction.

Article 2.

Whatever may be granted from the Presence to the zemindars, &c., for their support, I am hopeful may be deducted in the maulguzarry.

Answer to Article 2.

The former zemindars and possessors, who received allowances and support, and who were in possession to the end of last year, and who are not included in the paper delivered to the Presence, shall be continued. Besides these, whatever further allowance for support may be made from the Presence to any zemindar, &c., shall be deducted in the maulguzarry.

Article 3.

Whatever may be the expenses on account of commission of English gentlemen, &c., I am unable to supply them: on this point I request your orders.

Answer to Article 3.

Whatever article may be commissioned, you shall receive the price of it; besides, on the Company's account, there shall be no commission.

Article 4.

The way that the bundobust of affairs has been settled is well known to the Presence. In providing the Maulwajib of the Circar, wherever I may see the means of making an increase of profit, I will make the bundobust accordingly. I am hopeful that no one may receive indulgence from the Presence.
Answer to Article 4.

Wherever you may see the means of making an increase of profit, you will make the bundobust accordingly. No one shall receive indulgence from the Presence.

Article 5.

I am hopeful that the troops which shall be appointed from the Presence for the protection of the Circar of Benares, etc., may be stationed agreeably to my request.

Answer to Article 5.

Wherever troops may be necessary, they shall be stationed.

Article 6.

Respecting the balances to the end of the year 1188, during Cheyt Sing's administration, I have been ordered from the Presence to collect and pay them to the Circar, I therefore represent that whatever of the balances for the above year I can collect, I will pay to the Circar.

Answer to Article 6.

Agreed.

No. XXIX.

Sanad granted to Raja Mahip Narain Bahadur for the Zamindari of Benares, Ghazipur, Chunar, etc.—1781.

Be it known to the Mutsaddis in office, present and to come, kanungos, mukaddams and people, resident in and belonging to Sircar Benares, Ghazipur and Chunar, in the Subba of Allahabad, that the Governor General and Council of the Provinces of Bengal, Behar and Orissa, acting on the part of the Honourable East India Company of England, have in virtue of the powers vested in them, and of the right obtained to them by a treaty concluded with the Nawab Asaf-ud-dowla on the 20th Rabi-ul-awal, 1189 Hijri, or 21st May 1775, in which the sovereignty of the Sircars, above mentioned, was ceded to them, from the 4th Jamadi-ul-awal, in 1189 Hijri, or 4th July 1775, appointed Raja Mahip Narain to the zamindari of the said Sircar and to the Amini and Faujdari of the towns and places of the same, agreeable to the Zimmun, except the adalat and Faujdari of the Town of Benares, the powers of the said Raja in that town extending only to the collection of its revenues and to the appointment of officers acting under his authority for that purpose. The said Raja is appointed also to the Kotwali of Jaunpur.

He is not to be in the smallest instance remiss in the observation and execution of the several duties incumbent on him, he is to behave with kindness and moderation to the ryots and people of the Zamindari, he is to promote the cultivation and produce of the lands, and the increase of their inhabitants, he is in all places under his authority to expel thieves, nightly-assailants, murderers, and all evil-doers and so effectually punish the disturbers of the peace that none shall remain. Thus shall the honour and credit of the East India Company be strengthened, and with them his own. He is in no place to erect forts nor any sort of defences whatsoever within the limits of the Zamindari, nor is he to entertain in his employ any troops either horse or foot, for any purpose whatsoever without the order or permission of the Governor General and Council or their successors.

The power of levying forces and erecting and maintaining fortresses are always considered as royalties or appurtenances of the Sovereign State, and will not be exercised by him accordingly; whenever the assistance of troops shall be required to enforce the collection of the revenue or to maintain good order and tranquillity in the country such troops shall be the troops of the Company, furnished by the orders of their representatives.

In consideration of the grant thus made to the said Raja Mahip Narain of the said Zamindari, which is granted to him in perpetuity, while on his part he shall duly fulfil the conditions of it, he is also to pay yearly at Benares unto the said East India Company or any person appointed by its representatives to secure the same, the fixed sum of forty lakhs of Benares Sicca Rupees of full weight and standard, and the said sum of forty lakhs of Benares Sicca Rupees is to be paid as aforesaid in the monthly kist, hereinafter mentioned; but as the rebellious conduct of the late zamindar of this country may in its consequences have been productive of devastations, the Governor General and Council have been pleased to deduct on this account from the revenue of the present year, 1189 Fasli, the sum of six lakhs sixty-six thousand six hundred and sixty-six Benares Sicca Rupees ten annas and ten gundas such deduction leaving the amount payable to the Company for the present year thirty-three lakhs thirty-three thousand three hundred and thirty-three Benares Sicca Rupees five annas

for the year 1189 is to be duly and regularly discharged without any deduction whatsoever, excepting the sum allowed to him as an annual compensation for the loss of the profits derived by the former Raja from the Mint at Benares, the business of that office being to be placed in other hands, and the sum allowed as an annual compensation for the loss of the profits which he would have received had the management of the business of the Adalats, Kotwali, and the collection of the duties called Nikas and Kimar Conna in the said town been left to him as it was to Chet Singh.
These sums are to be deducted from the annual amount of his malguzar, and shall be conformable to the average receipt of the late Raja on their account for the last five years, certain jagirs having been granted by Government to persons whose names are recited in the Raja's kistbundi of this date, and certain charity allowances given to the rozinadars, etc., as recited in the same, the Raja is to be careful that the order of the Government be punctually and strictly attended to. He is to be heedful also by no means to collect the prohibited Abwab of the Durga of His Majesty.

The engagements stipulated in this Sanad having been duly fulfilled, the Raja shall in the customary manner receive credit for his payments, and in addition to the receipts given monthly for his monthly malguzar by the person authorized to receive it on account of the Company FARIGH-KHATI or general discharge shall be given him at the end of each year, when due, by the Governor General in Council.

This Sanad being granted is to remain in full force. You, the Mutsaddis and persons above mentioned, are to regard Raja Mahip Narain as truly and lawfully possessed of the zemandari, aumini and faujdari of the above Sircair in the manner and to the extent recited in it and to acknowledge his authority in the several acts appertaining thereunto. Know that I, Warren Hastings, Governor General in the name, and with the powers of the Governor General in Council, who are the Company's representatives, have here issued the most strict and positive commands, and obey them accordingly.

NO. XXX.

TRANSLATION of an AGREEMENT with RAJAH MAHIPNARAIN for the ZEMINDARI of BENAES,—27th October 1794.

The Governor General in Council being at this time desirous to introduce, with the consent of Rajah Mahipnarain, the Zemindar, into the Zilla of Benares, for the advantage thereof, the same system and rules for the administration of justice and for the concerns of the revenue as was in 1793 established within the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa during the Government of Marquis Cornwallis, and the said Rajah having, after consideration of the said circumstances, agreed to and approved thereof, so as that from the beginning of 1202 Fussilees, the administration of justice, which hath hitherto remained in the hands of natives, shall be conducted by English gentlemen, and that there shall also be separately appointed a Collector (being in like manner a British subject) for the realization of the revenue, whilst the duties of the Court of Appeals are to be conducted under similar regulations as are provided to that effect in Bengal, and for as much as the support of all these establishments will occasion to the Hon’ble Company’s Government an increase of expense at the same time that under the operation of the permanent settlement concluded in 1197 the resources from the district bear also, under the favour of the Almighty, a prospect of increase; therefore with a view to provide for the said charges, which are solely to be incurred for the prosperity and advantage of the four Sircars composing the Zillah of Benares, the following articles have, with the privity of the Governor General in Council, been settled and concluded on between the said Rajah and Mr. Duncan, to be observed and followed in time to come, from the introduction of the new establishments:

Article the 1st.—Out of the surplus revenue, over and above the 40 lakhs of rupees, which including the articles of deduction were stipulated to be payable by Rajah Mahipnarain, according to the estimary pottah which he received from the Hon'ble Warren Hastings, Esquire, in the year 1781, one lakh of rupees per annum is, without fail, to be received from the Moolky Treasury by Rajah Mahipnarain, exclusive of the jaghirs and altumghas that are now in his possession, and the remaining surplus is to be annually expended in this district, and applied, under the authority of the Company's Government, towards the charges of the civil and judicial establishments in the support of the new and old Courts, and for the maintenance of the pautsalla or Hindoo college, and for repairing the roads and constructing bridges, and promoting the cultivation, &c.

2nd.—The revenue settlement made of the lands within the Raja of Benares, &c., having taken place with the privity and approbation of Rajah Mahipnarain Sing, Bahader, the pottahs, receipts, and farigh-khutties, or acquittances thereof, are passed under the seal and signature of the said Rajah to the aumils, zemindars, and farmers, and the dufter or office, and khazanchi or treasurer of the said Rajah, having always remained for the carrying on of the country (i.e., revenue) business, the said signature, seal, office and treasurer are to remain in force and to be continued as usual.

3rd.—In case of complaints relative to revenue causes or charity ground, &c., being preferred to the Huzoor (i.e., the English Government) by any parties residing within the jaghir and altumgha, &c., the personal or private lands of Rajah Mahipnarain Sing, the enquiry thereunto shall be made in like manner as such cases were amicably conducted between Mr. Duncan and the Rajah, that is, that since the gentleman holding the station of Collector will have more concern and connection with such matters than the other gentlemen, the rule shall be that with the privity and ascertain- ment of the said Collector (who is to have regard to the honour and dignity of the said Rajah), such causes are to be settled through the channel of the said Rajah, or of the officers of the said Rajah's cutcherry, it being at the same time understood and provided that as it is a duty incumbent on the Hon'ble Company's Government to distribute and ensure the attainment of justice to all the inhabitants of Benares, should it so happen that after referring such complaints to the Rajah, or to his officers in the cutcherry, the contentment of the parties complaining and aggrieved shall not be obtained, the Rajah shall, relative to the adjustment of such causes, listen to, and approve of, the suggestions and advice of the Collector, in like manner as hath been practised in the time of Mr. Duncan; and it is also incumbent on the said Collector, in all proper and just cases, to show the utmost attention possible to the Rajah's accommodation, and to hold in view the maintenance of his honour and dignity, such being entirely consistent with the wishes of Government; and if (which God forbid) any such subject should arise as cannot be settled between the said Collector and the Rajah aforesaid, the decision on such cause shall depend on the Governor-General in Council.

Wherefore this ekrarnama hath, with the privity and approbation of the Governor-General in Council, been written and concluded between Rajah Mahipnarain Sing, Bahader, the Zemindar of the Zillah of Benares, &c., and Mr. Duncan, who is at present in the station of Resident at Benares, on the part of the Government of the English East India Company.

Dated the 27th October 1794.

Sanad granted to Raja Udit Narain Singh Bahadur,—1796.

Be it known to the Mutsaddis in office, present and to come, Zamindars, Chaudhris, Kanungos, Mukaddams, cultivators and residents of Sircars Benares, Chunar, Jaunpur and Ghazipur, &c., in the Suba of Allahabad.

Whereas the Zamindari of the Sircars of Benares, &c., had after the expulsion of Raja Chet Singh, been assigned by the Company’s Government to Raja Mahip Narain Singh Bahadur who from that date appears to have acted to the satisfaction of the Company and strictly in accordance with the terms laid down in the agreement dated 27th October 1794, corresponding with 2nd Rabi-ul-sani 1202 Fasli which had been entered into between him and the Hon’ble Jonathan Duncan, the Chief Officer at Benares, with the knowledge and sanction of His Excellency the Governor-General and in the management of his zamindari. He having lately died, therefore in consideration of the just rights of his son Raja Udit Narain Singh Bahadur the zamindari of the above together with the jagir mahals and altumgha, &c., belonging to him have with the same privileges and rights as enjoyed by his father Raja Mahip Narain Singh, deceased, been allotted and assigned to him from the Kharif, 1203 F. S., by the Company’s Government, you the mutsaddis, &c., should therefore consider the said Raja as permanent zamindar of the Sircars, &c., alluded to and shall obey such of his orders as may be favourable to the interests of Government and at the same time advantageous to the ryots, and you shall not require from him a new Sanad every year and the Raja will be bound to comply with the stipulation specified in the above agreement and to exert himself in accordance with those terms in the management of his zamindari so that we shall hear good accounts of his management. Be careful to carry the above orders into execution.

SANAD granted to RAJA ISHRI PRASAD NARAIN SINGH BAHADUR,—1835.

Be it known to the Mutsuddies in office, present and to come, Choudhris, Kanungos, Mokaddams, cultivators, ryots and residents of Sircars Benares, Chunur, Jaunpur and Ghazipur, &c., in the Suba of Allahabad.

Whereas the zamindari of the Sircars of Benares, &c., had after the expulsion of Raja Chet Singh been assigned by the Company's Government to Raja Mahip Narain Singh Bahadur who from that date would appear to have acted strictly in accordance with the terms laid down in the agreement dated 27th October 1794 corresponding with 2nd Rabi-us-sani, 1202 Fusli, which had been entered into between him and the Hon'ble Jonathan Duncan, Chief Officer at Benares, under sanction of His Excellency the Governor-General and given satisfaction in the management of his zamindari.

After his death Raja Udit Narain Singh Bahadur, his son, was confirmed in the zamindari under a Sanad dated 30th September 1796 on the same terms as were entered into by his father who also gave satisfaction and gained the favour of Government. He having lately died, therefore, in consideration of the just rights of his adopted son, Raja Ishri Prasad Narain Singh Bahadur, the zamindari of the above Sircars, together with the jagir, Mahals and altumgha, &c., belonging to him have been with the same privileges and rights as enjoyed by his father, Raja Udit Narain Singh, deceased, granted unto him from Kharif, 1242 Fasli, by the Company's Government.

You, the mutsaddies, &c., should therefore consider the said Raja as permanent zamindar of the Sircars, &c., above mentioned and shall obey such of his orders as may be favourable to the interests of Government and at the same time advantageous to the ryots and you should not require from him a new Sanad every year and the Raja will be bound to comply with the stipulations specified in the above agreement and to exert himself in accordance with those terms in the management of his zamindari, so that we shall hear good accounts of his management. Be careful to carry the above orders into execution.

ADOPTION SUNNUD granted to His Highness Maha Rajah Ishereepersaud Narain Sing Bahadoor, Benares,—11th March 1862.

Her Majesty being desirous that the governments of the several Princes and Chiefs of India who now govern their own territories should be perpetuated, and that the representation and dignity of their houses should be continued, in fulfilment of this desire this Sunnud is given to you to repeat to you the assurance, which has been already communicated to you on the 24th April last, that, on failure of natural heirs, the British Government will permit and confirm any adoption of a successor made by yourself or by any future Chief of your State that may be in accordance with Hindoo law and the customs of your race.

Be assured that nothing shall disturb the Engagement thus made to you so long as your house is loyal to the Crown and faithful to the conditions of the Treaties, Grants, or Engagements which record its obligations to the British Government.

PART II.

TREATIES, ENGAGEMENTS, AND SANADS

RELATING TO

OUDH.

The founder of the Oudh family was Saadat Khan, who was appointed Subadar of Oudh in the reign of Muhammad Shah. He was succeeded by his son-in-law, Safdar Jang, who died in 1753, and was succeeded by his son, Shuja-ud-Daula, who was created Wazir by the Emperor Shah Alam.

After his defeat at Baxar in 1764 (see Delhi, Vol. VIII), the Wazir, having retreated to his own dominions, obtained the assistance of a body of Marathas. They were, however, defeated in a skirmish at Kora, and the Wazir, reduced to extremities, threw himself on the generosity of the British Government. The arrangements which had been made with the Emperor in 1764, by which he ceded Ghazipur and Benares to the Company, being himself put in possession of all the rest of the Wazir's dominions, were disapproved by the Court of Directors. It was considered expedient to preserve the dominions of the Wazir as a barrier against the Marathas, and therefore, by the Treaty of 1765 (No. XXXIV), the Wazir was restored to all his territories, except Allahabad and Kora, which were given to the Emperor for the support of his dignity and expenses.

Some uneasiness was still felt as to the designs of the Wazir, who had the Emperor completely in his power, and who was ambitious of recovering Kora and Allahabad. It was therefore thought necessary to enter into a new Engagement (No. XXXV) in 1768 for the restriction of the Wazir's army to 35,000 men,* none of them to be equipped or drilled like English troops.

At this time the position of the Marathas was most threatening. The Emperor had put himself in their hands and had been placed by them on the throne of Delhi; but he had no real power, and his name was used as a cloak for the justification of the Maratha usurpations. On leaving Allahabad in 1771 the Emperor put the Wazir in possession of the fort. But when the Marathas extorted from him the cession of Kora and Allahabad, it was deemed necessary for protection against the Marathas, that both the fort of Chunar and the fort of Allahabad should be held by English troops, and Agreements (Nos. XXXVI and XXXVII) to this effect were executed on the 20th March 1772. The grant of Kora and Allahabad to the Marathas was considered to be contrary to the meaning of the Treaty of 1765, by which these districts were given to the Emperor for the support of his dignity, and as the Emperor had abandoned possession of them, they were sold in 1773 (No. XXXVIII) to the Wazir for fifty lakhs of rupees, and at the same time the Wazir agreed to pay Sicca Rupees 2,10,000 a month for each brigade of English troops that might march to his assistance.

In 1775 the Wazir Shuja-ud-Daula died, and was succeeded by his son Asaf-ud-Daula. On his accession a new Treaty (No. XXXIX) was concluded confirming him in the possession of Kora and Allahabad; raising the payment for British troops to Rs. 2,60,000 a month for each brigade that crossed his border; and ceding to the British Government in full sovereignty all the districts dependent on Raja Chait Singh of Benares, including Benares, Jaunpur, and Ghazipur (see Benares). In his pecuniary obligations to the British Government the new Nawab soon fell deeply into arrears. Pressed by his pecuniary embarrassments, the Nawab endeavoured to deprive the mother of Shuja-ud-Daula and his own mother, the Bahu Begam, of the property which had been left them. In 1775 the Bahu Begam complained that Rs. 26,00,000 had been extorted from her. An Agreement (No. XL), however, was made between her and her son, Asaf-ud-Daula, which was guaranteed by the English Government, maintaining her in the full enjoyment of her jagirs and property.

In 1781, at a personal interview with Warren Hastings at Chunar, a new Treaty (No. XLI) was negotiated to give relief to the Nawab by the withdrawal of all the English troops, except a single brigade and one additional regiment, and authorising the Nawab to resume jagirs, but requiring him to grant equivalent pensions to jagirdars whose estates were guaranteed by the British Government. The Nawab took advantage of this concession to resume the jagirs of the Begams, which were subsequently in part restored, and to deprive them of their treasures on the alleged ground of their being implicated in Chait Singh's rebellion (see Benares). Warren Hastings' share in these transactions formed one of the charges against him on his impeachment.

The weakness of the Nawab's government prevented the withdrawal of the English troops as provided for by the Treaty of 1781. When Lord Cornwallis assumed the government in 1786 the Nawab pressed for some mitigation of his burdens. It was not deemed safe to reduce the British troops, but an arrangement (No. XLII) was made in 1787, by which the Nawab's payment was fixed at Rs. 50,00,000 a year in lieu of all claims, and a large portion of the balance due to the British Government was remitted.

In the following year a commercial Treaty (No. XLIII) was concluded with the Wazir, providing for the levy at fixed places of an ad valorem duty on goods, and prohibiting the levy of transit duties by landholders and others.

The pecuniary difficulties in which the Wazir continued to be involved arose chiefly from his incapacity and misgovernment. In 1797 Sir John Shore paid a visit to Lucknow, to induce the Wazir to reform his administration, and to pay part of the increased military establishment which it had been found necessary to keep up. An Agreement (No. XLIV) was at this time made, by which the Wazir undertook to pay for one additional regiment of European and one of Native cavalry, provided the annual cost should not exceed five and a half lakhs of rupees.

In 1797 Asaf-ud-Daula died, and his reputed son, Mirza Ali, was acknowledged as his successor. His paternity having been afterwards proved to be spurious, he was deposed, and Saadat Ali, the eldest surviving son of Shuja-ud-Daula, and the brother of Asaf-ud-Daula, was proclaimed in his stead. On the accession of Saadat Ali in 1798 a Treaty (No. XLV) was concluded, by which, among other arrangements, the Wazir's payment to the British Government was raised to seventy-six lakhs a year, and the minimum British force to be maintained in the country was fixed at 10,000 men. At the same time the Wazir made an Agreement (No. XLVI) with the Bahu Begam, granting her certain jagirs in Gonda and Fyzabad under the guarantee of the British Government.

The Wazir's army was an armed rabble, ill-disciplined, and would have been rather a source of danger than a help had the invasion of Zaman Shah from Afghanistan, with the anticipations of which the people of India were periodically alarmed, taken place. In 1799, therefore, the Marquis Wellesley addressed the Wazir with a view to induce him to disband his troops and replace them by a British subsidiary force. Major Scott was deputed to conduct negotiations for the above purpose, and to secure, by a cession of territory from the Wazir, a resource for the regular payment of the subsidy. The Wazir was very reluctant to agree to the proposals made to him, and threatened to abdicate in favour of his son. But at length, after protracted negotiation and the deputation of the Honourable Mr. Wellesley, the Governor-General's brother, to Lucknow, a Treaty (No. XLVII) was signed on the 10th November 1801, by which the Wazir ceded to the British Government lands in the Doab and the whole of Rohilkhand, yielding a revenue of Rs. 1,35,23,474, in lieu of the subsidy and all future expenses incurred in defending his territory; reduced his troops to four battalions of infantry and one of najibs, 2,000 cavalry and 300 golandaz; and agreed to introduce a good system of government in his remaining territories. The treaty also provided for the free navigation of the Ganges and other rivers, where they formed the mutual boundary of the British territories and Oudh. At a personal interview with the Wazir at Lucknow, the Governor-General, after some discussion, settled various points arising out of the Treaty of the 10th November which remained to be adjusted; and explained the general principles which should regulate the connection and intercourse between the two States as resulting from the treaty. The results of this conference were embodied in a Memorandum (No. XLVIII), of which a copy, signed and sealed by the Governor-General, was delivered to the Wazir.

In 1812 a Treaty (No. XLIX) was made with Nawab Saadat Ali to prevent disputes arising out of the frequent changes in the course of the rivers forming the boundaries between the British territories and Oudh. The Treaty related merely to the prevention of disputes between the two States, and had no reference whatever to the rights of zamindars.

Saadat Ali Khan died on the 11th July 1814, and was succeeded by his eldest son, Ghazi-ud-Din Haidar. On his accession Engagements (No. L) were exchanged between him and the Governor-General, declaring all treaties and engagements made with the late Nawab to be in full force to all intents and purposes.

During the negotiations with Saadat Ali Khan, which led to the cession of Rohilkhand in 1801, the Bahu Begam had offered to make the English Government her heir on condition that she should be released from dependence on her grandson, and that her connections and dependants should be secured in the undisturbed possession of their property. It was believed that the Wazir's principal objections to the proposed treaty for the cession of Rohilkhand proceeded from the expectation of his acquiring great wealth on the Begam's death. The Governor-General therefore expressed his intention of accepting the Begam's offer. The arrangements, however, were never completed, and in consequence of the altered relations between the Wazir and the Begam, after the conclusion of the Treaty of 1801, Government eventually declined the bequest.

In 1808 the Begam executed a will, making the British Government heir to the residue of her property, after maintaining certain jagirs and pensions, and paying certain sums for the construction of a mausoleum, &c. Government, however, declared its intention of yielding the legacy to the Wazir and making over the residue of the property to him. The will was subsequently revoked, and a Deed of Deposit (No. LI) was executed in 1813, the provisions of which the British Government guaranteed to execute so far as depended on them. The arrangements proposed were, with the Begam's consent, disclosed to the Wazir, who was assured that he would be acknowledged by Government as the Begam's heir on his agreeing to the whole of the purposes of the will. To this arrangement Ghazi-ud-Din Haidar intimated his assent in a letter to the Resident, received on the 4th August 1814. This letter forms the last annexure to No. LI.

The Begam died on the 15th December 1815, leaving property to the value of Rs. 99,489,916. After her death it was proposed to embody the obligations of the British Government and the Wazir in regard to her property in a treaty. But as the Nawab expressed an unwillingness to execute any further documents, which were unnecessary after his engagement in 1814, the treaty was not pressed on him. All the personal property of the Begam was made over to the Wazir on his paying into the British treasury Rs. 56,84,082, the interest on which was to yield certain pensions, which by the Deed of Deposit were to be defrayed from the funds left by the Begam. These pensions are now known as the Amanat Wasikas or trust pensions. But besides these there were certain jagirs and pensions payable from the Oudh treasury, in case of the diminution or resumption of which by the Wazir the British Government was to make a provision of corresponding amount for the holders from the residue of the Begam's property. To this class belonged the pensions of Mirza Ali, Salar Jang and his three sons, and the several members of the Khas Mahal. The pensions of Mirza Ali, Salar Jang and his three sons were subsequently provided for in the arrangements made with the Wazir for the payment of the first Oudh loan. Of the Khas Mahal pensions, three, namely, those of Lutf-un-Nisa, Mirza Muhammad Taki Khan, and Mirza Nasir, and their children, aggregating Rs. 6,000 a month, were secured by the guarantee of the British Government. These are now known as the Zamanat Wasikas or security pensions.

In 1814, when Lord Moira proceeded to the upper provinces to be near the scene of action in the Nepal war, he was visited at Cawnpur by the Nawab, who offered him a crore of rupees as a free gift. The gift was declined, but a loan of Rs. 1,08,50,000 at 6 per cent. per annum was accepted, the interest, namely, Rs. 6,51,000 being devoted from the 14th November 1814 to defray certain stipends (No. LII) guaranteed by the British Government. The principal of lapsed stipends was repayable to the Oudh Government, and up to 1835 there had been repaid at various times Rs. 72,42,765, leaving outstanding at 6 per cent. Rs. 35,07,235.

In the month of March 1815, in consequence of the vast expenditure during the Nepal war, Government applied to the Nawab for a second loan of one crore of rupees at 6 per cent. On the conclusion of the war, this second loan was extinguished in 1816 by the cession (No. LIII) to the Nawab, of the district of Khairigarh and the Tarai lands conquered from the Gurkhas, between the Gogra on the west and the district of Gorakhpur. By the same treaty a part of the district of Gorakhpur was ceded by the British Government in exchange for the tract of country intervening between the British districts of Jaunpur, Mirzapur, and Allahabad.

In 1825 the Wazir, who, in 1819, had been raised by the British Government to the dignity of King, proposed that the British Government should cede to him a portion of its territories in exchange for a sum of money. There were, however, insuperable objections to the alienation of any portion of British territory. But as the Government were suffering from the financial difficulties caused by the protracted hostilities in Burma, and as the King's treasury was full, a proposal was made to take a loan of a crore of rupees at 5 per cent. interest from His Majesty. The interest of this loan was by a Treaty (No. LIV), dated the 17th August 1825, devoted in perpetuity to the payment of certain stipends, and the British Government agreed to be the protector of the honour and prosperity of the stipendiaries.

In the following year a fourth loan of half a crore of rupees was taken at 5 per cent. interest, repayable after two years. Before his death, in 1827, the King, Ghazi-ud-Din Haidar, requested that this loan might be made perpetual, and that the interest should be devoted to meet certain pensions, the stipendiaries being guaranteed the protection of the British Government. But the previous guarantees which Government had given had produced so much embarrassment that the request of the King was declined.

Ghazi-ud-Din Haidar was succeeded by his son, Nasir-ud-Din Haidar. Being anxious to make a permanent provision for certain ladies of his household, Nasir-ud-Din Haidar proposed to grant another loan, at 5 per cent. interest, consisting of the half crore lent in the previous year, with an additional sum of Rs. 12,40,000. This loan was accepted in 1829 (No. LV), but was made redeemable at any time after the death of the original stipendiaries. No guarantee was given of protection to the stipendiaries, but a promise was made that they would always be treated with special favour and kindness. Rs. 38,40,000 of this loan were repaid in 1853 to the heirs of some of the original grantees; Rs. 2,40,000 being paid in cash, and Rs. 36,00,000 by transfer to the Government 4 per cent. loan.

In 1833, at the request of the King, Government accepted another loan of Rs. 3,00,000 at 4 per cent., and agreed (No. LVI) to pay the interest in monthly charitable payments to the poor in the city of Lucknow.

Nasir-ud-Din Haidar died in 1837, and was succeeded by his uncle, Muhammad Ali Shah. On his accession a Treaty (No. LVII) was concluded with him by the Governor-General in Council. The assent of the King was most reluctantly given to this treaty. The Home Government therefore disallowed it, and directed the restoration of the relations with Oudh to the footing on which they had previously stood. The King was thereupon informed of the determination of Government to relieve him from all that was onerous in the conditions respecting the subsidiary force established under the treaty, and to defray from the British treasury the expense of that portion of the force which had been already organized, but the formal abrogation of the treaty was not intimated to him.
Muhammad Ali Shah, being anxious to provide pensions in perpetuity for certain members of his family, offered in 1838 a loan of Rs. 17,00,000 at 4 per cent., and requested that the pensioners to whom the interest was to be paid should be guaranteed against oppression by future Rulers of Oudh. The loan was accepted (No. LVIII), but, as in the Agreement of 1829 with Nasir-ud-Din Haidar, no guarantee was given, the pensioners being promised only the special favour and kindness of the British Government.

In 1839 Muhammad Ali Shah subscribed 12 lakhs of rupees to the 4 per cent. loan, the interest of which he allotted by a Deed of Trust (No. LIX) for the expenses of the Husainabad Imambara. To this the King added other sums, aggregating Rs. 24,17,500, and after his death a sum of Rs. 2,33,000 was also invested by the Trustees out of the unexpended surplus of the interest.

In 1840 the King allotted by another Deed of Trust (No. LX) a sum of Rs. 3,40,800, of which Rs. 2,87,000 were to bear interest at 5 per cent., and Rs. 53,800 at 4 per cent. for the endowment of a hospital at Lucknow.

Various other sums have been at different times invested by the King of Oudh in Government funds, but these investments are guaranteed by no special engagements and in no way differ from ordinary contributions to Government loans, except that in some cases the promissory notes were deposited in the Government treasury at Lucknow, and the interest was paid monthly instead of quarterly. Thus in February 1842 a sum of Rs. 14,00,000 was contributed, on twelve lakhs of which the interest was made payable monthly. In July 1842 twenty lakhs were subscribed, on eight lakhs of which the interest was made payable monthly; and in September 1842 twelve lakhs more were subscribed on the same terms.

In May 1842 Muhammad Ali Shah died, and was succeeded by his son, Amjad Ali Shah, who was succeeded on the 13th February 1847 by Wajid Ali Shah.

The condition of the internal administration of Oudh had attracted attention from the earliest times of the connection of the British Government with that State, and it was one of the provisions of the Treaty of 1801 (No. XLVII) that the Nawab should introduce, under the advice of the British Government, such a system of administration as should be conducive to the prosperity of his subjects, and be calculated to secure the lives and property of the inhabitants. Notwithstanding the repeated warning and advice of successive Residents the administration was not improved, and in 1831 Lord William Bentinck found it necessary to warn the King that, in the event of improvement and reformation not being effected by His Majesty’s officers, the settlement of the country would need to be made by British officers. This warning was neglected; the misgovernment of the country continued; and in November 1847, a few months after the accession of Wajid Ali Shah, Lord Hardinge proceeded to Lucknow and again warned the King that, if within two years the administration should not be reformed, the British Government would be forced to interfere by assuming the government of Oudh. No improvement took place within the two years of probation, but a natural reluctance to proceed to extreme measures prevented Government from at once acting up to the threat held out by Lord Hardinge, and the outbreak of the second war in Burma diverted the attention of the Government for a time from Oudh.

In 1854 the state of Oudh showed none of that amendment which Government had declared to be indispensable, and the Resident was required to report whether the duty imposed on the British Government by the Treaty of 1801 would any longer admit of Government honestly indulging the reluctance which it had felt to have recourse to extreme measures. The Resident’s enquiries showed the state of Oudh to be most deplorable, and that the improvement, which Lord Hardinge peremptorily demanded seven years before, had not in any degree been effected. The British Government therefore finally resolved to assume the administration of Oudh in one form or another. A treaty* was proposed to the King, which provided that the sole

* Treaty between the Honourable East India Company and His Majesty Abdul Mansur, Nasir-ud Din Sikandar Jaf, Muhammad Wajid Ali Shah, King of Oudh; settled on the part of the Honourable Company by Major-General James Outram, C.B., Resident at Lucknow, in virtue of full powers granted to him by the Most Noble James Ramsay, Marquis of Dalhousie, Knight of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle, one of Her Majesty’s Most Honourable Privy Council, Governor-General in Council, appointed by the Honourable Company to direct and control all their affairs in the East Indies; and on the part of His Majesty the King of Oudh by

Whereas in the year 1801 a Treaty was concluded between the Honourable East India Company and His Excellency the Nawab Wazir Saadat Ali Khan, Bahadur; and whereas the 6th Article of the said Treaty requires that the Ruler of Oudh, always advising with and acting in conformity to the council of the officers of the Honourable Company, shall establish in his reserved dominions such a system of administration, to be carried into effect by his own officers, as shall be conducive to the prosperity of his subjects, and be calculated to secure the lives and property of the inhabitants; and whereas the infraction of this essential engagement of the Treaty by successive Rulers of Oudh has been continued and notorious; and whereas its civil and military government of Oudh should be vested in the British Government for ever; that the title of King of Oudh should be continued to His Majesty and the lawful male heirs of his body; that the King should be treated with all due attention, respect, and honour, and should have exclusive jurisdiction within the palace at Lucknow and the Dil Kusha and Bibiapur parks, except as to the infliction of capital punishment; that the King Wajid Ali Shah should receive twelve lakhs a year for the support of his dignity and honour; that the Company should maintain for His Majesty a body of palace guards at a cost not exceeding three lakhs of Company’s Rupees per annum; that each of his successors should receive twelve lakhs a year; and that his collateral relations should be maintained separately by the British Government.

long toleration of such infraction of the Treaty on the part of the Rulers of Oudh has exposed the British Government to the reproach of having failed to fulfil the obligations it assumed towards the people of that country; and whereas it has now become the imperative duty of the British Government to take effectual measures for securing permanently to the people of Oudh such a system of just and beneficent administration as the Treaty of 1801 was intended, but has failed to provide; the following Treaty consisting of seven Articles, is concluded, on the one part by the Most Noble the Marquis of Dalhousie, K.T., Governor-General in Council, appointed by the Honourable Company to direct and control all their affairs in the East Indies, through Major-General Outram, C.B., Resident at Lucknow, under full powers vested in him by the said Governor-General; and on the other part by His Majesty, Ahmad Mansur, Nasir-ud-Din, Sikandar Jah, Muhammad Wajid Ali Shah, King of Oudh, for himself and his heirs, through

ARTICLE I.

It is hereby stipulated and agreed that the sole and exclusive administration of the Civil and Military Government of the Territories of Oudh shall be henceforth vested for ever in the Honourable East India Company, together with the full and exclusive right to the revenues thereof, the said Company hereby engaging to make ample provision for the maintenance of the Royal dignity, as hereinafter mentioned, and for the due improvement of the said territories.

ARTICLE II.

It is stipulated and agreed that the Sovereign title of King of Oudh shall be retained by His Majesty, and that it shall descend in continual succession to the heirs male of his body, born in lawful wedlock.

ARTICLE III.

It is stipulated and agreed that His Majesty the King and his successors shall be treated upon all occasions with the attention, respect, and honour which are due to a Sovereign Prince.

ARTICLE IV.

It is further stipulated and agreed that, notwithstanding the provisions of the first Article of the present Treaty, His Majesty the King of Oudh and his successors shall retain full and exclusive jurisdiction within the precincts of the Palace at Lucknow, as well as within the Dil Kusia and Bibiapur parks, provided always that the punishment of death shall not be inflicted by the order of the King, or within the limits of the palace and garden parks aforesaid, unless with the previous consent of the Governor-General in Council.
The King was allowed three days to consider and sign the treaty. He refused to sign it, and therefore, in February 1856, the British Government assumed to itself the government of Oudh exclusively and for ever. A provision of twelve lakhs a year was offered to the King, which he accepted in October 1859. Separate provision was sanctioned for his collateral relatives. Wajid Ali Shah was allowed to retain the title of King of Oudh, but on his death the title was to cease absolutely, and the pecuniary allowance was not to be continued on the same scale. A residence for the King was purchased by Government at Garden Reach in the suburbs of Calcutta, but he was informed that the exercise of an independent jurisdiction within the precincts of his estate, or the immunity of any of his officers or attendants from the ordinary operation of the law, could not be sanctioned. Provision, however, was made by Act XIV of 1860 for the execution of civil and criminal process within the premises occupied by the King through the officer appointed to be Agent with him on the part of the British Government. Another enactment, Act VIII of 1862, was passed to exempt the King from the jurisdiction of the criminal courts, except for capital offences; to provide for the trial, if neces-

ARTICLE V.

Whereas it is expedient and right that the Crown of His Majesty the King of Oudh should be upheld in fitting dignity and honour, it is hereby stipulated and agreed that the Honourable East India Company shall pay to His Majesty the said Muhammad Wajid Ali Shah, from out of the revenues of Oudh, twelve lakhs of Company's Rupees per annum; and that the said Company shall further maintain for His Majesty a body of palace guards at a cost not exceeding three lakhs of Company's Rupees per annum.

To each of His Majesty's successors it is agreed that the said Company shall pay twelve lakhs of Company's Rupees per annum.

ARTICLE VI.

In order that nothing may be wanting to the full measure of liberal endowment which the Honourable East India Company desires to secure to His Majesty the King of Oudh, it is hereby agreed that the said Company shall take upon itself the maintenance of all collateral members of the Royal family, for whom provision is now made by His Majesty the King.

ARTICLE VII.

All former Treaties between the Honourable East India Company and the Rulers of Oudh which are now in force, and which are not contrary to the tenor of this engagement, are confirmed by it.

This Treaty, consisting of seven Articles, has been settled and concluded by Major-General James Outram, C.B., Resident at Lucknow, under the full powers vested in him by the Most Noble the Governor-General in Council as aforesaid, with His Majesty Abdul Mansur, Nasir-ud-Din, Sikandar Jah, Muhammad Wajid Ali Shah, King of Oudh, for himself and his heirs, in the city of Lucknow, on the day of

In the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, corresponding with sary, of other offences by commission; to exempt the King from appearance in court as a witness; and to provide for his examination through the Agent to the Governor-General in cases where his evidence might be required. By a further Act, XIII of 1868, the King was exempted from the jurisdiction of the Civil Courts, except in regard to suits instituted with the consent of Government, and was rendered incapable of entering into any contract which might give rise to a pecuniary obligation on his part.

Wajid Ali Shah died on the 21st September 1887, and on his death Act XIX of 1887 was passed, empowering the Governor-General in Council to administer his estate. Arrangements were made for the disposal of the property at Garden Reach, the proceeds realised going to the estate, and pensions were granted to the King’s family and dependants.
NO. XXXIV.

TREATY between the NABOB SHUJAH-UL-DOWLA, the NABOB NUDJUM-UL-DOWLA, and the ENGLISH COMPANY, executed at ILLIABAD,—the 16th of August 1765.

(Sealed and approved of by the King.)

Whereas, the Right Honourable Robert, Lord Clive, Baron Clive of Plassey, Knight Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Major-General and Commander of the Forces, President of the Council, and Governor of Fort William, and of all the Settlements belonging to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, in the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa; and John Carnac, Esq., Brigadier-General, Colonel in the service of the said Company, and Commanding Officer of their Forces upon the Bengal Establishment, are invested with full and ample powers on the behalf of His Excellency the Nabob Nudjum-ul-Dowla, Soubahdar of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, and likewise on the behalf of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, to negotiate, settle, and finally to conclude a firm and lasting peace with His Highness the Nabob Shujah-ul-Dowla, Vizier of the Empire: It is known to all those to whom it may or shall in any manner belong, that the above-named Plenipotentiaries have agreed upon the following Articles with His Highness:—

ARTICLE 1.

A perpetual and universal peace, sincere friendship, and firm union shall be established between His Highness Shujah-ul-Dowla and his heirs, on the one part, and His Excellency Nudjum-ul-Dowla, and the English East India Company on the other; so that the said contracting powers shall give the greatest attention to maintain between themselves, their dominions, and their subjects this reciprocal friendship, without permitting, on either side, any kind of hostilities to be committed, from henceforth, for any cause, or under any pretence whatsoever, and everything shall be carefully avoided which might hereafter prejudice the union now happily established.

ARTICLE 2.

In case the dominions of His Highness Shujah-ul-Dowla shall at any time hereafter be attacked, His Excellency Nudjum-ul-Dowla and the English Company shall assist him with a part or the whole of their forces, according to the exigency of his affairs, and so far as may be consistent with their own security: and if the dominions of His Excellency Nudjum-ul-Dowla or the English Company, shall be attacked, His Highness shall, in like manner, assist them with a part or the whole of his forces. In the case of the English Company's forces being employed in His Highness' service, the extraordinary expense of the same is to be defrayed by him.
ARTICLE 3.

His Highness solemnly engages never to entertain or receive Cossim Ally Khan, the late Soubahdar of Bengal, &c., Sombre, the assassin of the English, nor any of the European deserters, within his dominions, nor to give the least countenance, support, or protection to them. He likewise solemnly engages to deliver up to the English whatever Europeans may in future desert from them into his country.

ARTICLE 4.

The King Shah Aalum shall remain in full possession of Cora, and such part of the Province of Illiabod as he now possesses, which are ceded to His Majesty, as a royal demesne, for the support of his dignity and expenses.

ARTICLE 5.

His Highness Shujah-ul-Dowlah engages, in a most solemn manner, to continue Bulwant Sing in the zemindarries of Benares, Ghazapore, and all those districts he possessed at the time he came over to the late Nabob Jaffier Ally Khan and the English, on condition of his paying the same revenue as heretofore.

ARTICLE 6.

In consideration of the great expense incurred by the English Company in carrying on the late war, His Highness agrees to pay them (50) fifty lakhs of rupees in the following manner; viz., (12) twelve lakhs in money, and a deposit of jewels to the amount of (8) eight lakhs, upon the signing of this Treaty; (5) five lakhs one month after, and the remaining (25) twenty-five lakhs by monthly payments, so as that the whole may be discharged in (13) thirteen months from the date hereof.

ARTICLE 7.

It being firmly resolved to restore to His Highness the country of Benares, and the other districts now rented by Bulwant Sing, notwithstanding the grant of the same from the King to the English Company, it is therefore agreed that they shall be ceded to His Highness in manner following, viz., they shall remain in the hands of the English Company, with their revenues, till the expiration of the Agreement between Bulwant Sing and the Company, being on the 27th of November next; after which His Highness shall enter into possession, the Fort of Chunar excepted, which is not to be evacuated, until the 6th Article of this Treaty be fully complied with.

ARTICLE.

His Highness shall allow the English Company to carry on a trade, duty free, throughout the whole of his dominions.
ARTICLE 9.

All the relations and subjects of His Highness, who in any manner assisted the English during the course of the late war, shall be forgiven, and no ways molested for the same.

ARTICLE 10.

As soon as this Treaty is executed, the English forces shall be withdrawn from the dominions of His Highness, excepting such as may be necessary for the garrison of Chunar, or for the defence and protection of the King in the City of Illiabad, if His Majesty should require a force for that purpose.

ARTICLE 11.

His Highness the Nabob Shujah-ul-Dowla, His Excellency the Nabob Nudjum-ul-Dowla, and the English Company promise to observe sincerely and strictly all the Articles contained and settled in the present Treaty; and they will not suffer the same to be infringed, directly or indirectly, by their respective subjects: and the said contracting powers, generally and reciprocally, guarantee to each other all the stipulations of the present Treaty.

Signed, sealed, and solemnly sworn to, according to their respective faiths, by the contracting parties, at Illiabad, the 16th day of August, in the year of Our Lord 1765 in the presence of us,

TREATY between the COMPANY and the VIZIER SHUJAH-UL-DOWLA,—29th November 1768.

Whereas, unbecoming rumours have been propagated abroad, which tend to the interruption of the firm friendship, union, and confidence formerly established between His Highness the Nabob Shujah-ul-Dowla, Vizier of the Empire, on the one part, and the Right Honourable Robert, Lord Clive, and General John Carnac, on behalf of the deceased Nabob Nudjum-ul-Dowla, late Soubahdar of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, and the English Company, on the other part; Harry Vereast, Esq., President and Governor of Fort William and the Council thereof, with a view to the removal of all causes of jealousy and disagreement, and the confirmation of a good disposition on both sides, have deputed John Cartier, Colonel Richard Smith, and Claud Russell, three Members of the Council from Calcutta, personally to confer with His Highness aforesaid, and whereas the aforesaid John Cartier, Colonel Richard Smith, and Claud Russell, after effecting an interview with His Highness aforesaid, have reason to be satisfied with his steady attachment to the English, they therefore, on behalf of His Excellency the Nabob Syef-ul-Dowla, Soubahdar of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, and the English Company, renew and confirm the former Treaty, letter by letter, and article by article; and His Highness the Nabob Shujah-ul-Dowlah aforesaid doth likewise renew and confirm the said Treaty; and moreover, out of a pure desire effectually to eradicate all doubts and jealousies, to establish the present harmony on the most durable basis, and to confirm the former Treaty, doth consent and agree, that the following words shall be inserted as an explanatory clause in the said Treaty: It is by the advice and consent of the President and Council aforesaid, agreed, that His Highness shall not enterain a number of forces exceeding thirty-five thousand men, whether sepoys, cavalry, peons, artillermen, rocket-men, or troops of any denomination whatever. Of this number ten thousand are to be cavalry, ten battalions of sepoys, including soubadars, jemadars, havildars, and all ranks of officers, not to exceed ten thousand men; the Nujib regiment, consisting of five thousand men with matchlocks, to remain always on its present establishment; five hundred men for the artillery, and that number never to be exceeded; the remaining nine thousand five hundred men are to be irregulars, neither to be clothed, armed or disciplined after the manner of the English sepoys or Nujib regiment, and His Highness also engages to arm none of his forces, besides the ten thousand men mentioned in this Treaty, after the English manner, nor to train them in the discipline of the English troops. In consideration thereof, the said John Cartier, Colonel Richard Smith, and Claud Russell engage, on behalf of His Excellency the Nabob Syef-ul-Dowla and the English Company aforesaid, that whilst His Highness Shujah-ul-Dowla aforesaid and his successors shall abide by the Articles of this Treaty, neither the present Council of Fort William, nor any future Council, shall hereafter introduce any new matter relative thereto, besides what has been formerly agreed to, and is now concluded upon, and both parties shall consider this Agreement as firm and binding. His Highness aforesaid shall swear upon the Koran, John Cartier, Colonel Richard Smith, and Claud Russell upon the Gospel, never to infringe the minutest part or meaning hereof, and to maintain it themselves, and to transmit it inviolable to their posterity.

Agreement between His Highness the Nabob Shujah-ul-Dowla, Vizier of the Empire on one part, and Brigadier-General Sir Robert Barker, Commander-in-Chief of the Forces of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, under their Presidency of Bengal, on the part of the said Company, on the other, relative to the Forces of the English East India Company possessing the Fort of Chunar Guk, in the zemindary of the Rajah Cheyt Singh,—20th March 1772.

Be it known to all those to whom it may or shall in any manner belong, that the above-mentioned General Sir Robert Barker has agreed upon the following Articles with His Highness relative to the said Fort:

First.—The better to enable the East India Company to assist His Highness with their forces for the preservation of his dominions, conformable to a Treaty of Peace between the Right Honourable Lord Clive and John Carnac, Esq. (on the part of Nudjib-ul-Dowla, Soubadhar of Bengal, Behar, and Oriissa, and likewise on the part of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies), and the Nabob Shujah-ul-Dowla, Vizier of the Empire, done at Allahabad, on the 16th day of August, in the year of Our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty-five, His Highness has delivered up to them the Fort of Chunar Gur, in the zemindary of Rajah Cheyt Sing, to be held by them, and to be garrisoned solely by their troops, as long as it may be necessary for the support of His Highness' interest or the interest of the English East India Company, and for the preservation of the Provinces of Bengal, Behar and Orissa.

Second.—Upon any occasion where it may be necessary for the English Company to withdraw their forces and evacuate the Fort of Chunar Gur, in that case the Fort shall be delivered to His Highness the Nabob Shujah-ul-Dowla, and in like manner whenever the troops of the English East India Company shall advance on the west side of the river Caramnasa, the said Fort shall at all times be evacuated for them and their sole use and purpose.

Third.—Whatever expenses shall be incurred by the English East India Company for repairs or additions in the fortifications or for the erecting or repairing magazines, store houses, and barracks, such expenses shall be reimbursed by His Highness upon the re-delivery of the said Fort to him, but it has been determined the said expenses shall not exceed four lakhs of rupees, and the accounts to be examined by proper persons for each party.

Treaty with the Nawab Vizier Shujah-ul-Dowla,—7th September 1773.

The Vizier of the Empire, Asuph Jah Shujah-ul-Mulck, the Nabob Shujah-ul-Dowla, Aboo-ul-Munsoor Cawn Behauder, Sifdar Jung, Sippah Salah, on the one part, and Warren Hastings, Esquire, President of the Council, Governor of Fort William, and Commander-in-Chief of the Forces of the English Company, in the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, for and in the name of the English Company, on the other part, do agree on the following Articles:—

Article 1.

Whereas, in the Treaty concluded at Allahabad, the 16th August 1765, between the Vizier and the Company, it is expressed that the districts of Corah and Allahabad were given to His Majesty for his expenses; and whereas, His Majesty has abandoned the possession of the aforesaid districts, and even given a Sunnud for Corah and Currah to the Marhattas, to the great prejudice of the interests both of the Vizier and of the English Company, and contrary to the meaning of the said Treaty, and hath thereby forfeited his right to the said districts, which have reverted to the Company from whom he received them; it is therefore agreed, that the aforesaid districts shall be put into the possession of the Vizier on the following conditions, and that, in the same manner as the Province of Oudh and the other dominions of the Vizier are possessed by him, so shall he possess Corah and Currah, and Allahabad, for ever. He shall by no means, and under no pretence, be liable to any obstructions in the aforesaid countries from the Company and the English Chiefs; and exclusive of the money now stipulated, no mention or requisition shall by any means be made to him for anything else on this account. This Agreement shall be observed by all the English Chiefs, gentlemen of the Council, and by the Company, nor shall it ever be broken or deviated from.

CONDITIONS, vis.

He shall pay to the Company fifty lakhs (50,00,000) of Sicca Rupees according to the currency of the Province of Oudh, as follows, vis.—

ARTICLE 2.

To prevent any disputes arising concerning the payments which shall be made by the Vizier, for the expenses of the Company’s troops that may march to his assistance:

It is agreed, that the expense of a brigade shall be computed at two lakhs ten thousand (2,10,000) Sicca Rupees per month, according to the currency of the Province of Oudh. By a brigade is meant as follows, vis.—

2 Battalions of Europeans.
6 Battalions of Sepoys.
1 Company of Artillery.

The expenses of the said troops shall be defrayed by the Vizier, from the time that they shall have passed the borders of his dominions till they return within the borders of the Province of Behar; and exclusive of the abovementioned sum, no more shall, on any account, be demanded from him, Should the Company and the English Chiefs have occasion to send for the troops of the Vizier, the Company and the English Chiefs shall also pay their expenses in the like manner.

NO. XXXIX.

TRANSLATION of the Proposed ARTICLES of the TREATY with the NABOB AUSUF-UL-DOWLA,—21st May 1775.

The Nabob Ausuf-ul-Dowla, Icayaa Cawn, Behauder, Hozebbus Jung, on the one part, and the Honourable Warren Hastings, Esq., Governor-General, and the Members of the Supreme Council of Fort William, for and in the name of the English East India Company, on the other part, agree to the following Articles:

ARTICLE 1.

That universal peace, firm friendship, and perfect union, shall for ever be established between the Nabob Ausuf-ul-Dowla and the English East India Company. The contracting powers, with a view of maintaining this reciprocal friendship in the future, shall not for any cause or under any pretence, encourage the ryots and the inhabitants of their Soubahs in committing hostilities and disturbances; and everything shall be avoided by the said powers which might occasion them. Their friends and enemies are mutual, and any person who shall run away and take refuge in the country of one of the said parties, shall be given up to the other, and no assistance afforded him.

ARTICLE 2.

The aforesaid Nabob engages never to entertain or receive in his dominions Cossim Ally Cawn, the former Soubaahdar of Bengal, and Sumro, the murderer of the English; even in case of his getting them into his hands, he will, out of friendship, make them prisoners, and deliver them to the English Company. He also engages not, for any cause or under any pretence, to entertain Europeans of any nation in his service, without the consent of the English Company: That he will prevent, oppose, and send back such as offer to come into, pass through, or remain, or shall be in his dominions, without the perwannah of the English Company. The Europeans of every nation in the service of the said Nabob are hereby dismissed; and now, and in the future, he engages never to entertain the said Europeans and to deliver up to the English Company such of their servants who have deserted or may desert, in case of his apprehending them.

ARTICLE 3.

If the King should write anything relative to the affairs of the Nabob Ausuf-ul-Dowla to the English Sirdars, they will attend to the satisfaction, advantage, and inclination of the said Nabob, and not consent to what the King may say or write. In like manner, if the King should write to the Nabob Ausuf-ul-Dowla, relative to the affairs of the English Sirdars, he will attend to their satisfaction, advantage, and inclination, and not consent to what he may say or write.
ARTICLE 4.

The countries of Corah and Allahabad shall always, and for ever, remain in the possession of the Nabob Asuf-ul-Dowla, on the same footing as the Soubah of Oudh; and they shall on no account, in the future, be disturbed by the English, nor will they ever request a dam of derrum, or anything from the said countries. The English Sirdars engage to defend the Soubah of Oudh at all times, and Corah and Allahabad, until the pleasure of the Court of Directors shall be known.

ARTICLE 5.

The said Nabob, for the defence of his country, as above specified, declares that he has given up of his own free will and accord, unto the English Company, all the districts dependent on the Raja Cheyt Sing, together with the land and water duties, and the sovereignty of the said districts in perpetuity: That the English Company shall, after one month and a half from the date of this Treaty, take upon them the sovereignty and possession of the districts under Rajah Cheyt Sing, as hereunder specified, viz.—

Sircar Benares. The districts of Jaunpore.
Sircar Chumah. Bijehpore Bahdore.
Suktessgur. Mulboss Kawss.

The Sircar of Gawzpore.

The Pergunnah of Seekundapore, Jeridge, Shaay, Abad, Toppa, Surch-chur, &c., as formerly; the Mint and Kutwally of Benares.

ARTICLE 6.

The Nabob Asuf-ul-Dowla, for the aid and assistance of the English troops when stationed with him, shall pay monthly, from the date of this Treaty, for the charges of a brigade, the sum of two lacks sixty thousand Oudh Sicca Rupees, of the sixteenth year, agreeable to the present currency. If, in future, this currency should be abolished, the decrease or increase of batta shall be mutually given and received by the parties. The particulars of a brigade are, viz., two battalions, or one regiment of Europeans, one company of artillery, and six battalions of sepoys.

The aforesaid Nabob shall, whenever the English troops past the boundaries of the Company's province, at his request, pay the stipulated sum monthly, from that time until their return to the above-said boundaries.

ARTICLE 7.

If the aforesaid Nabob shall ever require the aid or assistance of the English Company for the defence of any other of his countries besides those above specified, he will fix something for the Company proportioned to the service.
The English Company and all the English Sirdars engage to perform whatever Articles are now mutually settled; and in the future, during the life of the Nabob Ausuf-ul-Dowla, they will never vary or depart from them. They will not, in any respect or manner, make request of anything new or contrary to the tenor of this Treaty.

The parties mutually swear, according to their respective faiths, to abide by these engagements.

DRAFT of a COWLNAMA under the Seal of the NABOB ASOPH-UL-DOWLAH, dated the 19th of Shabaun, in the year 1189 of Hijeree (15th of October 1775).

I, Asoph-ul-Dowlah Bahadre, engage and give this written Agreement, viz.:—

I have now taken from my mother thirty lakhs of rupees on account of the present, and twenty-six lakhs on account of former debts, in specie, goods, jewels, elephants, camels, &c., from the patrimony of my father, and have no further claim on her. Having received this through the English Chiefs, I renounce all further demands on her. I also engage that I will never molest my mother in the enjoyment of the jaghires, gunges, culladarries, gardens, or the mints of Oudh, Fyzabad, &c., conferred on her by the late blessed Nabob, but will leave her in the full possession of them during her life-time. As long as my mother lives, I will give her no trouble on account of them. She shall collect whatever appears to be due from the said jaghires, by her own people. I will not obstruct it. When my mother goes on her pilgrimage, she is at liberty to leave the jaghires, &c., under the charge of whomsoever she pleases. It is entirely at her option. I will not oppose it. Whether she resides here or goes on a pilgrimage, the jaghires, &c., shall remain in her possession, and no person shall, on any occasion, obstruct or molest her therein. To whomsoever my mother shall give charge of the jaghires, &c., I will on every occasion protect and assist him, and when she goes on her pilgrimage, she is at liberty to take with her such of her slaves, women, and goods as she thinks proper. I will not molest her. Nor will I give any trouble to Johur Ally Khan, Bahadre Ally Khan, Nishaut Ally Khan, Shegoon Ally Khan, or to the Tavildarnees, by any demand on them. My mother is at liberty to act as she pleases therein. She is the mistress. For the observance of all these Articles, I give God, and His Prophet, the twelve Imaums, the fourteen Maussooms and the English Chiefs, as guarantees. The English Chiefs are joined in this Engagement. Further, I will not in future demand any loan from my mother; I have no claim on her; nor will I ever deviate from this Engagement. Should I act contrary thereto, it may be supposed that I am estranged from the English Chiefs and the Company. I have accordingly given this as a Cownama to remain as a voucher.

Draft of a Cowlnama under the Seal of Mr. John Bristow on the part of the Company and English Chiefs, dated the 19th of Shabaun, in the year 1189 of the Hijeree (or 15th of October 1775).

I give the following Articles as a Cowlnama to which I have affixed my seal on the part of the Company and English Chiefs.

The Nabob Asoph-ul-Dowlah Yahya Khan Bahadre Hozzaber Jung has received from his mother, on account of the patrimony of his father, and appropriated to his own use, the sum of thirty lacks of rupees on account of the present, and twenty-six lacks on account of former debts, in specie, goods, jewels, elephants, camels, &c., and the Faraikhyt (full acquittal) which the Nabob Asoph-ul-Dowlah gives to his mother is a voucher. My seal is affixed thereto, so that it may be considered as an act of the Company and English Chiefs. With respect to the jaghiers, gunges, culadarries, gardens, the mints of Oudh and Fyzabad, which the late blessed Nabob gave to the Bhegum, the Nabob Asoph-ul-Dowlah will not molest her in the possession of them, but leave her in the free enjoyment of them during her life-time, and she is to collect whatever may appear due from the jaghiers, through her own people. The English Chiefs are guarantees for the observance of these Articles. No one shall molest her. When the Bhegum goes on a pilgrimage no person shall obstruct or hinder her. The Bhegum is sole mistress of her own people; no one shall make any demand on her eunuchs or women. She is at liberty to act as she pleases with respect to them.

When the Bhegum goes on her pilgrimage, she may leave the charge of the jaghiers, &c., to whomsoever she pleases. The English Chiefs are guarantees of this.

List of Jaghiers, Gunges, &c., exactly the same as that in No. 1.

Agreement concluded by the Governor-General with the Vizier on the 19th of September 1781.

The Nabob Vizier-ul-Mummalic, Asoph-ul-Dowlah, Asoph Jah Cawn Behauder having repeatedly and urgently represented that he is unable to support the expenses of the temporary brigade, cavalry, and English officers, with their battalions, as well as other gentlemen who are now paid by him, under the denomination of Sebundy, &c., &c., and having made sundry requests to that and other purposes; and as the constancy and firmness of his alliance with the Company entitle him to every consideration and relief that may depend upon us, I, Warren Hastings, Governor-General, Imad-ul-Dowlah, Jelladit Jung Behauder, &c., &c., on behalf of the Governor-General and Council, have agreed to the undermentioned Articles, this 19th day of September, in the year of our Lord 1781, corresponding to the last Rumzan, 1895 of the Hegira.

ARTICLE 1.

That the temporary brigade and three regiments of cavalry be no longer charged to the Nabob's account for the year Fussellee 1189, excepting a term for two and a half months, which is required for their passing the Nabob's boundaries; and for which, together with all former allowances and arrears, their usual pay and allowances are to be made good. Also the English Officers, with their Sebundy battalions, and other gentlemen, excepting the Resident's office, now upon the Nabob's list, be no longer at his charge for the year 1189, the arrears being paid up, with the addition of two months' allowances; the true meaning of this being, that no more troops be paid for by the Nabob than the number of European artillery and sepoys agreed for, under the title of one brigade, with the late Nabob Shujah-ul-Dowla, now paid for at the rate of Rs. 2,60,000 per month, to which is now to be added one regiment of sepoys of the present establishment, expressly allowed for the purpose of protecting the office, treasury, and person of the Resident at Lucknow, the pay and allowances of which are to commence from the 1st of August next, at the rate of Rs. 25,000 per month. The regiment to be relieved every three months. The brigade to be stationed or moved wherever the Nabob shall direct, in the mode prescribed in the former Treaty with the Nabob Vizier deceased. And, finally, that whenever the Nabob Vizier shall require a further aid of troops from the Company, the pay and allowances shall commence from the day of their passing the Carammassa; also, should the assistance of the Nabob's troops be required by the Company, their pay and allowances, as may then be agreed upon, be allowed during the time they may serve.

ARTICLE 2.

That as great distress has arisen to the Nabob's Government from the military power and dominion of the jaghiredars, he be permitted to resume such as he may find necessary; with a reserve that all such, for the amount of whose jaghire the Company are guarantees, shall, in case of the resumption of their lands, be paid the amount of their net collections, through the Resident, in ready money.

ARTICLE 3.

That as Fyzoola Khan has, by his breach of Treaty, forfeited the protection of the English Government, and causes, by his continuance in his present independent state, great alarm and detriment to the Nabob, he be permitted, when time shall suit, to resume his lands, and pay him in money, through the Resident, the amount stipulated by the Treaty, after deducting the amount and charges of the troops he stands engaged to furnish by Treaty, which amount shall be passed to the account of the Company during the continuance of the present war.

ARTICLE 4.

That no English Resident be appointed to Furruckabad, and the present one recalled.

ARTICLE 5.

That the Treaties made between the English and the Nabob Shuja-ul-Dowla be ratified between the present parties, as far as may be consistent with the above-written Articles; and that no officers, troops or others, be put upon the Nabob's establishment, exclusive of those herein stipulated.

(Sd.) E. HAY,

Sub-Secretary to the Honourable Board.

AGREEMENT made by the VIZIER with the GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

Having, on my behalf, agreed to the requisitions of the Nabob Vizier without diminution or reserve, I must now repeat the request which I before verbally made to him, that he will be pleased to attend to such proposals as I shall have to make to him: and to these I expect his assent the more readily, as they have for their ultimate object his interest alone, that of the Company being no further concerned, than in the influence which they will eventually have in the payment of the debt due from the Nabob to the Company.

I, therefore, recommend to him to reduce the great number of his Sebund and other troops to regular and complete establishments; not to be paid by assignments of revenue, but in money from the treasury, and their number not to exceed the certain means of paying them. But as this may be difficult, without making a separation of the Nabob's public and private funds, I further recommend that he receive into his private purse no more than a fixed monthly sum, for the expenses of his person and household; and that the remainder of the net collections be left in a public treasury, under the management of his public ministers and the inspection of the Resident, for the discharge of his military and civil disbursements.
Part II

Oudh—No. XLII. 105

This advice is not meant to affect the assignments annually, and which must be annually renewed, for the payment of the past debt and the current demands of the Company.

Signed and sealed by the Nabob, accepting and promising to conform to the above advice.

TREATY with the Vizier ASOPH-UL-DOWLA, NABOB of OUDE 1787.

From Earl Cornwallis to the From the Nabob Vizier to Earl Visier, written 15th April 1787. Cornwallis, received 21st July 1787.

The Treaty concluded between the English Company and the Nabob Shuja-ul-Dowla, was founded on considerations of mutual advantage to both parties, and the same principle has continued to operate in confirming and improving the friendship and alliance between the Company and your Excellency. A connection formed with a view to the interests of both Governments ought to be perpetual: for this reason, since my appointment to the control over affairs here, my intentions have been directed towards measures tending to support and strengthen this friendly system.

As I consider the Company's Territories and those of your Excellency as the same, the protection of your Excellency's dominions is absolutely necessary, as being from its situation the boundary of the whole, and exposed to foreign attacks. This protection cannot be effected in a proper manner without the assistance of the Company's troops, and I therefore beg leave to represent to your Excellency such

Your Lordship's friendly letter every word of which breathes strength of friendship, and every syllable contains a performance of the duties of intimacy and close connexion, arrived in a happy hour, and afforded me infinite satisfaction. Its contents are, that it is the intention of the Company, and also your Lordship's firm resolution, that there should be no interference in the detail of my Government. That the Resident at Lucknow should receive a positive order, that neither from himself, nor from any other gentlemen, nor from any person concerned with your Lordship's Government, should any kind of interference take place. That leaving my administration entirely to myself and my ministers, all interference from others should be stopped; and representing the particulars of every matter which was contained in your Lordship's heart.
circumstances as have, after mature reflection, occurred to me, with respect to the troops stationed at Futty Ghur, which had been withdrawn, as stipulated in the Treaty of Chunar of 1781, I advise that they shall not be recalled, but continued. I make this proposal upon a conviction that, from the extent of your Excellency's dominions, the English forces now stationed there are requisite for their defence. Although there is no prospect of any attack on your Excellency's territory at present, its security must ultimately depend upon the strength of the force stationed for its protection, and while this is sufficient no one will dare to entertain views of hostility against your Excellency. Although the bravery and discipline of the English troops on all occasions are well known, and have been proved, even when their enemies have been in the proportion of twenty to one, and by the blessing of God they will always triumph over their enemies, yet since at all times chance of war is doubtful, prudence and wisdom require that every possible means should be used to determine it in our favour. Your Excellency must be sensible that there is no comparison between the troops of the Company and those in your Excellency's service, and that without the assistance of the former, your dominions and authority would be insecure. I am convinced that if your Excellency considers these opinions, you will be sensible of the propriety of my proposition, and approve the continuance of troops, whose valour and discipline can be relied on, in preference to those who are unskilful and undisciplined, and I doubt not but your Excellency will agree to the

The Nabob Hyder Beg Khan has fully explained to me the particulars of your Lordship's kindness and magnanimity which form the ground of your Lordship's settlement of my affairs, and has occasioned me an excess of pleasure and happiness. I, who have, day and night, received such happiness from a recollection of your Lordship's goodness, now enjoy such pleasure from perceiving your kindness, and am so thankful for it that it would require volumes to express a small share only. It is well known that from the lifetime of the deceased Nabob, until the day of his death, and the commencement of my administration, the friendship with the English gentlemen has been perfect, strong and sincere, and, by the help of Providence, will every day increase.

At this time that so great a Chief, possessed of Divine wisdom and understanding, is arrived with full power and authority for the arrangement of this country, it may be very well conceived, that I understand such an arrival to have happened simply from my own good fortune, and entertain the most perfect confidence that all my affairs will be settled to my own satisfaction. With respect to the continuance of the troops stationed at Futty Ghur which your Lordship has written with such greatness and magnanimity, that they may remain, as heretofore, I have perfectly understood; notwithstanding from the great weight of expense which my Government has experienced every year from these troops, and the negotiations which have passed with former gentlemen on this subject in particular, and the manner in which this matter was settled, after so much altercation, which doubtless your Lordship is additional expense of effective troops, where the object is the defence of the country; for this reason I do not hesitate to recommend to your Excellency to discharge so much of your own army as will allow for the additional expense attending the continuance of these effective troops. Your Excellency must also be sensible that the sums necessary for the pay of these troops are expended in your dominions.

The sole object of this proposition is to provide, in an effective manner, for the defence of your Excellency's country; and your Excellency must be convinced of the benefits derived from our protection, since, whilst all other parts of Hindostan have been involved in war and exposed to the devastations attending it, your Excellency's dominions have remained in the fullest enjoyment of peace and security. Many other arguments of the greatest weight might be urged in support of my proposition; but such is my opinion of the force of those I have alleged, that I trust that they will make the same impression on your Excellency, and that there is no necessity to urge others.

It is my firm intention not to embarrass your Excellency with further expense than that incurred by the Company, from their connexion with your Excellency, and for the protection of your country, which by the accounts, I find amounts to fifty lakhs of Fyzabad sixteen sun Sicca Rupees annually. In this sum are included the allowance to the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan, the stipend of the Rohillas, and the expenses of the Residency acquainted with, I have every hope, in every situation, for advantage and prosperity from your Lordship, and conceive it necessary to represent the particulars of them to you; but having heard of your Lordship's intention to come to this quarter, which is the greatest desire of my heart, and from which I receive the greatest pleasure, I have postponed any mention of these matters until that happy time, and now consider it necessary, first to procure your Lordship's good will; afterwards, that you will mention, from your great goodness and grandeur, which is universally known and gives satisfaction and ease to my heart, that which will tend to my prosperity and happiness, and meet with your approbation; therefore, with a view to preserve your Lordship's good will and satisfaction, I agree to the continuance of the troops now stationed at Futty Ghur and Cawnpore, and to their expenses, with the stipend of my brother Meer Saadet Ali Khan Behauder, the tuncaws of the Rohillas, the disbursements of the Residency at Lucknow, and other gentlemen, and the Resident with His Majesty, at Scinde, the expenses of the dawk, &c., which your Lordship has fixed fifty lakhs annually for me to pay. Your Lordship has also said that my expenses should not exceed the sum of fifty lakhs of rupees, and that nothing further should be demanded of me; and that whenever either of the two brigades or corps of cavalry should be recalled, or any material diminution should take place in those troops, a deduction shall be made, agreeable to estimate, from the sum of fifty lakhs. I agree to this, and send the kist-bundy; and I am well convinced also, that your Lordship will be kind on the part of this Government; in short, it is my intention, from the date on which this new Agreement shall take place, your Excellency shall not be charged with any excess on this sum of fifty lakhs of Sicca Rupees, and that no further demand shall be made.

