IGNCA

Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts (IGNCA) is an autonomous, academic, research institution under the Ministry of Culture, Government of India. IGNCA has a wide mandate, to explore and understand "The Arts" in its different dimensions and present them to the larger public in various formats.

IGNCA has vibrant academic resources, strong research teams, effective dissemination systems. IGNCA's publications are appreciated by the scholarly community.

The Exhibition

IGNCA has been hosting programmes throughout the Birth Centenary Year of Dr M S Subbulakshmi. These include concerts, conference, story telling sessions and book reading session.

The year concludes with an exhibition Kurai Onrum Illai – MS, A Life in Music. The title of the exhibition draws from an iconic song, composed by Rajaji and rendered by her, perhaps only by her. The song tells god that she has no complaints, about life, about Him. Here we also use the verse to say that MS' was a life that was flawless.

The exhibition looks at the life of MS, from her early years to the people who moulded her, the composers and songs she immortalized, her contribution to the freedom movement, her magnanimous charity work, her role in films and the many many awards and accolades world decorated her with.

The exhibition and the year-long programmes have been supported by the Ministry of Culture, Government of India.
