PUBLISHER'S NOTE

Elements of the Comparative Grammar of the Indo-Germanic Languages had been a pioneer work in the field of Comparative Philology, and even today remains unsurpassed by any other work, either in its magnitude or in exhaustiveness.

The author has incorporated almost all the contemporary material on the subject representing all the parties among the different methods and schools of Linguistic Science. At the same time, he has not confined himself to merely stating the contemporary conclusions seemingly certain to stand for all future time. Instead, he has spoken of many problems that are still unsolved in order to give the reader not only a survey of what has been already accomplished, but also to give a glimpse of the work that still remains to be done. This was indispensable in view of the position in which the science of the Indo-Germanic languages at the time stood. Thanks to the discovery of many fresh sources of information, and still more, to the fertile combination which the recent researches have brought about between minute investigation on the one hand and the philosophy of languages on the other, new problems to be solved have of late arisen on all sides, and that in such numbers that many decades of work will still be needed to master them. Had the author silently passed over all such unsettled questions in the history of the Indo-Germanic languages the picture of the whole subject which he has tried to draw would have been marred by many grievous blanks. But thanks to the sincerity of his purpose and his erudition, no such problem remains unsolved or unnoticed. Wherever he is not sure of the solutions, he has not merely marked the phenomenon in question as unexplained, but often hazarded a conjecture, at all events, in something like the direction in which the solution of the riddle is to be sought. The conjectures, he however has admitted, should always be regarded only as challenges to more minute investigation.

As regards to the arrangement of the material the scheme followed is to let the different branches of Languages and the separate Languages appear each as a unit complete in itself on the common background of the Indo-Germanic primitive community, yet in such a way that each single phenomenon appears separated as little as possible from the kindred examples in other languages.

Such an important and pioneer work, which remained out-of-print for so many years, is now being reprinted by us even at great risk of investment, solely with the hope and confidence that we are thus rendering a valuable service to the students and scholars of Philology, who had been long deprived of a work containing a systematic and scientific study of languages based on firm and rigid principles.

PREFACE TO THE ORIGINAL EDITION

Those who have impartially followed the development of comparative philology in the last twenty years will be aware of the great progress it has made in the interval. In both the scope and the nature of its work it has shewn all the elasticity and creative vigour of a science that is still young in spite of its seventy years. That its diverse and scattered details need to be once again brought together under one systematic arrangement will hardly be doubted by any competent judge. The first edition of Schleicher's excellent Compendium appeared in 1861, and was since twice published in a revised form by the author, the second time shortly before his death. When it was edited finally in 1876 with very few changes indeed, the two editors were already of opinion that it required complete remodelling (see the preface p. IX). Thus I feel sure that the 'Elements', the first volume of which is now before the reader, meets a real need.

Time and competent criticism will decide whether it has solved the problem in any degree satisfactorily and whether it can claim to be of the same service to our science and its students as was Schleicher's book in its time. My task was attended by all manner of difficulties and I am fully conscious that in some respects it is inadequately discharged. I trust nevertheless that the result may be of some service, at least for the present.

I take this opportunity of drawing especial attention to one or two points in the plan and execution of my work.

It was not my object to collect all the various views, often widely divergent, which have been from time to time put forward by authorities, on questions relating to the history of the Indo-Germanic languages. As a rule I give only the views that I consider right or at least probable, after submitting them to repeated tests. A mere regard to the size of the book necessitated this course. The most important authorities will be found summarily enumerated in the introduction and at the beginning of the separate sections. To mention in each case who has treated the subject, and who was the first author of the view I have accepted, seemed to me unnecessary to the purpose of the book, and excluded by the small space at my disposal. I took what was good wherever I was sure I had found it; all parties among the different methods and schools of linguistic science are fairly represented in these pages. Hence though I may perhaps have overlooked much that is useful, I still hope that approximately at any rate I have attained the aim I had set before me: to exhibit the present state of our knowledge in a concise form, giving prominence to all the more important points.

At the same time I have not confined myself to stating such results as seem certain to stand for all future time. I have spoken of many problems that are still unsolved, in order to give the reader not only a survey of what has been already accomplished, but also a glimpse of the work that still remains to be done. This was indispensable in view of the position in which the science of the Indg. languages at present stands. Thanks to the discovery of many fresh sources of information, and still more, I think, to the fertile combination, which the past ten years have brought about between minute investigation on the one hand and the philosophy of language on the other (the character of which I have endeavoured to sketch in my essay, 'Zum heutigen Stand der Sprachwissenschaft' p. 33 ff.), new problems to be solved have of late arisen on all sides, and that in such numbers that many decades of work will still be needed to master them, so far as we can reckon that they are to be solved at all.¹⁾ Had I silently passed over all such unsettled questions in the history of the Indg. languages, the picture of the whole subject which I tried to draw would have been marred by many grievous blanks. But further I hoped to incite the reader to independent investigation, by referring to much that has not yet passed the stage of problem and hypothesis. In doing so I have taken care that what is uncertain should not preponderate over what is certain, and should everywhere be clearly distinguished from it. And if, instead of merely marking the phenomenon in question as unexplained, I have often hazarded a conjecture, at all events in something like the direction in which the solution of the riddle is to be sought, despite those who resent every 'probably' or 'perhaps' in scientific works, I may quote Goethe's words: 'The opinions you venture, are like the pawns you move forward on the chess-board; they may be taken, but they have introduced a game that will be won'. The conjectures I have admitted into this book should always be regarded only as challenges to more minute investigation.

As regards the arrangement of the material my aim is to let the different branches of language and the separate languages appear each as a unit complete in itself on the common background of the Indo-Germanic primitive community, yet in such a way that each single phenomenon appears separated as little as possible from the kindred examples in other languages. My method of exposition takes about the middle course between that of Bopp's Comparative Grammar on the one hand, which may be described as a connected picture sinking what belongs to the separate languages in the Indo-Germanic whole, and that of Schleicher's Compendium, on the other, which does little more than string together a number of separate grammars. It seeks to unite the excellences of both. This of course could not be done without some sacrifice of system. In the phonology I was obliged to add a series of chapters on combinatory sound-change after tracing the development of the primitive Indo-Germanic sounds one by one. Here I have had now and then to repeat in sum what had already been mentioned or to expand and supplement what before had been merely hinted at. I prefer to submit to this incongruity of arrangement, which Schleicher has avoided, than to disregard consciously the considerable didactic advantage that it affords; and in this point at least I hope to have on my side the academical teachers who lecture on comparative grammar.

1) As regards exceptions and irregularities it has now become the effort of all scholars to aim at seeking for the reason of the exception, not occasionally only, but in every case, and systematically, and we consider our duty to science undischarged until we have found the answer to the 'why'. How many phenomena of language, which once were thought perfectly clear, so that a final judgment could be pronounced upon them, have by this means become unanswered problems!

In the transcription I have been as far as possible conservative. The reader will easily perceive why I was obliged to discard one or two symbols widely in use, e. g. the representation of the Sanskrit palatal and cerebral sibilants by ç and ś (or sh). I ought perhaps in general to have paid even more attention than I have done to the rule that the same sound in different languages should be represented by the same sign: e. g. Av. ç, not γ, on account of the Germanic (Ags.) ç; Gothic sc, not c, on account of the Old High German sc. And in several other points the notation might certainly be improved, at least if it be thought desirable to sacrifice what is widely or universally in use in favour of less usual methods. As regards the Aryan languages and Armenian especially, I gladly take this opportunity of expressing a wish, which, I think, most Indo-Germanic scholars share with me, that the Congress of Oriental scholars¹⁾ should sanction by its authority as soon as it is practicable to do so, some suitable system of transcription for these languages, which should have regard to the needs both of special philologists and of comparative scholars, so that the vagaries of the prevailing usage in the matter may be at last brought within bounds. That the question of transcription is not yet ready for a final settlement is no valid objection.

My work has been least independent in dealing with the phonology of Iranian and Armenian. Here I could generally connect it very closely with the excellent works of Bartholomae and Hübschmann, especially with the former's Handbook of the Old Iranian Dialects, and the latter's Armenian Studies. I have only deviated in a very few points from Hübschmann's treatment of the history of the Armenian sounds. In the Keltic branch many will look for a more detailed account of the British dialects. I fully admit that comparative philology must devote more attention to these dialects than has hitherto been the case. But my knowledge in this department is too small for me to venture to set any dialect of the British group side by side with Irish. It was my intention two years ago to make myself so far familiar with Cymric as to be able to treat the chief features at least of this language along with the rest. My removal to Freiburg however at that time cut me off almost entirely from all Keltological literature, and I was thus obliged to abandon my design. As regards Irish also the want of a library¹⁾ sufficiently furnished with philological literature caused me difficulties in many ways. I am hence all the more thankful to Prof. Thurneysen of Jena [now in Freiburg], who not only sent me information on many points of Keltic philology, but also at my request undertook the trouble of revising the proof-sheets relating to Keltic. Both have been a help to my work in many details, in far more places than has been indicated by a reference to his name. In particular it was such help only that made it possible in all cases to distinguish the British forms correctly according to dialect and period. It may also be remarked that almost all the addenda relating to Keltic p. 565 ff. [now incorporated with the text of this translation] were due to communications from Thurneysen. If I add lastly that my treatment of some of the phenomena of Keltic philology is not in harmony with the views of this scholar, it is in order to prevent misunderstanding, that he may not in any way be made responsible for mistakes that might be found in the Keltic parts of this book. I have to thank Dr. Holthausen of Heidelberg [now in Halle] for some notices relating to Germanic, which he placed at my disposal after an inspection of several proof- and the finally revised sheets and of which I have for the most part made use.

I have not been able consistently to take account of the scientific literature which has appeared this year. I especially lament that the second edition of G. Meyer's Greek Grammar, Braune's Old High German Grammar and the second edition of Leskien's Hand-book of the Old Bulgarian Language did not appear until after my printing had begun.

To facilitate reference, I shall add an index of words at the end of the whole work.

Its continuation and conclusion shall follow as quickly as time and strength permit.

¹⁾ It is only since the founding of the chair for comparative philology that the University library here has systematically purchased works on this subject (apart of course from the classical languages and Germanic), so that the necessary material can only be procured very gradually.

TRANSLATOR'S PREFACE.

When Prof. Brugmann and Mr. Trübner proposed to me, two years ago, while I was still a student in Heidelberg, that I should translate the 'Grundriss der vergleichenden Grammatik der indo-germanischen Sprachen' into English as soon as it appeared, I gladly accepted the proposal, in the hope that I should thus be rendering valuable service both to English and American students of philology, especially to the former who would otherwise very possibly, if they did not happen to know German, have to remain an indefinite length of time without being able to enter into a systematic and scientific study of languages, based on firm and rigid principles.

If the work of translating the original has taken me longer than I at first anticipated it would, this is almost entirely due to the poverty-stricken state of our language as regards current philological technical terms. Some of the terms employed by me, e. g. slurred and broken accent, intersonorant, initiality, strong-grade etc., will no doubt sound strange at first reading. But those, who have either been trained at a German university or are familiar with German philological literature, will readily confess how difficult it sometimes is to find a very exact and appropriate English equivalent for many of the German grammatical technicalities. Time will of course show whether I have in each case hit upon the best term, but I have everywhere tried rather to represent as exactly as I could the meaning of the author than to produce an elegant English paraphrase, which could preserve neither the brevity nor the rigidly scientific form of the original.

Last spring Prof. Brugmann gave me in Leipzig a list of corrections, consisting partly of misprints not given at the end of the original work, and partly of a few slight mistakes which were mentioned in the reviews of the work. These as also the corrections and emendations at the end of the German edition have been worked into the body of the translation. I also received from the author a short time ago one or two other corrections of the original which will be found at the end of the present edition.

At the end of the volume will be found a short list of those abbreviations which would be likely to cause the reader any difficulty.

In conclusion I have to express my sincere gratitude to Prof. Brugmann and Mr. P. Giles, Fellow of Gonville and Caius College Cambridge, for the great assistance they have rendered me by helping in the reading of the proof-sheets.

INTRODUCTION.

DEFINITION OF THE SCIENCE OF THE INDO-GERMANIC LANGUAGES, AND THE DIVISION OF THE INDO-GERMANIC FAMILY INTO ITS VARIOUS BRANCHES.

§ 1. The science of the Indg. languages forms, like Indg. Mythology, a section of Indg. 'Philology', i. e. of that science, which has to investigate the intellectual development of the Indg. peoples from the time before their separation up to the present day. Its method accordingly is historical and its task is to investigate the whole development of the Indg. languages from the time when they were still one language down to the present day. Its unity is in no sense broken by the results furnished by the specialists in Sanskrit, Ancient and Modern Greek, Latin and the Romance languages, Keltic etc., for the sciences of the Indian languages, of Ancient and Mod. Greek etc. are integral components of the grand whole formed by that of the Indo-Germanic.

It is true that the so called comparative science of language has hitherto been almost exclusively confined to the older periods of the Indg. languages, but this is due to the division of labour which was involved in the method by which alone progress could be made, as well as to the limitations of human strength. Probably the same division of labour will still be necessary, but it implies no real opposition between the different parts of the science.

Compare the author's inaugural address 'Sprachwissenschaft und Philologie' (in his 'Zum heutigen Stand der Sprachwissenschaft', Strassburg 1885, p. 3 ff.).

§ 2. We are not at present in a position to determine finally what was the primitive home of the Indg. tribes. Only so much is clear, that these tribes in pre-historic times must have been far less widely diffused than they were at the beginning of the historic era. It was formerly usual to place this primitive home somewhere in Asia, whereas at present scholars lean rather to the opinion that the Asiatic members of the stock passed over from Europe. Cp. O. Schrader 'Sprachvergleichung und Urgeschichte', Jena 1883, p. 442 ff.

§ 3. It is impossible to suppose that a language should have gone through a long course of development, and be spoken by a people of any considerable numbers, without a certain amount of dialectical variation; and hence we cannot look upon the speech of the Indogermans, even while they still occupied a comparatively small territory and maintained a fairly close degree of intercourse with one another, as bearing in any strict sense, a uniform character. Local differences had no doubt already arisen, though actual instances of this have hardly as yet been established with perfect certainty. One such I have maintained, though only as a conjecture, in §§ 380, 417. In historical times there appear a multitude of dialects, diverging in a greater or less degree, the whole field of which can hardly be included in any one survey. We may take for granted that the differentiation of dialects about the year 2000 B. C. had gone so far, that a number of communities existed side by side, which could no longer, or only with difficulty understand one another. The historic record of the various individual developments begins at very different periods. E. g. the Indian development is known to us from about the year 1500 B. C. onwards, the Latin from about 300 B. C., the Irish since the eighth century of the Christian era (with the exception of the Ogam inscriptions, cp. § 9), and the Lithuanian from the middle of the sixteenth century.

A number of separate developments, which sprung from the primitive Indg. language, have perished without leaving any traces of their existence. Of others we have only very scanty fragments left, on which it is scarcely, if at all, possible to found a grammar, as of Phrygian, Macedonian, Messapian, Gallie, and Burgundian. The remainder have come down to us with a more abundant supply of material.

The dialects belonging to this last class, are arranged into eight groups (branches of language): 1. Aryan, 2. Armenian, 3. Greek, 4. Albanian, 5. Italic, 6. Keltic, 7. Germanic, 8. Baltic-Slavonic. Each group is distinguished by the fact that its individual members show in common a considerable number of changes in sound, inflexion, syntax and vocabulary; e. g. the shifting of the prim. Indg. explosives, discussed in § 527 ff. (what is known as the first sound-shifting), is one of the numerous characteristics of the close relation existing between the Germanic dialects.

Of the dialects, which have come down to us only in scanty fragments, there are a certain number which can be assigned with certainty to one or other of these eight groups, e. g. the Burgundian to the Germanic, and the Gallie to the Keltic group, whilst others, e. g. the Macedonian, seem to belong to none of them.

It is in itself very possible that some of these eight chief members stand to each other in a closer relationship, and form a single group historically distinct from the rest. All attempts, however, to establish such a closer relationship, have hitherto proved futile. The Italo-Keltic hypothesis has perhaps the best prospect of attaining a greater degree of probability in the future.

§ 4. (1) The Aryan branch consists of the Indian and Iranian groups.

The oldest and most archaic dialect of the Indian group is the language of the Veda, the oldest portions of which (the hymns of the Rigveda) possibly go back as far as 1500 B.C.¹). Next comes Sanskrit in the stricter sense of the word (also called classical Sanskrit), the continuation of a dialect now lost, which existed side by side with the Vedic and differed but slightly from it in the formation of its sounds and inflexions. It became separated from the popular development as the literary language, and was stereotyped in a fixed and purely artificial form. The vulgar language, called Prākṛit, as early as the third century B.C. differed very materially from Sanskrit and at that time was divided into at least three chief dialects. Through the influence of Buddhism, Prākṛit was also raised to a literary language (Pāli). From the popular dialects of Prākṛit have descended the numerous modern Indian languages and dialects, Hindi (Hindustānī), Bengali, Uriya, Maharattī, Guzeratī, Sindhi, Penjabī and others.

In this work we shall only deal with the Vedic language and classical Sankrit.

cuneiform inscriptions dating from about 520 to 350 B.C., and Avestic, also called Zend and Old Bactrian (East Iranian), the language of the Avesta, the sacred book of the Zoroastrians, which has come down to us with corruptions of many kinds, deviating considerably from its original form. The various portions of the work were composed at very different periods¹). Some parts of the Avesta, including 17 hymns (gāpā f.), are written in a peculiar dialect, which is more archaic than the language of the other parts, and as distinct from which the latter is called Later Avestic or Zend in the stricter sense. Not one of the Modern Iranian languages is a direct continuation of Old Persian or Avestic. The Modern Persian dialects (Gilani etc.), Kurdish and probably also Ossetian (spoken in the neighbourhood of the Caucasus) are more closely related to the former, and the language of Afghanistan (Paštu) to the latter.

We shall only deal with the two Old Iranian languages.

§ 5. (2) Armenian, which de Lagarde and Friedr. Müller assigned to the Iranian group, but Hübschmann (Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIII 5 ff., 400 ff.) has proved to be an independent member of the Indg. family of languages, is known to us since the fifth century of our era. The literary language (O.Armenian), which had then become fixed, remained in this usage without any material changes down to modern times, and is separated by a great interval from the modern dialects. Historical investigations have hitherto been almost exclusively confined to O.Armenian. The term Armenian will always be used in the sense of O.Armenian.

§ 6. (3) Greek had strongly marked variations in different localities long before Homer's time and in the historic era appears split up into numerous dialects.

These may be classified in the following manner: 1. Ionic-Attic, a. The district of Ionia, b. Attica. 2. Doric, a. Laconia with Tarentum and Heraclea, b. Messenia, c. Argolis and Aegina, d. Corinth with Corcyra, e. Megara with Byzantium, f. the Peloponnesian colonies of Sicily, g. Crete, h. Thera and Melos together with Cyrene, i. Rhodes with Gela and Acragas, k. the other Dor. islands in the Aegean, as Carpathus, Astypalaea etc. 3. North West Greek, a. Phocis, b. Locris, c. Aetolia, d. Acarnania, e. Phthiotis and the district of the Aenianes, f. Epirus, g. probably also Achaia. 4. Aeolic, a. Lesbos and Aeolian Asia Minor, b. North Thessaly, c. Boeotia. 5. Elean (belonging to North West Greek?). 6. Arcadian-Cyprian¹). 7. Pamphylian.

These dialects are found in their purest form on inscriptions. The literary language, especially that of the poets, is in many respects artificially constructed; even the language of the Homeric poems is in great measure an artificial dialect.

Towards the end of the fifth century B. C. there was formed on the basis of the Attic dialect a literary language common to all Greeks, which almost entirely excluded the use of the other dialects from the later prose literature of antiquity. Hence it is that we have to gather our knowledge of most of the non-Attic local dialects either entirely, or almost entirely, from inscriptions.

The language of mediaeval Greek literature is an artificial mixture of ancient Greek with forms of the then spoken popular language in varying degrees of modification. Modern Greek exhibits a rich development of dialects; as yet little has been done towards fixing the historical relation of the separate dialects to ancient Greek¹⁾.

1) Collitz (Die Verwandtschaftsverhältnisse der griech. Dialekte 1885) places this dialect in close relation with Aeolic and puts forward the hypothesis that 'the Thessalian dialect in point of language forms the transition-stage from Boeotian to Lesbian, from Lesbian to Cyprian-Arcadian and from Cyprian-Arcadian to Boeotian' (p. 9).

We shall confine our attention to the development of the O.Gr. dialects.

§ 7. (4) Albanian, the language of ancient Illyria, has only been known to us from monuments of any extent since the seventeenth century. The historical treatment of this language, which is beset with manifold difficulties — the greatest of which lies in clearly separating pure Albanian words from those borrowed from the Greek, Latin, Romance, Slavonic and Turkish languages —, is still in its infancy.

Cp. Gustav Meyer Albanesische Studien, Wien I 1883, II 1884 (in which the whole of the older literature has been collected together) and 'Der Einfluss des Lateinischen auf die alban. Formenlehre' in the Miscellanea di Filologia, dedicata alla memoria dei professori Caix e Canello p. 103 ff.²⁾.

We shall only take this language into account in discussing the development of the Indg. palatal and guttural explosives § 411 and § 458—460.

§ 8. (5) The Italic branch consists of Latin on the one hand and of the Umbrian-Samnitic dialects on the other.

Latin, with which the little known dialect of Falerii was closely related, is known to us from about 300 B. C. onwards. So long as the language was confined to Latium, there existed no dialectical differences of any importance. The contrast between the popular and the literary language, which had already arisen at the beginning of the archaic period of literature (from Livius Andronicus to Cicero), became still sharper in the classical period, and the further development of the former is almost entirely lost to our observation until the Middle Ages, when the popular Latin of the various provinces of the Roman empire meets us in a form more or less changed and with a rich development of dialects (Romance languages: Portuguese, Spanish, Catalanian, Provençal, French, Italian, Raetoromanic and Roumanian)¹).

We shall only consider the development of the Latin of antiquity.

The Umbrian-Samnitic dialects are known to a certain extent through inscriptions, which for the most part belong to the last centuries before our era, and through words quoted by Roman writers. We are best acquainted with Umbrian (Bréal Les tables Eugubines, Paris 1875, Bücheler Umbrica, Bonn 1883) and Oscan (Zvetaieff Sylloge inscriptionum Oscanarum, Petersburg-Leipzig 1878). Of the Volscian, Picentine, Sabine, Aequulan, Vestinian, Marsian, Pelignian and Marrucian dialects we have only very scanty remains (Zvetaieff Inscriptiones Italiae Mediae dialecticae, Leipzig 1884). All these dialects were forced into the background at an early period by the intrusion of Latin. The Sabines, who received citizenship in 267 B. C., seem to have been the first to become romanised. The slowest to give way was Oscan, which in the mountains did not perhaps become fully extinct for centuries after the Christian era.

Cp. further Bruppacher Osk. Lautlehre, Zürich 1869, Enderis Versuch einer Formenlehre der osk. Sprache, Zürich 1871.

§ 9. (6) The Keltic languages fall into three groups: Gallic, Britannic and Gaelic¹).

We know something of Gallic through Keltic names and words quoted by Greek and Latin authors, through inscriptions and coins. But the interpretation of the forms, mostly proper names, is in most cases so uncertain that from these remains linguistic research has hitherto gained comparatively little.

Britannic broke up into Cymric (or Welsh), Cornish and Bas Breton (or Armorican); the connexion between the last two is especially close. We are acquainted with Cymric and Bas Breton from the eighth or ninth century onward, at first through glosses; the oldest records of Cornish are somewhat later. The last named dialect became extinct at the end of the eighteenth or beginning of the nineteenth century, both the others are still living.

Irish-Gaelic, Scotch-Gaelic (which is also known as Gaelic in the stricter sense), and Manx (spoken in the Isle of Man) form the Gaelic division. All three of these are still living. The first two languages seem hardly to have differed from each other in the ninth century. The oldest monuments are the O.Gaelic Ogam inscriptions (Ogam is the native name for the

1) The first two languages have often been classed together as a special group, but without sufficient reason. See Thurneysen Kelto-romanisches 1884 p. 7 ff.

Gaelic runes), which possibly date as far back as about 500 A.D. The literary record of Irish begins in the eighth century, at first with glosses, and then from the year 1100 onward we have many extensive manuscripts which contain sagas, ecclesiastical literature etc. Scotch-Gaelic literature begins somewhat later than that of Irish and in the older period is closely connected with Irish. Manx is only known to us during the last few centuries¹).

We shall consider chiefly Old Irish.

§ 10. (7) The Germanic branch is divided into Gothic, Norse, and West Germanic.

Gothic, the most archaic language of the Germanic group, is chiefly accessible to us through the biblical translation of the West Gothic bishop Ulfilas (311—381 A.D.). The language perished with the Gothic nation. (The East Goths, who dwelt in the Crimea, retained their language down to modern times; but of this branch of Gothic we possess only a few isolated words.)

Norse (or Scandinavian), which in certain special points closely coincides with Gothic²) and is therefore by some writers classed together with it as East Germanic as opposed to West Germanic, down to the Viking period (800—1000 A. D.) was practically a single language, but later on became broken up into four languages, Icelandic and Norwegian (West Norse) on the one hand, Swedish and Danish (East Norse) on the other. The earliest records are runic inscriptions, the oldest of which appear to belong to the fifth century. By O.Norse was, in former times, generally understood O.West Norse only; the term is now more properly applied to the whole development of the Scandinavian languages up to the sixteenth century.

The oldest representatives of West-Germanic are Anglo-Saxon, the continuation of which is Mod.English; O.Frisian; O.Saxon, now Low German; O.Low Franconian, now Dutch, Flemish, and the language of the German Lower Franconia; and O.High German, the present Upper- and Middle German dialects. The oldest records of these languages date from the eighth or ninth century, the oldest OHG. record belonging to about the period 740-745; but with Frisian we are acquainted only since the fourteenth century.

We shall limit ourselves chiefly to Gothic and Old High German.

§ 11. (7) The Baltic-Slavonic branch. The Baltic division consists of Prussian, Lithuanian, and Lettic. The former died out in the seventeenth century and we only possess very few imperfectly recorded specimens dating from the sixteenth and sixteenth centuries. The two latter are still living and their oldest records belong to the sixteenth century.

We confine ourselves chiefly to Lithuanian.

The Slavonic languages fall into a South-Eastern and a Western group. To the former belong Russian (a. Great Russian and White Russian, b. Little Russian), Bulgarian and Illyrian (a. Servian and Croatian, b. Slovenian), to the latter Czech (Czech in the stricter sense, Moravian and Slovakian), Sorabian or Wendish (Upper- and Lower Sorabian) and Lechish (Polish and Polabian or Elbe-Slavonian). All these languages, with the exception of Polabian, are still living. The most archaic, and for Indg. grammar the most important, is the language in which the Slavonic apostles Cyril and Methodius (ninth century) wrote. In our investigations we accordingly consider this language of the first importance. It is called O.Slovenian by Miklosich, but by Schleicher, Schaffarik and others with more justness O.Bulgarian. It became the ecclesiastical language of the Greek church, and that form of it, which was modified through the influence of other Slavonic languages, especially of Russian, is generally known by the name of Church Slavonic.

§ 12. In accordance with what has been said in §§ 4—11, we shall speak exclusively or at all events especially of the oldest periods of those languages whose developments are known to us through records extending over a great length of time. The term 'science of the Indg. languages', as has been already stated in § 1, does not demand such a restriction. This division of labour is wholly due to the course which the science has hitherto taken, and is fully justified by the present state of the science. Bopp in his Vergleichende Grammatik (3 vols., edit. 3, Berlin 1868—1871) and Schleicher in his Compendium der vergleichenden Grammatik der indogermanischen Sprachen edit. 4, Weimar 1876) also limit themselves similarly as we have done.

When we speak of primitive Indg. forms; of prim. Ar.; of prim. Gr. or of prim. Ital. etc., we generally mean those forms which were in use towards the close of the primitive period of these languages. But we also often mean such forms as belonged to an earlier period of this stage, and which had already undergone a change towards its termination. For instance, we therefore speak equally well of prim. Germ. faṛǵō* and of prim. Germ. faǵō* (Goth. fahu, s. § 214), of prim. Gr. norai* and prim. Gr. nooi* (Att. nooi, s. § 490), as of Lat. sequuntur and Lat. secuntur (§ 431). Forms, put down by us as prim. Ind., prim. Ar. etc., are therefore not to be indiscriminately regarded as belonging to the same period. Again, if we, for example, uniformly write χ, not h, in prim. Germ. forms where we put h for Gothic words, it must not be implied that χ had not in certain cases already become h in prim. Germanic (cp. § 529).

ON THE STRUCTURE OF THE INDO-GERMANIC LANGUAGES IN GENERAL. ROOT AND SUFFIXES.¹⁾

§ 13. The Indg. languages belong to the inflexional class. The inflexion of words has not existed from the very beginning, but has been gradually developed and perfected.

1) With what follows compare Delbrück *Einleitung in das Sprachstudium*² (Leipzig 1884) p. 61 ff. and Paul Principien der Sprachgeschichte (Halle 1880) p. 154 ff.

We have to presuppose a period in which suffixal elements were not yet attached to words. The word-forms of this period are called roots, and the space of time prior to inflexion, is called the root-period. It dates much further back than that stage of development whose word-forms we are able to deduce by a comparison of the separate Indg. groups of languages. This stage is usually simply called the Indg. parent-language.

What we understand by word-formation and inflexion arose by composition, that is, by the following process: a group of words which formed a syntactical complex was fused into a unity, in which the whole was in some way isolated in relation to its elements¹⁾. This word-fusion from the beginning onwards occurred in the same way, just as afterwards, in the age of separate languages (partly even in historical periods) the final members of compounds became suffixes, e. g. Goth -k in mik (Mod. HG. mich) from prehistoric me ge* (cp. Gr. ἐμὲ γε beside ἐγὲ), French -ment in fièrement from fera mente, MHG. and Mod.HG. -heit in schönheit, originally meaning 'schöne Beschaffenheit' (beautiful state or condition), where heit is still an independent word in MHG. and OHG., Mod.Irish -mhar in buadh-mhar 'victorious' = O.Ir. mār mōr Cymr. maer 'magnus' (Zimmer Kelt. Studien II p. 22 ff). The formation of suffixes is not a work which belongs to any special prehistoric period and which was concluded at any definite point of time. But when once this process had begun, it was performed anew through all periods of the history of the Indg. languages and will probably also be repeated again in the future, so long as our languages continue to develop.

1) "With respect both to meaning and form either the whole may pass through a development in which the separate parts do not participate when used independently, or vice versa the separate parts may pass through a development in which the whole does not participate, or it may happen that the separate parts cease to be employed independently, while they are preserved in combination, or lastly the mode of combination may vanish from living use and only remain preserved in certain set forms". Paul in the above work p. 165.

Suffixes are divided into word-forming suffixes or inflexional suffixes in the stricter sense, to which on the one hand belong case endings (e. g. -m in Indg. ek̑om* = Lat. equom, Skr. áśeom), and on the other, personal endings (e. g. -mi in Indg. émi* = Gr. ἔμῃ, Skr. émi), and stem-forming suffixes (e. g. -ter- in Indg. patéres* = Gr. πατέρες, Skr. pítáras, -sko- in Indg. gus̑kónti* = Gr. πάσονται πάσονται, Skr. gáchanti). It is impossible to draw a sharp line between the two species of suffixes, since many an element, which was originally only stem-forming, has come to be treated on the same level with word-forming suffixes. Cp. e. g. Lat. legimín̄, whose final part min̄, felt by the Romans as a personal ending (like -mur etc.), contains the stem-forming suffix -meno- (cp. Gr. λεγόμενοι); properly legimín̄ estis = λεγόμενοι ἔσθε.

The derivation as well as the original value of those suffixal elements, which in the Indg. prim. period were already no longer felt to be the members of a compositum, is for the most part very doubtful. Of the conjectures which have been put forth regarding these suffixes, there are only a few to which one can allow a certain amount of probability. To these belongs especially the hypothesis, that a part of the personal endings were originally independent substantival pronouns, cp. the -m of the 1. sg. impf. Indg. ebherom* (Skr. ábharom, Gr. ἔβηρον) with the pronominal stem -me* (Lat. mē, Goth. mī-k).

There are in the Indg. languages many words of which we can not prove that they either contain or ever did contain a suffix. These, therefore, apparently represent the form they had in the pre-inflexional period, e. g. Gr. μῆ, Goth. mī(-k) cpf. me*; Skr. mā, Gr. μή, Lat. mi(-dus), O.Ir. mi no, OHG. mi no, Lit. mà(-gū) 'now'. In other cases, root-words had disappeared in those compositions which we call inflected words. We must guard against fancying that, towards the close of the primitive period, or even later, elements like es, which we abstract as root from such forms as Indg. ésti*, (Gr. ἔσθι, Skr. ásti), had an independent existence and a meaning without any definite syntactical relation.

§ 14. According to the analogy of such forms as Fr. à-vis, rouge-gorge, it has become usual to indicate component parts of inflected words by hyphens, e. g. Gr. ἰ-μι, πα-τέρ-ες, φίλ-ο-ι, in the same manner Indg. ḗi-mi*, pə-tér-es*, bhér-o-i-t*. It is thus intended to give a clear idea as to what parts of an inflected word once had an independent existence.

With regard to this mode of proceeding the following remarks are to be made.

1. We have seen in § 13, that as the first foundations of derivation and inflexion were laid by the fusion of independent elements, so this process has been continually repeated up to the present time. But the great majority of inflexional forms do not directly depend upon it. No sooner did the first inflexional compounds make their appearance, than they served as the models upon which other words were formed after their analogy, just in the same manner as most of the Mod. HG. composita in -heit, -bar, -lich etc. can no longer be conceived as proper syntactical compounds, but only as imitations of model forms, made at an earlier period. Composita, the formation of which we are able to trace in the younger stages of the separate languages, often exhibit manifold shiftings and deviations. The reason of these latter is, that all feeling for the mode of composition of the model forms became extinct. Thus, for instance, according to the analogy of Mid.HG. mitteleit from mīllec-heit (cp. mīllec-lich) etc. have arisen such forms as Mod.HG. frömmigkeit, eitelkeit etc., by the abstraction of a suffix -keit. Such shiftings may also have taken place in the oldest stages of the inflexional period, so that, strictly speaking, we are never sure in the case of a suffix which has come down to us from the Indg. parent language, whether it ever existed as an independent word exactly in the same shape as we extract it from the body of a word, or whether it originally consisted of elements which passed into this shape by regular phonetic changes.

2. It very frequently happens, that two or more suffixes become fused into a unity in those periods of a language which we are able to control. E. g. Mod.HG. -ner in büß-ner, haif-ner etc. is due to the -ner in such forms as gärtn-er (Mid. HG. garten-are), which is a derivative of garten; Gr. -aino in μερδ-aino, λενε-aino etc. to the -aino in such forms as τεχταιno from τεκταιν-χis* (to τέκτων). In like manner many of the prim. Indog. suffixes, which we are wont to regard as a unity, e. g. the -ter- in po-tér-es* (Gr. παίρες), may have been fused together out of several suffixal elements. Our inability to analyse a prim. Indg. element proves nothing for its primitive unity.

3. It is theoretically correct when we say that the root of a word is found after we have removed all formative syllables from it. But in the first place we do not know what shape Indg. words had towards the end of the root-period, and this applies especially to the fact that we are unable to say whether the language at this stage possessed only monosyllabic words, or only words of more than one syllable, or both categories. Secondly the analysis of elements, which were directly annexed to the ends of roots, is of a most doubtful nature. And lastly we are unable to determine what phonetic changes inflexional compounds had undergone from the beginning up to the dissolution of the primitive community. Hence it must not be supposed that the roots, which we in ordinary practice abstract from words, are at all to be relied upon as representing the word-forms of the root-period. We are utterly unable to determine e. g. whether the complex ano-* in Gr. ἀνι-μο-ς, Lat. ani-mu-s, Skr. 3. sg. áni-ti 'breathes' (cp. § 110) represents a unitary word of the root-period, or whether it is to be resolved into an-o-*, that is, whether -o- was a suffix, and thus originally an independent element.

Such being the state of things, we shall retain the terms 'root' and 'suffix' in this work for such parts of a word as seq- and -e-, -tai in Indg. ségetai* (Skr. sácatī, Gr. ἐσται). We do not however assert that the elements, to which we give these names, ever existed as independent words. We merely indicate by means of hyphens (1) what was probably felt at any particular period as the nucleus (so to speak) of a whole system of word-forms (seq-), and (2) what was regarded as the formative element (-e- and -tai in *séq-e-tai, *bhédh-e-tai, *bhér-e-tai etc.), shared in common by a greater or less number of different words. The elements -e- and -o- in cases as Gr. ἐπ-ε-ται (Indg. *séq-e-) and fut. τενέω τενῶ from *τεν-ε-σω (Indg. *ten-o-, cp. Skr. fut. tan-i-ṣydmī) may nevertheless originally have been parts of roots (disyllabic root-words); but on account of forms like πύθεται, φέρεται, ἄγεται and ρεμέω, φθερέω, βαλέω on the one hand and of forms like ἔγωμαι and τείνω (from *τενω, §§ 131. 618) on the other, it becomes highly probable that they simply were for the perception of language (sprachempfindung) that which grammarians call "suffix"¹).

1) 'A certain analysis of forms takes place in the formation of associated concepts which refer to the system of word-formation and inflexion, whereby categories arise which are analogous to the grammatical notions of root, stem, and suffix. But it must always be borne in mind, firstly, that the mind remains entirely unconscious of these categories as such; secondly that they have nothing to do with the original mode of the formation of words, but purely accommodate themselves to the sound-series (Lautreihe) which regularly goes through a number of forms in the language for the time being, so that e. g. in Mod. Germ. tag-, hirt- appear as nominal stems, trag- and brenn- as verbal and present stems, trug- and brannt- as the preterite stems of tragen and brennen; thirdly that the elements arising from analysis are never felt as something entitled to an independent existence, but only as something which is possible in certain modes of combination'. Paul Principien p. 64.

PHONOLOGY.

§ 15. By a comparison of the eight Indo-Germanic dialects (§ 3) we are in a position to arrive at the number and nature of the sounds possessed by the Indg. parent language. These were as follow: —

Vowels. In the function of sonants: i ī, u ū, e ē, o ō, a ā, ɔ. In the function of consonants: j, w.

Nasals. In the function of consonants: ɣ (velar), ɲ (palatal), n (dental), m (labial). In the function of sonants: ɣ̃ ɣ̃̃, ɲ̃ ɲ̃̃, ñ ñ̃, m̃ m̃̃.

Liquids. In the function of consonants: r, l. In the function of sonants: r̃ l̃, ɹ̃ ɻ̃.

Explosives:

p	b	ph	bh	(labial).
t	d	th	dh	(dental).
k	g	kh	gh	(palatal).
q	g	qh	gh	(velar).

To these is probably further to be added the spiritus lenis, a laryngeal explosive, e. g. Indg. isti* 'is', Gr. ἔστι. In the following paragraphs we shall indicate this sound only in Greek words.

Spirants: s, z, j, v.

Phonetic Elucidations¹⁾.

§ 16. 1. Voiced and voiceless sounds. Speech-sounds²⁾ are produced by the breath, expelled from the lungs, undergoing a checking which gives rise to an acoustic effect. This checking takes place partly in the larynx, partly in the organs above the larynx (mouth, or nose), and partly in both at the same time. When the checking in the larynx takes place in such a manner that the vocal cords (which in a state of rest are far apart) are so far brought together as to come into (rhythmical) vibration, a musical clang arises which is called voice. All sounds, which are spoken with voice, are called voiced, and all those without voice voiceless. In the Indg. prim. language the vowels, nasals, liquids, of the explosives the mediae b, d, g, g and the mediae aspiratae bh, dh, gh, gh, and the spirants z, j, v were voiced; on the other hand the tenues p, t, k, q and the tenues aspiratae ph, th, kh, qh and the spirant s were voiceless.

The voiceless vowels (the h-sounds), nasals and liquids³⁾

1) Cp. Ed. Sievers Grundzüge der Phonetik, zur Einführung in das Studium der Lautlehre der indogermanischen Sprachen, 2. Edit. Leipzig 1881, 3. Edit. Leipzig 1885.

2) It is not without considerable justification that the expression 'speech-sound' ('Sprachlaut') has of late been found fault with, so far as it is used to express the smallest elements of language in general, because among the so called explosives there are moments of perfect absence of sound which are also to be taken into consideration. And these moments form an element of a syllable just as much as the moments of sound, while in the analysis of a syllable they can no more be left out of consideration than the pauses in music can be regarded as not existing. Cp. § 320. If in this work we have not attached that amount of importance to the latest principles of phonetics — viz. that in the classification of speech-elements, their genesis, not their acoustic effect, should form the chief principle — which some phoneticians might wish to see, it is out of consideration that we do not yet possess a system and terminology, based on these views, which might be applied without considerable difficulties to the historical results of the science of languages.

3) Cp. Hoffory Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIII 538 ff., 541 ff., 554 ff., XXV 425 f., 'Prof. Sievers und die Principien der Sprachphysiologie' 24 ff.

in the course of the individual developments were added to the respective voiced sounds of the primitive period.

§ 17. 2. Sonorous sounds and noised sounds. The mouth and nose on the one hand, serve to modify the clangs formed in the larynx, on the other hand 'noises', which are independent of the activity of the larynx, can be produced in these organs through the current of breath undergoing a checking and friction. In uttering t, s, e. g. a noise is made on the inner side of the upper teeth, or on their sockets. Voice and noise formed in the mouth and nose (Ansatzrohrgeräusch) can be combined, e. g. in d and z (Fr. zéro, Russ. zoloto 'gold'). Those sounds, which are formed with noise, whether they be voiceless or voiced, are called noised sounds, whereas those, in which the formation of voice takes place in the larynx, while the mouth and nose merely serve as resonance chambers, are called sonorous sounds. The Indg. explosives and spirants were noised sounds, and the Indg. vowels and nasals, sonorous sounds. The r- and l-sounds were and are in the historic periods of the Indg. languages partly sonorous and partly spirantal in their formation. And it is not improbable, that the spirantal pronunciation, where it occurs in historic times, had everywhere first come into being during the course of the separate history of the respective Indg. languages.

§ 18. 3. Sonants and Consonants. Every syllable contains one sound, which is either alone or at least principally the bearer of the accent, e. g. the bearers of this accent in the word höff-níng are o and u. Such sounds are called sonants. The other elements of a syllable are to a certain extent only adjuncts to the sonant which forms the nucleus of the syllable, and are therefore called consonants. Every syllable must contain one sonant and can contain only one, whereas it can have several consonants (Mod. German strümpfs) or none at all (Lat. imperative *ē*¹). One set of sounds can be used both as sonants and as consonants, especially the vowels — amongst these particularly i, u —, the nasals and liquids; we write these sounds i u y, r etc. when used as sonants, and i, y, n, r etc. when used as consonants. Cp. Mod. German Ä-sjén beside Ä-si-én (in poets); Lat. á-quám beside á-cú-ám, stín-guó beside ár-gu-ó; English ré-pf-zñ-těj-šñ (representation); Mod. Germ. réch-né beside ré-chñt (rechnet), gñ-núg (genug), hán-dlé beside hán-dñ, gñ-rá-dé (gerade); Czech kft (krt 'mole'), vñk (vlk 'wolf'); Skr. pí-trá (pitrá, instr. sg. of pitár 'father') beside pí-tñ-šú (pítñšu, loc. pl. of the same word)¹⁾; in Slovakian sñn, vñn (srn, vln) gen. pl. to sñ-ná (srna 'roe'), vñ-ná (vlna 'wave').

1) By this classification we omit to take account of the spiritus lenis, which strictly speaking ought to be reckoned among the consonants.

In our representation of pre-historic forms we consequently mark i and u also as consonants when they form the second component of a diphthong, e. g. Indg. 3. sg. éjti* = Gr. εἶσι Skr. éti, bhéydhetai* = Gr. νεύθεται Skr. bódhate. The vowels i and u had here the same function as e. g. r in the 3. sg. bhérti* from rt. bher- 'bear' (Skr. bhárti, Lat. fert) and n in the 3. sg. bhebhóndhe* from rt. bhendh- 'bind' (Skr. babándha, Goth. band). Cp. § 308.

Rem. A few phonetic elucidations on the explosives and spirants will be found in § 320 ff. and § 354.

On the pronunciation of the letters.

§ 19. The various Indg. languages and dialects were and still are written in various alphabets by the respective peoples and their subdivisions. Sometimes different kinds of alphabets were even employed in different districts lying within the sphere of the same dialect, or also in the same district for different purposes, e. g. in Oscan (inscriptions in the Oscan-Samnitic, Latin, and Greek alphabets) and in Servian (the Cyrillic alphabet is employed by the followers of the Greek Church, and the Latin by the Roman catholics). It also frequently happened that one alphabet was permanently given up in favour of another, cp.

1) Skr. pitrá stands in the same relation to pítñšu as hánvá i. e. hánvá does to hánváñu (stem hánu- 'jaw-bone') and as áryá i. e. áryá does to áryñu (stem áry- 'sheep').

e. g. the change from the runic to the Latin alphabet among the Germanic races.

It has become usual in works on Indg. grammar to employ native characters only in the case of Greek, Latin, and those younger developments which were and still are written in the Latin alphabet, but for the rest to make use of a transcription, based on the Latin alphabet. Now the Latin system of letters is insufficient for the transliteration of most foreign alphabets, and when this is the case, it is usual either to add a diacritic sign to the Latin letter, or to borrow a letter from other known alphabets.

The exposition of the history of the various sounds will furnish further information as to the living value of the letters. With regard to the transcription which we have adopted for the various languages, we simply make such observations here as will enable the reader to pronounce the words correctly or at least approximately so; in the case of dead languages it is, of course, often impossible to determine precisely the value of a letter.

a ā i ī u ū ṛ ṝ ḷ ḹ ai āu ḥ ṛ k kh g gh ṅ c ch j jh ñ ṭ ṭh ḍ ḍh ṇ t th d dh n p ph b bh m y r l v ś ṣ s h.

r, ṛ, ḷ are sonants (s. § 18). r, ṛ like consonantal r are cerebral (cp. ṭ, ṭh etc. below), i. e. similar to English r; ḷ and l are dental.

ḥ (visarga) is our spiritus asper.

We indicate the nasal pronunciation of the sonants by ṛ, e. g. qśū-ṣ 'thread, beam of light', acc. svddīyāṣ-am 'suaviorem', r, ṛ = nasalised r, ṛ, e. g. in trhā-ti 'he shatters', nṛś-ca 'viro-que'.

The voiceless aspirate explosives kh, ch, ṭh, th, ph and the voiced aspirate explosives gh, jh, ḍh, dh, bh are to be pronounced as explosives followed by an h, but cp. however Whitney's Skr. Gram. § 37.

The palatals c, ch, j, jh are generally pronounced as (compound) isā-sounds, e. g. the initial sounds of ca 'and' and jāna-s 'creature' like the initial sounds of Italian cento and gente or those of English church and judge. But they were simple sounds, similar to Mod.HG. k and g before palatal vowels, e. g. in kind, gift.

The cerebrals (cacuminals) t, th, ç, çh are uttered with the tip of the tongue turned up and drawn back into the dome of the palate.

ʷ is the guttural, ʲ the palatal, and ʳ the cerebral nasal.

y = i, v = u or spirantal v, s. §§ 18. 127. 161.

s is like Mod.HG. dental s, cp. ásti and Mod.HG. ist. On the other hand š and ś are sh-sounds; š is the palatal and ś the cerebral sh-sound; ś is thus the softened ś (sz) found in Slavonic and Lithuanian.

h is pronounced like our spiritus asper; it was however a voiced sound, the character of which is doubtful, cp. Whitney's Skr. Gram. § 65.

1. Avestic.

The vowels are: a i u e ç o

ā ī ū ē ȳ ō.

e, ē represent the open and ē, ȳ the close e-vowel, ā a dull a sound approaching to ō. q is the nasal vowel of a and ā (§ 200). y = i or spirantal, v = u or spirantal (§§ 18. 127. 161).

Diphthongs: aē ōi, ao ēu, ai āu. aē, ao may be pronounced like the ai, au in the Middle German pronunciation of kaiser, haus etc. (cp. Bœot. ae and Ion. ao § 96, Lat. ae § 97).

Liquid: r. Nasals: ʷ guttural, ʲ is palatalised n (§ 200), n dental, m labial; the value of ʷ and ʲ is doubtful (§ 558, 3).

Explosives: k c t p, g j d b. c and j are like Skr. c and j (§ 20).

Spirants: x = Mod. HG. ch in dach, to which the corresponding voiced sound is γ. č, a palatalised sound, seems to have been similar to the Mod. HG. ch in ich. s = our voiceless s in nest, z = Fr. z. p = Mod. Gr. θ and our th in thin, d = Mod. Gr. δ and our th in then. f, w = our f, v. ś is our sh, z the corresponding voiced sound = Fr. j. š = Skr. ś. The pronunciation of š, ś, d cannot be more exactly defined.

h is our spiritus asper (not = Skr. h).

2. Old Persian.

Vowels. a i u, a ī ū. y = i or spirantal (§ 127), v = u or spirantal (§ 161). y and v were not pronounced in words ending in -iy, -y, -uv, -āv. Final hy is to be pronounced as -hi.
Diphthongs: ai au, ai au.

Nasals: n, m.

Explosives: k c t p, g j d b as in Avestic. d had also the value of ḍ (§ 402).

Spirants: x, s, z, ḥ, f, š as in Avestic. The value of š is not clear (§ 261) h = Av. h.

Difficulties are caused by iy, uv, iy, ūv, which in certain special cases represent y and v, cp. §§ 125. 159. 558, 3.

Rem. The peculiar character of Old Persian cuneiform letters makes it, in some respects, difficult to decipher the words rightly. A syllable consisting of a consonant and a short vowel (a, i, u) was represented by one sign (da, di, du). Medially and finally the letters a, i, u, which initially expressed both a, i, u and also ā, ī, ū, were added to the corresponding sign to express length of vowel, e. g. da + a = dā, di + i = dī. A consonant which was not followed by a vowel, was also always represented by a syllabic sign, e. g. pa + a + ra + sa + ma = pārsam (acc. sg. 'a Persian'). Consequently in order to express a final consonant + a, an extra letter a was added at the end. Therefore, e. g. -ma + a (-mā) might mean both -mā and -ma. The letters i, u were usually added again to the signs for consonant + i, or u, so that e. g. vi + i + sa + ma may be read either as visam or visum and thus we are not able to make a clear distinction between i, u and ī, ū. Cp. Bartholomae Handbuch p. 5 f. § 21 rem. 1. § 24 rem. 1.

Vowels. a, u, i, o, ē, e, ē. ɛ is an indefinite vowel somewhat resembling German ö. Pronounce y, v as i, u (§ 18).
Diphthongs: ea, ai, oi, au, iu.

Liquids: r, ṛ; l, λ. The difference in the pronunciation has not been determined. Nasals: n, m.

1) In the transcription of this language we entirely follow Hübschmann. Cp. his treatise 'Die Umschreibung der iranischen Sprachen und des Armenischen' (1882) p. 31 ff.

Explosives: k t p, g d b. k t p are aspirate tenues.

The Affricatae č ċ j, c ċ j may be pronounced as *tš thš dz, ts ths dz*¹⁾.

Spirants. x is a deep guttural ch like the ch in Scot. Lch. s and z, the latter = Fr. z. š and ž, the former a voiceless, the latter a voiced sh-sound.

h = our spiritus asper.

§ 23. Umbrian-Samnitic. The monuments of this dialect-group are almost exclusively inscriptions, which are written partly in the native, partly in the Latin and also occasionally in the Greek alphabet. We reproduce the native writing by spaced Roman type, whereas those words which have come down to us written in the Latin alphabet are printed in italics.

The Umbrian native alphabet does not possess any special letters for o, g and d, but represents them by u, k and i.

The e, in monuments written in Latin characters, must always be pronounced as l.

The sibilant (§§ 387. 502), which arose from k before palatal vowels and which we represent by 's and 's (s), may be pronounced like Skr. ś. The precise pronunciation of this sound, given by d in the native alphabet, and by 'S (or S) in the Latin, is not known.

The modification of d (§ 369), which on the tables written in Latin is represented by rs, and also occasionally simply by r or s, has the sign q in the native alphabet. It was probably a strongly spirantal sh-kind of r, similar to Czech ř. We transcribe this Umbrian symbol with ř, and it may be pronounced like Czech ř.

Pronounce z as ts.

h occurs in both kinds of writing as sign of vowel lengthening, e. g. kumnahkle read kumnākle, spahmu read spāmu. On tables written in Latin this sign also appears between a double vowel which in itself already indicates vowel length, e. g. spahamu beside spahmu.

1) More will be found on the pronunciation of these sounds in Hübschmann's work quoted above p. 85 rem. 3.

Oscan i is a close e, in the function both of a sonant, e. g. 1st 'est', and a consonant, e. g. in the diphthong ai; ú is a close o.

Pronounce z as ts, e. g. húrz, az, koenzstur (nzs = ntss, cf. kvaísstur), Vezkeí. But z is a voiced s (Fr. z), e. g. egmazum.

In Umbrian-Samnitic we uniformly omit the mark of length over vowels. We write e. g. matrer 'matris', although a was undoubtedly spoken (§ 105). This plan has been adopted because the cases are too numerous in which the quantity of the vowel can not be determined with certainty.

§ 24. Old Irish writing, a variety of Latin, presents many diphthongs and triphthongs which were in reality only monophthongs and diphthongs. E. g. the i in eich 'of a horse' and in tuaith 'to the people' only marks the i-timbre of the following consonant. Hence some write e'ch tua'th. S. § 640.

c is everywhere to be pronounced as k. On the pronunciation of c and t compare moreover § 212 rem. and §§ 513. 658.

ch, th, ph denote the guttural, interdental, labial voiceless spirants (χ, þ, f), s. § 514. th occasionally also stands for the voiced interdental spirant ð. g, d, b are both voiced mediae (§ 519) and voiced spirants ȝ, ð, b (§ 522), g and d are even also used for the voiceless spirants χ and þ (§ 514). In Middle Irish gh, dh, bh took the place of g, d, b as signs for the voiced spirants; after the manner of Modern Irish we pronounce gh and dh before or after a palatal vowel like our y and before or after other vowels as ȝ.

Rem. In the Britannic dialects u has the sound of ü, in the greater part of Wales that of i. So far as Cymric is specially concerned, it may be remarked that y denotes partly a vowel, similar to that in the English word fur, and partly = Cymr. u; io is partly a sonantal vowel u and partly y; ch, th, ph (ph) are voiceless, and dd, f voiced spirants; m, n, r, l are voiced, mh, nh, rh, ll voiceless. These values apply in the first instance to the living language only.

ai is a short open e, and au a short open o. On the other hand ai and au are to be pronounced as diphthongs. Antevocalic ai and au (e. g. saian and staua) were probably the long vowels to ai and au, i. e. open ē and open ō (§§ 142. 179). Gothic writing leaves both ai, ai, ai and au, au, au undistinguished.

ei = ī. ē and ō were close. v = u, j = i (§ 18).

The guttural nasal (ŋ) was generally (after the analogy of Greek) expressed by g before homorganic explosives, e. g. luggs 'long', drigkan 'to drink', seldom by gg (driggkan) or n (bringan 'to bring').

g (e. g. rigis 'darkness') = Lat. gn.

d initially and medially after n, l, r, z was a voiced explosive, whereas medially after vowels it was the interdental spirant ð. b initially and medially after consonants was a voiced explosive, whereas medially after vowels it was the labial spirant β. A corresponding difference is also to be assumed for g. S. §§ 530. 538 and cp. also §§ 531. 539.

p is a voiceless interdental, f a bilabial spirant, z = Fr. z.

Pronounce initial h before vowels (e. g. haban 'to have') like our spiritus asper, in other cases (e. g. hlāifs 'loaf, bread', rahts 'right', tānh 'I led') it is a spirant like German ch.

§ 26. Lithuanian.

Vowels: a e i u, ā ē y ū, ė o. e and ē are to be pronounced very open. y = ī. ė and o are very close and always long (hence we omit the sign of vowel length). The vowels a e i u do not differ in pronunciation from ā ē i ū; initially and medially they are always to be pronounced long, finally they are partly long, partly short. The little hook under a vowel indicates that the vowel was originally followed by a nasal, this sign has therefore only an etymological value (§ 218).

Diphthongs: ai ei au, ai ēi au, ui oi ē ū. The o in oi is to be pronounced long; this diphthong occurs in locatives as toi (from the feminine pronominal stem to- 'this'), where it is usually written -oj (toj). Pronounce ē as ī₂ with a very open ē or as ī₂. Pronounce ū as ū₂ with a very open ū or as ū₂.

When the accent is on a short vowel, it is represented by e. g. piktas 'bad'. In cases where ˘ and ˙ are placed over simple vowels to indicate the accent, these vowels are always to be read long, e. g. vārpa 'ear of corn', gėras 'good'. In like manner āi āu ēi are also to be read as ā_i, ā_u, ē_i. More will be found on the accent signs ˘ and ˙ in § 691. j is to be pronounced as ɟ, and v as a spirant (English v)¹.

Nasals: n, m. n is to be pronounced as ɲ (guttural nasal) before k and g, e. g. in rankà 'hand'.

Explosives: k t p (voiceless), g d b (voiced).

Spirants: s, z (= Fr. s), sz (= our sh), z̥ (voiced sh, Fr. j).

c = ts, cz = English tsh.

Palatalisation of Consonants. All consonants (with the exception of j) are liable to palatalisation. This uniformly takes place before palatal vowels (e, ē, i, y): the t, n, r, z in svėte, kėne, mure, bėrė (voc. sg. of the stems svėta- 'world', kėna- 'body', mura- 'wall', bėrė- 'birch') are therefore not to be pronounced the same as in svėtas, kėnas, muras, bėrė (nom. sg. of the same stems). When palatalised pronunciation takes place before non-palatal vowels, it is indicated by an i placed after the consonant, but this i must neither be read as syllabic i nor as i, e. g. kiaulė 'pig', pióvian 'I cut' (past t.), piáusiu 'I shall cut', nėszin 'I shall carry'. We express the non-palatalised l by l̥; it is the 'guttural' l, which in those districts bordering on Poland, has a great resemblance to Polish ł, and often sounds like u, s. § 280. l̥ is the palatalised liquid; we therefore write galū 'I can', not *galū̥*²).

1) This fixing of the pronunciation of v is on the authority of Schleicher, who had Prussian Lithuanian in mind. It is pronounced ʋ in one part of Russian Lithuania.

2) In this mode of writing we have followed Juskiewicz.

§ 27. Old Church Slavonic (Old Bulgarian).

a e o i ı u ŋ y ě. e and o are open. Pronounce ı as a very close ē; ŋ somewhat the same as the u in English but; ě as ē; y as ū. On the quantity of a, i, u, y, ě cp. § 615. ę and q are nasal vowels, the former = Fr. in, the latter = Fr. on. j = i, v = y or spirantal (§ 186).

ch like German ch in ach, ś like English sh, z like Fr. j, z like Fr. z.

c = ts, č = tsh (Lith. cz).

Rem. We use ıw, ıv to denote the prim. Baltic-Slavonic representation of Indg. u, v. See §§ 248, 302. Pronounce the j as a sound lying between i and e.

§ 28. The Indo-Germanic parent-language had i ı, u ŋ, e ē, o ō, a ā, ə.

e, o (both long and short) were probably pronounced open. Hence some scholars write them á, ā. On the representation of these vowels cp. the Author in Curtius' Stud. IX 367, Morph. Unt. II p. III, Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 201 ff.

The value of o can not be more precisely defined. It may be pronounced as ā, that is, an a somewhat approaching the sound of e.

The e in Elean πόλερ (= Att. πόλις) beside πόλις and in Thessal. κρενόμεν (inf., cp. Lesb. κρέννην, Att. κρένειν), Ὑβρίστας (= Att. Ὑβρίστης) seems to have arisen through the proximity of the φ.

§ 33. Italic. Lat. qui-s, Umbr. Osc. pi-s: Gr. τίς. Lat. mi-nu-ō mi-nor, Osc. mi-nstreis 'minoris': Skr. mi-nū-mi Gr. μινύω μινύθω 'lessen', Goth. adv. mi-us 'minus', O.Bulg. мѣ-ниѣ 'minor', from rt. mej-. Lat. tri- in tri-bus tri-plex, Umbr. tri-pler 'triplex': Skr. tri-, Gr. τρι-.

Already at an early period Lat. i had a tendency towards e close (open i or i pingue), hence e. g. the spelling tempestatibus (C. I. L. 32) for tempestati-bus (cp. Skr. ariṣṭātati-bhyas dat., abl. pl. of ariṣṭā-tati- 'unimpairedness'). This was especially so before vowels (where i had partly arisen from j, see § 135), hence the inscriptional forms fileai, Oveo for filiai, Ovio. This intermediate sound was also represented by ei, e. g. fileiai.

e purum arose from i:

1. Before r = Indg. s (§ 569). serō from si-sō*: Gr. ἱήμι, original form si-sē-mi*, from rt. sē- 'throw, sow'. cineris fr. cinis-is*, cp. cinis-culu-s

2. Finally. mare fr. mari*, leve fr. levi*, cp. mari-a mari-timus, levi-bus levi-ter, and Gr. neut. ἵδις 'acquainted with', Skr. bhāri 'multum'. Loc. sing. rūr-e: cp. Skr. div-i. ante fr. anti* cp. anti-stō, Gr. ἀντί, Skr. anti.

Rem. 1. On the other hand the e in the suffix of the acc. case sing. of ei-stems as ignem (Skr. agnī-m, Lith. agnį), mortem (Skr. mṛti-m, O.Bulg. mŕtŭm), facilem (cp. facili-a), was borrowed from such forms as ped-em (-em = Indg. -m, §§ 224, 238), as siti-m, parti-m etc. show. The e in jā-dex, in-dex beside -dic-is etc. (from rt. dēj- 'direct', Skr. dīś- 'order, direction', Gr. δία-η) and the e in comes by the side of comitis etc. (stem com-i-t- 'accompanying', from rt. cj- 'go') has also probably arisen through the influence of analogy; cp. opt-fer beside faciō, super-stes beside status etc.

The combination -ri-, between consonants in unaccented syllables (according to the principle of accentuation in primitive Latin, § 680), became r, which passed into er. in-certu-s fr. in-* cri-to-s = Gr. ἄ-κριτο-ς, sē-cernō fr. sē-crinō*. abs-tergō fr. abs-trigō* (cp. Gr. τριβω); later also uncompounded cernō, tergō, cp. § 65 rem. 2. In the same manner, perhaps, also arose the forms cōn-testor testor testāmentu-m (test- from terst-*, cp. § 269) beside Osc. trīstaamentud abl. 'testamento'. The process was the same as that whereby dgro-s* (Gr. ἀγρό-ς) became agrs* agers* and lastly ager (§ 623 rem. 1. 655, 9). This process may be dated back to the Italic primitive period. Cp. also § 633.

Rem. 2. acri-bus acri-tās etc. are new forms, made by analogy.

The orthographical fluctuation in Umbrian between i and e, as neut. piŕ-e pirs-e, peŕ-e pers-e 'quid, quodcunque'; imper. aha-tripursatu, ah-trepuratu 'abs-tripodato'; acc. sing. of ei- stems in -i-m and -e-m, and the Oscan representation of this sound in its native alphabet by i, e. g. pīd 'quid', slagī-m acc. sing. of the stem slagi- 'locus', show that i was pronounced open in both dialects.

§ 34 Old Irish. fiss 'knowledge' from prim. Ir. yiissu-s*, that is, uid+tu-s*, root. yeid-. fid 'tree' from prim. Kelt. yidu-s* (Gall. Vidu-casses): OHG. witū 'wood'. Gen. sing. fir fr. firi* from Indg. stem yi-ro-* 'man': Lat. vir, Goth. vair fr. yira-z* (§ 35)

Cp. also Gall. Ambi-gatus (Liv.), Ἀμφι-δραυοί (Ptol.): Gr. ἀμφί; Gall. tri- 'three' in tri-garanus, O.Ir. dat. pl. tri-b 'tribus'.

i became e (by assimilation), when an a or o stood in the following syllable e. g. fer nom. sg. fr. original yiro-s*, fedo feda gen. sg. to fid

In syllables with secondary accent i, so far as it did not entirely disappear (§§ 634. 657), became an irrational vowel, whose quality regulated itself after the timbre of the following consonants. E. g. beside the simple fiss stood the compound cūbus 'conscientia' fr. cōn-f(i)uss*, that is, the u-timbre of the ss (presupposed through the older form yiissu-s*) had caused the preceding irrational vowel to become u in the compound, whilst it left the accented i in the simple fiss unchanged. The u in fiuss beside fiss merely indicates the u-timbre of the ss

§ 35. Germanic. Goth. widuō OHG. uituwa OS. widowa Ags. wideice 'widow': Skr. vidhāva-, Lat. vidua, O.Ir. fedb, O.Bulg. vidova. Pret. 1. pers. pl. Goth. bitum OHG. bizzum O.Icel. bitom 'we bit': Skr. bi-bhidimá, Lat. fidimus. Goth. fisks OHG. and OS. fisk O.Icel. fiskr 'fish': Lat. piscis. Pronominal stem hi- 'this', Goth. dat. sing. hi-mma 'huic' adv. hi-drē 'huc', Engl. hither: Lat. ci- in ci-ter ci-trā, Lith. szì-s O.Bulg. sī hie (§ 84. rem. 1), Indg. xi-*.

In Gothic i, before h and r, became ai, that is, open e. maihstus 'dung': OHG. mist 'dung', Ags. mist 'misty vapour', Skr. mih- Gr. μίχλη O.Bulg. migla Lith. miglà 'fog'. vair (pl. vairōs) 'man': Lat. vir, O.Ir. fer, Indg. ui-ro-s*.

In High German, the Indg. and Prim. Germanic i became e through the influence of a following a, e or o (cp. Irish). OHG. wehsal 'change': Dutch wissel O.Icel. vīxl 'change', prim. Germ. stem uixsla-*, Lat. vic- vic-ēs 'change', Gr. φέλω 'yield'. lecchōn 'to lick': Ags. liccean 'to lick', Gr. λχρέω 'I lick'. wer 'man': Goth. vair. wessa 'I knew': Goth. vissa 'I knew', pret. of OHG. weizzan Goth. vitan 'to know'. To this rule there are a number of exceptions of which some are difficult to explain. It may be assumed that they have arisen through form-association, e. g. in -zigan 'pulled together' by the side of pret. pl. zigan opt. zigi from rt. dejk-* 'show', and in wissa (= wessa) by the side of weissum, wissi. Cp. Paul's article in Paul and Braune's Beitr. VI 82 ff.

Rem. Some scholars assume that i, already in prim. Germanic, passed into e through the influence of an a or o of the following syllable, e. g. in OHG. wehsal. The difficulties, however, opposed to this theory seem to me greater than those presented by the hypothesis given above.

In one portion of the Lithuanian dialects i is at the present day pronounced very open; hence such frequent spellings as lepau lepo = lipaũ lipo 1. and 3. pers. sing. pret. of limpiti.

Slavonic ĭ must, already in prim. Slav., have been a reduced sound, with a quality approaching e.

In Modern Slavonic developments ĭ became a full vowel in closed syllables (such syllables often arose through the falling out of an ĭ or ũ in the following syllable), Russ. e, Serv. a: e. g. Russ. den Serv. dan = O.Bulg. dĭnŭ 'day'; Russ. čest Serv. čast = O.Bulg. čĭstŭ 'honour'. On the other hand final ĭ as a sonantal vowel disappeared in every case; e. g. Russ. dam = O.Bulg. da-mŭ Lith. dã'-mi 'I give' (Balt.-Slav. original form dōdmi* from rt. dō-, Gr. δίδομι, § 547). Medial ĭ also, as a rule, disappeared in open syllables, e. g. Russ. vdová = O.Bulg. vĭdova 'widow'; Serv. dne = O.Bulg. dĭn-e gen. sing. of dĭn- 'day'. All these modifications can be traced as far back as the period of Old Church Slavonic. On the one hand they follow from such double spellings as trechũ trĭchũ, pātemŭ pāřimŭ (instr. sing.), pātechũ pāřichũ loc. pl. from pāřŭ 'way', denŭ dĭnŭ 'day', vesŭ vĭřŭ 'entire', levũ řicũ 'lion' — these forms can only be understood by assuming that the final -ĭ and -ũ were no longer syllabic (because e did not become ĭ e. g. in pāřimi Instr. pl.)¹⁾ — on the other hand from such double spellings as visi vĭsi gen. 'vici' (cp. Skr. viś- 'clan'), psati pĭsati 'to write' (cp. Skr. piś- 'adorn', rt. pejř- 'cut, cut out'). The same laws hold for ĭ in the combinations in, im, ir from Indg. yn, ym, yr (§§ 252. 305). E. g. pres. O.Bulg. mĭnã 'I press, tread under foot': Lith. minũ 'I tread', original form myn-ō*, rt. men-; thence Russ. mnu. O.Bulg. tĭmĭnica 'prison' from tĭmĭnũ 'dark', adj. to tĭma 'darkness' from tyĭm-ā* rt. tem-; thence Russ. and also already O.Bulg. temnica. O.Bulg. řĭrã 'tero' original form řyr-ām*, thence Russ. tru. The analogous treatment of ũ § 52 may also be compared with these modifications of ĭ.

1) Cp. also such spellings as legũko (i. e. legko) for řegũko 'leve, facile' (§ 52).

ŷ before j became i in the period of Old Church Slavonic. prŷja-znŷ and prija-znŷ 'love, good will': Skr. priyá- 'dear', Goth. frijōn 'to love', Indg. adj. prijó-* 'dear'. Gen. pl. trŷjŷ and trijŷ: Lith. trijū 'trium'. ŷ in the combination -ŷj- from Indg. -ej- (§ 68) underwent the same treatment, e. g. vŷja and vija = Lith. vejū 'I turn, wind', Skr. váyami, Indg. uėjō*. The change of ŷ to y before j went parallel to this modification, e. g. dobrŷjŷ and dobryjŷ 'the good man' (§ 84).

Rem. In the Zographos gospel ŷ frequently is found for ŷ before non-palatal vowels; e. g. vŷdova 'widow'. Cp. § 232 rem. and § 305 rem.

Indg. ŷ.

§ 37. Indg. gi-uo-s* 'living': Skr. jīvd-s, Lat. vīvo-s, Lith. gyva-s O.Bulg. živŷ. Indg. pŷ-uo-, pŷ-uen-: Skr. pŷi-van- 'swelling (partic.), plump, fat', Gr. πŷ-(f)o-s πŷ-(f)ov 'fat, plump'. Indg. st-men-*: Skr. sŷ-mán- 'parting of the hair on the top of the head', Gr. ŷ-μᾶς (st. ŷ-μav-r-) 'a leathern strap, rein, ŷ-μav-ιά 'rope of a draw-well', O.Icel. st-me st-mi 'cord, rope'.

Nominal suffix-form Indg. -i-: Skr. naptŷ-i- 'daughter, granddaughter', vidúŷŷi 'idvŷa', Lat. vic-tr-i-c-s, Goth. frijōndi 'female-friend' from prim. Germanic frijōnd-i* (§ 660, 2), Lith. vilŷusi O.Bulg. vlŷlŷusi from prim. Baltic-Slav. uŷlkust* (§§ 303. 664), fem. particip. pret. act. of Lith. velkū O.Bulg. vlŷka 'I draw, pull' (rt. uŷlq-). Nominal suffix -uo-, forming adjectives denoting origin or material: Lat. haed-ŷnu-s, Goth. gait-eins 'kid's', Lat. su-ŷnu-s, O.Bulg. sv-inŷ 'pig's', Goth. sv-ein (neut.) 'a pig' (cp. gáitein neut. 'a young he-goat'), Gr. xoŷan-ŷro-s 'a young raven'. Indg. -i the ending of the Nom. Acc. dual of ej-stems: Skr. pátŷi to nom. sing. pátŷi-ŷ 'master', O.Ir. faith (original form uátr*) to nom. sing. faith (original form uati-s*) 'poet', Lith. naktŷi O.Bulg. noŷti (prim. Baltic-Slav. nokŷt*, § 664, 3) to nom. sing. Lith. naktŷi-s O.Bulg. noŷtŷi 'night'. Weak form of the optative suffix -i-: Skr. dvŷŷ-i-máhi 1. pers. pl. Mid. of dvŷŷ-mi 'I hate', Gr. ŷldeŷμεν from ŷldeŷ-i-μεν* to ŷdea 'I knew' from ŷ-few-ŷo-a*, Lat. s-i-mus, Goth. vil-ei-ma = Lat. vel-i-mus, OHG. 1. pers. pl. s-i-m s-i-n 'we may be' = Lat. simus, O.Bulg. jad-i-mŭ from jad- (ěd-) 'eat' (§ 76), cp. Lat. ed-i-mus.

Rem. Of all the prim. Indg. vowels i is the one which has been least changed in the development of the separate languages.

§ 38. Aryan. Skr. vī-rá-s Av. vī-ra- 'man, hero': Umbr. veiro- 'vir' (cp. § 41), secondary form of Indg. uī-ro-s* (§ 34), denoted originally, 'endowed with strength', and is related to Lat. vī-s. Skr. jī-rá- Avest. -jī-ra- 'active', imper. 2. pers. sing. Skr. jīva O.Pers. jīva (read jīva) 'live'. Skr. bṛhat-i-m Avest. ber^hzait-i-m 'magnam, altam', cpl. bṛgh-ṛt-i-m*.

§ 39. Armenian. I do not know any certain examples for the representation of ī. See, however, siun 'pillar' = Gr. κίον and çin 'milvus' = Gr. ἰκτινός in Hübschmann's Arm. Stud. I 49. 53.

§ 40. Greek. ἰς l-pi 'strength': Lat. vī-s. ῥός 'poison fr. fīso-s*: Lat. vīru-s, O.Ir. fl. ῥῑγος 'frost': Lat. frīgus (§ 570) πῖ-vo 'I drink', imper. πῖ-θι: Skr. pī-tá-s 'drunk, having drunk' pī-ti-ṣ 'draught (of liquids)', O.Bulg. pi-ti 'to drink' pi-vo (neut.) 'potua, beer'.

§ 41. Italic. Lat. vīvo-s, Osc. bivus nom. pl. 'vivi'. Lat. in-clī-nō, ac-clī-ni-s: Gr. κλῖ-νῆ κλῖ-νύ-ς, Skr. abhi-śrī-ṇā-ti 'leads on, unites with'. Lat. s-i-mus, Umbr. 2. pers. sing. sir 'sis', Osc. sefac-i-d 'fecerit' opt. of redupl. perf. (cp. Skr. 3. pers. sing. opt. pf. mid. va-ṛt-i-tá from vart- 'roll, turn'); the -i- (-i-) in the Umbr. and Osc. forms, as well as in Lat. sim sīs (O.Lat. siem siēs), has been taken over from the 1. and 2. pers. pl. Osc. li-mu 'famem': Gr. λι-μός-ς.

In Latin ei was also written for this ī, e. g. veivos, faxseis. It was not, however, pronounced as a diphthong, but as a long (probably open) i. The old diphthong ei in deicō (cp. δείκνυ-μι), feidō (cp. πείθω) etc. had become ī, but the spelling ei for this ī was still retained. At this period the sign ei began to be used for the old ī which had fallen together with eī (cp. also the late Greek spelling ei for original ī, as πολείτης). Cf. § 65.

The i in the Umbr. and Osc. words sir and bivus, limu, (quoted above) is to be pronounced long. This quantity can be directly proved in Umbr. persnihmu persnihinu, i. e. persnīmu (§ 23) 'precamino', depon. 3. sing. imper. from a verbal stem persnī-, cp. Lat. finī-re. It also follows from the spelling ei (on tables in Latin alphabet) in sei beside sir si = Lat. sīs, in veiro beside viro 'viros' (cp. Skr. vīrā-s § 38), probably also in pers-ei beside pers-i 'quid', the ending of which was a demonstrative particle corresponding to the -ī in Gr. οὔρα-ί. This spelling ei is to be put on a like footing with the ei in Lat. veivos and similar forms (see above), and points to an open pronunciation of the ī. The same quality of the ī-sound follows for Oscan from fusid 'foret, esset' (opt. of the s-aorist, cp. Skr. 3. sing. mid. mā-s-ī-tā from man- 'think'), assuming that the vowel in the end syllable had not been shortened and then become i.

For the treatment of ī in unaccented syllables see §§ 613. 634. 657, 2. 6.

§ 43. Germanic. Goth. skeirs (st. skei-ra-) O.Sax. skīr O.Icel. skīrr 'clear, bright', prim. Germ. skī-ra-*, related to Gr. σῶα 'shadow' or to Lat. dē-sē-t-ōs 'I withdraw, depart from'. Goth. freidjan 'to spare', OHG. vriten 'to foster, pamper', O.Icel. frīða 'to adorn, decorate': cp. Skr. pri-tā-s 'dear, pleased, joyful, satisfied'. Goth. sv-ein OHG. OS. swēn Ags. swēn O.Icel. svīn 'pig': O.Bulg. sv-inū Lat. su-inu-s 'pig's (adj.)', belonging to a pig'. 1. pers. pl. opt. pf. Goth. vēs-ei-ma OHG. wār-i-m O.Sax. wār-i-n, O.Icel. vær-i-m 'we might be': cp. Skr. 3. sing. opt. pf. mid. vayt-ī-tā (from vart-).

It must be observed that ei in Goth. always signifies the monophthong ī (§ 25).

§ 44. Baltic-Slavonic. Lith. vý-ti O.Bulg. vi-ti 'to wind, turn': Gr. ῥεία 'willow, salix' fr. flī-teā*. Lith. dėvynū (dual) 'twins': Lat. bīnī. O.Bulg. grīva 'mane': Skr. grīḍ- 'nape'.

Observe that y is the Lith. symbol. for ī (§ 26).

Indg. u.

§ 45. Indg. *jug-ó-m 'yoke': Skr. yugá-m, Gr. ζυγό-ν, Lat. jugu-m, Goth. juk, O.Bulg. igo fr. jūgo*. Indg. weak stemform kū-n*- 'dog' (strong stemform kū-on*-, Skr. acc. sing. śvān-am): Skr. gen. sing. śū-n-as, Gr. gen. sing. xv-v-ós, O.Cymric nom. pl. cūn cwn, Goth. hūn-d-s, Lith. gen. sing. szu-ñ-s fr. szu-n-es* (§ 664, 2). Indg. nu* 'now': Skt. nú, Gr. vú, Lat. nu-diu-s, O.Ir. nu no, OHG. nu no, Lith. nū-gi 'now then'.

Weak nominal suffixes Indg. -u-, -tu-, -nu-: Skr. svād-ú-ṣ, Gr. ἡδ-ύ-ς 'sweet', Lat. fruc-tu-s, O.Ir. fiuss físs 'knowledge' from uissu-s*, Goth. su-nu-s Lith. sū-nū-s O.Bulg. sy-nū (from sy-nū-s*, § 665, 4) 'son'. Weak form of the suffix of the pf. part. act. Indg. -us-: Skr. vid-úṣ-i Gr. idvā from fid-vó-ja* (§ 181) fem. 'knowing', Goth. bēr-us-jūs 'parents' (properly 'those who have brought forth'), Lith. višk-us-i O.Bulg. vlāk-ūsi fem., to Lith. velkū O.Bulg. vlēka 'I draw'.

§ 46. Aryan. Skr. putrá- Avest. puṣra- O.Pers. puša- (§ 261) 'son': Osc. puklo- 'son'. Skr. úpa Avest. upa O.Pers. upā (read upa) prep. 'to': Gr. ἐπο, Lat. s-ub. Skr. su- Avest. hu- O.Pers. u- prefix = 'well, good, very': O.Ir. su- so-. Suffix of the loc. pl. Ar. -su: Skr. áśv-é-ṣu Avest. aspaṣ-ṣu 'in equis', O.Pers. mādaī-šuv-a 'in Medis' (-a is postposition): O.Lith. knýgo-su (Mod. knýgo-se is formed by analogy) 'in libro' from knýgos pl. 'liber', O.Bulg. raqa-chū 'in manibus' from raqa 'manus'.

In Sanskrit ru before a following u seems to have passed into r (dissimilation). Present stem śr-nu- ('hear') from śru-nu-*, cp. Avest. 2. pers. sing. opt. srunu-yā (Skr. śṛnu-yās), O.Ir. 1. pers. sing. pres. clu-ni-m, rt. kleu-. bhṛ-kuṭi-ṣ 'distortion of the eye-brows' beside bhru-bhaṅga-s bhrū-bhaṅga-s the same. Cp. Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV. 215 f.

§ 47. Armenian. dustr 'daughter': Skr. duhitār- Gr. θυγάτηρ Goth. daūhtar (§ 51) Lith. duktė O.Bulg. dūšti 'daughter'. surb 'clean': Skr. śubhrá-s 'clear, bright'. nu 'daughter-in-law': Skr. enuṣā Gr. νύος OHG. snur O.Bulg. snūcha 'daughter-in-law'.

u in non-final syllables was dropped: dster gen. of dustr, srboy gen. of surb, verb srbem 'I clean'. Cp. § 632.

In prim. Gr. and probably also for some time after the introduction of the letter Y, u was spoken by all Greeks. At an early period one part of the dialects changed u into ū which in the christian era was further changed into i. Another part, the Boeotians, Laconians, and probably also the Arcadians, Cyprians, Pamphylians, Chalcidians and Lesbians, retained u until far into historical times, e. g. Boeot. λεγομένο-ς (ou = ū) = Att. λεγόμε-ν-ς. Meanwhile the vowel u in Boeot. underwent a modification which cannot be precisely defined, after r, θ, δ, ν, λ, as is seen by the spelling ιου instead of ου, e. g. Πολιού-ξενος = Att. Πολύ-ξενος; cp. Osc. iu = u § 49.

The spiritus asper in ἔδωρ (Skr. udán- 'water'), ἔπο ēpo (Skr. úpa úpari) etc. seems to point to a transition from initial u- to ju in prim. Greek. Cp. ἔμυς; Skr. yusma-. It is not improbable that v became i through the dissimilating influence of a following v, as πινυτό-ς from πυ-νυ-τό-ς*, Skr. pu-nd-mi 'I clean, clear up'.

In Latin, before labials and perhaps also before l, a frequent sound, lying between u and i, made its appearance for Indg. u. libet, older lubet: Skr. lubbh- 'to feel a strong desire'. finu-s finu-m, probably related to Gr. θύ-μω-ν. limpa (limpīdus), older form umpa to Osc. Diumpais 'Nymphis', prim. Italic dumpa*-¹). The relation between silua silva and Gr. ῥῶγ is uncertain (cp. Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 158 f., W. Meyer Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII 163 f.). This i occurs especially often for the -u- of *u-(ey)-*stems, e. g. lacri-ma, older form lacru-ma, laci-bus flucti-bus flucti-vagus manifestus beside lacu-bus manu-festus. Compare the change of a to the same u: i-sound (§ 97) in unaccented syllables before the same consonants.

Rom. It has been conjectured (Osthoff in the above named work pages 125, 158) that the i in libet, finis, limpa, silua arose from u phonetically only in unaccented syllables, in such combinations as qui libet, conlibet, in fumo (cp. ilicū from iu slocū*). But should not the historical relation of loebertatem leiber to Osc. Lúvfreis 'Liberi' Falisc. loferta 'liberta' be such that in Lat. lojb-* (= prim. Italic loys-*, § 63 page 52) the consonantal u before b underwent precisely the same change as the sonantal u of libet, so that lojb* first became lojb*, then lojb, and lastly lib? In that case the change of libet (with u in the chief accented syllable) to libet could scarcely be questioned. For the change of loeb- to lib- cp. § 81 rem. 2. I cannot resolve to separate Lat. liber liberta from Osc. Lúvfreis and Falisc. loferta, although I do not fail to recognise the overwhelming difficulties which present themselves (s. Danielsson in Pauli's Ital. Stud. 4, 156 ff.).

The spelling with o shows that u in Umbr. had, in certain cases or everywhere, an open sound: sopam 'suppam, supinam', somo 'summum', trifo 'tribum'. For Umbr. i- from iu- see § 133.

In Osc., u after d, t, n, s underwent a change which was represented by iu. Diumpais 'Nymphis', Lat. lumpā (see above); estiuam beside eltuam 'pecuniam' (suffix -u(u)a-). tiurri 'turrin' (a borrowed word?). Niumsieis Νυμισίης gen. 'Numisii', to Lat. numeri-s. Siuttiis 'Suttius'. Cp. Beot. iov = ov § 48.

§ 50. O. Irish. suth neut. 'birth, fruit' fr. su-tu*: Skr. su-tá-s Gr. νιό-ς νιό-ς 'son'. sruth neut. 'river' fr. sru-tu*: Skr. sru-tá-s Gr. ῥυ-ρό-ς 'flowing', Lith. sru-tà 'dung-water'. clu-ni-m 'I hear': Skr. śru- Gr. κλυ-, rt. kley-.

1) The spellings of the Lat. word as lumpā, limpā, lympā are due to the supposed derivation from λύμφη, which even gave rise to nymphaticus (Löwe Archiv. f. Lat. Lexikogr. I 25).

Compare also Gall. Druid-es, O.Ir. druí (pl. druid) perhaps to, Skr. dru- Gr. δρυ- 'wood'; Gall. catu- 'combat' in Catu-rig-es etc. (O.Ir. cath, gen. catha): OHG. hadu- 'war'.

u became o through the assimilating influence of a or o in the following syllable (cp. the similar change of i to e § 34). cloth from clu-to-s*: Gr. κλυ-τό-ς etc. (§ 48). srotho srotha gen. of sruth. bond bonn 'solea' fr. bundo-s*: Lat. fundu-s Skr. budh-ná-s 'bottom' (§ 469, 8). Compare West Germanic and Norse o from u § 51.

u became o in monosyllabic words. nu no = Skr. nú etc. (§ 45). su-so 'well' = Skr. su-. du-do 'bad' = Skr. duṣ- Gr. δυ- Goth. tuz-. In this case too it is probable that the change from u to o was caused by the vowels of the following syllables.

For the fate of u in other than chief accented syllables cp. §§ 634. 657.

§ 51. Germanic. 1. pers. pl. pf. Goth. ana-budum 'we bade', OHG. butum O.Icel. budom 'we offered': Skr. bu-budh-imá 'we watched, observed', Gr. πέ-πυσται πρθ-έσθαι, Lith. būd-inti 'to rouse', O.Bulg. būd-ěti 'to wake', from rt. bheydh- 'wake, observe'. Goth. ga-kusts (st. ga-kusti-) OHG. kust 'test, choice': Skr. júṣṭi-ṣ 'show of affection, favour'; kustu-s 'trial': Lat. gustu-s 'taste' from rt. gēys- 'choose, γένεσθαι'.

Before h and r Indg. u appears in Goth. as au. auhsa (st. auhsin-) 'ox': Skr. ukṣá (st. ukṣán-) 'bull, ox'. daúr (st. daúra-) neut. 'door': Skr. dúr- (concerning the á- see § 480) Arm. durn Gr. θύρα Lith. pl. dūrys 'door'.

In West Germanic and Norse u became o through the influence of an a or o of the following syllable. Part. passive OHG. botan (Mod. High Germ. ge-boten) O.Sax. bodan Ags. boden O.Icel. boðenn = Goth. budans, cp. Skr. part. budhánd-s. OHG. tor = Goth. daúr (prim. Germ. dūra-n*) beside turi 'door'. Cp. §§ 247. 299.

Rem. Some scholars look upon this umlaut also as prim. Germ. (cp. § 35 rem.).

§ 52. Baltic-Slavonic. Lith. kràvina-s O.Bulg. kràvînû 'bloody': Lat. cruentus. Lith. pl. musaĩ (stem mūsa-) 'mould on sour milk', O.Bulg. mŭchŭ 'moss': Lat. mus-cu-s, OHG. mos (prim. Germ. stem musā-*) 'moss'. Lith. sū-nŭ-s O.Bulg. sy-nŭ 'son': Skr. sū-nŭ-ṣ 'son'.

In some Lith. dialects u is pronounced very open, so that it can be regarded as a closed o, e. g. sukaŭ siko (1. and 3. pers. sing. pret. of sukŭ 'I turn') appear as sōkaŭ, sōkō.

Slavonic ŭ must, already in prim. Slav., have been a reduced sound, approaching the quality of o.

ŭ, in Modern Slavonic developments, became a full vowel in closed syllables (such syllables often arose through the falling out of an ŷ or ŭ in the following syllable), Russ. o, Serv. α, e. g. Russ. son Serv. san = O.Bulg. sŭnŭ from sŭpnŭ* (§ 545) 'sleep': Gr. ἴπ-νο-ς; Russ. doč = O.Bulg. dŭšti 'daughter': Lith. duktė. On the other hand final ŭ disappeared, e. g. Russ. syn O.Bulg. synŭ, loc. pl. Russ. rybach Serv. ribah = O.Bulg. rybachŭ (from ryba- fem. 'fish'), cp. Skr. loc. pl. āśvā-su (from āśvā- 'mare'). Medial ŭ also, as a rule, disappeared in open syllables, e. g. Russ. Serv. sna = O.Bulg. sŭna (gen. sing. of sŭnŭ), Russ. spat = O.Bulg. sŭpati 'to sleep', legka = O.Bulg. lŭgŭka nom. fem. of lŭgŭ-kŭ 'easy' (further formation of an old ŭ-stem by means of the suffix -ko). All these modifications can be traced as far back as the period of old Church Slavonic. On the one hand they follow from such double spellings as krovŭ krŭvŭ 'blood', domochŭ domŭchŭ (loc. pl. from the stem domŭ- 'house' = Lat. domu-); these forms can only be understood by assuming that the final ŷ and ŭ were no longer syllabic; on the other hand from such double spellings as rekŭn rekŭŭsu dat. sing. of the stem rekŭše-, that is, rek-ŭs-ŷo-* according to §§ 84 and 147 (part. pf. act. of rekŭ 'I say'), legŭko beside lŭgŭko neut. to lŭgŭkŭ. With these modifications of ŭ, compare the parallel treatment of ŷ § 36.

Prim. Slav. iŭ became iŷ (cp. iŷ from iŷy § 60 and ie from io § 84). O.Bulg. ĭvq 'I chew' from zĭvŭq*; OHG. chiuwen (§§ 143. 147), igo 'yoke' from ĭgo* (§ 145) and this fr. iŭgo*: Skr. yugā-m, Lat. jugu-m.

Rem. In the Zographos gospel ī for ā occurs occasionally before palatal vowels, e. g. bāḏēi = bādēi 'to wake', dāvu m., but dīrē fem. neutr. 'two'.

Indg. ā.

§ 53. Indg. dhā-mó-s* 'ebullition, smoke': Skr. dhāmá-s, Gr. θῆμός-s ('courage, passion'), Lat. fāmu-s, Lith. pl. dūmai, O.Bulg. dymā. Indg. bhā*-, weak form of the the rt. bhey- 'be, become' (§ 312): Skr. bhā-tā- 'become, been' ābhā-tam 'ye two were' bhā-ti-s 'good condition, well-being', Gr. φῦ-ταλῆς 'a planted place' 2. pers. du. ἐφῦ-ρον, Lith. inf. bū-ti O.Bulg. by-ti 'to be'. Indg. mās*- 'mouse': Skr. māś-, Gr. μῦς, Lat. mās mār-is; OHG. mās and O.Bulg. mysī fr. mychī* (§ 588, 2), that is, originally mās-i-s*, show the change of the monosyllabic stem into the ey-declension

Indg. -ā as ending of the nom. acc. du. of ey-stems: Skr. sānā O.Bulg. syny from Indg. stem sā-ney*- sā-nu*- 'son', Lith. žmogù fr. žmogā* (§ 664, 3) to žmogù-s 'man', O.Ir. mug fr. mogā* (§ 657, 2) from stem mogu- 'servant'.

§ 54. Aryan. Skr. dā-rā- Avest. O.Pers. dā-ra- 'far' from rt. dey- 'withdraw' (Gr. Hom. δεύεσθαι 'fall short of'). Skr. śā-ra- 'hero', Avest. sā-ra- 'strong': Gr. ἀ-κῦρος 'weak, invalid'. Skr. nā Avest. nā 'now': Gr. νῦ-ν O.Bulg. ny-nē 'now'.

§ 55. Armenian. I do not know any sure examples for the regular representation of Indg. ā. The following comparison of words may, however, be taken into consideration. ku, gen. ku-oy, 'dung' to Skr. gūtha- 'excrement', Avest. gūḥa- 'dirt'. mukn, gen. mkan, 'mouse, muscle', to Skr. māṣika- māṣaka- 'rat, mouse', O.Bulg. mysīka 'mouse', Lat. mūsculu-s (cp. Hübschmann Zeitschr. d. deutsch. morgenl. Ges. XXXV 170, Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 217 f.). Pl. srun-ē (-ē is the sign of the plural) 'shins, shanks', to Lat. crūr-a (Hübschmann, as above, page 177). Compare also Hübschmann Armen. Stud. I 62.

§ 56. Greek. ὄφρυς ὄφρυν 'eye-brow': Skr. bhrū-s O.Icel. brū-n Ags. brū 'eye-brow'. βου-λε-τό- 'the time for unyoking oxen': Lat. so-lū-tu-s, O.Icel. lūðr 'bruised, crushed, deafened, tired out' (cp. λέτο γούρατα). στῦλος 'pillar': Skr. sthū-rā-sthū-lā 'coarse, thick, massive'.

The change from ā to ä went parallel with that of u to ü (§ 48). The dialects, which retained u, retained also ā: Bæot. Εὔ-θουμος = Att. Εὐ-θῆμος, Lac. μουσιόδου (which according to Hesychius means λαλεῖ) = Att. μῦθίζε*.

It is doubtful whether ē became ī through the dissimilating influence of a following u (cp. § 48). γῆ-ρον (neut.) 'twig, sprout' has been brought together with Skr. gerund bhū-tv-d and Lat. fr-tu-ō. It may, however, be connected with Lat. frō and O.Ir. bīu 'fio, sum', the original form of which was bhū-ijō* (§§ 170. 175). It is still more uncertain whether īthv-ς has come from ēthv-ς* (Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 188 ff.).

§ 57. Italic. O.Lat. pf. fū-ī fū-imus (Inscript. fuueit), Osc. Fuutrei 'deae creatrici': Skr. bhū-tā etc. (§ 53). Lat. sā-s sā-bus: Skr. sā-karā 'pig, boar', Gr. ῥ-ς ῥ-ν, OHG. sā (Mod.HG. sau) from prim. West-Germ. sā-z* (§ 583). Lat. cāpa 'vat, recess for the dead': Skr. kāpa-s 'pit, hole'.

It is quite possible that in Umbr. the i in pir (πῖρ) beside abl. pure Osc. purasiai (loc. sing. of the stem purasiā 'igniaria'), in sim (Gr. ῥν, Lat. suen) and sif (acc. pl.) beside suŕum sorsum 'suillum', and in frif acc. pl. 'fruges', represents an older ā which may have been pronounced ä. (cp. O.Bulg. y fr. ā beside ā fr. u, §§ 52. 60.). It is however impossible to form a correct judgment owing to the quantities not being marked, and the scantiness of the material. Cp. Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 16, Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 432.

For such forms as acc. sing. rāin beside nom. sing. rān see § 640.

For ā in unaccented syllables cp. §§ 613. 634. 657.

§ 59. Germanic. In Goth., where u and ū in the native alphabet were not kept apart, ū can scarcely ever be established without the help of the other languages. Goth. faḥ OHG. Ags. faḥ O.Icel. fall 'foul': Lith. pl. pūlei 'matter', Gr. πέθοω 'I make to rot, putrefy', Lat. pās pāris 'matter, spittle' pā-teō 'I smell bad, stink'. Goth. rūms OHG. O.Sax. m. rūm, O.Icel. neut. rūm 'room, open place', from the same root as Lat. rās rāris 'open field, country', Avest. ravah- 'free'. OHG. ūtar Ags. ūder 'udder': Skr. ūdhar 'udder'. OHG. hlāt Ags. O.Sax. hlād 'loud' from rt. kleu- 'hear': cp. Gr. imperative κλῦ-τε, O.Bulg. sly-šati 'to hear', sly-tije neut. 'call, name'.

§ 60. Baltic-Slavonic. Lith. tūla-s adj. 'so many a', originally a substantive denoting 'a mass', O.Bulg. tylū 'nape', originally 'intumescence': Skr. tūla- neut. 'panicle, tuft, cotton', Gr. τῶλη 'a swelling or lump, callosity', from rt. teu- 'tumero'. Lith. sūra-s 'saline', O.Bulg. syrū 'raw': OHG. sar O.Icel. sarr 'sour, bitter'. Lith. jūs 'ye': Avest. yāš yāšem 'ye'. O.Bulg. svokry 'mother-in-law': Skr. śvaśrā-ṣ 'mother-in-law'.

The change of ū to y belonged to the prim. Slav. period.

Prim Slav. iy became ji (cp. ǰ from ji § 52). O.Bulg. šiti fr. siti* (§ 147), and this fr. siti*: Lith. siūti 'to sew', Skr. syāti-ṣ fem. 'sewing, sack'. Compare also kraji instr. pl. of krajī 'edge' but rabī instr. pl. of rabū 'servant'.

§ 61. Indg. pres. stem bhero-* bhere-* 'bear': Skr. bhārami, Arm. berem, Gr. φέρω, Lat. ferō, O.Ir. berim, Goth. baíra, O.Bulg. berq. Indg. és-ti* 'is': Skr. ásti, Gr. ἔστί, Lat. est, O.Ir. is (proclitic), Goth. ist, Lith. esti (now archaic), O.Bulg. jesti. Indg. e in the root syllable of neuters in -es-, e g. Indg. régos* 'vapour, darkness': Skr. rājas, Arm. erek, Gr. ἔρεος, Goth. rigiz-a-; Indg. nébhos*, 'cloud, atmosphere': Skr. nābhas, Gr. νέφος, Lith. debes-ī-s (the origin of the d- instead of n- is not clear), O.Bulg. nebo, comp. also with l- suffix Gr. νεφέλη Lat. nebula Q.Ir. nēl (prim. kelt. stem neblo-*, § 526) OHG. nebul 'cloud, fog'. Indg. qe* 'and': Skr. ca, Gr. καί, Lat. que. Augment of the past tenses of the Indicative (originally an independent particle) Indg. é: 3. pers. sing. Skr. á-dṛśat Gr. ē-dṛaxe (rt. derk- 'see'), Arm. e-līk Gr. ē-līpe (rt. leij- 'leave'), Goth. i-dǫja Skr. á-yat 'he went' (for Goth. ǫdj see § 142).

-e Indg. ending of voc. sing. of o-stems: Skr. vṛka Gr. λύκε Lat. lupe 'wolf', O.Ir. maicc maic from prim. kelt. maḱye* 'son', Lith. vilkė O.Bulg. vlūče 'wolf'. The 'thematic vowel' Indg. -e- (by the side of -o-): e. g. 2. pers. pl. Skr. bhár-a-tha, Gr. qíq-e-te, Lat. veh-i-tis, Goth. bair-i-p, O.Bulg. ber-e-te. Nominal suffix Indg. -es-: gen. sing. Skr. nábh-as-as Gr. νίq-e(σ)-ος Lat. gen-er-is O.Bulg. neb-es-e, Goth. stem riq-iz-a- (a further formation by means of -a-), Lith. nom. sing. deb-es-ì-s (a further formation by means of -i-). Nominal suffix Indg. -ter-: Nom. pl. Skr. pi-tár-as 'fathers', Arm. ds-ter-k 'daughters', Gr. πα-τίq-ες, gen. sing. Lith. mo-teř-s O.Bulg. ma-ter-e. Ending of the nom. pl. Indg. -es: Skr. ásman-as from ásman- 'stone', Gr. ἄκμον-ες, O.Lat. turbín-ēs, Lith. akmens from akmen-es* (§ 664, 2) O.Bulg. kamen-e from kamen-es* (§ 665, 4) 'stones'. Ending of the 3. pers. sing. indic. pf. act. Indg. -e, e. g. de-dórk-e* (from rt. derk- 'see'): Skr. dadárś-a, Gr. dédox-e, O.Ir. ad-con-dairc from prim. Kelt. -dorke*.

Indg. tautosyllabic *ei*¹⁾. Skr. (ved.) bhédami 'I cleave', Goth. beita 'I bite', original form bhédō*; Arm. lizem Gr. λείχω 'I lick', original form léighō*; Lat. fidō Gr. πείθω, orig. form bhédhō*; O.Ir. tiagim 'I go', Gr. στειχω 'I go', Goth. steiga 'I climb', orig. form stéighō*; Lith. geidžiū 'I have a desire' for older geidu* = O.Bulg. židā 'I wait, expect', orig. form ghédhō*. Indg. éi-ti* 'he goes': Skr. éti, Gr. έτοι, Lat. it, Lith. eiti eit, cp. O.Bulg. i-dā 'I go'. Indg. ghej-men-*: Skr. hēman- 'winter', Arm. jiun 'snow', from jien*, jiman* (§ 202), Gr. χειμα χειμῶν.

1) We call a sound-group tautosyllabic, when its elements belong to the same syllable, i. e. are uttered with the same expiration-impulse; heterosyllabic, when the last element or elements are produced by a fresh expiration-impulse. ei e. g. is tautosyllabic before consonants (bhej/dhō* = Gr. πείθω) and in a pause (yej/kei* = Gr. οίκε). It is, as a rule, heterosyllabic before sonants (ghej/te/jes* = Skr. gātayas, Gr. πάσις from pas(i)es*).

Indog. tautosyllabic ey. Skr. bódhāmi, Gr. πείθεμαι, Goth. ana-biuda, cpf. bhéydhō* 'I watch, observe'; Lat. dūcō 'I lead', Goth. tinha 'I draw'; O.Bulg. skubę 'I pull, tear', Goth. af-skiuba 'I shove off', Skr. kṣóbhatē 'falls in motion, wavers'. Indg. kley-men-* kley-my-to-*: Skr. śrómata- neut. 'the act of hearing' Avest. sraoman- neut. 'hearing', Goth. hliuma masc. (gen. hliumins) 'hearing' OHG. hliumunt 'renown'. Gr. ῥέυω 'that which flows', O.Ir. sruaim (dat. pl. sruamannaib) 'stream', cpf. srey-men-*. Gr. voc. Zēv, Indg. dīey*.

§ 62. Aryan. Indg. e became a in the prim. Aryan period. This change however did not take place until after the vowel had changed the preceding g, g, gh into c, j, jh (§ 445). Skr. Av. ca O.Pers. cā (read ca) 'and': Lat. que. Skr. pāñca Av. panca 'five': Arm. hing, Gr. πέντε, Lat. quīdque, O.Ir. cōic from prim. Kelt. kyenkye* (cp. § 212), Goth. finf, Indg. pénoge* 'five'. Skr. śrávas- neut. 'renown', Av. sraвах- neut. 'word, prayer': Gr. κλέψ-ος 'renown', O.Bulg. slovo 'word' (§ 68), Indg. kléy-os* (stem kley-es-*). Present stem Ar. pat-a- 'fly, fall' Skr. 3. sing. pres. act. pāta-ti av. 3. sing. pret. act. a-pata-ḥ O.Pers. 3. sing. pret. mid. a-pata-tā (read -ta): Gr. πίπτει, Lat. peti-t. Skr. pāri Av. pairi O.Pers. pariy (read pari) 'round, about': Gr. πέρι.

Indg. tautosyllabic ej, ey became aj, ay in prim. Aryan, thence Skr. ē, ō, Av. aē, ōi, ao ēu, O.Pers. ai, au (cp. §§ 126. 160). Skr. ē-ti Av. açiti (= aē-ti*, § 638) O.Pers. ai-tiy (read aiti) 'he goes': Gr. εἶσι. Skr. bódhatē Av. baodaitē: Gr. πείθεται, Indg. bhéydhetai* from rt. bheydh- 'guard, watch, observe'. O.Pers. daustar- 'friend', Skr. jōṣtár- 'one who desires' from rt. geys- 'choose': cp. Gr. γευστήριον 'a thing to taste with, a cup'.

Rem. Av. final aē became ē, see §§ 78, 94. Here would have to be mentioned loc. sing. aspē beside aspōi and aspaḥ-ca (-ca = Gr. ν, Lat. -que) = Skr. ásē (from Indg. stem ekyo-* 'horse'), if -aj, the prim. Ar. ending of o-stems, arose from Indg. -ej (cp. ōka). This, however, can also be traced back to Indg. -oj. Cp. § 116 and the accidence.

For Ar. e, i, ē, o from prim. Iran., prim. Ar. a = Indg. e see § 94.

e became i before nasals. hin (gen. hnoy) 'old': Gr. ἔνο-ς 'old', Lat. sen-ior, O.Ir. sen 'old', Goth. sin-ista 'the oldest (man)', Lith. sėna-s Skr. sánu-s 'old', Indg. seno-s*. cin 'birth': Gr. γένος. hing 'five': Gr. πέντε.

Occasionally a is found instead of e, e. g. tasn 'ten': Gr. δέκα, Lat. decem. The circumstances under which a occurs for e have not been ascertained.

Indg. tautosyllabic ei appears as ē in final syllables, in other syllables as i. dizem 'I accumulate', orig. form dhéighō* (cp. Gr. τεῖχος 'wall', Av. pairi-daēza- 'fence'), aor. 1.sing. dizi, 3. sing. e-dēz. lizem, lizanem 'I lick': Gr. λείγω. jiun 'snow': Gr. χιμῶν.

Indg. tautosyllabic eu appears as oi in final, as u in non-final syllables. lois, gen. lusoy, 'light': Gr. λευκό-ς 'white', Goth. liuh-ap 'light'. unain 'empty' from oin-ain*: Gr. εὖ-νι-ς 'bereft'. eu probably in the first place became ou; cp. § 79 and nor (gen. noroy) 'new' as compared with Gr. νέφο-ς, νε(φ)αρό-ς.

§ 64. Greek. ἔπεται 'he is together with, follows': Lat. sequitur, O.Ir. sechur 'sequor', Lith. seku 'I follow', Skr. sácatē 'he is together with, follows', Indg. 3. sing. pres. mid. seq-e-tai*. 1. sing. ēw ō: Lat. erō (used as future), Skr. āsāni, conj. to Indg. ēs-mi* 'I am'. γένος neut. 'sex, race': Lat. genus, Skr. jānas, Indg. gēnos*. πλέ(φ)ω 'I sail, swim': O.Bulg. plōvq 'I flow, sail' (§ 68), Skr. plávātē 'he swims, sails', Indg. 1. sing. act. plég-ō*. ἐγώ 'I': Arm. es, Lat. ego, Goth. ik, Skr. ahám. Comparative suffix -τερο-: πό-τερο-ς, ὠμό-τερο-ς: Skr. i-tara-ś 'other', Lat. i-teru-m, O.Ir. luathí-ther 'quicker', O.Bulg. ŕe-terŭ 'quidam'.

λείπω 'I leave': Goth. leihva 'I lend', cpf. léig-ō*. ζεύγος neut 'yoke': Lat. jāger-o- (cf. dat. abl. jāger-iūs) 'acre'. ζευκτήρες straps of the yoke': Skr. yōktār- 'he who puts the harness on'.

In the Elean dialect ε was pronounced very open, as is seen through the representation of this sound on inscriptions by α, e. g. σπενάων gen. pl. beside σπένεια, ἐνσαβέαι = Att. ἐνσεβοῖ.

In the Locrian dialect εφ became αφ, e. g. παράφα = πατέρα, ἀμφόταφος = ἀμφοτέρως.

In the Doric dialects, as well as in Lesbian, Thessalian, Pamphylian and Cyprian ε became ι before vowels, especially before ο and α, e. g. Lacon. θιός = θεός, Cypr. ῥέπια = Ion. ῥεπια, whilst ε in this case at least, was pronounced close in the Boeot. and Ionic-Attic dialects. This is shown by the representation of this short vowel by means of ε, ι, ι in Boeot. (e. g. θεο-θειο-θιο-) and by ε, ει in Ionic-Attic (e. g. ἐαυτόν and σιαυρόν from σε(φ)᾽αὐτόν*, ἐννεα and εννεία from ἐν-νε(φ)α*).

The Indg. tautosyllabic ej in λείπω etc. was still a diphthong in Ionic and Attic at the beginning of the V. century B. C.; but during this century it became a close ē and in the III. cent. B.C. ι, though the spelling ει was retained. This change also took place in the other dialects, earliest in Boeot., where ε appears on inscriptions already in the V. cent. B. C. and ι was dislodged from the written language.

In Cret. εϋ became οϋ by the assimilation of the ε to the second component of the diphthong, e. g. ψουδία = ψευδία ψευδῆ. εφ for ευ in Ionic can be traced back to the V. cent. B. C., e. g. πεόγιν (cp. αφ from αυ § 96).

§ 65. Italic. Lat. Falisc. Umbr. est, Volsc. estu 'esto', Osc. istud 'esto': Gr. ἔστι, ἔστω. Lat. decem, Umbr. desen-duf (i. e. dēsēnduf see §§ 23. 387) 'duodecim', Osc. dekkvīarīm 'decurialem': Gr. δέκα, O.Ir. deich n- fr. prim. Kelt. deken* (§ 66), Goth. tathun, Lith. dēszimt, O.Bulg. desētī, Skr. dāśa. Lat. en (en manom 'in mortuum') en-do, in in-du, Umbr. imper. en-etu 'inito', Osc. em-bratur 'imperator', Pelign. abl. pl. em-pratois 'imperatis, iussu': Gr. ἐν, Goth. in. e in the perfect reduplication, O.Lat. pe-pugī, Umbr. pe-purkurent 'rogaverint', Osc. fe-facīd 'fecerit': Gr. πε-φύασι Skr. ba-bhāva from rt. bheg- 'to be, become', O.Ir. ce-chan 'cecini' (cp. Lat. canō, ce-cini), Goth. rai-rōþ (to pres. rēda 'I advise'). Lat. pecu, Umbr. pequo 'pecua': Goth. faihu, Skr. páśu, cpf. péku* 'cattle'. Lat. Umbr. et: Gr. ἔτι. Lat. mediu-s, Osc. mefiai loc. from st. mefiā- 'media': Gr. μέσσο-ς μέσο-ς 'medius', O.Ir. medōn 'the middle', Goth. midjís 'medius', O.Bulg. mežda 'medium, boundary', Skr. mádhyas 'medius', Indg. médhjo-s* 'medius'.

Heterosyllabic and tautosyllabic Indg. ey became common Italic ox:

1. O.Lat. tuos 'tuus', Umbr. gen. tover 'tui', Osc. dat. tuvai 'tuac', prim. Italic toyo-s*: Gr. τε(φ)ό-ς. O.Lat. sovo-s 'suus', Osc. abl. súvad 'sua', prim. It. soyo-s*: Gr. ῥός from sefó-ς*. Lat. novem (for noven*, formed after the analogy of septem, decem, cp. § 233), Umbr. nuvis 'novies': Goth. niun, Skr. náva, Indg. némy* 'nine'. Lat. novo-s, Osc. acc. Núvellum 'Novellum' nom. pl. Núvlanús 'Nolani', Mars. dat. pl. Novesede 'Novensilibus', prim. It. noyo-s* 'new': Gr. νέφο-ς. Lat. plōvēbat, perplōvere: Gr. πλέ(φ)-ω. For -u- from -oy- in unaccented syllables, as dēnuō from dē novō, see § 172, 1.

2. Lat. doucō dūcō 'I lead': Goth. tiuha, cpf. dēykō*. ārō 'I burn': Gr. ἔω εὔω 'I singe', Skr. āśami 'I burn', Indg. éysō*. Cp. also O.Lat. Polouces (l = ll), later Pollūcēs = Πολυδευκής. Umbr. totam 'civitatem', Osc. twfco 'civitas' tovtad 'civitate' túvtiks 'publicus', Marruc. tortai totai 'civitati': Goth. þiuda 'people', cpf. teytā-*. Osc. gen. Lúvfreis, Falisc. loferta 'liberta': Gr. ἐλευθερός; concerning Lat. loebertatem liber see § 49 rem. On the history of this tautosyllabic It. oy, which fell together with Indg. oy, cp. § 81 page 77.

Rem. 1. The nature of the transmission and the historical facts of the language, as exhibited above, exclude any importance being attached to the form Leucesie in the Saliar hymn; cp. also Jordan Krit. Beit zur Gesch. der lat. Sprache 1879, p. 31 ff.

e remained unchanged in Latin:

1. Before r. ferō, cōnferō, vertō, convertō, alter, alterius with r = Indg. r; the form lēvir 'brother-in-law' arose through popular etymological association with vir, cp. Gr. δάηρ acc. δαίρα, Lith. dēver-i-s. gerō, ingerō, sceleris with r from s (cp. § 569).

2. Finally. lupe : λύκε. age agite : ἄγε ἄγετε. quīnque : πέντε.

3. As a rule before double consonants: scelestu-s, ob-sessu-s (ob-sideō), au-sper (au-spici-is).

Change of e to i:

1. According to prim. Lat. accentuation in unaccented syllables (§ 680) followed by a single consonant (except r). colligō : λέγω. ob-sideō : sedeō ἔδος. oppidum : Pedum πέδον. prō-tinus : tenu-s. agite agitō : ἄγετε ἄγέτω. agimini : ἀγόμενοι.

Rem. 2. The i instead of e in plicō (Gr. πλέω), O.Lat. spiciō (rt. spek-) miniscor (rt. men-), and others, is to be explained from the fact that the form, which regularly arose in composition, made itself independent (com-plicō, cōn-spiciō, re-miniscor).

Rem. 3. juven-em with -eu- instead of -in- was, perhaps, influenced by juventūs juvenu-s etc. ap-petō, ex-petō for ap-pitō*, ex-pitō* re-formed from analogy with the simple form petō, or else formed at a time when the activity of the law had died out according to which colligō etc. arose; cp. exquārō beside exquārō, exaequō beside inīquo-s, conclausu-s beside conclāsu-s etc.

2. Independent of accent, in closed syllables before nasals. *quīnque*¹⁾ : πέντε. tinguō : τέγω 'I wet'. in intus : ἐν ἐντός. To which may be added dignu-s beside decet, as well as lignu-m, fignu-m, in case they really are related to legō 'I gather, collect' and τέχνη; for gn was pronounced en (§§ 500. 506). This change also affected en and em from η and ηι (§ 237), e. g. vīginti : Dor. Fixari, sim-plex : ἁ-παξ. There are, however, in both cases many exceptions, the explanation of which is difficult, e. g. offendimentu-m (fend- = Indg. bhendh-* and -mento- = Indg. myto-*), supine ventum (= Skr. gāntu-m, Indg. gém-tu-m*), part. in-ventu-s (= Gr. παρό-ς, Skr. gatō-s, Indg. gṇatō-s*). Cp. further decem (= Skr. dāśa, Indg. dékṃ*) beside undecim.

For Lat. -o- from -ye- see § 172, 3.

Tautosyllabic ei seems to have still been a diphthong in Lat. at the period of the oldest monuments, cp. the spellings deivos deiva, deico, feido and others. The diphthong, however, at an early date became an open ī, and the sign ei now became also employed for the representation of open i-vowels (or close ē-vowels) of other origin (see §§ 41. 73).

1) Concerning the long vowel in quīnque, dignu-s, lignu-m, and fignu-m see § 619.

In Umbrian and Oscan Indg. e was mostly represented by e. Besides the examples already mentioned, the following may be compared: Umbr. petur-pursus 'quadrupedibus', Osc. petora 'τέτραπα', Umbr. co-vertu 'convertito', dextram-e 'in dextram', Osc. dat. Genetai 'Genitae' (to Lat. genitor). Beside these occurs also i, Osc. i, e. g. Umbr. tibit 'decet', Osc. ist 'est' (beside estud 'esto'), nistrus 'propiores' (beside nesimum 'proximum'). Owing to the scarcity of the material it is impossible to decide whether the change to i (open) took place under certain conditions, unknown to us, or whether e had everywhere the same close pronunciation in Umbrian-Oscan, and that we have here to do with a mere irregularity of the graphic representation of the sound.

Tautosyllabic ei was represented in Oscan by ei, ei and (rarely) if. deikum deicum inf. 'dicere'. deivai dat. 'divae', deivatud imper. 'iurato', diiviai dat. 'divinae' (a derivative like Umbr. deveia 'divina'). terei loc. 'in terra', cp. Gr. οἶκεi. The spelling if points to a passage of the diphthong into open ī. In Umbrian ei certainly became closed ē. etu estu 'ito'. deveia 'divina'. destre loc. 'in dextro', cp. Osc. loc. terei.

§ 66. Old Irish. e was often retained as such in chief-accented syllables. con-dercar 'conspicitur': Gr. δέρκομαι 'I see', from rt. derk-. celim 'I hide': OHG. hīlu 'I hide', cpf. kelō*. Gen. meda 'of mead', Skr. mádhu 'sweetness, honey', Gr. μέθυ 'wine', OHG. metu 'mead', O.Bulg. medū 'honey', Indg. médhu*. ech, Gall. epo- (in Epo-rēdia name of a town): Lat. equo-s Goth. alhva- (in alhva-tundi 'thorn bush') Skr. ásva-s Indg. ekyo-s* 'horse'. tech teg 'house' from tegos*: Gr. τέγος. ceithir 'four': Gr. τέτταρες. Cp. further Gall. πεμπέ-δουλα 'quincefolium': Gr. πέντε, Indg. pénqe*.

In such cases as: gen. eich 'equi' from prim. Kelt. ekyi* (-i still in Ogam inscriptions, as maqui 'filii', and in Gall. Sego-mari &c.): Lat. equi; 3. sing. pres. as-beir 'he brings forward, says' from berit*, prim. Indg. bheret*; deich n- 'decem' from deken*, Indg. dekyn* (§§ 242. 243) the i after the e only indicates the palatal timbre of the following consonant, which had been produced through the palatal vowel of the next following syllable. In a corresponding manner the u-(o)-timbre of the following consonants is represented by u and o in the dat. sing. neurt, ech from nertō*, ekyō* (nom. nert, ech, stem nerto- 'power, might', echo- 'horse'; with nerto- cp. Gall. Nerto-marus, Cob-nertus etc.). See § 634. Under certain conditions chief-accented e became i before a following palatal vowel or u. tige fr. tegosos*, gen. sg. to tech 'house'. as-bír 'thou sayest' fr. biri(s), prim. f. bhere-s. mid 'mead' fr. medu*, to gen. sg. meda, s. above. as-blur 'I say' fr. biru*, prim. f. bherō*.

e in other than chief-accented syllables, in case it did not entirely vanish, (§§ 634. 657), became an irrational vowel, the quality of which adjusted itself mostly to the timbre of the following consonants.

i. as-bérid 'you say' = Gr. qépete. is 'est' always proclitic = Gr. ésti; the accented form would be eis*.

a. as- 'ex' in as-bérid, as-rénaim 'reddo' and others beside és- (O.Gall. ex-, Cymr. eh-; Lat. ex, Gr. ἐξ) in és-rechtaid 'exlex' és-orgun 'a striking, killing' etc.

u. (ni) épur (fr. éd-bur*) beside as-blur 'dico' fr. beru*, prim. Kelt. berō* = Gr. qépa. cóm-mus 'proportion, weight, worth' to méss 'measure, judgment' fr. messu-s* (med+tu-s*, to Goth. mitan 'to measure').

In forms like só-nirti adj. pl. 'strong, brave', só-nirte 'strength, power' compar. só-nortu 'stronger' beside nért er had first become y. S. § 634. In the later orthography só-nairti só-nairte beside só-nirt só-nirte a merely indicates the timbre of the preceding consonant. S. § 640.

Indg. and prim. Keltic tautosyllabic ej became ē, whence ia, if a, o, or u followed. ad-fēded 'narrabat', ad-fiadat 'narrant': Gr. Feidōpau, rt. uejd-. Fut. 2. pers. pl. for-tēsíd 1. pers. pl. for-tiasam, to 1. sg. pres. for-tiagaim 'I help': Gr. φείξω ορεῖξω, Goth. steiga. Voc. dē 'O God' from dē(y)e* (Lat. dei ē), nom.

dia from dē(y)o-s* (Lat. deivos). On the 2. sing. for-tēis cp. § 640. ē = Indg. eī is to be held for prim. Kelt. Cp. c. g. Gall. rēda 'waggon' Epo-rēdia, O.Ir. rēid 'passable, free, even, smooth' Cymr. rhwydd 'prosper, expeditus' (st. rēdi-*), O.Ir. riadaim 'I drive, ride', rt. reīdh-: OHG. rītan 'to move oneself away, drive, ride' and be-reiti 'ready, equipped' (the latter with rt. form reīdh-).

Indg. tauto- and heterosyllabic ey. The Irish and British branch concurrently point to oy. This, before consonants, became in O.Ir. ō, whence probably in the first instance ua, when a, o followed; in British u. O.Ir. tuath Cymr. Bret. tut Corn. tus 'people' from tōta*: Goth. þiuda, cpf. teyta*. O.Ir. lōche (gen. lōchet) 'lightning', luach 'white' in luach-tē 'whitehot': Goth. liuhap 'light', Gr. λευκό-ς 'white'. O.Ir. dat. pl. srua-mannaib, nom. sing. sruaim 'stream': Gr. ῥεῦ-μα, Indg. stem srey-men-*. In like manner we have ō from antesonantal oy in O.Ir. nōi n- 'nine' (beside Cymr. naw Corn. naw Bret. naw naō), fr. noyen*, Indg. néy* (cp. §§ 65. 174. 233); whereas ū in O.Ir. clā 'renown' = Gr. κλέf-ος and in nāe 'new' beside O.Bret. nowid, to Skr. nāya-s (cp. §§ 139. 154).

Rem. If the change from ō to ua in O.Ir. was occasioned by an a or o in the following syllable, then such forms as nom. sruaim fr. srōmin*, dat. tuath from tōll* cannot have been formed according to law, but are merely due to a levelling with the forms of other cases.

ey is still found in Gall. in forms like Tento-matus, Leucetius (Zeuss-Ebel G. C. 84 f.); beside these already also Toutus Τούτιους etc. (as quoted above). In like manner also Nivella, Nivisium, the i of which is also probably a direct continuation of e, but also already Novesium and Novio-dānum 'New-castle' (as quoted above 56). The question is probably here a difference of dialect within the Gallic branch itself.

§ 67. Germanic. Indg. e became i in prim. Germ. in the following cases:

1. before nasal + consonant. Goth. O.Sax. Ags. bindan OHG. binzan O.Icel. binda 'to bind', 1. sing. Indg. bhéndhō*: Skr. bēndhana-m 'a binding' fut. bandhiṣyá-ti 'he will bind', Lat. of-sendimen-tu-m 'chin-cloth'.

Rem 1. That this i made its appearance already in prim. Germ., is confirmed by the fact that the verb Goth. rinna OHG. rinnau 'I run', whose orig. form ri-nx-ō* contains Indg. i, and which belongs to Skr. ri-pā-ti 'lets flow, lets run', ri-pā-tē 'begins to flow' (Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV. 45), passed over into the series binda : bānd in its tenso-formation in every Germ. dialect (pret. Goth. OHG. etc. rann). This could only have taken place, if the i in bindan etc. had already arisen.

2. In hetero- and tautosyllabic ej.

a. Nom. pl. Goth. preis OHG. drī O.Icel. þrīr 'three' from pri(i)z* preiz* : O.Bulg. trīje (§ 68), Skr. trāyas, Gr. τρεῖς from rpe(ɪ)z*, Indg. tréj-es*. Goth. gasteis OHG. gesti O.Icel. gester gestir 'guests' from zastij(i)z*, zasteiz* : O.Bulg. gostīje, cpf. ghostej-es*, cp. Skr. āvay-as (nom. sing. āvi-ṣ). Goth. satjan O.Sax. settian O.Icel. setja infin. 'to cause to sit, to set', 1. sing. Goth. satja from saliō*, sodējō*, causat. from rt. sed- 'sit' : cp. Skr. sādāya-mi 'I make to sit, set', Gr. ποβέω 'I make to flee, scare' from qoβeɪw*.

b. Goth. steigan OHG. stīgan O.Icel. stīga 'to climb', prim. Germ. 1. sing. stīzō* from stījzō* : Gr. σείχω, Indg. stéighō*.

Rem. 2. The great antiquity of this i is confirmed by the fact, that the present: Goth. þeika OHG. diuh 'I extend', which in prim. Germ. had arisen from pinzō*, older penzō* (= Lith. tenkù 'I reach out with something') (§ 214), gave occasion for the formation of the pret. form: Goth. þáih OHG. dēh etc. (after the analogy of preterites from such roots as steigh-). This was only possible, if the i in stīzō* (goth. steiga) was already there.

3. When the following syllable contained a pre-Germanic i(i) or i. From 3. sing. esti* (= ἔστι) isti* : Goth. OHG. O.Sax. ist, Ags is. From 3. sing. bhereti* (O.Bulg. bereti, Skr. bhāratī) beredi*, thence beridi* : Goth. batrīþ, OHG. birīt. Prim. Germ. liziana-n* 'to lie' : O.Icel. liggja O.Sax. liggian OHG. likkan : Gr. λέχοι 'bed' rt. leg-. Prim. Germ. trþīnaz* 'earthen' (OHG. irdin) beside erþō* 'earth' (OHG. erda) : Gr. ἐρ-αῖς 'on to the earth'.

Rem. 3. We have also here a proof of the great antiquity of the i. The verb bidjana-n* 'to beg' (Goth. bidjan O.Sax. biddian O.Icel. biðja), which belongs to Gr. πείθω 'I prevail upon, persuade' rt. bhejdh-, would not have had a in the pret. of all Germ. dialects (e.g. bād(i)* Goth. baþ etc.), had not prim. Germ. liziana-n*, sitjana-n* (rt. sed-*) been pronounced with i.

4. Finally, e. g. 2. sing. imper. fami* (Goth. far) from fare* cp. Gr. ἄγε. Such an -i, like Indg. i (see 3) had influence upon a preceding e; hence 2. pers. pl. faridi* (Goth. farīþ OHG. dial. ferit): Gr. ἄγετε; acc. mi-ki* (Goth. O.Icel. mik OHG. mih 'me'): Gr. ἐμέ-τε, etc. Cp. Kögel in Paul u. Br. Beitr. VIII 135 f.

5. In isolated cases, where no reason for the change has yet been discovered, especially in unaccented syllables: e. g. Nominal suffix prim. Germ. -iz- = Skr. -as- Gr. -εσ- Lat. -es- (Goth. ag-iz-a- 'fear'). Cp. Paul's article in Paul-Braune's Beitr. VI 85, Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 419.

The West Germanic dialects in general stopped at this point. An e, preserved in uninterrupted continuity from the Indg. prim. language, is retained e. g. in OHG. beran 'to bear' = prim. Germ. berana-n* (Gr. φέρων) and reht 'right' = prim. Germ. rehta-z* (Gr. ὀρετό-ς).

Rem. 4. The change of e to i through the influence of a following n is questionable. E. g. in OHG. 1. pers. sg. biru, nimu, to beran, neman. situ m. 'custom', probably to Gr. ἰθος 'custom'. sibun 'seven': Lat. septem. hiruz 'stag' fr. prim. Germ. xerut-* (with anaptyctic n, s. § 628): Gr. κέρας 'horn'. See Paul in Paul-Braune's Beitr. VI 78 f., Brate in Bezzenb. Beitr. XI 185, Braune Ahd. Gramm. p. 19.

The i also of the root syllable in biris, birit etc. might only have been produced in West Germanic through the following i.

The Norse dialects have also such an old e, e. g. O.Icel. bera = OHG. beran.

On the other hand every e, which had remained in prim. Germ., became i in Goth. Then this i, through the influence of a special Gothic law, which also concerned i = Indg. i (§ 35), became e (ai) again before r and h. niman 'to take', as opposed to OHG. neman O.Icel. nema = Gr. νίμω. ga-vigan 'to stir, move', as opposed to OHG. icegan O.Icel. vega 'to move oneself' = Lat. vehere. fill (neut.) 'hide' (in þruts-fill 'leprosy'), but OHG. fel Ags. fell O.Icel. fjall 'hide' from fella-* felna-* (§ 214) = Lat. pellis, Gr. πέλλα; but ðairan from biran* = OHG. beran, rahts from rihts* = OHG. reht. The forms airþeins = OHG. irdin 'earthen' and ga-raihtjan = O.Sax.

rihtian OHG. rihtan 'to judge' may serve as evidence to show that balran and ralhts had not an e which had been preserved in uninterrupted continuity through the influence of r and h. For it is scarcely possible to separate the ai in these forms from that in airpa 'earth' and ralhts 'right'.

Indg. tautosyllabic ey appears in Goth. as iu. kiusa 'I choose, test, select': Gr. γένομα, cpf. ǵéys-ō*. ana-biuda 'I bid, command': Gr. πείθομαι, cpf. bhéydhō*. þiuda 'people': Osc. tortad 'civitate', O.Ir. tuath 'people', cpf. teyta-*. In High German it became, before a-, e-, o- vowels, in the oldest period eo, then io, in all other cases iu. deota diota 'people', but diutisc 'popularis' (Goth. þiudiskō adv. 'ἐθνομῶς'). reozan riozan 'to weep' = Goth. riutan*: Skr. rōdana-m 'weeping' (noun), rt. reyā-. It is probable that the pronunciation ey still existed generally in prim. Germ. and that iy only arose at that time when there was an i in the following syllable, e. g. þiudiska-z* (OHG. diutisc) beside þeydō* (OHG. deota).

§ 68. Baltic-Slavonic. Lith. vežù O.Bulg. vezq 'I drive': Gr. Pamphyl. ῥέχω Lat. vehō Goth. ga-viga Skr. vāhami, Indg. uégdhō* 'I move, drive'. Lith. velkù O.Bulg. vlēkq from velkq* (§ 281) 'I draw, drag': Gr. ἔλω (cp. § 164 rem.), cpf. uēlqō*. Lith. keturi O.Bulg. četyrije 'four': Gr. τέτταρες Umbr. petur- O.Ir. cethir Skr. catvār-as. Nominal suffix -ter-, gen. pl. Lith. mo-ter-ū O.Bulg. ma-ter-ŭ 'matrum': cp. Gr. μη-τέρ-ες. Voc. sing. vilkè O.Bulg. vlūče 'wolf': Gr. λύξ, Lat. lupe. Personal suffix of the 2. pers. pl. Lith. es-te ēsa-te O.Bulg. jes-te 'estis': cp. Gr. ἐστέ.

In Lith. e is mostly pronounced very open and in some southern and eastern dialects it regularly became a, when initial, e. g. asù = esù 'I am' (§ 666, 2).

Indg. hetero- and tautosyllabic ey apparently became ou, whence Balt. au (cp. § 84), already in the period of the Baltic-Slavonic prim. community.

a. Heterosyllabic: Lith. av, O.Bulg. ov. Lith. tava-s 'tuus', sava-s 'suus': Gr. τε(φ)ός-ς, ί(φ)ός-ς. O.Bulg. novŭ 'new': Gr. νέφο-ς. O.Bulg. plovq 'I flow, sail': Gr. πλέ(φ)ω. O.Bulg. nom.

pl. synove 'sons' from sāney-es*: cp. Gr. ἡδῆ(f)-ες, Goth. sunjus 'sons' from sunijs* prim. Germ. suney-er* (§ 179), Skr. sānāv-as. — Lith. devyni Lett. dešini 'nine', Pruss. newints 'the ninth', O.Bulg. deveti 'nine' are to be explained as being formed from analogy with Lith. dėszinti O.Bulg. deseti 'ten'; we may observe also that the initial d- instead of n- cannot well be explained otherwise than as being borrowed from the word for ten.

Rem. 1. It is doubtful whether the d- of the Lith. and Lett. word for 'nine' was due to Slavonic influence and ney- was the right form in prim. Baltic, which was retained in Pruss., or whether already in prim. Baltic-Slavonic dey- took the place of noy- and the n- of the Pruss. form was borrowed from Germ. (cp. Bopp. Vergleich. Gramm. I² 76, Fick Wörterb. II² 588, 744, Brückner Litua-Slav. Studien I 80, Osthoff Morph. Unt. I 93).

b. Tautosyllabic: Lith. au, O.Bulg. u (fr. ou § 185). Inf. Lith. pláu-ti 'to rinse' O.Bulg. plu-ti (1. sing. pres. plova), supine Lith. pláu-tu O.Bulg. plu-tū: cp. Gr. ἔπλεω-αα, Skr. inf. plōtu-m (3. sing. pres. mid. plāv-a-tē 'he swims'). Lith. randmi (an archaic pres. form, now randōju) 'I lament, complain': Skr. rōdī-mi 'I lament, weep', Indg. rēyd-mi* or rēydo-mi*. Lith. raugiū 'I belch': cp. Gr. ῥαίνομαι. Lith. naūje-s 'new': Goth. niuji-s 'new'. O.Bulg. inf. sluti 'to be called', supine slutū: Skr. inf. śrōtu-m 'to hear', to O.Bulg. slovo (stem sloves-) 'word': Gr. κλέφος Skr. śrávas (neut.) 'renown'.

Heterosyllabic Indg. prim. Baltic-Slav. eĭ became ĭ in prim. Slav. and this ĭ was, in the period of Old Church Slavonic, lengthened to i (cp. § 36 page 37). O.Bulg. vĭjā vĭjā: Lith. vejū 'I turn, wind', Skr. váyāmi 'I weave', Indg. véjō*. Nom. pl. gostĭje, gostĭje 'guests' (nom. sing. gostĭ) from gostej-e(s)*: cp. Skr. āvay-as 'oves'. trĭje trĭje 'three': Skr. tráy-as, Indg. tréj-es*.

Indg. tautosyllabic eĭ appears in Lith. as ei and ē, in Slavonic as i. The course of development of the latter was eĭ*, ī* (ū*), ī, cp. the change of heterosyllabic eĭ: Lith. 1. sing. eimi 'I go', 3. sing. eiti (Pruss. ēit): Gr. ēīmu elō; supine eītu O.Bulg. itū: Skr. inf. ētum from Indg. eĭ-tu-m*, rt. eĭ-. Lith. szlei-va-s szlei-vi-s 'having crooked legs' (Lett. slēi-ja 'strips', slēi-ju 'I lean against'): Gr. κλει-τῦ-ς, rt. klei-. Lith. vėida-s 'face' O.Bulg. vidū

'looks' (noun), Lith. ožiadžiū 'I see' (for the z cp. § 547 rem.), O.Bulg. viŕdq 'I look' from vidiŕq* (§ 147): Gr. Faldoμαι, Feiðos. Lith. geidžiū 'I long for', Pruss. 3. pl. geide 'they wait', O.Bulg. zidq 'I wait'. Lith. deivj-s 'idol' deivė (fem.) 'ghost' beside dēca-s (Lett. dīvos) 'god', Pruss. deiva-s 'god': Lat. deivos dīvus. Lith. zē-mà (Lett. fīma) O.Bulg. zi-ma 'winter': Gr. χει-μα, χει-μὴν. Lith. dē-nà (Lett. dīna) 'day', Pruss. dei-na-n acc. sing. 'day' from a stem dej-n-* (dej-en-) beside di-n- (O.Bulg. gen. dī-n-e 'day's'). Lith. snėgu (Lett. sniġ) 'it snows': Gr. νίψω, rt. sneigh-. Lith. lėkù 'I leave' (Lett. līku 'I lay'): Gr. λείπω, rt. leiq-. O.Bulg. pišq 'I write' from pis-iq* (§ 147): Gr. πέικω 'I scratch' rt. peik-.

Rem. 2. The circumstances, under which ei at one time remained (ei) in Lith., and at another time became ē, have not been ascertained (cp. Mahlow Die langen Vocale A, E, O, page 143 f. and Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 112). We are inclined to think that only circumflexed ei, e. g. in eiti 'to go' (cp. § 691), regularly became ē when the following consonant had not a palatal timbre, caused by an é- or i- vowel in the next following syllable (cp. the double forms ē and ia in Irish § 66); hence dēvas beside deivys deivė, eim beside lėkù. The supine eitu instead of ētu* would have been formed after the analogy of eiti; eimà eina 'I go' 'he goes' (instead of ēnà* ēno*) with ei-, because they were not formed until after this sound-law had ceased to operate. Such verbs as lėžiù lėzti 'to lick' = O.Bul. liŕq (from liz-iq*) beside such as geidžiù geiŕti (Leskien Der Ablaut in Wurzelsilben im Litaunischen p. 144 f.) present difficulties. For it is certainly hardly probable that the few forms as sup. lėzstu etc. could have extended their ē to the whole verb. Cp. the change ai:ē § 84 rem. 2.

en, em before explosives and spirants became ē in Slavonic e. g. světū 'holy', zēbq 'dilacero, frigeo'. S. § 219.

Indg. z.

§ 69. Indg. dhē- 'set, lay': Skr. fut. dha-syāmi dhāna- (neut.) 'position', Gr. fut. θη-σω, Goth. ga-dēps (st. ga-dēdi-) 'deed, position', Lith. fut. dē-siu inf. dē-ti, O.Bulg. aor. dē-chū inf. dē-ti. Indg. plē- 'fill': Skr. part. prā-tā-, Arm. li (gen. lioy) 'full' from plē-iō-s*, Gr. πλή-ρης 'full' aor. ἔπλη-σα, Lat. plē-nu-s im-plē-tu-s, O.Ir. lūn 'numerus, pars', O.Icel. fleirē fleiri 'more' (from st. flē-iz-en-*, cp. § 614).

Optative suffix Indg. -ijē- -iŕ-: 2. pers. sing. Skr. s-iyā-s s-yā-s, Gr. εῖς from ēs-īh-s*, Lat. s-ic-s from rt. es- 'be'. -tē(r) nom. sing. ending of -ter-stems: Skr. mā-tā Arm. mair from mā-tēr* Gr. Dor. μά-τηρ 'mother', Lith. mo-tė and mó-tė 'wife, married woman', O. Bulg. mati from matē* 'mother'. -ē Indg. ending of the instr. sing. of o-stems: Skr. uccā 'above', Gr. Lacon. πή-ποκα 'usquam' or 'unquam', Goth. þē to þa- 'the', hvē to hva- 'who' ¹⁾.

Perfect stem Indg. ēd- from rt. ed- 'eat': Skr. part. ad-i-vān, Gr. ἐδ-ησ-ώς, Lat. ēd-imus, Goth. ēt-um, Lith. part. ēd-ęs, O. Bulg. part. jad-ŭ. Imperfect stem Indg. ēs- from es- 'be': Skr. 1. sing. ds-am 3. sing. as, Gr. 1. sing. Hom. ἦα 3. sing. Dor. ἦς, Indg. 1. sing. ēs-ya* 3. sing. ēs-t*. Cp. § 114.

The tautosyllabic diphthongs ēi and ēy probably did not frequently occur in the prim. language. E. g. Imperfect stem Indg. ēi- from ei- 'go': 2. sing. Skr. ātš, Indg. ēi-s*. plēistō-* 'most': Gr. πλείστο-ς O. Icel. flestr (§§ 116, 611, 614). Nom. sing. Indg. dīēy-s* 'sky': skr. dyāuś, Gr. Ζεύς from Ζηγς (§ 611).

§ 70. Aryan. 3. sing. pret. Skr. ā-dhā-t Avest. dā-þ O. Pers. a-dā from rt. dhē- 'put'. Skr. vā-ti Avest. vāiti 'it blows': Gr. ἄ(f)η-σι 'it blows', OHG. wāan 'to blow', Lith. vė-jė-s 'wind', O. Bulg. vě-jě-ŭ 'it blows', rt. yē-.

The change from ē to a took place in the prim. Aryan period, after the vowel (like Indg. e) had palatalised the preceding g-sounds, e. g. Skr. -jāni-š 'wife, spouse': Goth. qēns (st. qēni-) 'wife', Indg. gēni-* (§ 445).

For Avest. ē, ō, ā from prim. Iran. prim. Aryan a = Indg. ē see § 102.

§ 71. Armenian. mi 'that not': Skr. mā, Gr. Dor. μή. mit (Gen. mti) 'sense': Gr. μῆδος 'advice' μήδομαι 'I contrive', O. Ir. ro mīdar 'iudicavi' (cp. § 314). li 'full', aor. 3. sing. e-li-ç 'he filled', Indg. plē- (§ 69). This i disappeared in non-final syllables. Besides gen. mt-i cp. further gen. amsoy 'of the month' beside nom. amis (-s from -ns § 202): Gr. Lesb. gen.

1) Skr. uccā is not a certain example for Indg. -ē, since it might also represent Indg. -ō. The ē-type must, at all events, be claimed for the prim. Indg. language. s. §§ 114-115.

μῆν-ος (cp. § 72); l-nu-m 'I fill': Lat. 3. pl. ex-plē-nu-nt, O.Ir. li-naim 'I fill'.

The representation by ē in άλυῆς 'fox' beside Gr. ἀλώπηξ, Skr. lōpaśa- is uncertain (Hübschmann Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVI 603).

§ 72. Greek. ῥημι from ρι-ση-μι* 'I throw, jerk, send off' ῥ-μα 'a throw': Lat. sē-men, O.Ir. sī-l 'seed', Goth. mana-sēps 'mankind, world', Lith. sėjū O.Bulg. s'jε 'I sow' sē-me 'seed', rt. sē- 'throw, sow'. μήν, gen. μην-ός Lesb. μῆν-ος, 'month' (concerning nom. sing. μείς cp. § 611) μήνη 'moon': Skr. mās- 'moon', Arm. amis (gen. amsoy) 'month', Lat. mēns-i-s (cp. however, § 612), O.Ir. mī (gen. mīs) 'month' (cp. §§ 212. 574), Goth. mēna 'moon', Lith. mėnà (gen. mėnes-io) 'moon', O.Bulg. mēsēc 'moon' (cp. §§ 220. 221). ῥβα ῥβη 'youth': Lith. jėgiù 'I am able'. Nom. δυσ-μενής 'evil disposed, hostile': Skr. dur-mānds 'downcast, sad', cpf. dus-menēs*.

This η, which was probably pronounced open in prim. Greek, and which is marked as open ē in Lesb. by the spelling αι (αἰμίσιον: Lat. sēmi- 'half'; Αἰσιόδοος = Dor. Att. Ἡσιόδοος Boeot. Ἠσιόδοος), became ε in Elean, e. g. μά, εἶα, πατάο, whereas in Boeot. and Thessal. it became closed ē which, after the introduction of the Ionic alphabet, was represented by ει, e. g. Boeot. μείνα, πατελο, Thess. ἑστερο-μειννά, εἶβα; the latter pronunciation can also be established for the Ionic dialects (§ 104).

§ 73. Italic. Lat. fē-mina 'woman' fē-lō 'I suck', Umbr. feliuf filiu 'lactantes' fel. (abbreviation) 'filius': Arm. di-em 'I suck' (aor. di-eç-i), Gr. θή-σασο 'he sucked' θη-λή 'teat, nipple', O.Ir. dī-nu 'lamb', OHG. tāan 'to suckle', Lith. dėlė 'leech' pirm-dėlės 'first-birth', O.Bulg. dě-tę 'infans', Skr. dha-trī 'wetnurse'. Lat. plē-nu-s, Umbr. plener 'plenis': Gr. πλή-ρης. Lat. mēns-i-s, Umbr. menzne 'mense' (i. e. mentsne from mensne*, § 209), se-menies 'semenstribus': Gr. μήν; for the Lat. ē cp. § 612. Lat. rē-s, Umbr. re-per 'pro re' abl. ri 're': Skr. rā-s 'wealth, treasure, kingdom'. Lat. rēx rēg-is, Osc. regatūreī 'rectori', Marruc. regen[a dat. 'reginae': O.Ir. rī (gen. rīg) Skr. rājan- 'king'. Lat. lēx lēg-is, lēgātū-s, Osc. ligud 'lege' ligatūis dat. 'legatis', prim. Ital. stem lēg-. Lat. dīēs diem, diē-cula, Osc.

zi-colois 'diebus' (to which probably also d]iikúlús pl. 'dies'): cp. Skr. acc. dydām 'sky, day', Gr. Zḗv (§ 188).

The fluctuation of the spelling e, i in Umbr. and e, i, i, ei in Osc. points to a close ē. Since orig. long e is represented on the tab. Bant. by i, and on the cippus Abell. by i, while the new ē, which arose from the lengthening of ē on Ital. soil, is represented by e, we must conclude that the latter had a more open sound in Osc.

That Indg. ē had a close pronunciation also in Lat. follows from such spellings as pleib[es], leigibus on inscriptions (see §§ 41, 65).

The i, which arose from ē in Lat. filius (fē-), suspiciō (spēc-), conviciū-m (vēc-, rt. ueq- in vocāre) is by Osthoff, perhaps rightly, assigned to the influence of the following i (i); cp. also dē-lēniō beside dē-lēniō, sub-tilia.

§ 74. Old Irish. In accented stem-syllables ī. fīr 'true': Lat. vērū-s, Goth. tuz-vērjan 'to doubt', O.Bulg. věra 'faith'. mīl 'animal': Gr. μῆλο-ν (Boeot. Thess. μείλο-ν).

The other Kelt. dialects also present ī (i), e. g. O.Cymr. O.Bret. -ri = O.Ir. rī 'rex', O.Corn. O.Bret. guir = O.Ir. fīr 'verus' and so also Gall. ī in rīx 'rex' (Catu-rīges etc.). The great antiquity of this sound-change would also be supported by the Germ. rīk-* 'ruler' (Goth. reiks), if this, as it is believed to be, was borrowed from Kelt. rīg- in prim. Germ. times.

Rem. The form Dubno-rēx beside Dumno-rīx (Zeuss-Ebel G. C. 20) is due to the influence of Lat. rēx.

Concerning the treatment of ē in secondary accented syllables see §§ 613. 634. 657.

§ 75. Germanic. Prim. Germ. open ē. Goth. ē, which was pronounced very close, as follows most clearly from the pretty frequent spelling ei, e. g. qēins beside qēns 'wife' (occasionally also i, e. g. spēdists beside spēdists 'the last'). German a. This change to a had its beginning in High German, where it is first found in Bavarian (about 170 A.D.). From thence it was gradually extended to North Germany. a was established in Francoonian in the seventh century, but in Saxon not until several centuries later. See Bremer in Paul and Braune's Beitr. XI p. 1 ff. a is found in Norse already in the oldest runic monuments, e. g. -marix = Goth. mērs (edila-mērs 'of good report'). I must leave the difficult question undecided as to whether Ags. æ and O.Fris. ē represent the retention of the prim. Germ. e-quality, or have passed through the intermediate stage ā. Bremer and Siebs (in the above named work p. 12 ff. and 226 ff.) accept the first theory.

Rem. 1. z, in unaccented syllables, seems not to have undergone the change to ā, but to have retained its quality; unaccented prim. Germ. z appears in OHG. OS. as e, and in ON. as e, i. See Bremer's article in the above named work p. 29 ff.

Goth. mana-sēps 'mankind, world', Ags. sēd O.Fris. sēd OHG. sāt OS. sād 'seed': Lat. sē-men O.Bulg. sē-me 'seed', rt. sē-. Goth. ga-dēps Ags. dēd OHG. tat OS. dad 'deed': Gr. θῆ-σω, Lith. dē-siu 'I shall place' rt. dhē-. Goth. ga-rēdan 'to reflect', Ags. rēdan O.Fris. rēda OHG. rātan OS. rādan O.Icel. rāda 'to advise': Lat. rē-rī 'to think' rē-bar. Goth. nēpla OHG. nādala 'needle', OHG. nāan 'to sew': Gr. vīḡma 'yarn, vīḡpo-v 'distaff', Lat. nēmen 'yarn, thread' nētu-s 'spun', rt. snē-nē (§ 589, 3). OHG. sāmi 'half' sāmi-quek: Gr. ἡμι-βίος Lat. sēmi-vīvos 'half-alive', Skr. sāmi adv. 'half', Indg. sēmi*.

Concerning Goth. ai fr. Indg. ē in saia 'I sow' fr. rt. sē-, see § 142.