If your Excellency, hereafter, shall find it necessary to demand any more forces from the Company, your Excellency will pay the excess upon a fair estimate; and if either of the two brigades or corps of cavalry shall be recalled, or any considerable diminution in their force shall take place, I will allow for the decrease of the expense from the sum agreed to by your Excellency, agreeable to a fair calculation. In order that no grounds for a difference in opinion or doubt may remain as to the real meaning of this Article, I think it necessary to inform your Excellency, that whenever there is a necessity for any alteration in the arrangement of these troops, either by increasing or diminishing the cavalry or infantry, this Article does not tend to preclude it, provided the whole force shall not be considerably decreased, and that no additional charge be made on your Excellency on account of such alteration.

A Resident, as at present, will remain at your Excellency’s Court; but as it is the intention of the Company, and my firm resolution, that no interference shall take place in the details of the affairs of your Excellency’s Government, strict orders shall be sent to him that he shall neither interfere himself, nor suffer interference by public or private claims of exempand favourable towards me, in whatever will tend to my ease and prosperity.

I have not answered every particular of your Lordship’s kind letter, because I have heard that your Lordship positively means to come to this quarter, and when we meet, every matter will be answered in a most friendly manner. Now, considering acquiescence to your Lordship’s orders and preservation of your pleasure as the principle of friendship, I have complied.

Your Lordship writes with respect to Furruckabadd, that it shall be and continue as before under me, and that the English Resident there, either now or at the end of the year 1194 Fusselle, shall be recalled, and after that period he shall not remain, nor any other be appointed; and you order me to be kind and just towards the rights of the Nabob Mozuffer Jung, and that, in whatever manner it may be necessary to settle and arrange the affairs of that district, I should give a suitable allowance to the Nabob Mozuffer Jung; and as the Nabob’s mother and his brother, Dil Dilere Khan, and Roy Deeb Chund, late Dewan, have shown their zeal to your Government and to the Company, it is necessary to fix some allowance for them, independent of the Nabob Mozuffer Jung; that it is well known the enmity which the Nabob bears towards them, and that in consequence of the confidence of your Government placed on Dil Dilere Khan, it is much to be feared that unless he is protected, he will experience distress from the enmity of the Nabob Mozuffer Jung; that I therefore cause to be paid to them a proper allowance out of the amount paid to Nabob Mozuffer tions of duties, or in any other mode, from any British subject or person under the authority of this Government. In short leaving the whole management of your country to your Excellency and your Ministers, I will put a stop to the interference of others; and in order to carry this effectually into execution, I propose to your Excellency not to suffer any European to reside in your dominions, without my written permission. In case that should be granted, a copy of it shall be transmitted to you.

If any European shall reside there without my permission in writing, your Excellency shall oblige him to quit the country; or, if demanded, send him to the Resident on the part of the Company.

A retrospect into past transactions and the friendship so well known to exist between your Excellency and the Company, induce me to state the following circumstance; that for several years past, the inhabitants of your Excellency's dominions, from motives of self-interest, have appealed to this Government and this has been a source of injury to the affairs of your Government. I am determined to put a stop to this practice and to disregard their applications, but as the connexion between the two Governments is universally known, strict attention to justice on your part will add credit and renown to both.

With respect to Furruckabad, the fourth Article of the stipulation of Chunar shall be observed on my part, and the English Resident there, either now or at the end of 1814 Fussellee, shall be recalled, and after that period he shall not remain, nor shall any other be appointed. On this subject, in consequence of the interference hitherto assumed by this Government in the affairs of that province, I think it necessary to inform your Excellency, Jung, through the Resident at Lucknow. In this manner I will act as your Lordship has ordered, and will cause to be paid to the mother of Mozuffer Jung, and his brother, Dil Dilere Khan, and Roy Deeb Chund, allowances through the Resident at Lucknow, and will assist and protect Dil Dilere Khan, the mother, and Roy Deeb Chund. Until the honour of an interview, I hope to be honoured and made happy with friendly letters from your Lordship.

Enclosure.

Kistbundy, or instalment, for the Company's money, on account of the expenses of the troops stationed at Cawnpore, Futty Ghur, and Lucknow, the stipend of the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan, the Rohillas, the expenses of the Resident and other gentlemen at Lucknow, the expenses of the dawk, and the gentlemen stationed with His Majesty and Scindea, from the month of March 1787 to February 1788, inclusive, under the seal of the Vizier.

that it is incumbent on me to recommend several matters to your Excellency's attention. That, in the first instance, you pay due regard to the rights of the Nabob Mozuffer Jung; and under any circumstances that may become necessary for the management of the affairs of Furruckabad, your Excellency shall engage to allot from the revenues a sum sufficient for the honourable maintenance of the Nabob Mozuffer Jung. And as the mother of Mozuffer Jung, and his brother, Dil Dilere Khan, as well as Deeb Chund, late Dewan, have given proofs of their attachment to this Government, it is therefore expedient that some provision should be made for them, independent of Mozuffer Jung. It is well known that Mozuffer Jung considers them as inimical to him; and from the trust vested in Dil Dilere Khan by this Government, it is much to be feared, that if left unprotected, he will suffer from the resentment of Mozuffer Jung. I therefore expect that your Excellency will engage to cause specific pensions to be paid to these persons, at the expense of Mozuffer Jung, through the Resident of this Government.

By the accounts subsisting between your Excellency and the Company, a large balance is stated to be due from your Excellency; nevertheless, in conformity to the principles I have so expressly declared, I am not willing to embarrass your Excellency with any other demands than what are absolutely necessary: I propose, therefore, that your Excellency shall liquidate such part of the stated arrears as may be due to the troops employed in your country, the Residency, the Nabob Saadet Alli Khan, and the Rohilla Chiefs, on the date from which this new Agreement shall be declared in

From Hyder Beg Khan, received 21st July 1787.

I have already transmitted to your Lordship an arzie, mentioning my arrival at Lucknow, which has doubtless been perused. An answer from His Excellency the Vizier is now sent to your Lordship's kind letter. From it your Lordship will learn the particulars of His Excellency's inclination to preserve your Lordship's pleasure. Your Lordship has shown kindness and favour in the affairs of His Excellency, and there is no doubt but will always show kindness towards them, because His Excellency entertains great hopes from your Lordship.

A kistbundy for the money for the expense of the troops, &c., goes enclosed in His Excellency's letter, and I enclose a draft for the amount stated by Mr. Wombwell to be due to the troops, up to February 1787, together with two other drafts on account of the amount, due to His Royal Highness, and the stipend of Nabob Saadet Alli Khan, to February 1787. They will be seen by your Lordship. As a long period had elapsed during my journey, disorder has taken place in several modes in the affairs, and delay and procrastination have crept into the payment of the public money, and now that I am arrived, is the season for cultivation, &c. I am engaged in the affairs of the Circar, and under the blessing of God, and your Lordship's prosperity, every matter will be arranged, and the arrears due to Colonel Harper and force, as well as the arrears due to Mr. Anderson, and the remainder, whatever it may be, shall be struck out of the account, and be no longer considered as a demand of this Government on your Excellency.

The substance of what is here written has been discussed in frequent conversations with Hyder Beg Khan, who has shown himself a faithful servant to your Excellency, and a friend to both Governments. As he is fully acquainted with your Excellency's interests, and is your most confidential servant and prime minister, I have considered him as empowered to settle any arrangement for the mutual benefit of the two Governments, and have accordingly communicated to him without reserve, all that has occurred to me to promote this subject in the same manner as if your Excellency were present; nevertheless, as your Excellency's concurrence and approbation are necessary to give a final sanction to the Articles agreed upon by Hyder Beg Khan, I have thought proper to mention the heads of them in this letter, and the Nabob Hyder Beg Khan will fully explain all the particulars to your Excellency.

For the rest, your Excellency may have the most assured confidence, that I will most faithfully abide by all the Engagements on the part of the Honourable Company.

other gentlemen, whatever, after investigation, they may amount to, to the end of February 1788, shall be paid at the expiration of the time.

The amount of the instalments or kistbundy of the Company's money, on account of the disbursement of the troops, &c., has been paid into the treasury, from March 1787 to June 1787, and by God's help it will be paid in future, agreeable to the kistbundy, monthly. I hope to be honoured with letters from your Lordship.

Treaty of Commerce with the Nabob Ausuf-ul-Dowlâ, 1788.

The Right Honourable Charles, Earl Cornwallis, K.G., Governor-General, &c., &c., &c., and His Excellency the Nabob Vizier Behauder, &c., &c., having received various representations from the merchants trading between the Company's dominions and the dominions of His Excellency the Vizier, setting forth the losses and inconveniences which they suffer as well from the heavy duties collected on their merchandise, as from the mode of levying the same, His Lordship, on the part of the Honourable the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and His Excellency the Nabob Vizier, &c., with a view to remove the evils complained of, and to promote the welfare of their respective States, have agreed upon the following Articles, which shall be binding on themselves, their heirs, and successors:

Article I.

The contracting parties shall not claim any exemption from duties either for themselves, their subjects, or dependants, or any other person or persons, of whatever country or nation.

Article 2.

His Excellency the Nabob Vizier, &c., agrees to grant rowannahs, or custom house passes, under the seals and signatures of his officers, for all goods exported from his dominions to the dominions of the Company, specifying the quantity of the goods, and the valuation on which his own export duties shall have been levied. The Right Honourable Earl Cornwallis, in like manner, engages that similar rowannahs or custom house passes shall be granted for all goods exported from the Company's dominions (comprehending the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, Orissa, and the District of Benares) to the dominions of His Excellency the Vizier, specifying the quantity of the goods.
goods, and the valuation on which the duties shall have been levied in the dominions of the Company.

Article 3.

His Excellency the Vizier, &c., agrees to levy the duties on all goods imported into his territories from the Company's dominions, upon the valuation specified in the Company's rowannah. The Right Honourable Earl Cornwallis, &c., agrees to levy the duties on all goods imported from His Excellency's dominions into the district of Benares or the Company's provinces, on the valuation specified in the rowannah of His Excellency the Nabob Vizier.

Article 4.

Goods exported from the Company's dominions to the dominions of His Excellency the Vizier, if by the River Ganges, shall pay the duties at Lutchagy, or at Foolpore; if by the River Goomty, at Ghura Mobarkipore; if by the River Gogra, at Doorhy Ghaut; if by land, at Keeway, Maidnee Gunge, Chundahpertaubpore, Mow, or Maharaj Gunge; and if by the way of Circar Gooruckpore, at the Ghaut of the River Gunduck, or at Gooruckpore, Mujholee, or Chollooparah. The merchant or person in charge of the goods, upon paying the duties hereinafter mentioned, at either of the above stations, shall receive a rowannah from the Collector of the duties, under his public seal, which shall exempt the goods from all further demands or molestation whatever, in their progress through the dominions of His Excellency.

The duties on goods exported from the dominions of His Excellency the Vizier to the dominions of the Company, whether by land or water, shall be levied at the established stations in the District of Benares, and the Province of Behar, and rowannahs granted as above specified.

The contracting parties reserve to themselves the power of changing the situation of the stations for levying the duties as they may deem expedient, upon giving public notification to each other of the new station fixed upon.

Article 5.

Broad cloth, iron, copper, lead, manufactures of iron, copper, lead, gold or silver, raw-silk, silk piece goods, cotton piece goods, and piece goods made partly of silk and partly of cotton, exported from the dominions of the Company to the dominions of the Vizier, shall pay an import duty of two and a half per cent. to His Excellency, on the price specified in the rowannah taken out in the Company's dominions.

Article 6.

Salt exported from the Company's dominions to the dominions of the Nabob Vizier, shall pay an import duty of five per cent. to His Excellency, on the valuation specified in the rowannah granted at any of the stations in the Company's dominions.
ARTICLE 7.

Cotton coming from Jahlone, Hydernugger, Omraowty, Naugpore, or any of the countries of the Deccan, and passing through the dominions of the Nabob Vizier to the dominions of the Company, shall pay a duty of five per cent. to His Excellency on the fixed valuation of six rupees per maund of ninety-six sicca weight to the seer. Rowannahs for covering the same through His Excellency's dominions shall be granted at the station where the duties are levied. The same cotton, when it arrives in the Province of Benares, shall pay a duty of two and a half per cent., and two and a half per cent. more on entering the Soubah of Behar, upon the valuation above specified, or should it not pass through the jurisdiction of Benares, it shall pay five per cent. upon being imported into the Company's provinces.

ARTICLE 8.

Silk piece goods, cotton piece goods, and piece goods made partly of silk and partly of cotton, exported from the dominions of the Nabob Vizier to the Company's dominions shall pay a duty of no more than two and a half per cent. on the price specified in His Excellency's rowannah. The said duty shall be collected at the established station in Benares, should the goods pass through that district, and upon their arrival in the Company's provinces the Collectors of the Customs shall grant a rowannah, duty free, to cover such goods to any part of Bengal, Behar, or Orissa. Should the said goods enter the Company's provinces without passing through the District of Benares, the above duty of two and a half per cent. shall be levied at the first station in the Company's provinces.

ARTICLE 9.

All goods not specified in the foregoing Articles, exported from the respective dominions of the contracting parties, shall be subject to a duty of five per cent. on the valuation inserted in the rowannah of the country from whence they were originally exported. If the goods shall have been exported from the Company's dominions to the dominions of the Nabob Vizier, His Excellency will collect the duty aforesaid at one of the stations mentioned in the third Article; if from the territories of His Excellency to the dominions of the Company, two and a half per cent. shall be levied at the first established station in the District of Benares, and two and a half per cent. at the first authorized station in the Province of Behar; or, should the said goods enter the Company's provinces without passing through the jurisdiction of Benares, the whole duty of five per cent. shall be collected at the first authorized station in the Province of Behar.

ARTICLE 10.

Goods exported from the Province of Bengal, Behar, or Orissa, or from the District of Benares to the dominions of the Nabob Vizier, after having paid the import duties to His Excellency, according to the rates and in the mode prescribed in the foregoing Articles, if sold in the dominions of the Nabob Vizier, shall be subject to the established local duties of the market or gunge in which they are disposed of. Provided, nevertheless, that if the said goods shall be sold for the purpose of being exported beyond the confines of His Excellency’s dominions, and not for the consumption of the same, no local gunge or market duty, or any other duty whatsoever, shall be levied on account of such sale or purchase; but the import rowannah of the seller shall be endorsed by the Collector, or head officer in charge of such gunge, and delivered over to the purchaser, who shall transport the goods through the dominions of the Nabob Vizier, without further molestation. If such purchaser, however, should afterwars dispose of the said goods for consumption in any market or gunge in His Excellency’s territories, they shall be subject to the established duties of the same. In like manner, goods exported from the dominions of His Excellency to the dominions of the Company, after having paid the import duty in the latter, according to the rates, and in the mode prescribed in the foregoing Articles, if sold in any gunge or market, shall be subject to the local gunge or market duties under the preceding limitations.

The gunge duties to be thus levied are not to exceed the ancient established rates, to which no addition shall be made without the mutual consent of the contracting parties.

ARTICLE 11.

If any renter, zemindar, collector of the revenues, jaghiredar, or holder of rent-free lands shall levy any duties or exactions on goods passing through the dominions of the contracting parties, and on which the regular duties shall have been paid, and rowannahs taken out as prescribed in the foregoing Articles, for the first offence he shall be fined twenty rupees for every rupee so exacted; for the second offence, forty rupees; and for the third offence, if a renter or collector of the revenues, he shall be fined one hundred rupees for every rupee so exacted, and be dismissed from his farm or employment; if a zemindar, jaghiredar, or rent-free landholder, he shall forfeit his lands. Any officer of the customs exacting more than he is authorized, shall, for the first offence, be fined ten times the amount so exacted, and be dismissed from his employment. The party injured shall be indemnified out of the fines for the sum so exacted, and it shall be left to the discretion of the contracting powers to grant such further portion of the said fines as they may deem adequate to the trouble and loss of the party so injured.

ARTICLE 12.

In order to discourage every attempt to evade the payment of the import duties, merchants endeavouring to pass the station at which they are to pay the same, without having previously taken out a rowannah, shall be subject to double duties; and the contracting parties agree to issue orders in their respective territories, requiring all persons to pay the duties and take out rowannahs for their goods, as directed in the foregoing Articles, before they approach an authorized station.
This Article not to extend to the local duties in the markets or gunges, which are to be collected in the mode, and under the limitations prescribed in the tenth Article upon the goods entering the same.

Article 13.

The contracting parties reserve to themselves the right of levying whatever duties they may think proper, on all goods produced and consumed within their respective dominions, and also on their own exports, and on all imports from other countries not under the dominion of the Company or the Nabob Vizier, the article of Deccan, &c., cotton going to the Company’s dominions excepted, on which His Excellency is to levy the duties as specified in the seventh Article.

Article 14.

If any dispute shall arise between the merchants of the respective States, it shall be decided by the laws of that State in which the defendant may reside. If the defendant be a resident in the Company’s dominions, the plaintiff shall be allowed the privilege of stating his case, through the vakeel or Agent of the Vizier, to the Right Honourable the Governor-General in Council, who may refer it for decision to the provincial court of justice, within the jurisdiction of which the cause of action may have arisen, or the defendant may reside; in like manner, if the defendant be a resident in the Vizier’s dominions, the plaintiff shall be entitled to represent his case, through the English minister, to His Excellency the Vizier, who may refer it for decision to such of his officers as he may think proper. It is further agreed, that should the collectors of customs, zemindars, or other subjects of either State, act in any respect towards the merchants and traders contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Treaty, the party injured shall be entitled to seek redress in the mode above prescribed.

Article 15.

This Treaty not to extend to the Province of Rohilcund or Kuttair, in which His Excellency reserves to himself the right of collecting the duties according to the ancient established rates, or of increasing or diminishing the same as he may deem expedient.

Article 16.

His Excellency the Vizier having obtained the consent of the Nabob of Furruckabad to include his territories in this Treaty, and agreed to make him a compensation for any losses he may sustain in his revenues, in consequence of having relinquished his claim to the collection of separate duties on the Deccan, &c., cotton passing through his territories to the dominions of the Company, and on the exports from the Company’s dominions, the territories of the said Nabob are included accordingly, and as far as concerns the operation of this Treaty, are to be considered, in every respect, upon the same footing as a province of the dominions of His Excellency the Vizier.
ARTICLE 17.

This Treaty to be in force from the 1st of September next, corresponding with the 29th of Zehige, 1202 Hegira, or sooner, if it can be ratified and exchanged before that period.

Ratified at Fort William, 25th July 1788.

NO. XLIV.

Translation of an Agreement entered into by His Excellency the Nabob Vizier with the Honourable the Governor-General, at Lucknow, executed the 20th of March 1797.
The Governor-General having represented to His Excellency the Vizier the late very great increase of the Company's military establishment, by the addition of several regiments of cavalry, both European and Native, and, in compliance with the Company's orders, solicited His Excellency's assistance to defray the consequent additional expense, His Excellency, in the fullest reliance that the Company's troops are ever ready, in conformity to existing Engagements, to protect and defend his dominions against the attacks of all enemies, agrees as follows:

That he will annually defray the actual bond fide expenses of a regiment of European and one of Native cavalry, that is to say, two regiments (the amount of which expenses, however, the Governor-General cannot at present specify) provided they shall not exceed upon any account five lakhs and a half of rupees per annum. The amount to be defrayed by monthly instalments, of which the first shall commence with the month of Bysack of the present Fusseljee year.

NO. XLV.

TREATY with the NABOB VIZIER SAADET ALI KHAN BEHAUDER, —21st February 1798.

Whereas, various Treaties have been concluded at different times, between the late Nabob Shuja-ul-Dowla Behauder, and the Nabob Ausuf-ul-Dowla Behauder, and the Honorable the English East India Company, to the mutual advantage of their respective dominions, the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momaluck Yemeen-ul-Dowla Nazim-ul-Mulk, Saadeet Ali Khan Behauder, Mobarez Jung, and Sir John Shore, Baronet, on the part of the Honorable the East India Company, with a view to perpetuate the amity subsisting between the two States, and the advantages reciprocally resulting from it, now agree to the following Articles:

ARTICLE 1.

That the peace, friendship, and union so long subsisting between the two States, shall be perpetual. The friends and enemies of either shall be the friends and enemies of both; and the contracting parties agree, that all the former Treaties and Agreements between the two States, now in force, and not contrary to the tenor of this Engagement, shall be confirmed by it.

ARTICLE 2.

By the existing Treaties between the States, the Honorable the East India Company are bound to defend the dominions of His Highness the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan against all enemies. And with a view to enable them to fulfil this Engagement, and at the same time provide for the protection of their own dominions, the English Company having largely increased their military establishment, by the addition of new levied regiments, both of infantry and cavalry, the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan, in consideration thereof, agrees, in addition to the annual subsidy paid by the late Nabob Ausuf-ul-Dowla to the English Company, being fifty-six lakhs seventy-seven thousand six hundred and thirty-eight rupees, to pay in perpetuity the further sum of nineteen lakhs twenty-two thousand three hundred and sixty-two rupees, making altogether the sum of seventy-six lakhs of rupees. The said rupees to be Oude Sicca Rupees, of the present weight and standard.

Article 3.

The above subsidy of seventy-six lakhs of Oude Sicca Rupees is to commence from the 21st day of January 1798, the date of the accession of the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan to the Musnud of Oude; and the said Nabob engages that it shall be punctually discharged, month by month, as it becomes due, in sums of six hundred and thirty-three thousand three hundred and thirty-nine Oude Sicca Rupees, five annas and four pie, of the present weight and standard, according to the kistbundy annexed.

Article 4.

That the arrears of subsidy due upon former Engagements, to the 21st of January 1798, also be immediately discharged.

Article 5.

The Nabob Saadet Ali Khan agrees that an annual allowance of one lakh fifty thousand Oude Sicca Rupees be made to Vizier Ali Khan, and agrees to pay the amount by monthly kists of twelve thousand five hundred rupees to the English Company, who will pay the same to the Vizier Ali Khan, as long as he shall continue to reside in the dominions of the English Company.

Article 6.

The stipends to the Begums and Princes at Benares, amounting to two lakhs four thousand rupees per annum, and the Furruckabad pensions, amounting to twenty-three thousand six hundred and thirty-eight rupees, are included in the above sum of seventy-six lakhs of Oude Sicca Rupees.

Article 7.

The Governor-General, Sir John Shore, Baronet, on the part of the East India Company, agrees that the English forces maintained in the country of Oude for its defence, shall never consist of less than ten thousand men, including Europeans and Natives, cavalry, infantry, and artillery.
And if at any time it should become necessary to augment the troops of the Company in Oude, beyond the number of thirteen thousand men, including Europeans and Natives, infantry, cavalry, and artillery, the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan agrees to pay the actual difference occasioned by the excess above that number, and, in the same manner, if the troops of the Company in Oude, from any necessity, should be less than eight thousand men, including infantry, cavalry, artillery, Natives and Europeans, a deduction shall be made from the annual stipend, of seventy-six lakhs of rupees, equal to the actual difference of men below the specified number.

ARTICLE 8.

As the English Company are not possessed of any Fortress in the dominions of Oude, the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan, having the fullest reliance on the friendship of the English Company, agrees to make over to their exclusive possession the Fort of Allahabad, with all its buildings and appurtenances, and the ghauts immediately dependent upon the Fort, together with as much land surrounding the Fort as may be necessary for the purpose of an esplanade: the Company agreeing to be answerable to the Nabob for the amount of the revenues collected from the said ghauts. The said Nabob also agrees to advance to the Company such a sum as may be necessary for strengthening and improving the fortifications of the Fort, provided that it does not exceed the sum of eight lakhs of Oude Sicca Rupees; and that the said amount, or actual amount of the expenditure, not exceeding eight lakhs of rupees, shall be paid to the Company within two years from the date of this Treaty, in such proportions as may be required for defraying the expense to which it is applicable. And the said Nabob Saadet Ali Khan Behaider, for the same reasons, further agrees to advance to the English Company, for the purpose of repairing the Fort of Futty Ghur, within six months from the date of this Engagement, a sum not exceeding, on the whole, three lakhs of Oude Sicca Rupees.

ARTICLE 9.

If, for the better protection and defence of the dominions of the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan, it should be deemed advisable to change the present stations of the troops at Cawnpore and Futty Ghur, the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan consents thereto, and that the troops shall be stationed in such places as may be judged most advisable and convenient, and that he will defray the expense attending their removal, and making cantonments for the troops.

ARTICLE 10.

As the English Company have incurred a considerable expense by their exertions in establishing the right of the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan, the said Nabob agrees, in consideration thereof, to pay the Company the sum of twelve lakhs of Oude Sicca Rupees.

ARTICLE 11.

As the payment of the Company’s troops in Oude depends upon the regular discharge of the subsidy, stated in the second and third Articles of the Treaty, the said Nabob engages to exert his utmost endeavours to discharge the stipulated kist with punctuality; but if, contrary to the sincere intentions and exertions of the said Nabob, the payment of the kist shall fall into arrears, the said Nabob Saadet Ali Khan engages and promises, that he will then give such security to the Company for the discharge of the existing arrears, and the future regular payment of the kists, as shall be deemed satisfactory.

ARTICLE 12.

Whereas, by the Engagements now entered into between the Nabob Vizier and the Company, the amount of the subsidy is considerably increased, and many other permanent charges upon His Excellency are incurred; on a comparison of his disbursements with the assets of his country, it becomes necessary to make such reduction in the superfluous charges of the public establishments, servants, etc., as may be requisite, and are consistent with His Excellency's dignity and convenience. To that end, the said Nabob agrees to consult with the Company's Government, and, in concert with them, devise the proper objects of such reductions and the best means of effecting them.

ARTICLE 13.

As the political interests of the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan and the English Company are the same, it is expedient that all correspondence between the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan and any foreign power or State shall be carried on with the knowledge and concurrence of the Company; and the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan agrees and promises, that no correspondence contrary to the tenor of this Article shall be carried on by him.

ARTICLE 14.

As the stipulations in the Commercial Treaty between the two States have not been enforced with due attention, particularly in the dominions of the Nabob Vizier, the contracting parties agree to exert their utmost endeavours to give force and effect to them.

ARTICLE 15.

The Nabob Saadet Ali Khan engages and promises that he will not entertain any Europeans of any description in his service, nor allow any to settle in his country without the consent of the Company.

ARTICLE 16.

The Nabob Saadet Ali Khan agrees, that a suitable maintenance shall be provided for the reputed children of his brother, the late Nabob Ausuf-ul-Dowla, and willingly promises to take them under his protection.

ARTICLE 17.

The Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Saadet Ali Khan Behauder, for himself and his heirs, and the Governor-General, Sir John Shore, Baronet, on the part of the East India Company, respectively promise to observe, sincerely and strictly, all the Articles contained and settled in the present Treaty; and they both agree, that they will give the greatest attention to maintain between themselves, their dominions, and their subjects, this present Treaty and all the Articles settled by it; that all transactions between the two States shall be carried on with the greatest cordiality and harmony on both sides, and that the said Nabob shall possess full authority over his household affairs, hereditary dominions, his troops, and his subjects.

Engagement executed by the Nabob Saadet Ali Khan to the Bhow Begum (mother of the late Nabob Ausuf-ul-Dowlah) under the guarantee of the Company,—7th February 1798.

The Nabob Vizier Saadet Ali Khan, being impressed with sentiments of the sincerest respect and regard for Her Highness the Bhow Begum, and fully relying on her friendship and assistance in his affairs, whenever requisite, promises to show her every degree of respect and attention, and do everything to promote her convenience and comfort; as a proof of which the said Nabob agrees, that the pensions allotted for the Sahauss and Khoord Mehal shall be paid by Her Highness, and the Mehal of Goanda be made over to her, as a jaydaud, for that purpose. And as a public demonstration of the said Nabob’s cordial respect and attention towards Her Highness, he further consents, that the Mehals of Oude, Putchmourot Mungulsee, being situated in the vicinity of Fyzabad, which has long been her fixed residence, be ceded to her in jaghire, and that the English East India Company be considered as guarantees to this Engagement; in testimony whereof, the said Nabob has hereunto set his seal, and the Governor-General his signature.

No. XLVII.

Treaty between the Honorable the East India Company and His Excellency the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik, Yemeen-Oo-Dowla, Nazim-ul-Moolk, Saadet Ali Khan Behauder, Mobauriz Jung, for ceding to the Company, in perpetual sovereignty, certain portions of His Excellency’s territorial possessions, in commutation of the subsidy now payable to the Company by the Vizier, — 10th November 1801.

Whereas, by the Treaty now subsisting between His Excellency the Vizier and the Honorable the East India Company, the Company have engaged to defend His Excellency’s dominions against all enemies, and to enable them to fulfil that Engagement His Excellency is bound by the aforesaid Treaty to pay to the Company, in perpetuity, the annual subsidy of seventy-six lakhs of Lucknow Sicca Rupees, and is further bound by the said Treaty to defray the expense of any augmentation of force, which, in addition to the number of troops stipulated in the Treaty, shall be judged necessary to enable the Company to fulfil their Engagements of defending His Excellency’s dominions against all enemies; and whereas it is advisable that the funds for defraying these charges be established on a footing which shall admit of no fluctuation of either increase or decrease, and which shall afford satisfaction and security to the Company in regard to the regular payment in perpetuity of all such charges: The following Treaty, consisting of ten Articles, is concluded, on the one part by His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley, K.P., Governor-General for all affairs, civil and military, of the British Nation in India, through the Honorable Henry Wellesley and Lieutenant-Colonel Scott, under full powers vested in them by the said Governor-General, for the purpose of concluding a Treaty with His Excellency the Vizier, in the name and on the behalf of the Governor-General; and on the other part by His Excellency the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momajik, Yemeen-Oo-Dowla, Nizam-ul-Moolk, Saadet Ali Khan Behauder, Mobauriz Jung, on behalf of himself, and his heirs and successors, for ceding to the Honorable the English East India Company, in perpetual sovereignty, certain portions of His Excellency's territorial possessions in commutation of the former and augmented subsidy, and of all other sums of money now chargeable to His Excellency, on account of the Company's defensive Engagements with His Excellency.

ARTICLE 1.

His Excellency the Nabob Vizier hereby cedes to the Honorable the East India Company, in perpetual sovereignty, the undermentioned portions of his territorial possessions, amounting in the gross revenue to one crore and thirty-five lakhs of rupees, including expenses of collections, in commutation of the subsidy, of the expenses attendant on the additional troops, and of the Benares and Furruckabad pensions.

The above-mentioned mehals being ceded to the Honorable Company, as held by the Aumils, in the year 1206 Fusselle, no claims are to be hereafter made on account of villages or lands which in former years may have been added to or separated from the said mehals.

ARTICLE 2.

The subsidy which by the second Article of the Treaty of 1798, His Excellency engaged to pay to the Company (now that territory is assigned in lieu thereof and of the expenses of the additional troops) is to cease for ever; and His Excellency is released from the obligation of defraying the expenses of any additional troops which at any time may be required for the protection of Oude and its dependencies, whether of the countries ceded to the Company or the territories which shall remain in the possession of His Excellency the Vizier.

ARTICLE 3.

The Honorable the East India Company hereby engage to defend the territories which will remain to His Excellency the Vizier, against all foreign and domestic enemies; provided always, that it be in the power of the Company's Government to station the British troops in such part of His Excellency's dominions as shall appear to the said Government most expedient; and provided further that His Excellency, retaining in his pay four battalions of infantry, one battalion of nujeebs and muwattees, two thousand horsemen, and to the number of 300 golundauz, shall dismiss the remainder of his troops, excepting such numbers of armed peons as shall be deemed necessary for the purposes of the collections, and a few horsemen and nujeebs to attend the persons of the Aumils.

ARTICLE 4.

A detachment of the British troops, with a proportion of artillery, shall at all times be attached to His Excellency's person.

ARTICLE 5.

That the true intent and meaning of the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th Articles of the Treaty may be clearly understood, it is hereby declared, that the territorial cession, being in lieu of the subsidy, and of all expenses on account of the Company's defensive Engagements with His Excellency, no demand whatever shall be made upon the treasury of His Excellency on account of expenses which the Honorable Company may incur, by assembling forces to repel the attack or menaced attack of a foreign enemy,—on account of the detachment attached to His Excellency's person,—on account of troops which may occasionally be furnished for suppressing rebellions or disorders in His Excellency's territories,—on account of any future change of military stations,—or on account of failures in the resources of the Ceded Districts, arising from unfavourable seasons, the calamities of war, or any other cause whatsoever.

ARTICLE 6.

The territories ceded to the Honorable Company by the first Article of this Treaty shall be subject to the exclusive management and control of the said Company and their officers, and the Honorable the East India Company hereby guarantee to His Excellency the Vizier and to his heirs and successors the possession of the territories which will remain to His Excellency after the territorial cession together with the exercise of his and their authority within the said dominions; His Excellency engages that he will establish in his reserved dominions such a system of administration, to be carried into effect by his own officers, as shall be conducive to the prosperity of his subjects, and be calculated to secure the lives and property of the inhabitants; and His Excellency will always advise with, and act in conformity to, the counsel of the officers of the said Honorable Company.

ARTICLE 7.

The district ceded by the first Article of this Treaty shall be delivered over to the Company's officers from the commencement of the Fussellee year 1200, corresponding with the 22nd of September A.D. 1801, and His Excellency will continue to pay the subsidy and the expense of the additional troops from his treasury, in the same manner as hitherto observed, until the Company's officers shall have obtained complete possession, from His Excellency's officers, of the countries so ceded; the Company will not claim any payment of subsidy from His Excellency's treasury, after their officers shall have obtained possession of the Ceded Districts.

ARTICLE 8.

The contracting parties, with a view of establishing such a commercial intercourse between their respective dominions as shall be mutually beneficial to the subjects of both States, hereby agree to form a separate Commercial Treaty; in the meantime it is agreed that the navigation of the Ganges and of all other rivers where they may form the mutual boundary of the two States shall be free and uninterrupted; that is to say, that no boats passing up and down the Ganges or other rivers, where they form the mutual boundaries of both States, shall be stopped or molested for duties, nor shall any duties be exacted from boats which put to in the possessions of either of the contracting parties, without intention of landing their goods: it shall, however, be in the power of both Governments to levy such duties as they may think proper on goods imported into, or exported from, their respective dominions, not exceeding the present usage; it is further stipulated, that no exemption from duties on articles purchased in His Excellency's reserved dominions for the consumption of the troops situated within the Ceded Territories shall be claimed, after they shall have been delivered over to the Company's officers.

ARTICLE 9.

All the Articles of former Treaties for establishing and cementing the union and friendship subsisting between the two States are to continue in full force, and all the Articles of the Treaty concluded by the late Governor-General, Sir John Shore, on the part of the Honorable the East India Company, and His Excellency the Vizier, in the year 1798, not annulled by this Treaty, are to remain in full force, and to continue binding upon both contracting parties.

ARTICLE 10.

This Treaty, consisting of ten Articles, has been settled and concluded through the Honorable Henry Wellesley and Lieutenant-Colonel Scott, under the full powers vested in them by the Governor-General as aforesaid, with His Excellency the Vizier, in the City of Lucknow, on the 10th day of November in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and One, corresponding with the second of the month of Rejib of the year Twelve Hundred and Sixteen Hegira.

NO. XLVIII.

MEMORANDUM of the final result of the discussions between His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General and the NABOB VIZIER of Oudh, 1802.

On the 15th of February 1802, His Excellency the Nabob Vizier transmitted to the Governor-General a paper of propositions, to which His Excellency required the Governor-General's assent: and the Governor-General, after full deliberation on the contents of the said paper, returned a distinct answer to each of the Articles therein detailed. His Excellency the Vizier, in a paper delivered on the 22nd of the same month, proposed certain modifications of the Governor-General's answers, and the original propositions, together with the Governor-General's answers and the Vizier's proposed modifications thereof, were fully discussed at a conference held between the Governor-General and His Excellency the Vizier, on the 24th of the same month. In consequence of this conference, it was mutually agreed that certain of the Articles of the original paper of propositions should be altogether omitted, and that the Governor-General's reply to the third Article should be modified in conformity to the suggestion of His Excellency the Vizier. At the same conference His Excellency the Vizier, advertiring to the Governor-General's suggestion, in his reply to the second Article, that the Vizier should appoint some person to conduct, in the quality of Minister, the ordinary details of public affairs, proposed to constitute and appoint his second son, Mirza Ahmed Ali Khan, to act in that capacity. The Governor-General, at the same conference, deemed it to be expedient to declare to His Excellency the Vizier the general principles which, in His Lordship's judgment, should regulate the connection and intercourse between the two States, as resulting from the Treaty concluded between the Honorable Company and His Excellency the Vizier, on the 10th November 1801. With a view to obviate all future doubts on the subject and result of these communications and conferences, the Governor-General now commits to writing the final determination of the several points discussed between His Lordship and the Vizier, and affixes his seal and signature to this paper, and directs the Secretary in the Political Department, who was present at every conference, and who interpreted between the Governor-General and the Vizier, to countersign this paper.

Propositions.

Let no one, as has hitherto been the practice, afford countenance and support to any person, to impede the recovery of just balances from Aumilis and others; but, on the contrary, let him (meaning the Resident) afford assistance to the Circar in the recovery of those balances. If the Resident is desirous of withholding me from the prosecution of any particular measure, let him state his sentiments to me in private, in which case (as I am far from being disposed to act unjustly) either I will prove to the Resident the equity of the proceeding, or the Resident will set me right, and, in the latter event, I will, in conformity to his desire, abandon such proposed measure, and no one will be apprised of any disagreement subsisting between us.

Regular tribunals, in which I do not desire to possess any exclusive interest shall be established, for the sole purpose of giving effect to the Mahomedan law, of fulfilling just claims, and of securing the lives and properties of the people. It is necessary that all persons should subject themselves to the jurisdiction of those tribunals; and if any person should refuse to acknowledge the jurisdiction or oppose the authority of those tribunals, let the Company's Officers assist in enforcing obedience to them.

Answers.

Unobjectionable; and this proposal shall be observed. The Resident shall be furnished by His Excellency the Nabob Vizier with all the information necessary to establish the justice of the proceeding by vouchers and proofs.

This is perfectly wise and proper.
Propositions.

I consider Her Highness the Begum as my superior, and I am extremely desirous of supporting her dignity, and of promoting her ease. I have no concern with the produce and revenues of her jaghire, nor of any of the jaghiredars; but the authority of the courts of justice, the adjustment of disputes, the redress of grievances, the observance of the civil and criminal punishments, and all other points connected with the administration of justice, must be conducted under my orders, in the Cities of Lucknow and Fyzabad, and in all the jaghires in the same manner as in the rest of my dominions. For these things appertain to the Sovereign, whose duty it is to prevent every species of oppression. Her Highness' servants must not, in any manner, interfere in them, for a partnership in Government is impossible. It is for Her Highness' own credit that she should state to me whatever may be her desire in points of the nature above described, in order that what she desires may be accomplished, through the medium of the officers of my Government. The state of affairs hitherto prevailing has been this: that frequent tumults and bloodshed have occurred in Fyzabad, and in Her Highness' jaghire, and not the slightest attention has been paid by Her Highness to anything that I have said or written. In the time of my late brother, the settlement of disputes in the jaghires was left to the Circar. These points will give efficacy to my Government.

I request that His Lordship will have the goodness to send for Daraub Ali Khan, and desire that, exclusively of the jaghire, such property, lands, bazaars, gardens, &c., to a considerable extent, belonging to the Circar, as the officers of Her Highness have unjustly,

Answers.

The administration of justice in the Begum's jaghire must be under the Nabob's authority, and the Begum's servants must be subject to it. The authority of the Nabob's courts will be enforced by the British power.

The Governor-General proposes to take all the matters depending between the Nabob and Begum into full consideration, and to effect a settlement between the Begum and the Nabob, on just, equitable, and permanent principles.
Propositions.

and without the requisite vouchers (Sunnud), appropriated since four years (a fact which Mr. Lumsden, Molary Golaum Kauder Khan, his Moonshee, and other creditable persons such as Almas Ali Khan, Daraub Ali Khan, and their respective vakeels, can substantiate, and are fully acquainted with, which Her Highness herself formerly acknowledged, which all the most creditable officers of the Circar, such as Jye Sookh Roy, &c., know, and a statement of which property is to be found upon their records, and the appropriation of which property occasions a considerable loss to me, at a time when I am not in a condition to sustain any loss) may be restored to me, and the profits which may have been collected from such property made over to me, so that my losses therein may be compensated. This will be in conformity to Her Highness' engagements. Let His Lordship have the goodness to transmit orders to the Honorable Henry Wellesley, upon the following points.

Not to afford protection to fugitives from my country, but to surrender such, when demanded by me, or else to expel them from it.

In the event of any of the dependants of my Circar applying for farms within the Ceded Districts, to require such person to execute a writing, binding himself to take such farm only on condition that he is not in balance to the Circar.

There are several of my Aumils retaining lands in the Ceded Districts, who are in balance to the Circar, to give me credit in his accounts for the Answers.

All criminals will be reciprocally surrendered: but the subjects of both States, who shall not be accused of capital crimes, should be at liberty to pass freely from one country to the other, and to be established reciprocally in either.

All balances, now or hereafter, due to the Circar, to be adjusted within a reasonable time, and engagements to be taken to this effect from all persons in balance.

None of the Nabob's Aumils are now employed in the Ceded Provinces.
Propositions.

The sums due by such Aumils, or else to deliver up those Aumils to me, that I may recover from them what is justly due, and then let them go. When they have settled their accounts with the Circar, Mr. Wellesley will, of course, enter into such engagements with them as he may think proper.

There are many gardens and other property belonging to the Circar, in the country ceded for the charges of the troops, which are quite distinct from the revenue of the country, in the same manner, for instance, as at this moment at Benares, there is property belonging to me, and still in my occupation: let His Lordship have the goodness to direct that any property of that description in the Ceded Districts may be given into the possession of my people. A statement of the particulars of such property, gardens, &c., within the Ceded Districts, shall be given in.

I have been induced to cede the districts for the charges of the British Troops merely to gratify His Lordship, deeming it necessary so to do in consequence of Mr. Wellesley’s arrival, and resolving to conform to His Lordship’s wishes, and to obey His Lordship’s commands. Let strict orders be issued that no one may be permitted to injure or destroy any mosques, tombs, or imambarrahs, which now exist within those districts.

An engagement was contracted for paying to the Circar the monies collected at the ghauts at Allahabad. Four years have now elapsed since that time, and though I have repeatedly made application to the Resident upon this subject, nothing has hitherto been paid on that account, which occasions a considerable loss to me.

Answers.

Any property of this description which the Nabob shall satisfy the Lieutenant-Governor to belong to His Excellency, will, of course, be delivered over to his servants.

Orders shall be issued accordingly.

Orders will be issued for the settlement of this account.
Propositions.

Let orders be issued for the payment of those monies agreeably to engagement.

Mr. Wellesley promised to send the Treaty; it has not yet, however, been received. Let His Lordship (or Mr. Wellesley) be reminded to send it.

The Nabob Vizier proposes that his son, Mirza Ahmed Ali Khan, be appointed to the situation of Minister for the affairs of his Government.

I hope from His Lordship's kindness that His Lordship will in my presence, explain all the foregoing points to the Resident, and direct him to act in conformity to them; and that His Lordship will also enjoin the Resident, after His Lordship's departure, to occasion no delay or impediment in my departure, whenever I may choose to set out, and to assist me in the preparations for my journey.

Answers.

The Treaty has been sent.

The Governor-General concurs in this proposition, and considers Mirza Ahmed Ali Khan to have been appointed accordingly.

In conformity to His Excellency's desire, the proposed explanation and injunctions were stated to the Resident by the Governor-General, in His Excellency's presence on the 24th February.

The Governor-General now proceeds to state the general principles, by which the connection and intercourse between the two States are to be regulated henceforth.

By the terms of the Treaty concluded between the British Government and His Excellency the Vizier, on the 10th November 1801, His Excellency the Nabob's authority is to be completely established within his reserved dominions, and to be exercised through His Excellency's own officers and servants, the British Government having engaged to guarantee the establishment and exercise of His Excellency's authority within his reserved dominions, and the Governor-General will never depart from this engagement. His Excellency has engaged to establish within his reserved dominions such a system of administration as shall be conducive to the prosperity of his subjects, and be calculated to secure the lives and property of the inhabitants. The system of administration is to be carried into effect by His Excellency's own officers and servants, and by his own authority.

His Excellency has also engaged always to advise with, and to act in, conformity to the counsel of the officers of the Honorable Company.

In the establishment, therefore, of an improved system of administration within the reserved dominions, and also in all affairs connected with the ordinary government of those dominions, and with the usual exercise of His Excellency's established authority the Vizier has engaged to advise with, the British Government, and to conform to its counsels.

Those counsels will always be offered to His Excellency in the form of friendly advice, and in the spirit of reciprocal confidence, and of mutual regard and respect.

The Governor-General, when the importance of the subject shall require, and the nature of the occasion shall admit his immediate intercourse with the Vizier, will offer the advice of the British Government to His Excellency, by a direct communication, either in person or by letter.

The British Resident at Lucknow, however, is the constituted local representative of the British Government, and the ordinary and established channel of communication in all cases whatever.

The Resident will, therefore, in the common course of business, offer to the Vizier the advice of the British Government, in the name of the Governor-General; and in every case which may require the Resident Propositions.

Answers.

to state such advice, it is to be received as proceeding immediately from the Governor-General.

Such advice will be offered by the Resident in all practicable cases, under the general or specific orders of the Governor-General.

The Resident must advise the Nabob with perfect cordiality, and must employ every endeavour to coincide with His Excellency in an uniform course of measures, and to unite sincerely with His Excellency, in carrying into effect, exclusively under His Excellency's authority, and through His Excellency's officers, those measures which shall be determined upon in conformity to the counsels of the British Government. In cases requiring the aid of the British Government, or the assistance of the British troops, they shall be employed according to the exigency of the occasion.

The Resident must conduct himself towards the Nabob Vizier, on all occasions, with the utmost degree of respect, conciliation, and attention, and must maintain cordial union and harmony in all transactions, and must endeavour to impart strength and stability to His Excellency's authority.

The Resident must never proceed to act in the affairs of the reserved dominions, without previous consultation with His Excellency or with his Ministers, and the Resident must, in the first instance, observe strict secrecy with regard to the subject of such consultations, until the measures to be adopted shall be finally determined.

Under these regulations, the Governor-General expects that the Propositions.

Nabob Vizier will act in conformity to the advice and representations of the Resident; and as no question of difficulty remains between the British Government and His Excellency, the Governor-General entertains a confident hope that no future vexation can occur in the transaction of affairs.

No. XLIX.

TREATY with NABOB SAADET ALI,—14th January 1812.

Whereas, disputes and contentions have arisen between the subjects of the Honorable Company and of the Government of His Excellency the Vizier, regarding the boundaries of their respective villages, the possession of lands acquired by alluvion, and of islands formed in the rivers which constitute the frontier of the two States; therefore, and with the view of settling and obviating such disputes at the present and in all future times, the following Treaty is concluded by His Excellency the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Yemeem-Oo-Dowla, Nazim-ul-Moolk, Saadet Ali Khan Behauder, Mobauriz Jung, for himself, his heirs and successors, and by Major John Baillie, Resident at Lucknow, by virtue of full powers vested in him for this purpose on the part of the Right Honorable Gilbert, Lord Minto, one of His Britannic Majesty’s Most Honorable Privy Council and Governor General of all the British possessions in the East Indies, on the part of the Honorable the United East India Company and their heirs and successors.

Article 1.

Every island and portion of ground which at the end of the Fussellee year 1208 appertained to the Ceded Territory belong now to the British Government, and every island and portion of land that appertained to the reserved dominions belong now to His Excellency the Vizier. Any island originally belonging to either State which shall, by inundation, disappear, shall, on its re-appearance, belong to that State whose property it originally was, although its form may be altered; and all villages and lands situated on the boundary of the two States which appertained at the above period to either of the States shall hereafter and for ever, without dispute, be the property of the State to which they belonged at that time.

Article 2.

If any river or stream forming the boundary of the two States shall, by gradually changing or receding from its present channel or course, occasion an alluvion or create an increase of land on either of the banks of such river, the land so gained by alluvion shall be the unquestionable property of the State whose territory is situated on the bank from which the river may have receded, notwithstanding any loss which may arise to the other party from the encroachment of such river on his territory.

Article 3.

All islands which have been formed in the channels of rivers or streams forming the boundaries of the two States since the end of the year 1208 Fusselle or which may hereafter be so formed, shall be adjudged to belong to the State on whose frontier the channel may be fordable, and in the case of the channels on both sides of the island being equal in point of depth, the island shall be considered to form a part of the territory of that State to which at any point it is the most contiguous.

Article 4.

In the case of a subsequent alteration in the course of the principal channel of a river or stream forming the boundary of the two States, that is, if the channel on either side of an island which was in the first instance deep, shall become shallow, and the channel, on the opposite side become deep, in this case the right to the island shall again be transferred to the State on whose boundary the channel is shallow, and the same rule shall be applied to eventual changes in the contiguousness and distance of islands from the territories of the two States. Further as, with a view to ascertain the comparative depth and breadth of the opposite channels of a river in which an island may be formed, the specification of a period is indispensable, the contracting parties do hereby stipulate and agree that the commencement of the season of the rubee be the specific period assigned in all cases of dispute for ascertaining the depth and breadth of the channels.

Article 5.

If at any time, as in the case of rivers or streams forming the common boundary which wind greatly in their course, an arm or portion of land shall be separated from the territory of either State by the total alteration of the course of a river or stream, the land so separated shall belong exclusively to the State to whose territory it may by such alteration have been annexed, notwithstanding any territorial loss which may be sustained by the opposite party.

ARTICLE 6.

What has been agreed to in the foregoing Articles, relates merely to the prevention of disputes between the two States with respect to the lands alluded to in those Articles, and has no reference whatever to the rights of zemindars.

ARTICLE 7.

This Treaty, comprising seven Articles, having been settled and concluded in the City of Lucknow, on the 14th of January, in the year of our Lord 1812, corresponding with the 28th of the month of Zilhujjii, of the year 1226 Hegira, Major John Baillie, Resident, has delivered to the Vizier one copy of the same in English and Persian, sealed and signed by him, and His Excellency the Vizier has delivered to Major Baillie another copy, also in Persian and English, bearing His Excellency's seal and signature, and Major Baillie hereby engages to procure and deliver to His Excellency the Vizier, within the space of thirty days, a copy of the same, under the seal and signature of the Right Honorable the Governor-General, when the copy under his own seal and signature shall be returned.

Resident.

This Treaty was ratified by the Governor-General in Council.

NO. L.

ENGAGEMENT with the Nabob Ghazi-ood-deen Hyder, Vizier of Oudh,—dated 12th July 1814.

The friendship and alliance which so firmly and happily subsisted between His Excellency the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik, Yemeen-oo-Dowlah, Nazim-ul-Moolk, Saadet Ali Khan Behaude, Mobauriz Jung (whose soul is in Paradise), and the Honorable Company's Government, are to be considered as perfectly unimpaired, and shall meet with no interruption whatever. All existing Treaties and Engagements likewise that were contracted with the late Nabob are in full force, to all intents and purposes; and we hereby declare, that we are effectually bound by the Engagements and Treaties aforesaid, and by the blessing of God, the said Treaties and Engagements shall be duly observed until the end of time.

Signed and sealed on the 12th day of July A. D. 1814, answering to the 22nd of Rujub A. H. 1229, with the seal and signature of His Highness Refant-ooldowla, Rufee-ool-Moolk Ghaze-oold-Deen Hyder Khan Behauder, Shehamut Jung, Nabob of Oude, and delivered in duplicate on the day aforesaid by His Highness' hand to Emand-ooldowla, Afsul-oool-Moolk, Major John Baillie, Behauder Arsulam Jung, Resident at the Court of Lucknow.

DEED of DEPOSIT executed by the BUHOO BEGUM,—1813.

BOOBOO SOODH BUTCHUN

\[ \text{L. S} \]

DARAB ALEE KHAN.

This is an obligation in the manner of a Deed of Deposit by Her Highness the Bow Begum, daughter of Mootumen-oold-Dowla Ishak Khan, deceased, wife of Nawab Shooja-oold-Dowla, deceased, and mother of the late Nawab Asuf-oold-Dowla, in favor of the Honourable Company's Government, whose guarantee for the security and protection of Her Highness, her friends and dependents, has long been established to the effect underwritten, \textit{vis:}.—

My jaghires, houses, property and goods of every description shall remain in my possession while I live, and I alone shall have the power of using them for the support and provision of those who are dear to me, my nephews and other relations, dependents, eunuchs, and female slaves, &c., as I think proper. But being mindful of the uncertainty of this transitory life, and with a view to future events, while yet in health of body and of sound intellect and judgment, I hereby give and surrender in trust and deposit, to the Members of the Honourable Company's Government, the whole of the property and goods in ready money, household furniture, plate and jewels, &c., now in my possession, amounting to the sum of seventy lakhs of rupees, as particularly stated and described in a separate schedule under my seal, and whatever I may hereafter acquire and possess from this date till the day of my death, conferring and bestowing on the said Government the fullest power and authority over all my said property and possessions, for the purpose and with the intent that they, the members of the said Government, in consideration of their ancient friendship for me, and as they have done hitherto during my life time, do continue after my death to be the guardians and protectors of all those who are dear to me, my nephews, connections, eunuchs and other dependents, and do secure and preserve to those persons individually, name by name, and to their heirs and successors for ever, the jaghires and monthly allowances in money from the income of my personal wealth, which I have assigned to each of them respectively in a separate statement under my seal; that so they may be rendered independent of every other person for subsistence.

The British Government will further protect my said relations and dependents against all tyranny and oppression, and will support them in the unmolested possession of all such houses, gardens, bazaars and shops, profits and perquisites of every description, as they may have occupied and enjoyed during my life, taking care that no person shall disturb either them or their heirs or successors in the occupation and enjoyment of those possessions; and as my faithful servant Darab Alee Khan Nazeer, and all other public officers, eunuchs, and dependents of my Government have hitherto satisfied me, and will continue to do so during my life, as to the accuracy of their conduct and accounts no demands should hereafter be made against them, nor should they be required to give any account, save for the immediate surrender and delivery to the Honourable Company's Government, agreeably to my orders, of the property in money and goods above stated to be now in my possession, and the further amount to be accumulated from this date until the day of my death, of which a faithful account shall be rendered.

In addition to the several provisions to individuals which are stated in the accompanying list, the sum of three lakhs of Sicca Rupees is to be given to my servant Darab Alee Khan for the purpose of erecting a mausoeum over the place of my interment, and one lakh of Sicca Rupees to be appropriated as a donation to the shrines of Kurbula, Nujufe Ashruff, and other holy places, at the discretion of my said minister, who is a faithful and religious person, and will apply the money to the purposes specified.
To defray the annual expenses of the said mausoleum, villages in the Pergunnah of Puchumrath, having a clear jumma of Sicca Rupees ten thousand, shall be allotted; and the surplus revenue of the villages to be given to the poor and religious inhabiting the said mausoleum, that they may enjoy peace and tranquility of mind.

The stipends of those that are dear to me, my nephews, eunuchs, booboes, female slaves, and other dependents, to be regularly paid from the revenue of my jaghire, or from the income of my personal wealth, to Darab Alee Khan who will distribute the money among them, and whose recommendations and suggestions shall be received and attended to on their behalf, and after establishing and securing the whole of the above-mentioned salaries and pensions, and paying the foregoing sums, the balance of my property in ready money and valuables shall be at the entire and uncontrolded disposal of the Honourable Company's Government, to do whatever they please with it, and to give it to whomever they please.

But as some of my relations and connections, who are mentioned in the accompanying list, have jaghires and established allowances in money from another Government, which are liable to resumption or diminution on the death of the present possessors, contrary to the practice of my Sircar, it is incumbent on the Honourable Company's Government, with a view to its own reputation and for the credit of my name, after securing the several provisions detailed in the accompanying list, to reserve in its own hands such a portion of the residue of my property, as will ensure a suitable provision in perpetuity to the descendants of those of my relations, whose allowances may be resumed at their death, that no person related to me may be left in an indigent condition.

To Darab Alee Khan, for the purpose of erecting a mausoleum over the place of my interment, three lakhs of rupees.

To Darab Alee Khan, as nuzzurs to the shrines of Karbula, Nujuf Ashruff, and other holy places, one lakh of rupees.

To Darab Alee Khan, to defray the annual expenses of the said mausoleum, villages in the Pergunnah of Puchumrath, to the amount of Sicca Rupees ten thousand.

The stipend to the families of my brothers, Nawab Mirza Alee Khan and Nawab Salar Jung, to remain on the same footing as they have been since the time of the late Nabob Asuf-ood-Dowla, and the British Government will continue to aid and support them on all occasions; and if at any future period, on the death of the present incumbents, those stipends or a part of them should be resumed by the Vizier, the British Government is in this case to act as desired by the Deed of Deposit, that is, to grant a suitable allowance to the heirs of the persons deceased from the revenue of my jaghire or the residue of my property at its disposal.

The stipend of Mirza Cassim Alee Khan will also remain as heretofore since the time of the Nabob Asuf-ood-Dowla, and the British Government will assist and protect him on all occasions for my sake and in compliance with my earnest request; and if at any future period, on the death of the said Mirza Cassim Alee Khan, the whole or a part of his stipend should be resumed by His Excellency the Vizier, in that case the British Government is to act as desired in the Deed of Deposit, that is, to grant a suitable allowance in money to the heirs of the said Cassim Alee Khan, either from the revenue of my jaghire or the residue of my personal wealth.

The allowances of the Khas Muhl from the Mehals of Goonda to remain as heretofore, and to be paid to the members of the said Mehals agreeably to the separate list; and if at any future period the whole or any part of the stipends of Looti-oon-Nissa, Mirza Mahummud Tuckee Khan, Mirza Naseer or their children should be resumed by the Vizier, the British Government is in that case to act as directed in the Deed of Deposit, that is, to grant an equal allowance in money from the revenue of my jaghire, or from the income of my personal property.

The allowances of the children and dependents of Mirza Jooma shall continue after my decease to be paid to them as heretofore, and if these allowances be resumed, the British Government will assign a suitable provision for those persons from my jaghire or my personal property.

The monthly allowance which was granted to Zufr-ood-Dowla, deceased, in lieu of his jaghire shall be secured to his children and dependents: or otherwise the British Government shall assign to them a suitable stipend from the revenue of my jaghire, or from the annual income of my property.

Resident.
To

HER HIGHNESS THE BHOW BEGUM.

Written 29th October 1813.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of Your Highness' letter to the address of the late Governor-General, the Earl of Minto, referring to the result of your communications with Major Baillie, who had proceeded to Fyzabad to receive Your Highness' commands; and Major Baillie has reported to me the substance of what passed at the several conferences with which you honored him during his residence at Fyzabad.

2. The arrangement which Your Highness has adopted in order to secure the due fulfilment of your wishes in favor of your relations and dependents is worthy of your acknowledged discernment and prudence, and will tend to enlarge and perpetuate the fame of your wisdom and piety; and it will, I trust, be the means of securing to the full extent your benevolent intentions. I will not conceal from Your Highness, however, that I should have felt more confidence on that subject if Your Highness had seen fit to place in the immediate charge of the British Government such a portion of your wealth as would be equal to the demand on that account, as suggested to you by Major Baillie. Your Highness may, however, rely on the just and punctual discharge, by the British Government, of the trust which you have confided to it, and may be assured that it will in all its measures consult the honor and reputation of Your Highness, and the comfort and security of those who have been so fortunate as to become the objects of your regard and affection.

For Your Highness' further satisfaction I have executed an instrument, which will be transmitted to Your Highness by the Resident at Lucknow, containing the unqualified confirmation and guarantee by the British Government of the disposition of Your Highness' personal property, prescribed in the documents under Your Highness' seal, and attested by Darab Alee Khan and Baboo Sook Butchun, which were delivered to Major Baillie.

3. Your Highness is aware that the consent of His Excellency the Vizier must be obtained to the grant of villages in Pergunnah Puchumrath, and although it cannot be doubted that His Excellency will most readily comply with Your Highness' wishes in an affair in which Your Highness' satisfaction and his own reputation are equally concerned, it must be obvious to Your Highness that the British Government can only engage to employ its utmost influence with His Excellency to obtain his consent to the desired arrangement. I have accordingly instructed Major Baillie to obtain, at a fit season, His Excellency's acquiescence, and I have no doubt that at an early period he will be enabled to make a communication to Your Highness on the subject, which will be entirely satisfactory to your mind.

4. I request Your Highness to accept the assurances of the unalterable respect and attachment of the British Government, and to repose implicit confidence in its zeal and anxiety for your interest and comfort.
Draft of Engagement to Her Highness the Bhow Begum.

Her Highness the Bhow Begum having, by an instrument bearing her seal, and duly attested by witnesses, declared her intention to make over to the British Government the whole of her personal property, in order to enable that Government to provide for Her Highness’ relations and dependents, to the extent and in the manner specified in a separate paper, also sealed with Her Highness’ seal, and witnessed as above, and for other purposes expressed in those papers; and Her Highness having moreover delivered to the Resident at Lucknow a Schedule under her seal, specifying the estimated amount and value of her property in money and jewels, and the places in which it is deposited; the Governor-General hereby confirms and guarantees the disposition of Her Highness’ personal property prescribed in the documents above referred to, and promises and engages that on obtaining possession of that property the whole of Her Highness’ directions, in favor of her relations and dependents, and with regard to the other objects mentioned in those papers, shall, as far as depends on the British Government, be carried into early and complete effect; and the Governor-General further engages to employ the utmost influence of the British Government to obtain from His Excellency the Vizier the grant in perpetuity of villages in the Pergunnah of Puchumrath, of the annual jumma of Rupees 10,000, in the name of Darab Alee Khan, according to Her Highness’ desire. The Governor-General moreover promises to afford the countenance and protection of the British Government to Her Highness’ relations and dependents, and to maintain them and their posterity in the possession of the provisions which Her Highness has devised to them.

Done at Fort William, this 29th day of October 1813.

No. 2.

To

His Highness the Nabob Reauf-Ood-Dowlah.

Written the 19th July 1814.

A considerable time has elapsed since I received the orders of Government to submit to the notice of Your Highness’ father, of blessed memory, the objects and result of my proceedings on the occasion of my visit to Fyzabad, at the request of Her Highness the Begum, in the months of July and August last. My delay to execute those orders was occasioned, in the first instance, by the necessary preparation of copies of a number of documents of a secret and important nature, the transcribing of which could only be entrusted to the most confidential of my native servants, and subsequently by the unhappy indisposition of Your Highness’ father, which precluded the propriety of my bringing subjects of this nature before him. I had, in fact prepared a letter on the subject to His Excellency the late Vizier, which forms the groundwork of this address to Your Highness, and was intended to have been delivered on the 12th instant, at a conference which was fixed for that day.

The documents which I now submit to Your Highness are so very explicit in their tenor, and so fully descriptive of the just and natural objects to which they refer, as to render comments on my part superfluous; and the explanations with which I am charged by the Government being calculated rather to meet eventual enquiries on the part of His Excellency the late Vizier, than to answer any immediate purpose of our Government in this communication, may, with obvious propriety, be reserved for an occasion of personal conference hereafter, if the subject of the documents enclosed should appear to Your Highness to require it.

Your Highness is probably aware of the original intention of Her Highness the Bhow Begum, announced in a manner the most solemn to the Most Noble the Governor-General Marquis Wellesley, through the medium of the late Colonel Scott, to transfer the whole of her property, real and personal, including the revenues of her Jaghire, which Her Highness considered as the free and irrevocable gift of her husband, the late Nawab Soojah-ood-Dowlah, to the Honorable Company's Government, and to constitute that Government her sole heir and executor at her death.

The just right of Her Highness the Begum to confer, and of the Honorable Company's Government to accept, the character and privileges of Her Highness's heir and executor, with a reference to her personal property, could never be reasonably doubted; and Your Highness will duly appreciate the motives of extraordinary consideration which induced our Government to reject a proposal so honorable and advantageous to itself, on the part of Her Highness the Begum, and to recommend to her an arrangement which must combine the most essential benefit to Your Highness, as well as a due regard for your rights, with the accomplishment of the Begum's most laudable and benevolent purposes in favor of her relations and dependents.

That all these objects have been attained by the result of my proceedings at Fyzabad, as explained in the accompanying documents, Your Highness cannot fail to observe; and you will now experience without alloy the satisfaction which I promised to your august father, when I should be authorized to communicate for his information the arrangements which I concluded with the Begum, and which the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council has been pleased to ratify and confirm.

Your Highness' cheerful acquiescence in that part of the arrangement referred to, which provides for the honorable interment of Her Highness the Begum's remains, when it shall please God to remove her from this transitory state, cannot for a moment be doubted; and to this particular clause in the instrument under Her Highness' seal, and another intended to provide for, what I consider as an impossible case, the disposition of Your Highness' mind to discontinue or resume, at their death, the allowances of the Begum's relations, enjoyed under Your Highness' government, I have been commanded by His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council to solicit your early attention, and to request a communication of your sentiments and intentions with regard to them at as early a period as may be practicable.

The peculiar nature of the documents which I have the honor of transmitting to Your Highness, and more particularly the wish of Her Highness the Begum respecting them, as explained in one of her letters to me, will, I doubt not, suggest to Your Highness the propriety of preventing the contents of any of those documents from becoming generally known for the present, and of Your Highness' observing the same degree of secrecy with regard to the provisions of Her Highness the Begum's Will, which I have invariably practised since that instrument was committed to my charge.

FROM HIS HIGHNESS THE VIZIER.

Received the 4th of August 1814.

I have had the pleasure of receiving your letter of the 19th ultimo, with its enclosures, stating that "you had received the orders of His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor-General to communicate the result of your proceedings at Fyzabad, &c., &c.," and I have perused the papers which you transmitted to me with the greatest care and attention.

Of a truth this Government had never, and can never have, such a firm friend and ally—so sincere and disinterested in its friendship, as the Honorable Company's Government, who, regardless of its own advantage, has rejected personal property to so very considerable an amount bequeathed by Her Highness the Bhow Begum, and determined to transfer the whole of that property to me, after providing for the payment of the legacies and annuities to the Begum's near relations and dependents, which Her Highness so properly bequeathed to them, and which the British Government has justly guaranteed. Words are inadequate to express the sense which I entertain of this conduct; and of course I most cheerfully acquiesce in the arrangements which His Lordship has proposed to me, regarding the assignment of lands in Puchumrath, for the expenses of the Begum's mausoleum, and the other purposes of her Will. Accordingly I hereby engage that, when it shall please Almighty God to remove my venerable grandmother from this transitory scene, villages in the District of Puchumrath, yielding a revenue of ten thousand rupees per annum, shall be set apart and granted in perpetuity for the charges of Her Highness' mausoleum, and further that all the stipends and provisions which Her Highness' relations enjoy and have hitherto received from this Government shall be continued to them and their heirs in perpetuity, without any deduction whatever. Considering you as my sincere friend and well-wisher, I request you to report these engagements for His Lordship in Council’s satisfaction, without any delay.

NO. LII.

FROM

HIS EXCELLENCY THE VIZIER.

Received 28th November 1814.

In my letter of the 5th of Zee Hijjah (19th instant) I transmitted to you a statement of the pensions to be hereafter paid from your treasury, excluding those of Teyyuba Begum and her relations. On further consideration it seems proper that, according to your original suggestion, Teyyuba Begum should be included in the list, and it is further my present desire that the allowance of Ramazan Alee Khan should be added, making in all, as per the sealed statement enclosed, a sum of six lakhs and fifty-one thousand Rupees per annum, for which a provision shall be made. I therefore write to desire that the purport of this letter and statement be submitted by you to my respected uncle, the Right Honorable the Governor-General Lord Moira, and in the case of His Lordship’s approval that the monthly stipends of all the persons named in the statement be issued hereafter from the Honorable Company’s Treasury, beginning with the first of the present month of Zee Hijjah, 1229 Hijery(14th November 1814), and that their receipts be transmitted to me. Let my former sealed statement be returned.

Camp Kurnaul, the 2nd January 1815.

I do hereby acknowledge that His Excellency the Nabob Vizier-ool-(Mumalik, Refaut-ool-Dowlah, Rufee-ool-Moolk, Shahamut Jung, did, on the 24th day of December last, pay into the Honorable Company's Treasury at Lucknow, the sum of Lucknow Sicca Rupees (Lucknow Sicca Rupees 58,50,000) fifty-eight lakhs and a half,* which is to be accounted for to His Excellency or order in manner following:—Interest on the principal, at the rate of six per cent. per annum from that date to the 30th June 1815, will be paid to His Excellency at the Honorable Company's Treasury at Lucknow, or at his option, be added to the principal, His Excellency paying or receiving the fraction of 100 Lucknow Sicca Rupees, so that the amount may be brought to even hundreds, and for the principal alone, or with interest so added, as the case may be, a Promissory Note, to be dated the 30th of June 1815, will be granted, paying conformably to the conditions of the advertisement published in the Calcutta Gazette of the

No. LIII.

Treaty between His Excellency the Nabob Vizier-ul-Momalik Refaut-ood-Dowla, Rufee Ool Moolk, Ghazee-ood-Deen, Hyder Khan Behauder, Shehamum Jung and the British Government, for the transfer to His Excellency of the District of Khyreegur and of certain lands conquered by the British Government from the Raja of Nepaul, in commutation of His Excellency's second loan to the British Government, and for the exchange of the Pergunnah of Handia, belonging to His Excellency the Vizier, for that of Nabobgunge, belonging to the British Government settled by His Excellency the Nabob Vizier on his own part, and by Richard Strachey, British Resident at the Court of His Excellency, on the part of the British Government, in virtue of full powers vested in him by His Excellency the Right Honorable the Earl of Moira, K.G., Governor-General in Council, &c., &c.,—1st May 1816.

Article 1.

The British Government hereby cedes to His Excellency the Vizier in full and perpetual sovereignty the District of Khyreegur, also the low lands between Khyreegur and the hills, and those between His Excellency's territory further to the eastward and the hills; that is, the whole of the late Goorka possessions below the hills, extending on the west from the River Gogra to the British District of Goruckpore on the east, and bounded on the south by His Excellency's possessions and the District of Khyreegur, and on the north by the hills. The Goorka orders of surrender of that tract will accordingly be made over to His Excellency the Vizier, and the British Government hereby engages to establish His Excellency's authority in the above-mentioned territory.

Article 2.

His Excellency the Nabob Vizier, in return for the cession mentioned in the preceding Article, hereby annuls the debt of the British Government to His Excellency of one crore of rupees, being the total amount of His Excellency's second loan to the Company during the last year; the interest of which loan will cease from the date of His Excellency's receiving possession of Khyreegur and the conquered lands above-mentioned, when the acknowledgments granted to His Excellency will be returned.
ARTICLE 3.

