Chapter 1, page 1, paragraph 1, General description.—The District is bounded on the west by Salem and North Arcot Districts, Tiruvannamalai Taluk which formed the north-western corner of the district till 1911, having been included in the newly formed North Arcot District.

2. The District is now made up of eight taluks, Chidambaram, Cuddalore, Kallakurichi, Tindivanam, Tirukkoyilur, Villupuram, Vridhdachalam and Gingee. The original Tindivanam and Villupuram were divided into three taluks—Gingee, Tindivanam and Villupuram. Gingee which once formed the head-quarters of a Deputy Tahsildar has now become the taluk head-quarters. The Deputy Tahsildar’s office at Merkanam was abolished.

Chapter IV—page 181—to be added after the fifth line ending with the words “near Cuddalore and Villupuram.”—In recent years, the irrigation from wells has come to prominence owing to the facilities afforded by the Department of Industries, by encouraging the installation of oil-engines for raising water from wells.

Page 141, paragraph 3, line 11—Project under consideration.—The bund proposed to be put up in the foreshore of the Veeranam tank was completed and the Veeranam tank was connected with the Settiyatoppu anicut to let in the Coleroon water into the Vellar.

Page 142, paragraph 1, “Toludur Scheme” to be inserted at the end.—The Toludur Project which was under contemplation, has now been sanctioned by the Secretary of State for India and the work has now been taken up.

Chapter V—Forests, page 152—to be added at the end of the paragraph relating to “Improvements effected.”—All the coast casuarina plantations have been disafforested and sold in public auction except two, for which proposals have yet to be made. Working plans have been prepared and sanctioned for the whole Kallakurichi Range, and for two circles in the Cuddalore Range, Vridhdachalam and Vadakkuttu working circles.

Chapter VII—Means of Communication, page 171, Bridges—to be inserted at the end of paragraph 3.—A girder bridge over the Mallattar between Panuruti and Tirukkoyilur at a cost of about Rs 70,000 was constructed in 1910–11 in lieu of the one washed away in the great floods of 1884.
SUPPLEMENT TO THE VOLUME OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN INDIAN GAZETTEER.

Chapter I. Introductory, General Description. — The District is bounded on the west by Natal and Cape Colony.
Periplusrib, River, which formed the north-eastern corner of the district till 1811, having been included in the newly formed North East Frontier.

This District is now only known as Natal, without the Camdeboo, Katlehong, V. Plane, and Vondeling and Hert," and the whole of the eastern portion of the town of East London.

The Native is over the hill, has nothing about him and is a follower of the villages. In recent years remarkable strides have been made in civilization among the inhabitants of Natal and in the Department of Education.

The Native is now considered as a more rational being, the Government has made important progress in education and is giving it to the members of the community. Many of the children have now been educated and the number of educated natives is increasing.

Chapter II. Means of Communication. — The means of communication are now good, and are constantly improving. As the district has now been opened up, there has been a great deal of construction of roads and railways. The system of railway is now well established, and the mean of communication by railway is now well established.

The Steam-ship "Oceanic" is used to carry goods and people between the different ports of the district. The steam-ship is regularly employed to carry goods and people between the different ports of the district.
Page 172—to be inserted at the end of paragraph 1.—The Wynch bridge constructed over the Gadilam in the 9th mile of the road from Tirukkoyilur to Kallakurichi was washed away in 1911 and estimates for Rs. 9,700 have been sanctioned for its reconstruction. Estimates for two new girder bridges have been sanctioned, one across the Tambipettai Ondai in the Cuddalore-Kurinchipadi road and the other across the Paravanar in the coast road from Cuddalore to Chidambaram at a cost of Rs. 48,300 and Rs. 21,400, respectively, the Government having granted half the cost of the former work as a subsidy. The latter bridge is under construction.

Page 172, Travellers' bungalows—to be inserted as second sentence of paragraph 4.—Travellers' bungalows at a cost of Rs. 6,000 each have been constructed at Ulundurpet and Porto Novo. The Travellers' bungalow at Villupuram was converted into a choutry in 1912 as the Public Works Department has opened another bungalow there.

Page 175, Projected lines—to be inserted at the end of paragraph 2.—The Railway line proposed between Trichinopoly and Tirukkoyilur via Toludur was abandoned and a line from Panruti to Trichinopoly via Ulundurpet and Toludur has been proposed for construction. Proposals have also been sent for connecting Panruti with Chinna Salem and Kallakurichi. The estimates for both these lines are ready and it is likely that their construction will be undertaken in the near future.