Rem. 2. Side by side with prim. Germ. open z there existed also a close z, which appears in Goth. also as z, in OHG. as ea, ia (OS. z. O.Icel. z), as Goth. hēr OHG. hear hiar OS. hēr O.Icel. hēr 'here', Goth. fēra 'side, country, district', OHG. feara fiara 'side, part', OHG. leaz liaz O.Icel. læt 'I was called', OHG. leaz liaz O.Icel. læt 'I left'. The origin of this prim. Germ. z has not yet been satisfactorily explained. (cp. the chapter on Germ. strong preterites in the accidence). The sound can scarcely be traced back in any case to an Indg. z.

§ 76. Baltic-Slavonic. Lith. spėjū spėti 'to have leisure, or time for a thing, to be quick enough', O.Bulg. spēja spėti 'to progress, to have success': Lat. spēs spēr-are, Goth. compar. spēdiza 'later' OHG. spāti 'late'. Lith. dėdė 'uncle', O.Bulg. dėdū 'grandfather': Gr. τῆθῆ 'grandmother' τῆθίς 'aunt'. O.Bulg.

mēra 'measure': Lat. mētior 'I measure', Goth. mēl 'time' (O.Icel. māl 'measure, time', OHG. māl 'mark, sign'), Skr. mātra 'measure'. Verbal stems in Lith. -ē O.Bulg. -ē, e. g. Lith. sėdėti O.Bulg. sědē-ti 'to sit': cp. Lat. sēdē- sēdere.

Throughout the whole domain of Lithuanian ē is pronounced very close, and in some places can hardly be distinguished from y (̣).

In Slavonic the sound-combinations kē, gē, chē, jē passed into čā, (d)čā, šā, jā (cp. §§ 461—464. 588). O.Bulg. inf. kričati 'to scream' fr. krikēti*: krikū 'scream, cry'. bēžati 'to flee' fr. bēgēti*: bēgū 'flight'. slyšati 'to hear' fr. slychēti*: cp. sluchū 'a hearing'. stojati 'to stand' fr. stojēti*.

In like manner initial ē became jā. jaštī 'eats': Lith. ėst(i) 'eats like an animal', cp. Lat. ēst. ēd- became first jēd-*, as jestī fr. estī* = Gr. ἔσσι (§ 666, 1), then jad- as stojati fr. stojēti*.

Final -ē became -i. Nom. mati 'mother', = Lith. motė 'wife' Skr. mātā 'mother', cpf. mātē*. cp. §§ 84. 665, 3.

In Aryan a = Indg. o can still be distinguished from a = Indg. e (§ 62), in so far as q-sounds were not palatalised before it, e. g. prim. Ar. fem. kajna-* (Av. kaēna- 'penalty') fr. Indg. qoj-nā-* (cp. Gr. ποινή) beside prim. Ar. pres. 3. sg. mid. caj-ataj* (Skr. cāyatā) fr. Indg. qej-e-taj*. See § 445 ff.

-and- fr. rt. geys- 'taste': Goth. -anu- (baur-ans, gib-ans etc.), perhaps also Gr. -oro- (e. g. Kp-oro-s = Skr. kr-āṇa-s 'efficient, active', see Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 374, and on the other hand Froehde Bezenb. Beitr. VII 322).

Rem. Some scholars, especially Collitz and Joh. Schmidt, dispute the validity of this sound-law and assume that Indg. o was in every case regularly represented by a in Aryan. I too am still far from considering my theory given above as mathematically certain (cp. Morph. Unt. III 129). But the difficulties, which it leaves unexplained, seem to me to be less and easier to dispose of than those which the hypothesis of Collitz and Schmidt presents. Nor does Collitz's latest treatment of the graded declensions (though containing certain acute ideas which further the subject) convince me of the validity of his standpoint, since among other things it leaves the distribution of e and o in the Germanic declension (ahmins, ahmin : ahman, ahmans) unexplained. Cp. the author's articles in Stud. IX p. 367 ff. p. 380 ff. and Morph. Unt. III 102 ff., Collitz Bezenberger's Beit. III p. 291 ff., X p. 2 ff., Joh. Schmidt Kuhn's Ztschr. Concerning Av. e, i, e, o fr. prim. Iran. prim. Ar. a = Indg. o see § 94.

§ 79. Armenian. ost 'branch': Gr. ὄζος Goth. asts 'bough', cpf. ozdo-s*. orb 'orphan': Gr. ὀρφo- in the pl. compound ὀρφo-βόται (ἐπίτροποι ὀρφανῶν, Hesych.), Lat. orbu-s. The nominal suffix -o-: mardo- 'man', gen. mard-o-y, cp. Gr. -o-io, Indg. -o-sio*.

o is often weakened to u, a process which may be regarded as regular for the combination of o with a following nasal + consonant. -sun in ere-sun 'thirty' etc.: Gr. -κορτα. hun 'ford, way': Lat. pons 'bridge', O.Bul. paŕŕ 'way'.

Beside o (u) appears also a, without the special conditions for this representation being ascertained. ač-ē 'eyes': Gr. ὄσσε, Lat. oculu-s. at-ea-m 'I hate': Lat. od-iu-m.¹⁾

Indg. tauto-syllabic oi appears as ai in ait-mu-m 'I swell' ait (gen. aiti) 'cheek': Gr. αἰδᾶω αἰδέω 'I swell' αἰδος 'tumour', OHG. eiz 'ulcer'. By the side of this perhaps also as ē, which became i in non-final syllables, e. g. mēg, Gen. migi 'mist': Skr. mēghā- 'cloud'; gini 'wine': Gr. οἶνο-ς. It is not certain whether z, i in these words (cp. Hübschmann Armen. Stud. I p. 60) do not rather represent Indg. ei (cp. § 63).

1) Cp. now also Bartholomae Ar. Forsch. II 46.

Indg. tautosyllabic ou seems to occur as oi (thence u in non-final syllables) in poit, gen. puōy, 'σπονδῆ', putain 'σπονδαῖω'. oi (u), however, can here and in other cases (Hübschmann Stud. I p. 62) be also regarded as representing Indg. eu (cp. § 63).

§ 80. Greek. Pf. κέκλοσε (instead of κεκλοσε* after the analogy of τέτροσε and others): Goth. hlaf, cpf. qe-glōp-e* 'has stolen' fr. rt. glep-. Causat. σπείω 'I drive away, scare': Skr. tyājāyāmi 'I bid one leave a thing', to σίσταμαι 'I step back before something, am afraid, reverence'; Skr. tyājāmi 'betake myself away, stand back from a thing'. λόχος-s 'bed, couch, ambush' ἄ-λοχος (fr. ά-λοχο-ς*, § 564) 'bed-mate, wife': O.Bulg. sq-logŭ 'consors tori', fr. rt. legŭ-. δύς-πορο-ς 'hard to pass': Skr. duṣ-pāra-, fr. rt. per-. ὀλκός-s ὀλκή 'a dragging, furrow': Lith. ūl-valka-s 'over-coat, bed-cover', cpf. uolgo-s* fr. rt. uelq-* (cp. § 164 rem.). δόμος-s 'house': Lat. domu-s O.Bulg. domŭ 'house'. ἀ-οοσητηρ 'helper' (§ 489): Lat. sociu-s. ῥοῖά ῥοή 'stream', prim. f. sroy-a* fr. rt. srey-. γῆθῶν 'consumption, decline' fr. qθex-a* fr. rt. qθex- in qθi-si-s. ὀστέον 'bone': Lat. os ossis, Skr. ásthi (neut.) 'bone'. ὀίω 'I smell': Lat. odor. 2. du. impf. act. ἐφίρε-τον: Skr. ābhara-tam, cpf. é-bhere-tom*; 3. sg. impf. mid. ἐφίρε-το: Skr. ābhara-ta, cpf. é-bhere-to*, fr. rt. bher- 'bear'.

In Aeolic (Lesb., Thessal., Boeot.), Arcadian-Cyprian and Pamphylian o either became fully u or a sound approaching it (written v), e. g. Thess. ἀπὺ = ἀπό, Arcad. ἄλλυ = ἄλλο, Pamph. gen. Κουρασίων-υς = -ων-ος. o certainly did not undergo this sound-change in every sound-combination and word-position; the limits and conditions, however, under which it took place, cannot be precisely determined owing to the scarcity of monuments.

Tautosyllabic oi. πέποιθε 'trusts': Goth. báiþ 'has waited for' (pres. beida), cpf. bhe-bhójdŭ-e*. οἶνός οἶνῆ: Lat. oino-s ūnu-s, O.Ir. oen, Goth. ains, Pruss. acc. aina-n, cpf. oi-no-s* 'unus'. Loc. pl. λέκoi-σι: O.Bulg. plŭčč-chŭ, Skr. ekē-ṣu, Indg. uļgoi-su*, stem uļgo-* 'wolf'.

o₂ became o₃ in Boeotian, e. g. Ἀσπαρί-βοινο-ς inscript. of Tanagra (to βάλνῃ 'feast' fr. rt. dhej-, Skr. dhi-nō-mi 'I satiate'), thence ū in the third century B. C., Θύναρχο-ς, θυλά (= foiulā) and in the youngest Bæot. inscriptions beside ū also ei, that is, ɛ or a sound closely approaching it, e. g. pl. ποιοῦμεναι = ποιοῦμενοι (cp. rot: Skr. tē, Goth. þái). The change to ū took place in the other dialects (but not before the second century A. D.) and led to the Mid. and Mod. Gr. ɛ.

Tautosyllabic ov. Hom. εἰλήλουθε 'has come' beside fut. ἐλεύσομαι. σπουδῇ 'zeal' beside pres. σπεύδω. This diphthong became ū in Ionic and Attic in the fifth century B. C., but the spelling ov was retained. The diphthongic pronunciation may have remained longer in the other dialects. The representation in Cypr. is noteworthy: o-vo = ov, a-ro-u-ra-i = ἀρούραι.

§ 81. Italic. In the prim. Italic period o appears, with the exception of certain reductions in final syllables, to have been still unchanged in every sound-combination.

Lat. totondit 'has shorn' pf. to tendō* = Gr. τίνδω τένθω 'I gnaw at'. Causat. noceō 'I injure' (Skr. nāśayāmi 'I make to disappear, destroy') to nez necis. procu-s 'wooer' to precor. Abl. pondō 'by weight' to pendo.

The o in unaccented syllables, which in older Latin still remains unchanged (e. g. filio-s, dōno-m, opos), became u, except before r = s (§ 569) and after u and u: filii-s, dōnu-m, opus, vehunt, tetult, con-tult, sēdulō (fr. sē-dolō). o was retained before r = s, e. g. in temporis fr. tempoz-is* (a new form, in place of tempez-is*, after the analogy of the Nom. acc. tempus), and after u, u, e. g. in vīvos, vīvom, vīvont, equos, sequuntur, mortuos. The forms vīvus, vīvum, vīvunt, mortuus etc. (like locus, legunt), do not occur before the eighth century A. U. C., by which process qu (ky), gu (gy) passed into c, g: ecus (gen. equi), relincent (1. pl. relinquimus), ungunt (1. pl. unguimus) etc. (cp. Bersu Die Gutturalen und ihre Verbindung mit v im Lat., Berlin 1885, p. 53 ff.).

u fr. o occurs also in chief accented syllables, especially before nasals. uncu-s: Gr. ὄγκο-ς 'bow, hook'. uncia older oncia 'ounce' to Gr. ὄγκος 'mass, bulk'. hunc fr. older honc. unguis to Gr. ὄνυξ. umbō 'boss of a shield' and umbil-icu-s, to Gr. ὀμφαλό-ς. In like manner ursu-s fr. or(c)so-s*, mulctu-s fr. molcto-s*, whose or, ol arose from Indg. r, l, § 295.

Final -o, like -a (§ 97), became e. Imper. sequere: Gr. ἐπε(σ)ο. Nom. olle (ille seems to be a new form after iste, ipse) fr. ol-se* (§ 571), iste a new form for is-se* (with t transferred from such forms as istum istō): the second component of these compounds is identical with Skr. sá, Gr. ó (Indg. so*), cp. the accidence.

Also in other cases o in unaccented syllables seems occasionally to have become e, i, that is, an irrational vowel, which appears after i and in closed syllables as e, and in other cases as i. ilícō fr. in slocō*. hospes hospitis fr. hos(ti)-pit-* (§ 633) beside potis sum (com-pos -potis). anni-culus to anno-, auri-fex to auro-, socie-tās to socio-, novi-tās (Gr. νέ-της) to ново-. legi-mus = Gr. λέγο-μεν. It, of course, still remains to be determined in what relations this change stands to the u in filius etc. and for what reasons here the one, there the other course of variation was introduced; cp. § 680. The question might also be raised as to whether Indg. e does not occur in anni-culus, auri-fex, socie-tās, novi-tās and in legi-mus: anni-culus etc. like οἰκέ-της, legi-mus, new formation after legi-tis = Gr. λέγε-τε.

Rem. 1. The genitive suffix -es -is (salūt-es salūt-is) has not arisen from -os -us (senāt-u-os, homin-us). -es and -os were both old inherited forms (see p. 67).

Thurneysen Kuhu's Ztschr. XXVIII p. 154 ff. assumes the transition of ov to av, e. g. caveō: Gr. νο(φ)έω 'I mark'; cavo-s: Gr. κόοι 'excavations'; lavō: Gr. λέε 'he washed'. Cp. however, Hübschmann Das Idg. Vocalsystem p. 190.

The fluctuation of the orthography between o and u in the Umbrian-Samnitic dialects points to a close pronunciation of the o. Since the Umbr. u was the sign both for o and u (§ 23), the tables written in the national alphabet contribute nothing towards determining the quality of the o-sound; the tables written in Lat. have both o and u. In Oscan ú u, o u. Umbr. purka porca 'porcas': Lat. porcu-s, Gr. πόρκα-ς, O.Ir. orc, OHG. farh farah (§ 277), Lith. pařsza-s, cpf. porko-s* 'pig, sucking-pig'. Umbr. uvef ovi acc. 'oves': Lat. ovi-s, Gr. ὄι-ς, Goth. avēpi neut. 'flock of sheep', Lith. avī-s, O.Bulg. ovī-ca, cpf. oyi-s* 'sheep'. Umbr. cornac-o 'cornicem': Lat. cornīx Gr. κορνίχη 'crow', prim. st. kor-en- kor-n-. Osc. pūtīad putiīad 'possit' putiāns 'possint': Lat. potis, Gr. πόσι-ς. Umbr. puř-e 'quod', Osc. pūd pod 'quod': Lat. Faliscan quo-d, Gr. πο-, Goth. hva-, Indg. go-*. Nominal suffix -ā- in Umbr. puplu-m poplom 'populum', Osc. hūrtū-m 'hortum, templum', dolo-m dolum 'dolum', Volsc. piho-m 'pium': Lat. dolo-m dolum, Falisc. vootu-m 'votum'.

The diphthongs oj and oy.

Tautosyllabic oj in chief accented stem syllables became oe, u in Lat. oīno-s oeno-s āno-s: Gr. οἰνό-ς, cpf. oj-no-s* 'one'. moīni-cipio-m moenia mānia: Goth. ga-mains 'common', Lith. maīna-s 'exchange', Gr. Sicel. μοῖ-το-ς 'requital'.

og, ɪ arose in final syllables. Nom. pl. poplos (Saliar hymn), plourumē (C. I. L. I 32), plūrimī: Gr. ποῖ, λῦκοι, Goth. þái, Indg. -oj, toj* fr. stem to- 'the, this'. Cp. instr. pl. -ois*, -oes (oloēs) -is (equīs) fr. -ōis* (§ 612). In like manner also ɪ in the monosyllabic nom. pl. hī quā, instr. pl. hīs quīs. quā and quīs may have originated from an unaccented position (sī qui, dīi-quā etc.) and hī and hīs may be due partly to assimilation to quā, quīs, and partly to assimilation to the polysyllabic forms illī, illīs. Cp. also the nom. sg. quā fr. O.Lat. quoi (goi = quoi on the Dvenos-inscrp., cp. Bersu Die Gutturalen, Berlin 1885, p. 40) i. e. quo* + particle i (ɪ).

Rem. 2. oj is also said to have become ɪ in chief accented syllables, when preceded by e or i: vidit oīde, vīnu-m oīros, vīcu-s oīko-ς, liquit lōine, liber loēbertatem and others. This sound-change cannot, however, be accepted as definitely proved, since almost all examples under this category can also be easily explained otherwise. See Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV p. 129, Zur Gesch. des Perf. p. 191, Danielsson in Pauli's Altit. Stud. 4. 156 f.

Rem. 3. Why ferīs, which I (against Thurneysen Bezenberger's Beitr. VIII 269) consider equal to Gr. φέρις Goth. baīraīs, with ɪ and not ɪ? It is possible that ɪ arose regularly in the 1. sg. (O.Lat. ferem) and 3. pl., and then from these two forms was extended to the other persons. I leave it undecided as to whether -eui, -ent were the continuation of prim. Lat. -o_i-m*, -o_i-nt* (cp. Gr. 1. sg. Att. ῥεῖποι, 3. pl. Delph. ῥεῖ-χου, Goth. 3. pl. bairelin-u), or that of Indg. -o_iq*, -o_i-u_t*, which, according to Lat. sound-laws (§ 237), must, first of all, have become -o(i)em*, -o(i)ent*. It is also conceivable that capiz and audiz are regularly formed, but that feriz* arose with the same contrast as that in which socle-tās and novi-tās stand to each other. In that case feris* has been transformed to ferēs after the analogy of capiz; but then medī, medīs (uinos pīnos) must also be regarded as modifications of mediz*, medīs* after novi, novīs.

In Umbrian u = o_i whereas the Oscan-Sabell. monuments still present the diphthong, as to which it is certainly questionable, whether the written diphthong still existed everywhere as such in the language itself. Umbr. unu 'unum', Osc. ún[itu] 'unita'. Osc. múfínkad abl. 'communi': O.Lat. comoinis. Umbr. kuraia 'curet', Pelignian coisatens 'curaverunt': Lat. coirō coerō cūro (the forms coraveront C. I. L. I 73 and couraverunt l. c. 1419 are very singular; in the latter ā was certainly meant), prim. Ital. stem. fem. koisā*. Cp. also the Osc. instr. pl. Núvlanúis 'Nolanis' zicolois 'diebus', Pelignian suois 'suis', Umbr. veskles -is 'vasculis': Lat. oloes illis; Umbr., like Lat., indicates here a special manner of treating o_i in final syllables.

Tautosyllabic Indg. oy, fell together with Indg. ey (§ 65) and is still only traceable in Osc. as diphthong: Gen. sg. castrovs fr. stem castru- 'fundus' (§ 77). In Umbr. ō: gen. trifor 'tribus'; rofu 'rubos': Goth. ráuþs, cpf. roydho-s*. ā arose in Lat., e. g. gen. sg. fructūs; pf. fūdīt: cp. Goth. gánt 'poured out' (pres. giutan 'to pour out'). By side of it also ō: rōbu-s = Umbr. rōfo-, gen. domōs = domās (Augustus wrote domos); cp. also the inscrip. forms with (long) o, losnā (= lāna fr. loyc-snā*, § 570), poplicod (beside pouublicom publicus), nondinum (beside noundinum nāndinum). It remains doubtful how this duality ā and ō in Lat. is to be estimated. It was hardly a mere graphic duality.

Rem. 4. In a number of Ital. words containing oy, it cannot be decided, whether this diphthong represents prim. Indg. ey (§ 65) or oy, e. g. in those containing loyk- as Osc. gen. Lúvkanatēis 'Lucanatis' Luvkis Luvikis 'Lucius', Lat. Loucina Luucius etc., fr. rt. loyk- 'illumine' (Gr. λευκέ; λοιώσων).

§ 82. Old Irish. In chief accented syllables o. ocht 'eight': Gr. ὀκτώ. roth 'wheel': Lat. rota 'wheel', OHG. rad 'wheel', Lith. rāta-s 'wheel'. orc 'pig': Gr. ὄρεο-ς. gorim 'I heat, warm, burn': O.Bulg. gorēti 'to burn', Lith. gāra-s 'steam', fr. rt. gher-. Prep. co n- 'with': Lat. cum, Umbr. Osc. com. It passes into u with the palatalisation of the following consonant: suide 'seat' fr. sodio-* = Lat. solu-m (l = d, § 369), rt. sed- 'sit' (§ 640). Cp. also mug 'slave' fr. mogu-s* (Goth. magu-s 'boy, servant'), ru- beside ro- (Indg. pro* 'before, in front', p. 67), cum- beside com- con- (co n-, see above).

In secondary accented syllables o, so far as it did not entirely disappear (§§ 634. 657), became an irrational vowel, whose sound quality mostly regulated itself according to the timbre of the following consonant.

a. 1. pl. as-béram 'dicimus', 3. pl. as-bérat: Gr. φέρομεν, (Doric) φέροντι, ἴσμεν, Goth. baíram, baírand; -berat may be middle = Gr. φέροντο, or it is, as Thurneysen thinks, to be regarded as the regular continuation of beront*, Indg. bheront* (t in the combination nt had not the same development as t in other cases in Irish, and we have no evidence that original t in the final combination -nt was dropped in Irish).

i. Gen. blid 'victus' fr. bi(y)otī*, to nom. blad fr. bi(y)oto-m*: Gr. φίορο-ς Lith. gyvatà O.Bulg. životū 'life'.

u. Dat. blud (to the above named blad) fr. bi(y)otō*.

In forms like cómarbus 'cohereditas' beside órpe 'hereditas' (Goth. arbi neut. 'inheritance') or had first of all become r. S. § 634.

In the 3. sg. ad-cón-dairc (Gr. δέδοικε), réraig 'dixerit' (O.Icel. rak, rt. reg-) a only indicates the timbre of the preceding consonant. See § 640.

Cp. Gall. o in tarvo-s 'bull': Gr. ταῦρο-ς; νμυτο-ν neut. 'sanctuary' (O.Ir. nemed n-): cp. Gr. ζυγό-ν; epo- 'horse' in Eporēdia = Lat. equo-.

In chief accented syllables Indg. oi became oe (written oe and oi). oim 'unus': Lat. oino-s ānus. cloen 'oblique, unjust, bad': Goth. hlāins 'hill', fr. rt. klej- 'lean, incline'. Before pala-talised consonants o for oe, e. g. cloine 'obliqueness, injustice'. Old o may, therefore, have been retained here.

Rem. Beside oe, oi was also written ae, ai, e. g. aen 'unus' beside oen; cloin nom. pl. of cloen; maini 'dona, pretiosa' (to Lat. moenia, mānia).

In final syllables oi became ī, which disappeared and only left its traces in the palatalisation of the preceding consonant. Nom. pl. eich 'equi' fr. ekyt*, cp. Gr. ἵπποι, Lat. poploe populi (§ 857, 4). In Gall. inscrip. the nom. pl. still ends in -oi: Tanotaliknoi.

Indg. ou fell together with eu (§ 86). It became ō, whence later ua. ruad 'red', Cymr. rhudd Corn. rudh Bret. ruz: Goth. rāuþs (stem rānda-), cpf. roudhō-s*; cp. Gall. Roudu-s Ande-roudu-s.

§ 83. Germanic. Pf. 3. sg. Goth. varþ OHG. ward O.Icel. varð 'he took a direction, became': Skr. varāta, cpf. ue-vert-e*, fr. rt. vert- 'turn'. Causat. Got. us-vakjan 'to awake', OHG. wecchan: Skr. vājyati 'he urges on, drives on', cpf. 1. sg. uoḡtēð*, fr. rt. ueg- 'be active, strong'. Causat. Goth. fra-ward-jan OHG. far-warttan 'to let perish, destroy': Skr. varāyati 'lets something take a turning or course', cpf. 1. sg. uortējō*, fr. rt. uert-. OHG. OS. O.Icel. band (neut.) 'band, cord', prim. f. bhondho-m*, fr. rt. bhendh- 'bind', cp. Skr. 3. sg. pf. babāndha. Goth. gasts OHG. OS. gast, O.Icel. gestr 'guest' Norse Runes gastiz: Lat. hosti-s 'stranger, enemy', O.Bulg. gostī 'guest', cpf. ghosti-s*. Goth. asts OHG. ast (masc.) 'branch': Gr. ὄζος, cpf. ondo-s*. Goth. þat-a, OHG. daz, O.Icel. þat 'that, the': Gr. ró, cpf. tó-d*.

Rem. 1. Indg. o fell indiscriminately together with Indg. a (§ 99) and Indg. e (§§ 109, 110) already in prim. Germ. At this period a was used for the three vowels in chief accented syllables, in other syllables frequently or always o. The latter quality was still retained in Westgerm. in historical times: e. g. in the dat. pl. OHG. worto-m wort-um OS. wordo-n wordu-n, Ags. wordu-m fr. stem orig. wyrdho-* or wy-to-* 'word' (but Goth. várda-m). See Paul's article in Paul-Braune's Beitr. IV p. 358 ff. and VI p. 186 ff. Since it has not been definitely settled for many syllables, whether o or a was spoken in prim. Germ., we write the prim. Germ. forms throughout with a according to the Goth. notation, an inexactness, which is of little importance for this comparative grammar.

Indg. tautosyllabic oi. 3. sg. Goth. vāt OHG. weiz OS. wēt Ags. weāt O.Icel. veit 'knows': Gr. οἶδε. Goth. lāihv OHG. lēh Ags. lah 'he lent': Gr. ἔλοιπε. Causat. Goth. lāizjan (for regular lāizjan*, § 581) OHG. lerran lēran, OS. lērīan 'to teach', beside Goth. leisan 'to learn', rt. leis-. Goth. dāhs OHG. ein OS. en Ags. an O.Icel. einn 'one': Lat. oino-s unu-s. 2. sg. opt. Goth. bairāis; Gr. πέποις. Gen. sg. Goth. anstāis (fr. ansti- 'favour'): cp. Lith. akės (fr. aki- 'eye'), Indg. ending -ois.

Indg. tautosyllabic oy. Pf. 3. sg. Goth. bāuf OHG. bōt OS. bōd Ags. beād O.Icel. bauð 'bade': Skr. bubōdha, Indg. bhebhoudh-e*. Goth. *rāuf*s (st. rāuda-) OHG. rōt OS. rōd Ags. reād O.Icel. randr 'red': Gall. Roudu-s O.Ir. ruad 'red', opf. roydho-s*. Gen. sg. Goth. sunāus (fr. sunu- 'son'): Lith. stanaūs (fr. sūnu- 'son'), Indg. ending -oys.

In the eighth century a became e in OHG., caused by a consonantal or sonantal i in the following syllable. nerian i. e. nerjan = Goth. nasjan (for regular nazjan*, § 581) 'to rescue', causat. to ga-nesan = Goth. ga-nisan 'to become healed', fr. rt. nes-, Gr. νέουαι. Nom. pl. gesti (sg. gast) 'guests' = Goth. gasteis (sg. gasts, st. gasti-). This umlaut, however, was hindered by r, l, h + Consonant (see Braune in Paul-Braune's Beitr. IV p. 540 ff.), e. g. far-warttan 'destroy' (p. 77) dat. nahti-m 'noctibus' (st. nahti- = Lat. nocti- Lith. nakti-). But the e, which arose from this i-umlaut, differed from the e which arose out of prim. Germ. i, e (§§ 35, 67) not only in OHG. but also in MHG. and even in NHG.: the latter, also written ē by way of distinction, was open, the former close (J. Franck Zeitschr. f. deutsch. Altert. XXV 218 f., W. Braune Lit. Centralbl. 1884. column 124 f., Luick Paul-Braune's Beitr. XI 492 f.).

Prim. Germ. aī became ei (weiz, ein) except before r, h, w where it became ē: lerran, lēh.

Prim. Germ. ay remained partly as diphthong, au and later ou, e. g. pf. scaub scoub = Goth. skāuf 'pushed' (pres. Goth. skinba), boug = Goth. bāug 'bent' (pres. Goth. biuga), and partly became ō viz. before dental consonants and r, l, h (= Goth. h), e. g. bōt, rōt, pf. droz = Goth. þrāut 'troubled' (pres. Goth.

priuta), trōran 'to make to drop, spill' = Goth. drāusjan (for regular drauzjan*, § 581) 'make to fall, roll, throw' (causat. to Goth. driusan 'to fall'), pf. zōh 'drew' = Goth. tāuh 'led' (pres. Goth. tiuha).

Quite independent of this change of ai and yu to ē and ō, there was an older (prim. Westgerm.) reduction of the same diphthongs to ē and ō, which took place in unaccented syllables. Final ē and ō were shortened according to § 661, 6. OHG. blinte nom. pl. masc. 'blind', blintēm dat. (instr.) pl. 'blind' = Goth. blindái, blindáim, prim. Germ. blindai*, blindai-mi*. berēs 2. sg. opt. = Goth. bairáis (p. 78). tage dat. loc. sg. (to tag 'day') = prim. Germ. dagai*, cp. Gr. loc. oĩkos and dat. oĩkō (§ 659, 2. 3). suno gen. sg. (to sunu 'son') = Goth. sundus (p. 78).

Here belongs also OHG. dē 'the', dēm 'the' = Goth. þái, þáim, since the pronoun regularly suffered the change in those cases, where it was unaccented.

The forms dia die = dē and deam diem = dēm show that this ē = prim. Germ. ai was equivalent to the ē discussed in § 75 rem. 2.

Rem. 2. These OHG. (Westgerm.) sound-laws in like manner held good for Germ. a = Indg. a and Indg. o. See § 99 and § 109.

§ 84. Baltic-Slavonic. Indg. o was o in the Baltic-Slav. unitary period, and generally remained o in Slav., whilst it became a in Baltic.

Lith. taka-s 'path', O.Bulg. tokū 'course', to Lith. tekū O.Bulg. tekā 'I run'. O.Bulg. raz-dorū 'rent, gap'; Gr. δopά 'skin, hide', fr. rt. der- 'tear, flay'. O.Bulg. causat. lošiti 'ponere': Goth. lagjan 'to lay', fr. rt. leg- 'lay, make a bed'; topiti 'to heat': Skr. tāpáyāmi 'I heat', fr. rt. tep-. Lith. nakti-s, O.Bulg. noštī 'night': Lat. nox noctis, Goth. nahts 'night'. Lith. avi-s O.Bulg. ovī-ca 'sheep': Lat. ovī-s. Nominal suffix -o-: Lith. nom. sg. vilkas 'wolf', dat. pl. vilkā-ms O.Bulg. vľiko-mŭ, prim. Balt-Slav. st. vľiko-* (§ 302) 'wolf': Gr. λύκο-ς. The thematic vowel -o-: Lith. 1. pl. pres. nėszame 'we carry', O.Bulg. 1. pl. aor. nešo-mŭ 'we carried': Gr. φέρο-μεν.

om, on before consonants (except i) generally appear as a in Slavonic. zǫbu 'tooth: Gr. γόνφο-ς 'plug, bolt', rt. gembh-. blǫdŭ 'error' beside blǫdǫ 'erro', rt. bhlendh-. o became u (ü) in final syllables before final nasal and before -ns. Thus Indg. -o-m* (in the acc. sg. of -o-stems and in the 1. sg. pret.) became -u-n* (§ 217) -ü (§ 219), as vlūkū 'lupum', nēsū 'I carried'; Indg. -o-us* in the acc. pl. (cp. Gr. Cret. κόφους) became -uns* whence further the -y of historical times, as vlūky 'lupos' (§ 219). Final -ü = Indg. -om* was lengthened to y before j, e: g. dobrŭ-jŭ and dobry-jŭ 'the good (man)' (dobrŭ is the accusative form, used as nom., see the accidentence), cp. § 36 p. 37.

In the same language jo became je. Nom. acc. sg. neut. je 'it': Gr. ὅ 'quod', Skr. yá-d 'quod', cpf. jo-d*. Dat. pl. konje-mŭ fr. st. konje- fr. konjo-* 'horse', mǫže-mŭ fr. st. mǫže- fr. mǫg-je* (§ 147), mǫg-jo-* 'man', cp. dat. pl. vlūko-mŭ.

In like manner i influenced a following a in Lithuanian: a, in this combination and after consonants which have been palatalised by i, is pronounced as an open e in many dialects, e. g. kraūjes 'blood', pl. kraujei = kraūjas, kraujaĩ; svėczes 'guest', pl. sveczei = svėczius, svecziaĩ; dat. sg. jėm 'him', instr. pl. jeis = jám, jaĩs.

Rem. 1. Lith. jis 'he' is not equal to Gr. ὁ-ς Skr. yá-s, but stands to these in the same relation as Gr. τί-ς, Lat. quī-s stand to Skr. ká-s Goth. hva-s. Also szī-s 'this' (beside gen. szīš) is not fr. kjo-s*, but like O.Bulg. sī 'this' = orig. kī-s* (O.Bulg. gen. sego, dat. semu etc. for regular šego*, šemu* etc. fr. šjego* etc. after the analogy of the nom. sī and acc. sī). After the same manner as jis stands to gen. jš, dat. jēm etc. are also to be explained nominatives sg. like mėdis (gen. mėdžio) 'tree', whose -i- instead of -ji- is on the same level as the -i- in gerūs-is (definite form to gėra-s 'good'), and those like gaidys (Gen. gaidžio 'cock', whose y arose from iji (§ 147). Indg. i was likewise contained in the final syllables of O.Bulg. nom. and Acc. konŭ 'horse' (st. konje-), Goth. nom. as harji-s 'army, host' (st. harja-) and hefrdeis fr. xīrdīji-s* 'shepherd' (st. prim. Germ. xīrdīja-*), O.Lat. Cornēlis Cornēlim, qlis alim beside Cornēlius, alius Osc. Klīpīlis 'Cipius', Umbr. Trutitis 'Truttidius'. To these may possibly be added the Greek proper names in -is beside -ιος, as Σειπας Seipus etc. Cp. §§ 120. 148. 219 rem 1. 680 rem. 3 and the accidentence.

Indg. tautosyllabic oj appears in Lith. as ē and ai, in Slav. as ě. Lith. snėga-s 'snow' (beside *snaigalū*¹⁾) 'snow flake' snai-gyti 'to snow a little' Pruss. snaygis O.Bulg. sněgŭ 'snow': Goth. snāies 'snow', cpf. snoigho-s*, fr. rt. sneigh-. Lith. āt-lėka-s and āt-laika-s 'remnant, rest' laikyti 'to hold', O.Bulg. otŭ-lěkŭ 'remnant, rest': Gr. λοιπός, fr. rt. leiq-. Lith. laipinti 'to let rise', O.Bulg. pri-lěpŭ 'salve, grease': Gr. ἀλοιφή 'salve', fr. rt. leip-stick, glue. Lith. maizala-s 'medley, compound' maiszyti 'to mix', Pruss. maysota-n 'mingled', O.Bulg. pri-měsŭ 'admixture' měsiti 'to mix', from rt. mejē- (Gr. μειγνυ), cp. § 414 rem. Lith. 3. sg. opt. te-sukē (sukū 'I turn'), O.Bulg. 2. pl. opt. berēte (berā 'fero'): Gr. φέρω, φέρετε. Lith. kėma-s 'farm, village' kaimyna-s 'neighbour': Goth. hāims 'village', cpf. goj-mo-s* (cp. O.Bulg. po-kojŭ 'rest, repose'), fr. rt. gej-. Pruss. waissi waisse 'thou knowest', O.Bulg. věmŭ fr. věd-mŭ* and věd-ě 'I know': Gr. οἶδε, Indg. pf. stem uoid-. Lith. pėmŭ 'shepherd boy': Gr. ποιμήν. Lith. staigā 'sudden' staigyti-s 'hasten': Gr. σροίχο- 'row', fr. rt. steigh- 'rise'.

Rem. 2. It is undetermined after what law z and ai interchange in Lith. I conjecture that originally ai regularly remained only when the following consonants had a palatal timbre, which had been caused by an e- or *i-*vowel in the following syllable; in other cases ai became ae, then open ē, and later ē. Cp. e. g. kaimynas with kėma-s, pė-saitis (maso.) 'a binding thong' with sėta-s 'cord' (§ 100), and the numerous verbs in -yti as laikyti (laikau, laikiau, laikysiu). In this case kalma-s (another form of kėma-s) would be a new formation after kaimynas, and laikau after laikiau etc.; in the case of nouns like āt-laika-s 'remnant', maima-s 'exchange', the verbs in -yti and the like which exist side by side with them would come into consideration, etc. Only slurred ('geschliffen') ai (ai) seems to have undergone the change to ē, whereas ai (dāikta-s 'place, thing', pa-lāida-s 'loose, slack') remained also before consonants having a labial timbre. Cp. ē and ei = Indg. ai § 68 rem. 2.

Slav. ě = Indg. oj and = Indg. aj (§ 100) are to be distinguished from ě = Indg. z (§ 76) in historical times from the fact that before them k, g, ch do not appear changed into č, (d)č, ž, but into c, (d)z, z. Loc. pl. vŭlčechŭ (plŭkŭ 'wolf'), bo(d)zčechŭ (dogŭ 'god') with the Indg. ending -ojsu* cp. Gr.

1) Kurschat in Lith.-Germ. Diet. accounts it thus snoigala.

lúxoiu Skr. vykēṣu. Instr. sg. tacēmī, instr. pl. tacēmi, dat. pl. tacēmū fr. takū 'talis'. Opt. 2. pl. ricēte from rekā 'I say', cp. Gr. ῥήματα. Cp. §§ 461. 462. 463. 464. 588.

Final ē = Indg. oj aj mostly became i. Nom. pl. ti: Lith. tē, Gr. τοί, stem to- 'the'; in like manner vīlci: Gr. λύκοι. Gen. sg. pāti (pātī 'way'): Lith. akės (aki-s 'eye'), Goth. anstāis (ansti- 'favour'), Indg. -ojs*. Opt. 2. 3. sg. beri: Gr. ῥήποις, ῥήποι, cpf. bhérojs*, bhérojt*. In the same way -ē = Indg. -ē became -i in the nom. mati 'mother' = Lith. motė, § 76.

Rem. 3. It remains undetermined why the loc. sg. had -ē, not -i, vīlē (cp. Gr. οἶκος, OHG. tage fr. dagwī* orig. dhoghoj*). Cp. dat. loc. sg. rācē, nom. acc. du. rācē (§ 100) of rāka 'hand', and 1. sg. vēd-ē 'I know' with the personal ending of the Skr. pf. mid. tutud-ē fr. tud- 'push'. Cp. Leskien Die Declin. im Slav.-Lit. u. Germ. p. 53, Mahlow Die langen Vocale A E O p. 103 f., and Osthoff Zur Gesch. des Perf. p. 194.

Initial ē- = Indg. oj- aj- likewise became i-. inī 'unus': Lith. o-ēna-s (§ 666, 1), Pruss. aina-n acc., Lat. oino-s unu-s. iskati 'to seek': Lith. j-ėszkóti 'to seek', OHG. eiscōn 'to seek', a verb whose root is probably to be set down as aj-, not ejs- (Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. p. 133); iskati certainly incurs the suspicion of being a Germanic borrowed word, see § 414 rem. Also here a difference is shown in comparison with Indg. z. For this latter, when initial, became ja-, see §§ 76. 666, 1. Cp. further § 666 rem. 2.

Just as jo* became je (see above), so also joj* became jei* and further (by § 68) ji. Loc. pl. jichū (fr. st. je- 'he' fr. jo-*), konjichū (fr. st. konje- 'horse' fr. konjo-*) as opposed to tēchū, vīlēcchū. Opt. 2. pl. dējite (dējīq 'I put'), as opposed to berēte.

Indg. tautosyllabic oy as well as the oy (§ 68) which arose from ey in the Balt.-Slav. unitary period, appears in Lith. as au, and in Slav. as u. Gen. sg. Lith. sūnaūs, O.Bulg. synu: Goth. sunáus, Indg. -oys*. Lith. raudà 'red colour', O.Bulg. ruda 'metal': Goth. ráuþs 'red', rt. reydh-. Lith. naudà 'profit, wealth, property': OHG. nāz O.Icel. naut (neut.) 'domesticated animal' te Goth. niutan 'to obtain, enjoy', rt. neyd-. Lith. raudà 'lamentation': OHG. rōz (masc.) 'weeping' to riozan 'to weep', rt. reyd-.

Concerning Av. ē, ō, ā = prim. Iran. prim. Ar. ō fr. Indg. ō see § 102.

§ 87. Armenian. The regular representation seems to have been u. e-tu 'I gave': Skr. ādām. tur 'gift': Gr. δῶρο-ν, rt. dō-. hum 'raw': Gr. ῥμός Skr. amā-s 'raw'; the initial h-has no etymological value. šun 'dog' fr. Indg. kyōn*, Lith. szuņ (§ 92 rem.).

§ 88. Greek. γινω- 'perceive, know' ἐγνώ-ν γινω-τό-ς γινώ-μα: Skr. jñā- 'perceive, know' fut. 3. sg. jñā-syāti partic. jñā-tā-s, Lat. gnō-scō nō-tu-s, OHG. ein-chnuadil 'insignis, egregius' be-chnuodelen 'to give a countersign', O.Bulg. inf. zna-ti 'know', zna-me 'sign'. Aeol. πά-νω 'I drink' pf. πέπω-κα ἄμ-πωρι-ς 'ebb-tide': Skr. pāti 'he drinks', pāna-m 'drink', Lat. pōtu-s pōtiō pōtor, Lith. pū'ta (fem.) 'drinking-bout'. Acc. βό-ν 'bovem': Skr. gām 'bovem', cpf. gōm*, to nom. gōm-s* (§ 85). Derivative verbal stems in -ō-, ἐπνώ-σω ἐπνω-τίον: Lat. aegrō-tu-s, Lith. sapnū-ti 'to dream'.

In the Thessalian dialect ω passed into α (ov): e. g. ἔδωνκε = ἔδα-κε, γινώμα = γνώ-μη, Ἀρίστου = Ἀρίστων.

§ 89. Italic. Lat. ō. The fluctuation of the orthography between o and u in the Umbrian-Samn. dialects points to a close ō (cp. short o § 81): in Umbr. u, o, u, in Osc. ú, u (also uu, a proof for the length of the vowel), o, u. Lat. dō-nu-m, Falisc. donum, Umbr. řunu, Osc. dúnúm, djuunated ('donavit'), Mars. dunom, Vestin. duno: Gr. δῶ-ρο-ν. Lat. pō-tu-s, Umbr. puni poni abl. 'posca': Gr. πέπω-κα. Lat. flōs flōris, Flōra, Osc. Flusai dat. 'Florae', Sabin. Flusare 'Floralis': MHG. bluost (fem.) 'blossom, bloom' Ags. blōstma (masc.) 'flower', st. bhlōs*. Umbr. ař-fertur-e ars-fertur-e dat. 'adfertori, flamini', Osc. regaturei dat. 'rectori' kenzsur censtur nom. 'censores', Umbr. ařmune dat. 'alimoni', Akeřunia- Acersonia Osc. Akudunnia- 'Aquilonia', Pelign. Semunu gen. 'Semonum', Lat. suffix forms -tōr-, -mōn-. Abl. sg. of -o-stems: Lat. Gnaivōd, Umbr. poplu 'populo' somo 'summo', Osc. Búvaianūd 'Boviano' preivatūd 'privato', Volsc. vinu 'vino': Gr. Locr. Cret. ὦ 'unde'. Umbr.-Osc. nom. pl. of the same stems in -ōs: Umbr. prinuvatus prinuvatur 'legati' screihtor 'scripti', Osc. Núvlanús.

'Nolani': Skr. vykas Goth. vulfōs 'lupi'. Imperatives in -tōd: Lat. estōd, Umbr. fertu 'ferito', Osc. likitūd licitūd 'liceto', Pel. petiedu 'petito' (?), Volsc. estu 'esto': Gr. ἔστω.

The a instead of the expected ō in Lat. datār-u-s quae-stār-a, fūr = Gr. φῶρ 'thief', hū-c beside quō (are they to be compared with fag-u-s beside equ-o-s? § 81) and others (Corssen Aussprache II² p. 193 f.) is unexplained.

§ 90. Old Irish. In chief accented syllables a. gnāth 'known, accustomed': Gr. γνωτός. blāth 'bloom, blossom': OHG. bluot 'bloom, blossom', fr. st. bhlē- bhlō-, cp. Goth. uf-blēsan -baiblōs 'to blow up, make to swell', Lat. flōs. lār 'floor, ground': MHG. vlur Ags. flōr 'floor', to Gr. πλῆ- πλω- Lat. plē- plō- 'fill, swell, overflow'. dā 'two': Gr. δύ-δεκα, Skr. Ved. dūd, Indg. dyō* 'two' (O.Ir. dau do = Indg. dyōs*, see § 85). Cp. also O.Cymr. di-auc 'segmem' (properly 'not quick'): Gr. ῥᾶνός; O.Cymr. au = a (Zeuss-Ebel G. C. 93).

Rem. As to whether a was also spoken in Gallie depends, so far as I see, upon the view taken of proper names in -gnāto-s. Zeuss-Ebel (p. 16) identify this word with O.Ir. gnāth, whereas Thurneysen identifies it with Lat. gnātu-s (Cintugnātus 'first-born', Keltoroman. p. 2).

In final syllables ō passed into ū, and became shortened. 1. sg. pres. no guidiu 'I beg' biu 'I am': cp. Gr. κλαίω etc. Nom. sg. of n-stems, air-mitiu 'reverentia' (acc. air-mitin n): Lat. mentio. Dat. (instr.) sg. of -io-stems, cēliu 'socio': Lat. modo (adv.). Voc. pl. a fīru 'o viri' fr. prim. Kelt. uirōs*: Goth. waitrōs, Osc. Nūvlanús 'Nolani'. In as-biur 'effero, dico' fr. biru* berō*, fiur 'viro' fr. viru* virō* this vowel is still reflected only in the labial timbre of the consonant which preceded the once present u = ō. Cp. on ō in unaccented syllables also §§ 613. 634. 657, 2. 6. 7.

nom. sg. πῶς 'foot'. Goth. sai-sō pf. 'sowed' : Gr. ἀραιῶν, ἀν--έονται, Heracl. ἀν-έωσθαι, pf. of ἀρίημι ἀρίημι fr. rt. sē 'throw, sow'. OHG. spuot OS. spōd 'success, speed' fr. spē : spō-, cp. the ablaut grade spō- in Goth. spō-diza 'later' Lith. spē-ti 'to be at leisure' (§ 76). O.Icel. ōss (masc.) 'estuary' : Lat. ōs ōris, ōstiu-m. Nom. pl. Goth. vulfōs 'lupi' : Osc. Nūvlanūs 'Nolani'.

Indg. ō and a fell together in ō in the prim. Germ. period, and were therefore similarly treated in all Germ. dialects.
Cp. § 107.

Goth. ō was a close sound approaching closely to a, hence it is occasionally also written u.

In OHG. ō is only retained in the oldest monuments. This became first of all oa, ua, and then later uo, which, from about the year 900, became the universally predominant form. This change of ō to oa etc. did not take place in unaccented final syllables.

Prim. Germ. final -ō became -a in Goth. and -u in HG. : Goth. batra OHG. biru = Gr. γέρω. Prim. Germ. -ōn became
-ō in Goth. and -o in OHG. : Goth. nom. raþjō 'number, account', OHG. hano 'cock'. See §§ 659—661.

§ 92. Baltic-Slavonic. Slav. ā, Lith. (Lett.) ā. Lith. dā-ti O.Bulg. da-ti 'to give' : Lat. dōs dōtis. Lith. jā's-ta O.Bulg. po-jas-nŭ 'girdle' : Gr. ζωσ-τό-ς ζώ-ντ. Lith. nā 'of, from', O.Bulg. na 'on, up' : Gr. āno. Nom. acc. du. masc. of
-o-stems : Lith. gerā'-ju 'the two good (men)' (Nom. sg. gerās-is),
O.Bulg. vŭka (nom. sg. vŭkŭ 'wolf') : Gr. λύκω. Lith. ā'dkŭ
'I smell, scent' : Gr. ōd- in pf. ōd-oda, δσ-ώδης. Lett. snāte
'son-in-law' : Gr. γυνερός 'relation, brother'.

In Lithuanian this vowel, when it had the broken ('gestossen') accent, became u in final syllables. gerū 'āyathō' beside gerā'-ju 'τὸ āyathō'. sukū 'I turn' beside the refl. sukā'-si sukā'-s cp. § 664, 3.

In both sections of this branch final -ōm*, -ōn* became -an*, whence Lith. -u, O.Bulg. -y. Lith. gen. pl. dēvū (which properly ought to be written dēvū), in dialects still dēvūso (fr. dēva-s 'god'), orig. form dējmōm*, Skr. Ved. dēvdm, cp. § 218.

O.Bulg. nom. sg. kamy 'stone' (st. kamen-) fr. *-mōn : cp. Gr. ἀν-μων 'anvil', OHG. hano (prim. Germ. hanōn*) 'cock', Goth. raþjō (prim. Germ. raþiōn*) 'number, account'. The participle bery 'ferens' can quite as well be considered equal to Gr. φέρον as to Skr. bhāran fr. bheront-s*. (§§ 84. 219).

Rem. Lith. sūl 'dog', akmė 'stone' have the same formation as Lat. homo, Goth. guma fr. prim. Germ. gumō*, Skr. dāmā, cp. also Pruss. smoy = Lith. imė 'man'. On the other hand the dial. form szys (beside sūl) is a formation in -ōn (cp. Armen. sun Gr. κύων).

Indg. tautosyllabic ay. Skr. ōjas- (neut.) ōjman- (masc.) 'power, strength', Lat. augeō augus-tu-s augmen augmentu-m, O.Ir. ōg 'integer', Goth. duka 'I add, augment', Lith. dugu 'I grow' augmā (gen. augmeñs) 'growth, excrescence', rt. aug-. Gr. παύσω 'I shall check', Lat. pau-cu-s, cp. Goth. pl. fav-di 'few'.

§ 94. Aryan. Skr. āpa Av. apa O.Pers. apa- 'away, off': Gr. ἄνω. Skr. āśman- Av. O.Pers. asman- 'stone, thunder-bolt, sky': Gr. ἄκμων 'anvil, thunder-bolt'. Skr. āvati 'notices, favours', Av. avañ- (neut.) 'protection': Lat. aveō. Skr. yajñā- Av. yasna- (masc.) 'veneration of the gods, offering': Gr. ἀγρό-ς, rt. jağ-.

Indg. and prim. Ar. tautosyllabic a, ay became ē, ō in Skr., aē ōi, ao ēu in Av. and ai, au in O.Pers. (cp. §§ 126. 160):

1. aj. Skr. ēdha-s 'fire-wood', Av. aśma- (masc.) (Av. -sm- fr. -ām- is remarkable, cp. however § 403): Gr. αἶθεω. Skr. sētu-ś 'string, bridge', Av. haštu-ś 'bridge, way': Lat. saeta, rt. saj- 'bind'.

Avestic had ē for aē, when final. Dat. sg. Skr. gāt-ē Av. gav-ōi gav-ē 'bovi': Gr. ἰδμεν-αι. 3. sg. mid. Skr. bhārat-ē: Gr. φείραται; Av. vagnaitē O.Pers. vainataiy 'seems'. Nom. Acc. du. of a-stems, Skr. ubhē Av. uoē 'both': O.Bulg. ženē (žena 'wife').

2. ay. Skr. ōjas- Av. aojah- (neut.) 'strength, power' Lat. augus-tu-s, rt. aug-. —

Aryan a corresponds, in addition to Indg. a, also to Indg. ɛ (§ 62) and o (§ 78), further to Indg. sonant nasal (§§ 228—231) and occasionally to Indg. ə (§ 109a). To these was added further in prim. Iran. a new a in the combination ar = Skr. ur ir, Indg. yr (§ 290). Here may be discussed a few changes which prim. Iran. a, irrespective of its origin, underwent in Av.

1. a became e before m, n or v, and the e-quality seems to have been most clearly marked in final syllables, since it is here written most consistently. nemañ- (neut.) 'reverence': Skr. prim. Ar. nāmas-, Indg. nemes-*, rt. nem-. te-m acc. 'tho': Skr. prim. Ar. tā-m, Indg. tō-m*, Gr. τό-ν. bare-m 'I brought': O.Pers. (a-) bara-m Skr. (ā-) bhāra-m, Indg. (ē-)bhero-m*, Gr. (ē-) γεγο-ν. aśema- 'decimus': Skr. daśamā- Indg. dekymō-* (§ 231). 3. pl. pres. bare-nti, impf. bare-n: Skr. bhāra-nti, (ā-)bhara-n, Indg. *bhéro-nti, *(é-)bhero-nt, Gr. Dor. qépo-vn, (ē-)qepo-v. tevīšt- (fem.) 'strength': Skr. távišt-, rt. tey-. e-vista- 'unknown': Skr. á-vitta-; a- = Indg. ϕ- (§ 232), cp. also Gr. ā-toro-ς.

e, which arose from a before m, n or v, passed into i after y, c, j, z, but the orthography is also here inconsequent. yi-m 'quem': Skr. yá-m, Gr. ō-v. yimá-, name of a hero: Skr. yamá-. haci-mna- part. of haca-itē 'accompanies', cp. Skr. sáca-mána-. vāc-im acc. of vāxš 'word': Skr. vāc-am; -am = Indg. -ṃ(m) (§ 231 rem.). jimaḥ 3. sg. conj. aor. fr. rt. gēm- 'go', cp. Skr. gámat for regular jámat* (§ 451 rem.). snaçšint- 'snowing' to snaçšaiti 'snows'.

Rem. The Gāpā dialect had also ē for e and i before m n v, especially in final syllables. ēmarant- 'vigorous': late Av. amarant- Skr. āmarant-. Acc. kehrp-ēm: late Av. kehrp-em 'figure, body', Skr. kṛp-am. yēm beside yim: Skr. yá-m. xšqumən-ē dat. fr. xšqan-man- 'grief, affliction', cp. Skr. vārtman-ē. ē-visti- 'want of acquaintance' beside late Av. e-vista- (see above).

2. a became e after y before i, ī, ē, y, ñh (fr. Ar. sī, § 125), c or j in the following syllable. The orthography is also here inconsistent, since a appears also beside e. 3. sg. act. kārayēiti, 3. pl. act. kārayēinti, 3. sg. mid. kārayētē of kārayēmi, Causat. fr. kar- 'make'. yēsnya- 'adorable' beside yasna- 'offering, price': Skr. yajñā- Gr. áyvó-ς. Gāp. gen. masc. yēhyā 'cuius' = Skr. yásya, late Av. yēñhā (fem.) 'cuius': Skr. yásyas. iḫyējah- 'need, danger': Skr. tyájas-. Cp. ē fr. a § 102.

3. a became o before u, ū or v in the following syllable, especially after labial sounds, and before r + consonant. The spelling with o is also in this case not consistent; since beside it a also occurs. pouru-š (fr. poru-š*, § 638) 'multus' beside nom. pl. parav-ō: Skr. purú-š, puráv-as (§ 290). vohu 'bonum': Skr. vāsu. mošu 'soon, quick': Skr. makṣú. Gāp. ver'zyotū 3. sg. imper. of ver'zyēmi 'I work'. aš-bourva- 'having much food': cp. Skr. Ved. sá-bharva- 'much consuming'. cor'p 3. sg. aor. 'made': cp. Skr. ákar fr. a-kart*, prim. Ar. a-cart*. Cp. ō fr. a § 102.

In Boeotian ai became ae (e. g. Ἀεσχροῦνδες, Αυσυρίας, inscript. of Tanagra), for which η (e. g. ἡί = aiFai) appears from about 400 B. C. and on the latest inscriptions ei i. e. close ē (e. g.
Εἴμων). The same ei = ai in Thessalian about 220 B. C., e. g.
 3. sg. conj. mid. βέλλει-ται = Dor. βέλη-ται 'velit'. Later, but probably not before the second century A. D., ai passed into ē

In Ionic-Attic a fr. ai(F) before e-, i- and a- sounds. δαίρ fr. daFηρ*: Skr. dēvár-. αἰ (αἰεὶ) = aiFai. Hom. άίσω Att.
ἄισω fr. Fai-Fik-ω* (a reduplicated form like δαι-δάλλω, παι-γάσσω). ἰλῆα = ilai(F)a (cp. the Lat. borrowed word olīva).
 Cp. § 131.

ae for ay can be established for Ionic from the fifth century B. C. onwards, e. g. αἰρόν = αὐρόν. Cp. ae fr. ey § 64.

§ 97. Italic. Lat. agō, Umbr. aitu Osc. actud 'agito': Gr. ἄγω. Lat. amb-itu-s, Umbr. ambr-etuto 'circumeunto' (concerning -b- cp. § 209), Osc. amfr-et 'ambiunt': Gr. ἀμφὶ ἀγωγέ, 'circum'. Lat. albu-s, Umbr. alfu 'alba', Osc. Alafaternum 'Alfaternorum': Gr. ἀλφός 'white leprosy', cpf. albho*-. Lat. caper capra, Umbr. cabriner gen. 'caprin': Gr. κίπρος 'wild-boar', O.Icel. hafr 'buck'. Lat. ante, Osc. ant 'ante': Gr. ἀντί 'opposite', Skr. anti 'opposite, before'. Lat. am-āru-s 'bitter': Skr. am-lā-s am-blā-s (§ 199) 'sour, sourness'.

In Latin, a (we here also take into account a = Indg. ɜ, § 109 d, and ar, al which arose from ɜ, l, § 306) was changed in syllables which were unaccented, in prim. Latin (§ 480):

1. to a sound lying between u and i before labials and l in open syllables. man-cupium and man-cipium beside capitō capulu-m. in-suliō and in-siliō beside saliō: Gr. ἄλλομαι 'I spring, leap'. Cp. § 49 p. 42. The orthography fluctuated greatly, and it is questionable whether this fluctuation is not partly to be attributed to the fact that the sound was a different one, when followed by i, cp. e. g. ac-cipiō beside oc-cupō. sur-ruptus for sur-reptus fr. rapiō was certainly formed by analogy (see 3).

2. to u before l + consonant (except ll). ex-sultō beside saltō, in-culcāre beside calcāre.

3. to e in closed syllables (exceptions under 2), before r and finally. ac-ceptus parti-ceps beside capitō man-cupium, cōnfectus arti-fex beside faciō cōnficiō. ac-centus corni-cen beside canō ac-cinō corni-cin-is. obstetrīx beside stator cōn-stituō. impertiō beside partiō. Instr. sg. of consonantal stems, as ped-e, aer-e, cp. Gr. πῆδ-ά, ἄμ-α (cp. § 93 p. 87); perhaps also inde = Gr. ἐνθα. red-dere beside dare.

4. to i in open syllables (exceptions under 1. 3. 5.) and before ng. ad-igō beside agō. concinō beside canō. Juppiter beside pater. cōn-stituō beside statuō. sisti-te = Gr. ἵστα-τε. in-situs beside satus. serite fr. si-sa-te* (§ 33) = Gr. ἵαρε*, the older form of ἵερε (§ 109 c). red-ditus beside datus. at-tingō beside tangō.

5. -ay- became -u-: ē-luō ē-luācru-s beside lavācru-m and (O.Lat.) lavere, s. § 172, 1. -ua- probably also became -u-: con-cutiō con-cussus beside *quatiō quassus*¹⁾.

Before the christian era tautosyllabic ai became ē in Latin (having passed through the intermediate stage ae). This change occurs earliest in the popular language. The various stages of the change cannot be precisely fixed chronologically, since the orthography inconsistently retained ai and ae long after the monophthongic pronunciation was established; ai is still found on inscriptions under the Empire. aidili-s aedēs: Gr. αἰθω (cp. § 93). caecus Caicilius Caecilius Cēcilius: O.Ir. caech 'blind', Goth. hāihs 'blind'. haedus ēdus: Goth. gāits 'goat'. lēvir (popularly connected with vir, s. § 65): Gr. δαίρ (§ 96), Skr. dēvár-, Indg. dajjér-* 'husband's brother'.

ai became ē in prim. Lat. secondary accented syllables. in-quīro beside quaerō quaiſtor quaeſtor. ex-īstumō beside aestumō. Cp. also mēnsis fr. mensais* (Osc. diumpais 'lumpis, nymphis'), the -ais of which arose from -ais (§ 612). Concerning ex-quaerō and the like cp. § 65 rem. 3.

Tautosyllabic ay. aurōr-a fr. anz-ōz-a* (§ 569): Gr. ἄγχαυρο-ς 'near the morning' ἄγρον 'morning' from stem aṓro-*, O.Icel. austr OHG. OS. ōstar adv. 'eastwards', Lith. ausz-rà 'day-break'. auri-s: Goth. áusō (Gen. áusins) Lith. ausi-s 'ear'. This ay became ae (cp. ae fr. ai) in the popular language and later ā or the pure monophthong ā, as the orthography o shows, e. g. oricula = auricula. Unaccented ay before u appears, in the time of the Emperors, as a, e. g. Agustus, asculto, augurium.

To the proportion in-quīrō : quaerō correspond in-clūdō : claudō and dē-frūdō : fraudō. Concerning con-clausu-s and like forms cp. § 65 rem. 3.

Tautosyllabic ai and ay remained diphthongic in Oscan, whilst in Umbrian they became respectively ē and ō.

1) Cp. Thurneysen Über Herkunft und Bildung der lat. Verba auf -io p. 51. Otherwise Osthoff Zur Gesch. des Perf. 585 and Bersu Die Gutturale und ihre Verbindung mit v im Lat. 132.

Osc. svai svae Umbr. sve 'si' (Volsc. sepi 'siquis'), probably = Gr. ai. Osc. Afifineis (or Afifneis) gen. 'Aedini', to Lat. aedēs (Osc. aīdil 'aedilis' was a borrowed word, as is shown by the ā).

Osc. avti, Umbr. ote: Lat. aut, Gr. av, avre. Umbr. ohi. (abbreviation) uhtretie 'auctoritate': Lat. auctor. Cp. also Osc. taupo 'taurum', Umbr. toru 'tauros': Lat. taurus.

§ 98. Old Irish. anim 'soul' anal 'breath': Gr. ārs-mo-ç 'wind', Lat. ani-mu-s ani-ma, Skr. āni-ti 'breathes', Goth. us-anan 'to exhale'. canim 'I sing': Lat. canō, Goth. hana 'cock'. aile 'alius': Gr. āλλo-ç, Lat. aliu-s. alim 'I nourish, bring up': Lat. alō, Goth. ala 'I grow up'. Cp. also Cymr. am = Gr. ἀμψ; Gall. ad-in Ad-magetobriga and others, O.Ir. ad-in ad-gladur 'I address' and other words = Lat. ad.

In forms like aile 'alius', gen. maicc fr. mak̑i* (Ogam inscrip. still maquā) 'filii' (nom. macc fr. prim. Kelt. mak̑o-s*), the i following a denotes the palatal timbre of the following consonant. In like manner u denotes the u-timbre of the same consonant, e. g. in 1. sg. ad-gaur 'I forbid' for garu* garō* (cp. gair 'call' and Gr. Dor. γᾱρν-ç 'speech') and others. S. § 640. Original a, so far as it did not entirely disappear (§ 634), appears mostly as a in unaccented syllables, e. g. cūm-ang 'angustus' (Lat. angustu-s Gr. ἄγχω)¹, beside the u and i, caused by the timbre of the following vowel, e. g. for-cón-gur 'praecipio' beside ad-gúr.

Indg. tautosyllabic aī became aē. caech 'blind': Lat. caecu-s. aed 'fire': Gr. αἶθεω. Before palatalised consonants ai, e. g. caich nom. pl. 'caeci' fr. caicē*.

aī became ī in final syllables. dī (fem.) 'two': Skr. dvē, Indg. dyāī*; the change to ī may here have taken place, when the word did not have the chief accent. ī in orig. polysyllabic forms is still only recognisable in the palatalisation, as du. tuaith (sg. tuath 'people' = Goth. þiuda) fr. tōi*, older teytai* (§ 657, 4).

Indg. tautosyllabic ay appears, when accented, as au, ō: ō

1) Concerning the root of this adj. cp. Zimmer Kelt. Stud. II 79.

'ear' dat. pl. auib, au-nasc 'ear-ring': Lat. auri-s. ōg 'integer': Lat. augeō.

§ 99. Germanic. Goth. ahva OHG.OS. aha 'water, river': Lat. agua. Goth. skaban OHG. scaban Ags. scafan O.Icel. skafa 'to scrape': Gr. σκαπάνη 'spade' σκάπτω 'I dig', O.Lat. scaprēs 'shabby, rough' Lat. scabō 'I scrape, scratch', rt. sqap- sqab- (§ 469, 7). Goth. haban OHG. habēn Ags. habban O.Icel. hafa 'to have': Lat. habeō, cpf. of the stem khabhē-* (§ 553). Goth. O.Icel. OS. salt OHG. salz 'salt': Armen. al Gr. ἄλς Lat. pl. salēs O.Ir. sulann O.Bulg. solŭ 'salt'.

Rem. Concerning the falling together of Indg. a and o in Germ. see § 83 rem. 1. Indg. a appears as o in other than chief accented syllables, e. g. in ob, of, the Westgerm. proclitic forms of the prep. ob of 'of' (Gr. ἀπό, Lat. ob), e. g. OHG. ob-lāzan 'dimittere'. Cp. Paul in Paul and Braune's Beitr. VI pp. 186, 191.

Indg. tautosyllabic ai. Goth. skáidan OHG. scēidan OS. scēthan Ags. scādan 'separate': Lat. caedō 'I hew, cut out', rt. sqhajt- sqhajd- (§§ 469, 7. 553). OHG. eid Ags. ād 'rogus, ignis': Gr. αἶθερ.

Indg. tautosyllabic ay. Goth. áuk 'for, but', OHG. auh OS. ōk Ags. ēac 'also', O.Icel. auk 'thereto', to Goth. áukan 'to increase': Lat. augeō.

The special OHG. treatment of a, ai, ay has been stated in § 83. According to the sound-laws given there, are to be explained e. g. the following forms: eli-lenti fr. older ali-lanti 'from another land, strange': Goth. alji-s, Lat. alius. erran fr. erjan*: Goth. arjan 'to plough', Lat. arō. ēwīn: Goth. áiveins 'eternal', Gr. αἰών, Lat. aevo-m. auh, later ouh: Goth. áuk (see above). ōra: Goth. áusō 'ear', Lat. auri-s, Lith. ausl-s.

§ 100. Baltic-Slavonic. Indg. a became o in the Baltic-Slav. unitary period, and fell entirely together with Indg. o (§ 84).

Lith. nas-raĩ pl. 'throat', O.Bulg. nos-ŭ 'nose': Skr. nás- OHG. nas-a 'nose'; that the rt. is Indg. nas-, not nos-, follows from Lat. nār-es, Lith. nós-i-s (fem.) 'nose' which stand in ablaut relation to the above words. Lith. ariù O.Bulg. orjā 'I plough': Armen. araur 'plough', Gr. ἀρόω Lat. arō 'I plough', O.Ir. - arathar 'plough', Goth. arja 'I plough'. Lith. ākla-s 'blind': Lat. aquilu-s 'dark'. Lith. algà 'pay, reward': Skr. arghā- m. n. 'worth, value, gift of honour', Gr. ἀλγή ἀλγῆμα 'wage', fr. rt. algh-. O.Bulg. otī-cl 'father': Skr. atti-atta- 'elder sister', the latter also 'mother', Gr. arra 'father', O.Ir. aite 'foster-father, trainer'. O.Bulg. instr. sg. ženaja voc. sg. ženo of žena 'wife': Skr. instr. sg. jihvāja (nom. jihvā 'tongue'), Gr. voc. sg. ρύμυᾶ (nom. Dor. ρύμυᾶ).

With regard to the following sound-developments compare the laws given in § 84.

Slav. a before explosives and spirants. O.Bulg. qzū-kū 'narrow', q-chati 'odorari' (s. § 219).

Slav. je fr. jō. Voc. sg. zmije, duše, to nom. sg. zmija 'serpent', duša (fr. dūchjā*, §§ 147 rem. 3, 588, 3) 'soul', cp. ženo from žena. Instr. sg. jejā, nom. sg. ja 'she', cp. tojā from ta 'the'.

Indg. tautosyllabic ai as ē and ai in Lith. and as ē in Slav. Lith. dēver-i-s O.Bulg. dēver-i 'brother-in-law': Gr. δαήρ fr. daufḥr* (§ 96). Nom. du. fem. Lith. tē-dvi (-dvi = dvi 'two') O.Bulg. tē from st. ta-* 'the': Skr. tē, perhaps also Gr. rai Lat. istas (see Brugmann, Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII p. 199 ff.), Indg. tāj*. Lith. pā-saiti-s m. 'a binding thong', sēla-s 'cord' (cp. also at-saj-ā 'trace of a horse'), O.Bulg. sēlī-f 'cord' fr. rt. saj- 'bind'. Lith. skėdā and skėdrā 'chip' skaištū-s and skaišta-s 'clear': Lat. caedō part. caesus, caesius 'clear-eyed', Goth. skāidan 'separate'. O.Bulg. lēvū 'left': Lat. laevo-s.

Before this ē in Slav. k becomes c, e. g. raqč nom. du. of raqa 'hand'.

Rem. Concerning the change between ē and ai in Lith. see § 84 rem. 2, concerning final Slav. ē see § 84 rem. 3.

Slav. ji fr. jei*, joi*. Nom. du. fem. zmiiji of zmija 'serpent', duši of duša 'soul', cp. raqč. Likewise ji 'they, they two' = Skr. yē, Indg. idī*.

Indg. tautosyllabic au, as au in Lith. and u in Slav. Lith. saūsa-s O.Bulg. suchū 'dry': Skr. śōṣa-s (fr. śōṣa-s*, § 557, 4) 'a drying up', Gr. aīw 'I dry, make dry' fr. saussa-* (§ 564), Ags. seār 'withered, dry' OHG. sōrēn 'to parch' O.Icel. saurr 'mud', fr. rt. says-. Lith. augmū (gen. augmėnš) 'growth, ex-erescence': Lat. augmen-tu-m. O.Bulg. u- 'off, away' (u-myti 'to wash off', u-dati 'to give away', ἰδοῦναι θυγατέρα), Pruss. au- 'off, away' (au-mu-sna-n acc. 'ablution'): Lat. au-, au-ferre.

Indg. α.

§ 101. Indg. bhaghnu-s* 'elbow': Skr. bāhū-ś 'arm', Gr. Dor. πᾶχυ-ς 'fore-arm, elbow', OHG. buog O.Icel. bǫgr 'elbow' Indg. mā-ter-* 'mother': Skr. mātār-, Arm. mair, Gr. Indg. fem. suffixes -ā-, -tā-, -jā- etc.: Skr. dśvā 'mare', sā 'the', Gr. χώρα 'land', Dor. ā 'the', Lat. dat. abl. pl. dextra-bus, O.Ir. dat. instr. pl. mnaib fr. st. mna- fr. bnā-* (nom. sg. ben 'woman', s. § 520) = Skr. gnā- 'woman', Goth. dat. pl. gibō-m fr. st. gibō-, nom. sg. giba 'gift', sū 'the' f., Lith. instr. pl. ranko-mis fr. st. ranko-, nom. sg. rankà 'hand', O.Bulg. instr. pl. raķa-mi fr. stem raķa-, nom. sg. raķa 'hand'. Indg. conjunctive suffixes -ā-, -jā-, etc., stem bherā-* from bher- 'bear': Skr. 2. pl. bhāra-tha, Lat. ferā-tis, O.Ir. 1. pl. do-bera-m, O.Bulg. 1. sg. berā fr. bherā-m* (cp. Brugmann Morph. Unt. I p. 145, III p. 30 f., Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII p. 419)¹). Indg. pres. suffix form -nā-: Skr. mi-nā-mi fr. rt. mej- 'lessen', Gr. Hom. δάμ-νῆ-μι. -tām Indg. personal ending of the 3. du. act.: Skr. ābhara-tām, Gr. Dor. ἐπερέ-ρᾶν, Indg. ēbhere-tām* fr. rt. bher- 'bear'.

The tautosyllabic diphthongs aj and ay were not, as it seems, frequent in prim. Indg. -aj ending of the dat. sg. of ā-stems: Skr. su(v)-apatyāi (su(v)-apatyā- 'having a beautiful posterity'), Gr. χώρα, O.Lat. Matuta 'Matutae', Goth. gibai 'to a gift'. Skr. nāuś 'ship', Gr. ναῦς fr. naus* (§ 611).

§ 102. Aryan. Skr. sthāna- n., Av. O.Pers. stāna- n. 'standing, standing-place, place of abode': Gr. δύστηνο-ς fr. δυσ-στανό-ς* 'in evil plight', Lith. stóna-s 'position', O.Bulg. stanū 'position, bed'. Skr. acc. nāv-am 'navem', (ved.) nāv-īyā f. 'a navigable river', Av. nāv-ya- 'flowing': acc. Gr. Hom. νῆ(ς)-α, Lat. nāv-em.

1) Gr. πῶμεν, πῶστε for πεόμεν*, πεόστε with vowel quality after the analogy of the indic. and conj. forms with o, e as Hom. conj. τομεν, ἀλλήλαρτε, Att. indic. πρόομεν, πρόοστε.

Skr. sēnā-m O.Pers. hainā-m acc. sg., Av. haēnā-hu loc. pl. fr. st. sēnā- hainā- haēnā- (prim. Ar. sajnā-*) 'army'. Conj. Skr. vāhā-si Av. vazā-hi 'vehas', O.Pers. parsā-hy = Skr. prchā-si 'poscas'. —

Aryan a corresponds not only to Indg. a but also to Indg. ē (§ 70), ō (§ 86), and to long sonant nasal (§ 253). Here may be discussed certain changes which prim. Iran. a, irrespective of its origin, underwent in Avestic.

1. After y, a became ē before i, ī, ē, y, c or j in the following syllable. kārayēmi : Skr. kārayāmi causat. fr. kar- 'make', cp. Lat. moneō. ver'zyēiti 3. sg. act., ver'zyēitē 3. sg. mid. conj. of ver'zyēmi 'I work, do' : cp. Lat. capiat, capiatur. Cp. ē fr. a § 94.

2. a became ō before u, ū or v in the following syllable, but the orthography is mostly inexact, since a also occurs. vī-dōtu-s 'demon of the dead' beside abl. vī-dataoþ. Cp. o fr. a § 94.

3. a became ā before nh (fr. s, § 558) and before nasal + explosive sounds. nāhā- 'nose' : O.Pers. nāha-m acc., Skr. nāsā-, cp. Lat. nār-ēs. yāhqm gen. pl. from ya- 'quae' (Gr. ῆ) : Skr. yāsām. māhā- 'moon' : Skr. māsa-. uśāh-em acc. 'dawn' : Skr. uśās-am, cp. Lat. aurōr-a. vānti 'they blow' : Skr. vānti, Gr. ἄνωι fr. āf-η-vu* (§ 611). barānti 3. pl. conj. of barāmi 'I bring' : Lat. ferant.

§ 103. Armenian. elbair, gen. elbaur, 'brother' (§ 263) : Skr. bhrātar-, Gr. φράτωρ (member of a φάτριά), Lat. frāter, O.Ir. brathir, Goth. brōþar, Lith. broter-ėlis ('little brother'), O.Bulg. bratr-ū, Indg. bhrātor-* 'brother'. nav, gen. navu, 'ship' : Skr. acc. sg. nāv-am; the Arm. word is, however, not free from the suspicion of having been borrowed from Persian.

§ 104. Greek. Dor. ἀδύς : Skr. svādū-s, Lat. suāvis (svāvis) fr. syād-yi-s* (§ 170), OS. swōti OHG. swuazi swozi (prim. Germ. syūt-ja-), Indg. syād-u- 'sweet, lovely'. δύ-δν(ς) 'it burns' δύων (δάφιν) πῦρ : Skr. dāvā-s 'fire-brand'. Dor. φᾶ-μι 'I say', fut. φᾶ-σω, φᾶ-μᾶ 'voice, saying' : Lat. fā-rī, fā-ma, fā-bula, O.Bulg. ba-jati 'fabulari'. Nominal suffix -tār-, Dor. ρεό-

-rās -rār-oc 'youth': Skr. dēvā-tāt- (gen. dēvā-tāt-as) 'deity, worship', Lat. novi-tās, gen. novi-tāt-is, 'novelty'.

In Ionic-Attic ā became η: ἡδύς, φῆμι, νείτης. This was in certain Ionic dialects an open ē in comparison with the Indg. ē in θή-σω (§ 72). This passage to η is older than the first appearance of Att. Ion. τάς, πάντα fr. τάνς, πάντα (§§ 205. 618). Forms like εὔνᾳ ἐνδῆᾳ beside συνῆ fr. -ι(σ)-α etc. render it more probable that the ā in Att. ἰάσομαι, καρδίᾳ, γενεᾷ, σικνίᾳ, πρήρτω, χωρᾷ etc. (Ion. ἰήσομαι, καρδίῃ, γενεῇ, σικνίῃ, πρήρσσω, χωρῇ) goes back to an open ē than that it should be an unchanged Indg. and prim. Gr. ā.

§ 105. Italic. Lat. māter, gen. sg. Umbr. matrer Osc. maatreis: Gr. Dor. μάτηρ. 'testamento': Gr. πειρά- 'try' in πειρά-σμαι, πειρά-ρίον. Lat. fāgu-s 'beech': Gr. Dor. φᾶγός 'oak', OHG. buocha Ags. bōc 'beech', Goth. bōka 'letter'. Lat. conjunct. sistā-tur, sternā-tur, sistā-mus, sternā-mus: Gr. Arcad. ἵστα-ροι, Skr. 3. sg. sthā-ti (sthā- 'stand'), 1. pl. yu-nā-ma (yu- 'yoke, draw tight'), cp. §§ 111 rem. and 113.

In Umbrian open ō fr. ā in the nom. sg. of ā-stems and in the nom. acc. pl. neut. of o-stems, as the fluctuation between o (u) and ā shows. etantu mutu 'tanta multa' and panta muta 'quanta multa'. vesklu and veskla 'vascula'. triiu-per trio-per 'ter' and triiā 'tria'. The same o-sound in pihaz pihos 'piatus', Casiloc 'Casillas' (dat. Kasilate Casilate). In Oscan likewise ū, u, o, u for the final ā in the nom. sg. of ā-stems and in the nom. acc. pl. neut. of o-stems. Fem. viū xīu 'via'. moltz

'multa', rofro 'civitas'. Neut. teremenniú 'termina', comono 'comitia', petiro-pert petiru-pert 'quater'. Cp. § 655, 2.

§ 106. Old Irish. ag, gen. aga, 'combat': Skr. aji-ś 'race, pugilistic combat', Lat. amb-agēs 'circuit, way'. -tau 'am': Lit. pa-stóju 'I become something', cpf. stā-jō* fr. rt. stā- 'stand'.

In the following examples the i after a indicates the i-timbre of the following consonant. faith 'poet' fr. uati-s*: Lat. uātēs, cpf. of the stem uati-*. taid 'thief': O.Bulg. tati, cpf. of the stem tati-*, Skr. tayú-ś 'thief', Gr. Dor. rāráouai 'am bereft, in want'. gair 'call, cry': Gr. Dor. yāq-v-ς 'voice, speech'. Cp. § 640.

In unaccented syllables mostly a for ā. túatha nom. pl. of fem. tuath (fr. teyta*) 'folk' beside nna fr. st. nna- 'woman'. Adjectives in -ach fr. -aco-s* (cp. Gall. Benacu-s, Dumnacu-s and others), as cnoc-ach 'hilly' from cnoc 'hill'. Cp. §§ 613. 657. Concerning the dat. pl. túathail i. e. túath'ib s. § 640.

§ 107. Germanic. Goth. sōkjan OHG. sōhhan soahhan suahhan suohhan OS. sōkian 'to seek': Gr. Dor. áyéouai 'I lead or show the way', Lat. sāgu-s 'predicting' sāgīre 'I track, perceive'. Goth. stōls 'throne', OHG. stuol OS. Ags. stōl O.Icel. stóll 'stool': Lith. pa-stóla-s 'frame, scaffold'. Goth. brōþar OHG. bruoder O.Icel. bróðer bröðir 'brother': Lat. frāter. Verbal stems in -ō, e. g. salbō- 'anoint' part. pass. Goth. salbōþs OHG. -salbōt 'anointed': Gr. neupā-neupāxíor, Lat. testa-testatū-s.

Indg. a and ō fell together in ō already in prim. Germ., s. § 91. What was there said concerning the treatment of ō = Indg. ō in Goth. and OHG., also holds good for ō = Indg. a. For the shortening of final ō in polysyllabic words cp. e. g. Goth. nom. sg. þiuda fr. prim. Germ. þeudō*, orig. tēyta*.

§ 108. Baltic-Slavonic. Lith. ō, Lett. Pruss. a, O.Bulg. a (prim. Slav. a, s. § 615).

Lith. broter-ėli-s 'little brother' bróli-s 'brother', Lett. brīti-s 'brother', Pruss. voc. brāti, O.Bulg. bratr-ā 'brother': Lat. frāter. Lith. motė 'wife', Lett. māte 'mother', Pruss. po-matru

'step-mother', O.Bulg. mati 'mother' : Lat. māter. Inf. Lith. stó-ti Lett. stá-t Pruss. stā-t O.Bulg. sta-ti fr. rt. stā- 'stand'. Dat. pl. of a-stems: Lith. *žėmó-m*s Lett. šimá-m O.Bulg. zima-mā, nom. sing. žėmà šima zima 'winter'. Lith. nósi-s f. 'nose' : Lat. pl. nārēs, Skr. Ved. du. nās-a. O.Bulg. tajǎ adv. 'secretly' : Av. taya- 'theft' Skr. tāyá-ś 'thief'.

a is to be inferred for the Baltic unitary period. This a remained in Lett. and Pruss., whilst it became ō in Lithuanian. Lith. ō is still pronounced very open in the Memel dialect, whereas elsewhere, probably in most places where Lithuanian is spoken, it has a close articulation. The universal Lith. shortening of the broken accented vowel e. g. in the nom. sg. žėmà (orig. f. ghej-mā*) arose at a time when a, or at all events an ō differing very little from pure a, was still spoken (§ 664, 3). This short a just as a = Indg. o (§ 84) is pronounced as open e in many dialects after j and palatalised consonants, e. g. gijė = gijā f. 'thread', gīre = glīa 'forest'.

a arose in Slav. in those cases where ā with the following nasal became a nasal-vowel. Acc. sg. ženā 'wife', orig. f. genā-m*. 1. sg. cezā 'veho' = Lat. veham, cpf. ueghā-m*. Cp. § 219.

Indg. ə.

§ 108. This vowel, whose quality cannot be more precisely determined — it may be pronounced as a sound lying between a and e — appears in many root syllables as the sonant of the secondary accented weak grade (§§ 315—317). We denote it by ə following the general practice of writing ə for the 'indistinct vowel-sound'.

In Armenian and European it fell together with Indg. ε (§§ 93—100) (for the representation of it in Greek s. below), but was still separated from this in Aryan: Indg. a = Ar. a, but Indg. ə = Ar. i, only before i-vowels = a (cp. Hübschmann Das idg. Vocaleystem p. 1 ff.).

Indg. pə-tér-* 'father' : Skr. pitár-, Arm. hair gen. haur, Gr. πατήρ, Lat. pater, O.Ir. athir, Goth. fadar. Indg. stə-, weak form of the rt. stā- (Gr. στα-, Lat. stā-): Skr. sthi-tā-s 'standing' sthī-ti-ṣ 'standing, stability', Gr. στα-ρό-ς στα-σι-ς, Lat. sta-tu-s sta-tiō, Goth. sta-þs (st. stadi-) 'place', Lith. sta-taũ 'I place', O.Bulg. sto-jā 'I stand'. Indg. dā- weak form of the rt. dō- (Gr. δω-, Lat. dō-): Skr. 3. sg. aor. mid. á-di-ta (act. á-da-t), Arm. ta-mē 'damus', Gr. δά-ρο, n. 'gift, loan', ἔ-δο-ρο δό-ρό-ς δό-σι-ς, Lat. da-mus da-tus da-tor, Lith. part. pf. act. dā-ves.

a. Aryan. Skr. pi-tā Av. pi-ta O.Pers. pi-tā 'father': Gr. πα-τήρ. Skr. mi-tā Av. mi-ta 'measured', Skr. Av. mi-ti-f 'measure', Indg. mō-tō-, mō-tī-, Gr. μέ-τρο-ν, fr. rt. mē- (Lat. mē-tior, Skr. mā-trā 'scale'). Skr. sā-di-ta-s 'fettered' á-di-ti-ṣ 'unbound, boundless': Gr. σύν-δε-ρο-ς δέ-σι-ς, fr. rt. dē- (Gr. δέ-δῃ 'he bound' ἐνό-δῃ-μα 'sandal', Skr. dā-man- 'string').

On the other hand o became a before i-vowels. The optative, formed fr. the rts. stā-, dhē-, dō-, was in Indg. 1. sg. act. sto-jē-m*, 2. pl. sto-i-té* (fr. sto-i-te* like bhéroite* = είποις fr. bhéro-i-te*), 3. pl. sto-i-yt*, analogously dho-jē-m* etc.; thence prim. Ar. stajām* stajta* stajant*, dhajām* etc. The ē in the Skr. forms act. 1. pl. sthēma* 2. pl. sthēta*, 3. sg. mid. sthēta* (= Gr. σταίμεν, σταίρε, σταίρο*) was transferred to the forms with -ay- (cp. Skr. 3. pl. bhārēy-ur with Av. baray-en with ē instead of ā after bhārēma etc.), hence Skr. sthēyām dhēyām dēyām, sthēyur etc.; sthēyama is formed after the analogy of sthēyām, like s-yā-ma for s-i-ma* (Lat. stimus). Cp. § 116. Further Skr. -aij- and -ē- = -o- in dhāyāmi 'I suck': Goth. daddja 'I suckle' (§ 142) O.Bulg. dojā 'I suckle'; and in dhē-nā-ṣ 'milking', fr. rt. dhē(i)- (cp. Hübschmann as above p. 21 ff. 79).

b. Armenian. ta-m 'do' ta-mē 'damus' fr. rt. form dō- 'give'. dail (dal) 'beastings' dayeak (gen. dayeki) 'wet-nurse' fr. dhēi-, weak grade to rt. dhē(i)- 'suck' (cp. a.). ba-n 'λόγο-ς' (rt. bha-) either from bho- (Gr. γα-μῖν) or bha- (Gr. φῆ-μι, Lat. fā-ma), see § 316.

c. Græek. ἄ-δην 'abundantly, enough': Lat. sa-fur sa-tis, O.Ir. sa-thech 'satiated', Goth. sa-þs 'satiated', Skr. a-si-nv-ā-

'insatiable', fr. rt. sā- (O.Ir. sāith 'satiety', Goth. sō-þs 'satisfying', Lith. só-ti-s f. 'satisfying, satiety'). παλαί-φα-το-ς φά-τι-ς φα-μίν fr. rt. dhā- 'speak'. λαθεῖν beside λήθειν 'to escape', rt. laθ-. τακερός 'easy to melt' τακῆναι beside τήκειν, rt. tāk-.

The weak grade forms of a-roots regularly retained a. In like manner also the forms which became isolated through their development of meaning: δά-ρος fr. rt. dō- and λαγ-αρό-ς 'slack, thin' λαγ-όνες 'the flanks, loins': Lat. laxu-s, OHG. slach OS. slac 'slack' O.Icel. slakr 'slack, idle' fr. rt. slæg- (Gr. λήγω 'I leave off' ἄ-λληκτο-ς 'incessant'); also δάκτυλο-ς 'finger', in case it is connected with O.Icel. taka 'to take' beside Goth. tēkan (pf. taitōk) 'to touch'. In other cases a, in forms from ō- and ō--roots, took the timbre ε and ο after the analogy of forms with η and ω: θε-ρό-ς fr. thē- 'set', ἔ-ρό-ς = Lat. sa-tu-s fr. th- 'throw', σύν-δε-το-ς cp. Skr. sá-di-ta-s fr. dh- 'bind', μέ-τρο-ν fr. μη- 'measure' (Lat. mē-tior), δο-ρό-ς = Lat. da-tu-s fr. dō- 'give' πο-τό-ν 'beverage' fr. pow- and others. Cp. ορ, ολ for regular αρ, αλ = Indg. γr, ll after the analogy of ορ ρω, ολ λω = Indg. l in ἔ-πορ-ο-ν etc. § 306.

Rem. Fick's hypothesis (Bezenberger's Beitr. IX 313 ff.) that the vowel triad a, e, o in στου-τό-ς, θε-τό-ς, δο-τό-ς is a continuation of three different prim. Indg. vowels, is not at all convincing.

d. Italic. Lat. pa-ter, Umbr. Iu-pa-ter 'Juppiter' Iuve pa-tre 'Jovī', Osc. pa-tír: Gr. πα-τήρ. Lat. sta-bulu-m, Umbr., sta-flarem 'stabularem', Osc. Anter-sta-tai dat. 'Inter-stitae', Volsc. sta-to-m 'statutum, consecratum', fr. rt. stā-. Lat. da-mus da-tu-s, Falisc. da-tu 'datum', Vest. da-ta abl. 'data', fr. rt. dō-.

Lat. sa-tu-s fr. rt. sē- 'sow' in sē-men. spa-tiu-m 'space' fr. rt. spē(ē)- 'extend' in spē-s, Lith. spē-ti 'to be at leisure, to be quick enough', O.Bulg. spē-ti 'to progress, have success'. lassu-s 'weary, tired': Goth. lats 'weary, idle', fr. rt. lēd- in Goth. lēta 'I let, leave'. Lat. ca-tu-s 'sharp' beside cōs cōtis 'whetstone'.

For the treatment of Lat. a in syllables which, according to prim. Lat. accentuation, were unaccented, e. g. Juppiter, s. § 97.

e. Old Irish. a-thir 'father': Gr. πα-τήρ. sa-thech 'satiated': Lat. sa-tur, Gr. ἄ-θην 'abundantly', Skr. a-si-nv-ā- 'insatiable'.

The form -airissid, 2. pl. of -airissim 'I stand, stand still' fr. rt. stā-, probably may not be traced back to (pari-)si-sta-te* and directly be placed equal to Gr. ἵ-στα-τε, as can be the case with Lat. sisti-te = ἵστα-τε (§ 97 p. 91), since the form -airessid* with the influence of the a on the preceding syllable would be expected; cp. also 1. sg. -airissiur, which points to sistijō*.

f. Germanic. Goth. fa-dar OHG. fa-ter O.Icel. fa-ðer fa-ðir 'father': Gr. πα-τήρ. Goth. sta-þs (st. stadi-) OHG. sta-t (gen. steti) OS. sta-d (gen. stedi) 'place': Gr. στά-δι-ς, Skr. sthi-ti-ṣ; OHG. stara-blind O.Icel. star-blindr 'blind with a cataract', Mod.HG. starr 'stiff': Skr. sthi-rá-s 'fast, immovable', rt. stā-. Goth. ra-þjō OHG. re-dia 'account': Lat. ra-tiō, rt. rē- (Lat. rē-ri). OHG. slaf Low Germ. slap 'slack' to Goth. slēpan 'to sleep'. Afs. snear 'snare, cord, string' O.Icel. snara 'cord', rt. snē- 'bind, spin'. OHG. blat OS. blad O.Icel. blað 'leaf', orig. part. 'blossomed', rt. bhlē- 'swell, bloom'.

For the treatment of a in OHG. (e. g. gen. steti to nom. staf) s. § 83.

g. Baltic-Slavonic. Lith. sta-taū 'I place', stā-klės pl. 'loom', O.Bulg. sto-jā 'I stand', fr. rt. stā-. Lith. part. pf. act. dā-vęs to inf. dū-ti 'to give', fr. rt. dō-. O.Bulg. spo-rū 'plentiful': Skr. sphī-rā- 'large, plentiful', to spējā 'I have success': Skr. sphāyāmi 'I thrive'. O.Bulg. dojā 'I suckle': Goth. daddja, Skr. dhāyāmi, fr. rt. dhē(i)- 'suck'.

§ 110. In prim. Indg. a was frequently spoken directly after the root syllable. Some regard this a as forming a fixed part of the root and speak of dissyllabic roots; whether rightly (cp. p. 17), or not is here a matter of indifference.

The forms, which the vowel in this case assumes in Lat. and O.Ir., are explained by the laws which hold good for unaccented syllables in these languages, cp. §§ 97. 98.

In Greek it appears as α, ε, ο. A still closer investigation is needed to determine on what the various timbre in this case depends. The explanations hitherto attempted are unsatisfactory.

Skr. bhar-i-tra-m 'arm, that with which one carries' (fr. bhar- 'carry, bear'), Gr. φέρ-ε-το-ν 'bier, litter', Lat. prae-fer-i-culu-m 'offering-cup' (as implement, to bear something before one self). Skr. ar-i-tra-s 'oar' (cp. ar-i-tár- 'rower', Gr. ἱρ-έ-της ἑρ-έ-το-υα), khan-i-tra-m 'shovel'. O.Ir. cenēl cenēl 'sex, race' = O.Cymr. cenetl fr. ken-e-tlo-n*; scēl 'story, tidings' = Cymr. chwedl fr. skū-e-tlo-n* (Cymr. chwedl fr. syetl*, cp. §§ 175. 573) fr. rt. seq- 'say', O.Ir. ē through compensation lengthening (§ 518); cp. Zimmer Kelt. Stud. II 7. 142 f., Thurneysen Rev. Celt. VI 324 f.

Gr. ἄν-ε-μο-ς 'wind', Lat. an-i-mu-s, cp. Skr. 3. sg. án-i-ti 'breathes, gapes'. Skr. ján-i-man- 'birth' var-i-mán- 'extent, distance'. Gr. τερ-ά-μων 'becoming soft by boiling' ἀ-τίρ-α-μν-ο-ς 'indigestible, hard', τελ-α-μών 'shoulder-belt'. Lat. reg-i-men, mon-u-mentu-m, col-u-men, col-u-mn-a. O.Ir. anim, dat. anmain, 'soul' (cp. Lat. anima), menme, dat. menmain 'sense' (prim. f. men-o-men-*).

Skr. kraviṣ- 'raw meat', Gr. κρέας, cpf. grewas-*; Skr. śócīṣ- 'flame', Gr. γῆρας 'old age'.

Skr. tan-i-ṣyāmi 1. sg. fut. act. fr. tan- 'stretch, extend', vēd-i-ṣyāmi fr. vid- 'know', vart-i-ṣyē 1. sg. fut. mid. fr. vart- 'turn'. āvēd-i-ṣam 1. sg. aor. fr. vid- (cp. also vēd-i-tum inf., vēd-i-tar- 'knowest'), āyās-i-ṣam fr. yā- 'go'. Gr. fut. τεν-ε-ω τενώ (τένω 'I stretch'), κρεμ-ά-ω κρεμῶ fr. the verbal stem κρεμα- 'hang up' (cp. κρεμ-ά-θρα 'a basket to hang things up in'), Hom. ὀμῶμαι fr. ὀμ-ό-ομαι fr. the verbal st. ὀμ-ο- 'swear' (cp. ὀμ-ό-της 'swearer'). Plusquampf. ἤδ-ε-α, opt. pf. εἰδ-ε-ιγ-ν, opt. aor. δαῖξ-ε-ιαν. Lat. fut. pf. vid-e-rō (= Gr. εἰδ-έ-ω) dīx-e-rō, conj. pf. vid-e-rimus (= Gr. εἰδ-ε-ῖμεν) dīx-e-rimus. Here perhaps belong also the Slav. aor. in -o-chŭ, e. g. 1. sg. nes-o-chŭ, 2. pl. nes-o-ste from nesq 'I carry'.

Pres. Skr. vām-i-mi 'I vomit', rōd-i-mi 'I lament, weep'. Gr. κρέμ-α-μαι 'I hang'; ἐμίω 'I vomit' is probably a transformation of Fem-ε-μ* = Skr. vām-i-mi. Lat. vom-i-s, vom-i-t (cp. Skr. vām-i-ṣi, vam-i-ti) may be forms of this class, which, being associated with legis legit and the like, was the cause of their passing into the ō-conjugation; here probably belongs also vol-u-mus (s-u-mus a new formation, after which 1. sg. s-u-m).

It also seems necessary to assume Indg. o in certain flexional syllables. Nom. acc. pl. neut. Skr. bhārant-i Gr. φέρου-α = Indg. bhéront-o*, part. pres. fr. rt. bher- 'bear'; cp. on the other hand voc. Skr. āmba, Gr. ρίμπα, O.Bulg. Ėeno with Indg. -a §§ 93, 94. Are the personal endings Skr. -mahi and Gr. -μεθα (1. pl. impf. mid. Skr. ābharā-mahi, Gr. ἐφερόμεθα) to be traced back to an Indg. -medhō*?

Vowel contraction in the indg. primitive period.

§ 111. The Indg. long vowels and i- and *u-*diphthongs, whose regular representation in the individual branches of languages has been exhibited in §§ 28—108, were not, as may with probability be assumed from an etymological analysis of word-forms, originally monosyllabic, but first became so by contraction.

Rem. As regards the putting down of pre-historic forms we follow this principle: where by analysis a form can be deduced as being originally dissyllabic, and all languages concurrently exhibit it as monosyllabic, we regard the contraction as having already taken place in the prim. Indg. period, e. g. the pf. stem ēd- (rt. ed- 'eat', Lat. ēd-imus etc.) which, after the analogy of perfect stem forms whose root begins with a consonant, is to be resolved into an older e-ed-).

1) Since it is here only a question of the formative-type² in general, it is immaterial whether this very example belongs to the oldest of its

Observe further: when an isolated form in a single language presents two vowels directly coming in contact with each other (but neither arising from the meeting together of two stems or words, nor due to the elision of a consonantal element which originally stood between the vowels), of which the first is an a-, e-, or o-vowel, it is never, so far as can be seen, the regular continuation of a prim. Indg. form with uncontracted vowels, but always a new formation. Here belong, e. g. the Homeric conjunctive forms ἀφ᾽ ἑσπερ, παρὰ ἑσπερ etc. and Goth. 1. sg. pf. aiðuk (aiðukan 'to add, augment'). Cp. also § 600.

The following are examples of forms which became monosyllabic in the Indg. prim. period. They, of course, all rest upon etymological analyses only and their hypothetical character should not be mistaken.

§ 112. I. Contraction of a-, e-, o-vowels with a-, e-, o-vowels.

The product of the contraction was everywhere a, ē, or ō. When the two vowels differed in quality, the product regulated itself after the quality of the first. Cp. Osthoff Morph. Unt. II 113 ff., Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 123 ff., Bremer in Paul-Braune's Beitr. XI 264 ff.

§ 113. I. a arose from:

ā + a. Dat. sg. fem. ekyāi* fr. ekyā-aī* or ekyā-aī* (ekyā* 'mare': Skr. āśva, Lat. equa): Skr. Ved. -āi, Gr. -ā, O.Lat. -ā, Goth. -āi, O.Bulg. -ī. Instr. sg. fem. ekyā* fr. ekyā-a* or ekyā-a*: Skr. Ved. -ā, Gr. -ā (Att. ἐκυοῖα, πῆ, Ion. ἐκυοῖη), Lat. -a (frāstra).

a + e. Nom. pl. fem. ekyas* fr. ekyā-es*: Skr. -as, Umbr. Osc. -as, Goth. -ēs, Lith. -ės. Conjunctive stems in -ā fr. -ā-e, e. g. stā-* fr. stā-e* (rt. stā 'stand'), e. g. Skr. 3. sg. act. sthāti, Gr. Arcad. 3. sg. mid. torātor.

a + o. Conjunctive stems in -ā fr. -ā-o, e. g. Skr. Ved. 1. pl. yundma (1. sg. ind. yu-nd-mi 'I bind to'), Gr. Dor. δύ-νδ-μαι (Att. δύνωμαι is a new formation).

kind, and accordingly a dissyllabic e-ed- as predecessor of ēd- was once really spoken, or whether ēd- first made its appearance after the termination of the process of contraction and on coming into existence took its ē after the analogy of other perfect stems.

Rem. The Indg. nom. acc. pl. neut. jugd* (Skr. Ved. yugá, Lat. juga) fr. stem jugo-* presents difficulties. If a (or ā) was the case suffix: why not jugó* or jugé*? If Osthoff is right (Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 123 f.) that the product of contraction only assumed the quality of the first vowel, when the second did not contain the chief accent of the word, one might think of an older jugo-ā* or juge-ā* (respec. -ā). But it is equally possible that Indg. jugd* is to be looked upon as jug-ā, i. e. the stem forming suffix was dropped before the case ending (tonlosa tiefstufe, 'unaccented weak grade' § 311).

§ 114. 2. ē arose from:

The nom. acc. du. of o-stems in -ōy perhaps also belong here (whence -ō before consonants in prim. Indg. § 645, 1), e. g. dyōy*: Skr. dvāu O.Ir. dau dō 'two' (§ 85).

Skr. dēyāma instead of dēma* after the sg. dēyām. Cp. § 109 a. Opt. tenses with thematic vowel, e. g. bheroī-* fr. bhero-i-* (rt. bher- 'bear'): Skr. bhārēṣ, Gr. φίποις etc.

1) Skr. mā-d, tad-d, asmā-d permit the assumption that in the abl. sg. -*a*d* and -d stood beside each other in the same manner as -es, -os and -s in the gen. sg. Lith. vilkō and Slav. vĺka 'wolves', whose ending is to be traced back to an orig. form with ā on account of Lith. ō (§ 108), can only stand in an indirect relation to Lat. -ōd and Gr. -ω; they are a problem of a similar nature as Indg. jugd* 'iuga' (§ 113 rem.).

For Gr. γροῖ- in the Opt. γροῖμεν (indic. ἔγροον ἔγρομεν), which goes back to γροῖ-, a prim. Indg. form ǵnōǵ- fr. ǵnō-* must apparently be assumed. In like manner also for Gr. πλεῖστο- O.Icel. flester (fr. fleistr*) fleire an Indg. plēis-* fr. plē-is-*. See §§ 611. 614.

B. THE VOWELS AS CONSONANTS.

§ 117. Of the vowels ascribed to the prim. language there were two, i and u, which were employed both as sonants (i, u) and as consonants (i, u).

It is not possible in every case to draw a sharp line between Indg. i, u and the Indg. spirants j, v. (§§ 554. 598).

i, u can everywhere be assumed with certainty, where they correspond to an i and u of other forms of the same form-system, or stand in ablaut relation to i and u. 3. pl. i-nti* (Skr. y-ánti) beside 2. pl. i-té* (Skr. i-thā) fr. rt. ej- 'go'. 3. pl. gi-nu-nti* (Skr. ci-nv-ánti) beside 2. pl. gi-nu-té* (Skr. ci-nu-thā) fr. rt. gej- 'to set in rows'. Nominal suffix -jo- beside -i(i)o-, as medhjo-* (Skr. mádhya-s Gr. Hom. μέσσο- fr. metho-* 'medius') beside potri(i)o-s* (Skr. pítriya-s Gr. πάτριος 'patrius'). dyó* 'two' (Skr. ved. dvā, Gr. δ(φ)ύω-δεκα) beside du(u)ó* (Skr. Ved. duvā, Gr. δύω). Nom. pl. trej-es* 'tres' (Skr. tráy-as) beside loc. pl. tri-su* (Skr. tri-śú). Nom. sg. dǵēu-s* 'sky' (Skr. dyāu-ś, Gr. Ζεύς) and loc. sg. dǵu-i* (Skr. div-i, Gr. Δι-ι). Root form suep-* or syop-* in Skr. sváp-na-s 'sleep, dream' beside sup-* in Skr. part. sup-tá-s, Gr. ὑπ-ρο-.

Where i and u were missing from Indg. times in formations which properly should have weak grade, the probability is for j, v. E. g. the participles Skr. tyaktá-s, Gr. σενρό- exhibit the rt. tjeg-, not tjieg- ('step back from something', hence in Gr. 'to be timid, to honour with pious awe'), since from tjieg- the form tiqtó-s* would have to be expected. Skr. śéte Gr. κείται 'lies' permits the assumption of the rt. kej-. Rt. ves- 'clothe', not ues-, on account of Skr. pñ. mid. va-vas-ē, etc. Cp. § 307 ff.

In Greek initial ζ and 'decide whether we have to do with j- or i-', e. g. ζέω 'I see' fr. rt. jes-, ζυγόν 'yoke' fr.

rt. jeug-, but ājio-ς 'holy' fr. rt. iag-, ēusēs 'vos' fr. st. iu-sme-* (Skr. yu-śma-).

In every case where the spirantal value of the sound can not be determined with certainty, or with great probability, we write the Indg. orig. forms in this work with i, y.

In most Indg. languages i and y, in dissyllabic vowel combinations as ia, ua, were spoken as glides: ija, uya. This sound must have existed also in the Indg. unitary period. We assume therefore e. g. patr-ijo-s* and duyō* as the Indg. orig. forms of Lat. patrius, duō etc. Cp. Sievers *Phonetik*² 146, Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 398 ff. Analogously i and y also before nasal and liquid sonants, e. g. sij-īt* = O.Lat. sient (sint) fr. rt. es-be, ē-klij-īt* = Skr. āsriyan and ke-klij-ītāi* = Gr. Hom. κακλ/αται fr. rt. klei- 'lean against'. i and y in this case corresponded to the r in is-pro-* (Skr. iśrā-s, Gr. Corc. λαρό-ς) and to the n in tyn-u-* (Skr. tamā-ś, Lat. tenu-i-s) etc., s. §§ 223, 4. 284, 3.

Present stem my-je-* fr. rt. men-: Skr. mānyatē 'means', Lith. miniū O.Bulg. mŭnjā 'I think'. Derivatives as Skr. udāyā-ti 'streams from' fr. prim. Ar. udṛ-yā-ti*, Gr. ρεκραίνω fr. ρεκρυ-ιω*, Goth. glitmunja 'I shine' fr. prim. Germ. glitmy-iō* (§§ 223, 2. 225).

Present stem my-je-* fr. rt. mer- 'die': Av. mer'yēiti, Lat. morior; Gr. σπαλγω 'I struggle convulsively', Lith. spiriū 'I push with the foot', cpf. spr-iō* (§§ 284, 2. 286).

i as glide after i. For examples see §§ 117. 120.

§ 120. Postconsonantal. Stem forms dīēy-, dīey-, dīu-* 'sky': Skr. nom. sg. dyāuś acc. sg. dyām (§ 188) instr. pl. dyū-bhiś, Gr. Ζεύς fr. διεύς* διηγύς* (§ 611), Ζῆν (cp. § 188), Lat. Jov- in Jovis Osc. Iuv-ei Umbr. Iuv-e 'Jovi' fr. dīey-* (§ 65). Root form siū- 'sew': Skr. part. syū-tā-s, OHG. siut m. 'seam' siu-la 'awl', Lith. part. siū-ta-s, siū-la-s 'linen-thread', O.Bulg. part. šitiū fr. siy-tā*, šilo n. 'awl' fr. siy-lo*. Stem medhjo-* 'medius': Skr. mādhyā-s, Gr. μέσσο- μέσος, Goth. midjis, O.Bulg. fem. meždu 'boundary' fr. medjā*. Presents in -iō, e. g. myg-iō* fr. rt. myg- 'work, effect': Av. ver'zyēmi, Gr. ἐργω for regular ῥαγω* (ε for α after ἐργω, ἐρδω etc.) fr. Igay-ιω*, Goth. vairk-ja (§ 299).

Postconsonantal i often interchanged with i̯ in prim. Indg. (in the same manner as y, n, m, r, l with ny, yn, ym, yr, yl, §§ 153. 227. 287). A formative element assumed various shapes not only in different words, e. g. suffix form -i̯o- in pātr-i̯o-* (Skr. pātrīya-s Gr. πάτριος Lat. patriu-s) beside -jo- in medh-jo-* (Skr. mādhyā-s etc., s. above), but also in the same words, e. g. stem forms dīēy-* dīey-* (Skr. nom. dyāuś acc. dyām, Lat. Diō-e Osc. Diūv-ei Διούφει 'Jovi', Lat. diem) beside dīēy-* dīey-* (Skr. dyāuś etc.). In this change it is a question of a difference of ablaut-grade, e. g. giū-ā* (Lith. gijė 'thread', Gr.

βιό-ς 'bow' for older βια*, s. Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 188) represents the secondary accented (nebentonige) weakgrade form, but gi-d* (Skr. jyā 'bow-string') the unaccented (tonlose); cp. §§ 307 ff. and 670.

We shall here confine ourselves to cases in which no ablaut (the opposite of weak and strong grade) can be determined. From the investigations hitherto made concerning the origin of the double forms i and ij (s. especially Sievers in Paul and Braune's Beitr. V 129 ff., Hübschmann Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIV 362 ff., Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 353 ff., Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 421 ff.) the following may be given as probable:

After initial consonants the change depended on the nature of the final syllable of the preceding word. In the parent language they may have spoken sō sijēt* = Skr. sá syat 'he may be', but tód sijēt* = Skr. tát siyat 'that may be' (cp. also Goth. 1. sg. s-ijáu). Double forms may also here be shown as pres. st. mr-jé-* = Av. mer'ye-iti Lat. morio-r beside mr-ijé-* = Skr. mriyá-tē, Ont. st. bhu-jē-* = Av. 3. sg. bu-yā-š, Gr. Cypr. φύ-χῆ beside bhu-ijē-* = O.Pers. 3. sg. b-iyā fr. rt. bhey- 'be, become' (cp. Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 426 ff.). tód mrijetai* 'that dies' possibly stood originally beside sō mrijetai* 'he dies', impf. é mrijeto*.

i was used medially after short syllables, ij after long, especially after consonant groups. This is seen most clearly by the suffix -jo-. Cp. on the one hand medh-jo-* 'medius' (s. above); al-jo-* 'alius' = Arm. ail Gr. ἄλλο-ς O.Ir. aile Goth. alji-s; and on the other patr-ijo-* 'patrius' (s. above); eky-ijo-* 'equinus' = Skr. ásviya-s Gr. ἵππιος-ς; ghesl-ijo-* (deriv. of gheslo-* 'thousand') = Skr. sa-hasriya- 'thousand-fold', Gr. Lesb. χέλλις 'thousand'; mort-ijo-* = Skr. á-martiya- 'immortal', Gr. ἀμβρόσιος-ς (βροτός for μορτός through the influence of βρᾱτός-ς* = Skr. mṛtá-s 'mortuus'); nept-ijo-s* = Av. naptiya- 'relation', Gr. ἀνεψιός-ς 'first cousin', O.Bulg. netijǎ 'first cousin' (-ij- fr. -ij- § 36); nau-ijo-* = Skr. naviya- 'navigable', Gr. νάο-ς νηίο-ς 'belonging to a ship'; also especially the established difference in Goth., e. g.

It may be presumed that regular forms occasionally suffered interruption in their development already in prim. Indg. through analogy. This certainly frequently took place in the separate developments of the orig. language, as e. g. Skr. Ved. gáv-iya- (beside gáv-ya-) 'bovarius' after such forms as áśveiya-, Gr. Dor. -zários Aread. -kários (diá-kários 'two hundred' etc., cp. Skr. -śatya 'consisting of a hundred') after χέλλιος (χίλιος). But, besides this, i fr. i arose in Aryan (§ 125) and Lat. (§ 135) by regular development.

§ 121. Anteconsonantal. i only occurred in this position after a-, e- and o-vowels, with which it formed 'diphthongs', e. g. 3. sg. móid-e* 'knows': Skr. védā, Gr. foĩde, Goth. váit. For the fate of i in these combinations cp. §§ 61—108 and § 150.

§ 122. Finally. i only occurred finally as the second component of diphthongs, cp. nom. pl. tói* 'the' = Skr. tē Gr. Hom. roĩ etc., dat. sg. in -ái of a-stems (§ 101 extr.). The treatment in the individual languages was generally the same as before consonants, cp. e. g. Skr. tē with vēda (= Gr. foĩde).

When conditionally final (in the body of a sentence), i also stood after consonants, e. g. Indg. proti ebherom* may be assumed for Skr. praty-abharam Gr. προς-εφερον 'I brought forward'. Cp. § 645 finals 2.

'posterity') pitṛ-bhyas (pitār- 'father'), etc. Cp. § 120. In the classical language mostly only $\dot{\text{a}}$ occurs, e. g. only -bhyas, only raj-ya- etc., only opt. syām 'sim'. The old grade ij remained however e. g. in mr-ya-tē 'moritur', kr-ya-tē 'is made' (kar- 'make') and similar presents; in the opt. (precative) kr-ya-t from kar- and similar forms; in the aor. a-śi-śriy-a-t fr. śray- śri- 'lean against'; in the instr. sg. bhīya fr. bhī- f. 'fear' (cp. Ved. part. bhīy-ānā-, Lith. bij-aū-s 'am in fear') striyā from stri- 'wife' (but $\dot{\text{a}}$ in other than initial syllables: datryā fr. datr- 'donatrix'). In the popular dialects ij frequently appears for the $\dot{\text{a}}$ of the classical language, without the quantity of the preceding syllable being a criterion in the same manner as in Vedic. In this case it is undoubtedly, partly at least, not a question of Indg. ij or analogy, but of a purely regular evolution fr. consonant + $\dot{\text{a}}$ (as in Lat.), e. g. Pāli marīyāda = Skr. maryāda 'mark, boundary'; ariya- = Skr. arya- (-iy- very frequently after r); kammaṇiya- beside kammaṇṇa- = Skr. karmanya- 'operative, active'; Prākṛ. cōriam = Skr. cāurya-m 'theft'; uddisā = Skr. ud-diśya absolutive 'by pointing to'. With Prākṛ. ia for ija cp. ṇiutta- = Skr. ni-yukta- 'bound to'.

Prim. Iran. h_2 = prim. Ar. s_2 became nh in Av., but hy was still retained in the Gāpā dialect. vanhō, Gāp. vahyō; Skr. vās-yas 'melius'; neut. compar. of vanhu-; Skr. vāsu- 'bonus'. Cp. § 558, 3.

Final -ia -ia, which was still retained in the Gāpā dial. as -yā (i. e. -ya and -yā, § 649, 1), appears after consonants, especially after h, (= prim. Ar. s, § 558, 3) as -ç. yçhç, Gāp. yçhya; Skr. yá-sya, gen. sg. fr. ya- 'which'.

-im appears for -yem. ainim; Skr. anyā-m 'aliud' (Gāp. also anyem). haiṇim; Skr. satyā-m 'verum'. Similarly yçñim; Skr. yajñiya-m 'venerandum'. Cp. Bartholomae Handb. § 95.

In Av., as in Vedic, the metre shows that y is often to be read as iy especially after long syllables, e. g. bāmya- 'beaming, shining' as bāmiya-, dat. pl. hitaçbyō = Skr. sitē-bhyas 'vinctis' as hitaçbiyō. This is further shown by the preceding voiceless explosives not being changed into spirants, e. g. dāitya- 'legal' was dāitiya-; because datja*- would have become daiṣya*-, as e. g. haiṣya- = Skr. satyá- 'true' shows (§§ 353. 473).

In Old Persian iy or īy mostly occurs (the latter only graphically different from iy, s. § 21). In a number of cases in which these spellings are found, the pronunciation may have been iḥ as in Ved. and Av. But this can only be directly supported in cases where the preceding t was not changed to š (§§ 353. 473), e. g. martiya- 'homo' = Av. mašiya- (š = rt § 260) Ved. mārtiya- (§ 120 p. 112). In most cases, however, iy (īy) will have to be read as i, certainly in haṣiya- (= Av. haiṣya- Skr. satyá-) and others, where š was caused by tḥ, probably in aniya- (= Av. anya-, Skr. anyá-), maniyahy (2. sg. conj. pres., to Av. 1. sg. indic. pres. manya, Skr. 3. sg. pres. indic. mānyatē fr. Ar. man- 'think'), 3. sing. opt. jamīyā (= Av. jamyāḥ Skr. gamyāt 'eat') and others of the same kind.

On the other hand O.Pers. tya- 'which' is to be read as tija- on account of the non-change of the t, cp. Ved. tiyá- beside tyá- 'that, the'.

§ 126. Antec consonantal and finally. The vowel remained i after ā (ai) in Sanskrit, whereas in prim. Ar. and prim. Skr. ai became ē. Prim. Ar. and prim. Iran. ai appears in Av. as aē (i. e. aē) or ōi, finally as -ōi and -ē, prim. Ar. and prim. Iran. ai as ai; prim. Ar. ai and ai remained unchanged in O.Pers. (ai, written -aiy -ay when final, and ai).

Prim. Ar. 3. sing. ai-ti* 'goes' = Indg. éi-ti*, Gr. ελ-αι : Skr. ēti, Av. aēti (fr. aēti § 638), O.Pers. aitiy. Prim. Ar. 3. sg. bharaiṭ* 'he may bear' = Indg. bhérojt*, Gr. φεροι : Skr. bhāret, Av. bārōiḥ. Prim. Ar. dūrai*, loc. sg. of dūra*- 'distant', cp. Gr. οἶκου οἶκου 'at home' : Skr. dūrē, Av. dūrōi dūrē, O.Pers. dūrai dūray.

3. sg. Skr. at, Av. aiḥ 'went', Indg. ējt* fr. ē ejt*, fr. rt. ej-; O.Pers. atiy-aiš 'went beyond' (the ending -š from the sigmatic aorist). Instr. Skr. pl. śatāiḥ Av. satāi-š from st. Skr. śata-

Av. sata- 'centum', Gr. -ος (§ 611). Av. dat. sg. mazištai fr. st. mazišta- 'maximus': Gr. μεγιστος.

Cp. §§ 62. 78. 94.

§ 127. The transition of i to a palatal spirant.

y was probably everywhere a consonantal vowel in Vedic and classical Sanskrit. Whilst initially and frequently also medially it became a spirant in Prākṛit, hence e. g. ja- 'which' (ज) = ya-, kajja- n. 'business, trade' (कज्ज) = kārya-.

Bartholomae (Handb. pp. 9. 36 f., cp. also Hübschmann Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIV 354 f.) thinks that it had partly a spirantal function in Iranian. The change of prim. Ar. tenues into spirants seems to have been caused by this in every case. (§ 473).

Armenian.

§ 128. It is here difficult to ascertain the sound-laws owing to the scarcity of reliable etymological material. In any case i probably did not remain unchanged.

Initial i seems to have become a spirant j in je-r 'your', which is generally connected with Skr. yu-ṣma- Lith. jūs 'ye'.

i disappeared after consonants. çu 'a breaking up', to Skr. cyu-ti-ṣ 'quick motion, departure from something'; it is not however clear whether the prim. Indg. rt. is qieu- or qjieu-. Epenthesis appears in aïl, gen. aïloy, 'alius' fr. aljo-* (Goth. alja- Gr. ἄλλο- etc.).

For the rest we refer to Hübschmann Armen. Stud. I 78.

Greek.

§ 129. Initially uniformly i, which presupposes a voiceless i as intermediate stage. ōs 'who': Skr. yá-s. ἥπαρ 'liver': Av. *yákar, Skr. yakṣt, Lat. jecur. ἅγιος 'holy, venerable': Skr. yajñá-s 'offering'. ἑσπέρη 'battle': Skr. yudh- 'fight'. Lesb. ' fr. ' : ὑμμις 'ye' beside Att. ἑμεις, to Skr. yá-ṣma-, cp. Lesb. ò fr. ò = Skr. sá § 564.

§ 130. Intersonantal. i between vowels, when the first was not u, dropped out in prim. Gr. (except when u after i, it served as a glide to the following vowel, s. § 131). δέος 'fear' fr. δ'εξ-ος*, Hom. pf. δεῖδω i. 'e. δ'εδ'ω* 'I fear' probably from δεδ'ω(ι)-α*, rt. δμεξ-. Nom. plur. τρεις 'three' fr. τρε(ι)-εξ* : Skr. tráy-as. 1. sg. φοβίω 'I frighten, scare away' : Skr. bhā-jáyāmi 'I hunt'. The cases, in which i seems to have been retained in this position, are new formations, e. g. Arcad. τείω 'I atone for, pay' not = Skr. cáy-a-tē, but a formation from τίω τίω (Skr. cī-yá-tē) after τείσω ἔτεισα etc., Hom. ὀκνέω beside ὀκνέω 'I hesitate, linger' not fr. ὀκνε-ω* (cp. ὀκνο-ς 'hesitation'), but formed after such presents as τελείω fr. τελεσ-ω* 'I finish' (§ 131).

i after u: Cypr. opt. φύ-ιη = Av. bu-ya-ē, Indg. bhu-je-t*; Lesb. pres. φύω fr. bhu-je*, rt. bhe- 'be, become'.

When the second vowel arose from Indg. sonantal nasal: 1. sg. ἦα 'went' for regular ῆα* (ῆ-, formed after ῆμεν etc.) fr. Indg. éi-η*, 3. pl. opt. mid. Hom. φεροίαιτο for φίρουτο* (-αι after φίρομεθα etc.) fr. bhéroi-yto*, rt. bher- 'bear'.

1. sg. τεκταίνω 'I make' fr. τεκταν-ω*, τεκτη-ω* fr. τέκτων. μαίνω fr. βαν-ω*, βαν-ω*, gem-je* (§ 204), rt. gem- 'go'. Cp. § 234. σπείρω 'I struggle convulsively' fr. σπαρ-ω*, sp̥r-je* (§ 293) : Lith. spirtiù 'I push with the foot'. i palatalised nasals and ρ and combined with the preceding α to form αι (§ 639). On the other hand σκάλλω 'I stir up, hoe' fr. σκαλ-ω*, sq̥l-je* : Lith. skilù (fr. skil-ju*) 'I strike fire'. Cp. § 131.

si- became ' : ύ-μην (ū) 'thin skin' ύ-μν-ος 'hymn, song', to Skr. syā-man- 'cord' syā-tá-s 'sewed', cp. further the compounds with καρ(α) κάσσωμα Att. κάττωμα 'anything stitched, leather sole', νέο-κάττωρο-ς 'new-soled'.

Postvocalic s and μ became palatalised by a following i, then the latter combined with the preceding vowel to form a diphthong (§ 639). Gen. sg. ro-σχο* 'of the' = Skr. tá-sya became ῥοισο, Hom. ροῖο, Att. ροῦ. Hom. τελείω Att. τελῶ 'I complete' fr. τελεσ-ω* st. τέλεσ- 'end', cp. Skr. namas-yá-ti 'honours' from námas- 'honour, respect'. Hom. εἶην 'sim' fr. ζοην*, cp. Skr. syám; the -ι- in the Att. form εἶην is due to the influence of εἰμεν. κλαF-ιω* 'I weep' (fut. κλαί-σομαι) became κλαίω*, hence Hom. Att. κλαίω, but κλαίFe*- Att. κλαίε- in κλαίεις etc., like διδήρ 'brother-in-law' fr. δαιFηρ* = Skr. dēdār-, s. § 96. The double forms κλαίω, and κλαῖω, as well as καίω and καῖω 'I burn, light' (fut. καύσω) are due to levelling: the forms were originally κλαίω κλαίεις κλαῖτε κλαίομεν etc.

κτεν-ιω* 'I kill' became κτένω in Lesb. and κτείνω in Att. (by compensation lengthening). ἀμεν-ιω* 'better' became Att. ἀμείνω Boeot. Ἀμεινοκλείος Arcad. Ἀμηνίος Cypr. Ἀμηνία. φθερ-ιω* 'I destroy' became Lesb. φθέρω, Att. φθείρω, Arcad. φθήρω. Πείρ-(ανθο-) = Lesb. πέρρ-(οχο-) fr. περκ-*. These forms show that Hom. εἶν and ὑπέρ, which arose from ἐν*, ἐπερ* before words beginning with a vowel, are due to compensation lengthening. πειρ- Dor. πηρ- (Πηρ-(θοο-), Πηρ-(θοο-)) is a mixture of περ + πειρ (Dor. πηρ*-), as is also Hom. εἶν of ἐν + εἶν. Cp. § 618.

Whereas στελ-ιω* 'I order' became universally στέλλω, άλιο-* 'alius' Att. etc. ἄλλος, but Cypr. ἄλλο-. Cp. §§ 130. 639.

Indg. gi gh_i, k_i, gh_i, t_i, dh_i appear as σσ, ττ, see § 489; Indg. gi, gi, di as ζ (σδ), δδ, s. § 493.

Indg. pi became πτ. Verbal stem πτῷ in πτῶ 'I spit' fr. *(σ)πιῷ: Lith. spidiu-jū O.Bulg. pju-ja (fr. *(s)piū-ia, § 147) 'I spit', Skr. abhi-ṣṭhyā-ta 'bespit' (cp. § 327). χαλίπτω 'I oppress, depress' fr. χαλεπ-ιω* fr. χαλεπό-.

The prim. Indg. duality i and ij was preserved e. g. in μέσος μέσος 'medius' (fr. μεθ-ιο-* = Skr. mādhyā-s) compared with πάτριος 'patrius' (= Skr. pātriya-s), in ρίζω 'I do, work' (fr. φρεγ-ιω*, cp. § 120) compared with ἰδ-ίω 'I sweat'. On the other hand the Lesb. forms μέτερος, ἀλλότερος = Att. μέτριος 'moderate', ἀλλότριος 'alienus' etc. show a sound-change which took place within Greek itself: μέτριος became μετρίος*, meterios*, thence μέτερος (§ 626). It seems to me more probable that the ζ in Lesb. ζά, κάρζα, Ζόνντος, Cypr. κόρζα and others, beside δα, καρδία, Διώντος (s. Meister Griech. Dial. I p. 127 ff.) is due to a Gr. change of i to j than to regard it as an old inherited double form as is the case with μέσος and πάτριος.

The Cyp. orthography Παρίλα, ἱλαρῆραν, Pamphyl. διαῖ, Εαυφι(ν)διος (= Ἀσπέρδιος) (read iῖ), and other facts show that the antevocalic i was pronounced -iῖ- in words like πατριος. The ending -ιος was therefore probably the unchanged form of Indg. -iῖo-s.

§ 132. Anteconsonantal and finally.

The Indg. anteconsonantal eῖ, οῖ, αιῖ, εῖ, οῖ, αιῖ can all be proved to be pure i-diphthongs up to historical times. E. g. εἶμι (= Indg. eimi* 'I go'), οἶδε (= Indg. uoide* 'he knows'), φέρεται (= Indg. bheretai* 3. sig. mid. fr. rt. bher- 'bear'), ἵππου ἵππῳ (= Indg. ekyōi* 'to a horse'), χώραι χωρῶν ('to land' with Indg. ending -ai) were, in Attic, still pronounced with eῖ, οῖ etc. about 500 B. C.

But eῖ, οῖ, αιῖ underwent manifold changes even at an early period. In certain cases i became ε, and in others the consonantal vowel coalesced with the first component to form a simple long vowel. S. §§ 64. 80. 96. In the Middle Ages monophthongs were generally the only forms still met with.

The first component of εῖ, οῖ, αιῖ was shortened before consonants in prim. Gr., e. g. ἵπποις = Skr. áśvaiṣ (§ 611). When final, they remained unchanged up to historical times. But then final i became mute at the same time with the new i in the combinations η, ω, αι (η, ω, αι) which in the meantime had often arisen before consonants, as ἦτε 'ye went', εὔδεις 'easy'. This process however did not extend itself over the whole language at the same time; it seems everywhere to have taken place with η earlier than with αι and ω. Towards the end of the third Cent. B. C. they were still only spoken as simple vowels in all or most dialects, e. g. ἵππῳ as hippō, ἦτε as ēte.

Italic.

§ 133. Initially. Indg. i and j fell completely together in i, written j in Lat. words, and i in Umbr.-Samnitic. Indg. i e. g. in Lat. jecur 'liver': Skr. yakṣt, Gr. ἥπαρ. Cp. Lat. jugu-m 'yoke': Gr. ζυγό-v, with Indg. j-. It is frequently uncertain whether a form represents Indg. i- or j-: Lat. jocu-s 'joke', Umbr. iuka 'ioca': Lith. jūkas 'joke'; Lat. juven-is juven-cu-s, Umbr. ivengar nom. 'iuvencae' (i- fr. i*u-): Skr. yūvan- 'young' yuvāśā-s 'youthful', Goth. juggs 'young'.

Several centuries after the beginning of the Christian era Lat. j- (i-) became a spirant which became developed to dʃ: cp. e. g. Ital. giovane Fr. jeune with Lat. juvenis.

§ 134. Intersonantal. i between vowels seems to have disappeared already in prim. Italic¹⁾, when after i it did not serve as glide to the following vowel. Lat. ea- 'she', acc. eam: Goth. ijō- 'she', acc. ija; cpf. eiā-*; Umbr. eam 'cam' eaf 'eas', Osc. io 'ea'. Nom. pl. Lat. trēs 'three' fr. tre(i)-es*: Skr. tráy-as; Lat. pontēs, Umbr. puntes 'bridges': O.Bulg. patije patije 'ways'. Lat. st. aer- (gen. aer-is) 'ore, bronze' aēnu-s ahēnu-s 'brazen', Umbr. ahesues 'aenis' (where h only indicates the separation of the vowels in both dial.), fr. aies-, aies-no- (§ 570): Skr. āyas- 'iron'. Lat. stō 'I stand' fr. stā-(i)ō*, stās fr. stā-(i)e-s*, Pelign. incubat 'incubat'. Lat. neō 'I sow', neut fr. nē-(i)ō*, nē-(i)ō-nt*: OHG. nān 'to sow'. fleo 'I weep': O.Bulg. blē-jā 'I bleat'. sileō 'I am silent' fr. silē-(i)ō*, cp. Goth. 3. sg. silāiþ 'silet' fr. silē-ic-ti* (§ 142). O.Lat. compar. pleōres 'plures': Skr. prā-yas-, cpf. plā-its-*. Causat. moneō 'I cause to remember' fr. moneiō*: Skr. mānāyāmi; 2. pl. imper. monēte fr. mone(i)ete*: Skr. mānāyata. Osc. pūtīad 'possit' fr. pote(i)at*, to Lat. potēns potui. O.Lat. cluō 'I am called, named': Skr. śrū-yā-tē 'is heard'. O.Lat. conj. fuat 'sit': Lesb. qulo.

Lat. finiō 'I finish' represents an older fīni-ō*, from fīni-s, just as Skr. Ved. arāti-yā-ti 'is hostile, bears ill-will' from drā-ti-š 'hostility'. Notwithstanding the orthography -iō we must probably assume that i was not quite mute. This consonant however disappeared by contraction in fīnīs, fīnīte, whose original endings were i-ie-s*, i-ie-ie*. Cp. § 135 concerning fieri, patrius etc.

1) Some forms, in which i was only apparently retained, as in Osc. stafet, Umbr. fuia 'fat' portata 'portet', will be disposed of in the accidence.

Indg. gyn-iō* (Gr. βάλω) 'I go' became gynenīō* in prim. Italic (§§ 208. 239), thence Lat. veniō; Indg. pres. st. my-χo-* 'die' (Av. 3. sg. mer'-ye-itī) became prim. Ital. morīo-* (§ 296), thence Lat. morior, s. §§ 120. 135.

§ 135. Postconsonantal. i was only retained as a consonant in this position when a consonant had disappeared before it. Lat. Jov-is, Umbr. Iuv-re Osc. Iuv-ei 'Iovi': Skr. dyáu-š, Gr. Ζεύς. Lat. ajō 'I say' fr. ah-iō* or āh-iō* beside ad-āgium: Skr. pf. 3. sg. dha 'said'; mājor 'greater' beside māgnu-s: Skr. māhṛyas- 'greater'; cp. § 510.

In other cases i became sonantal, a process which may be compared with the transition of the suffix -uo- to -uo- (§ 170), of -clo- to -culo- (intermediate stage -cllo-) etc. (§§ 269. 627). E. g. medin-s: Skr. mādhya-s; alius: Gr. ἄλλο-ς; acu-pediū-s 'quick-footed': Gr. πεζός; cōn-spiciō: Skr. pāśyāmi; capiō: Goth. haffja. In like manner also veniō, morior directly fr. venīō*, morīōr* (cp. § 134). That iī was spoken (if only with a weak articulated i), is probable in itself, and is vouched for by such spellings as Fabius, Cornelia (Seelmann Dio Ausspr. des Latein. p. 237).

The form socius fr. sokm-iō-s* (rt. seq- in sequor, cp. Gr. ἀσσηνηρό 'helper' with σσ = qi, §§ 131. 489) is of interest for the chronology of the change of -i- to -ii-, since u probably dropped out at a time when i, not already iī, was still spoken.

Further such forms as capis capit fr. capies* capiet* = Goth. haffis haffiþ, cape fr. capi* (like mare fr. mari*, § 33), the latter fr. capie*, also point to this old iī, likewise nom. alis, Cornēlis fr. -iis cp. Lith. mēdis fr. medīis* (§ 84 rem. 1).

Rem. It is hardly probable that we have still an older i for i(i) in such quantities as arjuni (fr. arj-s), principium, faciās, found in Roman poets, these possibly follow the prevalent pronunciation of some dialect. It is quite incredible that a similar one holds good for prim. Romance medjus* (Italian mezzo) etc. (Dier Gramm. d. rom. Spr. I⁴ p. 179 ff., Horning Ztschr. f. rom. Phil. VII 372 f.).

On the other hand Indg. iī seems to have remained unchanged in the following cases. Lat. gen. pl. trium: Goth.

prij-ē, Lith. trij-ū, O.Bulg. trij-ŭ trij-ŭ, Gr. πατρις. patrius: Skr. pitriya-, Gr. πάτριος. rēgin-s: Skr. *rājigā-*¹⁾. siem (later sim): Skr. siyām, Goth. siġan. du-bius fr. du-bhy-ijos*, fieri fr. Indg. bhy-ijō*, is fr. bhy-ije-s*, from rt. bhey- (cp. § 120 and Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 430 ff.).

We cannot tell whether the i was consonantal or sonantal in Umbr. fasia, Volsc. fasia 'faciat', Umbr. avie dat. 'auspiciis', Osc. meſiaſ 'in media', diuvia- 'Ioviā-' and other similar forms in the Umbr.-Samnitic dialects. Whereas ij may be traced in spellings as Umbr. Vukiaa-per 'pro Vocia', Osc. Iūvia 'Ioviam' (cp. Osc. Meelikiicis Medixior), and i in such as Umbr. vistiā vestia beside vostiā vestisia abl. 'libamento', spinam-aſ beside spiniā-a 'ad spinam'. Osc. s from tj in Bansae 'Bantiao', z fr. dj in zicolom 'diem' (cp. Lat. diſcula). i seems to have sprung from older ij in both forms; the zetacistic process may have been limited to the local dialect of Bantia.

§ 136. Anteconsonantal and finally.

Indg. ej, oj, aj were still diphthongs in prim. Italic. At the beginning of historic times ej seems to have become an open ɛ in Lat. and Osc., the orthography ei was at all events retained for a long time after the diphthong had become monophthong (§ 65). oj and aj were certainly still diphthongs at the beginning of historic times. They became in the first instance oɔ and aɛ. For their further development s. §§ 81. 97. Prim. Ital. ej, oj, aj are met with only as monophthongs in Umbrian, e. g. etu eetu 'ito' fr. prim. Ital. eitōd*, unu 'unum' fr. prim. Ital. ojno-m*, sve 'si' = Osc. svai svae.

The first component of ej, oj, aj was shortened before consonants in prim. Lat. or prim. Italic, e. g. Lat. oloes illis = Skr. -aiṣ, Indg. -ōis* (§§ 85. 612).

Final -ōj* became -ō in Lat., e. g. dat. sg. equō = Gr. ταυρῷ; Marius Victorinus knew -oi ex libris antiquis foederum et legum; perhaps still the old -ōj. -āj became -ā, e. g. Dat. Matata 'Matutae' like Gr. χώρα; -āj may still be represented in the oldest inscriptions in such forms as Menervai, whilst -ae is the locative ending of later times. Osc. dat. Abellanūi 'Abellano', deīvai 'divae'.

1) nōbis, vōbis probably not fr. -bhījes* = Skr. -bhīyas in Ved. prajd-bhīyas etc. (cp. Stolz Lat. Gramm. § 90), but a transformation of -bhī* after iſtis, in the same manner as iſtī was of -bhī* after iſtī, cp. Skr. iſtī-bhī-am 'tibi'. yufmā-bhī-am 'vobis' with particle -am (see the accident).

Old Irish.

§ 137. Initially. In most words which come under consideration it cannot be determined whether the initial sound was Indg. j- or j-, and traces of this Indg. difference have not, so far as I know, hitherto been proved in Keltic. The consonant was dropped in Irish, but was retained in the Gallo-Britannic branch.

Indg. j- in Iud- ('strife, fight') found in many Britann. proper names, as O.Cymr. Iud-nerth (nerth 'strength'): Skr. yúdh- 'battle, combat', Gr. ἰούτης.

Whether the following have Indg. j- or j- is doubtful: O.Ir. ḡac ḡc Cymr. ieuanc Corn. ionenc Bret. iaouank 'juvenis' Gall. Iovincillu-s, prim. Kelt. joueko-s*: Skr. yuva-śá-s; O.Ir. compar. ḡa (Bret. iaou), superl. ḡam: Skr. yáv-tyas-, yáv-iṣṭha-. O.Ir. ēt 'zeal', Gall. Iantu-mārus (cp. Mid. Ir. edmur = O.Ir. ētmār* 'jealous, zealous' fr. ēt + mār 'great'). O.Ir. aig 'ice', Cymr. ia (= iag*) 'ice', Bret. ien (= iagin*) 'icy'. Other Gall. proper names with j- as Iura, Iuvavum s. Zeuss-Ebel p. 47.

§ 138. Intersonantal j had disappeared. -tan -tō 'I am', 2. sg. -tai: Lith. stó-jū-s 'I place myself'. -caru 'I love' (2. sg. cari) fr. cāra-jō* or cārā-jō*, a denominative verb like Gr. τίμαω fr. tīma-ḡo*, Skr. pṛtanā-yā-mi.

§ 139. Postconsonantal. Dat. (instr.) sg. ailiu (i. e. ailju) fr. aljō*, stem aljo- 'other'. Compar. laigiu (i. e. laigju) 'smaller' fr. lag-jō(s)*: cp. Gr. ἐλάσσων fr. ēlaḡ-ḡon*.

-e with palatalisation of the preceding consonant (§ 640) appears for -jo- in the Indg. endings -jo-s*, -jo-m* and for -jā*, e. g. ailē 'alius', ailē n- 'alium'; neutr. suide n- 'seat' fr. sodjō-m*: Lat. solium-m; nūe 'new': Skr. nāya-s, Indg. neu-jō-s* (cp. §§ 66.

154); fem. aile 'alia'. This -e also appears in cases where according to § 120 we should expect an original -ijo-, e. g. orpe n. 'hereditas': Goth. arbi n. 'inheritance'.

Rem. The process, which gave rise to this -e, is not clear. We do not know whether in this case we have also to take into consideration the suffix form -ij- (§ 84 rem. 1) for the masc. and neut., and for the fem. a suffix form as in Lith. žolė 'root, plant'. Thurneysen conjectures that aljos* first of all became alios* (cp. Lat. alius), thence aŕeo(s)* (ŕ is to be read as palatalised l), aile; correspondingly in the fem. alijā*, allā* aŕea*, aile: cp. Gall. Alisea = Alistia and similar forms.

§ 140. Anteconsonantal and finally. In accented syllables e_i became ē (ia) § 66; o_i became oe, finally ī § 82; a_i became ae, finally ī § 98.

Rem. Cp. § 657, 4 for final Indg. -ōi, āi.

Germanic.

§ 141. Initially. Indg. i- and j- fell together in i- in prim. Germ.

Indg. i-. Goth. jēr OHG. jār n. 'year': Av. yār n. 'year', Gr. ἔτος 'year'. Goth. jus (ā?) 'vos': Lith. jūs, Gr. ἐμεῖς.

Indg. j-. Goth. juk OHG. joh n. 'yoke': Skr. yugá-m, Gr. ζυγόν 'yoke'.

It is uncertain whether we have Indg. i- or j-: Goth. juggs (juggs?) OHG. jung 'young', prim. Germ. iunwō-ga-s*: Skr. yuva-śā-s Lat. juven-cu-s.

Goth. j- was i-. In OHG. (and OS.) i- before e and i became a spirant, which was written g, e. g. genēr 'yon', gehan 'to say, speak', indic. pres. gihu, but pret. iah iahun; s. Braune Ahd. Gramm. § 116, Holthausen Die Soester Mundart § 182. Prim. Germ. i- dropped out in O.Norse: O.Icel. ar, ok, ungr = Goth. jēr, juk, juggs.

Goth. fem. stem ijō- 'ea' = Lat. ea-, cpf. eja-*.

Prim. Germ. -ij- = Indg. -ei- (§ 67) became -i- before consonants and finally. Goth. þreis OHG. dri 'three' fr. þrij-(i)z*: Skr. tráyas, O.Bulg. trije trije etc., Indg. tréj-es*; likewise Goth. gastis OHG. gesti 'guests' fr. gastij-(i)z* = O.Bulg. gostŭje gostije, cpf. ghostej-es*. 2. sg. imper. Goth. nasei OHG. neri 'save, nourish' fr. nazi- $\dot{\imath}$ (i)* (Goth. s for z after the analogy of nisan 'to recover, be healed', s. § 581), Goth. fra-vardei 'destroy (something)': Skr. vartāya 'let something take its course', Gr. $\gamma\acute{o}\beta\eta$ 'scare' fr. goβt(λ)ε*, Indg. - \acute{e} je*. Cp. §§ 660, 1. 661, 2.

Goth. indic. 1. sg. nasja, 3. sg. nasjip (OHG. neriu nerit, Mod.HG. nähre, nährt) fr. prim. Germ. nazi $\dot{\imath}$ ō* nazi $\dot{\imath}$ iđi*, still older noz \acute{e} īō* noz \acute{e} iēdi*. This -eje-, younger -iji- became -ij- -i- after long closed syllables: Goth. fravardeiþ. Cp. Skr. 1. sg. vartāya-mi, 3. sg. vartāyati = Indg. prim. f. uort \acute{e} īō*, uort \acute{e} īe-ti*. Goth. anamahtja 'I offer violence', 3. sg. anamahteip, from anamahti- f. 'reproach', can be traced back to Indg. -i $\dot{\imath}$ ō*, -i $\dot{\imath}$ é-ti*, cp. Skr. Ved. arāti-yā-ti 'is hostile' from arāti- 'hostility'. Cp. § 635.

It is questionable whether Goth. 1. sg. opt. baifrau (indic. baifra 'I bear') is regularly developed from bhero- $\dot{\imath}$ - η* prim. Germ. beraju(n)* (§ 244) (Paul in Paul-Braune's Beitr. IV 378, VI 161, Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 302, Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 626).

Goth. siuja 'I sew': cp. Gr. $\kappa\alpha\sigma\acute{o}\omega$ fr. kat-s $\dot{\imath}$ ū- $\lambda\omega$* , O.Bulg. šijq fr. siy- $\dot{\imath}$ q* (§§ 60, 147), Lett. schuju.

Indg. $\dot{\imath}$ - appears in Goth. before vowels as ai- (aij-). saia 'I sow', 3. sg. saiip (also saijip, saijands): Lith. sėjū O.Bulg. sějā 'I sow', cpf. s \acute{e} īō*. armaiō f. (st. armaiōn-) 'compassion' (from arma 'I pity', 3. sg. armāip), prim. Germ. arm \acute{e} īōn-*. In unaccented final syllables as -ai- fr. original - \acute{e} - $\dot{\imath}$ e-: 3. sg. armāip fr. arm \acute{e} - $\dot{\imath}$ i- \acute{d} (i), - \acute{e} - $\dot{\imath}$ e-ti; it is here a question of the present-class which is represented in Lat. by habēre, tacēre, silēre (Goth. haban, pahan, silan). In OHG. we have the forms sāan (sāhan), sān, sāicn (i = $\dot{\imath}$), sāwan (OS. sāian, Ags. sāican, O.Icel. sā) as compared with Goth. saian and the form armēt as compared with Goth. armāip.

Rem. 1. The much discussed question as to the history of antevocalic $\dot{\imath}$ in Germanic (recently more fully discussed by Paul in Paul-Braune's Beitr. VII 152 ff., Kögel IX 509 ff., Bremer XI 46 ff.) has not yet been completely cleared up. The following seems to me to be the most probable.

s \acute{e} īō* existed up to the end of the prim. Germ. period. The ai in Goth. saia was the long vowel of the ai in baifra, namely an open $\dot{\imath}$, which vowel is certainly to be assumed also in loan words as hairaisis = Gr. αἰρεσις (Gr. ai was an open ē in Ulfila's time); s. Braune Got. Gramm.² p. 11. Cp. Goth. au before vowels § 179. It is probable that the j in saijiþ was still prim. Germ. -j-, but it must not be maintained as certain. We may apparently assume for West Germ., where ē became æ (§ 75), that j partly (before a and guttural vowels) regularly dropped out and that then so made its appearance before guttural vowels as glide (1. sg. saiu), after which by form assimilation j became also used before guttural vowels and so before palatal; and at this stage the different dialects took different directions. One might also assume that those forms in which j regularly dropped out were extended by analogy to all other forms and that j was later generated again as a glide in sā-is, sā-it etc.

Original zje in unaccented final syllables was treated somewhat differently. 3. sg. armzjidi* became armzidi* (with open z), thence Goth. armdiþ and OHG. armizt. For Goth. 1. sg. arma, 1. pl. armam, see the incidence.

Prim. Germ. blōjana-n* 'to blossom' (cp. Lat. flō-s flō-r-is 'flower'): OHG. bluoan (bluohan) bluoian bluowan, OS. blōian, Ags. blōwan; cp. OHG. sāian sāwan above. Prim. Germ. 3. sg. frijo-jī-di* 'loves' (= O.Bulg. prija-je-ti 'takes care of') became frijoīdi*, frijoīdi*, thence Goth. frijōþ, analogously OHG. salbōt = Goth. salbōþ 'anoints'; cp. Goth. compar. armōza 'poorer', superl. armōsts 'poorest' fr. armō-izō, -ista-z*, which first became armōjzō -ōjstaz*.

Rem. 2. It is remarkable that ōj and ēj were treated differently before consonants, but I see no plausible means of avoiding this assumption.

After short vowels -j- occasionally appears as -ddj- in Goth. Gen. pl. twaddjē 'duorum': Skr. dvayá-. daddja 'I suckle': Skr. dháya-mi. iddja 'I went': Skr. á-yā-m. To this -ddj- corresponded O.Norse -ggj-, e. g. O.Icel. tweggja: Goth. twaddjē. In Westgerm. the original prim. Germ. 'sound' generated an i, which, uniting with the preceding vowel, formed a diphthong, and when the preceding vowel was i, an i, e. g. OHG. zweijo: Goth. twaddjē, Frija: O.Icel. Frigg. The conditions for this universal Germ. special treatment of -j- have not been determined. Cp. § 179 and Kögel in Paul-Braune's Beitr. IX 523.

Rem. 3. The consonant, developed before the prim. Germ. j-sound in Gothic-Norse, was a palatal g. Nothing stands in the way of our assigning this palatal value to O.Icel. gg before j. This sound moved further forward in Gothic and became (dorsal?) ǰ (ǰd). See Braune in Paul-Braune's Beitr. IX 545 f.

Indg. Combination -yǰ-. Goth. glitmunja 'I shine', like Gr. σπεραινω 'I sow with seed', Indg. -my-ǰō (§ 245). Goth. kunni, st. kunja-, n. 'sex, race' fr. ǰy-ǰō-*; sama-kunja- 'of the same race or family' to Gr. ὁμό-γυνος, which stand to one another in the same relation as Lat. mōrior to Skr. mriyē 'I die' etc. (§ 120 p. 112).

Goth. -j- was -ǰ-. The frequent spelling with g in OHG. points to a spirantal pronunciation, e. g. pluogentiu to bluoian 'to blossom', wart-sāgo 'seminiverbius' to sāian 'to sow', 3. pl. opt. pres. salbogēn beside salboiēn salboēn from salbōn 'to anoint', cp. § 120 extr.

§ 143. Postconsonantal.

Consonant + j in the initial syllable was not retained unchanged.

Of the Indg. double form of the Opt. siǰ-m* and siǰē-m* 'sim' the latter only survived: Goth. siján. Cp. also us-kijans 'sprouted forth' (pres. 1. sg. us-kei-na), originally ǰij-ono-s* fr. rt. ǰei- (Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 38. 368. 373).

The j of siǰ-* united with the following u to form a diphthong in Goth. siujan OHG. siuwan 'to sew', OHG. siula 'awl' (cp. Skr. syā-tā-s 'sewn', Lith. siū-ta-s 'sewn', siūla-s 'sewing thread'), likewise in OHG. chiuwan 'to chew' fr. ǰiǰ-* (cp. O.Bulg. ѣва ѣва 'I chew' fr. ǰiǰwa* ǰiǰia*, §§ 52. 147).

