

इन्दिरा गान्धी राष्ट्रीय कला केन्द्र
INDIRA GANDHI NATIONAL CENTRE FOR THE ARTS

IGNCA Bharat Vidya Prayojana
presents

International Conference on

‘Demetrios Galanos and His Legacy:
Indo-Greek scholarship 1790-2018’

3rd – 10th February, 2018

Description: The IGNCA has undertaken to revive the tradition of study of India by non-colonial foreigners by celebrating the memory of Demetrios Galanos, the noted Greek scholar, whose translations of Sanskrit texts left an indelible mark at international level. The aim is to focus on scholarly and creative exchanges between India and Greece by several academics and artists both Indian and Greek, in modern times since Demetrios Galanos. Cultural cooperation between India and Greece is also the need of the hour seeing the present scenario between Europe and India. The Conference will be held in two phases, one at Delhi and other at Varanasi, in the month of February, 2018. The Embassy of Greece, the India International Centre, the Bharat Adhyayan Kendra of Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, and the Indo-Hellenic Friendship League, are active collaborators in this endeavour.

Confrence Date and Venue:

Delhi Venue: IGNCA Auditorium, no. 1, C. V. Mess, Janpath, New Delhi.

Delhi Dates: 3rd and 4th of February, 2018

Timings: 10.00 am – 5.30 pm.

Varanasi Venue: Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi.

Varanasi Dates: 8th to 10th of February, 2018

Timings: 10.00 am – 5.30 pm.

For further details contact:

Dr. Sudhir Lall, Project Director, Bharat Vidya Prayojana, IGNCA or

Mr. Arun Kumar, Project Assistant, Bharat Vidya Prayojana, IGNCA

(Phones: 9868229069/9013051165/8368388489)

or post your queries to bhaviprayojana@gmail.com>