His Excellency the Nabob Vizier hereby cedes to the British Government the Pergunnah of Handia (otherwise called Kewye), which forms part of His Excellency's District of Pertaubgur, and which intervenes between the British Districts of Jaunpore, Meerzapore, and Allahabad; and the British Government cedes to His Excellency in exchange the Pergunnah of Nabogunje, which forms part of the District of Goruckpore, or a piece of territory, the revenue of which may be equivalent to that of the Pergunnah of Handia.

ARTICLE 4.

The British Government engages that, after the establishment of His Excellency's authority in the District of Khyreergur and in the conquered lands above-mentioned, if any disturbances arise, from whatever cause, they will effectually suppress them, and if, notwithstanding the co-operation and support of the British Government, His Excellency should be deprived of those possessions, other lands yielding the same revenue shall be given to His Excellency.

This Treaty, consisting of four Articles, having been settled by His Excellency the Nabob Vizier for himself, and by Richard Strachey, Resident at the Court of Lucknow, on the part of the British Government, the Resident at Lucknow has delivered one copy thereof in Persian and English, signed and sealed by him, to His Excellency the Vizier, from whom he has received a counterpart, also duly executed by His Excellency. The Resident engages to procure and deliver to His Excellency the Vizier a copy of the same, under the seal and signature of His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor-General, when that executed by the Resident will be returned.

No. LIV.

AGREEMENT between His Majesty Aboo-ul-Mozuffur Morzood Deen Ghazee-ood Deen Hyder Shah, King of Oude, and the British Government on account of a sum which the former has given as a loan to the Honorable Company, settled by His Majesty on his part, and by M. Ricketts, Esq., Resident at the Court of the King of Oude, on the part of the British Government, in virtue of full powers vested in him by the Right Honorable William Pitt, Lord Amherst, Governor-General in Council, &c., &c.,—17th August 1825.

ARTICLE 1.

His Majesty the King of Oude has given as a loan, for ever, to the Honorable Company, one crore of Rupees, the interest whereof being five lakhs of Rupees per annum, will be paid from the 1st of Mohurrum, 1241 Hegira, to the persons hereafter particularized, by monthly instalments; and the interest of this sum will always remain at five per cent. per annum though the British Government may reduce their interest below or raise it above the aforesaid rate.

ARTICLE 2.

This loan is made in perpetuity; the sovereigns of the Kingdom of Oude shall never have the power to take it back, nor shall they exercise any interference with its interest.

ARTICLE 3.

The British Government guarantees that it will pay for ever the monthly sums hereafter mentioned out of the interest of the above loan, to the persons set down in this instrument, in the current coin of the place where they may reside, without any deduction whatever.

ARTICLE 4.

The Honorable Company will always protect the honor of the stipendiaries, who will be paid out of this fund, and it will be the protector of their possessions, such as houses and gardens (whether bestowed by the King of Oude, or purchased or built by themselves), from the hands of the sovereigns and their enemies; and in whatever city or country they may be, their allowances will be paid to them there.

ARTICLE 5.

This Agreement having been settled by His Majesty the King of Oude for himself and by M. Ricketts, Esq., Resident at the Court of Lucknow, on the part of the British Government; the Resident at Lucknow has delivered one copy thereof in Persian and English, signed and sealed by him, to His Majesty the King of Oude, from whom he has received a counterpart, also duly executed by His Majesty. The Resident engages to procure and deliver to His Majesty the King of Oude a copy of the same, under the seal and signature of the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council, when that executed by the Resident will be returned.

DEED of AGREEMENT between the KING of OUDE and the BRITISH GOVERNMENT, concerning the deposit of three lakhs (3,00,000) of Rupees, the interest to be given in perpetuity to the poor of Lucknow,—12th December 1833.

First.—Seeing that deeds of charity and mercy are by the King of Kings, the Great Creator of all things, commanded to be done of all men: and that particularly from Kings and Governors, who are distinguished among men and entrusted by Providence with wealth and riches, and with ample means whereby to provide for the protection, necessities and comforts of God's people, does an all-seeing Providence look for deeds of benevolence and charity; and, further, seeing that the vanities of life are fading, and perish in the using and leave no trace behind, and it is not only becoming and proper, but gratifying to the best feelings of the mind to leave a memorial behind, agreeably to the saying, that it is better for a "man to leave a name behind him than a Golden Palace:” His Majesty the King of Oude, Aboon Nuseer, Kootboodeen Solyman Jah Suliani Audil Nowsherewan Zaman, remembering the commands of the King of Kings to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, and to comfort the afflicted, does of the treasures which Providence has bestowed on him, most freely and with unfeigned pleasure determine to endow a charity, which shall relieve the poor of his capital, the city of Lucknow, now and through future generations, and remain a remembrance of his name and of his reign in after ages.
Second.—To this end, the King of Oude hereby places in the Residency treasury the sum of three lakhs (3,00,000) of Rupees, to be lodged in the four per cent. loan of the British Government, the interest of which, being 12,000 Rupees per annum, is to be paid at the rate of one thousand (1,000) Rupees a month to the poor in perpetuity.

Third.—It shall not be optional with the future Rulers of Oude, or with any power whatever, to resume this money or to appropriate it to any other purpose; on the contrary, it is placed under the guarantee of the British Government, for the express end that it may for ever remain to be distributed to the poor, in the name of His present Majesty, and its denomination shall be the charity of "Nuseer-oold-Deen Hyder, King of Oude."

Fourth.—The King of Oude reposing great confidence upon the stability and good faith of the British Government, entirely entrusts the charity to the management and discretion of the Right Honorable Lord William Cavendish Bentinck, G.C.B., Governor-General, and to all future Governors-General of British India, under whatsoever denomination they may rule, and requests that they may be pleased to authorise their Residents or representatives at this Court to distribute the interest to real objects of charity, such as the lame, the maimed, the blind, the helpless aged, the lepers, and those who are destitute; this will be an act acceptable to God and praised of men. To the watchful care of Providence, therefore, and to the known honor and good faith of the British Government, is this charity committed, in the hope that through the same kind Providence, in all future generations, so long as this world lasts, the money may be devoted solely and entirely to the support of God's poor.

Fifth.—The Right Honorable Lord William Cavendish Bentinck, G.C.B., &c., Governor-General of British India, hereby, on the part of the British Government, entirely approving of His Majesty's charitable intentions, guarantees that the interest of the sum of three lakhs (3,00,000) of Rupees, at four (4) per cent., amounting monthly to one thousand (1,000) Rupees, shall, from the 1st May 1833, be paid in perpetuity to the poor of Lucknow, in accordance with the benevolent intentions set forth by the King of Oude in the foregoing Articles.

Done this Twelfth day of December, Eighteen Hundred and Thirty-three (1833), at Fort William in Bengal.

TREATY between the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY and HIS MAJESTY ABDool Futteh Moeen-oood-Deen Now- shere-wani-Audil Sultani Zaman Mahammud Alli Shah, King of Oude,—11th September 1837.

Whereas by the subsisting alliance between the Honourable the East India Company and the Oude States, the British Government is bound to defend the Oude Territories against foreign and domestic enemies, the Sovereign of Oude engaging to retain in his service only a small specified number of troops: and whereas, while the British Government has faithfully and scrupulously performed the obligations so imposed on it, the engagement on the part of the Oude State has been habitually infringed, there being now in the employment of His Majesty the King of Oude a large and expensive military force: and whereas experience has shown that the execution of all the provisions of the Treaty of 1801 is attended with serious difficulty, and it is desirable and proper that a modified arrangement, consistent with the principles of that Treaty, and conducing to the prosperity and advantage of both States, should be introduced; and whereas the restrictions as to the amount of military force to be employed by His Majesty the King of Oude may with propriety be relaxed, on condition that an adequate portion of the increased force shall be placed under British discipline and control, so as at once to promote the general interests of the Indian Empire, and in particular the dignity and safety of the King, providing at a reduced cost for the efficiency of his national military establishment: and whereas Article 6th of the Treaty of 1801 requires that the Sovereign of Oude always advising with, and acting in conformity to, the counsel of the Officers of the Honourable Company, shall establish in his reserved dominions such a system of administration (to be carried into effect by his own officers) as shall be conducive to the prosperity of his subjects, and be calculated to secure the lives and property of the inhabitants, but provides no remedy for the neglect of that solemn and paramount obligation: and whereas the infraction of this essential engagement of the Treaty, and inattention to the first duty of a Sovereign on the part of several successive Rulers of Oude, have been continued and notorious, and have ever exposed the British Government to the reproach of imperfectly fulfilling its obligations towards the Oude people, and it is therefore just and proper that the defect alluded to in Article 6th of the Treaty aforesaid should be rectified; the following provisions have accordingly been arranged and concluded on the one part by Lieutenant-Colonel John Low, Resident at the Court of Lucknow, in the name and on behalf of the Right Honorable Lord Auckland, Governor-General of India in Council, and on the other, by Abool Futteh Moeen-Ood-Deen Sultani Zaman Nowsherewan-i-Audil, Mohummud Alli Shah, King of Oude, for himself and his heirs; and this agreement is to hold good from generation to generation to the end of time.

Article 1.

Article third (3rd) of the Treaty, dated the tenth of November, one thousand eight hundred and one, is hereby cancelled, and His Majesty the King of Oude may employ such a military establishment as he may deem necessary for the government of his dominions. His Majesty engages, however, to make a suitable reduction of his establishment, when it may appear to the British Government, from its pressure on the finances of the country or other causes, to be obviously excessive.

Article 2.
The Honourable East India Company engages, as before, to defend the Oude State against all foreign and domestic enemies; but it will be proper and advisable that His Majesty the King of Oude shall organize, as a part of his augmented military establishment, a disciplined force for the general support of his authority within his dominions.

ARTICLE 3.

The King of Oude agrees that the portion of his troops, to be organized as stipulated in the preceding article, shall consist of not less than two regiments of cavalry, five of infantry, and two companies of golundauze, for whose regular payment a suitable arrangement will be made.

ARTICLE 4.

The Government of Oude will fix the sum of sixteen (16) lakhs of Rupees per annum for the expenses of the force, stipulated to be maintained in the third (3rd) Article of this Treaty, including their pay, arms, equipments, and public buildings of the cantonments, &c., and as this force is so to be organized, as to ensure its efficiency for all descriptions of service, it will be open to future decision whether it may be advisable (with the consent of both governments) to have a small party of horse artillery, instead of a few of the horsemen, and a small body of pioneers, instead of a few infantry sepoys; but it is a settled compact between the two States that the expenditure on account of this new force, whatever may be its organization, shall not exceed sixteen (16) lakhs of Rupees, including every description of expense connected with it. And also, in consequence of this year being one of great scarcity, and the expenditure of the Oude Government being very great, owing to its having to pay up a large amount of arrears due to troops and establishments, greater than usual, it is on these accounts hereby settled that for a period of eighteen (18) months, reckoning from the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, the organization of the new force shall not be commenced; and accordingly that no demands shall be made upon the Oude Government for money to pay the above-mentioned troops until the first of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-nine.

ARTICLE 5.

The British Government hereby engages to supply, and the King of Oude to take into his service, an adequate number of British Officers, to be constantly employed with such force for the purpose of maintaining its due discipline and securing its permanent efficiency.

ARTICLE 6.

This auxiliary force will ordinarily be fixed at such stations within the Oude territory as may, with the consent of both governments, from time to time, to both seem most convenient, and will be employed on all occasions on which its services may be deemed necessary by the King of Oude, with the concurrence of the British Resident; but it is to be clearly understood that such force is not to be employed in the ordinary collections of revenue.
ARTICLE 7.

In modification of Article 6th of the Treaty above referred to, it is hereby provided that the King of Oude will take into his immediate and earnest consideration, in concert with the British Resident, the best means of remedying the existing defects in the Police, and in the Judicial and Revenue Administrations of his dominions, and that if His Majesty should neglect to attend to the advice and counsel of the British Government or its local representative, and if (which God forbid) gross and systematic oppression, anarchy and misrule should hereafter at any time prevail within the Oude dominions, such as seriously to endanger the public tranquillity, the British Government reserves to itself the right of appointing its own officers to the management of whatsoever portions of the Oude territory, either to a small or to a great extent, in which such misrule as that above alluded to may have occurred, for so long a period as it may deem necessary, the surplus receipts in such case, after defraying all charges, to be paid into the King's treasury, and a true and faithful account rendered to His Majesty of the receipts and expenditure of the territories so assumed.

ARTICLE 8.

And it is hereby further agreed that in case the Governor-General of India in Council should be compelled to resort to the exercise of the authority vested in him by Article 7th of this Treaty, he will endeavour, as far as possible, to maintain (with such improvements as they may admit of) the native institutions and forms of administration within the assumed territories, so as to facilitate the restoration of those territories to the Sovereign of Oude when the proper period for such restoration shall arrive.

ARTICLE 9.

All the other provisions and conditions of former Treaties between the British Government and the Oude State, which are not affected by the above convention, are to remain in full force and effect.

The above Treaty, consisting of nine Articles, is executed at Lucknow, this Eleventh day of September, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-Seven, corresponding with the Tenth day of Jamadosanee, Twelve Hundred and Fifty-Three Hegira.

ARTICLE 4TH.

When any of the above pensioners may die without issue, his or her pension shall revert to the King of Oude.

ARTICLE 5TH.

Should any of the said pensioners or his or her heirs reside in the territory of the British Government, the Resident at Lucknow shall remit to him or her the established pension.

ARTICLE 6TH.

The said pensioners and after them their issue, who, on their decease, may succeed to their respective pensions, shall always experience the special favour and kindness of the British Government, and it will be the duty of the Resident, for the time being, to treat them uniformly with respect and attention, and exert his good offices on all occasions in their behalf.
ARTICLE 7TH.

As Shuruf-ooldowlah Moozuффer-oool-Moolk, Mohommud Ibrahim Khan Buhadoor Moostukeem Jung, and Azeemoollah Khan Buhadoor are the old and faithful servants of the King of Oude, His Majesty, being persuaded that their agency will contribute to the efficient performance of these provisions, and will effectually prevent mismanagement, has appointed Shuruf-ooldowlah to the situation of Vakeel for the purpose of communicating the representations of all the pensioners, and receiving their pensions from the Residency Treasury, and has assigned to Azeemoollah Khan the duty of distributing the said pensions to the pensioners. The pensions of the several persons mentioned in this document, shall therefore be paid to Shuruf-ooldowlah, from the Residency Treasury; and it shall be the duty of all the pensioners to make their representations and receive their pensions through those two individuals.

ARTICLE 8TH.

The Resident will apply to the Right Honorable the Governor-General of India for a document to the effect of the foregoing under his seal and signature, and deliver the same, when received, to His Majesty.

Given at Lucknow, this Twenty-Second day of November, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-Eight, corresponding with the third of Ramzan, One Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty-Four Hajira.

NO. LIX.

DEED of TRUST (dated 23rd November 1839) on the part of HIS MAJESTY ABDOOL FUTTEH MOOEEENOODDEEN SOOLTAN OOOZAMAN NOWSHEREWANI AUDIL MOHUMMED ALLI SHAH, KING of OUDE, to the OFFICERS of the HONORABLE COMPANY'S GOVERNMENT, to the following effect:

ARTICLE 1ST.

The sum of twelve lakhs (12,00,000) of Lucknow Sicca Rupees, at the rate of four (4) per cent. per annum, has been deposited by us in perpetuity in the Honourable Company's Treasury at the Residency of Lucknow, and the interest amounting to forty-eight thousand (48,000) Lucknow Sicca Rupees per annum has been bestowed as a gift upon the persons herein mentioned, and for the expenses of Hossainabad Moobaruk, &c. We have nominated and appointed Raffeek-ooldowlah Syud Imam Alli Khan Bahadoor, and Azeemoollah
Khan Bahadoor, our old and confidential servants, and after them their descendants, generation after generation, to the situation of Daroghas or Superintendents of the Mosque, and Shurf-oold Dowlah Moozuofurool-Moolk Mahomed Ibrahim Khan Bahadoor Moostaqueem Jung and his descendants after him, to the duties of vakeel [mootwussit] of the pensioners only, to the exclusion of all interference with Hossainabad Moobaruk and the new road and their dependencies.

It is incumbent on the officers of the Honorable Company's Government to pay in perpetuity from the Residency Treasury to Ruffeek-oold Dowlah Bahadoor and Azeemoollah Khan Bahadoor and to their descendants, generation after generation [independent of Shurf-oold Dowlah] the money for the expenses of Hossainabad Moobaruk, etc., from the aforesaid interest, according to the following detail in quarterly payments, or in four equal instalments, agreeably to English months. The stipends of the pensioners to be paid through Shurf-oold Dowlah; the pensioners are to give receipts in duplicate under their seals. Receipts for the expenses of Hossainabad Moobaruk and the repairs of the new road are to be taken under the seals of the aforesaid Ruffeek-oold Dowlah Syud Imam Ali Khan Bahadoor and Azeemoollah Khan Bahadoor and their descendants. Let the representations of Ruffeek-oold Dowlah Syud Imam Ali Khan Bahadoor and Azeemoollah Khan Bahadoor, regarding Hossainabad Moobaruk and the new road, without, and those respecting the pensioners, with the intervention of Shurf-oold Dowlah Bahadoor, be complied with. It is proper and necessary that the pensioners should act agreeably to the suggestions of the superintendents and the vakeel, considering such a proceeding beneficial to their interests, and should any of the pensioners enumerated in this Deed or their heirs go and reside within the territories of the Honorable Company, the Resident for the time being shall cause their pensions to be remitted to their place of residence.

ARTICLE 2ND.

As the pensioners enumerated in this deed are objects of our peculiar consideration and favor, it is necessary that the Resident for the time being, owing to the union and friendship subsisting between the two Governments, treat them with kindness, and, considering them deserving of the support of the British Government, always afford them his aid and assistance.
ARTICLE 3RD.

Should it happen that any of the pensioners or after them any of their heirs, die without issue, the pension of the deceased shall be paid by the Resident, for the time being, for the expenses of Hussainabad Moobaruk, etc., to the superintendent (mutawullly of the mosque), namely, to Ruffeek-ood-Dowlah Bahadoor and Azeemoollah Khan Bahadoor, and to their descendants.

ARTICLE 4TH.

As the whole of the income and disbursements of Hussainabad Moobaruk and the new road and their dependencies have been placed entirely at the disposal of Ruffeek-ood-Dowlah Syud Imam Allee Khan Bahadoor and Azeemoollah Khan Bahadoor, without the participation of Shurf-ood-Dowlah Bahadoor, it is necessary that they should receive with honesty the sums set apart for Hussainabad Moobaruk and the other incomes of it and its dependencies, and expend them with all probity and economy, and carefully preserve the whole of the property in Hussainabad Moobaruk, so that to the utmost of their power it may not be lost or spoiled, and should no descendants of the mutawullies or superintendents of the mosque, or of the mutwussit or vakeel remain, let the Resident for the time being, with the concurrence of three-fourths of the pensioners, appoint one of the pensioners to the situation of the person dying without heir.

ARTICLE 5TH.

The undermentioned items of income are hereby remitted, and shall be devoted to the expenses of Hussainabad Moobaruk and its dependencies, and all the property in it is given by us as a gift. It shall not be optional with the Sovereigns of Oude, at any time, on any account whatsoever to interfere in any way with it; and let the Resident for the time being, at the request of the mutawullies or superintendents in this particular matter, give his countenance and support, that this good work may continue in existence for ever.

The before-mentioned allowances shall be paid from the Honorable Company's Treasury for ever.

The rents of the shops attached to the Hussainabad Moobaruk.
The income from religious offerings.

No. LX.

Translation of the Deed of Trust executed by His Majesty Abool Futteh Mooeenooddeen Sultan Oozzaman Nowsherwan Audil Mahomed Ali Shah, King of Oude, in favour of the Honorable Company, respecting the Hospital established at Lucknow, consisting of four Articles—26th January 1840.
ARTICLE 1ST.

The interest on two promissory notes, amounting to three lakhs forty thousand and eight hundred Calcutta Sicca Rupees, via, one for two lakhs and eighty-seven thousand, at an interest of 5 per cent. per annum by quarterly payments, and the other for fifty-three thousand and eight hundred Rupees, at the interest of 4 per cent. per annum, by half-yearly payments, which is lodged in the Honorable Company's Treasury, I give and bequeath for the expenditure of the Hospital established in the time of the late King, in the capital of Lucknow. It is requisite and very necessary that the officers of the above-mentioned Government should pay the said interest, amounting to Calcutta Sicca Rupees 16,500, or Lucknow Sicca Rupees 17,244-9-6, according to the above mentioned periods of payments, from the Honorable Company's Treasury attached to the Residency of Lucknow, to Zuffer-ood-Dowlah Bahadoor, and after him to any person who may be appointed to the situation of Superintendent of the Hospital by this Government, and shall take a receipt under his seal.

ARTICLE 2nd.

It is very necessary that the whole of the interest arising from the above-mentioned sum may now and hereafter be laid out in providing medicine and food for the sick poor. Those patients who may prefer native medicines will be treated by native physicians, who will be appointed by this Government; and those who may desire European medicine will be treated by Dr. Stevenson, and after him by any gentlemen who may be in the service of this Government.

ARTICLE 3RD.

Although the Mutawully (or Superintendent) of the Hospital and native physicians will be appointed by this Government, yet the entire amount arising from the interest of the above-mentioned sum is strictly to be applied only to the purposes of the Hospital, both now and hereafter; and that no disorder or abuse be allowed to creep in its good management, it is incumbent on the Resident for the time being, in the spirit of the friendship and unanimity existing between the two States, always to afford his aid and assistance in maintaining this work for ever.

ARTICLE 4TH.

It is requisite for the Superintendent of the Hospital to furnish monthly and annually accounts respectively of receipts and disbursements, etc., to the Dewanee Duftee of my Government, together with the receipts and other vouchers and accounts, and to consider himself held responsible for the honesty of the servants attached to the Hospital.

PART III.

TREATIES, ENGAGEMENTS, AND SANADS

RELATING TO THE

TERRITORIES COMPRISED WITHIN, OR IN POLITICAL RELATION WITH, LIEUTENANT-GOVERNORSHIP OF BENGAL.

THE

I.—BENGAL.

In 1599 an Association was formed to trade with the East Indies, and on the 31st December 1600 they obtained from Queen Elizabeth an exclusive charter of privilege, constituting them a body politic and corporate, by the name of "The Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading to the East Indies."

The Company's first factory was established at Surat.

In 1624 a Farman was obtained from the Moghal Emperor Jahangir, permitting the English to trade with Bengal, but restricting them to the port of Pipli in Midnapur. The regular connection of the Company with Bengal, however, did not commence till 1642, when a factory was established at Balasor; and in 1652 permission was obtained for unlimited trade, without payment of customs, on an annual payment of Rs. 3,000.

In 1661 Charles II granted a new charter, vesting the Company with power to make peace or war with any Prince, not Christian, and to seize and send to England unlicensed traders. A fresh charter was again granted in 1693, confirming the exclusive privileges of the Company for twenty-one years. In 1698 a rival Company was formed, known as the new or "English Company," which amalgamated with the old or "London Company" in 1702, and the two parties took the name of "The United Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies."

During the administration of Shaista Khan, Subadar of Bengal, the English were subjected to much oppression. Shaista Khan exacted a duty of $\frac{3}{4}$ per cent. on their merchandise, and his officers arbitrarily extorted large sums from the factors, until in 1685 it was resolved to seek redress by force of arms. The hostile attitude of the English exasperated the Emperor Aurangzeb, who ordered that they should be expelled from his dominions. The Company’s factories were seized, and their affairs were brought to the brink of ruin, when negotiations for peace were set on foot, and a reconciliation was effected.

In 1698 the English obtained permission from Azam-ush-Shan, grandson of Aurangzeb and Governor of Bengal, to purchase the towns of Sutanati, Govindpur and Calcutta. The sanad is not supposed to be extant; but it is more a matter of antiquarian interest than of historic importance.

In 1756 Nawab Siraj-ud-Daula became Subadar of Bengal in succession to his grandfather, Alivardi Khan. He had previously manifested aversion to the English. The Governor of Calcutta refused to deliver up one of the principal officers of finance under the Nawab’s late uncle, the Governor of Dacca, whom the Nawab had resolved to plunder, whereupon Siraj-ud-Daula attacked and captured Calcutta on the 20th June. One hundred and forty-six English fell into his hands and were thrust into “The Black Hole,” where all, save twenty-three, perished in the night. On the 2nd January 1757 Calcutta was re-taken by a force from Madras under Clive and Admiral Watson, and on the 4th of February the Nawab’s army was surprised and defeated by Clive. Overtures were then made by the Nawab, and on the 9th February 1757, a Treaty (No. LXI) was concluded, by which the Nawab agreed not to molest the Company in the enjoyment of their privileges; to permit all goods belonging to the Company to pass freely by land or water, without paying any duties or fees; to restore the factories and plundered property; to permit the Company to fortify Calcutta; and to establish a mint. Three days later a Contract (No. LXII) with the Nawab, offensive and defensive, was signed.

War having broken out between France and England, Clive attacked the French settlement of Chandernagar. Siraj-ud-Daula furnished the French with arms and money, and was preparing to make common cause against the English. At this juncture a confederacy was formed among Siraj-ud-Daula’s chief officers to depose him. The English joined this confederacy and concluded a Treaty (No. LXIII) with Mir Jafar Ali Khan. At the battle of Plassey, which was fought on the 23rd June 1757, the power of Siraj-ud-Daula was completely broken, and Mir Jafar was installed by Clive as Subadar of Bengal with the title of Nawab.
In 1758 the Shahzada, afterwards Shah Alam, fled from Dehli, in consequence of some dispute with his father, the Emperor Alamgir II, and entered into a league with the Subadars of Oudh and Allahabad for the conquest of the Lower Provinces. The Prince entered Behar with about 40,000 men, and laid siege to Patna.

Mir Jafar was greatly alarmed, and Clive marched to his aid with what force he could muster. The terror of Clive’s name was sufficient, and ere he reached Patna the Shahzada’s army had almost entirely dispersed. As a reward for this service Mir Jafar granted Clive the quit-rent, about three lakhs per annum, which the Company had agreed to pay for the zamindari of Calcutta. *

In 1759 an armament of seven ships from Batavia unexpectedly made its appearance in the mouth of the Hugli. Mir Jafar had secretly encouraged the Dutch to send this force. He was alarmed at the growing power of the English, and wished to counter-balance it with that of the Dutch, while the latter were eager to share in the wealth which the British had acquired in Bengal. Clive, though sensible of the responsibility he would incur by attacking the forces of a friendly power, was satisfied that, if he allowed the Batavian armament to join the garrison at Chinsura, the Nawab would throw himself into the arms of his new allies, and the English ascendency in Bengal would be exposed to serious danger. To prevent this he obtained from the fears of the Nawab a mandate, directing the newly arrived armament to leave the river. Under the authority of this order, and with the pretext of enforcing it, Clive caused the Dutch to be attacked both by land and water. They were completely defeated, and all their ships were taken. A Convention (No. LXIV) was then signed, by which the Dutch agreed to pay an indemnity, and the English to restore their ships and property. An Agreement (No. LXV) was at the same time made between the Nawab and the Dutch, which was guaranteed by the Governor in Council of Fort William.

To meet his pecuniary engagements Mir Jafar had recourse to the severest exactions. He resigned himself to unworthy favourites; and it became necessary to depose him in favour of his son-in-law Mir Kasim Ali Khan, with whom a Treaty (No. LXVI) was concluded on the 27th September 1760. By this treaty the British obtained possession of Bardwan, Midnapur, and Chittagong.

Serious disputes arose between Mir Kasim and the English regarding the right of the servants of the Company to trade and to have their goods passed free of duty, and these disputes led at last to war. Negotiations were opened with Mir Jafar, and on the 10th July 1763 a Treaty (No. LXVII) was executed between him and the Company. Mir Kasim, after sustaining a series of defeats, and revenging himself by the murder of his English prisoners, fled to Oudh, and eventually to Delhi, where he died in great indigence and obscurity in 1777.

In 1764 Mir Jafar agreed to pay five lakhs a month (No. LXVIII), in addition to the sums for which he had contracted in the recent treaty, towards the expense of the war, which was then being carried on against the Wazir of Oudh, who, with the Emperor Shah Alam, had espoused the cause of Mir Kasim.

Mir Jafar died in January 1765, and was succeeded by his son, Najm-ud-Daula, with whom a new Treaty (No. LXIX) was concluded, by which the Company took the military defence of the country entirely into its own hands, and among other conditions the Nawab bound himself to appoint, by the advice of the Governor and Council, a deputy to conduct the government, who should not be removable without their consent.

In 1764 the army of Shuja-ud-Daula, the Wazir of Oudh, who, under the pretence of assisting Mir Kasim, had invaded Behar, was completely routed, and the Wazir was obliged to throw himself on the generosity of the English. The whole of his dominions were restored to him, except Allahabad and Kora, which were given to the Emperor of Delhi, who, on his part, conferred the Diwani of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa on the Company by Imperial Farman (No. LXX); the English became security for the regular payment of twenty-six lakhs a year by the Nawab, and agreed to allow the Nawab the annual sum of 53,86,131 Sicca Rupees for the support of the Nizamat.

Najm-ud-Daula died on the 8th May 1766, and was succeeded by his brother, Saif-ud-Doula, a youth of sixteen. A Treaty (No. LXXI) was concluded with him, by which he ratified the treaties formerly concluded with his father and brother, and the Company agreed to support him in the Nizamat, and to allow him an annual stipend of Rs. 41,86,131.

Saif-ud-Daula was succeeded in 1770 by his brother, Mubarak-ud-Daula, with whom a new Engagement (No. LXXII) was made. By this engagement the Nawab Nazim's stipend was fixed at Rs. 31,81,991. This is the last treaty which was formed with the Nawab Nazim. The office of Subadar had now become merely a nominal one, all real power having passed into the hands of the Company. In 1772, the stipend was reduced to sixteen lakhs a year, at which rate it continued to be paid down to 1880. In 1869 the Nawab Nazim, Saiyid Mansur Ali Khan, left Murshidabad and went with his family to England, where he took up his permanent residence.

In 1873 the affairs of the Nawab Nazim having fallen into confusion, Commissioners were appointed under a special Act to arrange for the liquidation of his debts, and to ascertain the amount of jewels and immovable property held by the Government for the purpose of upholding the dignity of the Nawab Nazim for the time being. By this Act the Nawab was declared incapable of contracting any pecuniary obligation.

In 1880 Saiyid Mansur Ali Khan Bahadur, who had been granted a personal salute of 19 guns at the Delhi Darbar held on the 1st January 1877, agreed to retire from the position of Nawab Nazim, and to renounce and relinquish all claims and demands to the position and title of "Nawab Nazim of Bengal, Behar and Orissa" and all personal right of interference in Nizamat affairs, in consideration of an annual stipend of £10,000, or a payment of Rs. 10,00,000, in settlement of various miscellaneous claims, and of a suitable provision for his four children born in England. The conditions of this arrangement are embodied in a formal deed, dated the 1st November 1880, which Saiyid Mansur Ali executed in London. On the abdication of Saiyid Mansur Ali, the title "Nawab Nazim of Bengal, Behar and Orissa" ceased to exist. The Nawab Nazim died at Murshidabad on the 5th November 1884. His eldest son, Nawab Ali Kadr Saiyid Hasan Ali Mirza, has been granted the hereditary title of "Nawab Bahadur of Murshidabad" and allowed precedence over all titled nobles of Bengal. The final settlement of the Nizamat affairs was made by an indenture dated the 12th March 1891, which forms the schedule to the Murshidabad Act XV of 1891. It provides inter alia for the payment in perpetuity to the Nawab Bahadur and his lineal heirs, male, of a monthly allowance of Rs. 19,166-10-8, or Rs. 2,30,000 a year.

On the 13th August 1814 a Treaty* was concluded in London between Great Britain and the Netherlands, providing, among other stipulations, for

* This Treaty and the Additional Articles will be found in Hertslet's Treaties, Vol. I, pp. 359-369.

The following are the Articles which have reference to India—

I. His Britannic Majesty engages to restore to the Prince Sovereign of the United Netherlands, within the term which shall be hereafter fixed, the Colonies, Factories, and Establishments the restoration to the Dutch of the factories and establishments possessed by them in India and the Eastern Seas on the 1st January 1803; by an additional article the Dutch agreed to cede to the British Government the district of Baranagar on payment of an annual sum to be fixed by mutual agreement.

In pursuance of these arrangements formal Deeds of transfer were executed in the cases of Chinsura and Baranagar respectively (Nos. LXXIII and LXXIV). The transfer of Kalkapur to the Dutch remained in abeyance in consequence of their assertion of a claim for the exercise of certain prescriptive rights of sovereignty and independence within that factory, which were inconsistent with its purely commercial status.

The tenure of the Dutch was not of long duration. By articles 8 and 13 of the Treaty between Great Britain and the Netherlands, dated the 17th March 1824 (No. LXXV), the Dutch settlements in Bengal were again made over to the British Government, in whose possession they have ever since remained, and formal Deeds of transfer of the settlements of Chinsura, Falta, Kalkapur, Balasor, Dacca, and Patna* were executed (Nos. LXXVI to LXXX).

which were possessed by Holland at the commencement of the late war, viz., on the 1st January 1803, in the seas and on the continents of America, Africa and Asia; with the exception of the Cape of Good Hope and the Settlements of Demerara, Essequibo, and Berbice, of which possessions the high Contracting Parties reserve to Themselves the right to dispose by a Supplementary Convention, hereafter to be negotiated according to Their mutual interests, and specially with reference to the provisions contained in the 6th and 9th Articles of the Treaty of Peace signed between His Britannic Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty on the 30th of May 1814.

II. His Britannic Majesty agrees to cede in full Sovereignty the Island of Banca, in the Eastern Seas, to the Prince Sovereign of the Netherlands, in exchange for the Settlement of Cochin and its Dependantls on the coast of Malabar, which is to remain in full Sovereignty to His Britannic Majesty.

III. The places and forts in the colonies and settlements which, by virtue of the two preceding Articles, are to be ceded and exchanged by the two High Contracting Parties, shall be given us in the state in which they may be at the moment of the signature of the present Convention.

IV. His Britannic Majesty guarantees to the subjects of His Royal Highness the Prince Sovereign of the United Netherlands, the same facilities, privileges, and protection, with respect to commerce and the security of their persons and property within the limits of the British Sovereignty on the Continent of India, as are now or shall be granted to the most favoured nations.

His Royal Highness the Prince Sovereign, on his part, having nothing more at heart than the perpetual duration of peace between the Crown of England and the United Netherlands, and wishing to do His utmost to avoid anything which might affect their mutual good understanding, engages not to erect any fortifications in the establishments which are to be restored to Him within the limits of the British Sovereignty upon the Continent of India, and only to place in those establishments the number of troops necessary for the maintenance of the police.

* The deed relating to Patna is not forthcoming.
In accordance with the provisions of the Treaty* of Kiel, dated the 14th January 1814, between Great Britain and Denmark, the town of Serampur and the Danish possessions attached thereto were restored to Denmark (No. LXXXI). The British Government again obtained possession of Serampur by the Treaty of the 22nd February 1845 (No. LXXXII) with Denmark.

On the 7th March 1815 a Convention (No. LXXXIII) was signed between Great Britain and France, by which the supply of salt, opium, and saltpetre to the French establishments, in India were regulated. To give full effect to this convention another Convention (No. LXXXIV) was agreed upon on the 13th May 1818 between the Administrators of the French establishments in India and the Government of Fort St. George, by which the manufacture of salt in the French possessions throughout India was to cease during the continuance of the East India Company's charter, and 4,000 Star Pagodas (Rs. 14,000) were to be paid annually to the French Government as an indemnification to the proprietors of the salt pans. The British Government also engaged to supply at prime cost such a quantity of salt as would suffice for the domestic use of the inhabitants of the French settlements in

V. Those colonies, factories, and establishments which are to be ceded to His Royal Highness the Prince Sovereign of the United Netherlands by His Britannic Majesty, in the Seas or on the Continent of America, shall be given up within three months, and those which are beyond the Cape of Good Hope, within the six months which follow the ratification of the present Convention.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE—II.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE.

II. The small district of Baranagar, situated close to Calcutta, being requisite to the due preservation of the peace and police of that city, the Prince of Orange agrees to cede the said district to His Britannic Majesty, upon a payment of such sum annually to His Royal Highness as may be considered, by Commissioners to be appointed by the respective Governments, to be just and reasonable, with reference to the profits or revenue usually derived by the Dutch Government from the same.

The following Article has reference to India:—

III. His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland consents to restore to His Danish Majesty all the possessions and colonies which have been conquered by the British arms in this present war, except the Island of Heligoland which His Britannic Majesty reserves to himself with full and unlimited sovereignty.

Additional Articles signed at Liege, 7th April 1814—

I. The evacuations, cessions, and restitutions, stipulated by the above-mentioned Treaty shall be executed in Europe within a month, in the seas of America within three months, and in the continent and seas of Asia within six months, after the ratification of the Definite Treaty.

II. It is further agreed that in all the cases of cession stipulated, there shall be allowed to the inhabitants, of whatever condition or nation they may be, a term of three years, reckoning from the ratification of the present Treaty, to dispose of their property, acquired and possessed whether before or in the course of the war; during which term of three years they shall be at liberty freely to exercise their religion, and to enjoy their property. The same facility is granted within the countries restored, to all persons, inhabitants or others, who shall have formed any establishments during the time which these countries were possessed by Great Britain.

India, the French Government agreeing to sell this salt at approximately the same price as that obtained by the British Government in the adjoining districts. In 1837, on the expiry of the Company's charter, a fresh Convention (No. LXXXV) was concluded which, with trifling modifications, renewed that of 1818. In 1839 a Convention (No. LXXXVI) was signed, by which the French Government at Chandarnagar renounced their right to the supply of salt in consideration of receiving an annual payment of Rs. 20,000, and further agreed to give every facility for the sale of British salt in Chandarnagar, and to assist the British Government in realising the revenue produced by its consumption.

In 1853 a Convention (No. LXXXVII) was signed at Paris by which the boundaries of the French and English possessions round Chandernagar were re-adjusted.

In 1884 a Convention (No. LXXXVIII) was concluded for five years between the Government of India and the French Government, represented by the Chef de Service at Chandernagar. Under this the rights in connection with the opium trade, which had been reserved to the French by article 6 of the convention of the 7th March 1815, were converted into an annual payment of Rs. 3,000. This convention was renewed in 1889 for five years, and again in December 1893, for a similar period from the 1st January 1894 (No. LXXXIX), a fresh clause being introduced on the latter occasion under which all contraband opium seized in French territory was to be handed over to the Collector of Hugli on payment of its value, which should be calculated at the same rate as in similar cases in British India. This last convention was renewed in 1899 for a period of five years, and in 1904 and 1905 (No. XC) for a period of one and two years respectively.

The French possess jurisdiction over Gairetti, a village lying on the right bank of the Hugli, about a mile and a half to the south of Chandernagar, and separated from it by British territory; and over two plots of land in the Balasor District; one situated in Purana Balasor, measuring about 29 acres; and the other situated in village Bainchua measuring about 9 acres, the boundaries of which were fixed in 1895.

In respect to the inhabitants of the countries restored or ceded, it is agreed that no one shall be prosecuted, disturbed, or troubled, either personally or in his property, under any pretense, on account of his political opinions or conduct, or of his attachment to either of the High Contracting Parties, or for any other cause, unless it be for debts contracted with individuals or for acts subsequent to the present Treaty.

III. The decision of every claim between individuals of the respective nations for any debts, property, effects or rights whatever, which conformably to common usage and the law of nations ought to be brought forward, shall be referred to the competent tribunals, and in such cases there shall be prompt and complete justice rendered in the countries where the claims are respectively put forth.

TREATY and AGREEMENT with SERAJAH DOWLA,—1757.

LIST OF DEMANDS.

ARTICLE 1.

That the Company be not molested upon account of such privileges as have been granted them by the King’s Firmaund and Husbulhookums, and the Firmaund and Husbulhookums in full force.

That the villages which were given to the Company by the Firmaund, but detained from them by the Soubah, be likewise allowed them, nor let any impediment or restriction be put upon the Zemindars.

ARTICLE 2.

That all goods belonging to the English Company, and having their Dustuck, do pass freely by land or water, in Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, without paying any duties or fees of any kind whatsoever; and that the Zemindars, Chokeydars, Guzerbauns, etc., offer them no kind of molestation upon this account.

ARTICLE 3.

That restitution be made the Company of their factories and settlements at Calcutta, Cossimbazar, Dacca, etc., which have been taken from them.

That all money and effects taken from the English Company, their factors, and dependents, at the several settlements and au-rungs, be restored in the same condition. That an equivalent in money be given for such goods as are damaged, plundered, or lost, which shall be left to the Nabob’s justice to determine.
ARTICLE 4.

That the Company be allowed to fortify Calcutta in such a manner as they shall esteem proper for their defence, without any hindrance or obstruction.

ARTICLE 5.

That siccas be coined at Allenagur (Calcutta) in the same manner as at Mooshedabad, and that the money struck in Calcutta be of equal weight and fineness with that of Mooshedabad. There shall be no demand made for a deduction of batta.

ARTICLE 6.

That these proposals be ratified in the strongest manner, in the presence of God and His Prophet, and signed and sealed to by the Nabob, and some of his principal people.

ARTICLE 7.

And Admiral Charles Watson and Colonel Clive promise, in behalf of the English Nation, and of the English Company, that from henceforth all hostilities shall cease in Bengal, and the English will always remain in peace and friendship with the Nabob, as long as these Articles are kept in force, and remain unviolated.

AGREEMENT of the COMPANY, signed by the GOVERNOR and COMMITTEE, the 9th of February 1757: (19th Jamadee-ul-awal 1170.)

We, the East India Company, in the presence of His Excellency the Nabob Monsoor-ul-Mulck Serajah Dowlah Shah Kuly Khan Behauder, Hybut Jung, Nazim of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, by the hands and seal of the Council, and by firm agreement and solemn attestation, do declare, that the business of the Company's factory, within the jurisdiction of the Nabob, shall go on in its former course; that we will never oppress or do violence to any persons without cause; that we will never offer protection to any persons having accounts with the Government, any of the King's Talookdars or Zemindars, nor murderers nor robbers; that we will never act contrary to the tenor of the Articles agreed to by the Nabob; that we will carry on our business as formerly, and will never, in any respect, deviate from this Agreement.

PERWANNAHs AND DUSTUCKS GIVING EFFECT TO THE ABOVE TREATY.

PERWANNAH for DUSTUCKS from SERAJAH DOWLAH, dated the 9th Rajeb Moon.

The English Company's goods have been carried backward and forward by land and water, always through the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa; by the dustuck and seal of the said Company, by virtue of the King's Firmaund, which is also now confirmed by me. Take care, on no pretence to interrupt their carrying their goods backwards and forwards through all the chokeyes whatsoever, and not to demand any katbarra, manjor, etc., according to the King's Firmaund. Let them pass and repass without receiving a single cowrie from any of their people; and interfere not with the English Company's Gomastahs on any account, but rather take care that through all your districts their business be not obstructed in any way.

Fifteen Perwannahs of the same tenor and date were granted under the seal of the Nabob Serajah Dowla to the Rajahs and Zemindars.

PERWANNAH under the seal of the NABOB MONSOOR-UL-MULCK; SERAJAH DOWLAL BEHAUDER, HYBUT JUNG, dated the 9th Rajeb (31st March 1757), in the 3rd year of the glorious Reign Mohunlol.

All goods belonging to the English Company, which by virtue of the royal mandate, used to pass and repass with the said Company's dustucks, by land or water, through the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, I have, at this time, granted a free currency to, in the same manner and with the same privileges as formerly; it is necessary that Your Excellency write to the Officers at Dacca, Chittagong, Jugdea, Akbaranagur, Silhet, Ranangatty, Cheetmarre, Moorshedabad, and Purnea, that they suffer the same goods to pass up and down the rivers without any molestation or imposition of katbarra (a tax laid upon boats) or any other articles forbidden by the royal court; nor exact the smallest sum from them, nor any ways oppress the Gomastahs or dependents. Let them be punctual in this.

DUSTUCK under the seal of the Nabob Serajah Dowla, etc., dated the 17th Jemadee Saun (9th March 1757), in the 3rd year of the King’s glorious Reign.

To all Foudars, Zemindars, Chowkeydars, and Overseers of the way of the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa.

All goods belonging to the English Company, which, by virtue of the royal mandate, used to pass and repass through the foregoing provinces, by land and water, with the Company’s dustucks, I have at this time granted a free currency to in the same manner as formerly, and with the confirmation of their former privileges. Let all goods having the English Company’s dustuck pass as before up and down the river without any molestation or imposition of katbarra, or any other articles forbidden by the royal court; nor exact the smallest sum from them, nor oppress the Company’s dependents.

In this be punctual, and act conformably to this writing.

PERWANNAH of the Nabob Serajah Dowla to the Honorable Company for erecting a Mint in Calcutta.

From the date of the first of the moon Shabaun, the four-sun siccas are begun to be stamped, and through all the mint houses the new siccas of the four-sun are coined. Take care and erect a mint in Calcutta (called Allenagur) and stamp gold and silver rupees out of the bullion and gold imported by your nation, of the weight of rupees of gold and silver coined at Moorshedabad. Under the name of Allenagur (Calcutta) shall you coin your money; it shall pass for land revenues, etc. Nobody will ask or set any batta upon them; only take care not to coin the gold and silver of other nations.
No. LXII.

Agreement of Colonel Clive with the Nabob, dated February 12th, 1757 (22nd Jemadec-ul-awul).

I, Colonel Clive, Sabut Jung Behauder, Commander of the English Land Forces in Bengal, do solemnly declare, in the presence of God and our Saviour, that there is peace between the Nabob, Serajah Dowla, and the English. They, the English, will inviolably adhere to the Articles of the Treaty made with the Nabob: that as long as he shall observe his Agreement, the English will always look upon his enemies as their enemies, and whenever called upon will grant him all the assistance in their power.

No. LXIII.

Treaty with Jaffier Ally Khan,—1757.

I swear by God, and the Prophet of God, to abide by the terms of this Treaty whilst I have life.

Meer Mahomed Jaffier Khan Behauder, servant of King Aalum Geer.

Treaty made with the Admiral and Colonel Clive (Sabut Jung Behauder), Governor Drake, and Mr. Watts.

Article 1.

Whatever Articles were agreed upon in the time of peace with the Nabob Serajah Dowla Monsoor-ul-Mulck Shah Kuly Khan Behauder, Hybut Jung, I agree to comply with.

Article 2.

The enemies of the English are my enemies, whether they be Indians or Europeans.

* These words were written in his own hand.
ARTICLE 3.

All the effects and factories belonging to the French, in the Provinces of Bengal (the Paradise of Nations), Behar and Orissa, shall remain in the possession of the English, nor will I ever allow them any more to settle in the three Provinces.

ARTICLE 4.

In consideration of the losses which the English Company have sustained by the capture and plunder of Calcutta by the Nabob, and the charges occasioned by the maintenance of the forces, I will give them one crore of rupees.

ARTICLE 5.

For the effects plundered from the English inhabitants of Calcutta, I agree to give fifty lakhs of rupees.

ARTICLE 6.

For the effects plundered from the Gentooos, Mussulmans, and other subjects of Calcutta, twenty lakhs of rupees shall be given.

ARTICLE 7.

For the effects plundered from the Armenian inhabitants of Calcutta, I will give the sum of seven lakhs of rupees. The distribution of the sums allotted the natives, English inhabitants, Gentooos, and Mussulmans, shall be left to the Admiral, and Colonel Clive (Sabut Jung Behauder), and the rest of the Council, to be disposed of by them to whom they think proper.

ARTICLE 8.

Within the ditch, which surrounds the borders of Calcutta, are tracts of land belonging to several Zemindars; besides this I will grant the English Company six hundred yards without the ditch.

ARTICLE 9.

All the land lying to the south of Calcutta, as far as Culpee, shall be under the Zemindarry of the English Company; and all the Officers of those parts shall be under their jurisdiction. The revenues to be paid by them (the Company) in the same manner with other Zemindars.

ARTICLE 10.

Whenever I demand the English assistance, I will be at the charge of the maintenance of them.

ARTICLE 11.

I will not erect any new fortifications below the Hooghly near the River Ganges.

ARTICLE 12.

As soon as I am established in the Government of the three Provinces the aforesaid sums shall be faithfully paid.

Dated the 15th Ramzan, in the 4th year of the Reign.
ADDITIONAL ARTICLE.

ARTICLE 13.

On condition that Meer Jaffier Khan Behauder shall solemnly ratify, confirm by oath, and execute all the above Articles, which the under-written, on behalf of the Honorable East India Company, do, declaring on the Holy Gospels and before God, that we will assist Meer Jaffier Khan Behauder with all our force, to obtain the Soubabship of the Provinces of Bengal, Behar and Orissa, and further, that we will assist him to the utmost against all his enemies whatever, as soon as he calls upon us for that end; provided that he, on his coming to be Nabob, shall fulfil the aforesaid Articles.*

SUNNUDS AND PERWANNAHS GIVING EFFECT TO THE TREATY.

1. General Sunnud, under the Seal of Jaffier Ally Khan.

To all Governors, Muttaseddees, present and future, all Naibs, Foudars, Zeminders, Chowdrahs, Canongees, etc., Servants of the Government, in the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa.

Know that, by the Royal Firmandaun and Husbulhookums, the English Company are pardoned (maaff) exempt from all duties, therefore I write:

That whatever goods the Company's Gomastahs may bring or carry to, or from, their factories, the aurungs, or other places, by land or by water, with a dustuck from any of the Chiefs of their factories, you shall neither ask nor receive any sum, however trifling, for the same. Know, they have full power to buy and sell; you are by no means to oppose it. You are not to require from the Company's Gomastahs the Settee Manghans, or any other of the Zemindar's impositions. The Company's Gomastahs shall buy and sell the Company's goods, without the intervention of delolls, unless the Gomastahs are satisfied to employ them. You are to assist them on all occasions wherever they buy or sell. Whoever acts contrary to these orders the English have full power to punish them. If any of the Company's goods are stolen, you are to recover the very effects stolen or make good their amount. Any merchants or others on whom the Company have any lawful demands, you are to see that the same be paid to their Gomastahs. Take care that no one wrong or oppress the Company's Gomastahs. You are not to require or stop their boats, on pretence of the katbarra, or other duties on boats, whether they be the Company's own boats or boats hired by their Gomastahs. You are to give credit to the copies of all the Sunnuds to the Company, under the Kazzi's seal, without requiring the original. Any of the Company's debtors running from them, you are not to give them protection,

* This Article was not transmitted from India to the Company, but is to be found in the 12th page of the Appendix to the Dutch Memorial, and as there is no reason to doubt the authenticity of it, it is subjoined to the Treaty with the Nabob Meer Jaffier.
or plead for them, but are to deliver them up to the Company's Gomastahs. The Fouzdarrykurch, etc., impositions of the Fouzdar, which are forbid by the King, you shall not demand of the English, their Gomastahs, or inhabitants. Whenever the English Company desire to settle a new factory, besides those they are already possessed of, in the Provinces of Bengal Behar, and Orissa, you are to give them forty beegahs of the King's land. If any of the English ships are driven by bad weather, or wrecked in any of the ports, or other places, you are to assist them all in your power, and see that the goods are restored to the Company, and you are not to require the choutarry, etc., which the King has forbid.

A mint is established in Calcutta; coin siccas and gold mohurs of equal weight and fineness with the siccas and gold mohurs of Moorshedabad, they shall pass in the King's treasury.

All that I have written must be done; do as I have written, nor ask a new Sunnud every year. The 27th of the moon Shevaul, and 4th of the King's reign, being the 15th of the month of July 1757.

2. PERWANNAH from JAFFIER ALLY KHAN for the MINT.

To the high and mighty, the bold and valiant Commanders, the greatest of Merchants, the English Company, on whom may the King's favor rest for ever.

A mint has been established in Calcutta; continue coining gold and silver into siccas and mohurs, of the same weight and standard with those of Moorshedabad; the impression to be Calcutta, they shall pass current in the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, and be received into the Cadjanna; there shall be no obstruction or difficulty for kusoor. Under the seal of Fidvir Aulum Geer, Badsha Gauze, Sujah-ul-Mulck, Hossam o Dowla, Meer Mahomed Jaffier Khan Behander, Mahabut Jung. 11th Zeer-laida, 4th of the King's reign.

3. PERWANNAH for the Granted Lands.

Seal of the NAWAB JAFFIER ALLY KHAN.

Ye Zemindars, Chowdrahs, Talookdars, Muccuddems, Recayahs, Morsawreans, Mootawettawahs of the Chuckla of Hooghly and others situated in Bengal, the Terrestrial Paradise: Know that the Zemindarry, Choudrathy, and Talookdarry, of the countries in the subjoined list hath been given by treaty to the most illustrious and most magnificent the English Company, the glory and ornament of trade: the said Company will be careful to govern according to established custom and usage, without any gradual deviation, and watch for the prosperity of the people. Your duty is to give no cause of complaint to the Recayahs of the Company, who, on their part, are to govern with such kindness, that husbandry may receive a daily increase, that all disorders may be suppressed, drunkenness and other illicit practices prevented, and the Imperial tributes be sent in due time. Such part of the above said country as may be situated to the west of Calcutta, on the other side of the Ganges, does not appertain to the Company: Know then, ye Zemindars, etc., that ye are dependents of the Company, and that ye must submit to such treatment as they give you, whether good or bad, and this is my express injunction.

5. SUNNUD for the ZEMINDARRY of the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY'S Lands, given under the Seal of the NABOB ALLOW-Ò-DOWLA (commonly styled the NABOB MEERON) MEER MAHOMED SADDOCK KHAN BEHAUDER, ASSUD JUNG, DEWAN of the SOUBAH of BENGAL.

To the Muttaseseddees, for affairs for the time being and to come, and Chowdrees and Canongoos, and Inhabitants, and Husbandmen of the Kissmut Pergunna of Calcutta, etc., of the Circar Sautgum, etc., belonging to the Paradise of Nations, the Soubah of Bengal. Be it known, that, in consequence of the Ferd Sawal, signed by the glory of the nobility and administration, Sujah-ul-Mulck, Hossam-ò-Dowla, Meer Mahomed Jaffier Khan Behauder, Mahabut Jung, Nazim of the Soubah, and the Ferd Huckeeikut, and Muchulca, signed conformably thereto, the forms of which are herein fully set forth: The office of the Zemindary of the Pergunnahs above written, in consideration of the sum of twenty thousand one hundred and one Rupees (20,101) Pishcash, etc., to the Imperial Circar, according to the endorsement from the month Poos (anno 1164) in the year eleven hundred and sixty-four of the Bengal Æra, is conferred upon the noblest of Merchants, the English Company, to the end that they attend to the rites and customs thereof as is fitting, nor in the least circumstance neglect or withhold the vigilance and care due thereto: that they deliver into the treasury, at proper times, the due rents of the Circar; that they behave in such manner to the inhabitants and lower sort of people, that, by their good management, the said Pergunna may flourish and increase; that they suffer no robbers nor house-breakers to remain within their districts, and take such care of the King's highways, that the travellers and passengers may pass and repass without the least molestation: That (which God forbid) if the effects of any person be plundered or stolen, they discover and produce the plunderers and thieves, together with the goods, and deliver the goods to owners and the criminals to condign punishment; or else, that they themselves be responsible for the said goods; that they take special care that no one be guilty of any crimes or drunkenness within the limits of their Zemindarry; that after the expiration of the year they take a discharge, according to custom, and that they deliver the accounts of their Zemindarry, agreeable to the stated forms, every year, into the dutercana of the Circar; and that they refrain from demanding the articles forbidden by the Imperial Court (the Asylum of the World).

It is their (the Muttaseddees, etc.) duty to look upon the said Company as the established and lawful Zemindars of those places, and whatsoever appertains, or is annexed to that office, as their right: in this particular be they strictly punctual.

We, the English Company, do declare, that whereas the office of the Zemindarry of the Kissmut Pergunnah of Calcutta, etc., of the Sircar Sautgaum, etc., belonging to the Paradise of Nations, the Soubah of Bengal, in consideration of the sum of twenty thousand one hundred and one rupees (20,101) Pishcash, etc., to the Imperial Circar, from the month Poos (anno 1164) in the year eleven hundred and sixty-four of the Bengal Æra, has been conferred on us, to the end that we attend to the rites and customs thereof, as is fitting, nor in the least circumstance neglect or withhold the vigilance and care due thereto. That we deliver into the treasury in the proper times the due rents of the Circar. That we behave in such manner to the inhabitants and lower sort of people, that by our good management the said Pergunnahs may flourish and increase. That we suffer no robbers nor house-breakers to remain within our districts and take such care of the King's highways that the travellers and passengers may pass and repass without fear or molestation. That (which God forbid) if the effects of any person be plundered or stolen we discover and produce the robbers or thieves, together with the goods, and deliver the goods to the owners, and the criminals to condign punishment, or else that we ourselves be responsible for the said goods. That we take especial care that no one be guilty of any crime or drunkenness within the limits of our Zemindarry. That after the expiration of the year, we take a discharge according to custom, and that we deliver the accounts of our Zemindarry agreeable to the stated forms every year into the duftercana of the Circar, and that we refrain from demanding the articles forbidden by the Imperial Court (the Asylum of the World). For this reason we have given this writing as a muchulca and agreement, that upon any occasion recourse may be had thereto.

Particulars of the Mahals have been written in the endorsement.

NO. LXIV.

1759.

Au nom de la Trinité très Sainte.

A tous ceux que ces présentes concernent, ou en quelque manière peuvent intéresser, soit notoire.

Le très noble & très Respectable Président & Conseil du fort William & le très Noble & très respectable Directeur & Conseil du fort Gustavus, dans ces pays ici, témoignants un désir ardent, d'assoupir les troubles que agitent Bengale, d'obtenir aux calamités si souvent éprouvées, de faire cesser, ôter & terminer tous les obstacles & différens survenus, & de restaurer dans leurs établissements une tranquillité ; arfaite ont pour cette fin nominés, muni de pleins pouvoirs & députés au lieu destiné aux conférences à Garrethly, les honorables Messieurs : savoir.

Lesquels, après s'avoir mutuellement assurés de leurs pleins pouvoirs expédiés en bonne forme, & conféré des différens objets que leur Principaux ici ont jugés nécessaires pour être insérés dans ce présent Instrument d'un general accommodement, finalement sont convenus, après une délibération, d'une pacification, dont est issue heureusement une cessation entière de toutes les hostilités tant par mer que par terre, selon les articles dont le contenu ici suit.

de la part des Anglois.

ART. 1er.

Messieurs le Directeur & Conseil de Chintsura donneront satisfaction suffisante à Messieurs le Président & Conseil du Fort William de l'insulte offerte au Pavillon Britannique, par les Commandants des Vaisseaux Hollandais, et pour la détention de plusieurs de nos Vaisseaux, qui ont été saisis et arrêtés au bas de la Rivière contre les traités et l'alliance qui subsiste entre les deux Nations, et de la part des Hollandois.

Messieurs les Directeur et Conseil du Chintsura témoignent que comme ils ont toujours eu des sentiments pacifiques, les troubles qui sont entrevenus & ont altéré la bonne intelligence entre les deux Nations, ne peuvent pas produire comme ils n'ont pas produit qu'une douleur sensible, & tout ce qui s'est passé en bas par rapport au Pavillon Anglois et aux insultes qui sont commis, est sans leur ordre et pour les autres actes d'hostilité commis par les dits Vaisseaux.

ART. 2d.

Messieurs le Directeur & Conseil de Chintsurá dédommageront et la Compagnie, & les particuliers de tous dommages causés par les Com-mandans de leurs Vaisseaux, soit par leur ordre, ou non, et rendront im-médiatemment tous nos Vaisseaux, munitions, et effets qui peuvent encore rester dans leurs mains.

Arrêté à Garhetsy Le 1er Decembre 1759.

RICH. BECHER.

JOHN COOKE.

DEMANDES.

de la part des Hollandois.

ARTICLE 1er.

Que Messieurs les Anglois étant dans les termes d'un accommodement effectuons que leur allié le Nawab s'en retourne ou au moins qu'il se tienne tranquille dans son camp, sans nous faire aucun tort, et que les articles de notre accommodement soient acceptés, approuvés & confirmés par le Nawab, comme principal, autant qu'ils le concernent, tant pour le pré-sent que pour l'avenir.

2d.

Un mutuel oubli de tout ce qui s'est passé pendant les troubles, qui ont cessé à présent, de plus une assurance parfaite d'amitié, fidélité & correspondance, qui soient entretenus à regret peut-être par des gens d'Equipage au premier abord dans un mal entendement des ordres, avec quelle démonstration ils espè-rent que Messieurs le Gouverneur & Conseil seront sufisament satisfaisants.

Comme les Vaisseaux Hollandois ont reçu aussi une grande perte & dommage, il paroit dur d'insister sur le dédommagement ; mais ce qui est en effet sera rendu volontairement : On prie Messieurs le Gouverneur & Conseil de réfléchir sur cet Article équitablement, et en cas qu'on ne désistera, nous ferons en sorte de les satisfaire.

RÉPONSE

de la part des Anglois.

ARTICLE 1er.

Nous nous sommes déjà servi de tout notre crédit auprès du Nazim, et nous continuerons de même pour l'engager à faire retirer son armée, le moment que les Messieurs du Gouvernement Hollandois ont rem-pli ses ordres. Les articles convenus entre les Anglois et les Hollandois ne peuvent point être entremêlés dans le Traité que le Gouvernement de Houglj doit conclure avec le Nazim comme principal.

2d.

Approuvé, autant qu'il ne contrevient point à l'alliance que nous avons avec le Nazim du pays. Pen-dant que l'amitié subsiste entre nos deux souverains en Europe.
entre les deux nations par les chefs Respectables de chacune sans tolérer aucune hostilité de part, ni d’autre sous quelque prétexte que ce soit, que chacun fera de son mieux pour entretenir cette Intelligence, & de contribuer en tout ce qui pourrait augmenter le Bonheur de toutes les deux : sans donner directement ou indirectement du secours à ceux qui woudroient nuire l’une ou l’autre.

3e.

Comme on n’a agi ni par déclaration de guerre, ni par commission, nos troupes & gens de mer, ne peuvent être considérés comme prisonniers de guerre qui soient sujets à une capitulation, mais simplement comme des arrêtés temporels ; de sorte qu’ils doivent être libres, et sortir avec tous les honneurs militaires.

4e.

Qu’on nous laisse dans une possession Libre, tranquille & pas diminuée, de nos établissements commerce, droits & prérogatives.

5e.

Que toutes les personnes, possessions, établissements, terres, maisons, vaisseaux, bâtiments, tant de la Compagnie, qu’aux particuliers, & tout ce qui en depend, soient déclarés libres & rendus en présence des Députés exprès, des deux partis, dans l’état qu’ils étoient.

6e.

3e.

Nous ne regardons point les officiers et troupes Hollandoises comme nos prisonniers ; mais comme ceux du Nazim : Nous sommes donc prêts à les relacher dès que le gouvernement de Hougly ont fini leur négociation avec le Nazim, à l’exception de ceux qui veulent entrer dans notre service, ou qui demandent la protection du pavillon anglois.

4e.

Nous n’avons jamais interrompu Messieurs les Hollandois dans leurs justes droits ou privilèges, et ne sommes point dans l’intention de le faire.

5e.

Tous les vaisseaux, barques, &c., dans notre possession seront restitués dès que nos demandes seront accordées, ou une assurance qu’ils seront de la part de Messieurs le Directeur & Conseil de Hougly.

6e.

Accordé.
Finalement les deux parties seront garantdeurs réciproquement de l’Exécution des Articles précédens.

Arrêté ce présent à Garett y le 1er December 1759.

M. JOHS. BACHERACHT.
J. C. KIST.

Revers.

Convenu, & arrêté que la Langue française, dont on s’est servi dans quelques exemplaires de ce présent traité d’accommodement, & dont on sera obligé de se servir à l’avenir dans son exécution, ne fournira aucun exemple qui pourroit être allégué au préjudice des Maitres et Principaux respectifs des deux parties Contractantes, mais qu’on se réglera dans la suite selon ce qu’on trouvera à l’égard des Principaux des deux partis qui sont dans le droit, coutume & possession d’expédier & recevoir pareils Traités & actes dans une autre Langue que le français déjà observé, ou ce qui doit être observé.

Le présent Traité & les accessions qui y peuvent intervenir, retiennent la même vertu, & propriété, que si la même coutume y avait été observée; & les articles séparés qu’on y voudroit entremettre conserveront pareillement la même efficace que s’ils étoient inserés dans le traité.

Ainsi fait au Lieu de nos Conférences à Garreth y le 3 December 1759.

Ratification.

tution mutuelle stipulée dans les prédits Articles; pour assoupir toutes les mesintelligences & démêlés survenus jusqu’ici; d’ailleurs & outre cela de faire passer le contenu de cette présente Convention, autant qu’il sera nécessaire par une publication solennelle à la connaissance de tous ceux qui dépendent de nous, afin qu’elle soit dans tous ses points essentiels religieusement observée, en évitant tout ce qui pourra dans la Suite altérer, ou troubler l’amitié & le Voisinage paisible qui subsiste à présent heureusement entre nos Etablissements respectifs rétablie.

En foi de quoi nous avons signé et munis ces présentes avec les Sceaux de nos deux Nobles Compagnies des Indes Orientales établis ici.

TRANSLATION.

IN THE NAME OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY.

To all whom these Presents concern, or may in any way interest, be it known.

The most noble and most respectable President and Council of Fort William, and the most noble and respectable Director and Council of Fort Gustavus in these territories, animated by an ardent desire to remove all the troubles, obstacles, and differences which have been experienced in Bengal, and to re-establish complete tranquillity in their respective settlements, have, with this view, nominated, vested with full powers, and deputed the following gentlemen to Garethy, the place appointed for the conferences:

On the part of the most noble and most respectable President and Council of Fort William, Messrs. Richard Becher and John Cooke, Counselors of the Government.

On the part of the most noble and most respectable Director and Council of Fort Gustavus, Messrs. John Bacheracht and John Charles Kist, Members of the Political Council and of the Department of Justice, who discussed the different matters of which the insertion in the present treaty of settlement was considered necessary by their Principals here; and after mature deliberation, a pacification was agreed upon, the result of which has been an entire cessation of hostilities by sea and land, according to both by sea and land, according to the terms of the following Articles:

Demands on the part of the English.

ARTICLE 1.

The Director and Council of Chinsura shall afford due satisfaction to the President and Council of Fort William for the insult offered to the British flag by the Commanders of Dutch vessels, and for the detention of several of our ships, which have been seized and stopped down the river, contrary to Treaties and the alliance subsisting between the two nations, as well as for other acts of hostility committed by the said vessels.

ARTICLE 2.

The Director and Council of Chinsura shall indemnify both the Company and individuals for all losses caused by the Commanders of their vessels, whether by their orders or not, and shall immediately give up all our ships, munitions, and effects which may still be in their hands.

Executed at Garethy, the 1st December 1759.

(Signed) RICH. BECHER.

" JOHN COOKE.

Demands on the part of the Dutch.

ARTICLE 1.

That the English shall cause their ally, the Nawab, to return, or at least Replies on the part of the Dutch.

ARTICLE 1.

The Director and Council of Chinsura state, that as they have always entertained pacific sentiments, the troubles which have arisen and affected the good understanding between the two nations cannot but be a source of great pain, and that what has passed respecting the British flag and the insults offered, has taken place without their orders and to their regret.

Those acts may probably have been committed by the people composing the crew under a misconception of orders. With this explanation it is hoped that the Governor and Council will be satisfied.

ARTICLE 2.

As Dutch vessels have also suffered great loss and injury, it seems hard to insist upon indemnification, but what there is in effects shall willingly be restored.

The Governor and Council are requested to consider this Article in a spirit of equity. In the event of their not desisting, we shall endeavour to satisfy them.

We have already used all our influence with the Nazim, and will con-to remain quiet in his camp, without doing us any injury, and that the Articles of our settlement shall be approved, accepted and confirmed by the Nawab as a principal, in as far as they concern him, as well for the present as for the future.

ARTICLE 2.

There shall be a mutual oblivion of all that passed during the prevalence of troubles which have now ceased, as well as a perfect assurance of friendship, fidelity, and communication between the two nations through the respectable Chiefs of each, without the toleration of any hostility on either side, under any pretext whatsoever. Each shall do his best to maintain this good understanding and to augment the welfare of both, without directly or indirectly aiding those who may desire to hurt either nation.

ARTICLE 3.

As the acts done have not resulted from a declaration of war, our troops and seamen cannot be considered as prisoners of war, subject to a capitulation, but simply as persons under temporary detention they should, therefore, be released and allowed to depart with military honours.

ARTICLE 4.

That we shall be left in free, quiet, and undiminished possession of our establishments, commerce, rights, and prerogatives.

tinue doing so with a view to induce him to withdraw his army, as soon as the gentlemen of the Dutch Government have fulfilled his orders.

The Articles agreed upon between the English and the Dutch cannot be intermixed in the Treaty which the Government of Hooghly is to conclude with the Nazim as principal.

ARTICLE 2.

Approved, so far as this Article does not contravene our alliance with the Nazim of the country, and shall be observed while friendship shall subsist between our respective Sovereigns in Europe.

ARTICLE 3.

We do not regard the Dutch Officers and troops as our prisoners, but as those of the Nazim. We shall, therefore, be prepared to release them as soon as the Government of Hooghly shall have brought its negotiations with the Nazim to a close, with the exception of such of them as may wish to enter our service, or may apply for the protection of the British flag.

ARTICLE 4.

We have never interrupted the Dutch gentlemen in the enjoyment of their just rights or privileges, and have no intention to do so.
ARTICLE 5.

That all persons, possessions, establishments, lands, houses, vessels, belonging as well to the Company as to individuals, and all dependent thereon, shall be declared free, and restored in the state in which they were, in presence of the special deputies of the two parties.

ARTICLE 6.

The ratifications shall be exchanged with approbation of the Directors on the part of the respective Companies as soon as practicable.

ARTICLE 7.

Finally, the two parties shall be reciprocally guaranteed in respect to the execution of the foregoing Articles.

Executed at Garthye the 1st of December 1759.