Rem. With siujan, as compared with midjun-gards 'sphere of the earth' (i. e. midjum(a)-gards*) etc., compare þius 'servant' fr. þiǰ(a)-z* (gen. þis-is) with suijus 'sons' fr. suiǰ(i)-z* (cp. § 179).

Medially.

Goth. midjis midja 'medius media': Skr. mādhyā-s mādhyā. aljis 'alius': Gr. ἄλλο-ς. bērus-jōs 'parents', properly partic. 'having brought forth': cp. Lith. gen. sg. partic. pf. siūkus-io of sukù 'I turn'. Cpt. viljáu 'velim¹⁾' for orig. mel-ǰē-m* (with this cp.

1) The ending formed after the analogy of bairjau, s. the accidence.

siġau for orig. s-iġō-m*). hafja 'I raise': Lat. capiō fr. capiō*. Verbs in -atja as kāupatja 'I give a box on the ears', svōgatja 'I sigh' like Gr. verbs in -άζω fr. -ad-ġō*. Of the nom. sg. hairdeis 'herdsman' fr. ġirdi(i)-z* (cp. 3. sg. fra-vardeiþ fr. ġard(i)đ(i)*, § 142) as compared with harjis 'army' we have already spoken in § 120, we refer also to § 660 rem. 3; pl. hairdjōs fr. ġirdiōz* like 1. sg. fra-varđja fr. ġard(i)đ*. Goth. namnja 'I name' may be regarded as the representative of a prim. Germ. form namn-iġō*, so that it would stand to glitmun-ja 'I shine' (§ 142) in the same relation as Skr. mr-iyā-tē to Av. mer-yē-iti (§ 120 p. 112) and as Gr. νόρυ-α to τέτρανα (fr. texrav-ja* § 234).

In OHG. i had suffered manifold changes the course of which it is to some extent difficult to control, because no difference was made in writing between i (j) and i, and because the fate of i was connected with the West Germanic consonant-lengthening which arose before this consonant (§§ 215. 277. 529. 532. 535. 540).

-ri- after short syllables became by anaptyxis -rij-, -rig- (g signifies palatal spirant, cp. genēr § 141, pluogentiu § 142). Dat. herie heriqe: cp. Goth. harja 'exercitui'. Nom. ferio ferigo 'ferry-man': Goth. farja*. Cp. § 628.

In other respects postconsonantal -i- was still retained in the oldest period, e, that is ġ, was also written instead of i, and disappeared in the IX cent. willio willeo (read willġo willġo) willo 'will, desire': Goth. vilja m. heff(i)an: Goth. hafjan 'to raise', bitt(i)an: Goth. bidjan 'to beg'.

i had already disappeared before i prior to the time of our oldest monuments. 2. sg. bitis: Goth. bidjis 'thou beggest'. Dat. pl. herim fr. her-iin* (and further fr. -iēm*, -iōm*): Goth. harjam 'exercitibus'. More will be found regarding postconsonantal i in OHG. in Braune's Ahd. Gramm. p. 83 ff.

§ 144. Anteconsonantal and finally.

Indg. ei became iġ, ī in prim. Germ. 1. sg. stīgō* (Goth. steiga) 'I ascend': Gr. στείχω. Loc. sg. ġaiinī* (OHG. heini hétims) 'at home': cp. Gr. oíkes 'at home' (Kögel Zeitschr. f. deutsehn. Altert. 1884 p. 118 f.). See § 67.

Indg. oi and ai fell together and have partly remained i-diphthongs up to the present time. 3. sg. Goth. váit OHG. weiz Mod.HG. weiss: Gr. foídē. Nom. pl. Goth. pái OHG. thē dē 'the': Gr. toi. OHG. seila f. seito m. 'string, cord': Lat. senta 'strong hair, bristle', Lith. sēla-s 'cord', from rt. sai- 'bind'. See §§ 83, 99.

Goth. dat. sg. fem. gibái 'to a gift' fr. orig. -ai: Skr. Ved. -ai. Gr. -a. See §§ 659, 3. 660, 3.

Baltic-Slavonic.

§ 145. Initially. Indg. i- and j- fell together in i-, which has retained the pronunciation as consonantal vowel in historic times. Acc. sg. fem. Lith. j and Slav. j retained the pronunciation i between vowels.

§ 147. Postconsonantal.

Lithuanian. Here a distinction must be made according as a palatal vowel (e, i) or another followed.

i dropped out before palatal vowels already in prim. Baltic (J. Schmidt Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVI 331 f. and 339). Voc. sg. svetē fr. svet-ǵe*, to nom. svēczias 'guest' fr. svet-ǵa-s*. Comparat. sald-ēs-ni-s (fr. saldū-s 'sweet') fr. ǵes-nǵi-s*, formed with the comparat. suffix -ǵes- = Skr. -yas-. Nom. sg. zēnē 'earth', Lett. feme, Pruss. semnē, prim. Balt. zēm-ǵē*; see the coincidence for the relation of this suffix form to -ǵā in glria glre 'wood, forest' (beside glrē), šiniā šinē 'tidings' (Lett. fiņa) and in O.Bulg. zemlja, as well as to martl (gen. marczyōs) 'bride' patl 'spouse'. gerās-is 'definite' form of the adj. gēras 'good', beside jls. Nom. sg. mādis 'tree' (gen. mādzio) fr. med-ǵi-s* (i retained after vowels : mō-jis, gen. mō-jo, 'sign, nod'), Indg. -ǵi-s (§ 84 rem. 1); whereas lokys 'bear' (Lett. lāzis) with -ys fr. iǵi-s* like Goth. hattrēis fr. χivā-ǵi-s*; i. e. we have here a manifestation of double suffixes -ǵo- and -iǵo-, respectively -ǵi- and -iǵi- (§ 120), which in Baltic were brought into relation in the nom. sg. with the varying position of the word-accent Postconsonantal ǐ remained longer before other vowels than before ě, ĩ. It softened the preceding consonants and then mostly disappeared in this palatalisation, so that the ǐ, which is now-a-days written between consonants and following vowels, is simply to be regarded as a sign of the softened pronunciation of the consonant. This softening is more intensive in the south-eastern dialects than in Pruss. Lithuania. spǐauju 'I spit' : cp. Gr. πρῶ fr. (σ)πῑῡ-ῑω* (§ 131). siu-ta-s 'sewn' : Skr. syū-tá-s. Gen. sg. pikio (piki-s m. 'pitch'), st. pikia-, orig. piq-ǐo* : cp. Gr. πίσσα fr. πιξ-ῑα*. ariū 'I plough' : O.Bulg. orja. tǐ-, dǐ- became czǐ-, dǐ- i. e. softened tš, dš, e. g. gen. sg. tězio fr. tetǐō* (těti-s 'father'), mědǐo fr. medǐō* (mědi-s 'tree'); this affection is not old; tǐ, dǐ occur still in the dialect of Memel and are pronounced similarly to softened k, a etc. Whilst Indg. neu-ǐo-s* 'new' (Skr. návyā-s 'new') became naūjas naūjes, Indg. grey-ǐo-* (Skr. kravyā-m 'raw meat, carrion') became kraūjas kraūjes (cp. Pruss. Vocab. crauyo).

ǐ remained in Slav. after p, b, v, m, but in a part of the Slav. languages (amongst which O.Bulg.) a soft l was developed. O.Bulg. pljuti 'to spit' fr. prim. Slav. (s)piǐu-tǐ* : Lith. spǐau-ti. Indic. pres. 1. sg. zobljǐ 2. sg. zoblješi etc., inf. zobati 'to eat'. Fem. zemlja 'earth' : cp. Lith. žėmė.

ǐ palatalised l, r, n, and then disappeared (as in Lith.). orja 'I plough' : Lith. ariū. tǐlja 'ground, pavement' : cp. Lith. pl. tėlės 'foot-boards in a small boat' (§ 304). vonja 'smell' fr. orig. anǐa* (§ 666, 1) fr. rt. an- 'exhale'. The softened consonants are represented in manuscripts by r̂, l̂, n̂ or rĵ, lĵ, nĵ or are simply written r, l, n, e. g. volǐa, volǐja and volǐa beside volja acc. of volja f. 'will, wish', more beside morje 'sea'.

Prim. Slav. tǐ, dǐ (= older tǐ, dǐ and tǐĵ, dǐĵ) became št, šd in O.Bulg. Pres. 1. sg. meštǐ 2. sg. mešteši etc. fr. metǐa* metješi*, inf. metati 'to throw'. mešda 'boundary' fr. medǐa* : Skr. mádhyā. The same sound-combinations arose from stǐ, zdǐ. tlūšta 'pinguedo' fr. tlūstǐa* (more correctly tlūstǐa* § 302) from tlūstū 'pinguis'. za-gvožda, 'I nail fast' fr. za-Ǔvozǐa*, from Ǔvozǐ 'nail'. When an r or v stood between t, d and the following i, it did not prevent this process of assimilation. sü-mostrjā 'I look, consider' fr. motr-jā*, inf. sü-motriti. Adj. u-ut. būdrje 'vigilant' fr. būdr-je. u-mrīstolvjā* 'I kill' (part. pret. pass. u-mrīstoljenū) fr. u-mrītvjā* (for the interpolated l s. p. 132), inf. u-mrītviti. The form tlūšta corresponded to ostrjā 'acute' fr. ostrjā*, inf. ostriti, derived from ostrū 'sharp', the t of which was excrecent (§ 545).

Rem. 1. In the phonetic explanation of this influence of i on a preceding t or d, and consonant-groups containing them, we must start from zdj, sj, strj. The treatment of these prim. Slav. combinations in the Slav. dialects shows that the whole combination preceding the i was first of all softened. There arose: gvozd'jā*, tlust'jā*, ost'jā* ('indicating the softening'); i after t, d in the first two forms then became a palatal spirant (ɣ voiceless, ɣ voiced): gvozd'ɣā*, tlust'ɣā* (pronounce d'ɣ and t'ɣ like Russ. ЛѢ and ТѢ). In O.Bulg. specially ost'ɣā* became ostrjā, and gvozd'ɣā*, tlust'ɣā* became first gvozd'zā*, tlust'sā* (pronounce d'z and t's like Polish dź and ć), then gvozd'zā*, tlust'sā* (and lastly gvozd'zā, tlust'sā* (cp. below for ž fr. skj*).

Analogously medjā*, matjā* became in prim. Slav. med'jā*, met'jā*, and then med'ɣā*, met'ɣā*. Hence specially in O.Bulg. through anticipation of the spirant med'ɣā*, met'ɣā*, further med'sā*, met'sā* — med'sā*, met'sā* — med'sā, met'sā.

The O.Bulg. forms sü-mostrjā, u-mrīstolvjā, būdrje were also prepared for already in prim. Slav. in so far as i had softened the whole combinations tr, te, dr. But it must here be observed that the š and ž depending on the anticipation of the palatalism are not always written in the monuments, e. g. sü-motr(j)enije beside sü-motr(j)enije n. 'consideration' (Miklosich Vergl. Gramm. I² 220). We do not decide as to how this fluctuating orthography is to be judged.

That the O.Bulg. combinations žd and žd were spoken soft (dž, žd) follows from such spellings as nadeždē (ž sign for ja) beside nadežda 'hope', sqāžu beside sqāžu 'dr.' dat. sg. of the part. sy. 'dr' met with in most monuments. Cp. rem. 4.

From prim. Slav. kj, gj (mostly = Indg. gi, gi, ghi, § 461) arose in prim. Slav. č (i. e. tš), dž, the latter was weakened to ž in O.Bulg. pri-tlūča 'comparison' fr. tlūkja*. lūči 'mendacious' fr. lūgā*: OHG. lukki 'mendacious' (prim. Germ. st. luzja*); lūžā 'mentior' fr. lūgja*, inf. lūgati.

Analogously skj became sč i. e. stš, hence by assimilation of the sibilants štš, further historic št (more correctly št, cp. rem. 1). ištq išteši etc. fr. iskjā*, inf. iskati 'to seek'.

1) ž, ž are the softened ž, ž. Cp. Ar. ž and ž §§ 20. 21 396 and elsewhere.

Rem. 2. Cp. vūšeti 'to begin' fr. vūšeti* = vūs+eti*. Further on account of the O.Bulg. change of štš to š, the loc. sg. člověčestě beside člověčacě from nom. člověčeskū 'human' and inf. istěliti beside is-čěliti 'to heal' (cf fr. ste) are instructive.

Beside this treatment of prim. Slav. kj, gj there is also a change of them to c (i. e. ts) and dz, the latter was weakened to z in O.Bulg. in the beginning of the literary period (Miklosich Vergl. Gramm. I² 251 ff.). Nom. sg. in -iči m., -ice n., -ica f., e. g. juniči 'young bullock' fr. jūnikjā*, srīdīce 'heart' fr. srīdīkije*, ovīca 'ovis' fr. ovīkijā*. Neut. lice (gen. lica) 'face' fr. likije*. Fem. stīza 'way' fr. stīgijā*. The treatment here in question took place at a later period of the prim. Slav. language than the one above, viz.: at the same time when the instr. sg. takēmī* (O.Bulg. takū 'talīs') became tacēmī (§§ 84. 462). Therefore a jūnikjā* was only formed to jūnikū* and an ovīkijā* to ovīkā* after the law, whereby kj became č, had already ceased to operate. The voc. junīče still belongs to jūnikū* (cp. vlīče : vlīkū), so too junīči 'taurinus', ovīči 'ovinus' are also directly to be referred to jūnikū*, ovīkā*¹).

Prim. Slav. sj, zj = Indg. kj, gj, ghj (§ 412) became already in prim. Slav. š, ž. O.Bulg. pres. pišq pišesi etc. (inf. pīšati 'to write') fr. pīšjā* pīšjesi*, rt. pejē- 'to cut, cut straight'. žuja and živa* 'I chew' fr. zjā-ja* and zjā-va* zjā-vo* (§ 52), the latter = OHG. chiuou from rt. gha^uu-. ližq ližesi etc. (inf. lizati 'to lick') = Lith. lēšiū 'I lick', prim. f. leigjū-jō*.

ī with a preceding Indg. s became š in prim. Slav. šiti 'to sew' fr. šijūti*, šijūti* = Lith. siūti 'to sew' (§ 60). Adj. naš 'noster', to gen. naši 'nostri' (fr. nas-sū*). Part. neut. byšqšte-je 'rō μέλλων', to an obsolete fut. indic. by-šq* : Lith. bū-siu 'I shall be'. Part. pf. gon. sg. masc. nesīša (indic. pres. nesq 'I carry') : Lith. nėsz-us-io, cp. Goth. nom. pl. bēr-us-jōs 'parents' ('those who have brought forth').

1) No direct historic connexion, consequently, exists between junīči and Lith. jaunikis, gen. jaunikio 'bride-groom' (properly 'juvenculus') in spite of their similar suffix formation

Rem. 3. In those cases where Indg. s had passed into ch in prim. Slav., s is not to be traced back directly to s_i, but first of all to ch_i (cp. snūšiniū 'like a daughter-in-law' adj. fr. snūchisū from snūcha 'nurus': Skr. anuśā, Indg. anusā*). Cp. § 588, 2. 3.

These affections of prim. Slav. s (= Indg. k̃, s) and z (= Indg. ǵ, ǵh), caused by i, took place also when an l or n stood between them. O.Bulg. mysljq : inf. mysliti 'to think'. blašnjq : inf. blašniti 'to lead astray'. Here i first palatalised l, n and thus extended its influence to s, z, but disappeared in the softened l, n, according to the remarks made above under r_i, l_i, n_i. Cp. ostrjq (inf. ostriti) fr. ostrjq* above, rem. 1. mysljq : pišq, nesūša = ostrjq : lūšta.

Rem. 4. That O.Bulg. č, š = orig. ǵ_i, ǵ_i, ǵh_i; c, dz = orig. ǵ_i, ǵ_i, ǵh_i; š, š = orig. š_i, ǵh_i and š = orig. s_i were spoken soft, follows from the spellings with a following j, found in most monuments, as mąjju beside mąju dat. sg. of mąj 'man' (st. mąže fr. mąǵje*), dušjq beside dušq acc. sg. of duša 'soul'. Cp. rem. 1 extr.

§ 148. Antec consonantal and finally.

Indg. ej = Lith. ei and ē, Slav. i. Inf. Lith. ei-ti, O.Bulg. i-ti 'to go' from rt. ei-. Lith. žė-mà O.Bulg. zi-ma f. 'winter': Gr. χῆμα. S. § 68.

Indg. oi and ai = Lith. ai and ē, Slav. ě (initially i, finally č and i). Lith. snėga-s O.Bulg. sněgū 'snow': Goth. snāivs, cpf. snoigho-s*. Lith. v-ėna-s O.Bulg. inū 'unus': O.Lat. oino-s. Lith. tė O.Bulg. ti 'the' nom. pl.: Gr. τοί. Lith. ait-laika-s O.Bulg. otū-lėkū 'remnant': Gr. λοιμός. Lith. pai-saiti-s m. 'binding thong' sėta-s 'cord', O.Bulg. sěti f. 'cord', rt. sai- 'bind'. Nom. du. fem. Lith. tė-dvi ('the two') O.Bulg. tě from Indg. st. ta-* 'the': Skr. tē, Indg. tāi*. S. §§ 84. 100.

Final Indg. -oi retained the o down to the Lith. language period, hence Lith. dat. sg. vilkui 'to a wolf', Gr. λύκῳ (§ 664, 4). Whilst the instr. pl. vilkais = Skr. vykaiṣ presupposes the change of oi to oi in an earlier period; s. § 615.

Loss of i in the primitive Indg. period.

§ 149. i after an initial consonant has frequently been dropped in the different Indg. languages, without its loss being able to be explained by the sound-laws of the languages in question. E. g. from rt. sja^xu- 'sew', Skr. sā-tra-m 'yarn, string', Lat. suō sūtū-s, OHG. sou-m O.Icel. sau-m-r m. 'hemmed edge, seam' beside Skr. syū-tā- 'sewn', OHG. siuwan 'to sew', siut 'seam'. Upon this Osthoff bases his neat conjecture (Morph. Unt. IV 19) that the first i in pres. forms like siū-iō* 'I sew' spiū-iō* 'I spit' disappeared by dissimilation already in the Indg. period, so that now sū-iō* stood beside siū-to-s* (part.). siū- was then transferred by analogy to pres. forms also, hence e. g. O.Bulg. šija i. e. siŷ-iā* after forms like inf. šiti i. e. siŷ-ti* (§ 147), and vice versa sū to non-pres. forms, hence e. g. Skr. sā-tra-m instead of regular syū-tra-m*.

§ 150. According to Joh. Schmidt (Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 305. 369 ff.) and W. Schulze (ibid. 420 ff.) antecoonsonantal i was dropped after long vowels in the Indg. prim. language. Nom. sg. rēs* :: Skr. rās 'possessions, treasure' Lat. rēs 'possessions, thing' fr. rēi-s* : cp. Skr. nom.pl. rāy-as. Indg. pō-* fr. pōi-* 'drink' in Skr. inf. pā-tu-m, Gr. πῶ-μα 'potion', Lat. pō-tu-s pō-culu-m, Lith. pā'-ta 'drinking bout' : cp. Skr. pāy-ana-m 'watering of cattle' pī-tā- 'drunk', Gr. πῖ-νω 'I drink'. Indg. dhēu-s* = Skr. dhārū-ṣ 'sucking' Gr. θηλυ-ς 'suckling, female' fr. dhēi-lu-s* : cp. Skr. dhēnā 'milk-cow'. Gr. Dor. rārāoμαι 'I am bereft, want', O.Ir. tāid 'thief' (prim. f. tati-*), O.Bulg. tali 'thief' fr. tāi-* : cp. Skr. stē-nā-s beside stāyū-ṣ tāyū-ṣ 'thief'.

Our assumption of -ōis as the ending of the instr. pl. of o-stems, and of ēis* 'thou wentest' (Skr. atṣ) etc. for the prim. period (§§ 69. 85. 101) would not contradict these combinations. In these latter cases we should only have to assign the first appearance of the monosyllabic form from an older dissyllabic form (-ōis perhaps fr. -o-a^xis; ēis* fr. é eis*) to a later period of the prim. language, in which the sound-law, whereby rēis* became rēs*, no longer operated.

Nevertheless the above hypothesis still requires further support before it can be set up in any degree as certain. Cp. also Hübschmann Das idg. Vocaleystem p. 24 and elsewhere.

uy stood beside y on the same principles as Indg. ij beside i (s. § 120).

First after initial consonants. duyō* beside dyō* 'two': Skr. Ved. duvā, Gr. δύ(ς)ω, Lat. du(v)o. From rt. gha^uy- 'call' partly ghuy-, and partly ghy- as weak grade form (§ 312):

After initial ḡ or j and initial double consonants only uy. St. juy-en-* or juy-en-* 'young', juy-y-kō-s* or juy-y-kō-s* 'juvenile' (cp. Comparat. Skr. yāu-īyas-) : Skr. yāv-an- yuo-a-sā-s, Lat. juv-en-i-s juv-en-cu-s, Goth. juggs fr. prim. Germ. juy-uō-ga-s*. Antesonantal st. form bhruy-* 'brow' : Skr. gen. bhruv-ās, Gr. gen. ὀφρὺς(f)-ος, O.Bulg. nom. brūo-ŭ.

Medial uy after long syllables, especially after double consonants. Prim. Indg. is the contrast, e. g. between Skr. 3. pl. aś-nuo-ānti (1. sg. aś-nō-mi 'I attain'), Gr. ἀγ-νῖ(f)-αι (1. sg. ἄγ-νῶ-μι 'I break') on the one hand and Skr. 3. pl. su-nv-ānti (1. sg. su-nō-mi 'I press the soma-juice out'), 3. sg. ṛ-nv-ā-ti 'puts in motion', Gr. Att. φθίρω 'I waste away, decay' fr. φθι-νῖ-ω* (cp. φθι-νῖ-θω), Goth. rinna 'I run' fr. ri-nū-ō* (§ 180) = Skr. ri-nv-a-mi 'I let flow, run' (not found) on the other, cp. § 313.

§ 154. Antesonantal medially. Very frequent after a-, e- and *o-*vowels, with which u formed diphthongs, e. g. st. aug-men-* (rt. aug- 'grow') : Skr. ājman- m. 'strength, power', Lat. augmen, Lith. augmù (gen. augmėùs) 'growth, excrescence'. diēy-s* 'sky' : Skr. dyāuś, Gr. Ζεὺς. Cp. §§ 61—108.

The treatment of u before ḡ was often different from that before other consonants. Whilst e. g. the ey in Indg. ney-ḡo-s*, a further formation of neyo-s* (Skr. nāra-s etc.), appears developed in the same manner as before other consonants in Lith. naūja-s and Goth. niufi-s, Skr. nāya-s shows the heterosyllabic form of Indg. ey. Analogously in Gr. e. g. ἐκτόμ-φλο-ς fr. -φλοf-ḡo-ς* (cp. Skr. gāya-s 'bovarius') in contrast e. g. to φλοῦδ. The manner of dividing the syllables before ḡ therefore took different ways : Lith. naūjas represents a neyḡios*, Skr. nāyayas a neḡuḡios*. Cp. also Skr. gāya- with Av. gaoya- (§ 160).

A diphthong was frequently not formed before nasals and liquids in cases where it might be expected, e. g. Skr. vaunāś- beside maghōn- (§ 160), Gr. ἐφάγῃ (ἐφράγῃ) beside (Lesb.)

εύρανη (§ 167). The various modes of syllabic formation were also here the criterion.

Anteconsonantal y seldom occurred after i-vowels from the very beginning e. g. Skr. div-yá- 'celestial'; Skr. pī-vn- 'fat', weak antevocalic st. form beside pī-van-, e. g. gen. pl. pī-vn-am; Av. jīva- 'belonging to life'. Diphthongs were only formed in Germ., e. g. Goth. ga-giunan 'to come to life again' from st. giva-, which, of course, is not an old inherited formation, cp. §§ 179. 181.

§ 155. Interconsonantal y was not, at it seems, permitted in prim. Indg. E. g. antesonantal getur*- ('four') for getur*- (Skr. acc. catúr-as) beside anteconsonantal getuy*- (Gr. Hom. τέρραι τέρραιος fr. ter-fəa-si-ro-s*, Lith. ketviŕta-s). Cp. also prim. Ar. atharun*- ('fire priest') for atharyn*- (Av. dat. sg. aŕarun-ŕ) beside atharya*- = atharyu*- (Skr. dat. abl. pl. átharva-bhyas), Skr. instr. áyur-a ('life') beside Gr. ai(f)ér ai(f)óir etc. (The author Morph. Unt. II 189 ff).

Rem. I. therefore, conjecture that Skr. instr. sg. dēer-d (fr. daiyér*- 'husband's brother') does not represent an Indg. daiyur*-, but a special Sanskrit new formation daiyur*-, daiyur*- and daiyur*- may have existed side by side of each other in Prim. Indg. The spondaic form daiyur, Ilias Ω 769, can equally well be read daiyūr (fr. daiyūr*) as daiyūr, conjectured by Ebel.

§ 156. Finally. y only occurred as an absolute final in the second component of diphthongs. E. g. voc. Skr. sānō Lith. sānau O.Bulg. synu 'O son', Indg. sāney* or sānoy*; loc. Skr. sānau O.Bulg. synu 'in filio', Umhr. manuy-e 'in manu', Indg. sānōy* (cp. § 85). Its treatment in the individual languages was almost entirely the same as that of anteconsonantal diphthongs. y, when conditionally final, also stood after consonants, perhaps médhy esti* = Skr. mádhv asti 'mel est'. Cp. § 645, 2.

Initial u was lost before u and ā in Skr. urū-§ 'broad' fr. yur-u-§, prim. f. yur-u-s (§ 290). ārṇā 'wool' fr. yārṇā*, Indg. y-ṇā* (§§ 151. 306).

ur- was transposed in Av. with u-prothesis. vratā-* n. 'decree, command': Gr. φρητό-ς 'decreed'. Part. pres. mid. vāzema-* 'powerful' (z = ā) to Skr. vradh- 'to be great, powerful'. Cp. §§ 260. 624.

-aom is written in Av. for -avem = prim. Ar. -ayam, e. g. ker'naom = Skr. ākṛ-ṇav-am 'I made'. In like manner drūm for druvem = Skr. dhruvā-m 'firmum'. Cp. Bartholomae Handb. § 95.

§ 159. Postconsonantal. Skr. svā- Av. xva- 'suus': Gr. φός ός, Indg. syō-s*. Skr. hv-atar- Av. zb-atar- 'crier': O.Bulg. zv-ateli, from rt. *gha*yu-*. Skr. sārva- Av. haurva- O.Pers. harāva- (read harva-, s below) 'all': Gr. ὅλος όλος fr. óλfo-ς*. Skr. dēvā-s 'god', Av. daēva- 'devil': Pruss. deiva-s 'god', Indg. deiyu-s*.

y often interchanged with vy in Ved. (cp. §§ 120. 125. 153). In the initial syllable, e. g. dod and duv like Gr. δοῖ-δεκα and δύω; śván- and śuván- 'dog', cp. Av. span- Lith. nom. szẽ fr. szyn* and Gr. κύων κύων. As this interchange dates back to the prim. Indg. language, vy, after a long syllable in the same word, may perhaps be regarded everywhere as an old inherited form, e. g. rakṣas-tvám 'damage' beside dēva-tvám 'divinity'; part. pf. daś-ván 'doing homage' beside vid-ván 'knowing'; 2. pl. mid. impf. áyug- dhvam (ynj- 'yoke, harness') beside ákṣu-dhvam (kar- 'make'). In the classical language -y- for the most part only appears, e. g. only -tva-, -dhvam. The old stage vy remained, e. g. in gen. bhuv-as from bhā- 'world', bhruv-as from bhrā- 'brow', and in non-initial syllables in 3. pl. in -muv-anti after consonants beside -uv-anti after sonants, aor. a-su-sruv-a-t 'flowed' from sruv-sru- (cp. § 313). In the popular dialects vy frequently made its appearance again where the classical Skr. only had y. We may have old forms, e. g. in Pāli tuvaṃ (beside taṃ = Skr. tvám) 'thee'; nom. acc. duvẽ (Prākṛ. written duẽ and duvẽ) beside dvẽ 'two'; suván-a- beside nom. sā 'dog'.

Various assimilations took place in Iranian in the combination consonant + y. For O.Pers. we must premise that uv or āv was written for v after consonants, e. g. puvām for pām = Skr. tvám 'thee', harūva- for harva- = Skr. sārva- 'all'; cp. the orthography -iy- and -īy- for -y- p. 11f

Indg. ky (= Skr. śv) became Iran. sp. Av. O.Pers. aspa-: Skr. ásva- 'horse', Indg. ekyo-*. Av. span-: Skr. śván- 'hound, dog', Indg. kṣon-*.

In like manner Indg. gy, ghy (= Skr. jv, hv) became Av. zb. zb-atar-: Skr. hv-atar- O.Bulg. zv-atelĩ 'crier'.

Indg. ty (= Skr. tv) appears in Av. as pw (w was spirant), and in O.Pers. as puv; that the uv in the latter combination was a consonant, follows directly from the change of t into p (§ 473). Av. puvām O.Pers. puvām: Skr. tvám 'thee'. Gen. sg. Av. xraþw-ō: Skr. bráto-as from st. xratu-: Skr. krátu- 'power, understanding'.

Indg. dy, dhv (= Skr. dv, dhv), which, in prim. Iran., fell together in dy (§ 481), appear in Av. initially as dv and db (Gāp. db), b, medially as dv and dv. Initially, dvaṣah:- Skr. dveṣas- n. 'bearing enmity, hatred'; dbiṣ-, Gāp. d'biṣ:- Skr. dviṣ- 'hate'. bitīm, Gāp. d'bitīm: Skr. dvitīya-m 'secundum'¹). Medially, part. pf. evīdēd: Skr. ā-vidvān 'not knowing, unwise'. er'dwa:- Skr. ārdhvā- 'upright' (cp. §§ 288. 306). So also side by side of each other Gāp. -dām (i. e. -dvem s. below) and late Av. -dāem = Skr. -dhvam, ending of 2. pl. mid. O.Pers. dāvitiya- 'secundus', whose āv (to be read as consonant) was either y or spirant.

Indg. py became fye*, thence f in Av. Acc. sg. afentem 'aquosum' fr. prim. Ar. ap-yant-am*.

Indg. sy (Skr. sv) became in Av. xw (init. and med.) and *xw*h (medially). xwa:- Skr. svā- 'suus'. xwaxhar:- Skr. svāsar- 'sister'. haraxwacitī:- sārasvatī prop. name. 2. sg. imper. baraxwaha: Skr. bhāra-sva, from Ar. bhar- 'bear, bring'. The pronunciation of *-xw*h, which is mostly not sonantal, has not been determined. For xw and *xw*h in the Gāpās hw also occurs: hwa- 'suus', 2. sg. imper. gāša-hwā 'hear'. In O.Pers. xw = prim. Ar. sy. uwa:- Av. xwa- Skr. svā- 'suus'. 2. sg. imper. patipayausa 'protect thyself': cp. Skr. bhāra-sva. Acc. sg. harauxvatim = Skr. sārasvatīm. Cp. § 558, 3.

-ām is written for -vem in Av. Acc. pourum: O.Pers. parūvam (read pārūvam) Skr. pārva-m 'priorem'. 2. sg. imper. Gāp. dazdām: Skr. dādāhvām, from Ar. dad- 'give', etc. See Bartholomae Handb. § 95 a.

v in Av. is often to be read as uv, especially after long syllables, just as in Ved., e. g. gen. sg. read zantuv-ō for zantv-ō from zantu- 'district', cp. Ved. gen. dhṛṣṇuv-ās from dhṛṣṇu- 'repose'.

§ 160. Anteconsonantal medially and finally.

1) For an uncertain conjecture concerning the reason of the change de- on the one hand and db-, dv- on the other, see Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 371 ff.

The vowel remained in Sanskrit as y after a (au), whereas prim. Ar. ay became ō. Prim. Ar. prim. Iran. ay appears as ao (i. e. u) or eu in Av., prim. Ar. prim. Iran. ay remained (au); prim. Ar. ay and āy remained unchanged in O.Pers. (au, written auw when final, and au). Skr. drōgha- 'insult, grief', Av. draoya- O.Pers. dranga 'untruth'. Gen. sg. Skr. krātūṣ Av. xrataoṣ xrātēuš from st. krātu- xratu- 'power, understanding', O.Pers. kāranš from kāru- 'Cyrus'. Nom. sg. Skr. gāu-ṣ Av. gāu-ṣ 'bullock'. Loc. sg. Skr. vāsau Av. vaohāu from st. vāsu- vaohu- 'good'. O.Pers. nom. sg. dahyāuš 'country, district' (cp. nom. pl. dahyāv-u), formed like Av. bāzauš 'arm'. Cp. §§ 62. 78. 94.

In Skr. v is also found before consonants, viz. before y, r, n, e. g. div-yā- 'celestial', dēv-d instr. sg. from dēvār- 'brother-in-law', pīn-am gen. pl. from pīvan- 'fat', ṛtān-am from ṛtāvan- 'holy, pious', va-en-ūṣ- weak st. form of the pf. part. act. 'triumphant', but maghōn-a instr. sg. from maghāvan- 'distributor'. In Av. v only before y after i: jīvya- 'belonging to life'; but diphthongic in gaoya-: Skr. gāvya- 'bovinus'; vaorāzāḥa- u. 'friendliness' for va-vrāz-āḥa-*; vaonuš-: Skr. va-en-ūṣ-; aṣāun-am: Skr. ṛtān-am. That diphthongisation does not appear in Skr. in cases where it was possible (cp. vavnuṣ- with maghōn-a), depends on a different mode of forming syllables, in which other forms of the same system may have to some extent set the type (cp. va-van- beside va-en-). Cp. § 154.

y seems in Skr. to have become labiodental and spirantal already in the classical period, s. Whitney Skr. Gramm. § 57. Also forms of the popular language as Pāli diḍḍa- = divya-, pabbata- = parvata- presuppose the change of y to v spirant.

As to whether orig. y also in other cases than pīnam, aspa- etc. (159) had acquired a spirantal pronunciation in Av. (the p in aspa- was developed from a spirant), we leave undecided, and refer to Hübschmann Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIV 554 f. and Bartholomae Handb. 9. 36 f.

Armenian.

§ 162. Indg. y appears partly as v, and partly as g fr. gy* (cp. Italian guastare 'vastare', Cymr. gweddio 'vidua'), without the conditions for this difference of treatment being clear.

1. v. vasn 'on account of': Av. vasna- m. 'wish, intention', Gr. ἐκόν 'voluntarily', rt. nek-. kov, gen. kovu, 'cow': Skr. gav-, Gr. βοῦ-, Indg. gou-*. veç 'six': Gr. ἑξ ἕξ, Cymr. chwech, cp. § 589, 3.

2. g. gorc 'work': Gr. ῥέγο-ν. gitem 'I know': Skr. pf. vēda. loganam 'I bathe myself': Lat. lavō. taigr, gen. taiger, 'brother-in-law': Skr. dēvár-.

k(y) appears for g(y) after voiceless explosives and spirants. So sk- fr. sy-* (= orig. k̥y-, § 408) in skesur, gen. skesri, 'mother-in-law'; prim. Arm. syēs-* arose from Indg. syek-* (cp. Goth. swathrō, Gr. ἐνυῶ) through assimilation of s- to the following k̥ (§ 562). Indg. sy-* and ty-* became k-: k̥oir, gen. k̥eī, 'sister': Skr. svāsar-; k̥o 'tui' k̥ez 'tibi': Skr. ta-; cp. §§ 560. 360.

Greek.

§ 163. Indg. y was retained as f, which was generally spoken as a vowel, not as a spirant. It was sometimes also incorrectly written v and β. The sound remained in most dialects until far into historic times, as inscriptions show. f first disappeared in Ion.-Att. It generally disappeared earlier medially than finally.

§ 164. Initially. Bæot. etc. f̄ixati Dor. f̄ixati Ion. Att. είκοι 'twenty': Skr. viṣati-, Lat. viginti, O.Ir. fiche. Cret. f̄iofo-ç Bæot. etc. f̄ioo-ç Att. loo-ç, probably to Skr. viṣu adv. 'in both directions'. f̄éros ἔρος 'year': Lat. vetus 'old', Skr. vats-á- 'year', O.Bulg. velūchū 'old'. f̄énos ένος 'word': Skr. vācas-. φοῖκο-ç αἶκο-ç: Skr. vēśā-s 'house', Lat. vīcus Goth. veihsa- 'spot', O.Bulg. vīst 'village'. f̄aioru αῖору 'city': Skr. vāstu 'seat, place, vāstu' 'place, ground, house'. St. form f̄ap-v- 'ram' in the Bæot. proper name f̄άπρον, in ἀρρ-ός ἀρρ-ι etc., fr. orig. uy-n-; beside f̄o-γρ- in πολύ-ρρην 'rich in sheep'. οὐλο-ç 'fleece, twined' fr. uḷno-*.

through the intermediate stages Fōlvo*- Folvo*- Follo*- (§ 306): Skr. āṛyā 'wool' (§ 157).

Rem. The ' of ἔλω 'I draw', which word can not be separated from αὐλαξ 'furrow' and Lith. velkù 'I draw', is perhaps to be explained on the ground that an attraction to ἔλκ- ἔλκ- (with ' fr. σ-, § 564), corresponding to Lat. sulcus-s and Ags. sulh 'plough', took place.

El. φράτρα Att. φῆτρα 'covenant': Av. rvāta*- n. 'decree, commandment' (§ 157). In Lesb. βρ- fr. φρ-: βρήτωρ, to El. φράτρα. On Att. φ-, cp. § 226.

In Lesb. μ combined with a preceding short vowel to form a diphthong, i. e. heterosyllabic αμ, εμ, etc. became tautosyllabic, or still more precisely: αμ became a^u-a (cp. Sievers *Phonetik*³ 146). This also occurs in Hom. as an Aeolic peculiarity. σεύω 'I drive, hunt': Skr. mid. cyāv-atē 'moves himself, withdraws', Indg. 1. sg. act. qjéu-ō* or qjém-ō*. εἶδον 'I saw': Att. εἶδον, Skr. ávida-m, Indg. é uidóm*. αἶηρ 'air' αἶελλα 'gust of wind': Ion. αἶηρ ἄελλα, to ἄ(f)ημι, Skr. vāmi 'I waft, blow'.

§ 166. Postconsonantal. νF, ρF, λF remained unchanged in some dialects until after the beginning of historic times. In Lesb. and Thess. νν, ρρ, λλ arose, in other dialects (Ion. Boeot. Dor.) the double consonants were simplified with 'compensation-lengthening', whilst in Att. F was elided without compensation-lengthening. Fr. γονφα* 'knees' (cp. Rem. $\pi\pi$ beside $\kappa\kappa$ is perhaps so to be explained that the latter process of assimilation belonged to a later period than the former. On account of $\tau\iota\kappa\omicron-\varsigma$; it would then have to be assumed that also $\ast\epsilon\kappa\upsilon-$ existed beside $\ast\epsilon\kappa\mu\omicron-$, which was not transferred to the σ -declension until after the first appearance of the form $\tau\iota\pi\omicron\omicron-\varsigma$.

Cp. § 489. Corinth. $\Delta\phi\epsilon\nu\acute{\iota}\alpha\varsigma$, Hom. $\dot{\iota}\delta\delta\iota\upsilon\sigma\epsilon\nu$ $\delta\acute{\epsilon}\delta\delta\iota\mu\epsilon\nu$ $\theta\epsilon\omicron\delta\delta\eta\varsigma$ (the spellings $\delta\epsilon\dot{\iota}\delta\iota\mu\epsilon\nu$, $\theta\epsilon\omicron\upsilon\delta\eta\varsigma$ are wrong), in case $\delta\phi$ was not still spoken in the time of Hom., Att. $\delta\iota\nu\acute{o}\varsigma$ $\delta\acute{\epsilon}\delta\iota\omicron\iota\kappa\alpha$, from rt. $\delta\mu\epsilon\dot{\iota}$ 'fear'. $\delta\omega\acute{\iota}$ ($\delta\iota\kappa\alpha$) $\delta\acute{\iota}-\varsigma$: Skr. dvā dvī-ṣ. $\delta\omicron\rho\theta\acute{o}-\varsigma$: Skr. ardhvā-s, Indg. $\ast\gamma\delta\eta\mu\acute{o}-s$ 'upright' (§ 306).

$\rho\mu$, $\delta\eta\mu$. $\nu\eta\pi\iota\omicron\varsigma$ (beside $\nu\eta-\pi\upsilon-\tau\iota\omicron-\varsigma$ 'unintelligent, under age') fr. $\ast\nu\eta-\pi\acute{\iota}-\iota\omicron-\varsigma$. $\upsilon\pi\epsilon\rho-\phi\acute{\iota}\alpha\lambda\omicron-\varsigma$ 'overbearing' fr. $\ast\upsilon\pi\epsilon\rho-\phi\acute{\iota}-\iota\alpha\lambda\omicron-\varsigma$, just as Lat. superbia fr. $\ast\textit{super-fu-iā}$, from rt. $\delta\eta\mu-$ (cp. § 312).

Initial $\sigma\mu$ became voiceless f , which became h . $\text{F}\acute{o}\tau$ $\text{f}\acute{\epsilon}$, $\omicron\acute{\iota}$ f 'sibi se', $\text{f}\epsilon-\kappa\acute{\alpha}\varsigma$ $\acute{\iota}\kappa\acute{\alpha}\varsigma$ 'apart, separated' : Skr. svā-. $\text{f}\acute{\epsilon}\xi$ $\text{f}\xi$ 'six' : Cymr. chwech. The voicelessness of f is indicated in Boeot. inscrip. by h , $\text{f}\eta\epsilon\kappa\alpha-\delta\acute{\alpha}\mu\omicron\epsilon$, cp. ρh = voiceless ρ § 266. Concerning medial $\sigma\mu$, which probably became $\sigma\sigma$ σ , as in $\dot{\iota}\sigma\sigma\omicron-\varsigma$ $\dot{\iota}\sigma\omicron-\varsigma$, and the initial σ of $\sigma\acute{\alpha}\lambda\omicron\varsigma$ and others see § 563, 7.

$\acute{\iota}\mu$. $\omicron\lambda\phi\omicron-\varsigma$ $\omicron\lambda\omicron-\varsigma$ 'alone' : Av. aeva- 'unus'. $\alpha\lambda\phi\acute{\epsilon}\iota$ $\alpha\acute{\iota}\gamma\acute{\iota}$ 'ever' : Lat. aevom. $\lambda\acute{\alpha}\iota\omicron\varsigma$ 'left' : Lat. laevo-s. For the α in $\delta\acute{\alpha}\iota$, $\delta\acute{\alpha}\eta\phi$ 'brother-in-law' = Skr. dśvadr- etc. see §§ 96. 131.

Change between μ and $\mu\mu$ (cp. §§ 120, 131, 153). $\delta\acute{\omega}$ -δεκα and $\delta\acute{\omega}\omega$ 'two'. Παρ-όμμα and Sam. Κεαν-ομμάων (cp. κύαμο-ς with m -suffix) exhibit the double forms πανο- and κυανο- 'bean' (πύανο-ς is a later contamination form) from rt. $k\acute{a}^*\mu$ - 'swell'. 3. sg. pret. ἐ-φύ-η 'arose', but ὑπερ-φ(φ)-ιάλο-ς (s. above) and O.Bulg. бѣ 'was' fr. *бѣ-ѣ. κίων 'hound, dog': Skr. Ved. śuvā; fr. *κῑων = Skr. śud Lith. szũ probably became *πων and this form was then given up owing to its formal severance from κυν- (in κυνός etc.). 3. pl. ἀγνύ-ασι like Skr. aśnuv-ānti (beside sunv-ānti). 3. sg. ἐρρέ-η like Skr. āsusruv-a-t from rt. srey- 'flow'. Cp. also §§ 312, 313.

Spellings like Cypr. δυφάνοι, Chalc. Γαρυφόνης prove that the μ from $\mu\mu$ was not quite mute in Greek.

§ 167. Anteconsonantal medially and finally.

The Indg. diphthongs $e\mu$, $a\mu$ remained diphthongic. πέν-θεται: Skr. bódhatē, Indg. *bhéydhetai from bheydh- 'wake, mark'. Voc. Ζεῦ fr. Indg. *d̥yem. αὖ αὖ-τε 'again': Lat. au-t au-tem. S. §§ 61, 96. Whilst οἶ, e. g. in loc. pl. βουοί (Skr. gōṣu), passed into ᾠ already at an early period, s. § 80.

The first component of anteconsonantal $e\mu$, $o\mu$, $a\mu$ underwent shortening in prim. Gr., e. g. Ζεύς fr. *d̥yem-s (§ 69), βοῶς 'bullock' fr. *gōm-s (§ 85), ναῦς 'ship' fr. *nāy-s (§ 101), s. § 611. They thus fell together with orig. $e\mu$, $o\mu$, $a\mu$ and became subject to the same changes as these.

Ion. Att. ἀ-ρορητο-ς 'unspeken' fr. *á-φρητο-ς, πολύ-ρορην 'rich in sheep' fr. *φρην, aor. ἔ-ρορηξα 'I broke' (trans.) from (Cypr.) ἔ-φρηξα. Whereas in Lesb. (and in Hom.) ϕ before ρ , λ united with the preceding vowel to form a diphthong: αὐρηκτος = ἀρορηκτος 'not to be broken', ἐνράγη = ἐφράγη 'he broke' (intr.), ταλαύρινο-ς 'shield-bearing' (cp. φῶριος δέριμα Hysych., written γῶριος in the Cod.), εὐληραι 'reius' (cp. αὐληρον and ἄβληρα in Hesych.).

μῆ. δαίω 'I kindle' fr. *δαφ-ιω, κλαίω 'I weep' fr. *κλαφ-ιω. Hom. πλεῖψ 'I sail' fr. *πλεφ-ιω. See § 131 p. 118 and § 639.

§ 168. Initially. Lat. vehō, Umbr. aī-veihtu 'adicto', Osc. veiatura 'vectura' (Paulus F.): Skr. vāhami 'veho', Indg. uēghō*. Lat. vertō, Umbr. ku-vertu co-vertu 'convertito', Osc. φεροορι 'Versori, τροπαλῶ': Skr. vārtatē 'turns himself', Indg. uértō*. Part. Lat. versu-s, Umbr. Osc. versum ('quod Graeci πλέθρον appellant, Osci et Umbri versum', Frontinus de limit. p. 30, 9): Skr. vyttā-s, Lith. viřta-s, Indg. uēt-tō-* (§ 295). Lat. vir, Umbr. viro veiro 'viros', Osc. vereias 'iuventutis': Goth. vair 'man', Skr. vīrá-s 'hero'.

Lat. rādix 'root' fr. urād-, urā- (§ 306): Goth. vaúrts 'root'. Lat. lana 'wool' fr. ulānā*, ul-nā*: Skr. ārṇā (§ 306). Lat. rēpō 'I creep, crawl' probably fr. urēpō*: Gr. ρέπω 'I incline' (of the scale of a balance) fr. Frépō*, cp. καλα-ἔρωφ 'shepherd's crook' ἀντι-ρροπο-ς 'counterpoising'. lōru-m 'reins', to Gr. εὐληρα (§ 167).

§ 169. Intersonantal. Lat. ovī-s, Umbr. ovī acc. 'oves', Osc. Ovius: Lith. avī-s 'sheep'. Lat. Jov-is, Umbr. Iuve Osc. Iuveī 'Iovī': Skr. loc. dīvā-i 'in the sky', Indg. st. form dīem-*. Lat. vīvo-s, Osc. bivus nom. 'vivi': Skr. jīvā-s. Lat. juven-cu-s, Umbr. ivengar nom. 'iuvencae': Skr. yuva-śā-s 'youthful', Indg. juuṃ-śō-s* or juuṃ-śō-s* (§ 133). Lat. novem, for noven* (after the analogy of septem, decem): Skr. nāva, Indg. neuṃ*.

The μ of the Indg. combination uṃ in duuō* 'two' etc. was not so strongly articulated in Lat. as to be represented; forms like instituit, suvo, mortua did not make their appearance until after the end of the classical period (Schuchardt Voc. II 520 f.). Whereas Umbr. tuva neut. 'duo' tuves 'duobus' beside duir 'duobus'; kastruvuf beside castruo 'fundos'; Osc. ētiuvam beside eituam 'pecuniam'. Cp. § 170.

§ 170. Postconsonantal. Such an μ partly remained consonantal in Italic, and partly became sonantal.

Lat. tenuis: cp. Skr. tanv-i fem. 'long, stretched'. Lat. genua: cp. Av. zanv-a Gr. Lesb. γόννα 'genua'. Lat. arvo-m, Umbr. arvam-en 'in arvum' arvia aruvia arvio pl. n. 'fruges':

Cymr. erw 'piece of land' Bret. erv 'furrow'. Lat. ferveo : O.Ir. berbaim 'I seethe, cook, melt'. Lat. salvo-s, probably connected with Skr. sārva-s Gr. ὅλο-ς ὅλο-ς (Thurneysen Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII 160), Umbr. salvom saluom, salva-salva. Lat. heluo-s : OHG. gelo, inflected gelawēr, 'yellow', cpf. gheluo*-s.

Rem. Lat. ll fr. ly, in illustration of which pallidus beside Lith. paļeo-s 'pale-yellow' and other are quoted, seems to me very uncertain. See W. Meyer Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII p 163.

Lat. equo-s (Umbr. ekvine loc. 'equini' loan-word?) : Skr. dśva-s, Indg. ekyo*-s. Lat. queror questus : Skr. śvās-i-mi 'I breathe, wheeze, sigh' Indg. kyes*-. Lat. quatuor quatuor (quattuor) : catedr-as 'four'. Lat. mortuo-s : O.Bulg. mrŭvŭ 'mortuus'. Lat. bi-s, bi-dēns : Skr. dvī-ś 'twice'. Lat. bonus bene fr. dy-ono*-s rt. da^xu- 'honour, acknowledge' : cp. Skr. Ved. dīu-as- n. 'mark of respect'. derbiōsu-s 'scabby', fr. derdy*- : Skr. dardā 'eruption on the skin, leprosy'. Lat. suavi-s fr. syādū-i*-s (§ 506) : Skr. fem. svādv-ī 'suavis'. Lat. foru-m fr. prim. Ital. pyoro*- : Lith. dvāra-s O.Bulg. dvorŭ 'court'. Lat. suf-fiō from prim. Ital. py-iō* : Gr. θῖω 'I sacrifice'. Lat. arduo-s fr. prim. Ital. arpyo*-s : Skr. ā^xdhvā-s 'upright', Indg. pdhyō*-s (§ 306). 2. sg. fis fr. fiis*, fy-ije*-s, like O.Pers. opt. b-iya fr. by-iyā(i)*, rt. bhey- (Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 480 f.); hence du-bius from du-bhy-iō*-s, -bō -bam in calō-bō, -bam (Osc. fu-fans 'erant') fr. bhy-ō* bhy-a-m* etc.

sy- appears variously treated, but the reason of this diversity has not hitherto been discovered. Lat. suavis : Skr. svādū- OS. sicōti 'sweet'. Lat. sī, Osc. svai svae Umbr. sve 'si', Volsc. se-pis 'si quis', related to Goth. sva 'so' svē 'how'. Lat. sex : Gr. ἑξ ἑξ Cymr. chwech 'six'. Lat. ser-ēnu-s : Skr. svār- 'splendour, sky'. O.Lat. sīs 'suis' : Gr. φόξ ὅς Skr. svā- 'suus'. The elision of the μ in Lat. sūdor sūdare, fr. syūd*- syoid*- according to § 81 p. 74 (cp. OHG. sweiz OS. swēt Skr. svēda-s 'sweat'), may be directly due to the following ā. By the side of this so- fr. syē*- in soror etc. § 172. Medial -sy- : Minerva Minerva fr. Menes-ya*, to Gr. μένος n. 'sense'; cp. § 569.

'divae': Pruss. deivca-s Skr. dēvá-s 'god', Indg. deivyo-s*. Lat. aetio-m: Gr. ai(ē)ai 'ever' ai(f)ai 'time'.

Indg. y had become sonantal in such forms as tenuis mortuos, like i (§ 135) and l (§ 269). Poets occasionally, as it seems, made use of forms not usual in the ordinary language, e. g. suadent trisyllabic = svadent in Lucret. (Christ *Metrik*² 43 f.). When, on the other hand, they employ also tenuis, genva etc. (Christ as above p. 32, Kühner Ausf. Grammat. I 94), this pronunciation may be due to some dial. peculiarity, but it can hardly represent Indg. y. This is still less the case in O.Fr. tence 'tenuis', Italian belva 'belua', Ital. morto Sp. muerto 'mortuus' (-to fr. -tuo) etc. (Diez Gramm. d. rom. Spr. I⁴ 187 f., Horning Ztschr. für roman. Phil. VII 572 f.)

On the other hand Indg. uy seems to occur unchanged e. g. in duō dvis dui-dēns beside bi- (cp. Skr. Ved. duvā dviṣ beside dvā dvīṣ etc.); O.Lat. duondro 'honorum' (cp. Skr. Ved. dūv-as-); su-is su-i su-im-s (cp. Gr. ú-ós ú-l with e. g. Goth. sv-ein 'pig' O.Bulg. su-inti 'suillus'); Fa-tuo-s 'prophet', mā-tuo-s 'changeable' (cp. Skr. Ved. jē-tuva-s 'to be won'). suo-s may have arisen from sovos = Indg. seyo-s* (§ 172), but it may also be identical with Skr. Ved. svā-s (beside svá-s).

Umbr. forms like saluvom show the same change of y to uy as Lat. quatuor etc.

§ 171. Anteconsenantal medially and finally. Prim. Ital. oy (= Indg. ey and oy) became a (ō) in Lat., ō in Umbr., ov in Osc.: e. g. gen. sg. Lat. tribūs, Umbr. trifor 'tribus', Osc. castrovs 'fundī', s. §§ 65. 81. Prim. Ital. ay became Lat. au, Umbr. ō, Osc. av: e. g. aut, ote, arti s. § 97. Umbr. manuv-e 'in manu' (v was a glide) is traceable to Indg. -ōy, and perhaps also Lat. āsū used as loc., cp. Skr. sānū loc. sg. of sānū-ś 'son', s. § 85.

Osc. v, f in avt arti 'aut', Avfi 'Aufius', castrovs 'fundī', túvtiks 'publicus', tovtio raf-ro 'civitas', Lúvkanateis 'Lucanatis', Luvkis 'Lucius', Lúvfreis 'Liberi', Núvlanús 'Nolani', and others, point to a sharper division of the two components than in the usual pronunciation of diphthongs, i. e. an articulation similar to the Mod. Gr. pronunciation of au and eu (in αὐλῆς, αὐθις, εὐρους, εὐγνώμων etc.).

§ 172. v = Indg. u was certainly spoken as a vowel, not as spirant in Lat. prior to and during the classical period, probably also in the other Ital. dialects. Lat. v did not become a spirant until the second cent. A. D.

By the vocalic pronunciation of the Lat. v are to be explained the following changes which have not been given above.

1. -u- in unaccented syllables (§ 680) fr. -ou- (§§ 65. 81), -au- (§ 97). dē-nuō fr. dē novō. ind-uō fr. ind-ovō* : Umbr. anovihimu 'induimino', Lith. au-nū (Inf. ai-ti) 'I put on feet-covering'. impluō fr. im-plovō* beside pluvō, Gr. πλέ(φ)ω. abluō ē-luācru-s beside lavō lavācru-m. Cp. Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 80. 158. 391. Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 259.

2. -u- from -uo-. ecus (class. period) from equo-s (corresponding to aecus fr. aequos with qu = Indg. q, s. § 341a). Gnaeus from Gnaivo-s. deus fr. deivo-s. Cp. also inscrip. vius (†) = vīvos, aemū = aevom etc. The postclass. form equus is a new formation made after the analogy of equi etc., class. dīvos (divus) after dīvī etc., vice versa Gnaei, dei after Gnaeus, deus. Cp. Bersu Die Gutturalen 53 ff., Thurneysen Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII 155 f. In a similar manner probably also con-cutiō fr. con-quatiō* (§ 97).

3. -o- fr. -ue-. soror fr. syēsōr* : Skr. svāsar- 'sister'. socrus fr. syecru-s* : Skr. śvaśrā- fr. syāśrā-* (§ 557, 4), Gr. ἰκρά 'mother-in-law'. somnu-s fr. syepno-s* : Skr. svāpna-s 'sleep'. combr-ētū-m 'a kind of rush' : Lith. szveñdrai pl. 'a kind of reed', cpf. kyēndhro-* (§ 370). Correspondingly coquō fr. quequō* etc. with qu = Indg. q, s. § 431a.

4. Changes with loss of a medial syllable. au-spez fr. avi-spez*. claudō fr. clāvidō*. ō-piliō ā-piliō fr. ovi-piliō*. noundinae nāndinae fr. noven-dinae*. prādeñs beside prō-nidēns. aetās fr. O.Lat. aevitās. praedēs pl. fr. O.Lat. praevidēs. mālō beside O.Lat. māvolō māvelim, etc. Cp. § 633.

Cp. Umbr. bue 'bove' buo 'boum', courtust beside covortus 'converterit'.

in dess 'to the right, southerly' fr. deksyo-*, O.Cymr. dehou: Goth. taihva 'to the right', cp. Gall. Dexsiva.

dy. dia, gen. dē voc. dē, 'god' (hereto diade 'godly'), O.Cymr. duin Mod. Cymr. duo 'god', Gall. Asuovra Dēvo-gnata: Pruss. deiwa-s Skr. dēvā-s 'god', Indg. dejyo-s*.

§ 176. Anteconsonantal medially and finally. Indg. ey and oy fell together in ō (ua) in accented syllables, e. g. lōche 'fulmen', tuath 'folk', ruad 'red'; from ay ō, e. g. au ō 'ear'; s. §§ 66. 82. 98. dau dō 'two': Skr. dvaú, Indg. dyōy*, s. § 85.

Germanic.

§ 177. Indg. y was, as it seems, still generally a consonantal u in prim. Germ. This pronunciation remained in Goth. (written v), likewise in OHG. (written uu, w); but in the MHG. period y became a spirant, spoken as in Mod. HG.

§ 178. Initially. Goth. ga-vigan 'to move', OHG. wegan Ags. wegan 'to move oneself', O.Icel. vega 'to be in motion': Skr. vāhami 'veho', Indg. yeghō*. Goth. vatō n. (gen. sg. vatins, dat. pl. vatn-a-m) OHG. wazzar OS. watar O.Icel. vatn n. 'water': Lith. vandā, gen. vandėns, O.Bulg. voda 'water', cp. Skr. ud-ān- 'water' with Indg. weak grade form of the root syllable (§ 221). Goth. vitān OHG. wizzan 'to know': Gr. fideiv ideiv, Skr. vidmā 'we know'. Goth. vulfs OHG. wolf prim. Germ. yulfa-z* 'wolf' (concerning f, s. § 444), Skr. vfka-s Lith. vilka-s O.Bulg. vlūkū 'wolf', Indg. yūqo-s*.

Goth. oráigs 'slant, crooked': Gr. ῥαῖος-s 'crooked, crook-legged' fr. Fῥαῖος*-s. Goth. vrits m. 'line, point', OHG. riʒ 'line, stroke, letter', OHG. rīzan OS. writan 'to cut, scratch into' (rt. yreid-, not found except in Germ.). Goth. vlits m. 'look, face', OS. wliti; represented in OHG. by ant-lizzi n. 'countenance' (cp. Ags. and-wlita m.), which arose from a contamination with ant-lutti n. (Goth. ludja fem. 'face') and represented regular ant-liz*. wr- occurs in OHG. only a few times in Frank. monuments as urehhan 'exulem', to the verb rehhan 'to punish' = Goth. vrikan 'to persecute'.

§ 179. Intersonantal. Goth. awēpi n. 'herd of sheep', OHG. au (nom. pl. awi) 'sheep': Lat. ovi-s Lith. avi-s 'sheep'. Goth. suniv-ē 'of sons': cp. O.Bulg. synov-ŭ, Gr. πῆχων fr. πῆχες-ων*. Prim. Germ. iunwaga-z* (= Skr. yuvāśā-s, Lat. juvencu-s) became iūwaga-z*: Goth. juggs (still spoken with ū? cp. § 614) OHG. OS. jung O.Icel. ungr 'young'. Correspondingly u fr. yu in Goth. OHG. nūn 'nine', cp. Skr. nāva etc., Indg. newu* (cp. § 659, 6).

Indg. ōu- and au- = prim. Germ. ōu- (§§ 91. 107) became au- in Goth. before vowels. stana f. 'judgment', stana, gen. stauins 'judge': O.Bulg. staviti 'to place, stop' pri-stavū 'an official man', Lith. stóvū stovėti 'to stand'. af-dauþs 'exhausted': O.Bulg. daviti 'to strangle', Lith. dōvyti 'to put in continual motion'. This au was probably an open ō, viz. the long of áu (baúrans 'carried'), like the au in loan-words as Trauaddi 'Tṛaḍḍi', praitauria beside praitōria f. 'praetorium' (Braune Got. Gramm.² p. 13). Cp. the ai in saian § 142. The questions connected with antevocalic au in Goth. and its representation in HG. have not as yet been fully settled, see Paul in Paul-Braune's Beitr. VII 152 ff., VIII 210 ff., Kögel ibid. IX 513 ff.

Goth. av and iv before a vowel passed into the diphthongs áu and iū, when this vowel was elided and v consequently became final or stood before a consonant. snáu, 3. sg. pret. of snivan 'to hurry', fr. snay(i), prim. f. se-snóy-e. triu 'stick, stake' (gen. trivis) fr. triy(am), prim. f. drey-o-m. qius 'vivid' (gen. qivis) fr. qiy(a)z*, prim. f. giyo-s*; ga-giujā 'I quicken' fr. giy(i)jō*, prim. f. giyejō* (cp. § 142). Such an -iu- became -ju- in unaccented syllables: nom. pl. sunjus 'sons' fr. sunius* suniyuz* suney-es*: Skr. sūnāv-as 'sons' (cp. § 143 rem.). Here belongs also the change of -ōui- to Goth. -ōj-: the diphthong ōu became (close) ō. stōja 'I judge' fr. stōuijō*, prim. Germ. stōuijō*, pret. stauida (see above): O.Bulg. 1. sg. stavljā (with excrescent l, § 147 p. 132) 2. sg. staviši, inf. staviti 'to place'.

With this cp. lēv n. 'opportunity, occasion' fr. lēu(a-m)*, lēva 'I betray'; nom. diēs acc. diō 'time' (Lat. aevo-m), fr. aiju(a)-z* aij(a-m)*.

-ggv- (the first g is not to be read æ as in other cases) fr. -y- is parallel to Goth. -adj- fr. -i- (§ 142 p. 127). In Norse likewise -ggv- (-gg-), whilst the orig. prim. Germ. sound generated an u in West Germ., which united with the preceding vowel to form a diphthong, or ū (when the preceding vowel was u). Goth. triggea f. 'covenant' triggvs 'true, faithful', O.Icel. tryggr acc. tryggvan = Goth. triggvana, OHG. treuwa triuwa 'loyalty': cp. Pruss. druoi f. 'faith, belief', Gr. δοῦν 'to give'. Ἀγγῶν Hesych. Goth. glaggvō adv. 'carefully, exactly', adj. O.Icel. glöggr OHG. inflected glauwēr 'exact, clear'. Goth. skuggva 'mirror', O.Icel. skugge OHG. scawo 'shadow'. The conditions for this special Germ. treatment of y as well as that of the corresponding i have not been determined. Cp. Paul in Paul-Braune's Beitr. VII 165 f., Kögel ibid. IX 523 ff., J. Schmidt Anz. f. d. Alt. VI 125 f.

§ 180. Postconsonantal. Goth. athva-tundi 'bāros': Lat. equo-s, Indg. ekyo-s* 'horse'. mavi f. 'girl' fr. ma(z)y-i* (§ 444 c) to magu-s 'boy', like Skr. svāde-t f. to svādú-ṣ 'sweet'. Suffix -þva, e. g. frija-þva f. 'love': Skr. priya-tvd-m n. 'being agreeable, pleasing'. fidvōr 'four': Skr. catvdr-as. Pl. tvdi 'two': Skr. du. dvā dvāu. svistar 'sister': Skr. ṣvdsar-. faur-valvōþ 'he rolls before': Lat. volvō.

w remained in OHG. in combinations at the beginning of words. dwahan 'to wash': Goth. þwahan. meñne 'two': Goth. tvái. swester 'sister': Goth. svistar. Sometimes with anaptyctic vowel after s, z: sowarz beside swarz 'black', Goth. svarts; zoweñ beside zweñ 'to doubt'; in other cases seldom, e. g. thowahan beside thwahan dwahan. w remained in medial combinations only when preceded by r, l, s in which case a vowel was developed. marawēr (inflected form to maro) 'mellow', prim. Germ. st. marya-*: O.Ir. marb Cymr. mario 'dead'. gelawēr (inflected form to gelo) 'yellow': Lat. helvo-s. zesewēr zeseuēr (infl. form to zeso) 'dexter': Goth. taihswa. w disappeared after other consonants. selida 'shelter'? Goth. salipwa. wōhta 'watch' Goth. vahtrō.

Rem. 1. scato, gen. scatawes, m. 'shade'; to Goth. skadu-s is generally given as an exception. The form, however, seems to go back to a st. skaduya-*, cp. OHG. witara : Goth. vidurð.

Rem 2. On the forms containing anaptyctic vowels cp. § 628.

-ny- became -nn- in prim. Germ. Goth. minniza OHG. minniro 'minor' fr. miny-iz-ð* from minu-* : Gr. μνύ-θω, Lat. minu-ð. Prim. Germ. mann-* 'man' fr. many-*, dat. (loc.) sg. Goth. mann OHG. man fr. mann-i*, gen. pl. Goth. mann-ē OHG. mann-o etc. : Skr. mānu-ṣ 'Manu'. Goth. OHG. rinnan 'to run' from ri-ny-ana-n* : Skr. ri-nv-a-ti 'he lets flow' (not found in the texts), cp. the close of § 153.

īy. Goth. āivs, gen. āivis, m. 'a long time' āiveins 'eternal', OHG. ēwa f. 'long time, order' ēwīn 'eternal' : Lat. aevo-m, cpf. ajyo-*. Goth. hlāiv n. 'tumulus', OHG. hlēx gen. hlēwes, prim. f. kloj-yo-s* from rt. klej- 'lean': cp. Lat. cli-vo-s.

Postconsonantal -yu- became -u- in prim. Germ. O.Icel. sund n. Ags. sund m. 'swimming' from prim. Germ. syum-da-* (§ 214), to O.Norse svima 'to swim' part. sumenn. Goth. hūnsel Ags. hūsel O.Icel. hūsl n. 'offering, holy service' from prim. Germ. xyunt-tla-m* from Indg. kū-nt-* : cp. Av. spent-a- O.Bulg. svetū 'holy'. OHG. part. gi-dungan (to dvingan 'to squeeze, press'), dūhan 'to squeeze, press' (weak verb) fr. prim. Germ. puog-* puoχ-* fr. pūuog-* pūuoχ-* (§ 214), rt. tyenq- : Lith. tenkia 'it is sultry, gives pain'. Cp. OHG. koman 'come' pp. fr. prim. Germ. kumana-, older kūmana- etc. with Indg. velar explosive, § 444 b.

§ 181. Anteconsonantal medially and finally. ey : Goth. piuda OHG. deota diota 'folk' : O.Ir. tuath, cpf. teyta*, § 67. oy : Goth. rāuþs (st. rāuda-) OHG. rōt 'red' : O.Ir. ruad, cpf. roydho-s*, § 83. ay : Goth. āuk 'for, but' āukan 'to increase, grow', OHG. auh 'also' : Lat. augeð, rt. aug-, § 99. øy : Goth. ahtáu 'eight' : Skr. aṣṭáu, cpf. oktūy*, § 659, 3.

Goth. iu and āu before j are also specially to be noted (§ 154). nijj-i-s 'new' : Skr. nāvya-s 'new', Indg. ney-jo-s* (cp. on the other hand OHG. nici, like Goth. part. añā-nivīþs 'renewed'). haujis gen. of havi n. 'hey', prim. st. goy-jo-* or qay-jo-*, to OHG. houwōn O.Icel. hagga 'to hew', O.Bulg. kopa kovati 'to hew, strike, slay'. Cp. iu in ga-giuja § 179 p. 158.

Rem. The supposition of several scholars, that ō also arose from oy before other consonants than i (cp. Goth. stājan § 179) in prim. Germanic, e. g. in Goth. flōdus OHG. fluo 'flood, tide', rt. plōy-*, is not sufficiently founded.

Baltic-Slavonic.

§ 182. Initially. Lith. vešū O.Bulg. vezq 'veho': Skr. vāhami, Indg. meghō*. Lith. valdaū O.Bulg. vladaq 'I govern, rule': Goth. valda 'I rule, wield'. uy-. Lith. krūv-ina-s O.Bulg. krūv-inū 'bloody', O.Bulg. krūv-ī, gen. krūv-e, 'blood': Lat. cru-entu-s cru-or, Av. zruv-iye-m 'stain, horror' beside Skr. krav-ya-m 'raw meat, flesh' Gr. κρέ(F)-as, rt. grey-. Lith. buv-aū 'I was' būv-us-i fem. part. pf., O.Bulg. za-būv-enū 'forgotten': cp. Gr. περνώ, Skr. bhūv-ana-m 'being, world'. Lith. bruv-i-s m. O.Bulg. brūo-ī f. 'brow': Skr. st. form bhruv- in gen. abl. sg. bhruv-ds etc. O.Bulg. zūg-a-ti 'to call': Skr. huv-ī-ti 'calls'. O.Bulg. svekrūv-e gen. sg. of svēgry 'mother-in-law': Skr. Ved. loc. sg. śvaśrūv-dm.

§ 184. Postconsonantal. Lith. szvitėti O.Bulg. svītēti 'to shine brightly': Skr. śvit-rá-s 'shining', rt. kyejt-. Lith. aszva 'mare', Pruss. asvina-m 'equinum, horse-milk': Skr. dśva-s, Indg. ekyo-s*. Suffix -tyo-, O.Bulg. mrī-tvū 'mortuus' množī-s-tyo u. 'crowd', Lith. senā-tvė f. 'old age'. Lith. ketveri O.Bulg. četvero 'four' (distrib.), Lith. ketvirta-s O.Bulg. četvritū 'fourth' m. prim. f. qetyr-to-s*. Lith. dvī O.Bulg. dvē 'duae': Skr. dvē, cpf. dyāi*. Lith. 1. du. ėd-va 'we two eat': Skr. ad-vas. O.Bulg. bē 'thou wast' bē 'he was' fr. by-ē-s* by-ē-t* fr. rt. bhey- 'to become' (§ 312); cp. obiti 'to wind round' fr. ob-viti* etc.

Pruss. swais O.Bulg. svoyš 'suus': Skr. svā- 'suus'; Lith. svėtai 'parents of the bride, related by marriage' from the same Indg. stem has the suspicion of having been borrowed from Slav., O.Bulg. svatū 'affinis'. Lith. svilti 'to take fire, to burn without flame': Ags. swelan 'to glow' OHG. swilizaōn 'to burn slowly away'. O.Bulg. sv-inū 'suillus': Goth. sv-ein 'pig'. Lith. ė-va O.Bulg. jes-ve 'we two are': Skr. s-vās.

ʏ is occasionally elided before initial s- (sz-), without the reason of its elision being clearly known (cp. Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 456). Lith. sesū O.Bulg. sestra, but Pruss. swestro 'sister': Goth. swistar. Lith. sāpna-s 'dream': Skr. svāpna-s. Lith. szeszura-s, by assimilation from szeszura-s* (§ 587, 2): O.Bulg. svēkrū Goth. swalthru Skr. śvāsura-s fr. svāsura-s* (§ 557, 4) Gr. ἐνυό-ς 'father-in-law'.

In Lith. szū 'dog' fr. szū* = Skr. śud and in dū 'two' fr. dū* (§ 664, 3), the latter fr. dyū*, the elision of the ʏ was caused by the following ū.

Lith. kārvė O.Bulg. krava fr. korvā* (§ 281) 'cow', related to Lat. cervo-s. O.Bulg. sū-dravū zdravū (§ 588, 5) 'healthy', -dravū fr. doreū* (§ 281): Skr. dhr-uvā- 'fast' with weak grade form of the root syllable and dissyllabic form of the suffix -yo-. Lith. palėu-s (Slav. loan-word?) O.Bulg. plavū 'whitish, pale' (§ 281): OHG. falo (inflected falaucōr) 'fallow', cpf. polyo-s*.

Old -ny- perhaps in Lith. dial. tenva-s Lett. ties (t regularly fr. en) 'thin', to O.Bulg. tīn-ī-kū 'thin': Skr. tanū- tano- 'long, stretched'; the Baltic words probably with vowel form of the comparative in the rt. syllable, as leñgva-s beside lenguù-s 'light' (cp. comparative Av. renj-yō neut. 'lighter' and Skr. pos. laghú-laghv-, Gr. ελαχύ-). Slav. -n- fr. -ny-: compar. mñjji-jǎ, gen. mñjjiša, 'minor': cp. Goth. minniza fr. miny-iz-ō*.

ñy. Lith. dėver-ī-s O.Bulg. děver-ī 'brother-in-law': Skr. dēvár-, Indg. dajyer-*.

The change between v and iv in O.Bulg. dva beside dūva 'two' (Skr. Ved. dvā and duvā), zvati beside zūvati 'to call' (Av. zəvayēiti and zuvayēiti 'he calls'), bē 'he was' fr. būē* beside za-būē-enū 'forgotten' (Skr. ā-bhū-a- 'not being, monstrous' and bhūv-ana-m 'the being, world') etc., may be regarded as old inherited. Cp. the end of § 183.

§ 185. Antec consonantal medially and finally. Indg. ey and oy fell together in oy in the prim. Baltic-Slavonic period. Inf. Lith. pláuti 'rinse, wash' O.Bulg. pluti 'to flow': Gr. ἐπλευ-σα. Gen. sg. Lith. sūnaūs O.Bulg. synu 'son's': Goth. sunáus, Indg. -oys. Voc. Lith. sūnaū O.Bulg. synu 'O son': Skr. sānū. Cp. §§ 68. 84. Further this prim. Baltic-Slav. oy also fell together with Indg. ay. Lith. saūsa-s O.Bulg. suchū 'dry': Gr. αῦω 'I dry, wither', cp. § 100.

O.Bulg. loc. sg. synu 'in filio': Skr. sūnāú, see § 85.

Diphthongs with the first component short before Indg. i. Lith. pláuju 'I rinse, wash', O.Bulg. pluja 'I flow': Gr. Hom. πλέω fr. plefio* (§§ 131. 639), cpf. pley-iō*. Lith. naūja-s 'new': Skr. nāvya-s, cpf. ney-iō-s*. Lith. kraūja-s 'blood': Skr. kravya-m 'raw flesh', cpf. grey-iō-*. O.Bulg. šujǎ 'to the left' fr. sǎjǎ* (§ 147): Skr. savyá-s 'to the left'; jǎ for ǎ with the same regular, but still unexplained i as in bljudǎ and others (J. Schmidt Kuhn's Zeitschr. XXIII 348).

Rem. That O.Bulg. jaje n. 'egg' has arisen from ǎy-je* (Lat. ovum, Gr. ᾠόν), is very uncertain.

§ 186. Indg. u, where it remained an independent consonant, has now become a spirant, probably throughout the Baltic-Slav. languages, certainly in a great part of them. I leave it undecided as to whether the sound was still y consonant in the O.Bulg. period.

Loss of y in the prim. Indg. period.

§ 187. The Indg. parent language had an enclitic case of the pronoun of the 2. person to_i* = Skr. tē Av. tē tōi O.Pers. taiy Gr. toi O.Bulg. ti beside accented tyō_i* = Skr. tvē Av. hwēi Gr. toi fr. rfōi* (cp. also O.Bulg. twojŭ 'tuus'). Perhaps also of the reflexive stem so_i* = Prākṛ. sē Av. hē hōi O.Pers. saiy O.Bulg. si beside syō_i* = Gr. foi. It is not improbable that the y in the enclitic forms first disappeared after certain consonants. See Wackernagel Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIV 592 ff.

§ 188. y seems further to have disappeared between long vowels and (antesonantal) m. Acc. sg. Skr. dyām diyām, Gr. Zḗν, Lat. diem, Indg. dīēm dīēm (cp. § 120) beside nom. dīēys* 'clear sky' = Skr. dyāuś etc.; Skr. gām, Gr. βῶν, OHG. chuo OS. kō, Indg. gōm* beside nom. gōms* 'ox' = Skr. gāuś etc., cp. §§ 192. 645. OHG. guoma Ags. zōma O.Icel. gömr 'palate', Lith. gomurys 'palate' (beside OHG. caumun Mod.HG. gaumen) fr. ghā(y)-mo-* or -men- (Gr. χῆμη?, χαῦ-vo-ς χάος). Some assume such a loss of y before other consonants also. See, among others, Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 311, Thurneysen Bezz. Beitr. VIII 285, Schulze Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 427 ff. Cp. also Indg. final -ō fr. -ōy, § 645, 1.

NASALS.

A. THE NASALS AS CONSONANTS.

Prim. Indg. period.

§ 189. The Indg. parent language possessed four different kinds of nasals; labial m, dental n, palatal ɲ (corresponding to ĕ), and velar ŋ (corresponding to g).

§ 190. Initial m.

Antesonantal. māter*- 'mother': Skr. mātā, Arm. mair, Gr. μήτηρ, Lat. māter, O.Ir. māthir, OHG. muoter, Lith. motė ('wife'), O.Bulg. mati. mṛ-tó-s* part. from rt. men- 'think': Skr. matá-s, Gr. αὐτό-μαρο-ς, Lat. com-mentu-s, Goth. ga-munds. mṛ-ti-s* 'dying, death': Skr. mṛti-ṣ, Lat. mors gen. mortis, Lith. mirù-s, O.Bulg. sū-mrǫǫ.

Anteconsonantal, probably before n and liquids. mñā-* to men- 'think': Skr. part. mñā-ta-s, Gr. fut. μνή-σω, Arm. mna-m 'I remain, expect' (Häbschmann Arm. Stud. I 43). mñā-* 'pass away, wither': Skr. pres. mñāya-ti part. mñā-ta-s, Gr. βλά-ξ -κός, βλη-χρό-ς. 2. pers. sg. imper. Skr. brū-hi (fr. mṛāhi*) Av. mrūdi 'speak'.

Hom. τίνω Att. τίνω 'I atone for' fr. ti-uf-*, Goth. rinna 'I run' fr. ri-ny-*.

§ 195. Final n. Voc. of n-stems: Skr. lakṣan Gr. τέκτορ 'carpenter', Skr. śvan Gr. κύων 'dog'. Loc. sg. of the same st. class: Skr. kār-man ('business') udán ('water'), Gr. δό-μεν (inf. 'to give'), αἰέν ('ever' to αἰών). Ending -ēn -ōn in the nom. and acc. of neuter n-stems: Av. nāman 'names', prim. Ar. -ān*, Goth. namō (sg.) prim. Germ. -ōn*, O.Bulg. ime (sg.) prim. Slav. -ēn*. en* 'in': Gr. ἐν, Ital. en, Germ. in, Pruss. en, Lett. ī, perhaps also O.Bulg. -e in the loc. sg. kamen-e (§ 219).

§ 196. In the primitive period n and ɲ only occurred before k- and *q-*sounds. Skr. pf. anāśa 'he attained', āśa-s 'share, lot', Gr. ἤνεγκο-ν 'I brought', Lat. nanc-īscor, O.Ir. con-icc 'he can'. Rt. añgh- 'tie together, straiten': āhas- Av. qzah- n. 'distress, need', Arm. anjuk (ancuk) 'narrow', Gr. ἄγχω 'I tie, strangle', Lat. angō angor, O.Ir. cum-ung 'narrow', Goth. aggou-s 'narrow' (with v from the other cases), O.Bulg. qzā 'string, fetter'. penge* 'five': Skr. pāñca, Arm. hing, Gr. πέντε, Lat. quintus, O.Ir. cōic O.Cymr. pinp, Goth. finf, Lith. penkš (-š a Lith. new formation). Skr. āñjas- 'salve', āñj-anti 'they smear, anoint', Lat. unguō, O.Ir. imn (gen. imne, stem imben-*) 'butter', OHG. ancho 'butter'.

The numerous deviations of the k- and g-sounds from their original place of articulation and the dependence of the nasals upon the particular organ producing the following explosives and spirants were accompanied, in the later individual developments, by frequent changes in the method of production of original n and ʷ.

Aryan.

§ 197. Skr. Av. O.Pers. prohibitive particle mā: Gr. μή. Skr. Av. O.Pers. nī- 'down': OHG. nī-dar. Skr. nāma Av. nama O.Pers. nāmā 'name': Lat. nōmen. Skr. jāñghā- f. Av. zanğa- m. 'heel-bone': Goth. gagga 'I go', Lith. žengtiū 'I stride'. Skr. pāñca Av. panca 'five': Gr. πέντε, Indg. penge*.

Rem. Nasals before explosives and final n remained unwritten in O.Pers. e. g. Kabujīya for Kamb- Kabūjīya, 3. pl. baratīy for barantīy = Skr. bhārantī 'ferunt', abara for abaran = Skr. ābhāran 'ferobant'.

§ 198. Prim. Ar. -nt- fr. Indg. -nt-. 3. sg. imper. Skr. gāntu Av. Gāp. jantā, prim. Ar. jantu* (Skr. g- for j- after gahī etc., § 451 rem.) fr. Indg. gem-t-u*, rt. gem- 'go'. Probably also prim. Ar. -ns- fr. -ms-. ansa-* 'shoulder' (Skr. āsa-s) fr. amsa-, Indg. omso-: Goth. ams (st. amsa-). Skr. gen. sg. dān 'of a house' = Gr. δεσ- in δεσπότης (§ 204), Indg. dem-s*. Skr. āgan 2. sg. pref. from gam- 'go', fr. orig. é-gem-s*.

In like manner it may be conjectured that n in the combination ant was dropped already in prim. Ar. in the syllable before the chief accent, e. g. gen. sg. yāt-ās beside acc. sg. yānt-am, part. of yā-mi 'I go'. The accent had here a similar influence as in sāt-ās fr. s-yt-ās* beside sānt-am fr. s-yt-ṇi(m)* (§§ 228. 230), part. of ās-mi 'I am' (Hübischmann Das idg. Vocal-syst. 86).

Sonant + nasal became nasalised sonant before prim. Ar. spirants, and those specially developed in Skr. dāsas- n. 'noble deed' fr. prim. Ar. dansas*- : Av. superl. dāhišta- = Skr. dāsiṣṭha-, Gr. δῆμος 'resolution, counsel' (§ 565). āhas- n. 'distress, need' fr. prim. Ar. añhas*- : Av. azō 'distress', Lat. angor, rt. añgh-. drhāti (beside dṛhāti) 'he fastens' fr. prim. Ar. dhyāñhāti*, rt. dhergh-, a present form like kyntāti 'severs, splits' rt. qert-, piśāti 'cuts straight, trims', rt. pejk- (cp. § 221). raḥayati 'he hastens' fr. prim. Ar. rañjayati* : Av. renjayēti 'he quickens, hastens'.

Rem. 1. The nasal vowel both in Skr. and Iran. is generally considered as prim. Ar. But it is in itself very improbable that the q in Skr. raḥayati and Av. maḥra- (§ 200), which cannot be prim. Ar., is historically to be separated from the q in Skr. dāsiṣṭha-, Av. dāhišta- etc. The question is decided by the fact that Skr. dān and āgan (§ 198) can only be explained fr. prim. Skr. dans* and agans* (not fr. dqs* and aqas*). The dropping of the s in dān, āgan was specially Skr., and older than the first appearance of nasalised vowels, s. § 647, 7. Forms like piśanti 'they bruise', -īṣi -āṣi endings of the nom. acc. pl. (hasīṣi, āyāṣi) cannot, by taking into consideration the change of s to ṣ in the prim. Ar. period, be considered as a proof that n was, already at this period, absorbed in the preceding vowel (cp. § 556, 1).

n became ñ after j, c. yajñā-s 'veneration' : Gr. ἅγρός 'holy', Indg. iaḡ-no-s*. yācñā 'desire, begging', a Skr. new formation to yācati 'he desires, begs'.

The same nasal became cerebral nasal (ɳ) after the cerebral sounds ɣ, r, ṣ. my-ñā-mi 'I bruise, beat in pieces' : Gr. μάγ-ρα-μαι 'I fight', Indg. my-nā-mi*. kyṣṇā-s 'black' : Pruss. kirsna- O.Bulg. črñū 'black', Indg. qrsno-s*. This assimilation occurred also, under certain conditions (Whitney Skr. Gramm. § 189 ff.), when the two sounds were more widely separated e. g. part. mid. bhāra-māṇa-s : Gr. φισό-μενo-ς. In this case the tongue, which had been brought into the cerebral position by ɣ, r, ṣ, retained this position until the production of the nasal.

Initial mr became br. brā 'speak' : Av. mrā-. Cp. Gr. βρορός fr. μporós* etc. § 204. For exceptions like mriyāte

'moritur' cp. Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 55. -mbl- from -ml- in ambla-s beside older amlā-s 'sour, sourness': cp. Lat. amāru-s.

Rem. 2. Is the change of my to ny specially Skr.? The question must be raised on account of the 1. du. mid. injunct. gāveahi, part. perf. act. jaganēda from gam- 'go', raṇēda 'delightful' from ram- 'to be delighted'. The process might eventually have to be referred to prim. Aryan — corresponding examples from Iranian have not been handed down to us —, and since Indg. ny is the basis of the forms in question (§ 225), we must further ask whether the dental articulation was not already in existence before the consonantal nasal arose from ṇ.

Sonant + nasal became nasalised sonant before prim. Ar. spirants and those which were specially developed in Iran. (§§ 473. 475). We have already mentioned Av. dahišta- and qzō in § 199. Other examples: Av. maḫra- 'saying': prim. Ar. and Skr. māntra-; axnā- 'reins': Skr. anṅhāyati 'he clings to something'; tašyā 'stronger' fr. prim. Ar. tañcyās*, compar. to tancišta- 'strongest'. Concerning the treatment of r + n before spirants I may refer the reader to Bartholomae's Handb. pp. 14. 21.

It is a mere conjecture that a nasalised vowel was also spoken in these cases in O.Pers. The written language was not in a position to represent nasalised vowels as such.

Rem. We have seen in § 199, rem. 1. why the q in dahišta etc. is to be regarded as a special Iran. and not a prim. Ar. development. Compare also Av. praḫda- 'satisfied' = prim. Ar. Skr. tṛuphā-* (§ 475) with m'raḫdyāi inf. 'stripe, strip off' = prim. Ar. mṛnādhāi* (pres. Av. mar'zaiti); in both instances rā is the representative of r.

Av. n before palatal explosives = Skr. prim. Iran. ñ. panca 'five': Skr. prim. Ar. pāñca. renjayēti 'he hastens': prim. Ar. rañjhaṅati* (Skr. rañjāyati, § 199). Cp. Av. -sc- = Skr. -śc-, e. g. manas ca = Skr. mānaś ca (Gr. μένος re) 'and mind', § 556, 2.

n became palatalised in Av. before y and i, ī. This modification is however only exhibited in a few Mss. anya-: Skr. anyā-. O.Pers. aniya- 'other'. Verbal prefix ni-: Skr. ni- 'down'.

Prim. Iran. final -ān, -ām became in Av. -ā, written -a and -an -am. 3. pl. conj. barā (barān, barām): Skr. prim. Ar.

bhārān 'ferant', prim. f. bherant*. Acc. ḥwā (ḥwām): Skr. prim. Ar. tvām O.Pers. ḥwām 'thee'. Spellings like rvān-ō* beside rvān-ō* (nom. pl. of rvān-* m. 'soul'), dāma beside dāma 'creature' (= Skr. dāma 'effect, stead, place'), where q is likewise to be read as ā, show that -ān, -ām were the previous stages. Cp. Bartholomae Handb. §§ 14. 78, 4. 79, 3.

Armenian.

§ 201. mi 'lest': Skr. mā Gr. μή. armukn, gen. armkan, 'elbow, bow': Lat. armu-s, Goth. arms.

nist 'seat' nsti-m 'I sit': Skr. nīdā-s 'place of rest', Lat. nīdu-s, OHG. nest 'noat', Indg. ni-sd-o-* from ni-sed-* 'sit down'. nu 'daughter-in-law': Skr. snūṣā OHG. snur O.Bulg. snūcha etc. kun 'sleep' fr. kuvn*, kupn* (k- fr. sy-, § 162): Skr. svāpna-s Lat. sonnu-s. ar-nu-m 'I take': Gr. ἀρ-νν-μαι.

anjuk (ancuk) 'narrow': Skr. āhū-ṣ etc., rt. añgh-. hing 'five': Skr. pāñca etc., Indg. penge*. Cp. § 196.

§ 202. The change of m to v (u). anun (gen. anuan) 'name' fr. anvan*, anman* (cp. § 232). jiun (gen. jean) 'snow' fr. jivn*: Skr. hīman-, Gr. χεῖμα χευμών. See Hübschmann Arm. St. I 75.

m and n disappeared before s. us, gen. usoy, 'shoulder': Goth. ams m., Skr. āsa-s, Umbr. onse 'in umero'. mis, gen. msoy, 'flesh': Goth. mimza-n, O.Bulg. męso. amis, gen. amsoy, 'month': Lat. mēns-i-s, O.Ir. gen. mīs (prim. Kelt. st. mēns-*). Acc. pl. eris 'tres': Goth. pri-us, Gr. Dor. τεῖς fr. τεi-υς*; concerning the initial element of eris s. § 263. Acc. pl. z mards 'homines' fr. myto-us*: cp. Goth. vulfa-us 'lupos', Gr. Cret. νόμο-υς 'leges'.

Final postvocalic -m disappeared. z mard 'hominem': Skr. mytā-m, Lat. equo-m, Gr. ἵππο-ν. Cp. § 651, 2.

Greek.

νέφος 'cloud': Skr. nābhas 'cloud, atmosphere', O.Bulg. nebo 'atmosphere sky'. πότνια 'mistress': Skr. pātñī. Dor. φέρωντι (Att. φέρουσι) 'they bear': Skr. bhāvanti.

ἐνεγκαῖν 'to bring': Skr. pf. anāṣa. ὄγκος 'hook': Skr. anākā-s. πέντε 'five': Skr. pāñca; πέμπτος 'fifth': Lith. penkta-s.

Rem. The guttural nasal was, as it seems, originally represented in writing by ν. Thus inscrip. o. g. ἄκουα, ἐγγός. The representation of it by γ first made its appearance, after the g in gn, gm (στεγνό-ς, ἀγμύ-ς) had become ν (§ 492).

§ 204. Prim. Greek changes:

-ντ- from -mt-. γέντο 'he grasped' to ὑγ-γεμος 'συλλαβή' Hesych. ἄν-τλο-ν 'bilge-water', to ἀμάω 'I gather in'. Probably also -νς from -ms. ἐνς (Cret., thence Att. εἷς) fr. sem-s*: cp. μοῦνς fr. σμεωνυς, ὁμό-ς*, Lat. sēm-el.

-νχ- from -mχ-. κοινό-ς 'common' fr. κονιχο-ς* κομ-χο-ς*: Lat. cum. Cp. βαίνω 'I go' fr. βανχω*, Indg. gñi-ǵ*: Lat. veniō. On the -epenthesis s. §§ 131. 639.

-μβρ-, -μβλ-, -νδρ- fr. -μρ-, -μλ-, -νρ-. The initial nasal disappeared with the development of the explosive. ἄ-μβροτο-ς 'immortal', βροτό-ς 'mortal'¹⁾; μοροτό-ς* was a contamination form of μοροτό-ς Hesych. (Skr. mārta-s, Indg. mórto-s*) and μορατό-ς* (Skr. mṛtá-s), and μοροτό-ς itself was also such a form with regard to its accent. μέμβλωκα, βλώσκειν ('I come') with μλω-* = orig. mǵ-* (§ 306), aor. ἔμολο-ν. βλέττω 'I cut out the comb of bees' to μέλι μέλιτος 'honey'. ἄνδρ-ός -ων (nom. ἄνθρωπος Hesych., δρ-ότης acc. 'manhood' (thus with Clemm probably to be read for ἄνδρ-ότης in Hom. II 857, X 363): cp. Skr. nr-asthi- 'human-bone'.

-λν- became -λλ-. When the preceding vowel was short, so called compensation lengthening took place later (cp. § 618). Prim. Gr. γ^hολνεται* (prim. f. ǵl-né-tai*, § 306) became Lesb. βόλλεται, Att. βούλεται and prim. Gr. γ^hελνεται* (prim. f. ǵél-ne-tai*) Thess. βέλλεται (concerning β- cp. § 428 rem.) Dor. δήλεται, Locr.

1) ἄ-βροτο-ς beside ἄ-μβροτο-ς was a new formation from βροτό-ς. Cp. Prākkr. a-rīga- 'guiltless' as a later compound beside an-irīga- = Sk an-ṛga-.

Delph. δείλεται 'he wishes', rt. gel-. Hom. οὔλο-ς 'crisp, floccy' fr. Φολνο-ς*, prim. f. υῤῥνο-ς*: Skr. āṇā fr. υῤῥ-να* (§§ 151. 157. 306). Lesb. ἀπ-έλλω Dor. φήλω Hom. εἶλω 'I press tight' fr. Φελ-νω*. Later, but also probably already prim. Gr., was the assimilation of -λν- to -λλ- in ὀλλωμι 'I destroy' fr. ὀλ-νῶ-μι*; ἐλλός-ς 'a young deer' fr. ἐλ-ν-ος-ς*, cp. ἐλα-γο-ς fr. ελυ-βho-ς*, Lith. ėln-i-s m. 'stag', O.Bulg. jelen-ŭ, gen. jelen-e, 'stag'; ὠλλέν-την τοῦ βραχίονος καμπήν (Hesych.) fr. ὠλ-ν-ο-ν*, to ὠλήν-ένος (cp. the author Morph. Unt. II 173).

Rem. 1. If, as we conjecture, the -λλ- in the three last named words was likewise already prim. Greek, the -λλ- in βόλλομαι etc., before 'compensation lengthening' took place, was pronounced somewhat differently from that in ὀλλωμι etc. The forms πύλαραι (to πύλας) and πυλό-ν-φανόν Hesych. (to πυλός, πυλός) may have only come into existence after the law, whereby δλνῶμι* became δλλῶμι, had ceased to operate.

ν disappeared before σ + consonant without 'compensation lengthening'. κεστό-ς 'pierced, embroidered' fr. κεστό-ς*, to κιντέω. δε-ς in δεσ-πότης fr. δενς*, Indg. den-s* 'of a house': Skr. dán. 3. pl. imper. mid. γερόσθων fr. γεροσθων*. Ἀθήνᾳζε 'towards Athens' fr. Ἀθῶνάνζ-δε*. δικασπόλο-ς 'law-giver', fr. δικανς-πολος*, an irregular compound with acc. pl.; likewise μογοστόκος 'causing pains' fr. μογονς-τοκος*. Here belong also the various dialectical forms of the acc. pl. of -ο- and -α- stems, as τός, θεός, τῶς καλᾶς (beside τόνς τάνς, τούς τᾶς) and ἐς from ἐνς 'into', which arose before initial consonants: the regular forms were τός παῖδας beside τόνς (τούς) ἄνδρας, ἐς τοῦτο beside ἐνς (εἰς) αὐτό. Lastly πρίσσω 'I pound' fr. πρινσ-ιω*: Lat. priusid, and Hom. νίσσομαι 'I come' fr. νι-νσ-ιο-μαι* (redupl. pres.), beside νέομαι fr. νεσ-ο-μαι*, cp. νόσ-το-ς, rt. nes- (§ 563, 4).

Rem. 2. Where in the course of the individual dialects νσ + cons. came into existence again, those dialects, in which ν disappeared before σ with 'compensation lengthening' (cp. §§ 205. 618), show this lengthening. Thus Att. ἱσπιαμαι ἱσπειρο (from σπένδω 'I deal out') was a new formation after ἱσπειω (Cret. still ἱσπειω) and σπείσω; Ion. πείσμα 'rope' fr. πεν(θ)-σμα*, a new formation for prim. Gr. πενθ-μα* (cp. Lat. offendimentu-m), like ζῶμα for older ζῶμα etc.

-m became -ν. Acc. sg. τόν 'the': Skr. tá-m, Lat. is-tu-m; ἄν 'sheep': cp. Skr. dvi-m. Gen. pl. ἱππων 'equorum': cp. Skr.

Ved. dēdām 'deorum', Lat. virum. 1. sg. impf. ἔφερον 'I carried': Skr. ābhara-m. ἔν 'unum' fr. *sem; concerning ἐνς in this §, cp. p. 170. χθών 'earth', χιών 'snow' fr. *χθωμ, *χιωμ: cp. χθαμ-αλό-ς, Skr. kṣām- and Lat. hiem- Gr. δός-χιμο-ς. The ν in ἐν (and ἐνς), χθών, χιών was transferred to the other cases also: ἐν-ός, χθον-ός, χιον-ός for the regular forms *ἐμ-ος, *χθωμ-ος, χιωμ-ος.

Concerning prothesis before initial nasals as in ἀμέλγω 'I milk': Lith. mėliu s. § 626.

§ 205. Individual dialectal peculiarities.

The uniform omission in writing of the nasal before consonants in Cypr. and Pamphyl., permits the conclusion that a nasal vowel was spoken in these dialects. Cypr. o-ka-to-se = "Ο(γ)κα(ν)τος, a-ti = ἄ(ν)τί, pe-pa-me-ro-ne = πε(μ)φαμίρων; thus also to-ko-ro-ne = τὸ(γ) χῶρον, na-o-to-le = ναὸ(ν) τό(ν)δε etc. (§ 653, 3). Pamph. πέδε = Att. πέντε (§ 487).

Prim. Gr. -μ- became -μπ- in Lesb., elsewhere -μμ-. Lesb. ὄππατα pl., Hom. etc. ὄμμα 'eye', to ὀπ-ωπ-α ὄφομαι. Lesb. ἄλιππα beside Att. ἄλειμμα 'salve', to λίπ-α ἀλείφω.

ν only remained in Cret. and Argive before -ς and the voiceless -σ- which arose from assimilation (§§ 489.490). τός-νς 'the': Goth. þa-nš, Indg. *to-ns. θένς fr. θεντ-ς, part. to θείναι 'to place' πρέπονσα fr. *πρεποντ-χα, fem. to πρέπων 'becoming, fitting'. ἔσπενσα fr. *ἔσπεντσα, aor. of σπένδω 'I pour out'. πρέπονσι fr. *πρεποντ-σι loc. pl. to πρέπων. μηνσί fr. *μηνσ-σι loc. pl. to gen. sg. Lesb. μῆν-ος 'of a month'. Elsewhere ν disappeared, since in most dialects it became with the preceding vowel a long nasal vowel (i. e. short vow. + ν became long nasal vowel) and then the nasal sound disappeared. Dor. τώς, πρέπωσα, θής, ἥς (ἐνς); Ion. Att. τούς, πρέπονσα, θείς, εἷς; Dor. Att. μηνσί, τός (τάνς), πᾶσα (πάνσα); Att. 3. pl. ἄγονσι, ἄγωσι (Dor. and prim. Gr. ἄγοντι, ἄγωντι). i-diphthongs arose in Lesb.: τοίς, πρέποισα, θείς, εἷς, ταίς, παῖσα, ἄγοισι, ἄγωσι; here the s-sound must have been the chief factor in the generation of the i. In Elean, i-diphthongs arose in the endings -ονς, *ανς, prim. El. -ωνς, -ανς (cp. Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 26 ff.): τούρ, καταξέμρ, but διδώσα, πᾶσα.

Rem. 1. The stage of nasalisation of the vowel which preceded entire loss of v is perhaps represented by the Cretan and Argive of the historical period. For we are justified in supposing that the pronunciation was nasal vowel (no longer vowel + nasal), but that the spelling with v was retained from an older period. Cp. French tonsure, mensonge.

Rem. 2. Arcadian preserved the vo which arose by transition of -vi to -vo (e. g. conj. κλέρουσι), but had alongside it e. g. acc. pl. δραχμαί 'drachmas'. Consequently the activity of the law which produced δραχμαί was already extinct at the time -vo arose from -vi in this dialect. Cp. in Attic the new forms θίμαρος, ἐγάρως etc. which originated after the completion of 'compensation lengthening' (πᾶσα from πᾶσα).

Rem. 3. ε and ου, produced by 'compensation lengthening', never were diphthongs. The ε in Ionic-Attic and Boeot. εῖς θεῖον is only graphically like the ε in Lesb. εῖς θεῖον; the latter was a diphthong. Cp. the other phenomena of compensation lengthening § 618.

§ 206. Lat. magis, Umbr. mestru 'maior', Osc. mais 'magis': Skr. mahān 'magnus'. Lat. homō, Umbr. homonus 'hominibus', Osc. humuns nom. 'homines': Goth. guma 'homo'. Lat. termō termen, Umbr. terminom-e 'ad terminum', Osc. terremnattens 'terminaverunt': Skr. tārman- n. 'point of the sacrificial rod', Gr. τίρμων 'boundary' τίρμα 'goal'. Acc. sg. Umbr. tola-m, Osc. tovta-m 'civitatem', Lat. equa-m: Skr. dāva-m 'equam'.

Lat. ne nē, Umbr. Osc. nei-p 'neque, neve, non': Skr. nā Goth. ni Lith. nė 'non'. Lat. dō-nu-m, Umbr. runu Osc. dúnúm 'donum': Skr. dā-na-m 'gift'. Lat. cor-n-ix, Umbr. cur-n-ac-o 'cornicem': cp. Gr. κράν-η 'crow'. 3. pl. Lat. feru-nt, Umbr. furfant 'februant', Osc. kara-nter 'vescuntur': Skr. bhāra-nti 'ferunt'. Lat. mēns-i-s, Umbr. menzne 'mense': Gr. Lesb. μην- Att. μην- fr. mēns-*.

Lat. angō angor: Gr. ἄγω 'I press tight, strangle', Av. aṇah- 'distress', rt. aṇgh-. Lat. quīnque, Umbr. pumperias Osc. pumperias 'quintilias', Osc. Πομπίας 'Quinctius', prim. Ital. kʷenkʷe* fr. penkʷe* (§ 336): Skr. pāñca, Indg. penqe*.

Rem. The guttural nasal is represented in the Ital. languages by the letter n.

§ 207. Prim. Italic changes.

Prim. Ital. -mt-, the m of which goes back partly to Indg. ṃ (§§ 237. 238), became in the prim. Ital. period -nt-, and in like manner -md- became -nd-. This change seems also to hold good for the -mt- which arose later in the course of individual dialects. Lat. con-trā contrō-versu-s, Osc. con-trud (prep. with loc.) 'contra', to Lat. cum Osc. com. Lat. ad-ventu-s : Skr. gántu-ṣ 'a going', Indg. gém-tu-s*; Lat. in-ventu-s : Skr. gatá-s, Gr. παρό-ς, Indg. gṃ-tó-s*, rt. gem- 'go'. Lat. centum : Lith. szimta-s 'hundred', Indg. kytóm-*. O.Lat. quan-de 'quam', Umbr. pane 'quam', Osc. pan 'quam', to quam. Lat. quon-dam, Umbr. ponne pone pune Osc. pún pon 'quom', to quom. Further Lat. fren-dō beside frem-ō (cp. § 349), septen-triōn-ēs septendecim (septem), vērūn-tamen (vērūm), eun-dem (eum), vēnum-dō (vēnum), quan-diū (quam); Umbr. hon-dra 'infra' hon-domu 'infimo'. Osc. hu[n]-truis 'inferis' to Lat. hum-u-s Gr. χαυ-αί (Danielsson Pauli's Altit. Stud. III 143), Umbr. desen-duf 'duodecim'. Cp. also Osc. Púntiis beside pontis 'quinquies' and Ποντίας (latinised Pontius Pomptius) : Lat. Quinctiu-s

Many exceptions to this law were created through analogy and new formations. E. g. Lat. quande, quamdiū, vērūntamen after the simple forms quam, vērūm. Of later origin are also Lat. ēm-p-tu-s, Umbr. emps 'emptus' (cp. da-etom 'demptum'), Lat. sūm-p-tu-s with excrescent p (§ 208).

Further kyom kye* probably also became kyom-kye* already in prim. Ital. (Lat. quonque cunque, Umbr. pumpe) etc. Cp. also Lat. singulu-s fr. sem-clo-s*, princeps fr. prīm(i)-ceps* (§ 633). Lat. quomque cumque was formed in the same manner as quande.

Analogously -ms- probably became -ns-. Cp. § 568 rem., § 570 concerning tenebrae.

§ 208. Latin.

-mī- became -nī-. quoniam fr. quom-iam*. con-jectu-s, con-jungō, con-jūrō fr. com-ī-*. veniō fr. (g)uem-iō*, Indg. gṃ-iō*, from rt. gem- (§ 239).

-p- as glide in -mpt- (§ 207), -mps-, -mpl-: ēm-p-tus, sām-p-si, ex-ēm-p-lum. Cp. Umbr. emps 'empty'.

-ln- became -ll-. collis fr. col-n-is*: Lith. kāl-n-a-s 'mountain', Gr. κολων-ός 'hill', orig. st. form golen*-. pollen (beside polen-ta), developed fr. polen*, gen. poln-os* (see W. Meyer Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII 162): Gr. πάλη 'finest meal' or 'flour'. pullu-s 'young animal, young' fr. pol-n-o-s*: Goth. fula, gen. fulin-s 'foal', from a stem pŕl-en*-. vellus 'fleece': Lith. vilna 'a single hair of wool' etc. The reason is not clear why assimilation did not take place in volnus, ulna, pŕpulus and others.

-nl- became -ll- in diminutives: asellu-s fr. asen-lo-s*, to asinu-s; homullu-s fr. homŕn-lo-s*, cp. homun-culu-s.

Rem. These affections may partly or entirely be ascribed to the prim. Ital. period. The Umbr.-Samn. dialects do not furnish sufficient material for the determination of the chronology.

Prim. Lat. -ns-. The nasal was often unwritten already in the oldest inscriptions, e. g. thesibus, cesor, cosol, cosentiont; further also in writers vicesimus and vicensimus, quoties and quotiens, pisare and pinsare etc. Combining this with the clearly ascertained fact that short vowels were spoken long before -ns- (§ 619), it follows that a long nasal vowel was spoken, perhaps leaving the sound of a reduced consonantal element. It is not possible to gain an insight into the course of the process and its extent, owing to the inconsequence and inaccuracy in the representation of the sounds, and the possibility that n as full consonantal nasal was restored from other forms of the form-system (cp. e. g. scānsum, dēfēnsor dēfēnstrix)¹). In two cases the nasal was apparently entirely lost already at the beginning of historic records.

1. In the case of final -ns, when -s had not arisen from an older -ts (cp. § 501). Acc. pl. equŕs, ovŕs, fructŕs fr. -o-ns*, -i-ns*, -u-ns*, pedŕs fr. -ens* = Indg. -ŕs* (§§ 224. 238). Nom. sanguŕs fr. sanguins*, a new formation for older neut. sanguen.

2. In forms with prim. Lat. -nsl-. pŕlu-m 'pestle' fr. pinslo-m*. pŕlu-m 'press' fr. prenslo-m*, older prenslo-m* (cp. cŕnsequor fr. com-sequor*, inscr. quansei and § 207 extr.). alu-m 'wild garlic' (hereto halare, an-helare with inorganic h-, s. Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 491) from rt. an- 'breathe', fr. an-slo-* or ans-lo* (cp. O.Bulg. qch-ati 'to exhale' fr. on-s-atŭ*, §§ 219. 588 rem. 2). scala 'ladder' fr. scan(t)slā*, to scandō. an-helō fr. an-(h)enslō*, like scandō : cōn-scendō (Osthoff loc. cit. 115), shows that the dropping of the nasal in the combination -nsl- is younger than the weakening of a to e in the second member of compounds. Here probably also belongs ilicō fr. in slocō*, § 570.

1) Cp. among others Seelmann Die Aussprache des Latein p. 273 ff.

Prim. Lat. final -m (partly coming from Indg. -m § 238). The orthography fluctuated already in the oldest inscriptions, e. g. pocolo beside pocolom poculum. The sound was greatly reduced before words beginning with a vowel. After the close of the vowel in the last syllable there only followed a very imperfect lip-closure. Hence the vowel elision in poets, as Verg. Aen. VIII 386 ferru(m) acuānt. Cp. Danielsson Zur Altital. Wortforschung (a separate reprint from Pauli's Altital. Stud. III and IV) p. 14, Seelmann Die Aussprache d. Lat. 856 ff.

§ 209. Umbrian and Oscan.

Prim. Umbr.-Osc. -ns- became -nts- (cp. -mps- in Umbr. emps 'emptus'). This sound-combination was expressed in the native alphabet by -nz- (or -nzs-). Umbr. menzne 'mense'. anzeriatu (beside anseriato) 'observatum', cp. Lat. am-putare an-quirere. uze (beside onse; on the omission of the n in uze see below) loc. 'in umero': Goth. ams m. 'shoulder', Indg. omso-*: cp. however also § 568, 3 for the Ital. form of this word. Osc. kenzsur keenzstur (beside censtur, censaum) 'censor'.

-mbr- fr. -mr- is probably to be assumed in Umbr. ambr- beside Osc. amfr-, to Lat. amb- Gr. ἀμφί. Either amfer*, a new formation after ander 'inter' etc., first became amer-* (cp. umen fr. umben*, § 432a.) by assimilation, then amr-*, ambr-, or else amer-* was an Umbr. new formation from am-, which then led to ambr-.

Prim. Ital. -us became Umbr. -f, Osc. -ss. Umbr. acc. pl. abrof 'apros' eaf 'eas' avif 'aves', trahaf traf 'trans'; Osc. acc. pl. feihúss (st. feihó-) 'fines', víass 'vias'. Likewise Umbr. zeřef 'sedens' fr. -ens* = -ents*. Cp. Danielsson Pauli's Altít. Stud. III 146 ff. Umbr. Ikuvins 'Igovinus', Osc. Pámpaiians 'Pompeianus' etc. show that these changes are older than the dropping of short vowels before the -s of the nom. sg. Regarding Umbr. f, which goes back in the first instance to h, cp. trahvorfi 'transverse' (§ 501).

That n m io were reduced in Umbr. before explosives and spirants, follows from their being frequently omitted in writing. us-tetu beside ustentu 'ostendito'. Stem azeriato- aseriato- beside anzeriato- anseriato- 'observatus'. hutra beside hondra 'infra'. dirsus beside dirsans 'dent'. Sa'se beside Sa'sis voc. 'Sanci'. apr-otu beside ampr-chtu 'circumito' umbr-efurent 'circumierint'. iveka beside ivenga 'iuvencas'.

In like manner prim. Ital. final -m and -n must have been greatly reduced in Umbr., perhaps only a nasalised vowel was spoken. For they often also here remained unwritten and the letter m stepped into the place of n: -e beside -en 'in', nome 'nomen', puplu poplo beside puplum poplom 'populum'; -em 'in', numem 'nomen'.

In Osc., -n is uniformly written and -m only seldom omitted, mostly in later monuments, o. g. vía (beside víam) 'viam', isidu (beside isídum) m. 'idem', iní (beside iním inim) 'et'. If fiisnín (Zvetaieff Syll. n. 17, 8) contains -ím = -ín 'in', the same sound-development is to be assumed as in Umbr.

For the development of anaptyctic vowels from nasals in Oscan see § 627.

Old Irish.

§ 210. menne, gen. menman, 'mind' (prim. f. men-n-men-* § 110): cp. Skt. mán-man- n. 'mind', Gr. μένος 'mind', rt. men-. nem (gen. níne) 'n. sky', nemed n. 'sanctuary' (Gall. nemetó-n): Skt. nánati 'he bows, bends', rt. nem-.

Rem. The letter n is employed to represent so in Keltic as in Latin.

§ 211. It may be concluded that -mt- became -nt- in prim. Keltic from Cymr. Bret. cant O.Ir. cēt 'hundred': Lith. szimta-s, Indg. kṛtō-m*, cp. § 212.

Indg. -m became -n in prim. Kelt. Gall. nom. acc. sg. neut. νῆμτρο-ν nemeto-n 'sanctuary' (Zeuss-Ebel p. 225). The nasal was often retained in Irish before vowels and mediae at the beginning of the following word, when the preceding vowel had disappeared. Acc. sg. fer u-aile 'virum alium' fr. uīro-n*. Under the same conditions the -n from prim. Kelt. -en = Indg. -n and -y was also retained. M.Ir. deich m-bai 'ten cows' fr. deken*: Skr. dāśa, Lat. decem, Indg. dekn*. M.Ir. nōi n-ubla 'nine apples' fr. noyen*: Skr. nāva, Indg. neyn*. Cp. § 658, 2.

§ 212. Prim. Kelt. n (partly going back to Indg. y, u, § 243) disappeared in Irish — with 'compensation lengthening' when the preceding vowel was short — before t, c, s (f). The vowel was then shortened in unaccented syllables, afterwards became irrational and entirely disappeared under certain conditions (§§ 613, 634).

sēt Cymr. hynt Bret. hent 'way': Goth. sinþs 'a going, a time'. tēt Cymr. tant 'string': Skr. tāntu-ṣ 'thread, string', rt. ten-. cēt Cymr. Bret. cant 'hundred': Lat. centu-m, Lith. szimta-s, Indg. kṛtō-m* (§ 211). ēc 'death' Bret. ancon; according to Windisch to Skr. naś-, Gr. réxx-ç. brēc 'lie, deceit': Skr. bhraqā-s 'fall, loss'. ēcath 'hamus': Skr. ankā-s 'hook', Gr. ἀγκών 'bow' ἄγκω-ç 'bow, crook, bend', Lat. ancu-s uncu-s, OHG. angul 'angle'. ēcen 'necessity, constraint': Gr. ἀν-ἀγκη. gēis (gen. du. M.Ir. gēsi) 'swan': Skr. hqs-ā-s OHG. gans 'goose'. Fut. st. ēs- fr.

Dor. φέρουσι. ér-mítin 'honor' (gen. ér-míten) fr. mētiu*, mentió*, fóimtiu 'a remarking' fr. fó-mētiu* etc. : Lat. mentió; a further formation with n from Indg. my-ti-*, Skr. matí-ś, Goth. ga-munds (st. ga-mundi-), rt. men-dér-met, gen. dér-mait, 'a forgetting', fór-mat, dat. fór-mut, 'envy' from stem mēto-, mento- : Lat. com-mentu-s, Gr. αἰρόμαυτο-ς, Skr. matí-s, from the same rt. men-. óc óc 'young' fr. óec*, Cymr. ieuanc, prim. Kelt. ioyphko-s* : Skr. yuvásá-s, Lat. juvenen-s, Indg. y-kó-s* (§§ 137. 174). Acc. pl. fíru 'viros', fáthi 'prophetas' fr. fíro(s), fáthū(s), prim. Kelt. yíro-nz*, yáti-us* : cp. Goth. vaira-nz, gasti-us.

Rem. Zimmer Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 449 ff. shows that first an assimilation of the explosive to the nasal took place in the prim. Ir. combinations nt, ne in such a manner that the former became voiced. Zimmer, p. 407, says that the new sound probably did not become a pure media in the first instance, but dt, gc. This change was generally not expressed in the writing of O.Irish, while in Mod. Ir. orthography it is expressed, e. g. eng 'death' = O.Ir. éc, ceud 'hundred' = O.Ir. cét. Cp. §§ 513. 658, 2.

Where m came together with a following r, l, an excremental -l- was developed, and then initial m became absorbed. brechtrad, older mrechtrad 'varietas' : to Lith. márğa-s 'variegated'. blicht, older mblicht mlicht 'milk', bligim, older mbligim 'I milk', to melg 'milk', Gr. ἀμῆλγος Lat. mulgeō O.Bulg. mlāzq 'I milk', rt. melg-. Cp. § 298. blaith, older mlaith 'tender, soft' (st. mlati-*), to melim inf. bleith 'molo'; cp. § 306.

Original intervocalic m, written mh, is in Mid. and Mod. Irish a nasalised labial spirant, e. g. nemh 'sky'. That this affection already took place in the O.Ir. period, follows from the fact that mh appears in the Modern language in words, where the nasal already in O.Ir. no longer stood directly after vowels; O.Ir. amprom fr. Lat. improbis also speaks for the great antiquity of this change, since m must here have represented a.

spirant. The change of m to a spirant is probably likewise to be also assumed in O.Ir. mebuir fr. Lat. memoria, in this case, however, it may be a question of dissimilation as in Mid.Ir. perf. mebaid = O.Ir. memaid 'he broke'.

§ 213. Goth. midjis OHG. mitti 'medius': Skr. mādhyas. Goth. qiman OHG. queman 'to come': Skr. gámana-m 'a going', fr. rt. gem-. Goth. hilms OHG. helm 'helmet', Ags. helm 'protector, helmet': Skr. sáрман- n. 'protection'. OHG. cam̃b 'toothed tool, comb': Skr. jambha-s 'tooth, bit', Gr. γόμενος 'plug, bolt, nail', O.Bulg. zabŭ 'tooth'.

Goth. nahts OHG. nacht 'night': Lat. nox, Lith. nakl̃s. Goth. mañna fr. mañy-ō* OHG. man 'man': Skr. mānu-ṣ 'man'. Goth. ains OHG. ein 'one': Lat. oino-s anu-s, prim. f. oino-s*. Goth. snáivs OHG. snēo 'snow': Lith. snēga-s O.Ir. snechta 'snow', rt. sneigh-. Goth. stiggan 'to push': Lat. stinguere. Goth. gaggan OHG. gangan 'to go': Skr. janaghā- 'heel-bone'.

Rem. ʷ is generally represented in Goth. by g, s. § 25; in West Germ. and Norse by n as in Lat.

§ 214. Prim. Germ. changes.

-nd- (m partly going back to Indg. ṃ, § 244) became -nd-. OHG. rant m. O.Icel. rand f. 'edge', to rt. rem- 'cease, rest', Goth. rimis n. 'rest'. Goth. skanda OHG. scanta 'shame', to Goth. skaman (w. verb) OHG. scanŭen 'to be ashamed'. O.Icel. sund n. 'swimming' fr. prim. Germ. s(y)um-da-* (§ 180 p. 158). Goth. hund OHG. hunt 'hundred': Lith. szim̃ta-s, Indg. kṛt̃o-m*. Whereas m remained before h down to the literary period. Goth. ga-qumþr̃ 'synagogue', OHG. em̃ft em̃ft with early excretant f, to Goth. qiman OHG. coman 'to come'. OHG. nuñft nuñft 'a taking', to Goth. niman OHG. neman 'to take'. OHG. ram̃ft, bye-form of rant 'edge', therefore goes back to a rám-pa* (§ 529) ¹⁾. For OHG. mft from mþ see § 529. m also remained before s, e. g. Goth. ans 'shoulder' : Skr. śisa-s, Indg. omso-s*.

-ln- (l partly goes back to Indg. l, § 299) became -ll-. OHG. wella 'wave' : Lith. vilni-s O.Bulg. vlīna 'wave'. Goth. fulls OHG. inflec. foller 'full' : Lith. pilna-s O.Bulg. plūni 'full', Indg. pl̥-nó-s*.

Further n, as the initial sound of chief-accented n-suffixes, seems to have been assimilated to the descendants of Indg. root-final explosives. The prim. Germ. gemination may be thus explained. E. g. OHG. lecchōn 'to lick', prim. Germ. likkō-* fr. previous Germ. ligh-nā-*, cp. Gr. λῑχνεῖω, rt. leigh-. Cp. Osthoff Paul-Braune's Beitr. VIII 297, Kluge ibid. IX 169. On the relations of sound-shifting s. §§ 530. 534. 538. 541, 5.

ɲ disappeared before χ (§ 527—529), whereby short vowels became long ²⁾. Goth. OHG. fahan 'to seize' fr. faɲxana-n* : Lat. pangō pax, Skr. pāśa-s 'noose, cord', rt. pāk-, with nasal infix pañk- (§ 221). Goth. fahta OHG. dāhta 'I thought', pret. of pagkjan, denchen 'to think' : O.Lat. tongēre 'to know'. Goth. pūhta OHG. dūhta 'appeared', pret. of þugkjan, dunchen 'to seem, appear', from the same root. Goth. bi-ūhts 'accustomed' : Lith. j-ūnkta-s 'accustomed' (§ 666, 1). Goth. peihan OHG. dīhan 'to thrive' fr. piɲxana-n*, older peɲxana-n* : Lith. tenkū 'I have enough', cp. Ags. pret. pl. ðunzon part. ðunzen and the OS. causat. thengian 'to complete'; the ɪ of the present in the Goth. and HG. forms was the occasion of their passing into the analogy of verbs like Goth. steiga 'I ascend' = Gr. στρίχω : pret. Goth. þáih OHG. dēh (cp. § 67 rem. 2).

Rem. This disappearance of the nasal before χ took place later than the passing of χ into ʒ (Verner's law, §§ 530. 541, 4), as is seen by such forms as Ags. ðunzon beside Goth. peihan (s. above), Goth. juggs 'young' beside compar. jūhiza.

1) Goth. anda-numti- 'a receiving, taking up' was a new formation after forms like fralusti- 'loss'.

2) It seems to me not to be absolutely necessary to conclude with Sievers Ags. Gramm. p. 15 that the ɔχ which arose from ɔɲχ must still have had nasalised ɔ down to the period of the separate dialects.

Indg. -m became -n. Acc. sg. ulfu-n* 'wolf': Skr. vīka-m; kyēni-n* 'woman': Skr. -jāni-m; sunu-n* 'son': Skr. sānu-m; gen. pl. zēðn* 'donorum': cp. Av. vanqm (vand- 'tree'). When protected by a particle (after the change of -m to -n had taken place) this n was preserved in Goth. pan-a OHG. den Ags. don-e 'the': Skr. lā-m Gr. τό-ν. Where no such protection was at hand, -n was dropped in the prim. Germ. period at the same time with the Indg. -n after short vowels, whereas it only became reduced after long vowels, and first fully died out in the course of the individual dialects. From ulfu-n*, kyēni-n*, sunu-n*: ulfa*, kyēni*, sunu* = Goth. vulf, gēn, sunu. Cp. prim. Norse (runic inscrip.) staina = Goth. stāin 'stone', sunu = Goth. sunu. But fr. zēðn* gen. pl. and fr. nom. zanðn* 'cock' tuogōn* 'tongue' (with Indg. -n, cp. gen. Goth. hanins tuggōns and the nom. formation Gr. τόν etc.): zēðn*, zanðn*, tuogōn* = Goth. gibð, OHG. hano, Goth. tuggō (hence the nom. Goth. raþjð 'account' and Lat. ratio are not exactly the same, since n had not been dropped in Lat.). With Goth. tuggō cp. prim. Norse (runic inscrip.) Fino = O.Icel. Finna.

§ 215. Gothic and West Germanic changes.

In Goth., m in the combination -mn-, passed into a spirant, which was now written f, now b, e. g. vundu-fn-i f. 'wound, plague', vitu-bn-i n. 'knowledge' with weak form of the suffix -men-, the latter to Skr. vid-mān- 'wisdom' (cp. the author Morph. Unt. II 201. 209). Cp. O.Icel. -fn- from -mn-, e. g. nafn 'name' safna 'to collect'.

Rem. 1. In Goth. nann-ē 'nominum' and nann-jan 'nominare' the -mn- was re-introduced through analogy (after namō, namins etc.), just as in O.Icel. dat. sg. ganns beside regular gafne from guman n. 'joy'.

In the final syllable of nouns with n- and m- suffixes, if the nasals followed explosives or spirants, there arose in West Germ. through the loss of the short vowel following the nasal (§ 635. 661, 2), ʰ and ʱ, from which a vowel was then developed. Nom. acc. OHG. eban OS. eban Ags. efen 'even' = Goth. nom. ibns acc. ibn, prim. Germ. ebna-z* ebna(-n)*. OS. mēthom Ags. mādum 'present, jewel' = Goth. máipms máipm.

(It is possible that a sonantal nasal was also spoken in Goth., ibys, iby, mǣipys mǣipy). In OHG., the vowel, thus developed, penetrated from the final into the medial syllable of these nouns and their derivatives, at first after short syllables, and later after long also, e. g. ebano adv., ebani 'a plain', ebanōn 'to level'; such forms were chiefly due to analogy (cp. Sievers Paul-Braune's Beitr. V 90 ff.). Anaptyctic vowels were also often generated from nasals in OHG. under other circumstances, e. g. waḥsamo beside waḥsmo m. 'growth' to waḥsan 'to grow', brosama beside brosma f. 'crumb', kinoto beside chnodo 'knot, thong'. An assimilation to the quality of the surrounding vowels may occasionally be observed in the development of OHG. vowels, e. g. ebono, ebonōn, ebini = ebano, ebanōn, ebani.

Rem. 2. Cp. anaptyxis in the case of w, § 180, and liquids, § 277.

Nasals, like other consonants (§§ 143. 277. 529. 532. 536. 540), were geminated before j in West Germanic. OHG. frum-mian frumman OS. frummian frumnean 'to further, promote', to OHG. frum 'apt, fit' OHG. OS. fruma 'advantage'. OHG. wenn(i)an OS. wennian Ags. wennan 'to accustom': Goth. vanjan O.Icel. venja, to Skr. van- 'like, love'.

In OHG. -m, which had become final, passed into -n in the ninth cent., a repetition of the prim. Germ. change (§ 214). Dat. pl. tagun, older tagum: Goth. daga-m 'diebus'. 1. pl. geban, older gebam: Goth. giba-m 'damus'. 1. sg. bibēn, older bibē-m 'I tremble at': Skr. bī-bhē-mi 'I am in fear'.

Baltic-Slavonic.

§ 216. Lith. mirtū-s O.Bulg. su-mrītū f. 'death': Skr. mṛ-ti-ś, Lat. mors mortis. Lith. pl. dūmai O.Bulg. dymū 'smoke': Skr. dha-mā-s, Lat. fū-mu-s. 1. pl. Lith. vėšame O.Bulg. ve-zemū 'vehimus': Skr. vāha-mas, Lat. vehi-mus. Lith. esmi O.Bulg. jesmū 'I am': Skr. ās-mi. Lith. lūpū 'I remain clinging': Skr. līpāmi.

Lith. nūga-s O.Bulg. nagū 'naked': Skr. nagnī-s, Goth. naḡaps. Lith. anš anà O.Bulg. onū ona 'that': Skr. anī- 'this'.

Lith. sė-men-inis O.Bulg. sě-men-ŋnū 'belonging to seed': Lat. gen. sē-min-is. Lith. plėna-s O.Bulg. plēnū 'full': Goth. fulls, Indg. pl̥-no-s* (§§ 302. 303). Pruss. kirsna-n acc., O.Bulg. črīnū 'black': Skr. kyṣṇá-, Indg. qrsno-s* (§§ 302. 303). Lith. mentūrė fem. 'twirling-stick', O.Bulg. mq̃titi 'to bring into tumult, confusion': Skr. mānthami 'I stir, turn'.

Lith. slanka slankius 'creeper, slow man', O.Bulg. slakū 'crooked': OHG. slango O.Icel. slunge slangi m. 'snake', rt. slensq-. Lith. ungurys (Pruss. vocab. angurgis; the ending of the word is wrongly written) O.Bulg. agorišti 'eel': Lat. anguilla. Lith. sniūga 'it snows': Lat. ninguit.

Rem. no is represented by n in Baltic.

§ 217. -m seems to have become -n in prim. Baltic-Slav. Acc. sg. to-n* 'the' from Indg. to-m* (Skr. tá-m): Lith. dial. tan tōn, generally tā (218), Pruss. s-tan, O.Bulg. tū.

That for the Slav. form tū first of all tūn* ton* is to be presupposed, is shown by sūn-, in sūn-ěsti 'comedere' and other secondary forms of sū = Pruss. san (san-insle 'girdle'): Skr. sám, Indg. som*. Prim. Balt.-Slav. final -n did not entirely die out after a in Slav., e. g. acc. sg. fem. tā 'the' = Skr. tám, Gr. τῆν; cp. § 219.

§ 218. Baltic.

Indg. -mt- remained (while in other Indg. languages it became -nt-). Lith. inf. vėmti 'to spit, vomit', supine vėmtu, Lett. inf. veemt: cp. Skr. part. pf. vānta- beside vamita-. Lith. reñti 'to support': cp. Skr. inf. rántum, to rámati 'he brings to a standstill, makes fast'. Cp. also the m from Indg. ṃ (249) in Lith. szim̃ta-s Lett. si'mts 'hundred': Lat. centu-m; Lith. desziñta-s Lett. desm̃ts Pruss. dessim̃ts dessym̃ts 'decimus': Gr. δέκαρο-ς Goth. tashunda, beside Lith. deviñta-s Lett. dew̃ts Pruss. new̃ts 'nonus', Indg. neṃṃ-to-s*.

Nasal + s or sz, š (= Indg. k̃, g̃ gh, § 412). In words like žq̃sl-s 'goose' (OHG. gans, Skr. hasá-s), gręšiū 'I turn, bore' inf. gręsz-ti, at-gręša-s 'return' (O.Icel. kringr 'round', Mod.

HG. kring kringel, rt. greñgh-) a nasal-vowel verging into a more or less distinct ɲ is at present heard in a portion of the Lith. dialects, whilst in the greater part the nasal-vowel has entirely died out and a pure long vowel is only spoken (ė̃sis, grė̃ši). The nasal hook has therefore only an etymological signification in the literature of the latter dialects. No complete consistency, however, exists in the use of it.

Rem. When in those dialects, in which the pronunciation n for ɲ etc. is the universal rule, e. g. in that with Godlewa, fut. p̃siu (p̃siu) and p̃siu ('I shall twist') is spoken side by side of inf. pl̃ti and p̃ti (p̃ti), it is due to a levelling between the form of the fut. stem and that of the inf. etc.: p̃siu is a new formation after pl̃ti, but p̃ti after p̃siu. Cp. the Author Lit. Volksl. und Märch. p. 288¹⁾.

Prim. Balt.-Slav. -n after vowels (§ 217) has entirely disappeared in one part of the language, and a pure un-nasalised vowel prevails. The written language, which represents this state and in which the nasal hook has only an etymological value, is also here inconsistent. It has, e. g. acc. sg. d̃ṽa, aña aña, sz̃i, but gen. pl. d̃ṽū ('deorum') for d̃ṽū; the latter from -ān*, older -ōm* (cp. Ved. d̃ṽdm). Elsewhere, as before sibilants, a nasal vowel, ending in a more or less strongly articulated ɲ, is spoken, e. g. taɲ, d̃ṽuɲ, or -n remained intact: tan, anan, szin. There are dialects in which all three stages (pure vowel, nasal vowel + ɲ, vowel + n) occur side by side. It is clear that in addition to differences of accentuation and quantity (s. Bezenb. Beitr. X 307 ff.) also various relations of sandhi (position in absolute and conditional finality, various initiality of the following word) brought about the state of fluctuation. Unfortunately so little account is taken of word-combination in the writing down of the forms in question (s. especially Bezenb. Beitr. VII 163 ff.) that it is at present impossible to obtain a knowledge of the historical state of things.

Before all consonants except j, nasals became, with the preceding vowel, nasalised vowels in prim. Slavonic (cp. § 281 rem. 3). The i and u, thus formed, became then further ī (O.Bulg. i) and ū (y, § 60). O.Bulg. remained at this stage. Examples:

1. c-onja 'vapour, smell' from rt. an- 'breathe' (§ 666, 1): Skr. pres. 3. sg. āniti. zemlja 'earth': Lith. žemė, Lat. humu-s, Gr. χαμα; concerning the excrecent l s. § 147 p. 132.

2. ç = prim. Indg. prim. Slav. ε + nasal. svetī 'holy': Lith. szveñta-s, Av. spenta-, cpf. kñento-s*. çebā 'dilacero, frigeo': Skr. jāmbhā-tē 'snatches at something', causat. jāmbhāya-ti 'bruises, pounds'. Cp. § 68. ç = Indg. on in the acc. pl. konje 'equos' fr. konjens*, older konjo-ns* (§ 84 p. 80).

ç was at the same time the representative of the Indg. sonantal nasals = prim. Sl. m, ñm (§§ 248, 249). pa-metī f. 'remembrance': Lith. at-mintī-s 'memory', Goth. ga-mundi- 'remembrance', Skr. mati-š 'thought, mind', Lat. mens, Indg. my-tī-s*. desetī 'ten': Lith. dėszinti-s, Skr. daśati-š, Indg. dekṣti-s*.

3. q = Indg. o, a (prim. Slav. o) + nasal.

beratī 'ferunt': Gr. Dor. qēgo-vri. zabū 'tooth': Gr. γόμφο-s 'bolt'. Cp. § 84.

qetkū 'narrow': Gr. ἄγξω, Lat. angus-tu-s. qchati 'to smell' fr. orig. an-s-*: Lat. anima, alu-m hālāre fr. auslo-* (§ 208), Gr. ἄσμεο-s, rt. an-. Cp. § 100.

4. i, y = previous Balt.-Slav. i, u + nasal.

Suffix -ikū (-in-ikū) = Lith. -inka-s (-in-inka-s), o. g. door-inikū 'comes palatii': Lith. dvārininka-s 'courtier' 1). isto, gen. istes-e, 'testiculus', pl. istes-a 'renes': Lith. inksta-s 'kidney, testiculus', Pruss. inxcze 'kidney', Lat. inguen. Acc. pl. gosti 'guests': Goth. gasti-ns. Cp. also plīta (beside plinūta) 'brick' fr. Gr. πλῖθος.

lyko n. 'bast': Lith. lūnka-s Pruss. lunka-n. v-ykna 'I learn': Lith. j-ūnkstu 'I become accustomed' (§ 666, 1). Acc. pl. syny 'sons': Goth. sunu-ns.

1) If this suffix belongs to OHG. -luc O.Icel. -lugu, it is easy to conjecture that it is borrowed from Germ. For Germ. -luzga- beside -luz-ga- (the author Morph. Unt. II 238, Kluge Nominale Stammfild. 13. 26) rather contains Indg. -en- than -lu-.

y was further the continuation of older -on- in the acc. pl. masc. elūky 'lupos': Goth. ulfu-us Gr. Cret. vápo-rs (§ 84); acc. pl. fem. vaký 'manus': cp. Pruss. gemuns 'feminas' (§ 615).

-u alone occurred as final in the prim. Slav. period (§ 217). and -du*, -cu* became -u, -i: -āu* = Indg. -āu* (§ 92) became -y; -eu* and -iu* (= Indg. -u § 213) became -e; -io* became -i; -uu* (= Indg. -um* and -om*, § 84 p. 80) became -ū. O.Bulg. remained at this stage. Examples:

1. -u, -i. Acc. sg. f. ženā 'wife': Skr. īśān 'equum', Gr. χρόν, Indg. -ā-m. 1. sg. cezu 'veho': Lat. vehunt, cp. ieghat-m*. Nom. acc. neut. imē 'name' fr. i-mēn*: cp. the long vowel in Goth. namō fr. na-mōn* (§§ 195, 214).

2. -y. Nom. kamy 'stone' (st. kamen-), formed like Gr. ἀκμῶν, O.H.G. hano, Lith. dial. szyno 'dog' (beside szū, Skr. śvā, § 92 rem.).

3. -e. Nom. acc. neut. polje 'field' fr. -ien*, -ion*, Indg. -io-m* (§ 84 p. 80). J. Schmidt Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 307 perhaps rightly (doubts however remain, s. W. Schulze ibid. 546) traces the -e of the loc. sg. kamen-e back to en* = Pruss. en Gr. ἐν 'in' (kamen* loc. like Skr. Ved. kārman, Gr. δόμεν). The -e of the acc. sg., e. g. mater-e 'matrem', fr. -in* = Gr. -a, Indg. -u (§§ 224, 249).

4. -i. Acc. gostī 'guest': cp. Skr. āvi-m, Gr. δι-v.

5. -ū. Acc. synū 'son': Skr. sānu-m. Acc. elūkū 'wolf': Skr. vṛka-m, Gr. λύκο-v.

Rem. 1. Acc. sg. ji'eum konjī 'equum' are accordingly not fr. io-n*, konjo-n, but fr. ji-n* (Lith. jī), konji-n*. S. § 84 rem. 1.

Assimilation took place when nasals of different organs came together. This process was also prim. Slav. kamēnū 'made of stone' fr. kamm-ēnū*, to kamen- 'stone'. To the nom. pl. graždan-e 'town-inhabitants' (fr. grāžjan-e(s)* § 147 p. 132 f.; from gradū 'town', cp. Gr. οὐρανίων-ες 'celestial inhabitants') belonged as dat. graždamū and as instr. graždami (Miklosich Vergl. Gramm. III² 15 f.), fr. -ān-mū*, -ān-mi*.

Rem. 2. Cp. the assimilation of -um- to -m- in imē 'name' (= iimē*) and imq 'I grasp, take' (= iimq*, cp. vāz-imq, sīu-imq, § 666, 1), the former fr. μ-mēn* (cp. O.Ir. ainm, Gr. δρῶμα etc.), the latter fr. μm-ā-m* (Goth. ainna, Gr. ἰμῶν, rt. nem-) with μr = Indg. y- (§ 248). On account of Pruss. emū-a- 'name' and Lith. imū = Slav. imā we must assume that the assimilation here took place in the prim. Balt.-Slav. period. μ-mēn-, μm-ō (1. sg.) had probably already at this period become μmēn-, μmō. Cp. Lat. emō § 238.

Nasal changes in the prim. Indg. period.

§ 220. J. Schmidt (Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVI 337 ff.) assumes that n, in the final combination long vowel + nasal + s, disappeared in the Indg. prim. language. E. g. Indg. -ās in the acc. pl. of a-stems (Skr. āśvās 'mares', Goth. gibōs 'gifts', Lith. rankos-nā 'into the hands') fr. -ā-us, cp. -o-us in the mascul. (Gr. Cret. νόμο-υς etc.). Indg. nom. sg. mēs* 'month' fr. mēns* (cp. Lat. gen. pl. mēns-um etc.), hence the Skr. form mās. The ending of the nom. sg. masc. part. pf. act. -mōs (Gr. εἰδώς, Av. vidēd 'knowing', § 649, 7) fr. -mōns (cp. Skr. acc. sg. masc. vidvāṣ-am etc.).

This hypothesis seems to me worth mentioning in this place as being a possibility which ought to be noticed. At present however it requires a still firmer foundation. We shall come to speak below of some of the forms and form-categories which Schmidt has brought forward in support of his theory.

§ 221. In all Indg. languages we meet with forms having a nasal in the root-syllable, when this ends in an explosive or a spirant, where we have good reason to suppose that the nasal once stood behind the root-syllable as nasal suffix. Forms also often occur with nasal suffix beside those with nasal infix. It is probably here a question of a sound-change which dates back to the Indg. prim. period. But it still remains to be established on the one hand, by what law the nasal-anticipation (or the affection preparing the way for it) at that time now appeared, now not; and on the other hand it must be determined whether the same process or similar processes have not also happened at a later time in the individual languages, e. g. in Italic (cp. Thurneysen Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVI 301 ff.) and thus cause the whole mass of examples to have to be estimated from various points of view. In any case it is no mere accident that the prim. Indg. change of the voiceless explosives into the voiced at the end of roots (§ 467, 7), so frequently appears in connection with present formations having a nasal infix (Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 328, Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 548), and that the syllable, which had absorbed the vowel into itself, was generally unaccented (the strong forms of the Skr. seventh present-class as chindāmi do not come into account here).

The nasal anticipation appears most frequently in the present tense, especially in the formation with suffix -ē- -ō- (Skr. sixth class), with which the Skr. seventh present-class is closely related (s. the author's article in Morph. Unt. III 148 ff.). Skr. līpāmi, Lith. līpū: O.Bulg. pri-ti(p)na, fr. rt. leip- 'smear, stick'. Skr. chindāmi chindāmi, Lat. scindō, OHG. scintan (cp. also Av. causat. scindayēiti, Gr. σχινδαλμός), from rt. sphajit-sphajid- 'split, tear'. Gr. πυθάρομαι, Lith. pa-bundū: O.Bulg. vūz-būna fr. būdna*, fr. rt. bheydh- 'watch, mark'. Skr. yujāte yunājmi, Lat. jungō, Lith. jūngiu: Gr. ζεύγνυμι, from rt. jeug- 'harness, yoke'. Lat. pangō, OHG. OS. inf. fahan (fr. prim. Gr. λογγάνομαι 'I have the hiccup' (λύγξ 'hiccup'): Mid. HG. slucken fr. prim. Germanic slugnōna-n* (§ 534). Lith. smunkū 'I slide, glide': Mid.HG. smücken 'to dress, adorn' O.Icel. smokkr 'under dress' from prim. Germ. smuz-u-* (§ 530).

Noun formations. Lat. fundu-s 'ground, bottom', O.Ir. bonn 'solea', Gr. πύρραξ 'bottom': Skr. budhūd-s 'bottom'. Lat. unda, Pruss. unda- m. 'water', Lett. ūde'ns 'water' fr. undens*, Lith. vandū -e'ns 'water' (the Lett. and the Lith. words seem to be due to a contamination of the stems unda-* and uaden-*), to these Skr. unāmi unāmi 'I wet, bathe': Skr. udān- udu- 'water, wave', Gr. ῥέειν from udy-t-* (§ 233) ῥέειν (?), Goth. vatin-, dat. pl. vatin-a-m, 'water' ¹⁾. Here come perhaps also Lat. mēns-

1) OHG. undea 'wave' can only be compared on the supposition that the root originally ended in t, so that the d in Lat. unda Skr. udān- etc. would stand on the same level with the g in pangū πήγνυμι (beside Lat. pac-, Skr. paś-). See above.

'month', Gr. Lesb. μῆς, Ō.Ir. mīs fr. mēns*- (§ 212): O.Bulg. mēsę-cŭ, cp. Umbr. menzno 'mense', Mars. mesene 'mense', Skr. mīs- mīsa-.

B. THE NASALS AS SONANTS).

§ 222. The Indg. parent language had all four nasals both in a consonantal and sonantal function. m and ɱ only occurred before the corresponding explosives.

We cannot ascertain whether the -m-, which frequently forms the close of a nominal n-stem, was or was not already in the Indg. prim. period assimilated to the organ of a following non-dental explosive. E. g. for Skr. yuvakī-s, Lat. juvenē-s, Cymr. ieuanē Ō.Ir. ōac ōc (the Keltic word has been transformed in the first syllable perhaps after the form of the comparative, see § 137), Goth. juggs (jāgg̃s?) are we to regard the primitive form as iun̥kī-s* or iun̥kī-s* (or with initial j-, § 133)? Skr. instr. pl. af̣ṣa-bhiḥ (stem af̣ṣan- 'male') fr. af̣ṣm-* bhis or af̣ṣy-bhis*?

The sonantal nasals occurred both as short and long, but mostly short. When long, they corresponded morphologically to i and ā see § 312.

1. The short sonantal nasals.

§ 223. The mode of treating the short ɱ, ɱ̃, ɱ̄, ɱ̅ in the separate languages renders it advisable to divide them into four categories.

1) Concerning the sonantal nasals and liquids see the author's essay in Curtius' Stud. IX 285 ff. 385, Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIII 587 ff. XXIV 255 ff., Morph. Unt. II 151 ff.; J. Schmidt Jen. 2. u, y unaccented before i, e. g. mūjō* 1. sg. pres. from rt. men- 'think': Lith. miniū. Here are probably also to be placed the combinations uu, yy, s. § 225.

3. With principal accent before consonants, e. g. s-ūtī* 3. pl. of és-mi* 'I am': Skr. s-ūti.

4. u, y before sonants, in which case m, n were spoken as glides, e. g. tyn-ú-* (rt. ten-) 'stretched, thin': Skr. tan-ú-. The glide consonant corresponded to u, i in such Indg. combinations as uya, iya, e. g. duyō* = Skr. Ved. durd O.Bulg. dūpa. S. § 117 p. 110.

The following is an abstract of the usual representation of y in the Indg. separate developments from these four points of view (u ū ɨ were similarly treated):

Rem. The Ar. ending of 1. sg. -am e. g. in Skr. ās-am 'I was' (cp. Gr. *ἦα ἦ = ēs-ṛa) and that of the acc. sg. e. g. in Skr. pād-am 'foot' (cp. Gr. *ποδ-α = pod-ṛa) point to -ṣm. Three explanations are possible. 1. There existed in prim. Indg. beside -m and -ṛa a form -ṣm (and -ṛa) after the manner of the phenomena discussed in §§ 312. 313. In that case Cypr. -ar in ἀ(ρ)δε(α)ρ(α)ρ-α (Att. ἀρδε(α)ρ(α)ρ-α) etc. could be directly connected with the Ar. form. 2. -ṛa became -ṣm, by a special Ar. development, when the following word began with a sonant, i. e. generated an m as glide, under the same conditions as i and u often made their appearance after -i and -u in various languages. 3. -ṛa became -a in prim. Ar. (cp. Skr. dāśa) and this became transformed to -am after the analogy of forms like Skr. ābhara-m, dāra-m. The second possibility seems to deserve the preference, and the first type in consideration of ābharam and dāra-m may have been generalised through the side by side existence of āsam a- and śāsa t-*; pād-am a- and pāda t-* (cp. J. Schmidt Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 262 f.). Cp. sthatār § 285.

Baltic-Slavonic.

§ 248. The Indg. sonant nasals became i + nasal in the prim. Balt-Slav. period. This i was open and still separate from Indg. i, as follows from the fact that Indg. in is represented in Slav. by i before explosives and spirants, whereas Indg. y in the same combinations is represented by ę. See § 219. We denote the prim. Baltic-Slav. and prim. Slav. equivalents of y, y by im in. Throughout the whole Baltic branch im, in arose from ym yn, so that all distinction between these and Indg. im, in was lost.

Pruss. newints Lith. deviñta-s O.Bulg. devetŭ 'ninth' (concerning the first syllable of the word s. § 68 rem. 1): Goth. niunda, Gr. ἑνάρης fr. ēfaro-s* (§ 166), prim. f. neyy-tō-s*; cp. also O.Bulg. devetŭ 'nine': Av. navaiti- 'ninety'; Skr. navati- 'ninety'. Lith. tįsti 'to stretch one's self out, extend' (beside tęsiū 'I stretch'): Skr. vi-tasti-ṣ 'a span' (causat. tasāyati 'he draws to and fro'), cpf. tys-ti-s*, from rt. tens-, cp. also Germ. puns- in the OHG. part. gi-dunsan 'swollen', to pres. dinsan.

Concerning Lith. imū O.Bulg. imā fr. ym-ō* and O.Bulg. imę fr. y-mēn* see § 219 rem. 2.

Pruss. insuwi-s O.Bulg. j-czykŭ 'tongue', perhaps to Lat. lingua lingua Goth. tuggō s. § 238; Lith. lėšūvi-s for lėšūvi-s* through a popular confusion with lėšiū 'I lick'. O.Bulg. pestŭ f. 'fist': OHG. fāst 'fist' (prim. Germ. furoxti-s*, s. § 214 p. 181, and § 527 extr.), cpf. pŕksti-s*, possibly to Goth. figgrs 'finger'. Lith. liñkti 'to bend one's self' liñkęs 'inclined, bent', beside lenkiū 'I bend' lankū 'valley' (O.Bulg. lęsti 'to bend' can be both Lith. liñkti and lenkti 'to bend', cp. Leskien Arch. f. slav. Phil. V 507. 527).

§ 250. 2. Lith. miniū 'I think of', O.Bulg. mñnjā 'I think': Skr. mānyatē 'thinks', Indg. pres. st. my-jē-* from rt. men-. O.Bulg. šñnjā 'I cut off, reap': Skr. hanyātē 'is struck', Indg. pres. stem ghy-jē-* rt. ghen-. Here probably also belong part. perf. act. pñnū (pres. pñnā 'I stretch out, hang') from pñnū* and ññikū 'thin' (compar. ññjŭ) fr. ññv-ī-kū*, like Skr. tanvī fr. ty-y-i* (§ 225).

