

Report on the Lecture by Dr. H S Venkatesh Murthy

Date: 21st Sept 2016

Venue: Seminar Hall, IGNCa SRC Campus

Title: The Image of Krishna in Dr. HSV's Poetry

IGNCA SRC, Bangalore as part of "Samskruthi Smarane" – Monthly Lecture Series, eminent poet Dr. H S Venkatesh Murthy, delivered a lecture on "The image of Krishna in HSV's Poetry" on 21st Sept 2016 at Seminar Hall, IGNCa SRC Campus.

Dr. HSV dwelling over the specialities of his poetry exalted the various and multifarious characters passed through his poetry. "The cheerful Krishna has always impressed me to pen down poetry; it evolved as my emotional expression unlike just poetry. Krishna in my perception is a joyful and a most fascinating character across Mahabharata unlike Rama in Ramayana", said Dr. HSV.

Dr. Murthy read some of his exclusive and exquisite poems that enthralled and reached the audience. The talk was also coupled with reception and reciprocation on the poems that were read out.

Dr. Karigowda Beechanahalli, Former VC, Hampi Kannada University, Dr. M R Sathyanarayana, President, Karnataka Gamaka Kala Parishat, Dr. Vatsala Mohan, Kannada Scholar, Prof. Chethana Sridhar, Principal, Blue Bell PU College, Students from various colleges, Film Makers and Public were present during the lecture.