Chapter VIII—Rainfall and Seasons—Floods, page 192—to be inserted at the end of the penultimate paragraph.—Owing to an unusual rainfall of about 28 inches in 48 hours in November 1913, there were heavy floods in the Vellar and its principal tributary—the Manimuktanadi—which joins it near Vridhadhalam. On the 10th, the Manimuktanadi rose to a height of 13 1/2 feet and the Vellar at the Pelandurai anicut to a height of 23 feet over the crest, the highest on record since the construction of the anicut. The floods reached the maximum soon after midnight on the 10th and there was extensive spill over both the banks of the river. The Pelandurai anicut was first attacked—12 out of its 17 movable shutters, which lift 14 1/2 feet over the crest were carried away and big breaches caused on both sides of the anicut. The spill from the right bank of the river combined with the unprecedented flood discharged from the catchment area of the Veeranam tank, resulted in the breach of the tank itself in 16 places. This tank had never breached before. The feeder channel of the Veeranam tank—the Vadavar—breached in as many as 27 places. The maximum calculated flood over the crest of the Veeranam tank was only 7 feet but on the 10th, the flood rose to a level of 12 1/2 feet. The bank of the drainage channel in the foreshore of the Veeranam tank was completely wiped out and two sluices carried away. The overflow over the left bank of the Vellar entered the Rajavaikkal and the Walaja tank and the banks of the former were washed away for a length of two miles out of the total length of 3½, while two weirs in the latter were damaged and the embankment was breached in five places. The flood in the Walaja tank entered the Perumal tank in the Cuddalore Taluk and breached it in 16 places. Besides these major works almost all the irrigation channels and tanks belonging to the Lower Coleroon and the Sattiyatoppu systems suffered damage. Owing to the excessive rainfall, the heavy floods in the Vellar and the breaching of so many important irrigation works, the whole of the Chidambaram Taluk was practically one sheet of water—the depth of the floods on the roads ranging from 5 to 9 feet. Several streets in the towns of Chidambaram and Porto Novo and almost all the villages in the Chidambaram taluk were flooded. Fortunately, the Coleroon which forms the southern boundary of the Chidambaram Taluk was not in freshes and the floods which swept across the Chidambaram Taluk breached the Coleroon conservancy bank and also the railway line in several places and emptied themselves into the Coleroon and the Bay: had it not been for this, the loss of life would have been appalling. There were also floods at the head-quarters of the district and in the Cuddalore Taluk. On the night of the 9th, there was cyclonic weather which blew down avenue trees and the maiden in front of the Collector’s office and the roads around it were one sheet of water. The Ponnaiyar was not fortunately in flood but on the 10th, the Gadiam overflowed its southern embankment inundating Tiruppurapuliyur and the road to Cuddalore Old Town. The Railway line breached in several places near Chidambaram, Porto Novo, Puduchatram and Alapakkam. Passenger trains were held up at the first three stations and over 1,000 passengers were stranded at the several stations. Most of the roads in the Chidambaram Taluk and the coast road in Cuddalore Taluk were washed away by the floods. Vriddhachalam town was also affected as the Manimukтанadi overflowed its right bank but the damage was not serious.

2. Relief measures were organised immediately. Prompt steps were taken to close the most serious breaches. Local committees were organised consisting mainly of non-officials to afford relief to the people in distress in the flood-affected areas and those stranded in the Railway stations. Help was given to the destitute to rebuild their huts. Special grants were made to restore breached tanks and to repair the damaged roads.

3. The floods affected a large area—248 villages in the Chidambaram Taluk, 48 in Vriddhachalam and 14 in Cuddalore. About 13,140 houses were destroyed—11,579 in the Chidambaram Taluk, 894 in Vriddhachalam and 667 in Cuddalore. Close on 5,000 cattle, sheep and goats were drowned in all the taluks. The total value of grain, houses and other property lost was estimated at over Rs. 1,80,000. There was a loss of 33 human lives 30 in Chapter 12. Public Health, p. 123 - It is essential to the well-being of the population that the health of the inhabitants be maintained. Public health measures were enacted in the early days of colonization in 1800 and have continued to the present day. The following is an excerpt from the Public Health Board's report of 1918.

Page 196 - The first section of the report states that resources have been spent on the improvement of the health facilities in the area. The Provincial Health Board has provided the necessary funds towards the construction of the new hospital. The board has also undertaken to operate the remaining part of the hospital.

Chapter 3, Education, p. 198 - It is essential to the welfare of the province's education system to Educational Institutions. The College system in the province is well-developed. Many institutions were established after the founding of the new University in 1905. The institution has been converted into a secondary school.

Villarreal has been converted into a secondary school.

Lower Secondary Schools - The combined Schools of Guardians and Parish Schools have been converted into Elementary schools under the new educational system. The remaining nine Secondary Schools are cooperating with the Provincial Villaflor United School District. The new system provides for a superintendent to supervise them. The pay and allowances are determined by the District Board of Trustees.