§ 251. 3. -ŕti in O.Bulg. jad-ŕti 'they eat', -ŕt in O.Bulg. aor. bas-ŕ from bodaŕ 'I sting, stab', see § 226. It is possible on account of Skr. dād-ati that the -ŕti in dad-ŕti 'they give' (dad- = Lith. dād-) arose from -ŕti (with unaccented y).

§ 252. 4. Lith. pinū 'I bend' O.Bulg. pñnā 'I stretch out,

Part. pf. act. fem. Lith. minusi (miñti 'to think of') O.Bulg. pñūši (pñti 'to stretch out'), cp. Skr. Ved. jajan-úr (beside jajñ-úr) 3. pl. pf. act. from jan- 'beget', tatan-ē (beside tatñ-ē) 1. sg. pf. mid. from tan- 'stretch, extend'.

Rem. The Zographos gospel has occasionally ñ for ɣ before non-palatal vowels, e. g. tāma 'darkness' (prim. f. tγam-a*) beside tānūā 'dark'. Cp. § 36 rem.

2. Long sonant nasals.

§ 253. The question, first discussed by de Saussure, as to which sounds and sound-combinations have arisen in the Indg. languages from long nasalis sonans (Mémoire sur la système primitif des voyelles 1879 p. 239 ff.; cp. besides especially Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV p. 1V and p. 280, Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 30. 55. 331. 367. 373 ff.), has not hitherto, in many respects, been satisfactorily solved, just as in the case of the Indg. long sonant liquids (§ 306). The probable results of the investigations hitherto made, are as follow: — In Ar. ā = ā, ā, corresponding to a = a, a. In Gr. between consonants ā (Ion. Att. η) = ā, ā, initially ā- (Ion. Att. νη-) = ā-. In Lat. nā and an- from ā, corresponding to Gr. ā and ā-. In Arm. initially an- from ā. Nothing in any degree certain has, as yet, been determined for the other languages. Examples:

2. pl. pret. Skr. āgata Gr. Dor. ēgare Ion. Att. ēgare, cpf. ē gñtē* rt. gem- 'go'. The stem form gñ-* forced its way into the sg. act. also, hence Skr. āgam āgas āgat Gr. ēgnv ēgn beside Skr. āgamam āgan āgan.

Skr. jātā-s 'born, son' Av. zāta-, Skr. jāti-ṣ f. 'birth', Lat. gnātu-s natu-s, natiō (cp. also Gall. Cintu-gnātu-s 'first-born' according to Thurneysen Keltorum 2), from rt. gen- 'gignere'. Analogously Skr. satā- from san- 'reach', vatā- from pan- 'to like', ghā-ta- 'killing; blow, a putting to death' ghā-ti- 'blow, a wounding' from han- 'strike, kill' etc.

Skr. jāndmi 'I recognise, know', O.Pers. 3. sg. pret. adana (= Skr. ājanat), prim. f. gā-nā-mi*, Lat. gnāru-s, prim. f. gā-rō-s* (formed like du-ru-s), rt. gen- 'noscere'.

Skr. ātā- f. 'rim, door-frame', Arm. -and in dr-and 'door-post, threshold', Lat. anta 'four-cornered door-pillar, pilaster'¹⁾.

Skr. atī-ṣ f. 'a water-fowl', Gr. νήσσα 'duck' fr. vār-ia*, (with these also Lat. anas anitēs, OHG. anut, Lith. anti-s 'duck' we venture to make no assertion as to their phonetic-relations).

Skr. yātar- 'wife of the husband's brother'; that the a arose from ṣ is probable on account of Gr. ειράτης, Lat. janitrīcēs, O.Bulg. jetry.

Further a = ṣ in the Skr. nouns jā-s (loc. pl. jā-su) 'born, creature, being' (here orig. also pra-jā- 'progenies', which, going out from forms like loc. pl. pra-jāsu, passed into the a-declension), vāja-sā-s 'lending power' (cp. vāja-sati-ṣ f. 'a reaching of power', Skr. san- 'reach, attain' and 'distribute, administer'). With a = ṣ samana-gā-s 'going to the place of assembly'. These nouns are on the same footing as gār 'commending; praise', pār 'citadel', s. §§ 306. 312.

Skr. Ved. nā-mā 'nomina' probably fr. -mṣ*, hence nā-mā : nā-ma = purā : purā.

Greek vā-ν- 'un-' in Dor. vā-νοιος Hom. νῆ-κροής etc., Umbr.-Samnit. an- 'un-' in Umbr. an-hostatu 'inhastatos' Osc. an-censto nom. sg. 'incensa' etc. fr. ṣ-* (W. Schulze Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 606).

LIQUIDS.

A. LIQUIDS AS CONSONANTS.

Indg. primitive period.

§ 254. One of the most difficult questions of Indg. phonology is to determine how many liquids the Indg. prim. language possessed and what their nature was (cp. Sievers Phonetik ³ p. 104ff.).

1) If the Av. ṣpaṭ leyōmaron aṣpyā- should mean 'door-post' and be connected with Skr. ātā- (Zimmer Altind. Leben 154), its first syllable

That there were at least two liquids, is seen by the circumstance that the European languages and Armenian agree in presenting r in many cases and l in others. r e. g. in Arm. berem Gr. qéw Lat. ferō O.Ir. berim Goth. baíra 'I bear' O.Bulg. berq 'I take'. l e. g. in Arm. li (gen. lioy) Gr. πλή-ης Lat. plē-nu-s 'full' O.Ir. linaim 'I fill', O.Icel. fleire 'more' flestr 'most', Lith. pilna-s O.Bulg. plünū 'full'.

A fixed law of representation has not yet been gained for the Skr. liquids.

The Skr. equivalents of Europ.-Arm. r are 1) mostly r. bhārami : Gr. qéw. 2) l. lúncati 'he picks, plucks, plucks out' : Gr. ὀρύσσω 'I dig', Lat. runcāre 'to weed out', Lith. runkū 'I become wrinkled' raūka-s 'wrinkle'. 3) r, later l. rup-lup- 'tear, break' : Lat. rumpō, Ags. reófan O.Icel. rjafa 'to break, tear in pieces'.

Corresponding to europ.-Arm. l we have 1) in most cases r. prātá-s 'filled' : Lat. plētus (according to O. Weise Bezzenb. Beitr. VI 115 Skr. r always corresponds to Gr. λ after k-sounds, e. g. Skr. śrávas : Gr. κλέφος). 2) l. tuld 'balance' : Gr. τάλανρον 'balance', Lat. tollō, O.Ir. tallaim 'I take away', Goth. pulan 'to endure, suffer'. 3) r, later l. rip-lip- 'smear' : Gr. λεπός n. 'fat', Lat. lippu-s 'blear-eyed', Goth. bi-leiban 'to remain' (cp. Gr. λεπαίω 'I persist in a thing'), Lith. limpū O.Bulg. pri-l(p)na 'I stick, glue'.

The laws for these differences still remain to be investigated. It does not seem to be a mere accident that Skr. l = Arm.-Europ. l occurs much more frequently than Skr. l = Armen.-Europ. *r*¹⁾.

must in that case be strong-grade. The interpretation of the passage in question is however doubtful.

1) "There is hardly a root containing an l which does not show also forms with r; words written with the one letter are found in other texts, or in other parts of the same texts, written with the other. In the later periods of the language they are more separated, and the l becomes decidedly more frequent, though always much rarer than the r (only as 1 to 7 or 8 or 10)". Whitney Sanskrit grammar § 53.

Old Iranian had only r as opposed to Arm.-Europ. r and l and Skr. r and l. O.Pers. l only in loan-words. It still remains to be investigated whether, and how far the l-sounds in the younger Iran. dialects are to be taken into account for fixing the development of liquids in pre-historic times.

With this state of things¹⁾ it seems to be most suitable to put down the Indg. primitive forms after the standpoint of the Europ. languages and Armenian, thus e. g. bhérō* 'I bear', plētō-s* 'filled'.

Rem. W. Heymann 'Das l der idg. Sprachen gehört der idg. Grundsprache an', Weimar 1873, p. 1 ff., and D. Pezzi Glossologia ariæ recentissima, Torino 1877, p. 17 ff., give a summary of the older views, which have been put forth, regarding the previous history of the r- and l-sounds met with in the Indg. languages in historic times.

Nominal suffix -ter-, e. g. mā-ter-* mā-tr-* 'mother': acc. sg. Arm. mair, Gr. μητέρα, Lat. mātem, O.Ir. māthir n-, OHG. muoter, Lith. móterį ('wife') O.Bulg. matere, Skr. mātāram;

1) Indg. l beside r could be held as definitely proved if Fortunator's rule had a firmer basis viz.: that, where in Skr. a cerebral consonant appears as representative of an original liquid + dental, this liquid is the regular correspondent of Europ.-Arm. l (Bezzenger's Beitr. VI 215 ff.). F's examples, to which a few others have been added by Windig's Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII f68, are for the most part etymologically very uncertain, nor are unexplained exceptions wanting. Cp. § 239.

voc. Gr. μῆτες, Skr. mātar. r as element of the ending of the 3. pl. mid. : Lat. sequontu-r O.Ir. sechiti-r 'they follow', Skr. viric-ré perf. from vic- 'to let loose, leave'.

r as consonantal glide after r, e. g. gyr-ā-* 'heavy', see §§ 284. 287.

§ 256. Indg. l. Rt. leig- 'leave' : Armen. lk-ane-m Gr. λείνω Lat. linquō O.Ir. lēim 'I leave', Goth. leihea 'I lend', Lith. lėkū 'I leave' O.Bulg. otū-lékū 'remnant', Skr. riṇākti 'lets loose, leaves'. Rt. gel- 'fall, drop' : Gr. βολή 'a throw', OHG. quellen 'to spring, gush', Lith. gāla-s 'end', Skr. gāla-ti 'trickles down'. Rt. gely- 'drag, tear, draw' : Gr. ἔλω 'I drag, draw', ἔλκος 'wound, sore', Lith. velkū O.Bulg. elékū 'I drag, draw'; to the same root Skr. vyka-s 'wolf'. Rt. klej- 'lean' : Gr. κλίω 'I lean, bow', Lat. clivus 'hill', O.Ir. cloen 'slant, unjust, wicked', Goth. hláins 'hill', Lith. szlaūta-s 'mountain-slope', Skr. śráya-ti 'leans against, puts to'.

Nominal suffixes -lo- -la- -lu-. Arm. dar-i da-l 'beestings', Gr. θη-λή 'teat, nipple' θη-λυσ 'nourishing, suckling, of female sex', Lat. fē-lare 'to suck', O.Ir. de-l 'teat, dug', OHG ti-la 'a woman's breast', Lith. pirm-dėlė 'she who has given birth for the first time', cp. Skr. dhā-rū-ṣ 'sucking', Kurd. dē-l 'little woman'.

Skr. uda-prā-t- 'swimming in water' plāv-a-tē 'swims', Av. fra-fravaiti 'wavers to and fro' : Arm. lua-na-m 'I wash', Gr. πλίο 'I sail, swim' πλευρός 'washed', Lat. pluit, O.Ir. luath 'quick', OHG. flewen flouwan 'to rinse, wash', Lith. plūti 'to rinse'.

Skr. lābhya-ti 'feels a strong desire' : Lat. libet libet, Goth. liufs O.Bulg. ljubū 'dear'. Skr. nabhī-la-m 'private parts' : Gr. ὀμφαλό-ς 'navel, umbo', Lat. umbi-l-icu-s, O.Ir. imē-l-iu 'navel', OHG. naboto 'navel'.

§ 259. Skr. r was spoken cerebral (hence the change of prim. Ar. n to ṛ in its vicinity, § 199), l dental.

r became h in absolute finality. Voc. mātāh 'O mother' : Gr. μήτηρ. antāh 'in the inside' : Lat. inter. Cp. § 647, 3.

From a liquid with a following dental explosive or nasal often arose a cerebral explosive, or a nasal. kaśā-ś kāṭuka-s 'sharp, biting' : Lith. kartū-s 'bitter'. gaṇā-s 'band, crowd' : Gr. ἀγίαιος ἀγορά. jaṣhāra- 'belly, womb' : Goth. kilpei 'womb'. api- 'the part of the leg just above the knee, axle peg' : Gr. ὠλένη ὠλό-ν Ir. *ōl-r-o-r, Lat. ulna. papa-s 'wager, stipulation', promised reward': Lith. peŋna-s 'profit'. In like manner probably lāṣ-ami 'I long, desire' fr. la-ls-*, cp. lat-las-a-s 'eager for, desirous', Lat. lascivo-s. It is still unexplained from what point of view such forms, as opposed to others in which the liquid apparently under similar conditions remained, are to be judged. It is not improbable that intermixture of dialects has taken place. Cp. p. 209 foot-note and in addition to the literature quoted there Fröhde Bezzenberger's Beitr. III 130 ff.

Nasal from liquid through dissimilation. cañ-cāryatē fr. older Ved. car-cāryātē 'moves quickly', intens. fr. car-. cañ-cala-s 'moving to and fro', from cal-. pam-phulyatē, intens. to phālati 'springs assunder'. Cp. § 282.

r underwent transposition before certain consonant combinations, e. g. from dārś- 'see' fut. drakṣyāmi (cp. Gr. δέξομαι) perf. 2. sg. dadrāṣtha inf. drāṣtum; from tarp- 'to satiate one's self' perf. 2. sg. tatrāptha beside tatārptha; from sarp- 'crawl' fut. srapṣyāmi beside sarpsyāmi aor. āsrāpsam beside āsārpsam.

§ 260. Avestic. Before i- and *u-*vowels an anaptyctic i or u was prefixed to initial r-. rista-* part. fr. raeṣ- 'to be connected with'. rusta-* part. fr. raad- 'to grow forth'. An anaptyctic vowel arose from medial r before and after consonants, which, when r preceded, was generally represented by e. Perf. dālar'sa: Skr. dadārśa, Gr. δέδορξα, from rt. derṣ- 'see'. e also after er = Indg. r, l, e. g. part. ker'tu-: Skr. kṛtā- 'made', prim. f. gyto-* (§ 288). Other vowels more seldom, e. g. pres. s'ru-nao-mi from sru-: Skr. śru- 'hear': s'ri-nao-mi (ni-s'rinaomi 'I hand down') from sri-: Skr. śri- 'direct towards, direct to'. Further e was suffixed to final r, e. g. antar' 'between': O.Pers. atar Skr. antār. Cp. §§ 624. 649, 4.

r became spirant before k, p, t, when the next preceding sonant had the chief accent. This pronunciation of the r was represented by hr before k, p, but hrt became ṣ. This law also obtained for er = Skr. r (§ 288). mahr-ka- m. 'death, destruction' fr. mār-ka-* beside mar'ka- (with the same meaning) = Skr. markā- m. 'an injuring of the sun, a darkening'. vehrka-:

Skr. vṛka- 'wolf', Indg. vṛko-*. khrp- 'form, body': Skr. kṛp- 'form, appearance'. mašya- (mašiya-): Skr. Ved. mārtiya- O.Pers. martiya- 'mortal being, man'. a-meša-: Skr. a-mṛta- 'immortal' beside mer'ta-: Skr. mṛtā-. Cp. Bartholomae Ar. Forsch. II 35 ff. and § 674.

Rem. Prim. Ar. final -rt, -rt always appear as -rṣ, -rṣ, e. g. ha-kerṣ = Skr. sa-kṛt 'once'. The law, whereby -t became -ṣ (§ 649, 6), was therefore older than the change of rt to ṣ.

ur- was transposed with u-prefix, e. g. urāta-* n. 'a determining': Gr. φῆρο-ς 'determined, settled'. See § 157.

§ 261. Old Persian. š, whose exact pronunciation cannot be closely defined, appears for prim. Ar. tr = prim. Iran. ḫr. ši-: Av. ḫri- Skr. tri- 'three'. puša-: Av. pušra- Skr. putrá- 'son'. Gen. piša-: Av. pišrō Gr. πατρός 'of a father'. See §§ 353. 473, 2.

§ 262. Indg. r. erek 'evening': (Gr. ἔσπερος n. Goth. riqiz-a- n. Skr. rājas- n. 'darkness', Indg. regos*. e-re-k 'three' (e-prothetic, § 263): Gr. τρεῖς, Lat. trēs, O.Ir. trī, Goth. þreis, O.Bulg. trije, Skr. tráyas, Indg. tréj-es* 'three'. cer 'old man': Gr. γέρων-Skr. járant- 'old man'. skesur, gen. skesri, 'mother-in-law': Gr. ἰνυρά Lat. socrus Corn. hweger Goth. swalthrō O.Bulg. šeskrā- 'mother-in-law'. tu-r 'gift': Gr. δῶρο-ν, O.Bulg. da-rā. dustr, gen. dster, 'daughter': Gr. θυγάτηρ.

Indg. l. liz-u-m 'I lick': Gr. λίζω Lat. lingō O.Ir. ligim 'I lick', Goth. bi-láigō 'I lick', Lith. lėžiu Skr. rēhmi lēhmi 'I lick'. rt. leijh-. ail, gen. ailoy, 'alius': Gr. ἄλλος Lat. alius O.Ir. aile Goth. aljīs 'other'.

§ 263. r became ṛ before n (occasionally also in other cases without any clear reason). durn, gen. dran, 'door', an extension of the Indg. st. dhur-* with the suffix -en-: Gr. Arcad. θύρ-δα 'out'. jern-u-m 'I warm myself', beside jer 'warmth' jern 'warm': Gr. θερός θειρό-ς, Lat. formus. Thus also when r goes back to Indg. r, e. g. garṇ 'lamb': Skr. ár-an-a-s (ur- fr. hur-*, § 157), Gr. gen. ἀρ-νός, Indg. ur+en-* (§ 291).

λ appears in some words for Indg. r and l, without the special cause being known. astl, gen. astel, 'star, constellation': Gr. ἀστὴρ astērō Lat. stella fr. ster-lā* Bret. sterenn Goth. stairnō Skr. stār- 'star'. elɛn, gen. elin, 'hart': Gr. ἔλλος ēllōs 'a young hart' fr. il-v-o-s*, ἔλαφος ēlaphos 'hart' fr. el-y-bho-s*, Cymr. elain 'hind', O.Bulg. jel-en-ŭ 'hart'.

br, tr, bl were transposed to rō, rt, lb. surō, gen. srboy, 'clean': Skr. śubh-rā-s 'bright, pretty'. Ērtɛn, gen. Ērtan, 'sweat': Gr. ἰδρώς idrōs e-lbair 'brother' (e- prothetic, s. below): Lat. frāter, Skr. bhrātṛ-.

Initial liquid developed a prothetic vowel which appears as e, a:

Original initial liquid. e-rek 'evening': Skr. rājas- alwēs 'fox': Skr. lōpaśa-.

Secondary initial liquid. e-re-k 'three': Skr. trāy-as. e-lbair 'brother': Lat. frāter. a-lbeur 'a spring' fr. bleur*, older bleu(a)r*: Gr. γρήυρ 'a well' fr. γρη-φαρ*.

Rem. o-prothesis perhaps in orc-a-in 'I break open' and alb-a-in 'I bewail'. See Hübschmann Armen. Stud. I 46. 47.

Indg. r was dropped in tes-ano-m 'I see': Gr. ἰεργομαι. The reason of its dropping out is unknown.

Greek.

§ 264. Indg. r. óreγω 'I stretch out': Lat. regō, O.Ir. imper. ē-rig 'erect thyself', Goth. uf-rakja 'I lift up'. πέρα 'beyond, further' περάω 'I pass through' πάρος 'passage, ford, way': Arm. heṛi 'far, distant', Lat. per-egre 'in a foreign land', O.Ir. ire 'ulterior', Goth. farjan 'to sail, drive', O.Bulg. perq 'I traverse', Skr. pāra-s 'more distant, farther'. ὑπὲρ ὑψίς (fr. ὑπερ*), §§ 131. 645 final 2) 'over' ὑπερο- 'pestle': Lat. s-uper, Goth. ufar 'over' ufarō 'thereon': Skr. upāri 'above'. πέρδομαι 'I break wind': OHG. ferzan 'to break wind', Lith. pėrdžiū 'I break wind', Skr. pārdatē 'breaks wind'. τέρσομαι 'I become dry': Lat. torreō fr. tors-ejō*, Goth. ga-þairsa 'I wither', Skr. tarṣa-a- 'thirst'.

τρέω (aor. Hom. τρέσ-σας) 'I flee, tremble' τρέμω 'I tremble': Lat. tremō, Lith. trimù 'I tremble (with cold)' O.Bulg. trъzъ 'I shake', Skr. trásami 'I tremble at, quake'. ἀγρός 'field': Lat. ager, Goth. akrs 'field', Skr. ájra-s 'a plain'. πῦρ πῦρ-ός 'fire': Arm. hur, gen. hroy, 'fire', Umbr. pure 'igne', OHG. fûir fiur 'fire'. ἄ-κρ-ος 'powerless, without authority' κῦ-ος 'power': Skr. śá-ra- Av. sā-ra- 'strong, sublime'.

The one liquid was sometimes put in the place of the other by dissimilation, e. g. κεφαλ-αργία beside κεφαλ-αλγία 'head-ache', to ἄλγος, μορμολύντω 'I frighten' beside μόρ-μορ-ος 'fear', θηλητήρ (Hesych.) beside θηρητήρ 'hunter'; or one of the two liquids was dropped, e. g. φάτρία beside φράτρία 'brotherhood, clan', δρύ-φρακτο-ς fr. δρύ-φρακτο-ς 'fence', ἔκ-παγλος 'frightful' fr. *ἔκ-πλεγ-λο-ς, to ἐκ-πλεγῆναι; or the first liquid was changed to a nasal, e. g. γαγγαλίζω 'I tickle' fr. *γαλγαλίζω (beside γαργαλίζω). Cp. § 282. Probably also by dissimilation Cret. (Gortyn.) μαίττορες fr. μάττορες 'witnesses'; palatal l was the intermediate stage between ρ and ι.

Initial ρ, λ underwent vowel-prothesis. ἰ-ροθρός 'red': Lat. ruber, Skr. rudhirá-s. ὀρύσσω 'I dig': Lat. runcō. ἰ-λαφρός 'nimble': OHG. lugar. ἀ-λῖναι 'to spread over, besmear': Lat. li-nō, O.Ir. le-nim 'I cling to'. Cp. § 626. Ibid. also concerning medial anaptyxis.

The combinations sr- and ur- became é- i. e. voiceless r, the former in prim. Gr., the latter in the course of the individual dialects, e. g. ῥέω 'I flow' fr. Indg. sreṃ-ō*, Skr. srápmi, to which also Corcyr. ῥοαφαί Hom. ῥοαί 'streams'; Att. ῥήτρα 'a saying' = El. ῥάτρα. Cp. §§ 164. 565.

Anteconsonantal λ was pronounced l in Cret. (Russ. 12), and as such passed into u, e. g. αἰκά: Ion. ἀλκή 'strength', θεύω: Hom. θείλω 'I enchant, cheat' (cp. Lith. § 280).

λ before τ, θ became ν in certain Doric districts, e. g. φίντατος 'dearest', ἦνθον 'I came'.

Italic.

§ 267. Indg. r. Lat. rē-s, Umbr. re-per 'pro re': Skr. rā-s (instr. rāy-d) 'wealth'. Lat. rēx rēgis, Osc. regaturoi dat. 'rectori', Marruc. regen[a] dat. 'reginae': Gall. -rīx 'king' in Dumno-rīx etc., O.Ir. rī gen. rīg, Skr. rāj-an- 'king'. Lat. ferō, Umbr. feras 'feratur', Volsc. ferom 'ferro', Marruc. ferenter 'ferontur': Gr. φέρω, Skr. bhārami. Lat. vertō, Umbr. co-vertu 'convertito', Osc. ferasorei 'Versori', ἑρπιάω: Goth. vairþan 'to become', Lith. versti and vartyti 'to turn, direct to' O.Bulg. vratiti 'to turn, direct to', Skr. vārtatē 'revolves, rolls'. Lat. serpō: Gr. ἑρπω, Skr. sārpāmi, Indg. sērpō* 'I creep, crawl'. Lat. terminō termen, Umbr. terminom-s 'ad terminum', Osc. terem-nattens 'terminaverunt': Gr. τέρας 'boundary' τίμα 'goal', Skr. tārman- n. 'point of the offering rod'. Lat. frīgus, Umbr. frehtef 'refrigerans, frigefaciens': Gr. ῥῑγος 'frost', prim. f. srīgos* (§ 570). Lat. caper capra, Umbr. cabriner gen. 'caprini': Gr. κάπρος 'boar', O.Icel. høfr 'he-goat'. Lat. acer acris, Osc. a krid abl. 'acri': (Ir. áx-ro-s 'point', Lith. as-trū-s O.Bulg. ostrū 'sharp', Skr. catur-aśra- 'four-cornered'.

§ 268. Indg. l. Lat. lāx lācis, Osc. Luvkis 'Lucius': Gr. λευκό-s 'white'. Lat. luō re-luō so-lūto-s: Gr. λέω 'I loose', O.Icel. lyja 'to crush, shatter', Goth. lāns 'looso', Skr. lu-nā-mi 'I cut, cut down, annihilate'. Lat. gelu, Osc. γελαν 'pruinam': O.Icel. kala 'to freeze' Goth. kalds 'cold', O.Bulg. šlēdica 'snow-rain'. Lat. sōl: Gr. ἡλιος ἥλιος Mid. Cymr. heul Corn. houl Goth. saul O.Icel. sól Lith. saulė, Skr. Ved. suvar (gen. sūr-as) Av. hear 'sun'. Lat. flōs flōris, Osc. Fluusaí dat. 'Florae', Sabin. Musarē abl. 'Floralis': O.Ir. blath 'blossom' Cymr. blodau

'flos', Goth. blōma m. 'flower' OHG. bluot 'blossom'. Lat. clāni-s: Cymr. clun 'hip', O.Icel. blunn 'buttock', Lith. szlauni-s 'hip, upper part of the thigh', Skr. śrōṇi-ś Av. sraoni-ś 'buttock, hip' ¹). Lat. ala fr. acslā* (cp. §§ 503, 570): OHG. ahsla Ags. eaxl O.Icel. axl 'axle', prim. Germ. azslō*.

The one liquid was often put in the place of the other by dissimilation: r for l, e. g. in caeruleu-s 'azure' fr. caelu-m, suffix -cro- in lucru-m simulācrū-m lavācrū-m etc. from -clo- (saeclu-m), which arose from -llo-* (§ 367), suffix -āri- from -ali- in exemplāri-s militāri-s lānāri-s etc. (cp. aequali-s navāli-s etc.); l for r, e. g. in vulgar Latin pelegrīnu-s (Italian pellegrino) fr. per-egrīnu-s. r was dropped by dissimilation in prae-stigiāe beside prae-strigiāe, frāgāre beside frāgrāre etc. For a like reason nasal from liquid in cancer cancrī fr. carcro-*: Gr. καρκινος Skr. karkāṭa-s 'crab'. Cp. § 282.

r disappeared before s + consonant. com-pescō 'I constrain' fr. -per(c)-scō* par(c)-scō*, to Skr. parc- 'to put in connexion'. poscō fr. por(c)-scō*: Skr. pychāmi 'I ask', Indg. prk-skō* from rt. prek-. lostu-s fr. tors-tu-s*, to torreō. Māspiter beside 'older Mārs-piter. Tuscu-s beside Umbr. Tursco- Tusco-.

ll fr. rl. stella from ster-lā*: cp. Gr. ἀστὴρ Bret. sterenn Goth. stairnō 'star'. agellu-s fr. ager-lo-s*, older aggr-lo-s* (§ 633). paullu-s fr. paur-lo-s*: Gr. παῦρος.

ss, s from rs (from rss) in prōssum prōsa quōssum sūsum etc. = prōrsum etc. It is uncertain whether the preceding long vowel was here a co-operating factor. This is not proved by vorsus morsus etc., since r may here have been restored by levelling (cp. vortō mordēō).

ri, ro became er through the intermediate stage r in certus = Gr. χερός, ager = Gr. ἀγρός etc. See §§ 33. 623 rem. 1. 633.

Just as medius arose from medio-s*, and mortuo-s from mortuo-s* (§§ 135. 170), so also postconsonantal l became sonantal, and thus arose -ol-, -ul-, -il-. This process seems first to have been effectuated in the archaic period.

pō-culu-m, older pō-colo-m, sae-culu-m, piā-culu-m (Umbr. piha-klu 'piaculorum') etc. beside which also pō-clu-m, sae-clu-m etc. Analogously -bolo-, -bulo-, -bili- fr. -blo- (Gr. -blo-), -bli-, as tabola tabula fr. tabla* (Umbr. tafle e 'in tabula'). angulu-s (Umbr. anglom-e 'in angulum') fr. anclo-s* (§ 499), to ancu-s uncu-s and OHG. angul. populus poplu-s (Umbr. poplom 'populum'). nōmen-culātor fr. nōmen-clātor. Concerning coculu-m and torculu-s cp. also § 431 c.

Rem. A similar origin of er from r seems to me very doubtful in pl. generi (cp. Gr. γενεός), umeru-s (cp. Umbr. onse 'in umero' Goth. ams 'shoulder'), numeri-s (cp. Osc. Niumsiels 'Numerii'). See § 568, 3.

§ 271. Oscan. r and l became sonantal before and after consonants, and then arose an anaptyctic vowel. This took the quality of the preceding vowel when the liquid came first in the consonant combination, and that of the following vowel when it did not come first. 1) aragetud 'argento', amiricatud 'inmercato, non mercato', Μαμερσις 'Mamercius', teremniss 'terminibus', Alafaternum 'Alfaternorum' to Lat. albu-s. 2) sakarater 'sacratur' beside σάκρογο 'sacrum' or 'sacra', pūtúrúspíd nom. 'utrique' beside pútereí-píd loc. 'in utroque', Vestirikifúí dat. 'Vestricio', zicolom 'diem' beside loc. zikel[ei] abl. ziculud. Beside these however without anaptyxis altrei dat. 'alteri', alttram 'alteram', ehtrad 'extra' etc., see § 627.

Cp. also Pelign. Alafis 'Alfius', Salavatur 'Salvator', pristafalacirix (Lat. prae-stabulatrix*) 'antistita', sacaracirix (Lat. sacatrix*) 'sacrificans' (-cr- fr. -tr-, § 367).

Old Irish.

§ 272. Indg. r. roth 'wheel', Gall. petor-ritum 'four-wheeled chariot': Lat. rota, OHG. rad n. 'wheel', Lith. rāta-s 'wheel', Skr. rātha-s 'vehicle, war-chariot'. daur (gen. daro) Cymr. derwen 'oak' (to which O.Ir. druid Gall. Druidae 'druids'?): Gr. δῶρον 'wood, shaft, spear' δῶν-ς 'tree, oak', Goth. triu 'tree', Lith. dervā 'resinous wood' O.Bulg. drěvo 'wood, tree', Skr. drū drū- Av. dāuru n. 'wood'. orc 'pig': Gr. πόρκος Lat. porcus OHG. farh farah Lith. pušs-a-s O.Bulg. prase, prim. f. porko-s* 'pig, sucking-pig', brai Mid. Ir. 'eye-brows': Gr. ὀφθαλμοί OHG. brāwa O.Bulg. brāvo-š Skr. bhrā-š 'eye-brow'. fe-r 'man': Lat. vir Goth. vair Lith. vīra-s Skr. vīrā-s, Indg. ui-ró-s* and ui-ró-s* 'man'. Comparative suffix Indg. -tero-: air-ther 'East' (to ar 'before, ante') lērithir 'more diligent'. Gr. νότερος 'uter' ὠμότερος 'rawer', Lat. i-teru-m, Skr. ku-tará-s 'uter'. e-ter e-tir 'between': Lat. in-ter, Skr. an-tār.

§ 273. Indg. l. lōthur Mid. Bret. louazr 'alveus, canalis' Gall. lantro 'balneo': Arm. log-ana-m 'I bathe myself', Gr. λούω 'I wash' λουπέ-ν 'bath', Lat. lavō lantu-s. gel 'white': Lat. helus (holus, olus), helou-s, OHG. gelo (infl. gelawēr) 'yellow', Lith. želū 'I grow green' O.Bulg. zeliže n. 'greens, vegetables' zelenū 'green', Skr. hāri-š Av. zairi-š 'yellowish'. salann Cymr. halan 'salt': Arm. al (gen. alī) Gr. ἄλς Lat. sal salis Goth. salt O.Bulg. solī 'salt'. melg 'milk': Gr. ἀμέλω 'I milk', OHG. melchan 'to milk', Goth. miluks 'milk' (§ 628), Lith. mėlū 'I milk', O.Bulg. mlēsti 'to milk'. lār Cymr. llawr 'pavement, floor': Aga. flōr 'house-floor' MHG. vlur 'corn-field, ground, soil'.

§ 274. A transposition of vowel + liquid is assumed in flaith 'dominion' (Goth. valdan 'to rule'), frass 'shower of rain' fr. yrastq* (Skr. varṣā-s 'rain') and in many other words (Zouss-Ebel G. C. 168, J. Schmidt Voc. II 370 ff., Windisch Ir. Gramm. § 79). It is unknown to us within what limits this sound-process is to be acknowledged and by what it has been occasioned.

Rem. A great number of the examples brought forward are to be separated viz. all those cases in which ri re, li le depend upon Indg. r, l (§ 298), and those in which the liquid with the accompanying vowel was the continuation of r, l specially developed in Ir. through sumprasāraṇa, as du-fu-tharcair 'voluit' fr. du-fū-threair* from -threair (§ 634).

§ 277. West Germanic.

Examples of dissimilation. In OHG. l from r, e. g. in murmūlōn murmūlunga beside murmurōn 'to murmur' murmurunga 'a murmuring': Lat. murmurāre 'to murmur, grumble', Gr. μυρμύρειν μορμύρειν 'to murmur, roar, ripple'; in the loan-words turtul-tāba fr. Lat. turtur, martela beside martera martra 'torture, rack' martolōn beside martorōn martrōn 'to torture; rack' fr. Greek-Lat. martyr martyrium. Cp. § 282. Dropping of r, l. OHG. criskimūnōn beside criscrimmūn criscrimmūn 'to gnash the teeth with rage', cp. OS. gristgrimmō 'a gnashing of teeth'. It is not so certain that OHG. bior Ags. beor O.Icel. björr 'beer' are related to OHG. brinwan 'to brew', Greek-Thrac. βεῖρο-ν a kind of beer, Lat. dē-frātu-m; in case they do, the dropping of the root r must be ascribed to the prim. Germ. period (b(r)ey-ra-*). Many bring Goth. fugls OHG. fogal 'bird' together with OHG. fliogan 'to fly'; the dissimilatoric disappearance of the l would also here be prim. Germ. (f(l)ug-la-*).

In the final syllable of nouns with r- and l- suffixes, when r and l followed a spirant or explosive, through the disappearance of the short vowel (§ 635) after the liquid, there arose in West Germ. ɣ and ʎ out of which a new vowel was developed, in OHG. OS. a, Ags. e, o. Nom. acc. OHG. acchar OS. accar Ags. æccer 'field' = Goth. nom. akrs acc. akr, Gr. ἀγρός ἀγρό-ν; OHG. fogal OS. fugal Ags. fuzol 'bird' = Goth. nom. fugls acc. fugl. (It is possible that liquids were also spoken syllabic in Goth., akrs akr, fugls fugl)). The anaptyctic vowel in

1) The contrast between vair stīur fr. enirs* stīurs* and akrs speaks for akrs (§ 680, 6). But monosyllabic akrs may then have arisen from dissyllabic akrs.

OHG. forced its way from the final into the medial syllable of these nouns and their derivatives, at first after short syllables, and then later after long also, e. g. avechares 'of a field', fugalon 'to catch birds' (cp. Sievers in Paul-Braune's Beitr. V 90 ff.). Here must further be mentioned the development of a vowel between liquids and h which spreads throughout the whole extent of OHG., and in which OS. also to a certain extent shared, e. g. OHG. OS. ferah 'soul, life' : Goth. fairhōns 'world'; OHG. OS. bi-felahan 'to hide, bury' : Goth. filhan. Anaptyxis is also found between r and guttural and labial consonants especially in Oberdeutsch (Upper German), e. g. purag beside burg 'citadel, city' : Goth. baúrgs; peragan beside bergan 'to conceal' : Goth. baúrgan; arapeit beside arbeit 'work, toil' : Goth. arbáúps; aram beside arm 'arm' : Goth. arms. The vowels thus developed frequently become assimilated to some vowel in their vicinity, e. g. hungirita 'hungered' to hungar 'hunger'; fingirín 'finger-ring' to fingar 'finger'; wuntorōn beside wuntarōn 'to wonder at'; puruc beside purag 'city'; piricha = pircha bircha 'birch-tree' : Lith. bérža-s.

Rem. 1. In these cases it is partly a question of a prim. Germ. r and l, which depended upon Indg. r, l, e. g. the orig. f of OHG. burg Goth. baúrgs must be put down as bhrgh-*, s. § 299.

Rem. 2. Cp. the anaptyxis with re § 180, and nasals § 215.

l became geminated in West Germ. before i, e. g. OHG. willio willo OS. willio Ags. willa 'wish, desire' : Goth. vīlja, rt. vel-. See § 143 p. 129. Cp. the similar gemination of nasals § 216 and spirants and explosives (§§ 529. 531. 535. 540).

§ 280. Lithuanian.

The difference between l (hard) and l (soft) is sharper than elsewhere in the south-eastern districts bordering on those where Slav. is spoken; in some parts of the former territory, e. g. in Godlewa (Govern. Suwalki), anteconsonantal al sounds almost like the diphthong au, e. g. in mālka 'fire-wood', cp. Cret. ἀνκά = ἀλκά § 266¹). Following palatal vowels then also occasion a softened pronunciation of the liquid, when they are separated from it by one or more consonants (the separating consonants are also thus softened); hence e. g. nom. sg. tīlta-s ('bridge'), but loc. tīlte.

Rem. The East Lith. dialect of Szyrwid († 1631) not only shows l before a, o, u, but also before e and é, e. g. slėpiu 'I conceal', saulė 'sun'. Garbe, Lit. u. lett. Drucke des 16. u. 17. Jahrh. IV p. XXXIV sqq.

1) Cp. also Polab. vīluk 'wolf', vīluno 'wool' = Slov. volk, volna; French haut = Lat. altus; Du. woud = Mod.HG. wald, Swiss, Alem. (Bero-Dissimilation. katruļ 'in what direction? whither?' fr. katruļ*, cp. kuļ, kituļ. The ending of the so-called verba punctiva -eriu (1. sg. pres.) became in East Lith. (also in Lett.) -elin when preceded by r, e. g. bīrksztelin fr. bārkszteriu 'I knock a little' (then by analogy also stūktelin 'I beat a little' for stūkteriu etc.). purpulīnis 'purple' from and beside purpurinis. Analogously Lett. skrōdelis 'tailor' fr. skrōderis. Cp. § 282.

§ 281. Slavonic.

-tel-ī, the suffix of nomina agentis, opposed to -ter- -tor- etc. of other languages (e. g. da-tel-ī 'giver': Gr. voc. σιῶ-ρερ nom. δμῆ-τεργα acc. δῶ-ρορ-α, Lat. da-tor, Skr. dā-tar-) seems to have come by its l through dissimilation, and to have arisen regularly in forms like žrī-telī 'sacrificer' ora-telī 'arator' ori-telī 'destroyer'. Cp. § 282.

Rem. 1. It seems to me improbable that the Lith. fem. -klė belongs directly here, i. e. to feminines like Gr. παλ-ρεα Lat. vic-tri-x Skr. dā-trī (J. Schmidt Kuhn's Ztschr. XXV 29). I connect it with -kla- = Lat. -clo- from -tlo-*.

Prim. Slav. interconsonantal -or- -ol- and -er- -el- appear in O.Bulg. as -ra- -la- and -rē- -lē-. prasē 'sucking-pig': Lith. piūszu-s, Lat. porcu-s. brada 'beard': Lith. barzdà, Lat. barba, OHG. bart. vlakū 'draught' in oblakū 'cloud' from ob-vlakū* (properly 'a veiling cover'): Lith. už-vaika-s 'a cover', Gr. ἐλάω-ς. brēza 'birch-tree': Lith. bėriza-s, OHG. pircha. vlēka 'I draw': Lith. velkū, Gr. ἐλαω. Corresponding to this mode of treatment, initially, e. g. ralo 'plough' fr. or-dlo* (-dlo- = Gr. -θλο-): cp. Lith. ār-klā-s 'plough' (-kla- = Lat. -clo- from -tlo-*); ra-tajī 'husbandman': Lith. ar-tūji-s; but alkati beside lakati 'to hunger': Lith. alkti 'to hunger'.

Rem. 2. In the treatment of o, e + liquid between consonants the Slav. languages took various directions: O.Bulg. prasē Serv. prāsē Czech prase — Polish prosię Upper Sorab. proso Lower Sorab. prose — Russ. porosjā. Perfect agreement only exists in a few words initially, e. g. O.Bulg. ralo = Serv. Slov. Russ. ralo Czech rádlo Pol. Upper Sorab. Low. Sorab. radlo. The investigations hitherto made concerning these phenomena

(cp. especially J. Schmidt Vocal. II 66 ff., Leskien Declin. p. XVI ff., Arch. f. slav. Phil. III 86 ff.) have not yet led to a solution of the question, what the change was, which the pre-Slavonic forms first underwent in prim. Slav. and what formed the last previous stage for all the individual dialectal formations. For the position between consonants it seems to me most probable that or oi, er el first of all became pro flo, pre fle, e. g. poras* became pyras*. It is highly probable that the initial differences, which cannot be here brought forward in detail, represent sentence-doublings.

Rem. 3. The abandoning of the forms poras* solkū* is connected with a characteristic of the whole prim. Slav. history of sounds, which may here be disposed of¹⁾. The Slav sought to restore everywhere an open syllable (ending in a sonant). Compare besides the sound-change here in question, which in the first instance is supported by the change of zrno* to zrino* etc. (§ 302), the development of nasal vowels from vow. + nas. before consonants, e. g. svetū 'holy' fr. svetū*, § 219; the simplifying of consonant groups, as e. g. netijū 'nephew' fr. nepčijū*, sūmū 'sleep' fr. sūpnū*, § 545; the dropping of final consonants, as nebo 'sky' fr. neboš*, § 665, 4. A similar phenomenon exists in French. The tendency prevails also here to make all syllables open, the reason of which is here due to the weak expiratory accentuation (Ph. Kaufmann Die Gesch. des consonantischen Auslauts im Franz., La'ir 1886). Nothing prevents our accepting a like reason for Slavonic.

Changes of liquids in the prim. Indg. period.

§ 282. The beginning of the processes of dissimilation, referred to in §§ 259. 266. 269. 277. 280. 281, probably goes back to the prim. Indg. period.

Already at this period e. g. an original ger-ger- (or with other vowel-grade, e. g. ger-gr-) 'to gargle, swallow, gulp down' may have become ger-gel- by dissimilation or an orig. gel-gel- (gel-gl-) have become ger-gel- (cp. Lat. gurgulio, OHG. querechela 'gullet, windpipe', Lith. gargalū'ju 'I gargle, rattle in the throat'; the latter may of course be a loan-word from German, Mod.HG. gurgel is borrowed from Lat.²⁾). A satis-

1) My attention was drawn to it many years ago by Rob. Scholvin, but I do not know whether it has been observed elsewhere.

2) Forms like Gr. γέγυρος βέγγυρος* (Hesych.), γυγγυρῶν 'uvula' do not stand in the way of this theory. For firstly dissimilation need not have been extended to all the derivatives of reduplicated roots, and secondly, the original equality may have been restored again partly by assimilation and partly by form-association.

factory explanation is thus arrived at for a number of roots ending in a liquid, and often having full reduplication, which also show now r, now l unreduplicated finally (cp. e. g. Lat. corāre and gula). It would be worth while to investigate more fully whether the nominal suffixes -tro- and -tlo-, beside -thro- and -dhlo- are due to dissimilation.

In like manner the substitution of a nasal for a liquid by dissimilation might have had its beginning in the prim. Indg. period, cp. e. g. Skr. bam-bhura-s 'bee', Gr. μεμ-φρηδών a kind of wasp, cp. the author Curtius' Stud. VII 329. 357 f.

B. LIQUIDS AS SONANTS.¹⁾

§ 283. The question, how many different, and what liquids were spoken in the Indg. prim. period (§ 254), equally concerns both sonant and consonant liquids. As sonants we represent them by l and r, and as consonants by l and r.

Sonantal liquids like syllabic nasals were spoken both long and short in the Indg. prim. period (§ 222), but mostly short, and from a morphological point of view they corresponded, when long, just as long sonantal nasals, to ī and ā, see § 312.

1. Short sonant liquids.

§ 284. Owing to the treatment in the developments of the individual languages we distinguish three cases.

1. Before explosives, spirants, nasals, y and finally, e. g. mr-tó-s* part. fr. root mer- 'die', Skr. mr-tá-s; oudhr* nom. acc. neut. 'udder', Gr. ὄυθαρ.

2. Before i, e. g. mr-íe-* pres. st. from root mer- 'die', Lat. mor-ior.

3. Before sonants in which case r and l were spoken as glides, e. g. grr-ú-s* 'heavy', Skr. gurú-ṣ. Cp. § 223, 4.

1) Cp. the literature quoted in the foot note to p. 190.⁴ To the proofs that sonant liquids were spoken in the Indg. prim. period, we add § 285 rem. a new, and as it seems to us, indisputable one.

The following is a survey of the usual representation of r in the individual languages arranged from these three points of view. (The treatment of l is analogous).

	Skr.	Av.	Arm.	Greek.	Ital.	Kelt.	Germ.	Balt.	Slav.

§ 285. 1. Before explosives, spirants, nasals, y and finally.

my-ti-s* 'dying, death' from rt. mer-: Lat. mors mortis, Lith. mirti-s O.Bulg. sū-mrŭti, Skr. myti-ṣ; my-tó-* part. from the same root (neut. as abstract noun): OHG. mord Ags. O.Icel. mord n. 'murder', Skr. mytá-s 'dead' mytá-m 'death'. bhy-ti-s* 'a bearing, bringing': Lat. fors forte, O.Ir. brith 'a bearing', Goth. ga-bairþs OHG. gi-burt 'birth', Skr. bhyti-ṣ 'a bearing, nursing, maintenance'. Tense stem dyk-é-* from rt. derk- 'see': Gr. ἑδραζε δρανών, Skr. adyśa-t dyśá-nt-. urt-tó-* part. from root yert- 'turn, direct to': Lat. versu-s, O.Bulg. vrŭsta f. 'state, condition', Skr. vyttá-s part., vyttá-m subst. 'state, situation'. qetyr-to-s* 'fourth', to qetyer-* 'four': Gr. τέταρτο-ς τέταρτο-ς, Lith. ketvirta-s O.Bulg. četerŭtŭ. po-ty-* bhrá-ty-* anteconsonantal weak forms of the stems poiér-* 'father' bhrá-tor-* 'brother': Gr. dat. plur. πατέ-αι, Goth. dat. pl. fadru-m, Skr. loc. pl. pitṛ-ṣu; Skr. bhráty-putra- 'brother's son', Goth. brōþru-lubō 'brotherly love' (the latter may also like the nom. pl. brōþrjus be a new formation).

ulgo-s* 'wolf' from rt. uelq- 'drag, tear along'. *Arm. gail, Goth. vulfs, Lith. vilkas O.Bulg. vlūkŭ, Skr. vṛka-s. Weak present st. form pi-pl-* from rt. pel- 'fill': Gr. ἐμπίπλα-μεν, Skr. pīpṛ-udis; part. pl-nó-s* 'filled, full' from the same root: Goth. fulls (fr. prim. Germ. ful-na-z*, § 214 p. 181), Lith. pilna-s O.Bulg. plūnū, Av. per-na-.

Rem. In the same manner as suffix nasals forced their way into the interior of the root syllable, when this contained an i or u, e. g. jung-* (Skr. ṃṃjāts, Lat. jungō, Lith. jūngiu) fr. jung-n-* (s. § 221), so also when the root contained r or l as sonant. E. g. Skr. kyntāmi 'I cut' kyntā-wa-m 'chip, refuse', Lith. krūntū 'I fall off' (of leaves, fruit etc.), rt. geri-. Lith. drīs- in drīs-ti 'to become courageous, venture' fr. dḥṛna- (cp. Skr. dḥṛṣṇā- 'courageous'), rt. dḥers-. O.Bulg. krēt- in krētaja 'deflecto' krēna 'deflecto' (fr. krēt-nq*, § 545) fr. gṛnt-* (cp. Skr. kṛṇāt-ti 'twists thread, spins'), rt. geri-. Goth. vruggō f. 'snare' fr. vrūgḥ-* from root vrēgḥ- (OHG. urugen 'to strangle' MHG. er-icergen 'to strangle', Lith. veržiū 'I string together, straiten'). O.Ir. lingius 'I leap' (cp. perf. 3. sg. le-blaing for fe-blaing* after the initial sound of the pres. form) fr. vrūg-*, to Skr. vālgāmi 'I leap' (§ 173), is uncertain. And in a similar manner, as e. g. in Lat. the nasal extended itself from the pres. jungō to other forms belonging to the same root (jūnetur, con-junx etc.), there was formed in Lith. after drīs- a pres. drēsū (cp. māšū 'I make water' for māšū in Bezzenberger's Beitr. zur Gesch. der lit. Spr. 41, after the ratio of renkū: rinkaš etc.) and a fem. subst. drēsā 'boldness'; in Slav. after krēt- an adj. krētū 'tortus'; in Germ. after vrūg- a pres. vrūgō* (Ags. wringan 'to turn, press' OHG. ringen MHG. ringen 'to move to and fro, wind with exertion') and an adj. vrūga-z* (O.Icel. rangr 'crooked, wrong' M.Eng. wrang Mod.Eng. wrong); in Ir. after vrūg-* the perf. le-blaing (s. above), whereas Lith. krūntū, placed on a line with lūmpū etc., gave the impetus for the formation of krītaš krīsiu etc. These nasalised forms of roots in liquid + consonant in the European languages furnish the best proof of the existence of sonant liquids in prehistoric times. For the suffix nasal can only have been forced over by a root form like dḥrs-, not by one like dḥers- and dḥors-, since forms like dḥerna- or dḥorna- are unheard of (just as beside jung- there appears no jeung- or joung-).

Final γ, λ. Skr. nom. acc. neut. sthā-tf 'standing', beside which sthā-tūr (Lanman Noun-inflection p. 422) as representative of original stā-tyr* i. e. of a form originally only used before initial sonants, see § 287; sthatf: sthatūr = dāśa 'ten': pādām 'pedem' (§ 231 rem.). Skr. mṛ-tā- 'dead' Av. mer̥-ta-, Skr. a-mṛta- 'immortal' Av. a-meša- : OHG. mord 'murder', Indg. mṛ-tō-*, from rt. mer-. Skr. bṛh-ānt- Av. ber̥z-ant- 'great, high' from rt. bhergh-; the same root-form bṛgh- in Gall. brigi- (in Brigiani, Are-brigium etc.) O.Ir. bri gen. breg 'mountain'. Skr. kṛp- 'form, appearance', Av. kehrp- 'form, body' : Lat. corp-us. Skr. ṛkṣa-s Av. er̥xšō 'bear' : Arm. arj, Gr. ἄρκτος, Lat. ursus fr. orcso-s*. Dat. pl. Skr. pitṛ-bhyas Av. pter̥-byō 'patribus' : cp. Gr. πατέ-α, Goth. fadru-m.

Skr. pr̥thú-š Av. per̥ṣu-š 'broad', Gr. πλατύς : O.Ir. lethan O.Cymr. litan, probably also OS. folda O.Icel. fold 'earth' (cp. Skr. pr̥thōi pr̥thivī 'earth')¹⁾. Skr. vṛka-s 'wolf' Av. vehrkō 'wolf' : Goth. vulfs, Lith. vilka-s.

For Skr. kṛp-tā- Av. ker̥p-ta- 'put in order, fixed', there is no certain corresponding form in the other languages.

On Skr. final γ = Indg. γ , see § 285.

From pre-Aryan gen. sg. bhr̥d-ty-s* 'brother's' arose -tyš (§ 556, 1), Skr. -tyr before voiced sounds (cp. -ir -ur fr. -iṣ -uṣ, § 647, 6), hence by § 290 -tur, bhr̥datur. The same formation is shown by Av. ner̥š from nar- 'man'. See the accidence.

Owing to the limited extent of the monuments, it is impossible to arrive at anything definite regarding O.Pers. u

1) Lith. plātis 'broad' does not belong here, it has the same vowel-grade as brangūs 'dear', daugūs 'dreadful' etc.

(written ā) = r in a-kū-nav-am = Skr. ā-ky-ṇav-am 'I made' etc. (beside kar-ta = Skr. ky-tā 'made'). Cp. Bartholomae Ar. Forsch. II 67 f.

§ 289. 2. Indg. r before i seems to have been represented in Av. from the oldest period onwards, in the same manner as before other consonants: mer'yēti like Lat. morior, Indg. mr-īō-tai* 'dies'; ker'yētē 'is made, effected'. The Skr. forms mriyātē kriyātē are, as we have seen § 120 p. 112, of a different nature. O.Pers. amariyātā 'he died' may be amaryātā (s. § 125 p. 116), and would then correspond to Av. mer'yēti; but it may also, according to the O.Pers. mode of writing, be read amriyātā, in which case it would be equal to Skr. āmriyātā.

ry does not seem to occur in initial syllables in Sanskrit. Optative (precativ) forms as kriyāt kriyāma from kar 'make', as well as jāgriyāt (Āit. Brāhm.) opt. of jāgarmi 'I watch' are to be judged of in the same manner as mriyātē. Forms like jāryati 'becomes feeble' from rt. ger-, tiryati (ava-tiryati 'descends') from rt. ter- go back to original rī (s. § 306), and are on a level with mī-ya-tē 'disappears' from rt. mej- 'lessen', śrū-ya-tē 'is heard' from rt. kley- etc. As regular representatives of Indg. rī, there can only be taken into account on the one hand jāgryāt (beside jāgriyāt) — how many such forms are extant? — and on the other, forms like opt. kuryāt from kar 'make', turyāt tuturyāt from tar- 'to press through', a-juryā-s 'not becoming old' from rt. ger- (the author Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIV 282 ff.). I am inclined to think that the latter category exhibits the regular development (except that ur took the place of ir, s. § 290) and that forms like jāgryāt were later new formations (after jāgrhi etc.).

Rem. This view might be put forth with greater certainty, if the possibility did not exist that the ur of kuryā- was taken over from the weak stem of the opt. kurī-* (3. sg. mid. kurī-tā*) = Indg. qr-i-* (§ 290).

§ 290. 3. Skr. ur ir, Av. O.Pers. ar (concerning Av. or fr. ar see § 94).

Skr. purū- Av. parao- pouru- O.Pers. pāru- 'much', prim. f. pūlū-* from rt. pel- 'fill'. Skr. giri-ś Av. gaīri-ś 'mountain': cp. Lith. giris gire f. 'forest'. Skr. gurú- 'heavy, vehement, hard', Av. gouru- 'contrary, pœvish': Gr. βαρύς, Goth. kaúru-s. Gen. abl. sg. Skr. gir-ás Av. gar-ō 'of a song' (instr. pl. Skr. gīrbhiḥ fr. gr-bhis*, § 306). Skr. tirás Av. tarō 'through, over', from root ter- 'press through, overstep'. Skr. girdmi 'I swallow': O.Bulg. ŕtrę, from rt. ger-; in like manner Skr. tirdmi 'I press through', kirdmi 'I pour out', sphurdmi 'I push away' etc.; tirdmi: tārdmi = vandmi: vāndmi (§ 231) = huvātē: hāvātē 'invokes'. It cannot be decided whether Av. sparāmi 'I push, jerk' is the same as Skr. sphurdmi or a new formation after Skr. class I.

Finally. Skr. -úr Av. -ar, the ending of the 3. pl. pf. act., e. g. Skr. ās-úr Av. āh-ar from rt. es- 'be'. These forms are on a level with the nom. acc. neut. sthā-tūr § 285 p. 228.

The change between ur and ir in Skr. was very probably originally evoked by the varying timbre of the neighbouring sounds. Preceding or following labials developed the form ur; cp. sphurdmi; Skr. úraṇa-s 'ram' fr. ur-an-u-s* (§ 157), yr-an-* (cp. Arm. garṇ, gen. garin, § 291) beside Gr. φαρ-ν- fr. ur-n-* (§§ 164. 292); gur-ú- (opposed to gir-i-) etc. The orig. phonetic state became obscured through a great number of new formations made by analogy.

Rem. The present of kar- plays a principal part in the question as to how Skr. ur and ir are to be explained. It may be remarked that I trace the Ved. imperat. karu- back to qr+u*; -u was an appended particle like -dhi in i-hi Gr. i-thi 'go' (Thurneysen Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 180). After the relation of bhara: bharata, there was formed to kuru the 2. pl. kurata, in the indie. kurutha. For the rest see the accident.

The side by side existence of Skr. gurú- Av. gouru- and Skr. á-gru- Av. a-yru- 'maidenish' (cp. Skr. gurō 'gravida')¹⁾, of Skr. gir-a- -gil-a- 'swallowing' and tuvi-grá- 'swallowing much' etc., corresponds to that of ghan-á- and -ghn-á- 'killing' (§ 231).

Armenian.

§ 291. 1. barjr, gen. barju, 'high' fr. bhrgh-u-*: Skr. brh-ánt-, O.Ir. bri (§§ 288. 298). harç, gen. harçi, 'question',

1) Here come probably also Lat. gravi-s as gr-ae-i-s, cp. Gr. ταρ-α(ς)-ε-ς beside ταρ-ε-ς 'stretched' and Skr. prth-ic-i beside prth-a- (p. 230).

harçane-m 'I ask' with ç fr. (h)sč: Skr. pr̥chā, OHG. forsca (§ 288). mard 'man': Skr. mṛtá-s. arj, gen. arjoy or arju, 'a bear': Skr. fl̥ṣā-s. ard-ar 'just, upright': Skr. r-tá-s 'suitable, right'. arcio and arcui 'eagle' (ø fr. p, §§ 330. 483): Skr. r̥jipyá- 'stretching oneself, taking up in flight' (of birds of prey), Av. er̥zifya- 'stretching oneself; falcon'. kar- 'four' (kar-u-sun 'forty') fr. (g)tur-* (§ 360) = Gr. τρα- in τρά-πεζα 'table' (properly 'fourfeet').

Finally: albeur 'source' fr. albeu(a)r* § 285.

gail, gen. gailoy, 'wolf', firstly by epenthesis fr. galjo-s* = Skr. vfka-s etc.? Cp. § 455.

2. Examples for r̥i, l̥i are not to hand.

3. garn, gen. garin, 'lamb', Indg. st. ur-en-*: Skr. úr-av-a-s fr. mur-* (§§ 263. 290). sar, gen. saroy, 'height, summit, declivity': Skr. śtras- Av. sarah- n. 'head', rt. ker- (Lat. cerebru-m cernuo-s, O.Icel. hjarse 'crown of the head'). kalin, gen. kaliuoy, 'acorn': Gr. βάλ-ανο-ς, Lith. gil-ė (Lat. glāns seems to stand in a similar relation to these words as Gr. πολύ-ρρην 'rich in sheep' fr. -fρ-ην* to Arm. garn Skr. úr-an-a-s).

Greek.

§ 292. 1. δατό-ς δαρτό-ς 'skinned': Av. der'ta- 'cut, mown', Lith. nu-dirta-s 'skinned'; δάροι-ς 'excoriation': Skr. d̥ti-ṣ 'leather-bag' (cp. Gr. δέρμα 'hide'), Goth. ga-taur̥ps 'a destroying', from rt. der-. Hom. ταρπόμεθα τετάρπετο from τέρπω 'I delight': Skr. tyṛdmi (not found), t̥ṛpyāmi, t̥ṛpyōmi 'I satiate myself, become satisfied', rt. terp-. Aor. ἐπαρδο-ν to πέρδω 'pedo'; the same root form in OHG. furz 'crepitus ventris', Lith. piṛdī-s m. 'crepitus ventris' piṛdā 'qui pedit' Russ. perdēt 'pedere' (prim. Slav. p̥irdēti*): μάρναμαι 'I fight' and Corcyr. βαρνάμενος fr. βραναμενος* (§ 204): Skr. m̥ṛ-nd-mi 'I bruise, beat in pieces'. Analogously βαρδῆν 'τὸ βιάζεσθαι γυναικάς' Ἀμπρακιδται, fr. βραδῆν*: Skr. m̥ṛd-nd-ti 'presses vehemently' (cf. Lat. comprimere feminam). τετράραμεν to τέρωφα (τρέπω 'I turn'), like Skr. dadyśimā to dadār̥ṣa (dar̥ṣ- 'see'). τρασιά ταροιά 'a drying-kiln' to τέροομαι 'I become dry': Skr. t̥ṛṣya- 'thirst' t̥ṛṣyāmi 'I am thirsty', rt. ters-. πρανόν μίλανα Hesych. : Skr. ῥῥῑ-ῑ-ῑ 'spotted'; beside which, with other vowel-grade περνώ-ς. καρδ-ίη καρδ-ίᾱ 'heart' : Lat. cor cord-is, O.Ir. cride, Lith. szirdi-s O.Bul. srǐdŭ-ce.

τίτλα-μεν 1. pl. pf. from tel- 'bear', like γίγα-μεν to γεν- 'gignere' (§ 233). ἑσταλτω 3. sg. pf. mid. to στελ- 'order', like τίτα-ται to τεν- 'stretch' (§ 233). πλατύ-ς 'flat, broad' : Skr. ῥῥῑῑῑ-ῑ (§ 288).

It has not been definitely determined on what the varying position of the liquid depends (ρα λα and αρ αλ). Form association can only be assumed for certain cases, e. g. δαρτό-ς : δίρω δορά; ἐκλάπην : κλίπτω κίελογα. Cp. the author Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIV 258, Osthoff Morph. Unt. II 144 f.

α always came first initially. ἄρκτο-ς 'bear' : Skr. ῥῥῑῑῑ-ῑ. ἄρσῃν ἄρσῃν 'masculine' : Skr. ῥῥῑῑῑῑ-ῑ 'bull' fr. ῥῥῑῑῑῑ-ῑ*. ἄρ-νυ-μαι 'I attain, gain' μίσθ-αρο-ς μισθ-άρνη-ς 'hired servant' : Skr. ῥ-ῥῑῑ-ῑ 'I attain, gain'.

Likewise -αρ fr. -ῥ finally, see § 285.

In Acol. ρο ορ from ρα αρ, as Lesb. στροφός μύμορθαι, Boeot. στροφός.

§ 293. 2. σπαίρω ἀσπαίρω 'I struggle convulsively' fr. σπαρ-ιω* (§ 130) : Lith. spiriū 'I push with the foot', cpf. spῥ-ῑῑ*, rt. spēr-. σκάλλω 'I stir up, hoe' fr. σκαλ-ιω* (§ 130) : Lith. skilū 'I strike fire', cpf. sqῑ-ῑῑ*, from rt. sqel-. Analogously φθαίρω Dor. (Att. φθείρω) 'I destroy', πτύχω 'I sneeze' from rt. pster- (πτόρο-ς 'a sneezing', Lat. ster-nu-ō), βάλλω 'I throw' from rt. gel- etc. ἐχθαίρω 'I hate' from ἐχθῆ-ιω* to ἐχθρό-ς 'hated', like ἀγγέλλω to ἄγγελος. On the i-epenthesis see § 639.

§ 294. 3. βαρύ-ς 'heavy' : Skr. gurú-ῑ. Corcyr. ιαρό-ς 'holy' : iṣirá-s (§ 287). πᾶρος 'in front, before, sooner' : Skr. purás before, in front'. The preterites ἔπαρον 'I sneezed' ἔβαλον 'I threw' go with Skr. girāmi, O.Bulg. štra, Lat. tulō (§ 287); ἔ-βαλ-ε : ἔ-πλ-ε, ἔ-πλ-ε-το 'versabatur' = Skr. á-huv-a-t : á-hv-a-t 'he called to' (cp. §§ 153. 159). Here belong also passive aor. like ἐδάργην ἐβάλην; ἔ-βάλ-η-ν : ἔ-βλ-η-ν = ἔ-φύ-η-ν : O.Bul. bē from bḡ-ē* (§ 184).

General Greek ορ, ολ in ἔ-πορ-ο-ν πολ-ύ-ς etc., concerning which see § 306.

Italic.

§ 295. 1. Lat. porca 'the ridge between two furrows', Umbr. Mars. pl. porculetā 'porcae' (Pliny) : O.Bret. rec 'sulco' Cymr. rhych 'furrow' (cp. Thurneysen Keltorum. p. 74 f.), OHG. furuh Ags. furh f. 'furrow'. Lat. vorsu-s, Umbr. Osc. vorsum ('quod Graeci πλέθρον appellant, Osci et Umbri vorsum', Frontinus de limit. p. 30, 9), Umbr. trah-vorfi 'transverse' : Skr. vyt-tā-, from rt. vert- 'turn' (§ 285). Lat. fors forte, Osc. fortis 'forte', Peligu. forte gen. 'fortunae' : Skr. bhṛ-tī- (§ 285). Lat. or-tu-s part., Umbr. ortom orto 'ortum' : Skr. ṛ-tā-s part. 'raised'. Lat. portu-s porta : Av. peṣu-š 'ford' hu-per-pu-i f. 'having a good ford' (§§ 260. 288), Gall. -ritum 'passage' in Augusto-ritum (with Latinised ending), OHG. furt m. 'ford'. sporta sportula : Gr. σπάρ-το-ν 'rope, cable'. cornu-s cornu-m : Gr. κράνο-ς κράνο-ν 'cornel-tree'. porru-m fr. porso-m* (§ 571) : Gr. πράσο-ν 'a leek'. forti-s fortis : Skr. part. dydḥā-s 'fast, strong' (to darh-), prim. f. dhygh+* tó-, rt. dhergh-. tostu-s from tors-to-s* : Skr. tyś-tā-s 'rough, hoarse'. mo-mord-inus : Skr. ma-mṛd-imā 'we crushed, pounded', rt. merd-; cp. also vort-inus : Skr. va-vṛt-imā. ursu-s : Skr. ṛṣa- 'bear' (§ 288).

On the dropping of r in Lat. forms as tostu-s, poscō (§ 288) see § 269.

Lat. mulsu-s part., molta multa 'a fine, penalty', Umbr. motar gen. 'multae', Osc. moltam 'multam' fr. prim. Ital. molk-ta-* : Skr. mṛṣṭā- part., indie. mṛṣāmi 'I touch, feel'. Lat. mulctu-s : Lith. milszta-s 'milked', O.Ir. mlicht blicht 'milk', from rt. melg-. Analogously the Lat. participial forms oc-cultu-s from rt. kel- 'cover, conceal' : OHG. helan 'to hide' (concerning the apparently contradictory oguoltōd of the S. O. de Bacch. 15 see Bersu Die Gutturalen und ihre Verbindung mit v im Lat. p. 41); pulsu-s to pellō : Gr. παλτό-ς 'brandished, hurled' etc., tollō fr. tī-nō*, from rt. tel-.

Rem. o before l + cons. (except ll) uniformly became u in Latin, whereas the vowel fluctuated before r, cp. curtu-s : Gr. καρτό-ς 'shorn, out', fornu-s, later furnu-s : Skr. ghṛ-ṇā-s 'heat, glow'. A law for this irregularity has not been discovered.

Finally, -ur fr. -r, jec-ur, see § 285.

§ 296. 2. Lat. morior: Av. mer'yeiti 'dies' (§ 289). horior O.Lat. = hortor, probably to Umbr. heriest 'volet' Osc. herest 'volet' and identical with Gr. χαίρω 'I rejoice', to which it was the causat. form ('I make pleasure, joy'); hortor would accordingly be from a horto* = χαρό-ς 'wished for'. orior oriuntur fr. r-ió*-, to ortu-s: Skr. ṛtá-s (§ 295).

§ 297. 3. O.Lat. tuſō, It. tel-. oc-culō either fr. kŷl-ō* or celō* (= O.Ir. celim OHG. hilu) through the influence of the l. gul- in gula gulō rather from gŷl-* (cp. Skr. gira-gila 'swallowing', gili-ś f. gīlana-m 'a swallowing', § 290) than from gel-* prim. Ital. g^uel-, since in the latter root form vel- would be expected (cp. veniō, veru § 432 b), hence gulā: OHG. chela 'throat' = Gr. Βοοτ. βαρά: Goth. qinō 'wife'; gulō was formed like Goth. skula 'debtor' (§ 301).

Old Irish.

§ 298. 1. General Keltic ri (re), li (le).

O.Ir. bri gen. breg (from brix* brigos*) 'rising ground', Gall. brigi- (in Brigiani an Alpine race, Are-brigiu-m etc.), Cymr. Bret. bre: Skr. bṛh-ánt- (§ 288). O.Cymr. rit 'ford', Gall. Augusto-ritu-m: Av. pešu-š, Lat. portus, OHG. furt (§ 295). O.Ir. drech 'face' fr. drica* prim. f. dykā*: Skr. dyś- 'look', Gr. ἔδραον 'I saw', It. derf-. O.Ir. brissim 'I break', brisc Bret. bresk 'fragile, apt to break', according to Stokes' conjecture (Mém. de la soc. de lingu. V 420) from It. bherdh-: Gr. πέρω 'I lay waste, destroy' aor. ἔπαρθε-ν; on brisc cp. § 516. O.Ir. lethan O.Cymr. litan 'broad': Skr. prthā-ś (§ 288).

O.Ir. re-nim 'I give up, sell, grant': Gr. πέρνμι 'I sell, export', which represented an older puo-vā-mi* (this form seems to be represented in Hesych. by πορνάμεν πωλεῖν with o = a, § 292 extr.), originally pr-nā-mi* from It. per-. ara-chrim 'difficiscor' (perf. do-ro-char): Skr. śr-nā-mi 'I separate, break in pieces'. Mid.Ir. do-breth 'datum est': Skr. bhṛ-tā 'carried'; brith 'a carrying': Skr. bhṛ-tā-ś 'a carrying', from It. bher-. sreth 'row': Lat. sors sortis beside serō. Here belong further, from such roots as bher-, the part. perf. pass. in -te, brithe brethe 'brought', and the part. necessitatis in -ti, brithi brethi 'ferendus'. cride 'heart': Gr. καρδίη (§ 292).

bligim 'I milk' from mligim* (§ 212): O.Bulg. mlūzq, Indg. prim. f. mlǵ-ō* from rt. melǵ-; to which mlicht blicht 'milk': Lat. mulctu-s. clethi 'celandum' to celim 'celo': Lat. oc-cultu-s. Inf. blith to melim 'molo'.

When such syllables with ri, li = Indg. r, l became voiceless in composition in Irish, r, l arose anew through vowel reduction when another syllable followed (samprasāraṇa). From these a vowel was then again developed. Thus e. g. eperthe part. pass. 'oblatus' from éd-brithe* through the intermediate stage bythe*. See § 634 and Thurneysen Rev. Celt. VI 315.

2. Examples for the representation of ri, li are unknown to me.

3. As yn became an, so also rr, ll became ar, al. maraim 'I remain': cp. Lat. mora, rt. (s)mer- (§ 589, 3); mora may just as well represent *(s)m̃ra as *(s)mora. scaraim 'I separate, divide' Cymr. ysgar 'separatio', to O.Ir. scorim scuirim 'I unharness' scor 'an enclosure for unyoked animals' Cymr. ysgor f. 'rampart, bulwark': cp. Lith. skiriù 'I separate, divide'. -al- perhaps in samail 'likeness, picture' fr. sm̃m-ll̃i-* (cp. § 243, 4). Cymr. malu 'I grind, grind to powder' is more certain: cp. O.Ir. *melim*¹⁾.

Germanic.

§ 299. 1. Prim. Germ. ur, ru.

Goth. þaurs-u-s OHG. durri O.Icel. þurr 'dry, withered': Skr. tr̥ṣ-ú-ṣ 'covetous, gaping from dryness'; Goth. þaurstei f. OHG. durst m. Ags. ðyrst m. 'thirst': Skr. tr̥ṣ-ṣá- 'hoarse, rough': Goth. þaursjan 'to thirst' (originally a strong verb like vaúrkan s. below): Skr. tr̥ṣ-yami 'I am thirsty'; Goth. part. ga-þaursans: Skr. Ved. part. tr̥ṣ-ānā-s and ta-tr̥ṣ-ānā-s, from rt. ters-. Inf. Goth. ga-daursan OHG. turran Ags. durran 'to dare, venture':

1) My attention was drawn to these examples for the representation of rr, ll in Keltic by Thurneysen.

Skr. dhfš-d-nt- part. 'bold'; 1. pl. Goth. ga-daúrs-um 'we dare': Skr. dudhŷš-imá (cp. also vaurpūn 'we became': Skr. vavytiná, Lat. vortimnes); opt. Goth. ga-daúrs-jáu: Skr. dadhŷš-yám; OHG. ca-turst f. 'boldness': Skr. dhfš-ti-š f. 'boldness', from rt. dhers-. Goth. vaurkjan OHG. wurchen 'to work, effect': Av. ver'zyçti 'effects', Gr. ῥέζω 'I do' for regular ῥάζω* from fḡay-izō* (z after the analogy of ῥέζω, ῥέδω etc.), Indg. myǵ-izō*, from rt. myǵ-. Goth. þaúr-nu-s OHG. dorn 'thorn': O.Bulg. trǫnǫ 'thorn', Skr. tŷna-m 'grassblade'. OHG. zoraht OS. torah torht 'bright, clear' (for the anaptyctic vowel a. § 277): Skr. dyš-tá- 'seen, appearing, revealing', Indg. dyš-tó-s*, from rt. derk-. Goth. haúrn OHG. horn 'horn': Gr. κόρνος 'horned cattle' (Hesych.) and Lat. cornu, in case the latter had not Indg. o.

Goth. brōþru-m dat. pl. of brōþar 'brother': cp. Skr. loc. pl. bhrāty-ṣu. Part. OHG. rohhan 'revenged, avenged' (beside inf. Goth. vrikan OHG. rehhan): Skr. part. vavyjānā- pres. vārjati 'turns off', pari-vargá-s 'a laying aside'. So also part. Goth. þruskans OHG. droskan 'thrashed', beside inf. þriskan dreskan, Goth. brukans OHG. brohhan 'broken' beside inf. brikan brehhan, OHG. sprohhan 'spoken' beside inf. sprehhan etc. Goth. trudan O.Icel. troða 'to tread', OHG. trotta f. 'a press' beside OHG. inf. trstan; Goth. trudan: OHG. tretan = OHG. koman: Goth. qiman (§ 247).

Goth. vulfs, OHG. wolf 'wolf': Skr. vfka-s. Goth. fulls OHG. fol (infl. follēr) 'full': Lith. pilna-s, Av. per'na-. Goth. skulds part. 'obliged', OHG. sculda 'debt', to indie. Goth. skal OHG. scal 'I shall' (related to Lat. scelus?). Goth. pf. pl. fra-guldum part. -guldans to inf. fra-gildan 'to repay'. Goth. part. hlufans* to hlifan 'to steal' (cp. Gr. κλέπτω, ἐκλέπην) like brukans to brikan? Goth. lustu-s 'desire', probably to Lat. lascivo-s, Skr. lā-las-a-s 'desirous, eager for' lāṣāmi 'I desire' fr. la-ls-a-mi* (§ 259).

The diversity of the position of the liquid (ur and ru) was in part undoubtedly due to other forms of the same form-system, cp. e. g. Goth. þruskans: þriskan with þaúrsans: þaúrsan. The independent forms have not yet been satisfactorily settled;

cp. the author Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIV 258 ff., Osthoff Morph. Unt. II 49, 145. It however seems to me probable (cp. Kluge Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVI 90) that these forms are ur, ul.

On the change of u to ai (before r) in Goth. and u to o in West Germ. and Norse see § 51.

§ 300. 2. Goth. opt. skuljáu to skal 'I shall', as munjáu to man 'I think' (§ 245). OHG. hulla MHG. hülle f. 'veil, cover' fr. prim. Germ. χuljō*, to OHG. helan 'to conceal', rt. kel-.

§ 301. 3. Part. pret. pass. Goth. bair-ans (bairan 'to bear'), ga-tair-ans (ga-tairan 'to tear in pieces'), stulans (stilan 'to steal'), OHG. boran, zoran, stolan : cp. O.Bulg. part. pret. pass. šir-enū to širā 'I rub' fr. rt. ter- (§ 305) and Skr. ti-stir-ānā-s part. pf. mid. from rt. ster- 'atrew': Goth. skulan OHG. scolan 'to be obliged', part. Goth. skulands 'obliged', probably also Goth. vulands 'seething' (to OHG. waln 'heat') : cp. pres. Skr. girdmi O.Bulg. širā from rt. ger- 'swallow' (§ 287). Goth. skula OHG. scolo 'debtor', like Ags. cuma 'advena' OHG. willi-como 'welcome' from rt. gem- (cp. § 247). OHG. hol O.Icel. holr 'hollow', Goth. hulundi f. 'a hollow' (cp. § 244), to OHG. helan 'to conceal' : cp. Gr. καλ-ιδά 'hut, barn'. On Goth. ai, West Germ. Norse o see § 51.

Baltic-Slavonic.

§ 302. Indg. r, l uniformly became ir, il in the prim. Baltic-Slav. period. Though it cannot be strictly proved, it is nevertheless probable, that the i in these combinations differed from Indg. i in the same manner as the i in in = Indg. ṛ. See § 248. We accordingly put the prim. Baltic-Slav. forms down as ir, il.

Thence in Lith. ir, il.

In prim. Slav. ir, il. r and l retained this position in O.Bulg. before i and sonants, in other cases they were transposed (ri, li). The labial timbre of the l caused the neighbouring i to pass into ü. But the orthography is very inconsistent, and it would be difficult to decide how far the regular state has been disturbed in the living language by form-association. Cp. § 305 rem.

Rem. 1. That ŕ, not r or r̃ was also spoken in prim. Slav. before consonants in such cases as črŕnŭ 'black' (= Pruss. kirsna-, Skr. kṛṣṇa- 'black', Indg. qr̥sno-*) is proved on the one hand by the transition of a preceding k to č (§ 461), in which all Slav. dialects took part (Serv. c), and on the other by the dropping of the s in črŕnŭ, which is only conceivable on the assumption of an older form čŕrsnŭ* (s. §§ 585, 2, 588, 6).

Rem. 2. The treatment of prim. Slav. ŕ, ŕ̃ varied greatly in the different Slav. dialects. Suffice it here to remark that Serv. Slov. and Czech went back again to Indg. liquids sonans, e. g. O.Bulg. črŕnŭ = Serv. crn, Slov. črn, O.Czech črný (the latter the def. form of the adj. = O.Bulg. črŕny-jŭ).

§ 303. 1. Lith. šrmi-s m. 'pea', O.Bulg. srŕno 'corn': Goth. kaur̃n 'corn'. Lith. szirzŕš, gen. szirzŕšŕs, O.Bulg. srŕšen-ŕ 'hornet, gad-fly': OHG. hornaz 'hornet' fr. prim. Germ. χurzn-ata-z*, cpf. k̥rs-en-* k̥rs-n-* (cp. Lat. crabrō § 306). Lith. kirmis m. 'worm', O.Bulg. črŕmŕnŭ 'red' (črŕ-vŕ 'worm' with a diff. suffix): Skr. kṛmi-š 'worm'. Lith. keŕsta-s 'hewn', O.Bulg. črŕta 'I cut': Skr. kṛtā-s 'cut off', from rt. qert-. Lith. viršŕs 'cord' viršŕti 'to bind with cord', O.Bulg. vrŕza 'I bind, close': OS. wurgil 'a strangling cord' OHG. wurgan 'to strangle', from rt. uergh-. Lith. tiŕp-ti 'to grow stiff, to become feelingless', Russ. terpnuť 'to grow stiff' (prim. Slav. tŕrpnatŕi*): Lat. torpeō (Lat. torp- = Indg. tŕp-* or torp-?).

O.Bulg. 2. sg. opt. (imper.) rŕci 'say' orig. f. r̥goj-s*, 1. sg. pres. reka, cp. the accidentence.

Lith. vŕl̃na 'a single hair of wool', O.Bulg. vŕl̃na 'wool': Goth. vulla 'wool' fr. vulna* (§ 214 p. 181). Lith. vŕlkiũ 'I am clad in, with', Lith. vŕlkes O.Bulg. vŕl̃kũ part. pret. act. to vŕl̃kũ 'I drag': Gr. αἰλαῖς 'furrow' (Flak-*) beside ἐλαω, rt. uelg-. Lith. vŕlgau 'I moisten', O.Bulg. vŕlgũkũ 'moist': OHG. wolchan n. wolcha f. 'cloud', from rt. uelg-. O.Bulg. dl̃gũ 'duty': O.Ir. dl̃iged 'lex, officium' O.Ir. dl̃igim 'I deserve, am entitled to', Goth. dulgs 'debt', rt. form dhlg̃h-. O.Bulg. sl̃ŕva 'husband's sister': Gr. γαλῶς γάλως.

§ 304. 2. Lith. spiriù : Gr. σπῖρος, skilù : Gr. σάλλω, s. § 293. Analogously diriù 'I skin' (Szyrwid's dirru is probably to be read thus) rt. der-, giriù 'I praise' rt. ger-. O.Bulg. vŕja 'I boil up, seethe' 2. sg. vŕši (inf. vŕšti) might be put here under the supposition that the original inflection of the present was vŕješi* etc., like šinja šinješi (§ 250); cp. Czech vrū (in O.Bulg. form vŕa*) like ŕra mŕa etc. (§ 305). Lith. pl. tlės, gen. tlū, 'board in the bottom of a boat', O.Bulg. ŕja 'bottom': cp. Skr. tūlya- 'equal, straight', rt. tel-.

§ 305. 3. Lith. mŕusi O.Bulg. mŕūši part. pf. fem. 'mortua', O.Bulg. mŕa 'morian', rt. mer-. Analogously pres. Lith. più 'I cast, shed' from rt. pel- 'fill', O.Bulg. ŕra 'I swallow' = Skr. girdmi gildmi, rt. ger-, ŕra 'tero' and others.

Rem. ŕr occasionally occurs for ir before non-palatal vowels in the Zographos gospel, e. g. diŕati for dirati 'to split, tear in pieces', and vice versa, zŕē loc. beside zŕlū nom. 'bad' etc. Cp. § 36 rem.

2. Long Sonant Liquids.

§ 306. Regarding the representation of Indg. r, l in the individual languages there still remains much that is doubtful just as in the case of Indg. q, ŕ. We hold the following developments as certain : Skr. ŕr, ŕr (cp. ir, ur = Indg. yr or ll § 290), Av. O.Pers. ar; Gr. op ol and qio la, finally ωp; Lat. ar (al) and rā la; Kelt. la; Germ. ar, al.

Indg. r.

rdhŕs* 'upright' : Skr. ardhvā-s, Gr. ὀρθός, Lat. arduo-s from prim. Ital. arphyo-s* (§ 170 p. 150, § 370).

r-mō-s* 'arm, bow' : Skr. īrmā-s Av. ar'ma-, Armen. armukn, Lat. armu-s, Goth. arms, O.Bulg. ramę fr. ormę* (§ 281).

r-ti-s* : Lat. ars artis, OHG. art 'manner'. From the same root Skr. r-tā-m 'propriety, right manner'.

stŕ- from rt. ster- 'spread' : part. perf. pass. Skr. stŕ-ŕā-s Av. star'-ta- Gr. στρωρός Lat. stŕa-tu-s, Gr. στρωμα Lat. stŕa-men 'straw', Gr. ἑσπρωται στρόβυμ and others.

gr- from rt. ger- 'grind' : Skr. gr-nā- 'ground to pieces, wasted away', Lat. grā-nu-m 'grain'.

př- (cp. Skr. purás Gr. πῶρος § 294) : Skr. pār-va-s 'the one in front', Gr. πρωτο-ς Dor. πρωτο-ς 'the first' from πρω-φ-ατο-ς* (cp. τετρ-ατο-ς 'the third'), Dor. πρᾶν 'formerly' fr. πρωφᾶν*, Att. πρόην 'lately' fr. πρωφῖαν* (O.Bulg. прѣ-вѣ-ѣ 'the first' : Skr. pār-va-s = plū-nū 'full' : pār-ḥá-s etc., s. below).

křs- : Skr. śr̥ṣ-ā-m 'head' Gr. κόρος-η 'head, temples'.

gř- from rt. ger- 'swallow' : Skr. gūr-ḥá- part. pass., gūr-ya-gerund, gūr-ḥi-ṣ 'a swallowing', Gr. βιβρώ-σκω 'I eat, devour', βρω-τήρ 'eater, devourer' βρω-μα 'food'.

př- 'to share in' : Gr. πέ-πεισ-ται, Lat. pars partis (beside portiō fr. př-ti-*). If pariō also belongs to this root, as is assumed by Curtius Grundz. ⁵ 282, it must be traced back to př-ḥō*, cp. Skr. jāryāmi from rt. jer- 'fall away, become fragile'.

Skr. śār-tá- 'destroyed', Av. a-sar-ta- 'unhurt', root form kř-.

Gr. πρωξ-κος 'a drop' : cp. πρακνό-ν (§ 292 p. 233), περακό-ς 'sprinkled', Skr. přśni-ṣ 'speckled, variegated'.

Lat. rādīr fr. yrad-* (§ 168) yřd-* : cp. Gr. ράδ-αμνο-ς 'shoot, sprout' Goth. vairts 'roof' fr. yřd-*.

Lat. crātēs pl. fr. gřt-* : cp. Gr. κάστ-αλο-ς 'basket' Goth. hairs 'door' OHG. hurt 'hurdle-work, hurdle' fr. gřt-*.

Lat. crābrō 'hornet' fr. crās-rō* (§ 570) křs-*; beside which Lith. szirszė etc. fr. křs-*, § 303.

Lat. quartus fr. ctuarto-s*, Indg. qřtyř-to-* (beside Indg. qętyř-to-* § 285).

Gr. ῥό-ωρ 'water' from ř-*; perhaps corresponding to Lat. ub-er fr. -ar*, ř-*. Cp. § 285 p. 228.

př- from rt. pel- (plē-) 'fill' : Skr. pūr-ḥá-s 'filled' imper. pūr-dhí 'fill', Gr. πολλοί 'many' fr. πολ-ρό-* (or πολ-ρά-?), O.Ir. lan O.Cymr. lawn 'full'.

yř-nā* f. 'wool' : Skr. ūrṇā, Lat. lāna (cp. §§ 151. 157. 168), Gr. οἶλο-ς 'heecy' fr. folno-ς* (§ 204).

mřdh-* : Skr. mārdh-ān- 'height, highest part, head', Gr. βλωθ-ρός 'high-grown'.

dǵho-* 'long': Skr. dīrghá-s Av. dar̥ga- O.Pers. darga-, Gr. δολεχό-ς (with enigmatical ι).

uǵ-mi-s* 'ebullition': Skr. ār-mi-ś 'wave' (§ 157), Ags. wielm wyſm 'ebullition, wave' prim. Germ. uǵalmi-z*. To which OHG. OS. wallan 'to be agitated, boil up' prim. Germ. uǵalnana-n* (§ 2: ep. wellan 'to roll, move'.

Skr. sthāpā- 'post, stake' fr. sthāl-na-, orig. stǵ-na-.

Gr. Lesb. βόλλο-μαι Att. βούλο-μαι (beside Dor. διλο-μαι) 'I will, wish, desire' fr. gǵl-no-*, rt. gel- (§ 204).

Lat. latu-s 'carried' probably fr. tǵl-to-s*, rt. tel-.

Lat. clād-ēs: to per-cellō fr. -celdō*, part. -culs-u-s from hǵl+to-*, Gr. Hom. ἐλασσαι 'broke' κλαδ-άσαι αἰσαι Hesych. Cp. § 369.

O.Ir. blaith 'tender, soft' fr. mlā-ti-s* prim. f. ml̥-ti-*, to melim 'I pound'; Cymr. blaed 'meal' fr. ml̥-to-*. On bl- fr. ml- see § 212.

The side by side existence of ro and or in Gr. and rā and ar in Lat. may be compared with that of Gr. pa and ap, Germ. ru and ur fr. Indg. r (§§ 292. 299). Gr. or, Lat. ar fr. uor*, ar* were possibly shortened after the same principle as that which gave rise to Gr. part. ἄεττ- 'blowing' (indic. ἄημι) and Lat. vent-u-s fr. uō-nt-* (§§ 611. 612). ἱδωρ especially speaks in favour of this theory; for ἱδωρ: στέοννυμι = ἄητ: ἄεττ- and λίκωρ: λίκοις (§§ 85. 611).

Skr. gīr 'praise' fr. gīr-ś* gǵr-s* loc. pl. gīrśā fr. gǵr-su* and pār 'fixed place' fr. pār-ś* pǵr-s* loc. pl. pārśā fr. pǵr-su* correspond to nouns like jā-s fr. gǵr-s* § 253 p. 207. But between the nom. sg. gīr pār and instr. sg. gīrā pūrā nom. pl. gīras pūras (gīr- pūr- fr. gǵr- pǵl-, § 290) there exists precisely the same relation as between nom. sg. dhītś ('thought') blātś ('earth') and instr. sg. dhīgā bhuvā nom. pl. dhīyas bhūvas. This parallelism was inherited from the Indg. prim. period. (p. 250).

It is remarkable that in Greek antesonantal or, ol and anteconsonantal ro or, lo ol frequently stand to each other in the same relation as Skr. ir ur and tr ār since one would expect or ol as the representative of Indg. antesonantal r,

Rem. 1. Accordingly the difference, e. g., between Gr. $\tilde{\epsilon}\gamma\alpha\mu\epsilon\nu$ and $\tilde{\epsilon}\gamma\alpha\nu\gamma\alpha\delta\epsilon\tau\epsilon$; has nothing to do with ablaut; since $\gamma\alpha\mu$ became $\gamma\alpha\upsilon$ by a special Greek shortening, s. § 611; nor the contrast between Goth. þagkja 'I think' and þahtu 'I thought' (s. § 214 p. 181), nor that between OHG. ird-in 'earthen' and erd-a 'earth' (s. § 67 p. 57) etc.

Rem. 2. Indg. long vowels, which from etymological considerations are shown to be the product arising from the contraction of two vowels (§§ 111—115), are rightly not put under ablaut as separate members. Cp. e. g. abl. sg. $*ek\mu\ddot{o}d$ (Lat. equo) fr. $*ek\mu\text{-}o\text{'i}$ nom. pl. $*ek\mu\acute{o}s$ (Skr. dāśas) fr. $*ek\mu\text{-}o\text{'es}$ (§ 115) beside nom. sg. $*ek\mu\text{-}o\text{'s}$ (Lat. equos) voc. sg. $*ek\mu\text{'e}$ (Lat. equē) etc. Cp. § 314.

§ 308. i and u with a preceding or following vowel (ai , ia) stand, so far as relations of ablaut are concerned, on a level with consonant nasals and liquids. The following root-syllables, e. g., correspond to each other:

$bhejdh-$, $bhojdh-$ (Gr. $\pi\epsilon\theta\text{-}\iota\alpha$, $\pi\acute{\epsilon}\text{-}\theta\alpha\iota\theta\epsilon$) } $bhendh-$, $bhondh-$ (Goth. bind-īþ, band)
 $bheydh-$, $bhojdh-$ (Goth. bīnd-īþ, bāuþ) } $derk-$, $dork-$ (Gr. $\delta\acute{\epsilon}\kappa\text{-}\epsilon\tau\alpha\iota$, $\delta\acute{\epsilon}\text{-}\delta\epsilon\kappa\epsilon\text{-}$) $symp-$, $sum-$ (O. Icel. scef-n, Lith. sūp-u-a-s) : $prek-$, $prok-$ (Lat. preo-or, proo-us).

The sonants i and u appear in the place of j and y in the ablaut-grade, which is deprived of the vowels e o , just as sonant nasals and liquids in the place of the consonant.

 $bhudh-$ (Goth. bud-ans) } : $dyk-$ (Gr. $\tilde{\epsilon}\text{-}\delta\epsilon\alpha\kappa\text{-}$)
 $sup-$ (Gr. $\tilde{u}\pi\text{-}\nu\sigma\text{-}\epsilon$) : $myk-$ (Lat. posco fr. $*myk(\acute{\epsilon})sk\acute{o}$, § 288).

To the ablaut $bhejdh-$: $bhojdh-$: $bhidh-$, $bhendh-$: $bhondh-$: $bhydh-$, $derk-$: $dork-$: $dyk-$ corresponds the ablaut $pet-$: $pot-$: $pt-$ (Gr. $\pi\acute{\epsilon}\tau\text{-}\epsilon\tau\alpha\iota$: $\pi\sigma\tau\text{-}\alpha\tau\alpha\iota$: $\tilde{\epsilon}\text{-}\pi\tau\text{-}\epsilon\tau\alpha$). The only difference is that in the latter case the last grade does not form a syllable in itself. The last grade, in the case of roots like $bhey-$ $gen-$, whose ablaut is exhibited as $bhey-$: $bhoj-$: $bhu-$ $bhy-$ and $gen-$: $gon-$: $gy-$ $gn-$, may be both syllabic and non-syllabic; cp. Gr. $\varphi\acute{\upsilon}\text{-}\sigma\iota\varsigma$ beside $\acute{\upsilon}\pi\epsilon\rho\mu\acute{\epsilon}\lambda\alpha\omicron\varsigma$ fr. $*\acute{\upsilon}\pi\epsilon\tau\text{-}q\text{-}\iota\alpha\lambda\omicron\varsigma$ (§ 166 p. 147), $\gamma\acute{\epsilon}\text{-}\gamma\upsilon\text{-}\mu\epsilon\nu$ beside $\gamma\acute{\iota}\text{-}\gamma\upsilon\text{-}\epsilon\tau\alpha\iota$.

§ 309. We distinguish six ablaut-series. They all have one grade in which the vowel of the syllable has entirely disappeared. Representing this by 0, we have the following vowel-series:

1. e-series: 0, e, a, ē, ō.
2. ē-series: 0, ə, ē, ō.
3. a-series: 0, a, a, ō.
4. ō-series: 0, a, ō.
5. u-series: 0, u, (o?), a, ō.
6. o-series: 0, o, ō.

Many attempts have already been made (the most recent by Hübschmann Das idg. Vocalsystem, 1885) to systematise these series morphologically, i. e. to place together those phases of the different series, which belong to a definite morphological category, e. g. the root-syllable of participles formed with -to- or of the present indic. formed with the so-called thematic vowel. A parallelism clearly exists in many cases. E. g. part. d + tō-s* 'given' (Skr. dēvā-tta-s 'god-given') to ē-dō-m* 'I gave' (Skr. ā-dā-m) from rt. dō-, as i-tō-s* 'gone' (Skr. itā-s) to ē-ej-ŋ*, contracted ēj-ŋ* 'I went' (Skr. dy-am) from rt. ej-. Or k₂-u-ŋti* 3. pl. 'they sever, break' (Skr. śy-u-ānti) to k₂-uā-mi* 1. sg. (Skr. śy-uā-mi) with present suffix -nā-, as qi-nu-ŋti* 3. pl. 'they pile up' (Skr. ci-nu-ānti) to qi-nēu-mi* 1. sg. (Skr. ci-nō-mi) with present suffix -ney-. On this principle, the three first series e. g. have been parallelised in the following manner:

	Weak grade	Medium gr	Strong gr.
e -series: 0	(e)	e	o
ē -series: 0	ə	ē	ō
a -series: 0	a	a	ō

from which the members ē and ō of the e-series were excluded because parallels were not found to them (they appear e. g. in Gr. πα-τῆρ and δω-τωρ, Dor. πῶς 'foot') in both the other series.

The investigations instituted in this direction have not yet gone far enough to let us give a system of gradation-series completely worked out on this principle. And it is questionable whether we have a right to aim at the attainment of such a system at all, in the sense in which it is usual to do so. Several strata of formations, distinct in their time of origin, seem to overlap each other. In those which arose earlier, much may have been obliterated by transference of forms before the new cause of gradation came into activity, and the later phonetic law which called new distinctions into being did not act in the same manner as the older law or laws. In this case it is from the outset impossible to expect that parallels can be found everywhere.

§ 310. Clearness prevails most of all in the case of the weak grade, which is recognisable in each ablaut-series and assumes in most series a distinct twofold shape. It is due to a reduction of the vowel, which was caused through the chief accent lying on the following syllable. Cp. e. g. the participles, d-tó-s* from rt. dō- and i-tó-s* from rt. ei-, quoted in § 309. This connexion between accentuation and the phase of ablaut is best recognisable in Skr., since this language had most faithfully preserved the prim. Indg. accentuation (§§ 669. 672).

What we denote as the 'weak' stem-form in the accidence, has weak grade vocalism.

Rem. Many phenomena of younger phases are instructive for the relation of drk- to pt- etc. (§ 308). E. g. by the West Germ. law of syncope OHG. hōrita* 'heard', brannita* 'burnt' appear as hōrta, branta, whereas zimbrita* 'built' (= Goth. timrīda) became zimbrta*, whence historic zimbrta; prim. Germ. yalfas* 'wolf' became OHG. wolf, whereas prim. Germ. akroz* became akyz*, whence OHG. acchar (§§ 623 rem. 1. 635).

Opposed to the weak grade we call the other phases of each series the strong grades and distinguish strong grade 1. 2. etc. It is not known whether the strong grades, having the same number in the various series, always came into existence under the same conditions of accentuation etc.

What we denote as the 'strong' stem-form in the accidence, has strong grade vocalism.

The change between e and o and between ē and ō seems here (cp. the material collected together by Collitz in Bezzenberger's Beitr. X 34 ff.), as also frequently in other circumstances, to have been so regulated that e and ē originally stood in chief-accented syllables, o and ō in the next following syllable.¹⁾

Wg. a. pe-: Av. fra-bil-a- (-bil- fr. pe-* § 469, 2) 'the instep of the foot'. — Wg. b. pe-: Gr. Lesb. Bæot. πεδ-ά (instr.) 'after, with' (cp. Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 574), πεδ-ός, gen. sg. Lat. ped-is Skr. pad-ás. — Str.g. 1. pe- (whether it occurs, is uncertain). — Str.g. 2. pe-: acc. sg. Gr. πέδ-α Skr. pád-am, nom. pl. Arm. ot-ē (§ 330 rem.), to which Lat. tri-pod-are. — Str.g. 3. pē-: Lat. nom. sg. pēs, perhaps also Lith. pėd-à 'foot-print'. — Str. g. 4. pō-: Gr. Rem. In the Indg. prim. language the simple forms perhaps had in the nom. sg. pēt-, acc. sg. pēt- (Lat. ped-em?), whereas the compounds (cp. Skr. añtā-pāt, Gr. ἀντι-πός etc.), and also the simple form, when in accent it entered into a close connexion with preceding words, had poit-* and pod-*. Then levellings in various directions took place²⁾.

§ 312. The weak grade.

In formative syllables ending in an explosive or a spirant, the weak grade has only two forms, while four appear in those ending in i, u, nasal, liquid, since the unaccented as well as the secondary accented phase assumes two forms according as a sonant or a consonant follows:

1) Cp. G. Meyer in Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIV 248, Mahlow Die langen Voc. 161, Fick Göt. gel. Anz. 1880 p. 421 ff., Müller Paul-Braune's Beitr. VII 492 ff.

2) By this it is not implied that this change in the vowel quality is to be maintained for all monosyllabic gradating nouns. These nouns were not all created in the same period.

	a. unaccented.		b. secondary accented.
rt. ped- :	ped- (Av. fra-bel-a-)		ped- (Skr. gen. pad-ds)

rt. sueigh- :	suigh- (Gr. εἴα)		suigh- (Gr. εἴα-ι)
rt. leyp- :	lag- (Goth. lakanus)		luy- (Goth. lūkan)

rt. bhey- :	bhy-	bhu-	bhuy-	bhū-
rt. gem- :	gu-	gy-	gum-	gū-
rt. ster- :	str-	stf-	stfr-	stf-

Examples for the three last named roots are:

Rt. bhey- 'become'. bhy-: Skr. á-bho-a-, Gr. ἐπιρμαινόμενος fr. ú-p-r-y-t-a-lo-s* (§ 166), O.Bulg. bě fr. bhy-ē* (§ 184). bhu-: Gr. φύ-σις, Lat. fu-tūru-s. bhuy-: Skr. gen. sg. bhuo-ds, Gr. ἐφύην. bhū-: Skr. bhū-ti- bhū-man-, Gr. φῦμα.

Rt. gem- 'go'. gu-: Av. 3. sg. act. γm-a-p, O.Pers. 3. sg. mid. a-gm-a-tā. gy-: Skr. ga-tā-s, Gr. βα-τό-ς, Lat. in-ven-tu-s. gum-: Skr. gam-ā-mi, OHG. kom-an. gū-: Skr. á-gā-ta, Gr. ἰ-βά-τε.

Rt. ster- 'spread, strow'. str-: Lat. sir-vere. stf-: Skr. stf-tā-s, Gr. στρε-τό-ς. stfr-: Skr. pf. mid. ti-stir-ē ti-stir-āmi-s, O.Bulg. 1. sg. pres. stīr-ā. stf-: Skr. stīr-mā-s, Gr. στρω-τό-ς στόρνειμι (§ 611), Lat. strālu-s.

The parallelism between -i-, -ā-, -ū-, -r- etc. on the one hand and -i-, -uy-, -yu-, -fr- on the other is clearly seen e. g. in such forms as Skr. bhū-ś 'world' gen. bhuo-ds, bhrā-ś gen. bhruo-ds Gr. ὁ γερ-ς gen. ὁ γερ(τ)-ος and Skr. pār fr. pārś* (Indg. pā-s*) gen. par-ds (Indg. pāl-ós* or pāl-és*). gū-śā-s 'oxen gaining' (Indg. sū-s*) gen. gū-śam-as (Indg. syn-ós* or syn-és*) etc. See §§ 253. 306. Gr. χρῶς also seems to be a noun of this kind, whose gen. χρῶς in that case has taken the place of χρῶ-ός* χρῶ-ός* (s. §§ 294. 306), further (οἶμο-) βρῶς ('swallowing raw') = Skr. (muhur-) gīr ('swallowing suddenly'), Indg. gī-s*; -βρῶι-ος a new formation like χρῶι-ός.

§ 313. That both phases of the weak grade — here as in all other ablaut-series — originated in the different degree of the stress-accent (§ 667, 3), is a probable result of Osthoff's investigation (Morph. Unt. IV).

The sound-form to which we have given the name of weak grade b., shows a less degree of weakening and regularly appears wherever a secondary stress remained upon the syllable. The phase a. originated whenever through any circumstances, connected with position in the sentence, the syllable lost its secondary accent and became accentless. Such circumstances are priority of another member of a compound, the prefixing or suffixing of a formative syllable etc.

That position of a syllable at the beginning of a sentence or member of a sentence occasioned secondary accent, may be concluded from the numerous double forms as Av. fra-bd-a- and Skr. pad-ás; Av. haurva-fš-n- 'the whole beast' (-fš- from ps*-, § 473) and pasu- Skr. paś-á- 'beast' (Indg. peś-á*-); Skr. á-bhe-a- 'contrary to all existence, monstrous' and gen. bhu-ás; su-bhru-š 'having a beautiful brow' and bhrá-š 'brow'; gō-ghu-á-s 'cow killer' and ghan-á-s 'destroyer'; á-gr-u-š and guri-š (§ 290); Gr. πάλι-τλας and ταίλας. We may probably assume also that forms like gná*- (Ved. gná-, O.Ir. gen. sg. mná), klutó-s* (Skr. śrūtá-s, Gr. κλυτός etc.), stító-s* (Skr. stítá-s, Gr. στειτός) beside gyná*- (Ved. gyná-, Bæot. βυνά, O.Icel. kona), klutó-s* (OHG. hlāt), stító-s* (Gr. στειτός, Lat. strātū-s) originally had their position regularly in such combinations as sá gná* 'this wife', tóm klutóm* 'this renowned man' (= τὸν κλυτόν). Naturally as soon as accentless and secondary accented forms were firmly established levelling took place, e. g. Skr. prá-pada-m 'point of the foot' ánaṣṭa-paśu-š 'he who loses nothing from his herd' a-guru-š 'not heavy' beside the more archaic Av. fra-bdu- haurva-fš-n- Skr. á-gru-š.

It is worth noticing how double forms have been often called into use for euphonic reasons and through the striving after etymological clearness. In forms like pegtó-s* 'cooked' pegti-s* 'cooking' (Skr. paktá-s pakti-š, Gr. πειτός πέψις, Lat. coctū-s coctiō from quecto-s* quectiō* §§ 172. 431 a), spéktó-s* 'spied' (Skr. spaśtá-s, Lat. spectu-s), a generalisation of the secondary accented form took place in the system of verbal forms belonging to one unity, since pegtó-s* spéktó-s* etc. had become obscure by their modification; uqtó-s* is however perhaps still represented by Gr. ἀ-πρό-ς with prothetic vowel. Of the double forms prim Ar. z-dhí* and az-dhí* 'be' (rt. es-) Skr. generalised the second form in spite of s-más s-thá s-tá etc., since dhí* from zdhí* was too indistinct; from azdhí* came regularly ēdhí (§ 591); the first form was retained by Iranian, Av. z-dī. If a combination of consonants preceded formative syllables ending in i, u, nasal or liquid, the antesonantal secondary accented form was often generalised. Thus we have bhrū-* beside bhrā-* 'brow', but no bhry-* beside bhray-, only srūy- not sry-* beside sru-* ('flow') (Skr. á-susruv-a-t, Gr. ἰρρῶν), only ēlī-, not ēlī-* beside ēli-* ('lean') (Skr. śi-śrīg-ē, Gr. Hom. κε-κλί-αται). Compare further postconsonantal -nuy-hti* in Skr. śak-nuv-ānti Gr. ἀγ-νέ-αν with Skr. śak-nu-mis Gr. ἀγ-νυ-μεν and with Skr. cī-nu-ānti, the Skr. gen. sg. vārt-man-as (prim. f. yert-myn-as* or -es) with the loc. pl. vārt-ma-su (prim. f. yert-myn-su*) and the gen. sg. nā-mn-as. Cf. §§ 117. 120. 153. 159.

Rem. The question as to how the two phases of the weak grade developed phonetically from the forms of the strong grade, has received different answers and is even now not ripe for settlement. We may refer to the latest discussions by Hübschmann loc. cit. p. 181 ff. and Bremer Paul-Braune's Beitr. XI 264. 267.

Specially deserving of attention is the circumstance that we may very often be in doubt as to whether we should refer a secondary accented form of the weak grade of a root to the e- or ē-series, e. g. pl- 'fill' (§ 306) gi- 'live' (§ 37) to pe- ge-, or to plē- (Lat. plē-tu-s, Skr. prā-tā-s) gi- (Gr. ζῆ from zēu*, Av. jyā-tu-s 'life') just as the optative suffix -i- stands to the strong form -iē-. Cp. Hübschmann loc. cit.

§ 314. The strong grade.

On the grades e and o there is nothing to add here to the observations in § 311.

The phases ē and ō present difficulties in so far as in the case of many forms with ē and ō in the separate languages the question arises whether they first obtained their long vowel in the period after the Indg. prim. period had broken up, or whether the long vowel was inherited with the rest of the ablaut.

Forms with such an old ē ō were cited in § 311. Others are nom. Gr. Ζεύς from djēus* (§ 611) Skr. dyáuṣ 'sky'; Lat.

oā 'voice' Skr. vāk 'speech'; Gr. δυσ-μενής 'evil disposed' Skr. dur-mands 'downcast'; part. perf. act. Gr. εἰδ-ώς; from εἰδ-φώς* Av. (Gāp.) ōūt-ōd. Also old inherited forms or at any rate modelled on old inherited types were Gr. φῶρ κλίσω σκίσω, Lat. fār; with these go as denominatives the Gr. verbs κλωπᾶομαι τραπᾶω ποταόομαι etc.

Rem. Observe that the ē of forms of the weak perf. stem as Lat. sēd-imus Goth. sētum from rt. sēd- 'sit' have nothing to do with the ē of the strong grade. ē arose here from ē by lengthening, sēd- from se-zēd-* = orig. se-s(e)ḍ-*. See §§ 590. 591. 594 and the accidence. The same reduplicated root-form was apparently at the basis of many non-perfect verbal forms and noun formations which for the most part were formed later from the perfect. Thus Lith. sēdmi sēdīu O.Bulg. sēdā 'I sit' Lat. sēd-ēs sēd-āre to perf. Lat. sēd-imus; Armen. mit 'wense' Gr. μύθομαι 'I devise' OHG. māza 'a measure' to perf. Goth. mēt-imu O.Ir. ro mīd-or 'judicavi' from rt. med- (Gr. μέτω Goth. mīta Lat. modu-s etc.); Lat. tēgula Lith. stėgīu 'I thatch a roof', rt. steg-; Goth. auda-nēms 'pleasant', rt. nam-; etc. How far the assumption of such origin for the ē should extend, is certainly still doubtful. Cp. the author, Morph. Unt. IV 414, Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 82 f. 110 f.

We have further to distinguish according to § 307 rem. 2 the ē and ō which have arisen by contraction. Especially to be mentioned here is the ē in the forms of roots beginning with a vowel, as ēd- 'eat' es 'be' etc. In the perf. stem ēd- (Lat. ēd-imus Skr. ād-imd etc.) ē arose by contraction of the e of the root with the e of the reduplication, in the imperf. stem ēd- (Skr. ād-am by contraction of the e of the root with the augment e (§ 114). From this now originated to some extent a new root-form ēd-, from which came Lat. ēs-t ēs-u-s, Lith. ēd-mi ēd-i-s, Goth. uz-ēta etc., and which called into being Gr. ēd-ωd-ē after the analogy of the ablaut ē-series. Cp. author loc. cit., Osthoff loc. cit. 122 ff. 148 ff.

On the other hand it must remain quite undecided if many other ē and ō forms were proper ablaut vowels of the ē-series i. e. whether directly inherited or introduced by analogy. Besides sporadic forms as Gr. ἐναε Av. *yākuw (beside Lat. jecur Skr. yakṣi) 'liver' the Skr. Vṛddhi-vowels come especially into consideration. It is quite conceivable that e. g. the s-aorists ā-bhānt-am (rt. bhicydh-) ā-drak-ṣam from a-dark-ṣam* § 259 (rt. derē-) ā-jāi-ṣam (rt. gej-) ā-bhār-ṣam (rt. bhcr-) represent an Indg. aorist formation with iaa root-vowel; cp. Lat. rāri tēri, O.Bulg. nēsū rēchū basū and observe that in Gr. ἐρποναι ἔρπησα ἔρποναι ἔρποναι the e of the root syllable may have been shortened from ē (§ 811). Cp. the accidence.

Lat. queror questu-s: + Skr. śvās-i-mi 'I breathe, snort, sigh', rt. k̄yes-.

-cf- became -ff- in Lat.: efferō efficiō; the c in ec- ex was probably k̄.

Prim. Ital. k (part! = Indg. q, § 430) became a sibilant in Umbrian before e- and owels, which cannot be more closely defined: š, šs (§ 23). Besides šimu etc. already named cp. further: tīšit 'decot', to Lat. decet decus, Skr. daśas-yā-ti 'does honour, is gracious'; čurnaše 'cornice' beside čurnaco 'cornicem'; faëia 'faciat' beside fakust 'fecerit'. With this may be compared the treatment of Lat. c before palatal vowels in the Romance developments, as Italian cento Fr. cent from centum.

Rem. Lat. c had the pronunciation k also before e- and i-vowels down to the Middle Ages, thus kentum, kito. Cp. Seelmann Die Ausspr. d. Lat. 332 ff.

§ 388. Indg. g. Lat. gñ-gn-ō mal-gn-u-s (§ 619) genu-s, Osc. Lat. hor-tu-s co-hors, Osc. húrtúm 'hortum': Gr. χότρο-ς 'grass, hay, fodder, feeding-place, courtyard', O.Ir. gort 'seges' lub-gort 'vegetable-garden' + Lith. žar-di-s m. 'pasture for horses, pasture-ground' Pruss. sardi-s 'a place enclosed by a hedge'¹⁾. Lat. vehō, Osc. vehia 'plaustrum' (Paulus F.): Gr. ὄχο-ς etc., see § 383. Lat. mihī and Skr. māhyam 'mihi' probably contained Indg. gh, the same sound as in Skr. nom. ahám.

Concerning the dropping of Lat. h = gh see § 510.

f also occurs instead of Lat. initial h, e. g. folus beside holus helus: O.Ir. gel 'white', OHG. gelo 'yellow' + Skr. hári-ś Av.

1) It is uncertain whether Goth. garde 'yard, house, family' and OHG. garto also belong here. Lith. gaŕda-s and O.Bulg. gradū seem to have been borrowed from Germ. See § 467, 2 and Kluge Etym. Wtb. der d. Sprache under Garten.

zairi-s 'yellowish', Lith. žėlù 'I grow green' O.Bulg. zelije n. 'greens, vegetables'; fariolu-s beside hariolu-s haru-s spex: Gr. χορδή 'a string of gut', O.Icel. garner garnir pl. 'entrails' + Lith. žarnà 'gut'. Along with Osthoff (Morph. Unt. IV 99, cp. Danielsaon in Pauli's Altital. Stud. III 144, Bersu Die Gutturalen im Lat. 181) we do not hold these forms with f as also festi-s beside hosti-s (§ 430) for Lat., but for Sabine.

Rem. I am in doubt about the f in Lat. fundō, to Goth gītan 'to pour', Gr. χίω 'I pour' χίω-της 'holy water', Av. zao-prā- 'libation'. One might regard the f as having regularly arisen in in-fundō cōn-fundō, and then carried over to the uncompounded form, if the assumption had a firmer basis, infumu-s infumu-s may have come from an older in fumō* = in humō (cp. Umbr. hon-dra above), which, being regarded as a superlative, was followed by the forms inferu-s inferior. The f in the Lat. words cannot be regularly connected with the dental in Skr. adhās 'below' Goth. undar 'under'.

Lat. ng fr. prim. Ital. nx. angō: Gr. ἄγγω 'I press tight, strangle', O.Ir. cum-ung 'narrow', Goth. aggwu-s 'narrow' (with v from the oblique cases) + Skr. āhas- Av. qzah- n. 'distress, need', Arm. anjuk (ancuk) 'narrow', O.Bulg. qza 'bond, fetter'. mingō (beside mējō, probably fr. mejhō*, § 510): Gr. οὐχίω 'I make water', Aga. mīzan O.Icel. mīga 'to make water' + Skr. mēhati Av. maṣaiti 'makes water', Arm. mēs (gen. mizl, mizoy) 'urine', Lith. mēžalāi pl. Aryan.

§ 396. Indg. k̥, g̊, gh̊ were generally represented by ś, ḡ, ḡh i. e. by palatal ś-(sh)-sounds in the prim. Aryan period. ś and ḡ have the same sound as the 'softened' ś (sz) and ḡ (caused by the following of i- or e-vowels) of the Slavonic and Lithuanian languages.

Prim. Ar. śt, śk and ḡd ḡdh, ḡbh became developed to st, sk and śd śdh, ḡbh probably already in prim. Aryan. See §§ 399. 404.

The value of Indg. sk̥ and k̥s cannot be precisely defined for the prim. Ar. period. See §§ 400. 401.

§ 397. Indg. k̥. Prim. Ar. ś (§ 396) mostly remained unchanged in Sanskrit. It became s in Iranian. For this s there appears in O.Pers. mostly (initially before and medially between vowels), and in Av. occasionally ṣ, which, according to Bartholomae, is only a graphical variety of s.

Skr. śās-a-ti 'praises, recites' Av. sasah-aiti 'names himself' O.Pers. a-pah-a 'he spoke, said, announced': Lat. censeō. Prim. Ar. śn. Av. frašna- = Skr. praśná- 'question': Arm. harsn etc., rt. prek̥-, s. § 390. Av. gen. sg. aś-n-ō = Skr. ā-śn-as, beside the strong stem-form as-an = Skr. dś-an 'stone': Arm. yes-an 'whetstone' + Gr. ἀξόν-η 'whetstone'. O.Pers. vašna- 'will, favour', to vasaiy etc., see § 397.

Prim. Ar. pš. Av. haurva-fš-u- 'the whole cattle' beside pas-u = Skr. paś-ú: Lat. pecu, Goth. faihu 'cattle', cp. § 313 p. 251.

§ 399. Prim. Ar. št = Indg. k̥t (§ 396) remained in Iranian, but became št in Sanskrit (cp. §§ 404. 556). Skr. diṣṭi-ś 'indication, prescription', Av. a-diṣti-š 'direction, instruction' beside Skr. dēśāyāmi Av. daśayāmi 'I show, teach': Lat. dictiō, OHG. in-ziht 'accusation', cp. also Gr. δειξις 'a showing', Indg. diḱ-ti-s*, rt. dejē-, see § 393. 3. sg. Skr. vāṣṭi Av. vaṣti 'he wishes, desires' beside 1. sg. Skr. vāśmi Av. vaś'mi, from rt. ueḱ-, see §§ 397. 398. Skr. prāṣṭu-m inf. 'to interrogate', O.Pers. ahi-fraṣti- 'punishment by the sword', beside Skr. praśná- etc., see § 398.

Prim. Ar. šk = Indg. k̥q is found in Av. 3. pl. aor. act. *a-šk-ar 'they run off, go away' beside 3. pl. pres. mid. sac-intē from rt. Ar. šak- šac-. Cp. Bartholomae Ar. Forsch. II 51 ff.

§ 400. Indg. sk̥ became in Skr. ch (cch), Av. O.Pers. s (or ḥ, see § 397). Present suffix Skr. -cha- Av. O.Pers. -sa- = Gr. -oxo- Lat. -sco-: c. g. Skr. gá-cha-mi Av. ja-sā-mi fr. Indg. gṃ-skō*, Gr. βá-oxo, from rt. gem- 'go' (§ 228); Skr. pychāmi Av. per'sāmi O.Pers. parsāmīy fr. Indg. pr̥k-skō*, Lat. poscō (por(c)-scō*), from rt. preḱ- 'demand, beg, ask' (§ 288); O.Pers. xšná-sā-tiy = Lat. gnō-sca-t (cp. § 403). Cp. § 557, 2.

Rem. Other examples in Bartholomae's Handb. d. altiran. Dial. § 146 and Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 366 ff., where (s)kh, and not Indg. sk̥, is regarded as the original form. This theory seems to us not to have sufficient foundation. Cp. §§ 475. 553.

§ 401. Indg. k̥s became in Skr. kṣ, and in Av. O.Pers. š. Skr. vákṣi Av. vaši, 2. sg. to Skr. vāśmi Av. vaś'mi, s. §§ 397. 398. 399. Skr. dákṣiṇa- Av. dašina- 'dexter': Lith. deszinė etc., see § 390. Skr. d-ḍṛkṣ-ata 3. pl. indie. mid., Av. ḍar's-a-ḥ 3. sg. conj. act. of the s-aorist from rt. ḍerē- 'see', cp.

Gr. (late) fut. ἡρξομαι. O.Pers. nig-apišam 'I wrote' s-aorist from rt. pešk-: Av. zaranyō-piš- 'adorned with gold' paēsa- paēsa- 'ornament, decoration', Skr. piśāmi 'I adorn, form', O.Bulg. pīsatī 'to write' + Gr. ποικίλο-ς 'many-coloured', Lat. pictūra.

The prim. Ar. form might have been šš, since in Sanskrit Indg. ks fell together with Indg. ss (preceded by i, u) = -prim. Ar. šš, cp. Skr. 2. sg. deśēṣi (1. sg. deśē-mi 'I hate'). Cp. § 556, 1.

Rem. 1. Observe that Indg. ks and qs fell together in kš in Sanskrit, whereas in Iranian (as in Balt.-Slav., § 414) they remained separate: ks = Iran. š, qs = Iran. xš. Cp. § 556, 1.

Rem. 2. Skr. final ks became k by § 647, 7, as nom. sg. dīk 'heavenly direction' (st. dīš-), ṛte-ik 'sacrificator' (st. ṛte-ij-, rt. īg-). Forms as nom. sg. spāt 'spy' (st. spāš-), vīp 'clan' (st. vīš-), rāt 'king' (st. rāj- Indg. reg-*) were new formations after the analogy of the cases with dh-suffixes, see § 404 rem. 3. In Av. the regular continuation of Indg. -ks was not altered by the law of finals: e. g. spaš = Skr. spāt Lat. (harnu-)spex; *ayā-car 'causing sins' to *ver z-yelti 'works' rt. yerg-.

Rem. 3. xr (not !) occurs in a number of Gr. words, opposite to Skr. kš = Iran. š = Lat. x, e. g. Skr. tāḥṣā 'carpenter': Gr. τέκτων. On this correspondence cp. § 554 extr.

No trace of the first k in the Indg. combination kš has remained in Aryan, it became assimilated to the following s at an early period. Cp. Skr. pychāmi Av. per'sami = Indg. pyk-skō* with Skr. gāchāmi Av. jasāmi = Indg. gyu-skō* (§ 400).

§ 402. Indg. g. Prim. Ar. š (§ 396) mostly became j in Sanskrit, and z in Iranian. d i. e. ḍ is often written for z in O.Pers., cp. p beside s § 397.

Skr. jān-as n. 'race' jān-a-s 'man, people', Av. zī-zan-anti 'they beget, bring forth' O.Pers. parāo-zana- 'populous': Lat. genus etc., s. § 388. Skr. vāja-s 'thunder-bolt of Indra' Av. vazra- 'club' O.Pers. vazra-ka- 'great, powerful', Skr. vāja- Av. vāza- m. 'strength': Gr. ὑγιής 'healthy', Lat. vegeō, Goth. us-vakjan 'to wake up', rt. yeḡ- 'be active, strong'. Skr. jōṣa- Av. zaoša- m. 'favour, kindness', Skr. jōṣār- 'loving' O.Pers. dauštar- 'friend': Gr. γῆναι etc., s. § 385. Skr. jrāy-as- n. 'surface, extent', Av. zrayah- n. O.Pers. drayāh- draya- n. 'sea': + Lat. gli-scō. (1?).

§ 403. Prim. Ar. śn became šn in Iranian. Av. fra-šnu- 'knee bent forwards' beside zanva pl. 'knees' etc., s. § 394. Av. duš-varšnah- 'evil doer' beside ver'z-yēti 'works, effects, carries out' etc., s. § 383.

xšn appears for šn in O.Pers. xšnā-sā-tiy = Lat. gnō-sca-t (s = Indg. ś, § 400) from Indg. gnō- 'got to know' (s. § 382), as also in Av. a-xšnu- beside a-šnu- fra-šnu- and others. Cp. Bartholomae Handb. § 100 rem. 3.

Rem. yasna- 'offering' instead of yaśna-* (Skr. yajñā- 'offering', rt. jaṅ-) received the dental sibilant from analogy with such forms as 3. sg. pres. yazaitē.

Prim. Iran. zm = prim. Ar. śm became sm in Av. rāsmān- 'column of an army' besides rāzayēti 'puts in order': Gr. ὀπίσσω etc., see § 385.

The transition of śn to šn and of zm to sm points to a voicelessness of the nasal.

§ 404. Prim. Ar. śd śdh, śbh (§ 396) became śd, śb in Iranian (§ 481); in Sanskrit they first became śḍ śḍh, śbh (cp. §§ 399. 591), then ṣ was dropped before ḍ ḍh with ('compensation lengthening'), while before bh it passed into ḍ.

1. śd. Here will come Skr. mṛdā-ti 'is gracious, pardons, spares', mṛḍikā- n. 'grace, pardon, mercy' Av. mer'ēdika- n. 'grace, pardon, mercy', in case they belong to the rt. merḡ- 'wipe off' (Skr. mṛj-ā-ti 'wipes off, cleanses from guilt', Av. mar'z-aiti 'wipes, cleanses'); the original form would then be an old syntactical combination mṛḡ dō-* 'grant a purity from sins'. Skr. mṛṣ-ya-tē 'forgets' marṣāyatē 'bears patiently, excuses, pardons' Lith. miṛsz-ti 'to forget' can equally well be regarded as being from an old mṛs dō-* (by assimilation mṛz dō-*) 'grant a forgetting, excuse' (§ 591).

2. śdh. Av. vašdri-š 'promoter, accomplisher', to vazaiti = Skr. vāhati 'vehit', fr. yeḡh+tri-*. Av. (Gāp.) ger'ēdā 3. sg. pret. mid. to ger'zaiti 'complains, implores' = Skr. mid. gārhatē 'complains, blames', fr. prim. Ar. grēdha* or ghrēdha* i. e. grḡh-(ghrḡh-)+to*. Skr. lāḥi 'licks' (1. sg. lāhmi) fr.

prim. Ar. laišdhi* i. e. leiǵh+ti*, part. pass. liḡhā- 'licked' from prim. Ar. lišdhi-* i. e. liǵh+to-*. Skr. āḡha- to vāhami 'veho', fr. prim. Ar. ušdha-* i. e. uǵh+to-*. Skr. dyḡhā- to dḡhyāmi 'I fasten; stand firm', fr. prim. Ar. dhyšdha-* (§ 480) i. e. dhyǵh+to-*, ep. Lat. forti-s forti-s. Skr. śaḡhā- to sāhatā 'masters', fr. prim. Ar. sāšdha-*. Skr. baḡhā- 'fast, firm, strong' beside bāḡh-iṣṭha- 'firmest' Av. bazah- 'strength, greatness', fr. prim. Ar. bhašdha-* (§ 480) i. e. bhaǵh+to-* ($a = \bar{u}$, § 253).

Prim. Ar. $a + \bar{s}$ became Skr. \bar{o} . vāḡlu-m inf. 'vectum' (from rt. ueǵh-) fr. prim. Ar. vašdhu-m* i. e. ueǵh+tu-m*. sāḡhu-m inf. 'to master, overpower' (from rt. seǵh-) fr. prim. Ar. sašdhu-m* i. e. seǵh+tu-m*. 3. sg. tr̥pāḡhi 'he dashes to pieces' (pf. tatārha) for regular tr̥pāḡhi* (fr. tr̥paš-ḡhi*) arose from analogy to forms in -nāḡhi fr. -našdhi* (§ 476 rem.)

Rem. 1. It has not been ascertained for certain what was the pronunciation of the etymologically presupposable combination $ǵh+t$ at the close of the Indg. prim. period. See § 552.

Rem. 2. Forms like Skr. 2. sg. imper. didiḡhi for didiḡhi* (prim. \bar{i} . dī-dīḡ-dhi*), to dīdēk-mi 'I show', were new formations. The \bar{i} -sound (didiḡhi*) was re-introduced in didiḡhi* after the analogy of didiḡṣa di-dēḡṣa and others ($\bar{i} = \bar{e}$, § 399), then this — change of period, change of sound-laws — passed into \bar{a} . Cp. § 591 rem. 1 on deidḡhi and § 476 rem. 1 on dādḡhi for dēhi.

3. šbh. Av. (Gāp.) vīšbyō Skr. viḡbhyās dat. abl. pl. to Av. vīs- Skr. viś- 'clan, village community', rt. ueiḡk-. Skr. paḡbhīṣ instr. pl. to paś- 'a look', rt. speḡk-. We assume that in such cases \bar{g} for \bar{k} goes back to the Indg. prim. period, see § 469, 2. Skr. šbh probably became ḡbh in the same period in which the newly formed didiḡḡhi* (for didiḡhi*) became didiḡḡhi (rem. 2).

Rem. 3. In Sanskrit the cerebral explosive was carried over to the nom. from the cases with bh-suffixes, hence spāḡt vīṣ rāḡt instead of the regular spāḡt *vīḡt rāḡt fr. spokḡṣ* etc., see § 401 rem. 2.

§ 405. Indg. $\bar{g}h$. Prim. Ar. $\bar{s}h$ (§ 396) became \bar{h} in Sanskrit through the intermediate stage $\bar{j}h$, in Iranian it fell together with prim. Ar. \bar{s} in \bar{z} (O.Pers. \bar{d} , see § 402).

Skr. hāv-ana- Av. zav-ana- 'call, cry', Skr. hō-atar- Av. zō-atar- 'caller, crier': O.Bulg. zov-a 'I call' zō-atelŭ 'caller, crier' + OHG. gaunōn 'to complain'. Skr. bahū-ṣ Av. bāzu-ṣ

'arm': Gr. $\pi\eta\chi\nu\text{-}\varsigma$ 'fore-arm', OHG. buog O.Icel. bögr 'bow', Indg. bhagh-u-s*. Skr. dēh-ti 'earth thrown out, rampart' Av. uz-dæz-a- 'accumulation' O.Pers. dūd-a- 'rampart, fortification': Goth. deigan etc., see § 395. Skr. gūhati 'hides, conceals' Av. gaozaiti 'hides, keeps' O.Pers. gaudaya imper. 'hide': Lith. »gužietojis« 'protector' gūstà 'brooding nest', rt. in weak grade form ghāgh-.

§ 406. In Sanskrit jh, the previous stage of h, was retained in ujjhātā- 'forsaken, given up' fr. ud-jhi-ta-*, to Skr. hā- Av. zā- 'leave, forsake, lose'.

j appears where prim. Ar. ḥh came under the law of the dissimilation of aspirates (§ 480), e. g. pres. jā-hā-ti = Av. za-zā-iti, prim. Ar. ḥha-ḥhā-ti*; pf. ju-hāv-a 'he called to' from hu-. This law of dissimilation consequently came into operation before the time that jh became h.

§ 407. Prim. Ar. ḥhn became šn in Iranian (cp. § 403). Av. bar's-nu-s 'height, summit' beside bar's-a- 'height' bar's-išta- 'very high' Skr. bārḥ-iṣṭha- 'very elevated': O.Ir. bri (gen. breg) 'rising ground' etc., see § 392.

Prim. Ar. ḥhm became sm in Av. (cp. § 403). maēs-man- 'urine' beside gao-maēza- 'cow-urine' Skr. māha- 'urine': Lat. mingō etc., see § 389. xraoḥdu-sma- 'hard, firm ground' beside nom. zā acc. zām 'earth': Gr. χαμ-αι etc., see § 386; gen. z'mō instr. z'mā abl. z'māp had z for s after the analogy of zā zām; in O.Pers. with zm uvāra-zmī- 'Chorasmien'.

Armenian.

§ 408. Indg. ǩ. sar (gen. saroy) 'height, summit, slope': Skr. śtras- Av. sarah- n. 'head' + Gr. κέφα 'head', Lat. cerebru-m fr. ceres-ro-* (§ 570). surb (gen. srboy) 'pure' with -rb- from -br- (§ 263): Skr. śubh-rā-s 'bright, ornamental'. srun-ǩ pl. 'shin-bones, calves (of the leg)': + Lat. crūs crūris. aseln (gen. aslan) 'needle': Skr. aś-ri-ṣ 'the sharp side of a thing, corner, edge, border', Alb. ušt 'ear of corn' fr. ust*, Lith. asz-t-rū-s O.Bulg. os-t-rū 'sharp' O.Bulg. osūtū τρίβολος, genus spinæ + Gr. ἄκρο-ς 'at the end', Lat. ac-u-s, O.Cymr. ocet 'raster' Goth.

ahs (gen. ahsis) 'ear of corn' OHG. ahil 'chaff, beard of grain'.
harsn (gen. harsin) 'bride' from the root-form prk-, see § 390.

The s = k in šun (gen. šan) 'dog' is unexplained: Skr. śvan- śun- etc., see § 393.

ç fr. Indg. (k)sk- harç (gen. harçi) 'question': Skr. prchā-, Indg. prk-sk-*, see §§ 393. 400. 401.

ç fr. Indg. (s)sk- aic 'investigation': OHG. eisca 'demand', Indg. aīs-sk-*, cp. Skr. ichā- 'wish, desire' i. e. is-skā-* beside ēṣ-a-s 'a seeking out, wish'.

ç fr. ks. veç 'six': Lith. szeszi + Gr. ἑξ ἑξ Lat. sex O.Ir. se Cymr. chwech, cpf. syeks* (cp. § 580, 3).

k probably disappeared as s before t in uṣ 'eight': Skr. aṣṭā etc., see § 381. Perhaps also before l in lu 'audible' lur 'a hearing, tidings, news', since these words seem to be related to Skr. śru- Gr. κλυ- etc. (§ 384). See Hübnermann Arm. Stud. I 83.

§ 409. Indg. g. cer (gen. ceroy) 'old man': Skr. jāratī 'rubs, makes fragile' Av. zaurvā- f. 'age, a growing old' + Gr. γέρων 'old man'. calr (gen. calu) 'laughter': + Gr. γελᾶω 'I laugh'. aic (gen. aici) 'goat': + Gr. αἶγ- (gen. αἰγός) 'goat'. arciv 'eagle' (ar fr. r § 291, v fr. p § 330): Skr. rjipyā- 'stretching oneself, seizing on the wing' Av. er'zifya- 'stretching oneself, falcon'.

§ 410. Indg. gh. Initially and after n, r as j. jaune-m 'I consecrate, sacrifice': Skr. hōtar- Av. zaotar- 'the high priest' + Gr. χέω 'I pour'. jukn (gen. jkan) 'fish': Pruss. acc. suckans (read zuckans, § 412) 'fishes' Lith. žuk-mistra-s 'master of a fishery' žup-l-s 'fish'. ji (gen. jioy) 'horse': Skr. hāya-s 'steed'. anjuk (ancuk) 'narrow': Lat. angō etc., see § 389. inj (inc), gen. enju (encu), 'panther, leopard': Skr. sihā-s 'lion'. mi-orj-i 'μόνορχις' orj-i 'not castrated': Av. er'zi- Alb. herde for erde* + Gr. ὄρχις 'testicle'. barjr (gen. barju) 'high': Skr. bṛhānt- etc., see § 392. barj (gen. barji) 'προσφεράλατον': Skr. barhiṣ- n. 'the offering-litter' Av. bar'ziš- 'cover, mat'.

z after vowels liz-u-m 'I lick': Skr. līh-mi etc., § 392. ozni 'hedge-hog': Lith. edys O.Bulg. ješt fr. jez-ž* (§ 147 p. 134) + Gr. ἐχίνο-ς OHG. igil 'hedge-hog'.

Albanian.

§ 411. According to G. Meyer (Bezenberger's Beitr. VIII 186 f., Alban. Stud. II 15 ff.) Indg. k̃, g̃, gh̃ are represented in Albanian in the following manner:

k̃ = s. si-viēt 'in this year': Lith. szi-s 'this' Lat. ci-ter etc., see § 387. vise pl. 'places': Skr. viś-dmi Gr. φοῖνο-ς etc., see § 381. nšt 'ear of corn' fr. ust*: Skr. aś-ri-ś Gr. ἄκ-ρο-ς etc., see § 408. G. Meyer conjectures θ fr. s in djaθtē (djaθtē) 'to the right', the first part of which djaθ- represents Indg. deis-* (Skr. dākṣiṇa- etc., see §§ 390. 401).

g̃ = ḍ. ḍemp (with def. article ḍemb-i) 'tooth': Skr. jāmbha-s 'bite, tooth', Lith. šamba 'mouth', O.Bulg. zabŭ 'tooth' + Gr. γόμφο-ς 'tooth', OHG. chamb 'comb'. ḍi 'goat': Skr. ajā-s 'buck', Lith. ošys 'he-goat' + O.Ir. ag allaid 'cervus' (wild buck). barθ (with article barθ-i) 'white': Skr. bhrđjatē Av. brāzaiti 'beams, radiates'. l'ith 'I bind' (l'id-): + Lat. ligare.

gh̃ = ḍ. The Indg. mediae and mediae aspiratae had fallen together in Alban. as in Iran. Kelt. and Balt.-Slav. ḍies 'caco': Skr. hād-a-ti 'cacat' Av. zañ-ah- 'nates', Arm. jet 'tail' + Gr. χίζω 'caco' perf. ἐχόδα, ἐχόδαο-ς 'nates'. viēθ 'I steal' (vieθ-): Skr. vāhami etc. s. § 383. herde 'testicle': Armen. mi-orj-i etc. s. § 410.

d- for ḍ- in dimen 'winter' (Gr. χειμὼν etc., s. § 383) and in diē 'yesterday' (Skr. hyás 'yesterday' + Gr. χθίς 'yesterday', Lat. herī hes-ternu-s, Goth. gistra-dagis 'to-morrow').

Baltic-Slavonic.

§ 412. Indg. k̃, g̃, gh̃ were ś-(sh)-sounds in the Baltic-Slavonic parent language, whose place of articulation cannot be defined more precisely. They retained their character as ś-sounds in Lithuanian: k̃ = sz, g̃ gh̃ = š. In Prussian and Lettic as well as in the Slavonic branch they passed into s-sounds: k̃ = s, g̃ gh̃ = z. In Pruss. the letter s denotes both s and z, in Lett. s is the voiceless, and z the voiced sound.

The fact that the successor to Indg. k̃ did not take part in the Slav. change of s to ch (§ 588), shows that Indg. k̃ and Indg. s were still distinguished not only in the Baltic parent language but also in the Slavonic.

§ 413. Indg. k̃. Lith. szálta-s Lett. sa'lt's Pruss. salta- 'cold', Lith. szalnà O.Bulg. slana 'hoar frost': Skr. śi-śira- Av. sar'ta- 'cold, cool'. Lith. szirsz-ũ (gen. szirsz-eĩs) Lett. sirs-i-s Pruss. sirs-ili-s O.Bulg. sr̃š-en-ŭ 'hornet', prim. Balt.-Slav. šrs-en-* : + OHG. hornaz from prim. Germ. hurz-nata-z*, Lat. crabrō fr. crās-rō*, cp. § 303. 306. Lith. szveĩta-s Lett. svēts Pruss. svints O.Bulg. sṽtũ 'holy': Av. spenta- 'holy' + Goth. hensl 'offering' fr. prim. Germ. χyunt-sla-n* (§ 180). Lith. desziũta-s Lett. desmitā-is Pruss. dessimts (ss indicates that the e is short), O.Bulg. des̃tũ 'decimus': Skr. dāśa etc., see § 387. Lith. szakà O.Bulg. sq̃kũ 'branch, twig': Skr. śākhā- 'branch, twig' śanokũ-š 'plug, bolt'. Lith. nēszi Lett. nesti O.Bulg. nesti 'to carry': Skr. nāśāmi 'I attain, reach' + Gr. πoδ-ῥνexis 'reaching down to the feet'. Lith. szlauni-s 'hip, upper part of the thigh', Lett. slauna 'hip' Pruss. slanni-s 'shaft, bar': Skr. śr̃ñi-š 'buttock, hip' + Lat. clāni-s, O.Icel. hlaun 'buttock'.

§ 414. Indg. ks = Lith. sz Lett. Pruss. s, Slav. s, cp. § 544. Lith. aszi-s Lett. as-s Pruss. assi-s (ss as in dessimts, § 413) O.Bulg. os̃ 'axle': Skr. ākṣa-s + Gr. ᾄξω Lat. axi-s OHG. ahsa 'axle'. Lith. s-fut. nēsziū 'I shall carry' prim. f. nēk-sjō* (nessiū = O.Bulg. nesq̃ 'I carry', § 413) milsziū 'I shall milk' prim. f. m̃lk-sjō* (mēliū = Gr. ἀμῆλω, rt. melg-, s. § 382), opposed to lksziū 'I shall leave' prim. f. liq-sjō* (l̃kũ = Gr. λείνω, rt. leiq-, s. § 427 a). O.Bulg. s-aorist 3. pl. nēs̃ 'carried' prim. f. nēk-s-ŭt* (to nesq̃), as opposed to rēs̃ fr. rēch̃* 'they said' prim. f. rēq-s-ŭt* (to rekaq̃, rt. req-, cp. § 462). Indg. ks accordingly remained apart from qs in Baltic-Slav., as in Iran. (§ 401).

Rem. It is not quite clear what the regular treatment of the Indg. group sk̃ was in Balt.-Slav.

After the analogy of Iran. (§ 400) we should expect sz in Lith. and s in Slav. Thus Lith. szdũjsi 'I shoot' O.Bulg. sjq̃ 'I send forth, shoot': OHG. sciozan OS. skrotan 'to shoot' (prim. Germ. skry-*), like Goth. gīdan OHG. giozan beside Gr. χί(ρ)-ω). Correspondingly Othoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 493. 630 (cp. also J. Schmidt Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 332) traces the sz in Lith. oĩszia 'it dawns' pret. oĩszo, auszrd 'dawn' (rt. ayc-, Lat. aur-ŏr-a Skr. uṣ-) and that in Lith. gaiztū gaiztū gaizti 'to linger, loiter' (rt. ghais-, Lat. haer-eō) back to (s)sk̥, according to which one might regard the sz in Lith. maiszgti and the s in O.Bulg. měsiti 'to mingle, mix' (to Skr. mīṣ-vā-s 'mixed') as the representatives of Indg. (k̥)sk̥ (cp. Lat. miscē = mic-sceō*), just as Indg. sk̥, sak̥, kak̥ had fallen together in s in Iranian.

But on the other hand we have: Russ. ščiryj Czech čirý Pol. szczery 'pure, clean, upright' = O.Bulg. štiry-jī* (cp. § 147 p. 134 and Miklosich Vergl. Gramm. I² 288): Goth. skairs 'clear' Ags. scīr 'pure, bright', Skr. chāy-d- 'shade, glimmer' etc., see §§ 393. 400; Lith. jėszkoti O.Bulg. iskoti 'to seek', Lith. dial. pret. su-jėszkau 'I began to seek': OHG. eiscōn 'to seek, ask', Skr. ichāmi 'I seek' (perf. iy-ēṣ-a), Suffix -sko-, see § 400.

Moreover we must bear in mind firstly that a k̥ey-jō* might be present in szāju suja, as not unfrequently roots, which begin with s + tenuis, have old forms without s- (§ 589, 3), secondly that jėszkoti iskoti and štiryjī* might be Germanic loan-words (cp. § 587 rem. 2). The balance as it seems to me, inclines in favour of sk̥ = Lith. sz, Slav. s.

Slav. s̥j = Indg. k̥j became š, e. g. pišq from pīs-jq*. See § 147 p. 134.

§ 415. Indg. g. Lith. širni-s Lett. firni-s 'pea' Pruss. syrne 'corn', O.Bulg. zr̥no 'corn': Skr. jir-vā- 'fallen to pieces, pounded' + Lat. grā-nu-m, Goth. kairn 'corn' (cp. §§ 303. 306), rt. ger- 'to grind'. Lith. žinoti Lett. fināt Pruss. sinnāt (nn like ss in dessimts, § 413) 'to know, recognise', O.Bulg. znati 'to know': + Gr. γ-γνῶ-σκω etc., s. § 382. Lith. bėr̥q-s Lett. bėrf-s Pruss. berse O.Bulg. br̥za 'birch': Skr. bhārja-s a kind of birch + O.Icel. björk OHG. pircha 'birch'. Lith. ošys Lett. āfī-s Pruss. wosee 'goat': Alban. ji etc., s. § 411.

Slav. z̥j = Indg. g̥j became z̥, e. g. žuq fr. zjā-jq*. See § 147 p. 134.

§ 416. Indg. gh fell together with g in the prim. Balt.-Slav. period. Lith. žemà Lett. fīma Pruss. semo O.Bulg. zima 'winter': + Gr. χειμῶν etc., s. § 383. Lith. žāla-s žālė-s Lett. šāl-sch Pruss. acc. saliga-n (g = j) 'green', Lith. šolė Lett. šāle Pruss. acc. sāli-n 'grass, herb', O.Bulg. zelenū 'green' zeliye 'greens, vegetables': Skr. hāri-ṣ etc., s. § 389. Lith. vežti 'I drive' paši-s 'a small sledge' Pruss. vessi-s (ss as in dessimts, § 413) 'a sledging', O.Bulg. veza 'I drive': Skr. vāhāmī etc., s.

§ 383. Lith. šióju O.Bulg. zijaŋa 'I open my mouth wide': + Lat. hiare, OHG. gāren 'to gape'.

Slav. zi = Indg. gh_z became z, e. g. liŋa from liŋ-ia*. See § 147. p. 134.

4. The velar explosives.

§ 417. With regard to the development of q, g, gh the Indg. languages arrange themselves into the same two groups, as they did in the history of the palatals.

In the group, in which k, g, gh appear as explosives, q, g, gh frequently appear as k-sounds with following labialisation (u), as Lat. quis = Indg. qi-s*, or as sounds, which presuppose this articulation, as Umbr. Osc. pis 'quis'. These labialised sounds were originally everywhere, as it seems, simple sounds and in Greek and probably also in Italic had not fallen together with prim. Indg. palatal + u (as in ekyo-s* 'horse'). But the languages of this group do not all uniformly show this affection in each of the words in question. In numerous cases this affection appeared in one language, but not in another.

In the other group, Ar., Armen., Alban. and Balt.-Slav., the u-element is entirely wanting as an old inherited affection.

Here, as in the case of the palatals (§ 380), possibly exists a dialectical difference within the Indg. parent language¹⁾.

In §§ 424 and 466 we shall have occasion to discuss the question of the historical relations between words with and words without labialisation in the u-languages, and whether the group which had no u was without this accessory element from the very beginning or had lost it in prehistoric times.

1) The maintenance of the existence of two dialects in the bosom of the Indg. prim. language on the basis of the differences of development of the palatal and velar explosives, does not imply that we ought to expect also the same boundary for other dialectical differences which we might feel inclined to ascribe to the Indg. prim. language. The limit, within which one dialectical peculiarity is confined, cannot without any further consideration be taken as typical for others. See Paul's Prinzipien der Sprachgeschichte p. 237 f.

The following is the representation of the velar series in the separate Indo-Germanic languages: —

a. Languages with labialisation.

a. The language-group with labialisation.

§ 424. Many kindred words, which are found in all or several y-languages, appear in one language with labialisation, in another without it or in the same language show labialisation in one set of forms, but not in the others.

Manifold difficulties stand in the way of our being able to form a judgment of their history, especially in as much as we do not know how old the labial affection of the velar explosives is, or whether in the group of y-languages it belonged from the beginning to all forms of a form-system irrespective of the quality of the neighbouring sounds, or was connected with some definite vicinity of sounds, and whether, later, but still in prehistoric times, a new y-afterclap, caused by fresh sound-laws, did not here and there make its appearance quite independent of the first y-development.

The chief question is, to what extent can the disappearance of the old inherited y-affection be established or made probable within the circle of the y-languages? It is seldom that its disappearance is to any extent carried out before our eyes, as in Lat. secuntur from sequentur. We may conclude that it was probably dropped in the following cases:

1. When other forms of the same kindred class of words have y and the sound-laws of the respective languages permit our assuming that the labialisation has been lost. We thus assume in regard to Goth. qiman OHG. queman 'to come' (§ 421) and prim. Germ. sum-da-* fr. syum-da-* etc. (§ 180 p. 158) that prim. Germ. kumana-z* 'come' pp. (OHG. koman) arose from kyum-ana-z* (§ 444b).

2. When closely related dialects (of the same language-branch) have y and the native sound-laws are not in the way. Thus the -pt- in Osc. Πομπτις; 'Quinctius' shows that the -ct- in Lat. quīn(c)tu-s goes back to prim. Italic -kst-. O.Cymr. petguar 'four' permits our assuming an older ky- for Ir. cethir.

3. When other languages have y and the native sound-laws are not in the way. We thus conjecture prim. Germ. kyuru-* for Goth. kauru-s 'heavy' and prim. Lat. (or prim. Ital.) g^rrayi-s* for Lat. gravi-s (§ 432d) on account of Gr. βαρύς, Indg. grr-u-* gr-u-*.

Several proofs may often be united together. Thus we may appeal 1. to quīnque, 2. to Osc. Πομπτις, 3. to πέμπτος and Goth. fimfta- for Lat. quīn(c)tu-s from kstenkstto-s*.