Agreed and resolved, that the French language, which has been used in some copies of the present Treaty, and which it shall become necessary to use hereafter in its execution, shall furnish no ground for any allegation to the prejudice of the respective masters and principals of the two contracting parties, but that matter shall be regulated according to the practice of the principals who are in the habit of despatching and receiving similar treaties and acts in other than the French language.

Any separate Articles which may be appended shall have the same force as if they had been inserted in the Treaty.

Ratification.

We, the undersigned, accept, by these presents, the foregoing Articles of a mutual settlement negotiated and adopted for the general pacification of the establishments of our respective masters and principals through our Deputies, namely, on the one part, Messrs. Richard Becher and John Cooke, Counsellors at Fort William, and on the other, Messrs. John Bacheracht and John Charles Kist, Members of the Political Council and of the Department of Justice at Fort Gustavus here; and we approve, confirm, and ratify the same, in the name, and subject to the approbation of, our respective masters and principals in Europe, promising to cause immediately and faithfully the mutual restitution stipulated in the aforesaid Articles, with a view to the removal of the misunderstandings and disorders which have hitherto prevailed, and, moreover, to bring the contents of this convention as far as may be necessary, by means of a formal publication, to the knowledge of all those who are dependent on us, in order that the same may, in all essential points, be religiously observed, so as to avoid in future whatever may tend to disturb the friendship and good understanding now happily subsisting between our respective establishments.

In witness whereof, we have signed and affixed to these presents the Seals of the two East India Companies, respectively.

which said Articles and conditions are at the request of both the contracting parties guaranteed to them respectively by the undersigned President and Council of Fort William.

ARTICLE 1ST.

The Directore and Council shall immediately send away from Chinchura and their other Factories all the Europeans they have exceeding the number of one hundred and twenty-five granted them by Treaty: The said men may remain on Board of their Ships at Culpee or Fulta till an opportunity offers of conveying them to Batavia.

2ND.

That if they have erected any new Fortifications or deepen’d or widen’d their Ditch since the execution of their Treaty with the Nabob, they shall be immediately reduced to their former condition.

3RD.

That if they have augmented their number of Guns or their quantity of Military Stores beyond what is necessary for the ordinary uses of their Factory, the overplus shall immediately be sent away in the same manner as is mentioned in the first Article regarding the men.

4TH.

That they shall never suffer more than one Europe Ship at a time to come higher up the River than Molk Beadür, de volbrenging der voorz: artikelen en voorwaarden, is op-verzoek byder contracteerende partyen, geguaranteerd door de respective onderget: President en raad van’t fort William.

ART. 1.

Den Directeür en Raad van Chin-sura, zullen onmiddelyk van Hoûgly en húnne verdere Comptoren alhier, wegzenden, alle de manschapel die’t getal van 125 koppen te boven gaat, hún by vorige Tractaten toogestaan: zullende zich dezelve op een hûnner te Culpi of Folta liggende Scheepen zo lang moeten ophouden tot dat ze by eene gemackelyke gelegenheid Batavia- waards kunnen vervoerd werden.

2.

Dat by’aldien ze eenige nieuwe wânestingenwerken hebben opgewor- pen, of hunne grachten úytgedeig, vergroot of verwyerd zedert den dag der volvoering van hunn laat met den Nabab geslotene Tractaat, onmiddelyk tot húnne vorige staat zullen wederbrengen.

3.

Dat ingevalle zy’t getal van hun- ne canonen of Oorlogs ammonitie hebben vermeerderd boven’t geen zij tot’t ordinair gebrûyk in hunne bezittingen benodig hebben, zy’t overschot in zelvervoegen zullen doen verzenden als by’t eerste artikel ten opzigt der manschapel is vermeld.

4.

Dat ze nooyt zullen gedoogen meer dan een Europisch Schip, tegetyolk hooger dan Culpî, Folta of Mayapur, Culpee, Fulta or Myapore without the express leave of the Nabob first obtained.

5TH.

The said Deputies on the part of the said Directore and Council do hereby renew, confirm and ratify all the conditions by them agreed on in the Treaty concluded between the English Commissaries on behalf of the Nabob and the Commissaries on the part of the said Directore and Council the 3rd of December 1759, and more expressly and particularly that part which limits their forces in Bengal to the number of one hundred and twenty-five Europeans.

6TH.

The said Directore and Council shall now and at all times when the Nabob may require it permit an officer of his together with an English officer to review the men and Military Stores in Chinchura and their other Factories. Or if any other means can be agreed on between the Governor and Council of Fort William and the Directore and Council of Chinchura whereby the number of the men and the quantity of Military Stores may be ascertained to the satisfaction of the said Governor and Council of Fort William so as that they may be enabled to answer to the Nabob as Guarantees for the Security of his Country, in such case the Nabob will not insist upon the review.

7TH.

The Nabob's Duivn Ray Rayen Ameed Ray on the behalf of the Nabob solemnly engages to the said te laten opkomen, zonder alvorens daartoe van den Nabob eene uitdrukkelijke vergunning erlangt te hebben.

5.

De voorsz: Gecommitteerdens van wegens den Directeur en Raad van Chinsura, vernieuwen, bevestigen en ratificeren mits dezen alle de voorwaarden als byhen aangenomen in't Tractaat gesloten tusschen de Engelsche Commiss: als mede den Nabab ter eene, en den Directeur en Raad van Houghly ter andere zijde, op den 3 Xber 1759 en in't byzonder dat gedeelte welk de Militaire Magt in Bengale op 125 Europeesens bepaalt.

De voorsz: Directeur en Radd, zullen nu en ten allen tijden, wanneer de Nabab mogte requireeren toestaan dat een zijner Officieren vergezeld met eenen Engelsen, der hunne Manschap en Oorlogs voorraadte Chinsura en verdere Comptoiren overzien. Of indien men tusschen den Gouverneur en Raad van't Fort William en den Directeur en Raad van Chinsura door eenige andere middelen kan overeenkomen waardoor den Gouverneur en den Raad van't Fort William konde tot deszelfs genoegen verzekeret worden van't getal hünner manschap, en de hoeveelheid van derzelve krachtvoorraad, en Zy als vermiddelaar mogten & mogeude wezen, den Nabab een voldoende antwoord te geven, omtrend de veiligheid van zijn land, dat als an in een alzúk geval de Nabab niet zoude op de mostering insisteeren.

De Nababs Duwan Raajy Raajyaan Ameed Ray verbind zig plegtelyk van wegens den Nabab, aanden voorgemel-Directore and Council that on their complying with the before going conditions, they shall hereafter be supported in all their Rights, Liberties and Prerogatives in Trade as granted them by the Firmauns of the Mogul.

8th.

That they shall in future be burden'd with no new or unusual Taxes or Contributions whatsoever, and particularly that they shall be freed from the payment of the sum exacted from them for some years past by the Soubah of Patna under the title of Peshcush due for the privilege of the Trade of Salt Petre; it not being just that the said Directore and Council should continue to pay for a privilege that they do not now hold.

9th.

That they shall have a free and uninterrupted passage for their Ships and Vessels in the River with the exception mentioned in the 4th Article, as also for their Oxen, Carts, Cooleys, Peons, Cossids, &c., by land to their usual destin'd Place, with the seal of the Company and that of the Directore or Chiefs or other Servants properly qualified, without being subject to any impositions from any Phousdars, Jaguerdars, Chowkeydars, Droghers or other Officers of the Government.

NO. LXVI.

A Treaty between the Nabob Meer Mahomed Kossim Khan and the Company,—1760.

Two Treaties have been written of the same tenor, and reciprocally exchanged, containing the Articles undermentioned, between Meer Mahomed Kossim Khan Behauder and the Nabob* Shum's-ō-Dowla, Governor, and the rest of the Council, for the affairs of the English Company; and during the life of Meer Mahomed Kossim Khan Behauder, and the duration of the factories of the English Company in this country, this Agreement shall remain in force. God is witness between us that the following Articles shall in no wise be infringed by either party:—

Article 1.

The Nabob, Meer Mahomed Jaffer Khan Behauder, shall continue in possession of his dignities, and all affairs be transacted in his name, and a suitable income shall be allowed for his expenses.

Article 2.

The Neabut of the Soubahdarry of Bengal, †Azimabad and Orissa, &c., shall be conferred by His Excellency, the Nabob, on Meer Mahomed Kossim Khan Behauder; he shall be invested with the administration of all affairs of the Provinces, and after His Excellency he shall succeed to the Government.

Article 3.

Betwixt us and Meer Mahomed Kossim Khan Behauder, a firm friendship and union is established; his enemies are our enemies, and his friends are our friends.

Article 4.

The Europeans and Telingas of the English Army shall be ready to assist the Nabob, Meer Mahomed Kossim Khan Behauder, in the management of all affairs; and in all affairs dependent on him, they shall exert themselves to the utmost of their abilities.

Article 5.

For all charges of the Company and of the said Army, and provisions for the field, etc., the lands of Burdwan, Midnapore, and Chittagong shall be assigned, and Sunnuds for that purpose shall be written and granted. The Company is to stand to all losses and receive all the profits of these three countries, and we will demand no more than the three assignments aforesaid.

Article 6.

One-half of the Chunam produced at Sylhet for three years shall be purchased by the Gomastahs of the Company from the people of the Government, at the customary rate of that place. The tenants and inhabitants of those districts shall receive no injury.

*Governor Vansittart.
† Or Behar.
ARTICLE 7.

The balance of the former tuncaw shall be paid according to the kist-bundee agreed upon with the Royroyan. The jewels which have been pledged shall be received back again.

ARTICLE 8.

We will not allow the tenants of the Circar to settle in the lands of the English Company, neither shall the tenants of the Company be allowed to settle in the lands of the Circar.

ARTICLE 9.

We will give no protection to the dependents of the Circar in the lands, or in the factories of the Company, neither shall any protection be given to the dependents of the Company in the lands of the Circar; and whosoever shall fly to either party for refuge shall be delivered up.

ARTICLE 10.

The measures for war and peace with the Shahzada, and raising supplies of money, and the concluding both these points, shall be weighed in the scale of reason, and whatever is judged expedient shall be put in execution; and it shall be so contrived by the joint councils, that he be removed from this country, nor suffer to get any footing in it. Whether there be peace with the Shahzada or not, our agreement with Meer Mahomed Kossim Khan Behauder, we will (by the grace of God,) inviolably observe, as long as the English Company’s factories continue in the country.

Dated the 17th of the month Sophar, in the 1174 year of the Hegira, or the 27th September 1760.

(Sign Manual of Meer Mahomed Kossim Khan).

This was sealed on the 18th of the month Sophar, in the eleven hundred and seventy-fourth year of the Hegira, and the proposals agreed to.

SUNNUDS GIVING EFFECT TO THE ABOVE TREATY.

1. SUNNUD under the SEAL of the NABOB NASEER UL MULCK IMTEAZ & DOWLÁ NESSERAT JUNG MEER MAHOMED KOSSIM, KHAN BEHAUDER.

To the Zemindars, Canongoos, Talookdars, Tenants, Husbandmen and Chiefs of the villages of the Pergunnah of Burdwan, &c., the Zemindarry of the Raja Tilkuchund, in the districts of the Soubah of Bengal: Be it known that whereas divers wicked people have traitorously stretched forth their hands to plunder the subjects, and waste the royal dominions, for this reason the said Pergunnah, &c., is granted to the English Company, in part of disbursement of their expenses, and the monthly maintenance of five hundred European horse, two thousand European foot, and eight thousand sepoys, which are to be entertained for the protection of the royal dominions. Let the above officers quietly and contentedly attend and pay to the persons appointed by the English Company the stated revenues, and implicitly submit in all things to their authority. And the office of the Collectors of the English Company is as follows:—They shall continue the zemindars and tenants in their places, regularly collect the revenues of the lands, and deliver them in monthly, for the payment of the expenses of the Company and the pay of the above mentioned forces, that they may be always ready cheerfully and vigorously to promote the affairs of the King. Let this be punctually observed.

Dated the 4th of the moon Rabbi-ul-Awul, 1st Sun, answering to the 1st month of the Cautic 1176, Bengal style.

N.B.—Sunnuds for the Chuckla of Midnapore, in the districts of the Soubah of Orissa, and for the Thanna of Islamabad or Chittagong, appertaining to the Soubah of Bengal, are worded as the above.

2. Sunnud under the Seal of the Nabob Naseer-ul-Mulck, &c.

To the Daroga of Chunam, to the Naib of Sylhet: Be it known, that whereas the English Company are constructing a Fort in Calcutta, and meet with great obstacles in finishing that work in the want of stone chunam; for this reason it is ordered, that of whatever quantity of chunam is produced at that place one-half (the price thereof being received agreeable to the rate of that place) be delivered to the Gomastahs of the English Company for the term of three years, that no delays may be occasioned in finishing the Fort aforesaid; and the other half is to be sent for the Circar. Let this be punctually observed.

Dated the 4th of the moon Rabbi-ul-Awul, 1st Sun, answering to the 1st of the month Cautic 1176, Bengal style.

No. LXVII.

Articles of a Treaty and Agreement between the Governor and Council of Fort William, on the part of the English East India Company and the Nabob Sujah-ul-Mulck, Hossam-ô-Dowla, Meer Mahomed Jaffier Khan Behauder, Mahabut Jung,—1763.
On the part of the Company.

We engage to reinstate the Nabob Meer Mahomed Jaffier Khan Behauder in the Soubahdarry of the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, by the deposal of Meer Mahomed Kossim Khan; and the effects, treasure, and jewels, &c., belonging to Meer Mahomed Kossim Khan which shall fall into our hands, shall be delivered up to the Nabob aforesaid.

On the part of the Nabob.

ARTICLE 1.

The Treaty which I formerly concluded with the Company upon my accession to the Nizamot, engaging to regard the honour and reputation of the Company, their Governor and Council, as my own, granting perwannahs for the Currency of the Company's business; the same Treaty I now confirm and ratify.

ARTICLE 2.

I do grant and confirm to the Company for defraying the expenses of their troops, the Chucklas of Burdwan, Midnapore, and Chittagong, which were before ceded for the same purpose.

ARTICLE 3.

I do ratify and confirm to the English the privilege granted them by their Firmaund and several Husbulhookums, of carrying on their trade by the means of their own dustuck, free from all duties, taxes, or impositions, in all parts of the country, excepting the article of salt, on which a duty of 2½ per cent. is to be levied on the rowana, or Hooghly market price.

ARTICLE 4.

I give to the Company half the saltpetre which is produced in the country of Purnea, which their Gomastahs shall send to Calcutta. The other half shall be collected by my Fouzdar for the use of my offices; and I will suffer no other person to make purchases of this article in that country.

ARTICLE 5.

In the Chuckla of Sylhet, for the space of five years, commencing with the Bengal year 1170, my Fouzdar and the Company's Gomastah shall jointly prepare chunam, of which each shall defray half the expenses; and half the chunam so made shall be given to the Company, and the other half shall be for my use.

ARTICLE 6.

I will maintain twelve thousand horse and twelve thousand foot in the three Provinces. If there should be occasion for any more the number shall be increased by consent of the Governor and Council proportionally to the emergency: Besides these, the force of the English Company shall always attend me when they are wanted.

ARTICLE 7.

Wherever I shall fix my court, either at Moorshedabad or elsewhere, I will advise the Governor and Council; and what number of English forces I may have occasion for in the management of my affairs, I will demand them, and they shall be allowed me, and an English gentleman shall reside with me, to transact all affairs between me and the Company, and a person shall also reside on my part at Calcutta to negotiate with the Governor and Council.

ARTICLE 8.

The late Perwannahs issued by Kossim Ally Khan, granting to all merchants the exemption of all duties for the space of two years shall be reversed and called in, and the duties collected as before.

ARTICLE 9.

I will cause the rupees coined in Calcutta to pass in every respect equal to the siccas of Moorshedabad without any deduction of batta; and whosoever shall demand batta shall be punished.

ARTICLE 10.

I will give thirty lakhs of rupees to defray all the expenses and loss accruing to the Company from the war and stoppage of their investment; and I will reimburse to all private persons the amount of such losses, proved before the Governor and Council, as they may sustain in their trade in the country. If I should not be able to discharge this in ready money, I will give assignments of land for the amount.

ARTICLE 11.

I will confirm and renew the Treaty which I formerly made with the Dutch.

ARTICLE 12.

If the French come into the country, I will not allow them to erect any fortifications, maintain forces, hold lands, Zemindarries, &c., but they shall pay tribute, and carry on their trade as in former times.

ARTICLE 13.

Some regulations shall be hereafter settled between us for deciding all disputes which may arise between the English Agents and Gomastahs in the different parts of the country and my officers.

In testimony whereof, we, the said Governor and Council, have set our hands and affixed the seal of the Company to one part hereof; and the Nabob aforenamed hath set his hand and seal to another part hereof, which were mutually done and interchanged at Fort William, the 10th day of July 1763.

(Signed)
HENRY VANSITTART.
JOHN CARNAC.
William Billers.
Warren Hastings.
Randolph Marriot.
Hugh Watts.

Demands made on the part of the Nabob Meer Mahomed Jaffier Khan, and agreed to by the Council at the time of signing the Treaty.

Article 1.

I formerly acquainted the Company with the particulars of my own affairs, and received from them repeated letters of encouragement and kindness with presents: I now make this request that you will write in a proper manner to the Company, and also to the King of England the particulars of our friendship and union, and procure for me writings and encouragement, that my mind may be assured from that quarter, that no breach may ever happen between me and the English, and that every Governor, Counsellor, and Chief of the English that are here, or may hereafter come, may be well disposed and attached to me.

Article 2.

Since all the English gentlemen, assured of my friendly disposition to the Company, confirm me in the Nizamut, I request that to whatever I may at any time write, they will give their credit and assent, nor regard the stories of designing men to my prejudice, that all my affairs may go on with success and no occasion may arise for jealousy or ill-will between us.

Article 3.

Let no protection be given by any of the English gentlemen to any of my dependents, who may fly for shelter to Calcutta or other of your districts, but let them be delivered up to me on demand. I shall strictly enjoin all my Fouzdzars and Aumils, on all accounts to afford assistance and countenance to such of the Gomastahs of the Company as attend to the lawful trade of their factories; and if any of the said Gomastahs shall act otherwise, let them be checked in such a manner as may be an example to others.
ARTICLE 4.

From the neighbourhood of Calcutta to Hooghly, and many of their Pergunnahs bordering upon each other, it happens that, on complaints being made, people go against the talookdars, ryots, and tenants of my town, to the prejudice of the business of the Circar; wherefore let strict orders be given that no peons be sent from Calcutta, on the complaints of any one upon my talookdars or tenants; but on such occasions let application be made to me, or to the Naibs of the Fouzdarry of Hooghly that the country may be subject to no loss or devastations; and if any of the traders, which belonged to the Bucksbunder and Azimgunge, and have settled in Calcutta, should be desirous of returning to Hooghly, and carrying on their business there as formerly, let no one molest them. Chandernagore and the French factory were presented to me by Colonel Clive, and given by me in charge to Ameer Beg Khan; for this reason let strict orders be given that no English gentleman exercise any authority therein, but that it remain, as formerly, under the jurisdiction of my people.

ARTICLE 5.

Whenever I may demand any forces from the Governor and Council for my assistance, let them be immediately sent to me, and no demand made on me for their expenses.

The demands of Nabob Shujah ul Mulck, Hossam δ Dowla, Meer Mahomed Jaffier Khan Behauder, Mahabut Jung, written in five Articles, we, the President and Council of the English Company, do agree and set our hands to, in Fort William, the 10th of July 1763.

No. LXIX.

Articles of a Treaty and Agreement concluded between the Governor and Council of Fort William, on the part of the English East India Company, and the Nabob Nudjum ul Dowla,—1765.

On the part of the Company.

We, the Governor and Council, do engage to secure to the Nabob Nudjum-ul-Dowla, the Soubaeharry of the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa; and to support him therein with the Company's forces against all his enemies. We will also at all times keep up such force as may be necessary effectually to assist and support him in the defence of the Provinces; and as our troops will be more to be depended on than any the Nabob can have, and less expensive to him, he need therefore entertain none but such as are requisite for the support of the Civil Officers of his government, and the business of his collections through the different districts.

We do further promise that in consideration the Nabob shall continue to assist in defraying the extraordinary expenses of the war now carrying on against Sujah-ul-Dowla, with five lakhs of rupees per month, which was agreed to by his father; whatever sums may be hereafter received of the King, on account of our assistance afforded him in the war, shall be repaid to the Nabob.

On the part of the Nabob.

In consideration of the assistance the Governor and Council have agreed to afford, in securing to me the succession in the Soubaeharry of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, heretofore held by my father, the late Nabob Meer Jallier
Ally Khan, and supporting me in it against all my enemies, I do agree and bind myself to the faithful performance of the following Articles:

Article 1.

The Treaty which my father formerly concluded with the Company upon his first accession to the Nizamut, engaging to regard the honor and reputation of the Company and of their Governor and Council as his own, and granting perwannahs for the currency of the Company's trade, the same Treaty, as far as is consistent with the Articles hereafter agreed to, I do hereby ratify and confirm.

Article 2.

Considering the weighty charge of government, and how essential it is for myself, for the welfare of the country, and for the Company's business, that I should have a person who has had experience therein to advise and assist me, I do agree to have one fixed with me, with the advice of the Governor and Council, in the station of Naib Soubah, who shall accordingly have immediately under me the chief management of all affairs: And as Mahomed Reza Khan, the Naib of Dacca, has in every respect my approbation and that of the Governor and Council, I do further agree that this trust shall be conferred on him, and I will not displace him without the acquiescence of those gentlemen; and in case any alteration in this appointment should hereafter appear advisable, that Mahomed Reza Khan, provided he has acquitted himself with fidelity in his administration, shall in such case be reinstated in the Naibship of Dacca with the same authority as heretofore.

Article 3.

The business of the collection of the revenues shall, under the Naib Soubah, be divided into two or more branches as may appear proper; and as I have the fullest dependence and confidence on the attachment of the English and their regard to my interest and dignity, and am desirous of giving them every testimony thereof, I do further consent that the appointment and dismissal of the Muttaseddees of those branches, and the allotment of their several districts, shall be with the approbation of the Governor and Council; and, considering how much men of my rank and station are obliged to trust to the eyes and recommendations of the servants about them, and how liable to be deceived, it is my further will that the Governor and Council shall be at liberty to object and point out to me when improper people are entrusted, or where my officers and subjects are oppressed, and I will pay a proper regard to such representations, that my affairs may be conducted with honor, my people everywhere be happy, and their grievances be redressed.

Article 4.

I do confirm to the Company, as a fixed resource, for defraying the ordinary expenses of their troops, the Chucklas of Burdwan, Midnapore, and Chittagong, in as full a manner as heretofore ceded by my father. The sum of five lakhs of Sicca Rupees per month for their maintenance was further agreed to be paid by my father; I agree to pay the same out of my treasury, while the exigency for keeping up so large an army continues.
When the Company's occasions will admit of a diminution of the expenses they are put to on account of those troops, the Governor and Council will then relieve me from such a proportion of this assignment, as the increased expenses incurred by keeping up the whole force necessary for the defence of the Provinces will admit of: And as I esteem the Company's troops entirely equal thereto and as my own, I will only maintain such as are immediately necessary for the dignity of my person and government, and the business of my collections throughout the Provinces.

ARTICLE 5.

I do ratify and confirm to the English the privilege granted to them by their Firman and several Husbulehookums of carrying on their trade by means of their own dustuck, free from all duties, taxes or impositions, in all parts of the country, excepting in the article of salt, on which a duty of 2½ per cent. is to be levied on the rowana or Hooghly market price.

ARTICLE 6.

I give to the Company the liberty of purchasing half the saltpetre produced in the country of Purnea, which their Gomastahs shall send to Calcutta; the other half shall be collected by my Fouzdar for the use of my offices; and I will suffer no other persons to make purchases of this article in that country.

ARTICLE 7.

In the Chuckla of Sylhet, for the space of five years, commencing with the Bengal year 1171, my Fouzdar and a Gomastah on the part of the Company shall jointly provide chunam, of which each shall defray half the expense, and half the chunam so made shall be given to the Company.

ARTICLE 8.

Although I should occasionally remove to other places in the Provinces,
I agree that the books of the Circar shall be always kept and the business conducted at Moorshedabad, and that shall, as heretofore, be the seat of my government: And wherever I am, I consent that an English gentleman shall reside with me to transact all affairs between me and the Company, and that a person of high rank shall also reside on my part at Calcutta to negotiate with the Governor and Council.

ARTICLE 9.

I will cause the Rupees coined in Calcutta to pass in every respect equal to the siccas of Moorshedabad without any deduction of batta; and whosoever shall demand batta shall be punished: The annual loss on coinage, by the fall of batta on the issuing of the new siccas, is a very heavy grievance to the country; and after mature consideration, I will, in concert with the Governor and Council, pursue whatever may appear the best method for remedying it.

ARTICLE 10.

I will allow no Europeans whatever to be entertained in my service, and if there already be any, they shall be immediately dismissed.

ARTICLE 11.

The kistbundee for payment of the restitution to the sufferers in the late troubles as executed by my father, I will see faithfully paid. No delays shall be made in this business.

ARTICLE 12.

I confirm and will abide by the Treaty which my father formerly made with the Dutch.

ARTICLE 13.

If the French come into the country I will not allow them to erect any fortifications, maintain forces or hold lands, zemindarries, &c., but they shall pay tribute, and carry on their trade as in former times.

ARTICLE 14.

Some regulations shall be hereafter settled between us for deciding all disputes which may arise between the English Gomastahs and my officers, in the different parts of the country.

In testimony whereof, we, the said Governor and Council, have set our hands and affixed the seal of the Company to one part hereof; and the Nabob before-named hath set his hand and seal to another part.

(A true copy.)

(Signed) W. MAJENDIE,

Secretary.

MEM.—This Treaty was executed by the President and Council of Fort William on the 20th of February 1765, and by the Nabob on the 25th of the same month.

1. FIRMAUND from the KING SHAH AALUM, granting the DEWANNY of BENGAL, BEHAR, and ORISSA to the COMPANY, —1765.

At this happy time our royal Firmaund, indispensably requiring obedience, is issued; that whereas, in consideration of the attachment and services of the high and mighty, the noblest of exalted nobles, the chief of illustrious warriors, our faithful servants and sincere well-wishers, worthy of our royal favors, the English Company, we have granted them the Dewanny of the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, from the beginning of the Fussul Rubby of the Bengal year 1172, as a free gift and ultumgau, without the association of any other person, and with an exemption from the payment of the customs of the Dewanny, which used to be paid to the Court. It is requisite that the said Company engage to be security for the sum of twenty-six lakhs of rupees a year for our royal revenue, which sum has been appointed from the Nabob Nudjum-ul-Dowla Behauder, and regularly remit the same to the royal Circar; and in this case, as the said Company are obliged to keep up a large Army for the protection of the Provinces of Bengal, &c., we have granted to them whatsoever may remain out of the revenues of the said Provinces, after remitting the sum of twenty-six lakhs of rupees to the royal Circar, and providing for the expenses of the Nizamut. It is requisite that our royal descendants, the Viziers, the bestowers of dignity, the Omrahs, high in rank, the great Officers, the Muttaseddees of the Dewanny, the managers of the business of the Sultanut, the Jaghirdars and Croories, as well the future as the present, using their constant endeavors for the establishment of this our royal command, leave the said office in possession of the said Company, from generation to generation, for ever and ever. Looking upon them to be assured from dismissal or removal, they must, on no account whatsoever, give them any interruption and they must regard them as excused and exempted from the payment of all the customs of the Dewanny and royal demands. Knowing our orders on the subject to be most strict and positive, let them not deviate therefrom.

3. Articles of Agreement between the King Shah Aalum and the Company.

The Nabob Nudjum-ul-Dowlah agrees to pay His Majesty out of the revenues of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, the sum of twenty-six lakhs of Rupees a year, without any deduction for batta on bills of exchange, by regular monthly payments, amounting to Rupees 2,16,666·10·9 per month; the first payment to commence from the 1st of September of the present year; and the English Company, in consideration of His Majesty's having been graciously pleased to grant them the Dewanny of Bengal, &c., do engage themselves to be security for the regular payment of the same. It shall be paid month by month from the factory at Patna to Rajah Shitabroy, or whomsoever His Majesty may think proper to nominate, that it may be forwarded by him to the Court. But in case the territories of the aforesaid Nabob should be invaded by any foreign enemy, a deduction is then to be made out of the stipulated revenues, proportionable to the damage that may be sustained.

In consideration of Nudjuf Khan's having joined the English forces, and acted in His Majesty's service in the late war, His Majesty will be graciously pleased to allow him the sum of two lakhs of Rupees a year to be paid by equal monthly payments: the first payment to commence from the 1st of September of the present year; and, in default thereof, the English Company, who are guarantees for the same, will make it good out of the revenues allotted to His Majesty from the territories of Bengal. If the territories of Bengal should at any time be invaded, and on that account a deduction be made out of the royal revenue, in such case a proportionable deduction shall also be made out of Nudjuf Khan's allowance.

4. Agreement between the Nabob Nudjum-ul-Dowlah and the Company.

The King having been graciously pleased to grant to the English Company the Dewanny of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, with the revenues thereof as a free gift for ever, on certain conditions, whereof one is that there shall be a sufficient allowance out of the said revenues for supporting the expenses of the Nizamat: be it known to all whom it may concern, that I do agree to accept of the annual sum of Sicca Rupees 53,86,131·9, as an adequate allowance for the support of the Nizamat, which is to be regularly paid as follows, vis., the sum of Rupees 17,78,854·1, for all my household expenses, servants, &c., and the remaining sum of Rupees 36,07,277·8 for the maintenance of such horse, sepoys, peons, bercundauzes, &c., as may be thought necessary for my suwarry and the support of my dignity only, should such an expense hereafter be found necessary to be kept up, but on no account ever to exceed that amount: and having a perfect reliance on the Miaen Dowla, I desire he may have the disbursing of the above sum of Rupees 36,07,277-8 for the purposes before-mentioned. This Agreement (by the blessing of God) I hope will be inviolably observed, as long as the English Company's factories continue in Bengal.

Articles of a Treaty and Agreement concluded between the Governor and Council of Fort William, on the part of the English East India Company and the Nabob Syef-ul-Dowla,—1766.

On the part of the Company.

We, the Governor and Council, do engage to secure to the Nabob Syef-ul-Dowla, the Souabhdarry of the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, and to support him therein with the Company's forces against all his enemies.

On the part of the Nabob.

Article 1.

The Treaty which my father formerly concluded with the Company upon his first accession to the Nizamut, engaging to regard the honor and reputation of the Company and of the Governor and Council as his own, and that entered into with my brother, Nawab "Nudjum-ul-Dowla," the same Treaties, as far as is consistent with the true spirit, intent, and meaning thereof, I do hereby ratify and confirm.

Article 2.

The King has been graciously pleased to grant unto the English East India Company the Dewannyship of Bengal, Behar and Orissa, as a free gift for ever; and I, having an entire confidence in them, and in their servants settled in this country, that nothing whatever be proposed or carried into execution by them, derogating from my honor, dignity, interest, and the good of my country, do therefore, for the better conducting the affairs of the Souabhdarry, and promoting my honor and interest, and that of the Company in the best manner, agree that the protecting the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, and the force sufficient for that purpose, be entirely left to their discretion and good management, in consideration of their paying the King Shah Aalum by monthly payments, as by Treaty agreed on, the sum of Rupees 2,16,666-10-9; and to me, Syef ul-Dowla, the annual stipend of Rupees 41,86,131-9, viz., the sum of Rupees 17,78,854-1 for my house-servants and other expenses indispensably necessary; and the remaining sum of Rupees 24,07,277-8 for the support of such sepoys, peons, and bercundazes as may be thought proper for my suwayry only; but on no account ever to exceed that amount.

ARTICLE 3.

The Nabob Minauh Dowla, who was, at the instance of the Governor and Gentlemen of the Council, appointed Naib of the Provinces, and invested with the management of affairs, in conjunction with Maha Rajah Doolubram and Juggat Seat, shall continue in the same post and with the same authority; and having a perfect confidence in him, I, moreover, agree to let him have the disbursing of the above sum of Rupees 24,07,277-8 for the purposes above mentioned.

This Agreement (by the blessing of God) I hope will be inviolably observed, as long as the English Company's factories continue in Bengal.

DEED restoring CHINSURAH to the DUTCH,—1817.

Whereas by the provisions of the Convention concluded on the 18th of August 1814 between Great Britain and the Netherlands, it is stipulated and declared that His Britannic Majesty shall restore to the King of the Netherlands the colonies, factories, and establishments which were possessed by Holland in the seas and on the Continent of India, on the 1st of January 1803 with some exceptions; Be it known that I, Gordon Forbes, constituted by the Hon'ble the Vice-President in Council, Commissary on the part of the British Government, to carry to effect the restitution of Chinsurah conformably to the provisions contained in the 1st, 3rd and 4th Articles of the said Convention concluded between His Britannic Majesty and the King of the Netherlands on the 13th of August 1814 accordingly restore to J. A. Van Braam, Esq., Commissioner on the part of the Netherlands Government, to take possession of the former possessions of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands on the Continent of India, the Town of Chinsurah, and do hereby declare to have accordingly restored and delivered up the said Town of Chinsurah according to the limits thereof at the beginning of the last war, viz., on 1st January 1803, and J. A. Van Braam, in my aforesaid capacity in the name and on behalf of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, Prince of Orange Nassau, Great Duke of Luxemburg, etc., etc., etc., acknowledge to have received from the said Gordon Forbes, Esq., on behalf of the British Government, the said Town of Chinsurah as restored to the King of the Netherlands by the said Convention.

In witness whereof, I, the said Gordon Forbes, for and on behalf of the British Government, and I, the said J. A. Van Braam, for and on behalf of the Netherlands Government, have hereunto subscribed our names, and fixed our seals on the fifteenth of September, eighteen hundred and seventeen.

The British Commissioner.

En foi de quoi moi Gordon Forbes, au nom et de la part du Gouvernement Britannique et moi J. A. Le Commissaire Neerlandois.

(Signé) J. A. VAN BRAAM.

(Sd.) GORDON FORBES, Commissioner.
We, the undersigned British and Netherlands Commissioners, appointed by our respective Governments to adjust the amount of the annual sum which is to be paid by the British Government in consideration of the cession of the district of Barnagore conformably to the provisions contained in the second additional article of the convention concluded between His Britannic Majesty and the King of the Netherlands on the 13th of August 1814, taking for a liberal basis of adjustment the average annual revenue yielded during a period of twelve years under the Dutch Government according to the accounts kept and recorded in the Accountant's Office at Chinsurah and according to other sources of information; deducting therefrom the annual amount of ground rent paid by the Dutch East India Company, and also the expenses incurred for the necessary Police establishments at Barnagore, do consider that the payment of the sum of six thousand and five hundred rupees annually by half-yearly payments to the King of the Netherlands would be a just and reasonable compensation for the cession of the above-mentioned district of Barnagore conformably to the provision of the 2nd additional article of the convention, and do accordingly hereby agree to submit this our deliberate opinion for the approbation and sanction of the respective authorities under which we act.

Nous soussignés Commissaires Britannique et Neerlandais, appointés par nos Gouvernement respectifs pour fixer le montant de la somme annuelle que le Gouvernement Britannique payera en considération de la cession du district de Bernagore en conséquence des accords contenus dans le second additionel article de la convention conclue entre Sa Majesté Britannique et le Roi des Pays Bas le 13 de mois d'Avril 1814, prenant pour base liberal d'un arrangement l'average d'un revenu annuel perçu durant une periode de douze années sous le Gouvernement Neerlandais, selon les comptes tenus et notés dans le bureau de commerce à Chinsurah, et selon d'autres sources d'information; en deducant le montant annuel des rentes territoriales payés par la compagnie orientale Neerlandais avec les dépenses payées pour l'établissement de police nécessaire à Bernagore, considérons, que le payment annuel de six mille cinq cent Sa. roupies, à être payée par demi année à Sä Majesté le Roi des Pays Bas, servit une juste et raisonnable compensation pour la cession du sous mentionné district de Bernagore, selon le continu du second additionel article de la convention, et en conséquence consentons à soumettre notre opinion manière pesée, à l'approbation et sanction des autorités respectives, sous lesquels nous agissons.
In witness whereof we hereunto affix our seals and signatures.

TREATY between GREAT BRITAIN and the NETHERLANDS respecting Territory and Commerce in the East Indies. Signed at London, March 17, 1824.

In the name of the Most Holy and Undivided Trinity.

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, desiring to place upon a footing, mutually beneficial, their respective possessions and the commerce of their subjects in the East Indies, so that the welfare and prosperity of both nations may be promoted, in all time to come, without those differences and jealousies which have, in former times, interrupted the harmony which ought always to subsist between them; and being anxious that all occasions of misunderstanding between their respective agents may be, as much as possible, prevented; and in order to determine certain questions which have occurred in the execution of the Convention made at London, on

In den naam der allerheiligste en onverdeelbare Drieenigheid.

Zyne Majesteit de Koning van het Vereenigde Koningryk van Groot Brittanje en Ireland, en Zyne Majesteit de Koning Der Nederlanden, verlangende hunne respectieve bezittingen en den handel hunner onderdanen in Oost Indië op eenen wederkeering voordeelig- en voet te brengen, zoo dat de welvaart en voorspoed der beide natien voortaan ten allen tyde bevorderd kunnen worden zonder die oneenighe- den en nayver welke, in vroeger dagen, de goede verstandhouding gestoord hebben die steeds tusschen dezelve behoort te bestaan, en willende, zoo veel mogelyk, alle aanleiding tot mis- verstand tusschen hunne respectieve agenten voorkomen, als mede, ten einde zekere punten van verschill te regelen welke zich hebben opgedaan by het ter uitvoer leggen van de Con-the 13th of August 1814, in so far as it respects the possessions of His Netherland Majesty in the East, have nominated their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honorable George Canning, a Member of His said Majesty’s Most Honorable Privy Council, a Member of Parliament, and His said Majesty’s Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; And the Right Honorable Charles Watkin Williams Wynn, a Member of His said Majesty’s Most Honorable Privy Council, a Member of Parliament, etc., and President of His said Majesty’s Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India:

And His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, Baron Henry Fagel, etc., Councillor of State, and Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of His said Majesty to His Majesty the King of Great Britain; and Anton Reinhard Falck, etc., His said Majesty’s Minister of the Department of Public Instruction, National Industry, and Colonies:

Who, after having mutually communicated their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed on the following Articles:

Art. 1. The High Contracting Parties engage to admit the subjects of each other to trade with their respective possessions in the Eastern Archipelago, and on the continent of India and in Ceylon, upon the ventie den 13de Augustus, 1814, te London gesloten, voor zoo ver dezelve betrekking heeft tot de bezittingen van Zijne Majestéit den Koning Der Nederlanden in Oost Indië hebben tot Gevolmachtigden benoemd, to weten:

Zijne Majestéit de Koning van Groot Britanje, den Heer George Canning, Lid van Zijner Majesteits Geheimen Raad, en van het Parlement, mitsgaders Hoogst deszelfs eersten Secretaris van Staat voor de Buitenlandsche Zaken; en den Heer Charles Watkin Williams Wynn, Lid van Zijner Majesteits Geheimen Raad, en van het Parlement, mitsgaders President van het Kollegie van Kommissarissen voor de Indische Zaken, &c.

En Zijne Majestéit de Koning der Nederlanden, den Baron Hendrik Fagel mitsgaders Hoogst deszelfs Extraordinaris Ambassadeur en Plenipotentiaris aan het Hof van London; —En den Heer Anton Reinhard Falck, en Minister voor het Publieke onderwys, de Nationale Nijverheid, en de Kolonien:

De welke, na wederzijdsche mededeeling van hunne volmagten, die in goeden en behoorlijken vorm bevonden zyn, de volgende Artikelen hebben vastgesteld.

Art. 1. De Hooge Contracterende Partijen verbinden zich om in hunne respectieve bezittingen in den Oosterschen Archipel, en op het vaste land van Indië, en op Ceylon, elkanders onderdanen ten handel toetelaten op footing of the most favoured nation; their respective subjects conforming themselves to the local regulations of each settlement.

2. The subjects and vessels of one nation shall not pay, upon importation or exportation, at the ports of the other in the Eastern Seas, any duty at a rate beyond the double of that at which the subjects and vessels of the nation to which the port belongs, are charged.

The duties paid on exports or imports at a British port, on the continent of India, or in Ceylon, on Dutch bottoms, shall be arranged so as, in no case, to be charged at more than double the amount of the duties paid by British subjects, and on British bottoms.

In regard to any article upon which no duty is imposed, when imported or exported by the subjects, or on the vessels, of the nation to which the port belongs, the duty charged upon the subjects or vessels of the other, shall, in no case, exceed 6 per cent.

3. The High Contracting Parties engage, that no Treaty hereafter made by either, with any native power in the Eastern Seas, shall contain any article tending, either expressly, or by the imposition of unequal duties, to exclude the trade of the other party from the ports of such native power: and that if, in and Treaty now existing on either part, any Article to that effect has been admitted, such Article shall be abrogated upon the conclusion of the present Treaty.

den voet der meest begunstigde natie; wel verstaande dat de wederzijdsche onderdanen zich zullen gedragen overeenkomstig de plaatselijke verordeningen van elke bezitting.

2. De onderdanen en schepen van de eene natie zullen, by den in-en uitvoer in en van de havens der andere in de Oostersche zeëen, geen regten betalen hooger dan ten bedraghe van het dubbele van die, waarmede de onderdanen en schepen der natie aan welke de haven toebehoort, belast zyn.

De regten voor den in-of uitvoer met Nederlandsche bodems, in eene Britsche haven, op het vaste land van Indië, of op Ceylon, betaald wordende zullen in dezer voege worden gewijzigd, dat deswege, in geen geval, meer berekend worde dan het dubbele der regten door Britsche onderdanen, en voor Britsche bodems, te betalen.

Met betrekking tot die artikelen op welke, geen regt gesteld is, wanneer zy worden in-of uitgevoerd door de onderdanen of in de schepen der natie aan welke de haven toebehoort zullen die regten aan de onderdanen der andere opteleggen, in geen geval, meer bedragen dan 6 ten honderd.

3. De Hooge Contracterende Partijen beloven dat geen Tractaat, voortaan door een derzelve met eenigen Staat in de Oostersche zeëen te maken, eenig Artikel behelsen zal, strekkende, het zy door oplegging, van ongelijke regten, om den koophandel der andere Partij van de havens van zoodanigen inlandschen Staat uitstelten, en dat, by aldien in eene der thans aan weerskanten bestaande overeenkomsten, eenig Artikel met die bedoeling is opgenomen, geworden, zoodanig Artikel, by het sluiten des tegenwoordigen tractaats, buiten effect gesteld worden zal.
It is understood that, before the conclusion of the present Treaty, communication has been made by each of the Contracting Parties to the other, of all Treaties or Engagements subsisting between each of them, respectively, and any native power in the Eastern Seas; and that the like communication shall be made of all such Treaties concluded by them respectively hereafter.

4. Their Britannic and Netherland Majesties engage to give strict orders, as well to their Civil and Military Authorities, as to their ships of war, to respect the freedom of trade, established by Articles 1, 2, and 3; and, in no case, to impede a free communication of the natives in the Eastern Archipelago, with the ports of the two Governments, respectively, or of the subjects of the two Governments with the ports belonging to native powers.

5. Their Britannic and Netherland Majesties, in like manner, engage to concur effectually in repressing piracy in those seas: they will not grant either asylum or protection to vessels engaged in piracy, and they will, in no case, permit the ships or merchandise captured by such vessels, to be introduced, deposited, or sold, in any of their possessions.

6. It is agreed that orders shall be given by the two Governments to their officers and agents in the East, not to form any new settlement on any of the islands in the Eastern seas, without previous authority from their respective Governments in Europe.

7. The Molucca islands, and especially Amboyna, Banda, Ternate, Over en weder is verstaan dat, voor het sluiten van dit Tractaat, door elke der Contracterende Partijen aan de andere mededeling is gedaan van alle tractaten of verbintenissen tusschen dezelve respectievelijk en eenige Inlandsche Reagering in de Oostersche zeëen bestaande, en dat gelyke mededeling geschiedt zal van al zoodanige verbintenissen, in het vervolg, door dezelve respectievelijk aantegaan.

4. Hunne Groot Britannische en Nederlandsche Majesteiten beloven stellige bevelen te geven, zoo wel aan hunne burgerlyke en militaire beambten, als ann hunne oorlogschepen, om de vryheid van handel, by Art. 1, 2, en 3 vastgesteld, te eerbiedigen en, in geen geval, hinder te toebrengen aan de gemeenschap der inboorlingen van den Oostersche Archipel met de havens der twee Gouvernementen respectievelijk noch aan die der wederzijdsche onderdanen met de havens toebehorende ann Inlandsche Regeringen.

6. Er is overeengekomen dat door beide Gouvernementen aan hunne officieren en agenten in Oost Indië bevel zal worden gegeven om geen nieuw kantoor op een der Oosterse Eilanden opertigten, zonder voorafgaande magtiging van hunne respectievelijke Gouvernementen in Europa.

7. Van de toepassing der Artikelen 1, 2, 3 en 4, worden de and their immediate dependencies, are excepted from the operation of the 1, 2, 3 and 4 Articles, until the Netherland Government shall think fit to abandon the monopoly of spices; but if the said Government shall, at any time previous to such abandonment of the monopoly, allow the subjects of any power other than a native Asiatic power, to carry on any commercial intercourse with the said islands, the subjects of His Britannic Majesty shall be admitted to such intercourse, upon a footing precisely similar.

8. His Netherland Majesty cedes to His Britannic Majesty all His establishments on the continent of India; and renounces all privileges and exemptions enjoyed or claimed in virtue of those establishments.

9. The factory of Fort Marlborough, and all the English possessions on the Island of Sumatra, are hereby ceded to His Netherland Majesty: and His Britannic Majesty further engages that no British settlement shall be formed on that island, nor any Treaty concluded by British authority, with any native Prince, Chief, or State therein.

10. The town and fort of Malacca, and its dependencies, are hereby ceded to His Britannic Majesty; and His Netherland Majesty engages for himself and his subjects, never to form any establishment on any part of the Peninsula of Malacca, or to conclude any Treaty with any native Prince, Chief, or State therein.

Moluksche Eilanden, en speciaal Am- bon, Banda, en Ternate, met derzelver onmiddel'ke onderhoorigheden uit- gezonderd, tot ty'd en wele het Neder- landsch Gouvernement raadzaam oordeelen zal van den alleenhandel in spece- rieren af te zien; maar zoo dit Gouvernement immer, voor zoodanige afschaffing van den alleenhandel, aan de onderdanen en van eenige mogendheid, anders dan een inlandschen Asiatischen Staat, veroorloopen mogt eenig handelsverkeer met die eilanden te onder- houden, zullen de onderdanen van Zy'ne Britsche Majesteit op een volstrekt gelijken voet tot zoodanig verkeer worden toegelaten.

8. Zy'ne Majesteit de Koning der Nederlanden staat aan Zy'ne Groot Britsche Majesteit af, alle a'ne etablissementen op het vaste land van Indië, en ziet van alle voorregten en vrijstellingen af, welke, ter zake van deze etablissementen, genoten, of gereclameerd geworden zyn.

10. De stad en vesting van Malakka met derzelver onderhoorigheden worden by dezen afgestaan aan Zy'ne Groot Britsche Majesteit en Zy'ne Majesteit, de Koning der Nederlanden beloofd, voor zich en voor zyne onder- danen, mimer of eenig gedeelte van het Schiereiland van Malakka een kan- toor te zullen oprigten, of Tractaten te zullen sluiten met eenigen der in- landsche vorsten, of staten, op dat Schiereiland gevestigd.
11. His Britannic Majesty withdraws the objections which have been made to the occupation of the island of Billiton and its dependencies by the agents of the Netherland Government.

12. His Netherland Majesty withdraws the objections which have been made to the occupation of the island of Singapore, by the subjects of His Britannic Majesty.

His Britannic Majesty, however, engages, that no British establishment shall be made on the Carimons isles, or on the islands of Battam, Bintang, Lingin... or on any of the other islands south of the straits of Singapore, nor any Treaty concluded by British authority with the chiefs of those islands.

13. All the colonies, possessions, and establishments which are ceded by the preceding Articles, shall be delivered up to the officers of the respective Sovereigns on the 1st of March 1825. The fortifications shall remain in the state in which they shall be at the period of the notification of this Treaty in India; but no claim shall be made, on either side, for ordnance or stores of any description, either left or removed by the ceding Power, nor for any arrears of revenue, or any charge of administration whatever.

14. All the inhabitants of the territories hereby ceded shall enjoy for a period of 6 years from the date of the ratification of the present Treaty, the liberty of disposing, as

The Ratifications were exchanged in London, 8th June, 1824.

Daarentegen belooft Zyne Groot Britannishe Majesteit dat geen Britscb kantoor zal worden opgerigt op de Carimons Eilanden, of op de eilanden Battam, Bintang, Lingin, of op eenig der anderen eilanden liggende ten zuiden van straat Sinkapoer, en dat met derzelver opperhoofden geen Tractaten onder Britsche gezag geslo- ten zullen worden.

13. Al de Kolonien, bezittingen, en etablissementen die, bij de vorensstaande Artikelen worden afgestaan, zullen aan de officieren der respectiefe Souvereinen overgegeven worden op den 1sten Maart, 1825. De vestingen zullen blijven in den toestand in welke ze byzich zullen bevinden ten t' de van het bekend worden des tegen woordigen Tractaats in Indië, doch geene vordering zal, noch aan de eene noch aan de andere zy'de, geschieden, ter zake, het zy' van geschut of behoefte van eenigen aard, door de afstande mogendheid of achtergelaten of medegenomen, het zy' van achterstellige inkomsten, of van lasten van het bestuur, hoe ook genaamd.

14. Al de ingezetenen van de landen by dezen afgestaan, zullen, gedurende den ty'd van 6 jaren, te rekenen van de ratificatie van het tegenwoordig Tractaat, de vrijheid hebben em, naar they please, of their property, and of transporting themselves, without let or hindrance, to any country to which they may wish to remove.

15. The High Contracting Parties agree that none of the territories or establishments mentioned in Articles 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12, shall be at any time transferred to any other Power. In case of any of the said possessions being abandoned by one of the present Contracting Parties, the right of occupation thereof shall immediately pass to the other.

16. It is agreed that all accounts and reclamations, arising out of the restoration of Java, and other possessions, to the officers of His Netherland Majesty in the East Indies,—as well those which were the subject of a Convention made at Java on the 24th of June 1817, between the Commissioners of the two nations, as all others shall be finally and completely closed and satisfied, on the payment of the sum of £100,000, to be made in London, on the part of The Netherlands before the expiration of the year 1825.

17. The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications exchanged at London, within 3 months from the date hereof, or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and affixed thereunto the seals of their arms.

ARTICLE 2.

The Settlements and Crown property referred to above are:

(1) The Town of Tranquebar, on the Coromandel Coast, with the districts thereunto belonging for which an annual sum of 2,500 Gold Pardaix, or about 4,000 Company's rupees, is to be paid to the Rajah of Tanjore, and the following buildings and Crown property, viz.:

A.—Fort Dansborg, with buildings therewith connected, and thirteen Brass Guns mounted on the ramparts, and other stores.
B.—The Government House situated opposite to the Fort.
C.—A country residence for the Governor at the village of Porreiar.
D.—A garden, with a bungalow, at the village of Tittaly, possessed by the Governor.
E.—A building in the town, with garden adjacent, used as hospital.
F.—A house in the town occupied by the Medical Officer of the Settlement.
G.—A house and office on the beach for the Master Attendant.
H.—Two brick-built godowns.

Besides public roads, bridges, sluices, a number of fruit and other trees, and all other immovable Crown property of any description whatever, together with such moveable articles as belong to the public offices, or are destined for public use, the furniture and moveables in the Government House not being herein included.
(2) The town of Frederiksnagore or Serampore, in the province of Bengal, comprising 60 biggahs, commonly called Frederiksnagore, and the districts of Serampore, Akna, and Pearapore, for which districts an annual sum of Sicca Rupees 1,601 is to be paid to the Zemindars of Sewraphully, for the time being, with the following public property:

A.—The Government House.
B.—The Secretary's House and Offices.
C.—The Court-house, with jail annexed.
D.—The Church, commonly called the Danish Church.
E.—The bazar, containing more or less 6 biggahs and 13 cottahs, with a range of godowns on the north side, and two godowns on the west side: the remaining part of the ground being occupied by private godowns, the owners paying an annual ground rent.
F.—Two small brick-built guard houses on the banks of the river.

Besides public roads and bridges, a canal from the fields of the village of Pearapore, through adjacent villages, to the river, and all other immovable Crown property of any description whatever, together with such moveable articles as belong to the public offices, or are destined for public use.

(3) A piece of ground at Balasore, formerly a factory, containing 18 biggahs, 2 cottahs and 12 chittacks of tenanted ground.

ARTICLE 3.

The Church of Zion, and the Mission Churches of Jerusalem and Bethlehem in Tranquebar, the Roman Catholic Church and Chapels at the same place, Roman Catholic Church in Serampore, the Serampore College and the Serampore Native Hospital having been built, or established by private means, these Churches and Institutions, with all their goods, effects, and property, moveable as well as immovable, are belonging to the respective Congregations, Communities, and Societies, and are not therefore included with the present transfer.

ARTICLE 4.

The inhabitants of the aforesaid Settlements, Europeans as well as Natives, who continue to reside within the Settlements, will be placed under the protection of the general Law of British India, and their religious, personal, or acquired rights, as formerly enjoyed under the Danish Government, will be respected as all rights of person or property are throughout British India.

All suits commenced and pending in the Danish Courts at the time the Treaty comes into force, shall be carried on and decided by the same Law as far as altered circumstances will allow.

The same will be observed in all cases of appeal subsequent to the Treaty, but no complaint or suit which has been finally settled and decided under the Danish Administration, and not appealed in due time under observance of the rules for appeal then in force, shall be deemed appealable; nor shall it be lawful to bring forward again, subsequently to the conclusion of this Treaty, by petition, complaint or otherwise, such cases as have been already finally determined by competent authority.

ARTICLE 5.

Nothing in the present Treaty shall affect the Trade now carried on, or about to be carried on, by the subjects of His Danish Majesty in the ports of the East Indies, nor shall the Trade be more restricted than it would have been in case His Danish Majesty had continued to possess the Settlements now transferred.

ARTICLE 6.

The Church Missionary Board at Copenhagen for the propagation of the Gospel shall be at liberty to continue their exertions in India for the conversion of the Heathens to the Christian religion, and shall be afforded the same protection by the Government of India as similar English Societies under the general Law of the land; the rights and immunities granted to the Scaramoor College by Royal Charter, of date 23rd of February 1827, shall not be interfered with, but continue in force in the same manner as if they had been obtained by a Charter from the British Government, subject to the general Law of British India.

ARTICLE 7.

The Danish Government engage to meet all pensionary claims and engagements connected with the aforesaid Settlement, and the East India Company shall not be liable for any such claims or engagements whatever, with the exception of the yearly payments of the soil to the Rajah of Tanjore, and the Zemindar of Sewraphully, as mentioned in Article 2.

ARTICLE 8.

All sums not belonging to the Royal Treasury and under the charge of the Court of Wards or of any of the public functionaries of the Danish Government in their official capacity, shall be received by such Public Officer or Officers as the Governor General of India in Council may direct, and shall be carried to account and administered by such Public Officer or Officers in the same manner and under the same rules and responsibility as similar property is administered under the general Law of the land.

ARTICLE 9.

The present Treaty of Nine Articles shall be ratified, and the ratifications exchanged in Calcutta within six months from the date hereof, or sooner if possible.

Done at Calcutta on the Twenty-second day of February, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight hundred and Forty-five.

Convention between Great Britain and France. Signed at London, the 7th of March, 1815.

In the Name of the Most Holy and Undivided Trinity.

The trade in salt and opium throughout the British Sovereignty in India, having been subjected to certain regulations and restrictions, which, unless due provision be made, might occasion differences between the subjects and agents of His Britannic Majesty and those of His Most Christian Majesty; Their said Majesties have thought proper to conclude a Special Convention for the purpose of preventing such differences, and removing every cause of dispute between their respective subjects in that part of the world, and in this view have named for their respective plenipotentiaries, viz., His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Robert, Earl of Buckinghamshire, a Peer of the United Kingdom, President of the Board of His Majesty’s Commissioners for the affairs of India, etc., etc., etc.; And His Majesty the King of France and Navarre, the Sieur Claude Louis de la Châtre, descendant of the Princes of Deols Count de la Châtre, His Ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary at the Court of London, etc., etc., who, after having communicate to each other their respective Full Powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following Articles:

Convention entre la Grande Bretagne et la France. Signée à Londres, le 7 Mars, 1815.

Au Nom de la Très-Sainte et Indivisible Trinité.

Le commerce du sel et de l’opium ayant été assujetti dans l’étendue des Possessions Britanniques dans l’Inde à certains règlements et restrictions, qui s’il n’était pris des mesures convenables, pourraient donner lieu à des difficultés entre les sujets et Agens de Sa Majesté Britannique et ceux de Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne; Leurs dites Majestés ont jugé à propos de conclure une Convention Spéciale pour prévenir ces difficultés, et écarter toute autre cause de discussion entre leurs sujets respectifs dans cette partie du monde. A cet effet, elles ont nommé pour leurs plénipotentaires respectifs, savoir! Sa Majesté le Roi du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et de l’Irlande, le Sieur Robert, Comte de Buckinghamshire, Pair du Royaume Uni Président du Bureau de Commissaires pour les affaires de l’Inde, etc., etc., etc., et Sa Majesté le Roi de France et de Navarre, le Sieur Claude Louis de la Châtre, des Princes de Deols, Comte de la Châtre, Son Ambassadeur extraordinaire et Plénipotentiaire à la Cour de Londres, etc., etc., lesquels après s’être communiqué leurs Pléiumpouvoirs respectifs, trouvés en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des Articles suivants:
1. His Most Christian Majesty engages to let at farm to the British Government in India, the exclusive right to purchase at a fair and equitable price, to be regulated by that which the said Government shall have paid for salt in the districts in the vicinity of the French possessions on the coast of Coromandel and Orissa respectively, the salt that may be manufactured in the said possessions, subject to a reservation of the quantity that the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty shall deem requisite for the domestic use and consumption of the inhabitants thereof; and upon the condition that the British Government shall deliver in Bengal, to the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty, the quantity of salt that may be judged necessary for the consumption of the inhabitants of Chandernagore, reference being had to the population of the said settlement, such delivery to be made at the price which the British Government shall have paid for the said article.

2. In order to ascertain the prices as aforesaid, the official accounts of the charges incurred by the British Government, for the salt manufactured in the districts in the vicinity of the French settlements on the coasts of Coromandel and Orissa respectively, shall be open to the inspection of a Commissioner to be appointed for that purpose by the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty in India; and the price to be paid by the British Government shall be settled according to an average to be taken every three years, of the charges as aforesaid ascertained by the said official accounts commencing with the three years preceding the date of the present Convention.

1. Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne s’engage à affermir au Gouvernement Anglais dans l’Inde, le privilège exclusif d’acheter le sel qui sera fabriqué dans les possessions Françaises sur les côtes de Coromandel et d’Orissa, moyennant un prix juste et raisonnable, qui sera réglé d’après celui auquel le dit Gouvernement aura payé cet article dans les districts avoisinant respectivement les dites possessions, à la réserve toutefois de la quantité que les Agens de Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne jugeront nécessaire pour l’usage domestique et la consommation des habitants de ces mêmes possessions, et sous la condition que le Gouvernement Anglais livrera dans le Bengale, aux Agens de Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne, la quantité de sel qui sera reconnue nécessaire pour la consommation des habitants de Chandernagor, eu égard à la population de cet établissement, et que cette livraison sera faite aux prix au quel le sel reviendra au dit Gouvernement.

2. Afin de déterminer le prix du sel conformément à ce qui vient d’être dit, les états officiels constatant ce que le sel fabriqué dans les districts qui avoisinent respectivement les établissements Français sur les côtes de Coromandel et d’Orissa, aura coûté au Gouvernement Anglais, seront soumis à l’inspection d’un Commissaire nommé à cet effet par les Agens de Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne dans l’Inde; et le prix qui devra être payé par le Gouvernement Anglais sera fixé tous les trois ans d’après le taux moyen du sel pendant ce laps de temps, tel qu’il sera constaté par les dits états officiels à commencer des trois années qui ont précédé la date de la présente Convention.
The price of salt at Chandernagore to be determined, in the same manner, by the charges incurred by the British Government for the salt manufactured in the districts nearest to the said settlement.

3. It is understood that the salt works in the possessions belonging to His Most Christian Majesty shall be and remain under the direction and administration of the Agents of His said Majesty.

4. With a view to the effectual attainment of the objects in the contemplation of the high Contracting Parties, His Most Christian Majesty engages to establish in His possessions on the coasts of Coromandel and Orissa, and at Chandernagore in Bengal, nearly the same price for salt, as that at which it shall be sold by the British Government in the vicinity of each of the said possessions.

5. In consideration of the stipulations expressed in the preceding Articles, His Britannic Majesty engages that the sum of four lacs of sicca rupees shall be paid annually to the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty, duly authorized, by equal quarterly instalments; such instalments to be paid at Calcutta or at Madras, ten days after the bills that may be drawn for the same by the said Agents shall have been presented to the Government of either of those Presidences; it being agreed that the rent above stipulated shall commence from the 1st of October 1814.

6. With regard to the trade in opium, it is agreed between the high Contracting Parties, that at each of the periodical sales of that article there shall be reserved for the French Government, and delivered upon requisition

Le prix du sel à Chandernagor devra être déterminé de la même manière, et d'après celui auquel cet article reviendra au Gouvernement Anglais dans les districts les plus voisins de cet établissement.

3. Il est bien entendu que les salines situées dans les possessions appartenant à Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne, seront et demeureront sous la direction et l'administration des Agens de Sa dite Majesté.

4. Afin d'atteindre le but que les hautes Parties Contractantes ont en vue, Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne s'engage à établir dans Ses possessions sur les côtes de Coromandel et d'Orixa, et à Chandernagor dans le Bengale, le sel au même prix à peu près que le Gouvernement Anglais le vendra dans les territoires voisins de chacune des dites possessions.

5. En considération des stipulations renfermées dans les Articles précédents, Sa Majesté Britannique s'engage à faire payer annuellement aux Agens de Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne dûment autorisés, la somme de quatre lacs de roupies sicca; lequel payement sera effectué par trimestre et par portions égales, soit à Calcutta, soit à Madras dix jours après que les traités tirées par les dits Agens auront été présentées au Gouvernement de l'un ou de l'autre de ces Présidences.

Il est convenu que la rente ci-dessus stipulée sera due à partir du 1er Octobre, 1814.

6. Il est convenu entre les hautes Parties Contractantes relativement au commerce de l'opium, qu'à chacune des ventes périodiques de cet article, il sera réservé pour le Gouvernement Français et délivré à la duly made by the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty, or by the persons duly appointed by them, the number of chests so applied for; provided that such supply shall not exceed 300 chests in each year; and the price to be paid for the same shall be determined by the average rate at which opium shall have been sold at every such periodical sale: it being understood that if the quantity of opium applied for at any one time shall not be taken on account of the French Government by the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty, within the usual period of delivery, the quantity so applied for shall nevertheless be considered as so much in deduction of the 300 chests hereinbefore mentioned.

The requisitions of opium as afore-said are to be addressed to the Governor General at Calcutta within thirty days after notice of the intended sale shall have been published in the Calcutta Gazette.

7. In the event of any restriction being imposed upon the exportation of saltpetre, the subjects of His Most Christian Majesty shall nevertheless be allowed to export that article to the extent of 18,000 maunds.

8. His Most Christian Majesty, with the view of preserving the harmony subsisting between the two nations, having engaged by the twelfth Article of the Treaty concluded at Paris, on the 30th of May, 1814, not to erect any fortifications in the establishments to be restored to Him by the said Treaty, and to maintain no greater number of troops than may be necessary for the purposes of police; His Britannic Majesty on his part, in order to give every security to the subjects of His Most Christian Majesty residing requisition des Agens de Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne, ou à celle des personnes qu’ils auront autorisées à cet effet, la quantité de caisses d’opium qu’ils demanderont, en tant que cette quantité n’excédera pas trois cents caisses par an; lesquelles devront être payées au prix moyen auquel l’opium se sera élevé à chaque de ces ventes périodiques: Bien entendu que si les Agens du Gouvernement Français ne faisaient pas retirer pour son compte, aux termes ordinaires des livraisons, la quantité d’opium qui aurait été demandée à une époque quelconque, elle entrerait néanmoins en déduction des trois cents caisses qui doivent être livrées.

Les demandes d’opium faites ainsi qu’il vient d’être dit, devront être adressées au Gouverneur Général à Calcutta, dans l’espace de trente jours après que l’époque des ventes aura été indiquée par la Gazette de Calcutta.

7. Dans le cas où il serait mis des restrictions à l’exportation de salpêtre, les sujets de Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne, n’en auront pas moins la faculté d’exporter cet article jusqu’à la concurrence de dix-huit mille maunds.

8. Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne, dans la vue de conserver la bonne harmonie qui existe entre les deux nations, s’étant engagée par l’Article 12, du Traité conclu à Paris, le 30 Mai, 1814, à n’élever aucun ouvrage de fortification dans les établissements qui doivent lui être restitués en vertu du dit Traité; et à n’y avoir que le nombre de troupes nécessaires pour y maintenir la police; de Son côte Sa Majesté Britannique a fini de donner toute sûreté aux sujets de Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne résidant in India, engages, if at any time there should arise between the High Contracting Parties any misunderstanding or rupture (which God forbid), not to consider or treat as prisoners of war those persons who belong to the civil establishments of His Most Christian Majesty in India, nor the officers, non-commissioned officers, or soldiers, who, according to the terms of the said Treaty, shall be necessary for the maintenance of the police in the said establishments, and to allow them to remain three months to settle their personal affairs, and also to grant them the necessary facilities and means of conveyance to France with their families and private property.

His Britannic Majesty further engages to permit the subjects of His Most Christian Majesty in India, to continue their residence and commerce so long as they shall conduct themselves peaceably, and shall do nothing contrary to the laws and regulations of the Government.

But in case their conduct should render them suspected, and the British Government should judge it necessary to order them to quit India they shall be allowed the period of six months to retire with their effects and property to France, or to any other country they may choose.

At the same time it is to be understood that this favour is not to be extended to those who may act contrary to the laws and regulations of the British Government.

9. All Europeans and others whatsoever, against whom judicial proceed-dans l'Inde, s'engage, si à une époque quelconque il survenait entre les hautes Parties Contractantes quelque sujet de mésintelligence ou une rupture (ce qu'à Dieu ne plaise), à ne point considérer ni traiter comme prisonniers de guerre, les personnes qui feront partie de l'administration civile des établissements Français dans l'Inde, non plus que les officiers, sous-officiers, et soldats qui, aux termes du dit Traité, seront nécessaires pour maintenir la police dans les dits établissements, et à leur accorder un délai de trois mois pour arranger leurs affaires personnelles, comme aussi à leur fournir les facilités nécessaires et les moyens de transport pour retourner en France avec leurs familles et leurs propriétés particulières.

Sa Majesté Britannique s'engage en outre à accorder aux sujets de Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne dans l'Inde, la permission d'y continuer leur résidence et leur commerce aussi longtemps qu'ils s'y conduiront paisiblement et qu'ils ne feront rien contre les lois et les règlements du Gouvernement.

Mais dans le cas où leur conduite les rendroit suspects, et où le Gouvernement Anglais jugerait nécessaire de leur ordonner de quitter l'Inde, il leur sera accordé à cet effet un délai de six mois pour se retirer avec leurs effets et leurs propriétés, soit en France, soit dans tel autre pays qu'ils choisirait.

Il est bien entendu en même temps que cette faveur ne sera pas étendue à ceux qui pourraient avoir agi contre les lois et les règlements du Gouvernement Britannique.

9. Tous les Européens, ou autres quelconques, contre qui il sera proings shall be instituted within the limits of the said settlements or factories belonging to His Most Christian Majesty, for offences committed, or for debts contracted within the said limits, and who shall take refuge out of the same, shall be delivered up to the chiefs of the said settlements and factories; and all Europeans and others whosoever, against whom judicial proceedings as aforesaid shall be instituted, without the said limits, and who shall take refuge within the same, shall be delivered up by the chiefs of the said settlements and factories, upon demand being made of them by the British Government.

10. For the purpose of rendering this agreement permanent, the High Contracting Parties hereby engage that no alteration shall be made in the conditions and stipulations in the foregoing Articles, without the mutual consent of His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of His Most Christian Majesty.

11. The present Convention shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London in the space of one month from the date hereof, or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed it, and have thereunto affixed the seals of their arms.

écédé en justice dans les limites des dits établissements ou factories appartenant à Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne, pour des offenses commises ou des dettes contractées dans les dites limites, et qui prendront refuge hors de ces mêmes limites, seront délivrés aux chefs des dits établissements et factories; et tous les Européens ou autres quelconques contre qui il sera procédé en justice, hors des dites limites, et qui se réfugieront dans ces mêmes limites, seront délivrés par les chefs des dits établissements et factories sur la demande qui en sera faite par le Gouvernement Anglais.

10. Afin de rendre la présente Convention permanente, les hautes Parties Contractantes s’engagent à n’apporter aucun changement aux Articles stipulés ci-dessus, sans le consentement mutuel de Sa Majesté le Roi du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et de l’Irlande, et de Sa Majesté Très-Chrétienne.

11. La présente Convention sera ratifiée et les ratifications en seront échangées à Londres dans l’espace d’un mois, ou plutôt si faire se peut.

En foi de quoi, les Plénipotentiaires respectifs l’ont signée, et y ont apposé le cachet de leurs armes.

NO. LXXXIV.

CONVENTION between the GOVERNMENTS of MADRAS and PONDICHERRY, signed at PONDICHERRY on the 13th day of May 1818.

With a view to carry into full and complete effect the object of those terms of the Convention between Great Britain and France, signed at London on the 7th of March 1815, which regard the trade in salt throughout the British Sovereignty in India, the following Articles have been agreed upon by His Excellency, Andre Julien Count Du Puy, Peer of France, Great Officer of the Royal Order of the Legion of Honour, and Mr. Joseph Francois Dayot, Chevalier of the said Order, Administrators-General of the French Establishments in India, and Captain James Stuart Fraser, Commissioner on the part of the British Government, for conducting the transfer of such of those possessions as have heretofore been dependent upon the Presidency of Fort St. George.