The railway line was located at the lowest point of the rail network. 300 feet above sea level, it connected the town of the same name with the capital, which was the most important railway junction in the country. The construction of the railway was a major undertaking, and its completion was hailed as a significant achievement.

The town of the railway was a bustling center of activity, with numerous businesses and industries. The local population was primarily engaged in agriculture, and the railway provided a crucial link to the outside world, facilitating trade and communication.

The railway line was an essential part of the transportation infrastructure, connecting the town with other regions and countries. Its significance was further emphasized by the numerous goods and passengers it transported, which contributed to the economic growth and development of the area.

The railway line was well-maintained, and regular inspections were conducted to ensure its safety and efficiency. The local authorities were committed to ensuring that the railway remained a vital part of the town's infrastructure, and efforts were made to accommodate the needs of both the local population and the visitors.

In conclusion, the railway line played a crucial role in the town's development, providing a vital link to the outside world and facilitating economic growth and prosperity. The town's commitment to maintaining and improving the railway ensured its continued relevance and importance in the years to come.
Chidambaram and 3 in Vridhachalam. The floods rose gradually from the morning of the 10th. This gave the people time to leave the villages. This accounts for the comparatively small loss of life.

Chapter IX—Public Health, page 195—to be inserted at the end of the paragraph relating to small-pox.—Vaccination was made compulsory in the Cuddalore and Chidambaram Taluks from 1st August 1906 and this was extended to Villupuram and 17 villages of the Gingee Taluk, which originally formed part of the Villupuram Taluk in July 1908.

Page 196—to be inserted at the end of the page.—A new dispensary has been opened at Valavanur, a station on the Villupuram-Pondicherry line. One Aparanji Ammal, wife of Kalavai Krishnaswami Chetti of Pondicherry, a philanthropic lady, made a generous donation of Rs. 5,000 for the construction of the dispensary and it has been called by her name. An estimate for Rs. 11,000 has been sanctioned and the District Board of South Arcot has undertaken to defray the remaining cost of the building, besides contributing Rs. 2,500 for the acquisition charges and an annual grant of Rs. 1,500 for the upkeep of the institution which has been working since August 1913.

Chapter X, Education, page 198—to be inserted as the sixth sentence of the paragraph relating to Educational Institutions.—The College classes of the St. Joseph’s College at Manjakuppam were abolished after the passing of the new University Act and the institution has been converted into a Secondary school.

Page 199, Educational Institutions, first paragraph, first sentence.—The Local Board High school at Villupuram has been converted into a Secondary school.

Lower Secondary Schools, paragraph 2, second sentence.—The Schools at Panruti and Kallakurichi have been converted into Elementary schools under the new Educational system. The remaining three Secondary schools together with the school at Villupuram above mentioned are now under the control of the Local Boards with a superintending headmaster to supervise them. His pay and allowances are defrayed from District Board Funds.

Other Public schools—to be inserted at the end of paragraph 3.—Two new Sessional schools have been opened from October 1912 in addition to the existing two schools and the cost of the new schools is met by the District Board in the first instance and recouped from the contribution paid by Government.

The cost of schools opened in the years 1912-13 and 1918-14 was met from the contribution given by Government. Besides, ten schools have been newly opened for girls. There are at present 32 Panchama schools in the District.

Chapter XI—page 224—to be inserted at the end of paragraph 1.—Preliminary operations are being carried on for the re-settlement of Cuddalore Taluk. Special Deputy Tahsildars and Revenue Inspectors have been appointed and revision of adangals is in progress.

Page 248—Courts of Justice, Existing Courts, paragraph 3, first sentence.—There are at present nine District Munsifs' Courts in the district—Cuddalore, Panruti, Tindivanam, Villupuram, Tirukkoyilur, Chidambaram, Vriddhachalam, Kallakurichi and Mannargudi. The Panruti Court is located in a separate building in Cuddalore, Kallakurichi Court at Tirukkoyilur and Mannargudi Court at Chidambaram. A temporary sub-court has been opened at Cuddalore.

Page 247—Registration offices.—New Registration offices have been opened in Arakandanallur, Mangalampet, Anniyur, Sankarapuram, Kamilapuram. Joint Sub-Registrars have also been appointed in Panruti and Cuddalore. Owing to the transfer of the Tiruvannamalai Taluk to the North Arcot District, the Chengam and Tiruvannamalai registration sub-districts have gone over to the latter district.