Opposed to these cases there are many in which, by virtue of other forms of the same dialect or of the connected forms of a closely related dialect or of those of another u-language, one is inclined to maintain the loss of y, but is prevented from doing so by the sound-laws hitherto discovered. Thus Ion. κό-θεν κῶς etc. beside Att. etc. πό-θεν Lat. quo-d Goth. hva-s as opposed to Ionic ποινή fr. Indg. qoi-na* (§ 427 a); Gr. λακεῖν 'to scream, speak' beside Lat. loquī as opposed to Gr. λαπεῖν ἐπεσθαι etc. with π = Indg. q; Lat. gen. vōc-is vocāre beside Gr. ὄψ 'voice' ἔπος 'word', as opposed to Lat. coquis etc. with qu = Indg. q. With our present state of knowledge we can, in such cases, only make uncertain conjectures, as e. g. that in forms connected with

Lat. roc- the c for qu had been extended by analogy from the nom. ēx, which can be regularly traced back to uōk*'s (§ 431 c).

For words and groups of words, which do not appear in any language with labialised velar-sound, it must for the present be left undecided, as to whether they ever had the u-afterclap. In each language we give first the examples for this form-category apart from the other.

Greek.

1. Indg. q, g, gh without labialisation.

§ 425. Indg. q. καρπ-ός 'fruit' κρῶν-ει-ν 'sickle': Lat. carpō, OHG. herbist 'autumn' + Skr. karpāṇa-s 'sword', Lith. kerpū 'I shear'. κολων-ός 'hill': Lat. ex-cello colli-s, Goth. hallu-s 'rock' O.Icel. hallr 'hill, declivity' OS. holm 'hill' + Lith. kėl-ti 'to raise' kėl-n-a-s 'a local elevation, mountain'. κλη-ς 'key': Lat. clavi-s clavo-s, O.Ir. clōi Mid. Cymr. cloeu pl. 'nails', OHG. sliozan 'to shut' (prim. Germ. slēyt-* from sklēyt-*, § 528 rem. 1) + O.Bulg. klju-čŭ 'hook, key', cp. § 589, 3. ἄγκυ-ν 'bow' ὄγκος 'bow, hook, circuit': Lat. ancu-s uncu-s, O.Ir. ēcath 'hamus', Goth. hals-agga 'neck' OHG. angul 'angle' + Skr. anḱā-s 'hook'.

Indg. g. ἀγείρω 'I collect' ἀγορά 'assembly' γάρ-γαρα 'heap': Lat. gre-x gre-g-is, O.Ir. graiḡ 'herd of horses' (the Lat. and the Kelt. word with 'refracted reduplication') + Skr. grāma-s 'crowd, army, village'. ἐριύγωμαι 'I spit out': ē-rūgō, OHG. itaruchian 'to chew again' + Lith. rūgiu 'I belch' O.Bulg. rygajq sę 'I belch, vomit'.

Indg. gh. χανδάνας 'I lay hold of' fut. χείσομαι fr. χεντρομαι*: Lat. pre-hendō praeda from prae-hedā*, Goth. bi-gitan 'find, get' O.Icel. geta 'to get, divine, guess' + Alban. ḡndem 'I am found', Pruss. sen-gydi 'he may receive, attain' O.Bulg. gadajq 'I guess, divine', rt. *ghed-*¹⁾. λέχος 'bed': O.Ir. lige 'bed', Goth. ligan 'to lie' + O.Bulg. lēgq 'I lie down' lože 'place of rest'.

1) The nasalisation of this root in the present ghendō* is explained in the same manner as the Skr. present formation limpāṇi etc. (p. 189).

*k χλ, γκ = gī ghī, gī became σσ ττ, ζ(σδ) δδ, as in the case of the corresponding palatal sounds + j, see §§ 384-386. 489. 493. 497. ὀρίσσω 'I dig' fr. *ὀρυ-ιω : Lat. runcāre + Skr. luñcāmi 'I pull out, pluck'. φύζα 'right' fr. *φvy-χα, to φεύγω 'I flee' : Lat. fugio, Goth. bingan 'to bend' + Skr. bhugná-s 'bent', Lith. baugù-s 'fearful', rt. ḍkragh-bhug-.

2. Indg. q, g, gh = prim. Gr. kⁿ, gⁿ, khⁿ.

§ 426. The prim. Greek sounds partly became developed to π, β, φ, partly to τ σ, δ ζ, θ, and partly to κ, γ, χ. The conditions, under which these differences of the place of articulation were formed, were mostly the same for the three forms of articulation.

That the η following the explosive sound in prim. Greek was not a full η, can be concluded from the contrast between ἵππος 'horse' (fr. Indg. *ekyo-s, § 166 p. 147) and e. g. ἔλιπον 'I left' (fr. Indg. *e-liq-o-m). Cp. p. 305 f.

§ 427. Prim. Greek kⁿ became a) π before o-vowels, before sonant and consonant nasals and liquids, and before t, th, s. Stem πο- 'who' : Lat. quo-, Skr. ka- etc., see § 419. ποινή 'expiation, atonement, fine' : Av. kaēna 'fine', O.Bulg. cēna 'price', Indg. *qoi-na from rt. gei-, to which also Gr. τί-σι-ς 'atonement' : Skr. āpa-ci-ti- 'requital' (under ḍ). λείπω 'I leave' : Lat. linguō, O.Ir. lécim 'I leave', Goth. leihva 'I lend' + Skr. riṇák-ti 'leaves', Arm. aor. e-lit 'he left', Lith. lėkù 'I leave', rt. leiq-. ἥπα-ρ 'liver', orig. form *jēqy-t- : Lat. gen. sg. jecin-or-is (§ 431 c) + Skr. gen. sg. yakn-ās, Lith. nom. pl. jekn-os. πεμπάς 'the number five' = Skr. pañcāt (§ 448 rem.), cpf. *penqyt-s; Gr. α Skr. a in the last syllable instead of the expected av an (s. §§ 230. 235) are explained by the original accentuation of the weak cases, gen. sg. *penqyt-ās etc.; concerning the δ of the stem πενταδ- see footnote 1 pp. 199-200. ὄμμα 'eye' fr. prim. Gr. *ōm-μα (§ 488) : Lith. aki-s O.Bulg. oko 'eye'. In like manner also πίμμα 'any kind of dressed food' : Lat. cogno + Skr. pācāmi O.Bulg. pekā 'I cook'. ἐπι-άμην 'I bought' : O.Ir. cre-nim 'I buy' crīthid 'desirous of buying' O.Corn. priniid 'emptus' + Skr.

kér-ηθ-mi 'I buy, purchase'. ἐ-πλ-ι-το 'versatus est' (περι-πλ-ό-μενο-ς) πόλο-ς 'the axis on which something turns, land turned up with the plough': Lat. colō fr. quelō* (§ 431 a), in-quillinu-s + Skr. cārami 'I move myself, wander', rt. qel-. πέμπτο-ς 'the fifth': + Lith. peñkta-s etc., see § 419. πεπτό-ς 'cooked': Lat. coctu-s from quecto-s* + Skr. paktá-s; fut. πέπω aor. ἔψα; Lat. coxi from quexi* + Skr. fut. pakṣyá-ti aor. Ved. pákṣa-t. νίπ-τρον 'water for washing' fut. νίπω 'I shall wash' nom. sg. χέρ-νψ 'water for the hands' + Skr. niktá-s 'washed off' fut. nekṣyá-ti 'he will wash off', rt. nejg- (acc. χέρ-νψ-α, Skr. na-nḥj-ana-m 'washing-water').

πτ became ττ in Cret. πέντρο-ς from πεντρο-ς* = πέμπτο-ς 'quintus'. Cp. § 33

b) τ before e- and (sonantal) *i-*vowels. τὲ 'and': Lat. -que, O.Ir. -ch Cymr. -p + Skr. ca, Indg. qe*, related to πό-θεν etc. Hom. ρέο 'whose', Cret. (Gortyn) fem. ὀ-τεῖα, as opposed to Att. ὀ-ποιά 'qualis' from the stem qe-* (§ 419). τέλλειν 'to rise' to πόλο-ς, rt. qel- see above under a. πέντε 'five': Lat. quīnque etc., see § 419. τί 'what?': Lat. quid + Skr. -cid Av. -ciḥ (indef.), Indg. qi-d*. τί-σι-ς 'atonement', rt. qej-, see above under a.

That this τ arose from prim. Gr. kʰ, not k (as § 425), and that no direct historical connexion existed between the palatal articulation which is to be postulated as the previous stage for τ and the Aryan palatal c = Indg. q (§ 445) (as is maintained by some scholars e. g. J. Schmidt), follows from the fact, that τ only occurs in such kindred classes of words as have π = prim. Gr. kʰ beside τ (ρέο beside πό-θεν) and, so far as they are at the same time represented in other μ-languages, have a labialised sound opposite to the Gr. τ (τίς = Lat. quis). If τ had had no μ from the most ancient times, this sound would also have to appear as representative of Indg. q in the words belonging to § 418, as e. g. κέλης 'runner' (Lat. celer, Skr. cal-, rt. qel-), where however it does not occur. The following palatal vowel, notwithstanding the μ-afterclap, caused palatalisation of the k-sound (kʰ from k), just as in the change of prim. Stāv.

kyisti* to O.Bulg. cvisti ('to blossom') μ did not prevent the i from exercising its influence on the k (§ 462).

Thess. κίς probably stands to Att. τίς in the same relation as Mod.HG. quāngen to MHG. trengeu (§ 374), that is, before the disappearance of the μ of the prim. Gr. form k^ui*s this caused the change of the explosive sound back again to k. Also Cypr. σίς = τίς (cp. Arcad. ζέλλω, § 428 b.) supports the assumption that k^u = Indg. q before palatal vowels and Indg. t had not yet fallen together in prim. Greek.

Rem. 1. Through new formations π and τ came to stand in sound-combinations, in which they had not regularly arisen. E. g. Dor. loc. πῆ 'where?' instead of τῆ*, Ion. Att. λίπαις λίπαι λίπαις instead of λίταις* etc., conversely ἀνα-τοῖς 'rising' instead of -ποῖς* (to ἀνα-τίλλω, Skr. car-). Cp. §§ 428 rem. 429 rem. 1 and 448 rem.

c) κ , when v preceded or followed; in some cases this v seems first to have been called into existence by the μ in kv, a point, which still requires closer investigation. λύκο-ς 'wolf': Goth. vulfs + Skr. vṛka-s 'wolf'. Gen. νυκτός 'noctis'? + Skr. nākti-ś Lith. naktis 'night'. Nom. sg. ἀνό-φλυς 'drunk with wine' (gen. -φλυ-ος) φλυκτί-ς 'bladder' beside φλέψ φλεβός 'blood-vessel'. κύκλο-ς 'circle': Aeg. hweōl hweoiol 'wheel' + Skr. cakrā-s 'circle, wheel'. Cp. §§ 428 c. 429 c.

Rem. 2. Also $\kappa\kappa$ in ὄκκο-ν acc. 'eye' in Hesych. (cp. ὀπ- in ὀπή 'a peephole, hole' etc.) for k^u+u? Cp. ὀλκκίω § 166 with rem. Doubts remain on account of Boeot. ὀκταλλο-ς 'eye', whose $\kappa\tau$ must be taken into consideration in connexion with the $q\theta$ in ὀφθαλμός-ς and the kθ in Skr. akṣan-.

d) With following i, there arose σσ, ττ. Hence prim. Gr. k^ui thus fell together with k_i = Indg. k_i (§ 384). Since Indg. q_i and Indg. t_i remained apart in Greek, we may assume that k^ui did not first become t_i — as one might expect according to τίς from k^ui-s* —, but that the 'zetacistic' influence of the i already began, when the explosive sound belonged to the sphere of the back articulation. πέσσω πέττω 'I cook' beside fut. πέψω etc., rt. peg-. Further under § 489.

§ 428. Prim. Greek g^u became a) β before o-vowels and sonant and consonant nasals and liquids. βοῦ-ς 'ox': Umbr. bue 'bove', O.Ir. bō OIIG. chuo 'cow' + Skr. *gāu-*ś 'ox', Armen. kov (gen. kovu) 'cow' O.Bulg. gov-ędo 'ox'. βολή 'a throw, cast': OIIG. quellan 'to spring' (of water) + Skr. gālati 'trickles down', rt. gel-. βροά 'food': Lat. -vorn-s vorare + Skr. girdāmi gildāmi 'I swallow up', Armen. ker (gen. keroy) 'nourishment, food', Lith. geriū 'I drink' O.Bulg. žira 'I swallow', rt. ger-. σίσ-ομαι 'I feel awe, respect' (orig. 'start back before something'): Skr. tyāj-a-ti 'forsakes, forgoes' part. tyakti-, rt. tjeg-. ἔρεβ-ος n. 'darkness': Goth. riqiz-a- etc., see § 421. βά-πω βα-ρό-ς βα-σι-ς = Skr. gā-chāmi ga-tā-s gā-ti-ś, βάινο = Lat. veniō, from rt. form gyn- 'go', see § 421 μνάομαι 'I woo to wife' from *μν-α- from *βν-α- 'wife' (this denominativum was treated as a primitive verb, hence the σ in μνηστό-ς): O.Ir. muā gen. sg. 'of a wife' out of bnās* (§ 520) + Skr. gnā- 'the wife of a god', Indg. gn-a-*; beside these Bæot. βανά O.Icel. kona 'woman' + Armen. pl. kanai-ē 'women', Indg. gyn-a-*. σεμρό-ς fr. *σεβν-ος, part. to σίσ-ο-μαι, see above. ἀμνό-ς 'lamb' fr. *ἀβ-νο-ς: Lat avilla agnu-s, O.Ir. uan 'lamb' + O.Bulg. jagne 'lamb'. βαρύ-ς 'heavy': Goth. kaūru-s + Skr. *gurū-ś 'heavy', Indg. grr-u-s. βε-βρώ-σθω 'I devour' βρω-τίς 'devourer': + Skr. gīr-nā- 'swallowed up', Indg. rt. form gr-, see § 306 p. 242. βρόχω 'I gnash' βρόκω 'I bite' (cp. Osthoff zur Gesch. d. Perf. 313 f.): + Lith. gráušiu 'I gnaw, bite off' O.Bulg. gryza 'I bite', rt. gr-a-ugħ-. ἀβ-ρό-ς 'pretty' from orig. form eg-ro-s*: Lat. uiguō etc., see § 421. βάλλω 'I throw' from orig. form gl-ib*, aor. βαλ-έν βαλ-ῆναι fr. gl-*, aor. βλ-ῆναι fr. gl-*, beside βολ-ῆ, rt. gel-, see above. Aeolic βλῆρ beside Att. δέλιον (b) 'bait' either to βάλλω (the author Morph. Unt. II 225) or to OHG. querdū 'bait' (J. Schmidt Kuhn's Ztschr. XXV 153).

β before ι is remarkable. βίω-ς 'life': Lat. vivo-s etc., see § 421. βίό-ς 'bow': + Skr. jyā- Av. jyā- 'bow-string', Lith. gijā gijē 'thread' (cp. § 120 p. 111 f.). βία 'force' βι-νέω 'I ravish': + Skr. jyā- 'supreme power' ji-nā-mi 'I overpower, subdue' jáy-ami 'I overcome' perf. ji-gáy-a-. Cp. J. Schmidt Kuhn's Ztschr. XXV 159. 161, the author Morph. Unt. IV 410 f.

b) δ before e-vowels. Arcad. δέλλω, Delph. Γορῶνα ὀδελό-ς, to βολ-ή ὀβολ-ός βάλλω, rt. gel-, see a. Arcad. δέρεθρο-ν beside Att. βαρεθρο-ν 'gulf, cleft', to βορ-ά βι-βρώ-σκω, rt. ger-, see a. Locr. Delph. δύλεται Dor. δήλεται 'wills, wishes' from orig. form gél-ne-tai*, beside Lesb. βόλλεται Att. βούλεται 'wills, wishes' fr. orig. form gǫl-né-tai* (§ 204 p. 170 f. § 306 p. 243), rt. *gel*¹).

In Arcad. this δ must have been different from the δ = Indg. d. For it was also represented by ζ: ζέλλω, ζέρεθρον, cp. Cypr. αίς = ρίς § 427 b. Hence Indg. ge- and de- had not yet fallen together in prim. Greek.

Rem. Through new formations, β and δ came to stand in sound-combinations, in which they would not have regularly arisen. E. g. βίλος 'shot' instead of δίλος*; to βάλλω; ὀβολός beside ὀβελός and ὀβολός; δολφός * ή μήτρα Hesych., beside δελφός ἀ-δελφός δελφός; Skr. pārāḥsa 'womb'. Cp. § 427 rem. 1, § 429 rem 1 and § 451 rem.

Does Boeot. βιλετη Thess. βίλλεται beside Locr. δελται Lesb. βόλλεται also belong here? The idea is not entirely to be rejected, since prim. Gr. g^u may regularly have become β before e in Aeol. Cp. β before e in βίλος etc.

c) γ in the vicinity of υ, corresponding to the x in § 427 c and to the χ in § 429 c. Gen. οινό-γλυγ-ος, see § 427 c. ἐγ-γύη 'consent, surety, betrothal': Lat. ponere from gum-eō*, rt. gum-. γογ-γύζω 'grumble, am unwilling' beside βοή 'call' from bof-a*: Skr. jō-gum-e 'I proclaim aloud'; the γ in γόος 'plaint' was transferred from γυ-. γενή beside Boeot. βανά and Hom. μνάομαι see a.

The side by side existence of πρέσβυς and πρέσγυς is probably due to a double stem form πρεσ-γυ- and πρεσ-βε- (to Lith. ẽno-gĩ-s 'man'?). It is not clear whether -βε- was regular after σ (cp. σβ-έννυμι σβ-ήραι to Lat. sẽgni-s, rt. seg-, § 432 d, beside ζειναιμεν * σβέννυμεν in Hesych), or whether β was borrowed from πρέσβιστος πρέσβις πρέσβος; etc. It must be observed that g^u before υ lost its labialisation earlier than g^u which led to β and δ. The last two sounds stood for a time in a closer relation to each other as compared with γυ. Association with the form of the superlative etc. would have taken place at that period.

d) With following i, there arose ζ (ζι), δδ. Prim. Gr. g^hi thus fell together with gi = Indg. gi (§ 385). g^hi did not first become di, any more than k^hi first became ti (427 d) ¹). ζῆν 'lives' fr. *ζῆ-(ι)ει, fut. ζή-σομαι : + Av. iyaiti-iyatu 'life'. ῥίζω 'I wash off' beside ῥίπρω-ν etc., see § 427 a. For the rest see § 493.

§ 429. Prim. Greek kh^h became

a) q before o-vowels and sonant and consonant nasals and liquids. φόν-ος 'murder' part. φα-ρό-ς perf. πέ-φα-ται pret. ἔ-πε-φν-ο-ν : + Skr. hán-ti 'strikes, slays' 3. pl. ghn-ánti, Armen. gan 'blows', O.Bulg. žin-ja 'I cut down, reap', rt. ghen. ἡλφ-ο-ν 'I acquired' pres. ἀλφ-ά-νω from *ϣνῶ : + Skr. árhāmi 'I earn, deserve' arghá-s 'worth, price', Lith. algà 'pay, reward', rt. algh. στέργος τίργος n. 'leather, hide', esp. 'the hard hide on the back of animals' : Lat. tergus 'thick hide' esp. 'the hide on the back of animals', then 'back'. νεφρό-ς 'kidney' : OHG. nioro etc., see § 423. ἐλαφρό-ς 'quick, dextrous, nimble' : OHG. lungar, cpf. hagh-ró-s*; to ελαχύ-ς, see c.

b) θ before e-vowels. θείνω pres. to επεφνον etc., see a. θερμό-ς warm' = Armen. ferm 'warm', θέρος 'summer' = Skr. háras 'glowing heat', rt. gher-, see § 423. θέσσασθαι 'to obtain by entreaties' fr. *θετ-σ- : Av. jaidyēmi, O.Pers. jadtyāmiy 'I beg, ask', rt. ghedh-; to which probably also πόθο-ς 'desire, a longing for', from *φθο-ς (§ 496), according to a. θήρ 'animal' : Lat. feru-s + O.Bulg. (d)zvěř 'wild beast' from prim. Slav. gyěri* (§ 464); it remains uncertain whether the y of the Slav. form was an old inherited y (J. Schmidt Kuhn's Ztschr. XXV 178).

Rem. 1. Through new formations q and θ came to stand in sound-combinations, in which they would not have regularly arisen. E. g. ῥίπ-νι it snows after ῥίπω- (in ῥιπόμενος and others) ῥίπ-α etc., rt. sneigh-, see § 423. ἡλφ-ε after ἡλφ-ο-ν etc. ἐ-θνε-ς 'he died', 3. pl. perf. τε-θνε-άν (for τε-φνε-άν*) after θείνω (s. above), see Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 368 f. Cp § 427 rem. 1. § 428 rem. and 454 rem.

1) Hence we have also no right to maintain, that ζῆν proves, that βίος stands for regular di*-o-.

$\varphi = \theta$ in Aeol. $\varphi\eta\rho$ (Thess. $\Phi\lambda\acute{o}\text{-}\varphi\epsilon\iota\rho\text{-}\varsigma$) seems to be due to a change of β to f , cp. §§ 365. 495.

Rem. 2. If $\beta =$ Indg. gs should have arisen regularly in Aeol. (§ 428 b. rem.), we might similarly trace $\varphi\eta\rho$ directly back to $*\kappa\lambda^{\nu}\epsilon\rho$.

c) χ corresponding to the x in § 427 c and to the γ in § 428 c. $\delta\nu\chi$ - 'nail, claw' in the gen. $\delta\nu\chi\text{-}\alpha\varsigma$ etc. : Lat. unguis; it is here of course a question of prim. Gr. kh^* = Indg. gh (§ 553). $\epsilon\lambda\alpha\chi\acute{\upsilon}\text{-}\varsigma$ 'small, little' = Skr. raghú- \acute{s} laghú- \acute{s} 'quick, small' beside $\epsilon\lambda\alpha\phi\rho\acute{o}\text{-}\varsigma$ 'quick' see a; the θ in $\epsilon\lambda\alpha\theta\rho\acute{o}\text{-}\varsigma$ (Hesych.) was perhaps transferred from the once existing forms $\epsilon\lambda\alpha\theta\epsilon\varsigma f$ - (beside $\epsilon\lambda\alpha\chi\upsilon$ -) and $\epsilon\lambda\alpha\theta\iota\sigma\tau\alpha\text{-}\varsigma$.

d) with following i , there arose $\sigma\sigma$, $\tau\tau$. $\epsilon\lambda\acute{\alpha}\sigma\sigma\omega\upsilon\upsilon$ $\epsilon\lambda\acute{\alpha}\tau\tau\omega\upsilon\upsilon$ 'smaller, less' compar. to $\epsilon\lambda\alpha\chi\acute{\upsilon}\text{-}\varsigma$ (c). Cp. §§ 427 d. 428 d. 497.

Italic.

2. Indg. q, g, gh = prim. Ital. k^u, g^u, χ^u.

§ 431. Prim. Ital. k^u became a) Lat. qu before all vowel qualities except *u*¹), corresponding to p in Umbr.-Samn. Lat. qui-s, Umbr. Osc. pi-s 'quis': Gr. τίς etc., see § 427 b. Lat. -que, Umbr. -pe Osc. -p: Gr. τὸ etc., see § 427 b. Umbr. petur- 'quadru-' Osc. petiro-pert 'quater': Gr. τέσσαρ-ες etc., see § 419. Lat. quīnque, Umbr. pumpeřias Osc. pumperias '*quintiliae' (cp. § 336): Gr. πέντε etc., see § 419. Lat. quo-m quom-que, Umbr. pon-ne Osc. pūn 'quom' fr. k^uom-de* (§ 207), Umbr. pum-pe 'quomque': Gr. πό-θηρ etc., see § 419. Lat. coquō fr. quequō*, probably Osc. popina 'coquina' (§ 336): Gr. πέπων 'ripe' πόπανο-ν 'sacrificial cake', Mid. Cymr. popurys 'pistrix' (O.Ir. cucann 'pistrinum' was a Lat. loan-word) + Skr. pācāmi O.Bulg. pekā 'I cook', rt. peq-. Lat. quā qua-m, Umbr. pař-e 'quas' Osc.

1) There is no satisfactory foundation for Bersu's assumption (Die Gutturale n. p. 134 ff.) that the labial affection had disappeared before o in prehistoric Latin and had been restored again in quod līnguō etc. by form-association.

paa-m acc. 'quam' : Goth. hvō fem. 'quae', s. § 419. Lat. quoquo-s 'cook', prim. Ital. k^uok^uo-s* fr. pok^uo-s* (s. above); the form coquo-s (cocu-s) had its co- through analogy to coquō.

That k^u = Indg. q was still distinguished from Indg. k_y in prim. Ital., follows from Umbr. ekvine loc. 'equini' (Skr. áśva-s etc.), in case this word was not borrowed from Lat. The Ital. form epo- is of Gallic origin. Cp. § 426.

Anteconsonantal que- became co- in Latin. coquō from quequō*, s. above. colō fr. quelō*, incola fr. -quela* beside inqui-līnu-s : Gr. τέλλω πόλο-ς etc., see § 427 a. b. cottī-diē fr. quettī-, s. § 419. This sound-change took place at the same time as mesōr etc. became soror, see § 172, 3. inquīlīnu-s shows that this change is younger than the weakening of e to i in unaccented syllables (§ 65 p. 53), and thus also forms like linguis linguitis (cp. Gr. ἑλπιες ἑλπιετε), in like manner probably also sequere fr. sequiso* (Gr. ἔπειο), regularly came by their qu.

Rem. 1. The ye in queren-s remains unclear. See Windisch in Kuhn-Schleicher's Beitr. VIII 39, W. Meyer Literaturbl. f. germ. u. rom. Phil. 1885 p. 154.

In the eighth century U. C. quo- became cu-. sequuntur : secuntur, -loquos : -locus, aequos : aecus, quom : cum, quomque : cunque, quīqu-onx* : quīnc-unx (cp. O.Lat. uncia) etc. See Bersu Die Gutturalen p. 53 ff. Correspondingly ecus fr. equos, see § 172, 2. sequuntur, -loquus, equus etc. were later new formations after forms with qu+ē, ē etc. as sequitur, -loquē.

qu passed into c, when it became final. ne-c from ne-que. ac fr. at-c* (cp. quicquam § 367) from atque

Rem. 2. It seems to me very doubtful whether the e in Lat. vermi-s, verrere, vellere, in-vītu-s, vapor, is a regular continuation of qu- (k_y-) (cp. Bersu in the above named work 144 f. 151 f., Stolz Lat. Gramm. § 48).

b) Lat. c before prim. Lat. u. Stem arcu- beside arqui-tenēns : Goth. arhvazna f. 'arrow, dart'. quīncu-plex a new formation after quadru-plex. secūtu-s locūtu-s, to sequor loquor, new formations after solūtu-s, volūtu-s.

c) Lat. c before consonants, especially before t, s. coctu-s fr. quecto-s* (a) : Gr. πεπτό-ς, in like manner coxī : ἑνδψα.

in-section-es 'narrationes' in-sexit 'dixerit' beside in-seque (see Bersu p. 125) in-quam (fr. in-squa-m*): Gr. ἐν-σπ-ε-ν 'I said' fut. ἐν-σπῆσω, O.Ir. in-sce 'speech' O.Bret. hepp 'inquit' + Lith. sakýti 'to say' O.Bulg. sokŭ 'informer, accuser'. unctus unxi beside unguō, see § 421. quīn(ō)tu-s: Gr. πέντε-ς, Goth. fimfta; the Osc. form Πομπιτις shows, as was already remarked in § 424, that the labialisation before t had not yet disappeared in prim. Ital. Lat. jecur jecin-oris, beside Gr. ἥπαρ-, seems to have developed c regularly in the stem-form jekʷn-* (Skr. yakn-, Lith. jekn-, see § 427 a), after jecn-* then also jecin-. The c in socius beside sequor (Gr. ἀ-σσητήρ 'helper' with σσ fr. kʷi § 427 d, Skr. sacya- 'meet to be assisted, valued', rt. seq-) and in col-liciae beside liqueō is easily understood from the older sound-combination kʷi, see § 135, and likewise the c in coculu-m beside coquō and in torculu-s beside torqueō, is to be explained from older kʷl (s. § 269); musculu-s may also have arisen from an older muskʷlo-s* (§ 419).

Rem. 3. The relation of Lat. u-ter u-bi nē-cubī etc. to Umbr. podruh-peī 'utroque' pu-fe 'ubi' Osc. pātúrús-píd 'utrique' pu-f 'ubi', still remains for the present enigmatical, see Corssen Krit. Nachtr. 26 ff., Bersu p. 138. May we perhaps assume that the three stems u-, qu- (Skr. kū-tra) and go- had become mixed? Op. also § 604 rem. 2.

Rem. 4. The view, that Indg. q occasionally appears as p in pure Lat. words, is to be rejected. See Bersu p. 143, Stolz Lat. Gramm. § 48.

§ 432. Prim. Ital. gu became a) Lat. gu, Umbr. b after u. Lat. unguō unguen, Umbr. ūmen 'unguen' fr. umben* (§ 506): Skr. añji-ś 'salve', see § 421. Lat. stinguō: + Skr. tigmá-s 'sharp, violent' Av. tiy-ra- 'pointed'. Lat. inguen: O.Icel. ekkr 'tumor' ekkrœnn 'swollen'.

Lat. stingunt fr. stinguont, like secuntur, see § 431 a p. 320.

b) Lat. v, Umbr.-Samn. b initially before sonantal vowels (except u). Lat. veniō, Umbr. benust 'venerit' Osc. kúm-bened perf. 'convenit': Gr. βαίvo etc., rt. gem-, see § 421. Lat. vivo-s, Osc. bivus pl. 'vivi': + Skr. jivá-s etc., see § 421. Lat. veru, Umbr. berus 'verubus': O.Ir. bir 'sting, spit, spear' Cymr. ber Corn. ber 'veru'. Lat. -volu-s volāre: Gr. βολή βίλλω etc., rt.

gel-, see § 428. -voru-s vorāre : Gr. βορά etc., see § 428 a. Lat. valēre : + Lith. galėti 'to be able'.

Rem. 1. Lat. b- = g- is probably to be denied. bōs can be explained as an Oscan loan-word, likewise baetere, in case it belonged to a root beginning with g- (some compare Osc. baiteis, to which they give the meaning 'baetis', and Umbr. e-bet-raf-e with the supposed meaning 'in exitus').

c) Lat. v between sonantal vowels. avilla beside agnu-s : Gr. ἀνός etc., see § 428 a. nādu-s fr. no(g)yedo-s* : Goth. naqaps 'naked' + Skr. nag-nā- Lith. nūga-s O.Bulg. naγū 'naked'.

That -rg- has become -rv- in Lat., does not seem to me to be proved with certainty. The bringing together of torvo-s with Gr. τάφος n. 'fright, terror' Skr. tārjāmi 'I threaten, abuse, frighten', is not free from objection; the other conjectures, hitherto made, are quite doubtful.

d) Lat. g before consonants. agnu-s beside avilla, see c. ēgni-s : Gr. ἐξ-ῆναι 'to cease, become still, go out'. gr-avi-s : Skr. ā-gr-u-ṣ 'young womanish' (s. § 290 p. 232). migrāre : Gr. ἀμίσθω 'I change', rt. meig-. glāns : Gr. πάλαρο-ς 'acorn' + Armen. kain (gen. kainoy) Lith. glė O.Bulg. želqā 'acorn'. ablaut gl-gll- gel-, cp. § 291, 3.

Rem. 2. If g in gula gulo gurgulio gurgus, which represent the rt. form gll- gr- (§ 297), had arisen from g^h- which however may be doubted on account of Gr. γᾱγγᾱστῆρ γᾱγγᾱστο-ς and O.Ir. gelim 'I consume, devour' (on the interchange r : l cp. § 282), on its account and at the same time in consideration of guru-s 'stupid, silly' (: βραδύ-ς 'slow, lazy') it must be assumed that orig. g^hr- g^hl- was differently treated from orig. g^hor- g^hol- : in the former case the labialisation would have been dropped, before r, l became or, ol. Then cultu-s beside colō fr. quelō* (cp. pulsu-s : pellō) would probably also have to be traced back first of all to k^hlo-s*, the latter to k^hlto-s*.

§ 433. Prim. Italic x^h became

a) Lat. gu after u. ninguit : Gr. νίψαι + Lith. sniūga 'it snows', rt. sneigh-, s. § 423. angui-s anguilla : O.Ir. esc-ung 'eel' (esc 'swamp') + Skr. āhi-ṣ 'snake' Av. aži-ṣ 'dragon', Lith. angl-s 'snake'. Beside these Umbr. ninctu 'ninguito', with which fiktu 'figito' (O.Lat. ficere beside figere) is parallel.

b) Lat. gu*, further v between sonantal vowels. Apc. niv-em

= Gr. νλq-α, beside ninguit (ninguem a new formation to nīcēm like con-junx beside con-fux) and nom. niz (§§ 431c. 552). In like manner cō-nīvēō beside cō-nīxī nīctāre: Goth. hneican 'to bow', rt. kneigh-. g occurs in Umbr. in co-negos ku-nikaz 'conixus'.

c) Lat. f both initially and medially before r; in the latter case f passed into b (§ 509).

formu-s: Goth. varmjān 'to warm' + Skr. gharmā-s 'glowing heat'; fornu-s, later furnu-s: + Skr. ghr-ṇā-s 'glowing heat', rt. gher-, see § 423. feru-s fera: Gr. θῆρ etc., see § 429b. frið: Gr. χρίω 'I rub over'. fremð, frendō (§§ 207. 349): Gr. χεῖμα 'I neigh' χεῖμο-ς 'noise, a lowing, neighing' Goth. gramjan 'to make furious' OHG. gram 'fierce, angry' + O.Bulg. gromŭ 'thunder'. In the case of the two last words the assumption of labialised prim. Ital. χ has, it is true, no support outside Italic.

Praenest. nefrōn-es Lanuv. nebrundin-es: Gr. νεφρό-ς etc., see § 423.

Rem. That initial and medial *χ passed into f before r (whence b medially), but otherwise medially into gr, brings to mind the relation fūmu-s: rubrī: mediu-s (§ 370).

Old Irish.

1. Indg. q, g, gh without labialisation.

§ 434. Indg. q. O.Ir. cara Cymr. car 'friend': Lat. cāru-s, Goth. hōrs 'fornicator' + Lett. kārs 'covetous, lascivious' kār-dīnāt 'to lead into temptation'. O.Ir. canaim 'I sing', O.Corn. cheniat 'cantor': Lat. canō etc., see § 430. O.Ir. crū Cymr. crau Corn. crow 'blood': Gr. κράς etc., see § 418.

ēcath (pronounce ēgaþ) 'hamus': + Skr. anākā-s etc., see §§ 212. 513.

O.Ir. cuach Cymr. cog 'cuckoo': Gr. κόκκυξ Lat. cucūlu-s MHG. kuckuk + Skr. kōkīlā-s 'cuckoo', Lith. kukū'ti 'to call cuckoo' O.Bulg. kukavica 'cuckoo'. See § 514.

O.Ir. ōs uas 'above, over', Cymr. uch 'above', Gall. Uxello-dānu-m 'Hightown': Gr. αὔξω 'I increase', Lat. auxiliu-m 'increase, reinforcement' + Lith. dukszta-s 'high'. See § 517.

Indg. g. O.Ir. gair 'call', Cymr. gawr 'clamor': Gr. γῆνός etc., see § 420.

O.Ir. tech teg 'house', O.Bret. bou-tig 'stabulum': Gr. στῆγος etc., see § 420. O.Ir. ōg 'uninjured, whole': Lat. augeō etc., see 430. See § 522.

Indg. gh = prim. Kelt. g. O.Ir. in-grennim 'I pursue': Lat. gradior etc., see § 430.

O.Ir. lige 'bed': Gr. λέχος etc., see § 425. See § 526.

2. Indg. g, g, gh with labialisation.

§ 435. k_u and g_u (latter = g and gh), with full developed u, may be put down as prim. Kelt. Since there is no trace of a difference between these and Indg. palatal sound + u: op. Gall. epo- prim. Brit. epo*- (Cymr. ebol 'foal', § 390 p. 293) O.Ir. ech 'horse' = Indg. ek_uo*-.

The treatment of the various forms of articulation was just as little uniform as in Italic.

§ 436. Prim. Kelt. k_u appears in Irish as c, in Brit. and Gall. as *p*¹⁾. O.Ir. cethir 'four', O.Brit. Περωαρία a town (Ptol.), O.Cymr. petguar Corn. pesuwar Bret. pevar 'four', Gall. petor-ritum 'a four-wheeled chariot': Gr. τέσσαρες etc., see § 419. O.Ir. cōic O.Cymr. pimp Corn. pym Bret. pemp 'five', Gall. πεμπ-δουλα πεντάφυλλον (Dioscor.) from prim. Kelt. k_uenok_ue* (§ 339), Indg. penoqe*, see § 419. O.Ir. cruim Cymr. pryf 'worm' (prim. Kelt. k_urim_i*-): + Skr. k_umi-§ Alban. krimb-i Lith. kirmėlė 'worm'. O.Ir. co-se 'a setting right, punishment' Cymr. co-sp: Gr. ἐν-σπ-ε-ν 'I said', rt. seq. O.Ir. sesc 'unfertil', Cymr. hysp 'dry, withered', prim. Kelt. sisk_uo-s*: Lat. siccus, cpf. sit-qo-s* (§§ 419. 516).

O.Ir. cōic (pronounce cōig) 'five' fr. prim. Kelt. k_uenok_ue* (cp. above). See §§ 212. 513.

O.Ir. ain-ech en-ech 'face' Cymr. Corn. Bret. en-sp: Gr. ἐν-ωνή 'countenance', Lat. oculu-s + Lith. aki-s O.Bulg. oko (gen. očese) 'eye'. See § 514.

1) In Gall. probably dialectically also still k_u, in Sequana.

kyt probably became kt in prim. Kelt., then further cht, so that this combination fell together with pt and kt (§§ 515. 517). In Prim. Kelt. kt from kyt stood beside ky, as in Lat. coctus lictus beside coquō linguō. O.Ir. nocht Cymr. noeth, Corn. noyth 'naked': Goth. nagaþs etc., see § 432 c. O.Ir. snechta 'snow' from ri. sneigh- (cp. § 552). Perhaps also here O.Ir. in-nocht 'hac nocte', Cymr. peu-noeth 'quavis nocte', since the v in G. veř seems to point to labialised q (§ 427 c).

Rem. From the form maga- (gen. magi) 'son' (Cymr. map), found on the Ogam inscriptions (p. 9), it cannot be concluded with certainty that ky was still generally spoken in Irish for intervocalic c at the time these inscriptions were written. In the first place it is a question how the 'status durus' in O.Ir. mac macc beside en-ech 'facies' and ech 'horse' is to be regarded (cp. § 514). A satisfactory explanation of the non-aspiration of the c in this word, as also in the forms mucc 'pig' (Cymr. moch: Gr. ἀπορίσθω 'I blow my nose' μωρῆ 'nose', Lat. mūcu-s 'mucus of the nose' + Skr. mūlādāti 'lets loose, lets out' also used of bodily secretions, Lett. mukt 'to flee' Lith. maškėti 'to strip, let glide'), cacc 'excrement' (Skr. śākan- 'sterous', Lith. szikū 'caco'), lēicim 'I leave', that is, leiky-iō* (Gr. leino etc., see § 427 a), has, so far as I know, not yet been given.

§ 437. Prim. Kelt. gy = Indg. g became a) Ir. Brit. b initially. O.Ir. biu beo Cymr. byu 'alive': Lat. vīvo-s etc., see § 421. O.Ir. bō Mid.Cymr. buch 'cow': Gr. βοῦς etc., see § 428 a. O.Ir. ben 'woman', O.Corn. benen 'sponsa': Goth. qinō + Armen. kin Pruss. genna (i. e. gēna) O.Bulg. žena 'woman'; O.Ir. gen. mnā fr. bnās*: Gr. μνάουαι etc., see § 428 a. O.Ir. at-bail 'perit' 3. pl. at-balat: OHG. quelan 'to have a violent pain' Ags. cicelan 'to die' + Lith. gėlti 'to feel great pain' giltinė the goddess of death, O.Bulg. žalti 'pain, grief' fr. gēlt* (§ 76), rt. gel-. O.Ir. broo brō (gen. broon) Cymr. breuan 'mill-stone': + Skr. grāvan- 'stone for pressing out the soma-juice'. O.Ir. brāge (gen. brāgal) 'neck': Gr. βράχθεος βρόγχοος 'throat', MHG. krage 'neck, gullet' (rt. ger- 'swallow?').

b) Ir. g before u. O.Ir. guth 'voice, word' fr. gu-tu-s*, to Gr. γυ- beside βο(φ)-ή, see § 428 c.

c) Ir. Brit. g medially before n. O.Ir. uan Cymr. oen 'lamb': Gr. ἀνρό-ς etc., see § 428 a. On the transformation of -gn- cp. § 523.

§ 438. From prim. Kelt. gy = Indg. gh we may a priori assume that it was treated like gy = Indg. g.

a) Initially. Words with b- are unknown to us. O.Ir. gonim 'I wound, kill' perf. 3. sg. geguin is remarkable, since this word seems to belong to Gr. γόνο-ς rt. ghen- (§ 429 a. b.).

b) Medially. With b after a nasal O.Ir. imb imm (gen. imne) 'butter', Cymr. ymen-yn, stem imben-* = Lat. unguen, OHG. ancho, see § 421. Beside these Mid.Ir. esc-ung 'eel': Lat. angui-s etc., see § 433 a. Cp. also Mid.Ir. inga O.Cymr. eguin 'nail': Lat. ungui-s etc. with Indg. gh (§§ 429 c. 553). On what this difference of treatment depends, I cannot say.

O.Ir. snigid 'it drops': Gr. ρίφα etc., see § 423. O.Ir. laigiú Mid.Cymr. llei 'minor': Gr. ἐλαφρό-ς ἐλαχύ-ς etc., see § 429 a. c

2. Indg. q, g, gh with labialisation.

§ 440. Pre-Germanic q, g, gh became through the sound-shifting in prim. Germ. χu (zu), ku, zu. The labialisation may be put down as a full u, since no trace of a difference exists beside the combination palatal sound + u. Cp. u. g. on the one hand Goth. leiha 'I lend' = Gr. λείνω rt. leiq-, Goth. hva OHG. was 'what' = Lat. quo-d st. go-* and on the other hand Goth. aihva 'horse' (in aihva-tundi 'βάρος') = Skr. āśva- Indg. ekwo-*, Goth. hveits OHG. wīz 'white' fr. rt. hweid- (§ 397); further prim. Germ. snī(χ)uībi* 'it snows' = Indg. snēigheti* or snīghéti* with the same dropping of the χ as in ma(χ)u-i* (Goth. mavi) 'girl', fem. to Goth. mag-u-s 'boy' (see §§ 443. 444 c).

§ 441. Prim. Germ. χu, zu = Indg. q̄.

Goth. ahva OHG. aha 'water': Lat. aqua. Goth. þeiþvō f. 'thunder' from prim. Germ. þeoχμōn* (§ 67, 1. § 214): + O.Bulg. taǵa fr. tonk-ǵa* 'thunder-shower'. Goth. arhvazna 'dart': Lat. arqui-tenēns, see § 431 b.

Goth. siuns OS. siun O.Icel. sjōn 'a seeing, face', prim. Germ. se(ʒ)u-nf-s*, to Goth. saiþvan. Other examples of this nature § 444 c.

On the cases, in which f or þ appear for χμ, ʒμ and in which μ has disappeared after χ, ʒ, see § 444.

§ 442. Prim. Germ. κμ = Indg. g. Goth. gius (st. giva-) OHG. quec O.Icel. kvíkr 'alive': Gr. βίo-ς etc., see § 421. Goth. giman (pret. gam) 'to come', OHG. queman (pret. quam) O.Icel. pret. kvam: Skr. gám-a-ti etc., see § 421. Goth. qinō OHG. quena 'wife' O.Icel. gen. pl. kvenna (concerning the nom. sg. kona see § 444 b): O.Ir. ben + Armen. kín O.Bulg. žena, see § 437 a. Goth. asilu-quairnu-s 'μύλος ὀνίξ', 'mill-stone', OHG. chwirna 'mill-stone, mill', O.Icel. kvern 'mill': + Lith. gírnuos pl. 'mill-stones, mill' O.Bulg. žrǣny 'mill'. Goth. riqis (st. riqiz-a-) 'darkness': Gr. ἔρεβος etc., see § 421. Goth. naqap̃s 'naked': Lat. nūdu-s etc., see § 432 c. Goth. siggan OHG. sinchan O.Icel. sökkva 'to sink': Gr. εἶβω 'I let fall in drops, pour down' (for εἶβω*, cp. § 564), rt. seig-, a secondary form of seig- (Skr. siñcāti 'pours forth', OHG. sīhan 'to filter'); the pret. Goth. sagg OHG. sanch O.Icel. sǫkk arose through passing into the analogy of bindan: band (rt. bhendh-) etc. (cp. § 67 rem. 1).

On p for κμ and the cases in which μ had disappeared after k, see § 444.

§ 443. Prim. Germ. ʒμ = Indg. gh. Goth. varmjan 'to warm', OHG. warm O.Icel. varmr 'warm': Lat. formu-s etc., see § 423. Goth. snáivs OHG. snēo (gen. snēwes) O.Icel. snær

(gen. snævar) 'snow', prim. Germ. snaj(z)u-a-z*, OHG. snūwit Ags. snūceð 'it snows', infin. MHG. snūwen 'to snow', part. O.Icel. snivenn 'covered with snow': Gr. νίψ-α etc., see § 423. Goth. hneivan 'to bow': Lat. cō-nīveō, root kneigh-, see § 433 b. OHG. nioro m. O.Icel. nýra n. 'kidney', prim. Germ. ne(z)u-rōn*: Gr. νεφρός etc., see §§ 423. 433 c.

On prim. Germ. z fr. zu see § 444 b.

§ 444. The following changes, which concerned the labialised sounds, as such, took place in the period of the prim. Germ. community.

a) p-sounds for the k_y-sounds.

f for χ_y = Indg. q. uulfa-z* 'wolf', Goth. vulfs OHG. wolf O.Icel. ulfr: Gr. λύκο-ς (§ 427 c) + Skr. vṛka-s, Indg. uļgo-s* 'wolf'. Goth. fidōr OHG. fior Ags. fyðer O.Icel. fjörer 'four': Gr. τέσσαρ-ις, Indg. getyer-, see § 419. fimfi 'five', Goth. fimf OHG. finf finf Ags. fif O.Icel. fimm: Gr. πέντε, Indg. petoqe*, see § 419. Less certain is OHG. forha 'pine' vereh-eih Lango-Bard. fereha 'aesculus': Lat. quercu-s querqueu-s, see § 431 rem. 1.

b for χ_y = Indg. q. By the side of uulfa-z* stood a fem. uulbi* 'she-wolf', by § 530 fr. Indg. uļqⁱ* (Skr. vṛkī), hence OHG. wulpa MHG. wülpe, cp. § 532. Beside this O.Icel. ylgr 'she-wolf', the g of which arose regularly in the cases with suffix-form -ið-, e. g. gen. uulzu-iðs*; u was here forced out.

p for k_y = Indg. g. Goth. vairpan OHG. werfan O.Icel. verpa 'to throw': + Skr. vr̥ṇākti 'throws to the ground' perf. vavārja, O.Bulg. vṛga 'I throw'. OHG. sweifan 'to set in revolving motion, swing, meander' Ags. swēpan 'to swing': + Lith. svažksti 'I become dizzy' pret. svažgū, svažgūj-s 'dizziness' svažginėjū 'I stagger with dizziness'.

This transition to p-sounds seems to have been occasioned by an y in the preceding or following syllable (dissimilation).

Rem. 1. So far as I can see, the only difficulty lies with finf. It is possible that the orig. form was k_yenokye* as in Ital. and Kelt. (§§ 336. 339). Hence k_yempe* like smēip-* fr. smēik_y*, further pempe* through assimilation of the initial sound to the medial p or to the initial sound of the word for four? Or did Indg. petoqe* become pemp*, i- Germ. directly by assimilation? On these p-sound for q-sounds, see now also Kluge in Paul-Braune's Beitr. XI 560 ff.

b) Loss of the labialisation before u (cp. § 180).

$\mathfrak{z}(u) =$ Indg. q (§ 530). 1. pl. pret. * $\mathfrak{s}\mathfrak{z}(u)umi$ 'saw' (Goth. sathvan), * $\mathfrak{l}\mathfrak{z}(u)umi$ 'lent' (Goth. leihvan) etc.; Ags. sægon O.Fris. sāgen. Goth. sēhvum OHG. sahun Ags. sāwon (beside sægon) were new formations.

$k(u) =$ Indg. g. Part. * $k(u)umana-$ 'come' OHG. komau Ags. cumen O.Icel. komenn; OHG. quoman Goth. qumans were new formations. * $k(u)uru-s$ 'heavy' Goth. kaúru-s: Gr. βαρύς Skr. gurú-ś, see § 428 a. * $k(u)unð$ 'wife' O.Icel. kona: Bæt. þavá, see § 428 a. * $\mathfrak{s}un\mathfrak{k}(u)umi$ 'we sunk' OHG. sunchun; Goth. suggum was a new formation.

$\mathfrak{z}(u) =$ Indg. gh. * $\mathfrak{z}(u)unþið$ 'battle' O.Low Germ. gadea O.Icel. gunnr = Skr. hatjā- 'a killing' Lith. ginczià 'strife' (cp. § 249); to these Gr. γα-ρός γόνος etc., rt. ghen-, see § 420 a. § 438 rem. * $\mathfrak{z}ni\mathfrak{z}(u)umi$ 'we bowed': OHG. nigun Ags. hnizon O.Icel. knigum Goth. hniþum was a new formation.

c) $\mathfrak{z}u$ became u, a change, which befell every $\mathfrak{z}u$ that still remained over after the action of the sound-law, named under b.

$(\mathfrak{z})u =$ Indg. q. * $\mathfrak{s}e(\mathfrak{z})u-ni-s$ 'face' Goth. siuns etc., see § 441. * $\mathfrak{t}e(\mathfrak{z})u-\delta$ f. 'arrangement' Goth. tēva, to OHG. gi-zehōn 'to arrange, regulate', Gr. ἡμερο-ν 'meal, meal-time' (fr. ἡμερο-ν*, § 639), rt. deg-. * $\mathfrak{a}(\mathfrak{z})u-ið$ 'marshy country, island' (adj. formation, properly 'the watery', to Goth. ahva OHG. aha 'water', § 441); OHG. auwa ouwa O.Icel. ey pl. eyjar. Part. * $\mathfrak{l}\mathfrak{i}(\mathfrak{z})u-aná-s$ 'lent' (Skr. ri-ric-ānā-s, to Goth. leihvan) OHG. -liwan. Optative stem * $\mathfrak{s}e(\mathfrak{z})u-i-$ (to Goth. sathvan 'to see') OS. gi-sāwi pl. -sāwin.

$(\mathfrak{z})u =$ Indg. gh. * $(\mathfrak{z})uar-ma-$ 'warm' and other examples see § 443.

Rem. 2. Therefore towards the close of the prim. Germ. period there stood side by side: pres. * $\mathfrak{l}\mathfrak{i}u\mathfrak{z}$ (Goth. leiha): pret. indie. pl. * $\mathfrak{l}\mathfrak{i}gumi$: pret. opt. * $\mathfrak{l}\mathfrak{i}u\mathfrak{i}$ - part. * $\mathfrak{l}\mathfrak{i}uana-$; * $\mathfrak{z}ni\mathfrak{u}\mathfrak{z}$ (Goth. hneiva): * $\mathfrak{z}ni\mathfrak{z}umi$: * $\mathfrak{z}ni\mathfrak{u}\mathfrak{i}$ - * $\mathfrak{z}ni\mathfrak{u}ana-$. The paradigms of the separate Germanic dialects were brought about by manifold levellings. The prim. Germ. phonetic position was nowhere purely retained.

Rem. 3. If Goth. augō OHG. ouga O.Icel. auga n. 'eye' belongs to Gr. ὄψ-ωπ-α, Lith. akl-s etc., the form must be explained from an old stem-change aj(u)-un-* (Indg. oǵ-u-) and a(ǵ)u-u- a(ǵ)u-én-* : aj-* and au-* became amalgamated to auǵ- in prim. Germ.

d) ǵu became gu after a nasal, and then this remained (§§ 530. 538). Hence prim. Germ. sinǵyidi* 'sings' Goth. siggvīþ. This verb however has not been etymologically satisfactorily explained, the root was probably senǵh- or seǵ-.

e) χut became χt. sexti-* 'sight, face' (to Goth. salthvan) OHG. siht OS. gi-siht. lexta-* lχta-* 'light, easy' (§ 214) Goth. leihts OHG. liht O.Icel. léttr, to Gr. ἐλαφρό-ς ἐλαχρύ-ς etc., s. § 429 a. c.; χt was here = Indg. gh+t, concerning which s. § 552. fimfta- = Indg. penǵto-* has possibly preserved a trace of the labialisation once present, see above a with rem. 1.

The phonetic position, which was called into existence by these prim. Germ. changes, was on the whole preserved free from new shiftings in Goth.

Rem. 4. The form ni-h 'neque' fr. ni-hv(i)* suggests the conjecture that the hv in láiho 'he lent' (leihtvan) saiho 'he saw' (salthvan) was brought about by levelling.

Initial hw- became w- in OHG. (huēr wēr), while medial k_w, hw gw lost the w by § 180 (sinchit 'sinks', lihīt 'lends', singit 'sings').

b. The language-group without labialisation.

Aryan.

§ 445. Indg. q, g, gh were first of all universally k, g, gh in prim. Aryan. Then before original e- and *i-*vowels and before Ar. i = Indg. ə, they became the palatal explosives c, j, jh; after the completion of the palatalisation e, ə passed into a, ā (§§ 62. 70). All further sound-changes, which made their appearance in regard to the place of articulation, belong to the individual development of the Ar. dialects.

§ 446. Prim. Ar. k, c = Indg. q. The sounds remained unchanged in Sanskrit. In Iranian k became the spirant x before consonants, and c became an ś-sound (Av. ś O.Pers. ś) before j.

§ 447. Prim. Ar. k. Skr. ká-s 'who?' Av. kas-ciš 'whoever, each' O.Pers. kaš-ciy 'whoever': Lith. kà-s etc., see § 419. Skr. kaśā-s 'axilla', Av. kaša- m. 'shoulder': + Lat. coxa etc., Indg. gokso-* goksā-*, see § 430. Skr. kṛ-tā- (sq-skṛta- 'prepared') Av. ker'ta- O.Pers. kar-ta- 'made': + Gr. καίρω 'I accomplish', Lat. ceru-s credere. Skr. kaś-a-tē 'he coughs': Lith. kás-iu etc., see § 441. Skr. vṛk-a- Av. vehrk-a- 'wolf': Lith. vilk-a-s etc., see § 427 c. § 444 a. Skr. śūś-ka- (fr. suś-ka-*, § 557, 4) Av. huš-ka- O.Pers. uš-ka- 'dry', suffix -go-, see § 419.

In like manner Skr. k also regularly before ir = Indg. ṛr and before ir = Indg. ṛ (§§ 287, 290, 306), as kir-d-ti 'pours out' kīr-ṇá- 'covered over', to perf. ca-kār-a. Cp. gir- gīr- § 450.

Iranian x = prim. Ar. k (§ 416). Part. Skr. uktā- Av. uxta- 'spoken' fut. Skr. vakṣyati Av. vaxšyēti 'he will speak': Armen. goč-e-m 'I scream, roar' (?), Pruss. en-wackē 'he calls' + Gr. ῥος 'speech, word', Lat. vōx, O.Ir. iar-faigid 'inquisitio', OHG. gi-wahannen 'to mention' perf. gi-wuog, rt. ueg-. Skr. śukrá- 'luminous, white', Av. suxra- 'red' O.Pers. ḫuxra- (ḫ = s-, § 397) proper noun: to Skr. śuc- Goth. hugs etc., s. § 439. Skr. rāṇas- 'kingdom', Av. raēxnah-. Av. O.Pers. tazma- 'quick, strong', Av. taka- 'course', Skr. tākti 'runs, hastens': Alban. ndiek 'I pursue, drive away, hunt', Lith. tekù O.Bulg. teka 'I run' + O.Ir. techim 'I flee'.

§ 448. Prim. Ar. c. Skr. Av. ca O.Pers. cā 'and': + Gr. τὲ etc., see § 427 b. Skr. catvār-as Av. caṇwār-ō 'four': Lith. keturi etc., see § 419. Skr. pāñca Av. panca: Lith. penkì etc., see § 419. Skr. sācatē Av. hacaitē 'accompanies', Indg. segetaj-*: Lith. sekù etc., see § 419. Gen. Skr. vācas-as Av. vacanh-ō 'of a word', Indg. st. ueges-*, to Skr. uktā- etc., see § 447. Skr. ci-d Av. ci-š O.Pers. ciy 'any, some' (generalising particle): + Gr. τι 'anything whatever' Lat. quid-, Indg. qi-d*, see § 427 b. Skr. āpa-citi- 'atonement, punishment': Gr. τίσις, see § 427 a. Skr. śuc-i-ś 'luminous, bright', Av. saoci-ś 'burning, splendour', to śukrá- suzra- § 447.

Av. śy O.Pers. śy (written šiy, see § 125 p. 116) = prim. Ar. Skr. cy. Skr. cyáu-a-tē 'is active, stirs', Av. śyao-pna- m. 'deed, work' (cp. Skr. cyāu-tná-m 'preparation, undertaking') O.Pers. a-šiyav-am 'I went, walked': Armen. ču 'a breaking up' + Gr. Hom. ἔσσευε σέυς 'he drove, hunted', see § 427 d. § 489. Av. compar. tašyah- 'quicker' beside superl. tancišta-.

Rem. Through new formations k and c came to stand in the Ar. dialects in sound-combinations, in which they would not have regularly arisen. Cp. § 451 rem. § 454 rem. and § 427 rem.

c instead of k. Nom. acc. sg. Skr. vācas Av. vacō 'word' for vakas* = Indg. uegos* (Gr. ἦνος) after vācas = Indg. ueges-* (cp. Gr. ἦνε-ος) in the other cases. Skr. 3. sg. perf. ci-cāy-a for ci-kāy-a 'disposed into strata' = Indg. ge-qōk-s*, to pres. ci-nō-mi. Skr. edmi 'I speak' for vakmi*, cp. Ved. regular virukmi. Skr. pañcat- 'the number five' for pankat-* = Indg. penqpt-* (§ 427 a) after pāñca.

k instead of c. Gen. Skr. kā-sya Av. Gāp. kā-hyā beside regular cā-hyā 'whose' (Indg. ge-sjo*, Gr. ῥίο ροῶ) after kā = Indg. go-* in kā-s etc. Skr. nā-ki-ś 'nobody' beside Av. ci-ś. Skr. upa-vāk-īya-s beside upa-vāc-īya-s 'he who is to be addressed', cp. upa-vākā-s 'address'.

§ 449. Prim. Ar. g, j = Indg. g. The sounds remained unchanged in Sanskrit. In later Av. g became γ initially before consonants except r and medially everywhere except after ə, z, š, the same sound was dropped before v, and medial j became š except after n and z.

§ 450. Prim. Ar. g. Skr. ga-tā Av. ga-ta- 'gone' Indg. gm-tō-*, Skr. gā-tū-ś 'step, gait, place, place of sojourn' Av. gā-tu-ś O.Pers. gā-pu-ś 'place, chair, throne' prim. f. gm-tu-s* : + Gr. βα-ρό-ς etc., rt. gem-, see § 421. Skr. yugā-m 'yoke' : O.Bulg. igo etc., see § 420.

Skr. avagūli-ś avagūṣṭha-s 'thumb, toe', Av. avagūsta- m. 'toe': Alban. gjišt 'finger'. Av. mazga- 'marrow' beside Skr. majjān- (§ 590, 591): cp. O.Bulg. mozgū + OHG. marg n. O.Icel. mergr m. 'marrow'; the Skr. form points to g, the Germ. to gh (cp. Bartholomae Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 352).

In like manner Skr. g regularly also before ir = Indg. rr and before ir = Indg. r (cp. § 447). giri-ś = Av. gairi-ś 'mountain', Indg. grr-i-s*. Gen. gir-ās = Av. gar-ō 'hymn's', instr. pl. gīr-bhiṣ (gīr-bhis*). -gira- = Av. -gara- 'swallowing'; Skr. girāti gilāti 'swallows', part. gīrṇā- 'swallowed'.

Late Av. γ = Gāp. O.Pers. Skr. g, as baya- = O.Pers. baga- 'god', see § 478.

Late Av. v = Gāp. gv. hvova = Gāp. hvogva- a proper family name, cp. Bartholomae Bezenb. Beitr. VII 188.

Baltic-Slavonic.

§ 461. Indg. q, g, gh were k and g (the latter = g and gh) in the period of the Balt.-Slav. primitive community.

These sounds remained in general unchanged in Lith.

In prim. Slavonic k, g became č, dž before the prim. Indg. sonantal e- and *i-*vowels as well as before ʔ+nas. and ʔ+liq. as continuation of Indg. nas. and liqu. sonans (§§ 248. 302) and kj, gj likewise became č, dž. After the completion of this process, but still in prim. Slavonic, oj (= Indg. oj, aj) became č, and this new palatal vowel now changed preceding k, g into c, dz; contemporaneous with the latter change was the transition of the then newly arisen kj, gj into c, dz. Cp. § 84 pp. 81 f., § 147 p. 133. Further kt became tx and ks χ (ch) in prim. Slav.

§ 462. Prim. Balt.-Slav. k = Indg. q.

Lith. kà-s 'who?' katrà-s 'which of two?', O.Balg. kā-to 'who?' kō-toryj 'which': Skr. kā-s etc., see § 419. Lith. kārta-s
 Brugmann, Elements. 22

O.Bulg. kratū (fr. kortū*, see § 281) 'time': Skr. sa-kṛt 'once' Lith. āt-lėka-s O.Bulg. otū-lėkū 'remnant, rest': + Gr. λοιπόν-ς etc., see § 427 a. Lith. velkū O.Bulg. vlėkq 'I draw, drag': Gr. ἔλκω 'I draw' (cp. § 164 rem.). Lith. rvaūja-s O.Bulg. krūs-ī 'blood': Skr. kraviṣ- etc., see § 418.

Prim. Slav. č = k (§ 461). O.Bulg. četyrije Lith. keturi 'four': Skr. catvār-as etc., see § 419. Voc. sg. O.Bulg. vlūče Lith. vilkė to nom. vlūkū vilka-s 'wolf': Skr. vṛka-s etc., see §§ 427 c. 444 a. 455. O.Bulg. pečeti 'cooks' (1. sg. peka) = Skr. pācati Lat. coquit, Indg. pēgeti*. čara 'incantatio' fr. kēra* (§ 76): to Lith. kerėti 'to enchant'. čapū 'bee' fr. kēpū* (§ 76), probably to Gr. κηφήν 'a drone'. čā-to 'what?': Skr. cī-d etc., see § 427 b. črīnū Pruss. kīrsna- 'black': Skr. kṛṣṇā- 'black', Indg. qrsno-* (cp. § 302 rem. 1). Prim. Slav. č = kj. pri-tūča 'likeness' fr. tūk-jā*. Cp. § 147 p. 133.

Prim. Slav. c = k (§ 461). cēna 'price, honour' (Lith. kaina according to Mikuckij): Av. kaēnā- etc., see § 427 a. Loc. pl. vlūčėchiū (vlūkū 'wolf') = Skr. vṛkēṣu, cp. Gr. Hom. λέων-αι. Prim. Slav. c = kj. junčī 'young bullock' fr. jānīk-jā*. Cp. § 84 p. 81 f., § 147 p. 134.

This same change of k to c was repeated in the combination kj before palatal vowels in the course of the individual dialects (cp. § 427 b). O.Bulg. indic. cvlq inf. cvisti 'to blossom', O.Croatian cvasti (= cvīsti*, a new formation after the indic. cvātēm), Little Russ. cvysty Great Russ. cvēsti (č transferred from cvētū?) beside Low Sorabian kviśc Czech kvīsti O.Pol. kwiśc 'to blossom', prim. Slav. kjīstī*. Cp. (d) zvēřī § 464.

Prim. Slav. tj' = kt through the intermediate stage χ't. This sound-group thus fell together with Indg. tj and had the same further development as the latter. χ't became št in the Bulgarian branch. O.Bulg. noštī: Lith. naktī-s 'night', Skr. nākti-ṣ. vlēsti 'to draw' sup. vlēstū, to indic. vlėkq, cp. Lith. inf. vilkti. tešti 'to run', to indic. tekq. vrēsti 'to throw' to indic. vrīgq. Cp. § 147 p. 132 f.

Rem. ^c That the stage χ't lay between kt and tj', is confirmed by the af. vrēstī 'to thresh' (indic. vrīch-q = urs-ā-m*, rt. gers-, cp. Lat. corrō

'I draw through, sweep' = uŕs-ō*, since it must be traced back to prim. Slav. uŕx-iti*; it is uncertain whether x' had arisen regularly in this form or whether it had been transferred from the indie. Serv. vrījēdi vrīdi beside O.Bulg. vrīšti shows the falling together with original kt and tj. Cp. § 588 rem. 1.

Prim. Slav. x (ch) = ks (except before t, see 2. pl. těste § 545) through the intermediate stage xx. We leave it undecided whether the course was ks-kx-xx or ks-xš-xx. těchū 'I ran', orig. f. těg-s-o-m*, pres. tekā. běchū 'I save, run away with' orig. f. bhēg-s-o-m*, inf. bēgati, rt. bheg- (§ 463). On the change of the ch to š in the 3. pl. těšg bēšg cp. § 588, 1.

ks remained in Baltic. Lith. fut. Aksiu, to lėkū 'I leave' (cp. Skr. rēkṣyāmi, Gr. λείπω), bėksiu, to bėgu 'I run, flee'. Pruss. lauznos pl. 'constellations': Av. raoxšna- 'shining'. Hence Indg. qs and ks did not fall together in Baltic-Slavonic, see § 414.

§ 463. Prim. Balt.-Slav. g = Indg. g.

Lith. gria 'forest', O.Bulg. gora 'mountain': Skr. giri-ś etc., see § 459. Lett. gāws 'cow', O.Bulg. govędo 'bullock': Skr. gāu-ś etc., see § 428 a. Lith. bėgu 'I run, flee' boginū 'I save, run away with something', O.Bulg. bėgū 'flight' + Gr. φύβομαι 'I flee' φόβος 'flight, fear', rt. bheg-.

Prim. Slav. dš = g (§ 461). Thence O.Bulg. ž. žeravī, Lith. gervė 'crane': Gr. γέρωνος etc., see § 420. 3. sg. vrīžeti (beside 1. sg. vrīgq 'I throw'), cp. Goth. 3. sg. vaīrpiþ 'throws', rt. uerg-, § 444 a. Voc. bože, to nom. bogū 'god' adj. božiskū 'divine': Skr. bhāga-s etc., see § 450. žaba 'frog' fr. gēbā* (§ 76) Pruss. gabawo 'toad': OMG. quappa Du. kisab 'eel-pout'. po-šarū 'incendium' fr. po-gērū* (§ 76) beside šera-tūkū 'heap of coals' gorēti 'to burn': Lith. gāra-s 'vapour', Skr. gharmā-s 'glowing fire'. šivū Lith. gyvu-s 'alive': Skr. jīvā-s etc., see § 421. šrīny 'mill' Lith. glrnos pl. Slav. dš = gi. osteta 'chlamys' fr. o-steg-ja* beside ostegū 'vestis': Lith. stogā-s, Lat. tegō toga etc., see § 420. Cp. § 147 p. 133.

Prim. Slav. dz = g (§ 461). Still dz in the oldest O.Bulg. monuments, in the later almost exclusively z (Miklosich Vergl. Gram. I² 251 ff.). Loc. pi. bo(d)zěchū (bogū 'god') = Skr. bhāgēṣu cpf. bhagoṣu*. Opt. 2. pl. vrī(d)zěle (vrīgā 'I throw') orig. f. yrgoite*, cp. Goth. vatrpāip. Suro examples seem to be wanting for prim. Slav. dz = gi = Indg. gi. Cp. § 84 p. 81 f., § 147. p. 133.

§ 464. Prim. Balt.-Slav. g = Indg. gh.

Lith. geniū 'I chop off (branches)' genū 'I drive (cattle)', yanau 'I tend (cattle)', O.Bulg. iz-gonū 'a driving away, chasing': Skr. hān-ti 'strikes' etc., see § 429 a. Lith. grūda-s 'corn' grūdū 'I pound', O.Bulg. gruda 'clod': + OHG. gruzzi O.Icel. graut 'grit' OHG. grioz OS. griot 'sand, gravel', rt. ghreyd. Lith. angī-s 'snake', O.Bulg. qgorištī 'eel': Skr. āhi-ś etc., see § 433 a. O.Bulg. legā 'I lie down', adj. sq-logū 'consors tori' + Gr. λέχος ἄ-λογο-ς etc., see § 425.

Prim. Slav. dš = g (§ 461). Thence O.Bulg. ž. žnja 'I cut (fruit), reap' inf. žiti, to Lith. geniū (s. above), cp. Skr. hanyāte (§ 454 rem.). snėšū 'snowy', to snėgū, s. above. sq-lože voc. to sqlogū, s. above. Prim. Slav. dš = gi. lūš 'lying, false' fr. lūg-ŭ*, to lūgati 'to lie': OHG. liogan 'to lie', rt. leugh. lože n. 'couch, bed' fr. log-je*, to legā, s. above. Cp. § 147 p. 133.

Prim. Slav. dz = g (§ 461), O.Bulg. dz, later z (§ 463). (d)zěū 'vehemens': Lith. gailū-s 'passionato', OHG. geil 'extra-vagant, petulant, wanton'. snė(d)zi pl. to snėgū 'snow', orig. f. snoighoi*. l(d)zěle 2. pl. opt. to legā. Prim. Slav. dz = gi. stī(d)za 'way' fr. stīg-ja*, to stignā 'I come from': Skr. stighnutē etc., see § 422. Cp. § 84 p. 81 f., § 147 p. 133.

The same change of g to tz was repeated in the combination gy before palatal vowels in the course of the individual dialects. O.Bulg. (d)zvěry 'animal, wild animal' fr. prim. Slav. gyēry*: + Gr. θήρ Lat. fera, see § 429 b. Cp. cristi § 462.

§ 465. Prim. Slav. sk, zg before palatal vowels and before i. In the period of prim. Slav., in which k, g became tš (č), dž; sk, zg correspondingly passed into stš, zdž, hence štš, ždž, further O.Bulg. št žd. Cp. § 147 p. 133 f. Suffix -go- seems to be contained in O.Bulg. -ište- fr. isk-je-, a further formation of -isko-, e. g. ognište n. 'hearth, fire-side' (cp. the primary form Pol. ognisko n.). moždanŭ 'having marrow, marrowy' fr. mozgēnŭ* (cp. běžati 'to flee' fr. bēgēti*, § 76) from mozgŭ 'marrow'; whether we have here Indg. zg or zgh, is doubtful, see § 450.

Retrospect of the history of the velar explosives.

§ 466. Words containing Indg. velars show these partly with and partly without labialisation in Greek, Ital., Kelt. and Germ. The u-afterclap, brought along from prehistoric times, could disappear in the separate languages by certain fixed sound-laws. But we thought that such a disappearance might only be assumed in such forms, as had parallels which were etymologically related, and which actually occurred with labialisation either in the same language or in another of the u-languages, e. g. in Goth. kaúru-s 'heavy' (§ 444 b). We thought that it must be left undecided whether labialisation was ever present in those words, which certainly had an Indg. velar, but ao not appear in any of the u-languages with labialisation. The dropping of u can be assumed in some of these words, without the sound-laws of the separate languages standing in the way, thus e. g. in Gr. xúro-s Lat. cuti-s OHG. hāt 'skin, hide' (cp. Pruss. keuto 'skin', Lith. kiautai pl. 'corn-hulls, -husks') from the fact that u disappeared before u in each of these languages (§§ 427 c. 428 c. 429 c. 431 b. 444 b). In other cases the known sound-laws of the separate languages do not furnish any positive support for the assumption of the disappearance of u. But sound-laws may have operated in prehistoric times, which brought about the loss of u (e. g. perhaps before Indg. a, ā, as in Gr. ναξιρός: Skr. karkāṣa-s, and if u or u directly preceded the velar, as in Gr. ζυγό-ν: Skr. yugá-m?) and the activity of which may have become so concealed by the later development that it is no longer possible for us to fix them.

Of late years the question has several times been raised

(most recently by Bersu p. 4 ff.) as to whether the words, in which the velars appear in Greek etc. with labialisation, were also once spoken in Ar., Armen., Alban. and Baltic-Slavonic with labialised q, g, gh, or whether the labialisation was an innovation of the y-languages — ultimately an innovation which took place in one portion of the prim. Indg. language-terrain. But nothing has hitherto been adduced which admits of a sure decision being formed either on the one side or the other. At all events y may equally well have disappeared from those languages in which labialisation does not occur, as it did e. g. in Irish (cethir beside O.Cymr. petguar 'four') and in French (quatre pronounce katʁ from Lat. quattuor).

Interchange of the palatal and velar explosives.

§ 467. In Aryan, Armenian and Baltic-Slavonic we occasionally find a guttural explosive or its regular successor, where we should expect the descendant of an Indg. palatal explosive i. e. spirant or affricata, and conversely. Examples from the first and last named language-groups, have been collected by J. Schmidt in Kuhn's Ztschr. XXV 114 ff. 125 ff. A final answer to the question, how this interchange is to be explained, must be left for the future. For the present the following seems to me probable.

1. In one portion of the cases the mixing of the two classes of consonants was caused by form-transference.

This is seen clearest of all in Sanskrit, where certain sounds, which were originally different, regularly fell together: kṣ = qs and ks, j = g and g, h = gh and gh.

Thus bhiṣakti 'hē heals' bhiṣáktama- superl. from bhiṣáj- 'healing', with kt instead of ṣt on account of 2. sg. bhiṣákṣi nom. sg. bhiṣák (fr. bhiṣakṣ*, § 647, 7) loc. pl. bhiṣákṣu, cp. Av. baṣṣaz-a- = Skr. bhṛṣaj-á- 'medicino'. After the analogy of tyāgá- 'abandonment, resignation' beside tyájatē (rt. tjeg-) etc. was formed yāga- for older yájá- 'an offering' beside yájatē (rt. jag-), correspondingly after ni-dāghá-s 'heat' beside dah- (rt. dhegh-) etc., sā-dēghá-s for older sā-dēhā-s 'a cementing together' (rt. dheigh-). With misplaced g also bhārga-s 'splendour' (cp. Av. brāzaiti 'beams, radiates'), nir-mārgá- 'a stripping off' (cp. indic. 3. sg. mārṣi), sargá- 'gutter' (cp. part. ṣṛṣṭá-). Further part. digdhá- 'besmeared' for regular dīdha-*.

The converse transference occurred less often. Thus drōdhar- for and beside drōgdhar- part. fut. from druh- 'injure', rt. *dhreygh-*¹⁾.

In Armenian the st in dustr 'daughter', which does not agree with the root-final velar of the other languages²⁾, may have come into existence through the influence of ustr 'son' (etymologically unexplained), with which according to Hübschmann Arm. St. I 47 it is mostly used.

2. Where k and g appear in Baltic-Slavonic in place of sibilants, they are due to a borrowing from the circle of languages with guttural explosives; this borrowing may partly be dated back to the period of the Indg. prim. community, if by § 380 we already ascribe to this the difference of articulation, which permits the Indg. languages to be divided into two great groups. Thus O.Bulg. svekrū 'socer', svekry 'socrus' beside Lith. šezsura-s etc., which point to Indg. syekuro-* syekrū-* (§ 381), O.Bulg. gašī beside Lith. įąsi-s etc., Lith. klausāi 'I obey' beside O.Bulg. sluchū 'hearing, obedient' Skr. śrōṣamāṇa-s 'gratifying', Pruss. pecku Lith. peku-s 'cattle' beside Skr. pāśu etc., Lith. smakrā 'chin' beside Skr. śmāśru- 'moustache' (to which O.Ir. smech 'chin'), Lith. gařda-s 'hurdle' O.Bulg. gradū 'inclosure, town', beside Lith. įařdi-s 'pasture-ground' (cp. § 389).

3. In one portion of the cases, which are generally classed under this category, we have different roots. Thus e. g. we separate gnā- genā-* 'wife' (Skr. gnā- etc., s. §§ 428 a. 437 a) from rt. gen-* 'gignere'; Skr. āhi-ṣ 'snake' Av. āhi-š etc. (§ 433 a) from rt. aāgh- 'to lace, string'; Skr. māghā- 'cloud' from mēha- Av. maēza- 'urine'. Such like roots, which are similar in sound and meaning, but nevertheless not related etymologically, occur indeed often enough elsewhere, as e. g. Skr. skambh- and stambh- 'fasten, support', yegh- and yedh- 'lead'.

1) With these Skr. new formations cp. § 480 rem. 4.

2) The h in Skr. dūhītār- is the regular representative of prim. Ar. jā = Indg. gh by § 445, as must be remarked because of J. Schmidt, Kuhn's Ztschr. XXV 68. 116. 122.

Rem. The manner in which J. Schmidt (in the article quoted above) attempts to explain the interchange of the two classes of consonants, is in my opinion by no means convincing.

B. THE EXPLOSIVES AFTER THEIR FORM OF ARTICULATION.

Primitive Indg. period.

§ 468. The Indg. prim. language had, as we have seen in § 322, four forms of articulation: tenues, voiced mediae, *aspirated *tenues and aspirated voiced mediae, e. g. t, d, th, dh. Examples for the two first and for the last class have been given in §§ 324—326. 348—350. 381—383. 418—423.

We have not yet given examples for the tenues aspiratae in section A. And, owing to their comparatively small number and the peculiar difficulties with which the question of their regular representation in the various languages is surrounded, it seems appropriate not to treat this form of articulation in this section either, in each of the separate language-groups, but to treat it collectively at the end (§ 553), in order that everything, which belongs here from the various languages, may be brought together under one head. Before then however we shall however have to discuss the history of the prim. Ar. tenues asp. in § 475.

§ 469. Several of the changes in the form of articulation, which are exhibited by the Indg. explosives and which in many cases are regarded as having taken place within each development, had in all probability already arisen in the period of the Indg. prim. community. Eight cases are to be taken into consideration.

1. The change of mediae into tenues before voiceless explosives and spirants. Indg. juqtó-* 'yoked' i. e. jug+to-* from rt. jeug-: Skr. yuktá- Gr. ζευξρό- Lat. jūctus Lith. jūnkta-s. Indg. pətsú* loc. pl. fr. ped-* 'foot': Skr. patsú Gr. πόσι νοσί.

2. The change of tenues into mediae before voiced explosives and spirants. Indg. -bd- weakest form of ped-: Skr. upa-bd-á- 'a pounding, trampling' Gr. ἐν-βδ-α 'day after the feast' (§ 325). We assume dydbhis*, yigbhis*, rygbhis* as the Indg. prim. forms for the instr. pl. Skr. dadbhiṣ (dat- dant- 'tooth'), vidbhiṣ (viṣ- 'clan, village community', cp. § 404, 3), rygbhiṣ (re- 'hymn'). This assimilation may also have extended itself to double consonants, as Skr. instr. pl. nadbhiṣ (napt- napat- 'offspring') fr. nabdbhiṣ*, Indg. nclbhis*. Cp. also Av. instr. pl. azd-biṣ fr. ast- 'bone': Gr. ἀστ-ε-ν and Indg. zd from sd in z-dhi* 'be' imper. fr. rt. es-, se-zd-* perf. st. from rt. sed- and similar forms, § 589, 1.

3. The side by side existence of Gr. ἑβδομο-ς and O. Bulg. sedmyŕ 'septimus' (§ 547 rom. 2) permits our assuming that in Indg. there stood beside septy* the ordinal sepdmó-* or seb-dmó-*. In that case Gr. ἑβδο-ς would be a special Greek transformation of ἐκx- after the analogy of ἑβδ-. Similarly Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 321.

4. t before t th and d before d dh. Geminated explosives were probably not spoken here, but affricata + explosive. We write t't(h) and d'd(h) but at the same time readily admit that it might perhaps have been more correct to have written tḥt(h) and dḥd(h). For the literature on this point see Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 560¹⁾. E. g. set'tó-* (part. fr. rt. sed- 'sit'): Skr. sattá- Av. hasta- Lat. ob-sessu-s; ded'dhi* (that is, de-d+dhi*, 2. sg. imper. of the reduplicated pres. of dō- 'give'): Skr. dēhi Av. dazdi.

5. Aspirates probably lost their aspiration before aspirates. We regard e. g. yudbhis* as the Indg. prim. form of Skr. instr. pl. yudbhiṣ (yudh- 'fight, battle'). If Gr. νόσθο-ς 'a hollow, pudenda muliebria', Lat. custōs, Goth. huzd 'treasure', which belong to rt. keydh- in Gr. κρύβειν Ags. hýdan 'to hide', were an extension of this rt. by means of the 'root-determinative' dh- as we assume in §§ 494. 507. 536., then kud'dh-* (s. above 4) was probably spoken in prim. Indg.

1) The objection raised by Bartholomae in his recent work Ar. Forsch. II 79 against what we have stated above for the Indg. prim. language, is not valid. If ks became k before explosives, it by no means follows that the affricata ts (t') must under the same conditions have become t'. kx, yf, not ks, ps correspond to ts.

6. How was the combination — which must be presupposed etymologically — media asp. + t or s spoken at the time immediately preceding the disintegration of the Indg. prim. community? What was e. g. the Indg. prim. form of Av. dug'dar- Lith. dukter- 'daughter', which, on etymological principles, would have to be put down as dhughter-*? A positive answer has not yet been found. We leave out the question in our exposition of the history of the Indg. forms of articulation in the separate languages and discuss it at the end in § 552. In the section on Aryan § 482 we shall however previously treat the special history of media + media asp., which can be put down with certainty as the prim. Ar. order of articulation.

7. Change between tenuis and media at the end of roots, e. g. sqap- : sqab- in Gr. σκαπάρι 'spade', O.Lat. scaprēs : Lat. scabō, Lith. skabū-s 'cutting' (§ 345); pāk- : pāg- in Lat. pāx pācis Skr. pāśu-s 'loop, cord' : Gr. πήγνυμι 'I fasten', Lat. pangō; (s)pek- : (s)peğ- in Skr. pāśyāmi 'I see', Lat. -spicio, OHG. spehōn 'to spy' spāhi 'prudent, wise' : O.Icel. spakr 'prudent, sensible', O.Bulg. paziti 'attender', refl. with se 'cavere'. The tenuis is probably rightly considered as the older articulation. The circumstances, under which this sound-modification made its appearance, still remain undetermined. Cp. p. 188 f.

Probably here also belong irregularities in the form of articulation, which occur in other positions than at the end of roots, e. g. Skr. daśat- : Gr. δεκαδ- 'decade' (cp. § 238).

8. Change between media asp. and media. stembh- : stemb- in Skr. stabhnōmi 'I fasten' prop', perf. tastāmbha, Gr. ἀ-στέμφης 'unpressed' στέμφυλο-ν 'a grape or olive already pressed' : Gr. στέμνω 'I shake, tread on', OHG. stampfōn 'to stamp' stumpf 'stump' (Lith. stambra-s 'trunk, stem', stiñbra-s 'stump of the tail, stump', may belong to either root-form). bhudh- : bhud- (weak rt. forlis) in Skr. budhnā- 'bottom', Gr. πυθμήν 'bottom, end of a root': Gr. πύρραξ 'bottom' (with π- for φ-, like πίστis for *φαστις etc., see § 496), Ags. botm O.Icel. botn 'bottom' (Lat. fundu-s and O.Ir. bond boun 'solea' are ambiguous). megh-: megh- in Skr. mahán 'great': Skr. majmán- 'greatness', Gr. μέγας Goth. mikils 'great'. Skr. ahám: Gr. ἐγώ, Lat. ego Goth. ik 'I'. The media asp. is possibly the older sound. The circumstances, under which the modification made its appearance, are also here undetermined. In most of the cases a nasal is in the vicinity. Cp. Arkiv for nordisk Filologi I 176 rem.

Rem. J. von Fierlinger Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 478, following up J. Schmidt's theory, conjectures that in those cases where it is a question of gh: g, 'the sound was neither gʰh [gh] nor gʰ [g] in the parent language, but a voiced palatal spirant γ'. So long as a more special (urgently needed) investigation into the whole question of the change in the form of articulation in the Indg. prim. period is still wanting, it seems to me more prudent not to separate the change gh: g from the cases bh: b and dh: d. With these it is hardly possible to start from a spirant, which is homogeneous with the γ'.

Aryan.

§ 470. The difference between the Indg. forms of articulation was still preserved in the period of the Aryan prim. community.

The palatals k̄, ḡ, gh̄ appeared as s-sounds: ś, ḡ, śh (§ 396).

Indg. dʰd(h) (§ 469, 4) probably then became zd(h), e. g. dazdhi* = Indg. dedʰdhi* givó' imper., and thus fell entirely together with Indg. zd(h) (§§ 590. 591). See § 476.

The order med. asp. + t, s — which is etymologically to be postulated — was represented by med. (or voiced spirant) + dh, zh (§§ 469, 6. 552): b dh, dʰ dh, g dh, ḡ dh and b zh, d zh, g zh, ḡ zh. For the further history of these combinations in Aryan see § 482.

The Sanskrit separate development left the Indg. forms of articulation separate.

In Iranian the mediae asp. became mediae and ś became ḡ. These sounds thus fell entirely together with Indg. mediae.

Skr. Av. O.Pers. pat- 'fall, fly', Indg. pet-*. §§ 327. 351.

Skr. Av. O.Pers. interrog. stem ka-, Indg. qo-. Skr. Av. ca O.Pers. cā 'and', Indg. qe*. §§ 445-448.

Skr. āśva- Av. O.Pers. aspa- 'horse', Indg. ekyo-*. §§ 396 401.

k seems to have disappeared in the prim. Ar. period in Skr. tārya- Av. tāirya- 'quartus' fr. ktur-, to Indg. getyex-. Skr. cateār-as, cp. Av. ā-xtāirya- 'every fourth time' (cp. § 646); so also t in napt-su* Av. naśu loc. pl. from Ar. napāt- napt- 'offspring' (s. Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 600).

§ 472. Further shiftings of the prim. Ar. form of articulation did not take place in Sanskrit.

Rem. In forms like vagnā- 'tone, sound' (vak- vac-), rgmīn- 'praising' (ark- arc-), śagmā- 'wealthy, benevolent' (śak-), vāgmīn- vāgmīn- 'eloquent' (evik- euk-) g had not regularly arisen from k (-kn-, -km-, -k- remained, cp. rēkhas- 'wealth, riches', rukmd- 'shining', pakēd- 'ripe') but was borrowed partly from other forms of the same roots as instr. vāgbhīṣ, rgbhīṣ, 2. sg. imper. śagdhi, partly from forms of roots with original g (g) as tigmā- 'sharp' rt. (stig- śagmd- to śaktā- like tigmā beside tiktā-). Similar occurrences in Gr. see §§ 488 rem. 495 rem.

§ 473. In Iranian p, t, k, c were only retained before vowels and after s, ś. Otherwise they became spirants before consonants. This change took place before i, u, after these consonantal vowels had become spirantal (§§ 127. 161).

1. Prim. Ar. p. Av. O.Pers. fra- 'before, fore': Skr. pra- Gr. πρό, Indg. pro*. Av. er^szifya- 'stretching itself, falcon': Skr. ṛjipyā- 'stretching itself, seizing on the wing', Armen. arcio 'eagle' (§§ 291, 1. 330). Av. afant- 'aquosus' from prim. Ar. ap-yant-* (§ 159 p. 143) to ap- (acc. āpem nom. afš) 'water': Skr. ap- āp- 'water'.

Av. -pt- beside -fdr- fr. -ptr- (2.) and beside Pers. -ft- is strange. hapta 'seven': Skr. saptā. ker^spta- 'put in order, made right': kṛptā. Prim. Iran. -ft- probably became -pt-, cp. O.Icel. eptir fr. efter 'after' etc. (Noreen Aisl. Gramm. § 183).

2. Prim. Ar. t. Av. tuəm O.Pers. tuəm (tu- = tu-) 'thee': Skr. tvām. Av. tuējah- n. 'need, danger': Skr. tyājas-. Av. mišra- 'contract': Skr. mītrā-. Av. šyaošna- 'deed, work': Skr. cyāutná-.

In O.Pers. hr, hy passed into š, šy. ši- 'three': Av. pri- Skr. tri- (§ 261). hašiya- (-šiy- = -šy-) 'true': Av. haišya-, Skr. satyá-.

In Av. hr, hw passed into dr, dwo after f and x (voiceless spirants after the voiceless spirants f x became voiced). Acc. f'dr-ō 'pātres' (cp. Gr. θ'γα-το-ας) beside dat. sg. pišrē acc. sg. ptarem, cp. Skr. pitr- pītár-. vaxāra- 'word, speech': vak-trá- 'mouth'. vaxdwa- 'word' fr. prim. Ar. yak-tya-*. Cp. d fr. p = prim. Ar. th § 475.

Prim. Ar. Skr. tk = Av. pk. apka- 'dress': Skr. átka-. ta-pk-uš- weak st. of the part. perf. act. to tacaiti 'runs'.

Prim. Ar. tc (Skr. cc) = Av. sc O.Pers. šc. Av. yas-ca 'quod-que', also inexactly written yašca (according to the etymology: yaš+ca): Skr. yác-ca, prim. Ar. jatca* Indg. jotqe*, jod qe*. O.Pers. aniyaš-ciy 'anything else': Skr. anyāc-cid prim. Ar. gnyatcid*. Cp. Kelt. Germ. sk fr. tk, §§ 516. 527.

Prim. Ar. ts became s in Av. (O.Pers.) through the intermediate stage ss. Av. masya- 'fish': Skr. mātsya-. Av. Gāp. loc. pl. drug-vasū fr. drug-vant- 'lying, false', cp. Skr. kēša-vatsu fr. kēša-vant- 'having a mane'. Av. nom. sg. a-mer'ta-lās 'immortality' fr. tat-s*, cp. acc. sg. amer'tatāt-em. Correspondingly Indg. t't(h) = prim. Ar. tst(h) (§ 469, 4) became st in Av. and O.Pers. Av. ava-pastī-š 'a falling down': Skr. patthī-š, prim. Ar. patsti-š*, Indg. pet'ti-s*, rt. pet-. Av. ašavastema- superl. fr. aša-vant- 'pious, holy', cp. Skr. -vat-tama-. Av. ustema- 'utmost': Skr. uttamā-. Av. Gāp. 2. sg. perf. vōšta 'knowest': Skr. vēththa Gr. olōtha, Indg. yoj'tha*, rt. yej'd-. O.Pers. a-yastar- 'possessor', to Skr. a-yat- 'attain, reach'.

Rem. 1. Observe that this Iran. st also appears after i and u and their diphthongs, as in vōsta = Skr. vittā-, vōstā = Skr. vēththa, Gāp. taosta (3. sg. mid. from ruod- 'grow up'), whereas Indg. st had become š after the same sounds. The transition of ts, us into iš, uš was already completed and was closed, when tst became st in Iranian. See § 556, 1.

Rem. 2. Indg. -st and Indg. -t' remained separate in Av. also when final. The former appears as -s (after a-vowels), the latter as -st, e. g. 3. sg. imperf. ās 'erat': Skr. Ved. ās prim. Ar. āst* Indg. ēst* (Gr. Dor. ēc), 3. sg. imperf. hīāst fr. rt. sed 'sit' fr. Indg. si-se't*, that is, si-se't + t*. Cp. Bartholomae Handb. §§ 139-141, Ar. Forsch. II 78 f.

3. Prim. Ar. k. Av. yuxta 'yoked': Skr. yuktā. Av. suxra 'red' O.Pers. puxra a proper name: Skr. śuk-rā 'bright, white'. For further examples see § 447.

4. Prim. Ar. c was regular before no consonant except j. Av. šy O.Pers. šy. Av. šyao-pna 'deed, work' O.Pers. a-šiyā-am (-šiy = -šy) 'I went, walked': Skr. cyaś-a-tē 'stirs, moves'. Cp. § 448.

§ 474. Prim. Ar. prim. Iran. non-final t with preceding spirantal r became š in Avestic, as mašya (mašiya) = O.Pers. martiya Skr. Ved. mārtiya 'mortal being'. See §§ 260. 288. 353.

§ 475. The prim. Ar. tenuēs aspiratae. ph, th, kh, ch were not rare sounds in the period of the Ar. prim. community. It is by no means definitely settled that these sounds are to be traced back in every case to Indg. tenuēs asp. (§ 553). This form of articulation may partly have arisen in the prim. Ar. period from non-aspirate tenuis, e. g. Skr. path 'path', sthā 'stand'. It is certainly not clear by what laws this aspiration arose.

In the following §§ we shall discuss the history of the prim. Ar. ten. asp. without taking into consideration whether this form of articulation was old inherited or newly developed. From § 553 it is obvious in what cases we hold the ten. asp. for prim. Indg.

The only case in which the sounds underwent a change in Sanskrit, was when the following syllable began with an asp. or with s + asp. A tenuis then arose by dissimilation. kumbhā-s 'pot, mug' fr. khumbha-s* = Av. xumba. Perf. cichēda 'I cut off' fr. chi-chēda* from prim. Ar. skhajd. Cp. the dissimilation of the mediae asp. § 480.

Rem. 1. Forms like instr. pl. khe-bhiḥ from kha 'opening in the body, mouth, ears etc.', pathi-bhiḥ from pathi 'path' were forms made by analogy after the cases, in which there was no reason for dissimilation. Cp. § 480 note.

In Iranian the tenuēs asp. became spirants except after s, š and nasals, where they passed into tenuēs.

Av. safa- 'hoof': Skr. śaphá-. Av. paṣ- O.Pers. papi- 'path': Skr. path- pathi-. Av. bara-pa 'ye bear': Skr. blūra-tha. Av. haza 'companion, friend' O.Pers. haxāmani-š proper name: Skr. sákha. Av. st. form haši- 'companion, friend' (only in compounds as hasiṣ-biṣ- 'friend tormenting') fr. prim. Ar. sachi-*; Skr. sakhi- was formed after the analogy of sákha etc.

Av. sparāmi 'I push, jerk': Skr. sphurāmi (cp. § 290). Av. O.Pers. sta- 'stand': Skr. sthā-. Av. Gāp. vōista 'knowest': Skr. vētha. Av. pantan- 'path': Skr. pānthan-, beside paṣ-: path-. Av. skārayant- 'leaping' (or 'letting leap') in the proper name skārayaṣ-ṛaṣa-: Skr. skhālati 'stumbles, makes a false step sticks fast'.

p became d after x, f (cp. f'ār-ō etc. § 473, 2). Av. uxda- 'spoken': Skr. ukthā-m 'a saying'. Av. praṣṭa- 'satisfied, content' fr. prim. Ar. tryp-tha-*, cp. Skr. trypāmi 'I satisfy my appetite, become satisfied'.

Rem. 2. Fierlinger Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 334 f. conjectures that the tenuēs asp. lost their aspiration in prim. Aryan before m, n, r. This however postulates the originality of the tenuēs asp. as proved, which I cannot hold as certain.

§ 476. Mediae. Prim. Ar. b, d, g, j, z = Indg. b, d, g, g.

Skr. upa-bd-ā- 'a stamping, trampling' Av. upa-bd-a- 'foot', Indg. bd-* weak st. form of ped-. §§ 325. 328.

Skr. dā-rā- Av. O.Pers. dā-ra- 'distant', rt. dey-. § 354.

Skr. bhāga-s 'giver of blessings' O.Pers. baga- 'god', Indg. bhago-s*. Skr. jīva- Av. jīva- 'alive', Indg. gēuō-*. §§ 449—451.

Skr. jōṣa- Av. zaōša- 'favour, kindness', O.Pers. daustar- 'friend', rt. gēus-. §§ 402—404.

The transition of Indg. d'd(h) to zd(h) (§ 470) may be regarded as prim. Ar.; it was in any case younger than the change of prim. Ar. z to š (§ 591). z remained in Iranian; azd(h) became ēd(h) in Skr., cp. ōdḥ from prim. Ar. ašdḥ § 404, 2. Skr. dēhi Av. dazdi 'give' imper., Indg. de-d'-dhi*, rt. dō- 'give'. Skr. kiyēdhā- 'extensive, capax', prim. Ar. kijāa'-dhā-*

i. e. *kiyat + dhā-. Here belongs also zdh for indg. dh + t (§ 552). Skr. mēdhas- Av. mazdah- 'wisdom', prim. Ar. mazdhas*-, that is, Indg. mpdh + tos*-, rt. mendh-. Av. *ver*zda*- 'grown up, powerful' fr. prim. Ar. yrzdha*- i. e. Indg. yrzh + to*- (Skr. vardh- 'grow'). Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 261 f. conjectures, that Av. uz 'out, upwards' beside Skr. ud, is a generalisation of the form regularly developed before d-, as in uz-daṣza- 'accumulation', and that us was developed from ud in compounds like us-tāna- 'stretched out' = Skr. ut-tānd-, us-ca 'high up' = Skr. uc-cā; cp. also Gr. ὕς-πλῆξ beside ὕς-τοίχης and Cypr. Pamp!.. ú as also Germ. uz- § 536 rem.

Rem. This regular state was frequently altered through new formations in Sanskrit and Iranian. Skr. doddāhi for dēhi, aiāhi 'eat' imper. for ēdhi*, ruṣāddhi 'he checks' (rudh-) for ruṣēdhi* (ṣnēdhi arose at the time when such pres. forms in -ēdhi were in existence, see § 404, 2). Av. masti- 'insight' for mazdi*- i. e. mpdh + ti*- (after the analogy of cisti- etc.). See the author in Morph. Unt. III 144 ff., Bartholomae Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 360 ff.

§ 477. Prim. Ar. ḡ (= Indg. ǵ) became the explosive ǵ (§ 402) in Sanskrit, and the ḡ (= Indg. ǵ) in ḡḡ ḡḡh = prim. Ar. ḡd, ḡdh was lost (§ 404, 1. 2), whereas in ḡbh = Prim. Ar. ḡbh it became ḡ (§ 404, 3).

-dh- became -nn- : bhinnd- 'split, divided', from bhid-.

Rem. Analogously -ny- from -ḡn- : gen. pl. ḡnyām (ḡukḡ- 'six'), a new formation after ḡadhbhīḡ etc.; on this ḡbh op. § 591.

No consistency exists in the treatment of -dm- and -gm-. kakānmant- beside kakūdmant- 'providing with a point'. nyṇmāya- 'consisting of earth, clay' fr. nyā-māya*-. vāṇmāya- 'consisting of speech' fr. vāg-māya*- beside vāgmān- (§ 472 rem.). Whence this fluctuation arises, is not clear to me. Are the forms with -dm- and -gm- new formations as compared with the others?

§ 478. In Iranian b, d, g j apparently remained explosives throughout in O.Pers. and the Gāpā dialect, whereas in later Av. they became the spirants w, ḡ, γ ḡ medially except after sibilants and nasals, g also initially before consonants except r.

Late Av. vaḡda Gāp. vaḡda 'he knows' : Skr. vēda. dadmahi Gāp. *dač*maḡi* 'we give' : Skr. dadmasi. baya- O.Pers. baga-

'god': Skr. bhāga-. nyra- Gāp. ugra- 'strong, powerful': Skr. ugrā-. ja-ym-āsi fem. part. perf. act. from rt. gem- 'go': Skr. ja-gm-āsi. ṛnā- Gāp. g'nā- 'wife': Skr. gnā-. taēša- 'sharpness, edge': Skr. tējas-, beside late Av. tiyra- 'pointed': Skr. tigmā- 'sharp, vehement'.

Rem. 1. j is often written for z, e. g. sojeh- 'strength': Skr. śjes- (§ 451). See Hübschmann Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIV 353, Bartholomae Handb. § 129 rem.

• Rem. 2. der'eda- 'plait' may be held as an example for w = b: Skr. (and prim. Ar.) dṛdha- 'knitted, wound' from rt. derbh-, it is however not certain, that prim. Ar. b was a continuation of prim. Indg. b, see §§ 469, 6. 552.

On the other hand the late Av. explosives initially (except g before consonants s. above) and after sibilants and nasals. Late Av. dad'mahi: Gāp. dad'mahī. hazdyāp: Skr. sēdyāt, 3. sg. opt. perf. from rt. sed- 'sit', Indg. se-zd-je-t*. rondaitē 'he loves': Skr. vādatē 'he praises'. gāu-s 'bullock': Skr. gāu-s. mazga- 'marrow': cp. Skr. majjan- fr. prim. Ar. mazjan-* (§§ 450. 590. 591). avogūšta- 'toe': Skr. avogūṣṭha-.

Prim. Ar. dy appears in Av. as dv, db, ḍb, b. See § 356.

Late Av. nm from dm in nmāna-: Gāp. d'māna- n. 'house', to Skr. dāma-s Gr. dōmo-s etc., similar in formation to Gr. δμν in δδμν-κα εὐ-δμντο-ς. Cp. Skr. kakūnmant- § 477.

Late Av. v fr. gv, see § 450.

Prim. Ar. zn = Indg. gn became sn in Iran. prim. Ar. zm = Indg. gm became sm in Av. See § 403.

§ 479. Mediae aspiratae. Prim. Ar. bh, dh, gh jh, zh = Indg. bh, dh, gh, gh.

Skr. bhrātā Av. brata O.Pers. brata 'brother', Indg. bhrātō(r)*. § 329.

Skr. dhārṣ-ā-mi 'I venture', Av. darš-i-s 'vehement, eager', O.Pers. a-darš-nau-s 'he ventured', rt. dhers-. § 357.

Skr. gharmā- Av. gar'ma- 'heat', rt. gher-. Skr. hanti Av. jainti 'strikes', O.Pers. ajan-am 'I struck', rt. ghen-. §§ 452—454.

Skr. hāv-ana- Av. zav-ana- 'call', weak rt. form ghu-. §§ 405—407.

§ 480. In Sanskrit śh became in the first instance jh, e. g. prim. Ar. śhay-* 'to call' became jhay-, prim. Ar. śha- 'leave, forsake' became jha-* (cp. § 406).

Then the law of the dissimilation of aspirates operated, by which the aspiration was dropped when the next syllable began with an aspirate. bōdhati 'awakes, is heedful of' fr. prim. Ar. bhaydh-a-ti*, rt. bheydh- (Gr. πεύθομαι 'I inquire', Goth. ana-biuda 'I bid, command'). drōgha-s 'malicious injury' fr. prim. Ar. dhraygh-a-s*, rt. dhreygh- (O.Icel. draugr 'ghost'). dādhati 'places, lays' from prim. Ar. dha-dha-ti*, rt. dhē- (Gr. θήσω 'I shall put, place'). durbhīṣ durbhīyās durbhīdm (from Indg. dhur-* 'door', Armen. durn, Gr. θύρα, Goth. daur) from dhur-bhīṣ* etc.; then after these dūr-as dōdr-as etc. instead of regular dhūr-as* etc.; observe, that the word was current in the Veda only in the pl. and du., fewer case forms than was otherwise usual therefore stood opposite to the bh-cases. jaghāna perf. 'he struck' fr. prim. Ar. jha-ghān-a* Indg. ghe-ghon-e*, imper. jahi 'strike' fr. prim. Ar. jha-dhi* (a new formation for regular gha-dhi*, see § 454 rem.) Indg. ghy-dhi*, rt. ghen- (Gr. φόνος 'murder'). jā-ha-ti 'leaves, forsakes' fr. prim. Ar. śha-śha-ti* (Av. za-zaiti) through the intermediate stages jhajhati* jajhati* (s. below). janghā- 'the lower part of the leg' fr. prim. Ar. śhanoghā-* (Av. zanaga- 'instep', Goth. gaggs 'way, street').

From the similar law affecting the tenues asp., which was undoubtedly specially Skr., I conclude that this law of dissimilation operated first in Skr., not already in prim. Aryan. See § 475.

Rem. 1. Forms like vytra-hā-bhīṣ (vytra-hān- 'vritra killing') instead of ja-bhīṣ* (cp. jahi above) are easily explained as new formations. So far as I know, dissimilation never appears, when the two aspirates belonged to different members of a compound, cp. e. g. abhi-bhūti-ṣ 'ascendency', garbhā-dhi-ṣ 'the place for coition, nest', ahi-hān- 'serpent-killer'; cp. on the other hand Gr. λαγχύω § 496. It must here be observed that such compounds might have been formed anew, after the above law had ceased to operate, and that the simple form — which was felt as a factor in composition — might always have exercised an influence on the old inherited and actually reproductive forms.

Rem. 2. In forms like 2. sg. dhatsē beside 1. sg. dadhē 'I place for myself', fut. bhōtēyātē beside pres bōdhātē 'people often speak, in an unscientific fashion, of a 'leaping over of the aspiration' on to the media of a preceding syllable. dhotsé, bhōtsyā'e had much rather retained the Indg. initial (Indg. dhc, bhcgdh-). -ts- was here already in existence before the operation of the law of dissimilation, and when this came into operation there was nothing to be dissimilated in these forms, hence the initial remained intact. Cp. Gr. θεῖς: veixé; § 496.

Rem. 3. In what manner did dissimilation regularly take place, when aspirates formed the initial sound in three or more syllables? e. g. Skr. bū-bōdha 3. sg. perf. = prim. Ar. bhū-bhugdh-a*. This question requires further investigation.

jh (= Indg. gh and gh̥) became h after the conclusion of the aspirate-dissimilation, as hānti fr. jhanti*, Indg. ghen-ti* (Av. jainti), jāhati fr. jajhati*, prim. Ar. jha-jha-ti* (Av. zazāiti).

h appears several times for dh and bh without the reason for the change being clear. Thus -hi beside older -dhi Gr. -θι, ending of the 2. sg. imper.; -mahē Av. Gāp. -maudē Gr. -μῆα, ending of the 1. pl. mid.; sa-hā beside older sa-dhā 'at the same time, with' Av. ha-ḍa; grh-ṇā-mi beside older grbh-ṇā-mi 'I seize'. [Cp. von Bradke Ztschr. d. d. morg. Ges. XL, p. 65 sqq.]

Rem. 4. This change of dh bh, which caused the meaning of Skr. h to be fourfold, (Indg. bh, dh, gh, gh̥), gave rise to several 'deviations' (Entgleisungen). Thus desiderative jighr̥kṣati 'he desires to seize' for ji-ghr̥ps-a-ti*, to grhṇāmi.

§ 481. In Iranian prim. Ar. bh, dh, gh jh, ḷh fell together with prim. Ar. b, d, g j, ḷ (cp. Keltic § 524 and Baltic-Slav. §§ 542. 549). Hence all the mutations, mentioned in § 485, took place here also.

The spirants w, d, γ z in later Av. aiwi Gāp. aibī 'above, thereto, hither': Skr. abhī. awra- n. 'cloud': Skr. abhṛā-. Pres. stem da-ḍa- Gāp. da-da- 'put, place': Skr. da-dha- prim. Ar. dha-dhā-*. dar'ya- Gāp. dar'ga- 'long': Skr. dīrghā-. ṇu- 1. sg. pres. mid. from jan- (Indg. ghen-) 'slay': Skr. ghn-ē. snaçžaiti 'it snows', prim. Ar. snaijhati*: Gr. νεῖπει Indg. sneigh-e-ti*. dažaiti 'burns': Skr. dāhati (cp. ni-daghā-s 'heat'), Indg. dhegh-e-ti*.

Rem. j written for ḷ e. g. in ar'jaiti 'deserves, is worth': Skr. ārhati, rt. ārgh- (§ 429 a). Cp. § 478 rem. 1.

Explosives (b, d, g f) in later Av. barāmi 'I bear': Skr. bhārami. skemba- 'pillar': Skr. skambhā- 'supporting pillar'. dāma 'creature': Skr. dhāma, rt. dhā-. mīda- 'pay, reward': Skr. mīdhā-. Gr. μισθός. dazdi 'give' imper.: Skr. dēhi. bandayeiti 'binds': Skr. bandhāyati. gar'mo- 'glowing heat': Skr. gharmā-. zawga- 'instep': Skr. javoghā-. jainti 'strikes, kills': Skr. hanti. renjayeiti 'he hastens': Skr. rajhāyati.

Late Av. n fr. dn: buna- 'ground, bottom': Skr. budhna-.

Late Av. v fr. gv, see § 453.

Prim. Ar. žen, žhm = Indg. ghn, ghm became Av. šn, sm. See § 407.

§ 482. The prim. Ar. combinations bāh, d'dh (thence zāh already in prim. Ar.), gdh, ždh = original bh, dh, gh, gh + t and bzh, (dzh, thence zh), gžh, žžh = original bh, (dh), gh, gh + s. Cp. §§ 469, 6. 470.

Skr. dybdhā- 'knitted, tied, wound', Av. der'wda- 'plait' (§ 478 rem. 2), rt. derbh-. Skr. mēdhas- Av. mazdah- 'wisdom' = mydh*+tos-, see § 476. Skr. drugdhā- n. 'offence, insult', rt. dhreygh-. Av. Gāp. 3. sg. imperf. mid. aog'dā (aog- aog- 'speak, name') = uegh*+to, cp. Gr. εὔχομαι εὔκτο. Skr. inf. vōdhum 'vectum' = uegh*+tu-m, Av. vaīdri-š 'promoter' = uegh*+tri-, rt. uegh-, see § 404, 2.

Rem. 1. Many exceptions to this law — especially in Iranian — arose through the analogy of other words of the same suffix-category, in which the suffix had t (e. g. Skr. yuktā- Av. yuxta- 'junctus'). Examples: Av. dapta- 'deceived, cheated' for dawēda-* = Skr. daddhā-. Av. O.Pers. bastā- 'bound' for bazda-*, cp. Skr. baddhā-, rt. bhendh-. Av. druxta- O.Pers. dārūxta- 'cheated, belied' for Av. drugda-* (Gāp. drug'da-; O.Pers. dārūgda- = Skr. drugdhā-. Av. aorta beside Gāp. aog'dā, see above. Av. vaīdar- 'beast of draught' for vaīdar-* (cp. vaīdri-š above) = Skr. vōdhār-. Skr. Ved. 2. du. dhaktam for dugdham* from dagh- 'rench to, attain', 1. pl. daghma. 3. sg. mid. dhattē 'reōrm' probably in the first instance for daddhē* (see below). Cp. Lat. part. com-ēstus for com-ēsus, 2. pl. ēstis for ēsīs* etc., § 501 rem. 2, OHG. weista for wissa etc., § 527 rem. 3.

The Skr. forms with ddh, as baddhā-, buddhā-, arose by attraction to the other forms of the same root, thus also daddhē* probably as intermediate stage between dēdhē* and dhattē. Cp. daddhi for dēhi § 476 rem. 1, didīdhi for d'dīdhi* § 404 rem. 2.

Skr. dīpsati 'intends to injure', Av. diušaīdyāi 'to wish to deceive', desiderat. formations to Skr. dabh- Av. dab-. Skr. 2. sg. dhōkṣi 'thou milkest' (3. sg. dōgdhī); Av. Gāp. 2. sg. aoyā (3. sg. aoydā see above). Skr. 3. sg. vākṣat Av. vašaḥ s-aorist to Skr. vāhati Av. vazaiti 'vehit', rt. yeḡh-.

Rem. 2. Examples for dā + s seem to be wanting. The -ts- in Skr. dhōtṣyāṇē (fut. fr. rt. dhēydh-) cannot be regarded as the regular continuation of dāh, because after prim. Ar. zā(h) from dā(h) (§ 476) it is probable that d became assimilated to the following zh already in prim. Ar.

Armenian.

§ 483. The tenues were very variously treated as regards their form of articulation.

p appears as p in the vicinity of original s: poit 'σπονδή', epem 'I cook' probably to Gr. εῖπω. As p after vowels: ev 'and, also', Gr. ἐν, ewin 'septem'. As h (y) initially before vowels: hing 'πέντε', heri 'distant' Gr. πέραν. See § 330.

Initial p disappeared before l. li (gen. lioy) 'full' fr. plē-jo-*: Skr. prā-tā- 'filled', Gr. πλήρης 'full', Lat. plē-nu-s, O.Ir. lī-naim 'I fill'. luana-m 'I wash': Skr. plāv-ayāmi 'I inundate, pour over, wash', Gr. πλένω 'I wash'.

t appears as t after s: astl 'star' Gr. ἀστήρ. As t initially before vowels and (under what conditions?) medially: čatam-i-m 'I become dry, wither' Gr. τέρσομαι, ut 'eight' Gr. ὀκτώ. k fr. ty: ko 'of thee' Skr. tvām. t appears as d after r, n: marē 'man, homo' Skr. mṛtā-, dr-and 'door-post' Lat. antae; cp. g fr. k below. See § 360.

Intervocalic t became j and then disappeared: hair 'father' Gr. πατήρ, nom. pl. har-k first probably fr. hair-k*. -aur- from -atr-: haur 'father's' Gr. πατρ-ός. -rh- -h- fr. -rtj- or -rttr-: marh mah 'death' Skr. mṛtyú- or Goth. maúrþr. See § 360.

t- had disappeared initially in ere-k 'three', first of all from re-k*: Skr. tráyas. See § 263.

g appears as k (k) and č except after nasals and liquids: akn 'eye' Lith. ak-l-s; lk-ane-m 'I leave' Gr. λαμβάνω; ač-k pl. (i-stem) 'eyes' Lith. aki-s. As g after liquids and nasals: arge

'impediment' Gr. ἀπένω; hing 'five' Skr. pāñca; cp. d fr. t above. See § 455¹⁾.

Examples for the dropping of g are uncertain. See Hübschmann Arm. St. I 76.

k generally appears as s: sar 'height' Skr. śiras-. ç fr. sk (kšk, ssk) and ks: harç 'question' Skr. prchā, veç 'six' Gr. ἕξ. See §§ 408. 561.

Loss of k before t in uē 'eight' (Skr. aṣṭa), probably also before l in lu 'audible' (cp. Skr. śru-). See § 408.

§ 484. The mediae d, g became tenues, g became a voiceless affricata. Cp. the shifting of the mediae in Germanic, § 533.

d became t. tiv 'day': Skr. dīva instr. 'by day'. See § 361.

g became k. ker 'food, meat': Skr. girdmi, rt. ger-. See § 456.

g became c. cer 'old man': Av. zaurca- 'ago', rt. ger-. See § 409.

Examples for the shifting of b to p are unknown to me. Cp. § 331.

§ 485. The mediae aspiratae bh, dh, gh became b, d, g; gh became the voiced affricata j, or the voiced spirant z.

bh became b, which remained initially and after λ, r, m, but became v after vowels. ba-n 'λόγος': Gr. φημί. elbeur 'spring, source': Gr. γράει. arbi 'I drank': Lat. sorbeō. Instr. sg. akam-b pl. akam-bh from akan- 'eye': Skr. -bhiṣ. lus-a-vor 'clear, bright': Gr. λευκο-φάρος. See § 332.

dh became d. diem 'I suck': Skr. dhāyāmi. See § 362.

gh became g, which remained except before original e- and i-vowels, before these it passed into j initially, and into z medially. gan 'strokes, blows': Skr. ghan-ā. jerm 'warm': Gr. θερμός. iē 'viper': Av. aēi-ē. See § 457.

gh became f initially and after n and r, and z after vowels. jaune-m 'I consecrate, sacrifice': Av. zaotar-. anjuk 'narrow':

1) The j in arj 'bear': Skr. ṛkṣa-s Gr. ἄερος; is probably parallel to this g and a. Cp. § 561.

Av. qzah-. barjr 'high': Av. ber'zant-. lizu-m 'I lick': Lith. lėžiù. See § 410.

Greek.

§ 486. The tenues generally retained their form of articulation.

p. πλέ(φ)ω 'I swim': Skr. plāv-ā. See § 333.

t. τάλ-αντο-ν 'balance': Skr. tuld-. See § 363.

k. καρδ-ία 'heart': Lat. cor. See § 384.

q. καρπ-ός 'fruit': Skr. kṛpāṇa-s. ποινή 'atonement': Av. kaṇnā-. τε 'and': Lat. que. See §§ 425, 426, 427.

These sounds seem to have been spoken with aspiration for a time in some districts, especially in Attica. Owing however to the inexactness and inconsistency of the written language it is impossible to determine accurately how far this tendency extended.

Rem. Many of the cases, where the aspiration was formerly regarded as being purely phonetic, are rather new formations made by analogy, e. g. ἀλείρω 'I anoint with oil' (beside λίπα, Skr. līpāmi), δέχομαι 'I receive' (beside Ion. Dor. Lesb. δέχομαι), perf. τέτρεφα τέτρεφαται (to τρέπω 'I turn'). See Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 284 ff. In the same manner mediae also came into the place of tenues, as κλέβεις (Messen.) to κλεπ- 'steal', ἄρעγγν to ἀρעκ-. See Osthoff in the above work.

§ 487. Tenuis became ten. asp. before ῥ i. e. voiceless r (cp. § 266). τέτρηππο-ν 'four-horse chariot' = τέτρεππο-ν fr. τετρ-ίππο-ν*. φροῦδος 'gone away' = πρόδος fr. προ-όδo-ς*. This affection corresponds exactly to ἔφοδος 'approach' = ἐπόδος.

Tenuis became media before media. ἐγ-δίδωμι fr. ἐκ+δίδωμι (cp. Cret. ἐδδῆται with δδ fr. γ-δ, cp. νυτρί § 384), ἐγ-βάλλω, ἔγ-γονο-ς, ἐβ-βάλλω. The etymological orthography was frequently used, ἐκ-δίδωμι etc., and probably it was also pronounced -κδ- etc.

ντ = Indg. nt, ἡq (§ 427 b) became (ν)δ in Pamphyl. (for -(ν)- cp. § 205). 3. pl. conj. ἄγω(ν)δε = Dor. ἄγωντι. πέ(ν)δε = Att. πέντε, Indg. penqe*.

§ 488. πῖ mostly became μῖ, Lesb. ππ. ὄμμα 'eye' fr. ὀμμα*, Lesb. pl. ὀππατα. κίκαμαι 'I am bent' from κεκαμ-μαι* κεκαμπ-μαι*, cp. 3. sg. κέκαμπται.

The Indg. combination ti appears medially, in most dialects, generally as si after other sounds than s (cp. ἔστι, πῖστις). Att. δίδω-σι 'gives': Skr. dādā-ti; πλά-σις 'step, stride': Skr. gā-ti-ṣ; ἀνεψιός 'first cousin': O.Bulg. netijŭ epf. nept-iŭ-s*.

Rem. 2. The combination -ti was frequently retained in Bæot., Pamphyl. and Dor., where the other dialects had -si, as Dor. δίδωσι πλοῦσι-σι. But also in those dialects, which show -si, -ti occurs beside this, as Ion. Att. ἔτι, αἶσι-σι (cp. πλοῦσι-σι), ἔτι, κῆσι, γῆσι-σι (cp. γῆσι-σι). Form-transference may be assumed in many cases, e. g. κῆσι after κῆσις etc.; αἶσι-σι after αἶσις-σι; γῆσι-σι πᾶσι-σι πᾶσι-σι after the cases with -ti. Cp. Hom. Ποσειδῶν Arcad. Ποσειδῶν Lac. Ποσειδῶν with σ instead of τ (Boeot. Ποσειδῶν Ποσειδῶν) after Ποσειδ- in Hom. Ποσειδῶν etc. Nevertheless this does not clear the matter up satisfactorily. It is questionable, whether -si did not already arise, to a certain extent, in prim. Greek. Such a great antiquity is especially to be conjectured for the -si in nouns like βῆσι, since these also occur with σ in Bæotian and the whole of Doric.

In Lac. and Cypr. σ = ti, in Cypr. at the same time the σ of -si = -ti passed into h: Lac. part. fem. ἐν-ῆβωαις, Cypr. 3. pl. conj. φρονέωι. This σ became ρ in Eretria: part. fem. δμνέουρας, 3. pl. conj. παρά-βιπτορον.

Medial ty became ss in Ion. etc., and rr in Bæot. and Att. Hom. τέσσαρες Herod. τέσσαρες Lesb. τίσσυρες Arcad. τεσσαρῶντα + Bæot. τίτταρες Att. τίτταρες 'four': Skr. catvār-as. Initially: Cret. τῆς 'thee' (wrongly written τῆς in Hesych.) Dor. τῆς Bæot. τίρ Lesb. Ion. Att. σῆς: Skr. tsā-. On the enclitic Ion. Att. etc. οἰ see § 187.

§ 490. ts became ss in prim. Greek, thence σ in later times. Hom. aor. πάσασθαι ἐπάσασθαι fr. πατ-σ-*: pres. πατέομαι 'I eat, consume'. Hom. aor. ἐπιστάμενός ἀν-έστατες fr. ἔτ-σ-*: ἔδ-ος 'seat'. Hom. ποσσί ποσὶ Att. ποσὶ fr. ποτ-σ-*: πόδ-ος 'feet', cp. Skr. patsā. Correspondingly Indg. t(h) became st(h) in prim. Greek. ἄ-παστο- 'jejuare': πατ-έομαι, ἴσσι 'ye know' ὅσθα 'thou knowest' (Skr. vēthū): ἴδ-μεν ὅδ-α. Cp. σθ fr. d(h) § 494. σx from xσx. διδάσχω 'I teach': δι-δάx-ρό-ς, Lat. di-dic-ti. ἱδῶν 'I make like': ἱόω. Bæot. ἐς-κη-δεάτη = ἱξ-κ. Cp. also ἱξ- fr. ἱξ- 'ex' in Arcad. ἐςδοκῆτες, Bæot. Gortyn ἐς τῶν.

§ 491. In most dialects, e. g. Ion.-Att., the mediae were voiced explosives in the oldest monuments.

b. βιβαλάγο-ς 'foreign': Skr. balbalā-karōmi. See § 334.

d. δέκα 'ten': Skr. dāśa. See § 364.

g. γένω 'I let taste': Av. zuoša- 'favour, kindness', rt. geys-. See § 385.

g. ἐρύγραι 'I spit out': Lith. rūgin, rt. ruig-. βοῦς 'bullock': Skr. gāu-ṣ, Indg. gōu-s*. δελφύς 'womb': Skr. gārbha-s, rt. gelbh-. See §§ 425. 426. 428.

The voiced mediae became voiced spirants. We may conclude that β had already become b in Iac. and El. before the beginning of the Roman period, from the fact that υ (f) was represented in these dialects by β. In the oldest El. monuments δ appears as ζ i. e. ā, e. g. ζέ, ζικαι, ζειζός: this affection, so far as we can see, did not take place in the other dialects until later. Forms like εργαίτης, Σαραπινῆον, κλαίγω, occurring in the second century B. C., exhibit the transition of γ into the spirant j (in any combination whatever). The γ, which here represents the consonantal j, is only conceivable on the supposition that it denoted elsewhere a spirantal sound; the loss of γ after i in Boeot. ιών = ιγόν, Tarent. and elsewhere ὀλός = ὀλίγος etc., also points to this change.

In Arcad. ζ was also written for δ = Indg. g, e. g. ζέλλω beside δέλλω 'I throw'. Hence a spirant was also spoken here. Cp. § 428 b.

§ 492. βν, βμ became μν, μμ in prim. Greek. μνάομαι 'I woo to wife' from βνᾶ- 'wife', Indg. gnā-, see § 428 a. σιμνός adjectival part. to σίβομαι 'I feel awc', rt. tjeg-, see § 428 a. τρίμμα (τριμμα) 'that which is rubbed', perf. mid. τρίμμαι, to τρίβω 'I rub'.

In like manner gn, gm probably became mn, mm¹⁾ in the same period. γί-γν-ο-μαι 'am born' i. e. gīgnomai. στυγνός

1) For the grounds on which this theory is based see Bbel Kuhn's Ztschr. XIII 264, Westphal Method. Gramm. I 1, 17, the author in Curtius' Stud. IV 103 f., L. Havet Mém. de la soc. de lingu. IV 276.

'hated' i. e. styanos*. ion became in in Dor., Thess., Bæot. and later Att., as Dor. γῆνομαι γινώσκω (cp. § 618). ἀγ-μός 'breakage' i. e. aymos*. aym became am (written γμ) through the intermediate stage amam, just as mpm became mm through mmam (§ 488): ἐγχεγμαι, ἐλγχεγμαι beside -γζω -γκτω.

φαίρω 'I sprinkle' fr. φαδ-νω (Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 457 ff.), like δέξ-ποινα fr. notnha, see §§ 488. 639.

Lac. ἰλλά 'seat' fr. iδ-λα*, see § 364.

§ 493. di, gi, gi became one sound, which was mostly written ζ. Ζεῖ-ς: Skr. dyāu-s; πεζό-ς 'on foot', to πεδά πέδο-ν ἄζομαι 'I stand in awe of', to ἄζω-ς, Av. yazaitē, rt. iag-. ζῆ 'lives' fr. *ζη-, to Av. iyāiti-, stem giē-; νίω 'I wash', to νίπτω-ν, rt. weig- (cp. § 428 d).

οδ was also written for ζ in Lesb., e. g. ἐκαόδοι. -οδ-, for which, initially, δ-, appears in Lac., Gortyn, Bæot., and Megar., e. g. the verbal endings -άδοι -όδοι = -άζω -ίζω, Δεῖς = Ζεῖς, δωο, = ζωός. Seldom τ = ζ in Cret., as Τῆρα = Ζῆρα, also Τῆρα.

Owing to the uncertainty which exists regarding the value of these different letters, it is impossible to determine accurately the course of development, which the prim. Gr. combinations di, gi, gi passed through.

Rem. ζ was probably pronounced d in Ion.-Att.; cp. O Balg. id fr. di § 147 rem. 1. od might possibly go back first of all to ad — or id —. See the author's Griech. Gramm. § 52 with addendum to p. 47, G. Meyer Gr. Gr. 2 274 f.

§ 494. ἰσθι i. e. isthi arose fr. Indg. uid̥dhi* 'know' imper. (cp. Skr. viddhi, § 476). Whether the intermediate stage was uid̥dhi* or uit̥dhi*, remains doubtful. Gr. κύσθο-ς 'a hollow, pudenda muliebris' was probably a similar case (§ 469, 5).

§ 495. The mediae aspiratae bh, dh, gh, gh became tenuēs aspiratae in prim. Greek. These then probably remained unchanged in most dialects, certainly e. g. in Ion.-Att., down to historic times.

bh. • ὀφρῶ-ς 'eye-brow': Skr. bhrā-ṣ. See § 335. •

dh. θυμός 'heart, courage, passion': Skr. dhā-mā-s. See § 365.

gh. ἔχ-ω 'I have, hold': Av. haz-ah-, rt. segh-. See § 386.

gh. λίχος 'bed': O.Bulg. legq, rt. leggh-. φόνος 'murder' and θείμα 'I striko': Skr. 3. pl. ghn-anti, rt. ghen-. See §§ 425. 426. 429.

The tenues aspiratae became voiceless spirants in most combinations, through the intermediate stage of affricatae. We are not in a position to determine precisely the place and time of this shifting, since the written language offers too few sure holds. The affricata-stage seems to occur in such spellings as ὄρχος ἀνέπρος and in measures like ὄγαν (Hom.) βρόχον (Theognis) as trochees. Cp. Roscher Curtius' Stud. I 2, 63 ff. Blass Auspr.² 84 ff. [G. Meyer Gr. Gramm.² 207 ff.]. Spirantal value (h) can be established most extensively for θ. θ remained an explosive in Cret. (Gortyn) before ρ ν, as is seen by the writing τρ τν, and was a spirant before vowels. θ probably only remained an explosive after σ in Bæot., El., and Loer. (cp. Att. ῥοτα beside διόρτοι, § 489), hence the writing of στ for σθ. In Lac., where h can be established with the greatest certainty, it passed (before palatal vowels?, see Baunack Dio Inschr. von Gortyn p. 36) further into σ, as Σίον = Θέων. θ as h became f in Bæot. and Epir., as is shown by the writing φ in φείος = θείος etc. This φ also shows that prim. Gr. ph (φείρω) had become f in these dialects.

Rem. The often assumed change of prim. Gr. tenuis asp. to media never existed. In cases like στέμνω beside ἀστεμφή; πίνω! beside πιθμήν it is a question of Indg. media (§ 469, 8), whereas in such as κατα-ἵγ-μυα-ς (beside inf. κατα-ἵχθαι, rt. ἵχ-), δεύγμα 'handful' (to δεσχυή δεύωσθαι, Skr. darh- 'fasten') we have merely new formations, made after the analogy of similar forms from roots with media (Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 301 ff.).

§ 496. The tenuis aspirata lost its aspiration in prim. Greek, when a tenuis aspirata followed at the beginning of the next syllable. τίθημι 'I place' fr. thi-thē-mi*, aor. έτιθεν fr. e-the-thēn*, rt. āhē-. ἐνέθετο 'he inquired for' fr. e-phuthē-to*, rt.

bhēydh-. Gen. τριχός 'hair's' fr. thrikh-os*. ἐπι-χειρία 'cessation of hostilities', Delph. Ἑπί-φελος fr. ekhe-kh*, ekhe-ph*.

θρῆξ : τριχός and θίσσασθαι : πάθος (§ 429 b) = Skr. dhatsē : dadhē, see § 480 rem. 2. Hence forms like πύσσομαι πύστις, πίσσω πίστις (rt. bhēydh-) are shown to be new formations for αὔσσομαι* etc.; cp. fut. αὔσω for regular αὔσω § 564.

The remark, made in § 480 rem. 1 on Skr. vytra-hābhīṣ abhi-bhāti-ṣ, also holds good for the forms ἐχέθην (χίω 'I pour out'), θεθμός Locr. 'statute' beside τεθμός Pind., θίθηθαι Cret. Gort. = τίθησθαι, ἀμφί-γαλος 'having a double comb', ἀμφι-χίω 'I pour around', παχύ-χρῖμο 'with thick juices' etc.

It is difficult to ascertain in what manner the law of the dissimilation of aspirates operated in cases where three or more aspirates followed one after the other (cp. πέππεθε, prim. Gr. phe-phoixh-e*, τίθημι prim. Gr. the-thē-thi*). Only so much is as yet clear, that the regular operation had been crossed in many ways by analogical formations. Cp. Osthoff's attempt in his Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 305.

§ 497. Indg. dhī, ghī, ghī as thī, khī, khī khī fell together in prim. Gr. with tī, kī, kī kī and accordingly experienced the same treatment as these (§ 489).

μέσσο μέσσο 'medius' (Skr. mādhyā-s) like τόσσο τόσσο. ἀσσον 'nearer' (ἄγχι, root añgh-) like μάσσων.

ἐλάσσων ἐλάττων 'less' (ἐλαχύς : Skr. laghū-ṣ) like πίσσω πίττω.

Italic.

§ 498. The tenues remained unshifted on the whole.

p. Lat. pāx, Umbr. pase 'pace', Osc. Paakul 'Paculus': Skr. pāśa-. See § 336.

t. Lat. tovo-s tuo-s, Umbr. tover 'tui', Osc. tuvai 'tuao': Skr. tāva. See § 366.

k. Lat. clī-nō, Umbr. kle-tram 'lecticam': Skr. śrāy-a-ti. See § 387.

g. Lat. canō, Umbr. kanetu 'canito': Skr. kaṇḍ-kan-ī. Lat. quis, Umbr. Osc. pi-s 'quis': Av. ci-š. See §§ 430. 431.

Where shifting of the tenues happened through sound-change, in combinations, it is frequently not evident — owing to the scantiness of the Umbr.-Samn. monuments — whether this change is to be regarded as having taken place in prim. Italic or only in single dialects.

§ 499. Lat. b from p before voiced explosives. ob-dūrō, ab-dūrō, sub-dūrō: cp. op-eriō 'I close', ap-eriō 'I open' (cp. Skr. ar- 'move something', apa+ar- 'remove, put aside, open'), Osc. op eizois 'apud eos', Gr. ἄνω, Lat. super Gr. ὑπερ. Hence probably original p in optineō, suppōnō etc.; ab- ob- sub-eō made by analogy; abs, obstrādō, obtrādō, subter etc. phonetically wrongly spelt.

Lat. Umbr. g from c in the combination -xkl-. Lat. angulu-s, Umbr. anglom-e 'in angulum' fr. axklo-* (§ 269), to Lat. ancu-s uncu-s. Lat. singulu-s fr. sem-klo-* (§ 269). The cause of the same change is less clear in septin-gentī nōn-gentī beside du-centī (Gr. ἑπτα-χόσιοι); vīgintī beside vīcēsīmus no doubt owed its g to form-transference. Cp. Thurneysen Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVI 312 f.

Media from tenuis after nasals and before r in Umbrian. tursiandu 'terreantur'. ander 'inter'. an-dendu 'intendito' fr. an-tenttu* i. e. an-tend-tō*. ivengar pl. 'iuvencae'. abrof 'apros'. subra 'supra'. adrer 'atris'. Cp. also Osc. embratur 'imperator'.

§ 500. Lat. mn fr. pn. somnu-s: sopor, Skr. svāp-na-s etc., see § 324. omni-s fr. opni-s*, to ops opēs. Cp. mn fr. bn § 506.

Lat. gn (written gn) from cn already in prehistoric times. dignu-s fr. decno-s*: decus; tignu-m fr. tecno-m*, to Gr. τεχν- (cp. § 65 p. 53). ilignu-s iligneu-s: ilex -icis. agna 'spica' (Saliar hymn), to acus 'chaff', Goth. ahana, OHG. agana 'chaff' (otherwise Kluge Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVI 88, who postulates Indg. akh- because of Gr. ἄχνη 'chaff, foam'). nīxu-s, too, fr. cnīxo-s* (rt. kneigh-, § 433b) had passed through the stage cnīxo-s (cp. Gnīxi dī). Analogously Umbr. co-negos ku-nikas 'conixus'¹⁾. On gn fr. gn (with original media) cp. what is said in § 506.

Lat. mi fr. pm, summu-s; superior. So also Umbr. somo 'summu'.

Lat. wm (written gm) fr. em, segmentu-m; secūre. Cp. wm fr. gm with original g, § 506.

§ 501. The change of ts to ss seems to have been prim. Italic. After a long syllable and finally ss became s in Lat.

Lat. con-cussī; con-cut-iō. sudāsī fr. syātāsī*; suād-eō, scāla fr. scansla* scantslā*; scandō (§ 208 pp. 175—176). novi-tās fr. lat-s*, ferēns fr. ferent-s*. con-cors fr. -cort-s* (gen. -cord-is). That -ss = -ts had not yet fallen together with Indg. -s after nasals and liquids in Latin, follows from the contrast of ferēns with ped-ēs Indg. -ys* (§ 208 p. 175) and of con-cors ars etc. with per fār (§ 655, 9). Cp. also the contrast of pennu O.Lat. pesna fr. pet-sna* with pēni-s fr. pes-ni-s* (Skr. pās-us Gr. níōs 'penis'), § 570.

Umbr. zēref serse 'sedens', kutef 'cautus' ('cautens', as it were), Volsc. asif 'incendens, adolens flammis'. -f first of all fr. -h, further fr. -ns = -nts, see § 209.

Where ts (z) appears in Umbr.-Samu., it was of later origin: in Umbr. pihaz 'piatus' Osc. húrz 'hortus' etc.; in Osc. az 'ad', an extension of ad after the analogy of Ital. aps, ops, eks; in Umbr. -nts- fr. -ns- (§ 209).

The change of ts to ss was repeated in Latin. possum fr. pot-sum*, which was either a new formation after potest (fr. pote est) or had arisen by syncope (§ 633) fr. póte-sum*.

Rem. 1. Compounds like assequor fr. atsequor* (ad sequor) were formed at various periods of the language. It is difficult to say, in which examples ss had arisen regularly, and in which by analogy.

Indg. t't apparently became ss everywhere except before *r*¹⁾ in prim. Italic, thence s after long syllables. Lat. ob-sessu-s: Skr. sattā- Av. hasta-, Indg. set'to-s* i. e. sed'to-s*, rt. sed-'sit'. fassu-s: fateor. fossu-s: fodiō. vorsu-s, Umbr. trah-vorfi 'transverse' (rf from rs, cp. § 209): Skr. vytā- 'versus', O.Bulg. vrīsta f. 'state, situation', Indg. vyt'to-s*, rt. vyert- 'vertere'.

1) And except finally? Cp. Lat. zēf 'eats' from rt. ed-.

morsu-s : mordeō, scānuum : scandō, cp. Skr. gerund. skantvā, vīcēsimu-s vīcēsimus : Bact. ἑκατό-, cpl. uīkyt^o-*. vīrōsu-s fr. uīso-uyt^o-to-s*, see § 238. usu-s ūsiō fr. oiso-s* oisīō*, Pelign. oisa abl. 'usa, consumpta' : octor ātor. Cp. also fisu-s, with which Bücheler connects Umbr. Fisiu abl. 'Fisio'. from feidō fidō, rt. bhejdh- (§ 552).

Rem. 2. Lat. ēsis ēate (rt. ed-) for ēsis* ēse* after the forms of other verbs in -tis -te. com-ēstu-s for and beside com-ēsu-s after forms like gru-tu-s, etc.

celte, matu-s, O.Lat. ad-grediu-s by syncope (§ 633) fr. cen(i)te*, mad(i)to-s*, ad-gred(i)to-s*; cp. altu-s and altu-s, ē-licitu-s and al-lectu-s. Correspondingly Osc. ūstīnuf 'usio, usus' fr. oil(i)tnuf* (cp. Lat. vomitō). This new tt remained unchanged like the tt in attulī fr. ad tullī. Cp. the author in Morph. Unt. III 133 f., Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 555 ff.

On the other hand t^{tr} became str. pedestri-s : pedit-ēs, assestrīx, ēstrīx to sed-, ed-. Umbr.-Samn. examples are wanting.

Rem. 3. That the course of development was not here ssr — sr — str, as some maintain, but that the t o. g. in ēs-trī-x, was the same as that in ek-trī-x, follows from the fact that sr did not become str but fr — br (§ 570).

The Italic treatment of Indg. t^t was precisely parallel to that of the Germanic. See § 527.

On initial s- fr. ps- and x- see § 568, 2.

Lat. ff from pf : offerō, sufferō.

Osc. meddiss meddis 'meddix', cp. Lat. jū-dex; nom. pl. meddiss beside meddēs fr. -dik-(e)s*. Umbr. osatu 'operato, facito' oseto 'facta' beside Osc. upsannam 'operandam, faciundam'.

§ 502. Prim. Ital. kt passed into xt (ht) in Umbr.-Samn., and prim. Ital. pt into ft (in Umbr. further into ht). Umbr. rehte 'recto', aan-fehtaf 'infectas', uhtur 'auctor'. Osc. saah-tum 'sanctum', Uhtavis 'Octavius'. Umbr. screhto 'scriptum', Osc. scriftas pl. 'scriptae'.

The combination kt arose anew in Umbr.-Samn. by vowel syncope (§ 633) and was now treated differently from prim. Italic kt. Osc. factud 'facito', actud 'agito'. Umbr. feitu fetu 'facito', aitu 'agito', to which ar-veitu ars-veitu 'advehito' (rt. ueghh-) joined itself.

Rem. Prim. Italic k^u = Indg. q seems to have remained an explosive both where it was followed by a t in prim. Italic, and where it later came together with t by syncope. Osc. Πομπτις: 'Quintus', Indg. pengto*- 'quintus'. Umbr. ninctu 'ninguito' (cp. § 570), fiktū 'figito' (O.Lat. figere beside figere, fibula fr. fū(g)ye-blā*), umtu 'unguito' in the first instance from umpetō*.

k became h before e- and i-vowels in Umbrian, e. g. faśia 'faciat'. See § 387. How the form feia beside faśia is to be explained, I am unable to say. Cp. muīeto 'muttitum', where i seems to express a voiced spirant (§ 508).

Osc. s fr. tj. Bansae loc. 'Bantiae', cf. Bantins 'Bantinus'.

§ 503. Loss of tenues in consonantal groups.

Lat. poscō fr. porc-scō*: prec-or (§§ 269, 288). miscō fr. mic-scō*: Skr. miś-rā- 'mixed'. illūstri-s fr. in-louc-s-tri-s*: lac-ō. discō from dītescō* i. e. dī-de-scō*: dī-dic-ī, cp. Gr. di-dā(x)-σκω § 490. asportō fr. aps-portō*: abs i. e. aps. ostendō fr. ops-tendō*: ob. sternuō fr. pster-*: Gr. πτάσσωμαι 'I sneeze' fr. nosag-*.

Lat. lāna, O.Lat. inscrip. losna fr. louc-s-nā*: Av. raoxēna- 'shining, luminous'. sēnt fr. sexnī*. sēmēstri-s fr. sex-mēstri-s* sub-tēmen fr. ezmen*. ala fr. axla*: axilla, OS. ahsla 'axilla'. ē-nantiō ē-mergō ē-ligō ē-dō fr. ex-nantiō* etc. (cf. dī-numerō dī-moveō dī-luō dī-dācō fr. dis-numerō* etc.). Cp. § 570.

Lat. mulxī, fulxī fr. mulxī*, fulxī*. ursu-s fr. urxu-s*: Skr. fkṣa-s. torxī, sparxī fr. torxī*, sparxī*. ultu-s fr. ulctu-s*. tortu-s fr. torctu-s*, cp. forti-s O.Lat. forti-s: Skr. dydḥā-s (§ 295). quintu-s (beside inscrip. Quinctu-s), but jāntu-s fāntu-s with c probably not without the influence of jungō jānxī, fungor; defuntus, nantus, santo first on late inscriptions. urna fr. urnā*: urceu-s. pāstu-m from pāscu-m*, postulō fr. po(r)ctulō*, formed from the presents pā-scō po-scō.

l- from spl- stl- through the intermediate stage sl-. lien: Gr. σλήν. locu-s, līs fr. O.Lat. stlocu-s, siltis. The stage slis is found twice on inscriptions. On ilicō cp. § 570.

Umbr. ostendu 'ostendito' fr. ops-t*. Cp. also osatu 'operato, facito', § 601.

§ 504. The mediae generally retained their form of articulation.

b. Lat. bibō : Skr. pibāmi. See § 337.

d. Lat. dīcō, Umbr. deitu 'dicito' Osc. deikum 'dicere' : Skr. diśāmi. See § 368.

g. Lat. gen-us, Osc. Genetai 'Genetrici' : Skr. jan- Av. zan-. See § 388.

g. Lat. gelu, Osc. γελαρ 'pruinam' : O.Bulg. žlédica. Lat. unguō, Umbr. umen 'unguen' fr. unben* : Skr. *añjī-*ś. Lat. veniō fr. gyeniō*, Umbr. benust 'venerit' : Gr. βαίρω, rt. gem-. See §§ 430, 432.

In the Italic branch other sounds — in Lat. especially the Indg. med. asp. — fell together with the Indg. mediae. Some of the changes of articulation, discussed in the following sections, equally concerned these other sounds.

That Lat. b (= Indg. b, dy, bh, dh, gh) was spoken as b from the second century onwards, seems to follow from such inscriptional forms as quirus for quibus and cibes for cives (Corssen Ausspr. I² 131 ff., Seelmann Ausspr. 239 f.).

§ 505. A media became a tenuis, when it came to stand before a voiceless spirant or explosive. Lat. cette fr. ce-dite* etc., see § 501 rem. 2. Osc. actud 'agito', Umbr. aitu 'agito' fr. aktōd*, prim. Ital. agetōd*, Umbr. fiktu 'figito' umtu 'unguito'; see § 502. Cp. also Lat. attuli, accumbō, appellō fr. ad tulī etc.

§ 506. Lat. mn fr. bn. scamnu-m : scabellu-m. Cp. mn fr. pn § 500.

wn (written gn) from gn already in prehistoric times. lignu-m fr. legno-m* : legō, see § 65 p. 53. benignu-s. ad-gnōscō* became agnōscō*, further āwnōscō, written agnosco. wn became wn : ignōscō i. e. āwnōscō fr. in-gnōscō*; cōgnōscō i. e. cōāwnōscō fr. con-gnōscō*. wn became n initially, probably at the same time as the wn which had arisen from cn (§ 500); this change took place about 150 B. C. : gnātu-s nātu-s, gnōscier nōscō. So also Umbr. naratu 'declarato', to Lat. gnāru-s nāru-s.

Rem. 1. The n instead of gn in renum, propunatori etc, on inscriptions, under the Empire, is also to be explained from the pronunciation wn.

am from gm. agmen i. e. æmen from agmen*. From etāmen beside agmen, the former of which points to agmen* with originally long a (cp. amb-āgēs, co-āgulum) — exāgmen* would have become ex-egmen*, see § 97 — we may conclude that the simplification of gm to m took place regularly only before orig. long vowels, or diphthongs. With this also agree con-tāmin-ō : con-tāgiu-m and jāmen-tu-m : Gr. ζεύγμα Lat. jāger-a. Cp. am from cm § 500.

m from dm. caementu-m : caedō. rāmentu-m : rādō. flāmen to Goth. blōtan 'to honour (the deity) with offerings' or to flagrāre? cacūmen fr. cacūdynen*? : Skr. kākud- 'top'.

Rem 2. I do not venture to express an opinion as to the treatment of dn in Latin, but merely refer to the conjectures by W. Meyer Kuhn's Ztschr XXVIII 164 f.

nd (which had partly arisen from md) became nn, n in Umbr.-Samn. Umbr. ponne pone Osc. pūn 'quom' fr. pon-de*; Umbr. pane Osc. pau 'quam' = Lat. quan-de, see § 207. Umbr. an-penes 'impendes', pihaner 'piandi'. Osc. ūpsannam 'operandam'. This change was older than that of nt to nd in Umbr. ander 'inter' (§ 499).

Umbr. umen 'unguen' fr. umben*, § 432 a.

Rem. 3. The l in the Umbr. fut. ex. en-telust 'intenderit' and a-pelust 'impenderit' a-pelust 'impenderit' is unexplained. That the l goes back to ndf (Bücheler), is incredible to me; the composition of a participial stem entendlo-* with fust (Bechtel Bezzemb. Beitr. VII 7) is impossible.

Lat. ll fr. dl and ld. sella fr. sedla*. sallō fr. saldō*. See § 369.

Loss of d before i, y. Lat. Jov-is, Umbr. Iuv-e Osc. Iuv-ei 'Jovi': Skr. dyaú- § Gr. Zev-s. Concerning Osc. zicōlo-m 'diem' see § 135 extr. Lat. suāvi-s fr. syād-y-i-s* : Skr. fem. snād-v f. 'suavis'.

Lat. v fr. gy = Indg. g. vivo-s : Osc. bivus 'vivi', Skr. jīvā-s etc. See § 432 b.

§ 507. Prim. Indg. d'dh became in prim. Ital. zdh — sth — sp (§ 509), hence Lat. st. Thus custōs : huzd 'treasure', see § 469, 5, perhaps also hasta : Goth. gazds 'a prick'.

Rem. For Lat. credō, first of all from credō* (cp. pēdō fr. pēdō*, § 594), it would hardly be right to assume a kred^hd^h*, even in Indg. since in Skr. the two members of the compound, kred* 'heart' and rt. d^h, were not yet fused into an inseparable unity (cp. e. g. ārdā asmāi dhatta 'believe in him' ṛgv. II 12, 5). We must nevertheless start out from a prim. Ital. cre(d)sdh-*, cp. § 521 on O.Ir. cretim 'credo'. It may be assumed that in Italic, as in Sanskrit, the feeling for the connexion with the other forms of rt. d^h was not yet extinct, and that d for regular p was thus introduced after con-dō ab-dō etc. (cp. W. Meyer Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII 166), just as nōbis stood for regular nospi* (§ 594).

ī, rs from d in Umbrian between vowels and finally, e. g. te-īa di-rsa 'det.' See § 369.

In Umbr. mielo 'muttitum' beside mugatu imper. 'muttito' (Lat. māgīnor 'I murmur') i probably represents a voiced spirant. It may be conjectured that palatal vowels had a similar influence upon a preceding g as they had upon a preceding k (§ 502).

§ 509. The mediae aspiratae became tenues asp. in prim. Ital., then voiceless affricatae, and lastly voiceless spirants: f, p, x, x^h. Probably in the same period p was further shifted to t after s and the non-labialised x to h except after and before nasals and before r and l.

