Born in 1949, Pandit Kadri Gopalanath developed interest in music from his father, Thanappa, a Nadaswaram Vidwan during his childhood. He once saw saxophone being played at Mysore Palace and decided to master the instrument. After twenty years of his training, he was crowned as ‘Saxophone Chakravarthy’.

He played his maiden concert for Chennai Memorial Trust and eventually performed in several festivals in India and abroad including Jazz festival In Prague, Berlin Jazz Festival, the International Cervantino Festival in Mexico, the Music Hall Festival in Paris.

A Padma Shri awardee, Pandit ji is the first Carnatic musician to be invited in BBC Promenade Concert in 1954.
