

CV of Wang Dehua

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Wang Dehua

Date and Place of Birth: 20th October 1938, in Shanghai

Citizenship: P. R. China Address:

Institute for South and Central Asia Studies

Shanghai Municipal Center for International Studies

Education:

1954—1957 Songjiang High School

1957—1962 Foreign Languages Department, Fudan University, Shanghai

Present Positions:

President, Special Commission for South-Asian Studies, Shanghai Association for International Relations

Director, Institute for South and Central Asia Studies

Vice President, Shanghai Institute for International Strategic Studies

Advisor to China Association for South-Asian Studies

Senior fellow, Center for National Strategic Studies, Shanghai Jiaotong University

Former Positions

Vice President, Institute of Information Science, SASS

Vice President, Shanghai Association for Ecological Economic Studies

Executive Council Member, China Association for Social Information Science Studies

Council Member, China Association for Asia and Africa Studies

Books

Ø Dragon and Elephant: A Comparative Study of

Rising China and India In 21st Century ; Ø The Dragon and Elephant Tango

Ø The Contending Powers and Securities in the Asia-Pacific Region

Ø Famous Speeches of the United Kingdom

Ø Famous Speeches at the UN Forum

Ø The Pithy Speeches at the UN Forum

Ø Latest Studies of Social Sciences of Foreign Countries (1997)

Ø Latest Studies of Social Sciences of Foreign Countries (1998)

Ø A Talk on Knowledge Economy

Ø The Swire Group in Old China--- a Translation

Ø Shanghai's Investment Environment in the 1990s

Ø The SASS Papers (Translations)

Ø Indian Ocean :Whether China Needs A Indian Ocean Strategy(To be published soon)

Papers:Ø “Soft Security” Cooperation In North-East Asia:how to improve preparedness for pandemics, disasters and other transnational challenges

- Ø On the Concept, Characteristics and Origins of International Terrorism
- Ø China and Asia-Pacific Region in the 1990s: The Chances and Challenges Ahead
- Ø Globalization and Revitalization of the Silk Routes
- Ø The Soviet-Indian Economic Relations
- Ø The Soviet-Indian Political Relations
- Ø Indo-Russian Relations Before 1917
- Ø My View of the Nature of the Indian Society
- Ø On Mixed Economy of India
- Ø Dragon and Elephant----A Comparative Study of China and India

Academic and Travel Experiences:

Has given more than 100 lectures in numerous countries while having traveled to the USA, UK, France, Germany, India, Pakistan, Nepal, Israel , Thailand, Malaysia , Republic of Korea , Sri Lanka, Egypt, etc.

Contact address:

Institute for South and Central Asia Studies
Shanghai Municipal Center for International Studies
622//7 Huaihai Zhonglu, Shanghai, 200020, P . R . China
Tel:86+21+58837236;13585530901
E-mail:dehuawangzh@126.com
Fax:86+21+58837236