This state of the form of articulation generally remained: in Umbr.-Samn., whereas medially the spirants were developed to mediae in Lat.: b fr. f = older f (§ 338) p (§ 370) x^h (§ 433c); d fr. p = older p (§ 370); g fr. x = older x (§§ 389. 430); ngu (ngū) fr. nx^h = older nx^h (§ 433a)*; gu (whence v) between vowels from x^h = older x^h (§ 433b). Further, initially, g from x before r (§ 430).

1. Initially.

Prim. Ital. f (Lat. Umbr.-Samn. f) = Indg. b^h. Lat. ferō, Umbr. ferar 'feratur' Marruc. feret 'feret': Skr. bhārāmi. See § 338.

Prim. It. f (Lat. Umbr.-Samn. f) = Indg. d^h. Lat. felāre, Umbr. felīuf 'lactantes': Skr. dhāyāmi. See § 370.*

Prim. Italic h (Lat. U.-S. h) = Indg. gh gh except before r. Lat. humu-s, Umbr. hondra Osc. huntru 'infra': Gr. χαμα, Indg. gh-. Lat. hosti-s: O.Bulg. gostŭ, Indg. gh-. A dialectical (Sabine) pronunciation of the h was represented by f: folus, foſtis. See §§ 389. 430.

Prim. It. xr (Lat. gr) = Indg. ghr. Lat. gradior: Goth. gridi- O.Bulg. grędę. See § 430.

Prim. It. f (Lat. f) from χ^v = Indg. gh. Lat. formu-s: Skr. gharmā-s, Goth. varmjān. See § 433c.

2. Medially.

Prim. It. f (Lat. b, U.-S. f) = Indg. bh. Lat. ti-bŭ, Umbr. te-fe Osc. t(i)-fei 'tibi': Skr. tū-bhyam. See § 338.

Prim. It. p (Lat. d, Osc. f) = Indg. dh except before and after r (however in the combination rph), before l and after u (y), perhaps also after m. Lat. mediu-s, Osc. meſiaſ 'in media': Skr. mādhyā-s. See § 370.

Prim. It. f (Lat. b, U.-S. f) = Indg. dh before and after r (except the combination rph), before l and after u (y), perhaps also after m. Lat. rubro-, Umbr. rufro 'rubros': Gr. ῥυθρό-ς. See § 370.

Prim. It. t (Lat. t) fr. p = Indg. dh after s. Lat. custōs Goth. huzd, Indg. kuḍ^hdh-*. See §§ 469, 5. 507. Cp. also Lat. st fr. sp = Indg. sth in vŕdiſt § 553.

Prim. It. h (Lat. U.-S. h) = Indg. gh except after and before nasals and before l. Lat. vehō, Osc. vehia 'plaustrum': Skr. vāhami. See § 389. This early weakening of χ to h, in this position, explains why the explosive g does not appear in Latin.

Prim. It. χ (Lat. g) = Indg. gh (gh) after and before nasals and before l. Lat. lingō: Skr. lŕhmi, rt. leigh-. mingō beside mējō (§ 510). māgnu-s beside major (§ 510). trāgula fr. trāglā* beside trahō. See § 389.

Rem. 1. The g (instead of h) in magis and liguriō was perhaps transferred from māgnu-s and lingō. But whence the g in ad-āgiu-m, prōd-igiu-m, to ājō (§ 510)?

Prim. It. χ^u (Lat. gu) = Indg. gh after io. Lat. ninguit: Lith. smiŋga. See § 433 a.

Prim. It. χ^u (Lat. gu*, whence v) = Indg. gh between sonantal vowels. Lat. niv-em: Gr. νίψ-α. See § 433 b.

Rem. 2. The forms levi-s (Skr. laghā-s, Gr. λαχό-ς, Goth. leihts, Lith. leigv-as) and brevi-s (Gr. βραχό-ς) still remain obscure.

Prim. It. f (Lat. b, Praenest. f) fr. χ^u = Indg. gh. Lanuv. nebrundin-es, Praenest. nefrōn-es: Gr. νεφρό-ς OHG. nioro. See § 433 c.

§ 510. The fricative sound of h was reduced to a minimum in the Italic languages. In certain positions the sound was entirely dropped.

The weakness of articulation betrays itself in Latin through the doubt which existed as to where h should be written, and where not, e. g. halare for alare (§ 208 p. 176), anser for hanser (Gr. χῆν).

h disappeared uniformly before i. major fr. mahjōr* (beside māgnu-s): Skr. māhīyas- 'greater'. ajō fr. ahjō* or ahjō* (beside arare 'to call to, nominare'): Skr. dha 'he spoke'. Further, often between vowels, especially after i-vowels (accentual relations also formed a factor). lien: Skr. plthān- 'spleen' Gr. σπλάγγιον 'entrails'. mājō probably from mejhō*: Skr. mēhami 'I make water'. bīmu-s fr. bi-himu-s*. nēmō fr. ne-hemō*. Further nūl = nihil, prēndō = prehendō, praebeō = praehibeō, cōrs = cohors, prōbeō = prōhibeō etc., which stand on a level with dēsse = dēssē, coept = coepti.

Cp. also diribeō = dis+habeo with the same r from s as dir-imō etc. (§ 569).

The same fluctuation in the writing of h exists in Umbr.-Samn. as in Lat. Umbr. eretu part. pass. to heri 'vult', conversely he- for e- 'ex' in he-bet-af-s beside e-bet-raf-e 'in exitus' (to Lat. baetere, cp. § 432 rem. 1). Osc. Herukinaf 'Erycinae', Equinif*.

It was dropped medially in Osc. mais 'magis' mainas gen. 'maximae' beside Mahis [s] 'Magius'.

§ 511. In Lat. the b, d, g, which arose from voiceless spirants, underwent the same treatment as the corresponding original mediae. grallae 'stilts' fr. grad-lae*, see § 369. amni-s fr. abni-s*, along with O.Ir. abann 'river' is probably to be connected with Skr. abhrá- 'thunder-cloud'; Samniu-m beside Sabniu-s Oso. Safinim 'Samnitium', see § 506.

Old Irish.

§ 512. The tenuēs except p were generally retained in prim. Kelt. p disappeared at that period in all positions except before consonants and before consonants it became a spirant.

t, c appear in Irish as the successors of prim. Kelt. t, k ky (Indg. t, k g) in absolute initiality and after spirants and r, l.

temen 'dark-gray': Skr. támas-. tiagam 'I stride, go': Gr. οὐρ/χω, rt. steigh-. ocht 'eight': Gr. ὀκτώ. t-pret. al-t 'educavit'. See § 371.

críde 'heart': Lith. szirdš-s. cara 'friend': Lett. kārs. cethir 'four': Gall. petor-ritum, Skr. catvā-ras. scáth 'shadow': Goth. skadu-s. iasc 'fish' (a-stem): Lat. pisci-s Goth. fiska-. ro sescaind 'he leapt': Skr. caskánda. scél 'narration, tidings': Cymr. chwedl fr. prim. Kelt. sky-e-tlo-n* (Cymr. chw- first fr. sy-*), rt. seq- 'say'. sesc 'barren': Cymr. hysp 'dry, withered', Lat. siccus (cp. § 516). ad-con-darc 'I saw': Skr. dadárśa, rt. derk-. orc 'pig': Lith. pařsza-s, cpf. porko-s*. See §§ 390. 434. 436.

§ 513. t, c became voiced mediae after nasals, then the nasal disappeared (with compensation lengthening). The letters t, c were retained in the O.Ir. period. It was not until a later period that the orthography was set straight by the introduction of d, g. cét 'hundred': Cymr. cant, Lat. centu-m. ōac ōc 'young': Cymr. ieuanc, Lat. juvencu-s. See § 212.

§ 514. After vowels t, c became p, χ, which were written th, ch. Hence d, g in unaccented syllables (except finally). These were written d, g, like the voiced spirants which had arisen from original mediae (§ 522). d, g however occur consistently only for the palatalised d, g.

máthir 'mother': Lat. mater. cath 'fight': Gall. catu- (in prop. names), OHG. hadu- 'fight'. cloth 'renowned': Gr. κλέρο-ς. 2. pl. carthe, no charid, to caraim 'I love'; cp. the personal endings Gr. -rs Lat. -tis. 3. sg. pass. car-thir 'amatur' midí-dir 'iudicatur': cp. Lat. -tur. beothu 'life' gen. bethad dat. bethid, suffix *-tút-: Lat. -tút-.

fiche 'twenty': O.Cymr. uceint, Skr. vīṣattī-. sechur 'sequor' rt. seq-. marc-ach 'equester': Cymr. march-awc, Gall. Ben-ācu-s; cumacht-ach 'potens', 1. sg. cumacht-aigim 'potior'. cathr-ach gen., cathr-aig acc., to nom. cathir 'town'.

On the like origin of voiceless spirants in conditional initiality, e. g. a thuath 'O folk', see § 658, 1.

Rem. 1. On mac 'son', mucc 'pig', cacc 'dirt', llicim 'I leave', whose 'status durus' is remarkable, see § 436 rem.

Rem. 2. The spirants of the prepositions aith- 'against' (Gall. ati-) and frith- 'towards' became assimilated to the initial consonant of the following word, when the preposition had the chief accent. tht to tt: ní fritháit 'non obsistunt'. the to ce (c): teccomnuir 'accidit' fr. to-aith-comnuir*, freendaire 'present' fr. frith-con-daíre*. thg to gg (written e or ce, cp. § 519): freere 'responsum' from frith-gaire*, zene 'cognitio, sapientia' fr. aith-gne* (cp. Thurneysen Revue Celt. VI 320), taccair tacair 'congruus, decens' fr. to-aith-gair*. thb to bb (written p, cp. §§ 519. 524): epert 'speech' fr. aith-berí*.

§ 515. pt probably became cht even in prim. Kelt. O.Ir. secht Mid.Cymr. seith 'seven': Lat. septem. See § 339.

Indg. pn in O.Ir. suan Cymr. hun 'sleep': Skr. svápnas Gr. ὑπνο-ς etc. It is highly probable that p was here also no longer an explosive in prim. Kelt., see § 339 rem.

§ 516. tk became sk in Kelt. O.Ir. sesc 'barren' Cymr. hysp 'dry', fr. siskyo-s*: Lat. siccus, orig. form sitgo-s*. O.Ir. mesc 'intoxicating, drunk': Skr. máda- 'drunkenness'. lesc 'piger': Goth. lats 'lazy'. uisce 'water': Skr. udán-udaká- 'water'. Here belongs also O.Ir. brisc Bret. bresk 'brittle', in case it comes from the rt. bherdh-, § 298. Cp. Av. ḫk, sc from prim. Ar. tk, tc § 473, 2 and Germ. sk fr. tk § 527. From the Gallic belong perhaps also here Pruscia Prudca (d'Arbois de Jubainville Études grammaticales sur les langues celtiques I p. 31* ff.).

The ð in the latter form denotes here, as also elsewhere, a voiceless spirant.

ss (whence further also s) from ts in the prim. Kelt. period. O.Ir. 1. pl. of the s-fut. messimír to midíur 'I judge'. Fut. ro-fessur 'I shall know', rt. uejd-. Future stem sēs- fr. syents-* i. e. syend*+s- (syend- 'drive, hunt') 1. sg. cu-du-sē[s]-sa, fut. sec. 1. sg. du-sēsainn (Thurneysen Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII 148).

ss from t't. inf. mess 'a judging', orig. form met'tu-* i. e. med+tu-. Inf. fiss 'a knowing' i. e. uid+tu-*. It is uncertain whether this change be prim. Kelt., because of the Gallic spellings with ð, as MEDÞVLVS beside Messulus (to O.Ir. mess).

O.Ir. -ss- fr. -st-. ro chloss 'was heard' fr. klus-to-*, cluas 'ear' fr. kleys-ta-* or kloys-ta-*, to cloor 'I hear', cp. Skr. śruṣ-ṭi-ṣ 'compliance', OHG. hlos-ēn 'to listen' OS. hlus-t 'a hearing', O.Bulg. sluchū 'a hearing'. ais aes (gen. aisso aisa) 'age' fr. aiyes-tu-*: cp. Gr. alēs 'always'. is 'is': Gr. ἵστη. tair-issíur 'I stand, stand still', sessam 'a standing': Gr. ἵστημι 'I place', Lat. sisto.

§ 517. kt became cht (χt) in prim. Kelt. O.Ir. ocht Cymr. oyth Corn. eath Bret. eiz 'eight': Skr. aṣṭā, Gr. ὀκτώ. recht 'law' as-r-ēracht 'surroxit': Lat. rēctu-s, rt. reġ-. ro iar-facht 'he asked' (pres. iarmi-foig 'he asks'): Gr. ἔρω, Lat. vōx, rt. yeq-. in-nocht 'hac nocte': Lith. nakšt-s.

Rem. ct was often written instead of cht in O.Ir.: oct rect etc. That cht (χt) was nevertheless spoken, is shown by Thurneysen Keltoromanisches p. 14 f., where the stage cht is also found for Gallic in the name Luxterios on coins (written Luclerius in Caesar).

ks = O.Ir. ss, s, Brit. ch, prim. Kelt. probably chs (χs). O.Ir. sessad O.Cymr. chuechet 'sextus': Gr. ἕξ, orig. f. syeks*. O.Ir. dess Cymr. deheu 'dexter': Goth. tathsva, Indg. dēks-* O.Ir. ōs uas Cymr. uch 'above': Lith. auksz-ta-s 'high', rt. aug-. no tes 'effugiam' s-fut. to techim 'fugio', Lith. tekū 'I run', rt. teq-. z, zs, probably to be read 'as χs', appears in Gall.: Uxello-dānum 'Hightown', to O.Ir. ōs uas; Dexsiva, to O.Ir. dess.

§ 518. t and c were dropped before liquids and nasals (with 'compensation lengthening' after short vowels, § 620). cenēl 'race': O.Cymr. cenell, suffix -tlo- (§ 110 p. 104). anal 'breath':

Cymr. anadl, prim. Kelt. analla*. dal 'a meeting together': O.Cymr. dall 'forum'. ēn 'bird': O.Bret. etn, rt. pet 'fly'. dēr 'tear': O.Bret. dacr Gr. δάκρυ. Reduplic. fut. 1. sg. cēl, to celim 'I conceal'. Cp. also suan 'sleep' § 339 rem.

ret (richt) was simplified to rt: ro ort 'delevit', part. timm-orte 'compressus', to orgun 'occisio' (rt. ergh-, cp. § 552).

Correspondingly res to rs, whence rr (cp. § 574): 3. sg. of the s-fut. orr, of the same verb.

§ 519. The mediae generally preserved their form of articulation in prim. Kelt. In O.Ir. they remained mediae in absolute initiality likewise after r and l, g also after nasals. These medial mediae were also written (bb), dd, gg or (p), t, c after r and l, in order to indicate that they were not to be spoken as spirants (§ 522) ¹⁾.

d. dēr 'tear': O.Bret. dacr, Gr. δάκρυ. cerd cerdd cert 'artist, smith': Cymr. cerdd 'art', Gr. νέδος 'gain', Lat. cerdō 'workman'. See § 372.

g, g. gein 'birth': Cymr. geni, Skr. jan- Av. zan-, rt. gen. gair 'call': Cymr. gair, Skr. gir-, rt. gar-. biu 'alive': Cymr. byu, Goth. qius Lith. gyva-s, Indg. gʷyo-s*. garg gargg 'rough, wild': Gr. γοργός 'spirited, wild'. serg sergg serc 'a passing away, decay, illness': according to Windisch to OS. swercan 'to become obscure, gloomy'. ferg ferc 'anger': Gr. ῥοπή 'impulse, feeling, disposition'. bongaim 'I break, reap': Skr. bāhāṇja 'he broke'. See §§ 391. 434. 437.

g remained also after d = Indg. z, see § 521.

§ 520. The media d in the prep. ad- = Lat. ad was assimilated to a following voiceless consonant, e. g. -acciu 'I see' fr. ad+ciu.

mb, nd became mm, nn. The O.Ir. monuments frequently preserve mb, nd beside mm, nn, probably contrary to the then living pronunciation. camm 'crooked': Cymr. cam 'crooked' Bret. kamm 'crooked' Gall. cambo-, Gr. καμψός:

¹⁾ An example for b, bb, p = Indg. b is wanting. But cp. arbe with Indg. bh § 524.

'crooked'. ro se-scaind 'he leapt': Lat. scandō, Skr. skānd-a-mi. cenn cend 'head, top, point': Cymr. penn pen Corn. pen, prim. Kelt. kyindo-*, according to Windisch (Kuhn-Schleicher's Beitr. VIII 44) to Skr. śvi- 'to swell' and identical with Gr. ἰλιρδω-ζ. mennant mendat Mid.Ir. 'dwelling': Skr. mandirā-m 'lodging, habitation'. Cp. § 525.

Ir. mun from bn (= Indg. bn, gn). fu-domain 'deep', compar. fu-dumun: Cymr. dufn 'deep', Goth. diups Lith. dubù-s 'deep', rt. dheyb- (§ 325); with these is said to be related O.Ir. domun 'world', Gall. Dumno-r̄ix, older Dubno-r̄ix. mna fr. bnas*, gen. to ben 'woman', Indg. stem form gnā* genā*, see §§ 428 a. 437 a.

§ 521. O.Ir. net nett Cymr. nyth 'nest' fr. Indg. nizdo-* through the intermediate stage nedilo-*. Cp. maly Cymr. maidd 'whey', fr. medga*, older mezga*, Gallo-Lat. mesga 'whey', according to Thurneysen Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII 152 to Slav. mozgū etc., hence uncertain, whether Indg. zg or zgh (§ 450). See § 595.

It seems to follow from Cymr. credu that Indg. kred dhe-*, which is to be presupposed for cretim 'credo' and the Skr. and Lat. related forms (§ 507 rem.), had not passed through kredzd-* to krezd-* in prim. Kelt., but that the nearest older form kredd-* rather came direct from kred d(h)-*.

Here may further be mentioned ro-fetar 'I have experienced, know' fr. rt. yeid-, which Thurneysen Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 174, XXVIII 151 regards as an s-aorist: yides-ar* gave rise to fedšar* (§ 634), and this to fetar, since d remained an explosive before s, or h (§ 576).

§ 522. b, d, g became spirants after vowels: b, d, z. The letters b, d, g were generally retained for these (bh, dh, gh in the modern orthography), on the other hand a double media or tenuis was written in cases where the sound had remained explosive (§ 519). ph f, th, ch were more seldom used to express b, d, z (Zeuss-Ebel Gr. C. p. 62 sq.).

b. ebaim 'I drink': Skr. pibāmi. See § 340.

d. críde 'heart': Gr. Ion. ῥπαδ-ιν. adfiadaim 'I announce': Skr. vēdayāmi. See § 372.

g, g. Imper. agat 'agant': Lat. agō, rt. ag-. Gen. tige 'of a house': Gr. στεγος, rt. steg-. See §§ 391. 434.

These voiced spirants probably became voiceless when final, cp. tech beside teg, camaiph beside cammaib 'notwithstanding' etc.

On the spirantal pronunciation of b, d, g in conditional initiality see § 658, 1.

§ 523. Loss of d, g (with 'compensation lengthening' after short vowels) before liquids and nasals. ar 'battle, slaughter, butchery': Cymr. aer fr. agor-*, to O.Ir. ag (gen. aga) 'battle', Gr. ἀγών, rt. ag-. am 'manus hostium' fr. agmen* or agmen*: Lat. agmen ex-amen, rt. ag- (cp. § 506). Perf. ro gēnar 'natus sum' fr. ge-gn-*, rt. gen-. uan 'lamb': Cymr. oen, Lat. agnus with Indg. g, see § 437 c.

ng = Indg. æg had been dropped before n in buain 'a harvesting, reaping', inf. to bongaim 'I break, reap' (§ 519).

Assimilation of ng to following m with lengthening of the preceding vowel. cēim 'a striding, step', to cingim 'I stride' (to Gr. οὐαῖω 'I limp'?). Analogously greim 'progressus', to in-grennim 'I pursue' fr. grend- with original dh, § 526.

§ 524. The mediae aspiratae fell together with the mediae in prim. Keltic, as in Iranian (§ 481) and in Baltic-Slavonic (§§ 542. 549). The laws, which obtain for the Indg. mediae (§§ 519-523), thus operated here also.

Media appears initially after r and l, g also after n (ŋ):

bh. biu 'sum': Lat. frō, rt. bhey-. orbe orbbe orpe 'hereditas': Goth. arbi 'heritage', Gr. ὀρφανός 'left, orphan'. See § 341.

dh. dī-th Mid.Ir. 'he sucked': Skr. dhāyami. ard ardd art 'high, great, noble', to which probably also Arduenna silva: Skr. ārdhvā-s. meld-ach mellit-ach 'acceptus, gratus': OS. mildī 'mild, kind, gracious'. See § 373.

gh, gh. gam 'winter': Lith. žemà. in-grennim 'I pursue': O.Bulg. grędq 'I come'. orgun orggun orcun 'a laying waste, devastating, killing, predatory excursion', Gall. Orgeto-rīx: Skr. ṛghayati 'trembles with passion, rages, raves', OHG. arg 'that which is worthless, vile, bad'. cun-ung 'narrow': Gr. ἄργη, rt. aagh-. esc-ung 'eel': Lat. angui-s. See §§ 392. 434. 438.

§ 525. Ir. mm, nn from m̃b, ñd = Indg. m̃bh, ñdh, cp. § 520. imm, imb 'about, around': Gall. ambi-, Gr. ἀμφι. immlind 'umbilicum': Gr. ομφαλό-ς Lat. umbilicu-s. in-grennim 'I pursue': O.Bulg. gręda Goth. gridi-. It is doubtful whether bonn bond 'solea' belongs here or to § 520, since this word seems to have had in prim. Indg. partly dh (Skr. budhná-s) and partly d (Gr. πύδαξ) (§ 469, 8). mm fr. m̃b = Indg. wgh in imm imb 'butter', see § 438 b.

A sure example for mn fr. bn = Indg. bhn (or ghn) is unknown to me. tamun 'stem' may belong to Skr. stambh-, with which it is generally connected, but the root had in prim. Indg. partly bh, and partly b (see § 469, 8), besides we probably ought to start out here from an original m̃b(h)n (cp. buain with wgn § 523).

To the form net 'nest' (§ 521) corresponds brot 'prick' fr. prim. Kelt. brozdo-s*, the d of which was Indg. dh, as is shown by Ags. brord O.Icel. broddr 'prick'. See § 595.

§ 526. b, d, g as spirants, cp. § 522.

bh. tri-b 'tribus': Skr. -bhiṣ. See § 341.

dh. riad 'a riding': O.Icel. riða. See § 373.

gh, gh. ligur 'tongue': Lith. lėžiù, rt. leigh-. lige 'bed': O.Bulg. legę, rt. legn-. snigid 'it drops': Gr. νίψαι, rt. sneigh-. See §§ 392. 434. 438.

Dropping of b, g, as in § 523. Reduplic. fut. do-bēr (do-biur 'I give', rt. bher- 'carry, bear') fr. bebr-*. nēl 'cloud' fr. neblo-*: OHG. nebul O.Icel. nífl-, Gr. νεφέλη. fēn 'waggon, cart': O.Icel. vagn 'waggon', rt. wegh-.

grēimm fr. grend-men* has already been mentioned in § 523.

§ 527. History of the tenuēs.

p, k (kʷ) before t and s became f, χ (χʷ) in prim. Germ. similarly as in Iran. (§ 473), Umbr.-Samn. (§ 502) and Keltic (§§ 339. 515. 517¹).

1) Cp. also Mod.Gr. ἐπρά πόρω, ἔχρα νόχα.

Goth. hliftu-s 'thief': Gr. κλέπτης. OHG. nift 'neptis', privigna': Lat. nepti-s. OHG. wafsa 'wasp': Lith. vapsà 'horse-fly', O.Bulg. vosà 'wasp' fr. yopsa* (§ 545). OHG. refsan 'to scourge, punish, blame', O.Icel. refsa, prim. Germ. rafsjana-n*: Skr. rāpas- n. 'bodily injury, violation'.

Goth. raihts OHG. reht 'right': Gr. ῥητός 'stretched out', cpf. rehtō-s*, rt. reht-. Goth. nahts OHG. naht 'night': Lat. nox noctis etc., orig. f. nohti-* noht-*. Goth. fimftu- 'quintus': Gr. πέμυτος, see § 444 a. e. Goth. saihs OHG. sehs 'six': Gr. ἕξ, cpf. syehs*.

Rem. 1. Goth. nipji-s 'cousin, relation', O.Icel. nidr 'descendant' pl. nidjar, Ags. niddas pl. 'homines' fr. prim. Germ. nipja-* and this from ne(p)ti-* in consequence of the combination of three consonants. Similarly Ved. dat. abl. pl. nādbhīyas from nabd-bhīyas* i. e. napt-bhīyas*.

The shifting of ts and tpt began simultaneously or even earlier; we put the latter for the prim. Germ. period in place of t't, see § 469, 4.

ts became ss, s. OHG. OS. wissun O.Icel. visso vissu (Goth. vissēdun) 'they knew', probably to Hom. ἴσων, cpf. yitsjt* i. e. yid+s+yt* (Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 398. 561). OHG. zan 'tooth' fr. prim. Germ. tans*, Indg. dont-s*, cp. Skr. dān fr. dants* (§ 647, 7), Gr. ὀδών. Cp. also Goth. ana-busns 'command' fr. butsni-*, to ana-biudan 'to bid, command', rt. bheydh- (§ 552).

tpt became ss except before r, whence s after a long syllable. Goth. ga-gissi- (nom. ga-giss) 'agreement', to giþan. Goth. -us-viss 'unbound', to viþan. OHG. gi-wis 'certain, sure' adv. gi-wisso: Gr. ἄ-ωρος 'unseen, unknown', cpf. yit'tō-s* i. e. yid+to-*, rt. yeid-. Ags. O.Icel. sess m. 'seat': part. Skr. sattā- Av. hasta- Lat. ob-sessu-s, Indg. set'tō-s*, rt. sed-. Goth. missa- in missa-dēps 'misdeed', OHG. missen O.Icel. missa 'to miss', to OHG. mīdan 'to avoid, intermit': Lat. mitto fr. mītō* (§ 612), part. missus.

s from ss after long syllables. Goth. un-veis (gen. -veisis) 'unknowing', OHG. wīs O.Icel. vīs-s 'wise': Lat. vīsu-s, 'orig. form yit'tō-e*, rt. yeid-. OHG. as n. 'carriage': Lat. ēsū-m, orig. f. et'tō-*, rt. ed- 'eat'.

The proper names Chattus (with Lat. ending) OHG. Hassi Hasso (to Skr. śad- 'to distinguish oneself, Gr. Dor. κεκαθήμενος?) and Lango-Bard. Tatto Tasso i. e. 'regulator, distributor' (Goth. ungatass 'disordered' Ags. tass 'acervus, congeries frugum', Gr. δαρίσσαι) seem to show that tþt had become ss, s through the intermediate stage tþ.

st arose before r. Goth. blōstreis 'sacrificer' OHG. bluostar 'sacrifice', to Goth. blōtan 'to sacrifice'. Ags. fōstor O.Icel. fōstr 'maintenance, support', to Goth. fōðjan 'to feed, nourish', Gr. παρίσσαι 'I eat'. The course of development seems to have been tþt, þt, st.

Rem. 2. The Lat. development (cp. § 501 rem. 3) renders it improbable that the course was sar, sr, str (cp. § 580), as is assumed by Kluge Paul-Braune's Beitr. IX 150. 157.

Rem. 3. Where st occurs in other positions than before r, they are new formations, e. g. Goth. kāpasta pret. of kāpustjan 'to box one's ears', OHG. wista beside wissa 'I knew', seurat 'sausage' from rt. sert 'turn' (after riřust 'loss' etc.). Cp. § 501 rem. 2.

tk became sk (cp. § 516). OHG. rasc 'quick, active, strong' O.Icel. raskr 'bold, brave' (Goth. rasgs*), prim. Germ. raskya-z* fr. ratkya-z*, to OHG. rad 'wheel'; O.Icel. laskr 'soft, slack, loose', prim. Germ. latkya-z*, to Goth. lats 'weary'; on the suffix -kya- = Indg. -go- cp. § 419. OHG. Ags. horsc 'quick, smart, prudent' O.Icel. horskr 'prudent, wise' Goth. and-hruskan 'to investigate, examine', probably to Goth. hard-u-s 'hard' Gr. χαρ-ύς 'strong', orig. form krt-ko-*, cp. also Mid.English harsk Dan. harsk 'rough, hard'. O.Icel. beiskr 'sharp', to Goth. bait-ra- 'biting, bitter'. Here probably also Ags. tusc or tasc 'tusk, tooth' (see Kluge Paul-Braune's Beitr. VIII 537) = Goth. tunska-*, with which Skr. a-dalka- 'toothless' may be compared, although this was a Skr. new formation.

h had disappeared in OHG. before s+consonant. mist 'dung': Goth. mahtsu-s. wast 'growth': Goth. vahsts. Cp. Kögel Paul-Braun's Beitr. VII 193 ff.

§ 528. A general shifting of the still remaining tenuēs to voiceless spirants, e. g. Indg. potér-* 'father' to fapér-, and peku 'cattle' to féxu*, probably did not take place until after the tenues had modified their original manner of articulation in the position before t, s (þ) and k (§ 527).

The only exception to this law is that the tenues stood in combination with preceding spirants: sp, st (= Indg. st and = Indg. tʰt before r, see § 527), ft (= Indg. pt and qt, see § 527), xt (= Indg. kt and qt, see § 527), sk (= Indg. sk, sq and Indg. tq, see § 527). Cp.:

Goth. speivan OHG. spüwan 'to vomit': Lith. spiduju etc., see § 342. Goth. OHG. ist 'is': Gr. ἴσθι, Indg. és-ti*. Goth. ga-kusts 'a trying, testing': Skr. júṣṭi-ṣ, Indg. gus-ti-s*. Goth. blōstreis 'sacrificer' OHG. bluostar 'sacrifice, offering' with str = Indg. tʰtr. Goth. hliftu-s 'thief': Gr. κλέπτης. Goth. fimfta 'quintus': Gr. πέμπτος, Indg. penqto-s*. Goth. rahts OHG. reht 'right': Gr. ὀρθρός, cpf. rekto-s*. Goth. nahts OHG. naht 'night': Lith. nakht-s, Indg. noqti-s*. Goth. skeinan OHG. scinan 'to shine': Gr. σκάω, weak rt. form skā, see § 393. Goth. us-skava 'considerate, sober', OHG. scomuon 'to look, see': Skr. kav-i-ṣ 'seer, teacher' weak rt. form sqā, see §§ 439. 589, 3. O.Icel. lōskr 'soft, tender, slack', orig. f. lot-qo-s*, rt. lēd, see § 527.

Rem. 1. The combination skl probably lost its k already in the prim. Germ. period. OHG. slōzan 'to shut' O.S. slutl 'key': Gr. κλεις etc., see § 425.

Rem. 2. sā, fā, hā are also written for medial st, ft, ht in OHG. Franconian monuments. See Kögel Üb. d. Keron. Glossar p. 70 f., Zu den Murbacher Denkm. (Leipz. 1893) 13 ff. On the value of the spellings sg, sch beside sk, sc see Kögel in the first named treatise p. 23, Braune Abd. Gramm. p. 127.

It is however quite possible that the tenues first underwent the same affection after spirants as in other cases and then after that became explosives again; that is Indg. ésti* became isþi* and then isti* (Goth. ist). Cp. 2. sg. last (lisan 'to collect, gather') fr. las-þa* (§ 541, 7), OHG. cumft fr. kumfþi-* (§§ 214. 529) and Goth. huzd 'treasure' fr. huzdā-n* (§ 538).

§ 529. The voiceless spirants in fapér-* 'father' etc., which had arisen according to § 528, remained voiceless spirants initially in prim. Germ., and also medially if the sonant next preceding received the principal accent (according to the old Indg. accentuation, § 686). The fricative sound of χ was reduced initially before vowels, and perhaps also medially under certain circumstances (not before consonants).

Gothic.

Initially. fadar 'father': Lat. pater. fōt-u-s 'foot': Lat. pēs. pat-a 'that': Gr. ró. þaha 'I am silent': Lat. taceō. hund 'hundred': Skr. śatā-m. hairsō 'heart': Lith. szirdi-s. haidu-s 'way, manner': Skr. kētū-ṣ. hlifa 'I steal': Pruss. au-klipts. hwa-s 'who': Skr. ká-s.

Medially. uf 'under': Skr. úpa, Indg. úpa*. brōþar 'brother': Skr. bhrātar-, Indg. bhrātar-*. vatrþa 'I become': Skr. vartami, Indg. vértā*. faihu 'cattle': Skr. páśu, Indg. péśu*. seaihra 'father-in-law': Skr. śráśura-s, Indg. śrēśuro-s*. saihra 'I see': Skr. sacati, Indg. 3. sg. mid. ségetaj*. vulfs 'wolf': Skr. vṛka-s, Indg. uṛgo-s*. See §§ 342. 374. 393. 439. 440. 441. 444 a.

German.

f remained. OHG. fater 'father'. OHG. nefo, cp. Ags. nefa O.Icel. nefe nafi 'relation, nephew': Skr. nāpāt 'descendant', Indg. népōt-*.

þ became ð, this remained down to the time of the OHG. monuments, and was represented by th (more rarely dh). In the course of the OHG. period however it was developed to d in different parts at different times (first in Bavaria during the eighth century). OHG. thorn dorn: Goth. þauru-s, O.Bulg. trǫnǫ. OHG. bruother bruoder 'brother'.

The letter h appears for prim. Germ. χ in HG., as in Goth. The sound was merely an aspirate in every case initially, and medially certainly at least between vowels. OHG. hunt 'hundred'. OHG. fahan 'to catch': Goth. fahan, prim. Germ. faŋxana-n* (cp. § 214 p. 182). The h in initial hw, hr, hl, hn disappeared from the eighth century onwards, earliest in huc, e. g. hwaz waz 'what': Goth. hwa; hlumunt liumunt 'renown': Goth. lūmna m.

'hearing', rt. ĕley-. Spellings like Chlodovichus (Hludwig) show that the value χ still prevailed in the fifth and sixth centuries.

West Germanic consonant lengthening (gemination) through following \dot{i} . OHG heffen OS. hebbian 'to raise': Goth. hafjan, Lat. capiō. OHG hlahhen Ags. hlichhan 'to laugh': Goth. hlahjan. Cp. §§ 532. 535. 540 and the similar doubling of nasals and l §§ 216. 277.

$n\dot{p}$ seems to have become $n\dot{s}p$ mft. OHG. cumft 'a coming' (Goth. ga-qumþi-), numft 'a taking', ramft 'edge', MHG. brunft 'rutting time of the red-deer' ($n\dot{s}$ from $m\dot{s}$). Cp. §§ 214. 528.

Rem. In like manner perhaps $n\dot{p}$ became $n\dot{s}p$, nat: OHG. kunst 'art', cp. Goth. kunþi 'knowledge'. Doubts remain because of Goth. aunþar: OHG. ander. On the s in Goth. anats etc. see Kluge Paul-Braune's Beitr. IX 154 f.

§ 530. Medial f , \dot{p} , χ (χ^w) became \dot{b} , \dot{d} , \dot{z} (\dot{z}^w) in prim. Germ. — and at the same time s became z (§ 581) —, when the next preceding sonant did not have the principal accent (§ 529) or t , s directly followed (§ 527). This phenomenon is called 'Verner's law' (see Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIII 97 ff.). The Indg. tenuēs, which were thus affected, fell together with Indg. $\dot{b}h$, $\dot{d}h$, $\dot{g}h$, \dot{gh} (§ 538) and underwent all further developments in common with these.

\dot{b} , \dot{d} , \dot{z} (\dot{z}^w) became b , d , g (gu) after nasals, very probably in the prim. Germ. period, and $\dot{z}u$ became g after vowels (§ 444 c).

These voiced spirants also became mediae after r , l in Gothic, while in other cases they remained spirants, but were not distinguished from mediae in writing.

The West Germanic dialects changed every other remaining \dot{d} to d . Then in Upper Germany and East Franconia \dot{d} became t (which partly suffered further affections that need not be taken into consideration here), elsewhere it remained. \dot{b} and \dot{z} became \dot{b} and g in HG. (while they remained spirants in other West-Germ. dialects), and these became p and k in Upper Germany, but not universally.

p . Prim. Germ. $*\dot{a}d\dot{d}$ fr. $*l\dot{i}f\dot{d}$ 'I adhere, remain' (rt. lejp-, cp. Skr. līpāmi Lith. līmpu): Goth. bi-leiba (\dot{b}), OHG. bi-lību Ags. be-līfe (f is to be read as b). OHG. noba 'festival' nobo 'colonus', to Skr. āpas- 'religious work' Lat. opus.

Goth. tigu-s (g) 'decade', OHG. -zig Ags. -tiz, O.Icel. tegr (g is the sign for g) are founded on Indg. dekṃ* with accented suffix (cp. Skr. instr. uśābhīṣ daśabhīṣ), dat. pl. Goth. tigum fr. tegy-mi* (§ 244), cp. Goth. talhun orig. f. dékmt* § 529. Goth. vigana- (g) m. or n. 'fight'. OHG. wīgant OS. wīgand (g is the sign for g) Ags. wīgend 'warrior' fr. the prim. Germ. tense stem uīxā-*, rt. uēig- (§ 439), cp. Goth. veiha 'I fight' orig. form uēiqō*. Prim. Germ. iūwga-* fr. iūwzā-* fr. iūwzā-* 'young' (Skr. yuva-śā-s): Goth. jūgys, OHG. OS. jung, O.Icel. ungr, cp. compar. Goth. jūhiza O.Icel. bre 'younger' fr. prim. Germ. iū(w)xiwō* (§ 214). Goth. hals-agga m. 'bend of the neck, nape': Skr. anākā-.

Verner's law is of special importance for the proper understanding of the 'grammatical change' in the verb. In this respect the West Germ. dialects show a variety of more archaic relations than Gothic, since the regular differences had been levelled out in this language by form-transference. To Skr. vártami 1. sg. pres., vavárta perf. indic. 3. sg., vavrtimá 1. pl., vavrtaná-part. from rt. yert- 'turn' corresponded prim. Germ. yérþō*, yárþi*, yurðumí*, yurðaná*-. From these regularly Ags. weorðe, weard, weurdon, worden OHG. wirdu, ward (wirthu, earth), wurtum, wortan. On the other hand Goth. vairþa, varþ, vairþum, vairþans, regular d (cp. fra-vardjan) having been supplanted by þ in the two last forms. OHG. regularly ziuhu, zōh, zugum, zogan (rt. deyk- 'draw'), but Goth. tiuha, tāuh, taūhum, taūhans, the two last for tugum*, tugans* (3), etc.

On prim. Germ. (3)u = Indg. g in Goth. siuns OS. siun 'countenance', OHG. part. -liwan 'lent' etc. see §§ 441. 444 c.

In prim. Germ. bn, dn, zn, before the principal accent of the word, passed into bb, dd, zz, further into bb, dd, gg, and these — still in the prim. Germ. period — became the tenues pp, tt, kk at the same time with the Indg. mediae (§§ 533. 534). Further shiftings took place in HG. viz. pp to pf (but Rhenish-Franconian pp), tt to zz (MHG. tz), kk to cch, that is, kx (but Frane. kk). MHG. hopfen (Mod.HG. Rhenish-Frane. hoppe) Ags. hoppian O.Icel. hoppa 'to hop' = Goth. huppōn*, MHG. hūpfen (Mod.HG. Rhenish-Fr. hippe) Mid.Engl. hyppen 'to hop' = Goth. huppjan*, prim. Germ. zupp*- fr. zud-n*-, orig. qup-n* : O.Bulg. kypēti 'to hop, leap'. OHG. snizzen* (to be inferred from snizzāri 'carver') MHG. snitzen 'to cut', prim. Germ. snitt*-, fr. smid-n*- orig. snit-n*-, cp. Goth. sneiþa 'I cut' from original snéjþō*. OHG. zocchōn MHG. zocken 'to pull, tug' = Goth. tukkōn*, OHG. zucchen MHG. zücken 'to drag' = Goth. tukkjan*, prim. Germ. tukek*- fr. duz-n*-, orig. duk-n*-, cp. Goth. tiuhan 'to draw', rt. deyk-. The nasal in these intensives was the nasal of the present stem-suffix -nā- (Gr. δύει-ν-η-μι etc.). On the other hand e. g. OHG. smoccho Ags. smoce O.Icel. smokkr 'underdress' (beside the intens. MHG. smücken 'to bevel, dress, adorn' to MHG. smiegen 'to press tightly' O.Icel. smjāga 'to creep through': Lith. smūkti 'to slide, glide' O.Bulg. smykati sę 'to creep') contained a nominal weak stem-form smug-n*- (cp. Gr. ἀρ-ν- 'ram', Skr. ud-n̄- 'water'), which underwent various transformations by analogy, after the strong forms smug-én-* etc. had died out (s. Kluge in Paul-Braune's Beitr. IX 169). Cp. §§ 214. 534. 538.

§ 531. The voiced spirants, which had been received from prim. Germ., passed into the corresponding voiceless spirants in Goth., when they came to stand finally or before s. Nom. masc. tamiþs 'domitus' neut. tamiþ 'domitum' beside gen. tamidis (ð) 'domiti' etc. 3. sg. pres. bairiþ 'bears' fr. birid(i)*: Skr. bhāratī. af 'of' beside ab-u with b (-u interrogative particle). 3. sg. pret. bi-láif (bi-leiba [b] 'I remain') fr. láib(i), a new formation for prim. Germ. láifi = Indg. le-lóip-e*. The letter g was retained to express χ, see § 539.

b, d, g, which are to be read as mediae after consonants, probably became tenues in the same position, but this change was not represented in writing. Part. nom. nasjands acc. nasjand 'saviour' from prim. Germ. anda-z* anda-n*. 3. pl. nasjand 'they rescue' prim. Germ. andi*. Nom. alds 'age' prim. Germ. aldi-s*. Nom. masc. juggs neut. jugg 'young' prim. Germ. -uogá-s* -uogá-n*.

§ 532. Prim. Germ. b, d, g became bb, dd, gg (gemination) before i in West Germanic, and these were further shifted to pp, tt, kk throughout the whole of High German. OHG. uppi 'ill-natured' prim. Germ. ubja-*, to OHG. ubil Goth. ubils 'evil', which as original upélo-* 'going over the mark, bounds' is connected with OHG. ubir ubar OS. oðar 'over' Skr. upāri Hom. Gr. ἐπί. OHG. drittio dritto 'tertius' OS. thriddio Ags. ðridda: Goth. þridja (ð) O.Icel. þride þridi (fem. þridja), prim. Germ. nom. masc. þridið(n)* fr. þri-þið(n)*: cp. Skr. tr̥tīya-s Lat. tertius. OHG. ekka 'point, edge, corner' OS. eggia: Goth. agja* (3) O.Icel. egg, gen. eggjar (ggj fr. gi by a special Norse law), prim. Germ. axið-* fr. axið-*: cp. Lat. acis, rt. ak-. OHG. wulpa MHG. wülpe 'she-wolf', with simplification of the pp after l, prim. Germ. wulbt* (Indg. ulgt*, Skr. vykt), gen. wulbjós* (a new formation for wulziós*), fem. to OHG. wolf Goth. wulfs prim. Germ. wulfa-z* (Indg. ulgo-s*), see § 444 a. Cp. §§ 529. 535. 540.

These became tenuēs in prim. Germanic, except d in the Indg. combination d'dh.

Gothic like the other Germ. languages, except High German, retained these tenuēs.

b. diups 'deep': Lith. dubù-s, rt. dheyb-. See § 343.

d. tiuhan 'draw': Lat. dūcō. hairtō 'heart': καρδ-ία. asts 'twig, branch': Gr. ὄζο-ς, Indg. ozdo-s*. See § 375.

g, g. kaurn 'corn': O.Bulg. zrŭno, cpf. gr-no-m. uf-rak-jan* 'to lift up': Aŕ. raz-išta- 'straightest, most just', rt. reğ-. juk 'yoke': Skr. yugá-m, Indg. jugó-m. qima* 'I come': Škr. gám-a-mi, rt. gem-. vairpa 'I throw': O.Bulg. vrŭga, rt. verg-. See §§ 394, 439, 440, 443, 444 a.

The character of these sounds remained unchanged in West Germanic in the period of the prim. community. In HG. however they underwent further shiftings.

In Upper and Middle German dialects p became pf (written pf and ph) initially and after consonants, but ff (f) between vowels. This pf became f (ff) initially in certain dialects and in most of them medially after consonants. OHG. pflegan flegan (Renish-Franconian plegan) 'to care for': OS. plegan 'to promise, pledge', perhaps to Gr. πλέqaο-ν 'eyolid' (Kluge Et. Wörterb.). OHG. werpfan werfan 'to throw': OS. werpan, Goth. vairpan with p fr. Indg. g, see above. OHG. slaf (gen. slaffes) 'slack, lax': Du. slap; OHG. slaffan slafan 'to sleep': OS. slapan, Goth. slēpan, O.Bulg. slabŭ 'slack, weak', rt. slēb-. OHG. scaffōn 'do, make': O.Icel. skapa (beside this OHG. scepfen 'to scoop': OS. skeppian, see § 535); this category has been ascribed to the rt. sqab- in Lith. skabù-s 'cutting etc. (§ 346), the intermediate meaning being regarded as 'to bring to pass by hollowing out'.

t became z, that is ts, in HG. initially (except before r) and after consonants (except after s); after vowels it became the voiceless spirant ʒ (z), see § 375. OHG. ziohan 'to draw, pull': OS. tiohan, Goth. tiuhan. OHG. herza 'heart': OS. herta, Goth. hairtō. OHG. smelzan 'to smelt, melt, become liquid' smalz n. 'grease': Ags. smolt 'soft, quiet', Gr. μείλω 'I soften, melt'. OHG. wizzan 'to know' weiz 'I know': OS. witan wēh, Goth. witan wāt.

Initially OHG. tr- = Goth. tr-: triuwa 'fidelity': Goth. triggva, Pruss. druei (§ 375); on the spelling dr- for tr- in Franc. sources, as driuwa, see Kögel Keron. Gloss. 70 f., Zu den Murbacher Denkm. (Leipz. 1883) 13 ff.

OHG. ast 'branch': Goth. asts, Indg. ozdo-s*. nest 'nest': Ags. nest, Skr. nīdā-s 'lair of animals', Lat. nīdu-s, Indg. ni-ād-o-s* (§ 355).

OHG. quīfalōn beside zweifalōn 'to doubt': Goth. twēifls. See § 375.

k became kx (written cch, ch etc.) in Upper German initially and after consonants (except s), whilst it remained k in Middle Germ. It became xx, x (hh, h) universally between vowels. OHG. chorn koṛn 'corn': Goth. kaurn. chniu knīu 'knee': Goth. knīu. chuceman queman 'to come': Goth. qiman. werch werk: OS. werc, Gr. ἔργο-v. danch thank 'thought, thanks': OS. thanc, Goth. þagks, Lat. tongeō 'I know'. wahhēn 'to wake': OS. wakōn, Goth. vakan, Skr. vājáyati 'urges on, drives on'. dah, gen. dahhes, 'roof': O.Icel. þak, Lat. tegō.

OHG. masca OS. maska 'mesh, stitch': Ags. mæsce, O.Icel. mǫske mǫskvi, Lith. mezgù 'I knit' māzgas 'knot', rt. mezg-.

§ 534. bn, dn, gn became bb, dd, gg before the principal accent in prim. Germ., thence by § 533 pp, tt, kk, which were further treated just the same as the pp, tt, kk (§§ 530. 538) which had arisen from Indg. pn, tn, kn qn and from Indg. bhn, dhn, ghn ghn. OHG. topfo 'top' MHG. topf 'pot' (Rhenish-Franc. topp), Ags. doppa 'mergus', to Goth. diups, rt. dheyb-. MHG. rupfen ropfen 'to pluck' (Rhenish-Franc. roppe), to OHG. roufen Goth. rāupjan 'to pluck, tear out'; rt. reyb- (§ 343). MHG. stutzein 'to push (with the horns), start back', to OHG. stōzan Goth. stāutan 'to push', Skr. tudāmi, Lat. tundō. MHG. slitzen 'to slit', to OHG. slīzan OS. Ags. slitan 'slit, split', rt. sleyd-. OHG. loc loch (pl. loccha) MHG. loc (pl. locke) 'lock, ringlet', Ags. locc O.Icel. lokkr = Lith. lagna-s 'pliable', to Gr. λύγο-ς 'pliant twig or rod' λυγώω 'I bend, tie' OHG. sluccho.

slucko 'glutton' MHG. slucken 'to gulp, have hiccup', to Gr. λῦζω λυγγάνομαι 'I have the hiccup'.

§ 535. The prim. Germ. tenues, which had arisen from Indg. mediae, became pp, tt, kk (geminatio) in West German. not only before i, but also before r, l and w. pp became pf (Rhenish-Franc. pp) in HG.; tt became zz before i, but remained before r, kk became kx in Upper German, but remained in Middle German. OHG. scöpfen 'to scoop' (Rhenish-Franc. scheppe), OS. skeppian, see § 533. OHG. lezzan MHG. letzan 'hinder, hurt', OS. lettian Ags. lettan: Goth. latjan, rt. lād 'leave, let'. OHG. ottar 'otter' (on the anaptyctic a in this and the following forms see §§ 277. 628): O.Icel. otr pl. otrar, Skr. udrā-s 'water animal', Gr. ὕδρo-ς ὕδρa 'water serpent'. OHG. OS. bittar 'bitter': Goth. baitrs (ablaut difference bhidro*:-bhojdro*-), to Goth. bītan 'to bite'. OHG. hlättar 'clear, pure', Ags. hlattor: Goth. hlātrs, Gr. κλύζω fr. *κλυδ-ιω 'I wash out, clean'. OHG. wecchen wecken to wake', OS. wekkian: Goth. wakjan, O.Icel. vekja, to OHG. wahhēn etc., see § 533. OHG. acchar accar 'acro, field', OS. accur: Goth. akrs, Gr. ἀγρό-ς. OHG. facchlu facchala faccala 'torch', it is doubtful whether it was borrowed from Lat. facula. OHG. nacchot naccot 'naked': Goth. nagaþs, Lat. nūdus fr. no(g)nedo-s*, Skr. nagnā-s (§ 432 c). OHG. chuecchēr quekkēr infl. adj. form 'alive, quick': O.Icel. kykr acc. kykan, prim. Germ. kyikya-*, beside Goth. giu-s (st. giva-). On the loss of the w after medial k in OHG. see § 180. Cp. §§ 529. 532. 540.

§ 536. The d in dzdh became assimilated to the following s in prim. Germ. Goth. huzd 'treasure' OHG. hort, Indg. kud'dho*-. Perhaps also Goth. gazds 'sting, prick' OHG. gart 'rod, switch' O.Icel. gaddr 'sting': Lat. hasta. See §§ 469, 5. 507. 538.

Rem. Osthoff (Morph. IV 262 f.) attempts to adjust Goth. uz- OHG. ur- ar- (Mod.HG. ur- er- in ur-teil er-teilen) to Skr. ud and Goth. ūt OHG. ūz 'out' by assuming that the form arose regularly in compounds like Goth. us-dreiban (for us-dreiban*) 'to drive out'. Cp. Av. us § 476. OHG. ort OS. ord O.Icel. oddr 'point, top', fr. ud+dhē* 'put up, lift up'?

The s in Goth. uz- became assimilated to a following r, as ur-reisan 'to rise up'.

§ 537. History of the mediae aspiratae.

In prim. Germ. they first became the voiced spirants b, d, g (34).

1. Initially. In the course of the individual dialects they were shifted to mediae; in Gothic all three in prehistoric times; in West Germanic b and d in all branches likewise in prehistoric times, whilst g remained as g in OS. and Ags. down to historic times; in the period of the oldest runic monuments all three were still spirants in Norse. In IIG. b and g were further shifted to p and k in Upper Germany, d was shifted to t both there and in East Franconia.

bh. Goth. beitan 'to bite', OHG. bīzzan bīzan Upper Germ. pīzzan OS. Ags. bītan, O.Icel. bíta (prim. Norse bītan*): Skr. bhédāmi, rt. bhejd-. See § 344.

dh. Goth. dags 'day', OHG. Rhenish-Franc. dag East Franc. and Upper Germ. tag OS. dag Ags. daw, O.Icel. dagr runic. dagaz (read dazaz): Lith. dāga-s, rt. dhegh-. See § 376.

gh gh. Goth. gans* 'goose' (from which Span. gunso was borrowed), OHG. gans Upper Germ. cans Ags. gās, O.Icel. gās: Lith. ėąsl-s. Goth. gasts 'guest', OHG. gast Upper Germ. cast OS. gast (g) Ags. giest, O.Icel. gestr runic. gastiz (g): Lat. hosti-s O.Bulg. gostŭ. In gu- (= Indg. gh-g-) was dropped already in prim. Germ.: Goth. varmjan 'to warm', OHG. warm O.Icel. varmr 'warm': Skr. gharmā-s. See §§ 395. 439. 443.

§ 538. 2. Medially. The Indg. mediae aspiratae, through their being developed to voiced spirants, fell together with the Indg. tenues according to § 530, and thus the laws given in §§ 530—532 operated here also.

The following forms, in the first place, are to be judged of by § 530.

bh. Goth. liuba- (b) 'dear', OHG. linbo adv. 'with pleasure' Ags. leófoſt 'dearest' (f is b), O.Icel. ljáfr 'dear' (f is b): Skr. lúbhyati 'fosters a vehement longing', rt. leubh-. Goth. kalbō 'female calf', OHG. chalba f. chalb n., Ags. cealf (b) n., O.Icel. kalf (b): Gr. δολφός & διλφύς 'womb' δέλαξ 'pig'. OHG. chamb (gen. chambes) 'toothed instrument, comb', Ags. comb: Skr. jāmbha-s 'tooth', Gr. γόμετος 'plug, peg, pin, nail', O.Bulg. zabŭ 'tooth'.

dh. Goth. ana-biudan (ð) 'bid, command', OHG. biotan biodan OS. biodan Ags. beódan, O.Icel. bjóða, prim. Germ. beyðana-n* : Skr. bódhami, rt. bheydh-. Goth. bindan 'to bind', OHG. bintan bindan OS. Ags. bindan, O.Icel. binda, prim. Germ. bindana-n* : Skr. bándhana-m, rt. bhendh-. Goth. hairða 'herd', OHG. herta herda Ags. heord, O.Icel. hjerð, prim. Germ. xerðo* : Skr. śárdha-s 'herd, troop'.

gh, gh. Goth. steigan (3) 'to ascend, climb', OHG. stigan OS. stigan (3) Ags. stīgan, O.Icel. stiga (3), prim. Germ. stīgana-n* : Gr. στειγω, rt. steigh-. Goth. aggvu-s 'narrow', OHG. engi, O.Icel. qngv : Gr. αγγω, rt. añgh-. Goth. gagan 'to go', OHG. gangan, O.Icel. ganga : Skr. janagha- 'heel-bone', rt. ghesagh-. Goth. láuna-vargu- 'unthankful man', OHG. warg 'strangler' MHG. er-wergen 'to strangle', O.Icel. vargr (3) 'wolf, outlawed evil-doer' : Lith. veršiti 'I string, compress, straiten', rt. yergh-.

On prim. Germ. (3)y in Goth. snáives fr. orig. snoigho-s* and similar forms see §§ 443. 444 b. In the cases there quoted prim. Germ. 3*y* was the labialised form of Indg. gh. The same loss of a suffixal -y- occurs in prim. Germ. ma(3)y-i* 'girl' (Goth. mavi, gen. máujōs), to masc. Goth. magu-s 'boy, child, servant' = O.Ir. mug 'slave, servant'; cp. Skr. śadd-v-i fem. to śadd-ú-ś 'suavis'.

Here is further to be added — in contrast to § 530 — the case when prim. Germ. ð, 3 followed z. Goth. mizdō 'pay, reward', in West Germ. with 'compensation lengthening' of the e = i OHG. mēta miata OS. mēda O.Fris. mēde Ags. mēd beside meord (r from z) : Gr. μισθός, Indg. mizdhó-* mizdhá-* (§§ 596. 621). Goth. huzd 'treasure', OHG. hort OS. hord (horth) Ags. hord, O.Icel. hodd : Indg. kud'dho-*, cp. §§ 469, 5. 507. 536. OHG. marg 'medulla' Ags. mearg, O.Icel. mergr (3), Goth. masga-, pre-Germ. mozgho-*, cp. §§ 450. 590. 596

Prim. Germ. pp, tt, kk from bn, dn, zn. Sure examples are known to me only for kk, as OHG. lecchōn Mid.HG. lecken 'to lick', OS. leccōn, prim. Germ. likkōna-n* (cp. Goth. bi-laiqōn) : Gr. λίχο-ς 'lickerish', Lat. lingō, rt. leigh-. Cp. §§ 214. 530. 534.

§ 539. A change of b, ð, 3 to f, þ, x (g) in Gothic, cp. § 531. Masc. nom. liufs acc. liuf 'dear' beside gen. liubis

(b). rāups rāup 'rod' beside gen. rāudis (ð), rt. reydh-. vigs vig (x) 'way' beside vigis (ʒ), rt. uegh-.

Pret. sparb to sparban 'to wipe from', rt. sperbh-; pret. band, to bindan, rt. bheudh-; gild n. 'tax', to fra-gildan 'to requito', rt. gheldh-; gaggs gagg 'way, street'; lāuna-vargs 'unthankful man' -varg are parallel to the forms like nasjands nasjand etc. in § 531. The forms gazds, huzd (st. gazda, huzda) were accordingly possibly pronounced with st.

§ 540. West Germ. bb, dd, gg (H. German pp, tt, kk) before i, see § 532. OHG. sippia sippa 'relationship', OS. sibbia sibbea Ags. sib (gen. sibbe): Goth. sibja (b), O.Icel. Sif (gen. Sifjar, f is b) goddess of the family and wedlock, Skr. sabhd- 'assembly, society of kinsfolk'. OHG. mitti 'medius', OS. middi Ags. mid (gen. middes): Goth. midjis (ð), O.Icel. midr (acc. miðjan), Skr. mādhyā-s 'medius'. OHG. bitten 'to request', OS. biddian Ags. biddan: Goth. bidjan (ð), O.Icel. biðja, Gr. μιθω, rt. bhejdh- (§ 67 rem. 3). OHG. likken 'to lie down', OS. liggian: O.Icel. liggja (ggj fr. ʒi by a special-Norse process), prim. Germ. lizjana-n*, Gr. λίζω 'bed', rt. leg-. Cp. §§ 529. 535.

§ 541. Chronology of the prim. Germ. shiftings of the explosives. The following is probably the order in which the chief acts of the prim. Germ. shifting of the Indg. explosives took place; we include at the same time the history of the Indg. tenues aspiratae, which will be more fully discussed in § 553.

Act 1 (or 2). The aspirates become spirants. bh, dh, gh become b, d, ʒ, e. g. bheudhō* becomes beyðō* (Goth. biuda), see § 537. ph, th, kh become f, p, x, e. g. 2. sg. perf. le-lōs-tha* (rt. les- 'gather together') becomes (le)-lasþa* (Goth. last), nokh-lō-* 'nail' becomes naxlō-* (OHG. nagal), see § 553.

Act 2 (or 1). p, k become f, x before t and s, e. g. rekto-s* 'right' becomes rexta-s* (Goth. raihts), see § 527.

Falling together of the tenues asp. with a portion of the tenues.

Act 3. The tenues become voiceless spirants elsewhere, p, t, k become f, p̥, x, e. g. pōtēr*, bhrdtōr* become faþēr* brōþēr* (Goth. fadar, brōþar), see § 528.

Falling together of a further portion of the tenues (eventually of all tenues, see the end of § 528) with the tenues asp.

Act 4. The voiceless spirants become voiced by Verner's law, f, þ, χ become b, d, z, e. g. nazlá-* becomes nazlá-, fapér becomes fadér*, see § 530.

Falling together of tenues asp. and tenues with the mediae asp.

Act 5. The b, d, z, which had arisen from mediae asp. and tenues, assimilate a following n before the principal accent: bb, dd, zz, e. g. pres. stem liχ-nó-* 'lick' (Indg. liχh-nd-) becomes lizzó- (OS. leccōn), noun stem (weak) smuχ-n-* 'dress' (Indg. smuχ-n-) becomes smuzz- (O.Icel. smokkr). Indg. b, d, g with a following n simultaneously become bb, dd, gg when the accent is in the same position, e. g. lug-ná-* 'lock, ringlet' (Indg. lug-nó-) becomes luggá- (O.Icel. lokkr). Then bb, dd, zz become bb, dd, gg: lizzó-* smuzz-* become liggó-* smugg-*. See §§ 530. 534. 538.

Falling together of mediae with tenues and tenues asp.

Act 6. The mediae become tenues, b, d, g become p, t, k, e. g. deyxō* 'I draw' (rt. deyk-) becomes teyxō* (Goth. tiuha), azda-* 'branch' becomes asta-* (Goth. asts), liggō-, smugg-, lugga-* (see 5.) become likkō-, smukk-, lukka-*. See § 533.

Act 7. sp, zd, mb, nd, ɳz become st, zd, mb, nd, ɳg, e. g. (le-)nasþa* (1.) becomes lasta* (Goth. last), mizdō-* 'pay, reward' becomes mizdō-* (Goth. mizdōn-), (be-)bānde* 'he bound' becomes bānde* (Goth. bānd). See §§ 530. 538.

Rem. That sp first became st at this period, is only deduced from the change of zd to zd, which cannot have taken place earlier. Here belongs eventually also the origin of the tenuis in Goth. speivan, ist etc., see § 528 (end) and 3 above.

Baltic-Slavonic.

§ 542. The Indg. tenues and mediae remained in the period of the Balt.-Slav. prim. community, while the mediae aspiratae, as in Iran. (§ 481) and Kelt. (524), became mediae and thus fell together with the Indg. mediae.

Indg. k, g, gh were š-sounds in this period. See § 412.

§ 543. History of the tenues, prim. Balt.Slav. p, t, k and š. These sounds generally remained unshifted.

p. Lith. pilna-s O.Bulg. plǫnǫ 'full': Av. per'na-, rt. pel-. See § 345.

t. Lith. tā O.Bulg. tǫ 'the' acc.: Skr. tā-m. See § 377.

q. Lith. kā-s O.Bulg. kǫ-to 'who?': Skr. kā-s. See § 462.

k. Lith. szvit-ėti O.Bulg. svit-ěti 'to shine': Skr. švit-rá-s, rt. kuejt-. See § 413.

§ 544. The assimilation of Indg. ts to ss, of Indg. t't to st and of Indg. ks to šš seems to have been effected in the period of the Balt.-Slav. prim. community.

ts to ss. Lith. ėsiu 'I shall eat': cp. Skr. fut. atsydmi, O.Bulg. 2. sg. jasī 'thou eatest': cp. Skr. ātsi, O.Bulg. aor. jasī 'I ate' fr. et-s-o-m*, pl. jasli 'manger' fr. et-slo-*, rt. ed- 'eat'. Lith. mėsiu fut. to metū 'I throw'. Lith. kiřsiu fut. to kertū 'I hew sharply': cp. Skr. kartsydmi 'I shall cut', rt. gert-. Lith. krisla-s 'crumb, scrap', tc krintū (pret. kritāū) 'I fall'. O.Bulg. čisū s-aorist 'I counted' čislo čismę 'number', to člta 'I count'. Lith. part. veřās 'vehens' fr. ueghont-s* = Skr. vāhan; the corresponding forms of O.Bulg. probably also came from Indg. *-ont-s, as vezy 'vehens' spėje 'hastening', np. acc. pl. vlūky 'lupos', konje 'equos' from *-ons (§§ 84. 219).

It may be concluded that this ss = ts had not yet entirely fallen together with Indg. s in prim. Slav., since s = ts did not become ch as was the case with Indg. s (§ 588, 2). Forms like 1. sg. jachū 1. pl. jachomū 3. pl. jašę beside jasū jasomū jašę (s-aorist from rt. jad- 'eat') were later formations (§ 588 rem. 2).

t't to st. Lith. virřti 'to fall down, change', O.Bulg. vrřsta 'state, condition': Lat. part. vorsu-s, Skr. vyrtā-m 'state, situation', Indg. vyrtō-*, rt. uert-. Lith. ėst O.Bulg. jasť 'eats': cp. Lat. est Skr. ātti. Lith. dūst O.Bulg. dastī 'gives': cp. Skr. 3. sg. mid. dattē, from the reduplic. root dō- 'give'. Lith. pėsčiai-s 'being on foot' first of all from pēstja-s* (§ 147), to pėdā 'footstep'; on the East Lith. form pėszeria-s see § 587, 3. O.Bulg. čistŭ 'honour', to čitŭ 'I count, reckon, honour'.

ks became šš. Lith. aszl-s O.Bulg. osŭ 'axis': Lat. axi-s. Lith. deszinė 'right hand' O.Bulg. desinŭ 'dexter': Skr. dākṣiṇa- = Av. dašina-. See § 414.

With the reduction of ss to s and šš to Lith. sz O.Bulg. s, compare that of prim. Balt.-Slav. ss = Indg. ss to Lith. O.Bulg. s, as Lith. lėsiu fr. les-siu*, fut. to lesū 'I pick up, peek at', O.Bulg. otŭ-tręsę fr. -tręs-sę*, s-aorist to otŭ-tręsę 'I shake off'. See § 583, 3.

Further the loss of the dental in Lith. āsma-s 'octavus', Pruss. asma-n acc., O.Bulg. osmyŭ might also be prim. Balt.-Slav.: cp. Skr. aṣṭamā- O.Ir. ochtmad. —

Lithuanian. In forms like partic. pres. act. lipdama-s (lipū 'I climb, mount'), vilkdama-s (veikū 'I trail, drag') the pronunciation has apparently fluctuated for centuries between pd, kd and bd, gd in some parts of Lithuania. Analogously mėsdama-s and mėzdama-s. to metū 'I throw'. This phenomenon is easily explained from the fact that the constant striving after assimilation has been again and again counteracted by the feeling of relationship between kindred forms, e. g. lįpti lįpsiu etc., vilkti vilksiu etc., mėsti etc. Cp. the fluctuation between pįsiu and pįnsiu § 218 rem.

Rem. 1. The change between augti (inf.) augsiu (fut.) and aukti auksiu (pres. augu 'I grow'), between dirbti dirbsiu and dirpti dirpsiu (pres. dirbu 'I work') etc. in Lithuanian writings is merely of an orthographical nature, only kt ks pt ps is spoken everywhere. Cp. the phonetically inexact Mod.HG. spellings like sagte, raubte, flugs.

The simplification of consonantal groups is rare, as desziūns beside desziūnts 'ten'.

Rem. 2. It is not certain whether nakróju 'I pass the night with', nakrónė 'night quarters' belong here, since naktėju, naktėgnė, existing side by side of these and regarded as the original forms, might have got their t from naktl-s an older stem noctu-* is by no means proved for certain through Lat. noctū (see the author in Ber. d. sächs. Ges. der Wiss. 1893 p. 192).

sztr from szer in asztrū-s 'sharp' beside aszru-s (Dawkont): O.Bulg. ostrŭ 'sharp' from osrŭ* (§ 545). Skr. āsṛi-ṣ 'corner', Gr. ἄκρο-ς 'pointed'. It is however questionable whether the Lith. word has not acquired its t through the influence of the corresponding Slav. word.

§ 545. Slavonic. On prim. Slav. č, c from k = Indg. g, prim. Slav. tx' (O.Bulg. št) from kt = Indg. qt, prim. Slav. x (ch) from ks = Indg. qs see § 462.

Loss of tenuēs before following consonants (cp. § 281 rem. 3):

p disappeared before t, n, s in the prim. Slav. period. O.Bulg. netijŭ 'nephew, cousin' fr. neptijŭ* (§ 36) = Gr. ἀνεψιός, cpf. nept-ijo-s*. po-črēti 'lade, scoop' fr. čerti* čerpti*, to 1. sg. pres. po-črīpaq. Correspondingly greti 'to scrape, scratch' fr. grepti*, to 1. sg. grebq with b = Indg. bh (§ 552). The forms po-črēsti -črīsti -črīpsti and gresti grebsti, met with in later monuments, were new formations, which seem to have arisen from a dislike — also met with elsewhere — for infinitive forms with short stem-syllable; the s was transferred from plesti nesti etc. sūnū 'sleep' from sūpnū* = Gr. ὑπνο-ς. pri-līnq 'I stick to' from līpnq*, cp. pri-līpēti 'to stick to'; pri-līpnq, which occurs beside pri-līnq in the literary monuments, had borrowed p anew from form-association. vosa 'wasp' fr. uopsā* = Lith. vapsā 'gad-fly'. osina 'aspen-tree': Lett. apse Pruss. abse. Cp. also the s-aorist grēsti, to grebq 'I scrape, scratch'.

t disappeared before l, n. O.Bulg. part. pret. pletū fr. plet-lū*, to pletq 'I twist'. This disappearance before l, like that of d before l (§ 548), seems to be old only in the southern and eastern dialects; in the western dialects prim. Slav. tl seems to have prevailed down to historical times, e. g. Upper Sorabian pletl = O.Bulg. pletū. Examples for the disappearance of t before n occur in all branches, as O.Bulg. o-svīnati 'to become light' fr. svīt-nati* (cp. svītēti 'to shine'), Servian svanuti. Nevertheless I do not know whether this dropping of t is to be regarded as prim. Slav. Cp. dn § 548 k disappeared in the prim. Slav. period in peŭ 'five' = Skr. pañcīti-ś 'the number five' (cp. Av. pañtataha 'fifth part' beside panca 'five', Lat. quintus beside quīnq̄ue). This reduction of akt to at must be older than the change of kt to tχ. k disappeared also in the prim. Slav. period in -kst- (Indg. -gst-). 2. pl. of the s-aorist těste, to 1. sg. těchū = orig. tēg-s-o-m* (§ 462). In like manner plesti 'to twist' from plekstī* i. e. plekt+tī* (cp. Lat. plectō, OHG. flehtan), which gave the impulse to the new formations pres. pletā noun plotī 'twist, plait' etc., forms, in which t cannot be explained as having arisen phonetically from kt.

Loss of tenues between s+conson. O.Bulg. slēzena slēzena 'spleen': Gr. σπλήν σπλάγγρον. plesnati 'to clap' fr. plesk-nati*, to pleskati 'to clap'.

Development of t as glide in sr = Indg. kr in prim. Slavonic. O.Bulg. ostrīl 'sharp': Gr. ἄκρος etc., see end of § 544. pīstrīl 'variegated' fr. orig. pik-ro-s*: Skr. piśāmi 'I adorn, shape', Gr. ποικίλος 'variegated'. The same development occurs also at a later period, e. g. O.Bulg. strišen-ī beside srīšen-ī 'hornet, gad-fly': Lat. crābrō (§ 303). Cp. Slav. str = Indg. sr, § 585, 2.

§ 546. History of the mediae, prim. Baltic-Slav. b, d, g and ž.

b. Lith. dubū-s 'deep, hollow', O.Bulg. dūbrī 'ravine, valley': Goth. diups. See § 346.

d. Lith. dū-ti O.Bulg. da-ti 'to give': Lat. dōs dōtis. See § 378.

g. Lith. gīria 'forest', O.Bulg. gora 'mountain': Skr. gīrī-ś. See § 463.

ž. Lith. žirni-s 'pea', O.Bulg. zrīno 'oorn': Goth. kaurn. See § 415.

§ 547. The transition of d'd(h) to zd(h) and of dm to m seems to belong to the period of the Baltic-Slav. prim. community.

The 2. sg. imper. O.Bulg. višdī 'see', věšdī 'know', jašdī 'eat' from viždī*, vēždī*, ēždī*; the ž instead of z arose from a contamination with the optative forms which had -jē- and were used imperatively (see Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 387 and the accidence). viždī* = O.Lith. veizd(i) 'see'. The cpf. was veidzi* fr. veidz*-dhi (with different, older root-vocalism Gr. iothi and Skr. viddhi).

Rem. 1. O.Lith. veidz(i) coming to be on a level with forms like leid(i) ved(i), the z forced its way into the remaining forms of the verbal system also (first of all into the imper. pl.), hence veidzmi veidzīu instead of veidmi* veidīu*, lastly into noun formations also, hence e. g. ap-veidza-s 'providence' beside reida-s 'face, countenance'.

It is doubtful whether O.Bulg. daiŕi 'give' imper. also belongs here, since it might possibly stand for dadŕi* and along with O.Lith. dūdi dūd represent an orig. dō-dhi*. Cp. the accident.

dmi (partly from Indg. dhm) became m. Lith. ėmi O.Bulg. jamŕi 'I eat' fr. ed-mi*; Lith. ėdmi is a new formation (cp. rem. 3). Lith. dūmi O.Bulg. damŕi 'I give' fr. dōd-mi*. Lith. dēmi 'I place, put' fr. dōd-mi*, O.Lith. dēmi fr. ded-mi*, rt. dhō. O.Bulg. vēmŕi 'I know' fr. voj-d-mi*, rt. vej-d. O.Bulg. vymŕi 'udder' fr. ud-mēn*; Skr. ūdhar.

Rem. 2. The loss of the labial in O.Bulg. sedmyŕt 'septimus' must be younger than this dropping of d. It may however have been effected already in the Baltic-Slav. prim. language, since by § 469, 3 the tenues in Lith. sėkma-s (first of all from sepma-s* or from setma-s*? § 345) and Pruss. septma-s sejma-s seem to be due to a new formation after the analogy of the cardinal number.

Rem. 3. The apparent dropping of d before the suffix of the 1. da. in Lith. dūsa O.Bulg. dasē jasē etc. has probably arisen from analogy with the 1. sg. and 1. pl. The regular form may be retained in Lith. ėsa and this might have aided in the creation of ėdmi ėdme.

§ 548. No further changes, which need to be mentioned here, took place in Lithuanian.

Slavonic. On prim. Slav. dš dz fr. g = Indg. g see § 463.

Loss of the mediae b d before following consonants. We also take into account here the mediae which had arisen from Indg. mediae aspiratae.

b disappeared before n in prim. Slavonic. O.Bulg. dūno 'ground, bottom' fr. dūbno*, beside Lith. dūgna-s (§ 346), to dūbrŕi 'ravine, valley', rt. dhēpō, see § 325. O.Bulg. sū-gūnq 'I fold' fr. gūb-naq*, to sū-gybatŕi 'to fold', Lith. dvi-guba-s 'two-fold, double', gynq beside gyb-aŕq 'I sink, go to ruin'; b has been restored in gybnaq like the p in pri-lipnaq (§ 545).

d disappeared before l, n. O.Bulg. part. palŭ fr. pad-lŭ*, to padŭ 'I fall', rt. ped-. šilo 'awl' fr. šŭ-dlo*, raŭo 'plough' fr. rā-dlo*, želo 'point, prick' fr. žę-dlo* with suffix -dlo- from Indg. -dhlo- (Gr. -θλο-, Ital. -flo-). jela 'fir': Pruss. adde Lith. ęgle fr. edlę* (§ 378). This loss of d before l is old only in the southern and eastern dialects, it was retained in the western dialects, as Czech šidlo Sorab. šidlo Polish szydło 'awl', Polish źądło 'edge' jodła 'fir'. Examples for the loss of d before n occur in all branches, as O.Bulg. za-ganaŭ 'coniectura assequor' fr. gād-naŭ*, to gad-aŭa 'conicio' O.Icel. geta 'to' get, hit upon, guess', rt. ghed- (§ 425); vŭz-bŭnaŭ 'I awake', to bŭdęti 'to wake, be awake', Skr. budh-, rt. bheydh-; u-v-naŭ 'I become withered', to u-vęd-aŭa 'I become withered'; the d in padnaŭ 'I fall' (beside padŭ padajŭ) etc. had been restored by form-association. It is however questionable whether the dropping of d before n took place so early as the prim. Slav. period. Cp. tn § 545.

§ 549. History of the mediae aspiratae. They fell together with the mediae in the period of the Balt.-Slav. prim. community, as was the case also in Iranian (§ 481) and Keltic (§ 524). The laws, which have been laid down for the Indg. mediae (§§ 546—548), therefore held good also here.

bh. Lith. bijóti-s O.Bulg. bojati sę 'to be afraid': Skr. bháy-a-tē. See § 347.

dh. Lith. dę-ti O.Bulg. dę-ti 'to lay, put': Skr. dhā-ma. See § 379.

gh. Lith. snęga-s O.Bulg. snęgŭ 'snow': Gr. σίγα, rt. sneigh-. See § 464.

gh. Lith. žemà O.Bulg. zima 'winter': Gr. χειμών. See § 416.

§ 550. Prim. Baltic-Slav. change. dm became m: O.Lith. demi, O.Bulg. vymę, see § 547.

§ 551. On prim. Slav. dę dz from g = Indg. gh see § 463. O.Bulg. raŭo fr. rā-dlo* with suffix -dhlo-, vŭz-bŭnaŭ fr. rt. bheydh- and similar forms see, § 548.

The combination media aspirata + t, s.

§ 552. It has already been remarked in § 469, 6 that a sure answer has not yet been found to the question how the combination media asp. + t or s was pronounced at the time just before the dissolution of the Indg. prim. community.

In Aryan we must hold as the regular continuations of the Indg. prim. forms such forms as Skr. dyādhā- Av. der'wā-, Skr. dīpsati Av. dinošaidyāi, which yield for the Ar. prim. community bāh as the continuation of bh+t and bzh as that of bh+s etc. The history of these Ar. groups is treated in § 482.

All the European languages have for the original combinations the same representations as for Indg. pt ps, t't ts, kt ks, qt qs. Examples:

Greek ποτό-ς 'sipped, supped', to ποτέω, Lith. srebiū 'I sip', rt. srebh-. ἀ-πυρο-ς 'not heard of' (πύρομαι), Skr. buddhā-s; πύρεται 'he will search, inquire': Skr. bhōtsyātē, rt. bheṇdh-. ἀν-ερό-ς 'bearable' (έγω): Skr. sādhā-s fr. sādhā-s*; fut. έω: Skr. 1. sg. aor. mid. āsakṣi, rt. sēgh-. εύχο, εύχομαι (εύχομαι 'I supplicate, pray'): Av. 3. sg. aog'dā, 2. sg. aoyēu, rt. eygh- (§ 482). εὐχετο 'it snowed' (εὐχεται), rt. sneigh-.

Italic. Lat. nāptum nāpsī, to nābō Gr. νίπτω (Fick Vergl. Wörterb. I³ 648). ab-sorpsī, to ab-sorbeō (σῶβη-), Gr. ποτέω, see above. gressu-s, to grādiōr, Goth. gridi-. jussu-s, perf. jussī, to joubeō, see § 370. dī-vīsu-s, perf. dī-vīstī, to dī-vidō, Skr. vīdhyāmi 'I pierce through'. vectum vector, vēxi (vehō): Skr. vōdhum Av. vaēdri-š, Skr. vākṣat, rt. uegh- (§ 482). forti-s forti-s: Skr. dyādhā-s 'fastened, fast', rt. dhergh-. anctu-s anxius, to angō angor, rt. añgh-. lectus 'couch', to Gr. λέχος, rt. leggh-. nīctō cō-nīxi, to cō-nīveō, rt. kneigh-. nīx nīxit, to ninguit, rt. sneigh-.

Old Irish. tachtā (to-achtā*) 'angustus', rt. añgh-. snechta 'snow', rt. sneigh-. for-tiasum 1. pl. of the s-fut. to for-tiagaim 'I help', cp. Gr. συνίζουεν, rt. steigh-.

Germanic. MHG. wift 'fine thread' OHG. wiften 'texere' O.Icel. veftr, veptr 'weft', to OHG. wēban O.Icel. vefa 'to weave', Skr. ubhāṁti 'binds, fastens' part. ubdhū-, Gr. ῥυοῖ 'web', rt. yebh-. OHG. musse f. 'spring, source' prim. form mudh + tī* : cp. OHG. mutilōn 'to murmur, mutter', Gr. μῦθο-ς 'speech' (Kögel Paul-Braune's Beitr. VII 180 f.). Goth. gilstr 'tax', to gild 'tax', rt. gheldh-. Goth. ana-busns 'commandment' prim. Germ. -butsni-*, to ana-bindan, rt. bheydh-. Goth. daūhtar OHG. tohter 'daughter' : Av. duγ'dā duγ'da, Indg. dhugh + ter-*. Goth. mahts OHG. maht 'might, power', to Goth. magan 'may, be able', O.Bulg. moga 'I can, may'. Goth. leihts OHG. liht 'light, easy', prim. Germ. leoxtu-s* : Skr. laghā- Gr. ἐλαφύς, rt. leugh-.

Baltic-Slavonic. Lith. skrepti 'to dry' fut. skrepsiu, to pres. skrebiu, Gr. záγωω 'I make dry or wither' (cp. § 589, 3). O.Bulg. greti, grēsū fr. grepti*, grēpsū*, to greba 'I scrape', Goth. graba 'I dig' (§ 545). Lith. vėsti O.Bulg. vesti 'to lead', Lith. fut. vėsiu O.Bulg. aor. věsū, to pres. Lith. vedū O.Bulg. veda, Skr. vadhā- 'bride, young woman' (she who is to be led home, she who is led home). Lith. vėzti O.Bulg. vesti 'to drive, ride', Lith. fut. vėzsiu O.Bulg. aor. věsū, to pres. Lith. vežū O.Bulg. veza : Skr. vāhāmi, rt. yegh-. Lith. duktė O.Bulg. dūšti 'daughter' : Av. duγ'dā. Lith. dėkti O.Bulg. žėsti 'to burn', Lith. fut. dėksiu O.Bulg. aor. žěchū, to pres. degū, žega, Skr. ni-dāghā-s 'heat', rt. dhegh-; for the initial sound in Slav. cp. § 379 rem.

Rem. 1. I do not know any examples from Armenian which belong to this class. By § 467, 1 the word dustr does not come under consideration.

The question now remains, is this representation of the original sound-combinations in the European languages the regular continuation of the Indg. forms, or have new formations arisen of the nature of Av. dapta- for dawdu-* = Skr. dabdhā- etc. (§ 482 rem. 1)?

Some scholars have come to the conclusion that the latter is the case at least as regards the combination media asp. + t, because they thought that they had also found in the Europ. languages an aspect differing from Indg. tenuis + t, which is to be regarded as the regular development. Nevertheless all the cases, which have been brought forward, also admit of a different decision regarding them.

Rem. 2. Bartholomae (Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 206) explains Gr. θυγάτηρ on the ground of a presupposed prim. Gr. double form dhughater-* and dhugdher-*. But the form may also belong to the class ἦναι μίγναι etc. (§ 469, 8). Gr. κῠστός Goth. hustōs Lat. custōs need not contain kudh+* (cp. Bartholomae Ar. Forsch. I 176, Kluge in Paul-Braune's Beitr. IX, 153), but admit of being traced back to kudh+dē-* so, too, Goth. ga-hugdi- 'understanding' to kug+dē-, whence kugdē- (cp. §§ 469, 5. 507. 536. 538). Still more uncertain is the material which W. Meyer in Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII 166 f. has brought forward from Lat. and Kelt. beside custōs.

Therefore the possibility still remains, that forms like Gr. γονεός etc. exhibit the regular continuation of the Indg. prim. forms.

Rem. 3. Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. p. 320 f. regards bā, with voiced media b, as being the form which was in existence in the last stage of the Indg. prim. language, from which was regularly developed on the one hand Skr. bāh, and on the other hand Gr. πρ etc. This is however not very probable from a phonetic point of view.

The Indg. tenuis aspiratae.

§ 553. It is less doubtful that the Indg. prim. language possessed tenuis aspiratae than, to what extent it possessed this mode of articulation. Of late there has been a tendency to regard all or almost all of the Ar. tenuis asp. (§ 474) as being old inherited, according to which e. g. sthā-no-* 'stand' (noun), not stā-no-* would have to be put down as the Indg. form (Skr. sthāna- Gr. στάσις Lith. stóna-s). But in my opinion we have no right, with the present state of our knowledge, to put down the Indg. prim. forms with ten. asp. in such cases where only Aryan points to tenuis asp., but the other languages to tenuis. For the question would be asked in vain, why e. g. in Greek does not an ésthen*, but στήν (Skr. ástham) stand beside such cases as ἵστα ὁστα with Indg. sth, t'ih (see below), and why do not πάθο-ς* πόνθο-ς*, but πάρο-ς πόντο-ς correspond to Skr. path- pántha- 'path, way'.

Therefore prim. Indg. tenuis asp. can, as yet, only be put down with any degree of probability in such words, where the languages outside the Aryan group exhibit an aspirate or a sound which can be traced back to an aspirate. Such forms are the following:

1. Suffix of the 2. sg. perf. Indg. -tha*. Indg. yoj^htha* 'knowest' fr. rt. yejd-, Skr. véttha Av. Gāp. vōista Gr. ᾔστα. Gr. ῆσθα ἔρσθα 'wast' (originally a perf. form, see the accidentence), Skr. āsitha. Lat. dix-ti dix-is-ti (for the vowel of the suffix see the accidentence). Goth. last (lisa 'I gather together'), slōht (slaha 'I strike'), hlafst (hlifa 'I steal'); after such forms arose qast (qīpa 'I say') haihdist (hāita 'I name') etc., in which -ss was the regular ending (cp. kāupasta for kāupassa* etc., § 527 rem. 3), then also bart (baitra 'I bear'), for barþ*, etc. ¹⁾.

2. Skr. skhālamī 'I stumble, stick fast, go wrong' Av. skārayant- 'leaping, letting leap' (in the proper name skārayaþ-raþa-), Arm. sxalem 'I go wrong, stumble, err, sin', Gr. σφάλλομαι 'I stumble, fail, suffer a disaster' (also Lat. scelus 'crime, impious action' and OHG. sculd 'guilt' Goth. skulan 'to owe, shall?'), rt. sqhel-.

3. chinād-mi 'I cut off, tear' Av. opt. perf. hi-sid-yāþ, Gr. σχίζω 'I split' σχινδαλμός 'a piece of cleft wood, splinter', Lat. scindō caedō, Goth. skāidan 'to divide, separate' OHG. scintan 'to flay' rt. skhajt- skhajd-.

4. Skr. śaṅkhā-s 'muscle, shell' Gr. κόγχο-ς, Lat. congin-s.

5. Skr. nakhā-s Mod. Pers. nāzun Osset. nāx 'nail', Armen. magil 'claw, talon' (whence m- for n-?), Gr. ὄνυχ-ος gen. to ὄνυξ 'nail, talon', Lat. ungui-s, Mid.Ir. inga O.Cymr. eguin Mod.Cymr. ewin 'nail, talon', Goth. nagljan 'to nail', Lith. nāga-s O.Bulg. noǵŭŭ 'nail, talon'.

Without representation in Aryan are:

6. Armen. durgn 'potter's wheel', Gr. ροχό-ς 'wheel, potter's wheel' ρέχω 'I run' fut. θρήξομαι, Goth. þragja 'I run' OHG.

1) Cp. the ending of the 2. du. act. Goth. -is = Skr. -thas or -tas. We must assume that original -ts stood regularly only in forms like perf. lēts*, lusts*, slōhts*, hlēfts* (transformed into lēsut, lusut, slōhut, hlēfut) and in the pres. s-tas* or s-tis* (Skr. sthās 'ye two are') and then was transferred to the other verbs. See the accidentence.

drigil 'servant' (runner), rt. thregh-. It is doubtful whether O.Ir. traig 'foot' Gall. ver-trago-s name of a kind of dog (= 'great foot, swift runner'?) belong here; cp. O.Ir. droch 'wheel'.

7. Lat. habeō, Goth. habáiþ 'has' common stem form khabhē-*.

The Indg. tenuēs asp. fell together with the Indg. mediae asp. in Greek and Italic (see §§ 495. 509), and with the Indg. tenuēs in Germanic (see §§ 528—530. 509). The voiceless spirants, which arose after s in Lat. and Germanic, passed into tenuēs (cp. §§ 507. 528 end. 541, 7). Tenuēs arose after s in Balt.-Slav., elsewhere the tenuēs asp. fell together with the mediae asp. in this branch also, just¹⁾ as in Armen. If O.Ir. traig belongs to the rt. thregh-, it follows that Indg. initial th- was treated differently in Kelt. before r from Indg. qh after o (ingū).

THE SPIRANTS.

§ 554. Spirants are produced by the mouth channel being narrowed at one part in such a manner that the expiratory current gives rise to a grating noise on the edges of the narrowed part.

The following spirants are to be ascribed to the Indg. prim. language:

1. A voiceless s-sound, whose place of articulation cannot be exactly defined (cp. the various s-sounds in Sievers' *Phonet.*³ p. 122 f.).

2. The voiced sound z, corresponding to this s.

Rem. 1. As a hypothesis which is at any rate worth noticing, we may mention here that Bartholomae (Ar. Forsch. I 18 ff. II 54 ff.) ascribes aspirated s and z (śh and zh) also to the Indg. prim. language. E. g. he puts down qahēj- as the rt. for Skr. kṣipāti 'ruins' Gr. qātro, and ghom-, ghm- (the latter with loss of z) as the stem forms for Skr. kṣām- Av. acc. zām gen. zām-ō Gr. χθών O.Bulg. zemlja 'earth'. Cp. also prim. Ar. and perhaps Indg. śh from śh+s etc. §§ 469, 6. 470. 482. 552. 589, 4.

1) According to this it would also be possible to trace the suffix Slav. -dlo- Gr. -dlo- Ital. -fio- back to Indg. -thlo-, as has been done.

3. The palatal spirant j, strictly to be distinguished from consonantal i (j).

To these is probably to be added:

4. The labial spirant v, strictly to be distinguished from consonantal u (u). v and u have fallen together in most languages, and as was already mentioned in § 117 it is often difficult to decide whether the one sound or the other is to be assigned to the Indg. prim. form. The surest criterion for Indg. v is want of an old inherited weak grade form, in which p was fused with the neighbouring vowel to sonantal u, e.g. rt. ves- 'clothe' (§ 555).

Rem. 2. The question of the separation of Indg. v and u is so involved and still so little investigated that we must content ourselves here with having referred to it generally.

It has been conjectured that the sound, from which Skr. h Gr. Lat. g in cases like Skr. ahám Gr. ἐγώ Lat. ego 'I' have arisen, was a spirant which closely resembled j. Attention has already been drawn to the uncertainty of this hypothesis in § 469 rem.

Lastly the question may still be raised whether a sibilant was not spoken after the k-sound in words in which a Gr. xr stands opposite to a Skr. kṣ, as in tákṣan- τίκτης 'carpenter' phṣa- ἄφρο-ς 'bear', and whether it differed from the Indg. s-sound which is to be presupposed for cases like Skr. ákṣa-s Gr. ἄξων 'axle' Skr. dákṣiṇa-s Gr. δεξιό-ς 'dexter', and was perhaps a ḥ. For it has not hitherto been possible to discover a law by which the difference xr : ḥ might have arisen specially in Greek.

Aryan.

§ 556. Indg. s experienced several changes in the period of the Aryan primitive community.

1. s passed into ś and ss into śś after i ī and u ū, ī and ū (as second component of diphthongs), r ṛ r, y, ḷ. By this means Indg. st and kt, sy and kq and probably also ss and ks fell together at that period, see §§ 393. 399. 401.

This ś remained in Iranian, but in Sanskrit it was further changed to cerebral ś, and śś (= Indg. ss and ks) became kṣ (as ss became ts, see § 557, 1).

After i- and u-vowels. 3. sg. pres. act. Skr. tī-śth-a-ti Av. hi-št-a-iti. O.Pers. 3. sg. imperf. mid. a-i-št-a-tā, from rt. sta- 'stand': Gr. τ-σθ-μ, Lat. si-stō. Skr. ni-śtd-a-ti 'he sits down', causat. ni-śadayāmi Av. ni-śadayēmi; O.Pers. niy-ašdayam with ś carried over into the augmented form (like Skr. ny-aśdam beside regular ny-aśdam, pary-aśahata beside regular pary-aśahata imperf. to pari-śahatē 'he endures', saṃy-a-śthār- after saṃyē-śthūr- 'standing on the left'). Nom. Skr. pāti-ś Av. paiti-ś 'master': Gr. πόσι-ς. Loc. pl. dāpā-śu Av. aspa-śu -śo-a. O.Pers. aspai-śuo-a (dāpā- aspa- 'horse'), cp. Skr. sēna-su Av. haṇā-hu -ho-a O.Pers. hainā-uo-a (sēnā- haṇā- hainā- 'army'): O.Bulg. vlūcē-chū (vlūkū 'wolf') beside rāka-chū (rāka 'hand'). Part. Skr. uṣṭā- Av. ušta- Lat. ustu-s, Indg. us-to-s*, rt. eys- 'burn'. Skr. śuṣ-ka- (from suṣ-ka-*, § 557, 4) Av. huṣ-ka- O.Pers. uṣ-ka- 'dry', prim. f. sus-go-*, rt. says-. Skr. jōṣ-a- Av. zaōs-a- 'favour', Skr. jōṣtār- 'loving' O.Pers. daūstar- 'friend': Gr. γεω-ρίο-ν 'meet to be tasted', Lat. gus-tu-s, Goth. kins-a 'I test. choose'. Skr. 2. sg. dvēṣi 'thou hatest' from dvēṣ-ṣi*, 1. sg. dvēṣ-mi. Skr. fut. śokṣyāmi 'I shall dry up' fr. śōṣ-ṣyāmi*, pres. śuṣ-yāmi (§ 557, 4), cp. Gr. fut. αῖσω fr. αῖσ-σω*, rt. says- 1).

1) Some assume that Skr. ś also regularly stands for s after i, ū, e. g. pīṣ-ānti 'they pound': Lat. pīnsō; then the forms pīnāṣ-mi etc. for pīnas-mi* etc. would have been formed after the analogy of pīṣ- (cp. Av. ānah-mi 'I announce' 3. sg. cinas-ti, from caṣ-). I consider not only pīnāṣ-mi but also pīṣ-ānti as a new formation (after pīpēṣa, pīṣṭā etc.). For in the period of the Ar. prim. community, when s became ś, the preceding

After r-sounds. Skr. dhṛṣ-ṇō-mi dhārṣ-ami 'I dare', Av. der's-nao-mi 'I dare' darṣ-i-š 'vehement', O.Pers. a-darṣ-nau-š 'he dared' (-š taken over from the s-aorist). Skr. śṛṣ-ā-m 'head': Gr. κόρη 'head, temple', Indg. kṛs- (§ 306).

Indg. qs = prim. Ar. kš : Skr. kṣ Av. xš. Future Skr. vakṣyāmi Av. Gāp. vaxšya 'I shall speak', nom. Skr. vāk from vakṣ* (§ 647, 7) Av. vārṣ = Lat. cōx, rt. yeq-.

Rem. 1. The Av. combination xš became voiced in the dat. abl. pl. rāzē-byō which was formed anew from the nom. sg. Cp. acē-dān- § 658, 2.

Indg. kš : Skr. kṣ Av. O.Pers. š. 2. sg. Skr. vākṣi Av. vaši 'thou art willing', to 1. sg. vāṣ-mi vas-mi, rt. yeš-. Cp. § 401.

2. sc (Indg. sq) became šc or śc : Skr. śc Av. sc O.Pers. šc. Skr. kāś-cid Av. kas-ciṣ O.Pers. kaš-ciy 'any one'. Av. sc : Skr. śc = Av. nc : Skr. ñc (panca : pāñca), see § 200.

3. Final s in prim. Ar. -as and -ās underwent a change which gave to these endings the form -ō and -ā in Skr., ō and -a (Gāp. -ā) in Av., e. g. nom. sg. Skr. āśvō Av. aspō = prim. Ar. aśyu-s*, nom. pl. Skr. āśvā Av. aspa (aspā) = prim. Ar. aśyās*. This change cannot have taken place before voiceless dentals and palatals, as is shown by the combinations Skr. aśvas tad, aśvaś ca etc. and Av. aspas ca etc., also not in pausa, as clearly follows from the Skr. usual forms āśvāḥ, āśvāḥ (Av. aspā, the more rare secondary form of aspa, seems to be most closely related to āśvāḥ). It may however belong to Skr. -h from Indg. -s in as much as -aḥ -āḥ might both be regarded as the previous stages of Skr. -ō, -ā Av. -ō, -a. It is not improbable that the -aḥ, -āḥ, which arose in pausa in prim. Ar., forced their way at that period into the place of -as, -ās before voiced explosives and spirants and of -as, -ās before vowels; and whilst they were now retained in pausa down to the time of nasals cannot at that time have been so absorbed in the vowels, that only a nasal vowel was spoken, and the latter would in all appearance be the necessary presupposition for the influence of the i or u on the s-sound. Cp. § 199 rem. 1. āśanti 'they injure', nīsatē 'they kiss', gen. puš-ōs 'of the man' show the regular development.

the Skr. separate development, where they settled also before k, p, and -āh became -d in Av., they regularly passed into -ō, -a before voiced sounds, and these two stages might have been reached already in the prim. Ar. period. When -ō came to stand before other vowels than a in Skr., it became shortened to u, e. g. aśva upa; whereas aśvō api* became aśvō 'pi. Cp. Bloomfield in the American Journal of Philology III 25 ff., Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 36 ff., furthermore §§ 646. 647, 1 and 6. 649, 7.

Rem. On O.Pers. final -u = prim. Ar. -as see § 558, 4.

§ 557. The Indg. s, which had come over from prim. Ar., mostly remained unchanged in Sanskrit, e. g. saptā 'septem', āsti 'est', jānuś-as 'generis'. Changes took place in the following cases:

1. Prim. Ar. -ss- became -ts-, just as prim. Ar. -šš- led to -kš- (§§ 401. 556, 1) and probably prim. Ar. -ss- to -tš- (2 below). vatsyāni from vas-syāmi* fut. from vas- 'clothe' (cp. Gr. fut. ἐσσω). vatsyāmi fut., āvatsam aor. from vas- 'stay, dwell' (cp. Gr. ἄνω). Loc. pl. vid-vātsu from vid-vas-su*, to acc. sg. vid-vāts-am instr. sg. vid-ūś-a, part. to vēda 'I know'. -dhvatsu loc. pl. to -dhvas- 'falling', the final member of compounds. The -t of the form tānt acc. pl. masc. 'tho', which appears before s, had perhaps also arisen from s (cp. tās before t- elsewhere generally tān). Av. -s- corresponded to this -ts-.

Rem. The ss in the loc. vātsu (vāvas- 'word', cp. Gr. ἑσσω ἑσσω), māhīssu (māhīyas- 'greater' cp. Gr. μεγας), māssu (māda 'moon, month') is due to analogy. In like manner also āsac 'thou sittest' (Gr. ἵκασ) for āssē* after āstē etc. vidvātsu in union with vidvādbhiḥ and the other bh-cases, in which dbh arose from ssbh (§ 591), produced the form vidvāt. Cp. the accident.

2. Indg. sč appears as ch (cch) = Iran. s. gā-chā-mi (gācchāmi) 'I go': Av. ja-sč-mi, Gr. πάσχω, Indg. gm-sčō*. See § 400. sč was probably spoken in the prim. Aryan period. sč passed into tš in Skr. (cp. ts from ss above), and this into ch, as in pachās (pacchās) 'pada by pada' from pat-šas* from pad- (§ 351). tācchatrān acc. 'these enemies' = tān(s) + šatrān is perhaps also to be traced back to tāntśatrān* with transition of śś to tś. Cp. tant before s- above.

3. s was dropped between t or p and following explosive or spirant. āchāntta from a-chānt-s-ta* 2. pl. of the s-aorist from chand- 'shine'; utthā- 'rise' from ut-stha*-, e. g. inf. utthātum; correspondingly sattā- = Av. hastā- from prim. Ar. satstā*- Indg. set'tō*-, part. from rt. sed- 'sit' (§ 469, 4). ātapta from a-tāp-s-ta* 2. pl. of the s-aorist to tāpati 'is warm'. Cp. the analogous treatment of z at the end of § 591.

4. s became ś, if ś or ṣ stood at the beginning of the next syllable.

śvāsūra- 'father-in-law' from svaśūra*-, cp. Av. xvasura- Gr. ἰκνρός Goth. swaīhru. śmāśru- 'moustache': O.Ir. smech Lith. smakrū 'chiu' (§ 467, 2), perhaps also Lat. maxilla. śāśvant- 'complete, whole, each' fr. sa-śvant*-, cp. Gr. ᾱ-νάς (§ 166).

śuṣkā- 'dry' śuṣyati 'drys in' fut. śōkṣyati (from śōṣyati*, § 556, 1): Av. huška- O.Pers. uška- 'dry', rt. says-. The change of the initial s might have taken place here at the time when the root-final s was already an ś-sound, but had not yet acquired the cerebral articulation (ś).

The same assimilation as in śvāsūra-, only in the opposite direction, seems to exist in śāś-s 'hare': OHG. haso Ags. hura (r from z, § 581) Pruss. sasn-i-s 'hare'.

Cp. the analogous assimilation in Lith., § 587, 2.

§ 558. Prim. Ar. s was retained in Iranian before n, p, t, k and after t. It became ś after p (f). In other cases it either became an aspirate or disappeared.

1. Retention of s. Av. snaṣṣaiti 'snows': Goth. snāivs 'snow', rt. sneigh-. Av. sās-na- 'a teaching': Skr. śās-ana- 'assignment'. Av. spas- 'spy': Skr. spāś- Lat. au-spex. Av. as-ti O.Pers. as-tiy 'is': Skr. ās-ti Gr. ᾱ-τι. Av. skemba- 'pillar': Skr. skambhā-. s along with a preceding t became ss, whence s, as in Av. masya- 'fish' = Skr. mātsya-, see § 473, 2 p. 349.

2. ś from s after f (cp. § 473), except when r, tr followed, in which case s remained (Bartholomae Handb. § 149 rem. 1). Av. draṣša- 'drop': Skr. drapsā- 'drop'. aṣ (acc. ap-em) 'water':

Skr. āp from aps* (§ 647, 7). With afš the new formation awš-data- 'resting in the water', where fš had become voiced, cp. vāyž-byō § 556 rem. 1.

3. Aspirates from s.

Initially.

Av. O.Pers. h before prim. Ar. a ā, i ī, y. Av. O.Pers. hamu- 'equal': Skr. samū-. Av. haṇā- O.Pers. hainā- 'army': Skr. sēnā-. Av. hindu-š O.Pers. hidā-š (§ 197 rem.) 'country of the Indus': Skr. sindhū-š 'river, Indus'. Av. opt. hyāp 'it may be': Skr. syāt. O.Pers. hya 'qui' (relat.): Skr. syá 'that'. In Av. also before u, ū, and in the Gāp. dialect before v. hu- 'well, very, rich': Skr. su-. Gāp. hva- 'own': Skr. svá-.

For hy- Gāp. also zy-. For Gāp. hv- Late Av. xw-. See its treatment medially.

In O.Pers. h is wanting before u and uy = u. u- 'well': Av. hu- Skr. su-. uva- 'own': Av. Gāp. hva- Skr. svá-. Cp. medially.

Prim. Ar. sm- = Av. m- (intermediate stage hm-*): maraiti 'is mindful': Skr. smāratī; mahi 'sumus': Skr. smāsi. Prim. Ar. sr- = O.Pers. r-: ranta neut. 'river': Skr. srótas neut. It cannot be decided whether s had also disappeared in O.Pers. before m and in Av. before r.

Medially.

Av. h after prim. Ar. a-vowels before i ī, u ū. 2. sg. bara-hi (Gāp. bara-hī) 'fers': Skr. bhāra-si Goth. bairi-s O.Bulg. bere-si. ahura- 'master': Skr. āsura- 'alive, spiritual, spirit'. yahu loc. pl. from stem yā- 'quae': Skr. yā-su.

Av. wh between a-vowels. Sg. instr. mananōh-a dat. mananōh-ē gen. mananōh-ō (manah- neut. 'sense, mind', Gr. μένος) = Skr. mānas-a, -ē, -ō, prim. Ar. manus-a, -aj, -as*; cp. loc. manah-i = Skr. mānas-i. Conj. 3. sg. awh-aḥ from ah- 'be': Skr. āsāt Lat. erit. ydnōham gen. pl. from yā-: Skr. yā-sām, cp. Av. loc. yā-hu.

O.Pers. h corresponded to this Av. h and wh except before u. 2. sg. conj. bavā-hy 'sis': Av. bavā-hi Skr. bhāva-si.

nāha-m acc. 'nose': Av. nānohā- Skr. nda-. h is wanting before u, as initially (see above). aura-mazdāh- Ormazd: Av. ahura-. It is improbable that h was here also entirely unpronounced, cp. below on uw = prim. Ar. sy.

Rem. 1. h remained here and there unwritten in O.Pers. also before other vowels than u, e. g. imperf. u-istatā 'he placed himself', cp. Av. pres. hištati; pātīy (probably to be read pantīy) for pahatīy 'he announces' beside imperf. 3. sg. apaha.

Av. h before r (also written h, rh, rh). ha-zañra- 'thousand': Skr. sa-hāsra- Gr. Lesb. χίλλοι, Indg. gheslo-*.

Av. hm O.Pers. m from sm. Av. ahmi O.Pers. amīy 'sum': Skr. ās-mi. Av. ahmakem O.Pers. amāxam gen. 'of us': Skr. asmākam.

Av. ñh Gāp. hy, O.Pers. hy from prim. Ar. sj. Av. vaiñhō Gāp. vahyō 'melius': Skr. vās-ya-. O.Pers. gen. sg. kāra-hyā (kāra- m. 'people, army') Gāp. haoma-hyā (haoma- 'somadrink'): Skr. sōma-sya. For this and the initial hy in Gāp. also xy: āxyā beside ahyā 'huius': Skr. asyā; xyāp 'sit': Skr. syāt.

Prim. Ar. sy became Av. xw and nuh. haraxwairi-* = Skr. sārasvat-i- prop. name, cp. initial xw, as xwa- 'own' = Gāp. hva-. 2. sg. imper. mid. bara-nuha = Skr. bhāra-sva, rt. bher- 'bear'. The duality xw: nuh was originally probably such that xw made its appearance under the conditions by which s without u passed into h, but nuh, where s, without u had become nh. Also for medial sy in Gāpā hv: imper. gūša-hvā 'hear', cp. hva- 'own'. In O.Pers. uw from sy. 2. sg. imper. pati-paya-uwā 'protect thyself': Skr. -sya, cp. uwa- 'own'. The pronunciation of this uw is not clear, it follows however from Gr. Χωρυσμία = O.Pers. uwarasmī-s and similar forms, that a spirantal element was not wanting. Cp. § 159 p. 143.

4. Aryan final -s was entirely lost in O.Pers. (but not so -š, cp. kūrā-š Cyrus). Nom. sg. aniya 'alius' (stem aniya-): Av. anyas(-ca) anyō Skr. anyās anyō. Nom. acc. sg. neut. rauca 'day' (st. raucah-): Av. raocas(-ca) raocō. 2. sg. impf. gaulaya 'thou concealedst': Av. -ayas(-ca) -ayō. It is not clear whether prim. Iran. -s was dropped here or whether we have to do with the offspring of an already prim. Ar. further development of -as (see § 556, 3).

Rem. 2. If it were certain that the nom. napā 'grand-child' had arisen from napās* and were identical with Skr. nāpāt from nāpāts*, the form amiya would be supported as the regular continuation of prim. Pers. anyas*.

Armenian.

§ 559. s was retained before t, x, in combination with s and after (dropped) n, m. astl (gen. astēl) 'star': Skr. stṛ- Gr. ἀστὴρ Lat. stella Goth. stairnō 'star'. sterj 'barren' (of animals): Skr. starī- Gr. στεῖρα Lat. sterili-s 'unfruitful', Goth. stairō 'barren woman'. z-gest 'dress': Lat. ves-ti-s etc., see § 555. sxalem 'I go astray, err': Skr. skhālāmi 'I stumble', Gr. ἀπάλλομαι 'I stumble, fail', rt. sphel-. 2. sg. es 'art' from es-si*: Gr. Hom. ἔσσι. amis (gen. amsoy) 'month': Gr. Lesb. gen. sg. μῆν-ος from μῆνσ-ος*, Lat. mēns-i-s, O.Ir. gen. mīs, opf. mēns-*. Acc. pl. eris 'three' from tri-us*: Goth. þri-us. us (gen. usoy) 'shoulder': Skr. śsa-s 'shoulder', Umbr. onse loc. 'in umero', Goth. ams m. 'shoulder', Indg. ómso-*.

§ 560. Initial s disappeared before squantal vowels and before nasals. al 'salt': Gr. ἄλ-ς Lat. sal O.Ir. salann Goth. salt O.Bulg. solŭ 'salt'. evēn 'seven': Skr. saptā etc., see § 555. amaʔn 'summer' OHG. O.Icel. sumar 'summer' (§ 232). m-i (gen. m-iof) 'one' from sm-*: Gr. μία 'one' fem. from σμ-ια*, μῶνυξ 'with single uncloven hoof' from σμ-ωνυξ*, Indg. sm-* weak stem-form beside sem- (Gr. ἔρ). nu (gen. nuoy) 'daughter-in-law' Skr. snuṣā- OHG. snur O.Bulg. snūcha 'daughter-in-law'. neard (gen. nerdi) 'nerve, sinew': Skr. śndvan- 'string, sinew': Av. snāvar 'sinew'. h- occurs however before vowels in two words at least without any apparent reason: hin 'old': Skr. sāna-s etc., see § 555; h- from hu-* prefix, e. g. h-lu 'obedient': Skr. su- O.Ir. so- su- 'well, very'.

ē- from sy- (cp. g(ē) from y, § 162). koir 'sister': Skr. svāsar- Lat. soror from syēsūr* (§ 172, 3) Cymr. chwaer Goth.

svistar Pruss. swestro 'sister', Indg. syésor-*. Ertn (gen. Ertn) 'perspiration' (-rt- from -tr-, § 263) : Skr. svidyāmi 'I perspire', Gr. ιδρώς Lat. sūdor from syoid-ōr* (§ 170 p. 150.) Cymr. chwys 'perspiration' OHG. stoeiz 'perspiration', rt. syeid-. Enoy (gen. Enoy) 'sleep' : Skr. svāpna-s Lat. somnu-s from syepno-s* (cp. soror) O.Icel. svefn 'sleep'.

Rem. If veç 'six' in Armen. arose from yečs*, the duality ē- and e- = sy- must probably be placed on a level with the duality g and v in loyanum and kor (§ 162). But it may also represent a pre-Armenian form yečs*, see § 589, 3.

§ 561. Medially and Finally.

epem 'I cook' to Gr. ἐπεσθαι with orig. ps?

ç = Indg. šs and sk. veç 'six' : Gr. ἕξ Lith. szesz-l (cp. § 560 rem.). harç 'quaestio' harç-ane-m 'I ask' : Skr. prchāmi, Lat. poscō, OHG. forsca, prim. f. pr(k)-sk-*. See § 408.

The š in gišer 'night' is not clear : Gr. ἰσνίφα Lat. vesper O.Ir. fescor Cymr. ucher Lith. vākara-s O.Bulg. večerŭ 'evening'.

The j in arf 'bear' (Skr. fkṣa-s Gr. ἄρκτος Lat. ursus) probably arose from č (p. 358 footnote 1), but on account of Gr. ἄρκτος, it is questionable whether the Indg. prim. form contained s, cp. § 554.

-y- from -sj-. Gen. mardo-y (mard 'man, homo') : Skr. mṛdā-sya, Gr. Hom. βροτοῖο from -o-sjo*.

Intervocalic s disappeared. koir 'sister', pl. kor-ē : Skr. svāsā svāsār-as. nu 'daughter-in-law' : Skr. snušd.

s disappeared between a vowel and k (Indg. g), r, m, n. mukn (gen. mkan) 'mouse, muscle' : Skr. muṣ-kā 'testicle' maṣaka-s maṣikā 'rat, mouse', Lat. mus-culu-s, O.Bulg. myšica 'arm'. boč 'bare footed' prim. form bhos-go-s* : OHG. bar 'naked, only' prim. Germ. bazā-s*, O.Bulg. bošŭ 'bare footed'. Gen. keṛ 'sororis' : Goth. svistrs, prim. f. syestr-os* or -es. em 'I am' : Skr. āsmi, Indg. és-mi*. Pronominal dative ending -um, e. g. im-um 'to my' or-um 'to which' : cp. Skr. -a-smāi in tā-smāi 'to the', Pruss. -e-smu in še-smu 'to this'. z-ge-nu-m 'I dress' : Gr. Ion. νῆρην from fēō-vē-mi* (§ 565), rt. ves-, see § 555.

i ter 'up, above, over', i veroy 'above': Skr. vārṣāyas- 'higher' Lith. virsz-ù-s 'the upper part, point' (Hübschmann Ztschr. d. deutsch. morg. Ges. XXXVI 121). tar-am-im 'I cause to fade, dry up': Skr. tarṣ-a-s 'thirst'. Gr. τέρσομαι, 'I become dry', Lat. torreo, Goth. ga-þairsan 'to be arid, gape from dryness', rt. ters-. But beside this appears also faršam-im, the relation of which to tar-am-im is not clear to me.

s disappeared finally after vowels. Nom. sg. mard 'homo': Skr. mṛtá-s. Gen. sg. haur 'of a father': Gr. πατρ-ός. But acc. pl. z mards Indg. mṛtó-ns*, cp. Goth. vulfa-ns.

§ 562. Indg. s seems to have been assimilated to the k at the beginning of the following syllable in skesur (gen. skesri) 'mother-in-law': Gr. ἐκνρά, Goth. swigar, Indg. smekra-*; sk-thus = kṃ, see § 162. Cp. Skr. śvaśrú- § 557, 4 and Lith. szeszura-s § 587, 2.

Greek.

§ 563. s was preserved down to historical times in the following cases:

1. In combination with voiceless explosives. σπάζω 'I pant, gasp': Skr. sphurdmi 'I push away with my foot, pant, tremble', Lat. spernō, OHG. sporo 'spur', Lith. spiriù 'I push with my foot', rt. sper-. ἀλείψω 'I shall anoint': Skr. lēpsyāmi 'I shall spread upon, besmear', Lith. Āpsiu 'I shall remain sticking', rt. lejp-. ἵσ-ται 'sits': Skr. ds-tē. ἦσ-θα 'thou wast': cp. Skr. ds-i-tha (cp. § 553). Aorist Hom. πάσασθαι 'to eat, consume' from πατ-σασθαι*, to pres. πατίομαι; with reduction of the σσ to σ Hom. ἐπάσαντο (cp. § 490). βάσσω 'I go': Skr. gáchāmi, Indg. gm-skō*, rt. gem-. ἄξ-ων 'axis': Skr. ákṣ-a-s etc., Indg. aks-*, see § 555. σκάνδαλο-ν 'stumbling-block': Skr. skándāmi 'I jerk, leap upon', Lat. scandō, O.Ir. perf. ro se-scaind 'he leapt', rt. sqand-. σφάλλομαι 'I stumble, stagger, fail': Armen. szatem etc., rt. sqhel- (§ 553). Fut. λείψω 'I shall leave': Skr. rēk-śyāmi 'I shall leave, give up to', Lith. Āksiu 'I shall leave', rt. lejp-.

Rem. 1. For the στ in τέκτωρ 'carpenter' ἔκτο-ς 'bear' νέκτο-ς 'a founding' (Skr. tákṣa fkṣa-s kṣi-ti-ṣ) etc. see § 554.

2. In combination with s. Hom. aor. ζέσ-σ-α, to ζέω 'I seethe, bubble': Skr. yás-āmi 'I bubble seethe, boil', OHG. jesan 'to ferment, froth', rt. jes-. Hom. loc. pl. ἐπες-σι (ἐπος 'word'): cp. Skr. vācas-su, § 557 rem. This σσ became σ at the same time with the σσ = ts (above n. 1 and § 490) and σσ = tj thj (§ 489). Hom. already ἐπείσσει etc., Att. only σ, ἔπεισα ἐπείσει.

3. With preceding ρ (Indg. r, r, r). Aeolic θέρρος (cp. Θερρότης) Att. θάρρος 'boldness', rt. dhers-, see § 555. σ-aorist Hom. ἔφθερσα (φθείρω 'I destroy'): cp. Skr. ābhāṛṣam (bhāṛāmi 'I bear'). ἔρση 'dew': Skr. varṣ-ā- 'rain'. ἄρσην Ionic ἔρσην 'masculine': cp. Skr. ṛṣā-bhā- 'masculine, bull' Av. aršan- O.Pers. -aršan- 'man, male' or Skr. vṛṣan- 'masculine, bull'. κόρσην 'head, temple': Skr. śiṛṣ-ā-m 'head', Indg. kṛṣ-, see § 306. Probably also with λ. τέλοσ-ο-ν 'boundary', which either represents the weakest stem-form of τέλος (τελεσ-) with ο extension or, what is more probable, belongs to Skr. kārṣ-āmi 'I furrow, plough' (rt. qels-, § 427*b*) and was only popularly connected with τέλος. Hom. aor. ἐκელσα, to pres. κέλλω 'I move, drive'.

ρρ from ρσ in later Attic: θάρρος, ἄρσην, κόρσην.

Rem. 2. Hom. ἔκρησα, Att. ἔφθρησα ἔστωλο beside Hom. ἔκρησα ἔφθρησαι ἔστωλο were new forms, made after the analogy of forms like ἔκτεινα ἔκτειμα (from nasal stems),

4. In the combination nsj, whence σσ. πίπσσω from *πιπνο-χω 'I bruise, pound': Lat. pīnsiō pīnsō, Skr. 3. pl. pīṣ-ānti 'they pound' 1. sg. pināṣmi (cp. p. 410. footnote 1). νίσσωμαι from *νι-νο-χο-μαι 'I go away, return home' beside νόμαι from *νέσ-ο-μαι: Skr. nās-āmi 'I approach some one, I unite myself to some one', OHG. gi-nesan 'to recover, remain alive'.

5. Finally. ἵππο-ς 'horse': Skr. āśva-s, Lat. equo-s. ἡδύ-ς 'sweet': Skr. svadū-ṣ. ἔπαρε-ς 'thou didst bear': Skr. ābhara-s. Acc. pl. masc. Cret. ῥό-ς Att. ρούς 'the': Goth. þa-us. Nom. κύκλ-ων 'round-eyed', like Lat. vōx Av. vāxš 'voice'. Nom. νιό-της 'youth': Lat. novi-tās, Indg. *-tāt-s.

6. In *the initial combination sm. σμερδαλέο-ς 'terrible': OHG. smērzo 'pain' Mid. Engl. smerte 'sharp, bitter'. Beside these also the assimilation of the σ to μ, as ιμ-μεδῆσαι 'to smile' φιλο-μειδής, to Skr. smáy-a-tā 'he smiles'; μία 'una' from sm-a* fem., to ἐν neut. from sem*; which is to be explained from the different conditions of sandhi (cp. § 589, 3).

§ 7. It is not quite certain that initial sm became σσ, σ. The following comparisons have been made. ἴσσο-ς 'Cret. Flafo-ς 'equal' with Skr. viṣu 'in both directions' viṣva-m 'aequinoctium' ¹⁾ and Arcad. ἡμι-σσο-ς 'half' with Av. pri-šva- 'third part' (on ἡμισυ-ς see Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 187).

Rem. 3. Imper. φερε φερον not = Skr. bhāra-sva, but = Av. bara-nha Indg. bhēre-so*. ἰό-ς 'arrow' to Skr. iṣa-ṣ 'arrow', but it did not arise from iəfo-ς*, but either o- and *n-*stem existed side by side from the beginning, or ἰό-ς had been carried over into the o-declension from iū-ς*, cp. πό-ς : Lat. puru-s, νι-ς beside νύ-ς.

If the above comparisons are right, it would then be possible to explain the initial σ = sm- instead of f- h- (§§ 166, 564) in certain words, e. g. in σάλος 'groundswell, fluctuation' : OHG. swellan 'to swell'; σίνουμαι 'I rob' : OHG. swēnan 'to disappear'; σιγή 'silence' : OHG. swīgen 'to keep silent' (rt. *σμα*ίχ* *σμα*ίγ*). The σ would have its regular position only medially (in the inner part of the sentence), cp. κονί-σσαλος, ὁ σάλος, ἐκ σάλου, ἰσάλευον, ἰσίνόμεν. Cp. Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 359.

Rem. 4. We thus arrive at an explanation of σῦ-ς beside ῥ- 'pig'. Corresponding to σάλο-ς 'fat hog' from se-alo-ς* (cp. Goth. se-ein 'pig', O.Bulg. su-inū 'suillus') there existed once the form se-ος beside ῥ-ός (cp. Goth. se-ein as opposed to Lat. su-inu-s, like Ved. dvā beside dūd 'two'), the σ of which was retained in the inner part of the sentence and then was transferred to ῥ- ῥός. Cp. Osthoff loc. cit.

§ 564. s became h in prim. Greek initially before sonants and between sonants, and then in the latter case disappeared altogether.

ὁ 'the' : Skr. sá Goth. sa. ἔμας 'stap, rein' : Skr. sī-mán 'parting, boundary', OS. sī-mo 'cord, rope', O.Bulg. si-lo 'cord rope'. ὄς 'pig': Lat. sū-s, OHG. sū 'sow' (on ov- see § 563 rem. 4). ἀπό-θεν 'from some place or other': Goth. sums 'anyone', cpf. sym-ō-*.

1) Bechtel (Philol. Anz. 1886 p. 15) puts se-əfo-ς* down as the prim. form, which he connects with εἰδομαί τις 'I resemble some one'. This would do very well as regards meaning, but the assumed suffix formation is not justifiable.

Hom. ἦα (Att. ἦ) 'I was': Skr. ds-am, Indg. ēs-η*. γένε-ος γένους 'generis': Skr. jānas-as Lat. generis. 2. sg. mid. φέρω-αι φέρη (φέρω 'I bear'): Skr. bhāra-sē. ᾔδε-α 'I knew': Skr. āvedī-ḡ-am.

Rem. 1. Sometimes o seems to have remained unaffected between vowels, as in τιθε-αι beside τίθη-αι, aor. Att. ἵπικας beside El. ἵπικα. On this point see the addendum.

Initial h passed into the spiritus lenis in prim. Greek, if an aspirated tenuis or h = s stood in the next syllable or the next but one. ἔχω 'I hold, have' fr. ēχω* (cp. ἔξω, ἔ-σχ-ο-ν): Skr. sāhē 'overpower', Indg. act. séghhō*; ἔ-σχω from i-sch-ω*. ἐδεσθλο-ν 'seat' beside ἔδος 'seat': Skr. sādas- 'seat, a sitting'. ἄ-λοχο-ς 'consors tori' beside ἄ-παξ 'once', ἄ- = Skr. sa- 'with', Indg. syu-. αὔω 'I dry, wither' from aūhaw, older aūhaw* (cp. fut. αὔσω): Lith. saus-a-s 'dry', OHG. sōren 'to wither, dry up', rt. sayu-. ἔχω: ἔξω and αὔω: αὔσω = τριχός: θριξ.

Rem. 2. αὔω beside αὔω and Att. (inscript.) ἔχω beside ἔχω were formed after αὔω, ἔξω. Conversely αὔσω for αὔω, νεύσωμαι for νεύσωμαι* (§ 496). In like manner each of the two forms αὔ- and αὔ- 'with' went beyond its original sphere, e. g. ἄ-θεός-ος after ἄ-παξ etc., conversely ἄ-παξ after ἄ-λοχο-ς ἄ-δεσθλο-ς etc. Cp. rem. 3.

Initial sy- became voiceless f-, and this became h-. Foī Fē, οἱ f 'sibi, se': Skr. svā-. Cp. § 563, 7 on σάλος etc.

Initial sī- became h-. ὑ-μήν 'thin skin, sinew': Skr. syā-man- 'string, strap'. Medial sī became h, which disappeared after Homer. Hom. τῶο Att. τοῦ 'of the' from ro-sko*: Skr. tā-sya. See § 131.

Prim. Gr. h- (= indg. s-, sy-, sī- and j-, § 129) was lost in Lesbian according to the testimony of the old grammarians: ō = o etc. (Meister Griech. Dial. I 100 ff.). h- seems to have been reduced in Ionic-Attic at an early period. It disappeared altogether in the christian era.

Rem. 3. Besides the forms quoted in rem. 2 there are still many others with h- where the spiritus asper might be expected. (In some cases it seems to be merely a question of inexactness in the representation of the sound. In other cases it is more or less clear that they have been formed by analogy. Thus Att. ἀλκυών 'kingfisher' beside ἀλκυών (Lat. alcedō), after ἀλς from auls* (de Saussure's comparison of ἀλκυών with OHG. swa-lasea, Mém. de la soc. de lingu. VI 75, does not convince me); Dor. ἀμύς Att. ἡμύς (Skr. asma-) after ἑμύς ἑμύς from μωμ-* (to Skr. gumā-. § 129); ἑσπας 'sits' (Skr. ḍatṣ) after forms from ἑδ- 'sit' Indg. sed-; Heracl. ἐκτὸς 'eight' (Lat. octō) after ἑπτά 'septem'. Further εἰσόμεν for εἰσόμεν* (from l-(h)εἰσόμεν*) after ἑπόμεν ἑπόμεν, and many others.

§ 565. Initial s before n became assimilated to this in prim. Greek, e. g. νίψ-α acc. 'snow': Lith. snēga-s etc., see § 555. The fuller initial was still preserved in ἀγά-ννιφο-ς 'deeply covered with snow' ἱ-ννη 'nebat' (O.Ir. snā-the 'filum', OHG. snuor 'thread, string') (§ 654, 4).

s, between a sonant and following nasal or between a nasal and following sonant, became assimilated to the nasal in prim. Greek. The stage of assimilation remained in Lesbian and North Thessalian, whilst in the other dialects a reduction of the nasal, partly with 'compensation lengthening' (cp. § 618), took place. φαφισ-νο-ς* 'shining', to φάος: Lesb. φάεννο-ς, Ion. φαινό-ς, Dor. Φανό-ς. ἴσ-μ* 'I am' (Skr. āsmi): Lesb. εἰμι, Att. εἰμι, Dor. ἡμῖ. ζῶμα 'girdle' from ζωσ-μα*: Lith. jūs-mū 'girdle', rt. jōs-. Aor. ἔμει-σα* 'I remained' ἐνεμ-σα* 'I allotted': Lesb. ἐμεινα ἐνεμμα, Att. ἐμεινα ἐνεμμα, Dor. ἐμεινα ἐνημα. Gen. μηνσ-ος* 'of the month' (O.Ir. mīs): Lesb. μῆν-ος (Thess. ὑστειρο-μειν-ίθ), Att. Dor. μην-ός.

σ frequently came to stand before μ and ν again by form-association. Thus were formed ἔσμεν 'sumus' beside regular εἰμὲν after ἵσθι ἔστι, ἡμῖ-εσμαι 'I am dressed' (rt. ves-) beside regular εἰμαι after ἡμῖ-εσται etc. This σ as well as that which arose from tsm (as in ἄσμενο-ς 'rejoicing' from σφαρ-σ-μενο-ς*, to ἡδομαι, see § 566; ὀσμή 'smell' = olsmā*, that is, ód+smā*, beside ὀδ-μή) passed into sm; which is shown by the spelling ζμ and Cret. κόρμω-ς = κόσμω-ς, the ρ of which in the first instance arose from z (cp. Θεορδόρειο-ς, § 593). On the other hand the new σν became νν. Thus in Att. ἰσνύμι took the place of the regular (Ion.) ἔννυμι 'I dress' after the forms ἰσ-θῆναι etc., and this became ἐννῆμι probably at the same time when Πελοπόννησος arose from Πελοπίόσνησος*. In like manner Att. ζώννυμι from *ζωσ-νῦ-μι, a new formation for regular *ζώνμι, cp. ζώνη 'belt' from *ζωσ-νᾶ, rt. jōs-, and others of the same kind.

sr became voiceless ρρ in prim. Greek, which underwent simplification initially. Hom. ἔρρει ῥέε 'flowed': Skr. á-srav-a-t sráv-a-t. Cp. § 266. It is doubtful whether such ρρ was anywhere medially reduced to ρ with 'compensation lengthening'.

sl became λλ, initially λ, at the same period. ἄλληκτο-ς μετα-λλήξαντα (Π. I 157), λήγω 'I cease': OHG. slach O.Icel slakr 'slack, lazy', rt. slæg-. Lesb. χέλλοι, Ion. Att. χεῖλιοι (beside χῆλιοι, the ι of which has not yet been satisfactorily explained), Dor. χήλιοι 'thousand', from *χεσλ-ιο-: Skr. sa-hásru- sa-hasriya-, Indg. gheslo-* ghesl-ijo-*.

§ 566. Transposition of σ seldom took place, as in ἔφος Lesb. σαίφος 'sword', Syrac. ψέ Ion. σφέ 'se'.

Assimilation of s to following explosives or spirants, whereby the st, which had arisen from t't (§ 490), stood equal to original st. Lac. ἄ-ττᾶσι ἀνά-σσησι Hesych., ἀκρόρ = ἀσρός 'leather bag'. Cret. Gortyn μέττες 'up to' from *μεστες, which may be regarded as μεστε-ς (cp. μέχρη-ς ἀνευ-ς etc.) or as μεστ' ἔς (cp. μέστι, μίστα). Boeot. ἔττε = ἔστι 'till', that is, ἔς τε, ἔττω = ἔστω 'let him know'. Cret. θθ from σθ, as διδόθθω = διδόσθω πρόθθα = πρόσθα, Boeot. τθ, as ὀπιτθοῖλα 'cuttle fish'. These θθ and τθ are probably both to be read þþ; sp became þþ. Cret. ἰθθαῖντι (ἰθθαῖντι?) = Att. ἰσῶσι shows the development st þt þþ.

Disappearance of σ in combinations of three consonants. πτέρνα 'heel, foot': Skr. páṛṇi- OHG. OS. fersna 'heel'. πτύω 'I spit' from *(σ)πῑῶ-ω (§ 131 p. 119), in case the dropping of the σ does not come under § 589, 3 (cp. O.Bulg. plju-jā 'I spit'). πτάρυνμαι 'I sneeze' from *πσταρ-, rt. pster-, Lat. sternuo. 3. sg. of the σ-aorist πάλτο (act. ἔπηλα 'I swung'), λέκτο (act. ἔλεξα 'I read') from *παλ-σ-το, *λεκ-σ-το, formed like ἄσμινο-ς 'rejoicing' from *σφατ-σ-μινο-ς (§ 565); cp. the coincidence. Cp. also ἑκαίδεκα, ἑκμηνο-ς etc., with ἑξ 'six'.

Italic.

§ 567. Some of the changes, which s underwent within Italic itself, belong to the development of the separate dialects, as is shown either by Latin or the Umbr.-Samn. dialects, e. g. Lat. aēnu-s from prim. Lat. a(i)es-no-s*, cp. Umbr. ahesnes 'aēnis'.

In other cases the agreement of the Ital. languages, as evinced by their monuments, justifies our ascribing the change to the period of the Ital. prim. community, e. g. s from s between vowels may be regarded as prim. Italic.

There are other affections where we are unable to say how old they are, because the material is too limited, e. g. Lat. -br- from -sr-.

§ 568. s was retained in all dialects:

1. Initially before vowels (including y). Lat. s-unt, Umbr. s-ent Osc. s-et 'sunt': Skr. s-ānti Goth. s-ind, rt. es- 'be'. Lat. sē, sovo-s suo-s, Umbr. seso 'sibi' avesu 'suum' Osc. sifei 'sibi' súvad abl. 'sua': Skr. svá- 'own'. Lat. sudai-s: Skr. svādú-ś Gr. ῥδύ-ς OHG. swuuzi Indg. swād-u-* 'sweet, lovely'. Lat. soror from syēsōr*: Skr. svāsa etc., see § 560.

2. In combination with explosives and s. Lat. spectō, Umbr. speture 'spectori': Skr. spāś- 'spy, watchman', rt. śuk-. Lat. stō, Umbr. stahituto 'stanto', Osc. stahint stant: Gr. στάσις etc., see § 555. Lat. est estōd, Umbr. est Osc. ist estud: Gr. ἐστὶ ἐστω, rt. es- 'be'. Lat. pistu-m pistor, Umbr. pistu 'pistum': Skr. piśtā- 'rubbed, ground'. Lat. scabō: Goth. skaba 'I scrape', Lith. skabēti 'to cut', cp. § 346. Lat. gnō-scō nō-scō: Gr. γινώσκω 'I get to know'. Lat. serpsī: Skr. ś-sārps-am and ś-srāps-am (pres. śārpaṃi 'I creep, crawl'), Gr. ἐῖρψα (ἔρπω 'I creep, go'). Preposition prim. Ital. ops*: Lat. ops-trūdō read opstrūdō, os-tendō, Umbr. os-tendu 'ostendito'. Initial ps- seems to have become s: Lat. sabulu-m according to Osthoff from psaflo-m*: Gr. ψάμμο-ς 'sand' from ψαγ-μο-ς*, to ψῆπο-ς 'small stone'¹). Lat. con-cussī from cutstī*, to con-cutiō, see § 501.

1) It is not probable that ps- has become p- in palpāre and others (Stolz Lat. Gr. § 63, 2).

Lat. dīxi: Skr. mid. idīkṣi (dīśdmi 'I direct, show'), Gr. idūxa (ἰδούξα). Nom. Lat. vōx: Av. vāxš, Indg. uōqs* 'voice, word'; Osc. meddiss 'meddix'. Initial ks- has perhaps been simplified to s- in Lat. su-b s-uper, Umbr. s-omo 'summum', to Gr. ἱσ-ίναφθς (for other quite as uncertain or still more uncertain examples see Osthoff Morph. Unt. IV 266, Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 612). Lat. ges-st beside ges-tu-s, haus-t beside haus-tu-s. From prim. Ital. is-so* is-sā* or es-so* es-sā* 'iste, ista'²) comes the Umbr. Osc. stem is(s)o- es(s)o-, as in Umbr. isso-c eso-c 'sic' essū esu abl. 'hoc' esa 'hac', Osc. esci loc. 'in eo'.

3. In -ns-. Lat. mēns-i-s, Umbr. menzne 'mense' (-nz- from -ns-, see § 209): Gr. Lesb. μῆνν-ος (§ 565). Lat. cēns-eō, Osc. censamur 'censor': Skr. śas-āmi 'I pronounce solemnly, recite'. Lat. anser: Skr. hṣā-s OHG. gans Lith. žąsi-s 'goose'. Lat. pīns-ō pīns-iō: Skr. 3. pl. pīś-ānti (§ 556).

So also original s after original m. Lat. sāmpsī with ex-crescent p (§ 228). Umbr. uze onse loc. 'in umero': (Goth. ams 'shoulder').

Rem. It is however questionable whether orig. -ns- had not become ns- in prim. Italic, just as -nt- became -nt- (§ 207), so that these examples would not come into consideration for the prim. Indg. combination -ns-. Lat. sāmpsī may have been a new formation like sāmpu-s. Lat. umeru-s can scarcely come from a prim. Ital. omso-. The pre-Italic form seems to be omso- and the Umbr. word may have arisen from this by syncope (§ 633). The same relation would follow for Osc. Niumsiefs 'Numerii' beside Lat. numerus. Cp. §§ 209. 269 rem. and § 570 rem. 2 on tenebrae.

4. Often finally (cp. § 655, 9). Nom. sg. Lat. hortu-s, Umbr. pihaz pihos 'piatus' Osc. hūrz 'hortus': cp. Gr. λύχο-ς, Gen. sg. Lat. familiās, Osc. moltas 'multae': cp. Gr. χρῶμα-ς.

§ 569. s between sonantal vowels became r in Latin at the beginning of the historical period; s is still found in the oldest period. In Umbr. s and r, in Osc. s and z (= French, Slav. z). r arose everywhere first of all from z (cp. Lat. mergu-s from prim-Ital. mezgo-s*. § 594), and s in the old Ital. monuments is an inexact expression for z. The change to z was probably completed in the prim. Italic period.

2) Neut. nom. acc. is-tod* or es-tod*, maso. acc. is-tom* or es-tom*. The first part of the compound was related to the s- in Pruss. s-lesse etc. t was carried over to the nom. sg. maso. fem. in Lat., iste, ista, conversely in the other dialects s was carried over from these cases into the others. Cp. Danielsson Pauli's Altital. Stud. III 158 ff. and the addendum.

Lat. erō O.Lat. esō conj. (fut.) to sum: Skr. āsani, Gr. ἔω ēō. Acc. mūr-em (nom. mūs): Skr. māṣ- OHG. mūs 'mouse'. aur-ōr-a: Skr. uṣ-ās- Gr. Lesb. αὔ-ως 'dawn'. Gen. gener-is: Skr. jānas-as, Gr. γένε-ος γένους. vider-a-m: cp. Skr. ā-vedīṣ-am Gr. γῆδε-α. With s, inscript. Lases beside Lares, in grammarians besides sō also āsa: āra, arbosem: arborem etc. Cp. further ār-ō: us-tu-s; quer-or: ques-tu-s; quaer-ō: quaes-tor quaesō (from quaes-sō*); honōr-is: honōs hones-tu-s; dir-imō: dis-tineō dis-siliō.

Rem. 1. The process of rhotacism was at an end at the time of Appius Claudius (Censor 442 U. C.). From the report that he removed from the alphabet the letter Z we may conclude that z was also written in Lat., as in Osc., for the voiced sibilant.

Umbr. r and s. eru erom 'esse', rt. es-. fu-r-ent 'erunt', cp. fu-s-t 'erit'. hapinaru gen. pl. fem. 'ovium': Skr. tāsām 'harum'. asa asa abl. 'ara'. The spelling of the latter word with s was a graphic archaism, or it was borrowed from another dialect without rhotacism. On the change between s and r finally see § 655, 9.

Osc. z and s. ezum 'esse', Umbr. erom. censa-zet 'censebunt' trībarakattu-set 'aedificaverint', cp. Umbr. fu-rent. egmazum 'rerum', cp. Umbr. hapinaru. Fluusaī dat. 'Florae'. asas pl. 'arae'. To which Pelign. coisatens 'curaverunt', Lat. coirāre coerāre cārāre, perhaps to Gr. τενι-μέρο-ς 'sorrowful, troubled', τῆ(σ) from gis-* (§ 427, b).

In Lat. r = s also before y. Minerva from Menes-ya*, cp. Skr. mānas- Gr. μῆνσ- 'sense, mind'. furvo-s beside fuscu-s, in case the latter has not arisen from fursco-s*. larva (lārua) possibly connected with Larēs (Lases).

Rem. 2. In Lat. r = s often came through analogy into positions, especially finally in which it could not have arisen regularly. honor beside honōs, arbor beside arbōs, māior for mājōs*, after honōr-is etc. Cp. also veternu-s veterrimu-s, to vetus -eris = Gr. ἱερός -ιος, through association with hibernu-s acerrimu-s etc. with old r. pūbertās to pūbēs -eris, after ūbertās with old r.

Rem. 3. After the conclusion of the process of rhotacism s often came to stand again between vowels and now remained unaffected, e. g. quasesō from quases-sō*, hausi from haus-si*. The assumption is unsatisfactory that nāsu-s (cp. nār-ēs nārium, nās-turtiu-m, Skr. nas- OHG. nasa 'nose', Ags. nās-āryla 'nostrils', Lith. nāsī-s 'nose') was formed anew from a nom. sg. nās* (cp. nurōr-a etc.); the s in Slav. nosū is also strange (§ 588, 2); did s arise in both languages from a form with -s-s- (stem nās(e)s-*, cp. Skr. sats-d-)?

sn. s disappeared in Lat., but was retained in Umbrian. Lat. nāre, Umbr. snata 'umecta': Skr. snā-mi 'I bathe, wash, water', O.Ir. snām 'a swimming'. Lat. ninguit nix: Lith. snėga-s 'snow'; if Umbr. ninctu is really related to ninguitō, we have here a different treatment of initial sn- which may possibly depend on different conditions of sandhi. Lat. nuru-s: Skr. snuṣṭ OHG. snura 'daughter-in-law'. aēnu-s aēneu-s, Umbr. ahešnes 'aēnis', to aes aeris, Skr. āyas- neut. 'metal, iron'. Lat. pēni-s from pes-ni-s*: Skr. pās-us neut. Gr. νέος neut. 'penis'. Lat. dē-gūnō beside dē-gus-tō, rt. gēys-. dī-numerō from dis-n*. In satin potin from satis-ne potis-ne, viden abin from vidēs-ne abīs-ne the long vowel was shortened after the dropping of the s and the final -e.

sn. sn. lūna, O.Lat. inscript. losna, from loyc-snā*: Av. raozšna- 'shining'. sēnt from sex-ni*. ēnāntiō from ex-n*. penna, O.Lat. pesna, from pet-snā*, rt. pet- 'fly'.

sm. s disappeared in Lat., but was retained medially in Umbr.-Samn. Lat. merda 'dirt': Lith. smirdėti 'to stink'. mī-ru-s 'wonderful': Skr. smāy-a-tē 'smiles'. prīmu-s, Pelign. prīmu 'primo' or 'primum'. Lat. dī-moveō from dis-m*. Umbr. pusme 'cui': Skr. kā-smāi 'to whom?'; do the Lat. adverbs quom cum and quam also belong here? Osc. posmo-m 'postremum', cp. Lat. pōne from pos-ne*.

Rem. 1. It is uncertain whether Casmēna = Camēna and dūsmō = dāmō (dūsmo in loco) in Paul. Fest. are examples of the retention in Lat. itself of s in this combination sm. Corssen Krit. Beitr. 481 regards cosmittere = committere in the same source as containing — but hardly rightly — a cons-, formed like abs o(b)- Osc. az etc. Cp. also Bücheler Rhein. Mus. XXXVI 241 f.

xm. sub-tēmen from -texmen*. sē-mēnstri-s from sex-m. ēmergō from ex-m*.

sl. s was lost in Lat. linguēō: OHG. slach 'slack, lazy', rt. slæg- (§ 565). lābricu-s: Goth. slinpan 'to slip'. dī-luō from dis-l.* pīlu-m 'pestle' from pins-lo-m*, alu-m from anslo-m*, see § 208.

xl, tsl. ala from axla*, to axilla, OHG. ahsla 'axle'. vēlu-m from vexlo-m*, to vexillum. ēligō from ex-l.* scāla from scant-slā*, to scandō.

According to some scholars (see Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 328, XXVIII 270) s disappeared in Lat. before nasals and before l without compensation lengthening (or with later shortening of the lengthened vowel), if the vowel was unaccented. The least doubtful examples are Camēna (rem. 1), o-mittō from o(p)s-mittō*, corpulentu-s from corpos-lēnto-s*, collīna culīna from co(c)-sl-īna*. It is here a question of later Lat. accentuation (§ 681), and on account of o-mittō it would have to be assumed that a short vowel had regularly arisen in dī-nūmerō ē-mērgō etc., quoted above, and that the long vowel was due to the analogy of forms with dī- ē-.

Initial s also disappeared in cases where it came to stand before l after the dropping of t, but not until a later period. stlīs, slīs, līs. stlocus, locus. Cp. also lien: Gr. σπλήν 'spleen'. See § 503. L. Havet, Mém. de la soc. de lingu. V 229 f., derives stlīcō from in slocō*, like pīlu-m from pinslo-m* § 208, 2.

sr became pr, further fr, whence medially Lat. br. Examples only in Latin. frīgus: Gr. ἄγος 'frost', cpl. srīgos*. frāgu-m: Gr. ῥάξ-γός 'berry'. sobrīnu-s from syēs-īno-s*, to soror: Skr. svasar- svasr-, Indg. syēsor- syasr-. cerebru-m from ceres-ro-m*, to Skr. śiras- 'head'. fānebri-s from fūnes-ri-s*, to fūnus-eris, fūnes-tu-s. crābrō from crās-rō*: Lith. szīrsz-ā etc., see §§ 303. 306. membru-m from mēms-ro-*: O.Ir. mīr 'a piece of flesh' (§ 574); mēms-ro-* became in Ital. first of all mensrō-* (§§ 207

Rem. 2. The n for m in the last word is best explained by assuming an orig. double from tensrā*, whence tensrā*- (cp. OHG. dinstor 'dark' from prim. Germ. þima(i)ra*- and Lith. timers-a 'like a sorrel-horse'), and tensrā*-. The n in the first form was transferred to the latter.

Rem. 3. di-ruð was formed after di-luð di-moeð etc. or arose regularly through -sr- (-zr-) being treated differently at a later period than in the cases mentioned above. In the latter manner the difficult form rēr rēr's (to Gr. ταρ Lith. nasard etc.) might also be explained by assuming, along with L. Havet (Mém. de la soc. de lingu. V 447), that a stem-form ysr-* yēbr-* = Indg. ysa-r-* was transformed to ysr-* (yēzr-) after the analogy of the nom. acc. yēser (yēzer*) and that from this arose rēr-, which, being carried over from the oblique cases, gave rise to the nom. acc. rēr. Or does rēr belong to O.Icel. vár 'spring'?

§ 571. rs, ls. In Lat. s became, if it was not protected by a following consonant (tostr-s from tors-tu-s*), assimilated to the liquid, probably after it had first become z. rs was preserved in Umbr.

rs. Lat. terreð, Umbr. tursitu 'terreto': Skr. trāsāni 'I tremble at', Gr. τρέω (aor. Hom. τρέσσω) 'I tremble, flee' ἄσπερ ἰφόβησεν Hesych., O.Ir. tarr-ach 'timid' (P); the root form ters- instead of tres- seems to be a secondary formation after the analogy of the form tys- (Umbr. turs-). Lat. far 'farris, farren-m, Umbr. farsio 'farrea'; stem far-s- to Germ. bar-iz-* 'barley' (O.Icel. barr neut., Goth. bariz-eins). Lat. errō: Goth. airzeis OHG. irri 'astray'. verrēs: Lith. veršis 'calf', Skr. vṛṣa-s 'bull', rt. yers-. Lat. verrō O.Lat. corrō: O.Bulg. vŕicha 'I thresh', rt. yers-. Lat. ferre from fer-se*, cp. es-se. torreð beside tostr-s: Gr. τίσσωμαι 'I become dry'.

Rem. Observe that rs = ri?, ris, rks remained in Lat. corru-s: Skr. ṛtā-s, Indg. ṛtā-s*. arsi to ardeð. urru-s: Skr. ṛkṣa-s (cp. however § 554). Cp. Umbr. trah-cors 'transverse' (§§ 209. 501).

ls. Lat. collu-m 'neck': hals (stem halsu-) 'neck'. velle from vel-se*, cp. es-se.

Lat. ru lu from ren lu. cernuo-s from cers-nuo-s*, to cerebru-u (§ 570). alnu-s from als-no-s*, probably to Lith. alks-ni-s m. 'alder' (with excrecent k), further OHG. elira Ags. alor (r from z) O.Bulg. jelicha 'alder'.

§ 572. -ss- = Indg. -ss- remained after short syllables, but, like ss = t't ts (§ 501), became s after long syllables, e. g. haest from haes-st* (haerēð) beside ges-st (gerō).

Old Irish.

§ 573. Initial s was retained before sonantal vowels; as so, too, in Gallic, while in Britann. — first probably only after final vowels — it became h. su- so- 'bene', e. g. su-thain 'perpetuus' (tan 'time'), Gall. Su-carn-s (prop. name) Cymr. hy-gar Bret. he-gar 'comis, benignus, amicus': Skr. su-. sēt 'way', Cymr. hynt Bret. hent: Goth. sinþs 'way, course, time'. sumail 'resemblance', Cymr. hafal 'similar' (§ 243, 4): Skr. samā- 'even, equal', Gr. óμω 'together' āu-a 'at once', Lat. simili-s, Goth. sama 'the same', O.Bulg. sq- 'with' samū 'self'.

sy appears initially as s, as siur 'sister': Cymr. chucaer, Skr. svásar-, medially as f (b), as perf. 3. sg. do-sefainn 'I hunted, drove', rt. syend-. See § 175 p. 154.

§ 574. sn- sm- sr- sl- were retained initially. snāim 'I swim': Skr. snā-mi. snechta 'snow': Goth. snāivs, rt. sneigh-. smir 'marrow': Goth. smairþr 'fat, fatness' OHG. smero (gen. smeroes) 'fat, grease'. smech 'chin': Lith. smakrā chin' (§ 557). sruth 'stream': Skr. srāv-a-ti 'flows' etc., see § 555. ro slechi 'destructus est', cp. perf. ro se[s]lach 'I struck down': Goth. slaha 'I strike' (§ 576 p. 431).