ARTICLE 1.

The manufacture of salt shall cease throughout the whole of the French Establishments in India during the continuance of the Honourable Company's present Charter.

ARTICLE 2.

The French Government guarantee the strict observance of the above stipulation, and the further adoption of all such measures as depend upon them for insuring the effectual prevention of the contraband trade in salt.

ARTICLE 3.

The Madras Government engages to pay to the French Government as an indemnification to the proprietors of the salt pans the sum of four thousand Star Pagodas per annum during the continuance of the Honourable Company's present Charter if this Convention be ultimately ratified.

ARTICLE 4.

The above stipulated sum of four thousand Star Pagodas per annum shall be paid by quarterly instalments, and be considered to have commenced from the 1st of January last.

ARTICLE 5.

The Madras Government engages, independently of further confirmation, to pay the sum of four thousand Star Pagodas to the French Government for one year from the 1st of January last, and to continue to fulfil the same engagement until the determination of the Supreme Government or eventually of the authorities in Europe shall be officially notified to the French Government in India.

ARTICLE 6.

The British Government engages to deliver such a quantity of salt as shall be requisite for the domestic use and consumption of the inhabitants of the French Settlements in India: the purchase, delivery, and subsequent sale of the said quantity being regulated according to the stipulations contained in Articles 1st, 2nd and 4th of the Convention of the 7th March 1815.

ARTICLE 7.

The present Convention shall be ratified and exchanged with the least possible delay.

CONVENTION between the Governments of Madras and Pondichery for the renewal of the CONVENTION of 13th May 1818.

Concluded between His Excellency the Marquis de Saint Simon, Major-General, Peer of France, Great officer of the Royal Order of the Legion of Honour, Governor of the French establishments in India, and John Dent, Esquire, Principal Collector of the Southern division of Arcot.

ARTICLE 1ST.

The whole of the salt pans situated throughout the French Establishments in India shall continue in a state of inactivity as heretofore.

ARTICLE 2ND.

The French Government guarantee the strict observance of the above stipulation and the further adoption of all such measures as depend upon them for insuring the effectual prevention of the contraband trade in salt.

ARTICLE 3RD.

The Madras Government engages to pay to the French Government as an indemnification to the proprietors of the salt pans the sum of four thousand star pagodas per annum.

ARTICLE 4TH.

The above stipulated sum of four thousand star pagodas per annum shall be paid by quarterly instalments.

CONVENTION PASSÉ ENTRE le GOUVERNEMENT de PONDICHERY et CELUI DE MADRAS POUR le RENOUVELLEMENT de celle du 13 MAI 1818.

ARTICLE 1ER.

Coutes les salines situées dans les Établissements Français de l’Inde continueront à être en inactivité comme par le passé.

ARTICLE 2ND.

Le Gouvernement Français garantit la stricte observation de la stipulation ci-dessus et l’adoption ultérieure de toutes les mesures qui seront en son pouvoir pour assurer la prohibition efficace de la contrabande du sel.

ARTICLE 3RD.

Le Gouvernement de Madras s’engage à payer au Gouvernement Français comme une indemnité pour les propriétaires des salines, la somme de quatre mille pagodes à l’Etoile par année.

ARTICLE 4TH.

La somme stipulée ci-dessus de quatre mille pagodes à l’Etoile par année sera payée par quartier.
ARTICLE 5TH.

The British Government engages to deliver such quantity of salt as shall be requisite for the domestic use and consumption of the inhabitants of the French Settlements in India, the purchase, delivery and subsequent sale of the said quantity being regulated according to the stipulations contained in the Convention of the 7th March 1815.

ARTICLE 6TH.

The expenses incurred for the transport of salt having been hitherto borne equally by the English and French Governments, it is agreed that they shall continue to be so during the present convention.

ARTICLE 7TH.

It shall be optional with either the English or French Government to withdraw from the present convention on giving twelve months' previous notice.

ARTICLE 8TH.

The present convention shall be ratified with the least possible delay.

No. LXXXVI.

Convention with the French Government of Chander- nagore,—1839.

Convention for converting into a money payment the supply of salt made to the French Government of Chandernagore by that of Her Britannic Majesty in India, between Monsieur Auguste Bourgoin, Administrator par Interim of Chandernagore, with the sanction of His Excellency the Governor of the French Establishments in India, on the one part, and the Members of the Board of Customs, Salt, and Opium, with the sanction of the Hon’ble the Governor of Bengal, on the other part.

A été convenu ce qui suit.

Article 1.

The French Government of Chandernagore will receive no more salt from the English golahs for the consumption of the said Establishment.

Article 2.

The inhabitants of Chandernagore shall be at liberty, like the other inhabitants of Bengal, to purchase salt either direct from the golahs of the English Government, or of merchants who supply themselves from the said golahs, according to the established system.

In consequence the French Government engages itself to afford every facility to the sale of salt thus imported into Chandernagore, and not to levy, or permit to be levied Convention passée pour convertir une prestation en argent la fourniture de sel faite au Gouvernement français de Chandernagor par celui de S. M. Britannique dans l’Inde,

Entre

Monsieur Auguste Bourgoin, Administrateur par Interim de Chandernagor, procédant avec l’autorisation de Monsieur le Gouverneur des Établissements français de l’Inde, d’une part,

Et,

MM. les Membres du Comité des Douanes, du Sel et de l’Opium, agissant avec l’autorisation de l’Honorable Gouverneur du Bengale, d’autre part,

A été convenu ce qui suit.

Article 1.

Le Gouvernement français de Chandernagor ne recevra plus be sel des Golahs anglais pour la consommation du dit Etablissement.

Article 2.

Les habitants de Chandernagor seront libres, comme les autres habitants du Bengale, d’acheter le sel, soit directement des Golahs du Gouvernement anglais, soit des Marchands qui s’approvisionnent dans les dits Golahs, conformément au système établi.

En conséquence, le Gouvernement français s’engage à donner toutes facilités pour la vente du sel ainsi importé à Chandernagor, et à ne prélever ni laisser prélever, par qui que ce soit, by any of its subjects any tax or contribution, direct or indirect, on the import and sale of such salt whether at Chandernagore or in its dependent districts.

ARTICLE 3.

In accordance with the preceding conditions the Government of Bengal engages itself to pay to M. the Administrator of Chandernagore a sum of twenty-thousand Company’s Rupees per annum.

This payment shall be made every six months at the rate of ten thousand rupees for each six months, and shall commence from the first day of August 1839.

ARTICLE 4.

The above stipulated payment being in consequence of the revenue which the consumption of salt at Chandernagore will produce to the English Government, the French authorities shall assist the English Government in its realization, and use its power to prevent any contravention of the present Treaty, whether through importations of salt by sea or through any other means.

ARTICLE 5.

It shall be allowable to either of the contracting parties by a notice given at the least one year in advance to re-establish the old order of things, under which the French Government receiving from the English Golahs the salt necessary for consumption by the inhabitants of Chandernagore shall make its own profit thereby, as has been done hitherto.

aucune taxe ou contribution directe ou indirecte sur l’entrée et la vente du dit sel, tant à Chandernagor que dans les districts qui en dépendent.

ARTICLE 3.

Par suite des conventions qui précédent, le Gouvernement du Bengale s’engage à payer à M. l’ Administrateur de Chandernagor une somme de vingt mille Roupies de Compagnie par an.

Ce payement aura lieu par moitié de semestre en semestre à partir du jour où la présente Convention recevra son exécution.

ARTICLE 4.

Le payement ci-dessus stipulé étant la conséquence du revenu que la consommation du sel à Chandernagor produira au Gouvernement anglais, les autorités françaises aideront l’administration anglaise à réaliser ce produit et tiendront la main à ce qu’il ne soit commis aucune contravention au présent Traité par des importations du sel, soit par mer, soit par tout autre moyen.

ARTICLE 5.

Il sera loisible à chacune des parties contractantes, moyennant avis donné au moins une année à l’avance, de rétablir l’ancien ordre des choses, d’après lequel le Gouvernement français recevant des Golahs anglais le sel nécessaire à la consommation des habitants de Chandernagor le fera débiter à son profit, comme par le passé.
ARTICLE 6.
The present Treaty shall be in force on and after the 1st August 1839.

ARTICLE 7.
The present convention shall be subject to the approval of His Excellency the Governor of the French Establishments in India and to that of the Right Hon’ble the Governor General of the British possessions, and ultimately to the confirmation of the French Government and of the English Government in Europe; and in case of its not being approved by the said Governments, the old order of things will be reverted to as soon as possible, without the notice of one year in advance, as provided in Article 5.

True copy of ratification affixed to two copies delivered to Monsieur Bourgoin at Chandernagore.
Agreement made between the French and British Governments relative to the limits of the Settlement of Chandernagore,—1853.

Whereas the mixture of English and French territories, jurisdictions, and other rights belonging to the two Governments, respectively, around the French Settlement of Chandernagore in the East Indies, is the cause of inconvenience to which the Governments of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of His Majesty the Emperor of the French are desirous of putting a stop;

The undersigned, Her Britannic Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at Paris, and His Majesty the Emperor's Minister for Foreign Affairs duly authorized by their respective Governments have agreed as follows:

1st.—That the limits of the jurisdiction and of all other rights whatever of the French Government on the territory of the French Settlement of Chandernagore in Bengal shall be according to the plan drawn up in common by the respective Commissioners of the two Governments and annexed to the proposition for the settlement of the limits of the French territory at Chandernagore signed provisionally (excepting the reserves contained in it) at Chandernagore on the 4th of September 1852; to the South and West the excavation commonly called the French Ditch, and to the North the same Ditch or the line indicated in the plan by an orange outline.

Attendu que le mélange des territoires anglais et français, et des juridictions et autres droits appartenant aux Gouvernements respectifs, autour de l'établissement français de Chandernagor dans les Indes Orientales présente des inconvénients auxquels le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande et celui de Sa Majesté l'Empereur des Français désirent mettre un terme;

Les soussignés Ambassadeur Extraordinaire et Plenipotentiaire de Sa Majesté britannique à Paris, et Ministre des Affaires Etrangères de Sa Majesté l'Empereur des Français dûment autorisés par leurs Gouvernements respectifs sont convenus de ce qui suit:

1er.—Les limites de la juridiction et de tous droits quelconques du Gouvernement français sur le territoire de l'établissement français de Chandernagor en Bengale seront selon les indications du plan dressé de commun accord, par les commissaires respectifs des deux Gouvernements, et annexé un projet de délimitation provisoirement signé, (sauf les réserves que contient ce projet,) à Chandernagor le 4 Septembre 1852; au Sud et à l'Ouest, l'excavation appelée le Fosse français, et au Nord, le même fossé ou la ligne indiquée sur le plan par un liséré orange.
Part III

With regard to the boundary to the East or on the side of the river Hoogly, matters shall remain as they are in respect to the jurisdiction or other rights whatsoever of the settlement of Chandernagore, without prejudice to the respective claims of the two Governments.

And inasmuch as the section of the boundary above-mentioned from the termination of the ditch to the bank of the river is very intricate and confused owing to the interspersion of the houses of the inhabitants of the two territories; therefore in order to render the boundary as exact and clear as possible, and thus to obviate all future disputes upon the point, pillars of masonry or some other material shall be erected at a joint expense throughout the whole extent of this said portion of the boundary.

2nd.—That, on the one hand, the Government of Bengal shall recognize the exclusive jurisdiction of the French Government over the whole of the territory included in the limits above described.

3rd.—That, on the other hand, the French Government shall relinquish to the Government of Bengal the jurisdiction which the former now exercises within portions of territory at Goualpara, Cantaporicour, Tonquipoucour, Dupliespotty, Barasse, and situated without the circuit of the Ditch round Chandernagore; and that this cession shall include also the revenue or land rent now collected by the French Government from these said lands amounting annually to a sum of one hundred and eighty rupees one ganda and a half (Rupees 150½ ganda) as detailed in the schedule which accompanies the draft of Quand à la limite d l’Est ou du côté du fleuve Hoogly les choses en resteront, pour la juridiction et autres droits quelconques de l’établissement de Chandernagor, dans l’état actuel, sans préjudice des prétentions respectives des deux gouvernements.

Et attendu que la limite ci-dessus énoncée depuis l’extrémité du fossé jusqu’à la rivière, reste très confuse par le pèle-mêle des maisons des habitants des deux territoires, il sera établi, à frais communs, sur l’étendue de la ligne sus-indiquée, des bornes en maçonnerie on en toute autre matière à fin de rendre cette limite aussi précise et apparente que possible et de prévenir par ce moyen toutes contestations ultérieures sur ce point.

2e.—D’une part, le Gouvernement du Bengale reconnaîtra comme appartenant exclusivement au Gouvernement français la juridiction sur tout le territoire compris dans les limites ci-dessus indiquées.

3e.—D’autre part, le Gouvernement français cédera au Gouvernement du Bengale, la juridiction sur les portions au territoire dépendant de Goualpara, Cantaporicour, Tonquipoucour, Dupliespotty, Barasse et situées en dehors du fossé d’enceinte de Chandernagor, et cette cession entraînera celle des revenus de rente foncière ou Cazanas actuellement perçus par le Gouvernement français sur les dits terrains et s’élevant par an à une somme de cent quatre vingt Roupies, un ganda, et demi (Roupies 180 ganda ½) d’après état détaillé rédigé, de commun accord, à Chandernagor et joint au projet de convention du 4 Septembre 1852.
Agreement drawn up at Chandernagore on the 4th of September 1852.

4th.—That, on its side, the Government of Bengal will consent by way of compensation to relinquish to the French Government the annual revenue of thirty-five rupees, fourteen annas five gandas (Rupees 35 14 annas 5 gandas) now collected by the former of the two Governments from the lands dependent on the Talook of Digra and l’elinipara which lie to the north of the French Ditch; and further to make a reduction of one hundred and forty-four rupees, one anna, sixteen gandas and a half (Rupees 144 1 anna 16½ gandas) in the annual rent of 3,520 francs or about Rupees 1,466 now paid to the Hooghly Treasury by the Government of Chandernagore as representatives of certain ancient Talookdars.

In witness whereof the undersigned have signed the present Agreement and have affixed the seals of their Arms thereunto.

Done at Paris the 31st of March 1853.

PROPOSITIONS of the COMMISSIONERS for the SETTLEMENT of the BOUNDARIES of CHANDERNAGORE.

Proposition of the French and English Commissioners for the Settlement of the limits of the French Territory at Chandernagore.

We, the undersigned—

Pierri Paul Damier Victoria Duffour de Gavardie, Judge, President of the Court of first instance, 4me.—De son côté, le Gouvernement du Bengale consentira à titre de compensation, à transférer en la possession du Gouvernement français le revenu annuel de trente cinq Roupies quatorze anas, cinq gandas (R. 35 14 a. 5 g.) que perçoit le premier de ces deux Gouvernements sur des terrains en régie dépendant du Talouk de Digra et Telinipara situés au nord du Fossé français, et à diminuer d’une valeur de cent quarante-quatre Roupies, un ana, seize gandas et demi (R. 144, 1 a. 16½ g.) le montant de la rente de 3,520 francs ou environ 1,466 Roupies par année que paie actuellement à la trésorerie à Hoogly le Gouvernement de Chandernagor, considéré comme représentant de divers anciens Talookdars.

En foi de quoi les soussignés ont signé le présent arrangement et y ont apposé le cachet de leurs armes.

Fait à Paris le 31 Mars 1853.

Propositions des Commissaires anglais et français pour la fixation des limites territoriales de Chandernagor.

Nous Soussignés—

Emile Auguste Cort Morvein, Assistant Commissary of Marine, Commissioner appointed by the Governor of the French establishment in India,

AND

William Erskine Baker, Major in the Corps of Engineers of the Presidency of Fort William, Samuel Wauchope of the Civil Service of the same Presidency,
Robert Barclay Chapman of the same Civil Service, Commissioners appointed by the Most Noble the Governor-General of India,

Having proceeded jointly and independently to investigate the de facto ancient limits of the French Settlement at Chandernagore,

And having failed to determine, by any sufficient documentary evidence, the existence of any such limits fixed by treaty,

Do hereby agree to recommend to our respective Governments the adoption of the following conditions, via, estly.—That the limits of the jurisdiction of all other rights whatever of the French Government shall be as delineated in the annexed plan, that is to say, that the boundary to the eastward shall be the right bank of the Hooghly river. That the boundary to the southward and westward shall be the excavation commonly called the French ditch. That the boundary to the northward shall be also the said French ditch, or, where the ditch does not exist, Samuel Wauchope du Service Civil de la même Présidence.

Robert Barclay Chapman du même Service.

Commissaires nommés par M. le Gouverneur Général des provinces et possessions anglaises de l’Inde.

Et

Pierre Paul Damien Victorin Duffour de Gavardie, Juge Président de l’ère instance.

Emilé Auguste Coët Morven, Aide-Commissaire de la Marine.

Commissaires nommés par M. le Gouverneur des Establissements français dans l’Inde.

D’après les constatations et vérifications aux quelles nous avons procédé soit contradictoirement, soit séparément pour reconnaître quelles sont de facto les anciennes limites du territoire français de Chandernagor au Bengale.

A défaut de documents suffisants sur l’existence de ces limites, telles qu’elles ont pu être fixées par les traités, Sommes d’accord de proposer à nos Gouvernements respectifs l’adoption de l’ensemble des conditions suivantes, savoir :

the line indicated in the plan by an orange edging.

And, inasmuch at the last section of the boundary from the termination of the ditch to the bank of the river is very intricate and confused owing to the interspersion of the houses of the inhabitants of the two territories, therefore, in order to render the boundary as exact and clear as possible and thereto obviate all future disputes upon the point, it has been agreed that in the event of these propositions being definitively sanctioned, pillars of masonry or some other material shall be erected at a joint expense throughout the whole extent of the said portion of the boundary.

2ndly. — That, on the one hand, the Government of Bengal shall recognize the exclusive jurisdiction of the French Government over the whole of the territory included in the circuit above described.

3rdly. — That, on the other hand, the French Government shall relinquish to the Government of Bengal the jurisdiction which the former now exercises within portions of territory at Gowalpara Kontapookar—Jogipookar, Duplapate, Barassette, situate without the circuit above specified, and that this cession will include also the revenue or land rent, now collected by the French Government from the said land amounting annually to a sum of one hundred and eighty rupees, one ganda and a half (Co.'s Rupees 180-0-0-1½) as detailed in the Schedule which accompanies this Agreement.

4thly. — That on its side, the Government of Bengal will consent by way of compensation to relinquish Et attendu que cette dernière limite depuis l'extremité du fossé jusqu'à la rivière reste très confuse par le péleméê des maisons des habitants des deux territoires, il a été convenu que si le présent projet décharge recevait une sanction définitive il serait établi à frais communs, sur l'étendue de la ligne sus indiquée, des bornes en maçonnerie ou en toute autre matière à fin de rendre cette limite aussi précise et apparente que possible et de prévenir par ce moyen toutes contestations ultérieures sur ce point.

2. Que d'une part le Gouvernement du Bengale reconnaîtra, comme appartenant exclusivement au Gouvernement français la juridiction sur tout le territoire compris dans les limites cidessus indiquées.

3. Que d'autre part le Gouvernement français cédera au Gouvernement du Bengale la juridiction sur les portions du territoire dépendant de Goualpara, Cantapourc, Jouquipourc, Duplexipatty, Barassette et situées en dehors du fossé d'enceinte de Chandernagor, et que cette cession entraînera celle des revenus de rente foncière ou cazanas actuellement perçus par le Gouvernement français sur les dits terrains et s'élève par an à une somme de cent quatre vingts rupees un ganda et demi (180 Rs. 1½ G.) d'après état détaillé joint au présent exposé de conditions.

4. Que de son côté, le Gouvernement du Bengale consentira, à titre de compensation à transférer to the French Government the annual revenue of thirty-five rupees, fourteen annas, five gandas, now collected by the former, from that portion of the Government revenueed Mehal of Digra which lies to the North of the French ditch at Tilniepara, and, further, to make a reduction of one hundred and forty-four rupees, one anna, sixteen gandas and a half (Co.'s Rupees 144 1-16\(\frac{1}{2}\)) in the annual rent of 3,520 Francs or about 1,466 rupees now paid to the Hooghly treasury by the French Government as representative of certain ancient Talookdars.

The preceding conditions translated into the two languages, English and French, have been drawn up and signed at Chandernagore, this fourth day of September, eighteen hundred and fifty-two.

Convention relative à l'opium.

Convention du 27 Décembre 1893, conclue pour une durée de ning on the 1st January 1894, regarding the conversion into an annual payment of three thousand rupees of the rights in connection with the opium trade reserved to the French Government by Article 6 of the Convention of the 7th March 1815, and for the purpose of preventing the introduction of contraband opium into Chandernagore.

Between Monsieur G. Aubry Lecomte, Principal Administrator at Chandernagore, proceeding by special order of the Governor of the French Settlements in India, and acting in the name of the French Government on the one part.

And Mr. A. W. B. Power, Commissioner of Burdwan, on the part of the Government of India, the said Mr. A. W. B. Power, having special authority for the purpose from His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India on the other part, the following agreement has been concluded.

ARTICLE I.

The French Government renounce their privilege reserved by Article 6 of the Convention of the 7th March 1815, entitling them to purchase annually at Calcutta three hundred chests of opium at the average price obtained at the periodical sales of this article.

ARTICLE II.

The Government of India in exchange for this renunciation agree to pay to the French Administration at Chandernagore a sum of three thousand rupees per annum.

cinq ans a partir du 1er Janvier 1894, à l'effet de convertir en un payement annuel de trois mille roupies le droit réservé au Gouvernement français sur le commerce de l'opium par l'article 6 de la Convention du 7 Mars 1815, et en vue de prévenir l'introduction frauduleuse de l'opium à Chandernagor.

Et Monsieur A. W. B. Power, Commissaire de Burdwan délégué du Gouvernement de l'Inde et procédant avec l'autorisation spéciale de Son Excellence le Vicéroi et Gouverneur Général de l'Inde d'autre part, a été convenu ce qui suit.

ARTICLE I.

Le Gouvernement Français renonce au privilège à lui réserve par l'article 6 de la Convention du 7 Mars 1815 pour l'achat à Calcutta de trois cents caisses d'opium par an au prix moyen des ventes périodiques de cet article.

ARTICLE II.

Le Gouvernement de l'Inde, en échange de cette renonciation, s'engage à payer à l'Administration Française de Chandernagore une somme de troie mille roupies par an.
ARTICLE III.

The French Administration agree to impose on the farmer licensed to sell opium at Chandernagore, the obligation not to introduce into that Settlement for consumption or for any other purpose, or to possess or to export, or to sell at his shops, any opium other than that manufactured on account of the English Government and supplied from the Hooghly Collectorate at the same price as the opium allowed by the said Government to their farmer or agents authorized to sell this product on English territory adjoining Chandernagore.

The French authorities will use their power to prevent any contravention of this obligation by the farmer or by any other person whether through importation of foreign opium by sea or through any other means.

The French authorities further engage generally to use their power in the prevention of traffic, whether import or export, between Chandernagore and British territory in any opium but that which has been brought from the Hooghly Collectorate.

ARTICLE IV.

All contraband opium seized in French territory shall be handed over to the Collector of Hooghly on payment of its value, which shall be calculated at the same rate as is allowed in British India in making payments of the value of confiscated opium to any one who has contributed to the seizure of the drug.

ARTICLE III.

L'Administration Française consent à imposer au fermier chargé de la vente de l'opium à Chandernagor, l'obligation de n'introduire dans cet Établissement pour consommation ou pour tout autre but, ou de n'avoir ou exporter, ou vendre dans sa boutique autre opium que celui manufacturé pour le compte du Gouvernement Anglais et fourni par le Collectorat d'Hoogly, au même prix que l'opium admis par le dit Gouvernement à son fermier ou à ses agents autorisés à vendre ce produit sur le territoire Anglais avoisinant Chandernagore.

Les Autorités Françaises useront de leur pouvoir de prévenir toute contravention à cette obligation par le fermier ou par toute autre personne soit au moyen d'importation de l'opium étranger par mer ou par tout autre moyen.

Les Autorités Françaises s'engagent généralement, à user de leur pouvoir d'empêcher de trafiquer soit dans l'importation soit dans l'exportation entre Chandernagor et le territoire Anglais tout autre opium que celui qui a été introduit du Collectorat d'Hoogly.

ARTICLE IV.

Tout opium de contrebande saisi sur le territoire Française sera livré au Collecteur d'Hoogly, contre payement de sa valeur, calculé sur le même taux que celui accordé dans l'Inde Britannique en payement de la valeur de l'opium confisqué à celui qui a contribué à la saisie de cette matière.
ARTICLE V.

As compensation for the loss which the obligation imposed on the French farmer may cause to the local budget of the French Settlements in India the English Government engage to pay to the Administration of Chandernagore annually and in two instalments an indemnity fixed, at a round sum, at two thousand rupees.

ARTICLE VI.

The payments mentioned above in Articles II and V will both be made in moieties at the end of each six months counting from the 1st January 1894.

ARTICLE VII.

The present Convention shall have a duration of five years to be calculated from the 1st January 1894.

ARTICLE VIII.

The present Convention shall, without requiring any other ratification, be considered to be definitely concluded, for a period of five years to be calculated from the first of January 1894, as soon as it shall have been signed by Monsieur G. Aubry Lecomte, Principal Administrator of Chandernagore, and Mr. A. W. B. Power, Commissioner of Burdwan, specially delegated for this purpose by their respective Governments.

Done at Chandernagore in duplicate on the twenty-seventh December one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

A. W. B. Power.

ARTICLE V.

En compensation du préjudice que l'obligation imposée au fermier Français peut occasionner au budget local des Établissements Français dans l'Inde, le Gouvernement Anglais s'engage à payer annuellement et en deux termes à l'Administration de Chandernagor, une indemnité fixée à forfait à deux mille roupies.

ARTICLE VI.

Les deux payements déjà cités dans les Articles II et V auront lieu par moitié, de semestre en semestre, à terme échu à partir du 1re Janvier 1894.

ARTICLE VII.

La présente Convention aura une durée de cinq ans à compter du 1re Janvier 1894.

ARTICLE VIII.

La présente convention sans qu'il soit besoin d'autre ratification, sera considérée comme définitivement conclue pour une période de cinq ans à compter du premier Janvier 1894, dès qu'elle aura été revêtue des signatures de Monsieur G. Aubry-Lecomte, Administrateur Principal de Chandernagor et Monsieur A. W. B. Power, Commissaire de Burdwan, spécialement délégués à cet effet par leurs Gouvernements respectifs.

II.—KUCH BEHAR.

The Rajas of Kuch Behar probably belong to the non-Aryan tribe of Koch, a people of Tibetan or Dravidian origin, now largely scattered on the North-Eastern Frontier. More than three centuries ago two brothers named Bisu Singh and Sisu Singh established by their conquests a principality in the North-Eastern part of India. The former is the immediate ancestor of the Rajas and of the Nazir Deos, or Ministers, of Kuch Behar. Bisu Singh's son, Nar Narayan, extended his sway eastwards over Lower Assam, and at this time the Koch territories must have embraced the greater part of the Dinajpur, Rangpur, and other districts, once forming the Aryan kingdom of Kamrup, which the Afghan King of Bengal overthrew in 1489. About 1603 the Moghal armies greatly encroached on the little State of Behar, until at about the beginning of the eighteenth century the Raja's dominions were reduced to their present limits.

The British Government came in contact with Kuch Behar in 1772. The Bhutanese, whose trade with Bengal was carried on through the countries occupied by the Koch Chiefs, appear to have always maintained a connection with Kuch Behar, and to have occasionally interfered in its affairs. Some years previous to 1772 the then Raja of Kuch Behar, Dhairjendra Narayan, who had a dispute regarding succession with his brother Ram Narayan, deprived the latter of the appointment of Minister. Ram Narayan appealed to the Bhutanese and was re-instated by them. Ram Narayan was, however, subsequently put to death by the Raja, whom the Bhutanese then carried off to the hills, appointing his brother, Rajendra Narayan, as Raja in his place. On the death of Rajendra Narayan shortly afterwards the Nazir Deo set up Dharendra Narayan, son of Dhairjendra Narayan, as Raja. The Bhutanese had on their side appointed to the gadi Brajendra Narayan, the son of the captive Raja's elder brother; each party proceeded to support their nominee, and the Nazir Deo, being worsted and driven out of the country, applied to the East India Company for aid. This was granted after the Nazir Deo had in 1773 concluded, in the name of Dharendra Narayan, a Treaty (No. XCl) by which the Raja agreed to acknowledge subjection to the British Government; to allow the Kuch Behar country to be annexed to Bengal; and to make over to the British Government one-half of the annual revenues of Kuch Behar for ever. The other moiety he was to retain on condition of remaining firm in his allegiance to the British Government, who, on the other hand, bound themselves to assist the Raja with troops whenever he might require them.
for the defence of the country, the Raja bearing the expense. Captain Jones, with a small force of sepoys, then proceeded to Kuch Behar, dispossessed the Bhutanese, and pursuing them to the hills compelled them to make terms with the British Government. A Treaty (see Vol. II, Bhutan) was concluded with Bhutan in 1774, and, agreeably to one of its articles, Raja Dhairjendra Narayan was released from confinement. Though in 1776 a Sanad (No. XCI) was granted to Raja Dhairjendra Narayan conferring on him the zamindari of Kuch Behar, he did not re-assume the government of the State until the death of his son, Dharendra Narayan, which occurred in 1780. Raja Dhairjendra Narayan died in 1783, and was succeeded by his son, Harendra Narayan, an infant. Disturbances ensued, and in 1788 two Commissioners were sent to conduct a local enquiry, and on receipt of their report a British Commissioner was appointed to the management of the State. The Raja came of age in 1800, and the Commissioner was withdrawn. As, however, the Raja could not manage the affairs of the State, Commissioners were re-appointed in 1802, and again in 1805, 1813, and 1817, to supervise the administration. The British Government, however, decided in February 1816 to abstain from all interference, except in the form of advice and representation, in the unlimited management of the affairs of the State, and to restrict the powers of the Commissioner to the exercise of diplomatic functions only. These powers eventually devolved on the Governor-General's Agent, North-East Frontier. Harendra Narayan died at Benares in 1839. Shivendra Narayan, a natural son of the deceased Raja, was then placed upon the gadi. Before his death he adopted one of his brother's sons named Narendra Narayan, who succeeded him in 1847. Narendra Narayan being at this time about four years old, the State was governed by Brajendra Narayan Kumar, brother of the late Raja, as Regent. He died in 1857, and the two widows of Raja Shivendra Narayan undertook the management of affairs. In 1862 Raja Narendra Narayan received a Sanad (No. XCl) guaranteeing to him the right of adoption. He died in August 1863, in the twentieth year of his age, and was succeeded by his son, Nripendra Narayan, who was born on the 4th October 1862.

In 1873 a question arose as to whether Kuch Behar should be designated a "State", an "Estate", or a "Raj"; the decision was that the designation "State," which had been used in the adoption Sanad granted to the Raja of Kuch Behar by Lord Canning, should remain unaltered. Kuch Behar now therefore bears the designation "State,"
During the present Maharaja’s minority the State was managed by the Commissioner of Kuch Behar and Rajshahi, and an officer, corresponding in position to a Deputy Commissioner of a non-regulation district in British territory, was in immediate charge. The State and its people prospered remarkably during the British administration. The annual revenue demand on all accounts increased from Rs. 3,37,025 to Rs. 11,26,343; the British rupee was made the legal tender in the State; an improved system of land settlement and the general principles of administration in force in British districts were introduced, without interfering with any special local customs and traditions; subdivisions were established; the police were re-organised; numerous schools were opened; the postal department was placed under the Post-Master-General of Bengal; a line of telegraph was carried through the State; considerable sums were spent on roads, bridges, and public offices, and large savings in Government securities were made over to the Maharaja on his installation.

In 1878 Nripendra Narayan married the eldest daughter of Babu Keshab Chandra Sen of Calcutta. In February 1880 he was made a Maharaja Bahadur, and came of age in 1883, when he was installed as a Ruling Chief.

In June 1884 His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General granted a sanad declaring hereditary the title of Maharaja Bahadur, which had been conferred in 1880 upon Nripendra Narayan, and authorizing the assumption of this style by future rulers on the formal recognition by the Government of their succession. The Maharaja’s assumption of the distinctive titles of “His Highness” and “Bhup Bahadur,” by which designations he is to be addressed in all official correspondence, were also sanctioned; the latter title, which is an old family distinction, was thus formally recognised.

In 1887, on the occasion of the Jubilee of the late Queen-Empress, Maharaja Nripendra Narayan visited England, accompanied by the Maharani. On the 18th May 1887 the Maharani was appointed a Member of the Order of the Crown of India. On the 29th July of the same year the Maharaja was made an Honorary Lieutenant-Colonel of the 6th Regiment of Bengal Cavalry, and on the 23rd February 1888 the decoration of Knight Grand Commander of the Indian Empire was conferred on him. The Maharaja served in the Tirah expedition of 1897-98 on the personal staff of General Yeatman-Bigges, and was present at the action of Dargai and Samana.
recognition of his services he was created a Companion of the Order of the Bath. He also volunteered for service in South Africa, but Government were unable to avail themselves of the offer. On the 11th January 1902 he was appointed an Honorary Aide-de-Camp to His Majesty the King-Emperor, and in that capacity he attended His Majesty's Coronation in the same year. On the same date he was given the honorary rank of Colonel. He was present at the Imperial Darbar held at Delhi on the 1st January 1903. The Maharaja's eldest son and heir, Maharaj-Kumar Raj Rajendra Narayan was born in 1882, and was educated at Eton and Christ Church, Oxford. He was granted the honorary rank of Lieutenant in the Army in 1902, and joined the Imperial Cadet Corps in July 1903.

When the Maharaja attained his majority in 1883, the Government of India consented to his request that the services of the officer, who had been in charge of the State during his minority, might be retained by him as Manager of the State. Ever since that date this post has been continued by the Maharaja and filled by officers lent to him by Government. In 1885 the Manager was appointed, under Section 6, Act XXI of 1879, to be a Justice of the Peace for the territory of Kuch Behar, with powers to commit to the Sessions Court, Rangpur. In 1899, however, the Court to which he was to commit cases was changed to the High Court, Calcutta.

In 1885 the Commissioner of Rajshahi had been given the powers of a Political Agent for the State, under Chapters IV and V of Act XXI of 1879. On the transfer of the Rajshahi Division to the Province of Eastern Bengal and Assam in 1905, the Commissioner of Bhagalpur was appointed Political Agent.

In 1894 a narrow-gauge railway was constructed connecting Kuch Behar with the Eastern Bengal Railway system at Mogalhat. It was afterwards extended to the boundaries of the State, and then by Government to the foot of the Bhutan Hills on the Western Duars in the Jalpaiguri district. The line has been managed by the Eastern Bengal State Railway Administration in accordance with an Agreement (No. XCIV) entered into in 1903, between the Secretary of State for India and the Maharaja. The agreement expired on the 31st December 1905, and its renewal is under consideration.
In 1899 the Maharaja ceded jurisdiction of every kind over the lands in his State which are, or may hereafter be, occupied by the Bengal Duars Railway (No. XCV). In 1901 a similar cession was made in respect of the lands required in the Kuch Behar State for the Eastern Bengal State Railway (No. XCVI).

The Maharaja is assisted in the government of his State by a Council of which he is the President. The Superintendent of the State is Vice-President, and the Diwan and the Civil Judge are Members.

The State pays a tribute of Rs. 67,700-15-0. This amount was permanently fixed in 1780.

The area of the State is 1,307 square miles; and the population, as ascertained by the census of 1901, is 566,974. A land revenue settlement was concluded during the minority of the present Maharaja, terminable in 1883-84, and extended by him to 1888-89, when a re-settlement was made for a period of 30 years, by which an increase of more than 2½ lakhs was obtained. The revenue from all sources for 1905-06 was Rs. 24,15,679, which includes the income from the estates owned by the Maharaja in British territory.

The State maintains (1905) a military force of 13 cavalry, 174 infantry, 7 artillery men, 4 serviceable guns, and 100 armed police.

The Maharaja receives a salute of 13 guns, which was finally approved in Her Majesty's Order in Council of the 26th June 1867.

The State is liable to the nazaraana rules.
TREATY with the RAJAH of COOCH BEHAR.

ARTICLES of TREATY between the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY and DURRINDER NARAIN, RAJAH of COOCH BEHAR,—1773.

Durrinder Narain, Rajah of Cooch Behar, having represented to the Honorable the President and Council of Calcutta the present distressed state of the country, owing to its being harassed by the neighbouring independent Rajahs, who are in league to depose him, the Honorable the President and Council, from a love of justice and desire of assisting the distressed, have agreed to send a force, consisting of four Companies of Sepoys and a field piece for the protection of the said Rajah and his country against his enemies, and the following conditions are mutually agreed on:

1st.—That the said Rajah will immediately pay into the hands of the Collector of Rungpoor 50,000 Rupees, to defray the expenses of the force sent to assist him.

2nd.—That if more than 50,000 Rupees are expended, the Rajah will make it good to the Honorable the English East India Company, but in case any part of it remains unexpended that it be delivered back.

3rd.—That the Rajah will acknowledge subjection to the English East India Company upon his country being cleared of his enemies, and will allow the Cooch Behar country to be annexed to the Province of Bengal.

4th.—That the Rajah further agrees to make over to the English East India Company one-half of the annual revenues of Cooch Behar for ever.

5th.—That the other moiety shall remain to the Rajah and his heirs for ever, provided he is firm in his allegiance to the Honorable United East India Company.

6th.—That in order to ascertain the value of the Cooch Behar country, the Rajah will deliver a fair hustabood of his district into the hands of such person as the Honorable the President and Council of Calcutta shall think proper to depute for that purpose, upon which valuation the annual malguzary, which the Rajah is to pay, shall be established.

7th.—That the amount of the malguzary, settled by such person as the Honorable the East India Company shall depute, shall be perpetual.

8th.—That the Honorable English East India Company shall always assist the said Rajah with a force when he has occasion for it for the defence of the country, the Rajah bearing the expense.

9th.—That this Treaty shall remain in force for the space of two years, or till such time as advices may be received from the Court of Directors, empowering the President and Council to ratify the same for ever.

This Treaty signed, sealed, and concluded by the Honorable the President and Council at Fort William, the fifth day of April 1773, on the one part, and by Durrinder Narain, Rajah of Cooch Behar, at Behyar Fort, the 6th Maug 1179 Bengal style, on the other part.
No. XCII.

Translation of a Sunnud under the seal of the Hon'ble English Company, dated the 13th of February 1776 A.D., corresponding with the 4th of Fagooon 1182 Bungla, and the 22nd of Zilhijeh of the 17th year of His Majesty's reign.

Be it known to all mutsuddies at present holding important trusts, or who may be hereafter appointed thereto, and to all kanongoos and mouu-tums and ryots and cultivators and other inhabitants and natives of Surkar Cooch Behar, in the Soubah of Bengal, the paradise of countries, that as the orders of the gentlemen in Council have been issued, that a Sunnud for the zemindaree of the above Surkar should be granted to Dhujinder Narain, accordingly (the above person) having agreed to pay the peshcush of Government of fifty gold-mohurs agreeably to the order, the office of zemindar of the above Surkar, vacated by (the death of) Durrinder Narain, has been granted, confirmed to, and bestowed upon Dhujinder Narain; that observing the duties and usages of the office and the rules of the truth and dignity, he depart not in the minutest particular from a vigilant and prudent conduct, but avoiding sloth and consulting the interest of the ryots and inhabitants, and conciliating their affections, that he so conduct himself that his utmost endeavours may be exerted for the increase of cultivation and the improvement of the revenue. He must further pay great attention to expelling and punishing offenders, so that the least vestige of thieves and robbers may not be found within his limits; and take particular care of the highways, so that travellers and strangers may go and come with perfect confidence and safety. God forbid that the property of any one should be stolen or plundered: but should such a case occur, he must seize the thieves or robbers and the property, delivering up the goods to the owner and the offenders to justice; and if he cannot find (the thieves and the goods), he must answer for the party himself. He must also take care that no one indulge in forbidden practices within his limits. He must pay the revenue, regularly year after year at the stated period; and at the end of the year according to custom, he will receive credit for his payments. He will further abstain from the collection of all exactions or (sic) forbidden by Government. You are hereby required to acknowledge the above person as zemindar of the above Surkar, and to consider him as vested with the powers and appendages thereof. On this point paying the strictest obedience, you will act as above directed.

On the 17th of February 1776 A.D., corresponding with the 8th Fagooon 1182 Bungla, and the 26th of Zilhijeh in the 17th year of His Majesty's reign, the copy was received in the Duffer.

NO. XCIII.

SUNNUD granted to the RAJAH of COOCHE BEHAR.—1862.

Her Majesty being desirous that the Governments of the several Princes and Chiefs of India who now govern their own territories should be perpetuated, and that the representation and dignity of their Houses should be continued, I hereby, in fulfilment of this desire, convey to you the assurance that, on failure of natural heirs, the adoption by yourself and future Rulers of your State of a successor according to Hindoo law and the customs of your race will be recognized and confirmed.

Be assured that nothing shall disturb the engagement thus made to you so long as your House is loyal to the Crown and faithful to the conditions of the Treaties, grants, or engagements which record its obligations to the British Government.

Dated 11th March 1862.

NO XCIV.

AGREEMENT between the SECRETARY of STATE in COUNCIL for INDIA and HIS HIGHNESS the MAHARAJAH of COOCHE BEHAR, for the working of the Cooch Behar State Railway by the Eastern Bengal State Railway Administration.

1. The Eastern Bengal State railway shall maintain and work the Cooch Behar State railway under this agreement for a period of five years from 1st January 1901, and shall have the entire control of the trains and traffic arrangements, appoint all necessary staff, and provide all necessary labour and materials for the proper and efficient maintenance and working of the railway. For the performance of this work the Eastern Bengal State railway will receive 40 per cent. of the gross earnings, the balance 60 per cent. of the gross earnings to be made over to His Highness the Maharajah as soon as possible after the half-yearly accounts are rendered at the close of each half-year; provided that when the stock of the Eastern Bengal State railway is used for the conveyance of any traffic on the Cooch Behar State railway the Eastern Bengal State railway will receive and retain up to, but not exceeding, 45 per cent. of the gross earnings obtained from the use of such stock.

2. The sum of 40 per cent. of the gross earnings will cover the cost of Revenue New Minor Works up to the limit of Rs. 30 per mile per annum and also the cost of the supervision of Capital Works when no extra establishment is entertained beyond that employed in the ordinary maintenance of the line. When additional establishment is required for the supervision of Capital Works, the actual cost of such establishment will be provided in the estimates in accordance with the practice on the Eastern Bengal State railway.

3. Out of the sum of 40 per cent of the gross earnings, the Eastern Bengal State railway shall meet the charges levied by the Telegraph Department for telegraph wires and instruments supplied to the Cooch Behar State railway.

State railway rules for working the telegraph lines and for the issue of free passes will be observed as heretofore.

4. All communications between the Cooch Behar Durbar and the Eastern Bengal State railway under this agreement shall be direct, any difference of opinion being forwarded for orders to the Government of India. For the purpose of this agreement the Manager of the Eastern Bengal State railway shall undertake the same general duties with respect to the Cooch Behar State railway as are entrusted to him with respect to the Eastern Bengal State railway.

5. The Cooch Behar State railway shall be subject in all respects to the same control by the Government of India as the Eastern Bengal State railway.

6. Any additions or alterations to the works, rolling-stock, plant or furniture of the Cooch Behar State railway, the cost of which are not chargeable under paragraph 2, which may be required for the due completion and equipment of the line, or which may, from time to time, be found necessary, shall be carried out by or at the cost of His Highness the Maharajah. The incidence of charge whether to Capital or Revenue will be governed by the same rules as obtain on the Eastern Bengal State railway.

7. The Eastern Bengal State railway shall be responsible for the collection of all the revenue appertaining to the Cooch Behar State railway and shall pay the same into the Government treasuries as may be found convenient.

8. The Eastern Bengal State railway shall furnish the Cooch Behar Durbar with a weekly return of the approximate earnings of the Cooch Behar State railway (Form St. 1), and at the close of each half-year with an account of receipts and expenditure in suitable detail.

9. The Eastern Bengal State railway shall during the currency of this agreement have full control over the rates and fares on the Cooch Behar State railway subject to the maxima and minima prescribed by the Government of India which are exhibited in Schedule A attached to this agreement.

10. Schedule B attached to this agreement shows the mileage for charge between stations which is to apply from the 1st January 1901 until the date of opening of the Dharlia Bridge. After the date of opening of the Dharlia Bridge the mileage for charge in Schedule C will apply.

11. Through goods rates shall be the sum of the local rates, but in special cases a lower through rate may be charged if considered desirable by the Eastern Bengal State railway, division being ordinarily made on a mileage proportion after deducting the terminals—

(1) The rates charged to the Cooch Behar State railway for carriage of all stores and materials for Capital and Revenue Works, respectively, shall be the same as charged to the Eastern Bengal State railway for similar services.
(2) For conveyance of mails over the Cooch Behar State railway charges shall be made to the Postal Department in accordance with the rules in force on State railways.

12. The cost of the police force required for the maintenance of law and order on the Cooch Behar State railway shall be borne by His Highness the Maharajah and recovered from the earnings due to the Cooch Behar State railway.

13. The Indian Railways Act (IX of 1890), already introduced into the State by the Council notification of the 20th March 1894, and the standing regulations of the Eastern Bengal State railway as approved by the Governor General in Council under the Indian Railways Act (IX of 1890), shall apply to the Cooch Behar State railway. The above Act and regulations shall constitute the law in force on the Cooch Behar State railway under which offences and actions affecting the Eastern Bengal State railway or their servants shall be tried; all such offences shall be tried by duly constituted Magistrates appointed by His Highness the Maharajah, subject to appeal to higher authorities, and all railway servants employed on the Cooch Behar State railway shall have the protection enjoyed by British subjects.

Manager.

NO. XCV.

AGREEMENT entered into by the MAHARAJA of COOCH BEHAR, regarding the cession of jurisdiction over the lands required in the COOCH BEHAR STATE for the BENGAL-DOOARS RAILWAY,—1899.

I, Nripendra Narayan Bhup, Maharaja of Cooch Behar, hereby cede to the British Government full and exclusive power and jurisdiction of every kind over the lands in the said State, which are, or may hereafter be, occupied by the Bengal-Dooars Railway, (including all lands occupied for stations, for out-buildings and for other railway purposes) and over all persons and things whatsoever within the said lands.

THE PALACE, COOCH BEHAR;

The 20th of June 1899.

NRIPENDRA N. BHUP,

Maharaja of Cooch Behar.
No. XCVI.

Agreement entered into by the Maharaaja of Cooch Behar, regarding the cession of jurisdiction over the lands required in the Cooch Behar State for the Eastern Bengal State Railway,—1901.

Office of His Highness the Maharaaja Bhup Bahadur of Cooch Behar.

I, Nripendra Narayan Bhup, of Cooch Behar, hereby cede to the British Government full and exclusive power and jurisdiction of every kind over the lands in the said State which are, or may hereafter be, occupied by the Eastern Bengal State Railway (including all lands occupied for stations, outbuildings and other railway purposes) and over all persons and things whatsoever within the said lands.

Coocch Behar;

Nripendra N. Bhup,

The 26th February 1901.

Maharaaja Bhup Bahadur of Cooch Behar.
III.—TRIBUTARY AND FEUDATORY STATES OF ORISSA.

Of the twenty-four States detailed in the margin, two, Bonai and Gangpur were, until the partition of Bengal in October 1905, under the Commissioner of Chota Nagpur, and five, Bamra, Kalahandi, Patna, Rairakhol, and Sonpur, under the Commissioner of Chhattisgarh. In 1906 a Political Agent was appointed for the twenty-four States. He is subordinate to the Commissioner of Orissa.

The first seventeen were formerly known as the Tributary Mahals of Orissa, and were under the supervision of the Commissioner of Orissa, as ex-officio Superintendent of the Tributary Mahals. Bod and Athmallik were transferred to the control of the Superintendent in 1837 from the jurisdiction of the South-Western Frontier Agency, to which Gangpur and Bonai also belonged at one time. Angul and Banki were also formerly included among the Tributary Mahals, but in 1839 the Raja of Banki was found guilty of murder, was deposed, and his State declared forfeited, while in 1848 the Raja of Angul was likewise deposed for aiding the malcontents of Bod in their opposition to those officers of Government who were engaged in suppressing human sacrifices, and for making preparations to wage war against Government. Banki was, by Act XXV of 1881, incorporated with the district of Cuttack, while Angul was formed into a scheduled district under Act XIV of 1874, and is now, with the Khandmals, a separate district, under Regulation I of 1894.

The Office of Superintendent was created in 1814. In 1839 and 1840 rules were framed for the administration of civil and criminal justice in the Killahs; and the Government of India directed that the Superintendent was to be guided by the spirit of these rules, which abolished sati and human sacrifices, and deprived the Rajas of the power of life and death and of making war, though in other respects leaving them the power of local control.

Until the year 1803 the Tributary Chiefs of Orissa were feudatories of the Raja of Nagpur. During the Maratha war of that year a small force marched from Ganjam and took the town of Cuttack on the 10th October 1803.
Balasor had been already captured on the 21st September in the same year. When the plains of Orissa had been brought under British rule negotiations were entered into with the Hill Chiefs, and in November 1803 treaty engagements were executed by, and kaunamas given to, the Rajas of Narsinghpur, Tigaria, Dhenkanal, Ranpur, Baramba, Khandpara, Nayagarh, Talcher, Daspalla, Athgarh, Nilgiri, Hindol, Banki, and Angul (Nos. XCVII-XCVIII).

Meanwhile, on the 2nd November 1803, the Marathas were defeated at the Barmul Pass, and the Rajas of Bod and Sonpur tendered their submission to the British Government. In a treaty dated the 17th December 1803 between the East India Company and Sesa Sahib Suba Raghudi Bhonsla, it was stipulated that the engagements which the British Government had made with the feudatories of the Sesa Sahib Suba in Orissa were to be confirmed, and that a list of the persons with whom such engagements had been made was to be given to the Sesa Sahib Suba when the treaty was ratified by the Governor-General in Council.

In the Regulations of 1805 all the Tributary States of Orissa, except Bod, Pal-Lahara, and Athmallik (of which no mention was made) were exempted from the operation of the Bengal Regulations.

In 1842 all the seventeen States, except Khandpara, agreed to suppress sati (No. XCIX).

In 1862 Sanads (No. C) were granted to all the Chiefs guaranteeing to them the right of adoption, and in 1874 the hereditary title of Raja was conferred on them all (No. Cl).

The Chiefs of the Mahals were persuaded in 1875 to abandon all monopoly of salt and all restrictions on its free transit through, or sale in, their territories. No agreements, however, were taken on the subject.

In 1888 it was decided by the Secretary of State in Council, in accordance with a ruling of the High Court in the case of Morbhanj, that these seventeen States do not form part of British India, and, in consequence of this decision, new Sanads (Nos. CII to CXVIII) were given on the 27th October 1894 to all the Chiefs, defining their status, powers, and position.

The powers exercised by British Courts in respect of criminal cases arising in the Mahals have been regularised by the Notification No. 3431-I., dated the 5th September 1892, by the Government of India, Foreign Department, and the law and procedure to be observed in the exercise of this jurisdiction have been indicated in Notification No. 1375-I.B., dated the 21st March 1900, by the Government of India, Foreign Department.

(1) ATHGARH.

Athgarh appears as Atzur in the treaties and engagements made with this State up till 1894, when a new Sanad (No. ClII) was granted to Raja Sri Karan Raghunath Babarta Patnaik, who died on 25th January 1896. He was succeeded by his younger brother, the present Chief, Sri Karan Biswanath Babarta Patnaik, born on the 12th August 1851.

The area of the State is 168 square miles; revenue Rs. 49,802; population, by the census of 1901, 43,784; and tribute Rs. 2,800. It has (1905) 23 armed police.

(2) ATHMALLIK.

In the early treaties Athmallik was dealt with as a tributary of Bod, and the Treaty of the 3rd March 1804, and the Counter-Engagement of the same date (Nos. CXIX and CXX), were made with Raja Bishambhar Deo of Bod and Athmallik. But in 1819 a separate Kabuliaw was executed by Lachandra, then styled Sawant of Athmallik, fixing his tribute for 3 years (No. CXXI). All subsequent agreements were made with Athmallik independent of Bod. The Sati Sanad of 1842 (see No. XCIX) was executed by the Zamindar of Athmallik, but in 1874 he was granted the hereditary title of Raja, along with the rest of the 17 Chiefs (see No. Cl). In 1875 Raja Jogindra Sawant was given a Sanad (No. CXXII) renewing for 20 years the settlement of his State which had been made in 1819. A further renewal was made unnecessary by the grant of the Sanad of 1894 (No. ClIII) which fixed his tribute permanently.

In 1890 the late Chief, Mahendra Deo Samant, was given the title of Maharaja as a personal distinction. He died on the 2nd November 1901, and was succeeded by his son, Bibhudendra Deo Samant, who was born on the 25th May 1874.

The area of the State is 730 square miles; revenue Rs. 81,396; population, by the census of 1901, 40,753; and tribute Rs. 480. It has (1905) 6 armed police and 1 serviceable gun.

The State is liable to the nazaraana rules.
(3) Baramba.

The State is under Government management owing to the incapacity of the present Chief, Raja Bishambhar Birbar Mangraj Mahapatra, who was born on the 12th April 1880, and succeeded his father, RajaDasruthi Birbar Mangraj Mahapatra, on his death in July 1881.

The area of the State is 134 square miles; revenue Rs. 42,492; population, by the census of 1901, 38,260; and tribute Rs. 1,397-15-5. It possesses (1905) 2 armed police.

(4) Bod.

A treaty was made with, and counter-engagement given to, the Raja of Bod and Athmallik, Bishambhar Deo, on the 3rd March 1804 (see Athmallik). In 1821 Raja Chandra Sukur Deo executed a Kabuliat (No. CXXIII) in which his tribute was fixed for five years. The same Chief executed an Agreement (No. CXXIV) in 1827, accepting the obligation of certain police and judicial duties within his State.

In 1853 it was found that the Kandhs of the highlands of Bod, known as the Kandhmals, had for some years past ceased to render allegiance to the Raja of Bod, who himself admitted that he had no power in the country and was not in possession of it. It was also found that some of the tribal chiefs of the Kandhmals had harboured Chakra Bisoji and other public enemies who frequently committed depredations in Ghumsar. The Kandhmals were, therefore, occupied by Government and permanently removed from the jurisdiction of the Raja of Bod. They have ever since remained under direct management and control.

In 1875 a Sanad (No. CXXV) was granted to the Raja renewing for 20 years the settlement which had been made with him in 1821. The Sanad of 1894 (No. CV), which fixed his tribute permanently, rendered any further settlement unnecessary.

The late Chief, Raja Pitambar Deo, died on the 5th October 1879, and was succeeded by Raja Jagendra Deo, who was born on the 21st May 1857.

The area of the State is 1,264 square miles; revenue Rs. 61,104; population, by the census of 1901, 88,250; and tribute Rs. 800. It has (1905) 15 armed police.

The State is liable to the nazarana rules.
(5) DASPALLA (with Jormu).

In addition to the treaty of 1803 (see No. XCVII) which appears to have been made with the Chief as Raja of Jormu, and the kaunlnama of that year (see No. XCVIII), another treaty, bearing no date, but probably executed in 1804, was made with the Raja of Daspalla, and he was also granted a Kaunlnama (Nos. CXXVI and CXXVII). By clause 2 of this latter treaty the Chief made himself responsible for the safety of the Barmul Pass.

The present Chief, Narayan Deo Bhanj, succeeded his brother, Raja Chaitan Deo Bhanj, on the 19th April 1897. He was born on the 8th August 1860.

The area of the State is 568 square miles; revenue Rs. 85,172; population, by the census of 1901, 51,987; and tribute Rs. 661-7-11. It has (1905) 12 armed police, 2 artillery men, 1 unserviceable and 3 serviceable guns.

(6) Dhenkanal.

Raja Bhagirathi Mahendra Bahadur was granted the personal title of Maharaja in 1869. He died in 1877, and was succeeded by his adopted son, Dinabandhu Mahendra Bahadur, who died a minor in 1885. His successor was his son, Sura Pratap Mahendra Bahadur, born on the 14th February 1885. During his minority, which lasted till the 13th February 1906, the State was under Government management.

The area of the State is 1,463 square miles; revenue Rs. 2,10,793; population, by the census of 1901, 273,652; and tribute Rs. 5,099-0-9. It has (1905) 22 armed police, and 8 unserviceable guns.

(7) Hindol.

The present Chief, Raja Naba Kishor Chandra Mardraj Jagadeb, was born on the 14th June 1891, and succeeded to the State on the death of his father, Janardan Mardraj Jagadeb, on the 10th February 1906. The State is under management during his minority.

The area of the State is 312 square miles; revenue Rs. 58,775; population, by the census of 1901, 47,180; and tribute Rs. 551-3-11. It has (1905) 20 armed police.
(8) KEUNJHAR.

A treaty was concluded with, and a kaulnama given to, the Raja of Keunjhar on the 16th December 1804, by which he was to pay a tribute of Rs. 2,976-11-11 (Nos. CXXVIII and CXXIX), but in recognition of his services during the mutiny, this was reduced, in 1859, by Rs. 1,000, and the Chief was granted the personal title of Maharaja. In 1868 a disputed succession in Keunjhar rendered it necessary for the British Government to despatch a considerable force into the country and restore peace. After this the country was for some time under British superintendence, but this was withdrawn in 1878. In May 1891 an insurrection, in which the hill tribes were the chief movers, broke out but was easily put down by a small force of troops and police. The Maharaja was temporarily relieved of his duties, and the State put under management with a view to a searching enquiry into the causes of discontent. It was decided to permit the Maharaja to resume control of his State, but measures were instituted for the improvement of his administration, and an agent was appointed to assist and advise the Maharaja. The agent was withdrawn in 1900 and an official holding the post of Deputy Collector was appointed to be Diwan to the Chief.

Dhanurjai Narayan Bhanj Deo, who succeeded to the State in 1861, and on whom the title of Maharaja was conferred in 1877 as a personal distinction, died on the 27th October 1905, and was succeeded by his eldest son, Raja Gopi Nath Narayan Bhanj Deo, at the age of 21.

The Chief was granted a new Sanad (No. CXXX) in 1898.

The area of the State is 3,096 square miles; revenue Rs. 3,09,624; population, by the census of 1901, 285,758; and tribute Rs. 1,710-1-3, which excludes the tribute paid by Pal-Lahara. It has (1905) 11 cavalry, 137 infantry, 110 armed police, and artillery men, with 2 serviceable and 10 unserviceable guns.

(9) KHANDPARA.

The late Chief, Raja Natobar Mardraj Bhromorbur Rai, adopted as his heir Ram Chandra Samanta, who was born in 1867. On the former's death on the 3rd September 1905, the latter succeeded to the State.

The area of the State is 244 square miles; revenue Rs. 49,431; population, by the census of 1901, 69,450; and tribute Rs. 4,211-8-8. It has (1905) 13 armed police, and 5 unserviceable guns.
(10) MORBHANJ.

A Treaty (No. CXXXI) with Morbhanj was concluded on the 1st June 1829. This is the largest and most important of the Tributary Mahals.

The Baunghati portion of Morbhanj was, owing to the mismanagement of the then Raja, Srinath Bhanj, placed under the control of the Deputy Commissioner of Singhbhum, but was restored in 1878 to the present Chief's father, Maharaja Krishna Chandra Bhanj, who succeeded Raja Srinath Bhanj. The personal title of Maharaja was granted to Krishna Chandra Bhanj in 1877.

The State was under the management of Government during the minority of the present Chief, Sriram Chandra Bhanj Deo, who was born on the 17th December 1871, and succeeded on the 29th May 1882. He took over charge in September 1890. He attended the Delhi Darbar in 1903, on which occasion the title of Maharaja was conferred on him as a personal distinction. Since 1895 he has been permitted to exercise extended criminal powers of passing sentences of imprisonment up to five years, and in 1905, he was granted still further powers enabling him to try cases of robbery and torture. These powers are personal to Sriram Chandra Bhanj Deo.

In 1896 the Chief ceded jurisdiction, civil and criminal, over the lands within his State occupied by the Bengal-Nagpur Railway.

A light railway has been constructed connecting Baripoda, the headquarters of the State, with the Baripoda Road Station on the Bengal-Nagpur Railway, and on the 8th April 1905 the Chief entered into an agreement with the Bengal-Nagpur Railway Company for the working of the same. It was opened for traffic on the 1st April 1905.

The area of the State is 4,243 square miles; revenue Rs. 10,37,978; population, by the census of 1901, 610,383; and tribute Rs. 1,067-11-9. It possesses (1905) 129 infantry, 166 armed police, and 9 unserviceable guns.

The State is liable to the nazaranara rules.

(11) NARSINGHPUR.

The present Chief, Raja Sadhu Charan Man Singh Hari Chandan Mahapatra, born on the 24th January 1883, succeeded his father on the 4th December 1884. Owing to his incapacity the State continues under Government management,
The area of the State is 199 square miles; revenue Rs. 62,656; population, by the census of 1901, 39,613; and tribute Rs. 1,455-8-3. It has (1905) 6 armed police, 1 unserviceable and 6 serviceable guns.

(12) NAYAGARH.

The late Chief, Raghunath Singh Mandhata, died on the 4th September 1897, without an heir. His younger Rani adopted Narayan Singh Mandhata, born about 1878, who was allowed to succeed in July 1898; but owing to his incapacity the State continues under Government management.

The area of the State is 588 square miles; revenue Rs. 1,36,197; population, by the census of 1901, 140,779; and tribute Rs. 5,525-4-1. The State possesses (1905) 21 infantry, 21 armed police, and 3 serviceable guns.

(13) NILGIRI.

In addition to the treaty engagement of 1803 (see No. XCVII) executed by Raja Ram Chandra Mardraj Hari Chandan, another one (No. CXXXII) was executed in 1833 by Rani Chira Dei, widow of Govind Chandra Mardraj Hari Chandan. Raja Shyam Chandra Mardraj Hari Chandan, the present Chief, succeeded his adoptive father, Raja Krishna Chandra Mardraj Hari Chandan, on the 11th May 1893. He was born on the 6th January 1877, and during his minority, up till 1898, the State was under Government management. Owing to his complicity in a case of torture in his State, the Raja was deprived temporarily of his powers in 1905, and the State is again under management.

The area of the State is 278 square miles; revenue Rs. 1,71,617; population, by the census of 1901, 66,460; and tribute Rs. 3,900-7-8. It has (1905) 13 armed police.

(14) PAL-LAHARA.

Pal-Lahara was originally a larger State, but was dispossessed of much property by neighbouring Rajas. About the year 1778 the Keunjhar Raja appears to have obtained ascendancy in Pal-Lahara owing to his interference in a dispute about the succession. In 1825 an attempt was made to disown the supremacy of Keunjhar, but it was unsuccessful.

An objection was preferred to the Political Agent of the South-West Frontier on the ground that Pal-Lahara was subject to Sambalpur, but it was decided that the Keunjhar Raja was paramount, and the Chief of Pal-Lahara was ordered to pay tribute to him. In 1840 the Raja of Keunjhar was deprived of all right of interference in the local affairs of Pal-Lahara, and the Chief of the latter is allowed to pay his quit-rent or tribute to the office of the Commissioner of Orissa for credit as a portion of the tribute payable by the Keunjhar State. In 1880 the Keunjhar Raja wished that this quit-rent should be increased, but this was not allowed.

The late Chief, Chakradhar Pal (Muni Pal), was made a Raja Bahadur in 1871, for services rendered by him in 1867-68 in the first Keunjhar rebellion. He died on the 31st August 1888, and was succeeded by his son, Duti Krishna Pal, (Ganeswar Pal), who was born on the 20th June 1884. The State is still under Government management.

On the 28th October 1898 the Raja was granted a revised Sanad (No. CXXXIII).

The area of the State is 452 square miles; revenue Rs. 33,500; population, by the census of 1901, 22,351; and tribute Rs. 266-10-8. It has (1905) 10 armed police.

The State is liable to the nazaraana rules.

(15) RANPUR.

The present Chief, Raja Birbar Krishna Chandra Singh Bajradhar Narinda Mahapatra, who was born about 1877, succeeded his father on the latter’s death on the 12th July 1899.

The area of the State is 203 square miles; revenue Rs. 58,375; population, by the census of 1901, 46,075; and tribute Rs. 1,400-13-2.

(16) TALCHER.

The late Raja, Ram Chandar Birbar Hari Chandan, died on the 18th December 1891. He was succeeded by his nephew, Raja Kishori Chandra Birbar Hari Chandan, who was born on the 9th June 1880. The State was under Government management up to the 9th June 1901, during the Chief’s minority.

The area of the State is 399 square miles; revenue Rs. 71,134; population, by the census of 1901, 60,432; and tribute Rs. 1,039-10-5.

The State possesses (1905) 12 armed police, and 16 unserviceable guns.
(17) Tigaria.

The present Chief, Raja Banamali Khetrya Birbar Chempati Singh Mahapatra, who was born on the 19th March 1857, succeeded his father on the latter’s death on the 8th April 1886.

The area of the State is 46 square miles; revenue Rs. 9,158; population, by the census of 1901, 22,625; and tribute Rs. 882.

(18 and 19) Bonai and Gangpur.

These, with a number of other States now under the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces, were ceded to the British Government in 1803 (see No. CLVIII) by the Maratha Chief Raghoji Bhonsla, but were restored to him in 1806 (see No. CLIX). They reverted to the British Government under the provisional agreement concluded with Madhoji Bhonsla (Appa Sahib) in 1818 (see No. CLXI) and were finally ceded by the Treaty of 1826 (see No. CLXII). They were formerly dependent on the Chief of Sambalpur, but this dependency ceased when they came under the British Government. For a time they formed part of the South-Western Frontier Agency created in 1833, but they were transferred to the charge of the Commissioner of Chota Nagpur in 1854.

Settlements were made with both these States in 1827, which were renewed in 1875-76 for twenty years by fresh Sanads (Nos. CXXXIV-CXXXV).

In 1863 the Government of Bengal issued certain rules for the guidance of the Chiefs of the Tributary Mahals of Chota Nagpur in the administration of justice in their respective jurisdictions. By these rules the judicial powers of these Chiefs were limited to sentences of imprisonment up to 2 years or to fines not exceeding Rs. 50; or, subject to confirmation by the Commissioner of Chota Nagpur, to sentences of imprisonment up to 5 years and fines not exceeding Rs. 200. They had no powers of whipping, and all orders passed by them were subject to revision by the Commissioner. The rules also dealt with the management of police, prisons, etc., in their States.

The Secretary of State having decided in 1891 that these States do not form part of British India, new Sanads (Nos. CXXXVI-CXXXVII) were granted to the Chiefs in 1899, fixing their tribute for a period of 20 years. On the partition of Bengal in 1905 these were superseded by Sanads (Nos. CXXXVIII-CXXXIX), dated the 23rd December 1905, fixing their tribute for a period of 14 years.
In 1882 an appeal was preferred to the High Court by one Metha Kharia against a conviction and sentence passed upon him by the Commissioner of Chota Nagpur. The offence was committed in Gangpur, and the case was referred by the Chief of that State to the Commissioner for trial. The accused was tried in Lohardaga. The case was heard by a Divisional Bench of the High Court, which rejected the appeal on the ground that the Court had no powers to interfere. The powers exercised by British Courts in respect of criminal cases arising in these States were regularised by the Notifications of the Government of India in the Foreign Department No. 640-I. B., dated the 8th March 1899 and No. 301-I. B., dated 22nd January 1904, and the law and procedure by which such Courts were to be guided were indicated by the same Department's Notification No. 2690-I. B., dated the 16th September 1899.

The present Chief of Bonai, Raja Indra Deo, was born on the 6th January 1884 and succeeded his father, Raja Chandra Deo, on the 19th February 1902. The State is under Government management.

The area of Bonai is 1,296 square miles; revenue Rs. 90,782; population, by the census of 1901, 38,277; and tribute Rs. 500. It possesses 2 unserviceable guns.

Raja Raghunath Sikhar Deo, the present Chief of Gangpur, succeeded to the gadi in December 1865. He was born on the 25th January 1852, and took over charge of the State in January 1871. Owing to his mal-administration of the State, the Raja was required in 1900 to appoint a Diwan selected by the Government of India.

In 1888 the Chief ceded civil and criminal jurisdiction over the lands in his State required by the Bengal-Nagpur Railway.

In February 1894 the Raja granted a goldmining lease, and in February 1898 and May 1902 leases for quarrying lime and limestone to Edward Golding Barton. The leases are for 30 years each.

The area of Gangpur is 2,492 square miles; revenue Rs. 2,85,566; population, by the census of 1901, 238,896; and tribute Rs. 1,250. It possesses (1905) 45 armed police.

Both States are liable to the nazarana rules.

_Boora, Kalahandi or Karond, Patna, Rairakhrol, and Sonpur_ were formerly included among the Chiefs in the Chhattisgarh Commissionership, and their early general history is dealt with in Part IV (Central Provinces).
Kabuliats were executed in 1827 (see No. CLXVIII) by these five Chiefs which fixed their revenues payable to Government, nominally for five years, but at the expiry of that period the agreements were not renewed. A separate Engagement (see No. CLXIX) was at the same time taken from each Chief binding him to use rightly the judicial and police powers entrusted to him. In practice the powers of the Chiefs in criminal cases were limited to the infliction of seven years' imprisonment. In 1866 Sanads (No. CXL), dated the 20th May 1865, guaranteeing the Chiefs the right of adoption, were forwarded to the Commissioner of Chhattisgarh for delivery to the Chiefs of Bamra, Kalahandi, Patna, and Sonpur. The one granted to Raja Bishan, Chandar Zenamuni of Rairakhol, is dated the 23rd May 1866 (No. CXL), as previous to that time he had not been recognized as a Feudatory Chief. In the following year Sanads, dated the 4th September 1867, (No. CXLII) were granted to these Chiefs recognizing them as feudatories and fixing their tribute for 20 years. The one which was prepared for Patna, however, could not be delivered formally to the Chief, owing to trouble in the State at the time which led to its being taken under Government management. In 1889 the sanad was forwarded to the Superintendent of the State for safe custody, and, after the release of the State from direct management, it was handed over to the Raja. In February 1888 the tribute payable by the Chiefs was enhanced. On the 23rd December 1905, after the partition of Bengal, fresh Sanads (Nos. CXLIII to CXLVII) were granted to them, fixing their tribute for 20 years with effect from 1888.