Chapter XIII—Administration of Justice, pages 250 and 253—
The Veppur pariahs and their settlement at Kamilapuram.—
Originally, the ancestors of these pariahs lived in Gingee and were employed as seyces under Bahlulla Khan who was appointed by Nawab Sadatulla Khan to govern Gingee and the surrounding country. His seyces, the ancestors of the Veppur pariahs, habitually abducted Hindu caste women whom they forcibly made their wives. The Veppur pariahs of the present day are therefore a hybrid race which, because of its affinity to the Hindu blood, claims superiority over the ordinary pariahs. Their abstinence from eating dead animals appears to be due to the contact of their ancestors with the Muhammadans who do not eat animals which have died a natural death. Eventually Bahlulla Khan appears to have received from Nawab Sadatulla Khan a jaghir consisting of 410 villages in the South Arcot District and to have settled down at Seppakkam which is 2 or 3 miles from Veppur. The pariahs of Gingee, the ancestors of the Veppur pariahs followed Bahlulla Khan with the families to Seppakkam and were distributed by him over a number of villages. It is said that the Veppur pariahs, to this day, respect the memory of Bahlulla Khan. An oath on his name is regarded as inviolable. The descendants of Bahlulla Khan though reduced to great poverty are still living and whenever a head of this family dies, the headmen of the Veppur pariahs shave off their moustaches as a sign of mourning. It is understood that until twenty years ago, the Veppur pariahs were in the habit of subsidising the headman of Bahulla Khan’s family whenever there was a death or a marriage in his house. The Veppur pariahs appear to have become accustomed to lawless habits from the early days of Mussalman settlement in Southern India and now form a criminal tribe, which is responsible for more than half the crimes in this and neighbouring districts. The Gingee or the Veppur pariahs proper are now found congregated chiefly in the villages of Veppur, Sirunesalur, Kattumailur, Seppakkam, T. Kothanur, Kachakudi, Irvadukudi and Periyanesalur and some are also to be found in Thondankurichi, Pullur, Kuladur, Pulambadi, Adiyur, Serankuppam, Narayur, Tiruppur, Nallur, Vennathur, Sathiam, Nandimangalam, T. Agaram, Ja Endal, Orangoor, Pasar, Auruvakkam, Mangalur, Ma, Podaiyur, Poiaappadi, Marathathur, Melur, Pennadam, Malayakottam, Karayur and Kilcharuvoi. Although there is no intermarriage or interdinging between the Gingee or Veppur pariahs and the ordinary pariahs, the former have however been admitting the latter to their fraternity for purposes of committing crime with the result that the ordinary pariahs in Asanur, Palikonamangalam, Poraiyur, Uchimadu, Uriyanachi and Ninnayur, the villages of Tirukkoilur and Kallakurichi taluks also now go by the name of Veppur pariahs.

Application of the Criminal Tribes Act.—The influence of the Gingee or Veppur pariahs was steadily increasing and effective measures had to be adopted to prevent their influence from spreading. As these people are systematically addicted to the commission of grave offences and are responsible for nearly 50 per cent. of the crimes in this and the neighbouring districts, the application of the Act was found necessary and accordingly they were notified to be a criminal tribe under section 3 of the Act.

Colonisation and means of livelihood.—In order to reclaim these pariahs from their wild ways, they have been allowed to colonise in Kammapuram, a village in Vridhachalam taluk, 1,377 acres of reserved forests have been disafforested and assigned for purposes of cultivation. Nearly 200 families have removed their residence to this place and a settlement called “the Aziz Nagar Settlement” after the name of the Collector has been formed and placed under the management of the salvation army to whom an initial non-recurring grant of Rs. 10,000 has been sanctioned for the purpose and a monthly recurring grant of Rs. 200 promised for five years from 1st August 1913. A school has been sanctioned by the District Board for educating the children of the tribe and the foundation stone of the school was laid by the Hon’ble Sir Harold Stuart, K.C.V.O., C.S.I. The opening of a dispensary at the settlement and the formation of village roads to connect it with the other villages have also been sanctioned. The Government has been pleased to grant remission of sentences to convicts of this class who are undergoing imprisonment on condition that they enter the settlement.
Page 256—Police.—After the introduction of the re-allocation scheme there are at present in the district six circles with 23 police stations. The total strength of the police force in the district comprises of 9 Inspectors, 51 Sub-Inspectors, 123 head constables and 1,043 constables. Besides these, there are two Deputy Superintendents of Police, one of whom is placed in charge of the Tirukkōyilūr sub-division.

Chapter XIV, page 259—to be inserted at the end of paragraph 1.—The elective system of representation in Taluk Boards was introduced from July 1909 and the seats now thrown open are noted below under the several Taluk Boards:

This privilege has also been extended to the Tindivanam Union where three seats are thrown open for election.

The privilege of electing the Vice-President of the Cuddalore Taluk Board was withdrawn from 20th February 1912, and that of electing a non-official President was extended to the same Taluk Board in February 1912. A non-official President for the Chidambaram Taluk Board has been nominated and the nominated non-official President is working from 20th February 1914.