Medial -sm- became -mm-. 1. pl. ammi 'sumus', cp. Gr. εἰμὲν Skr. smás; 1. sg. im am 'sum': Skr. āsmi (cp. Zimmer Kelt. Stud. II, 133).

mīr 'a piece of flesh', according to Thurneysen from prim. Kelt. mēnsr-*, to Lat. membru-m, Skr. māśa- etc., see §§ 570. 585 rem. 3.

s remained, except when originally final (§ 576), after nasals which themselves disappeared (§ 212). gēis (gen. du. Mid. Ir. gēsī) 'swan': Skr. hṣā-s OHG. gans 'goose'. Gen. sg. mīs (nom. mī) 'of a month': Lat. mēns-is.

s became assimilated to a preceding r. err (gen. erre).
 'tail': OHG. ars 'rump', Gr. ὄρεος 'tail, rump'. Cp. also orr from or(c)-s* § 518.

§ 575. s in combination with explosives and s.

It disappeared initially before t. tiagaim 'I stride, go':
 Skr. stighnutē 'leaps upon, climbs up' (not found), Gr. στειχέω
 'I stride, go', Goth. steiga 'I climb', Lith. staigyti-s 'to hasten'.
 -tau 'I am': Lat. stō etc., see § 555. Cp. on the other hand O.Bret. strouis 'stravi': Goth. stráuja 'I strew, spread out'; Bret. sterenn 'stella' Corn. steyr 'stellae'. Skr. stj- 'star' etc., see § 559.

Medial st and ts became ss (s). ro closs 'I was heard' fr.
 klus-to-*. s-fut. ro fessur 'I shall know' fr. uit-s-*, rt. wejd-.
 See § 516.

sc. scaraim 'I separate, sever': Lith. skirti 'I separate, sever'. ro se-scaind 'he leapt': Skr. ca-akānda. cum-masc 'a mixing, mixing oneself' con-mescatar 'miscetur': Lat. misceō, OHG. misken 'to mix'.

ks became ss (prim. Kelt. probably xs). dess 'on the right hand': Goth. taihswa Gr. δεξιό-ς. s-fut. 1. pl. for-tiasam 'shall help', to tiagaim, cp. Gr. σπίζω. See § 517.

ss. -accastar, that is, ad-ces-s-a-thar* 3. sg. of the pass.
s-conjunctive of ad-ciu 'I see'; cp. ad-chess 'visum est', the ss of which arose from st.

§ 576. s was dropped between sonantal vowels, the intermediate stage was h. This phenomenon occurs also in Britannie.
siur 'sister', Cymr. chwaer, prim. f. syēsōr*. O.Ir. iarn, O.Cymr.
hearn (the h prefixed from the inner part of the word — iharn* eharn* — ?) 'iron', prim. Kelt. isarno-* in the place name Isarno- dori i. e. 'ferrei ostii': Goth. eisarn 'iron' a Keltic loan-word.
ro cloathar 'audiat', to ro closs, Skr. śruṣ-ṭi-ṣ etc., see §§ 516.
 576. au ō 'ear': Lat. auri-s Goth. ausō neut. Lith. ausl-s O.Bulg.
ucho 'ear'. 2. sg. beri 'fers' fr. Indg. bhēresi*, Skr. bhāraṣi.

s was treated in the same manner after vowels before liquids and nasals. Perf. ro selaig 'he struck down' i. e. sellaig, see § 574. seuaich 'stillavit' i. e. seuaich, to snigid 'it drops'.

Every final s was dropped, both orig. postvocalic s and the s which arose from -ks, -ts, -ns. This dropping of s was late, since the Ogam inscriptions still have final s, as this also is still found in Gall. O.Ir. Luigdech = Ogam inscript. Lugudeccas, gen. sg. to nom. sg. Lugaid = Lugudex* (c-stem); O.Ir. tarb 'bullock' = Gall. tarvo-s. bō 'cow': Skr. gāu-ṣ Gr. βού-ς 'bullock'. rī (gen. rīg 'king' Gall. Dubno-rīx: Lat. rēx. se 'six' = Lat. sex, beside sexseil 'sextus'. oen-tu (dat. oentid) 'unitas' from tāt-s*: cp. Lat. serritās (gen. -tāt-is). mī (gen. mīs) 'month' from mēns*: Gr. μή-ς from μηνς* (§ 611). Acc. pl. fīrn 'vīros' (nom. sg. fer): Goth. *vaira-n*s. This loss of final s was later than the change of initial explosives to spirants which was caused by a preceding vowel; for the latter change does not show itself in cases where s was final (§ 658, 1).

Germanic.

§ 577. s was generally still intact in prim. Germanic. The only changes, which it underwent in this period, are the change of it to z by Verner's law and the assimilation of sm to mn.

§ 578. Initial s.

s before sonantal vowels. Goth. sunu-s OHG. sunu sun OS. Ags. sunu O.Icel. sunr 'son': Skr. sānu-ṣ Gr. νίό-ς 'son', O.Ir. su-th 'birth, fruit', Lith. sānū-s O.Bulg. synū 'son'. Goth. saian OHG. sāan 'to sow': Gr. ῥίπα 'a throw', Lat. sēmen, O.Ir. sū 'seed', Lith. sėjū O.Bulg. sēja 'I sow', rt. sē.

sī, sy. Goth. sinjan OHG. sincan 'to sew': Skr. syū-tā-s Lith. siū-ta-s 'sewn', Indg. siū-*, cp. § 143. Goth. svistar OHG. swester 'sister': Skr. svāsā. OHG. swēiz 'perspiration, sweat': Skr. svēda-s 'sweat'.

sn, sm, sl, sr. Goth. snīvis OHG. snēo 'snow': Lith. snėga-s 'snow', cpf. snojīgho-s*. Goth. snō-rjō 'wicker-work, basket' OHG. snuo-r 'string, cord': O.Ir. snā-the 'filum': Goth. smatr-þr 'fat' OHG. smero 'fat, grease' O.Ir. smir 'marrow'. MHG. smiegen 'to ply, bend' OHG. smoccho 'underdress, shirt': Lith. smūkti (indic. smunkū) 'to slide' O.Bulg. smykati se 'to creep, slip'.

Goth. slēpan 'to sleep' OHG. slaf 'slack' slāfan 'to sleep': O.Bulg. slabŭ 'slack'. OHG. slingan 'to wind to and fro' slango 'snake': Lith. slenkù 'I crawl' O.Bulg. slakŭ 'bent'. sr- became, as medially (§ 580), str-. OHG. stroum O.Icel. straumur 'stream': Skr. śráv-a-ti 'flows'.

sp, st, sk. Goth. speivan OHG. spīuan 'to spit, vomit': Lith. spīau-ju 'I spit'. OHG. spuon 'to succeed, have success': Skr. sphāyami 'I swell, thrive', O.Bulg. spējŭ 'I succeed'. Goth. stikš 'point of time' OHG. stih 'point': Gr. στίχῳ 'I prick', Lat. in-stigare. Goth. us-skāus 'provident, sober' OHG. scurwōn 'to look, view': Gr. θυο-ακόω 'sacrificing priest'. Goth. skēi-nan OHG. scēi-nan 'to shine': Gr. σῆα 'shadow'.

§ 579. s in combination with Indg. voiceless explosives medially and finally.

OHG. aspa 'aspen-tree': Lett. apše Pruss. abše O.Bulg. osina (from opsīna*, § 545); it is uncertain whether the original order was sp or ps. O.H.G. waſsa 'wasp': Lith. vapsà 'gad-fly'. OHG. refsen 'to chastise, blame, punish' prim. Germ. 1. sg. pres. rafsjō*: Skr. rāpas- neut. 'bodily injury'.

Goth. OHG. ist 'is': Gr. ἐσ-τι. Goth. bat-ists OHG. bezz-ist 'best': cp. Gr. μῦγ-ιστο-ς. Prim. Germ. ss, s from ts. OHG. zan 'tooth' from prim. Germ. tans* Indg. dout-s*. See § 527 p. 382.

Goth. fisks OHG. fisc 'fish': Lat. pisci-s O.Ir. iase 'fish'. OHG. forscōn 'to ask': Lat. poscō. Goth. aihsa OHG. ohso 'ox': Skr. ukṣā 'ox'. Goth. saihs OHG. sehs 'six': Gr. ἕξ Lat. sex.

So also s in combination with Indg. s probably remained unchanged in prim. Germanic.

Rem. I do not know any sure examples. Goth. is 'thou art' may represent either ies(i)* (Gr. Hom. ἴσθ Armen. es) or is(i)* (Skr. ās Gr. ἴ). Does the genitive -s of n-stems (Goth. enhs OHG. wolfes O.Icel. ulfs 'wolf's', Norse run. godolufs proper name) go back to -as-ſ?

§ 580. Medial sr, like initial sr (§ 578), probably became str before Verner's law came into operation (see § 581). Goth. stem-form, svistr- O.Icel. systr- 'sister' (gen. svistrs etc.) = Skr. spasr- Lat. sobr- (§ 570) O.Bulg. sestr- (§ 585, 2), Indg. suesr-*; from here t was carried over into the forms, in which s and r were not in direct combination, hence e. g. nom. sg. Goth. svistar O.Icel. syster systir OHG. OS. swestar. OHG. dinstar Mid. Du. deemster 'dark': Skr. tamisra-m 'darkness', Lat. tenebrae, see § 570.

§ 581. In prim. Germ. s became z except in combination with voiceless explosives and spirants, if the sonant, directly preceding it, did not bear the principal accent of the word. This process of changing voiceless into voiced sounds concerned at the same time the spirants f, þ, χ, see § 530. z remained in Goth. but in the other dialects mostly became r.

Rem. Thus Indg. s partly fell together with Indg. z. See § 596.

First the s which remained unchanged. Goth. kiusa OHG. chiusu 'I test' prim. Germ. kéysō*: Skr. jōṣāmi 'I taste, enjoy', Indg. gēysō*. OHG. mās, pl. māsi, 'mouse': Skr. māṣ- pl. māṣ-as.

z. Compar. in -iz-ō, Goth. jāhiza O.Icel. öre OHG. jungiro 'younger', prim. Germ. jā(w)χ-iz-ō* (a. § 530 p. 387): cp. Skr. -iṣ- Gr. -ω- in the superlative. Goth. 2. sg. indic. pres. pass. bafraza (bafran 'to bear'): cp. Skr. bhārasē. Goth. riqiz-a- (nom. acc. riqis) O.Icel. rökkr neut. 'darkness': Skr. rājas, Gr. ρεῖος. Goth. āiz-a- OHG. ēr 'ore, metal' O.Icel. eir 'copper' prim. Germ. aiz-a-* from aī-iz-a-* (§ 635): Skr. āyas- Lat. aes aeris.

Gothic, by levelling out, mostly gave up again the grammatical change s : z(r) in the verb. To Skr. jōṣāmi 1. sg. pres., jujōṣa pf. indic. 3. sg. jujuṣimā 1. pl., jujuṣānā- partic. corresponded in prim. Germ. kéysō*, kāysi*, kuzumī*, kuzanā-*. Hence regularly OHG. chiusu, chōs, churum, choran, O.Icel. kýs, kaus, kerom, kerenn. On the other hand Goth. kiusa kaus, kusum, kusans with s in stead of z in the two last forms, an innovation, which at a later period also made its appearance in the other dialects. Correspondingly Goth. nasjan 'to rescue' with s for z after nisan as opposed to OHG. Ags. nerian, prim. Germ. 1. sg. noztijō*.

The contrast, between Goth. áusō 'ear' MHG. æse 'ear' and OHG. ōra 'ear', and between OHG. haso and Ags. hara 'hare' etc., was also caused by an old difference of accentuation.

Goth. regularly passed into s, if it came to stand finally, cp. § 531. 2. sg. batris from batriz(i)* = Skr. bhārasi, cp. O.Icel. ber-r. Nom. rigis from rigiz(-a-n)* beside gen. rigiz-is (the spelling rigiz is inexact, just as Mod.HG. raub instead of raup, after raubes etc., Lat. urbis instead of urps, after urbis etc.). Adv. diris 'earlier' beside nom. sg. diriz-a.

§ 582. The change of s, mentioned in § 581, can also be traced in the combinations rs, ls, sl, sn, ms. The differences, which had regularly arisen in prim. Germ., were obliterated here also partly by levelling out and partly by processes of assimilation.

rs and rz (West Germ. rr). OHG. O.Icel ars 'buttock' prim. Germ. ārša-z* = Gr. Att. ὀρσο-ς from ōrsoo-ς*. Goth. vairsize Ags. wiersa wyrsa from wiers-(r)a* 'peior', prim. Germ. wīrs-iz-ō*. O.Icel. hjarse hjarsi m. 'giddiness' prim. Germ. xērs-ē* from Indg. kērs-en-* (cp. also Lat. cernuo-s from cers-n-, § 571) beside kfs-ēn- (see below), to a neuter kēres-*, represented in Lat. cerebru-m (ceres-ro-*, § 570). Goth. ga-pairsa 'I am withered, gape from dryness': Gr. τήρομαι (the accent of which does not come into consideration here). OHG. fersana OS. fersna 'heel' prim. Germ. fērsnō*, Ags. fyrnu 'heel' prim. Germ. fērsni-z*: Skr. pārṣṇi-ṣ 'heel' Gr. πτέρω 'heel, foot'; the z in Goth. fairna is strange. Goth. airzjan OS. irrian OHG. irren 'to mislead' prim. Germ. 1. sg. irziō*, Goth. airzeis OHG. irri 'astray' prim. Germ. irziā*: Lat. errāre from ers-āre*. Goth. marzjan 'to vex' OS. merrian OHG. merren 'to delay, hinder, disturb' originally 'to make one unmindful' seems to have been an old causat. verb, related to Skr. mṛṣ-yaṃi (perf. ma-mārṣ-a) 'I forget, neglect' mṛṣā adv. 'in vain, fruitlessly, erroneously'. OHG. hirni neut. 'brain' from hirz-n-iā* 'belonging to the head' (cp. O.Icel. hjarse above). OHG. hornaz 'hornet' prim. Germ. xurz-n-āta-z* from a kys-en- kys-n-* = Lith. szirsz-ā -ešs O.Bulg. srīš-en-ī 'hornet, gad-fly'; beside Mod.HG. horsel Dutch horzel: Lith. szirszlī-s; cp. also Lat. crabrō (§§ 303. 306. 570).

Rem. 1. Goth. 1. pl. ga-daūrazum 'we dare' for daūrzum* (= OHG. gi-turruz, Skr. dādhyāimā) after sg. ga-dars (Skr. dadhārān), like kuzum for kuzum* (§ 581). Goth. paūrsu-s 'parched, dry' for paūrsu-s* after ga-fairsan etc., cp. O.Icel. þurr O.Swed. þörr OHG. durri 'withered, dry', Skr. ṛṣ-ā-ṣ 'greedy, gaping with thirst'.

ls and lz (West Germ. ll). Goth. hals, gen. halsis, OHG. hals 'neck' prim. Germ. halsa-*: Lat. collu-m from colso-mi*. Goth. ga-talzjan 'to teach, instruct', to un-tala- (nom. untals) 'disobedient'; talz- may represent a nominal -es-stem. OHG. bellan 'to bark' Ags. bellan 'to bark, scream, howl' Low German bulle 'bull' point to a prim. Germ. pres. bēlsō* pret. pl. bļeumi*: Lith. baĩsa-s 'voice, sound', Skr. bhāṣāmi 'I bark' (cp. § 259), Indg. bhēlsō*; the ll = lz in bullun 'barked' etc. had crushed out the regular ls of the pres. and ag. pret.

sl and zl (ll). I do not know an example for sl '1'. zl in MHG. krol, gen. krolles, 'curled, curled in locks' krolle 'curl, look' Mid. English crullen 'to curl', prim. Germ. kruz-lā-*, to MHG. krās 'crisp, curled' Mid. English crās 'crisp, angry'. Cp. also O.Icel. hrolla to tremble, quake' beside hrfōsa 'to shudder', to Gr. κρῶσις 'awful, causing shudder' κρῶσ-ταινῶ 'I make to freeze'.

sn and zn (OHG. rn). Goth. asneis OHG. esni Ags. esne 'day-labourer' prim. Germ. ās-nīfa-*, as opposed to OHG. arn (gen. arni) 'harvest' O.Icel. qnn 'season for working in the field' from prim. Germ. forms with unaccented root-syllable; cp. Goth. asans 'harvest, summer'. Goth. rann O.Icel. rann Ags. ærn (from ærzn*, and this from ræzn*) 'house' prim. Germ. raz-ná-*, to OHG. ras-ta rest, repose, a certain distance' Goth. ras-ta 'a certain distance'. OHG. lirnēn lernēn Ags. leornian OS. lirōn (cp. OS. mēda § 596) 'to learn', would have been in Goth. liernan* pret. liznōda*, to Goth. lāis 'I know' OHG. lēren 'to teach', rt. leis-.

ms and mz. Goth. ams (st. amsa-) m. 'shoulder': Skr. āsa- 'shoulder'. Goth. mimza- 'flesh': Skr. māśa-m Pruss. mensā menso O.Bulg. mēso 'flesh'.

Rem. 2. Did the s in ms once become z? For mz I do not know any other examples besides Goth. acc. pl. hauanz-uh 'all' þauz-ei 'which'.

1) The nominal suffix -s/s- must be left out of the question, since this probably represents an Indg. -t+ilo-. See Kluge's Nominale Stammbildungslehre p. 54.

but nz cannot have been prim. Germ. in this case (§ 583.) In numerous cases nz appears on all sides where nz or its further development might be expected, e. g. OHG. part. dunnen 'swollen' (dinsan Goth. þinson 'to draw, pull': Skr. lasyāmi 'I pull to and fro, shake', Lith. tęsiu 'I stretch by pulling', rt. tens-). I conjecture that nz had been developed to niz (as in Umbr., in Lith. dialects and elsewhere) at the time when Verner's law operated. s could not become voiced with this articulation.

Owing to Goth. þamma 'to the', beside Skr. tāsmād tāsmāi Pruss. stasmu etc. Umbr. pus me 'cul', and Goth. im O.Icel. em 'I am', beside Skr. āsmi, it may be assumed that sm became mm in prim. Germ., im first of all from imm*. Otherwise, but not convincing to me, Osthoff Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 423.

§ 583. Final s (Indg. -s and -z — see § 645 finals 3 — may at that time partly or entirely have been levelled out to -s) was also subject to Verner's law. This law thus gave rise e. g. in the nom. pl. of Germ. a- and *ō-*stems to -ōz beside -ōs (Skr. -ās), and in the gen. sg. of *i-*stems to -iiz beside -iis (Skr. -īs). Such doublets were then treated differently in the separate dialects

In Gothic, -z became s (wulfōz* 'wolves' ga-qumþāiz* gen. 'of a meeting, synagogue' baīrdāiz* opt. 'feras' became wulfōs ga-qumþāis baīrdāis) either at the same time with the z which became final at a later period (e. g. baīriz(i)* 'thou bearest', § 581 p. 534 f.) and thus fell together again with the s which had remained unchanged (mundōs nom. 'existimatae' = Skr. mutās, Indg. mytās*). Or else, before the dropping of the final short vowels (§ 660, 1), a generalisation of the -z first took place, as in Norse, so that e. g. mundōz* was also spoken instead of regular mundōs*, and then later -z everywhere became -s. I am in favour of the latter assumption. For thus can be best explained why z regularly appears for original final s, when a particle is attached to it (e. g. is 'he': iz-ei; weis 'we': weiz-uh; hwas 'who?': hwas-uh; vileis 'velis': vileiz-u), whilst s appears in was-uh beside was 'he was', where s had only become final at a later period (vasi*, prim. form we-yōs-e*).

-z, as absolute final, was dropped in West Germanic, whilst -s was retained. -z had frequently been extended beyond its original sphere and had supplanted -s. Nom. pl. OHG. geba OS. geða Ags. gīfa 'gifts' = Goth. gibōs. Nom. sg. OHG. OS.

Ags. sunu 'son' = Goth. sunu-s. In OHG. the z-form was generalised in the nom. pl. of a-stems, taga, in OS. and Ags. the s-form, OS. dagos Ags. dazas. Likewise the -s in the OS. gen. sg. burges nahtes kustes etc. is probably to be regarded as Indg. final -s. OHG. nom. esā 'sow' from sāz* for older sā-s*. Where r = z occurs in West Germ., as OHG. ir er (Goth. is), wir (Goth. weis), zar-zer-zir- (Goth. tuz-), this mode of treating the z was occasioned by the close connexion with following words and by the different stress which the pronouns and particles had in the sentence and in compounds. Cp. Paul in Paul-Braune's Beitr. VI 550 ff.

Prim. Germ. -z was generalised in Norse, whence -r, e. g. syr 'sow' (dat. acc. sū), ulfar 'wolves', gjafar 'gifts'.

Nothing prevents our assuming that -z became generalised in the nom. sg. in the prim. Germ. period.

Baltic-Slavonic.

§ 584. Indg. s remained generally intact in the period of the Balt.-Slav. primitive community.

The changes in this period were:

ks became šš, whence Lith. sz, O.Bulg. s. Lith. aszi-s O.Bulg. osť 'axle': Lat. axi-s, cpf. akši-*. See § 414. 544 p. 398.

Primitive Balt.-Slav. šš = Indg. sk is less certain, as Lith. maiszyti O.Bulg. měsiti 'to mingle, mix'. See § 414 rem.

§ 585. s remained unchanged in Balt. and Slav. in the following positions:

1. Initially before sonants and consonants (except sj). Lith. septyni O.Bulg. sednŭ 'seven': Skr. saptá. Lith. sūnū-s O.Bulg. synŭ 'son': Skr. sūnū-š. Pruss. swai-s 'his' O.Bulg. svatŭ 'relation' svojŭ 'own': Skr. svá-. Lith. sesŭ O.Bulg. sestr-a 'sister': Skr. svásar-. Lith. snėga-s O.Bulg. sněgŭ 'snow': Av. snaēkaiti 'it snows', rt. sneigh-. Lett. smēi-ju 'I laugh' smai-da 'a smiling' O.Bulg. smě-ja sę 'I laugh': Skr. smāy-a-tē 'he smiles'. Lith. smūkti 'to slide' O.Bulg. smykati sę 'to creep, slip': MHG. smiegen 'to wind, bend'. Lith. srav-à 'a flowing, bleeding' O.Bulg. stru-ja 'a flowing' (with excrescent t, cp. 2.): Skr. srāv-a-ti 'flows'. Lith.

slenkū 'I creep' O.Bulg. slākū 'crooked': OHG. slingan 'to wind to and fro' slango 'snake'. Lith. spėjū 'I have time, leisure' O.Bulg. spēja 'I have success': Skr. spḥyami 'I swell, thrive'. Lith. staigyti-s 'to hasten' O.Bulg. stignati 'to come somewhere': Gr. στειχω 'I stride, go'. Lith. skabėti 'to cut' O.Bulg. skobiti 'radula': Lat. scabō.

2. Medially in the combinations sy, sm, sn, sr, sl, st.

sy. Lith. es-va O.Bulg. jes-vē 1. du. 'we two are': cp. Skr. s-vās.

sm. es-mi O.Bulg. jes-mī 'I am': Skr. ās-mi. Lith. jūs-mi 'I gird' jūs-mū 'girdle': cp. Gr. ζῶμα from *ζωσ-μα (§ 565), rt. jōs-. Lith. ges-mė 'a low glimmering fire', to gėsti (pret. gesaū) 'to expire, go out'. O.Bulg. kosmū 'hair' beside kosa 'hair' (cp. § 588 rem. 4): OHG. hār 'hair' from prim. Germ. *χḗzā-?

Rem. 1. The datives Lith. tāmsi tām and O.Bulg. tomū 'to the' beside Pruss. s-tesmu Skr. tāsmāi have not lost their s regularly, but are new formations after the analogy of other cases with m-suffixes without s. See the accidence.

sn. Lith. prus-nà 'mouth' (praus-iū 'I wash my face') O.Bulg. prys-na 'spargo': Skr. pruṣ-ṇu-tē 'squirts, trickles, wets'. Lith. pa-klus-nū-s 'obedient' (cp. Pruss. po-klus-ma-n acc. 'obedient'), to klausà 'obedience': O.Bulg. sluchū 'a hearing, obedience', Indg. kleys-; on the initial Lith. k cp. § 467, 2. Lett. saus-ni-s 'a dried up tree', to Lith. saiša-s 'dry', rt. says-. O.Bulg. ves-na 'spring' beside Lith. vasarà 'summer', Skr. vas-antā-s 'spring'. O.Bulg. gasnā 'I expire' beside Lith. gesaū 'I extinguish; to which Skr. ghas- 'consume'? O.Bulg. po-jas-ni 'girdle': cp. Gr. ζώνη 'girdle' from *ζωσ-να (§ 565), rt. jōs-.

Rem. 2. Slav. -chn- in dāchnati etc. has arisen by analogy. See § 588 rem. 2.

sr became str (cp. str from kr § 545) in Slavonic universally, in Lithuanian only partially. O.Bulg. sestr-a 'sister' from sesr-a*: Skr. svasr-. Lith. timsra-s 'sorrel': Skr. tamisra-m 'darkness' etc., see §§ 570. 580. Lith. nas-rai nastrai pl. 'throat', to nosi-s 'nose'. Correspondingly srovē and strovē 'a flowing' (cp. 1.) etc. It is not clear in what parts of Lith. and to what extent the excrecent consonant made its appearance.

Rem. 3. O.Bulg. nozdrī pl. 'nostrils, nose' has been directly connected with Lith. nasrū̃s, as if zd- had arisen from sr-. It is probably better to divide the word into noz-dri and to regard the second part as a noun belonging to the root der-, cp. O.Bulg. dīra dēra 'slit', Skr. dāra- 'slit, hole'. Also mēzdra 'fine skin on a fresh wound, the fleshy part on a thing', which has been connected with Lat. membru-m membrāna (-br- from -sr-, § 570) and O.Ir. mūr 'piece of flesh' (§ 570), and regarded as a further formation of mēso 'flesh' (Skr. māśa- Goth. mimza-) may be compounded of mens+drā-* (from the same root der-: with mens-* cp. the Skr. stem māś- instr. sg. māś-ā compound māś-pācana- 'serving for the cooking of the flesh') and have originally signified 'a skinning of the flesh'.

sl. Lith. veislė 'brood' veislūs 'fertile', to veisiū 'I propagate'. Lett. trušs trušs 'fragile', to trušu 'I become bristly', Lith. triūšai pl. 'the long feathers in the tail of a cock'. O.Bulg. tręšlū part. pret. to tręsq 'I shake'.

Rem. 4. Slav. -chī- in u-sūchilū etc. has arisen by analogy. See § 588 rem. 2.

st. Lith. ės-ti O.Bulg. jēs-tī 'is': Skr. īs-ti. Lith. jū's-ta-s 'girded': Av. yās-ta- Gr. ζωσ-ρό-ς 'girded'. O.Bulg. 2. pl. of the s-aorist dēs-te, to dē-ti 'to put, place': Skr. dhā-s-ta.

3. In the medial combinations ms, ns, ls, ts, ss.

ms. Pruss. mensā menso O.Bulg. mēso 'flesh': Goth. mimza- Skr. māśa- 'flesh'. Lith. fut. iñsiu, to imū 'I take', O.Bulg. aor. jēsū, to imā 'I take': cp. Gr. ἐραυα from ē-reu-āu* (§ 565).

ns. Lith. fut. pīsiu, to pinū 'I plait, twist', O.Bulg. aor. pēsū, to pīnā 'I strain, hang'. Lith. šąsi-s 'goose': OHG. gans. Lith. tęsiū 'I stretch' tąsi-s 'extensible': Goth. at-pīnsan 'to draw towards'. O.Bulg. tręsq 'I shake' from tres- (Gr. Hom. ρῥέσ-σας) with 'nasal infix' or from trem-s-* (cp. Lat. tremō)? Old Czech loc. pl. Polás (proper name, see Miklosich Vergl. Gramm. III 16), to nom. pl. O.Bulg. poljan-e 'field inhabitants', according to Leskien for prim. Slav. poljā-sū* (poljān-sū*) after the analogy of polja-mi -mū (with regular loss of the n before m, § 219); in other cases, after vowels, Slav. -chū = Skr. -su, § 588, 2.

Rem. 5. Forms like pēchū, beside pēsū, were new formations. See § 588 rem. 2.

ls. Lith. baĩsa-s 'voice, tone': OHG. bellan 'to bark', Skr. bhūṣāmi, see § 582 p. 436. Lith. skelsiū 'I drive away, reach out'; delsiū 'I tarry, delay'. Litv. fut. kėlsiu, to kėliū 'I raise'. O.Bulg. glasū 'tone, note, voice' from prim. Slav. golsn*, to O.Icel. kalla (ll from lz? § 582) 'to name, call'.

ts became s through the intermediate stage ss in both language divisions. Lith. ėsiu 'I shall eat'. O.Bulg. jasi 'thou eatest' aor. jasū: cp. Skr. fut. atsyāmi 2. sg. pres. ātsi, rt. ed-. See § 544.

Rem. 6. Forms like jachū, beside jasū, were new formations. See § 588 rem. 2.

ss became s in both language divisions. Lith. fut. lėsiu, to lēsū 'I pick up'. Goth. lisa 'I gather together'. Lith. fut. jūsiu, to jūs-mi 'I gird', cp. Gr. aor. σῶσα from l-sa-sa*, rt. jōs. O.Bulg. s-aorist otū-trsū, to otū-trsq 'I shake off'. O.Bulg. jesi 'thou art': cp. Gr. Hom. ἐσθι. nasū (gen. loc. pl. to my 'we') from nas-sū*, cp. the possessive pronoun nas from nas-ī* (§ 588. 2. 3).

§ 586. Besides the cases mentioned in § 585 Indg. s also regularly remained in Lithuanian in the following cases:

1. After vowels and diphthongs before sonantal vowels. Lith. lēsū 'I pick up': Goth. lisa. saĩsa-s 'dry': Skr. śōṣa-s 'drying up, parching' (§ 557, 4), rt. saṃs-. Part. perf. act. fem. āṅus-i, to āṅu 'I grow': cp. Skr. vid-ūṣ-t (indic. vēda 'I know').

Rem. 1. sz frequently appears where we should expect s. Concerning maĩszyti etc. see § 414 remark. maĩsza-s 'large sack, hay net', which has been regarded as a genuine Lith. word and brought together with Pruss. moasis 'bellows' O.Bulg. měchū 'hide, leather bag', might have been borrowed from German (OHG. meisa 'a frame for carrying on the back', O.Icel. meiss 'food basket'), with the same substitution of sz for Germ. s as in āsiĩla-s beside āsiĩla-s 'ass' from Germ. (Goth.) asilu-s. Cp. further § 587 rem. 2.

2. In sj. siavū 'I sew' siūla-s 'thread': Skr. syā-tā-s 'sown'. Fut. dā-siu 'I shall give': Skr. dā-syāmi, Indg. dō-sjō*.

3. in qs. Fut. āksiu 'I shall leave': cp. Skr. rekṣyāmi.

Rem. 2. Such futures with ks are not quite reliable examples, since s may have been introduced by analogy just as in gėrsiu (§ 587 rem. 1). likėsiu* can hardly be regarded as the regular form, even *if duksta-s 'high' is related to Gr. αὔξω Lat. auxiliu-m O.Ir. ās was Cymr. uch (§ 434).

4. Finally. Nom. sg. vilka-s 'wolf': Skr. vfka-s. Nom. pl. dūktēr-s 'daughters': Gr. θυγατέρ-ες.

§ 587. Changes of s in Lithuanian.

1. rs became rsz. mařsa-s 'a forgetting' mirszau 'I forgot': Skr. marša-s 'a patient enduring' mfšyāmi 'I forget, bear patiently'. veřzi-s m. 'calf': Lat. verres from cersēs* (§ 571), Skr. vfša-s 'bullock'. virszu-s 'top, point': Skr. vārṣīyas- 'higher', perhaps also Lat. verruca 'lump, wart'.

Rem. 1. Fut. gėrsiu had been formed after the analogy of kėlsiu dėrsiu etc. Leskien (Der Ablaut der Wurzelsilben im Lit. 65) explains gařsu-s 'noise' as coming from gard+sa-s*, to girdėti 'to hear'. varsė 'flake' is a borrowed word, see Brückner Lit.-Slav. Stud. I 151.

2. sz for s through assimilation to the sz of a neighbouring syllable. szeszura-s 'father-in-law' from seszura-s*: Gr. ἐνυρό-ς, Indg. syēkura-s*. sq-szavyna-s beside sq-szl 'heap of sweepings': O.Bulg. sq- Skr. sa- 'with'. Assimilation in the opposite direction probably in szāsa-s 'scurf': O.Bulg. socha 'piece of wood' o-sošiti 'abscindere', Skr. śāsāmi 'I cut, slaughter'. Cp. the analogous assimilation in Skr. § 557, 4.

3. scz(i) from stj became szcz(i) in East Lithuanian dialects. Opt. klāuszcziāu (klāuszcze) from klāuszcziāu, to indic. klāusiu 'I ask'. Cp. pėszcziā-s from pėszcziā-s i. e. péd+tja-s*, § 544 p. 397 f. sz is pronounced softened (sz'), the course of development was stsz' — št'sz' — sz'tsz'.

4. klāuzdama-s beside klāusdamas (part. of klāusiu 'I ask'), just as mėzdama-s beside mėsdama-s. See § 544 p. 398.

Rem. 2. Has sk become szk in pure Lith. words? jūszkōti 'to seek' (O.Bulg. iskati 'to seek' OHG. eiscōn 'to seek') and the suffix -iszka-s e. g. tėo-iszka-s 'fatherly' (O.Bulg. žen-izkū 'womanish', Goth. barn-isks 'childish') have the suspicion of being borrowed from Germanic. Cp. § 414 rem.

§ 588. Prim. Balt. Slav. s did not remain unchanged in Slavonic in any of the positions, in which it was preserved in Lith. (§ 586), nor in those in which it underwent a change in Lith. (§ 587); the case in § 587, 2 excepted.

1. ch (χ) from s after k (Indg. g) and r.

ks became chch, further ch. Aor. téchū 'I ran' prim. f. tēq-s-o-m*, to pres. tekq. See § 462.

rch. vrachū 'a threshing' from yorchū*, vrīchq 'I thresh' from yīrchq*: Lat. verrō verrō, rt. yers-. vrīchū 'top': Lith. vīrszū-s Skr. vārṣṭyas-, see § 587, 1. s-aorist trīchū, to fīrq 'I rub'.

This ch became š and s under the same conditions as those by which k passed into č and c, see §§ 461. 462. vrīšet 3. sg. to vrīchq. vrīš-en-ī 'hornet, horse-fly' from sīrch-en-*: Lith. szīrszū-ā, prim. f. kys-en-* (§ 582). vrīsi nom. pl. to vrīchū 'top' (stem vrīcho-). vrīšēte 2. pl. opt. to vrīchq.

Rem. 1. The inf. vrīkti 'to thresh' must be explained from yerchti*, more precisely yerytī*, see § 462 rem. Cp. with it however trīste from tīrste* 2. pl. to trīchū. Which of the two forms represents the regular treatment of rst?

2. Further ch (š, s) for Indg. s between vowels; numerous sure examples for ch especially after u- and *i-*vowels. snūcha 'daughter-in-law' snūšīnū 'like a daughter-in-law': Skr. snūṣā, Indg. snusd-*. mūchū 'moss': Lith. pl. mausā 'mould', OHG. mos 'moss'. myši 'mouse': Lat. mūs OHG. mūs. jucha 'soup': Pruss. juse 'broth', Skr. yāṣa- 'sauce', Lat. jūs. duchū (voc. sg. duše nom. pl. duši) 'breath', duša 'soul' from dachja*: Lith. daūsos pl. 'upper air'. Part. pret. fem. nom. sg. pek-tiši (pekq 'I cook') from ūchī*, acc. sg. -ūšq from ūchja*: Skr. -uṣ-t-uṣ-yā-. pīchati 'to push, stamp, strike', indic. pres. pīšq from pīchja*: Lith. pės-tā 'stamping vessel' pašyti 'to strike the awns off barley': Lat. pīns-ō. lēcha 'beet root' prim. f. lojs-a*: Lith. lyšė 'beet', Lat. līra, MHG. leis leise 'trace, track'. socha 'piece of wood' o-sošiti 'abscindere': Skr. śāsami 'I cut, slaughter'. Aorist ending 1. sg. -chū 3. pl. -šē (cp. Skr. -s-am-): da-chū to da-ti 'to give', dē-chū to dē-ti 'to place', by-chū to by-ti 'to be', plu-chū to plu-ti 'to sail', vi-chū to viti 'to wind'. Suffix of the loc. pl. -chū = Skr. -su: lēna-chū to lēna 'woman', vlūcē-chū to vlūkū 'wolf', pafti-chū to pafti 'way'. Gen. pl. téchū to tū 'the': Skr. tē-ṣam O.Icel. pei-ra (Goth. pi-zē blinddi-zē). Ending of the 2. sg. -ši from -chī* (not = mid. Skr. -sē Gr. -(o)u; for prīm. Slav. -choj* would have become -sī*: berē-sī to berq; cp. beside this jasi 'thou eatest' from ētsī*, jesi 'thou art' from essī* § 585, 3.

Rem. 2. Through new formation ch frequently came into positions where it could not have arisen regularly. chn: dūchnati 'to breathe', sūchnati 'to become dry'. chl: u-sūchlū 'dry' sūchlū f 'dry wood'. ch after nasal vowels: aor pechlū beside pesū; achoti 'to smell' instead of asoti* (an-s-*, to an-ju 'smell' cp. Lat. alu-u (h)alere from auslo-* §§ 208, 570) through association with ja-chati 'vohi' (Skr. yā-mi 'I drive' Lith. jā-jū 'I ride') ma-chati 'agitare, ventilare' (beside ma-ja 'vibro'). ch for s = ts: aor. jachū beside jasi 'I ate' (§ 543). Cp. § 585 with rem. 2. 4. 5. 6.

Rem. 3. ch appears often initially before vowels and r, l, v. Most of the words are unfortunately not etymologically clear. Some are undoubtedly borrowed words and the ch in them has nothing to do with s, as chlūdū 'coolness, dew' from Germ. (Goth.) kalds 'cold'.

chodū 'incessus, iter' has been regarded as a pure Slav. word and connected with Gr. ἔδω-ς Skr. ā-sad- 'reach, attain', so, also, chromū 'lame' to Skr. srāmad-s 'lame'. I know nothing which helps to explain their ch.

s often appears where, from what has been said above, we should expect ch (or š). Examples: nosū 'nose': OHG. nasa. bosū 'bare footed': Lith. bāsas OHG. bar. po-jasū 'girdle'. gasiti 'to extinguish': Lith. gesyti. bēsū 'demon': Lith. baisà 'fright'. rosa 'dew': Lith. rasà 'dew', Skr. rasā 'that which is wet, fluid', Lat. rōs rōris. kosa 'hair': OHG. hār? Gen. sloves-e (nom. slovo 'word'): Skr. śrávas-as Gr. κλέ(φ)ε-ος. I cannot find any special reason (vicinity of sounds etc.) which should have prevented s from passing into ch in these examples. I conjecture that none of these words had an s at the time s became ch.

Rem. 4. For some cases a plausible explanation lies close at hand. po-jasū after po-jasnī, gasiti after gasnati, kosa after kosmū or similar forms, in which s regularly remained. sloves-e sloves-i etc. may be explained, if we take into account that for sloves-imī -imi -imā -ima there once existed sloves-mī -mī* etc. and for sloves-ichū sloves(s)ū* (cp. polja-mi from poljā-mi* etc. § 585, 3); sloves* could also have formed a factor, if -s had not already been dropped at that time (7). On nosū cp. § 569 rem. 3. The whole question requires a thorough investigation.

3. Prim. Slav. š = Indg. s₂ had, as we saw under 2., passed through the stage ch₂ in duša pšq etc. On the other hand š is to be traced directly back to s₁ in šiti 'to sew' from s₁iti* s₁ig-ti* = Lith. siū-ti and in such cases as gašq 'I extinguish' beside 2. sg. gasiši etc. (2.). This latter, younger change took place at the same time with the transition of s_i = Indg. š_i into š, as in nošq 'I carry' from root nek-, pišq 'I write' from root pejk- (§ 147). gašq: gasiši = nošq: nosiši.

4. stj, stri, skj, slj, snj became O.Bulg. št, štrj, št, šlj, šnj. gošlq 'I take as guest' from gostjā*, inf. gostiti, to gosš 'guest': Lat. hosti-s, Goth. gasts. tüšfi 'empty' from tüskjā*: Skr. tuchyd- 'empty'. See § 147.

5. If s came to stand before mediae, it passed into z. zborü fr. s(ü)-borü 'a bringing together, a uniting'. zdelati fr. s(ü)-dēlati 'to carry out, complete'. zdravü fr. s(ü)-dravü 'healthy'. Here eventually also nozdrü, see § 585 rem. 3.

6. rsn became rn in prim. Slav. črñü 'black' fr. črsno-*, Pruss. kirsna- Skr. kṛṣṇā- 'black', Indg. qrsno-*. Cp. § 302 rem. 1.

7. Final s was dropped. nebo 'sky': Skr. nābhas, Gr. νέφος. Other examples in §-665,4.

Primitive Indg. changes of s.

§ 589. The following modifications of s may be regarded as prim. Indg.

1. s became z before voiced explosives and spirants, e. g. z-dhi* 'be' imper. from rt. es-, menez-bhi(s)* instr. from mēnes- 'sense'. See § 590. Cp. Indg. -bd- from -pd- etc. § 469, 2.

2. sak became sk. iskō* i. e. is+skō* pres. from rt. ajs- 'seek': Skr. ichdani 'I seek, wish', cp. OHG. iscōn 'to seek'.

Rem. 1. There is little foundation for the assumption that intervocalic ss has also become s in secondary accented syllables, as esi* 'thou art' (Skr. dei Gr. ti) from es-si* (Osthoff Z. Gesch. d. Perf. 18), and that ss has become ts under certain conditions (J. Schmidt Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVI 343 ff. XXVII 330 ff.).

3. Initial s was dropped under certain conditions before consonants, possibly e. g. after s at the end of words, so that this reduction would be identical with the one mentioned under 2. (Cp. Skr. duṣṭuti-ś 'bad song of praise' = duṣ+ṣṭuti-ś, Gr. διούρνο-ς = diōs+urno-ς, Gortyn inscript. ταούρνας = taōs στῆγαις). Hence it often happens that several languages concurrently show loss of s- without a sufficient reason for its loss being discoverable by the sound-laws of the separate languages. Thus e. g. steg- and teg- 'cover': Skr. sthāgāmi 'I conceal, hide', Gr. στῆγος 'roof', Lith. stōga-s 'roof' O.Bulg. o-stegŭ 'toga' + Gr. ρῆγος 'roof', Lat. tegō, O.Icel. þak OHG. dah 'roof'. Goth. stāutan OHG. stōzan 'to push' + Skr. tudāmi 'I push', Lat. tundō. Skr. spās- 'spy, watchman', Lat. -spiciō, OHG. spehōn 'to spy' O.Icel. spakr 'sensible' + Skr. pāśyāmi 'I see', O.Bulg. paziti se 'cavere', rt. spek- speg- (§ 469, 7). Gr. θυο-oxōo- 'sacrificing priest', Goth. us-skāu-s 'provident, prudent' + Skr. a-kuvatō 'he intends' kavi- 'seer, prophet', Gr. κοίω 'I observe', Lat. caveō. Skr. smārāmi 'I intend, bear in mind' + Lat. me-mor, O.Ir. maraim 'maneo' (cp. Lat. mora). Perhaps here belong also Armen. veç 'six', Pruss. wuschts uschts 'sextus' (to which also Lith. ūszės beside szēszios pl. 'childbed') as opposed to Gr. ἕξ from afēξ* Lat. sex etc. Cp. further Gr. οκάλω 'I limp' + OHG. hinchān 'to limp'; Gr. ἔρρη 'nebat', O.Ir. snīm 'a spinning' (ī = Indg. ē) snāthe 'filum' (a = Indg. ō) OHG. smuor 'cord, string' + Goth. nēpla OHG. nādelā 'needle'.

It is certain that s- often first disappeared in the separate developments of the Indg. languages, as in Skr. utthātum inf. 'to rise' from ut-sthātum* (§ 557), Lat. nāre from snāre* (§ 570), O.Ir. -tau 'am' from stā-īō* (§ 575), and it is not possible everywhere to separate this loss from that in the parent Indg.

4. It is probable that the combinations bh, dh, gh, gh+s, which are etymologically to be presupposed for words like Skr. dipsati, had experienced a change of articulation in the prim. Indg. period. But it is not yet determined what this change was. bzh, dzh etc. are to be assumed for prim. Aryan. See §§ 469, 6. 470. 482. 552.

Rem. 2. That s was dropped between explosives already in prim. Indg., is an uncertain conjecture. This theory is based on OHG. sehto O.Icel. sétte sétti Gr. ἑξω- 'sextus'. I grant an Indg. syekto-s*. But it is however quite possible that this form had never had the final -s of syekto*. For the present it seems to me wisest to regard the loss of s between explosives as a process carried out in the separate languages.

Indg. z.

§ 590. Primitive Indg. period. So far as can be seen z occurred only in combination with following mediae or mediae aspiratae.

Before mediae. ni-zd-o-* 'place of rest' (ni- 'down', rt. sed- 'sit'): Skr. nīdā-s 'place of rest, nest', Armen. nist 'seat, possession' Lat. nīdū-s, O.Ir. net 'nest', OHG. nest 'nest'. ozdo-s* 'branch, twig': Armen. ost, Gr. ὄζος, Goth. usts. Rt. mezg- 'tie knots': OHG. māsva 'mesh, loop', O.Icel. mąskoe mąskvi 'loop', Lith. mezgū 'I tie in knots, knit' māzga-s 'knot'.

Before mediae aspiratae. z-dhī* 'be' imper. from rt. es- 'be': Av. Gāp. zdi, Gr. ἴσθι. Instr. in -z-bhi(s) from s-stems: Skr. uṣādbhiṣ from uṣās- 'dawn of day', Gr. ἐρεβει from ἐρεβει 'darkness'.

Root forms mezg- and mezgh- 'duck, sink down' (cp. stemb- and stembh- etc. § 469, 8): Skr. mājjaṇi 'I duck under' madgū-ṣ a water fowl mājjaṇ- 'marrow' (g) Av. mazga- 'marrow' (g or gh), Lat. mergū merg-us (g), Gallo-Lat. mesga 'whey' (g or gh, cp. § 521), OHG. OS. marg 'marrow' (gh), Lith. mazgōti 'to wash' O.Bulg. mazgū 'marrow' (g or gh).

z probably occurred finally before voiced explosives, but we are no longer able to follow it in detail (§ 645, 3).

§ 591. Aryan. Indg. zd(h) fell together with Indg. d'd(h) in prim. Aryan, see § 476. At the same time Indg. z became z under the same conditions as s became ś, and then z became ṣ in Skr., as ś became ṣ, see § 556, 1. In consequence of this change to z, Indg. zdh, zbh fell together with gdh, gbh, see §§ 404. 482.

Prim. Ar. azd(h) azd(h) = Skr. ēd(h) ad(h), Iran. azd azd. Reduplic. stem Skr. sēd- Av. hazd- from rt. sed- 'sit', 3. sg. opt. perf. sēd-yā-t, hazd-yā-ḥ, Skr. sēd-i-ṣ 'a weakening': Lat. sēd-imus sēd-ēs sēd-are, Indg. se-zd-*. Skr. nēd-tyas- Av. nazd-yah- 'nearer' from prim. Ar. na-zd-* from the same root sed-, properly ἰσθῆναι, προσήμενός. Skr. ēdhī 'be' imper. from prim. Ar. az-dhī* beside Av. Gāp. z-dī, cp. § 313 p. 252. Skr.

mēdas- 'fat': OHG. mast 'feeding' (v. Bradke Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII 300). 2. pl. of the s-aorist Skr. trādhoam Av. Gāp. prā-z-dām from Ar. trā- 'protect'; in like manner Skr. ā-radhoam beside 3. pl. ā-rā-s-ata from Aryan rā- 'present, grant'. Skr. 2. pl. dāhe 'ye sit' beside 3. sg. ās-tē: Gr. ἵσ-θαι ἵσ-ται. adaghnā- from az-d* 'reaching up to the mouth' (ās-). Cp. Skr. dēhi Av. dazdi imper. 'give' from Indg. de-dʰ-dhi*, § 476.

Prim. Ar. īd(h), o. g. iđd(h) = Skr. īd(h), Iran. iđd. Skr. nīdā-s from niđdā-s* prim. Ar. niđda-s* Indg. ni-zd-o-s*, see § 590. Skr. pīdāyami 'I press' from pi-zd-* ('sit up'): cp. Gr. πι-ζω 'I press' from pi-sed-ō* or pi-se-sd-ō*. Av. Gāp. cīdē from caš- 'make known'. Skr. dā-dās- 'impious' dā-dhī- 'having an evil disposition' Av. duš-dah- 'acting badly, villain', cp. Skr. duṣ- Gr. δύ-. Skr. 2. pl. mid. of the s-aorist ástōdhwam from a-stō-ṣ-ḍhwam*: 3. sg. á-stō-ṣ-ta, pres. 1. sg. stāu-mi 'I praise, value'. Cp. Skr. liđhā-s 'licked' from prim. Ar. iđdha-* i. e. liđdha-*, § 404.

Rem. 1. 2. sg. imper. dvidđhi (to indic. deṣṣ-mi 'I hate') instead of dvidhi* was a new formation of the same kind as dīdīđhi (to dideṣmi 'I show'). See § 404 rem. 2.

Prim. Ar. zbh = Skr. dbh (Iran. zb, not found). Skr. instr. pl. uśādbhiḥ, vidvādbhiḥ, mādbhiḥ from uśās- 'dawn, day-break', vidvās- 'knowing', mās- 'moon, month'.

Rem. 2. The endings of the instr. pl. of stems in -as- Skr. -ḍbhiḥ Av. -ḍ-biḥ O.Pers. -a-biḥ were new formations. See the accidence.

Prim. Ar. zbh, o. g. ižbh = Skr. iđbh Av. ižb. Skr. instr. pl. dvidbhiḥ from dviṣ- 'hating'. Skr. vi-prāđbhiḥ from vi-prāṣ- 'crumb, small spot'. Av. dat. du. snaipīžhya from snaipīṣ- n. 'sword'. Av. instr. pl. da-d-āž-biḥ from da-d-iṣ- part. perf. act. from dā- 'give, place'. Cp. Skr. viđbhiḥ Av. Gāp. vižbiḥ from Skr. viṣ- Av. vīs- 'clan, village community', orig. uiğbhis* § 404, 3.

Rem. 3. The Skr. endings of the instr. pl. of stems in -iṣ- and -uṣ- -ir-bhiḥ and -ur-bhiḥ were new formations. See the accidence.

Prim. Ar. azg = Skr. adg Av. azg. Skr. maḍgá-ṣ, a water fowl, Av. mazga- 'marrow', rt. mezg-, see § 590. But prim. Ar. azj passed through adi into ajj in Skr. (cp. ájiti-ś 'victory' from ud-jiti-ś*, § 355). májjami 'I duck' majján-marrows from the same root mazg. sajjatē 'clings to something' from sa-zj-a-* redupl. (cp. sa-śc-a-ti 'follows' from sac-) : cp. Lith. segu 'I fasten'.

z was dropped between explosives and spirants (cp. § 557, 3). Skr. ámugdhvam i. e. amugzdhvam* 2. pl. mid. of the s-aorist (3. pl. ánukṣata) from muc- 'loosen'. In sá-gdhi-ś 'a common meal' i. e. sa-gzdhi-* gzdh was = ghst (ghas- 'eat'), and in the 3. du. babdhām from ba-bzdhām* bzdh was = bhst (3. sg. indic. pres. bá-dhas-ti 'chews'), cp. § 589, 4. From the fact that we have here gdh, not gḍh, it cannot without further consideration be concluded that the dropping of the sibilant was older than the prim. Ar. transition of z to ḡ. gḡdh may have existed in prim. Ar. and have become gdh in the Skr. separate development, before prim. Ar. and prim. Skr. ḡ and ḡ acquired the cerebral articulation (ḡ, ḡ).

§ 592. Armenian. The only sure examples seem to be nist 'a lying, nest' and ost 'branch', see § 590. On the sound-shifting cp. §§ 361. 484.

§ 593. Greek. z was retained in combination with mediae; in writing it was not sufficiently distinguished from s.

σβέννυμι 'I quench, put out' aor: ἔσβην, probably from a weak-grade root form zg-, of which the strong-grade seg- exists in Lat. sēgni-s. πρῶσ-βν-ς πρῶσ-γν-ς 'old', the origin of which is not quite clear (cp. § 428 c). The voiced pronunciation of the σ is vouched for in these words by the appearance of ζ (ζβέννυμι πρῆζβεννής), which came into use during the Hellenic period.

zd appears as ζ, Lesb. σδ. ὄζο-ς Lesb. ὄδο-ς 'branch': Goth. asts, see § 590. ἴζω 'I set' Lesb. παρ-ιόδω: Lat. stōd, Indg. si-zd-ō*, fr. root sed-; for Skr. stādāmi, which cannot be separated from these presents, we should expect stādāmi*; this verb probably had d for ḡ through association with sādāmi sasdda etc. It remains doubtful whether ἔζομαι arose from σζ-σδ-ο-μαι* or σζδ-ζο-μαι*. Cp. further Διόςδοτο-ς Διόζοτο-ς 'god given' z before mediae became dialectically ρ, as Thess. Θεορ-δός-μο-ς beside Ion. etc., Θεός-δο-ς (new formation after Διός-δο-ς); cp. Eretr. ἰμυνοῦρᾶς § 489, Cret. κόρμω-ς § 565, El. τίρ § 653, 6.

z before mediae asp. became along with these voiceless in prim. Greek (§ 495). λεῖπε-σ-σι, prim. f. regez-bhi*, § 590. Aor. ἔ-σχε-ο-ν 'I got, had', prim. f. e-zgh-o-m*, rt. segh-. ἴσθι 'be' prim. Gr. izdhi* with vowel prothesis, caused by z (§ 626): Av. zdr, § 590. Cp. ἴσθι imper. 'know' from Indg. uid'dhi*, rt. uejd-, § 494.

§ 594. Italic. Sure examples are found in Latin only. zg became rg (cp. 569). mergu-s from rt. mezg-, see § 590.

z was dropped before d, with 'compensation lengthening' after short vowels. nīdu-s fr. Indg. ni-zd-o-s*, see § 590. pēdō pōdex from pezdō pozdex: Gr. βῆσω 'I break wind' from βzd-iō* (cp. § 334). Sloven. pezdēti 'to break wind'. With sīdō (see § 593) Bucheler connects Umbr. sistu, as being sīdītō; but this explanation of the form is very doubtful. Cp. further trēdecim fr. trēz-decim*, jūdex fr. jouz-dex*, quādam fr. quiz-dam*, īdem fr. iz-dem*: the s in cūjusdam ejusdem eīdem etc. and doubtless also the s in īdem = īdem had been introduced by analogy, just as m for n before d, see § 207.

rzd became rd in hordeum, prim. f. ghrzdējo-m*: OHG. gersta 'barley' (Gr. αρῖθῆ is to be separated from it), and in turdu-s turdela: O.Icel. þrqrstr MHG. drostel Lith. strāzda-s 'thrush'. We are not, however, certain whether we have Indg. zd or d'd in these words.

Lat. sp, st, sc are to be expected as the regular representatives of original zbh, zdh, zgh, cp. st from d'dh § 507. Perhaps here belong also hasta (see § 507) and fastīgiu-m (see § 595).

nōbīs vōbīs from nozbis vozbis or nōzbis vōzbis with Indg.

bh-suffix (see page 123 foot note), cp. nos-ter, vos-ter and O.Bulg. *gen. loc. nasū from nās-sū*; but these forms with zō were not the regular continuation of the Indg. original forms, cp. crēdō, which had probably taken the place of regular crestō* (§ 507 rem.).

§ 595. Old Irish. z before mediae became đ in Irish and Britannic. Gallo-Lat. mesga 'whey', which is to be read mezga, became first of all in those branches medga*, thence O.Ir. medg Mod.Ir. meidhg, Cymr. maidd (from medja*). nizdo-s* (§ 590) became Ir. Brit. neddo-s*, thence O.Ir. net Cymr. nyth (from nydd*) Bret. neiz. Cp. § 521.

In like manner O.Ir. brot 'sting, prick' from prim. Kelt. brozdo-s*, borzdo-s* (cp. frass § 274). The root is bha^{rs}- (Skr. bhr̥ṣ-ṭi-ṣ 'point, prong'), and OHG. brort 'edge' Ags. brord 'sting, prick' O.Icel. broddr 'point' and O.Bulg. brazda 'furrow' show that the Indg. form contained zdh. With these is also related Lat. fastīgiu-m from farst-*; it cannot however be determined, whether its st was Indg. zdh or Indg. st (cp. Skr. bhr̥ṣ-ṭi-ṣ).

§ 596. Germanic. z + media became s + tenuis in prim. Germ. (§ 541, 6). OHG. masca 'mesh' OHG. nest Goth. asts (§ 590), OHG. mast 'a feeding' (§ 591), OHG. gersta MHG. drostel (§ 594) have already been mentioned. In addition to these possibly OHG. nestilo 'loop of riband' to Lat. nōdu-s; OHG. geist 'spirit' to Skr. hēḍa-s 'anger' hīḍ- 'be angry' (3. sg. perf. mid. ji-hīḍ-ē), to which perhaps also Av. zōiḍišta- superlative with the meaning 'very bad' (v. Bradke Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII 295 ff.); OHG. mast 'ship's mast' to Lat. malu-s, if this arose from mādo-s* (§ 369).

z + media asp. became z + voiced spirant in prim. Germ., further z + media (§ 541, 7). The transition of z to r in West Germ. and Norse was mentioned already under the prim. Germ. z which arose from Indg. s (§ 581). OHG. OS. marg Ags. mearg O.Icel. mergr 'medulla', Goth. mazga-* : O.Bulg. mazgū etc., see § 590. OHG. brort 'edge' etc. : O.Bulg. brazda, see § 595. Goth. razda 'pronunciation, language' OHG. varta Ags. reord O.Icel. rqđ 'voice, language' from original raz-dh-*; to rt. ra^s- :

Skr. rdsatē rāsati 'sounds, screams'. Ags. heord O.Icel. haddr 'hair' beside O.Bulg. kosa 'hair' Lith. kasà 'braid of hair'. Goth. mizdō f. 'pay, reward' OHG. mēta miata (cp. § 75 rem. 2) OS. mēda Ags. mēd and meord 'pay, rent': Skr. mīdha- 'prize of battle, combat' Av. mīda- 'reward', Gr. μισθός O.Bulg. mīzda 'pay'; with compensation lengthening in West Germ. comes OS. lmon beside OHG. lirnēn (§ 582 p. 436 § 621).

§ 597. Baltic-Slavonic. z + media and z + media asp. must have fallen together, as in Iran. and Keltic.

Lith. rezgū 'I knit': Skr. rājju- 'string, rope'. Lith. mezgū 'I knot, knit': OHG. masca, see § 590. Sloven. pezdēti Little Russ. pezdity bzđity Czech bzđiti 'to break wind': Lat. pēdō, see § 594. It is doubtful whether Lith. strāzda-s 'thrush' belongs here, see § 594. Cp. further O.Bulg. noz-dri 'nostrils' and mež-dra 'fine skin', § 585 rem. 3.

O.Bulg. mīzda 'pay': Goth. mizdō, see § 596.

It is doubtful whether O.Bulg. mozgū 'marrow' contains Indg. zg or zgh, see § 590.

Indg. j.

§ 598. This spirant can be established as Indg. with most certainty initially before vowels.

Rt. jeug- 'yoke': Skr. yugá-m Gr. ζυγό-ν Lat. jugu-m Goth. juk Lith. jūnga-s O.Bulg. igo (from īgo*, § 145) 'yoke'. Rt. jās- 'gird': Av. yās-ta- Gr. ζωα-τό-ς Lith. jāsa-ta-s 'girded', O.Bulg. po-jas-nī 'girdle'. Rt. jes-: Skr. yás-ami 'I bubble', Gr. ζέω 'I seethe, bubble', OHG. jesan 'to ferment, foam'. Skr. yáva-s 'corn, barley', Gr. ζεαί 'spelt', Lith. javaš pl. 'corn'. Skr. yāša- 'sauce, broth', Gr. ζέω 'leaven', Lat. jūs jūsculum jūreu-s, O.Bulg. jucha 'sauce, soup'.

Greek alone kept initial j- and ī- apart, the former being represented by ζ, the latter by the spiritus asper (§ 129). j- fell together with Indg. dī- in prim. Greek, hence ζυγό-ν like Ζεύ-ς, δυγό-ν like Δεύ-ς, τάβη (ζάβη) like Τῆβα (Ζῆβα), see § 493. In the other Indg. languages the two sounds fell together in j. But here, too, the original difference can still be recognised, in so far as an old inherited weak-grade form with i or ī (as representative of j + a-vowel) is wanting in roots beginning with j-. Cp. e. g. Skr. perf. mid. yāṣ-ē from je-js*-, part. pass. yas-tā- from yas = Indg. jes- 'bubble' (Gr. ζέω) as contrasted with īj-ē īṣ-tā- from yaj = Indg. iaḡ- 'respect, honour' (Gr. ἄγιο-ς).

It is less certain that j stood beside i medially also in the period of the prim. Indg. community. The assumption of a rt. kej- 'lie' for Skr. śē-tē (part. perf. śa-say-ānā-s) Gr. κεί-ται and of a rt. tjeg- 'leave, withdraw' for Skr. tyaktā-s Gr. σεντί-ς (on σ- see § 489) is nevertheless not improbable. Cp. § 117.

OTHER COMBINATORY SOUND-CHANGES.

§ 599. In the first Section (§§ 28—598) we considered the history of sounds by taking each of the prim. Indg. sounds, so far as was possible by itself, and following its development through the separate languages. There thus remains a number of change-processes which could hardly be fully and sufficiently discussed, because in these either a great number of different sounds would be concerned in quite the same manner, or because there are more complicated changes which a rather large series of elements underwent at the same time within a phonetic unity (word-unity or sentence-unity).

These processes are as follow:

CONTRACTION (HIATUS, ELISION).

§ 600. By contraction we understand the uniting together under one syllabic accent, of two vowels or sonants generally, which come directly together and are pronounced with a separate expiratory impulse. In this way arise either simple long vowels (Gr. ἄθλον from ἄθλιον) or diphthongs (Gr. πᾶς from πᾶς).

We saw in §§ 111—116 that contractions took place even in the period of the prim. Indg. community.

There is sufficient reason for assuming that all cases of hiatus, caused by the addition of stem-forming or flexional elements, were removed already in the Indg. prim. period, so that every historic word-form containing one root only, which exhibits medial hiatus, did not assume this state until the period of the separate developments. Cp. § 111 rem.

Rem. No hiatus existed from the very first in the sonantal combinations ia, ua, ya, ra in the interior of such unitary word forms. i, u, a, r were here pronounced as glides from the prim. Indg. period onward, e. g. patr-ia-s* = Skr. pātr-īya-s Gr. πάτερ-ισ-; Lat. patr-iu-s, is-pro-s* = Skr. iṣ-irā-s Gr. Κορέυρ. ἰ-αρό-. See § 117.

On the other hand hiatus might still have occurred at the point of junction in compounds at the period of the dissolution of the prim. Indg. community, e. g. juqto-ekyo-* (juqto-* 'yoked', ekyo-* 'horse'). In Vedic we have yuktaaśva-, in Av. yuxtaaspa-, in O.Bulg. dobrookū 'beautiful-eyed' etc., and though it may be in itself highly possible that all such compound forms with hiatus are due to composition in the individual languages, yet the fact, that the pure compounds in the separate languages go hand in hand with the generally later juxtaposita as regards the treatment of the junction, speaks strongly in favour of the assumption of an open juqtoekyo-* directly inherited from the Indg. primitive language. In Sanskrit contraction took place: class. Skr. yuktaaśva-s see above, prārtha- 'implements' from pṛa+artha-, apāṅga- 'outer corner of the eye' from apa+āṅga-, sūktā- 'beautifully spoken' (Ved. su-ukta-). Elision in Greek: ἰν'αγῳό-ς 'carrying horses', ἀν'άγω 'I lead away'; beside these πρῶταγῳό-ς πρῶάγω. Elision in Latin also: mult'angulu-s, ap'eriō (§ 499), ab'igō. Hiatus in O.Bulg.: dobrookū see above, poorati 'to plough'.

Opportunity for contractions in the individual developments was given

1. through two originally independent words, the first originally ending in and the second originally beginning with a sonant, entering into a fixed combination;

2. through forms with hiatus having been newly made after the type of forms without old inherited hiatus (e. g. Hom. ἀτρήμεν δώομεν);

• 3. through a consonant or combination of consonants disappearing between sonants in the body of a simple word or in the junction of two words drawn near together.

§ 601. Aryan. Contraction seems not to have taken place in the old Aryan dialects when a consonant was dropped in the body of a word.

Rem. On O.Pers. 3. sg. pres. pātiy beside 3. sg. pret. apaha see § 558 rem. 1 and on O.Pers. māhyā Bartholomae Bezenb. Beitr. IX 309 f.

Contraction however was frequent through the fusion of two stems of a compound or of two words. But, on the one hand, it is difficult here to separate that which has arisen phonetically from that which is merely due to the imitation of older type-forms on the other hand; it can hardly be determined how far the natural language was ruled by the constraint of metre and by grammatical reflexion. In Vedic and Avestic the contracted and uncontracted forms, the latter recognisable as such through the metre, existed side by side without any perceptible differences. In classical Sanskrit the contracted forms with few exceptions became the rule.

Examples. Skr. yuktāśva- beside yuktaśśva-, Av. yuxtāspa- beside yuxtaaspa-, see § 600. Skr. upāiti Av. upāiti 'draws near', prim. Ar. upa+aṣti* (simple form Skr. ṣti Av. aṣti). Skr. avāhanam O.Pers. avājanam 'I slew, killed', prim. Ar. ava+ajhanam*. Skr. āhi imper. 'come near' = a+īhi. O.Pers. paraīdiy imper. 'go to' = para+īdiy, Skr. parāhi. Skr. maharṣi- 'great wise man' from mahā+rṣi-*. Skr. sūktā- (Ved. suuktā-) Av. hūxta- 'well spoken'. Skr. adhīśa-s 'supreme lord' from adhi+īśa-s*.

§ 602. Armenian. Contraction after the loss of s in hōir 'sister' pl. hōr-ē, see § 561; after loss of t in hair 'father' pl. har-ē, see § 483; after loss of y in keā-n-ē 'life', keā- (monosyllabic) from kiya-* = gīyo-* gīyā-*, see §§ 421, etc.

§ 603. Greek. Very many contractions in consequence of the dropping of intersonantal j, y (f), s (§§ 180. 185. 564).

Examples: Att. φορῶ 'I carry' from φορέω, older φορεῖω*; παῖς 'boy' from παῖς, older παφι-ς*; γένους 'generis' from γένεος, older γενεα-ος*; ἵππον 'equi' from ἵππος, older ἵππο-σχο*. Since the loss of consonants took place at different times — partly in prim. Greek (s, h), partly in the course of the individual dialects (μ and ι as remnant of σι, cp. § 639) —, the contractions took place at various periods. Most of them did not happen until after the dialectical variation was already considerably developed. The uncontracted forms were most completely put aside in Attic, while Ionic preserved the full forms to the greatest extent.

When the components of contraction were qualitatively equal, simple long vowels uniformly arose, e. g. Att. Ἀθηνᾶ from Ἀθηνάα, βασιλῆς 'kings' from βασιληῆες Cyp. βασιληῆες; El. and elsewhere Δι from (Att.) Δι, older Διφι. ee and oo gave in Ion-Attic, partly in the Dor. dialects as also in North West Greek, close ē (written υ) and close ō, which was further weakened to ā (written ου), e. g. τρεῖς 'tres' from τρεχ-ες* Skr. tráy-as, gen. Hom. ῥοῦς from ῥοο-ος* cp. Skr. gen. uśās-as Lat. aurōr-a. These were no more real diphthongs than the ε and ου (§ 618) which had arisen by compensation lengthening.

If a monophthong arose from two vowels having a different quality, the levelling was sometimes progressive, e. g. Att. ἄκων 'unwilling' from ἀέκων, older ἀ-φεκων*, Dor. gen. sg. Ἀτρεΐδα from (Hom.) Ἀτρεΐδαο, gen. pl. fem. τᾶν 'of the' from (Hom.) τᾶων (Skr. tāsām, Lat. istārum), Att. Διομήδη from (Hom.) Διομήδεα, older -εσ-α*, Att. ἐλάττους Dor. ἐλάσσους pl. 'smaller' from -ε(σ)-ες, cp. Lat. pl. mā-jōr-ēs (oe after complete assimilation of the ε to o was treated like original oo); sometimes regressive, e. g. Att. gen. pl. fem. τῶν = Dor. τᾶν, gen. sg. γένους from γένεος, -εσ-ος* (ε became o by attraction to the o which was pronounced close, and this gave rise to ū).

So-called diphthongs arose if the second element was i or u, and the first an a-, e- or o-vowel, as παῖς from πά(φ)ις, οἷς 'sheep' from ὄ(φ)ι-ς, εἶ 'thou art' from ἦ(σ)ι*, δαυλό-ς 'thick, shaggy' from ῥα(σ)υλό-ς* cp. δασύ-ς 'densus'. Furthermore, ευ from εο in Lesb., Ion., Rhod., as φορῶνται from φορίονται, gen. βέλεος 'of an arrow, dart' from βέλεος, and -av (av?) from -ao in Arcad.-Cyp., as gen. Ἀπολλωνίδαν.

If the first of the vowels in the contraction was long, it was frequently shortened before the proper contraction, see § 611.

Hiatus rarely arose through new formation in non-compounded words. The treatment was the same as the hiatus which was produced through the loss of consonants. Conj. Hom. στήομεν, δοῶμεν, Att. στᾶμεν δῶμεν; στήομεν stands in contrast with Arcad. ῥσᾶτοι, notwithstanding the clearer development of the original elements of the formation, just as later new formations like e. g. Lat. coagitō as opposed to cōgitō (§ 604). Hom. ζῶός was a new formation for older ζῷός. Such new creations did not come into existence until after hiatus had arisen in many cases in the body of a word through loss of i etc.

Compounds with old inherited hiatus and the union of two words, the one beginning and the other ending in a vowel. Elision is seen e. g. in ἰππ'αγωγός, ἀπ'άγω, ἐμ'αυρόν. Hiatus remained in προ-άγω προ-αγωγός. It cannot be decided whether in forms like πολύανδρος βωτιάναυρα περίλειμι there was spoken in prim. Greek and later in the commissure -uá- iá- (hiatus) or -uua- -iia-¹⁾. Prim. Greek contraction e. g. in ραῦρα from ra ú ra*, οὔ[-ρος] from ó ú =* Skr. sá u; ú = Skr. ú is a particle. In individual dialects e. g. in Att. ράλλα = ra' álla.

§ 604. Italic. Most contractions after the loss of medial i (see § 134). A part of them may be prim. Italic. Lat. trēs from tre(i)-es*, Umbr. puntes (ē) 'pontes' from ponte(i)-es*, cp. Skr. tráy-as. Lat. monēte from mone(i)e-te*, cp. Skr. mānáyata. Lat. stō from stā-iō*, amō from amā-iō*, Umbr. suboco 'adoro' (cp. perf. subocavi). Lat. stat from stā-je-t*, Pelign. incubat 'incubat'. Lat. amēs from amā-iēs* (Indg. -jois*), cp. cap-iēs.

The combinations eō, eā, aē remained uncontracted in Latin. moneō: Skr. mānáyāmi. eam 'her': Goth. iſa. aēnu-s: Umbr. ahešnes 'aēnis', cp. Skr. áyas; on the other hand aer-is =

¹⁾ Osthoff's remarks (Morph. Unt. IV 383) on forms of this kind, are quite uncertain.

Skr. dyas-as ¹⁾, after which the nom. acc. aes was formed anew (a(i)os* would have become ōs* or as*). Cp. also Umbr. eam 'eam', Osc. io-k 'ea'.

Vowel contraction after the loss of h. Lat. nēmō from ne-hemō*, bāmū-s from bi-himū-s*, praebeō beside prae-hibeō Umbr. pre-habia 'praebeat'. See § 510. Cp. Umbr. mes-tru 'maior', Osc. mais 'magis': Lat. magis māior.

Old inherited hiatus and hiatus which had arisen anew through new compounds. Elision: e. g. mult'angulu-s, for which multiangulu-s came into existence at a later period after the analogy of multi-forn-s etc.; noenum (nōn) from ne+oenom 'not one'; nāllu-s from ne+āllu-s. Contraction: dēgō from dē-agō*, cōgō from co-agō*, cōpula from co-apula*, prēmō from pro-emō*, cōpia from co-opia*. Such contraction did not take place however if the second vowel was long and had the principal accent: co-āctu-s, cō-ēgī, co-āgulu-m, thus the same case as aēnus beside aer-is.

Rem. 1. The exception coepti beside coēpti (Lucretius) I explain with Osthoff (Zur Gesch. d. Perf. 158) by assuming that contraction took place regularly in co-ēptistī co-ēperdāmus etc. and that this form of the stem became generalised. That in the form-system coēpti forms like coēptistī* had to give way, was due to the uncompounded form ēpti.

Forms like co-agitō co-alēscō were created at a later period and remained uncontracted; cp. older cōgō cōgitō.

Rem. 2. I do not venture an opinion on the relation of the dissyllabic neuter to the trisyllabic ne-uter and of both to n'āllu-s etc. A plausible explanation must first be given for the initial sound in uter etc., of which we have already spoken in § 431 rem. 3.

§ 605. Old Irish. Very many contractions in consequence of the disappearance of intersonantal p (§ 339, the loss belongs to the prim. Kelt. period), i (§ 138), u (§ 174) and s (§ 576). tē (pl. tēt) 'hot' from te(p)ent-*. -tau -tō 'am' from stā-(i)ō*, rt.

1) The contraction of a(i)er-* to aer- did not occur until after the later Lat. accentuation came into being (§ 681). For if it had already taken place in the period of the older, āēno-s* would in all probability have become āēno-s*. The accentuation aēnos* preserved this form from contraction.

sta- 'stand'. biid and later bīd, gen. of biad 'nourishment' (prim. Kelt. biyoto-n*), Gr. βίρο-ς. ō from prim. Ir. oy underwent fusion with the following vowel, ōac, later ōc 'youth': Cymr. ieuanc (§§ 212. 243); gen. pl. bō n- 'boum': Gr. βο(φ)-ων. beri 'fers' from prim. Kelt. bere(s)i*.

Contraction takes place after the loss of f: tōr- tuar- from to-for, tō- tā from to-fo-. The same phenomenon also frequently appears where words meet together having prefixes beginning with or ending in a vowel, e. g. forōcrad 'indicatus est' = fo-ro-od-garad*. In this case elision also appears elsewhere, as e. g. tar- from to-ar-, tess- from to-ess-, tind- from to-ind-.

§ 606. Germanic. Processes of contraction from prim. Germanic, Gothic and OHG. are unknown to me.

Rem. In Goth. salbōm OHG. salbōmīs 'we anoint' there is no contraction of -ō(i)a- to -ō-, see the accident. Goth. bairda (1. sg. opt. to baira 'fero') hardly from bera(i)n(u), see § 142. Phenomena like prim. Germ. ajz-a- 'ore, metal' from ajiz-a-*, OHG. eidehsa 'lizard' from eyidehsa are rather to be regarded as examples of syncope than of contraction, see § 635.

Hiatus, which had arisen in word-forms through new formations made by analogy and at the point of junction in compounds was partly permitted and partly removed by elision.

Goth. aldūk sg. pret. of āukan 'to increase'; salbōm (trissyllabic) pl. pret. of saian 'to sow'. ga-arman 'to pity', fra-ītan 'to consume', ga-unlēdjan 'to make poor', sa-ei relat. 'qui'. On the other hand nist 'is not' from n(i)-ist, sei 'quas' from s(i)-ei, karist 'it troubles' from kar(a)-ist, þammuh 'to this' from þam-m(a)-uh.

OHG. ka-augan ke-auckan gi-ougen 'to bring before one's eyes, show' be-unuerden 'to appear despicable', MHG. misse-achten 'to despise'. On the other hand galliro (beside gialliro) 'contemporary', nein 'no' from n(i)-ein, MHG. binnen 'within' from b(i)-innan.

That hiatus remained at one time, and that at another elision took place, is due to the various influences of sentence accentuation. That elision occurred already in prim. Germ., is rendered probable by Goth. frēt OHG. frāz 'ate' (of lower animals); prim. Germ. 3. sg. frēti* from fra-ēti*. With this cp. OHG. fr-avili 'outrageous' to OHG. avalon 'to trouble oneself' O.Icel. afl n. 'power, strength'.

§ 607. Baltic-Slavonic. The commissure of compounds only comes under consideration.

In Lithuanian hiatus is generally permitted or there is elision pri-iñti 'to accept' (prijĩnti is also heard). pā-ausi-s 'the part about the ears'. pa-ēti 'to go away'. be-aūsi-s 'one without ears'. be-urēdi-s 'one without office'. On the other hand tateit 'he may come' from te-at-eit. timē 'he may take' from te-imē. natiñk 'do not take away' from ne-at-iñk. neik 'do not go' from ne-ēik. pasiñti 'to take up' from pa-si-iñti. Differences of sentence accentuation have been at work also here (cp. § 606).

Older East Lithuanian shows a real contraction, as there ne 'not' along with the a- of some prepositions appears as ne-, e. g. notamenu 'I do not remember' = ne ata-menu. In the first instance ne- had probably become na- by assimilation. See Garbe Lit. und Lett. Drucke des 16. und 17. Jahrh., B. IV. p. XXV.

In Old Bulgarian partly hiatus, partly contraction. dobro-oki 'εὐφθαλμος'. golo-qsi 'beardless' (golo- 'naked, bare'). mānogo-učēni 'πολυμαθής'. po-orati 'to plough'. pro-iti 'to go through'. pri-iti 'to go to'. pra-otci 'grandfather'. Imperf. žēlēcchi to žēlējā 'I wish', dēlaachū to dēlajā 'I do'; the second member is ēchū* jachū* 'eram', see the accident. Forms of the compounded adjectival inflexion: gen. sg. novaago from nova jego, loc. sg. novēēmī from novē+jemī, dat. sg. novummu from novu+jemu (novū 'new', stem novo-); beside this loc. sg. dobliimī from dobli+jemī (doblī 'brave', stem doblje-, cp. § 84). Beside these also contracted forms already in the oldest monuments: priiti, žēlēcchi, dēlēcchi, novago, novēmī, novummu, doblimī. Similarly instr. sg. novymī from novy-(j)imī.

A very old contraction seems to occur in nēmī 'am not' nēsi 'art not' etc. = ne-esmī* ne-esi* etc., dating back to the period when initial e- had not yet become je- (jesmī), see § 666, 1.

SHORTENING OF LONG VOWELS.

§ 608. Simple long vowels may be shortened under very different relations and from very different causes. We treat here only the most important phenomena of vowel shortening.

Shortenings happened already in the period of the Indg. prim. community under the influence of the chief accent on the following syllable, as stetó-s* (Skr. sthítá-s Gr. στῆτό-ς) from sta-tó-s*. See §§ 310. 316.

§ 609. Aryan. Shortening in Avestic in final syllables, as brāta 'brother' = Skr. bhrāta, see § 649, 1.

§ 610. Armenian. The long vowels had undergone shortening in most cases (if not in all) in prehistoric times. This can be controlled with the greatest certainty in original final syllables and in those syllables which preceded the penultimate syllable. For the dropping of vowels, which happened here, concerned the original long vowels as much as the short. Thus the former must have been shortened, e. g. dustr 'daughter' from dustir*, older dustēr* : Gr. θυγάτηρ; l-nu-m 'I fill' from li-nu-m* older *(p)lē- : Lat. ex-plē-nunt, O.Ir. l̥-naim 'I fill'. Cp. §§ 632. 651, 1. 675.

§ 611. Greek. Shortening before η, ι, nasal, liquid + explosive or spirant in prim. Greek. Ζεύς from djēu-s* : Skr. dyāu-ś 'sky'. βοῦς 'bullock' from gōu-s* : Skr. gāu-ś. πλεῖστο-ς 'plurimus' from plēis-* i. e. plē-* + comparative suffix -is-, cp. O.Icel. flestr from fleistr* and compar. fleire § 614; the same plēis-* also in Hom. πλείες πλείας Cret. πλείες πλίας; πλεῖστο-ες -ας* became πλεῖ-ες -ας*, and then πλείες πλείας. Instr. pl. ἱπποῖς (ἱππο-ς 'horse') from h̥is* : Skr. áśvāiṣ (§ 115). Part. ἄεντ- 'blowing' (indic. ἄημι) from āf̥h̥nt-* : Skr. vānt-; 3. pl. aor. ἔμυγεν (1. sg. ἐμύγη-ν 'I mixed myself') from ēm̥ygh̥-nt*. στέρονμι 'I spread' from st̥w̥r-n̥mi* beside στρωτό-ς, from st̥r- (rt. ster-); Lesb. βόλλομαι 'I am willing', older bol̥lōmai*, from bol̥-wo-mai*, from āl-* (rt. gel-), see §§ 306. 312. Perhaps also here belong s-aorists like ἔψενσα ἔτρεσα ἔκερσα*, cp. Skr. ābhautsam etc., see § 314 p. 253.

The operation of this law of shortening was later than the transition of -ns- to -nn-. This is shown by μῆν-ός Lesb. μῆνν-ος from μῆνσ-ος* gen. = O.Ir. mīs Lat. mēnsi-s (§ 565); cp. beside this the nom. sg. μείς from μενς* with regular shortening. But it was older than the dropping of final τ (§ 652, 5). This is shown by ἐμμεν from ἐμμεν-ντ*.

Rem. Certain exceptions to this sound-law were caused by new formations, e. g. Ion. νῆς 'ship' formed after νη(ν)-ός etc. beside regular Att. νῆς; 3. pl. conj. act. πῶντι (Dor.), πῶντας for πῶντι*, πῶντας* after πῶμεν etc. (in order to distinguish the conj. from the indic.).

Long vowels remained, if the same sound-combination arose in a later period through regular transformation, e. g. ἐπῶτος (π = αι) from ἐπῶτο-ς 'easiest', ὀρῶντες 'videntes' from ὀρῶντες.

Shortening of long vowels before vowels. Hom. ἥρως = ἥρωος 'of the hero', βέβλεαι = βέβληαι 'art hit', Herod. νέες from νη(ν)-ες 'naves', ζόη = ζωνή 'life', Att. νεῶν from νη(ν)-ων 'navium'. In such cases it is probably a question to some extent of medium long vowels, which could not be represented as such.

The so-called quantitative metathesis in Ionic and Attic is connected with this latter reduction of quantity, e. g. Ion. part. perf. ἰστῶντες 'stantes' from ἰστη(ν)-όντες, τεθνῶντες 'mortui' from τεθνη(ν)-όντες, Att. gen. στέαρ-ος 'of standing fat' from στη(ν)-αρ-ος* (§ 165), Att. gen. ἵππεως acc. ἵππεά (ἵππεύς 'horseman') from ἵππη(ν)-ος ἵππη(ν)-α. This phenomenon sometimes formed the stage previous to contraction, as Ion. gen. Πακτίω beside Φιλιστίδεω cp. Hom. Ἀτρεΐδῶ; Att. gen. Πισικῶ, acc. Πισικᾶ from -έως -έα.

§ 612. Italic. In Latin (it cannot be determined whether also in the other dialects) shortening before i, u, nasal, liquid + explosive or sonant. oloes illis from -ōis*, see § 81 p. 74, § 115; cp. Pelign. cnatois 'gnatis, filiis'. nau-fragu-s from nāu-fr.* or nāu(-i)-fr.*; claudō from clay(i)dō*, to clavi-s Gr. κλη(ν)ίς; gaudeō beside gāoīsu-s, Gr. γηθίω from γaf-ethiō*, cp. § 633. ventu-s from μῆ-nt-o-s*, cp. Gr. ἄντ- § 611. membra-m from mēns-ro-*, see § 570. In mēnsi-s (Gr. Lesb. gen. μῆνν-ος, O.Ir. gen. mīs) ē may have been shortened and then lengthened again in accordance with § 619. Lat. ars artis from arti-, prim. fr. ŕ-ti-, see § 306.

Rem. 1. The nom. lōs must be left out of the question, since it is probably not a pure Latin word (§ 432 rem. 1).

Shortening of long vowels before vowels in Latin. neō from nē(i)ō* : OHG. nān 'to sow'. reī, fideī from rēī, fidēī, cp. also diēī. illius from illius. Shortening of dē-, sē- in deorsu-m seorsu-m etc. The forms with shortening got more and more the upper hand in the poets. We do not know in detail by what laws shortening took place and did not take place in the naive common language.

Long vowels in final syllables were shortened to a great extent in Latin, e. g. equam = Skr. āśvām, see § 655, 4.

In the same language shortening frequently took place under the influence of the sharply cut tone, in this case the quantity, taken from the vowel, was transferred to the following consonant; hence this was also written double. cuppa (and cupa) : Skr. kāpa-s 'hole, hollow'. Juppiter (and Jupiter) voc., = Gr. Zēō páreō (L. Havet Mém. de la soc. de lingu. V 230 f.). mittō from mītō* : OHG. mīdan 'to let go, avoid'. littera (and litera, inscrip. also leitera). muccu-s (and muco-s) : Gr. ἀπο-μύσσω 'I blow my nose' from -μυκ-χω* (§ 489). allūcinārī (and alūcinārī) : Gr. ἀλνέω 'I am troubled, ill at ease' ἡλεός 'bewildered'. narrāre from gnārāre*. parricīda (and paricīda). There are about 12 more cases which may be regarded as certain or probable. The fluctuation of the orthography in most of the examples met with, seems to be not so much due to a retention of old literary forms after completion of the process, as to the fact that a difference in pronunciation existed between these geminated consonants and other double consonants (cp. e. g. cuppa with suppetō).

Rem. 2. Analogous cases in other languages. Pāli khīḍḍā beside kīḍā = Skr. kṛīḍā 'game', Prākṛ. pṛēmanu = Skr. pṛēmanu- 'love' ēva = Skr. ēva 'straight, even'. Mod.HG. mutter = MHG. muoter, jammer = MHG. jāmer. French (16. Cent.) complete, now written complète, = Lat. complēta.

§ 613. Old Irish. Shortening took place in all except chief accented syllables, e. g. the form of the feminine suffix -a- in pl. nom. túatha dat. túathaib i. e. túath-iib by § 640 (nom. sg. tuath 'folk') and in pl. nom. mna dat. mnaib (nom. sg. ben 'woman'); nom. béo-thu 'life' gen. bé-thath, from -ta(t)s* -tat-os* (Cymr. -tit, as duiutit 'deitas', Zeuss-Ebel G. C. 844): Lat. -tat-i, Goth. -dāp-i- (Lat. vir-tās, Goth. gamāin-dāps 'community'). These reduced vowels remained, if the syllable in question was the last of the word, as in the examples given above. They generally disappeared altogether, if one or more syllables still followed. See § 634.

It is not clear to me how far vowel shortening had happened either in chief accented syllables both before the appearance of the above named reductions or in the other syllables. That no vowel shortening took place before -ns-, is shown by mī mīs 'month', which can only be explained from mēns-, not from mens-, and mīr 'piece of flesh', only from mēnsr-, not from mensr-.

§ 614. Germanic. Vowels seem to have been shortened in prim. Germanic before n+explosive or spirant. Goth. vinds OHG. wint: Lat. ventu-s, Skr. vānt-, see §§ 611. 612. Less certain are Goth. mins (stem mimza-) 'flesh': Skr. māśa- (cp. O.Bulg. mēso, § 615), and Goth. juggs OHG. jung O.Icel. ungr 'young' from iūæga-z*, older iūmuæga-z* (§ 170); whether the latter word belongs here, is uncertain, because we do not the quantity of the Goth. u. The same reduction before i+explosive or spirant is seen in O.Icel. fleire fleiri (compar. to margr 'many a') from prim. Germ. flai̯z-ē* from plē̯i-*, cp. Gr. πλῆστος § 611. Cp. also Goth. gibái from zēðōi* and other examples in § 659, 3.

Vowel shortening took place in Goth. and OHG. in final syllables only, as Goth. batra OHG. biru 'fero' from prim. Germ. berō*, see §§ 660. 661. But towards the end of the OHG. period the shortening of vowels in syllables without the chief accent began and this became characteristic for MHG. and Mod.HG. This shortening gradually spread more and more and in the Mod.HG.

period brought about relations which, in some respects, resemble Irish: e. g. OHG. salbōn, MHG. salben, Mod.HG. salben salben; OHG. friuntlih, MHG. vruntlich, Mod.HG. freundlich.

§ 615. Baltic-Slavonic.

Shortening before i or Nasal + explosive or spirant. Lith. instr. pl. vilkais 'with the wolves' from -ōis*: Skr. vykaiṣ, see § 115. Gerundive jėszkant from -ōnt*, cp. 2. pl. indic. jėszko-te 'ye seek'. Acc. pl. fem. O.Lith. rankans 'hands' (the older form for rankās) from -ōns*, cp. instr. pl. rañko-mis (cp. also Pruss. gennaus 'feminas'). Correspondingly O.Bulg. raḡy, which in the first instance is derived from ronkons* (§ 219 p. 187), may also be traced back to an older ronkāns*, see the accidence. Here perhaps also belongs O.Bulg. męso 'flesh': Skr. māśa- (cp. Goth. mims § 614).

The quantity of the vowels in the O.Bulg. period is not determined. ē, a, i, y must once have been long in the prim. Slav. period, since they with Lith. ė, ū, y, ā represent the continuation of Indg. ē, a, ō, ī, ā (i also = Indg. ei), so too u, since it took the place of older oy (Lith. au). In the modern Slav. developments where we are able to control the relations of quantity, these vowels often appear as short and conversely O.Bulg. e, o = Indg. e, a, o and the representatives of O.Bulg. ī, ā = Indg. i, u as long. These changes were undoubtedly due in a great measure to the relations of accentuation. It has not yet been settled how far the shortenings of the modern dialects had already taken place in the O.Bulg. period or in the period of the Slav. prim. community.

In Lith. the long vowels frequently suffered reduction in the final syllables, e. g. nom. algà 'reward' = Gr. ἀλγή. See § 664, 3.

LENGTHENING OF SHORT VOWELS.

§ 616. Aryan. In Skr. 'compensation lengthening' exists in liḡhā- 'licked' from prim. Ar. liḡdha-* etc. See §§ 404. 591.

Rem. On Av. Gāh. asti 'is' = Skr. asti, O.Pers. akadā 'he made himself' = Skr. akṛta etc., see § 649, 1.

§ 617. Armenian. 'Compensation lengthening' had in all probability once taken place in the forms in which m and n disappeared after short vowels before s, as us 'shoulder' (Goth. ams), acc. pl. eris 'three' (Goth. þrins). Cp. §§ 202. 610.

§ 618. Greek. 'Compensation lengthening' is here a very frequent phenomenon. Att. κτείνω 'I kill' = Lesb. κτείνω prim. Gr. κτεννω*, Att. φθείρω 'I destroy' = Lesb. φθεῖρω prim. Gr. φθερινω*, see § 131 p. 119. Ion. γούνα 'knee' = Lesb. γόρνα prim. Greek γορφα*, Ion. πέρφατα 'ends' = Lesb. πέρφατα prim. Gr. περφατα*, Hom. ὅλο-ς 'whole, all' prim. Gr. όλφο-ς*, see § 166. Att. βούλεται 'he wishes, is willing' = Lesb. βόλλεται prim. Gr. βολουεται*, see § 204. Att. τοῖς acc. pl. masc. 'the' = Cret. prim. Gr. τοῖς, see §§ 205 and 204 rem. 2. Ion. ἄσπιον 'nearer': αγχι, see §§ 489. 497. Late Att. Dor. γίτρομαι 'I become' from γίτρονμαι, see § 492. Ion. Att. εἰμι 'am' = Lesb. ἔμμι prim. Gr. έσμι*, Ion. Att. χίλιοι 'thousand' = Lesb. χέλλιοι prim. Gr. χιόλιοι*, see § 565.

It may be remarked once more here (§ 205 rem. 3) that the ει and οι, which arose by 'compensation lengthening', were not diphthongs any more than the αι and οι which had arisen by contraction from αι and οι (§ 603).

§ 619. Italic. Every vowel was pronounced long before ns, nf, gn, gm in the Latin classical period, hence vowel lengthening must be assumed for forms like pīnsō cōnsul, infēlix, dīgnus benīgnus, āgmen, see §§ 208. 500. 506. A similar lengthening and at the same time suppression of consonantal elements had taken place in an older period of the Lat. language in equōs fr. equo-n*s, pīlum fr. pīnslo-m*, scāla fr. scantslā* etc., see § 208; aēnu-s fr. aēs-no-s*, dīmōvō fr. dis-moveō*, sēnī fr. sexnī*, subdēmēn fr. -texmen*, dīluō fr. dis-luō*, ālā fr. axlā* etc., see § 570; nīdus fr. nīzdo-s* etc., see § 594.

Rom. 1. In many cases, where vowel lengthening was formerly assumed in Latin, they are much rather pre-Italic long vowels, or diphthongs. e. g. ēsus fr. ēssu-s* l. e. ēl+io-* (§ 501), vēctū-s, ēmpnū-s etc. It is immaterial here whether the long vowels in the cases in question had been handed down from the Indg. prim. period or whether they had arisen by new formation.

Rem. 2. The long vowels in quinque quintu-s, ōrdō etc. are not clear to me.

• § 620. Old Irish. 'Compensation lengthening' exists in sēt 'way' = Cymr. hynt Bret. hent, cenēl 'race' = O.Cymr. cenell, dēr 'tear' = O.Bret. dacr, ām 'manus hostium' fr. agmen* etc. See §§ 212. 518. 523. 526. The name-forms in -agni (Dalagni, Corbagni) on the Irish Ogam inscriptions, as the predecessors of the later in -ain (Ullain, gen. of Ullan).

• § 621. Germanic. 'Compensation lengthening' exists in prim. Germ. before wx, e. g. faxō* 'I seize, catch' (Goth. faha) fr. fawxō*, see § 214.

Such lengthenings did not take place in Gothic.

In West Germ. OHG. mēta OS. mēda 'hire': Goth. mizdō; OS. līnon 'to learn': OHG. lirnen. See § 538 p. 394. § 582. p. 436 § 596.

Many lengthenings in High German in the later phases of the language, as Alemanic sāft 'soft', q̄eir 'our'.

Op. further O.Icel. gas Ags. gōs = OHG. gans 'goose', O.Icel. hāsl Ags. hāsl = Goth. hunsl 'offering', Ags. fif 'five' = Goth. fimf, Ags. ōðer 'other' = Goth. anþar, O.Icel. tār 'tear' from tahr-* (OHG. zahar Goth. tagr), Ags. rīnan 'to rain' = Goth. rignjan.

§ 622. Baltic-Slavonic.

In Lithuanian 'compensation lengthening' exists in žasi-s (written žasi-s) 'goose' = O.HG. gans etc., see § 219.

a and e, too, were often lengthened elsewhere in this language, but it remains to be determined by what laws.

džga 'burns' beside inf. dēkti, cp. Skr. dāhāmi. āria āre 'he ploughs', 1. sg. ariū = O.Bulg. orja (cp. § 147). tāka-s 'footpath' = O.Bulg. tokū 'course, river'. māra-s 'pest' = O.Bulg. morū 'death'. Pl. s-sers 'sisters', cp. O.Bulg. sestra 'sister'. kālna-s 'mountain': Lat. colli-s fr. colni-s* (§ 208). āugu 'I grow' = Goth. auka. mēlū 'I milk' = Gr. ἀμύλω. vēda-s 'face', cp. Gr. εἶδος.

Rem. According to Baranowski and H. Weber Ostlit. Texte I p. XXIII sqq. it is here everywhere a question not of real long, but only of medium.

long vowels. In āz-ga ā-ria the second mora of the medium long vowel has the accent, in kāl-nas āy-gu the first. Cp. § 631 rem.

in, un became ī, ū (O.Bulg. i, y) before explosives and spirants in Slavonic in the period of the prim. community, e. g. O.Bulg. acc. gosti 'guests' = Goth. gasti-ns, syny 'sons' cp. Goth. sunu-ns, see § 219.

O.Bulg. vlēka 'I draw' from velka*, vlakū 'draught' from volkū* etc., show another kind of origin of long vowels

Vowel lengthening in O.Bulg. through following i in ij from ij, yj from ūj, see §§ 36. 84.

Lengthenings (date still unknown) through the influence of accentual relations can be proved in the modern phases of the language, concerning which see § 615.

ANAPTYXIS FROM CONSONANTS.

§ 623. It is here a question of the development of a short or reduced vowel from a voiced consonant, namely medially before or after another consonant, initially (prothetic anaptyxis, prothesis) and finally.

If anaptyxis takes places medially after a consonant preceded by a sonant, the syllable must be pronounced with a double pointed accent. This prepares the way for the development of two syllables from one, e. g. OHG. berac 'mountain' from beŕc. If the vowel is developed from the second consonant, the latter becomes sonantal in the first instance, e. g. French canif from Low Germ. knif through the intermediate stage cp(n)if* (-(n)- represents the consonantal glide).

How far the development of vowels initially and finally (in the latter case exceedingly rare) was caused by the relations of word-position in the sentence (sandhi), is left out of question here.

Rem. 1. The transition of rp(n)if* to canif is the same process as that by which Indg. tpak-* became Skr. tanū- Gr. tan- etc. and Indg. grā-* became Skr. garā- Gr. gar- etc. (§§ 227. 257). The latter cases do not however belong here, because it cannot be proved that these Indg. forms originally had a shape, shorter by one syllable, corresponding to knif, cp. §§ 312. 313.

For comparison may also be mentioned here the case where a vowel is developed from a sonant liquid or nasal between consonants or finally after a consonant, thus e. g. Gr. ḡpard-ç ḡnerd-ç 'skinned' from Indg. dylo-s*, oũthag 'udder' from Indg. oydhg*, Lat. testu-s fr. Indg. (t)to-s*, decem fr. Indg. dekʷs* (§§ 223. 224. 284. 285). agro-s* 'field' became in prim. Ital. agrs*, thence agers* ager*: Lat. ager Umbr. ager Osc. Frunter (cp. §§ 633. 655. 9). Nom. sg. br̥s-trā* f. 'word' (gen. br̥sthre) became br̥st̥* in Irish, thence bríathar, cp. also criathar 'sieve'; here belong also omun 'fear' ess-amin 'fearless': Gall. Exobnu-s; fu-domuin 'deep' (compar. fu-dunnu): Cymr. diefu 'deep', Lith. dubù-s 'deep', both with -nu- from -bu- (§ 520). Cp. § 634. Lastly OHG. acchar 'field', fogol 'fowl', eban 'even' (Goth. akrs, fugls, ibns), concerning which see §§ 215. 277. 660. 1. 661. 2.

Rem. 2. One speaks also of anaptyctic prothesis before voiceless consonants, e. g. Gr. lwt̥ç beside wrt̥ç 'weasel', ānalq̥ beside analq̥ 'I struggle convulsively', Late Lat. ispur̥tu-s istatua, Prākṛ. itt̥it- (Gāṇ. ist̥r̥) = Skr. strī- 'wife'. So far as it is here really a question of a pure phonetic product — in many of the cases brought under this head the vowel has an etymological value (remnant of a prefix etc.) —, it is always a process of sandhi. The vowel was developed from the close of preceding words.

Sanskrit. Medial anaptyxis made its appearance first in the Prākṛit dialects, e. g. harisa- = Skr. har̥ṣa- 'joy', paduma- = Skr. pādma- 'water-rose', sumarāmi = Skr. smārāmi 'I think of', sin̥ḡha- = Skr. sn̥ḡha- 'attachment', while prothesis appears already in Vedic in irajyati 'puts in order', iradhat̥ 'seeks to win', ilaya- 'resting' (beside laya- 'rest'), ulōk̥d- (beside lok̥d-) 'free space, world'. These forms were possibly taken from some vulgar dialect.

Anaptyctic vowels were very frequent in Avestic. The orthography fluctuated considerably, and these vowels are almost without exception of no importance for the metre. It is thus not a question of a full vowel. The development of a vowel takes place most frequently before and after r, uniformly before initial r̥, r̥ā, rv and after final r. It is generally represented by e, sometimes by a, ē, ō and i, u, the latter especially initially. Examples for anaptyxis from r, as dādar̥sa 'rista-antar', see §§ 157. 260. From other voiced consonants: γ̥na- 'murder': Skr. ghnā-q Gāṇ. dad̥mah̥ 'we give': Skr. dadmāsi; Gāṇ. d̥bitya- 'the second': Skr. dvitya-.

Only u, between d-r and g-d, can be established with certainty as anaptyxis in Old Persian. The following or preceding syllable contains an u-sound in all the examples met with. dārūjīyāmīy 'mentior': Skr. part. drūhyant- 'injuring in a cunning manner'. sugūda- suguda- Sogdiana: Av. suγda-. ū is to be read as u, see p. 25.

§ 625. Armenian. Prothesis before initial liquids, e. g. erek 'evening': Skr. rājas-. See § 263.

§ 626. Greek. A vowel between consonants is regarded as anaptyctic in many words (see among others Curtius Grundz. ⁵ 727 ff., G. Meyer Gr. Gr. 95 ff., 2. edition p. 105 ff.), but only few cases are certain, ¹⁾ as e. g. Lesb. μέτρος from *μετιρος = Att. μέτρος 'within measure' from μέτρον 'measure' (§ 131 p. 119).

On the other hand prothesis is certain in many cases. Most frequently before liquids, as ἐρυθρός 'red' = Lat. ruber, ἐλαφρός 'nimble' = OHG. langar, see § 266. Before f in Ionic: Hom. ἰ(φ)έρση Cret. αἶραι 'dew beside ἔραι ἔρη: Skr. varṣá-s 'rain'; Hom. ἰ(φ)είκοσι beside (φ)είκοσι 'twenty' Lac. βίκατι Boeot. φίκατι, Lat. vīgintī. Before nasals probably e. g. in ἀμέλγω 'I milk': Lith. mélku; ὀμίχλη 'fog' (Att. ὀμίχλη through association with ὅμο-?, cp. § 584 rem. 3) ὀμιχέω 'I make water', inf. aor. ἀμῖῶ in Hesych.: Lith. minglō 'fog', Lat. mingō; ἀντιπός 'first cousin': O.Bulg. netijǎ.

That prothesis sometimes appears, and sometimes not (cp. ἐρύομαι and ἐρύομαι, ἀλείγω and ἀλείψω, ὁμόρρημι and μόρρημι, ἀντιπός and ἄντιπός) seems partly to be due to difference of dialect, and partly to be explained from various kinds of sandhi-relations.

The development of the i- in ἵσθι 'be' imper. = Av. Gāh. zdt, Indg. z-dhē*, see §§ 590, 593, is older than the development of the ton. asp. from med. asp. (§ 495). Prothesis perhaps also in ἰχθύς 'fish' and ἰχθίς 'yesterday'

1) Curtius and Meyer use the term anaptyxis in a wider sense, according to which it includes the phenomena discussed in § 623 rem. 1. Many of the forms, brought forward by both these scholars, certainly contain no development of a vowel either in the stricter or wider sense, e. g. ἐρε-ερός in Curtius, ὠλ-ε-ρη κολ-ω-τός in Meyer.

Medial anaptyxis in Latin with liquids and nasals, the vowel thus developed usually taking the timbre of the vowel in the following syllable. pō-colo-m pō-culu-m from pō-clu-m, sta-bulu-m from sta-bio-m*, sta-bili-s from sta-bli-s*, singulu-s from sem-clo-s*, see § 269. Acc. famulu-m probably from famlo-m*, familia from fam-lia*.

Rem. 1. In the forms with -l- the frequent fluctuation in the orthography (cp. also sacclum beside sacculum, poplus beside populus, dis-iplina beside discipulina etc.) probably points partly to different influence of the accent in the various cases, and partly to the fact that at first only [(l)] or l* (say dis-iplina or discipulina) was spoken beside l and that this sound was written sometimes i, sometimes ul, the latter at least in the oldest period of historic Latinity. Cp. rem. 3.

Inscript. (ca. 218 B. C.) Terebonio = Treboniō. Late Lat. acc. magistarātu-m = magistrātu-m, carabrō = crabrō (Italian calabrone) etc.

Anaptyxis with nasals can be established with the greatest certainty in loan-words, as Tecumēssa, drachuma, mina, techina.

Rem. 2. sumus, hūnus, homō, hemō, numerus and numerus hardly belong here, see § 269 rem. 568 rem. I come to no decision with regard to terminus and similar forms, see § 241.

Anaptyxis seems to have been foreign to Umbrian. We find it all the more frequently in Oscan. Examples for the development of a vowel from liquids as aragetud 'argento' see § 271. From nasals: akenei from aknei* 'in fundo' or 'in agone'; Patanaī dat. sg. from Patnai*; Līganak-dikei dat. sg. from Līgnak-d*.

From the material brought forward by Thurneysen Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 181 f., it is probable that anaptyxis only took place regularly in the combinations tr, kr, tl, kl, tn, kn, if the preceding syllable was short. Cp. e. g. maatreis 'matris' Funtreis 'Genetris' with paterei 'patri'; sakarāklūm 'sacrum' with Pukalatūi (to pūklo).

Rem. 3. The Osc. leaden tablet (published by F. Bücheler, Frankf. a. M. 1877) does not contain these inserted vowels, e. g. sakrim 'sacrum' against σακρο 'sacrum' sakarater 'sacratur' elsewhere. Hence it is probable that at first only the weak glide vowel was spoken or after consonants at first only sonant liquids and nasals, thus aragetud, aknei or aknei. Cp. rem. 1.

Anaptyxis also in Pelign., as in Alapjis 'Alfius', see § 271.

§ 628. Germanic. Goth. mīluka OHG. mīlūh Ags. meolof O.Icel. mjolk (fr. meluk* by so-called 'fracture'), connected with OHG. melchan Lith. mėlėn etc., seem to be an example of primitive Germanic anaptyxis. If it be maintained along with Paul that liquid + explosive in final syllables gave rise to anaptyxis in prim. Germ., then OHG. hiruz beside hirz might also be understood (cp. § 533). Both words must have been consonantal stems.

Goth. Anaptyxis perhaps in filigrja- (Luke XIX, 46 filegrja-) n. 'a hiding, hole', to filhan 'to hide'. Here comes into consideration the inconvenience of the combination lgrj, but at the same time also the possibility of a popular association with ligrs 'couch'.

Frequent anaptyxis in West Germ., especially in OHG. With r+j, e. g. herige 'to the army': Goth. harja § 143 p. 129. With cons. + u, e. g. zesaucōr zeseuōr 'dexter': Goth. tahsua, see § 180 p. 157. With cons. + nas, e. g. waahsamo m. 'growth' beside waahsmo, see § 215. With liqu. + h and other letters, e. g. ferah 'soul, life': Goth. fairhou-s 'world', see § 277.

§ 629. Baltic-Slavonic.

In Lithuanian appear frequent attempts at anaptyxis, which may be represented somewhat in this way: grĩszti 'to return' k"rũma-s 'shrub', suk'nė 'dress', žar'stĩti 'to scrape', mar'gėlė (mergėlė) 'girl', bat'dóti 'to knock', nén'drė 'reed'. In the case of vowel development from liquids and nasals after consonants it is mostly merely a question of the consonants becoming sonants. Observe that the phenomenon has nothing to do with the contrast between slurred and broken accentuation (nén'drė). Cp. Bezzenberger Z. Gesch. d. lit. Spr. 87 f., Brückner Litu-slav. Stud. I 49, Leskien-Brugmann Lit. Volksl. u. Märch. 290.

In Slavonic, anaptyxis was connected with the process of transformation of prim. Slav. or, ol, er, el, before consonants, cp. Russ. porosjá 'sucking-pig': Lith. pařsa-s etc., see § 281.

VOWEL ABSORPTION.

§ 630. Vowel absorption often happens in languages with predominantly expiratory accentuation. The stronger the chief accent of the word, the more easily loss of vowel takes place in syllables which have not the chief accent.

If the absorption happens between consonants in such a way that the word loses one of its syllables, the loss of vowel is called syncope, e. g. Lat. caldus fr. calidus. We have besides loss initially before consonants (aphaeresis) and finally after consonants (apocope); in the latter cases it is often difficult to say whether the changes were caused by the relations of accentuation only of the word in question, or whether they were due to relations of sandhi.

If the absorption happens in such a manner that the syllable retains its value as a syllable, which is only possible, if another sound is able to undertake the part as bearer of the syllabic accent, we call the process samprasāraṇa (after the Indian grammarians).

Vowel absorption took place already in prim. Indg. under the influence of the chief accent of following syllables. Syncope: stem pt-é-* from pet-é-*, Gr. πρ-έ-σθαι 'to fly'. Aphaeresis: s-té* from es-té* 'ye are', Skr. sthá. Samprasāraṇa: stem dyk-é-* from derk-é-*, Skr. dyś-á-t á-dyś-a-t 'he saw'. Cp. § 307 ff.

§ 631. Aryan. Samprasāraṇa in Av. acc. sg. ainim = Skr. anyá-m 'alium', pouru-n = Skr. pūrvá-m 'primum' etc. Cp. § 125 p. 115, § 159 p. 143.

§ 632. Armenian. i and u only remained in final syllables between consonants, in other syllables they were dropped. gtanem 'I find' from git-ane-m*: aor. e-git. Gen. dster 'of a daughter' from duster*: nom. dustr. See §§ 31. 47.

§ 633. Italic. Syncope frequently occurred in all dialects, and it may be conjectured that it was partly completed during the period of the Ital. prim. community, just as the samprasāraṇa (§§ 33. 623 rem. 1) in the transition of ágro-s* 'field' to ágrs*

(hist. Lat. ager), of ágyro-lo-s* (cp. porculu-s, filíolu-s) to agyro-s* (hist. Lat. agellu-s), of sácro-dō(t)s* to sargdō(t)s* (hist. Lat. sacerdōs), of sē-criuō* to sēcynō* (hist. Lat. sēcernō) etc.

Syncope shows itself in Latin in the syllable immediately following the one which had the chief accent (according to prim. Lat. accentuation, see § 680), if one or more syllables followed this. reppulī, rettulī, recculī from rē-pepulī*, rē-tetulī*, rē-cculī*. Correspondingly dēcidī, attigī, incurrī from dē-ccidī*, át-tetigī*, ín-ccurrī*. cette from cē-dite*, matu-s from má-dito-s*, see § 501 rem. 2. hospes from hostpes* hosti-pes* (§ 81 p. 73). claudō from clávidō*, cp. § 612. āndecim from ānu(s)decim*, quāndecim from quānquedecim*. prīnceps, manceps, vīndēnia from prīmi-ceps* etc. surgō from sūb-regō*, surpuī from sūb-rapuī*. calāu-s, solūu-s, valdē beside calidu-s, solidu-s, validu-s. ārdū-s (Lucil.), ardeō beside aridu-s. It is questionable whether the spelling should be trusted in the case of certain examples of syncope which are found on inscriptions only, as decnus vicesma (acc. sg. fem.), viglias.

Syncope, so far as we know it, was comparatively more frequent in Umbr.-Samn. than in Latin. Umbr. co-vertu 'convertito', an-dēdu 'intendito' (§ 499), sestu sistu 'sistito', ntu 'unguito' fr. umptōd* umbctōd* (§ 502 rem.), sumtu 'sumito'; Osc. factud 'facito' = Umbr. feitu (§ 502), actud 'agito'. Umbr. osatu 'operato', Osc. úpsannam 'operandam'. Umbr. ambr-Osc. amfr- (Lat. amb-) fr. amfer*-, a transformation of amfi* after ander 'inter' etc.; on the Umbr. form cp. also § 209. Osc. vincter 'convincitur', úttiu 'usio, usus' (§ 501 rem. 2), minstreis 'minoris' (cp. Lat. minister). Pelign. af-dēd fr. af-ddēd* 'abdidit'.

Short vowels were also syncopeated in final syllables in this Ital. branch (except some cases, where syncopeation was prevented by double consonants, as 3. pl. furent 'erunt' cp. Lat. fuerint). Nom. sg. Umbr. pihaz 'piatus' fratreks 'fratricus', Osc. húrz 'hortus' túvtiks 'tuticus, publicus'. Umbr. Osc. fust 'erit' cp. Lat. fuerit. Cp. § 655, 5.

§ 634. Old Irish. The syllable, immediately following the one with the chief accent, was the least accented in the word (as in Ital.), and its vowel became reduced and disappeared, if one or more syllables followed, thus having either syncope or samprasāraṇa. On the retention of the vowel in final syllables see § 613.

Syncope. From the stem *fóllessu- 'clear, manifest' was formed nom. pl. fóilsí with the derivatives fem. fóilse 'clearness' and the verb fóilsigim 'I show'; the middle syllable of the stem *fóllessu- had experienced syncope here, while the nom. sg. fóllus retained the same syllable, as a syllable, which had become final after the loss of the end syllable. From *bēromi, older *bēro-me(s)-i (1. pl. indic. pres. from ber- = Indg. bher- 'ferre'), arose bérme (-e was caused by the o which was dropped; beside this 3. pl. béirít from *béront(i). menne, dat. menmain, 'sense' from prim. f. *men-o-men-, see § 110 p. 104. From the stem *cārēt- 'friend' (from *cárnt-, see § 212 and cp. Gall. Carantonus Carantillus, Cymr. pl. ceraint) pl. dat. cáirtib acc. cáirtea, but sg. nom. cáre cára gen. cárat dat. cáirit. Instructive for this process are also the Lat. loan-words, e. g. péccad 'peccatum' gen. pécctho, ídál 'idolám' dat. pl. ídlaib.

Samprasāraṇa. Beside nom. sg. só-nirt só-nairt 'strong, brave (nert 'strength') stood dat. pl. só-nartaib compar. só-northu 'stronger' and the derived substantive só-nirte só-nairte 'strength, firmness'. In the latter forms the syllable -nert- had become -nrt-, the timbre of rt was conditioned by the vowel in the following syllable; r then generated a reduced vowel. So also du-fú-tharcair 'voluit' goes back in the first place to du-fú-thycair*, this to -thracair (cf. dá-thracht 'will'). Cp. §§ 66. 298. Here belong also cases like bria-thar: the course of development was -tra, -tr (r with a-timbre), -tar, cp. § 623 rem. 1.

Rem. On the ai in só-nairt, só-nairte cp. § 640.

§ 635. Germanic.

Prim. Germanic syncope. ájz-a-* 'ore, metal' (Goth. áiza-, OHG. ēr) from ájiz-a-*, cp. Skr. áyas-. So probably also máiz-a-* 'maior' (Goth. máiza OHG. mēro) in the first instance from májizō*. Further ármējā(i)* 'he has compassion on' (Goth. armáip OHG. armēt) fr. irmē-ji-di* and frijōd(i)* 'he treats lovingly' (Goth. frijōþ) fr. frijō-ji-di*, see § 142. This syncopation, which did not take place if an i directly preceded the ji, belongs to the later prim. Germ. changes. For it presupposes the new Germanic accentuation (§ 687).

Syncopation in Gothic in final syllables, e. g. vulfs 'wolf' fr. prim. Goth. vulfa-z*. See § 660, 1. Whether forms like ibns 'even' akrs 'acre' were pronounced as monosyllables or dissyllables (ibys akrs), is not clear, cp. §§ 215, 277 (p. 221 foot-note 1). 660, 1. Here may also be placed the transition of ik to i after consonants, as in satja 'I set' from prim. Germ. salijō*, hairdjos nom. pl. 'shepherds' from prim. Germ. zirdlijōz* (nom. sg. hairdeis from zirdijī-z*).

Rem. Some regard this latter process as prim. Germanic. But then the 2. sg. imper. satei (Indg. sodēie*) could not well be explained. For satiī* would certainly also have become sati* in prim. Germ., and this would have led to sati*.

In West Germanic a law of syncope operated which Paul (Paul-Braune's Beitr. VI 144) has formulated in the following manner: — Short vowels were dropped in open syllables 1. after chief accented syllables, if these were long, 2. after a secondary accented syllable following the one with the chief accent, whether this was long or short. The operations of this law are in many cases not evident and clear, because the secondary tone and the lepton also changed their position in the same word according to logical principles and many levellings took place by analogy. OHG. hōrta 'I heard' for hōrita* = Goth. hāusida, branta 'I burnt' for brannita* = Goth. brannida. OHG. OS. hērro 'master', compar. of hēr 'high, sublime', from hēriro* (Goth. hāiriza*), OHG. OS. jungra 'younger' from jūngiro*, cp. Goth. jūhiza. OHG. andres gen. of ander 'alius', unsres gen. of unser 'our'. OHG. sēula OS. sēola 'soul' = sēula*: Goth. sāivala. OHG. isnān 'iron' adj. from isan 'iron'. OS. mahtigro from māhtigiro* gen. dat. sg. fem. and gen. pl. of mahtig 'mighty', cp. Goth. gen. þizōs. Forms like OHG. zimbartha 'built' (§ 310 rem.) ūcchar 'field' fogal 'bird' eban 'even' had experienced samprasāraṇa, see §§ 215, 277. § 23 rem. 1.

For the activity of the West Germ. law of syncope in final syllables, see § 661, 2.

§ 636. Baltic-Slavonic. i experienced syncope in unaccented syllables in Lithuanian. I am not in a position to say how far the phenomenon, which can only be proved for a comparatively small number of words, is dialectical and how far it was dependent on various grades of accent-stress or similar factors. Examples: szulinys beside szulinys 'well, spring'. mótina beside mótina 'mother' (also mótyua); fut. 2. pl. ársite beside ársite, 1. du. ársia beside ársia, from ariti 'I plough'.

*Vowels were dropped in final syllables by syncope, e. g. pl. dúkters 'daughters' fr. dúkter-es* (Gr. θυγατέρες), gen. sg. dúkteřs fr. dukter-ěs* (O.Bulg. dúšter-e). Cp. § 664.

ŷ and ů, which were reduced vowels already in the prim. Slav. period, disappeared in Slavonic medially in open syllables. In the O.Bulg. monuments e. g. vsi beside vši gen. of všŷ 'vicious', rekšu beside rekšu dat. sg. of the part. perf. of reka 'I say'. See §§ 36. 52.

PALATALISATION AND LABIALISATION WITH EPENTHESIS.

§ 637. Consonants are often palatalised by sonant and consonant i- and e-sounds following them, through the mouth-articulation anticipating the i or e. In like manner u- and o-sounds cause labialisation.

If any other vowel but an i or u precedes a consonant or group of consonants thus palatalised or labialised, this often becomes an i-, or u-diphthong, e. g. ai/i- from ai/i- (where ' indicates the palatalisation of the l). The i- or u-articulation thus extends still further than the specific articulation of the consonants. This phenomenon is called epenthesis. It occurs in the older phases of the Indg. languages only in the case where postconsonantal i or u was consonantal. This i and u then disappeared in the preceding consonant, a result of the intensity of the process of palatalisation or labialisation.

Rem. The phenomena, which are denoted as umlaut, fracture, vowel-harmony etc., do not differ materially from epenthesis, e. g. OHG. nerian = Goth. naþjan § 83, O.Ir. fer 'man' fr. giro-s* § 84, O.Bulg. tobaja instr. beside tebe gen., tebé dat. loc. of ty 'thou'.

§ 638. Aryan. Simple consonants and nt appear palatalised in Avestic before i, ɪ, y, ē, ñh (from Ar. sḥ, § 558, 3 p. 415) after a, ā, u, ū, ē, o, e, aē, ao; the palatalisation was indicated by an i written before the consonant. aipi 'up, on, in' = O.Pers. apiy Skr. āpi. larainti 'they bear' = O.Pers. lura(n)tiy Skr. bhādranti. per'sāiti 3. sg. conj. of per'sāmi 'I ask' = O.Pers. parsātiy Skr. pṛchāti. stāidi 2. sg. imper. of staomi 'I praise': Skr. stu-hi. ker'naoiti 'he makes' = Skr. ky-ṇō-ti. ber'zaitm, acc. sg. fem. of ber'zant- 'great, high', = Skr. bṛhatm. açibiš instr. pl., açibyō dat. pl. to açm 'this', = Skr. ebhiṣ, ebhyās. dač-maidē, 1. pl. mid. to dadāni 'I place', = Skr. dādāh-mahē. ber'zaitē, dat. sg. masc. of ber'zant-, = Skr. bṛhatē. aīnhā, gen. sg. fem. to açm, = Skr. asyās.

r appears labialised before u, ū, v after a, ā, o; an u written before the r marked the labialisation. auruša- 'white, glittering' = Skr. aruṣā-. dauru 'wood, spear' = Skr. dāru. pouru (also written paouru-) 'much' = O.Pers. paru- Skr. purā- (§ 290). aureant- 'quick, strong' = Skr. ārvant-.

Rem. The metro proves that diphthongs were not spoken in forms like aipi pouru. This mode of writing is to be explained from the fact that the transition from the a, ā etc. to the i- or u-position of the palatalised or labialised consonant gave the impression as if an i or u was heard before the consonant.

Hence it is quite out of the question to speak of a triphthong in forms like açibiš etc.

Cp. the similar mode of writing in Irish, § 640.

In Bartholomae's Handb. d. ir. dial. this i and u, just as the anaptyctic vowels (§ 624), are placed above the other letters in small type, e. g. *aip*i *açib*y*ō*, a^uruṣā-.

§ 639. Greek. Epenthesis of i and probably also of u took place in the period of the primitive community.

Epenthesis of i. The palatalised consonant was single or double: ɪ, xɪ, ny, qɪ, τɪ, δɪ, χɪ, θɪ, σɪ, φɪ. φαίρω 'I show' from qaw-ɪw*. κοινός 'common' fr. kon-ɪo-s* (§ 204). τεκταίνω 'I make, fabricate' fr. tekaw-ɪw*, older tekɪn-ɪw* (§§ 130., 234).

αἶκρο-ν δειπνον (Hesych.) fr. αἶκρο-ν*, to Skr. as-nā-ti 'eats'.
δειπνο-ν 'meal' fr. δειπνο-ν*. rt. deq- (§ 444 c). ἐξαίφνης 'suddenly'
 fr. αφρηās*, cp. ἀφρη ἐξαίφνης* (Hesych.). τ and δ disappeared by assimilation before ν: δίσπορα 'mistress of the house' fr.
 -πορρα*, ἐαίρω 'I besprinkle' fr. ἐαδρρα*, see §§ 488. 492. αἶχμη
 'point of a spear' fr. αἶχμη*, probably related to ἔγχος, ἀχ- = ἔχ-*. μάκαρι fr. μακαρ-ρα*, fem. to μάκαρ 'blessed'. σπαρῶ 'I struggle convulsively' fr. σπαρ-ρα*, original form σπρ-ρῶ* (§§ 120.
 293). Hom. τοῦο 'of the' Att. τοῦ Dor. τῶ fr. τοῦσο*, the latter fr. το-σῶ*; Hom. κλαίω 'I weep' fr. κλαί-ω*, this fr. κλαφ-ω*, see § 131.

Rem. Epenthesis of i has been wrongly assumed in κρείττω 'stronger' beside Ion. κρείων, prim. Gr. κρετ-ων*, and in μεζίων 'greater' beside Ion.
μεζον, prim. Gr. μεγ-ων*. ε had taken the place of ι here through ana-logical association with χείρων 'inferior in strength etc.' ἀμείων 'better' ὀλιγίων 'smaller'. Epenthesis of i has also been wrongly sought in κτείνω 'I kill', ἀσθίνω, Hom. ἐν 'in', φθείρω 'I destroy', χείρων, Hom. ἐντε 'over'. In the first instance assimilation took place in these cases (cp. -λλ- from -ελ- in σάλλω), then 'compensation lengthening'. See §§ 131. 618

Cypr. αἰλο-ς beside Arcad. Att. αἰλο-ς 'alius' is very strange.
 It stands too isolated to be able to establish with certainty a process of epenthesis for the period of the separate dialects.
 Cp. Spitzer Lautl. des Arcad. Dial. 34.

Epenthesis of ν in Greek is entirely denied by some scholars, and it is clear that most of the examples brought forward are certainly or probably false. The following are less doubtful: ταῦρο-ς 'bull' beside Gall. tarso-s and Κέρταρο-ς = Skr. gandharvā-s (Κέρταρος for Κερθαρο-ς*, which is to be presupposed by § 496, through popular association with ταῦρο-ς, or κινεῖω, or both at the same time).

In the transformation, which guttural and dental explosives experienced through a following i or ι in prim. Greek or in the period of the separate dialects, as -σσ- fr. -kī- -tī-, -σσ- fr.
-τι- (§§ 131. 489. 493), it was in all cases a question of palatalisation.

§ 640. Old Irish. Palatalisation and labialisation took place extensively. At the end of chief accented syllables, in which the original vowel-differences were kept apart, the palatal timbre of the consonant was denoted by placing an i before it, and in like manner the labial by an u or o. We have thus no more to do with proper diphthongs or triphthongs here than in Avestic (§ 633). The vowels following the chief accented syllable, which had imparted their timbre to the preceding consonants, were mostly dropped according to the laws for unaccented syllables, so that no trace of their existence was left except in the colouring of the preceding consonants. In Keltic grammars this process is called infection.

For the sake of clearness we give here in small type the vowels which serve only to indicate the timbre of the consonant (cp. § 24 p. 27).

Palatalisation. Gen. e'ch 'of a horse' fr. prim. Kelt. ekyā*, to nom. ech. su'de 'seat' fr. sodjo-m*, rt. sed-. Gen. ma'cc 'of a son' fr. magi (lr. Ogam inscript.), to nom. sg. macc. a'le 'alius', stem aljo-*. fā'th 'poet' fr. yati(s)*: Lat. patēs. Acc. rā'n 'secret' fr. rānin*, to nom. rān fr. rānā*. for-tē's 'thou wilt help' fr. tēssi(s)* with ē = Indg. ei. Cp. §§ 58. 66. 82. 98. 106.

Labialisation. Dat. ne'rt fr. nertu* nertō*, stem nerto- 'strength'. Dat. e'ch fr. erhu* ekyō*, st. echo- 'horse'. ad-ga'r 'I prohibit' fr. -garn* -garō*. Cp. § 66. 98.

If the vowel of the syllable which had not the chief accent was still present only as an irrational vowel, its colouring was dependent on the timbre of the following consonant, e. g. (nī) épur (fr. éd-bur*) beside at-bi'r 'dico', both from the same original form, but with different accentuation according to the connexion, so, too, nom. biad gen. biū ('victus') fr. biyot(o-m)* biyot(i)*. See §§ 66. 82. In like manner the irrational vowel, which was developed in Keltic itself from sonant liquid, assumed the quality of the following consonants, e. g. sō-nirte beside nért 'strength'. See § 634.

Where a diphthong is written in unaccented syllables, the second vowel was properly the syllabic vowel and the first really only shows the timbre of the preceding consonant. Hence we may write epiur, which occurs beside epur, as ép'ur. Correspondingly só-n'irte beside só-nirte, rér'ig 'direxit', dat. túath'ib beside túathib 'populis' (cp. mnā'b from ben 'woman'), 1. sg. cár'im beside cárim 'I love'. In general this colouring of the consonant is the quality of the vowel which originally followed the consonant, cp. e. g. ép'ur with at-bt'r and 3. sg. ad-cón-d'irc (Gr. δέδορκε) with 1. sg. ad-cón-darc (Gr. δέδορκα).

Rem. If two consonants with different timbre came together through loss of vowel, the second became assimilated (with certain exceptions) to the first, e. g. in fé'dligetho* 'of persistence' (nom. fé'dligud, to fé'dligim 'I continue, hold out') a palatal g and a dark th came together after the loss of the e in the last syllable but one. The latter then also became palatal, hence the form fé'dligth'o. The timbre of the preceding consonants had influence upon final vowels partly even in O.Irish, but especially in Mid.Irish. E. g. sé'dligth'o 'of setting' became sé'dligthe; nom. pl. gúlu'i 'deeds' (also written gúlni without indication of the timbre of the u, nom. sg. gúlu) became gúlna or gúlnae gúlna (all these spellings exist side by side of each other). — According to Thurneysen. Op. also § 657 rem.

§ 641. Germanic. Until recently a prim. Germ. epenthesis of i was universally assumed in a series of words, as Goth. hails OHG. heil 'whole', which is said to be related to Skr. kalya-s 'healthy, pleasant'; Goth. hráiva- (in hráiva dabb) OHG. hrēo (gen. hrēwes) 'corpse', said to be connected with Skr. krávyā-m 'raw flesh'. See Scherer Z. Gesch. d. deutsch. Spr.² 74, J. Schmidt Vocal. II 474 ff., Osthoff Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIII 427 f. I am by no means convinced of the correctness of this assumption; on hails cp. § 480.

§ 642. Baltic-Slavonic. Palatalisation exists largely.

On the palatalisation of consonants in Lithuanian see §§ 26. 147. 280.

Original rj, lj, nj appear in O.Bulg. as palatalised r, l, n; j had been absorbed in the preceding consonant. Palatalisation was also the first stage in the development of kj ke to č če, of chj che to š še etc. See § 147.

LOSS OF SYLLABLE BY DISSIMILATION.

§ 643. When two medial syllables with the same or similar initial sound follow each other, one of the two is often lost. When a person reproduces sounds from impressions on the memory and repeats their order in speaking, the syllables with the same initial sounds run into one another, and thus after the production of the initial sound of the first syllable he at once passes over to the production of the sounds following the second, e. g. Gr. τέτραχμον 'four drachmae' = τετρ[άδρ]αχμον. Such hurrying over one part of the sounds of the body of a word does not always become chronic and universal, hence the frequent co-existence of the full and the shortened form in languages closely related together.

In languages with preponderating expiratory accentuation it was probably always syllables which had not the chief accent which were affected by this act of dissimilation.

Aryan. Vedic irādhyai inf. 'to try to gain' = iradh[a-dh]-yai*, cp. 3. pl. mid. iradhanta. Avestic. dāraoša- 'shining far' = dār[a-r]aoša-*. amer'tat- beside amer'tu-tat- 'immortality'. maidyairyā-, name of a feast, fr. maidy[a-y]airyā-* (maidya- 'medius', yār 'year').

Greek. ἀμφορέν-ς beside ἀμφι-φορέν-ς 'jar with two handles'. ἡμέδιμνο-ν beside ἡμι-μέδιμνον 'half a bushel'. κωμωδοδιδάσκαλο-ς beside κωμωδο-διδάσκαλο-ς 'comic poet'. λειτουργία 'intermittent fever' = λιπ[ο-π]υρία*. στόμαργο-ς 'talkative' = στομ[ο-μ]αργο-ς* or στομ[α-μ]αργο-ς*. ὀπισθίναρ 'back of the hand' = ὀπισθ[ο-θ]-εναρ*. κέντωρ 'goader' = κεντ[η-τ]ωρ* from κεντέω. θάροδνο-ς 'confident' fr. θαρο[ο-σ]υνο-ς*.

Italic. Latin. sēmōdiu-s beside sēmi-modiu-s. sēmēstri-s 'semi-monthly' = sēm[i-m]ēstris*. trucidāre fr. truc[i-c]idāre*. antestārī = ant[e-t]estārī*. lūculentatē acc. beside lūculenti-tātē. debilitare = debili-t[at]-are. hērēditiu-s = hērēdi-t[at]-ariu-s*. calamitōsu-s = calami-t[at]-ōsus*. dentiō = dent[i-t]iō*. nūtrix = nūtr[ī-tr]ix*. Umbrian suront beside sururont 'item'.

Rem. 1. From what has been said above it is probable that forms like debilitāmus debilitāvissem, nūtrīcis nūtrīcimus, dentiōnis were already created in Latin at the time debilitāō* (1. sg.), nūtrītrix*, dentiōis* were still spoken. The shortening of the latter forms was due to the analogy of the first through a debiliō being created to debilitāmus etc.

Rem. 2. The later stages of development of Latin also show many phenomena which belong here, as Italian asamo fr. asavamo, cavalleggiere fr. cavalli leggieri, French neté fr. netteté. See Car. Michaëlis Stud. zur roman. Wortschöpfung 18.

Keltic. I do not know anything belonging here from Irish¹⁾. In Gallic Leucamulus = Leuc[o-c]amulu-s* (cp. Leucimāra etc. and Camulus), Clutamus = Clut[o-t]amus* from Cluto and the not unfrequent element -tamu-s. See Esser Beitr. zur gallo-kelt. Namenkunde I p. 46.

Germanic. Goth. avistr n., OHG. ewist m. awista f. 'sheep fold' = av[i-v]istr*, ew[i-w]ist* aw[i-w]ista*, the second part to OHG. wist 'stay, dwelling place'. In like manner navistr* = nav[i-v]istr* 'abode of the dead' which is to be deduced from Goth. ga-navistrōn 'bury'.

Possibly also Goth. ainōhun 'ullum' = ain[an]ō-hun*. The spelling ainnō-hun is due to an attempt of the writer to take a middle course between the form actually spoken by him and the form dictated to him by his grammatical feeling.

Baltic-Slavonic. Lith. akūta-s beside akūtāta-s 'awny' (from akūta-s 'awn'). Loc. sg. fem. gerōjė = geroj[e-j]oje*, to nom. gerō-ji, definite form of gerà 'bona'. O.Bulg. fem. gen. dobryje = dobry-j[ef]e*, dat. dobrēji = dobrē-j[ef]i*, instr. dobroja = dobroj[a-j]a* and this = dobroj[a-j[ef]a*, to nom. dobra-ja, definite form of dobra 'bona'. With the last named double shortening cp. Lat. voluntariu-s = volunt[at]ariu-s* and this = volunt[i-t]at-ariu-s*.

SANDHI (SATZPHONETIK).

§ 644. Words, united together so as to form a single thought, are mostly also spoken in a connected manner, so that the whole sentence, or at least a member of it consisting of several words, forms a complete phonetic unity. The sounds of the word are dependent on the varying position of the word in the sentence. It makes a difference whether a word with this or that set of sounds precedes or follows another, whether the word begins or ends the sentence, whether it has the chief accent of the sentence or not. As a word has generally life in connected speech only, it develops itself phonetically also in connexion, and those variations of position are often at the same time the active cause which produces the change. Thus e. g. in Skr. tāt phālam 'this fruit' and tād datrām 'this gift' the difference of the final sound of the first word was caused by the difference of the initial sound of the second word, in śuciṣ tvām 'splendidus tu' and śubhrās tvām 'nitidus tu' the difference of the initial sound of the second word was occasioned by that of the final sound of the preceding word. The shortening of prim. Balt. -ā in the Lith. nom. sg. fem. gerà 'bona' was brought about by the position at the end of a sentence (absolute finality, position in pause), and the reduction of pp- = Indg. sr- to φ- in Gr. φαί 'flows' (Skr. śrávati, cp. ἔρρε 'flowed' Skr. śravat) by the position at the beginning of the sentence (absolute initiality). OHG. mo 'to him' nan 'him' beside imo inan arose from the fact that they were used unaccented (enclitically) in the sentence as a whole; when preceded by the chief accent they became subject to the law of syncope (§ 635).

1) The first consonant was dropped in Irish in such cases, and the vowels, thus brought together, were contracted: e. g. arob-ró-nenasc* became arob-róinasc 'I have betrothed yo' (nascim 'I bind'), where oi* is to be read as a pure diphthong (Thurleyson Rev. Celt. VI 323 f.).

Those changes, which absolutely initial and final sounds underwent and which were caused by such positions of the word, may generally be separated as forming a special category of phonology.

But the sound-affections, which a word suffered through its connexion with a preceding or following word, are not to be separated from those, which were caused through the connexion of the sounds and syllables of the same word as a whole. In many cases no one even thinks of making such a separation. Thus no one treats under the laws of sandhi the Att. η = prim. Gr. α in τιμή or in ἥγρον, which is of the same nature as that in μυρῆρες. But e. g. in the acc. pl. like νόμοις, νόμοις (in several dialects equal to Att. νόμοις, νόμοις), in

Att. καὶ Dor. *κη̃*πὶ = καὶ ἐπὶ, in τὸν λόγον = τὸν λόγον, ἐρ Ψόδῳ = ἐν Ψόδῳ, καὶ νόμον = κατ νόμον, in Hom. ὅττι (Att.
 ὅτι) = *ὅδ τι (§ 363) etc. we can also only speak of such laws as generally held good for the sound-combinations in question. νύμφας arose from νύμφανς in combinations like νύμφανςκαλάνς according to the same law as that by which *κενστός became κεστός (§ 204 p. 171). *καὶ*πὶ *κη̃*πὶ from *κα(ι)επὶ like τιμα̃τε τιμη̃τε from *τιμα(ι)ετε (§ 603). As regards τὸν λόγον etc. and ὅττι, such assimilations, it is true, did not take place at the same time in the body of a word — we take the term word here in its narrowest sense, thus we do not regard compounds like πάλλενκος παροησία as one word —, but it was only because the sound-groups in question did not occur in the body of the word at the time when the change took place¹).
 The latter is just as much a secondary consideration for the sound-change itself, as it is immaterial for the changes which take place in a word when isolated, if the sound-group in question at the time of the change occurred in the isolated word only as e. g. in the transition of -κ- to -σσ- or of -γκ-to -ζ- in Greek.

The following circumstance also does not occasion an exceptional condition for the laws of sandhi in question. After the ending of a word has assumed a different shape caused by the varying nature of the following initial sound and the activity of the respective sound-law or of the respective sound-laws has become extinct, the different forms are often used promiscuously, irrespective of the conditions by which the difference was brought about, or at least one of the different forms goes beyond its original sphere. Thus in Greek νύμφας came to be used also before vowels while νύμφας, which had arisen in combinations like νύμφανςαἰτάνς (cp. πᾶσα from πάνσα) and when absolutely final, appeared before consonants². The same holds good with regard

1) On account of καὶ νόμον observe that the syllabic division κατ νόμον was in opposition e. g. to κα̃|τνῳ.

2) On the newly found inscription of Gortyn the old phonetic division still shows itself in preferring especially the article form τόνς before vowels and the sister form τό; before consonants.

to initial sounds. Double forms like Gr. στέγος : τέγος 'roof' were originally dependent on the varying form of the end of the preceding word (§ 589, 3). But both forms then became generalised in use. Now this fluctuation did not for the most part stop here. One of the different forms gained the mastery and entirely suppressed the other or the others. Thus in the Attic dialect the accusative forms νόμῳ, νόμῳ, νόμῳ came to be the only forms in use, νόμῳ, νόμῳ, νόμῳ became extinct¹⁾; in Latin steg- entirely gave way to teg- (tegō toga). It is here everywhere merely a question of the effects of analogy, which followed after the regular change had taken place, and the case is essentially the same as if e. g. in OHG. jungro had arisen by syncope beside bezziro etc. and jungiro had then been formed after the latter and similar forms (§ 635). The latter new formation is parallel to the younger τόνους παῖδας (τόνους παῖδας) instead of the regular τόνους παῖδας.

If, in sandhi-changes, transformations of finals through the following initials are much more frequent than transformations of initials through the preceding finals, it fully corresponds also to what we may observe with regard to the changes in the body of a word, namely that transforming operations are far more frequent in a regressive direction (anticipations) than those in a progressive direction.

In the so-called laws of finals and initials it is not merely a question of the last or the first sound in the body of the word, but often also of the medial sounds. The important part is that the cause of transformation lay outside the body of the word, in the first case in the following, in the second case in the preceding word. The most striking examples are the Skr. combinations like prá hanyatē, agnēr āveṇa, where ṛ took the place of n through the influence of the r in the preceding word (§ 648, 3). The expressions laws of finals and initials are thus too limited. We retain them however in default of a more appropriate short name. —

1) The existence side by side of νόμῳ and νόμῳ (older νόμῳ and νόμῳ, originally νόμῳ only) is the same as νόμῳ and νόμῳ, νόμῳ and νόμῳ. If in Attic the fluctuation between νόμῳ and νόμῳ continued long after the victory of νόμῳ was decided (see the author Ber. d. sächsl. Ges. der Wiss. 1883 p. 186 f.), this is to be explained from the fact that the accusatives with compensation lengthening were the regular, often used pause-forms, while the preposition was generally pronounced only in close connexion with following words and νόμῳ only occurred rarely as pause-form.

On the basis of the above explanation we ought, in the discussion of sound change, to separate from all other changes, those which happened in the beginning and end of a sentence and were caused by this position of the sounds. With the present state of our science, this is unfortunately impossible in an exposition of the history of sounds, which everywhere starts from the prim. Indg. sounds: the cases are too numerous, in which we do not know whether the word has obtained its present form when absolutely initial or final respectively or conditionally so i. e. in the juxta-position with the sounds of other words. Every thing, which preceded in the prehistoric periods of the separate developments, is known to us by induction only. But processes certainly happened even then, quite as complicated as those we can so often observe in the later phases of language: conflict of the pause-forms and the forms at the beginning of the sentence with the medial forms and of the latter with one another, utter loss, without leaving any trace, of one or several of the different forms which had arisen phonetically, etc. We are mostly not in a position to reconstruct these prehistoric processes in their course with any certainty. And even where we work on the basis of historic records we are often badly off from the fact that the written exposition, as regards the formation of the final and initial parts of words, is generally still less a faithful picture of the living speech than as regards the medial syllables, since they had arisen by sound-laws which operated independently of the connexion in the sentence. In writing one generally recalled to mind the isolated word as an independent whole and either overlooked the sandhi-operations altogether or only imperfectly paid regard to them. In this point, it is true, the exposition of the Sanskrit forms a brilliant exception. But what in the other languages is too little, is too much here. The sandhi-system of the Hindoos is not free from various pedantic niceties and exaggerated generalisations; it is quite inconceivable that the naive speech, uninfluenced by grammatical theorising should always have moved in the track, which the grammarians prescribe, and which became the normal for the written exposition of the language. The fettered language of the Vedas already furnishes the proof that the sandhi-system of the classical Sanskrit is not a thing of natural growth. —

In face of the overwhelming difficulties we shall therefore not undertake the theoretical division mentioned above. But it seemed to me necessary to point out here at least the aim, which a more searching investigation of details should have specially in view in the future even more than hitherto.

Prim. Indg. period.

§ 645. Only a few changes can be established with probability in conditionally final and initial sounds.

Finally.

1. -dy became -ḍ before certain consonants in the nom. acc. du. of o-stems, say dyō sūnā* 'two sons' beside dyōy ēkyōy* 'two horses'. This is shown by the fact that the Vedic has mostly -ā, rarely -au, before consonants, and -au rather more frequently than -ā before vowels.

In classical Sanskrit the forms in -au came to be the only ones in use. Conversely in the European languages the forms in -ḍ almost entirely supplanted those in -dy: Gr. δύ-δeka, ἑκαῶ, Lat. duo, O.Ir. dā, Lith. dù from dyū*, gerū from gerū* (§§ 184. 664, 3), O.Bulg. dva, vlūka. -dy was retained in O.Ir. dau dō (older dāu) 'two' and Goth. ahtāu 'eight' (§ 85). Cp. Meringer, Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII 217 ff.

From this it may be assumed that -ōm once interchanged with -ō in the loc. sg. in -ōm also as sānūy* = Skr. sānū etc. (§ 85).

Compare Indg. gōm* acc. sg. 'bullock', which probably arose from gōm-m*, § 188.

It is more doubtful whether -ēi interchanged with -ē in a similar manner. Vedic loc. sg. agnī of agnī- 'fire' suggests the conjecture that there existed in prim. Indg. a loc. sg. in -ē, which had arisen from -ēi. The latter form is said to be represented by Goth. anstái (stem ansti-). Cp. the accidence.

Compare the hypothesis according to which Indg. rēs* 'res' arose from rēi-s*, § 150.

Rem. 1. That nominatives like Gr. Ποσειδών and Skr. sākhā (pl. sākhāy-as) represent an Indg. -ō from -ōi, as has been maintained, seems to me very doubtful.

2. -i and -u were pronounced as consonants before sonants. E. g. prōtj* beside prāti* 'against' (Skr. prāty and prāti, Gr. πρὸς and πρῶτι, cp. πρόσωτος from πρωτj-m*), the former e. g. in Skr. praty-abharan = Gr. πρὸς-έφαγον. upérj* beside upéri* 'over' (Skr. upáry and upári, Gr. Hom. ὑπέρ and ὑπέρι*, cp. Hom. εἰν and ἔνι, § 131 p. 119). médhy* and médhu* 'honey', the latter e. g. in Skr. mádhu asti 'mel est'. Cp. §§ 122. 156.

In like manner -ŋi and -m probably interchanged, e. g. acc. sg. bhrátor-ŋi* (Gr. φράτορα) and bhrátorm* (Goth. brōþar). Cp. § 192. 231 rem.

Rem. 2. On the accusative forms like dijēm* (Skr. dyaṁ) see § 188. If the conjecture given there is right, there existed between dijēm* and ndyŋi* (Hom. νῆα Lat. nāvem) the same relation as between bhrátorm* and bhrátorŋi*.

3. Voiceless explosives and spirants became voiced before voiced explosives and spirant, say édōdbhrátraj* = édōt+bhrátroj* 'he gave to the brother' (Skr. ádad bhrátre); tāzgijs* = tās+gijs* 'these sinews' (cp. Skr. tā jydh). Cp. -bd-* from -pd-, dṇdbhis = dṇt+bhis* § 469, 2, zdhi* = s+dhi* § 589, 1. Conversely voiced explosives and spirants became voiceless before voiceless explosives and spirants, say uit'tōtpflū* = uit'tōd+pflū* 'know thou (let him know) much' (Skr. vittat purū), tótsijet* = tód+sijet* 'that may be' (Skr. tát siyāt). Cp. juqtó-* = jug+tó-, petsú = ped+sú*, § 469, 1.

Sanskrit and Greek especially point to such assimilations.

4. Bremer (Paul-Braune's Beitr. XI 38 f.) assigns it to this also, that the nom. endings sg. masc. fem. of n- and r- stems sometimes have -n and -r, sometimes not, e. g. Gr. ἄνθρωπος, πᾶν, but Skr. áśná, pitá (see § 92). The duality was formerly frequently explained by assuming that the forms without -n and -r were once the only ones in use and that the final consonant was transferred from the other cases. In the *n-*stems one might also imagine that the forms with -ōn- without gradation like Gr. ὄναρ, Goth. raþjōn- O.Bulg. poljan- (§§ 219 extr. 311. 585, 3) had originally the nominative with -n, the others without -n and that then intermixture took place. The uncertainty however prevents anything being here definitely arrived at.

Initially.

1. s- disappeared before consonants after -s, perhaps also after other consonants, hence the double forms like steg- and teg- 'cover'. See § 589, 3.

3. Double forms like siēm* and sijēm* 'sim' dyō* and duyō* mrijētai* and mrijētai* 'moritur' were due to a varying construction of the preceding syllable. See § 120 p. 112 § 153 p. 138 f.

3. Indg. toj* from tuoj*? See § 187.

Aryan.

§ 646. Prim. Aryan.

Finally. 1. Nasals adjusted themselves to the organ of the following consonants, so that e. g. -n and -m became -ŋ before k-, and -ñ before c-.

2. The ending -am attained complete supremacy in the acc. sg. of most consonant stems, the origin of which must apparently be explained from sandhi relations. Analogously -am in preterites like ds-am 'eram'. See §§ 231 rem. 645 p. 489.

3. The explosives and spirants, which had become voiced before initial voiced explosives and spirants, remained voiced; correspondingly those, which had become voiceless before initial voiceless sounds, remained voiceless (§ 645 finals 3). t and d occurred most frequently finally. The aspirates, from of old rare finally, may have then lost the aspiration in this position. -z stood beside -s, -ṣ beside -ś; -ṣ and -ś = Indg. -g and -k were rare (§ 396).