(20) Bamra.

Bamra originally formed one of the Sambalpur and Patna, or Garhjat, group, whose Chiefs were at first independent but were subsequently in subordination to the Maharaja of Patna, the most powerful of their number.

Tribhuvan Singh, Chief of Bamra, died in May 1869, and was succeeded by his nephew, Raja Sudhal Deo, who was born in 1848. He was appointed to be a Companion of the Indian Empire in 1889, and in 1895 was raised to the Knight Commandership of the same Order. He died on the 15th November 1903, and was succeeded by his eldest son, Raja Tribhuvan Deo, who was born in 1873.
By a Document executed on the 15th February 1891 (No. CXLVIII) the Chief made over to the British Government certain lands, with the jurisdiction thereon, required for the Bengal-Nagpur Railway Company.

The area of the State is 1,988 square miles; revenue Rs. 1,97,803; population, by the census of 1901, 123,378; and tribute Rs. 1,500. It possesses (1905) 60 armed police.

Bamra is liable to the nazarana rules.

(21) KALAHANDI OR KAROUND.

Under the Marathas this State paid a tribute of Rs. 5,330 in Nagpur coin, but the amount was reduced to Rs. 4,500 under the last Raja of Nagpur.

Subject to Karound is the petty Chiefship of Thuamul held by a branch of the Karond family. The Thuamul family again is divided into an elder and a younger branch: the head of the former succeeding to the Chiefship with the title of Pat Raja, the head of the latter to the administration of the country with the title of Tat Raja. This custom led to constant feuds between the Tat and Pat Rajas: disputes also occurred between Karond and Jaipur, occasioned by claims of the latter to supremacy over the pargana of Kashipur, a part of Thuamul. The Nagpur Government therefore determined to separate Thuamul from Karond and to leave its administration in the hands of the Tat Raja. These orders were confirmed by Government in 1862, and the claims of Jaipur to Kashipur were at the same time disallowed. In 1866, however, it was found that the disputes between the Pat and Tat Rajas still continued. Thuamul was therefore divided between them, the Tat Raja retaining Kashipur and paying a proportionate share of the tribute. The territory under the Pat Raja was restored to the jurisdiction of the Chief of Karond, and the remaining territory was given as a separate zamindari to the Tat Raja. In 1869 the Tat Raja also was placed under the feudal control of the Karond Chief.

Raja Udit Pratap Deo, who at the Delhi Darbar held on the 1st January 1877 had been granted a personal salute of 9 guns, subsequently converted into a permanent one in 1878, and the personal title of Raja Bahadur, died in 1881, having previously adopted as his heir Raghu Keshar Deo, who was born in 1872. He had at a considerably earlier period adopted one Rambhadra Sai, but had cancelled the adoption in consequence of the youth's misconduct. The claim of Raghu Keshar Deo as heir was recognised by the Government of India and he succeeded accordingly. There thence arose a dispute as to the succession, and the opportunity was taken by the Kandhs to prefer numerous complaints as to the oppression and mismanagement from which they had long suffered. Eventually the Kandhs rose in open rebellion and committed many excesses attended with bloodshed. The disturbances were suppressed with the aid of British troops; and a British officer was in 1882 appointed as Political Agent, with headquarters at Bhawani Patna, to manage the State. This arrangement continued till 1887, when the office of Political Agent for the State was merged into that of the newly created one of Political Agent for the Chhattisgarh Feudatories.

Raja Raghu Keshar Deo, who had been invested with full powers in January 1894, was murdered in October 1897 by one of his servants, and was succeeded by his son, Raja Brijmohan Deo, who was born in 1896. During his minority the State is under Government management.

The area of Karond is 3,745 square miles; revenue Rs. 1,85,429; population, by the census of 1901, 350,529; and tribute Rs. 12,000. It possesses (1905) 68 armed police.

The State is liable to the nazaraana rules.

The Raja of Karond is entitled to a salute of 9 guns fixed in 1878.

(22) Patna.

Hira Vajra Deo, Maharaja of Patna, died in August 1866, and was succeeded by Sur Pratap Deo. In 1869 the tyranny of the Chief and of his brother, Lal Bishwanath Singh, caused a rising among the Kandhs of Patna. They were speedily reduced, but not until Lal Bishwanath Singh and his followers had committed many atrocities in cold blood. For these crimes Lal Bishwanath Singh was removed from Patna, and an enquiry into the causes of the outbreak led to the deposition of the Chief, and the assumption of the management of the State by the British Government. This occurred in 1871.

Maharaja Sur Pratap Deo, who was a Chauhan Rajput and the twenty-sixth representative of the family, died in 1878, leaving no male issue. He was succeeded by his nephew, Ramchandra Singh, born in 1872, the son of Lal Bishwanath Singh. Maharaja Ramchandra Singh Deo shot himself on the 8th June 1895, and was succeeded by the present Chief, his uncle, Maharaja Dalganjjan Singh Deo, born in 1857. The management of the State was entrusted to him on certain conditions, which have since been to some extent relaxed.

The area of Patna is 2,399 square miles; revenue Rs. 1,48,097; population, by the census of 1901, 277,748; and tribute Rs. 8,500. It possesses (1905) 80 armed police.

The State is liable to the nazarana rules.

(23) RAIRAKHOL.

The Chief of this State was not at first included in the list of feudatories, at the time of their classification in 1865, on the ground of his mal-administration. This was subsequently ascertained to have been due to the acts of one of the Chief's brothers, who managed the State for him during his illness, and, as the Chief had shown conspicuous loyalty in 1857, he was recognised in May 1866 as a feudatory, and in the same year he was granted a Sanad of Adoption (No. CXLII). A Sanad defining his status as a feudatory Chief was granted to him in the following year (No. CXLII).

Raja Bishan Chandar Janamuni, who was born in 1819, succeeded in 1825. Owing to his mismanagement of his State it became necessary in 1889 to appoint a Diwan, who administered the State under the supervision of the Political Agent. Bishan Chandar Janamuni died on the 10th June 1900, and was succeeded by his grandson, Raja Gur Chandra Deo, who was born in 1871. Certain restrictions, which were placed on his powers at the time of his succession, were removed in 1904. The Raja attended the Delhi Coronation Darbar in January 1903.

The area of Rairakhol is 833 square miles; revenue Rs. 58,167; population, by the census of 1901, 26,888; and tribute Rs. 800. It possesses (1905) 10 armed police.

The State is liable to the nazarana rules.

(24) SONPUR.

This family is an offshoot from the former ruling house of Sambalpur. Raja Niladhar Singh Deo, who was born in 1839 and succeeded in 1840, received the personal title of Bahadur for services to the British Government. Owing to the unsatisfactory management of his State a Diwan was appointed in 1887, to assist the Raja in his administration, under the supervision of the Political Agent. Raja Niladhar Singh died on the 11th September 1891, and was succeeded by his eldest son, Pratap Rudra Singh Deo, who in 1898 received the title of Raja Bahadur, in recognition of his excellent administration. The present Chief, Raja Bir Mitradaya Singh Deo, was born in 1874, and succeeded his father in August 1902. He was present at the Delhi Coronation Darbar in January 1903.

The area of the State is 906 square miles; revenue Rs. 1,22,415; population, by the census of 1901, 169,877; and tribute Rs. 9,000. It has (1905) 30 armed police.

The State is liable to the nazaraana rules.
TREATY ENGAGEMENT executed by the RAJAH OF KILLAH KANJAVA, a Tributary Mehal subordinate to Cuttack, to the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY'S SPECIAL COMMISSIONERS for the SOOBAH of ORISSA, MESSRS. HARCOURT and MELVILLE,—1803.

I, Rajah Balabhadra Bhunuj, Rajah of Killah Kanika, in the Soobah of Orissa, engage faithfully and correctly to abide by this Engagement, entered into by me with the Honorable East India Company as contained in the following Clauses, to wit:

Clause 1.—I will always hold myself in submission and loyal obedience to the Honorable East India Company aforesaid.

Clause 2.—I will continue to pay, without demur, to the said Government, as my annual peshkus or tribute, 84,840 kahuns of Cowrees, in three instalments, as specified herein below.

Clause 3.—I will on demand to that effect, cause any person who is an inhabitant of the Soobah appertaining to the Honorable Company aforesaid, and who may have fled and come into my territory, to be forthwith arrested and delivered over to the Government.

Clause 4.—Should any person, who is a resident in my territories, commit a crime within the limits of the Mogulbundi, I hereby engage, on demand to that effect, to cause such person to be arrested and delivered over for trial to the Government Authority. Moreover, I further bind myself, in cases where I may possess any claim or demand on one who is an inhabitant of the Mogulbundi, not of my own authority to enforce such claim; but I will notify the same to the constituted authority and will act in accordance with such orders as may issue from him.

Clause 5.—I engage that whenever the troops of the Honorable Company's Government shall pass through my territories, I will direct the people of my Killah to supply, to the extent of their capability, all rassud and supplies, which shall be sold at fair prices. Further, I will, on no manner of pretext whatever, ever stop or detain, or offer any let or hindrance to, any subject of the Honorable Company's Government, or to any other person whatever, who may be proceeding by land or water, with goods or orders, or with any perwannah on the part of the Government, through my boundaries, and will rather take care that no loss or mischief shall befall such parties in life or goods.

Clause 6.—In case any neighbouring Rajah or any other person whatever shall disobey the said Government, I engage, on demand and without demur, to depute a contingent force of my own troops with the forces of Government for the purpose of rebuking and chastising such rebel and bringing him under the subjection of the aforesaid Government. Such contingent to receive only rations agreeably to the previously current practice, so long as they shall be present.

These shall be the instalments of my peshkus, to be paid:—

In the month of Cheyt. . . . . . . . . 28,840 kahuns.

Ditto. Jeyt . . . . . . . 28,000 "

Ditto. Asar . . . . . . . 28,000 "

NO. XCVIII.

KAOOL-NAMAH granted by the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY'S COMMISSIONERS for the SOOBAH of CUTTACK to RAJAH BALABHADRA BHUNJ, RAJAH of KANIK, —1803.

We, Lieutenant-Colonel George Harcourt, commanding the victorious troops of the Honorable East India Company and Commissioner of the Soobah of Orissa, and John Melville, Commissioner of the same, appointed by the Most Noble the Marquis of Wellesley, Governor-General, for the settlement and pacification of the said Soobah, do, on behalf of the East India Company, execute this acknowledgment as set forth in the following paras. to Rajah Balabhadra Bhunj, Rajah of Killah Kanika, in the said Soobah of Orissa.

Clause 1.—The annual peshkus payable by the Rajah for his Rajgee of the said Killah, is fixed in perpetuity at 84,840 kahunas.

Clause 2.—No further demand, however small, shall be made on the said Rajah or received from him, as nuzzur, supplies, or otherwise.

Clause 3.—The Government of the Honorable East India Company, it is well known, is ever gracious to those Rajahs who are always loyal and obedient to them, and constant in the impartial administration of justice to all its subjects alike, and therefore in like manner extends the same impartiality to the Rajahs, such as have been indicated above, and seeks always their prosperity and peace. Therefore any just representation or complaints made to the Government by the said Rajah of Kanika will meet with a decision in accord with justice.

Dated 22nd November 1803.

Saban 6th, 1211.

Recognisance or Engagement taken from the Chief Officers of the Rajah of Killah Nursingpore, a Tributary Estate, Subordinate to Cuttack, to secure the prevention of the practice of "Suttee." Executed by Balkroostno Putnaik Baburta, or Chief Minister of the Rajah, Gun-gadur Chamookarun Putnaik, Neel Bahare Mahantee, Dusruthree Putnaik, and Lokenath Putnaik, officers of the Rajah's household,—1842.

We, the Baburta and others, officers of the Rajah of Killah Nursingpore, hereby bind ourselves as follows:—

It having been stated, in accordance with the commands of the Home Government and the Governor-General, in clause 2 of the Rules of Practice issued by the Superintendent of the Tributary Mehals, that the practice of "Suttee," or the burning of living Hindoo females, is altogether prohibited: We therefore and accordingly have forbidden this practice within the limits of this Killah of Nursingpore, and we do bind ourselves never voluntarily, or under compulsion, to lend our aid to the performance of any such rite, so prohibited by the Superintendent of the Tributary Mehals, or to allow others to do so.

Further, if on the demise of a Rajah, and any of his Ranees should actually desire to become "Suttees," and should disregard our prohibition, we will restrain them from becoming "Suttees," and make a report of the circumstance to the Superintendent, and conform to such orders as we may receive from him. Without the Superintendent's orders (or permission) we will not allow any person to become a Suttee. And we engage unhesitatingly to submit ourselves to any penal orders which the Superintendent of the Tributary Mehals may issue, if we shall act in any way contrary to the engagements of this Recognisance.

Dated 4th day of the month of Bysack 1249, corresponding to the 14th of April A.D. 1842.

Signed by Balkroostno Putnaik and Others.

ADOPITION SUNNUD granted to CHIEFS* of the TRIBUTARY MEHALS of ORISSA,—1862.

HER MAJESTY being desirous that the Government of the several Princes and Chiefs of India who now govern their own territories should be perpetuated, and that the representation and dignity of their houses should be continued. In fulfilment of this desire this Sunudd is given to you to convey to you the assurance that, on failure of natural heirs, the British Government will permit and confirm any adoption of a successor made by yourself or by any future Chief of your State that may be in accordance with Hindoo law and the customs of your race.

Be assured that nothing shall disturb the engagement thus made to you so long as your house is loyal to the Crown and faithful to the conditions of the Treaties, grants or engagements, which record its obligations to the British Government.

No. CII.

Sanad granted to the Chief of Athgarh, defining his status, powers, and position with reference to the British Government, —1894.

Whereas the status and position with reference to the British Government of the Tributary Mahal of Athgarh in Orissa has hitherto been undefined, and doubts have from time to time arisen with regard thereto; His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council is pleased to grant to you Raja Sree Karan Raghunath Babarta Patnaik the following sanad, with a view to assuring you that the British Government will continue, as long as you remain loyal to the Crown and abide by the conditions of the sanad, and of your other engagements with the British Government, to maintain you in the position and privileges which you have heretofore enjoyed or which are now conferred upon you:

Sanad.

I.—You Raja Sree Karan Raghunath Babarta Patnaik, son of Raja Sree Karan Jagannath Babarta Patnaik, are hereby formally recognised as the Feudatory Chief of the Athgarh State, and you are permitted, as heretofore, to generally administer the territory of the said Athgarh State, subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed. In like manner your heirs and successors shall become entitled to your privileges, and liable to your obligations; provided that no succession shall be valid until it has been recognised by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council.

II.—You shall continue to pay the tribute or peshkash of rupees two thousand and eight hundred per annum, which you and your predecessors have heretofore paid.

III.—You shall try in your Courts all criminal cases occurring in your territory, except (I) those in which Europeans are concerned, and (II) heinous offences, such as murder, homicide, dakaits, robbery, and torture. You shall refer the cases excepted above for disposal to the Superintendent of the Tributary Mahals or to such of his Assistants as he may indicate. Sentences passed by you on criminal offenders shall be regulated by the instructions issued from time to time for your guidance by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and shall not exceed [unless His Honour is pleased to entrust you with more extensive powers, in which case you shall be entitled to exercise such further powers in the manner, to the extent, and subject to the conditions, if any, which His Honour may prescribe in the case of imprisonment, a term of two years, in the case of fines, a sum of one thousand rupees, and in the case of whipping, thirty stripes. All orders passed by you in criminal cases shall be subject to revision by the Superintendent, to whom you shall send the records of any case for which he may call.

IV.—You shall deliver up any offender from British or other territory, who may take refuge in your State. You shall aid British officers who may pursue criminals into your territory, and, in the event of offenders from your own State taking refuge in British or other territory, you shall make a representation on the matter to the authorities concerned.

V.—You shall administer justice fairly, and impartially to all alike.

VI.—You shall recognise and maintain the rights of all your people, and you shall on no account oppress them or suffer them to be in any way oppressed.

VII.—You shall levy no transit duties on grain, merchandise or any article of commerce passing through your State.

VIII.—You shall consult the Superintendent of the Tributary Mahals in all important matters of administration, and comply with his wishes. The settlement and collection of the land-revenue, the imposition of taxes, the administration of justice, arrangements connected with excise, salt and opium, the concession of mining, forest and other rights, disputes arising out of any such concession, and disputes in which other States are concerned, shall be regarded as specially important matters, and in respect to them you shall at all times conform to such advice as the Superintendent of the Tributary Mahals may give you.

IX.—The right to catch elephants in your State is granted to you as a personal concession and as a matter of favour, but this concession is liable to withdrawal whenever it may seem desirable either on account of abuse or for other reasons, and it will not necessarily be granted to your successor.

X.—All questions as to boundaries between your State and British territory will be dealt with by the Superintendent of the Tributary Mahals or such other officer as His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal may appoint either generally or specially, in that behalf, with two assessors, one to be appointed by yourself and the other by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, unless in any such case you should prefer that the question should be decided by such Superintendent, or other officer alone, in which case the question shall be referred for his decision accordingly.

SIMLA;

The 27th October 1894.

TREATY ENGAGEMENT executed by the RAJAH of BOAD and ATMULLICK, a TRIBUTARY MEHAL SUBORDINATE to CUTTACK, to the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY'S SPECIAL COMMISSIONERS, MESSRS. HARCOURT and MELVILLE,—1804.

I, Rajah Bissumbur Deo, Rajah of Boad and Atmullick, in the Soobah of Orissa, engage faithfully and correctly to abide by this engagement entered into by me with the Honorable East India Company, as contained in the following clauses, to wit:—

Clause 1.—I will always hold myself in submission and loyal obedience to the Honorable East India Company aforesaid.

Clause 2.—I will, on demand to that effect, cause any person who is an inhabitant of the Soobah appertaining to the Honorable Company aforesaid, and who may have fled and come into my territory, to be forthwith arrested and delivered over to the Government.

Clause 3.—I engage that whenever the troops of the Honorable Company's Government shall pass through my territories, I will direct the people of my Killah to supply, to the extent of their capability, all "ruddud" and supplies, which shall be sold at fair prices. Further, I will, on no manner of pretext whatever, ever stop or detain, or offer any let or hindrance to, any subject of the Honorable Company's Government, who may be proceeding by land or water through my boundaries, and will rather take care that no loss or inconvenience shall befall such parties in life or goods.

Clause 4.—In case any neighbouring party whatever shall offer opposition to the said Government, I engage, on demand and without demur, to depute a contingent force of my own troops with the forces of Government for the purpose of coercion of such rebel recusant. Such contingent to receive only rations (or ration allowance) agreeably to the previously current practice, so long as they shall be present.

Counter-engagement executed on behalf of Government to Rajah Bissumbur Deo, Rajah of Killah Boad and Atmullick,—1804.

We, Lieutenant-Colonel George Harcourt, commanding the victorious troops of the Honorable East India Company, and Commissioner of the Soobah of Orissa, and John Melville, Commissioner of the same, appointed by the most Noble the Marquis of Wellesley, Governor-General, for the settlement and pacification of the said Soobah, do, on behalf of the East India Company, execute this Engagement, as set forth in the following para. to Rajah Bissumbur Deo of Killah Boad and Atmullick, in the said Soobah of Orissa:

Clause 1.—It is well known that those Rajahs who hold themselves in subordination and friendship with the said Government, are ever treated with gracious consideration by that Government; those who are its friend are treated as friends. If, therefore, you should prove yourself a friend and a well-wisher of that Government, it will never fail to act towards you in a like friendly manner. You will without care or disquiet continue to enjoy your Rajigee, and to maintain a friendly spirit in subordination and obedience to this Government, Translation of a Kabuliyyut executed by Rajah Chandra Sikhurst Deo, Zemindar of Boadh, dated November 1821.

I, Rajah Chandra Sikhurst Deo, zemindar of Boadh, do hereby promise to pay Rs. 3,750 sicca kaledar, the amount of tribute fixed by the Honourable the East India Company for my entire estate, without pleading any excuse on the score of calamity, for a period of five years from 1231 to 1235 Nagpuri year. I, of my own free will and accord, promise to pay the same sum year by year according to the instalments noted below into the Sumbulpur treasury. I will make no excuse for non-payment; wherefore I write these few lines in the shape of a kabuliyyut to be used when required.

No. CXXIV.

Translation of an Agreement executed by Rajah Chandra Sikhurst Deo, Zemindar of Boadh, dated 17th February 1827, corresponding with 8th Falgon 1234 Fusli, or 1236 Nagpuri year.

Whereas the police duties of my entire zamindari have been entrusted to me by the Government, and I have voluntarily accepted the obligation, I do therefore promise and place on record that I will discharge the duties thereof faithfully and honestly; and whatever suits may be instituted within my jurisdiction for money transaction, &c., I will decide them conscientiously and impartially, and will listen to all objections that may be brought forward, and decide the cases properly. If both parties shall agree to have their disputes settled by arbitration, I will appoint arbitrators, and instruct them to adjust the case without partiality. In the heinous criminal cases, viz., dacoity, plunder, murder, wounding, burglary, theft, and highway robbery, &c., which may occur in my zamindari, I will make thorough inquiries and apprehend the offenders, take evidence and honestly decide the cases. I will send reports of all such cases to the authorities. I will transmit the monthly papers on the 5th of the succeeding month to Sumbulpur by post, and will not conceal any crime. I will not oppress the ryots or inhabitants of my illakata. I will keep a vigilant watch on my amlah. that they may not oppress any body. I will not levy the prohibited cesses nor confine any one on account of it. I have no claim on the intestate property—it belongs to Government; and whatever property of this kind may come into my hands, I will retain in my custody and report about it to the authorities. If I act contrary to the following stipulations, I shall be held responsible for it, and if it is proved against me, I shall submit to the penalties that may be inflicted on me. Wherefore I write these few lines in the shape of an agreement to be used when required.

Supdt., Tributary Mehals of Orissa.

I, Rajah Petamber Deo, of Killah Boad, have received the original sunnud, of which this is a counterfoil, and I hereby agree to be strictly bound by the terms therein contained.
TRE Ty ENE NGAGEMENT executed by GOUREE CHURN BHUNJ, RAJAH of Killah DSPULLA, a Hill State Tributary to Cuttack, to the HONORABLE COMPANY’S SPECIAL COMMISSIONERS for the SOOBAH of ORISSA, MESSRS. HARcourt and MELVILLE.

I, Rajah Gourree Churn Bhunj of Killah Duspulla, in the Soobah of Orissa, do hereby engage faithfully and correctly to abide by this Engagement entered into by me with the Honorable East India Company, and contained in the following Clauses, to wit:—

Clause 1.—I will always hold myself in submission and loyal obedience to the Honorable East India Company aforesaid.

Clause 2.—I hereby engage to preserve in safe keeping the “Ghattee” or pass called Burmool, and if at any time troops, horse or foot, without the orders of the said Company’s Government, endeavour to cross the said Pass, I engage to prevent them so doing. In case any larger body of troops should endeavour to force the Pass, I will forward immediate intimation of the circumstance to the constituted authorities, and meanwhile, till such time as the Government troops shall arrive on the spot, I will oppose the forcing of the Pass with my own forces.

Clause 3.—I will, on demand to that effect, cause any person who is an inhabitant of the Soobah appertaining to the Honorable Company aforesaid, and who may have fled and come into my territory, to be forthwith arrested and delivered over to the Government.

Clause 4.—Should any person who is a resident in my territories commit a crime within the limits of the Mogulbundi, I hereby engage, on demand to that effect, to cause such person to be arrested and delivered over to the Government Authorities. Moreover, I further bind myself, in cases where I may possess any claim or demand on one who is an inhabitant of the Mogulbundi, not of my own authority to enforce such claim, but I will notify the same to the constituted authority, and will act in accordance with such orders as may issue from him.

Clause 5.—I engage that whenever the troops of the Honorable Company’s Government shall pass through my territories, I will direct the people of my Killah to supply to the extent of their capability all “ruddus” and supplies, which shall be sold at fair prices. Further, I will, on no manner of pretext whatever ever stop or detain, or offer any let or hindrance to, any subject of the Honorable Company’s Government or to any other person whatsoever, who may be proceeding by land or water, with goods or orders, or with any Perwannah on the part of Government through my boundaries, and will rather take care that no loss or inconvenience shall befall such parties in life or goods.
Clause 6.—In case any neighbouring Rajah, or any other person whatever, shall offer opposition to the said Government, I engage, on demand and without demur, to depute a contingent force of my own troops with the forces of Government for the purposes of coercion and investigation, and the bringing of such recusant into subjection to the aforesaid Government, such contingent to receive only rations (or ration allowance) agreeably to the previously current practice, so long as they shall be present.

KAOOL-NAMAH or COUNTER-ENGAGEMENT given on behalf of the Government to RAJAH GOURREE CHURN BHUNJ of KILLAH DUSPULLA, by the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY'S COMMISSIONER for the SOOBAH of CUTTACK.

We, Lieutenant-Colonel George Harcourt, commanding the victorious troops of the Honorable East India Company and Commissioner of the Soobah of Orissa, and John Melville, Commissioner of the same, appointed by the Most Noble the Marquis of Wellesley, Governor General, for the settlement and pacification of the said Soobah, do, on behalf of the East India Company, execute this Engagement, as set forth in the following paras, to Rajah Gourree Churn Bhunj, Rajah of Killah Duspulla, in the said Soobah of Orissa.

Clause 1.—So long as he shall remain obedient and loyal to the Government of the East India Company, no Feshkus, or tribute, or payment, or nuzzur, or other demand shall be made on the said Rajah, or taken from him for the Rajgee of the said Rajah's Killah.

Clause 2.—The Government of the Honorable East India Company, it is well known, is ever gracious to those Rajahs who are always loyal and obedient to them, and constant in the impartial administration of justice to all its subjects alike, and therefore in like manner extends the same impartiality to the Rajahs, such as have been indicated above, and seeks always their prosperity and peace—therefore any just representation or complaints made to the Government by the said Rajah of Duspulla will meet with a decision in accord with justice.

TREATY ENGAGEMENT executed by the RAJAH of KILLAH KEONJHUR, a Tributary Mehal subordinate to Cuttack, to the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY'S SPECIAL COMMISSIONERS for the SOOBAB of ORISSA, MESSRS. HARcourt and MELVILLE,—1804.

I, Rajah Junardun Bhnj, of Killah Keonjhir, in the Soobab of Orissa, engage faithfully and correctly to abide by this Engagement, entered into by me with the Honorable East India Company, as contained in the following Clauses, to wit:

Clause 1.—I will continue in constant friendship with the Honorable East India Company, holding myself in submission and loyalty to them, and regarding their enemies as my enemies.

Clause 2.—I will continue to pay, without demur, to the said Government as my annual peshkus or tribute 12,000 kahuns of Cowrees in three instalments, as specified herein below.

Clause 3.—I will, on demand to that effect, cause any person who is an inhabitant of the Soobab appertaining to the Honorable Company aforesaid, and who may have fled and come into my territory, to be forthwith arrested and delivered over to the Government.

Clause 4.—Should any person, who is a resident in my territories, commit a crime within the limits of the Mogulbundi, I hereby engage, on demand to that effect, to cause such person to be arrested and delivered over to the Government Authority. Moreover, I further bind myself, in cases where I may possess any claim or demand on one who is an inhabitant of the Mogulbundi, not of my own authority to enforce such claim, but I will notify the same to the constituted authority, and will act in accordance with such orders as may issue from him.

Clause 5.—I will take measures of precaution and care within my own territories, so as to prevent the passage, within my boundaries, of any troops, horse or foot, who may be the enemies of the said Company.

The tribute to be paid in the following instalments, to wit:

In the month of Cheft ... 4,000 kahuns.
Ditto ditto Jeyt ... 4,000 "
Ditto ditto Asar ... 4,000 "

Kaool-namah or Counter-engagement given on behalf of the Government to Jonardun Bhunj, Rajah of Killah Keonjhir, 16th December* and delivered to Persadee Doss, Vakeel.

We, Lieutenant-Colonel George Harcourt, Commanding the victorious troops of the Honorable East India Company, and Commissioner of the Soobah of Orissa, and John Melville, Commissioner of the same, appointed by the Most Noble the Marquis of Wellesley, Governor-General, for the settlement and pacification of the said Soobah, do, on behalf of the East India Company, execute this acknowledgment, as set forth in the following paras., to Rajah Jonardun Bhunj of Killah Keonjhir in the said Soobah of Orissa.

Clause 1.—We agree that the whole of the lands, whether called Mogulbundi or by any other name, which were in the possession and enjoyment of the said Rajah of Keonjhir, during the time of the Mahratta Sovereignty, shall belong in perpetuity to the said Rajah of Keonjhir, and further, we agree that besides the peshkus (or tribute) hereinafter specified, no demands shall be made or levied from him.

Clause 2.—The annual peshkus (or tribute) payable for the Rajgee of the said Killah, is fixed in perpetuity at 12,000 kahuns of Cowrees and no further payment, however trifling, whether as Nuzzur or supplies, or under whatsoever name, shall be demanded or taken from the said Rajah.

Clause 3.—Any just representation made by the Rajah of the said Killah shall receive, on the part of the Honorable Company’s Government, an answer in accord with the amity subsisting with the said Rajah.

NO. CXXX.

SANAD granted to the Chief of Keonjhir, defining his status, powers, and position with reference to the British Government,—1898.

Whereas the status and position with reference to the British Government of the Tributary Mahal of Keonjhir in Orissa has hitherto been undefined, and doubts have from time to time arisen with regard thereto, His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council is pleased to grant to you, Maharaja Dhunurjoy Narain Bhunj Deo, the following sanad, with a view to assuring you that the British Government will continue, as long as you remain loyal to the Crown and abide by the conditions of the Sanad, and of your other engagements with the British Government, to maintain you in the position and privileges which you have heretofore enjoyed or which are now conferred upon you:

SANAD.

I.—You, Maharaja Dhunurjoy Narain Bhunj Deo, son of Maharaja Gadadhur Narain Bhunj, are hereby formally recognised as the Feudatory Chief of the Keonjhir State, and you are permitted, as heretofore, to generally administer the territory of the said Keonjhir State, subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed. In like manner your heirs and successors shall become entitled to your privileges, and liable to your obligations; provided that no succession shall be valid until it has been recognised by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council.

II.—You shall continue to pay the tribute or peshkash of Rupees One thousand seven hundred and ten, anna one and pies three per annum, which you and your predecessors have heretofore paid, exclusive of the tribute or peshkash of Rupees two hundred and sixty-six, annas ten and pies eight payable to your credit by the Chief of Pal Lahera.

III.—You shall try in your Courts all criminal cases occurring in your territory, except (I) those in which Europeans are concerned, and (II) heinous offences, such as murder, homicide, dacoity, robbery, and torture. You shall refer the cases excepted above for disposal to the Superintendent of the Tributary Mahals or to such of his Assistants as he may indicate. Sentences passed by you on criminal offenders shall be regulated by the instructions issued from time to time for your guidance by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and shall not exceed [unless His Honour is pleased to entrust you with more extensive powers, in which case you shall be entitled to exercise such further powers, in the manner, to the extent, and subject to the conditions, if any, which His Honour may prescribe] in the case of imprisonment, a term of two years, in the case of fines, a sum of one thousand rupees, and in the case of whipping, thirty stripes. All orders passed by you in criminal cases shall be subject to revision by the Superintendent, to whom you shall send the records of any case for which he may call.

IV.—You shall deliver up any offender from British or other territory, who may take refuge in your State. You shall aid British officers who may pursue criminals into your territory, and, in the event of offenders from your own State taking refuge in British or other territory, you shall make a representation on the matter to the authorities concerned.

V.—You shall administer justice fairly and impartially to all alike.

VI.—You shall recognise and maintain the rights of all your people, and you shall on no account oppress them or suffer them to be in any way oppressed.

VII.—You shall levy no transit duties on grain, merchandise or any article of commerce passing through your State.

VIII.—You shall consult the Superintendent of the Tributary Mahals in all important matters of administration, and comply with his wishes. The settlement and collection of the land-revenue, the imposition of taxes, the administration of justice, arrangements connected with excise, salt and opium, the concession of mining, forest, and other rights, disputes arising out of any such concession, and disputes in which other States are concerned, shall be regarded as specially important matters, and in respect to them you shall at all times conform to such advice as the Superintendent of the Tributary Mahals may give you.

IX.—The right to catch elephants in your State is granted to you as a personal concession and as a matter of favour, but this concession is liable to withdrawal whenever it may seem desirable either on account of abuse or for other reasons, and it will not necessarily be granted to your successor.

X.—All questions as to boundaries between your State and British territory will be dealt with by the Superintendent of the Tributary Mahals or such other officer, as His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal may appoint either generally or specially, in that behalf, with two accessors, one to be appointed by yourself and the other by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, unless in any such case you should prefer that the question should be decided by such Superintendent, or other officer alone, in which case the question shall be referred for his decision accordingly.

TREATY ENGAGEMENT executed by the RAJA OF KILLAH MOHUR BHUNJ, a Tributary Mehal subordinate to Cuttack, in the SOOBAH of ORISSA,—1829.

I, Rajah Judoonauth Bhunj, Bahadoor, of Killah Mohurbhunj, of Cuttack, do enter truly and honestly into this Engagement executed by me to the Government of the Honorable East India Company as hereinafter contained, to wit:—

Clause 1.—I will always maintain myself in submission and loyalty to the Honorable East India Company's Government.

Clause 2.—I engage for myself and my heirs and successors to pay annually in perpetuity, and without demur or excuse, as peshkus for the said Killah, 1,001 Sicca rupees, in the following instalments, to the said Government.

Clause 3.—If any resident of the said Soobah of Orissa should flee and come into my territories, I engage, on demand, to cause him to be immediately apprehended, and send him on to the authorities (for the time being).

Clause 4.—If any ryot belonging to my territories should commit an offence within the Mogulbundi boundaries, then, on demand to that effect, I engage to cause such offender to be apprehended and sent to the Authorities for trial. And should I have ground of claim on any resident of the Mogulbundi, I will refrain from enforcing such claim on such person of my own motion, but will notify the circumstance to the Authorities and act on such orders I may from him receive.

Clause 5.—I engage that whenever the troops of the Honorable Company's Government shall pass through my territories, I will direct the people of my Killah to supply, to the extent of their capability, all russud and supplies, which shall be sold at fair prices. Further, I will on no manner of pretext whatever, ever stop or detain, or offer any let or hindrance to, any subject of the Honorable Company's Government, or to any other person whatever, who may be proceeding by land or water with goods or orders, or with any perwannah on the part of Government through my boundaries, and will rather take care that no loss or inconvenience shall befall such parties in life or goods.

Clause 6.—In case any neighbouring Rajah or any other person whatever shall offer opposition to the said Government, I engage, on demand and without demur, to depute a contingent force of my own troops with the forces of Government for the purpose of coercion and the bringing of such recusant into subjection to the aforesaid Government. Such contingent to receive only rations (or ration allowance) agreeably to the previously current practice, so long as they shall be present.
Clause 7.— Whereas I have a six-anna claim on the Government on account of the Khoonta Ghat or Ferry, I now of my own free will relinquish such claim, and agree and hereby declare that any such claim made by me, or that shall be made by my heirs and successors shall be false, and to be rejected.

The instalments shall be as follows:

VIII.—You shall consult the Commissioner of Chota Nagpur in all important matters of administration and comply with his wishes. The settlement and collection of the land revenue, the imposition of taxes, the administration of justice, arrangements connected with excise, salt and opium, the concession of mining, forest, and other rights, disputes arising out of any such concession, and disputes in which other States are concerned, shall be regarded as specially important matters, and in respect to them you shall at all times conform to such advice as the Commissioner may give you.

IX.—The right to catch elephants in your State is granted to you as a personal concession and as a matter of favour, but this concession is liable to withdrawal whenever it may seem desirable either on account of abuse or for other reasons, and it will not necessarily be granted to your successor.

X.—All questions as to boundaries between your State and British or other territory will be dealt with by the Commissioner of Chota Nagpur or such other officers as the Government of India or His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal may appoint, either generally, or specially in that behalf, with two assessors, one of whom is to be nominated by yourself, unless in any such case you should prefer that the question should be decided by such Commissioner or other officer alone in which case the question shall be referred for his decision accordingly.

The 11th April 1899.

Viceroy and Governor-General of India.

No. CXXXVII.

Sanad granted to the Chief of Gangpur, defining his status, powers, and position with reference to the British Government,—1899.

Whereas the status and position with reference to the British Government of the Tributary Mahal of Gangpur in Chota Nagpur has hitherto been undefined, and doubts have from time to time arisen with regard thereto; His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council is pleased to grant to you, Raja Raghunath Sikhar Deo, the following sanad, with a view to assuring you that the British Government will continue, as long as you remain loyal to the Crown and abide by the conditions of the sanad, and of your other engagements with the British Government, to maintain you in the position and privileges which you have heretofore enjoyed or which are now conferred upon you:—

Sanad.

I.—You Raja Raghunath Sikhar Deo, son of Lal Pitamber Sikhar Deo, are hereby formally recognised as the Feudatory Chief of the Gangpur State, and you are permitted, as heretofore, to generally administer the territory of the said Gangpur State, subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed. In like manner your heirs and successors shall become entitled to your privileges and liable to your obligations; provided that no succession shall be valid until it has been recognised by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council.

II.—You shall, during the next twenty years, pay a tribute or peshkash of rupees one thousand two hundred and fifty, and this amount may be revised thereafter, if His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council should so direct. Your successors shall pay nazara to the British Government on succession in accordance with the general rules on that subject for the time being in force:—
These clauses are identical with the corresponding ones in the Sanad granted to Bonai (see No. CXXXVI).

SANAD granted to the Chief of Bonai, defining his status, powers, and position with reference to the British Government,—1905.

SANAD.

To—Raja Indra Deo.

Whereas the status and position with reference to the British Government of the Tributary Mahal of Bonai in Orissa has hitherto been undefined, and doubts have from time to time arisen with regard thereto; His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council is pleased to grant to you, Raja Indra Deo, the following sanad, in supersession of that granted to your father on the 11th April 1899, with a view to assuring you that the British Government will continue, as long as you remain loyal to the Crown and abide by the conditions of the sanad, and of your other engagements with the British Government, to maintain you in the position and privileges which you have heretofore enjoyed or which are now conferred upon you:

1. You Raja Indra Deo, son of Raja Chandra Deo, are hereby formally recognised as the Feudatory Chief of the Bonai State, and you are permitted as heretofore to administer generally the territory of the said Bonai State, subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed. In like manner your heirs and successors shall become entitled to your privileges and liable to your obligations; provided that no succession shall be valid until it has been recognised by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council.

2. You shall, during the next fourteen years, pay a tribute or peshkash of rupees five hundred, and this amount may be revised thereafter, if His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council should so direct. Your successors shall pay nazaraana to the British Government on succession in accordance with the general rules on that subject for the time being in force.

3. You shall conform in all matters concerning the preservation of law and order and the administration of justice generally, within the limits of your State, to the instructions issued from time to time for your guidance by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal. You will appoint such officers, and pay them such emoluments as, on full consideration of the circumstances and of such representations as you may wish to make, may, from time to time, appear necessary to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal for the proper hearing of cases and administration of justice in your State. It will also be competent to you to nominate for appointment by His Honour as Honorary Magistrates or Munsifs such other persons as you may wish to be so appointed from time to time.

4. You shall deliver up any offender from British or other territory who may take refuge in your State. You shall aid British officers who may pursue criminals into your territory, and, in the event of offenders from your own State taking refuge in British or other territory, you shall make a representation on the matter to the authority concerned;

5. You shall administer justice fairly and impartially to all alike.

6. You shall recognise and maintain the rights of all your people, and you shall on no account oppress them or suffer them to be in any way oppressed.

7. You shall levy no tolls or duties of any kind on grain, merchandise, or other articles passing into, or out of, or through, your State without the permission of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

8. You shall consult the Commissioner of Orissa, or any officer duly vested with authority by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, in all important matters of administration, and comply with his wishes. The settlement and collection of the land revenue, the imposition of taxes, the administration of justice, arrangements connected with excise, salt, and opium, the concession of forest and other rights, disputes arising out of any such concession, and disputes in which other States are concerned, shall be regarded as specially important matters, and in respect to them you shall at all times conform to such advice as the Commissioner of Orissa or such other officer may give you.

9. The right to catch elephants in your State is granted to you as a personal concession and as a matter of favour, but this concession is liable to withdrawal whenever it may seem desirable either on account of abuse or for other reasons, and it will not necessarily be granted to your successor.

Sunnud granted to Rajah Tribbookun Deo, of Bamra,—dated Simla, the 20th May 1865.

Her Majesty being desirous that the Governments of the several Princes and Chiefs of India who now govern their own territories should be perpetuated, and that the representation and dignity of their houses should be continued, in fulfilment of this desire, this Sunnud is given to you to convey to you the assurance that, on failure of natural heirs, the British Government will recognize and confirm any adoption of a successor made by yourself, or by any future Chief of your State, that may be in accordance with Hindoo law and the customs of your race.

2. Be assured that nothing shall disturb the engagement thus made to you so long as your house is loyal to the Crown and faithful to the conditions of the grants or engagements which record its obligations to the British Government.

(Sd.) JOHN LAWRENCE.

Lord Canning also issued a similar adoption Sanad in March 1862 to the Rajah of Kalahandi or Karond, and it is doubtful whether this or the one above was delivered to the Chief. Neither can be discovered (1906) among the Chief's own papers, but it is probable that the one above is the one actually given to him.

IV.—POLITICAL STATES OF CHOTA NAGPUR.

Saraikala and Kharsawan.—In 1833 the South-Western Frontier Agency was created which contained, among others, the nine States noted on the margin. The designation of the Agency was changed in 1854 to that of "Commissionership of Chota Nagpur." In October 1905 Sarguja, Udaipur, Jashpur, Korea, and Chang Bhakar were transferred to the Central Provinces, while Gangpur and Bonai were placed under the charge of the Commissioner of Orissa.

The Singhbhum country was never conquered by the Marathas, and was in the position of an independent State when Raja Ghansham Singh tendered his allegiance to the British Government in 1818. The object of the Raja in so doing was partly to be recognised as owning the allegiance of his kinsmen, the Raja of Saraikala and the Thakur of Kharsawan, whose estates are situated in the Singhbhum country, and partly to procure assistance in subduing the refractory tribe of the Larka Kols. The Raja's pretensions to supremacy were not recognised. An Agreement (No. CXLIX) was in 1820 taken from him only as regards his own estate. It is believed that separate engagements were taken from the Raja of Saraikala and the Thakur of Kharsawan, but no copies of these are extant.

(1) PORAHAT.

Part of the Estate of the Raja of Singhbhum, afterwards styled the Raja of Porahat, was confiscated in January 1858 for rebellion, and granted to the Raja of Saraikala and the Thakur of Kharsawan, while Rs. 97 paid as quit-rent by the Thakur of Anandpur, whose Estate was held in subordination to the Raja of Porahat, were remitted in perpetuity. The remainder of the Singhbhum Raja's Estate was sequestrated during the Raja's lifetime, and Government declared that on his death a member of his family should be re-instated in Porahat. Arjun Singh, the ex-Raja, was in 1862 granted an increased pension of Rs. 400, which was raised to Rs. 600 in 1888. He died in March 1890. By Act II of 1893 it was enacted that the Estate should thenceforth be part of the Singhbhum district. Certain portions of the Estate were granted in 1859 to divers individuals, and in 1895, by an Indenture dated the 4th October (No. CL), the unalienated portion was granted as an inalienable, impartible, revenue-free sanindari to Arjun Singh's only son, Kumar Narpat Singh, who was granted in November 1901 the title of Raja as a personal distinction.

In 1863 the Government of Bengal issued certain rules for the guidance of the Chiefs of the Tributary Mahals of Chota Nagpur in the administration of justice in their respective jurisdictions. By these rules the judicial powers of these Chiefs were limited to sentences of imprisonment up to two years, or to fines not exceeding Rs. 50; or, subject to confirmation by the Commissioner of Chota Nagpur, to sentences of imprisonment up to five years, and fines not exceeding Rs. 200. They had no powers of whipping, and all orders passed by them were subject to revision by the Commissioner. The rules also dealt with the management of police, prisons, etc., in their States.

In 1891 the Secretary of State decided that these States were not part of British India, and the Chiefs were formally recognised as feudatories in the new sanads granted them in 1899.

The powers exercised by British Courts in respect of criminal cases arising in these States have been regularised by the Notifications of the Foreign Department No. 640-I.B., dated the 8th March 1899, and No. 301-I.B., dated the 22nd January 1904, and the law and procedure by which such Courts are to be guided have been indicated by that Department's Notification No. 2690-I.B., dated the 16th September 1899.

The Commissioner of Chota Nagpur is Political Agent for the States, and is assisted by the Deputy Commissioner of Singhbhum.

(2) SARAIAKALA.

The Rajas of Saraikala have always been distinguished for loyalty to the British Government. Raja Ajambar Singh died in 1837 of illness brought on by exposure and fatigue in the Kol campaign, in the course of which he rendered important services. His son and successor, Raja Chakradhar Singh Deo, who in 1856 received the title of Raja Bahadur as a personal distinction, gave valuable assistance during the Singhbhum mutiny of 1857, and during the Keonjhar campaign in 1868. He was rewarded for his services on the former occasion with a khilat and with a portion of the sequestrated Estate of the Raja of Porahat, for which in 1860 he received a Sanad (No. CLI). Chakradhar Singh died in 1883, and was succeeded by his son, the present Raja, Kunwar Udit Narayan Singh, who was born on the 16th January 1849. On account of the services of his father and grandfather, as well as on account of his own character, the title of Raja Bahadur was in 1884 continued to the Kunwar as a personal distinction. In 1899 he was granted a Sanad (No. CLII).

In 1888 the Chief ceded civil and criminal jurisdiction over the lands required in his state by the Bengal-Nagpur Railway.

The area of Saraikala is 449 square miles; its population, according to the census of 1901, 104,539; and its revenue (1905) Rs. 1,05,629.
It pays no tribute. The State possesses (1905) 4 serviceable and 3 unserviceable guns.

Saraikala is liable to the nazaranat rules.

(3) Kharsawan.

Raja Ganga Ram Singh of Kharsawan was also rewarded for his services in the Singhbhum mutiny of 1857 with a portion of the sequestrated Estate of the Raja of Porahat, for which in 1860 he received a Sanad (No. CLIII.). The State, owing to the minority of the late Chief, on whom, like his predecessors, the title of Thakur was conferred as a personal distinction in 1891, was under the direct administration of Government from 1884 to 1890. In 1899, Thakur Mahendra Narayan Singh Deo was granted a Sanad (No. CLIV). He died on the 6th February 1902, and was succeeded by his son, Sriram Chandra Singh Deo, who was born on the 5th July 1892, during whose minority the State is again under Government management.

Mahendra Narayan Singh Deo ceded in 1888 civil and criminal jurisdiction over the lands required in his State by the Bengal-Nagpur Railway. He was then a minor, and the deed was also signed by his guardian, the Deputy Commissioner of Singhbhum. The deed was ratified in 1892 by the Thakur after attaining his majority.

Kharsawan contains an area of 153 square miles; and a population, according to the census of 1901, of 36,540. Its revenue (1905) was Rs. 40,010. It pays no tribute. The State possesses (1905) two unserviceable guns.

Kharsawan is liable to the nazaranat rules.

(4) Larka Kols.

The Larka Kols were subdued in 1821, and an Agreement (No. CLV) was made with them, by which they bound themselves to be subject to the British Government, and to pay a fixed tribute to their Chiefs. But in consequence of repeated outrages, it was found necessary to send a force against them in 1836, when fresh arrangements were verbally made and solemnly sworn to, by which they bound themselves to obey, and pay revenue to, the British Government. In 1838 each of the headmen received a Sanad (No. CLVI) and patta, in the former of which all the conditions which they had sworn to abide by were specified. Whenever a new headman is appointed he receives a sanad, and swears to abide by the conditions. In 1857 a large number of the Larka Kols espoused the cause of the Raja of Porahat, but on the restoration of order they reverted to peaceful pursuits.

TRANSLATION of a KUBOOLYUT taken from RAJAH GHUNSHAM SING DEO of PORAHAT, in SINGBHOOM, dated 1st February 1820.

Whereas His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General in Council has been graciously pleased to extend to me the protection of the Honourable Company, and to admit me within the list of Feudal Tributaries of the British Empire in India, I hereby engage and bind myself and my posterity to a loyal devotion to the interest of my new Sovereign, and the most implicit obedience to such orders as I or they may, from time to time, receive from a competent authority. I further engage for the purpose of marking my Feudal dependence on the British Government to pay an annual tribute of 101 Sicca Rupees to be given with the year 1225 (1st Bhadon) 1818, and to be paid in the month of Poos, to the person who may be appointed to receive it by His Lordship in Council.

Should I or my posterity wilfully fail in the observance of these stipulations, I hereby declare myself and them liable to such notice of, or punishment for, the infringement, as it may appear to the British Government for the time being to deserve.

TRANSLATION of the POTTAH given to RAJAH GHUNSHAM SING DEO of PORAHAT, in SINGBHOOM, dated 1st February 1820.

In return for the Engagement which you have executed and delivered to Captain Ruddell, I am authorized and directed by the British Government to assure you of the protection of the Honourable Company, the efficient benefit of which, in your maintenance in all your existing rights, privileges, and possessions, you and your posterity will continue to enjoy, so long as you and they shall faithfully abide by the stipulations to which you have pledged yourself and them.

INDENTURE relating to the grant of the ZAMINDARI of PORAHAT to KUMAR NARPAT SINGH, son of RAJA ARJUN SINGH, the late ex-RAJA of PORAHAT—1895.

THIS INDENTURE made the fourth day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five BETWEEN the SECRETARY of STATE FOR INDIA in COUNCIL, hereafter called the Secretary of State, of the one part and KUMAR NARPAT SINGH at present of Benares, son of Raja Arjun Singh deceased, the late ex-Raja of Porahat, of the other part.

WHEREAS the Raj Estate of Porahat prior to its confiscation by the British Government was a Tributary Native State in the nature of an impartible and inalienable Raj the succession to which was regulated by the custom of primogeniture.

AND WHEREAS in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight the said Arjun Singh the then Raja of Porahat was deposed and his estate was confiscated by the British Government and as from the date of such confiscation the said Porahat estate has been dealt with as British territory and the same was by proclamation declared and appointed by the Governor-General in Council to be subject to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and by Act II of 1893 of the said Governor-General in Council it was enacted that the estate should henceforth become and be part of the Singhbhum District.

AND WHEREAS certain portions of the said Porahat estate were afterwards granted to divers individuals by the Government of India.

AND WHEREAS the said Raja Arjun Singh died on or about the second day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety leaving the said Kumar Narpat Singh his only son and the Governor-General in Council has now decided as an act of grace to grant the unalienated portion of the said Porahat estate to the said Kumar Narpat Singh as and from the first April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one to be held by him and his lineal heirs male according to the custom of lineal primogeniture (the eldest male of the eldest branch being preferred) as an inalienable and impartible revenue-free zemindari.

AND WHEREAS it is necessary in the opinion of the legal advisers of the Governor-General in Council to resort to special legislation to give due validity to the condition of inalienability and impartibility subject to which the grant of the said estate is to be made and it is accordingly intended that these presents shall be ratified and confirmed by an Act to be passed by the Governor-General in Council.

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH that in consideration of the premises and as an act of grace the said Secretary of State doth hereby direct and appoint that all and every the lands now forming the unalienated portions of the Original Porahat Raj and which are now called or known as the Porahat estate and are more particularly described in the schedule hereunder written (expressly including the Bandgaon estate formerly an under-tenure of the Original Porahat Raj and afterwards separated from Porahat and made a Government estate, but which it is now intended to include in the said Porahat estate) shall as from the first April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one be vested in and be for ever held and enjoyed by the said Kumar Narpat Singh and such one among his lineal heirs male as under the limitations and conditions hereinafter contained may be successively entitled thereto with and subject to the incidents powers limitations and conditions as to impartibility and inalienability and otherwise hereinafter contained, that is to say—

(1) THAT the said Kumar Narpat Singh and his successors save in so far as is otherwise expressly stipulated by these presents shall have and may exercise full proprietary rights as zemindars in and over all the lands now comprised in the said Porahat estate as described in the schedule hereto (and expressly including the said Bandgaon estate) and in and over all minerals lying in and under the same, but so that the transfer of the said estate intended to be effected by these presents shall be subject and without prejudice to all existing engagements with raiyats and underrunure holders as well as with the holders of the villages of Hatia, Rajgaon and Nakdi, and as regards the said Bandgaon estate subject to the settlement thereof made by Government in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty and eighty-one under which a fixed rent of rupees six hundred and sixty-eight per annum is payable; provided always that nothing herein contained shall resuscitate any right to receive rents from the Thakurs of Anandapur or Kera or their successors, such rents having been remitted for ever by the British Government or interfere in any way with the rights exercised or the privileges enjoyed by the Thakurs of Anandapur or Kera or their successors or confer any right to minerals in Anandapur, Kera, or in the village of Hatia in Pargana Chakradharpur during the existence of the rent-free tenures heritable by heirs male by which the said Anandapur, Kera and Hatia are now held. And it is hereby further declared that in the event of the extinction of heirs male in the families of the Thakurs of Anandapur or of Kera or of the holder of Hatia or of either of them, the reversionary right of succession to the rent-free tenures aforesaid shall vest in the zemindar of Porahat for the time being in accordance with the custom which prevails in such cases in Chota Nagpur.

(2) THAT the succession to the said estate shall be governed by the custom of lineal primogeniture, that is to say, that the estate shall descend as an impartible zemindary or estate to the lineal heirs male of the said Kumar Narpat Singh in succession the eldest male of the eldest branch being always preferred to the exclusion of nearer members of younger branches.

(3) THAT the said estate shall be for ever free from all demands on account of Government land revenue, but shall be subject to all general taxes and local rates now or hereafter to be imposed by law in respect of the estates of zemindars in the said Singhbum District and to all claims of the Government of India or Government of Bengal in respect thereof other than claims for Government land revenue and in particular shall be subject to the payment of a perpetual charge or tax of rupees Two thousand and one hundred per annum for the maintenance of the police stations at Chakradharpur and Monarpur, any arrears of such last mentioned charge or tax of rupees Two thousand and one hundred per annum to be a public demand within the meaning of section 7 of the Public Demands Recovery Act I (B.C.) of 1895 and to be recoverable and realisable as such in accordance with the provision of that Act or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force.

(4) That until the said Kumar Narpat Singh shall be put in possession thereof the said Porahat estate shall remain under the charge of the Deputy Commissioner of Singhbhum and be managed by that officer as heretofore and shall be handed over to the said Kumar Narpat Singh after the execution of this deed together with any surplus proceeds which may stand to his credit at the time after deducting all charges and demands and after taking from the said Kumar Narpat Singh a release in full of all claims to accounts and all other rights claims and demands in respect of the management of the estate and the application of the income since the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

(5) That the said Kumar Narpat Singh shall not nor shall any of his successors sell mortgage demise or alienate the said estate or any portions thereof otherwise than by lease or demise for a term not exceeding twenty-one years, and under a rent without bonus or salamee.

(6) That no building of any kind shall be erected within a distance of half a mile of any railway stations now in existence within the limits of the said Porahat estate except with the written consent of the Secretary to the Government of Bengal in the Public Works Department.

(7) That the whole of the forests now in charge of the Forest Department shall continue to be managed by that Department on behalf of the said Kumar Narpat Singh and his successors and without any right of interference by him or them and that the accounts of such management shall be balanced every five years and the net profits shown thereby after deducting all expenses (including pensions and contributions and after making good the balance of rupees twenty-nine thousand one hundred and nineteen now at debit of the working account but without interest) shall as soon as possible after the taking of every such quinquennial account be paid over by the Forest Department to the said Kumar Narpat Singh or other the zamindar for the time being of the said Porahat estate.

(8) That the Indenture entered into between the Secretary of State in Council and Messieurs Jardine Skinner and Company executed on the twenty-first September one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five conferring a mining lease on the part of Government to Messieurs Jardine Skinner and Company within certain specified lands in the estate of Porahat shall remain in force and that the Government shall act in respect of this lease on behalf of the said Kumar Narpat Singh and his successors and without any right of interference by him or them and that the accounts of all rents and royalties and receipts thereunder shall be balanced every five years, and that the net profits shown thereby after deducting all expenses incurred by Government in respect of the lease shall as soon as possible after the taking of every such quinquennial account be paid over by the Deputy Commissioner of Singhbhum on behalf of Government to the said
Kumar Narpat Singh or other the zemindar for the time being of the said Porahat estate.

(9) THAT in case the said Kumar Narpat Singh or any of his lineal male heirs owners for the time being of the said Porahat estate shall at any time in contravention of the terms of these presents sell mortgage demise or alienate (otherwise than by such lease or demise as aforesaid) the whole or any portion or portions of the said estate or attempt or effect so to do or shall do or suffer any act deed matter or thing whereby the said estate or any part thereof would through the act or default of such owner for the time being of the said estate or by operation or process of law or otherwise if the said estate belonged absolutely to him and was not subject to this present condition become vested in or belong to some other person or persons. Then and in such case the limitation and appointment of the said estate to the said Kumar Narpat Singh and his lineal heirs male in succession shall ipso facto cease and determine and the said estate shall thereupon revert to and be held and enjoyed by the said Secretary of State for India in Council and his successors for his and their own benefit.

The Schedule above referred to.

The "Porahat Estate" within the meaning of this Indenture shall comprise the whole of the Original Porahat Raj, with the exception of the undermentioned alienated tracts:

A.—Tracts alienated under Bengal Government Order No. 6331, dated the 7th November 1859—

(1) Koraikela pargana (without its Kol Pirs) which, with the exception of the two villages of Bhalupani and Rangrin, has been conferred on the Raja of Seraikela.

(2) Village of Bhalupani in Koraikela pargana, which has been granted to Kumar Jugar Nath Singh, a brother of the Raja of Seraikela.

(3) Village of Rangrin in Koraikela pargana, which has been granted to Babu Pitamber Singh, another brother of the Raja of Seraikela.

(4) Four villages of pargana Chakradharpur, viz., Sitahakah, Semudiri, Dalki and Samrai, which have been granted to the Thakur of Kharsawan.

B.—Tract alienated under Bengal Government Order No. 603-P., dated the 17th February 1886.

(5) Lands which have already been acquired by Government for the purposes of the Bengal-Nagpur Railway.

IN WITNESS whereof of the said parties to these presents have hereunto set their respective hands and seals the day and year first above written.

TRANSLATION of a SANAD, dated the 31st May 1860, granted to RAJA CHAKARDHAR SINGH DEO BAHADUR, ZEMINDAR of SARAIKELA.

After compliments.—Whereas during the late disturbances caused by Raja Arjun Singh and other rebels of Porahat you have shown your loyalty to Government and rendered every assistance. Government of India, on the recommendation of the Deputy Commissioner of Singbhum and of the Commissioner of Chutia Nagpur, has granted to you rent-free all the Sadani villages [villages inhabited by non-aboriginal tribes of Pergana Koraikela] on account of which this sunnud is given to you. It is herein declared that you shall continue to be always ready to show your loyalty and to render assistance to Government, and that, on these conditions, you and your successors shall enjoy from generation to generation (Putra Patrādi) the villages within the boundaries given below as Lakhraj in the same manner as you hold your ancestral State of Saraikela. It is incumbent on you to keep the ryots of these villages under peaceful control, and to make proper settlement of the villages, the rents of which are hereby appropriated to you. The management and settlement of these villages should be established on lines calculated to lead to their gradual improvement. You shall not transgress the boundaries of these villages as fixed by Government, or encroach upon the Kolhan Khalsa villages of Government situated on the Pirs. Should any dispute arise between yourself and the ryots of Kolhan regarding boundaries or any lands claimed by the Kolhan villages under the Government, you and your ryots should bring a suit in a British court for the settlement of the dispute, and the court will pass proper orders after enquiry. You shall not yourself pass any decision in such matters. It is further laid down that you shall enjoy the same power of police administration and of deciding cases in the Koraikela villages hereby granted to you as you are now exercising in Saraikela. If any ryot of these villages complains against yourself, or against any ryot of a Government village, the case shall be decided in a British court. If any persons accused of serious crime committed in Government villages or witnesses of such crime happen to be residents of the villages granted to you, or take shelter therein, the Police Daroga or any other Government officer shall have power to go to such village and arrest or order the appearance of such persons, and every assistance shall be given him by the village officials. If any persons concerned in a case occurring in the villages granted to you be found in Government villages, you or your officers should give notice to the Government Police, with a view to the production of such persons. On occasions when Government troops or officials visit or pass through your territory, you shall comply with requisitions for supplies, forage, etc., and shall generally render every assistance in your power.

The boundaries of the Sadani villages of the Koraikela Pergana are as follows:

On the North.—The Bedo Suta Nala; and on the north-east the Bandho Suti Pahar, on south of which is the Bambat Pahar extending up to the Buch Pahar.

" West.—The Dowarsini Pahar.

" South.—The Baibaran Pahar, and due south, the Bar tree called Keonjhariya Bar; from this point due east the boundary passes through the Baran Sal Sarna up to the Janki Nadi.

On the East.—The Janki Nadi and the Kandikela Nadi. At the north-east corner the boundary is that laid down by Mr. John Haughton, Assistant Commis. sioner, vis., first, a Simal tree and the bank of Brahmani river; further west, at an angle of seventy degrees towards the south, is a Tilha tree, from which at an angle of seventeen and a half degrees west by south is a Mahwa tree, on the border of a plot of Bahal land, at the foot of which tree is a heap of stones. The other marks are mentioned in the decision passed by the above-named officer.

NO. CLII.

SANAD granted to the CHIEF of SERAIKELLA defining his STATUS, POWERS, AND POSITION with reference to the BRITISH GOVERNMENT,—1899.

WHEREAS the status and position with reference to the British Government of the Political State of Seraikella in Chota Nagpur has hitherto been undefined, and doubts have from time to time arisen with regard thereto; His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council is pleased to grant to you, Raja Udit Narain Singh Deo Bahadur, the following sanad, with a view to assuring you that the British Government will continue, as long as you remain loyal to the Crown and abide by the conditions of the sanad, and of your other engagements with the British Government, to maintain you in the position and privileges which you have heretofore enjoyed or which are now conferred upon you:—

SANAD.

I.—You, Raja Udit Narain Singh Deo Bahadur, son of Raja Chukradhar Singh Deo Bahadur, are hereby formally recognised as the Feudatory Chief of the Seraikella State, and you are permitted, as heretofore, to generally administer the territory of the said Seraikella State, subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed. In like manner your heirs and successors shall become entitled to your privileges and liable to your obligations; provided that no succession shall be valid until it has been recognised by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council.

II.—Your successors shall pay nazarana to the British Government on succession in accordance with the general rules on that subject for the time being in force.

III.—You shall conform in all matters concerning the preservation of law and order and the administration of justice generally, within the limits of your State, to the instructions issued from time to time for your guidance by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal. You will appoint such officers, and pay them such emoluments as on full consideration of the circumstances and of such representations as you may wish to make, may, from time to time, appear necessary to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, for the proper hearing of cases and administration of justice in your State. It will also be competent to you to nominate for appointment by His Honour as Honorary Magistrates or Munsifs such other persons as you may wish to be so appointed from time to time.
IV.—You shall deliver up any offender from British or other territory who may take refuge in your State. You shall aid British officers who may pursue criminals into your territory, and, in the event of offenders from your own State taking refuge in British or other territory, you shall make a representation on the matter to the authorities concerned.

V.—You shall administer justice fairly and impartially to all alike.

VI.—You shall recognise and maintain the rights of all your people, and you shall on no account oppress them or suffer them to be in any way oppressed.

VII.—You shall levy no tolls or duties of any kind on grain, merchandise, or other articles passing into, or out of, or through your State without the permission of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

VIII.—You shall consult the Commissioner of Chota Nagpur in all important matters of administration, and comply with his wishes. The settlement and collection of the land revenue, the imposition of taxes, the administration of justice, arrangements connected with excise, salt and opium, the concession of mining forest, and other rights disputes arising out of any such concession, and disputes in which other States are concerned, shall be regarded as specially important matters, and in respect to them you shall at all times conform to such advice as the Commissioner may give you.

IX.—The right to catch elephants in your State is granted to you as a personal concession and as a matter of favour, but this concession is liable to withdrawal whenever it may seem desirable either on account of abuse or for other reasons, and it will not necessarily be granted to your successor.

X.—All questions as to boundaries between your State and British or other territory will be dealt with by the Commissioner of Chota Nagpur or such other officer as the Government of India or His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal may appoint, either generally, or specially in that behalf, with two assessors, one of whom is to be nominated by yourself, unless in any such case you should prefer that the question should be decided by such Commissioner or other officer alone, in which case the question shall be referred for his decision accordingly.

Calcutta; Curzon of Kedleston,

The 8th March 1899. Viceroy and Governor-General in India.

Translation of a Sunnud, dated the 31st May 1860, granted to the Raja Ganga Ram Sing Deo, Zemindar of Khar-sawan.

After compliments.—Whereas the Government of India has granted to you rent-free, on the recommendation of the Deputy Commissioner of Singbhum and of the Commissioner of Chutia Nagpur, the four villages of Sinabaka, Simudiri, Samrai and Dalki, in the Pergana Chakradharpur, in recognition of your loyalty and of the assistance rendered by you to Government during the disturbances caused by Raja Arjun Singh and other rebels of Porahat, this sunndud is accordingly granted to you, and it is herein declared that if you do continue in the same manner to be always ready to show your loyalty and to render assistance to Government, you and your successors shall enjoy from generation to generation (Putra Pauradi) these four villages, as defined by the boundaries given below, as Lakhraj. It is incumbent on you to keep the ryots of these four villages under peaceful control, and to arrange under proper management for the collection of the rents, etc., appropriated to yourself. The villages should be administered in such a way as will lead to their gradual improvement. You shall not transgress the boundaries of these villages as fixed by Government. As regards Police administration and the decision of cases in these villages, you shall have the same powers as those at present exercised in these villages by Government officers. Whenever any crime is committed in these villages, it would be the duty of yourself and your Thikadars to give immediate information to the Police at Chakradharpur. You shall not give shelter in any village under your possession to any criminals or bad characters. Should any person attempt to take shelter in your villages, you shall immediately give information to the Government Police. On occasions when Government troops or officials enter or pass through your territory, you shall comply with requisitions for provisions, forage, etc., and shall generally render every assistance in your power.

Translation of a Sunnud given by Captain Tickell to Raoria Mankee of Kowsillapossi in Bur Peer, dated 10th December 1838.

Be it known to you, Raoria, Mankee of Kowsillapossi in Bur Peer, that the post of Mankee in Bur Peer is given to you; therefore I give you this sunnud under orders of the Agent, Governor-General, of the 10th December 1838. You must act in accordance therewith. In conformity with your Agreement, made in presence of the Agent, Governor-General, and Assistant Commissioner, you will be held responsible for all the crimes, viz., theft, murder, dacoity, highway robbery and plunder, etc., occurring in all the villages under your charge. If the revenue of your Illakah be not received on the fixed date, you will be held personally responsible for it; the Government revenue will be collected according to the current settlement and such as may be hereafter made. You will perform your duties zealously, and must arrest and deliver up criminals. You must not willingly allow offenders to escape in any way, whether in consideration of relationship or bribes. If any offenders escape from another Illakah, and take refuge in your Illakah, you must arrest them and bring them to Court, and if you conceal them or favor their cause, it will be to your discredit. You must report to the Court, at once the occurrence of any theft, murder, dacoity, highway robbery and plunder, etc., that takes place in your Illakah, and you are authorised to try and determine yourself petty cases, such as quarrels, altercations, etc., and report the fact to the Court. You are to remain loyal, and obey any orders given you by myself or any person constituted by my successor. For your assistance a Moondah has been appointed in each village in your Illakah. They must obey your orders, and they will also promise before the Agent, Governor-General, and Assistant Commissioner, that they will obey their Mankee's orders and aid him; whatever good or bad occurs in their respective village, they must report it to the Mankee; if they cannot find the Mankee, they will report the fact to the Naib Mankee. If I become ill or go to some other place on my own business, another officer will be appointed to discharge the duties entrusted to me at present. Moreover, if you receive orders to arrest any offender either from the Assistant Commissioner or Acting Assistant Commissioner, you must arrest the offender and bring him to Court. If the offender absconds from your Illakah to any other, you must trace and arrest him. Or if the Mankee of other Illakah requires assistance from you to apprehend a felon, you must comply instantly and make no excuse, and exert yourself to the utmost, so that the felon may be secured. If you be ill, or may have occasion to visit other villages, you must entrust your duties to your Naib. He is appointed by Government for those duties. Moreover, if you see that you will be detained for some time at some place on your own business, you must report that to the Court—that there may exist no anxiety in your mind. If you receive any orders from any Rajah, Baboo, Zemindar, or Karpurdauz, on any pretence whatever, you must not fail in your engagement; on the contrary, you must arrest the bearer of the said order, and bring him to the Assistant Commissioner or to the Officer in charge for the time being. If anybody disturbs the peace of your Illakah, you must collect your force or followers, and arrest the man and bring him to the Assistant Commissioner. If the disturber of the peace leaves your Illakah for another, you must go there, apprehend him, and bring him to Court, and must not knowingly let him escape: you must always act up to the above instructions. You will receive a separate Pottah, and will receive one-tenth out of the revenue which will be collected by Government from your Illakah. If you neglect the discharge of the Government duties entrusted to you, then the tenth part of the revenue promised to be paid to you will be withheld, and the Pottah of the Mankeeship will be taken back and given to some other person; you must keep this as a sunnud.

TRANSLATION of a POTTAH given by CAPTAIN TICKELL to RAORIA, MANKEE of KOWSILLAPOSSI in BUR PEER, dated 19th March 1839.

Be it known to Raoria, Mankee of Kowsillapossi in "Sath Bunturia: " the undermentioned villages are entrusted to you. You are nominated Mankee of those villages. You must keep the ryots in those villages satisfied, and settle them. You must be attentive to the Government orders, and collect the revenue of your Illakah according to the settlement, and bring it yourself. Whatever revenue will come from any village, one-sixth of it will be given to the Moondah, and from the remainder you will get one-tenth. Therefore this Pottah is given to you.

CHIEF COMMISSIONERSHIP OF THE CENTRAL PROVINCES.

I.—NAGPUR.

The early history of the ruling family of Nagpur is somewhat obscure, but its importance in Indian history may be said to date from Raghujii, who, as a leader of predatory expeditions, had, at the time of his death in 1755, established the Maratha supremacy over the country between the Narbada and the Godavari, from the Ajanta hills eastward to the sea. Raghujii left four sons, Janoji, Sabaji, Madhoji, and Bimbaji, and was succeeded by Janoji, the eldest, who died in 1772, after having, with the concurrence of the Peshwa, adopted his nephew, Raghujii, son of Madhoji, as his heir. The government, however, was, on Janoji’s death, seized by Sabaji, who held it through much opposition till 1775, when he was slain in battle by his brother, and was succeeded by Raghujii, a minor, under the regency of Madhoji.

Advances had been made by the Bengal Government, during the rule of Janoji, with a view to obtain possession of Cuttack, but without success. An unsuccessful attempt was also made by Warren Hastings to rent a tract of country on the Cuttack coast from Madhoji. In 1779 Madhoji sent a force to invade Bengal in pursuance of a confederacy between the Marathas, the Nizam, and Haidar Ali, for the overthrow of the British power. Madhoji was at heart friendly to the British Government, and, being disgusted at the refusal of the Peshwa to admit his claims to Garha Mandla, he undertook this expedition with much reluctance. The British Government, who had despatched a force to the Carnatic by the coast route, under Colonel Pearse, to co-operate with the Madras army against Haidar Ali, found therefore little difficulty in concluding a Treaty (No. CLVII) on the 6th April 1781, by which the army of Madhoji was bought off from its invasion of Orissa, and a promise was obtained from him of assistance against Haidar Ali.
On the death of Madhoji in 1788 he was succeeded by Raghjuji, who was then twenty-eight years of age. When the triple alliance was formed between the British Government, the Nizam, and the Peshwa, for the overthrow of Tipu Sultan, negotiations were opened with a view to include Raghjuji in the confederacy, but Seringapatam fell before they were brought to a close. Raghjuji was too jealous of the increased ascendency acquired by the British Government on the fall of Tipu to be induced to enter into an alliance to check the growing power of Sindhia. He even exerted his influence, although without success, to put a stop to the contest between Sindhia and Holkar with a view to a union against the English; and after the treaty of Bassein he joined Sindhia in the war which followed to defeat the objects of that treaty. The power of Sindhia and Raghjuji in the Deccan was broken in the battles of Assaye and Argaum. The ruin of Raghjuji was completed by the fall of Gawilgarh, and on the 17th December 1803 he signed the Treaty of Deogaon (No. CLVIII). By this treaty the Raja was deprived of the province of Cuttack and of the country to the west of the Wardha and south of the Narnala and Gawilgarh hills. This treaty was confirmed by the treaty of 1804 with the Peshwa. Its effect was to reduce the revenues of the Berar State from about one crore to sixty lakhs of rupees.

In 1806 the territory of Sambalpur and Patna was restored (No. CLIX) to the Raja gratuitously, in consideration of the great loss to which he had been subjected by the transfer of the tribute and allegiance of the Chiefs of those districts to the British Government. But the Raja steadily rejected repeated advances towards closer relations, and resisted all efforts made to induce him to subsidise a British force.

Raghjuji died in 1816, and was succeeded by his only son, Parsoji. This Chief being incapacitated for government, a regency was formed under Madhoji Bhonsla, better known as Appa Sahib, Parsoji's cousin. Appa Sahib, however, was by no means secure in power, and to strengthen himself he negotiated a Treaty (No. CLX) with the British Government in May 1816. In this he agreed to subsidise a British force, costing Rs. 7,50,000 a year, and to maintain a force of not less than 3,000 cavalry and 2,000 infantry, with the necessary equipment of guns and warlike stores.

In 1817 Parsoji died suddenly, having been murdered, as was afterwards discovered, by Appa Sahib. Soon after his accession, Appa Sahib made common cause with the Peshwa, who was then inciting all the Marathas to unite against the English. He fell upon the Residency with an overwhelming force, but was repulsed, and was compelled on the 6th January 1818 to sign a provisional Agreement (No. CLXI), ceding lands in lieu of the subsidy and contingent, and engaging that the government of the country should be conducted according to the advice of the Resident. Appa Sahib, however, persevered in his intrigues against the British Government. He was arrested, but effected his escape, and found refuge among the Gonds. After an unsuccessful attempt to regain his hold of Nagpur he fled to Hindustan in February 1819. He died at Jodhpur in Rajputana in 1840.

On the deposition of Appa Sahib, a son of Raghiji's daughter was placed in power on the 26th June 1818. He assumed the name of Raghuji in honour of his grandfather. During the minority of the new Raja the Nagpur territory was under the management of the Resident, acting in the name of the Raja. In 1826, when the Raja attained his majority and was entrusted with the administration, a Treaty (No. CLXII) was made with him, by which he ceded territories to cover the cost of the subsidiary force, and assigned lands as a guarantee for the payment of the troops which he undertook to maintain, and which were thenceforth to be under the control of the British Government. The Raja also bound himself to maintain good government under the supervision of the Resident. The provisions of this treaty, however, were acknowledged to press heavily on the Raja's resources, and to be inconsistent with the declared wish and intention of the British Government to restore the Bhonsla family to the rank and position of one of the substantive powers of India. In 1829 therefore the treaty was modified (No. CLXIII); the assigned districts were restored to Nagpur; a subsidy of eight lakhs a year was taken instead; the auxiliary force was disbanded; and the Raja was required to keep up a force of his own sufficient to preserve the internal tranquillity of the country. The Raja was at the same time released to some extent from his complete subjection to the Resident in the administration of affairs. At the request of the Raja in 1830 article 6 of the treaty of 1826, relating to an exchange of lands, was cancelled.

Raghiji retained the administration till his death on the 11th December 1853. He died without a son, natural or adopted, and without leaving any heir. The Nagpur State was then annexed to British India. It had been forfeited in 1818 through the treachery and hostility of Appa Sahib, and had been declared to belong by right of conquest to the British Government, who had conferred it as a free gift on Raghiji under the treaty of 1826.
In 1855 the surviving widows of the last Raja adopted as their son and heir Janoji Bhoosla, a collateral relation of the Raja in the female line. In consideration of the loyalty of the family during the rebellion of 1857, the title of Raja Bahadur of Deor, and the lands of Deor, in the district of Satara, were conferred in perpetuity on Janoji and his heirs, whether by blood or by adoption.

Raja Janoji died on the 5th December 1881, leaving three widows, two minor sons (Raghuji Rao and Lachhman Rao) and three daughters, to whom stipends, aggregating Rs. 90,000 per annum, were granted. The stipend enjoyed by Raja Janoji at the time of his death was Rs. 1,20,000 per annum. On his death the Estate of the family was taken under the Court of Wards on account of the minority of the heir, Raja Bahadur Raghoji Rao. The latter attained his majority on the 8th November 1893, and the Court of Wards withdrew its superintendence of the Estate. On the application of the Raja the Court of Wards in 1895 again assumed management of the Estate pending the settlement of all questions relating to the partition of the Estate between him and his brother, Kunwar Lachhman Rao. In 1899 the partition was effected, and in the same year Kunwar Lachhman Rao attained his majority. Both shares of the Estate were accordingly released from the management of the Court of Wards.

In November 1861 Nagpur and its dependencies and the Saugor and Narbada territories were formed into a separate administration under a Chief Commissioner, and to these were added in April 1862 Sambalpur, Patna, and their dependencies, which had till then been under the control of the Government of Bengal. Nimar was added subsequently, as narrated in the following paragraph. These territories are now known as the Chief Commissionership of the Central Provinces.

The history of Nimar may be summarised as follows:—In May 1864 the British portion of Nimar was transferred from the Central India Agency to the Central Provinces. The tracts forming this district had come under British administration at different times. Those lying on the banks of the Narbada became British territory in 1818, and in 1823 the greater part of Sindhia’s possessions in Nimar came under British management. In 1860 certain territorial exchanges were effected with Sindhia, by which the sovereignty of the British Government in Sindhia’s Nimar was confirmed, and Burhanpur and Zainabad were also ceded by him (see Gwalior, Vol. IV). Some parts of Nimar also belonged to Holkar, while outlying portions of the British districts were surrounded by his territory. As this gave rise to inconvenience, it was resolved to exchange the detached districts held by the British Government in the western portion of Nimar for Holkar's possessions in the Deccan. The exchange was finally completed in 1867. The parganas of Barwai, Dhargaon, and Mandlesar, north of the Narbada and of Kasrawad, including the lapsed jagir of Chhota Kasrawad, south of that river, of an aggregate annual value of Rs. 45,500, were accordingly made over to Holkar. The transfer of Barwai was accompanied by the condition that Holkar should abolish his transit duties on the line between Indore and the Great Indian Peninsula Railway in Nimar (see Indore, Vol. IV). In 1865 Sanads were issued to certain land-holders of the Nimar district, conferring on them grants of lands or money in compensation for the loss of the emoluments attached to certain hereditary offices, the duties of which they formerly discharged. Forms of these sanads are given as Nos. CLXIV and CLXV.

II.—CHIEFSHIPS AND ZAMINDARIS OF THE CENTRAL PROVINCES.

In 1863 a report was submitted to the Government of India by the Chief Commissioner, Sir Richard Temple, on the tenures and status of the Chiefships and Zamindaris* in the Central Provinces. It dealt with 115 estates of very varying extent and revenue. The Wainganga zamindaris had been granted or confirmed by the Marathas to Gond or Rajput or other families, as rewards for service, or to ensure their assistance in maintaining order in what was then a very unsettled country. The zamindars were bound to furnish a certain number of armed men to assist the government in police duties, and paid a rent always liable to enhancement. No written engagements under the treaty of 1829 were formed with them by the British Government.

The Chhattisgarh zamindaris were held in ancient times by the Chhattisgarh Rajas of the Haihaibansi dynasty of Ratanpur on a tenure of military service, which the Marathas changed to a tribute varying in amount with the power of the government to exact it.

The Chanda tenures were of a similar description to those of the Wainganga group and subject as a rule to the payment of tribute.
The Chhindwara jagirdars had always been in a kind of feudal subjection, first to the Gond Rajas, and subsequently to the Marathas; but the natural strength of their country preserved them from entire subjection to the latter; whose policy, therefore, it was to support one of the most powerful of them in order that he might keep the others in check.

In 1819 the status of these dependent Chieftains was enquired into by the Maratha Government through the British officers, who were then managing the country in the name of the Raja. The powers of the Chiefs were restricted by new engagements* binding them not to inflict capital punishment; to refer their disputes to the arbitration of the Maratha Government; and generally to be loyal and obedient. They renounced in these engagements the right which some of them had usurped of levying transit duties; some of them were also required to furnish a specified number of men when called upon by the Maratha Government to do so; but as it was an object to treat them liberally their tributes were not as a rule enhanced.

By article 2 of the treaty of 1818 Engagements (No. CLXVI) were concluded with the Gond and other tributary Chiefs and zamindars by British

*The following is a specimen of these Engagements:—

Agreement made by Drigpal, Zamindar of Khairagarh, and his family, with Colonel Agnew in the year 1830 Fasli, with his free will and consent—

1st.—I will rigidly obey all orders of the Sarkar.

2nd.—If I become aware of any improper proceedings or conspiracies ("fan fitur"), I will duly report them.

3rd.—I will pay my revenue by instalments agreeably to promise according to the orders the Kamdar may bring me.

4th.—The asyar belongs to the Sarkar, I will not collect it; I will only collect "kut" according to ancient usage. No Beparis shall be interfered with, but have free passage through my district.

5th.—All travellers, Beparis, &c., shall have free passage. If a robbery occurs, I shall be responsible for it, and produce the robber and the property, or the value thereof.

6th.—Any enemy of the Sarkar, or thief, or conspirator, I will deliver up.

7th.—Without the orders of the Sarkar I will take no human life, and take fines for offences committed only according to custom and not improperly. I will give no widow to any one against her consent. If any one dissatisfied with my justice complains of it, I will obey whatever orders the Sarkar gives me in the matter.

8th.—I will endeavour to find out all heirs to unclaimed property, and give it to them; I will not take it.

9th.—I will engage in war with no zamindar or other person without the Sarkar's order; should any cause for it arise, I will report the circumstance and do as I am ordered.

10th.—I will be kind and just to the people, and bring my zamindari under cultivation. I will conform to all these conditions. Dated 13th of the month of Jamadi-ul-Awal, the 1st in the year 1230 Fasli, corresponding with 17th February 1821.
officers in the name of the Raja. The engagements concluded with the zamindars of Chhattisgarh, Chanda, and Deogarh or Chhindwara were guaranteed by article 2 of the treaty of 1829.

In 1855, after the lapse of the Nagpur State to the British Government, enquiries into these tenures were made, and in some cases the old sanads were informally renewed; but the only material change effected in the position of the zamindars was the gradual restriction of their judicial powers.

The Saugor and Narbada Chiefs, though their treatment by the Marathas had been in some respects different from that of the Nagpur zamindars, held eventually much the same position as the latter.

The Sambalpur and Patna, or Garhjat, Chiefs were at first independent, but were subsequently held in subordination to the Maharaja of Patna, the most powerful of their number. In later times he was compelled to share this supremacy with the Maharaja of Sambalpur. The Chieftainships which formerly owed allegiance to Sambalpur and Patna were, including those two, eighteen in number, and the country was known as the Athara
(18) Garh, just as that to the west was and still is called the Chhattis (36) Garh: hence it has been conjectured that the Haihainansi dynasty, whose capital was Chhattisgarh, ruled also over the Sambalpur and Patna Garhjats.

In 1755 these territories fell under the dominion of the Marathas, but were ceded to the British Government by the Treaty of 1803 with Raghujii Bhonsla (No. CLVIII). With the exception of Raigarh, the Chief of which State was, as a reward for his fidelity and services, declared to be under the special protection of the British Government, all these States were restored to the Marathas in 1806. But in 1818 they reverted to the British Government, and were finally ceded by the Treaty of 1826
(No. CLXII). Advantage was taken of the circumstances in which Sambalpur, Patna, and their dependencies were found on their cession to annul the dependency of the other zamindars on these two Chiefs, and in 1821 separate sanads were granted by Government to each zamindar, and separate engagements were taken.

The Government from the first declined to issue any definite rules for the guidance of the Chiefs. The general line of policy to be adopted was alone indicated. The ascertained and generally admitted rights of the Raja and the various classes of his subjects, and all customs of the country that were not incompatible with the usages of civilised nations, were to be maintained. In regard to tribute it was determined to adopt generally a lower scale than that which had been levied under the Maratha Government. Except with Raigarh, with which a final Settlement (No. CLXVII) was made in 1819, the settlements were all made for a limited period. They were renewed in 1827; but, though the engagements entered into in that year were nominally for five years only, they were not renewed at the expiration of that period. One of these engagements is given (No. CLXVIII). Separate engagements of which one is given (No. CLXIX), were at the same time taken from each Chief, binding him to use rightly the judicial and police powers entrusted to him. In practice the powers of the Chiefs in criminal cases were limited to the infliction of seven years’ imprisonment.

Of the original Athara (18) Garh, only six now remain attached to the Central Provinces. Of the Sambalpur group, Sambalpur proper escheated to Government in 1849, and Chandarpur is no longer managed by a Chief. On the abolition of the South-Western Frontier Agency in 1837 Bod and Athmalik were transferred to the control of the Superintendent of the Tributary Mahals of Orissa and still remain under his charge. In 1833 the zamindar of Bargarh was convicted of rebellion, and his estate was conferred on Deonath Singh, Raja of Raigarh, who was thenceforth considered Chief of Raigarh cum Bargarh. On the formation of the Central Provinces Administration the States of Gangpur and Bonai, of the Sambalpur group, remained as before attached to the Chota Nagpur division of Bengal. On the partition of Bengal in October 1905 Bamra, Rairakhul, Sonpur, Patna and Kalahandi (or Karond) and the Borasambhar zamindari were transferred to Bengal.

In 1862 disturbances occurred in the Sambalpur district, caused by the intrigues of Surendra Sah, a relative of the last Maharaja of Sambalpur. This man had successfully stirred up a rebellion in the Sambalpur district in 1857 and subsequent years, but surrendered on conditions, and was permitted to reside under surveillance at Sambalpur. Soon afterwards, with the idea of possessing himself of the chief power in Sambalpur, he organised marauding bands, which committed great atrocities in the Sambalpur district. For these offences he was detained as a political prisoner in the fort of Asirgarh, where he died in 1884.
(III) THE FEUDATORY STATES.

In December 1864 the Government of India issued instructions for the classification of the Chiefs and Zamindars of the Central Provinces into two divisions, one comprising Chiefs of the rank of feudatories, the other those whose position was merely that of British subjects. In April 1865 sanction was conveyed to the classification of the following fourteen States as feudatories:—Bamra, Bastar, Kanker (Kakeir), Kalahandi or Karond, Khairagarh, Kondka or Chhuikhadan, Kawardha, Makrai, Nandgaon, Patna, Raigarh cum Bargarh, Sarangarh, Sonpur, Sakti. Rairakhmal was excluded from the first class on the grounds of the personal character of the Chief and his unsatisfactory administration. Of these only the marginally noted ones are now under the administration of the Central Provinces, the other five, including Rairakhmal, having been transferred to Bengal in 1905.

In 1865 Sanads (No. CLXX), guaranteeing them the right of adoption and dated the 20th May 1865, were granted by Sir John Lawrence to the abovenamed fourteen Chiefs, with the exception of Bastar and Makrai, who had received them (No. CLXXI) from Lord Canning in March 1862. These sanads were delivered by the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces to the Chiefs of Khairagarh, Kondka, Nandgaon, Raigarh, Sarangarh, and Sakti, at a Darbar held by him at Nagpur on the 4th January 1866, and to the Raja of Kanker on the 11th January 1866. At the same time Bonds of Fealty (No. CLXXII) were taken from these seven Chiefs. The remaining five adoption sanads were forwarded to the Commissioner of Chhattisgarh for delivery to the Chiefs concerned. It was originally intended to obtain bonds of fealty from the rest of the fourteen Chiefs, and on the 7th March 1866 and the 27th June of the same year the Rajas of Makrai and Kawardha signed their respective ikrarnamas. It was not, however, till the 15th December 1870 that the Raja of Bastar was persuaded to execute his bond, as he objected to the conditions therein about forest conservancy and tribute. Meanwhile in 1866-67 Captain Cumberlege was deputed to settle the tributes of the Garhjat Chiefs and Karond, and the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces appears to have dispensed with the bonds of fealty from Bamra, Karond, Patna, Sonpur, and Rairakhmal (whc, owing to the improvement in his administration, had been admitted as a feudatory on the 23rd May 1866 and granted a sanad of adoption by Sir John Lawrence on the same date (see No. CXLII), and to have proposed instead the grant to them of sanads, worded in the main like the bonds of fealty. This proposal and the assessment of the tributes were approved by the Government of India in August 1867. Accordingly Sanads, dated the 4th September 1867 (see No. CXLII), were issued to Bamra, Karond, Rairakhul, and Sonpur. Owing to troubles in the State, resulting in its being taken under Government management, the Patna sanad was not delivered till more than 20 years later. Similar Sanads (No. CLXXXIII) were also granted to Raigarh and Sarangarh, whose tribute was fixed at the same time as the others, although these two States had signed the bonds of fealty in January 1866.

A revision from time to time of the tributes (takolis) payable by the Feudatory Chiefs is expressly provided for in their bonds of fealty and sanads. Accordingly the tributes of all the Feudatory States, except Kanker (which was for special reasons exempted from the payment of tribute), and Makrai (which has never paid any tribute), were revised for a period of 20 years commencing from 1867. During this period the opening out and general progress of the country led to a remarkable increase in the revenue of the Feudatory States. In 1888 therefore the Government of India enhanced their tributes, except those of Kanker and Bastar.

Subject to the political control of the Chief Commissioner and his subordinate officers, the Feudatory Chiefs exercise full civil and revenue powers in their States; in criminal cases sentences of capital punishment (and in the case of feudatories from whom an acknowledgment of fealty in form No. CLXXXII has been taken, sentences of imprisonment exceeding seven years) cannot be carried into effect until confirmed by a British Officer. Under the executive orders of the Central Provinces Administration, all sentences of death are submitted, through the Commissioner of the Division, to the Chief Commissioner for confirmation. The Feudatory Chiefs and their subjects are not amenable to British laws for acts done or property possessed in their States.

Until the year 1882 the administration of all these Chiefs was supervised by the Commissioners of the Divisions and the Deputy Commissioners of the Districts to which the several States were attached. In that year, however, disturbances having broken out in Karond (Kalahandi)—one of the States in the Chhattisgarh Division—it was placed under the management of a Political Agent. Several other States in this Division had at the same time to be taken under direct management, and it was found that it was impossible for Deputy Commissioners to supervise the work in them efficiently in addition to their ordinary duties. When order had been restored in Karond, it was proposed that the Political Agent in that State should be appointed Political Assistant to the Commissioner of the Chhattisgarh Division. This was sanctioned, and all the Feudatory States in the Chhattisgarh Division are now under the charge of the Political Agent for the Chhattisgarh Feudatories, who has his head-quarters at Raipur and works under the general control of the Commissioner of the Division. The Political Agent exercises the powers of Political Agent under Chapter III of the Indian Extradition Act (XV of 1903) for the Feudatory States of which he holds charge.

Makrai is under the charge of the Deputy Commissioner of the Hoseangabad District, subject to the control of the Commissioner of the Narbada Division.

In 1905 the five States named in the margin were transferred from the Commissionership of Chota Nagpur to that of the Chhattisgarh Division. They originally formed part of the South-Western Frontier Agency, which was created in 1833, but were transferred to the charge of the Commissioner of Chota Nagpur in 1854. The territories forming these States were acquired by cession in 1817 from Raghuji Bhonsla, and in 1818 Government sent a Superintendent to Sarguja to restore order in the country, which had become distracted by domestic feuds.

In 1863 the Government of Bengal issued certain rules for the guidance of the Chiefs of the Tributary Mahals of Chota Nagpur in the administration of justice in their respective jurisdictions. By these rules the judicial powers of these Chiefs were limited to sentence of imprisonment up to two years or to fines not exceeding Rs. 50; or, subject to confirmation by the Commissioner of Chota Nagpur, to sentences of imprisonment up to five years and fines not exceeding Rs. 200. They had no powers of whipping, and all orders passed by them were subject to revision by the Commissioner. The rules also dealt with the management of police, prisons, etc., in their States.
In 1891 the Secretary of State decided that these five States do not form part of British India, and revised sanads were issued to them in 1899 formally recognizing them as Feudatory States and defining their relations with the British Government. The powers exercised by British Courts in respect of criminal cases arising in them, and the law and procedure by which such courts are to be guided are regulated by Notification No. 3449-I.B., dated the 17th August 1906, issued by the Government of India in the Foreign Department. On the transfer of these States to the Central Provinces in 1905 fresh sanads were granted to them, fixing their tributes for a period of fourteen years.

(1) Bastar.

This family is said to have been driven from Warangal, in the Deccan, by the encroachments of the Muhammadan power early in the fourteenth century. In 1777 the Raja of Bastar was driven out of his territories by his brother, and took refuge with the neighbouring Chief of Jaipur, in the Northern Circars, to whom, in return for assistance in recovering his territories, he ceded on certain conditions the pargana of Kotipad. In 1782 hostilities broke out between the two States in consequence of the non-fulfilment by Jaipur of the conditions of the cession. The Bastar Chief died before he could recover the whole pargana, and as Bastar at this time failed in its payment of tribute to Nagpur, that Government took possession of the pargana and subsequently granted it to Jaipur, subject to the obligation of furnishing military aid against Bastar when required.

The constant raids and reprisals between the two States of Bastar and Jaipur kept the country for many years in a state of anarchy. In an Agreement (No. CLXXIV), taken in 1819 by the Nagpur Government from Mai Pal Deo, the Chief of Bastar, on the occasion of a revision of the settlement of the Chhattisgarh district, the latter bound himself to pay an annual tribute of 5,000 Nagpur Rupees, subject to a remission of Rs. 1,000, so long as the Kotipad pargana should remain separated from his territories. Claims to the restoration of Kotipad were more than once put forward by Bastar, but in 1863 it was finally decided that the British Government, which had succeeded to the rights of the Nagpur State, should receive Rs. 3,000 per annum from the Jaipur Chief in return for which he was to retain Kotipad and be exempt from the condition of military service attached to the original grant. Of this sum Rs. 2,000 were formally paid to the Raja of Bastar in money, and the remainder in the form of a continued remission of tribute, which then stood at Rs. 3,056* per annum. A new arrangement was sanctioned in March 1889, by which the entire sum of Rs. 3,000 payable by Jaipur was to be credited in the accounts of the Madras Presidency, Rs. 1,000 on account of the Kotipad pargana, and the balance as part payment of the Bastar tribute which was reduced, for the lifetime of the late Raja Bhairam Deo, to Rs. 2,056, the remaining Rs. 56 being recovered directly from the Bastar Chief.

Raja Bhairam Deo, who was born in 1839, succeeded in 1853. The Raja of Bastar received a sanad of adoption in March 1862 (No. CLXXI), and on the 19th December 1870 he executed an Acknowledgment of Fealty (No. CLXXII).

In March 1876 a disturbance broke out at Jagdalpur, owing to certain acts of oppression and injustice committed on the people by the then Diwan, Gopinath Guru, and Adit Prasad, who were eventually removed to Sironcha in the Central Provinces. In 1881 Lal Kalandar Singh, a cousin of the Raja, became Diwan; but soon after, owing to a difference of opinion between himself and the Rani, he withdrew himself from work. On a visit to Bastar in 1883 the Commissioner found that utter confusion and chaos prevailed; and the Chief Commissioner decided that Kalandar Singh should resume his duties as Diwan and be assisted by a selected officer of Government. These arrangements were sanctioned by the Government of India, but eventually broke down, owing to the incompetence as Diwan of Lal Kalandar Singh, and in 1886 an Extra Assistant Commissioner, selected by the Chief Commissioner, was appointed by the Raja as his Diwan to administer the State.

Raja Bhairam Deo died in July 1891, and was succeeded by his son, Rudra Pratap Deo, who was born in 1885.

The State continued to be managed by an Extra Assistant Commissioner until 1895, when he was replaced by an European officer as Administrator. This arrangement lasted till 1903, when an Extra Assistant Commissioner was again appointed as Superintendent of the State.

It had been decided in 1888 to postpone any revision of the tribute paid by Bastar till the death of Raja Bhairam Deo. After his death, therefore, the tribute was fixed, in 1892, at Rs. 17,200 a year, Rs. 15,200 of which is paid by the Bastar Chief direct, the balance of Rs. 2,000 being realised annually from the Jaipur State on account of the Kotipad pargana and credited in the Madras accounts.

The area of Bastar is 13,062 square miles; revenue Rs. 3,04,199; population, by the census of 1901, 306,501; and tribute Rs. 17,200. It possesses (1905) 146 armed police.

Bastar is liable to the nazaran rules.

(2) CHANG BHAKAR.

Chang Bhakar was originally a feudal dependency of Korea, but on the 3rd January 1848 a separate agreement was made with Bhaya Bahadur Jangjit Singh Deo, the Zamindar of the State (No. CLXXV). In 1875 a Kabuliats (No. CLXXVI) was executed by, and in 1876 a Sanad (No. CLXXVII) granted to, the Zamindar of Chang Bhakar, renewing for 20 years the settlement of 1848. The Sanad of 1899 (No. CLXXVIII), which was granted to Raja Bhaya Mahabir Singh Deo, fixed his tribute for another 20 years. On the partition of Bengal a fresh Sanad (No. CLXXIX), dated the 23rd December 1905, was given to the Chief, fixing his tribute for 14 years.

The present Chief, Bhaya Mahabir Singh Deo, who was born on the 15th April 1879, succeeded his uncle, Bhaya Balbhadra Singh Deo, in September 1896. He was placed in full charge of his State in 1900, on the attainment of his majority.

The area of the State is 906 square miles; revenue Rs. 8,000; population, by the census of 1901, 19,548; and tribute Rs. 387.

Chang Bhakar is liable to the nazaran rules.

(3) JASHPUR.

Jashpur was originally a feudatory of Sarguja, and still pays its tribute through that State.

In 1819 a Kabuliats (No. CLXXX) was executed by Raja Ram Singh for the payment of annual tribute. In 1875 a Sanad (No. CLXXXI) was given to, and a Kabuliats (No. CLXXXII) executed by, Raja Pratap Narayan Singh Deo Bahadur, renewing for 20 years the settlement of 1819. The Sanad of 1899 (see No. CLXXXVIII), which was granted to Raja Pratap Narayan Singh Deo Bahadur, C.I.E., fixed his tribute for another 20 years, and declared it payable through Sarguja. On the partition of Bengal a fresh Sanad (No. CLXXXIII), dated the 23rd December 1905, was granted to the Chief, which fixed his tribute for 14 years.

The present Chief, Raja Bishan Prasad Singh, who was born on the 16th December 1864, succeeded his father, Raja Pratap Narayan Singh Deo Bahadur, C.I.E., in April 1900. He was not, however, given direct management of his State till January 1903.

The area of the State is 1,963 square miles; revenue Rs. 1,10,466; population, by the census of 1901, 132,114; and tribute Rs. 1,250. It has (1905) two serviceable guns.

Jashpur is liable to the nazaraana rules.

(4) KANKER.

This State was held by the Marathas on the condition of furnishing 500 men for the service of the Government, free of expense, whenever required to do so. In 1809 the then Chief was deprived of Kanker, but was in 1818 restored to it under the authority of the British Resident at Nagpur on payment of an annual tribute of Rs. 500. This was remitted in 1823 in consequence of the Government having resumed the sayar duties formerly levied by him.

Maharaja Dhiraj Narhar Deo, who was born in 1850, succeeded in 1853.

On the 11th January 1866 the Raja of Kanker received a sanad, dated the 20th May 1865, guaranteeing him the right of adoption (No. CLXX) and he executed an Ikrarnama (No. CLXXII) at the same time.

In 1889 Narhar Deo's mind became unhinged by domestic troubles, and as he showed no signs of recovery, it became necessary to appoint a Diwan to administer the State. This was accordingly done in 1890, and this arrangement continued in force up to July 1894, when it was decided to take the State under the management of Government, until the general health and mental condition of the Chief should improve sufficiently to enable him to resume the administration. In 1894 the management of the State was restored to him, subject to the condition that he should consult the Political Agent in the preparation of his budget.

Maharaja Dhiraj Narhar Deo died without issue in May 1903, and was succeeded by his nephew, Lal Kamal Deo, with the hereditary title of Maharaja Dhiraj, who was born in 1874. Certain restrictions were placed upon the Chief's powers for a period of three years from the date of his succession.

In 1868 the question of levying tribute from Kanker had come up for consideration, but it was decided in that year that there was no reason for cancelling the exemption of 1823. The question again arose in 1888, when it was determined that the exemption should continue till the death of Narhar Deo. When Lal Kamal Deo succeeded, the Government of India ruled that the exemption should continue in perpetuity.

The area of Kanker is 1,429 square miles; revenue Rs. 2,09,659; population, by the census of 1901, 103,536; tribute nil. It possesses (1905) 20 armed police.

Kanker is liable to the nazaraana rules.

(5) KAWARDHA.

Kawardha is held by a branch of the Pandariya family, and was conferred for military services by Raghunji Bhonsla. The elder branch of the Kawardha family holds the zamindari of Pandariya, to which the son by a senior wife succeeds to the exclusion of his elder brother by a junior wife. By this custom Ram Singh, a younger son, but by a senior wife, became Zamindar of Pandariya. On the extinction in 1863 of the younger or Kawardha branch of the family, Ram Singh's elder brother, Bahadur Singh was recognised as Chief of Kawardha, but died shortly afterwards, when he was succeeded by Ram Singh's elder son by a junior wife, Rajpal Singh, who was born in 1849.

In 1866 the Zamindar of Kawardha was given a sanad, dated the 20th May 1865, guaranteeing him the right of adoption (No. CLXX), and on the 27th June 1866 he executed an Ikrarnama (No. CLXXII).

In consequence of Rajpal Singh's maladministration the Government of India, in 1884, sanctioned his removal from power for a period of five years, the arrangement being subject to reconsideration at the expiration of that time. In November 1889 the Government of India sanctioned the continuance of the same arrangements for a further period of five years, the State remaining under Government management.

Thakur Rajpal Singh died on the 31st December 1891, and was succeeded by his nephew, Jadunath Singh, who was born in 1886. The administration of the State is carried on by a Superintendent appointed by Government.
The tribute originally fixed at Rs. 2,000 was subsequently more than quadrupled by the Bhonsla family.

The area of Kawardha is 798 square miles; revenue Rs. 1,04,698; population, by the census of 1901, 57,474; and tribute Rs. 32,000. It has (1905) 16 armed police.

Kawardha is liable to the nazaranana rules.

(6) Khairagarh.

The family of the Khairagarh Chief is a branch of the old Gond dynasty of Mandla. In 1755 the Marathas levied a tribute of 1,500 Nagpur Rupees, and this amount was at various times raised till, on the lapse of the Nagpur State to the British Government in 1854, it stood at nearly 39,000 Company's Rupees. In 1867 the tribute was again revised and fixed at Rs. 47,000 per annum for a period of twenty years.

On the 4th January 1856 a Sanad (No. CLXX), dated the 20th May 1865, guaranteeing him the right of adoption, was delivered to the Zamindar of Khairagarh and on the same day he executed an Ikramana (No. CLXXII).

In 1870, owing to his tyranny and oppression, the ruling Chief, Lal Fateh Singh, was deprived of civil and criminal jurisdiction. In 1873 his indebtedness and continued maladministration compelled the Government of India to deprive him of the fiscal management also, and to assume the entire administration of the State. Lal Fateh Singh died in 1874, and the State remained under direct management till 1883, when it was restored to his eldest son, Lal Umrao Singh, alias Kanhaiya Lal. Kanhaiya Lal died on the 6th November 1890, and was succeeded by his son, Kamal Narayan Singh, who was born in 1871. His succession was recognised by the Government of India in February 1891.

Three Deeds (Nos. CLXXXIV to CLXXXVI) making over railway lands, with the jurisdiction thereon, were executed by the Chief, Lal Umrao Singh. The first, executed on the 21st August 1883, referred to land required for the Nagpur and Chhattisgarh State Railway; and the two latter, which were executed on the 9th March 1890 and 27th September 1890, respectively, referred to the Bengal-Nagpur Railway.

The area of the State is 931 square miles; revenue Rs. 3,74,953; population, according to the census of 1901, 137,554; and tribute Rs. 70,000. It has (1905) 38 armed police.

Khairagarh is liable to the nazaranana rules.
(7) KONDKA, OR CHHUikhADAN.

This Chiefship is held by a religious family; it was conferred on Rup Das in 1750 by Madhoji Bhonsla. Marriage is permitted in the sect to which this family belongs.

The Zamindar of Chhuikhadan received on the 4th January 1866 a Sanad (No. CLXX), dated the 20th May 1865, guaranteeing him the right of adoption, and on the same date he executed an Ikrarnama (No. CLXXII).

Mahant Sham Kishor Das, who was born in 1838, succeeded his father in December 1887, after having been for some years previously the virtual ruler of the State. About the time of his father's death it was brought to light that Mahant Sham Kishor Das had committed a gross act of injustice by threatening certain malguzars with eviction from their villages unless they paid up very heavy fines inflicted, because they had brought to the notice of the authorities certain exactions on the part of the Chief. The men paid the fines in order to escape eviction. Enquiry showed that this policy of intimidation was not uncommon in Chhuikhadan, and the Chief was accordingly called on to make amends to the men he had injured; to abolish the nazaraana system, guaranteeing his gaontias against unwarrantable eviction; and to appoint an approved Diwan to assist him in carrying out the necessary reforms in the administration of the State, the affairs of which were found to have been grossly mismanaged. The Diwan was appointed in 1892 and withdrawn in 1895. Mahant Sham Kishor Das died on the 26th December 1896. In April 1897 the Government of India recognised as his successor his eldest son, Mahant Radha Ballabh Kishor Das, then aged about 43 years, but the administration was to be carried on by a Diwan, appointed by Government. This Chief was murdered on the 17th October 1898, and was succeeded by his eldest son, Digbi Jai Jugal Kishor Das, during whose minority the State continued to be administered by a Diwan. Digbi Jai Jugal Kishor Das died on the 30th September 1903. His younger brother, Bhudhar Kishor Das, who was born in 1892, succeeded him. During his minority the State is under Government management.

The area of Chhuikhadan is 154 square miles; revenue Rs. 64,682; population, by the census of 1901, 26,368, and tribute Rs. 15,000. It possesses (1905) 12 armed police.

The State is liable to the nazaraana rules.
(8) Korea.

A Kabuliya was executed by Raja Gharib Singh in 1819 (No. CLXXXVII), engaging to pay annual tribute. In 1848 another Agreement (No. CLXXV) was made with Raja Umol Singh. In 1876 a Kabuliya (No. CLXXXVIII) was executed by, and a Sanad (No. CLXXXIX) granted to, Raja Pran Singh Deo, renewing for 20 years the settlement of 1848. The Sanad of 1899 (see No. CLXXXVIII), which was granted to the present Chief, settled his tribute for another 20 years. On the partition of Bengal a fresh Sanad (No. CX), dated the 23rd December 1905, was granted to the Chief, fixing his tribute for 14 years.

The late Chief, Raja Pran Singh Deo, died on the 24th July 1897. For two years after his death the State was under the management of a leading zamindar pending an enquiry as to the legal successor. The succession of Raja Sheo Mangal Singh, a distant cousin, who was born on the 25th January 1874, was finally recognised by the Government of India in August 1899.

The area of Korea is 1,631 square miles; revenue Rs. 23,204; population, by the census of 1901, 35,113; and tribute Rs. 500. The State has (1905) 8 armed police and 1 unserviceable gun.

Korea is liable to the nazaranu rules.

(9) Makrai.

This petty Chiefship struggled with varied fortune against the Peshwa, Sindhia, and the Pindaris, and was eventually taken under British protection.

In 1856 the Chief was placed under the control of the Commissioner, Jabalpur Division, with the Deputy Commissioner, Hoshangabad, as Political Agent; he was instructed to correspond with the latter and attend to his wishes and advice. Up to 1863 the Chief received Rs. 2,243.14.5 annually as compensation for the loss of transit duties, the levy of which was entirely abolished from the 1st May 1847. This payment was commuted in 1863 for the lump sum of Rs. 23,000, and no payment is now made in lieu of transit duties.

The Raja of Makrai received an adoption Sanad in March 1862 (No. CLXXI), and on the 7th March 1866 he executed an Ikrarnama (No. CLXXXII).
The present Chief, Raja Lachhu Sah alias Bharat Sah, is an adopted son; he succeeded in 1866 and was born in 1846. Towards the end of 1890 the management of the State was taken out of his hands for a period of three years on account of gross mismanagement, and a Diwan was appointed to conduct the administration of the State under the superintendence of the Deputy Commissioner of Hoshangabad. In 1893 the management was restored to the Chief, subject to the condition that he should administer the State on the lines already in force, and should appoint as his Diwan a man approved by the Chief Commissioner.

The area of Makrai is 155 square miles; revenue Rs. 61,114; population, by the census of 1901, 13,035; and tribute nil. It possesses (1905) 46 armed police, 1 artillery man, and 2 serviceable guns.

Makrai is liable to the nazara rules.

(10) NANDGAON.

The country comprised in the Nandgaon Chiefship was conferred in 1723 by Raghuji Bhonsla on a religious devotee, named Ram Das. Celibacy being one of the observances of the sect to which Ram Das belonged, the succession is maintained by adoption. Though belonging to the sect of Bairagis professing celibacy, such profession was among the headmen merely nominal.

On the 4th January 1866 a Sanad (No. CLXX), dated the 20th May 1865, guaranteeing the Chief of Nandgaon the right of adoption, was delivered to Ghasi Das, Zamindar of Nandgaon, and on the same date he executed an Ikarnama (No. CLXXII).

Ghase Das was himself married at a somewhat advanced time of life, but adopted the Hindu custom of marrying his son at an early age. On a representation made by him in 1879 the Government of India assured him that marriage would not be allowed to invalidate the succession.

Ghase Das died in November 1883, and was succeeded by his son, Balram Das, who was born in 1866. The administration of the State, until Balram Das attained the age of 21, was entrusted to his mother, aided by a Diwan. In 1887 the Chief received the title of Raja as a personal distinction. In 1888, owing to the lax supervision of the Diwan, Gobind Rao, and the general remissness of the State police in properly dealing with crime, the arrangements sanctioned in 1884 were suspended, and an officer of the standing of an Extra Assistant Commissioner was appointed as Diwan to conduct the administration of the State in the name of the young Chief, Raja Balram Das, till he should prove himself capable of managing its affairs. Raja Balram Das was invested with full powers in August 1891. He died on the 25th August 1897, and was succeeded by his adopted son, Mahant Rajendra Das, who was born on the 21st March 1894. During his minority the State is under Government management.

Certain lands required for the Bengal-Nagpur Railway were made over, with the jurisdiction thereon, by the Chief under a deed, executed on the 12th January 1891 (No. CXCII). This deed supersedes the one executed by the Chief, Mahant Ghasi Das, on the 2nd July 1883, whereby certain lands were provided for the Nagpur and Chhattisgarh State Railway.

The area of Nandgaon is 871 square miles; revenue Rs. 3,50,010; population, by the census of 1901, 126,365; and tribute Rs. 70,000. It has (1905) 62 armed police.

Nandgaon is liable to the nazarana rules.

(11) RAIGARH.

The zamindari of Bargarh was in 1833 conferred on the Chief of Raigarh Deonath Singh, its former holder having been convicted of rebellion. Deonath Singh rendered good service in 1857, died in 1862, and was succeeded by his son, Ghansham Singh.

On the 4th January 1866 a Sanad (No. CLXX), dated the 20th May 1865, guaranteeing him the right of adoption, was delivered to the Raja of Raigarh, and on the same day he executed an Ikrarnama (No. CLXXII). After the revision of his tribute the Chief was also granted a sanad, dated the 4th September 1867 (No. CLXXIII), which fixed his tribute at Rs. 400 a year.

Owing to the Chief's maladministration the State was in 1885 taken under Government management. Ghansham Singh died in 1890, and his son, Lal Bhup Deo Singh, who was born in 1868, was recognised by Government as his successor. He was formally installed on the 14th January 1894, and at the same time the management of the State was handed over to him.

By a document, dated the 19th September 1890, the Chief transferred to the British Government certain lands, with the jurisdiction thereon, required for the Bengal-Nagpur Railway Company (see footnote to No. CXCII).
The area of Raigarh is 1,486 square miles; revenue Rs. 1,60,632; population, by the census of 1901, 174,929; and tribute Rs. 4,000. It possesses (1905) 31 armed police.

(12) SAKTI.

This State was at one time held as a tributary to the Maharaja of Sambalpur.

A Sanad (No. CLXX), dated the 20th May 1865, guaranteeing him the right of adoption, was delivered to the Raja of Sakti on the 4th January 1866, Ranjit Singh, on the same day, executing an Ikrarnama (No. CLXXII).

Raja Ranjit Singh, who was born in 1836, was deprived of all power in 1875 for gross oppression and attempts to support false representations by means of forged documents; and the management of the State was assumed by the British Government. In February 1892 the Government of India sanctioned the installation of Rup Narayan Singh, born in 1856, and elder son of the ex-Raja, as Chief of Sakti, and the appointment of a Diwan through whom the Chief was to rule the State. Owing to the mismanagement by the Chief it was found necessary in 1902 to compel him to accept a Diwan selected by Government, by whom he was to be guided in all matters of administration.

In May 1905 the ex-Chief, Ranjit Singh, who up to that time had been forbidden to reside in the Sakti State, was allowed to return on condition that he interfered in no way with the administration of the State.

By a Document, dated the 31st October 1890 (No. CXCII), the Chief, acting through the Deputy Commissioner, Bilaspur, as the then Political Agent of the Sakti State, made over to the British Government certain lands, with the jurisdiction thereon, required for the Bengal-Nagpur Railway Company.

The area of Sakti is 138 square miles; revenue Rs. 35,411; population, by the census of 1901, 22,301; and tribute Rs. 1,300. It has (1905) 6 armed police.

(13) SARANGARH.

On the 4th January 1866 a Sanad (No. CLXX), dated the 20th May 1865, which guaranteed to the Raja of Sarangarh the right of adoption, was delivered to Raja Singram Singh, who executed on the same day an Ikrarnama (No. CLXXII). After the revision of his tribute the Chief was also granted a Sanad (see footnote to No. CLXXIII), dated the 4th September 1867, which fixed his tribute at Rs. 1,350 a year.

In 1878 gross mismanagement was found to exist in this State. The rayats were oppressed; the revenues were misappropriated; fraud and injustice prevailed in the Courts; and the young Chief, Raja Bhawani Pratap Singh, was being allowed to grow up without education. The temporary management of the State during his minority was accordingly assumed by the British Government.

In 1885 Raja Bhawani Pratap Singh requested that the full powers of a Feudatory Chief might be conferred on him. The local officers reported that the Chief was badly educated, inexperienced, and incapable of managing the affairs of his State. The Raja's request was therefore not granted, and the arrangement then in force, viz., the administration of the State by an officer of the rank of an Extra Assistant Commissioner, was continued.

Raja Bhawani Pratap Singh died in September 1889, and was succeeded by Lal Raghunath Singh. This Chief died in August 1890, and was succeeded by his minor son, Lal Jawahir Singh, who was born in 1886. During his minority the State is under Government management.

The area of Sarangarh is 540 square miles; revenue Rs. 85,383; population, by the census of 1901, 79,900; and tribute Rs. 3,500. It possesses (1905) 15 armed police.

Sarangarh is liable to the nazaraana rules.

(14) SARGUJA.

In 1820 Raja Lal Umar Singh was granted a Sanad (No. CXCVII), and executed a Kabuliat (No. CXCIV), promising allegiance to the British Government. In 1825 he was given a Patta (No. CXCVI). In 1875 a Kabuliat (No. CXCVI) was executed by, and in 1876 a Sanad (No. CXCVII) granted to, Raja Bindheshwari Prasad Singh Deo Bahadur, who had been appointed by Government to manage the State during the lifetime of Maharaja Indarjit Singh, who was a lunatic. This agreement renewed for 20 years the settlement of 1825. The Sanad of 1899 (see No. CLXXVIII), which was granted to Maharaja Raghunath Saran Singh Deo Bahadur, settled his tribute for another 20 years. On the partition of Bengal a fresh Sanad (No. CXCVIII), dated the 23rd December 1905, was granted to the Chief, which fixed his tribute for 14 years.
The present Chief, Raghunath Saran Singh Deo Bahadur, was born on the 15th June 1861, and succeeded his father, Maharaja Indarjit Singh, on the latter’s death on the 25th March 1879.

The area of Sarguja is 6,055 square miles; revenue Rs. 1,45,387; population, by the census of 1901, 35,011; and tribute Rs. 2,500. The State possesses (1905) 109 armed police and 4 unserviceable guns.

Sarguja is liable to the nazarana rules.

(15) Udaipur.

Udaipur was originally a feudal dependency of Sarguja. In 1852 it was held to have lapsed to the British Government in consequence of the Chief, Dhiraj Singh, having committed manslaughter, but Government continued to pay its tribute to Sarguja. In 1860 the Chiefship, together with the title of Raja Bahadur, was bestowed on Lal Bindheshwari Prasad Singh Deo, younger son of Maharaja Amar Singh of Sarguja, as a reward for his services in the mutiny, and an agreement, dated the 12th December 1860 (No. CXCIX), was concluded with him. From this time Udaipur became a distinct tributary State, the Raja paying his tribute direct to the British Government and Sarguja receiving credit for the same. In 1875 a Kabuliat (No. CC) was executed by, and in 1876 a Sanad (No. CCI) granted to, Raja Bindheshwari Prasad Singh Deo Bahadur, renewing for 20 years the previous settlement. On the occasion of the Delhi Darbar, held on the 1st January 1877, the hereditary title of Raja was conferred on the Chief of Udaipur. In 1899 a Sanad (see No. CLXXXVIII) was granted to Raja Dharamjit Singh Deo, fixing his tribute for another 20 years. On the partition of Bengal a fresh Sanad (No. CCII), dated the 23rd December 1905, was granted to the Chief, which settled his tribute for 14 years.

The present Chief, Raja Chandar Shikhar Prasad Singh Deo, who was born on the 18th August 1889, succeeded his father, Raja Dharamjit Singh Deo, on the latter's death on the 16th December 1900. During his minority the State is under Government management.

The area of Udaipur is 1,055 square miles; revenue Rs. 1,05,904; population, by the census of 1901, 45,391; and tribute Rs. 800. The State possesses (1905) 24 armed police, and 1 unserviceable and 2 serviceable guns.

Udaipur is liable to the nazarana rules.
(iv)—The Non-Feudatory Zamindaris.

The Wainganga Zamindaris (44 in number) form portions of the Bhandara and Balaghat districts. The Zamindars are now nothing more than large landowners, holding their Estates on favourable terms in consideration of the dignity enjoyed and services rendered by their families in former years. They have been relieved of all police duties, and no longer exercise any function of government whatever. None of the Zamindaris are scheduled districts (Act XIV of 1874).

The Chanda Zamindars (20 in number) hold their Estates under special Patent (No. CCIII). The Zamindars formerly controlled the arrangements for excise, pounds, and ferries within their Zamindaris and enjoyed the revenue from these sources, but these privileges have been withdrawn, the loss of revenue being recognised by the grant of some pecuniary compensation. The administration of the police has also been withdrawn from the Zamindars, and the force which they formerly maintained has been replaced by Government police. The clauses of the patent referring to these functions of the Zamindars are, therefore, now obsolete. Such of its conditions as are not obsolete have been embodied in a Wajib-ul-arz drawn up in 1904. The Zamindaris are held on condition of loyalty, proper management, and the improvement and cultivation of the Estates; and the right of free access to all minerals in the Estates is reserved to Government.

The Zamindaris are all scheduled districts.

The total area of these zamindaris is 3,445 square miles; and the population, according to the census of 1901, is 142,616.

The Chhattisgarh Zamindaris, 31 in number, form portions of the Raipur, Drug, and Bilaspur Districts. Their rights in respect of police, excise, and pounds have been resumed, as in Chanda, and Government police have been introduced into these Zamindaris. The majority of the Estates are scheduled districts.

The Jagirdars of Chhindwara and Hoshangabad, 11 in number, hold their Estates under Sanads (No. CCIV) issued to them in 1880. As in the case of the Chanda and Chhattisgarh Zamindars, their rights pertaining to police, excise, and pounds have been resumed. The Jagirs are held on condition of loyalty, proper management, and the improvement and cultivation of the Estates; and all rights in connection with minerals found in the Estates are reserved to Government.

All these Estates are scheduled districts.

The total area of the Jagirs is 18,916 square miles; and the population, according to the census of 1901, 1,157,356.

NO. CLVII.

TREATY with the RAJAH of BERAR in 1781.

Whereas a friendship is firmly established betwixt Maharajah Madajee Boosla and the English, the following Articles are accordingly settled by Syna Bahadur through Rajah Ram Pundit:

1st.—The Rajah Syna Bahadur shall send 2,000 good and effective horse along with Colonel Pearse to assist the English in the war against Hyder Naig; that the officer commanding them shall act under the order of the said Colonel, or the officer who shall command the Bengal troops in the Carnatic; and that they shall receive from the officer who shall command the Bengal troops in the Carnatic an allowance for their support at the rate which hath been settled in a separate paper by the Governor-General and Council and Rajah Ram Pundit, month by month, in the same proportion as the English troops shall receive their pay.

2nd.—That the army of Rajah Syna Bahadur will immediately leave Orissa, and march in an expedition against Gurra Mundelah; let the Governor-General and Council of the English, from a regard to the friendship which subsist betwixt the family of Bhosilah and the English, give orders that an English officer with a body of the troops, now stationed in Hindostan, may march from that quarter to assist the Rajah in the above-mentioned expedition, and having reduced Gurra Mundelah, establish immediately the Rajah’s garrisons there.

3rd.—That in order that the friendship betwixt the family of Maharajah Madajee Boosla and the English may daily be strengthened and augmented, let the Governor-General and Council for the present send a trusty person to Nagpore, and hereafter the Dewan Deogur Pundit will come from that place and have an interview with the Governor-General, when, with their mutual advice and approbation, the desires and demands of both parties will be adjusted and settled.

4th.—That if it should happen from particular circumstances that an interview betwixt Deogur Pundit and the Governor-General cannot take place, in that case the desires and demands of both parties may be settled at Nagpore by the intervention of a trusty person, and the bonds of friendship shall be so firmly established betwixt the family of Bhosilah and the English that no infraction or injury can ever by any means happen to them.

Account of the monthly expense of the troops to be sent along with Colonel Pearse.

Two thousand sowars or horse, at Rupees 50,000 per month for each 1,000, making altogether 1 lakh of rupees per month.

Dated 8th Rubbe-ul-Sani, in the 22nd year of the Reign.

The said allowance shall commence from the time of the troops leaving Cuttack, and when they shall have finished the service, and having received their dismissal from the Commander of the English troops, they shall return to their own country, their pay shall be continued according to the number of munzils or day's journeys which they may be from the place of their dismission to the city of Cuttack.

No. CLVIII.

Treaty of Peace between the Honorable English East India Company and their Allies on the one part, and Senah Saheb Soubah Raghojee Bhooslala on the other, settled by Major-General Wellesley on the part of the Honorable Company and their Allies, and by Jeswunt Rao Ramchunder on the part of Senah Saheb Soubah Raghojee Bhooslala; who have each communicated to the other their full powers,—1803.

Article 1.

There shall be perpetual peace and friendship between the Honorable Company and their Allies on the one part, and the Senah Saheb Soubah Raghojee Bhooslala on the other.

Article 2.

Senah Saheb Soubah Raghojee Bhooslala cedes to the Honorable Company and their Allies, in perpetual sovereignty, the Province of Cuttack, including the Port and District of Balasore.

Article 3.

He likewise cedes to the Honorable Company and their Allies, in perpetual sovereignty, all the territories of which he has collected the revenues in participation with the Soubah of the Deccan, and those of which he may have possession which are to the westward of the River Wurdah.

Article 4.

It is agreed that the frontier of Senah Saheb Soubah towards the territories of His Highness the Soubah of the Deccan shall be formed to the west by the River Wurdah from its issue from the Injardy hills to its junction with the Godavery.

The hills on which are the Forts of Nernallah and Gouelghur are to be in the possession of Senah Saheb Soubah, and everything south of those hills, and to the west of the River Wurdah, is to belong to the British Government and their Allies.
ARTICLE 5.

Districts amounting to four lakhs of rupees per annum contiguous to, and to the south of the Forts of Nernallah and Gouelghur, are to be given over to Senah Saheb Soubah. Those districts are to be fixed upon by Major-General Wellesley and delivered over to Senah Saheb Soubah at the same time with the forts.

ARTICLE 6.

Senah Saheb Soubah, for himself, his heirs and successors, entirely renounces all claims of every description on the territories of the British Government and their Allies, ceded by the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th Articles, and on all the territories of His Highness the Soubah of the Deccan.

ARTICLE 7.

The Honorable Company engage that they will mediate and arbitrate according to the principles of justice, any disputes or differences that may now exist or may hereafter arise between the Honorable Company's Allies, Secunder Jah Bahadur, his heirs and successors, and Rao Pundit Purdhan, his heirs and successors respectively, and Senah Saheb Soubah.

ARTICLE 8.

Senah Saheb Soubah engages never to take or retain in his service any Frenchmen, or the subject of any other European or American Power, the Government of which may be at war with the British Government, or any British subject, whether European or Indian, without the consent of the British Government. The Honorable Company engage on their part, that they will not give aid or countenance to any discontented relations, Rajahs, Zemindars, or other subjects of Senah Saheb Soubah who may fly from or rebel against his authority.

ARTICLE 9.

In order to secure and improve the relations of amity and peace hereby established between the Governments, it is agreed that accredited Ministers from each shall reside at the court of the other.

ARTICLE 10.

Certain Treaties have been made by the British Government with feudatories of Senah Saheb Soubah. These Treaties* are to be confirmed. Lists of the persons with whom such Treaties have been made will be given to Senah Saheb Soubah, when this Treaty will be ratified by His Excellency the Governor-General in Council.

* Pide Treaties with Tributary and Feudatory States of Orissa, Vol. I., Part III. The Rajah manifested the utmost reluctance to ratify this clause, and it was only under the threat of renewed hostilities that he consented to sign the lists.
ARTICLE 11.

Senah Saheb Soubah hereby renounces for himself, his heirs and successors, all adherence to the confederacy formed by him and Dowlat Rao Scindia and other Mahratta Chiefs, to attack the Honorable Company and their Allies. He engages not to assist those Chiefs if the war with them should still continue.

ARTICLE 12.

This Treaty of Peace is to be ratified by Senah Saheb Soubah within eight days from this time, and the ratification is to be delivered to Major-General Wellesley, at which time the orders for the cession of the ceded territories are to be delivered, and the troops are to withdraw. Major-General Wellesley engages that the Treaty shall be ratified by His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General in Council, and that the ratification shall be delivered in two months from this date.

Done in Camp at Deogum, this 17th December 1803, answering to the 2nd Ramzan 1213 Fazali.

Ratified by the Governor-General and Council on the 9th January 1804.

No. CLIX.

TRANSLATION of an ENGAGEMENT for the restitution of the Provinces of Sumbulpore and Patna by the BRITISH GOVERNMENT to RAJAH RAGHOOJEE BHOOSLAH SAINA SAHEB SOOBAH BAHADOOR, dated 24th August 1806, corresponding with the 9th of Jemmaudee-Oossannee, 1221 Hijree.

Adverting to the relations of harmony and friendship subsisting between the British Government and Maharajah Raghojee Bhooalah, the Honorable Sir George Hilaro Barlow, Baronet, Governor-General, agrees to restore to Maharajah Raghojee Bhooalah all the territory of Sumbulpore and Patna which was ceded by the Maharajah to the Honorable English Company, with the exception of the territory of Rajah Joopar Sing according to the following Schedule. The British Government hereby renounces all future claim whatsoever to the undermentioned Pergunnahs, and the Maharajah shall possess the same degree of sovereignty over them as he possesses over the rest of his dominions.

The territory of Rajah Joojar Sing shall continue to be incorporated with the British dominions. The Maharajah on his part hereby renounces all future claim to the territory of Rajah Joojar Sing, and further engages never to make any pecuniary demand on that territory or to exercise any authority over it. If at any time, Rajah Joojar Sing, with a view to excite disturbance, shall either attack the country of Maharajah Raghojee Bhooslah or enter into any collusion with the zemindars of the Maharajah's territory for the purpose of making war upon the Maharajah, the Maharajah shall report the same to the Honorable the Governor-General in Council, who will duly enquire into the circumstances of the case, and if such acts should be proved against Rajah Joojar Sing, his country shall be separated from the British dominions, and the Maharajah shall be at liberty, with the consent of the British Government, to march his troops against the said Rajah Joojar Sing. The Governor-General will not in any manner encourage or afford him protection. On the other hand, the Maharajah and his officers shall not, without the consent of the British Government make war in any manner upon Rajah Joojar Sing or offer any molestation to him. If, however, Rajah Joojar Sing shall be found guilty of any outrages, in that case Rooygurh shall be separated from the Company's dominions, and annexed to those of the Maharajah, in the same manner as Sumbulpore and Patna.

It is hereby agreed that a copy of this Treaty, ratified by the Governor-General in Council, shall be transmitted from Fort William in the space of two months and eleven days from this date.

Ratified by the Governor-General in Council on the 2nd October 1806.
TREATY of PERPETUAL DEFENSIVE ALLIANCE between the HONORABLE ENGLISH EAST INDIA COMPANY and HIS HIGHNESS MAHARAJAH PURSOJEE BHOOSLAH, his heirs and successors, settled with RAJAH MOODHAJEE BHOOS-LAH, exercising with plenary powers all the functions of Government, on behalf of the said MAHARAJAH, by RICHARD JENKINS, Esq., Resident at the Court of His Highness, by virtue of the powers delegated to him by the RIGHT HONOR-ABLE FRANCIS, EARL of MOIRA, K.G., one of HIS BRIT-ANNIC MAJESTY'S MOST HONORABLE PRIVY COUNCIL, GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL, appointed by the HONORABLE the COURT of DIRECTORS of the said HONORABLE COMPANY to direct and control all their affairs in the East Indies,—1816.

Whereas, by the blessing of God, the relations of peace and friendship have uninterruptedly subsisted for a length of time between the Honorable English East India Company and the State of Nagpore, the powers aforesaid, adverting to the complexion of the times, have determined, with a view to the preservation of peace and tranquillity, and to the security of their rights and territories, and those of their allies and dependents, to enter into the defensive alliance on the terms specified in the underwritten Articles.

ARTICLE 1.

The peace, union, and friendship, so long subsisting between the two States, shall be promoted and increased by this Treaty, and shall be perpetual.
The friends and enemies of either shall be the friends and enemies of both, and the contracting parties agree, that all the former Treaties and Agreements between the two States now in force, and not contrary to the tenor of this Engagement, shall be confirmed by it.

ARTICLE 2.

If any Power or State whatever shall commit any act of unprovoked hostility or aggression against Maharajah Pursojee Bhooslah, and, after due representation, shall refuse to enter into amicable explanation, or shall deny the just satisfaction or indemnity which the contracting parties shall have required, then the contracting parties will proceed to concert and prosecute such further measures as the case shall appear to demand. For the more distinct explanation of the true intent and effect of this Agreement, the Governor-General in Council, in behalf of the Honorable Company, hereby declares that the British Government will never permit any Power or State whatever, in which description is included the tribe of Pindarries, to commit with impunity any act of unprovoked hostility or aggression against the rights and territories of Maharajah Pursojee Bhooslah, but will at all times maintain and defend the same in the same manner as the rights and territories of the Honorable Company are now maintained and defended.

Article 3.

In conformity to the spirit of complete alliance and indemnity of interests, established by the provisions of the preceding Articles, and in return for the obligation which the British Government has thereby imposed upon itself, to protect and defend the State of Nagpore, against all enemies, the Maharajah agrees not only to employ the utmost effort of his military power and resources, in conjunction with those of the British Government, for the purpose of assisting to repel acts of hostility or aggression directed against the State of Nagpore, but also to consider the forces and resources of his Government to be applicable to the utmost practicable extent on occasions on which the British Government may be engaged in operations for the defence of the territories of its allies, Their Highnesses the Nawab Sekunder Jah, Soobahdar of the Deccan, and the Peishwa, Rao Pundit Purdhan, as well as generally to aid the British Government as far as his power and resources will admit, in any contest in which the British Government may at any time be engaged for the defence of its own rights and those of its allies.

Article 4.

With a view to fulfil this Treaty of defensive alliance, Maharajah Pursojee Bhooslah agrees to receive, and the Honorable East India Company to furnish, a permanent subsidiary force of British troops, consisting of not less than one regiment of Native cavalry, six battalions of Native infantry, one complete company of European artillery, and one company of pioneers with the usual proportion of field pieces attached, and with the proper equipment of warlike stores and ammunition, which force shall be accordingly stationed in perpetuity in the Maharajah's territories. It is moreover agreed that, with the reserve of two battalions of sepoys which are to remain near His Highness' person, the residue of the force shall be posted in such a situation near the south bank of the Nerbudda as may be chosen by the British Government and with liberty to move in any direction necessary through His Highness' territories, as well as to have the privilege of changing its position in case it shall be so determined on, the Maharajah's Government being previously consulted in the latter case. In the event, however, of its being deemed advisable by the British Government, at any time, that one of the two battalions of sepoys, which it is above provided are to remain near His Highness' person, should join the force stationed near the Nerbudda, the said Maharajah will make no objection, but the force near His Highness' person shall never consist of less than one battalion.
ARTICLE 5.

The Maharajah hereby engages to pay to the Honorable Company, from His Highness' treasury at Nagpore, according to the two undermentioned equal and half-yearly instalments, punctually and without demur or hesitation the annual sum of seven lakhs and fifty thousand Nagpore Rupees of the present standard value, being the estimated additional charge of the field establishment of the force described in the preceding Article.

The following are the instalments:

<td>3,75,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1st June</td>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Rupees 7,50,000

ARTICLE 6.

The contracting parties will hereafter take into consideration the expediency of commuting the pecuniary payment settled by the 3rd Article for a cession of territory on the part of Maharajah Pursojee Bhooslah, and whatever arrangement may be thus determined upon, by mutual consent, shall be adopted. In the event likewise of any failure or delay ever occurring in the punctual discharge of the sum in question, according to the instalments above specified, the British Government shall be entitled to require, and His Highness will without hesitation agree to cede, territory in lieu of the whole of the subsidy, the situation of which territory will be then fixed according to mutual convenience. But it is understood that the British Government claims no right to demand a cession of territory, as long as the pecuniary payments are punctually discharged.

ARTICLE 7.

Whenever it may be found expedient for any temporary purpose to employ within the Maharajah's territory any troops belonging to the Honorable Company, exceeding the amount of the subsidiary force as fixed by the 4th Article, no objection shall be made on the part of the Maharajah, and the British Government on its part engages that the Maharajah shall not be charged with any additional expense on account of such extra troops.

ARTICLE 8.

The Maharajah grants full permission for the purchase of supplies of every description for the use of the subsidiary force in all parts of His Highness' territory. Grain and all other articles of consumption, and provisions, and all sorts of materials for wearing apparel, together with the necessary number of cattle, horses, and camels, required for the use of the subsidiary force, shall be entirely exempted from duties, and the Commanding Officer and Officers of the said subsidiary force shall be treated in all respects in a manner suitable to the dignity and greatness of both States. The subsidiary dforce will at all times be ready to execute services of importance, such as the protection of the person of the Maharajah, his heirs and successors, the overawing and chastisement of rebels, or exciters of disturbance in His Highness' dominions, and due correction of his subjects or dependents, who may withhold payment of the Sirkar's just claims, but it is not to be employed on trifling occasions, nor like Sebundy to be stationed in the country to collect the revenues, nor in levying contributions in the manner of Moolukgeeree.

ARTICLE 9.

Inasmuch as by the present Treaty the British Government engages to maintain and defend the rights and territories of Maharajah Pursojee Bhoosliah in the same manner as the rights and territories of the Honorable Company are now maintained and defended, and as the object of the present alliance is purely and exclusively of a defensive nature, the Maharajah consequently engages never to commit any act of hostility of aggression against Their Highnesses the Nizam and the Peishwa, or any of the Honorable Company's allies or dependents, or against any other Power or State whatever, and in the event of differences arising, whatever adjustment the Company's Government, weighing matters in the scale of truth and justice, may determine, shall meet with full approbation and acquiescence.

ARTICLE 10.

As by the present Treaty the union and friendship of the two States is so firmly cemented that they may be considered as one and the same, the Maharajah engages neither to commence nor to pursue in future any negotiations with any other State whatever, without giving previous notice to and entering into mutual consultation with, the Company's Government; and the British Government on its part hereby declares, that it has no manner of concern with any of the Maharajah's children, relations, dependents, subjects, or servants, with respect to whom the Maharajah is absolute.

ARTICLE 11.

Whereas it is incumbent on the Maharajah to be prepared to unite with the British Government to the utmost extent of his power and resources in the protection and defence of his rights and territories, against all external and internal enemies; and whereas by the 3rd Article of this Treaty, the Maharajah engages not only to fulfil that obligation, but also to assist the British Government as far as may be practicable on occasions on which that Government may be compelled to exert its power in the defence of its own rights and those of its allies, the Maharajah engages, with a view to fulfil these obligations, to maintain, at all times, in a state of efficiency, and fit for active service, a force consisting of not less than three thousand cavalry, and two thousand infantry, with the necessary equipments of guns and warlike stores, which force shall be employed on occasions of actual service in the manner that may be pointed out by the Officer Commanding the British subsidiary force. In the same manner, in the event of any part of the forces of the Maharajah being required to act in conjunction with a British force beyond the limits of His Highness' territories the former shall be employed under the orders and directions of the Commanding Officer of the latter. It is, moreover, declared that, in addition to the force of cavalry and infantry which the Maharajah is bound by this Article perpetually to maintain, His Highness will keep up as large a number of troops as may be necessary, and as the resources of his Government may enable him to support, and that on all necessary occasions, he will be ready to assist the British Government with the whole of his forces.

Article 12.

Maharajah Pursojee Bhooslah agrees to attend and conform to whatever advice and recommendation may from time to time be offered by the British Resident at His Highness' Court on all points connected with the due support and equipment of the force, consisting of three thousand cavalry and two thousand infantry, which by the 11th Article, the Maharajah engages permanently to maintain, which advice and recommendation will extend to the regularity and sufficiency of the pay and good quality of the accoutrements, horses, arms, etc., of the troops composing the said force, and to the general discipline of the whole. His Highness further agrees to afford without excuse or hesitation to the Resident any evidence that he may at any time require of the actual existence of the force in question in a state of efficiency for active service; and whenever the Resident may require it, His Highness will permit the said force to be mustered, inspected, and reviewed personally either by the Resident or by the Officer Commanding the subsidiary force.

Article 13.

Inasmuch as by the present Treaty of defensive alliance, the ties of union are so closely drawn that the interests of the two States are become identified, it is agreed that on occasions on which it may be deemed expedient and necessary for the general defence of the Deccan, or for the suppression of disorders, the British subsidiary force serving with the Maharajah shall be permitted, at the direction of the British Government, to be employed in the Province of Berar, in co-operation with the subsidiary force of Hyderabad, and also in other territories adjacent to the Maharajah's dominions; provided, however, that by such temporary employment of the force stationed with the Maharajah, His Highness' territories shall not be exposed to serious danger, and that the force stationed near His Highness' person shall never be less than one battalion of sepoyos.

Article 14.

The British Government agrees not to give aid or countenance to any discontented subjects or dependents of the Maharajah, or any members of His Highness' family, or relations or servants of His Highness, who, in like manner, engages to refuse protection to any persons who may be in a state of rebellion against the British Government or its allies, or to any fugitives from their respective territories.
ARTICLE 15.