-as and -ās, when absolutely final, passed into -aḥ and -aḥ (Skr.) or groups similar to these, and it seems that these forms, introduced also into the position before voiced explosives and spirants and before vowels, became here -ō and -ā already in prim. Aryan. See § 556, 3.

Initially. 1. kt- became (when absolutely initial?) t-: Skr. tūrya- Av. tārya- 'quartus' from ktur-*, cp. Av. a-xtārya- 'four times repeated'. See § 471.

2. s- became ś- after -i, -u etc. (§ 556, 1), whence Skr. ś-. Hence such combinations as hī śāḥ, hī śma, divī śtha, nā śphirām.

Rem. Since we are not justified in assuming that the transition of s to ś (ṣ) was still active in the Sanskrit separate development, this phenomenon of sandhi must be referred back to the prim. Aryan period. It is immaterial whether in individual cases we have to deal with a prim. Ar. word-combination or with one which had first come into being in Sanskrit itself. In the latter case it is a question of imitation of older models.

§ 647. Sanskrit. Finals.

1. The -ṣ, which arose from prim. Ar. -aḥ when absolutely final and before consonants, was also introduced if the next word began with a sonant, e. g. -ṣ a- for regular -ay a-, cp. Av. zastay-a O.Pers. dastay-a 'into the hand', loc. sg. + a 'towards a thing'. Before a-, which for its part disappeared, -ṣ remained, before other sonants it was shortened to -a. vānē 'smīn from vānē asmīn loc. 'in this forest'. vāna asīt from vānē asīt 'he was in the forest'. This loss of a- was in its first beginnings in the Vedic period.

The -ō which had taken the place of -as (§ 646) was treated in like manner. anyō 'nyām 'one to the other'. rāmā uvāca 'Rama spoke'.

-ay became -a before sonants. striṣṭ adadāt 'he gave to the woman'.

2. The assimilation of the nasals to following consonants (§ 646), remained e. g. tāṁ kapīm 'this sage', tin dēdām 'this god'. -m passed into the so-called 'Anusvāra' before sibilants, h and r. e. g. tī sīhām 'this lion' (cp. § 199 rem. 1).

3. -r became -ḥ when absolutely final. Voc. mātāḥ 'mother' = Av. mātar Gr. μήτηρ. 3. pl. perf. as-āḥ = Av. āsh-ar from Ar. as- 'be' (§ 290).

The r, which had first become final in Sanskrit (by 7), also underwent this change. ākaḥ = ākar 'thou madest, he made', when 2. sg. arose from a-kar-ṣ*, when 3. sg. from a-kar-t*.

4. Absolutely final explosives and spirants were pronounced voiceless only, hence here e. g. tāt 'this' from ta-d*, Indg. tó-d*.

The law, inherited from the pre-Aryan period, that explosives and spirants were pronounced voiced before voiced and voiceless before voiceless explosives and spirants (§ 645 finals 3), was followed by an analogical innovation. They said tāt phālam 'this fruit', tād dātrām 'this gift' (prim. f. tód*) and ābharat phālam, ābharat dātrām (prim. f. ēbheret* 'he brought'), but tād ānnam ('food'), tād vāstram ('dress'), tād mādhu ('honey') opposed to ābharat ānnam*, - vāstram, - mādhu. The latter state was levelled out and ābharat ānnam etc. introduced.

ābharat ānnam for regular ābharat ānnam* after ābharat dātrām and tād ānnam may be compared with śagmā- 'powerful, helpful', for regular śakmā-* after śagdhi and tigmā-, see § 472 rem.

-t remained in the old combination bhārat-u 'let him bring' (injunctive bhārat + particle u), because it was felt as a single word. See Osthoff Z. Gesch. des Perf. 42.

5. -t c- became -cc-, as ādacca 'dabatque', -t ś- became -ch- (-cch-), as ādachatām 'dabat centum'. Cp. §§ 352. 355. Cp. also § 557, 2 on tānūchātṛān acc. 'these enemies'.

6. The endings -as and -ās have been treated in § 556, 3. 646, 647, 1.

h appears in pausa for the ś which arose from Indg. s prim. Ar. after i- and u-vowels (§ 556, 1), e. g. āśih 'sheep', sānūh 'son'. It is uncertain whether the transition to h was phonetically developed or whether it is a question of analogy after dśvaḥ = dśoc etc. -ś was retained in Vedic before p- and k-, e. g. dya i pītā (= Zerv. narhē), but the pause-form in -h forced its way in also before these initial sounds, just as there still appears the older ending -as (e. g. yās pātih 'qui dominus') in Vedic before p- and k-, but beside this already also -aḥ. -ś too is still Vedic before t-, where t- was pronounced cerebral (§ 352), e. g. śūciś tām 'splendidus tu'. But beside this also śūcis tvām, a new formation after the analogy of -as t.

h for -s and -ś also where these did not become final until after the loss of a following consonant (7.), e. g. dū 'he was' = ās(t), ajāih 'he overcame' = ajāiś(t)*; cp. ākāh = akart* above § 3. Also -t = -t̥, e. g. 3. sg. injunct. aor. nāt = nāṣ-t* from nāṣ- 'to attain' (cp. 3. sg. vāṣti 'he is willing' from vāṣ-, § 8 9).

Original -is, -us had become -iś, -uś in prim. Aryan before voiced explosives and spirants, e. g. patīś dadati* 'the master gives'. -i (= Skr. -ī) already at an early period, perhaps in the Aryan prim. community (cp. Av. duš-ita- 'difficult of access' duš-vacah- 'speaking badly'), came to stand also before vowels, liquids and nasals through generalisation by analogy and here passed into -r in Sanskrit, e. g. śrīr iyām 'thi splendour' from śrīś*. This -r then came to be used by analogy also before voiced explosives and spirants, e. g. pātīr dātī 'the master gives', sānūr dadati 'the son gives', pātīr bhīr atī 'the master brings': the regular forms had been pātī dātī*, sānū dādātī* (cp. dā-dāt- 'impious', § 591) and pātī bhīr atī* (cp. deiḍbhīś ibid.). r was even also transferred to the ending -as in Vedic, as dśar 'horse' śrūtār 'renowned'.

7. Of two or more final consonants (except j and ṣ as the second components of diphthongs before consonants) the first one was preserved. abharan 'they brought' from a-bhara-nt*. akā 'he made' from a-kar-t*: Av. cor h* (prim. Ar. car-t*, Indg.

*ger-t). ds 'he was' from as-t*. ā-jaiṣ 'he overcame' from a-jai-ṣ-t* : Av. cōišt 'he made known' from caēš-. dp 'water' from ap-s* : Av. aš. dēvā-tāt 'divine service' from -tat-s* : Av. a-mer'ta-tās 'immortality'. dik 'region of the sky' from dikṣ*, prim. f. dik-s* (§ 401 rem. 2). vāk 'speech' from vāks* : Av. vāxs Lat. vōx, Indg. uōq-s* (§ 556, 1).

ābhār 'he brought' from a-bhār-ṣ-t* (s-aorist). Nom. sg. prāś 'turned forwards' from prāṣk-ṣ*. Nom. sg. tudān 'tundens' from tudānt-s*.

-nn appears instead of -n after short vowels, as ābharann, tudānn.

The simplification of final consonant groups was older than the crigin of short nasal vowels from short vowel + nasal before s. This is shown by the gen. sg. dān (dānn) from dāns*, 2. sg. āgan (āgann) from a-gans*. See § 199.

If a long vowel preceded the nasal + s, -n stood in only absolute finality, in conditioned finality a long nasal vowel was pronounced and -s had the same form as after non-nasalised long vowels. āśvān 'equos' in pausa, but āśvās t-, āśvāṣ c-, āśvāḥ p-, āśvā a-. sūnān 'filios' in pausa, but sūnāḥ p-, sūnār a-. vidvān 'knowing' in pause, but vidvās t- etc. ātān 'he stretched' (s-aorist, from a-tān-s(-t)*, 1. sg. ātās-am) in pausa, but ātā a-.

Rem. From this it seems to follow that n, after long vowels before -s not ending the sentence, had become with the preceding vowel a nasal vowel earlier than elsewhere. Of course in this question there comes into consideration the fact that the long vowels in the accusative endings -ān -ūn -in have not yet been satisfactorily explained (the last attempt at an explanation by Hansen in Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 615), and that the nom. vidvān was a new formation for vidvās* (cp. Av. vidvā, Gr. vidwā). Thus the ending long vowel + n + s is not proved as old inherited in any of the cases here.

§ 648. Sanskrit. Initials.

1. On the loss of -a after -ē, -ō, see § 647, 1.
2. -ch- (-cth-) fr. -t ṣ-, see § 647, 5.
3. r also caused cerebralisation of a following n, if the two sounds belonged to different words. In Vedic pāri nas, vdr nāma, prā hanyatē, indra ēnam, agnēr āvena. Cp. bhāra-māna-s in § 199 and the phonetic explanation of its origin given there.

4. -š changed t- into ṭ-, as śuciš ṭdm̄. Cp. §§ 352. 647, 6.

Rem. On ht fāh etc. see § 646 initials 2.

§ 649. Iranian. Finals.

1. In late Avestic final -ā, -ī, -u were shortened in polysyllabic words. Nom. sg. haēna 'army': Skr. sēnā. Nom. sg. brāta 'brother': Skr. bhrāta. Nom. du. puvra 'the two sons': Skr. putrā. Nom. sg. ber'zaiti 'alta': Skr. bṛhatī. Nom. du. paiti 'the two masters': Skr. pāti. mainyu 'the two spirits': Skr. manyā. On the other hand e. g. z'mā instr. to zā 'earth': Skr. jmd.

All final vowels are written as long in Gāpā, not only haēnā mainyā, but also e. g. barā 2. sg. imper. = Skr. bhāra Gr. phēre, āsti 3. sg. indic. = Skr. āsti Gr. ēsti. It is probably rightly assumed that these longs are due to a later transformation on the part of redactors and that they were pronounced short — perhaps with a few exceptions — in the same manner as elsewhere, at the time of the origin of the hymns. See Bartholomae Die Gāpā p. 67 ff., Handbuch p. 3.

In Old Persian the deviations from the quantity, which is to be expected by the prim. Ar. sound-laws, are likewise only of a graphic nature, e. g. 3. sg. akūta 'he made himself': Skr. ākṛta; abara(n)tā: Skr. ābharanta Gr. ἐπέποιετο; amīy 'I am': Skr. āsmi Gr. εἰμι; pātāv 'let him protect': Skr. pātu. Cp. § 21.

2. Late Av. -ç fr. -ja -jā, as yç-he = Skr. yā-sya. See § 125 p. 115.

Av. -ç from -aj, as aspç = Skr. āścē. See §§ 62 rem. 78. 94.

3. Av. -ā (written -a, -an, -am) from -am -ān, as hwaq hwaqm = Skr. tvdm. See § 200.

4. Av. -r' fr. -r, as antar' = O.Pers. a(n)tar Skr. antár. See §§ 260. 624. The anaptyctic vowel arose before initial consonants, at the same time perhaps in absolute finality.

5. Final combinations of consonants were mostly permitted. Cp. the Av. forms cor'p, cōist, afš, eaš in § 647, 7. Exceptions under 6.

6. Prim. Ar. -t and -d after vowels (also anaptyctic) fell together in Av. in -p. This sound or a similar one, in any case a consonantal element, was also spoken in O.Pers., since -a appears for prim. Ar. -at and -ad. If the sound -a had ended the word, this vocalic finality would have been expressed by the addition of the a-sign (in the transcription -ā). See § 21 rem. 3. sg. Av. abarāp O.Pers. abara 'he brought': Skr. ābharat. Av. ciṣ O.Pers. ciy, indefinite particle: Skr. cid, Lat. quid.

-t appears unchanged in Av. in -st = prim. Ar. -tāt prim. Indg. -t't, as hūst, and in -št = prim. Ar. -št prim. Indg. -st, as cōist. On the other hand -s from prim. Ar. prim. Indg. -st, as ās. See § 474 rem. 2.

-t was dropped after n in prim. Iran.: 3. pl. Av. abaren O.Pers. abara: Skr. ābharan ābharann, Indg. bheront*, rt. bher- 'bear'.

7. On Av. -as -ō O.Pers. -a = prim. Ar. -as see §§ 556, 3. 558, 4. 646 finals 3.

Ar. -as appears in Av. as -ā: nom. pl. fem. yā 'quae' = Skr. yās, 2. sg. conj. bard 'feras' = Skr. bhāras. Beside this -a (from older -ā, see 1): nom. pl. aspa 'equi' = Skr. dśvas. -ā probably corresponds to Skr. -āḥ, and -a to Skr. -ā. The ending -ās-ca (ca 'and'), as in yās-ca, seems to be a transformation of regular -ās-ca* after -ā. Only -ā occurs in O.Pers., e. g. nom. pl. martiya 'men', which may also correspond to Av. -ā and -a. Cp. § 556, 3.

Opposed to Skr. acc. pl. tan (§ 647, 7) and Gr. τόν Goth. pans stands in Av. tā (also written tān, tān).

Prim. Ar. -š = Indg. -s (§ 556, 1) was, as it seems, the rule in every connexion in both Iranian languages. Av. ati-š 'dragon': Skr. āhi-ś; mainyu-š 'spirit': Skr. manyū-ś. O.Pers. fravartī-š Phraortes, kārā-š Cyrus. Sanskrit relations of sandhi (see 647, 6), which certainly partly represent prim. Ar. differences of finals, show that the Iran. -š did not stand regularly in all word-combinations.

§ 650. Iranian. Initials.

1. The development of anaptyctic vowels in Av., as rista-, and the metathesis of vr-, connected with it, as vrāta-*, may regularly have taken place partly in absolute initiality and partly after certain consonants. See §§ 157. 260. 624.

2. So also the transition of prim. Ar. sm- (through the intermediate stage hm-) to m-, in Av. mahi 'sumus' = Skr. smāsi etc. See § 558, 3.

Armenian.

§ 651. Finals.

1. The vowels in the originally final syllables of polysyllabic words disappeared, whether they themselves, or consonants following them, ended the word. em 'I am': Skr. ásmi. mardoy of man': Skr. mytásya. Nom. dustr 'daughter' fr. dustir*, older dustēr*: Gr. θυγάτηρ. astl 'star': Gr. ἀστήρ. Nom. acc. mard 'man': Skr. mytá-s, mytá-m. Nom. akn 'eye' (gen. akan): cp. Gr. ῥέκτων. haur 'of a father': Gr. πατρός. dster 'of a daughter': Gr. θυγατέρος. Acc. marts (mards) 'men' from mardo-ns*: Gr. Cret. ρόμο-νς.

Monosyllables retained the vowel. mi 'lest': Gr. μή. Nom. šin 'dog' from kyōn* (§ 87), but akn (see above). Acc. eris 'three' from ris*, trins* = Goth. þrins, but sirts from sirtins* from stem sirti- 'heart'.

2. -m disappeared: acc. mard = Skr. mytá-m (§ 202). -n remained: nom. šin, akn.

Rem. Therefore taan 'ten' cannot be derived regularly from Indg. dekyā* (Skr. dāśa Lat. decem). We must start, as in the case of Goth. tallun, from dekyat*: the labial nasal became dental before -t, tasant* became taan. Or did the word receive its -n from šin 'nine' = enyp*, as Lat. novem conversely took the place of noven* after decem?

3. -s disappeared after vowels: nom. mard = Skr. mytá-s; gen. haur = Gr. πατρός. It remained, if a nasal preceded it: acc. marts (mards) = Indg. myto-ns* (cp. § 202).

Initials. e, o or a was prefixed to an initial liquid, as erek 'evening' = Skr. rījas. See §§ 263. 625.

Greek.

§ 652. Prim. Greek finals.

1. Short vowels often suffered elision before vowels. The elision, e. g., in ἀν'αῖρον, οἱ δ'ἄλλων etc. may be regarded as prim. Greek. See § 603 p. 457.

2. The contrast between πορι and πορι* (πορός), ἐνι and ἐνι* (ἐν) was inherited from the pre-Greek period. See § 645 final 2.

If a word ended in an i-diphthong and the following word began with a sonant, i was dropped as elsewhere (§ 130), e. g. κα(ι) ἐνι, κα(ι) ἀγαθός = Att. καὶνι, καὶἀγαθός.

3. -m became -n, as τό-ν = Skr. tā-m. See § 204 p. 171 f. This occurred in absolute finality and also before dentals. Cp. § 653 rem. 2.

4. -r became -ar in absolute finality, as οὐθαρ 'udder' from ουδhr*. See § 285.

5. All explosives were dropped. 3. sg. ἐρερε : Skr. ābharat. 3. pl. ἔγρον from έγρω-ντ* (cp. § 611) : cp. Lat. era-nt. Dor. ἔς 'erat' : Skr. Ved. ds, Indg. es-t*. τό : Skr. tā-d. τί : Lat. qui-d. Voc. γύραι from γέραια*, cp. acc. γυραια-α. 3. sg. ῆ 'spoke' from ῆκ-τ* (to Skr. perf. dh-a), with which goes the new formation 1. sg. ῆν.

The exceptions as Hom. ἄρτι from σφόδ τι*, ἄππας from σφόδ πας*, ἐκ, where the consonant remained on account of the close connexion, show that this change belonged entirely or especially to the absolute finality.

6. -s and -z (e. g. τις δὲ* 'but who') had come over from the pre-Greek period. See § 645. final 3.

-ss became -s before consonants and when absolutely final. μῦς 'mouse' μῆς 'month' from mūs-s* mēns-s*. Dor. πός 'foot' Att. πότης 'youth' from pōss* nepo-lāss*, older pōts* tāts* (§ 490).

§ 653. Finals in the separate dialects.

1. The prim. Gr. elision (§ 652, 1) was extended further.

With this went contraction (crasis), as Att. ταλλα from τα ἄλλα, to which was joined aphæresis, a phenomenon differing from the former rather in the written representation than in reality, as Att. ἐμοῦ 'πάκουσον.

The tendency to remove hiatus, was intentional in the literary language and in some works it is avoided altogether.

Rem. 1. The so-called υ ὑποκατακρίσις has not arisen from an attempt to get rid of hiatus. Its use in antiquity was not at all regulated according to the theory of later grammarians. The consonant rather had an original etymological value in some forms and then became further extended by analogy. See the author's Gr. Gr. § 64 rem. and the literature quoted there and G. Meyer Gr. Gr. 2 297 ff.

The contractions in cases like Att. κάπι Dor. κήπι from καὶ ἐπι belonged to the period of the separate dialects (§ 652, 2).

2. The loss of the -λ in -ηλ -ωλ -αι (-η -ω -α) as in Att. τιθη̃ τιμη̃ ἵππων χόρω was effected in the same manner as medially. See § 132.

3. -ν (= Indg. -n and -m) was assimilated to following guttural and labial sounds, e. g. Att. γῆγ καὶ, τῆμ πόλιν, μισθοῦνταιμι μέν. The omission of the nasal in writing in Cypr., e. g. να-ο-λο-τε = ναὸ(ν) τό(ν)δε, permits our assuming that here, as medially, a nasal vowel only was spoken. Cp. § 205.

Rem. 2. χθόν and χθών, already discussed in § 204 p. 172, show that Indg. final -m was not retained in τόν, τῆμ (cp. Skr. tā-m, tām) before labials. If Indg. -m had been preserved before labials to any extent in prim. Greek, χθονίς χθώνος would not then have taken the place of χθον-ος χθον-ος. -ν = Indg. -m had been once generalised in prim. Greek.

4. -ρ became assimilated to δ in Cret. (Gortyn), as ἀνῆδ δῆ = ἀνῆρ δῆ.

5. The tendency, inherited from the pre-Greek period, to level explosives with different form of articulation (tenuis and media) operated further. ἐγ Βυζαντίον Att., ἐγ Βαυζαντίον Corinth. ἐγβαλλῶ Paros, ἐγ Μικῆς Att., ἐγ δακτύλων Att. (ἐγ = ἔξ, cp. ἐκ ποδῶν Att.), ἐγδακάω Chios, καδ δέ Hom., κάββαλον Hom.

Assimilation of the position of articulation: Hom. καπ πεδίον from κατ π., κάππεσον from κάτ-πεσον* Thess. ἀτ τᾶς from ἀπ τᾶς, Hom. κάββαλον from κάβ-βαλον*, Cret. ἐδδίηται from ἐγδίηται*.

6. -s and -z (§ 552, 6) became assimilated in Cret. (Gortyn) to θ, δ-, λ-, as τὰθ θυγατέρας (cp. πρόθθα from πρόσθα, § 566), εἶέδ δέ, πατρόδ δόντος (cp. the verbal ending -άδδω from -αζδω*? § 493 rem.), τοῖλ λείονσι.

-z passed into -ϑ in El., e. g. τίϑ = τίς, τᾶϑ = τᾶς, πεπολ-τενκόϑ = πεπολιτενκούς. -s beside this existed in the older periods. But the old regular spheres of use of -ϑ and -ς were even then no longer kept apart (e. g. γᾶϑ τᾶϑ . . . instead of γᾶς τᾶς . . .) and the forms in -ς were gradually driven out by those in -ϑ.

-ϑ from -z also in the dialects of Laconia and Thera.

Cp. Thess. Θεορδέτειος beside Ion. etc. Θεόσδοτος i. e. Θεόζδοτος and Διόζοτος, § 593.

§ 654. Initials in prim. Greek and later.

1. It was remarked in § 626 that doublets like μόργγνυμι and μόργνυμι (Skr. marj-) arose from differences of sandhi.

2. τ-, ξ-, ζ always appear as ἀτ-, ὀτ-, ὀλ- (before consonants), as ἄρκτο-ς 'bear', ὀρθό-ς 'upright'. This is undoubtedly the form for absolute initials. On the other hand the particle ἐὰ = Lith. ir Indg. i* arose after consonants. Cp. §§ 292. 306.

3. On differences like στεγος and τέγος 'roof' from rt. steg-, σμερδαλίω-ς 'terrible' (OHG. smertzo) and μειδῆσαι 'to smile' (Skr. smáyati), which mostly seem to go back to the pre-Greek period, see §§ 563, 6. 589, 3.

4. Where double consonants had arisen by assimilation, they were simplified when absolutely initial, and probably also after consonants. φαῖ = σνάβατι, beside ἐρρεῖ (§ 565). νίφα beside ἀγά-ννηφο-ς from rt. sneigh- (§ 545). μειδῆσαι beside φιλο-μειδής (see 3). σεῦε beside ἔ-σσευς: Skr. σμεν- (§ 489). The geminated consonants still appear in: Hom. τε ρρηξέν Μ. 198, as ἐρρεξα; ὄρε σσεύαίτο P 463, as ε-σσευι ἔ-σσυτο; Ionic. ὀποῖά σσα, Att.

ὁποῖά ττα, πηνίκα ττα from *qia, cp. Megar. oá 'quae?' (§ 489). Cp. also Thess. inscript. οἱ τρολλιαχοι from οἱ πτ. (as ἰεχ-πτολιαρχέντος, Αεττίναμος, see § 383).

Rem. In ὁποῖά ττα, σμικρά ττα etc. was developed the feeling for a causal dependence of the ττα on preceding -α, so that these combinations were felt as ὁποῖ' ἄττα, σμικρ' ἄττα. The result was that ἄττα came to be used independently also. Thus in Plato τέτταρα ἐν αὐτοῖς ἄττα. In like manner arose the postposition οὐνεκα = ἔνεκα 'on account of' in combinations like ἰακύνθονεκα, where ἔνεκα had been fused by crasis with final -ον. See Wackernagel in Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII 109 ff.

5. γράπεζα 'four legged' table' in absolute initiality from *πτεμπεζα, Indg. *qtmz-. See § 490.

Italic.

§ 655. Finals. Owing to the scantiness of the Umbrian-Samnitic materials, handed down to us, it remains doubtful at what period certain processes of sandhi took place in Latin.

1. Prim. Ital. -i became in Lat. partly -e, and was partly dropped. The former: mare, animale, sedile, ante, loc. rūrē see § 33. The latter: aut: Osc. anti ant Umbr. ute ote 'aut'. tot: cp. toti-dem. et: Gr. ἔτι 'still', again'. per- (per-idōneu-s, per-magnu-s): Gr. νήπι. animal, exemplar, etc. It is I believe no mere accident that the latter form of the final occurs especially in such words as seldom or never ended the sentence.

Prim. Ital. -e was in Latin partly retained and partly dropped. The former: equē, legite, quinquē, neque, neve. The latter: neq, neu, quā-n, sati-n, dīc dūc beside older dīce dūce. Umbr. pum-pe 'quomque' and nei-p ne-p 'neque, neve, non'. voc. Tefre. Osc. nei-p ne-p 'neque, neve'.

Prim. Italic. -o and -a became -e in Latin. sequere: Gr. ἔνσo (§ 81). pede instr.: Gr. πῑδά (§ 97 l. 91). Loss of -o: Lat. ap-eriō (§ 499) and so ab eō etc., Pelign. af-dēd 'abdidi': Gr. ἄπο; -o was retained in Lat. po-situs, where the already prim. Indg. loss of the initial a- preserved the ϰ from disappearing.

Prim. Italic -i, -e, -o, -a had thus fallen together in -e in Latin. This was connected with the position in unaccented syllables. Loss of the vowel occurred regularly before vowels, partly perhaps also by syncope (before consonants), see §§ 633. 679.

Rem. 1. It is doubtful whether the elision of vowels, which became the rule in Lat. verse (e. g. Lucrēt. I 234 āque ante dāto, four syllables), is directly connected historically with the loss before vowels. In any case however the custom of the poets, which extended itself to long final vowels also (e. g. spatio āque in the same verse, four syllables), was founded on a stopping of hiatus in the ordinary language of the people.

2. The Romans began to shorten -ō -ā already in the pre-literary period. First of all in iambic words. The rest followed gradually, for the most part probably by form-transference. duo : Gr. δύο. ego : Gr. ἐγώ. modo instr. sg. : cp. Lith. gerù, gerù-ju. fero : φέρω. homo : cp. Skr. āśma. equa : Skr. āśva. juga : Skr. Ved. yugā. In the poets the forms with long vowel still occur beside those with the shortened, and it is pretty easy to follow in them the course of development, which the shortening took; e. g. ambō beside ambō came into existence later than duō. Cp. Stadelmann De quantitate vocalium Latinas voces terminantium, Lucerne 1884¹⁾. Especially instructive are the numerals as trīgintā septuāgintā, old nom. acc. pl. neut. -ā remained here, because these words were early isolated from the connexion in thought with juga bona etc. (cp. trīgintā viri). They prove that the shortening of neuters with non-iambic ending, armenta etc., was due to the analogy of juga etc.

Contemporaneous shortening of -ē in locatives from i-stems as peregre, if it is true that these with Skr. loc. as agnā go back to Indg. -ē. See p. 489 and the accidentence.

-ā -ē, which arose by contraction, also underwent shortening in iambic word-forms. In the dramatic poets imper. roga puta mone habe etc., originally -ā-īe *-ē-īe -ē-īe. But no generalisation took place here (not imper. plantā etc.). In the classical period it was again (with few exceptions) rogā etc.; the long

1) With reference to this treatise and other expositions of the vowel shortening in question, it does not seem superfluous to point out that equā cannot be the old vocative form (cp. Gr. νύμφη) nor duō identical with Gr. δύο. By 1. we should expect eque* and due*, like pede and sequere.

vowels were thus restored again after the analogy of non-iambic forms like planta.

The relations of quantity cannot for the most part be controlled in Umbrian-Samnitic. We saw in § 105 that -a in the nom. sg. fem. and nom. acc. pl. neut. had become an o-vowel in Umbr. and Oscan. Since this cannot be separated from the o in Umbr. pihos 'piatus', and this o was certainly long, it must be assumed that the final vowel was still long -a at the time the weakening took place.

3. From -āi, -ai Lat. -ō, -a, e. g. dat. equō, Mātūta. See § 286.

Lat. loc. āsū, Umbr. manuv-o 'in manu' contained Indg. -ōy, if they were locatives like Skr. sāntū. See § 85.

4. Long vowels were shortened in Latin before -t, -m, -r, -l. This change belongs to the archaic period, in which poets still often have long vowels. siet siem beside siēs. amet amen beside amēs amēris. pater : Gr. πατήρ. erat eram beside erās. loquar beside loquātur. equam : Skr. áśvām. exemplar animal beside exemplāre animale (cp. 1.). clāmor beside clānōris. vīderim vīderit, sim sit beside vīderīmus, simus. The long vowels remained in monosyllabic words in -r, -l : far sōl.

Osc. paam acc. sg. 'quam'.

5. In Umbr.-Samn. short vowels were syncopated in final syllables ending in a consonant, as Umbr. pihaz 'piatus', Osc. hūrz hortus. See § 633. The contrast between Umbr. *Ikuvin*s 'Iguvinus' Osc. *Pūmpaiian*s 'Pompeianus' on the one hand and Umbr. abrof 'apros' Osc. feihūss 'fines', whose endings arose from -ons* (9.), on the other, proves that the former syncope was late; the -ns in the nom. sg. must have been restored again through the influence of form-system.

On the samprasāraṇa in Lat. Umbr. ager from prim. Ital. agys* see § 9 p. 506.

6. Final -m and -n may have been assimilated even in prim. Ital. to succeeding consonants produced by different organs e. g. k^{son} k^{se}* from k^{son}om k^{se}* (Lat. quonque, Umbr. pumpe). See § 207. On -m in Lat. see § 208 p. 176. -n was assimilated in the same language, as inscript. im bello etc. shows. On -m and -n in Umbr.-Samn. see § 209.

On Umbr. -r see § 270.

7. -t, so far as it was not dropped, appears in Italic as -t and -d. Lat. siet sient, erat erant; on archaic inscriptions feced fecid etc. Osc. fusid 'esset' (cf. Lat. conj. perf. fuerit), pútiad 'possit'. I am not satisfied with any of the various explanations of this duality (Bugge Kuhn's Ztschr. XXII 385 f., Osthoff Rhein. Mus. XXXVI 487 f., Stadelmann De quantitate etc. p. 64 sq., Danielsson in Pauli's Altit. Stud. III 148).

-t disappeared in Latin after c, s, r. lac fr. lact*; the form lact in Varro was formed anew after the analogy of the other cases. os fr. ost*, cp. Av. gen. sg. ast-ō 'of a bone'. sem-per tantis-per etc. : Osc. petiro-pert 'quater', Gr. Pamphyl. περ-ιδωκε; was the cpf. perti*?

8. -d remained in Lat. after short vowels: id, quid, quod, illud, ad. It disappeared after long vowels in the archaic period, from which many forms with -d are handed down to us: abl. equō(d) equā(d) mē(d) tē(d), imper. estō(d) Umbr. asam-a asam-aŕ 'ad aram' (ŕ from d, § 369 p. 280). It was dropped everywhere after long vowels: abl. pihacū 'piaculo', imper. sumtu 'sumito'.

Osc. pīd Pelign. pīd 'quid', Osc. pūd pod 'quod', abl. dolud 'dolo' totat 'civitate' akriđ 'acri', imper. estud 'esto' actud 'agito'.

-d disappeared in Lat. or in prim. Italic after r: Lat. cor fr. cord*, cp. cord-is.

9. -s after explosives remained in absolute finality in all dialects. Lat. ex, vōx, au-spex, pēs novitās from pēs novitās, agēs from agents*, con-cors from -cortis*, puls from pults*, nox from noctis*, abs i. e. aps. Umbr. fratreks fratrexs 'fratricus', pihaz 'piatus'. Osc. meddiss meddis 'meddix' from -diks*, hūrz 'hortus', a 'ad' i. e. ad+s.

-nts in Umbr. forms an exception: zeŕef 'sedens', like abref 'apros' (see below).

For conditional finality cp. Lat. ē Umbr. eh (i. e. ē) from eks, § 570.

-s after vowels. Lat. equo-s, genus. Umbr. puntes 'pontes'. Osc. scriptas pl. femin. 'scriptae', Lúvkanatois gen. 'Lucanatis'.

-s is often wanting on Lat. archaic inscriptions, e. g. Cornelio = Cornelius, locu = locus, mino = minus. The archaic poets (as also Cicero in his juvenile poems) allowed the sound sometimes to make strong position, sometimes not, e. g. in dactylic hexameters indgini(s) fórmam, flúctibu(s) mándet. The writers of the classical period restored -s in all cases. It is frequently left out again on the inscriptions of the later imperial period. The conclusion drawn from these facts, that -s after vowels had throughout a weak articulation already several centuries B. C. which was retained in the vulgar language, while the full articulation was restored in the classical period in the language of cultured persons is unsatisfactory from the very fact that the sound has remained in some Romance developments down to modern times. It ought rather to be assumed that just as s (like z) disappeared medially before nasals, l and d (§§ 570, 594), it was also dropped before these consonants at the end of words; they said e. g. nom. manu laeva gen. manū laevae (like corpulentu-s from corpozlento-s*) beside manus parva etc.; the different forms were then used promiscuously, especially by the poets, to whom these sentence-doublets, in the case of final syllables with short vowel, afforded considerable ease; grammatical reflexion, regard for clearness of word-form, and regard to Greek (equos: ἵππος, genus: γένος etc.) procured complete supremacy for the forms in -s in the literary language of the classical period.

Just as s had become z medially between vowels (§ 569), -z may also have arisen regularly finally before vowels. The -r, which is to be expected as its continuation, exists only in dir-imo and similar words.

In Umbr. nom. pl. Ikuvinus Ikuvin and Iiovinur 'Iguvini', Indg. -ōs; the last form presupposes -z. What the sandhi processes were which gave rise to these differences remains undetermined; it must be taken into account that s beside the voiceless sound perhaps represented the voiced sound also.

Rem. 2. The question of postvocalic -s in the Italic languages requires a thorough investigation, in which the next following initial sound in the texts handed down to us must carefully be taken into account. Our exposition given above is especially intended to suggest such an investigation.

-s after liquids had disappeared throughout the Italic branch. Cp. the nom. sg. Lat. par, fār, sōl, ager (st. agro-), acer (st. acri-), famul (st. famulo-), Umbr. ager 'ager' (gen. agre), katel 'catulus' (acc. katlu), Osc. Fruntor 'Frunter', famel, Mutil 'Mutilus'. We may assume that the changes agres* agrs* agers ager* and akris* akrs* akers aker* were effected in the period of the prim. Ital. community. Cp. Lat. sacerdōs from sācro-dōts* and sēcernō from sēcrinō*. See § 33. 623 rem. 1. 633.

-s after nasals. Lat. aprōs Umbr. abrof fr. prim. Ital. apro-ns* (cp. Goth. ulfu-ns 'wolves'), Osc. feihūs 'fines'. See §§ 208. 209.

§ 656. Initials.

1. In the vowel elision mentioned in § 655, 1, the e- was lost in est, which was attached enclitically: itast, sitast = ita est, sita est. These forms being felt as ita'st, sita'st, there were formed after them also autemst, situst, situnust, etc.

2. ā-, ū- appear in Latin as an-, ur-, as antae, arduos. See §§ 253. 306. They were the forms of absolute initiality.

3. f = Indg. bh dh gh maintained itself in Lat. only initially, as ferō fāmu-s formu-s. See § 509. It was the form of absolute initiality.

4. Lat. stis stis lts etc., see §§ 503. 570.

§ 657. Finals.

1. Final short vowels were dropped in polysyllabic words,

1) With my insufficient knowledge of the sound-laws of the Britann. dialects I am not in a position everywhere to keep apart properly what except when i preceded. This loss was not effected until after the vowels had imparted their timbre (palatal, labial) to the preceding consonants (§ 640), and thus the quality of the dropped vowels is mostly still recognisable.

Voc. a maicc 'son' from makye*: cp. Gr. ἄδελφε. Imper. sg. beir 'bear' from bere*: Gr. πέρε. Imper. berid 'bear ye' from berete*: Gr. πέρετε. ad-cón-dairc 'conspect' from *(de)-dorce: Gr. δίδορκε. berid 'he bears' from bereti*: O.Bulg. bereti. is 'is' from esti*: Gr. ἐστι. berit 'they bear' from beronti* (cp. § 212): Gr. Dor. πέροντι. Dat. (loc.) athir 'patri' from *(p)-ater-i or *(p)-atr-i (cp. briathar from brētrā*, § 623 rem. 1): Gr. πατέρω πατρ. Cp. also imb- 'around, about': Gall. ambi- Gr. ἀμφί.

Pres. secund. 3. sg. no-bered no-berad 'ferobat, ferot' from bereto*: Gr. πέπετο Skr. bhārata. Also the 3. pl. pres. do-berat, which cannot be explained from beronti*, may be middle: Gr. πέποντο; for another explanation see § 82 p. 76. Loss of Indg. -a in the voc. a thuath 'folk'? cp. Gr. ἑμυῶν. suth n. 'fetus' fr. sutu*: Gr. cp. μέθυ.

2. Similarly long vowels disappeared, except when i preceded.

* Nom. acc. du. sūil 'eyes' from sūti*: cp. Skr. pāti 'masters'.
Nom. sg. fem. Brigit from brigenti*: Skr. bṛhatt femina. 'high'.

as-biur 'I bring forward, say' from berō*: Gr. πέρω. Dat. (instr.) sg. fiur (to nom. fer 'man') from uirō*: Lith. gerū gerū-ju. Nom. tuath 'folk' from tōtā*, teytā*: Goth. þiuda. Nom. acc. pl. neut. trī chē 'three hundreds' from centā*: Skr. Ved. trī śatā.

Nom. sg. fem. brētrā* 'word' became brēt̪*, then briathar. Gen. cēti*, dat. cētlō* (stem cētlō- 'song' from can-tlo-*, pl. nom. cēlla dat. cēllaib) became cētil, cētul through an intermediate stage with l, which in the former case had an i- and in the latter an u-timbre. See §§ 623 rem. 1. 634.

is to be ascribed to the special Gaelic and what to the prim. Keltic period of development.

3. After i (ii) short vowels united with this and formed sonantal vowels (cp. pp. 124. 125) and long vowels were shortened.

Voc. a chéili (st. céiliō- 'companion') beside a maice.

no ráidiu 'I speak' beside as-biur. Dat. instr. ailiu, céliu beside fiur. air-mitiu 'honour': Lat. mentio.

Rem. -iu further became -i. Hence e. g. dat. duini beside duiniu 'homini'. This phenomenon is parallel with the transition of gníu to gníma (§ 640 rem.).

4. i-diphthongs became monophthongic and were then treated like long vowels. Nom. pl. eich 'equi' from ekyā* ekyoj*, see § 82. Nom. acc. du. fem. tuaith from tōtā* teytaj*, see § 98, cp. dī 'two' = Skr. dvē. Dat. sg. tuaith from tōtā* and older probably teytaj*: Gr. -α').

5. If a consonant followed a short final vowel in polysyllabic words, the vowel disappeared, where it was not preceded by i and had not become long by 'compensation lengthening'.

fer 'man' from yiro-s*. Nom. acc. neutr. tech 'house' fr. tegos*: Gr. στῆνος. Gen. bethad 'of life' from biyo-tāt-os*: cp. Gr. νόδ-ός. athir 'fathers' from (p)ater-es*: Gr. πατέρ-ες. faith 'poet' from yāti-s*: cp. Lat. hosti-s. fid 'tree' from yidu-s*: OHG. uitu.

fer n-(aile) 'virum' (alium) from yiron*: Lat. viru-m. sūil n-(aile) 'oculum (alium)' from sūlin*: cp. Lat. siti-m. fd n-(aile) 'arborem (aliam)' from yidu-n*: cp. Lat. fructu-m. deich m-(baí) 'ten (cows)' from decen*, Indg. dekṃ*. ainm n-(abstíl) 'nomen (apostoli)' from an-men*, Indg. -mṃ*.

no beir 'fert' from beret*: Gr. πέρε Skr. bhárat.

In eter etir 'between' = Lat. inter -ter* had in the first instance become -ty*. Cp. criathar under 2.

A short vowel combined with preceding i (ii) and formed a sonantal vowel (cp. 3.). Nom. aile cēle acc. aile n- cēle n- beside nom. fer acc. fer n-.

1) If this explanation of the dat. sg. tuaith be right, the dat. fiur céliu, which we brought under 2. and 3. as instr. in original -ō, cannot at the same time be, as has been believed, the Indg. dat. form in -ōj (Gr. -α). For it is not probable that -ōj should have become -ō, while -āj became -āj -i.

6. If a consonant (except -m, see 7.) still followed an original long final vowel, the vowel was shortened. So, too, were long vowels which had arisen by 'compensation lengthening'.

athir 'father': Gr. patēr. siur 'sister' from sui(s)ur*: Lat. soror, older sorōr.

Nom. tuatha 'peoples' from tōtas* teytās*: Goth. þindōs, Osc. scriftas; cp. mnā 'women' = Skt. Ved. gnās. Voc. a firu 'viri' from uirōs*: Goth. vairōs, Osc. Nūvlanús. Compar. laigiu 'smaller' from lag-iōs*, see § 139.

Conj. -air-enā 'suscipiat' from emat*: Lat. emat. Indic. no chara 'he loves' from carāt*, originally -a-je-t*; conj. ro-chara from carāt*, orig. -a-jā-t*.

Long vowels by compensation lengthening. Acc. pl. firu 'men' fathi 'poets' cruthu 'forms, shapes' from -ūs* -īs* -ās*, orig. -o-us* -i-us* -u-us*. Non. cara cara 'friend' (gen. carat dat. carit) from carent-s*. fiche 'twenty' (gen. fichet dat. fichit) from uicent-s*, orig. stem-form uikyt-* or uikyt-*. tricha 'thirty' (gen. trichat dat. trichait trichit) from tricont-s*. Cp. § 212.

7. Long vowels seem to have been early shortened before nasals (cp. Latin § 655, 4) and then to have been treated by 5. Conj. do-ber 'afferam, dem' from berām*: Lat. feram O.Bulg. berā, cpl. bherā-m*. Gen. ech n-(aile) 'equestrum (aliorum)' from ekyōn* (Gr. ἵππων) or from ekyon* (cp. O.Bulg. vlākū)? cp. the accident. —

All the vowel shortenings and loss of vowels discussed in 1.—7., were caused by the development of the strongly expiratory accent at the beginning of words. Cp. 634. 684. 685.

8. -m became -n in prim. Keltic. This was often retained at the beginning of the following word, before vowel or media. Examples under 5. and 7. and in § 211.

9. -t was dropped. no beir from beret*. for-tē s-fut. 'he will help' (1. pl. for-tiasam) from -stekst* i. e. steigh+s+t*. Did the dental in original -nt remain? See § 76.

10. -s was dropped everywhere.

• Vowel + s. fer 'man' from uīro-s* (5.). tuatha 'peoples' from tōtas*, mnā 'women' from bnās* (6.).

-ns. fíru 'viros' from uiron-s* (6.). mí 'month' (gen. míts) from mēns* : Gr. μῆς.

-ts -nts. beothu 'life' (gen. bethud) from -tat-s*, cara cara 'friend' from carents* (6.).

-ks. rī 'king' (gen. rīg) from rīss* rīks* : Gall. -rīx, Lat. rīx. ail 'rock, stone' (gen. ailech dat. ailig) from aileks*.

1. Just as t and c became p (written th) and χ (ch) in the body of a word after vowels (§ 514), spirants also arose initially after words ending in a vowel. This affection took place, before the final consonants had been dropped (§ 657). For no spirants show themselves where a final consonant did not originally stand. Thus we arrive at the following important conclusion for the investigation of the history of sounds: word-forms, after which spirants generally make their appearance, originally ended in vowels, and those, after which the tenues remained, originally ended in consonants. To these were added various innovations by transference of forms, and the law can still be observed with any consistency in our monuments only in groups of words which are syntactically closely connected. a thuath 'O folk', a chara 'O friend' : Gr. ὦ Lat. ō. dā charit 'two friends', dī thuath 'two peoples' : Skr. dadā, deś. ro charus s-pret. 'amavi', ro = Gr. ἤμην. Cp. the list of the forms, behind which spirants appear for the tenues, in Windisch's Ir. Gram. § 92. Compare also the initial sound after the members of compounds: oen-chossid 'one legged' from oino-* c., so-thenga 'eloquent' from su-t*.

t became d in pre-accentual syllables, when absolutely initial, e. g. do-gáir 'he calls', but tó-gairm 'a call'; do-máthir 'thy mother', but co-t-máthir 'with thy mother' t-és-ērgē 'thy resurrection', cp. Skr. táva Gr. τέος. So also Mid. Cymr. dy wlat 'thy land' (gŵlat), but yth wlat 'in thy land'.

In the same positions where the tenues became spirants, s-passed into ś- (h-) and f- was dropped- (the muteness of the f is represented by f). no sessam 'or standing' : cp. Lat. sistō. a fír 'O man'. Compare the transition of medial s to h, see § 576, and the loss of medial u, see § 174.

We saw in § 522 that b, d, g had become b̃, d̃, g̃ after vowels, while the letters b, d, g were retained in Old Irish writings. That this change was also effected in conditional initiality, that e. g. a dē 'O god' was pronounced a d̃ē, may be concluded from the modern orthography which also puts bh, dh, gh initially.

A similar relation existed between siur and fiur 'sister' from syē(s)ūr* as between s- and s̃-. The form with f- stands regularly after words ending in a vowel. Cp. § 175.

2. We saw in §§ 212, 513 that -nt- and -nc- became -nd- and -ny- and the nasal disappeared, e. g. cēt pronounced cēd (Mod.Ir. ceud) 'hundred' = Cymr. cant Lat. centum; ēc pronounced ēg (Mod.Ir. eny) 'death' = Bret. ancon. Further by § 520, that -mb- and -nd- became -mm- and -nn- in O.Irish, e. g. camu 'crooked' = Gall. cambo-. Both previous stages occur also in the junction of connected words.

From gen. pl. inna n-cert* 'of the rights', inna n-tuath* 'of the peoples' (cp. inna n-armann 'of the names' etc. §§ 211, 657, 5. 7. 8) arose inna gert, inna tuath, generally written inna cert, inna tuath (like ēc, cēt instead of ēg, cēd); it was only in few cases in the O.Ir. period that account was taken of the change which had taken place, by the writing of the media. In Mod.Ir. orthography they write ge-, dt-, e. g. na gceart = O.Ir. (in)na cert. This phenomenon is called eclipsis destitutus in Keltic grammar.

Gen. pl. inna m-bō 'of the cows' became inna mmō, inna mō, inna n-dath 'of the colours' became inna nnath, inna nath. The old spelling was however retained, and the spelling -mb- and -nd- also existed medially in the O.Ir. period beside the phonetic spelling. Cp. also athconuare beside athcondare 'I looked' (to Gr. ἰδούμαι). This phenomenon is called eclipsis nasalis in Keltic grammar.

Gen. pl. inna sūle 'of the eyes' from inna n-sūle*, just as medial n disappeared before s, e. g. in gēis 'swan', see § 212.

3. s- disappeared before t, e. g. tiugaim 'I stride, go': Gr. στειχά. See § 575.

Germanic.

§ 659. Finals in Prim. Germanic.

1. Final long and short vowels underwent no reduction at this period.

feḥu* n. 'cattle' Goth. faíhu: Skr. páśu. berizi* 'thou bearest' beridi* 'he bears' Goth. bairis bairip: Skr. bhárasi bháratí. uḥsin-i* loc. sg. of the st. uḥsen-* 'ox' Goth. auhsin: cp. Skr. ukṣáṃ-i. uaiti*, older uaitē* 'he knows' Goth. vait: Gr. oidē. uulfi*, older uulfe* voc. 'wolf' Goth. vulf: Gr. λύκx. aða* 'of, from' Goth. af (ab-u): Gr. ἀπο.

Rem. Some assume that all short vowels except -u were already dropped in prim. Germ. in unaccented syllables. But then berizi beridi* must necessarily appear in Goth. as bairis bairip* and the 2. sg. imper. uairiji* = Skr. variṇya Indg. uortēle* as vardi* (whereas it is fra-vardei 'destroy').

frijōndi* fem. 'friend' Goth. frijōndi: cp. Skr. part. fem. tundatī 'tundens'. zumō* 'homo' Goth. guma: Lat. homō. Nom. acc. pl. neut. iukō* 'yokes', Goth. jukā beside hō: cp. Lat. oppidā oppida, Skr. Ved. yugā. Nom. sg. fem. ainō* 'una' Goth. aina beside ainō-hum sō: Gr. οἰνή 'the acc on dice'.

2. In like manner -*a*_i = Indg. -oi and -ai suffered no change. Nom. pl. blindai* 'blind' Goth. blindai OIHG. blinte: cp. Gr. καλολ. Loc. sg. uulfai* (uulfa-* 'wolf'), OHG. wolfe O.Icel. ulfe ulfi: cp. Gr. οἶκος 'at home'.

3. -*ō*_i, -*ō*_u became -ai, -au. Dat. sg. fem. gebōi* 'to the gift' became gebai* Goth. gibai: cp. Gr. χώρα (cp. also dat. sg. Goth. pizdi and Skr. tīsyai). OIHG. wolfe (2) was also probably a dat. form, which arose from uulfōi*: Gr. λύκω. axtōu* 'eight' became axtau* Goth. ahtau OIHG. ahto. Loc. sg. sunōu* (sunu- 'son') became sunau* Goth. sunau. It is more uncertain whether Goth. anstai (st. ansti- f. 'favour') came from anstōi* (§ 645 finals 1.)

These shortenings were carried out in absolute finality and before initial consonants. Cp. flaizē* (O.Icel. fleire) fr. flōizē* § 614.

4. Vowels remained unshortened before nasals, liquids, explosives and spirants, e. g. nom. sg. uulfaz* nom. pl. uulfōz* : Skr. vfkas vfkas.

5. -m became -n and thus fell together with Indg. -n. Acc. sg. uulfa-n* sunu-n* Goth. uulf sunu, cp. Goth. þan-a 'the' : Skr. vfka-m sanu-m tā-m. Gen. pl. gebōn* Goth. gibō : cp. Av. vanam 'of trees'. Indg. -n e. g. in nom. sg. raþjōn* 'account' Goth. raþjō : cp. Gr. μῆλον 'poppy'. Later -n dropped out after short vowels, whereas it was only reduced in some way or other after long vowels. uulfa-n* sunu-n* became uulfa* sunu*, but gebōn* raþjōn* became gebō* raþjō*. Cp. § 214 p. 182.

-rm (through the intermediate stage -rn) probably became -r in prim. Germ. For Goth. acc. brōþar 'fratrem' probably arose from bhrdrtorm*. See § 645, finals 2.

6. Explosives dropped out. It cannot be determined whether they had previously undergone all the stages of sound-shifting (§ 527 ff). If we assume that they disappeared after undergoing complete sound-shifting, the prim. Germ. changes are to be exhibited as follow: — 3. sg. opt. pres. béraj(d)* 'he may bear' Goth. batrái : Skr. bhāret Indg. bhérojt*. 3. sg. opt. pf. bérā(p)* Goth. bēri : cp. Lat. velit; the ending -t was a new formation for Indg. -jē-t, see the accidence. 3. sg. tjē(d)* 'went', Goth. iddja : Skr. ā-yāt. 3. pl. opt. pres. bérajn(d)*, probably a Germ. new formation, Goth. batráin-a (the particle -ō may have been first added after the dropping of the dental) : cp. Gr. qéqouv subsidiary form of qéqouv. 3. pl. opt. pf. bérān(p)*, certainly a Germ. new formation (see the accidence), Goth. bērein-a. 3. pl. indic. pf. bérān(p)*, Goth. bērun; -un(p) = Indg. -yt, § 226. tézun(d)* 'ten', Goth. taihun : cp. Lith. st. dėsimt; the same ending in Goth. nium 'nine', but this is probably a Germ. new formation after the word for ten, since judging from the other Indg. languages we should rather expect nin* (= neyn*) in Goth. (§ 179).

Goth. þamma 'to the' may have been abl. tive, prim. f. tosmēd* (cp. hvammē-h), in which case OHG. denn would be fr. tesmōd* : Skr. tāsmāt; but the prim. Germ. ending -ē -ō might equally have been an instrumental ending, Indg. -ē -ō (Goth. instr. þē). The same doubt exists in the case of Goth. vulfa, which can be traced back to Indg. ulqēd -ōd* abl. and to ulqē -ō* instr. and possibly was a continuation of both Indg. cases at the same time. Cp. the accidents.

7. Indg. -s and -z may for the most part have been levelled to -s, when Verner's law began to operate. By this law, the double endings like -ōz and -ōs in the nom. pl. of Indg. o- and *a-*stems then arose. See § 583. Was -z in the nom. sg. already at that period generalised?

-ts became -ss -s, -ks became -xs according to § 527. One said e. g. fōss* fōs* 'foot' (Gr. Dor. πῶς, Indg. pōts*, stem ped-, cp. 311 p. 249) and meluxs* 'milk' fr. melxs* (§ 628); Goth. fōtus and miluks were new formations.

§ 660. Finals in Gothic.

1. With the exception of u all other prim. Indg. final short vowels, or short vowels which became final in prim. Germ. were dropped and also in the final syllables of polysyllabic words when followed by a single consonant other than i, u (§ 659, 1. 4. 5. 7).

2. sg. balris fr. birizi*. 3. sg. vāt fr. uaiti*. Voc. vulf fr. ulfi*. 2. sg. imper. fra-vardei fr. wardij(i)*. af fr. aba*. But faihu: § 659, 1.

Acc. vulf fr. ulfa*. Acc. gast 'gucst' fr. gasti*. But sunu. § 659, 5.

For the different treatment of the u in triu 'stick, prop' fr. triy(a-n)* and lēv 'opportunity', fr. lēu(a-n)* cp. § 179 p. 156.

Nom. sg. vulfs fr. ulfa-z*. Nom. sg. gasts fr. gasti-z*. Nom. pl. gumans 'homines' fr. guman-iz*: cp. Gr. ῥήτορες. Nom. pl. sunjus fr. sunij-(i)z* (cp. § 179 p. 156). Nom. pl. gasteis fr. gastij(i)z*. Adv. mins 'less' fr. minns*, further minniz*, cp. adj. minniz-a gen. minniz-ins. But with u nom. sg. sunu-s, 3. pl. bērun; with double final consonants acc. pl. vulfa-nis, gasti-us.

Rem. 1. The acc. brōþar would also form an exception, if -u was dropped already in prim. Germ. See § 659, 5.

Rem. 2. So far as the vowels in final syllables are concerned the language on Norse runic inscriptions is more archaic than Goth. Acc. sg. Neut. horna 'horn' = Goth. hörn. Nom. sg. dagaz 'day' = Goth. days. Nom. sg. gastis 'guest' = Goth. gasts. Nom. pl. dohter-is 'daughters'.

When Consonant + nas., liquid, i or u preceded the vowel, the nas., liquid, i, u became sonantal (Samprasāraṇa):

Nom. ebna-z* acc. ebna(-n)* 'even', nom. maipma-z* acc. maipma(-n)* 'present', nom. akra-z* acc. akra(-n)* 'acre', nom. fuzla-z* acc. fuzla(-n)* 'bird', respectively became ibys iby, máipms máipm, akys akz, fugls fugl, in like manner gen. faðraz* 'father's, loc. faðri (= Gr. πατρός παρ) became faðys faðz. We do not know however whether these forms remained disyllabic in Goth. or whether they had become monosyllabic by further reduction (ibns ibn etc.). Cp. §§ 215. 277. 635.

2. sg. imper. hiri 'come hither' fr. hir-ji*, older -je (2. pl. hirjip): Gr. κλαῖε fr. κλαf-je*. Acc. sg. masc. hari 'army' fr. har-ja(-n)*. Nom. acc. sg. neut. kuni 'race, sex' fr. kun-ja(-n)*. Nom. skadu-s acc. skadu 'shadow' fr. skadya-z -ja(-n)*, as is to be concluded from the derivatives ufar-skadejan 'to overshadow' and from OHG. scato gen. scatawes.

Rem. 3. Nom. like harjis 'army', aljis 'alius' present difficulties. Forms in -jo-s and -ji-s had descended from pre-Germanic times, cp. Lith. naš-ja-s 'new' and mėdis 'tree' (fr. med-ji-s* § 147 p. 131). See § 84 rem. 1. I believe that both categories first of all regularly fell together: alja-z* (Lat. aliu-s) became alje* and alji-z* (O.Lat. alis) became alje* (with the latter compare þunz-je* fr. þunz-je* § 180 p. 158). Goth. then re-introduced the i (aljis) after the gen. aljis on the analogy of the (regular) formal equality of the nom. vilpeis ('wild') and gen. vilpeis etc. Did nijis 'new' appear for nivis*?

2. Prim. Indg. long final vowels, or those which became final in prim. Germ., were shortened in the final syllables of polysyllabic words (§ 659; 1. 6).

Nom. frǫndi fr. frijōndi*. guma fr. gumō*. batra 'I bear' fr. berō*: Gr. φέρω. aina fr. ainō*. Acc. hvan-a 'whom?' fr. hvan-ō*, cp. hvan-ō-h; -ō particle. hvanma fr. hvanmō*, cp. hvanmō-h. bēri fr. bēri*.

3. Prim. Germ. -aj = Indg. -aj -aj -ej (?) oijt (§ 659, 2. 3. 6) and prim. Germ. -ay = Indg. -ay (659, 3) remained unchanged: blindai, gibai, anstai (?), batrai, ahtau.

4. The reduced nasal (§ 659, 5) disappeared after long vowels, but the long vowel remained unchanged. Nom. sg. fem. raþjō fr. raþiō*. Gen. pl. gibō fr. gebō*. Nom. acc. sg. neut. hairtō 'heart' fr. xertō*, cp. nom. acc. pl. hairtōn-a. Gen. pl. vulfē fr. uulfē*. Nom. sg. fem. managei 'multitude' fr. manazī*, cp. gen. sg. managein-s.

Rem. 4. Acc. sg. gibō was the nom. form which supplanted gibū* (cp. Skr. ākrā-m). 1. sg. tavida 'did' was the form of the 3. sg. = prim. Germ. -dēd*, which was supplanted by -dō fr. -dō-m* (Norse run. tavido), in like manner also in Norse the real old 1. sg. in -dō later gave way to the form of the 3. sg. in -dē di (Norsean Aisl. and Anorw. Grönn. § 449).

5. -b, -d, -g, -z became voiceless (for -rz see 6.). af 'of, from' fr. ab(a)*. hairiþ 'bears' from birid(i)*. Acc. sg. vig 'way', read vix, fr. uig(a-u)*. Nom. sg. vulfs fr. uulfa-z*, pl. vulfōs fr. uulfōz*. hairis 'bearest' fr. biriz(i)*. This change regularly took place partly in absolute finality, and partly before voiceless spirants (cp. nomin. sing. liufs 'dear' from liubs*). See §§ 531, 539, 583.

We conjectured in these passages that in like manner the voiced explosives became voiceless, even though the writing does not exhibit them as voiceless sounds, e. g. band 'he bound'.

6. -rz became -rr -r. Nom. vair 'man' fr. uir(a)-z* (gen. vairis), correspondingly boir 'son' stiur 'bull', kūisar 'emperor', anþar 'second', unsar 'our'. Exceptions are adjectives like hōrs 'adulterous' (Eph. V. 5) skeirs 'clear' in which the -s was restored to distinguish them from the neuter. Cp. footnote on p. 221.

Rem. 5. Compare on the other hand the adv. vairis 'worse' fr. uirsis* (adj. vairsis-a).

§ 661. Finals in West Germ. especially in OHG.

1. Final long vowels, inherited from prim. Germ., were shortened in prim. West Germ. (§ 659, 1. 6). OHG. biru 'I bear' fr. prim. Germ. berō*. OHG. instr. sg. tagu fr. prim. Germ. dagō*, st. dag-a-*. Ags. nom. sg. fem. ziefu 'gift' fr. prim. Germ. gebō* (OHG. geba is the acc. form). OS. nom. acc. pl. neut. fatu 'vats, vessels' fr. prim. Germ. fatō*. Ags. ðon-e OS. than-a 'the' (acc.) fr. prim. Germ. þan-ō*. Ags. nom. sg. fem. hæd 'field, heath', olæc hazþi* (2.), fr. prim. Germ. hazþi* (Goth. háiþi). OHG. 3. sg.

opt. pf. zigi 'he may have accused' (1. sg. indic. pres. zihu 'I accuse') fr. prim. Germ. tiȝi(p)* (Goth. tailhi).

2. After the completion of this process the West Germ. law of syncope operated (§ 635) according to which final short vowels or short vowels followed by a single consonant disappeared in the final syllable of disyllabic words (with the accent on the first syllable), when the first syllable was long; they likewise disappeared in trisyllabic and polysyllabic forms when the penult had the secondary accent. The purely regular relation was often disturbed through new formations made by levelling.

OHG. sum 'son' = Goth. sum-s, filu 'cattle' = Goth. faihu, but fluot 'tide' = Goth. flōdu-s; the forms sun, lid (Goth. liþu-s 'member') etc. were new formations after forms like fluot. OHG. chuni 'a coming' = Goth. qums prim. Germ. kumi-z*, but gast 'guest' = Goth. gasts prim. Germ. gasti-z*; stat 'place, stead' = Goth. staþs prim. Germ. staði-z* (OS. still stedi) etc. were new formations. Here are also to be compared the compounds like OHG. situ-lîh 'moral' (situ, Goth. sidu-s) witu-hopfo 'hoop' i. e. 'wood-hopper' (witu 'wood') beside lust-sam 'pleasant' = Goth. lustu-sums 'wished for'; steti-got 'genius loci' slegi-rind 'a bullock to be killed' (OS. slegi 'a slaying') beside gast-hûs 'inn' (cp. Goth. gasti-gōdei 'hospitality').

OHG. wolf = Goth. vulfs prim. Germ. uulfa-z*, sceffir 'sheriff', drigil 'servant-boy', irdin 'earthy' = Goth. airþeins prim. Germ. irþina-z* etc. were regular, and after them were formed such as tag 'day', weg 'way'. In like manner also neut. joh 'yoke' (prim. Germ. juka(-n)*) after wort 'word' etc. Cp. tago-lîh taga-lîh 'daily' wego-uiso wega-uiso 'sign-post' with wîn-garto 'vineyard' himil-rîhhi 'kingdom of heaven'.

Prim. Germ. gastiȝ-iz* 'guests' regularly became gastiz*, through the intermediate stage gastiȝz*, (after this þriz* 'three') which gave OHG. gesti (5. 6.).

After hîlf 2. sg. 'help' fr. hîlfi* were formed such as bir 'bear' for biri* (Gr. βίρε); prim. Germ. naziȝi* 'make whole' (Goth. nasei) became nazi*, thence (by 6.) neri. After bant 'he bound' (prim. Germ. bandi*, Skr. babāndha) chôs 'he chose'

(prim. Germ. kaysi*) etc. were formed such as was 'he was' nam 'he took'. 3. sg. indic. pres. birit fr. biriði* (Goth. bairip). Instr. pl. blintēm 'blind' fr. blindai-mi* (Goth. blinddim). aba 'from': Gr. ἀπό.

1. sg. biru 'I bear'; forms like hulfu were either formed after biru or had regularly remained unshortened before enclitics and then came to be used in other cases (cp. Paul in Paul-Braune's Beitr. VI 160). Instr. tagu; after this and the trisyllabic forms, in which the case endings had a secondary accent and therefore remained (§ 689), arose forms like sēou (nom. sēo 'sea'); in this effort not to leave the form phonetically equal to that of the nom. and acc., might have formed a factor. Ags. preserved the regular double forms in the nom. sg. of the Germ. ǝ-stems: giefu 'gift' (Goth. giba), but sorz 'sorrow' (Goth. saurga) firen 'sin' (Goth. fairina 'debt'); OHG. had the regular forms in buoz 'improvement' (Goth. bōta 'benefit') kuningin 'queen' adj. blint 'caeca' (Goth. blinda) etc.; the forms buoza kuninginna geba etc. beside these were accusatives. In the nom. acc. pl. neutr. the regular state shows itself in Ags. OS. fatu 'vats, vessels' against Ags. OS. word 'words' (Goth. vaurda); on the other hand OHG. faz a new formation after wort. Ags. don-e OS. than-a 'the'. Ags. hæd 'heath' = Goth. háiþi, beside this OS. thini 'maid' = Goth. þivi. OHG. 3. sg. opt. zigi, but also hulfi bari etc.; that the regular forms hulf* bār* were put aside, was due to the influence of the other persons of the same mood (cp. the 3. sg. opt. of the Alemanic weak preterites like salbōti neriti mohti, where the influence of the other persons is still clearer, cp. 2. sg. salbōtis 1. pl. -im(es)).

In all the cases named it is a question of loss of a vowel by which the word lost one syllable. On the other hand forms like OHG. eban 'even' acchar 'acre, field' fogal 'bird' had experienced samprasāraṇa: the first form e. g. had passed through the stages ēdnaz* ēd̥az* ēd̥z* eban. See §§ 215. 277. 635. 660, 1. Here perhaps also belong forms like nom. sg. masc. gelo 'yellow' (gen. gelawes) from gelya-z* (cp. Lat. helvos), nom. acc. sg. neut. melo 'meal' (gen. melawes) from melya(-n)*.

3. The -ay, which arose from -ōy in prim. Germ. (659, 3), became -ō in West Germ. at the same time with the other ay in unaccented inflexional syllables. Hence OHG. OS. ahto 'eight' = Goth. ahtáu. The shortening of the -ō took place according to 6.

4. The weakened nasal of prim. Germ. forms as nom. sg. chanō*, 'cock' (beside chanō* = Goth. hana) gen. pl. ḥazō* 'of days' (beside ḥazō* = Goth. dagō) nom. sg. manaz* 'multitude' (Goth. managēi) was dropped in prim. West Germanic: OHG. hano, tago, managi menigi. The shortening according to 6.

5. Of the prim. Germ. postvocalic -s and -z the former remained in West Germ., e. g. OS. dagos = Goth. dagōs. The latter was preserved as -r when closely connected with a following word, as in OHG. ir = Goth. is, in other cases it was dropped, e. g. OHG. OS. nom. signu = Goth. sunus. See § 583. On the shortening of the long vowels after the loss of the -z see 6.

Rem. The -s of the OHG. 2. sg. opt. berēs (prim. Germ. bēraiz*, Goth. baivāis) and of the 2. sg. indic. biris (prim. Germ. bērisi*, Goth. baivis) is due to the pronoun du prim. West Germ. pū* being frequently attached enclitically. The sibilant was pronounced voiceless before p- and f- became t- (cp. Goth. 2. sg. perf. last from laspa*, §§ 541, 1. 553, 1). Thus arose OHG. berēstu, bīristu, correspondingly also opt. bāristu and Indic. neritāstu. From these were then made by false etymological division bīrist du (thou) etc., in which process the 2. sg. bist, which had already previously come into existence for dis after the analogy of the preterite-presents kanst turst, helped to set the model.

But beside these still appear in OHG. wili = Goth. vileis (Lat. vilis), bāri = Goth. bēreis etc., which represent the undisturbed development of the West Germanic ending -iz (cp. von Fierlinger Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 430 ff.).

6. Later than the shortening mentioned under 1. occurred the shortening which was experienced in polysyllabic words by the long vowel, after which -u (4.) or -z (5.) had been dropped, and by -ē and -ō (§ 83 p. 79) from -ax and -ay, which were either already final in prim. Germ. or had become so after the loss of -z (5.), as well as by the -i (2.) which had arisen from -ijī. This shortening also, as it seems, occurred already in the period of the West Germ. prim. community.

OHG. hano from hanō*(ⁿ). tago from tagō*(ⁿ). managi menigi from managī*(ⁿ); the form managī existing beside this had its -ī after the analogy of the other cases (managīn).

OHG. 2. sg. wili from wilī*(z). bāri from bārī*(z). Nom. pl. gesti 'guests' from gastī*(z) prim. Germ. gastijiz* (Goth. gasteis); cp. beside this drī 'three' (Goth. þreis). Nom. pl. masc. taga 'days' = Goth. dagōs. Nom. pl. geba 'gifts' = Goth. gibōs; I leave it undecided whether the form geba had its long vowel from other cases with long vowel or from once present secondary (originally oxytoned) forms in -ōs (§ 583).

OHG. nom. pl. masc. blōnte 'blind' = Goth. blindái; beside this dē 'the' = Goth. þái; in andrē, which is met with twice, the -ē was transferred from dē. Loc. sg. tage from prim. Germ. dagaz* (cp. § 659, 2. 3). 3. sg. opt. berē 'he may bear' from prim. Germ. beraz*(ð) = Goth. batrái. ed-do 'or' : Goth. aiþþáu. ahto 'eight' = Goth. ahtáu Skr. aṣṭáu. suno 'of the son' from prim. Germ. sunaz* = Goth. sunáus.

OHG. 2. sg. imper. neri 'make whole, heal' from nazī*, prim. Germ. naziji* Indg. noséje*.

§ 662. Initial sounds.

1. Prim. Germ. χ from k seems to have undergone the transition to h first initially before vowels, perhaps already in the prim. Germ. period. hunda-n* 'hundred' Goth. hund OHG. hunt etc. See § 529.

2. w-, wl- became r-, l- and hw-, hr-, hl-, hn- became w-, r-, l-, n- in OHG., e. g. riz 'stroke' = Goth. vrītš; waꝥ older hwaꝥ 'what' = Goth. hva. See §§ 178. 529.

3. Notker's († 1022) law of initials, the so-called canon Notkerianus. For d-, g-, b- (= prim. Germ. þ-, ǵ-, ǵ-), which remained after vowels, liquids and nasals, were put t, k (c-), p after tenues, after voiceless -d, -g, -b and after voiceless spirants as well as in absolute initiality. eines tritten, dih tritten beside demo dritten. ih tih beside in dih. mag ter beside dā daz. gab cold, des coldes, daz cold beside demo goldes. sīnes pruoder beside mīn bruoder. salig pin, ih pin beside dā bist. Since d, g, b were pronounced voiceless and t, k, p without aspiration, it is here merely a question of the various grades of stress with which the sounds were produced¹⁾.

I cannot feel convinced that Nother's law only exhibits an arbitrary orthographical adaptation of fluctuating spelling (cp. Steinmeyer Ztschr. f. deutsch. Altert. XVI 139, Scherer Z. Gesch. d. d. Spr.² 143), but believe that there existed a real observation of an actual difference.

Baltic-Slavonic.

§ 663. Finals in prim. Balt.-Slavonic.

The following changes seem to belong to this period.

1. -om -ön became -ān (cp. 2.), whence Lith. -ā O.Bulg. -y, e. g. Lith. gen. pl. dėvū (dėvū) 'deorum', O.Bulg. nom. sg. kamy 'stone'. See § 92.

2. -m became -n, e. g. Lith. acc. sg. tū, dialectically tan tōn 'the', Indg. to-m*, O.Bulg. sān-ēsti 'comedere', Indg. som*. See §§ 217. 218. 219.

3. -t and -d were dropped. 3. sg. opt. Lith. te-vežē O.Bulg. vezi (Lith. vežiū O.Bulg. veza 'I drive, ride') = Skr. vāhēt Indg. ueghoj-t*. O.Bulg. 3. sg. aor. veze = Skr. vāhat Indg. ueghe-t*, 3. pl. aor. veza = Skr. vāhan Indg. uegho-nt*. Lith. nom. acc. sg. neut. vėžė (see Kurschat Gramm. d. lit. Spr. § 1345) from vešant*, cp. Gr. φείρον from φειορτ*. O.Bulg. to 'the' = Skr. tād Indg. tō-d*. It is less certain that the gen. sg. Lith. vilko O.Bulg. vlūka 'of a wolf' corresponds to the abl. Skr. vfkad Lat. lupō(d), see footnote to page 108.

Rem. The assumption of some scholars, that -r was dropped in the period of the Balt.-Slav. prim. community, is exceedingly uncertain. Lith. motė 'wife' O.Bulg. mati 'mother' and Lith. sesė 'sister': (Skr. mātā

1) With our sound-law is compared a law which obtains in the middle and south Italian dialects as also in Sardinian, according to which we have e. g. sas cosas, but una cosa (like conuoco: formiga), sas poveros, but su boveru (like ispingo: pobulu), sas tempos, but su dempu (like postu: istadu) (Schuchardt Verhandl. der Leipz. Philolog.-Versamml. 1872 p. 208 and Romania III 1 ff.). Cp. also French gras, which had arisen from crassus after vowels (Neumann Ztschr. f. rom. Phil. VIII 255), and O.Ir. inna gert, inna duath (§ 658, 2).

svāsi) prove nothing at all, cp. § 645, finals 4. That O.Bulg. nom. codā 'water' is identical in the ending with Gr. ὄδω and voc. brate 'brother' with the ending in Gr. ἀδελφῶ, and that the loss of -r in the former case caused the transition to the ā-declension (acc. codā etc.), and in the latter case to the o-declension (nom. acc. bratū etc.), are mere hypotheses.

§ 664. Finals in Baltic, especially in Lithuanian.

1. Final short vowels, except -u, were dropped under certain conditions which are not clear. Lith. 3. sg. ėsti and ėst 'is': O.Bulg. jesti Gr. ἔσται. Instr. sg. aki-mi and aki-ni (nom. akl-s 'eye'): cp. O.Bulg. patī-mī (patī 'way') Skr. sānū-mi 'from of old, olim'. sukū-si and sukū-s 'I turn myself'. 2. pl. važta-te and važta-t 'ye drive, ride': O.Bulg. vozo-te Gr. ἡγάγετε. Voc. sg. mótyna and mótyn (nom. mótyna 'mother'): O.Bulg. ženo 'O wife' Gr. νύμφα. From pirmà adv. 'before' arose the preposition pirm 'before'. The latter form shows that these shortenings took place in conditional finality.

-u suffered such a loss nowhere, as it seems. Neutr. gražiū 'beautiful' (masc. gražiū-s): cp. Gr. ἡδύ. O.Lith. loc. pl. akisū (akl-s): cp. O.Bulg. patī-ch-ni Skr. āvi-ṣu (āvi-ṣ 'ovis').

Thus disappeared dialectically also by 3. the -i, which had been shortened from -ī, in the feminine forms tó-jī 'the same' augusi part. pret. (to augu 'I grow'): tój augus.

2. e was dropped in the ending -es in a prehistoric period of Lithuanian. Nom. pl. akmens 'stones', dūkters 'daughters' dėszimts and desziūts 'decades': O.Bulg. kameŋ-es from *-es, Gr. ὄψαρι-ες, O.Bulg. desēt-es. Gen. sg. akmeŋs, dukteŋs: O.Bulg. kamen-es (§ 665, 4), O.Lat. salūt-es class. salūt-is (§ 81 rem. 1).

At a later period a, i, u also disappeared before -s.

sēna-s and sēns 'old' (on the accentuation cp. § 691 rem.), dēva-s and dēvs 'god': Skr. sāna-s dēvā-s. This shortening of the nom. sg. of Indg. o-stems is more frequent in some Lith. dialects than in others, but seems nowhere to be entirely wanting. I conjecture that it had its beginning in forms of three or more syllables like čbūla-s 'apple' āvina-s 'ram' and participles in -dama-s.

-i disappeared only in forms of three or more syllables. Instr. pl. akūns beside akimis, mergoms beside mergomis (mergā 'girl'): cp. Skr. -bhiṣ.

So also u. Dat. pl. vilkāms from O.Lith. vilkamus (cp. § 691 rem.). The form may be identical with O.Bulg. vlūkomi, see the accidence.

3. Long vowels and also ē and ā were shortened in final syllables, if they had the broken accent (§ 691); see Leskien Archiv. f. slav. Phil. V 188 ff. Since a appears for ō, it may be assumed that this shortening took place, when a or at least very open ō was still pronounced for ō (cp. § 108).

Nom. sg. fem. gerā 'bona' from gerā*, cp. the compound form gerō-ji, so too tā 'the' beside tō-ji: cp. Gr. χαρά. Instr. sg. fem. gerā beside gerā-ja, so too tā beside tā (the latter originally only proclitic); the ending -ā from -ām*. Aec. pl. fem. gerās beside gerās-ias, so too tās beside tās (the latter to be judged like tā); -ās from -āus*. Nom. sg. fem. paī 'wife, spouse' from patī*: cp. Skr. dēvī 'goddess'. Nom. acc. du. naklī (naklī-s 'night') žmogū (žmogū-s 'man') from naklī* žmogā*: O.Bulg. nošti (nošti 'night') syny (synū 'son'). 3. sg. fut. būs ris beside 1. sg. būsiu 'I shall be' rýsiu 'I shall swallow'. Nom. pl. masc. gerī beside gerē-ji (beside this strangely tē): cp. Gr. καλός, ροί. Nom. acc. du. fem. gerī beside gerē-ji, so also dvi 'two': Skr. dvē, dvē, Indg. -āi. Instr. sg. masc. gerū beside gerū-ju: cp. Lat. modo, Indg. -ō. Nom. acc. du. masc. gerū beside gerū-ju, so also dū from dōū* (§ 184): cp. Gr. ἵππε, δα-δεα. 1. sg. sukū 'I turn' beside the reflex. sukā-si sukū-s (1.).

Rem. Compare the retention of long vowels with slurred accent in gen. sg. anō 'illius', gen. pl. mergū 'puellarum' gen. sg. mergūs 'puellae', gen. sg. naklīs etc.

Such shortening also before u, i, r, l+s. It shows itself here by the broken accentuation passing into the slurred. Compar. geriaūs adv. 'better' beside geriāusiai 'best'. 3. sg. fut. gaūs, kelaūs, pa-leīs, geīs, keīs beside 1. sg. gāusiu 'I shall get', kelausiu 'I shall travel', pa-lēisui 'I shall let loose', gērsiu 'I shall drink', kēlsiu 'I shall raise'. Cp. the author Lit. Volksl. u. Märch. p. 315, Bezzenberger in his Beitr. X 202 ff., and § 691 rem. below.

4. Prim. Balt. -d̥i -d̥i became -ui -ai. Dat. sg. masc. vilkui: Gr. λέκω. Dat. sg. fem. raūkai 'to a hand' tai 'to the': Gr. χώρα, τῆ (Dor. τῇ). With this compare vilkais § 148.

5. Assimilation of final nasals to explosives and spirants of different organs, as in lita 'in alium' in pona 'in dominum'. The treatment of -n (= Indg. -n -m) in other respects has already been discussed in § 218.

6. -s became assimilated to following sz- and ž-. vėnaszové 'one shot' = vėnas szové. tókiožėys 'such fishes' = tókis žėys. So also s- following -sz. asišiu 'I shall send' = as sz sišiu. isoėto 'out of the world' = isz svėto.

7. Of the numerous other final changes of the Lithuanian dialects, suffice it here to mention the shortening in certain districts of ō, ē, y, ā to a, e, i, u, which took place at the end of words and before final single consonants, if the syllable did not bear the chief accent. Gen. sg. raūkas 'of a hand' (standard Lith. raūkos) beside mergūs 'of a girl'. Nom. sg. mergėle 'girl' (stand. Lith. mergėlė) beside srovė 'a flowing'. Nom. pl. pātis 'ipsi' (stand. Lith. pātys), sūnus 'sons' (stand. Lith. sūnūs). This shortening was caused by the expiratory accentuation.

§ 665. Finals in Slavonic, especially O.Bulg.

1. In prim. Slav. o became u before nasals in final syllables. ulku-n* 'the wolf' (O.Bulg. vlūkū) from ulqo-m*: Skr. vfka-m Gr. λύκο-ν. nesu-n* 'I carried away' (O.Bulg. nesū) from neko-m*: Skr. abbara-m Gr. ἐφερο-ν. ulku-ns* acc. 'wolves', whence further by § 219 ulkāns* (O.Bulg. vlūkŭ): Gr. Cret. λύκο-νς Goth. vulfa-ns.

2. Then the -n of the endings -un, -in, -ān was dropped, and there arose -ū, -ŭ, -y, the historical endings of O.Bulg. Acc. synū 'son': Skr. sānu-m. Acc. vlūkū: Skr. vfka-m (1.). Acc. gosŭ 'guest': cp. Skr. āvi-m 'ovem'. Nom. kamy 'stone': cp. Gr. ἄμων (§ 663, 1).

Rem. The ending of the gen. pl. -ā, e. g. vlūkū 'of wolves', mater-ū 'of mothers', must be explained from -om. See the addendum.

So also prim. Slav. -en and -ŕn (the latter = Indg. -m, -ŕ) lost the nasal and there arose -e. Nom. acc. sg. neutr. polje 'field' from polje-n*, older poljo-m*. Acc. sg. mater-e, from mater-m*. See § 219 p. 186 f.

On the other hand -ān and -ēn became nasal vowels. Acc. sg. fem. ženā 'wife': cp. Skr. āśvā-m Lat. equa-m. Nom. acc. sg. neutr. imē 'name' from ī-mēn*. See § 219 p. 186 f.

3. Indg. prim. Balt.-Slav. -ai became -ai and fell together with Indg. -ai -oi and -ē in -ē. In historical times there appears partly -i, e. g. O.Bulg. nom. pl. masc. ti = Lith. tė Gr. τοί, matī 'mother' = Lith. motė, partly -ē, e. g. dat. sg. fem. račē 'to a hand' = Lith. rankai (§ 664, 4), loc. sg. masc. vlūcē (vlūkai 'wolf') = O.H.G. wolfe (§ 659, 2). To what this duality -i and -ē is due, remains undetermined. See §§ 76. 84.

Indg. prim. Balt.-Slav. -om became -om, further -a. Loc. sg. synu: Skr. sānā Goth. sundu (§ 659, 3).

4. Originally final -s and the -s which later became final, were dropped. Nom. sg. synū: Lith. sānū-s. Nom. pl. synov-e: Skr. sānāv-as. Gen. sg. kamen-e: Lith. akmen-s (§ 664, 2). Nom. acc. sg. neutr. nebo 'sky': Skr. nābhas Gr. νέφος. 2. sg. veže 'thou drovest': Skr. vāha-s. 2. sg. opt. vezi: Skr. vāhē-ṣi. Acc. pl. syny from sānūs*, older sānuns* (§ 219): cp. Goth. sunu-us; vlūky (1.): Goth. vulfa-us; krajē (krajī 'edge') from krājens*, older kājō-us* (§§ 84. 219). 2. 3. sg. da (1. sg. dachū 'I gave', 2. pl. daste) from das*; prim. Balt.-Slav. 2. sg. dōs-s* 3. sg. dōs-t*. 2. 3. sg. ja (1. sg. jasū 'I ate' prim. f. ēts-o-m* i. e. ēd-s-o-m*, rt. ed- 'eat') from ēs*; prim. Balt.-Slav. 2. sg. ēts-s* 3. sg. ēts-t*.

This loss of -s was probably brought about in absolute finality and before words beginning with a consonant. See § 281 rem. 3.

5. -ī and -ū disappeared in the O.Bulg. period, after imparting their timbre to the preceding consonants, e. g. patein(ī), patech(ū). See §§ 36. 52. The transition of -ū to o in combinations like iz-bavito i (jī) 'liberat eum' iz-bavljetō i (jī) 'liberant eum' etc. is to be explained from the fact that the pronoun, which was attached enclitically, was still only spoken as j: from -tū j(i) arose -to j(ŋ) like domoch(ū) from domūch(ū), see § 52.

§ 666. Initials in Baltic-Slavonic.

1. j and ɣ frequently arose before initial vowels. The phonetic condition was that the preceding word ended in a vowel. j and ɣ represent the movement of transition.

Lith. j. j-iūti 'to take'. j-iū 'in'. j-lrkla-s 'oar'. j-yrā 'is'. j-ėszkōti 'to seek': OHG. eisrōn. pri-si-j-ėsti 'to gorge oneself'. su-j-ėsti 'comedere'. lėpė-j-ėiti 'he bid go'. Also j-aūt 'up', j-ūsz 'I' etc. j- seems to have been entirely generalised only in jėszkōti and in j-ūnkti 'to become accustomed' (O.Bulg. v-yknā 'I learn' Goth. bi-ūhts 'accustomed'); association with jūnkti 'to yoke' (rt. jeug-) formed a factor in the latter word.

Lith. ɣ. v-ugnė-s 'fire'. v-ūpė 'river'. v-oszkā 'goat'. v-ūszvė 'mother-in-law'. So far as I know v became fixed nowhere before u- and o-, whilst in some dialects it became permanent before ā- and entirely supplanted the form with ū- (ūszvė). Here probably also belongs the v- in v-ėna-s 'unus', which must be very old, since it occurs permanently in Lettic (ie-ins) and in the whole of Lithuanian.

Slav. j. j-estī 'is': Lith. ėsti, cp. nėstī from neestī* § 607. j-elenī 'stag': Gr. ēlago-s. jastī 'cats' from j-ėstī* (§ 76): Lith. ėsti; but iz-ėstī 'consumes'. imā 'I seize' from j-imā*, inf. j-ėti: Lith. imū imti, j-imū j-imti; but iz-imā iz-ėti 'to take out'. j-ęza 'illness' from inza*, prim. f. āgha*, from rt. angh-. j-ęzykū 'tongue': Pruss. insuweis. j-ablūko and ablūko 'apple'. j-ąza and ąza 'cord'. j-utro and utro 'morning'.

Slav. ɣ. v-yknā 'I learn' from ūknā* (§ 219 p. 187) beside učiti 'to teach': Lith. j-ūnktu 'I become accustomed' (see above). v-ydra 'otter': Lith. ūdra (§ 257). v-ymc 'udder' from ūdmēn*: Skr. ūdhar (§ 547). v- was fixed in these words as well as in v-onja 'smell' beside ąchati 'to smell'. v-ąšū beside ąšū 'moustache'. v-ąza beside ąza and j-ąza 'cord', to which also v-ęzati 'to bind' with permanent *v-*¹).

Rem. 1. We must leave it for a more thorough investigation to determine, between what vowel qualities j- and r- were regularly developed in each single case and how far levelling out has taken place, further, whether anything prevents our assigning the beginning of the development of these glides to the Baltic-Slavonic primitive community (cp. Lith. -j-ėsti O.Bulg. ǰasti etc.).

2. e- uniformly became a- in certain Lith. districts, e. g. ašì = esì 'I am', ašiu = ėšiu 'I shall go' (but at-ėšiu, isz-ėšiu etc.). If we remember that every consonant before e had a palatalised pronunciation in the dialects in question, this change is easily explained as an affection of absolute initiality.

3. In Slav. ě- (from older oj-) became i-. inŕ 'one' = Lat. uno-s unus. See § 84.

Rem. 2. We have probably no right to explain this change by assuming that ĭ was first developed before oj- as a glide and that ioi- then became iek- ii- (cp. jickū § 84 p. 82). Such an ĭ- before o has not yet, so far as I know, been established.

ACCENTUATION.

The nature of accentuation¹⁾ and the accentuation of the Indg. languages in general.

§ 667. 1. Accentuation of syllables, words and sentences.

By accentuation in the widest sense is understood the gradation of a sentence according to the stress and pitch of its members.

In every separate syllable, i. e. in every quantity of sound produced with a single independent expiratory impulse, there is always one element which with respect to accentuation has the precedence of the rest, e. g. a in English man; this element is called the sonant of the syllable. The form of the tone movement in the whole of the syllable, the relation, in which non-sonant members of the syllable stand in respect of accentuation to one another and to the sonant, may differ, e. g.

1) Cp. among others Sievers Grundsätze der Phonet. 176 ff., Seelmann Die Ausspr. des Lat. 15 ff.

Lith. vir-siu 'I shall cook' and vir-siu 'I shall fall', Gr. ot-xot loc. sg. and ot-xot nom. pl.

In a polysyllabic word there is always one syllable which by its accentuation takes precedence of the rest. This syllable is generally called simply the accented syllable. Syllables which have not the high tone or principal accent can also display different degrees of accentuation, which characterise the word. E. g. in Mod. English cherishing, forgetfulness the final syllable is more strongly accented than the penultimate, in Mod.HG. abend-dämmerung 'evening twilight' the antepenultimate more strongly than the other syllables which have not the principal accent and these latter again show gradations among themselves. Word-accent is thus the relative characteristic of all the syllables of a word.

The word seldom stands alone; generally it is the member of a sentence which in phonetic just as in syntactical relations forms a complete unity. Within this whole again there are words with higher, others with lower accent-points. Cp. e. g. the accentuation of the sentence Speak truth and lie not. To the accentuation of the sentence belongs thus everything, which bears upon the different accentuation of the words as members of a sentence.

2. Expiratory and musical (chromatic, tonic) accentuation.

If the preeminence of the sonantal element consists in the greater force, with which the breath-current is expelled (voice-stress), we have expiratory accent; if on the other hand in a raising of the voice above its ordinary level (voice-pitch) we have musical accent. The latter may be heard e. g. in the final syllable of our really, when spoken in a tone of surprised enquiry.

Rem. 1. For accentuation, particularly expiratory, quantity also requires attention. Languages with considerable differences of accent-stress, as German and English, have generally also more considerable differences in the duration of syllables than languages, which, like Romance, Slavonic and Mod.Gr., form their syllables with less varying stress. The treatment of syllables, which do not bear the principal accent in languages where the accent is strongly expiratory, often shows very distinctly, how the different quantity of these syllables and the different grades of the secondary accent stand in mutual relation to one another.

None of the Indg. languages had and has exclusively expiratory and none exclusively musical accentuation. But one of the two methods of accentuation always appears in the stages of development accessible to our observation as dominant and typical for the history of sounds. Essentially expiratory accent appears in Old Armenian, in the Old Italic dialects, in Keltic, Germanic and Lithuanian, essentially musical in Sanskrit and Old Greek; we have no satisfactory information concerning the accentuation of the Old Iranian dialects and of the Old Bulgarian.

3. Three accent-grades.

Between the highest imaginable and the lowest imaginable grade of accentuation there are, strictly speaking, innumerable intermediate grades. For all practical purposes it is sufficient to distinguish three grades. The highest grade of the expiratory accent we designate the principal accent, that of the musical accent high tone, the lowest grade absence of accent (also loss of accent) and low tone. Between these lie secondary accent and medium tone.

Rem. 2. The grammatical terminology here roughly resembles that for the positions of articulation of the lingual palatals; here as there we have to deal with an unbroken graded series, and the ordinary division into dentals etc. leaves free scope, since such division fails to draw sharply defined limits.

4. The different forms of syllabic accent.

Expiratory accent. An expiration, simply allowed to die away, contains but one point of expiration. If on the other hand fluctuations in the expiratory impulse take place, still other points become perceptible alongside the principal point; these owing to their smaller force are felt as subordinate to the principal point. Where the accentuation has only one point, the sonant, the bearer of the syllabic accent, is separated from the following consonant simply by the change of position in the organs of articulation, it is cut off by the consonant, and such accent is called clear cut accent ('), e. g. English hot. Where the accentuation has two () the second point may still fall upon the sonant of the syllable, e. g. Mod.G. sō (in certain cases), or on the consonant immediately following, e. g. mān (Thuringian).

Musical accent. Whilst the sonant or the syllable lasts, the voice remains on the same level (level tone), or ascends from its level (rising tone), or descends (falling tone), or within the same syllable both rises and falls, or falls and rises (musical circumflex). The level tone also combines in different ways with the rising and falling tones. e. g.

These differences of accentuation hold good for all syllables, not merely for principal accented and hightone syllables, in which alone according to the ordinary mode of marking accentuation they are usually indicated. This conclusion is established by the following considerations. In Lithuanian the nom. sg. várnā* 'crow' became várna, just as gerā* became gerà, and the gen. sg. tīlto 'of the bridge' retained the length of the -ō just like anō (§ 664, 3). The final syllables of várnā* and tīlta* (tīlto) had thus an accent of the same form as the final syllables of gerā* and anā* (anō)¹. In Greek lowtone final -α was counted long for the word-accentuation, in case the syllable, if bearing the accent, shows the circumflex, e. g. loc. sg. οἶκος beside Ἰσθμοῦ, on the other hand it was treated as short where the syllable, if bearing the high tone, shows the acute. e. g. nom. pl. οἶκος beside καλοῖ; the -α of οἶκος was thus circumflexed, but the -α in οἶκος had the acute.

§ 668. Our means for determining the accentuation in the older periods of the Indg. languages are the works of the native grammarians, metre, the accent marks of the texts handed down to us, the modifying influences, exercised by the accent on the sounds, and the accentuation in those living languages which form the continuation of these older stages of development.

1) Native Lithuanian scholars affirm that the differences of syllabic accent appear also in syllables which do not bear the principal accent, that e. g. in the instr. sg. kīrėdā the same slurred ('geschliffen') accentuation is heard in the first syllable as in the nom. sg. kīrėis 'axe'.

Notices of grammarians we possess for Sanskrit and the classical languages. They are not precise enough to furnish us with a clear and complete picture of the accentuation.

Metre hardly requires consideration elsewhere than in HG.

For the same languages we have accented texts. The system of indicating accent is however very incomplete. The Hindoos marked with the udātta only the word-accent, without betokening the differences of accentuation between the syllables which had not the high tone and without taking account of the kind of emphasis, the quality of syllabic accentuation. Sentence accent was indicated only in so far, as under certain circumstances words with subordinate tone in the sentence as a whole, remained without mark of accent. In Greek the tone movement, which was worked out within the individual syllable, was expressed by the distinction of acute and circumflex, only however, if the syllable was the most prominent in the word. Both accents thus served at the same time to indicate the position of the high tone in the word. First attempts at indicating sentence-accent were the use of the grave (e. g. βασιλεὺς ἐγένετο but ἐγένετο βασιλεύς, περὶ τούτου but τούτου πέρι) and the non-accentuation of words.

From sound-changes we may often gather what the accentuation was. Reduction and total loss of syllables point to a more strongly developed expiratory accentuation. If the accent-force of several syllables is concentrated upon one, those left without force lessen their duration and firmness. Thus the position of the principal tone is at once recognisable.

Conclusions, drawn from the younger periods of languages, are not to be applied to the older without great care. As the languages, whose course of development we can trace through considerable periods of time, show, the accentuation of a language may undergo complete modification in a comparatively short time. Only where on the whole a coincidence in the accentuation of earlier and later periods seems already probable on other grounds, ought the younger phases of language to be adduced, e. g. in HG., to clear up the phenomena of the older periods.

Primitive Indg. period¹⁾.

(Verner's law). The word-accent was free, that is, unrestricted either by number of syllables or by questions of quantity. E. g. patē(r)* 'father': Skr. pitā, Gr. πατήρ, Goth. fadar O. Icel. fader fadir prim. Germ. fadēr*. bhrātō(r)* 'brother': Skr. bhrāta Gr. φράτωρ Goth. brōþar prim. Germ. brōþēr*. oktō* 'eight': Skr. aṣṭā, Gr. ὀκτώ. dykōnt-es* nom. pl. part. act. from derk- 'see': Skr. dyśānt-as Gr. δυσάοντες. éj-mi* 'I go' i-mēs* 'we go': Skr. émi inds. lelip-māné* or lelip-mné* 1. pl. indic. perf. act. from lejp- 'smear, stick to': Skr. lilipimā Goth. bi-libum prim. Germ. libumi*. uortéjō* causat. from yert- 'turn': Skr. varṭáyami Goth. fru-wardja prim. Germ. wardtjō*. Sanskrit preserved most accurately the word-tone, nevertheless we find even in this language also not a few instances of shifting, see § 672.

For the relation to one another of the syllables of a word which do not bear the high tone (§ 667, 3 p. 529) we have no certain information as regards the time immediately before the breaking up of the Indg. prim. community. From certain fluctuations perceptible in the historical periods and affecting the accentuation of certain classes of genuine nominal compounds, owing to which the accent rested sometimes on the first, sometimes on the second member of the compound, we may conclude that the less accented member had preserved as medium tone the high tone originally belonging to it as an independent word, just as the syllable -zieh- in Mod.HG.

wechsel-beziehungen still exhibits the word-accent of beziehungen or the syllable -lai- in Lith. vaik-palaitis ('ne'er-do-well') that of palaitis (§ 691 end). The misplacing of the high tone in the former case resembles that in the German unbeschreiblich beside unbeschreiblich, ungemein beside ungemein etc.

So far as sentence-accent is concerned, the enclitic use of certain words and categories of words in Sanskrit, Greek etc. was doubtless inherited from the period of the prim. community.

Thus enclitic were:

Certain particles, as qe* 'and': Skr. ca Gr. τε Lat. que;
 ye* 'or': Skr. va vā Gr. fe* in ή-δ from h-fe* (§ 677) Lat. ve.

The interrogative pronouns (st. go-* and gi-*: Skr. ka- and ci-, Gr. πο- and τι-, Lat. quo- and qui-), if they had an indefinite meaning, cp. e. g. Gr. τις 'who?' and ανηρ τις.

The personal pronouns, if no contrast of meaning prevailed, as between I and thou etc., cp. e. g. the enclitic Skr. mē Gr. μοι O.Bulg. mi 'to me'¹⁾.

Further, probably in many instances, the vocative, see § 672;

Lastly the finite verb also to a large extent, always if the temporal particle é*, the augment, immediately preceded it, e. g. é dyket* 'he looked': Skr. adyat Gr. ἔδραξε; apparently already in the period of the Indg. prim. community an agglutination had taken place here which obliterated the feeling for é as an independent word. Further, the verb in the principal sentence was frequently appended with the low tone to those adverbs which appear in the separate languages as prepositions, as pró bherō* = Skr. *prá bharami*²⁾; more rarely the verb was welded into a unity with living case-forms. But apart from such definite categories of words with which the verb showed a special pre-

1) It is assumed that this enclitic use had occasioned the weakening of a form tyoi* to toi* 'to thee' (Skr. tē Gr. τοι O.Bulg. ti). Op. § 187.

2) So also the passive participles and verbal abstracts with suffix -ti- had the tone on the prefix, e. g. próbhēti-s* próbhēti-s* (Skr. prábhēti-s prábhēti-s) beside bhēti-s* bhēti-s* (Skr. bhēti-s bhēti-s).

ference for enclitic connexion, the verb in principal sentences had the low tone. In these it preserved its accent in Sanskrit only when the first word of a sentence (§ 672).

§ 670. Did the expiratory or the musical accentuation preponderate at the time of the breaking up of the primitive community?

The reduction and rejection of vowels point to a more strongly developed expiratory accent. This method of accentuation therefore must be referred to that period of the Indg. primitive language in which the syllable preceding the principal tone underwent the weakenings, mentioned in § 310 ff., when e. g. *pet-é- and *derk-é- became *pté- and *dyké-. That between these processes and the close of the primitive language a certain time had elapsed, is shown by the fact that the state of the language, phonetically produced by those accentual influences, was altered by a series of new formations which with good reason are referred to prim. Indo-Germanic.

Rem. E. g. dat. sg. *bhrátar-aj 'to the brother' (Skr. bhrátrē) had come in either for older *bhrátar-aj after the analogy *pitr-aj 'to the father' (Skr. pitrē) or for older *bhratr-dj after the analogy of the stem-form of the strong cases *bhrátar- (e. g. acc. *bhrátar-m). Nom. pl. *mātér-es 'mothers' (Skr. mātṛas) with strong grade radical vowel beside *pitr-es must in like manner have been influenced by analogy. Prim. Indg. is also the levelling of *dérko-m *dyké-s *dyké-t *dérko-mem *dyké-te *dérko-nt (rt. derk- 'see') on the one hand to *dérko-m *dérke-s *dérke-t etc. (Skr. dárśa-m dárśa-s etc.), on the other hand to *dyké-m *dyké-s etc. (Skr. dyśá-m dyśá-s etc.).

Towards the end then of the Indg. primitive community the expiratory character of the accent seems to have no longer preponderated. The fact that Sanskrit and Greek with preponderantly musical accent show as separate languages hardly any phonetic changes which could be ascribed to the effects of expiratory accent, points to this conclusion¹⁾. If at the time of the separation of the peoples and accordingly still in the oldest periods of their separate existence the accent had had a strongly marked expiratory character, these two languages would doubtless not have preserved so faithfully and so unabridged the old inherited condition of the sonants. I am of opinion therefore — without venturing to express a final decision on a question so difficult and still so much requiring a comprehensive and thorough investigation —, that Skr. and Greek accentuation on the whole represent in the point in question the method of accentuation which prevailed at the time of the separation. In the prim. Germanic development the Indg. accent again became more strongly expiratory; for it is to the strengthened breath-current of the syllable bearing the principal accent that we must ascribe the circumstance that the voiceless spirants (brōþar*- 'brother' kémsō* 'I test') remained voiceless (see §§ 530. 581).

§ 671 The contrast between circumflex and acute in Greek and that of the slurred (geschliffen) and broken (gestossen) accent in Lithuanian appear to correspond to one another and to stand in historical connexion. Gr. nom. sg. τίμα nom. pl. τίμαί (orig. nom. du., see accident) : gen. sg. τίμας = Lith. nom. sg. gerb-ji nom. du. gerb-ji : gen. sg. gerb-s-ios. Nom. du. καλω nom. pl. καλοί : gen. pl. καλιών loc. sg. Ἰσθμοῖ = nom. du. gerā-ju nom. pl. gerē-ji : gen. pl. gerū-jū loc. sg. nāmē ('at home'). Op. further 3. sg. opt. λείποι and te-sukē with reference to the remarks made on final -αι page 530.

Rem. 1. Hansen's attempt (Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVII 612 ff.), to establish this difference of syllabic accent for Germanic also, has, in my opinion, not succeeded.

Further the difference of accentuation in Skr. nom. dyāuṣ and voc. dyāuṣ and Gr. nom. Ζεύς and voc. Ζεῦ points to an original qualitative difference in Indo-Germanic (§§ 673. 677).

Hence it may be conjectured that already in the time of the Indg. primitive community, there existed different forms of syllabic accent.

Rem. 2. Owing to the incompleteness of the present investigation, I have taken no account in writing the Indg. prim. forms in this work of these different accents. In every case the word-accent has been written with the acute (').

Rem. 3. In Italic, Keltic and Germanic, a stress accent was developed on the first syllable of the word, which drove out the Indg. free accent. Thurneyton (Revue Celt. VI 313) conjectures historical connexion here and sets up 'a general West European regulation of accent'. The assumption of such a connexion is bold. For since in the special Germanic development the prim. Indg. word-tone still acted as a stress accent (Verner's law), the new Germanic accentuation would be a borrowing from Keltic, the Germanic tribes would through contamination have given up their native accentuation in favour of the Keltic: should not then Keltic influence reveal itself in other directions too in a far larger extent than is actually provable? Moreover Lettic and Czech show by their accentuation on the first syllable that languages can pass through the same revolution in accent quite independently. To the assumption of a connexion between Keltic and Italic accentuation I am less opposed. No other branches show so many special coincidences as Italic and Keltic.

Aryan.

§ 672. With Sanskrit accentuation alone have we a tolerably intimate acquaintance.

It has been already remarked in § 669 that the Hindoos preserved on the whole the prim. Indg. position of the word-accent. Changes were doubtless due only to analogy; in one set of instances however it is impossible to decide whether the variation belonged to the Sanskrit or the prim. Aryan period.

* Examples. For ganvās* 1. du. 'we come' (from gy-uās*, § 229) came gānvās after the singular forms like gānti; the formal similarity with the forms, accented on the root, which had arisen phonetically, occasioned this innovation, cp. alongside these ga-thās ga-tās etc. Presents with original ā in the root syllable, as bhārāmi, caused the accent in those verbs whose root syllable had unaccented a to pass over to the root syllable: gāchāmi 'I come' for gachāmi* from gy-skō* (cp. ichāmi rchāmi etc.), dāsāmi 'I bite' for dasāmi* from dqkō* (§ 224). The transition from mati-š to māti-š ('thought'), from pakti-š to pākti-š ('a cooking') etc. is connected with the circumstance that these nouns from the Indg. prim. period had a final and initial accentuation which varied in the different cases. The accentuation pañcā (Atharvaveda V 15, 5) for pāñca 'five' follows saptā 'seven'; cp. pañcābhiḥ : saptābhiḥ.

As regards sentence accent Sanskrit appears to have preserved the old position almost invariably. At least the enclitic use of the particles, like ca vā u ha, of the forms of the personal pronouns, as mē mā, of the vocative and of the verb must be regarded as Indg., as was already remarked p. 534. In independent sentences the verb had no accent unless at the beginning of a sentence, e. g. agnim iṭē purōhitam 'I praise Agni, the house-priest' (beginning of the Rigveda). The vocative had from the beginning the high tone on the first syllable, e. g. pitar 'O father' mdtar 'O mother' (Gr. πάτερ, μητήρ). It had however its independent high tone only at the beginning of a sentence, otherwise it was unaccented, e. g. idāṃ indra śṛṇuhi 'this, O Indra, hear'. Just as this use appears to be original, so also the law may be old which requires the vocative, if connected with a word which more nearly defines it, to form in respect of accent a unity with that word, e. g. vāsō sakhe or sākhē vāsō 'O good friend', sāhasaḥ sūnō or sūnō sahasaḥ 'O son of strength'. I conjecture that this practice in Sanskrit as in other languages, if it did not occasion, at any rate helped the formation of improper compounds, cp. e. g. Skr. jāś-pati-§ 'lord of the family', Gr. δεσπότης, voc. δέσποτα, 'house master' (§ 204 p. 171)¹), Διός-χοῦροι 'sons of Zeus', Lat. Juppiter (see § 612 p. 463), Dies-piter.

§ 673. According to the account of the native grammarians the Sanskrit accent was a musical one. It is obvious that there had also existed alongside that accent differences of voice stress. The expiratory accent cannot however have been very strong.

The high tone was called udātta, that is, 'raised' ('). Opposed to it was the anudātta, that is, 'unraised' (not-high tone).

The udātta was a simple rising tone. If the udātta-syllable was followed by two or more unaccented syllables, the first of these syllables had the so-called enclitic svarita ('): it was pronounced with falling tone, and its accent formed the natural transition from the high tone reached in the udātta-syllable to the low tone of the next syllable but one. e. g. bhrātāras 'fratres', vidūṣṣārēbhyas 'doetioribus'.

1) The combination dems-potis* probably dates from the Indg. primitive period; cp. Skr. pātir dān and dāmpatiḥ, the latter perhaps for dāś-pati-*, with substitution of the pause-form dān.

There was, besides, the so-called independent svarita (^). It arose, when a high accented vowel was joined in the same syllable with a low accented vowel, e. g. divīva from divi iva, ēvāśnīyat from ēvā āśnīyat, sōbravīt from sō (a) bravīt, apsvantār from apsū antār, vyāptiṣ from vī-āpti-ṣ. This accent is defined as a compound accent, as a combination of a higher and a lower tone within the limits of a single syllable. It was rising-falling, the combination of the udātta with the enclitic svarita. It may be, accordingly, compared with the Greek circumflex (e. g. ῥῥῆς from ῥῥῆς*).

The contrast in accentuation between nom. dyāuṣ and voc. dyāuṣ appears to have descended from the period of the Indg. primitive community, since it corresponds to the contrast between Greek Ζεύς and Ζεῦ. Cp. § 677.

Rem. Further peculiarities of Sanskrit accentuation in Whitney § 80 ff., L. Masing Die Hauptformen etc. p. 37 ff. 72 f. and elsewhere.

§ 674. As regards the accentuation of the Old Iranian 'dialects we have no information.

If the sound-law respecting the transition of r before k, p, t into a spirant which has been assumed by Bartholomae for Avestic and mentioned above in § 260, is correct, we must conclude that at the time when this sound-change took place, Avestic had in general the same word-accent as Sanskrit.

Armenian.

§ 675. That the accentuation of Old Armenian was once essentially expiratory, is shown by the numerous weakenings of syllables.

Since the vowels of the original final syllables in polysyllabic words disappeared (§ 651, 1), the accent must have been thrown back, cp. e. g. mard 'man' from Indg. mytós* (Skr. mytá-s). And since i, u, ē, oi, ea remained unchanged only in the originally penultimate syllables, while in earlier syllables i and u were rejected and ē, oi, eu were reduced to i, u, e (§§ 31. 47. 63. 79. 632), the accent must have been concentrated on the originally penultimate syllables.

Further conclusions depend upon the answer to be given to the question of the chronological relationship between the weakening in originally final syllables and the weakening in syllables earlier than the original penultimate. I believe we must assume with Hübschmann that the first mentioned weakening was earlier in time. Consequently we must conclude that in the first place a withdrawal of the accent from the final syllables in general took place, but that at the period when gen. duster* became dster, accentuation of the final syllable was the regular principle.

The abandonment of the prim. Indg. word-accent presupposes the development of an expiratory secondary accent, limited by number of syllables. This gradually overpowered and drove out the original accent.

Greek.

§ 676. The prim. Indg. freedom in the position of the word accent and the capability of the prim. language to use enclitically in the sentence words of any number of syllables whatever (particles, pronouns, forms of the finite verb), were materially limited in Greek through the development of a secondary accent, of the accent, which displays itself in the so-called law of three syllables. The chief points are as follow (cp. Wheeler's treatise, cited above p. 532.):

1. Dissyllabic words with a short final syllable were not subject to the action of the secondary accent but generally preserved the old inherited word-tone. πόδα πόδες, ποδός ποδί: Skr. pādam pādās, padās patsū. τρεῖς from trei(λ)ες*, τρισί: tráyas, triṣū. πέντε δέκα, ἑπτά: pāñca dáśa, sapṭá. πέρι: pári. ἄρκτο-ς: fkṣa-s. γόμφο-ς: jámbha-s. ἵππο-ς: ásva-s. ἀγός: ajá-s. ὀρθός: ardhā-s. μισθός: mīdhā-m. θυμός: dhāmā-s. ἀγνός: yajñā-s. κλυτός: śrutā-s. γνωτός: jñātā-s. βαρύ-ς:

gurú-ḥ. ἡδύ-ς : svādú-ḥ. μέθυ : mādhu. νέφος : nábhas. ἄνθος : ándhas. εἶμα : vāsma. Here belong also word-combinations like ὅς τε : Skr. yás ca.

2. In disyllabic words with long final syllable and in all trisyllabic and polysyllabic words, as also in similar combinations under one accent, there was developed, in the period of the Greek primitive community, a secondary accent on the third mora from the end or, if the word ended in a trochee, on the fourth mora. Accordingly at the end of a word or combination of words not more than two, or in the case of a trochaic ending three morae could remain unaccented. In words with long final syllable the effect of the law was to permit only the acute and not the circumflex to stand on the penultimate. The secondary accent conquered the older accent, situated nearer to the beginning of the word.

Thus arose ἡδύων from ἡδύων¹⁾* : Skr. svādīyān. φερόμενος φερομένου -ου from φίρομενος φέρομενος : bháramāṇas bháramāṇasya. Ἀγάμεμνον from Ἀγαμεμνον* : cp. ἄδελφε beside ἀδελφός etc. ἀπό-τις from ἀπο-τις* : Skr. ápa-citīḥ. ἄν-ἐπι-θετο ἄν-ἐπι-θέτοιο -ου from ἄν-ἐπι-θετος ἄν-ἐπι-θέτω : án-āpí-hítas án-āpí-hítasya. ὀπότερος, αὐτὸς πότερον (i. e. αὐτός πότερον* 'ipse utrumvis') from αὐδὸς ποτερος* (cp. Goth. swa), αὐτός ποτερον. ζυγὸν φερόμεθα* (i. e. ζυγὸν φερόμεθα*) from ζυγόν φερομεθα : yugám bhavēmahī. Ζεὺς ἡμῖν* (i. e. Ζεὺς ἡμῖν*) from Ζεὺς ἡμῖν*.

Rem. 1. Almost all the forms of the finite verb had the recessive tone, cp. e. g. ἔμεν δίδωκεν with Skr. imás dadārka. This is probably not to be explained exclusively from the enclitic use in the principal sentence (§ 669 p. 534). Nothing prevents our assuming that the accentuation of the subordinate sentence was still in force at the time when the secondary accent was developed. Then many forms of the principal sentence necessarily acquired the same accent as the forms of the subordinate sentence. ἔμενον* of the principal sentence (Skr. ἔ bhārāmas) became φέμεν, the form of the subordinate sentence (Skr. bhārāmas), ἔμεμεθα* of the principal sentence (Skr. ἔ bhārēmahī) and φέμεθα* of the subordinate sentence (Skr. bhārēmahī) fell together in φερόμεθα, etc. Such falling together of a part of the forms, led to considerable levellings, after the

1) We give the words as they exist in Ionic or Attic. Strictly speaking we ought to have given the prim. Greek forms.

The acute on long vowels and diphthongs is parallel to the 'broken' tone in Lithuanian, nom. τῆμά: Lith. geró-ji, see § 171. The circumflex corresponds to the 'slurred' tone in Lithuanian, e. g. gen. τῆμάς: Lith. gerós-ios, loc. cit. The accent in voc. Ζεῦ corresponds to the Skr. independent svarita dyaus: the whole rising movement fell to the first mora (cp. πάτερ beside πατήρ), and thus there remained for the second only the falling movement, see §§ 671. 673. The new circumflex which arose by vowel contraction (τρεῖς from τρέες*, οἶρους from οἰνόες, γοητόμεν from γοηόμεν, τιμῆντα from τίμηεντα) teaches us that the second of the sonants which have run together, had the same or a similar tone movement as the Sanskrit enclitic svarita. Thus the svarita in Skr. divīva from divi iva, may be compared with this circumflex, see § 673.

Besides the acute and the circumflex the old grammarians ascribe to Greek the grave accent (βαρεῖα προσῳδία), marked by ` . It is alleged for two essentially different cases.

Firstly, for the last syllable of proclitic words, e. g. τινὰ γάρ, περὶ τοῦτον, ἀλλὰ ταῦτα, ἢ σὺ. The accent of these words, when not used proclitically, was τίνα, πέρι, ἄλλα, ῖ-φε*; the last form is proved by the fact that -φε is the old Indg. enclitic -ye* (Lat. -ve), § 669 p. 534.

Rem. 2. That the Byzantines and we along with them write the proclitic ἐ, ἔ, ἦ, εἰ, αἰ without accent, but περὶ, παρὰ, τῷ, τὸν with the grave, has a purely graphical reason. When in the case of initial vowels the signs for accent and breathing coincided in the same letter, the proclitic monosyllables were relieved of their accent-sign. See Wackernagel Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVIII 137.

Secondly, as substitute for a final acute, when the word did not close the sentence (βασιλεὺς ἐποίησε), with the exception of τίς τί, which always retained the acute (τίς ἐποίησε).

Whether in both cases there was precisely the same tone-movement, is not clear. Equally obscure is the character of the modification undergone by the acute in βασιλεὺς ἐποίησε.

Rem. 3. If we speak of a 'weakened' or 'stified' acute, the matter is as obscure as before (see L. Masing's excellent remarks loc. cit. p. 79 ff.).

Only this much is certain, that the explanation of the phenomenon must start from the fact that the grave had its position where a syllable was spoken directly after in which the tension of the voice began to rise or reached a point. In cases like ρεῖς* (ρεῖς), ἄλλος τῷ-δε, ὅς τις, καὶ οἱ τρεῖς the syllable following the acute had a falling movement, the tension of the voice began to relax in it, and after ῥαῖος βασιλεύς came complete absence of tension, the pause. On the other hand in ἰσχυρὺς* Σπέρης and in βασιλεὺς* ῥήτορα a rising tone movement directly followed the rising acute. Compare with βασιλεὺς* Σπέρης the fact that, in the body of a word, two acutes are not tolerated in two successive morae, whence, e. g., there is no ῥήτορας τις*, as might be expected (see Wheeler op. cit. pp. 126, 129). We may thus conjecture that the grave was not solely a rising tone.

§ 678. In matters of accentuation only trivial differences appear between the different Greek dialects.

The Lesbians alone instituted a more important innovation, by throwing back, as the grammarians tell us, the accent in every case according to the law of three syllables, e. g. σόφ-ος, βασιλ-εύς, ἄρ-χης, θύμ-ος, πότ-αμος.

Rem. When it is said that prepositions and conjunctions as ἀνὰ, διὰ, ἄλλὰ retained their accent on the last in Lesbian too, it is simply a question of the proclitic grave (§ 677), which formed no opposition to baryton accentuation.

The Lesbian accentuation seems, in the main, to have arrived at this position through the great bulk of forms with baryton accent dating from the Greek prim. period having gradually drawn over the forms which were otherwise accented.

Italic.

§ 679. While the native grammarians tell us something of the accentuation of Latin, in the investigation of the accentuation of the other Old Italic dialects we are thrown back on what their phonetic form teaches us when compared with that to be presupposed for the period of the Italic and Indg. primitive period.

There is nothing to contradict and much to support the assumption that the prim. Indg. accentuation had already, during the prim. Italic unity, undergone a complete revolution. In polysyllabic words the accent which was expiratory was borne by the first syllable. Thus a secondary accent had developed on the first syllable and driven out the competing original accent.

Rem. The assumption of F. Stolz (Lat. Gramm. p. 148 and Wiener Stud. VIII 149 f.), that the Indg. final accent in αἰνέ-με* (aeōm), gen. νάη-ός* (nāris) etc. still survived in the separate Lat. development, does not convince me in the slightest.

This accentuation also held good for the compound verb, and it was here certainly not merely caused by the mechanical principle of initial accentuation, but represents the prim. Indg. accentuation of the principal sentence. Such compounds with accentuation of the preposition in the Italic prim. period are e.g. Lat. prae-hibeō praebeō Umbr. pre habia 'praehibeat', Lit. prohibeō Osc. pru-hipid 'prohibuerit', Lat. in-eo Umbr. en-etu imp. 'inito', Lat. con-vertō Umbr. co-vortus 'redierit'. To the prim. Indg. enclisis of the verb in the principal sentence may also be due Lat. nē-sciō, nōn vīs, mā-vīs etc. So also igitur which is the same as the second member of ad-igitur and occurred originally only in such combinations as quid igitur? = quid agitur?* etc.; if igitur at a later period appeared as the first word in a sentence this is parallel to the similar use of Greek τοι in τοι-γαρ-οὖν. Here belongs further also the unaccented forms of the indic. of the substantive verb, as Lat. pōtis-sum pōssum, situs-est situst, Umbr. p̄retom-est 'peremtum est', Osc. prúttú-set 'probatā sunt'.

The enclisis of certain pronouns and particles was also descended from the early period. Lat. sí quis, nám quis etc., Umb. sve-pis Volsc. se-pis Osc. svae-pis 'si quis', Osc. pútúrús-píd pl. 'utrique'. Lat. ne-que, Umbr. nei-p 'nec, non, neu', Osc. nei-p ne-p 'nec, neu'; Lat. uter-que, Umbr. putres-pe 'utriusque'. Lat. sī-c, hī-ce hī-c, Umbr. eso-c 'sic', Osc. ion-c 'eum'. Lat. alter-ve.

Postpositions too were enclitic in primitive Italic. Lat. quō-cum, Umbr. asa-ku 'apud aram'. Lat. tantis-per parum-per sem-per, Umbr. trio-per 'per tria, ter', Osc. petiro-pert 'quater'. It is impossible however to make out if this usage was pre-Italic.

Certain vowel weakenings may have been called into being in the prim. Italic period through the action of initial accentuation. Cp. the nominatives Lat. Umbr. ager Osc. Frunter against Gr. ἀγρός, Lat. famul Osc. famel 'famulus', §§ 623 rem. 1. 633. 655, 9. Compare further the loss of the final vowel in some prepositions, as Lat. ab = Gr. ἄπο, sub = Gr. ὑπο; Lat. ab-dō, Pelig. af-ded 'abdidit', Lat. sub-dō sub-tendō, Umbr. sutentū 'subtendito'. Here syncope might be suspected (§ 633). Yet it must be remembered that these prepositions often stood before vowels, and thus the form which had lost its final vowel before other vowels, might have become generalised (§ 655, 1).

§ 680. In Latin the initial accentuation, descended from the prim. Ital. period, caused vowel reduction in the next syllable, which had the weakest accent. The method of its action was twofold, the syllable either retained its syllabic value or, as a syllable, entirely disappeared.

peperci from péparci*: parcō. cecidi from cécuidi*: coedō. cōn-scendō from cōn-scandō*: scandō. an-helō from án-(h)anslō*: halō from *(h)anslō (§ 208). ex-erceō from éx-arceō*: arceō. ob-sideō from ób-sedeō*: sedeō. cōn-ficiō cōn-fectu-s from cōn-faciō* cōn-factu-s*: faciō factus. prae-hibeō from prái-habeō*: habeō, Umbr. pre-habia 'praehibeat'. cōn-stituo from cōn-statuō*: statuō, Osc. Anter-stataf dat. Interstitae*. ex-istunō from éx-aistunō*: aistunō. in-clādō from ín-claudō*: claudō. sē-cernō in-certu-s from sē-crinō* ín-crīto-s*: Gr. ἄ-κριτο-ς. in-imīcu-s from ín-amīco-s*: amīcu-s. con-tubernāli-s from cōn-tabernāli-s*: taberna. Cp. §§ 33. 65. 81. 97. 109 d. That this vowel weakening was not one of the oldest historical characteristics of the prim. Latin period, is shown by the form of the borrowed words Alizenter, Agrigentum, Tarentum; these came by their e instead of a through the same phonetic law and were at the time accented on the first syllable.

Rem. Historical Forms like ab-arceō beside ab-erceō, ob-traciō beside ob-trectō, ex-pandō do not prove that the law worked irregularly. Such forms depend on a re-composition, just as e. g. Mod.HG. ur-theil drut-theil for urteil drittel show a revival of the second part of the compound after the analogy of theil.

ind-uō from ind-ovō*. cluācru-s from clavācru-s*. See § 172, 1.

reppul from rē-pepul*. āndecim from ānu(s)-decim*. surpul from sūb-rapul*. See § 633.

Perhaps the fact, that o remained unweakened before consonants in final syllables, e. g. novō-s socio-s (sociu-s), but became an irrational vowel in middle syllables, e. g. novi-tās socie-tās, is to be explained from a secondary accent carried by the final syllable in polysyllabic words. Cp. § 81 p. 73.

§ 681. In trisyllabic and polysyllabic words an expiratory secondary accent developed itself in pre-literary Latin according to the quantity of the penultimate syllable. If this syllable was long it bore the accent, if short, the accent was carried by the antepenult. Thus pēperēt* became pepēret, inimīcu-s inimīcu-s*, ēxistumāmus existumāmus*, and ēxistumō* passed into existumō, cōficiunt* into cōficiunt; geu. cōntubernālium* into contubernālium.

Rem. "The Romance languages, by preserving, as a rule, the first syllable of Latin words while unaccented middle syllables often disappeared show that the first syllable always retained a considerable secondary accent; cp. maison* maisonage French maisonage, ménage". Thurneysen Revue Celt. VI 313.

Through loss of vowel in final syllables this new word-accent came to stand here and there on the last syllable, as in llic(e), tantō-n(e), aulūn(e), disturbāt from disturbāvit, mūnīt from mūnivit. Whether the nominatives as nostrās Arpīnds Somnīs Compāns, usually classified with these forms, were genuine Latin nominative formations, may be doubted.

It is difficult to get a clear idea of the nature of the newly developed expiratory accent as syllabic accent.

According to the native grammarians there were an acute (´) and a circumflex accent (˘). The former stood on all short vowels, e. g. nūx, bēne, vēterem, on long vowels in the antepenult, e. g. dēlēō, and on long vowels in the penultimate, if the final syllable was long, e. g. rēgēs. The latter stood on long vowels in monosyllables and on the final syllable of polysyllabic words, e. g. rēx, illīc, and on the long vowels of the penultimate, if the end syllable was short, e. g. rēgis, rēgīna. So far, as the accentuation of the long vowels is concerned (rēgēs, but rēgis), this difference in the forms of the syllabic accent is probably rightly regarded as a pedantic fiction of the grammarians.

Vowel shortening in Jūppiter (Jūpiter) etc. points, as we saw in § 612, to a clear cut accent. Nevertheless the reason for the separate treatment of the words in question, while other words apparently similarly formed have no shortening, is quite obscure.

§ 682. Besides the cases of enclisis, mentioned in § 679, there are others whose age we are not in a position to determine. Here may be mentioned especially combinations like in-vicem, dēnuō from dē novō, illicō from in slocō*, profectō from prō factō* originally something like 'as good as a fact' (cp. cōn-fectu-s § 680).

Compound words with an enclitic as second member were also subjected to this new law of accent (§ 681). tāntō-ne*, ūter-que*, utrā-que*, utrōrum-que*, scēleris-que*, scēlerum-que* passed over into tāntōne, utēque, utrāque, utrōrumque, scelerisque, scelerumque; here too the accent of the initial syllable was retained as secondary accent. On the analogy of such accentuation people also said tāntāne, utrāque, where the new law had nothing to do with the giving up of the original accentuation, and scelerā-que, for which scelerāque* might have been expected. In the latter case moreover this analogy was not, as it seems, the only influence; the circumstance that the last syllable of polysyllabic words had originally a secondary accent (cp. § 680 p. 548) was also not without effect. In combinations like scelera-que which were always felt by the speaker as a combination of two elements, the tone movement of the uncompounded first member (scēlerū) counteracted the accentuation of the antepenult (scelēraque*) which formed a sharp contrast to it. This seems to be specially supported by agitē-dum which had no form so accentuated as sceleris-que alongside it.

The retention of the old accentuation by ita-que iti-que etc., is to be explained from the fact that they were no longer felt as compounds. They might be adduced as additional proof that útrā-gne*, lántā-ne* was once the pronunciation.

§ 683. We saw that in prehistoric times Umbrian-Samn. dialects shared the initial accentuation of Latin. Hence the numerous instances of syncope in these dialects, as Umbr. osatu 'operato' Osc. úpsannam 'operandam' from ópesā-*, see § 633.

Whether this accentuation still prevailed at the date of our monuments or whether a new system of accentuation had already taken its place, is a subject for further investigation. The extensive rejection of vowels in final syllables, as in Umbr. pihaz 'piatus' Osc. túvtfks 'publicus' (§§ 633. 655, 5), leads us to conjecture that the initial accentuation was retained.

Old Irish.

§ 684. The effects of accent on the form of words, prove that in the primitive Keltic period the first syllable had come to bear the word-accent owing to the development of an expiratory secondary accent.

This mode of accentuation prevailed in noun forms whether the word was simple or compound. O.Ir. necht O.Corn. noit 'neptis': Skr. naptī-§. O.Ir. cloth 'renowned' O.Bret. clot (f.?) 'renown': Skr. śrutā-. Gall. Trí-casses; the accentuation of this word is cleared up by its Romance form, French Troyes (from Tricas*). O.Ir. táus 'leadership, superiority, beginning', Cymr. tywys 'guidance' from tó-yessu-s* = to-yed+tu-* (O.Ir. do-fédim 'I lead'), with its derivative in -ako tó-yessako-s* O.Ir. tóisech 'guide' Cymr. tywysog 'guide, leader, chief' O.Kelt. inscript. (Denbighshire) tovisaci; the great antiquity of the accentuation of this prefix follows from the t- instead of d- in the Gaelic and in the Britannic branch.

In the case of the verb there was a difference according as the verbal form was accompanied by a preposition or not. While the uncompounded verb had initial accentuation (e. g. O.Ir. caram O.Cymr. caram 'I love'), the compound verb was not accented on the first syllable of the word, but on the first syllable of the second member of the combination; the imperative formed an exception, for in it the preposition bore the word-accent. A peculiarity doubtless to be referred to the prim. Indg. verbal accentuation. The accentuation of the prim. Indg. subordinate sentence was retained and generalised; the imperative alone, which had no place in the subordinate sentence, still represents the accentuation of the principal sentence (cp. Skr. prá-bhara, Gr. πρό-φερει). Irish has best preserved these relations, e. g. do-mélim 'vescor', but imper. tó-míl 'vescere'; do-bérid 'fertis; datis', but imper. táibrith 'ferte, date'. The prefix form do- with d shows that the Britannic branch once shared in them (Thurneysen Revue Celt. VI 311).

The fact that, in the time of the prim. Keltic unitary period, when the initial syllables received the word-accent, combinations like O.Ir. do-mélim did not take the accent on the pre-position, proves that the latter was not yet fused with the verbal form into an indissoluble unity. The n of con- etc. points also to this as will be seen below.

Thus far the relationships of verbal accentuation allow themselves to be without difficulty connected with those which we must presuppose for the Indg. primitive period. Now Irish still shows a rule of accentuation which also seems to date from prim. Keltic, viz. the same accentuation as in the imperative 1. after the negative particles ní ní 'non' (maní 'si non', coní 'ut non' etc.), ná náid náid 'non'; 2. after the relative (s)a(n), if it was suffixed to a preposition, including the particle in- 'in which' and the conjunctions ar-an- 'ut', di-an- 'cum', co-n- 'donec ut'; 3. after the interrogative particle ind- inn- in-. E. g. n épur 'non dico' beside at-biur. That this accentuation goes back to prim. Keltic, is shown by the double form con- and cóm- of the preposition, corresponding to Lat. cum. Thus con-écat 'possunt', but ní cúmcat 'non possunt'. The transition from m to n cannot be comprehended from the difference of accentuation by itself, but only from the prim. Keltic sound-law according to which final -m became -n (§§ 211. 657, 8); com thus became con at a time when as yet no closer connexion with immediately succeeding verbal forms had been introduced (cp.

Goth. and-beita 'I scold', § 687). The retention of the m in nī cūncat will then have been due to the same cause as in the imperative, that is, the firm connexion of the preposition with the verb and the accentuation of cóm- in nī cūncat were prim. Keltic. It has not yet been satisfactorily explained how this method of accentuation in the case of preceding negative particles etc., was arrived at in prim. Keltic.

Enclisis, inherited from the prim. Indg. period, probably appears in O.Ir. cā-ch O.Cymr. pau-p 'everybody', O.Ir. ne-ch Cymr. ne-p 'quisquam, ullus' (scarcely to be connected directly with Gr. -τε, since we should expect cāich* neich*).

§ 685. The accentuation, characterised in the last paragraph as primitive Keltic, appears to have experienced no material alteration in the special Irish development down to the Old Irish period.

How the strongly expiratory word-accent occasioned in many cases sound-weakening and loss of syllables, has been remarked in §§ 66. 82. 90. 98. 106. 613. 623 rem. 1. 634. 657. Consequently the Indg. vowels retained their qualitative and quantitative differences with comparative purity only in syllables under the principal accent.

We have seen in § 634 that in a certain prehistoric period of Irish the syllable immediately following the accented syllable in trisyllabic and polysyllabic words had the weakest accent, cp. e. g. dat. cáirt-ib beside gen. sg. cárat, to nom. cára 'friend'.

The prim. Keltic accentuation suffered greater changes in Britannic. Cymric accents almost all polysyllables on the penult. Matters are more complicated in Bas Breton.

Germanic.

§ 686. Verner's law, treated in §§ 530. 581, shows that the prim. Indg. free accentuation had still long existed in the special primitive Germanic period. On the chronology of this sound-law cp. also § 541. The word-accent had at that time, as has been remarked in § 670 p. 536, an expiratory character.

§ 687. During the prim. Germanic period a new expiratory accentuation came into being, which in all material points was similar to that of Keltic.

The first syllable became the bearer of the accent in nominal forms, both simple and compound. Goth. fádar OHG. fáter etc. 'father' from prim. Germ. fáder-, older fader-: Skr. pítár-. Goth. háidu-s OHG. héit 'manner': Skr. kéltá-ṣ. Goth. ánda-vaurdi OHG. ánt-wurti 'answer'.

The simple verb likewise took initial accentuation. Goth. vitum OHG. uizzum 'we know' from prim. Germ. uitumj*, older uitumj*: Skr. vidmá. Goth. sátja OHG. sézzu 'I set' from prim. Germ. sátijō*, older sattijō*: Skr. sádayāmi.

On the other hand in the compound verb¹⁾ the first syllable of the second member received the accent. Goth. fra-llusa OHG. far-llusu 'I lose'. OHG. fir-tuom 'I extirpate, destroy, execrate', cp. frá-tāt 'acelus'; ir-loubōm 'I permit' cp. úr-loub 'permission'; ob-lāzzu 'I forgive', cp. áb-lāz 'pardon'; zir-gángu 'deficio', cp. zúr-gang 'defectio', also Ags. zea-twe pl. 'equipment' = Goth. gá-terōs*. The different forms, which the prefix assumes in Goth. and-beita 'I chide' and-hafja 'I answer' and anda-beit 'blame' anda-hafts 'answer' show that this accentuation of compounded verbs was due to the fact that the preposition did not form a word-unity with the following verb. The pre-Germanic form of the prefix was anti* (cp. Gr. ἄντι), and if the prim. Germ. anda* in and-beita etc. had lost its final -a, this loss can only be explained by the law of finals (§ 660, 1), thus anda must at that time have been still an independent word. Cp. O.Ir. con- in con-écat § 684 p. 551.

Rem. The tmesis in Gothic, as ga-u-láubjats 'do ye two believe?', ga-u-hea-sēhi 'if he saw aught'; bi-u-gitdi 'shall he find?', dis-uh-pan-sat 'and he then seized' (see Bernhardt on I. Corinth. XV, 15) seems, at first sight, yet more distinctly to point to this slack connexion of the preposition with the verb in the prim. Germ. period. But Kluge (Kuhn's Ztschr. XXVI 80) assumes with good reason that the prefix was not proclitic here, but had the full accent and that the verbal form was enclitic, just as in Skr. ápa ca tiṣṭhati etc. If this is right, this tmesis does not prove anything for cases like fra-Huso.

In Germanic, so far as we can see, the imperative of compounds does not, as in Keltic § 684, form an exception. For Gothic cp. andbindiþ John XI, 44 'loose ye', andhafjiþ Mark XI, 30 'answer ye' not anda-. It had thus no doubt the accentuation of the subordinate sentence on the analogy of other verbal forms. An extension of this accentuation beyond its original sphere may be observed in the noun formations which attach themselves closely to the verb. That the passive participles had originally, in agreement with Skr. prá-bhṛta-s etc., the nominal accentuation, is still shown by e. g. Goth. ánda-fahts 'discreet' beside and-fágkjan 'to deliberate', OHG. úntar-tān Mod.HG. únter-than 'subject', dúrnh-noht 'perfect' (to duruh-núgan), missi-lungen 'miscarried' (to missi-lingen), Ags. frá-coð 'despised' = Goth. fra-kunþs. But beside these already Goth. and-hálþs and bitans, OHG. far-hólan etc. Cp. Kluge loc. cit., p. 68 ff.

Enclitics descended from pre-Germanic. -h in Goth. ní-h 'and not' = Lat. ne-que, hvo-h fem. 'each', cp. Lat. quae-que. -k in Goth. mi-k (OHG. mi-h) 'me', cp. Gr. ἐμ-; τ.

The new accentuation of Germanic had probably occasioned to some degree vowel absorption in the prim. unitary period. See § 635.

The question is, did the new accentuation arise through the development of an expiratory accent on the first syllable of the word, which struggled for a long time with the old word-accent and finally overpowered it, or is Verner right in saying (Kuhn's Ztschr. XXIII 129): "The transition to the fixed accentuation (root accentuation) is an analogical formation, completely carried out. The cases, in which the accent rested upon the root-syllable, were already under the old principle of accentuation in the majority, and this mode of accentuation then spread itself in the Germanic primitive language, since the word-forms, which had the accent on the ending, gradually threw it back on to the root syllable". That in certain cases the analogy of forms, accented on the first syllable from of old, had influence, is not to be denied, but I do not think that we can rid ourselves of the assumption of a free development of the recessive accent. I do not see e. g. how the effect of analogy helps us in the case of the numerous polysyllabic adverbs and prepositions whose initial syllable, as has been established by Verner's law, had originally no accent.

§ 688. In Gothic there are a number of sound-weakenings which show that the new Germanic accentuation remained for a certain time in this dialect on the whole unchanged, e. g. sátja 'I set' from sátiþ*, sínjus 'sons' from súniþis* (cp. with this giús from giya-z*, § 179 p. 156), batris 'bearest' from birizi*. See § 635. 660.

It cannot be decided with certainty whether this system of accentuation existed still at the period of our monuments. The alterations in Gothic, which appear in the period after Ulfilas, do not prevent us from assuming that the traditional accentuation had remained, and so we may believe that it did remain.

§ 689. In West Germanic, especially in High German, the new accentuation has persisted in the main down to the present day.

The West Germanic law of syncope (§ 635) shows us the position of the word accent, and at the same time the relation of stress, which the accents of syllables without the principal accent, had to one another. If e. g. in OHG. hórta (Goth. háusida) the i was dropped, but remained in nérta (Goth. násida), the second syllable must have had a weaker accent in the first case than in the second; and hórta shows further that the last syllable in the older form hórita* had a secondary accent. According to Paul (Paul-Braune's Beitr. VI 136 ff.) the secondary accent in polysyllables did not merely follow mechanical routine, but was guided also by logical principles. The logical character of the secondary accents is shown by their varying with the flexion in the same word. Thus

e. g. the ending of the nom. and acc. sg. and probably also of the plural had a weaker grade of accent than the endings of the other cases, so that in the nom. and acc. of trisyllabic nouns the penult had stronger accent-stress than the last, while in the other cases the reverse held true. Paul conjectures that these functional differences of accent were already in existence in the primitive Germanic period.

In a number of cases vowel loss is to be explained from frequent enclitic or proclitic use of the word. Thus OHG. monan from imo inan, see p. 484; mih 'me' daz 'that' with final vowel loss in contrast with such forms as chumi, see p. 517. Cp. Paul loc. cit. pp. 125. 132. 144 and elsewhere.

Baltic-Slavonic.

§ 690. Lithuanian and a part of the Slavonic languages show freedom of accentuation, and there can be no doubt that this method of accentuation extends back to prim. Baltic and prim. Slavonic. But the two branches go in details only partially hand in hand, and neither of the two systems quite agrees with the system which must be presupposed for the prim. Indg. period.

There are here two possibilities — either new principles of accentuation came into being as in other Indg. languages, which caused a new word-accent but which are still concealed from us, or the innovations in accent were the affects of analogy only, the old inherited word-accent having been generalised differently in different categories of forms. The latter, so far as we can see at present, is the more probable hypothesis and two examples may be given to show how in this way deviations from the prim. Indg. word-accent could have arisen. The accent falls on the ending in the 1. and 2. sg. in Lithuanian, and in Slavonic (i. e. in the dialects which retained the original Slavonic accentuation) in all the persons of the pres. indic. corresponding to the Skr. vāhami (Indg. yéghō*): Lith. vežiu veži, Russ. vezú vezés' vezét etc., Bulg. vezú vezés vezé etc.

Servian vězēm vėzēs rězē etc. (for older vezēm* etc., see § 692). We may assume that in the period of the Balt.-Slav. prim. community, the accent was already at any rate on the 1. sg.¹⁾ pushed from the root syllable towards the end of the word (cp. Leskien Archiv. f. slav. Phil. V 509 f.). If we consider now that the final accentuation in present forms composing the Skr. 6. class (indāmī) comes from prim. Indg., that this accentuation therefore in such forms as Lith. sukū Russ. skú 'I turn', may be treated as original, it is not hard to conjecture that in prim. Baltic-Slavonic uēšō* was modified into uēšō* after the analogy of ukō*. In Lith. and Slav. the masculine noun stems in o never have the accent on the final syllable in the nom. and acc. sg. If then e. g. Lith. dāma-s dāmaq and Russ. dym (O.Bulg. dymū) correspond to Skr. dhāmā-s dhāmā-m and Greek θεμός-ς θεμό-ς, this may depend on a generalisation of the accentuation of such nouns as Lith. vīlka-s vīlq Russ. vólk (Skr. efka-s, efka-m). Whether the whole of the deviation in Baltic-Slav. accent from the prim. Indg., may be thus explained, rests with more accurate investigation to show.

It seems to me to be highly probable that the Balt.-Slav. innovations, as regards the position of the word-accent, were brought about in this latter manner, owing to the fact that the twofold quality of the Lith. syllabic accent is historically connected with that of Greek (§ 671), although this duality of the syllabic accentuation has directly nothing to do with the contrast between syllables with and syllables without the high tone (see p. 530).

It may be further mentioned that Baltic-Slavonic, like all other branches of languages, possesses old inherited enclitics. Lith. nė-gi 'not surely' kas-gi 'who surely? who then?', O.Bulg.

1) The prim. Slav. and O.Bulg. form vezq was not in any case, it is true, the Indg. form uēghō*, but a conjunctive form uēghām* = Lat. āham (see § 219), which suppressed the indic. form. But this conj. form too had the accent originally on the root syllable and we may assume that the accentuation of the indic. and conj. forms was identical at that time of the prim. Slavonic period when the two forms were used indifferently i. e. shortly before the suppression of the indic. form.

ne-go ne-že, the strengthened comparative particle ne (cp. Skr. ná 'not' and 'even as'): Skr. gha in ná gha etc. O.Bulg. mi 'mih' enclitic beside mīnē, like Skr. mē beside mīhyam. Indefinite pronouns Lith. ku-s O.Bulg. stem ko- (nom. kŭ-to), e. g. Lith. nē-kas O.Bulg. ni-kŭto (dat. ni-komu) 'nobody'.

§ 691. Baltic.

The accentuation of Prussian is not known.

Lettic always accents the first syllable, and it is clear that this accentuation is younger than the Lith. free accentuation. The syllabic accent is of a twofold character. We have to distinguish between broken ('gestossen') and lengthened ('gedehnt') tone; for further information see Bielenstein Die lett. Sprache I 32 ff.

Lithuanian accentuation seems on the whole to be the unchanged continuation of that of prim. Baltic.

It is essentially expiratory throughout, as it seems, the whole sphere of the language. The musical accent does not however play a subordinate part.

In certain Lithuanian districts the word-accent is thrown back on to the initial syllable. This phenomenon is apparently most widely spread in the Memel dialect, and in this case it might perhaps be due to the influence of the Lettic dialect (des kurischen Dialektes). In the other dialects, e. g. that of Godlewn (see Brugmann Lit. Volksl. u. Märch. p. 295), such influence cannot be assumed, except in case that the eastern, little known dialects similarly share in the change, and thus a geographical communication with the area of the Lettic language be established.

Frequent elaborate attempts have been made to explain the differences of syllabic accentuation, which is either broken ('gestossen') or slurred ('geschliffen' better 'schleifend'). But the descriptions of these differences differ materially from one another, so that it is not easy to form a correct picture from them. The chief points are as follow:

1. Short syllables have always the same single-pointed accent, e. g. bū-tas ('house'). Syllables, in which a tautosyllabic liquid or nasal follows the short vowel, form an exception to this rule; these sound-combinations stand on the same level as the diphthongs (ai etc.).

2. In long syllables, that is, in such as contain a long vowel or short vowel + i, u, nasal, liquid, it makes a difference whether the moment of the greatest intensity of expiration falls on the first or last mora. In the former case we have the broken ('gestossen') accent, e. g. bā|ti ('to be'), lāu|kin ('I abide'), vār|na ('crow'), in the latter the slurred ('geschliffen'), e. g. kā|das ('thin, lean'), tvā|nas ('an overflowing'), taū|kas ('field') vi|kas ('wolf'). No fluctuation seems to take place with broken accentuation, the voice-stress slackens steadily. On the other hand a secondary point seems to exist with slurred accentuation. Kurschat says of the latter accent, that a leap is made to a higher step, "so that such a vowel appears, as it were, compounded of two vowels of which the first is unaccented, the second accented", and that also a "falling" takes place between the first and the second step. The secondary point — which in any case is insignificant — is thus situated before the chief point. Sievers *Phonet.*³ 203. also indicates this accent as double pointed. Musically speaking the broken tone is a simple falling, the slurred either a simple rising (/) or a combination of a rising and a level tone (/).

Rem. The quantity of syllables was taken too little into account in the older investigations on Lith. accentuation. Baranowski and H. Weber in the East Lith. texts p. XV sqq. throw light on the relation of this to the accent. That which is published here is unfortunately only the beginning of a systematic exposition of the Lith. accentuation, so that in a work like ours it is only possible to take account of it incidentally. The chief points are as follow:

In Lith. a distinction is to be made between short, medium long and long vowels and syllables (˘, ˚, ˚˚). Liquids and nasals, which follow a vowel, can form one or two morae. The varieties of accentuation are caused by these differences of quantity, not conversely.

If no tautosyllabic liquid¹⁾ follows a middle long vowel, the accent always falls on the second mora of the vowel (˚˚), e. g. tvā|nas. Medium long syllables always have the slurred tone.

• If a tautosyllabic short liquid follows a medium long vowel, the accent falls on the first mora of the syllable (˘˚), e. g. eḍ|na, as if eḍar|na.

¹⁾ That which we have said here and in the following exposition of the liquids, also holds good of the nasals in all cases.

But if the vowel is short and the tautosyllabic liquid medium long, the second mora of it, that is, the third of the syllable, has the accent (˘˘˘), e. g. vařjdas ('name'), as if carjdas. In the latter case a shifting of quantity took place in certain dialects, the vowel becoming medium long and the liquid short, carjdas became raurjdas.

Long vowels (˘˘˘) can be accented on the first (˘˘˘) and on the last mora (˘˘˘), e. g. būti - būniti, sīt das 'justice' = suuādas.

If we apply these laws to the law of vowel shortening in final syllables, treated in § 664, 3 (p. 523), we have the following results: As gerā* became gerā, the final syllable was deprived of two morae, ˘˘ became ˘. anū had a medium long vowel (˘˘) and retained it. In the transition of gērs to gērā ˘˘ (ēer) first became ˘˘ (ēr); but the medium long syllable did not tolerate this accentuation, ˘˘ necessarily arose, thus gērā.

We saw in § 664, 2 that sēnas 'old' gēras 'good' became sēns gērs. The second syllable being abolished as such and in the former case the n, in the latter the r, adding a mora to the preceding medium long vowel (˘˘), the result was first of all ˘˘˘. This accent position was not tolerated, there arose ˘˘˘, thus sēns, gērs. Has not also the das pl. vilkāns from vilkānns been brought about in the same manner (cp. § 664, 2)?

If a short vowel was dropped in the last syllable which had the word-tone (§ 664, 1. 2), the syllable immediately preceding it received the word-accent in the shape of a slurred tone. This modification cannot have taken place in absolute finality. Loc. sg. tojē passed into tōj, instr. pl. tomis into tōms, instr. sg. akimā into akim, instr. pl. akimīs into akim̃s, pirmā into pirm̃. According to this the gen. sg. akmeñs dukteřs had arisen from akmen-ēs* dukter-ēs*.

It may be mentioned lastly that in nominal compounds, if the first member has the word-accent of the whole compound, the second member exhibits its own word-tone as secondary accent, e. g. vaik-palaikis 'a worthless young fellow' isz-kekszinis 'bastard child', and that likewise verbal forms, if they had the prefix pér- 'over, through', retain their own word-accent as secondary accent, e. g. pér-lēkti 'to fly over' pér-važiāti 'to ride through'.

§ 692. Slavonic. Since the accentuation of Old Bulgarian is not recorded and the phonetic changes of the prim. Slav. and O.Bulg. periods offer insufficient help for the determination of the accentuation (cp. § 281 rem. 3 extr.), we are obliged to have recourse in the first instance to the Modern Slavonic dialects.

Of these Polish, Sorabian and Czech have given up the free word-accent. They accent all words in the same position; Polish has the accent on the penult, Sorabian and Czech on the first syllable.

Among the West Slav. languages Polabian preserved the movable accent, the material is here however of a limited nature. The languages of special importance are the South Slavonic languages (Servian-Croatian-Slovenian and Bulgarian) and the Russian dialects. These represent on the whole the prim. Slavonic accentuation. But it must be noticed that in the greatest part of the Servian-Croatian dialects, in the so-called Štokavian dialect (i. e. in the dialect, in which the neut. interrogative pronoun is što, in contrast to Čakavian, where this pronoun is ča), a shifting of the principal accent has taken place in such a manner that it was thrown back from its original position near a syllable from the beginning of the word, so that it only preserved its old position when it originally rested on the first syllable.

Thus e. g. on account of Russ. nesú Bulg. nesŭ Sor.-Štokav. nešëm (from nesēm*) Rezin. nešæ we can deduce a final syllabic accentuation for O.Bulg. nesq and further for prim. Slav. nesq*.

Rem. Many excellent treatises have been made on the accentuation of single Slav. languages and dialects. But a treatment on the whole Slavonic accentuation in general is still wanting, and since my knowledge of the modern Slavonic dialects is insufficient to undertake such a treatment and to be able to draw conclusions for the prim. Slav. period, I leave off with the above hints.