This Treaty, consisting of fifteen Articles, being this day settled by Richard Jenkins, Esquire, with Rajah Moodhojee Bhooslah, on the part of Maharajah Pursojee Bhooslah, Mr. Jenkins has delivered one copy thereof in English, Mahatta, and Persian, signed and sealed by himself to the said Rajah Moodhojee Bhooslah, who on his part has also delivered one copy of the same duly executed with the seal and signature of Maharajah Pursojee Bhooslah, and with his own seal and signature; and Mr. Jenkins, by virtue of official authority given to him in that behalf by the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council, hereby declares the said Treaty to be in full force from the date hereof, and engages to procure and deliver to His Highness in the space of forty days a ratified copy of the same under the seal of the Honorable Company, and the signature of the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council, on the delivery of which the Treaty executed by Mr. Jenkins shall be returned. But the subsidiary force specified in the 4th Article shall be immediately furnished by the Honorable Company, and all the other Articles of this Treaty shall be in full force from this time.

Signed, sealed, and exchanged at Nagpore, the twenty-seventh day of May in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixteen, answering to the Twenty-eighth of Jumadoossanee, in the year of the Hijera One Thousand Two Hundred and Thirty-one.

Ratified by His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council, at Fort William in Bengal, this 15th day of June 1816.

No. CLXII.

TREATY of PERPETUAL FRIENDSHIP and ALLIANCE between the HONORABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY and HIS HIGHNESS Maharajah Raghojee Bhooslah, his heirs and successors, settled by RICHARD JENKINS, ESQUIRE, Resident at the Court of His Highness, by virtue of the powers delegated to him by the RIGHT HONORABLE WILLIAM PITT, LORD AMHERST, one of HIS BRITANNIC MAJESTY'S MOST HONORABLE PRIVY COUNCIL, GOVERNOR-GENERAL in COUNCIL, appointed by the HONORABLE COMPANY to direct and control all their affairs in the EAST INDIES,—1826.

Whereas a Treaty of perpetual defensive alliance, consisting of fifteen Articles, was concluded at Nagpore between the Honorable East India Company and the State of Nagpore, under date the 27th May 1816, corresponding with the 28th of Jumadoossanee, in the year of Hijri 1231; and whereas during the subsistence of that Treaty in full force, in violation of public faith and of the laws of nations, an attack was made by Rajah Moodhajee Bhooslah on the British Resident and the troops of his ally stationed at Nagpore for the said Rajah's protection, thereby dissolving the said Treaty, annulling the relations of peace and amity between the two States, placing the State of Nagpore at the mercy of the British Government, and the Maharajah's Musnud at its disposal; and whereas the British Government, still recollecting the former close alliance, consented to restore the relations of amity and friendship and to replace His Highness on the Musnud; and whereas in utter forgetfulness of this lenity, and in disregard of every principle of faith and honor Appah Saheb entered into fresh concert with the enemies of the British Government, that Government was consequently compelled to remove him from the Musnud; and Maharajah Raghojee Bhooslah having succeeded to the same by the favour of the said Government, the following Treaty is concluded between the States:

ARTICLE 1.

All Articles of the Treaty concluded at Nagpore, on the 27th of May 1816, which are not contrary to the tenor of the present engagement, are hereby confirmed.

ARTICLE 2.

Although the Rajah assumes, with the permission of the British Government, the title and ensigns of Sena Saheb Soobah, which have been held by former Rajahs of Nagpore, he hereby renounces for ever for himself and successors all dependence upon or connection with the Rajah of Sattarah or other Maharatta powers, and agrees to relinquish all ceremonies and observances whatever referring to the dignity of Sena Saheb Soobah.

ARTICLE 3.

By the 10th Article of the Treaty of Nagpore it is agreed that the Maharajah is neither to commence nor to pursue any negociation with any other State whatever, without giving previous notice to and entering into mutual consultation with the Company's Government. In order to the more effectual fulfilment of this Article, Maharajah Raghojee Bhooslah hereby agrees neither to maintain vakeels or other agents at the Courts of any Foreign State whatever nor to permit the residence of vakeels or other agents from any such State at his Court; and His Highness further engages to hold no communication with any power whatever, except through the Resident or other Minister of the Honorable Company's Government residing at His Highness' Court.

By the 4th Article of the Treaty of Nagpore, it was agreed that, with the reserve of two battalions of sepoys which were to remain near the Rajah's person, the residue of the subsidiary force which the British Government thereby agreed to furnish should be posted in such a situation near the south bank of the Nerbudda as might be chosen by the British Government. By the present Article it is agreed that the British Government shall be at liberty in future to station its troops in any part of the Rajah's territories, as it may deem necessary for their protection and the maintenance of tranquillity; and also to decide upon the number of troops to be so maintained, whether greater or smaller than the amount of the subsidiary force before fixed.

Article 5.

The late Rajah Moodhajee Bhooslah, commonly called Appa Saheb, agreed to cede to the Honorable Company certain territories for the payment of the expenses of the permanent military force maintained by the British Government in His Highness' territories and in lieu of the subsidy of 750,000 Rupees formerly paid by the said Rajah, and of the contingent he was bound to maintain by the former Treaty. These territories, as detailed in the Schedule annexed to this Treaty, shall remain for ever under the dominion of the Honorable Company. His Highness Maharajah Raghoojee Bhooslah hereby expressly renounces all claims and pretensions of whatever description on the territories aforesaid and all connection with the Chiefs and Zemindars or other inhabitants of them. The British Government on its part hereby guarantees the rest of the dominions of the Nagpore State to Maharajah Raghoojee Bhooslah, his heirs and successors.

Article 6.

As it may be found that some of the territories ceded to the British Government in the foregoing Article would, from their situation, be more conveniently attached to the territories of the Nagpore State, His Highness agrees that such exchanges of talooks and lands shall be made hereafter on terms of a fair valuation of their respective revenues as may be necessary for the convenience of both parties; and it is agreed and covenanted that the territories to be assigned and ceded to the Honorable Company by the 5th Article, or in consequence of the exchanges stipulated eventually in this Article, shall be subject to the exclusive management of the said Company and their officers.

Article 7.

The British Government undertook, during the Rajah's minority, the settlement and management of the whole of the country reserved to His Highness, and the general direction of his affairs in His Highness' name, and on his behalf; His Highness' nonage, according to Hindu law and usage being now expired, the powers of Government and the administration of his dominions under the several conditions and exceptions hereinafter specified are declared to be vested in the Rajah.
ARTICLE 8.

For the more complete and effectual fulfilment of this intention and object of the 11th Article of the Treaty of 27th May 1816, the military force of the State of Nagpore, with the exception of a small body of infantry and horse, which may be maintained with the sanction of the British Government for the Rajah's personal retinue, and the requisite Seabundies for the police and collection of revenue (to be subject to the same sanction with regard to their numbers, description, and employment) shall always remain under the authority of the British Government, and at its disposal for His Highness' benefit, and sufficient funds shall be permanently appropriated for its regular payment from His Highness' resources.

ARTICLE 9.

The districts of Deoghur above the Ghauts, Chandah, Loujhee, and Chutteesgurh, and their dependencies, together with some additional districts, yielding altogether a clear net revenue of seventeen lakhs of rupees per annum, will, for the present, be retained under the management of European Superintendents acting for the Rajah, but subject to the orders of the British Resident, to provide funds for the payment of the military establishments referred to in the preceding Article, and for the civil expenses of the said districts. A true and faithful account of the revenue and the produce of the said districts, and of the military and civil disbursements, shall be rendered to His Highness, and any surplus remaining after payment of the above charges shall be paid into His Highness' treasury.

The rest of His Highness' territories, including the city of Nagpore, shall be replaced under the direct administration of His Highness and his Ministers, the British superintendence being gradually withdrawn; and it is hereby further declared, that whenever the state of the district, retained under British superintendence under this Article, and the success of His Highness' management in the country now transferred to him, shall appear to the British Government to justify such a measure the districts excepted in this Article shall also be restored to the direct management of the Rajah, His Highness appropriating sufficient funds from his resources for the payment of the military force, and the British Government remaining the medium of conducting all affairs with the tributary Chiefs and Zemindars of the country.

ARTICLE 10.

In the management of the country transferred to the Rajah's immediate authority by the preceding Article, and in that of the excepted districts when restored to His Highness' control, Rajah Raghojee Bhoslah hereby promises to pay at all times the utmost attention to such advice as the British Government shall judge it necessary to offer him with a view to the economy of his finances, the better collection of his revenue, the administration of justice and police, the extension of commerce, the encouragement of trade, agriculture and industry, or any other objects connected with the advancement of His Highness' interests, the happiness of his people, and the mutual welfare of both States, and always to conduct the affairs of his Government by the hands of Ministers in the confidence of the British Government, and responsible to it as well as to His Highness in the exercise of their duties in every branch of the administration.

His Highness specifically agrees to adopt such regulations and ordi-ances as may be suggested by the British Government through its representative at His Highness' Court for ensuring order, economy, and integrity in every department of his Government, and the engagements and settlements which have been or may be concluded with the putels and ryots or others in his name through the intervention of British Agents shall be faithfully maintained and acted upon. The civil establishments of the Government, the appointment of persons to fill them, and the expenditure on account of those establishments, as well as of His Highness' Court and household, shall be fixed and continued according to the advice of the British Government; and the Resident shall be at all times at liberty to inspect and investigate the accounts of the receipts and disbursements of the Government in every branch, as well as to have access to the treasury, in order to be assured of the actual state of the finances.

ARTICLE 11.

If it shall be necessary for the protection and defence of the territories of the contracting parties, or either of them, that hostilities shall be undertaken or preparations made for commencing hostilities against any State or Power, Rajah Raghojee Bhoslah agrees to contribute towards the discharge of the increased expense incurred by the augmentation of the military force and the unavoidable charges of the war, such a sum as shall appear to the British Government, on an attentive consideration of the means of His said Highness, to bear a just and reasonable proportion to the actual net revenue of His said Highness.

ARTICLE 12.

And whereas the interests and reputation of the contracting parties require that the prosperity of His Highness' dominions should be increased and perpetuated by the operations of this Treaty, and it is indispensable that effectual and lasting security should be provided for the welfare and happiness of the people and against any failure in the funds destined to defray the expenses of His Highness' permanent military establishment in the time of peace, as well as to secure an eventual surplus for the purpose mentioned in the 11th Article, it is hereby stipulated and agreed between the contracting parties that if, from the mismanagement of His Highness'} Officers, and from the neglect of the advice and suggestions of the British Government, on the part of His Highness, the British Government shall have reason to apprehend at any future period, a failure in the funds so destined, or a deterioration, instead of the expected improvement in His Highness' resources, and in the condition of the people, the British Government shall be at liberty and shall have full power and right to assume and bring under the direct management of the servants of the British Government such part or parts of the territorial possessions of His Highness as shall appear to the said Government necessary to render the funds efficient and available either in time of peace or war, or the whole, should the welfare of the country require it.

ARTICLE 13.

It is hereby further agreed that, whenever the British Government shall signify to the said Maharajah Raghojee Booslah, that it is become necessary to carry into effect the provision of the 12th Article, His said Highness shall immediately issue orders to his amils or other officers for placing the territories required under the exclusive authority and control of the said Government, and in case His Highness shall not issue such orders within ten days from the time when the application shall have been formally made to him, then the British Government shall be at liberty to issue orders by its own authority for assuming the collections and management of the said territories. Provided always that whenever and as long as any part of His said Highness' territories shall be placed and shall remain under the exclusive authority and control of the said British Government, the said Government shall render to His Highness a true and faithful account of the revenues and produce of the territories so assumed; provided also that in no case whatever shall His Highness' actual receipt of annual income arising out of his territorial revenue be less than the fifth part of the net revenues of the whole of his territories, which amount of one-fifth of the said net revenues the British Government engages at all times to secure and cause to be paid for His Highness' use.

ARTICLE 14.

The hill of Seetabuldee and that adjacent to it, with the land and bazars adjoining, within a boundary line which will be settled, shall be annexed to the British Residency, and the British Government shall be at full liberty to keep up the necessary works for rendering them a good military position, which have been or may be erected upon them or elsewhere within the boundary aforesaid.

The Maharajah also engages at all times to furnish such pasture land as may be required for the use of the British forces at the most convenient places adjoining to the cantonments of the different divisions of the said forces.

ARTICLE 15.

The Maharajah also agrees that the British Government shall be at all times at liberty to garrison and occupy such fortresses and strong places within his dominions, as it shall appear to them advisable to take charge of, and that all officers and all troops, whether individually or collectively belonging to the Honorable Company, shall have free ingress to and egress from all His Highness' forts and places of strength when necessary for their safety.
ARTICLE 16.

Whenever called upon by the British Government, the Maharajah agrees to collect as many Brinjarries as possible, and to store as much grain as may be practicable in convenient places for the purpose of aiding the supplies of the armies of both States in any contest in which they may be engaged.

ARTICLE 17.

This Treaty, consisting of seventeen Articles, being settled and concluded at Nagpore, on the first day of December in the year 1826, corresponding with Jumadee 1st, in the year of the Hijere 1242, by Richard Jenkins, Esq., with Maharajah Raghojee Bhooslah, Mr. Jenkins has delivered to the said Maharajah a copy of the same in English, Persian, and Mahratta, sealed and signed by himself, and His Highness has delivered to Mr. Jenkins another copy also in English, Persian, and Mahratta, bearing His Highness’ seal and signature, and Mr. Jenkins has engaged to procure and deliver to His Highness without delay a copy of the same duly ratified by the Right Honorable William Pitt, Lord Amherst, Governor-General, etc., etc., on the receipt of which by His said Highness the present Treaty shall be deemed complete and binding on the Honorable East India Company and on His Highness, and the copy now delivered to His said Highness shall be returned.

NO. CLXIII.

REVISED ENGAGEMENT between the HONORABLE COMPANY and the RAJAH of NAGPORE,—1829.

Whereas, in view to the promotion of the welfare, dignity, and independence of the Rajah of Nagpore, and to the mutual benefit and convenience of the Honorable Company and His Highness' Government, it has been deemed expedient to alter and modify certain Articles of the Treaty of 13th December 1826, the following provisions have accordingly been arranged and concluded, on the one part by Francis B. S. Wilder, Esq., Resident at the Court of Nagpore, in the name and on behalf of the Right Honorable Lord William Cavendish Bentinck, Governor-General in Council, and on the other by Maharajah Raghojeej Bhoosla, Rajah of Nagpore.

ARTICLE 1.

Articles 8 and 9 of the existing Treaty are hereby rescinded, and it is agreed that, in lieu of the obligations contracted by those Articles, the Rajah of Nagpore shall pay to the British Government an annual subsidy of Sonat Rupees eight lakhs per annum, by quarterly instalments, i.e., on the 6th of September, 6th December, 6th March, and 6th June of each year; in consideration whereof the reserved districts will be given up to His Highness' management, and his army made over entirely to his own authority and disposal, the British officers employed in the Nagpore service being at the same time withdrawn. The transfer of territory is to take effect from the close of the present Nagpore Fussilee year, or 6th June 1830. Arrangements for gradually disbanding the auxiliary force, as at present constituted, will be immediately put in train, it being of course the duty of the Rajah to provide in their room, and from his own funds, a national force adequate to the ordinary protection of his subjects and the performance of internal duties.

ARTICLE 2.

The Rajah agrees to respect and abide by the conditions of the Quinquennial Settlement, concluded with the poteils, ryots, and others by the British authorities in his name, during the period for which the several leases were contracted. His Highness also binds himself to maintain inviolate all Agreements and Engagements formed with the Gond and other Tributary Chiefs and Zemindars by British officers under the sanction and authority of the Resident.

ARTICLE 3.

Articles 10, 12, and 13 of the existing Treaty are hereby cancelled, and the following modified provisions substituted in lieu thereof. It shall be competent to the British Government, through its local representative, to offer advice to the Maharajah, his heirs and successors, on all important matters, whether relating to the internal administration of the Nagpore territory or to external concerns, and His Highness shall be bound to act in conformity thereto. If, which God forbid, gross and systematic oppression, anarchy and misrule should hereafter at any time prevail, in neglect of repeated advice and remonstrance, seriously endangering the public tranquility and placing in jeopardy the stability of the resources whence His Highness discharges his obligations to the Honorable Company, the British Government reserves to itself the right of re-appointing its own officers to the management of such district or districts of the Nagpore territory in His Highness' name, and for so long a period as it may deem necessary, the surplus receipts in such case, after defraying charges, to be paid into the Rajah's treasury.

ARTICLE 4.

Article 11 of the existing Treaty is hereby declared subject to the following modification. In lieu of the obligation it imposes, the Rajah agrees to maintain at all times, in a state of efficiency, a body of not less than one thousand of the best description of Irregular Horse, organised and disciplined after the native fashion, commanded by his own Native officers, and subject to His Highness' exclusive authority. In the event of war, this force shall be liable to serve with the British army in the field, receiving batta from the Honorable Company in compensation of the extra expense of their maintenance, whenever employed beyond the Nagpore frontier.

ARTICLE 5.

Article 15 of the existing Treaty is hereby abrogated.

ARTICLE 6.

All the other provisions and conditions of the Treaty concluded at Nagpore on the 13th December 1826, which are not affected by the above convention, are to remain in full force and effect.

ARTICLE 7.

This Engagement, consisting of seven Articles, being settled and concluded at Nagpore, on the 26th day of December 1829, corresponding with 29th Jumadilakhir, in the year of the Hijree 1245, by Francis B. S. Wilder, Esquire, with Maharajah Raghojee Bhoosla, Mr. Wilder has delivered to the said Maharajah a copy of the same in English, Persian, and Mahratta, sealed and signed by himself, and His Highness has delivered to Mr. Wilder another copy, also in English, Persian, and Mahratta, bearing His Highness' seal and signature, and Mr. Wilder has engaged to procure and deliver to His Highness, without delay, a copy of the same duly ratified by the Right Honorable Lord William Cavendish Bentinck, Governor-General, etc., etc., etc., on the receipt of which by His Highness, the present Engagement shall be deemed complete and binding on the Honorable East India Company and on His Highness, and the copy now delivered to His said Highness shall be returned.

SPECIMEN SUNNUD.

To

KESHEN RAO, SON OF MADHO, SIRMUNDLOOE,
SIRCANOONGOE, PERGUNNAH KUSRAWUD.

Whereas you formerly held the office of Sirmundlooe, Sircanoongoe, as a pergunnah officer, in the district of Nimar, and enjoyed certain allowances by way of ziraut, jagheer, and cash percentage on the public revenues; and whereas the services you rendered in that office will not in future be required by the Government; and whereas it has thus seemed fit to arrange for your proper maintenance in future in consideration of your previous services and present status; therefore the Governor-General in Council has been pleased to order that your ziraut and jagheer, as noted at foot hereof, continue in your possession in freehold enam, with the full power of alienation by gift, sale, adoption, or otherwise, subject to good behaviour and the annual payment into the Government treasury by half-yearly instalments of Rupees 245 as quit-rent.

In token whereof this Sunnud is granted to you this day of 1865.
No. CLXV.

Specimen Sunnud.

To

Keshen Rao, son of Madho, Sirmundloee, Sircanoongoe, Pergunnah Kusrawud.

Whereas you have held the office of Sirmundloee, Sircanoongoe, as a pergunnah officer, in the district of Nimar, and enjoyed certain allowances by way of ziraut, jagheer, and cash percentages on the public revenues; and whereas the service you rendered in that office will not in future be required by the Government; and whereas it has thus seemed fit to arrange for your proper maintenance in future in consideration of your previous services and present status; therefore the Governor-General in Council has been pleased to order that, in addition to freehold enam, you receive from the public Treasury the sum of Rupees 4,480-6 in half-yearly instalments, in lieu of the cash perquisites enjoyed by you; and that such pension be continued to your heirs, sons, brothers, and brothers' sons, in hereditary succession, subject to good behaviour.

In token whereof this Sunnud is granted to you this day of 1865.

No. CLXVI.

Specimen Engagements entered into by the Zemindars of Chattisgarh—1821.

I, Ram Raee, the Zemindar of Sonakhan, with its twelve dependent villages in the Province of Chattisgarh, and subject to the Government of Nagpore, and my descendants, enter into the following Engagement:

1. I will obey the orders of the Sircar, and will be engaged in no rebellion or treachery against it.

2. I will inform the Sircar of any intrigues to its prejudice which come to my knowledge.

3. I will pay my tribute (tuckolee) regularly to Chattisgarh in two instalments annually to the Agent of the Sircar authorised to receive it, and according to the separate arrangements entered into with the Government.

4. Customs (syer) belong to the Sircar, and I will levy none, and I will take the bazaar, which shall not be increased beyond the established usage, and for this I engage to pass traders safely through my zemindary.

5. I will offer no interruption to travellers or merchants passing through my zemindary, but will always assist and protect them. If they are robbed, I will be responsible, or either give up the thieves, the property, or its price.

6. If any criminals or traitors seek refuge in my zemindary, I will immediately deliver them up to the Sircar.
7. I will not punish any person with death without the previous sanction of the Sircar, and will impose only such fines as are sanctioned by practice, are just and necessary for the suppression of crimes and irregularity. Under false pretences I will not impose any; and will not compel widows to re-marry against their own wishes. I submit to the decision of the Sircar in all appeals made against my judicial awards.

8. I will not appropriate to myself the effects of the dead when there are sons or heirs; property shall descend from father to son, or to the nearest heir.

9. I will not make war upon any zemindar or other person without the orders of the Sircar; my disputes with others I will refer to the decision of the Sircar.

10. I will cherish my ryots and do all in my power to increase the prosperity of my zemindary.

Ryecore, 17th February 1821.

Specimen Sunnuds granted to the Zemindars of Deogurh.

Translation of a Sunnud granted in the name and on the part of Sreemunt Maharaj Rajah Sree Senah Sahib Soobah Ragojee Bhooslah by Richard Jenkins, Esq., British Resident, on the part of the Honorable East India Company, at the Court of Nagpore, to Mohun Sing Thakoor, of Puchmurree.

Whereas your forefathers held and you continue to hold certain villages, lands and rights appertaining thereunto in the zillah of Deogurh as follows:

Talooka Puchmurree, 7 villages. Pergunnah Heeradurgh, 7 villages. Pergunnah Pertaubghur, 6 villages.

Puchmurree, Choomee, Nadowra, Kanee Chapper Dhama, Barkheree, Bajbyheree, Jont (lesser), Peepeereeah, Telee Bhut, Delakharee, Jont (greater), Bejoree, Charkherea, Banumwara, Chappar, Murka Dhanoo, Jayee, Thorawaree, Modaree.

and the villages of Peerawaree (pergunnah unascertained), comprising a total of 26 villages; they have been and are hereby confirmed to you and to your heirs for ever, and all the Rajahs, Thakoors, Zemindars and others are hereby enjoined to avoid all interference with your management of them and you are hereby held responsible for maintaining them in cultivation and population, binding yourself thereby to yield immediate obedience to all orders or calls for service of any sort by this Government, as may be hereafter specified.

Whereas three Jatras are annually held in the Mahadeo hills on which you have claims from pilgrims and others, the following arrangement is now made with you on that head: agreeable to it [and with your full consent previously rendered] you must hereafter abide refraining from every species of interference or violence.

The Jatra of Sawun is your exclusive right, but no tax can be levied on pilgrims in progress to the temple.

In the Jatra of Kartik the offerings at the shrine are the joint right of the three Thakoors, in which you will continue to participate. No taxes, however, to be levied on pilgrims.

In the Sooratree Jatra of Phagoon, or the Great Jatra, the offerings are also the joint right of the three Thakoors, and this will continue, and for the taxes levied thereto at the several ghauts and roads leading to the temple or connected with it, they belong for the future to Government, and the following provision is hereby made:

In lieu of your right to levy a tax on pilgrims at the several river and hill ghauts leading to the temple, which you have hitherto exercised, but which is now resumed by Government, and in lieu of your claim on one-third of the profits arising from the duties levied on pilgrims, cattle, merchandise, etc., etc., at Koreel Ghaut, together with your exclusive right to the whole profit of the Tara Ghaut, Government hereby agrees to give you, for a period of three years, commencing with the year 1230 Fuslee, and ending with the year 1232 Fuslee, an annual sum of Nagpore Rupees 750.

This sum will be paid to you by the Government direct; you have no further right on the pilgrim duties, but on the expiration of three years, should you feel so disposed, you may apply for a new arrangement, which will meet with due consideration.

Such are the arrangements for the Pooja and Jatra rights; by no means interfere in them in any other way than is now written, "taking care that no theft or purloining shall occur during the assembly of the pilgrims at the Murr. You are responsible." Avoid also all violence in every way towards them or to traders, visitors, etc.; all collections from them and pilgrims in progress to the Jatra belong exclusively to Government.

All items, such as Ureeta, Furobee, Rand, Dhurawun, Jejcea, Kularu, Moohwa Paunree, etc., etc., hitherto levied by you, as well as the zemindyary Sayer Khoont, are confirmed to you.

And in consideration of your expenses, this Government has also bestowed on you a right to levy the Sayer of Nandoura on its present scale; avoid increasing it without authority.

This therefore, as above detailed, is the provision made for you by this Government. Receive and eat; have no concern for the interference of others. In return your duties to Government are as follow:

You will henceforth pay to Government in quit-rent 25 rupees in ready money, 10 seers of Cherongee, 5 seers Honey, 10 Bamboo Balas, and 10 Churrees; send them yearly.

You are hereby bound to appear in person at call, yielding attendance on the immediate Agent under whom you are placed, obeying every order implicitly; if called on you will appear with five or ten (number undefined) attendants ready to do every duty imposed. You are held responsible for the internal tranquillity and good arrangement of your own lands throughout their boundary, settling and keeping under all thieves, rogues, and villains of every description, shewing in no instance the semblance of bad faith to Government, offering no excuse in a ready obedience to its mandates, and are held responsible for any act of criminality or irregularity, whether of your relatives or your ryots; any person throughout your bounds, being guilty of any irregularity of any nature, for his act you are amenable, unless you produce the culprit or trace him to the satisfaction of the Government.
You are positively prohibited entertaining any foreign soldiers or bearers of weapons without its authority.

No. CLXVII.

KUBOOLYUT executed by RAJAH JOOJHAR SING OF RAIGURH, dated 25th May 1819.

Whereas a settlement in perpetuity of the whole of Raigurh, with its Tuppahs Pilka, Tarapore, and Khass Raigurh, from 1818, has been concluded with me, I, Rajah Joojhar Sing of Raigurh, do voluntarily agree and promise to pay, without alleging any pretext, an annual tribute of 30 gold mohurs as a mark of my allegiance to the British Government. The tribute will be paid in one instalment in the month of Cheyt.
No. CLXVIII.
Specimen Engagement.

Kuboolyut executed by Maharajah Bhoopal Deo of Patna, dated 17th February 1827, A.D.

Whereas the whole of Khalsa Patna, which is my zamindary, has been settled with me for five years, from 1236* to 1240 Nagpore year, at an annual jumma of Sicca Rupees 562-8-0, or an aggregate jumma of Rupees 2,812-8-0, including “Mal,” “Abwab Muhamoolee,” or other customary duties, excepting unclaimed and intestate property, Khyrat, jaghire, “Bishoonpeereet” endowments, I, Maharajah Bhoopal Deo of Patna, do freely and voluntarily execute this agreement, in which I promise that I will, according to the prescribed instalments and without pleading any excuse on the score of drought or diluvion, punctually pay in my revenue at Sembulpore every year. I will conciliate my ryots, and adopt such measures as shall tend to the improvement of my estate. I will not harbour offenders against public justice, such as highwaymen, dacoits, thieves, and such like characters; and should I detect any such persons within my estate I will promptly apprehend and bring them to justice. I will duly report to the authorities all that occurs within my estate.

(Here follows the specification alluded to.)

No. CLXIX.

Translation of a Kuboolyut executed by Maharajah Maharaj Sahee of Sumbulpore, binding himself to the right discharge of Police and Judicial duties, dated 22nd February 1827.

Whereas I, Maharajah Maharaj Sahee of Sumbulpore, have been vested with authority from the Government to administer justice, and to conduct Police duties within the limits of my estate, and I have voluntarily accepted the obligation, I do hereby promise that I will, with all faithfulness and integrity, discharge the duties entrusted to me. I will conscientiously and impartially decide all civil causes. I will hear and properly investigate all suits preferred to me; and I will, to the utmost of my ability, give no reason to any one for dissatisfaction. If the litigating parties desire arbitration, I will permit them to have recourse to that mode of settling their differences, and I will direct the Punchayet to decide with conscientiousness and impartiality. I will promptly investigate all heinous offences, such as dacoity, plunder, murder, wounding, burglary, theft, highway robbery, etc., that may occur. I will apprehend the offenders, and after duly recording the depositions I will pass an impartial judgment. I will report all that occurs within my estate to the authorities. I will submit regularly, on the 5th of each month, a Statement of Crimes; and I will never be guilty of concealing any offence. I will not myself oppress, nor will I suffer my "Amlahs" to oppress, any of my ryots, or any persons residing within my estate. I will not, by oppression, confinement, or otherwise, levy the cesses prohibited by Government; and I will not appropriate unclaimed or intestate property; it belongs to the Government. All such property I will take charge of and report to Government for orders. I will be personally responsible in the event of the terms above agreed to being violated; and should a breach of engagement be proved against me, I will render myself liable to any penalty that may be imposed on me for such offence.

Sunnud granted to Lal Futteh Sing, Zemindar of Khyraghur, dated Simla, the 20th May 1865.

Her Majesty being desirous that the Governments of the several Princes and Chiefs of India who now govern their own territories should be perpetuated, and that the representation and dignity of their houses should be continued, in fulfilment of this desire, this Sunnud is given to you to convey to you the assurance that, on failure of natural heirs, the British Government will recognise and confirm any adoption of a successor made by yourself, or by any future Chief of your State, that may be in accordance with Hindoo law and the customs of your race.

2. Be assured that nothing shall disturb the engagement thus made to you so long as your house is loyal to the Crown and faithful to the conditions of the grants or engagements which record its obligations to the British Government.

NO. CLXXII.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF FEALTY presented by LAL FUTTEH SING, Zemindar of KYRAGHUR.

I am a Chieftain under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces. I have now been recognized by the British Government as a feudatory, subject to the political control of the Chief Commissioner, or of such officer as he may direct me to subordinate myself to.

I will respect and maintain all rights within my territories; I will attend to the prosperity of my ryots, to the strict administration of justice, and to the effectual suppression of crime. When a criminal convicted before me shall merit the punishment of death, or a term of imprisonment beyond seven years, I will refer the case to such British officer as the Chief Commissioner may appoint before I punish the offender.

If any person who has committed an offence in my State shall fly to British or other territory, I will represent the matter to British officers, in order that the offender may be given up. Should any persons who have committed offences in British territory, or criminals belonging to British territory, seek refuge in my country, they shall be pursued by officers of the British Government, and I will render every assistance in capturing and delivering up such fugitives.

I will pay into the British Treasury an annual tribute of Rupees (34,900) thirty-four thousand nine hundred, and when the amount of my tribute may come from time to time under revision, I will render every assistance towards settling such amount. I will always pay punctually such tribute as may be settled.

I engage not to levy transit duties within my jurisdiction, neither by myself nor my successors.

I will take such an order with my subjects that they shall have no cause to complain against injustice of mine; and when complaints preferred against them are referred to me by British officers, I will dispose of them equitably. When the Chief Commissioner, or his officers, shall give me instructions or advice, I will obey such instructions and accept such advice. And I will conform, and cause my subjects to conform, to such Forest Regulations as the Chief Commissioner may be pleased to prescribe.

If at any time, through the misconduct of myself or my successor, my State should fall into great disorder, or great oppression should be practised, then I, or my successor, shall be liable to suspension or forfeiture of my or his governing powers. I engage to depute a Vakeel to be in attendance at the Court of the Deputy Commissioner of Sumbulpur, or at any other Court where the Chief Commissioner from time to time may direct.

To

GHUNSHAM SING, RAJAH OF RAIGURH CUM BURGURH.

Whereas you were formerly a Tributary Chief of a Gurjat State, His Excellency the Viceroy of India in Council has now been pleased to recognize you a Feudatory and to permit you to govern your own territories in all matters whether criminal, civil, or revenue, with the following proviso, that in the event of any offender appearing to you to merit capital punishment, you will, before passing orders for carrying out such sentence, send the case up to the Commissioner of the Chutteesgurh Division, or other such officer as shall be nominated by the British Government, for confirmation.

Your nomination to be a Feudatory is also subject to the following conditions; and should you fail in complying with any of them, you will be liable to have your powers as a Feudatory circumscribed:

1. That you shall pay regularly the tribute of Rs. 400 now fixed for 20 years, viz., from the current year 1867 to the year 1887 A.D., and that the said tribute shall be liable to revision at the expiration of the said term, or at any time thereafter that the Government may think fit.

2. That you shall deliver up any offender from British or other Territory who may take refuge in your State; that you will aid British officers who may pursue criminals into your territory; and that in the event of offenders from your State taking refuge in British or other Territory, you will make a representation in the matter to the authorities concerned.

3. That you shall do your utmost to suppress crimes of all kinds in your State.

4. That you shall administer justice fairly and impartially to all alike.

5. That you shall recognize the rights of all your people and continue them in the same, and that on no account shall you oppress them or suffer them in any way to be oppressed.

6. That you shall levy no transit duties on grain, merchandize or any article of commerce passing through your State.

7. That you shall accept and follow such advice and instructions as may be communicated to you by the Commissioner of the Chutteesgurh Division, the Deputy Commissioner of Sumbulpore or any officer duly vested with authority by the Chief Commissioner, Central Provinces.
(8) That you shall appoint an approved Vakeel to be a permanent resident at the Sudder Station of the Sumbulpore District, in view to all orders affecting your State being communicated through him to you.

(9) That you shall manage your abkaree revenue in such manner as not to interfere with the adjacent British territory, and that if your abkaree arrangements do so interfere, the Chief Commissioner shall have authority to raise your tribute by Rs. 500 per annum, until your abkaree arrangements are again satisfactory.

THE RESIDENCY, NAGPUR,

4th September 1867.

(Sd.) J. H. MORRIS,

Offg. Chief Commissioner.

A similar Sanad was granted on the same date to Sungram Singh, Rajah of Sarungurh, fixing his tribute at Rs. 1,350.

NO. CLXXIV.

IKRARNAMAH or ENGAGEMENT between the GOVERNMENT of NAGPUR and MYPAUL DEO, RAJAH OF BASTAR, and his heirs and successors, concluded on the part of the Government of NAGPUR by MAJOR P. VANS AGNEW, in virtue of powers vested in him and on the part of RAJAH MYPAUL DEO, by NARRAIN and KASIR SING DOW, in virtue of powers vested in them,—1819.

ARTICLE 1.

The Rajah Mypaul Deo acknowledges his dependence on the State of Nagpur, and on his own part and that of his heirs and successors engages to be faithful to it and to obey its orders.

ARTICLE 2.

The Government of Nagpur engages, as far as in its power, to protect the territory of Bastar.

ARTICLE 3.

The Rajah Mypaul Deo and his heirs and successors will act in subordinate co-operation with the Government of Nagpur.
ARTICLE 4.

The Rajah, his heirs and successors, will not have any connection, or enter into any negociation, or commence hostilities with other Chiefs and States without the knowledge and sanction of the Government of Nagpur, and will submit all disputes with others to its arbitration and award.

ARTICLE 5.

The Rajah of Bastar, his heirs and successors, engage to give a free passage and protection to all traders passing through their country, and not to exact any unusual or oppressive duties.

ARTICLE 6.

The Rajah of Bastar, his heirs and successors, engage that, should any of the enemies of the State of Nagpur, or any criminal, seek refuge in the territory of Bastar, they shall immediately be given up.

ARTICLE 7.

Rajah Mypaul Deo, his heirs and successors, engage to pay annually, in three equal instalments, viz.,—in Jilcand, Reb-el-Awul, and Rejub, to the Government of Nagpur, the usual tuckolee or tribute of 5,000 Nagpur Rupees in coin, and to depute a vakeel for this and other purposes to Chutteesgurh. It is provided, however, by this agreement that whilst the districts of Kotepaul and its dependencies are separated from the territory of Bastar a remission of one-fifth of this tuckolee or tribute be allowed.

ARTICLE 8.

The Government of Nagpur renounces all tuckolee or tribute due by Bastar up to the end of the year Fussulee 1227, on the condition that the tuckolee for Fussulee 1228 be punctually paid.

ARTICLE 9.

This engagement of nine Articles having been concluded and signed and sealed by Major P. Vans Agnew and by Narrain and Kasir Sing Dow, the ratification of the same by the Government of Nagpur and Rajah Mypaul Deo shall be exchanged within three months from this date.

NO. CLXXV.

KUOOLOYVUT of RAJAH UMOLE SING, PROPRIETOR of PER-GUNNAH KOREA, dated 3rd January 1848.

Whereas, with the sanction of the Government conveyed in their Secretary's letters No. 27, dated 17th May 1847, and No. 48, dated 5th July following, I, the Agent to the Governor-General at Ranchee, in Chota Napore, have concluded with you, Raiaj Umole Sing, Zemindar and proprietor of Pergunnah Korea, a settlement of that Pergunnah, containing 350 mouzas, "Uslee and Dakhilee," with a right to all cultivated and waste land, jungles and hills, jheel and beel, reservoir, tanks, wells, "kutcha and pucks," "Julker" (fisheries), Bunker, and Putkier (forest produce), ponds, groves of "Tar, Muhoowa, and Mango," productive and unproductive, at an annual jumma of Company's Rupees 400 for ten years, from 1255 to 1264 F., excepting Lakhraj, Khyrat, Bishoompeereet, Aina, Brahmutur, and Shibotur lands, Abwabs and Sayer, Gunjeat, Tuhbazaaree, Dân, and other bazaar dues, it becomes you to conciliate and render contented all resident, as well as Pyekasht, Ryots in your villages, together with the Illaquodars of the said Pergunnah, to take proper measures for the improvement of your estate and the collection of the revenue. You should exert yourself with a view to extend cultivation, and let the fruits of your exertions become apparent. You should pay into the Government Treasury the revenue at which your estate has been assessed, according to the terms of the settlement, kist by kist, and year by year, without alleging any plea; and, as is customary, you will obtain an acquittance at the close of the year. You must not exact from any one the following cesses prohibited by the Government: Rukham Sayer, Zukhat, Gunjeat, Tuhbazaaree, and other Abwabs; and you must not permit any one to collect or exact these cesses within your estate; you must not, without the sanction of Government, grant any lands rent-free. You have no right to the produce of gold, silver, coal or diamond mines, or to any minerals whatever under ground within Pergunnah Korea. All these belong to the Government. You must claim no remission of the revenue fixed by the present settlement on the plea of drought or diluvion, or absconding of ryots. No such plea will be admitted. You must guard every corner of your estate, so that nothing untoward fall out. You must guard the Passes and permit travellers to have free ingress and egress without molestation.
You must not harbour within your estate thieves, dacoits, thugs, kuzzacks, and other bad characters. You must exercise such vigilance and adopt such measures that no man shall oppress his neighbour, and that such crimes as dacoity, highway robbery, thuggee, theft, etc. shall be suppressed.
All the profits you acquire by increasing cultivation within your estates will be your own. You must render unhesitating obedience to the Government, and you must never evince any inclination to resist their orders. Until the appointment of a British officer to the Pergunnah, the Police duties will be conducted by you. All Police and Foujdarry cases, heinous and petty, that occur within your estate, you will promptly investigate and decide according to the method approved by the Authorities, and you will report the result to them. You will, like all other Zemindars, perform Police duties. When the time arrives for the appointment of a British officer, he will superintend the Police and conduct all cases, Dewannee and Foujdarry, and you will even then continue to perform Police duties. You will be responsible for all crimes committed within your estate, and you will exercise the same Police powers as the Ilaquadar of Jubbulpore and Sagur. Your responsibilities, too, will be the same as theirs. You must not conceal any crime or hush up a case, but you must decide it impartially. You must submit to the Agent, Governor-General, Monthly Criminal Returns and Reports. If you fail in the payment of the Government revenue, and if it be proved that you are guilty of neglect of your Police duties, of disobedience of orders, of the crime of oppression and tyranny over your Ryots, or of taking or giving bad counsel, the whole Zemindarry of the said Pergunnah will be resumed by the Government, and you will be debarred from all interference with it. In the above event the orders of Government are positive; you should therefore be cautious and vigilant in all respects.

N.B.—The Agreement with the Chang Bhakar Zemindar was drawn up in the same terms precisely.

KABOOLIAT of the ZEMINDAR of CHANG BHAKHAR—1875.

I, Bhayah Bahadoor Balbhader Sing Deo, Zemindar of Chung Bhakhar, in Chota Nagpore, do hereby execute this kabooliat.

That whereas the estate of Chung Bhakhar has been open to resettlement or revision since the 3rd of January 1858, but in consequence of the said estate being backward, and there appearing no particular reason for revision or resettlement, the settlement made with Bhayah Bahadoor Jung Jeet Sing Deo, on the 3rd of January 1848, has been allowed to stand; and whereas His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India in Council having been satisfied with the manner in which I have discharged my duties, has been graciously pleased to direct the present settlement to be renewed for a period of 20 years, from the 12th day of April 1875 to 11th of April 1895, I do hereby promise to obey and bind by the conditions, agreements, and stipulations detailed in the kabooliat executed by my late father, the said Bhayah Bahadoor Jung Jeet Sing, on the 3rd of January 1848.

BHAYAH BAHADOOR BALBHADER SING DEO,

Zemindar of Chung Bhakhar.

Dated 24th July 1875.

Commissioner of Chota Nagpore.

NO. CLXXVIII.

Sanad given to the Chief of Chang Bhakar relative to his status and position—1899.

Whereas the status and position with reference to the British Government of the Tributary Mahal of Chang Bhakar in Chota Nagpur has hitherto been undifined, and doubts have from time to time arisen with regard thereto; His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council is pleased to grant to you, Bhaya Mahabir Singh Deo, the following sanad, with a view to assuring you that the British Government will continue, as long as you remain loyal to the Crown and abide by the conditions of the sanad, and of your other engagements with the British Government, to maintain you in the position and privileges which you have heretofore enjoyed or which are now conferred upon you:—

SANAD.

I.—You, Bhaya Mahabir Singh Deo, son of Lal Run Bahadur Singh Deo, are hereby formally recognised as the Feudatory Chief of the Chang
Bhakar State, and you are permitted, as heretofore, to generally administer the territory of the said Chang Bhakar State, subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed. In like manner your heirs and successors shall become entitled to your privileges and liable to your obligations; provided that no succession shall be valid until it has been recognised by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council.

II. — You shall, during the next twenty years, pay a tribute or peshkash of rupees three hundred and eighty-seven, and this amount may be revised thereafter, if His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council should so direct. Your successors shall pay nazaran to the British Government on succession in accordance with the general rules on that subject for the time being in force.

III. — You shall conform in all matters concerning the preservation of law and order and the administration of justice generally, within the limits of your State, to the instructions issued from time to time for your guidance by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal. You will appoint such officers, and pay them such emoluments as, on full consideration of the circumstances and of such representations as you may wish to make, may, from time to time, appear necessary to His Honour the Lieutenant Governor of Bengal, for the proper hearing of cases and administration of justice in your State. It will also be competent to you to nominate for appointment by His Honour as Honorary Magistrates or Munsifs such other persons as you may wish to be so appointed from time to time.

IV. — You shall deliver up any offender from British or other territory who may take refuge in your State. You shall aid British officers who may pursue criminals into your territory, and, in the event of offenders from your own State taking refuge in British or other territory, you shall make a representation on the matter to the authorities concerned.

V. — You shall administer justice fairly and impartially to all alike.

VI. — You shall recognise and maintain the rights of all your people, and you shall on no account oppress them or suffer them to be in any way oppressed.

VII. — You shall levy no tolls or duties of any kind on grain, merchandise, or other articles passing into, or out of, or through your State without the permission of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

VIII. — You shall consult the Commissioner of Chota Nagpur in all important matters of administration, and comply with his wishes. The settlement and collection of the land revenue, the imposition of taxes, the administration of justice, arrangements connected with excise, salt and opium, the concession of forest and other rights, disputes arising out of any such concession and disputes in which other States are concerned, shall be regarded as specially important matters, and in respect to them you shall at all times conform to such advice as the Commissioner may give you,
VIII A.—You shall, as hitherto, have no right to the produce of gold, silver, coal or diamond mines, or to any minerals whatsoever under ground within your State, all these being the property of the British Government.

IX.—The right to catch elephants in your State is granted to you as a personal concession and as a matter of favour, but this concession is liable to withdrawal whenever it may seem desirable either on account of abuse or for other reasons, and it will not necessarily be granted to your successor.

X.—All questions as to boundaries between your State and British or other territory will be dealt with by the Commissioner of Chota Nagpur or such other officer as the Government of India or His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal may appoint, either generally, or specially in that behalf, with two assessors, one of whom is to be nominated by yourself, unless in any such case you should prefer that the question should be decided by such Commissioner or other officer alone, in which case the question shall be referred for his decision accordingly.

7. You shall levy no tolls or duties of any kind on grain, merchandise, or other articles passing into, or out of, or through, your State without the permission of the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces.

8. You shall consult the Political Agent, Chhattisgarh Feudatories, in all important matters of administration, and comply with his wishes. The settlement and collection of the land revenue, the imposition of taxes, the administration of justice, arrangements connected with excise, salt, and opium, the concession of forest and other rights, disputes arising out of any such concession, and disputes in which other States are concerned, shall be regarded as specially important matters, and in respect to them you shall at all times conform to such advice as the Political Agent may give you.

9. You shall, as hitherto, have no right to the produce of gold, silver, coal, or diamond mines, or to any minerals whatsoever underground within your State, all these being the property of the British Government.

10. The right to catch elephants in your State is granted to you as a personal concession and as a matter of favour, but this concession is liable to withdrawal whenever it may seem desirable either on account of abuse or for other reasons, and it will not necessarily be granted to your successor.

11. All questions as to boundaries between your State and British or other territory will be dealt with by the Political Agent, Chhattisgarh Feu-datories, or such other officer as the Government of India or the Chief Commissoner of the Central Provinces may appoint, either generally or specially, in that behalf, with two assessors, one of whom is to be nominated by yourself, unless in any such case you should prefer that the question should be decided by such Political Agent or other officer alone, in which case the question shall be referred for his decision accordingly.

SANAD given to the CHIEF of KOREA, regarding his status and position, on the transfer of his State from the Government of Bengal to the Central Provinces Administration—1905.

Whereas the status and position with reference to the British Government of the Tributary Mahal of Korea in the Central Provinces has hitherto been undefined, and doubts have from time to time arisen with regard thereof; His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council is pleased to grant to you, Raja Seo Mangal Singh Deo, the following sanad, in supersession of that granted to you on the 8th March 1899, with a view to assuring you that the British Government will continue, as long as you remain loyal to the Crown and abide by the conditions of the sanad, and of your other engagements with the British Government, to maintain you in the position and privileges which you have heretofore enjoyed, or which are now conferred upon you:—

1. You, Raja Seo Mangal Singh Deo, son of Raja Pran Singh Deo, are hereby formally recognised as the Feudatory Chief of the Korea State, and you are permitted, as heretofore, to administer generally the territory of the said Korea State, subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed. In like manner your heirs and successors shall become entitled to your privileges and liable to your obligations; provided that no succession shall be valid until it has been recognised by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council.

2. You shall, during the next fourteen years, pay a tribute or peshkash of rupees five hundred, and this amount may be revised thereafter, if His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council should so direct. Your successors shall pay nazara to the British Government on succession in accordance with the general rules on that subject for the time being in force.

3. These clauses are identical with the corresponding ones in the sanad granted to Chang Bhakar (see No. CLXXIX).

TRANSLATION of a SUNNUD given to OOMR SINGH, RAJAH of SURGOOJAH.

To the Ryots, Cultivators, all the Zemindars, and inhabitants of every description of Surgoovah, know you, agreeably to the orders of the Governor-General, that Lall Oomr Sing, the son of late Lall Juggernath Sing, has been raised to the Guddie of Surgoovah, to be succeeded by his offspring. It is proper that you all consider him your firmly established Rajah, and not disregard his orders in the slightest degree. It behoves the Rajah, who has been raised to the Guddie, to use his utmost endeavours to improve the Country and Revenues, and conciliate his Ryots and Zemindars, and obey all orders of the Government servants.

Kubooyut of Rajah Ummer Sing, Zemindar of Sirgoojah, dated 15th June 1820.

Whereas by the explicit orders of His Excellency the Governor-General in Council, I, Rajah Ummer Sing, have been elevated to the “Gudddee” of the Raj of Sirgoojah, I do hereby promise that I will cordially yield obedience to the British Government, and that I will never swerve from my allegiance to them. I will pay the revenue (Malgoozaree) I have stipulated for, without claiming remission on any plea whatsoever.

NO. CXCV.

Pottah given to Rajah Ummer Sing of Sirgoojah, dated 24th February 1825.

Whereas under sanction of the Government the whole pergunnah of Sirgoojah, with the khalsa lands and tuppahs, have been settled with Rajah Ummer Sing for five years, from 1232 to 1236 F. at an annual jumma of Sicca Rupees 3,001, including “Mal,” “Sayer,” “Abwab Muhmoolee,” or customary dues, “Julkur and Bunkur,” “Tar and Muhoowa,” gardens, excepting Lakheraj lands intestate and unclaimed property, and such cesses as have been prohibited by Government, the said Rajah has agreed to pay, in the stipulated jumma without pleading bad seasons or other calamity; it becomes the said Rajah to take measures for the improvement of his estate to conciliate his Zemindars, Jaghireddars, Ryots, and all residing on his estate, and to pay his revenue (Malgoozaree) into the Government Treasury annually and punctually, according to the instalments agreed upon. He is not to plead drought or diluvion, or the absconding of his ryots. He must exert himself with a view to reclaiming waste lands, and thereby increasing his cultivation. He must not harbour thieves or highwaymen, and such like. All suspicious characters of this description he must apprehend and bring to justice. He must obey and carry out all orders received from the Officers of Government, and he must invariably and duly report all that occurs in the Pergunnah.

(Here comes specification of instalments.)

Sanad given to the Chief of Sirguja, regarding his status and position, on the transfer of his state from the Government of Bengal to the Central Provinces Administration,—1905.

Whereas the status and position with reference to the British Government of the Tributary Mahal of Sirguja in the Central Provinces has hitherto been undefined, and doubts have from time to time arisen with regard thereto, His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council is pleased to grant to you, Maharaja Raghunath Saran Singh Deo Bahadur, the following sanad, in supersession of that granted to you on the 8th March 1899, with a view to assuring you that the British Government will continue, as long as you remain loyal to the Crown and abide by the conditions of the sanad, and of your other engagements with the British Government, to maintain you in the position and privileges which you have heretofore enjoyed, or which are now conferred upon you:

1. You, Maharaja Raghunath Saran Singh Deo Bahadur, son of Maharaja Indrajit Singh Deo, are hereby formally recognised as the Feudatory Chief of the Sirguja State, and you are permitted, as heretofore, to administer generally the territory of the said Sirguja State, subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed. In like manner your heirs and successors shall become entitled to your privileges and liable to your obligations; provided that no succession shall be valid until it has been recognised by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council.

2. You shall, during the next fourteen years, pay a tribute or peshkash of rupees two thousand and five hundred, exclusive of the tribute payable through you by the Feudatory Chief of Jashpur, and this amount may be revised thereafter, if His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council should so direct. Your successors shall pay nazaran to the British Government on succession in accordance with the general rules on that subject for the time being in force.

Translation of the Sunnud granted to Rajah Bindessuree Pershad Sing Deo, Bahadoor, of Oudeypore, by the Commissioner of Chota Nagpore, dated 12th December 1860.

Whereas, in lieu of the loyal services rendered by you, the Pergunnah of Oudeypore has been bestowed on you by the Government, with the title of Rajah Bahadoor, and a Sword and Sunnud, with the Signature and Seal of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India, and whereas the sum of Rupees 533-5-4 is fixed for the tribute of the said Pergunnah, and the sum of 500 rupees is paid out of the collections of the said Pergunnah to Ranee Bunkoonwaree, widow of the late Nursing Deo, Ex-Rajah of Oudeypore, as a pension, and whereas the sum of one rupee per diem is at present paid by Government to the families of Dheeraj Sing and Sewraj Sing for their support, these items are due and obligatory on you to be discharged. It is therefore necessary that you pay into Government Treasury annually by three instalments the sum of Rupees 533-5-4 on account of the tribute of the said Pergunnah, and the amount of 500 rupees on account of the pension of Ranee Bunkoonwaree during her life, and for the present a sum of one rupee per diem for the maintenance of Dheeraj and Sewraj Sing's families, and in future whatever amount may be fixed for their support, you will, without objection, pay into the Government Treasury and will continue to enjoy the Pergunnah bestowed on you and the heirs male of your body; you will remain firm in your alliance to render all such services as may be required of you by the British Government.

(Sd.) E. T. Dalton,
Commissioner of Chota Nagpore.

Translation of the Agreement tendered by Rajah Bindessuree Pershad Sing Deo Bahadoor of Oudeypore, dated 12th December 1860, corresponding with the 15th Aghun 1268 Fuslee.

Whereas I, Bindessuree Pershad Sing Deo, having received through the favour of the Government the Pergunnah of Oudeypore, with the title of Rajah Bahadoor, as also a Sword with a Sunnud under the autograph of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India; whereas the annual tribute of the said Pergunnah is fixed at Rupees 533-5-4, and whereas 500 rupees are paid out of the collections of the said Pergunnah as a pension to Ranee Bunkoonwaree, relict of the late Nursing Deo, Ex-Rajah of Oudeypore; and whereas an allowance of one rupee per diem is paid by Government to the families of Dheeraj Sing and Sewraj Sing for their maintenance, it is a stringent and bounden duty on me to discharge myself all these items. I do therefore promise and place on record that I will pay per annum the sum of Rupees 533.5-4 by three instalments on account of the tribute, and 500 rupees as a stipendiary grant to Ranee Bunkoonwaree during her natural life; and will further pay for the present one rupee a day towards the maintenance of Dheeraj and Sewraj Sing's families, and in future I will pay without objection such amount as the Commissioner of Chota Nagpore shall be pleased to fix for their support, and will continue myself to enjoy the estate bestowed on me and the heirs, etc., and evince always my unflinching zeal and loyalty to the British Government, and be ready to render all services required of me by the British Government. Wherefore I do write these few lines by way of Agreement to be used when required.

(Sd.) BINDESSUREE PERSHAD SING DEO,

Rajah of Oudeypore.

Translation of an Agreement tendered by RAJAH BINDESSUREE PERSHAD SING DEO BAHADDOOR, of Oudeypore, regarding the Police Administration, dated 12th December 1860, corresponding with the 15th Aghun 1268 F.S.

Whereas the Police duties of Pergunnah Oudeypore have been consigned to me by the Government, and I have of my own free will and accord taken them upon myself, I do therefore promise and place on record that I will discharge the duties thereof faithfully and honourably; and whatever suits may be instituted for debts, etc., I will decide impartially and honestly, and will listen to all pleas that may be given. If both parties shall agree to have their dispute decided by arbitration, I will appoint arbitrators, and instruct them to adjust the suit without partiality. In the heinous criminal cases, viz., dacoity, plunder, murder, wounding, burglary, theft, and highway robbery, etc., which may be perpetrated in my jurisdiction, I will make thorough inquiries, and apprehend the offenders and impartially investigate the case. I will send reports of all such cases to the Commissioner. In cases where sentence of more than two years' imprisonment should seem to me necessary, I will submit the records after proper investigation to the Commissioner, as is customary in this Commissionership. I will transmit the monthly papers, etc., on the 5th of every succeeding month, and will not conceal any crime. I will not be guilty of any oppression or hardship on the inhabitants of the said Pergunnah. I will also keep up a vigilant watch on my Amlahs that they may not oppress the ryots. I will not impose or confine any one on account of the prohibited duties. I have no claim on the intestate property, it all belongs to Government, and whatever such property shall come into my hands I will report about it to the Commissioner. If I act contrary to the foregoing stipulations, I shall be held responsible for it, and if it is proved on me I shall submit to the orders passed for me. Wherefore I do write these few lines in the shape of an Agreement to be used when required.

SPECIMEN PATENT granted to NON-FEUDATORY ZEMINDARS of the CHANDA DISTRICT.

TENURE.

1. Shall be indivisible.

2. Shall be untransferable, save to the nearest male heir; and the transfer in such case shall be subject to the approval of the Chief Commissioner.

3. Shall be held by one person, the Zemindar or Zemindarin, for the time being.

4. Shall be held on conditions of—
   (i) Loyalty.
   (ii) Good Police Administration.
   (iii) Improvement and cultivation of estate.

SUCCESSION.

5. Subject to the provisions contained in Clause VI, the order of succession shall be as under—

   On the death of the Zemindar, the estate shall devolve upon his eldest son.

   In default of a son, and when adoption has not taken place, the succession should preferably devolve on the nearest male kinsman, the widow receiving a suitable maintenance.

6. In the event of the first in order of succession being, in the opinion of the local Government, unfit to carry out the conditions of Clause IV, the Zemindaree shall devolve upon the nearest heir who possesses the required qualification.

7. The Zemindar, in the case of gross misconduct, shall be liable to removal by the local Government; and if such removal be ordered, the succession shall take place as if the Zemindar removed had died.

SHARERS.

8. Members of the Zemindar’s family shall have a right to fitting maintenance by the Zemindar.

MANAGEMENT.

9. At least one qualified resident Accountant shall be maintained by the Zemindar. The Accountant previous to appointment shall be approved by the Deputy Commissioner, and shall be liable to removal by the latter’s orders for misconduct or inefficiency.

10. The rent-roll of the Zemindaree showing the receipts under each head of revenue, and the statistical papers of each village in the form prescribed for the khalsa tracts, shall be rendered annually to the Deputy Commissioner.

11. In each village the Zemindar shall appoint a head-man (Patel) as his representative.

12. In the event of dispute as to the remuneration to be paid to the head-man, such remuneration shall be deemed to be ten per cent. on the gross revenue collected in the village.

13. The forests shall be managed by the Zemindar under the rules obtaining in the Government unreserved forests.

14. No agreement for felling trees over a term of more than one year, or for the sale of more than one thousand trees of the reserved kinds, shall have effect without the written sanction of the Deputy Commissioner.

15. In the event of the Police management being defective one or more District Police posts shall be stationed in the Zemindaree, and their cost defrayed by the Zemindar.

Revenue.

16. The revenue from—

- (i) Land,
- (ii) Forests,
- (iii) Abkaree,
- (iv) Pandhari,
- (v) Ferries,
- (vi) Pounds,

shall be enjoyed by the Zemindar.

- (i) Teak.
- (ii) Sheshum.
- (iii) Satin-wood.
- (iv) Dorbeula.
- (v) Mowah.
- (vi) Tendoo.
- (vii) Char.

17. Reserved timber, being of the kinds marginally noted, shall be charged at the discretion of the Zemindar.

18. On unreserved timber, bamboos, grass, and minor forest produce, exported from the Zemindaree, and on the grazing of cattle belonging to persons not resident in the Zemindaree, duty shall be levied at the pleasure of the Zemindar.

19. On unreserved timber, bamboos, grass, and minor forest produce cut or collected by residents in the Zemindaree for their own use, and on the grazing of cattle belonging to them, no duty shall be levied.

It shall be competent to the Zemindar to prescribe the parts of the forest where this right shall be exercised; but the places fixed shall be within a reasonable distance from the residence of the persons concerned.

20. Duty on the manufacture and sale of spirituous liquors shall be levied at the discretion of the Zemindar, but subject to the condition that the duty be so managed as not to injure the distillery system in the khalsa tracts. Should such injury occur, the Deputy Commissioner may take such measures as may seem fit for administering the Abkaree himself; and at the order of the Chief Commissioner the tukolee may be proportionately reduced.

21. Pandhar shall be levied by the Zemindar under the rules obtaining in the khalsa tracts.

22. Ferry toll shall be levied by the Zemindar under the rules obtaining in the khalsa tract, and subject to the condition that efficient ferry boats be kept up at the places prescribed from time to time by the Deputy Commissioner.

23. Pound fees shall be levied by the Zemindar under the rules obtaining in the khalsa tract.

24. Offerings to the Zemindar at the Dusserah shall be considered purely voluntary, which it is optional to the people to give, or not to give, at their own pleasure.

25. All dues, whether in labour, kind, or cash, not entered above, must be regarded as prohibited, and their collection must be discontinued.

26. The produce of quarries and mines is the property of the Crown. Ordinarily, however, the Zemindar shall be allowed to work stone quarries and iron mines without paying a royalty.

27. The duty on the growth and sale of opium and other intoxicating drugs shall be levied as heretofore by the State, and not by the Zemindar.

28. The levy of transit duties is prohibited. But the Zemindar may, with the Deputy Commissioner’s sanction, levy octroi duties in selected towns, provided the yield of such duties be in every case spent on the improvement of such towns.

SUBORDINATE RIGHTS.

29. Every Mookasdar, Muktdar, Patel, or farmer of a village, who has performed such acts with reference to the village he holds as would qualify a tenant in a khalsa village to be declared proprietor of his holding, shall be recorded as proprietor of his holding.

30. Cultivators of fields, of twelve years’ occupancy and upwards, shall be recorded as tenants with right of occupancy.

31. No tenant-at-will shall be ejected unless the Zemindar has given him notice, verbally or in writing, before the 1st of April of the year in which ejectment is to take place.

32. The subjoined extracts from the tehsil wajib-oool-urz for the districts of Chanda shall be applicable to all the villages in the Zemindaree:—

(Here will be entered such clauses of the khalsa administration paper as it may be considered expedient to adopt.)
No. CCIV.

SANAD granted to CHHINDWARA JAGIRDARS.

Whereas the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces, with the sanction of His Excellency the Governor-General in Council, recognises you to be Jagirdar of the estate in the Chhindwara District of the Central Provinces, this Sanad is granted to you in virtue whereof you and your heirs and successors are entitled to hold the estate for ever subject to the conditions and provisos herein set forth:

1. You will pay as tribute to Government the sum of Rs. annually for the period of the settlement now made with you, subject to revision at the discretion of Government after the term of the existing settlement has expired.

2. You will enjoy the income accruing in your estate from the following sources:

   (i) Land.
   (ii) Abkari, including opium and drugs.
   (iii) Pandhri.
   (iv) Cattle Pounds.
   (v) Unclaimed property.
   (vi) Sale of timber and minor Forest dues.

The income from land does not include minerals in regard to which Government reserves all rights.

The concession as regards Abkari income is subject to cancelment at any time if, owing to mismanagement or disregard of the orders issued from time to time for your guidance, your arrangements interfere with the proper enforcement of the system for managing the liquor, opium and drug duties in the adjoining khalsa jurisdiction.

Your Pandhri assessment must be in accordance with the principles and rates laid down for the khalsa, and will be subject to appeal, in all cases of individuals assessed, to the Deputy Commissioner and Commissioner for the time being.

Your system of cattle-pound management must be in keeping with the orders in force in khalsa tracts, and so also the course you follow as regards appropriating the proceeds of unclaimed property.

The dues which you realize on Forest produce of all kinds and on the grazing of cattle within the lands of your Chiefship must not exceed the rates prevailing in Government Forests, and the following kinds of timber shall not be cut except in small quantities for home use without the special sanction of the Deputy Commissioner of the district:

   Sàl.    Shesham.    Tendoo.
If large quantities are cut or contracts given for the felling of large quantities of the above or other valuable descriptions of timber to the permanent detriment of your estate, then the Deputy Commissioner will have power of assuming on the part of Government the direct management of your Forests.

3. You are recognised as the sole superior proprietor in your estate, and according to custom the succession will be regulated by the rule of primogeniture. It follows that the ordinary rules of Hindu inheritance do not apply, and that no partition of shares can take place. The estate remains one and undivided, the head of the family for the time being acknowledged as Chief.

4. The estate, with the special and peculiar privileges hereby recognised cannot be transferred except with the sanction of the Chief Commissioner, and in case of dispute the ordinary succession will be subject to such sanction. Any transfer of ordinary rights ordered under a decree of the Civil Court would carry no privileges which are hereby declared to be conceded specially in favour of the hereditary Chief of the estate and are distinctly not transferable nor subject to the jurisdiction of the Civil Court. Any transfer therefore without the sanction of the Chief Commissioner and not by succession cancels this Sanad and involves a new settlement on different terms.

5. Summary removal will follow disloyalty or bad administration, and in this case the question of succession remains at the discretion of Government.

6. The relations of the Chief are according to custom entitled to maintenance either in money or land, and this custom you and your heirs and successors are required to maintain. Dispute as to the adequacy or otherwise of the maintenance allowed will be decided by the Deputy Commissioner of the district, subject to an appeal to the Commissioner of the Division and the Chief Commissioner, whose order on the matters at issue will be final.

7. You will maintain all the subordinate rights of sub-proprietorship and occupancy which have been recognised in your estate and will accept the record of those prepared by the Settlement Officer as final.

8. You are responsible for the proper Police management of your Chiefship, and any failure in this respect renders you liable for any expenditure which may be incurred in maintaining efficient police posts under the orders of the Chief Commissioner.

9. You will carry out the orders issued to you from time to time as to the reporting of crime and you will bring promptly to the notice of the Deputy Commissioner the commission of any heinous offences in your estate and use your best endeavours to trace and bring to justice the perpetrators.

10. You are exempted during the present Settlement from the payment of any Road, School or Dak cesses, but you will be required to assist the district authorities as heretofore in keeping up in fair order the public tracks which pass through your estate and in maintaining such schools as already exist.

3. Sunnud from the Nabob for the reversion in perpetuity of Lord Clive's Jaghire to the Company.

Be it known to the Counsellors and Chiefs of the English Company, the present and future Muttaseddees, the Chowdras, Canongoos, Muccuddees,

* About the 13th of July 1759.
Riotts, Muzarries, and all other inhabitants of Pergunnahs of Calcutta, etc., in the Circar of Sautgaum, etc., in the Province of Bengal.

The sum of 2,22,958 Sicca Rupees and odd, agreeably to the Dewanny Sunnud, and the Sunnud of the high and mighty Shujah ul Mulck, Hos-sam d Dowla, Meer Mahomed Jaffier Khan Behauder, Mahabut Jung, Nazim of the Province, has been appointed from the aforesaid Pergun-nahs, belonging to the Chuckla of Hooghly, etc., in the Circar of Saut-gaum, etc., the Zemindarry of the English Company, as an unconditional jaghire, to the high and mighty Zubdut ul Mulck, Nasseer ul Dowla, Lord Clive, Behauder: Now likewise the said Pergunnahs are confirmed, as an unconditional jaghire to the high and mighty aforesaid, from the 16th of May of the 1764th year of Christ (answering to the 14th of Zeckaida, of the 1177th year of the Hegira), to the 16th of May of the 1774th year of Christ (answering to the 8th of Rabbi-ul-Awul, of the 1188th year of the Hegira,) being ten years, of which one year is expired, and there are nine to come, they shall appertain as an unconditional jaghire to the high and mighty aforesaid; and after the expiration of this term they shall revert, as an unconditional jaghire and perpetual gift, to the Company; and if (which God forbid) the high and mighty aforesaid shall die within this term, they shall revert to the Company immediately upon his death. It is requisite that ye should regard the high and mighty aforesaid, during the afore-mentioned term, and after him the Company aforesaid, as unconditional jaghirdars, and regularly pay them the revenue of the aforesaid Pergunnahs.

Written the 23rd of June 1765, answering to the 3rd of Mohurrum, of the 1179th year of the Hegira.

(Signed) E. STEPHENSON, Provisional Sec.

4. FERMAUND from the KING SHAH AALUM, confirming the reversion in perpetuity of LORD CLIVE'S JAGHIRE to the COMPANY.

Whereas, a Sunnud has been presented to us, under the seal of the Nabob Nudjum ul Dowla Behauder, to the following purport, viz.:— "The sum of 2,22,958 Sicca Rupees, and odd, agreeably to the Dewanny Sunnud, and the Sunnud of the high and mighty Shujah ul Mulck, Hos-sam d Dowlah, Meer Mahomed Jaffier Khan Behauder, has been appointed from the Pergunnahs of Calcutta, etc., in the Circar of Sautgaum, etc., in the Province of Bengal (the Paradise of the Earth) the Zemindarry of the English Company, as an unconditional jaghire to the high and mighty Zubdut ul Mulck, Nasseer ul Dowla, Lord Clive, Behauder: Now likewise the said Pergunnahs are confirmed as an unconditional jaghire to the high and mighty aforesaid, from the 16th of May of the 1764th year of the Christian style (answering to the 14th of Zeckaida of the 1177th year of the Hegira) to the expiration of ten years, they shall appertain as an unconditional jaghire to the high and mighty aforesaid; and after the expiration of this term to revert to the Company as an unconditional jaghire; and if the high and mighty aforesaid should die within the said term, they shall revert to the Company immediately upon his death." And whereas the said Sunnud has met with our approbation at this happy time, therefore our royal Firmaund, indispensably requiring obedience, is issued, that, in consideration of the fidelity of the English Company, and the high and mighty aforesaid, the said jaghire stands confirmed agreeably to the aforesaid Sunnud. It is requisite that the present and future Muttaseddees, the Chowdahs, Canongoos, Muccuddems, Riotts, Muzarries, and all other inhabitants of the Pergunnahs of Calcutta, etc., in the Circar of Sautgaum, etc., regard the high and mighty aforesaid during the before-mentioned term, and after him the Company, aforesaid, as unconditional jaghirdars, and regularly pay them the revenues of the said Pergunnahs.

Written the 24th of Sophar, in the 6th year of the Jaloos, the 12th of August 1765.

Contents of the Zimmun.

Agreeably to the paper which has received our sign manual, our royal commands are issued, that whereas the sum of 2,22,958 Sicca Rupees and odd has been appointed from the Pergunnahs of Calcutta, etc., in the Circar of Sautgaum, etc., the Zemindarry of the English Company, as an unconditional jaghire, to the high and mighty Zubdut ul Mulck, Nasseer ul Dowlal, Lord Clive, Behauder, agreeably to the Dewanny Sunnud, and the Sunnud of the Nazim of the Province; in consideration therefore of the attachment of the high and mighty aforesaid, we have been graciously pleased to confirm to him the said Pergunnahs for the space of ten years, commencing from the 16th of May of the 1764th year of the Christian style, or 14th of Zuckkaida, of the 1177th year of the Hegira; and in consideration of the attachment of the English Company, we have granted the said Pergunnahs to them, after the expiration of the aforesaid term as an unconditional jaghire and perpetual gift; and if the high and mighty aforesaid should die within this term, the said Pergunnahs are to revert immediately to the English Company.
