New Delhi [India (/topic/india)], June 6 (ANI): On the occasion of World Environment Day, observed on Friday, in Indira Gandhi Nation Centre for the Arts (IGNCA (/topic/ignca)'s) Facebook live series titled "Vision of Arts for the Future in Post COVID Scenario", Dr.Ajay Kumar Mishra(Regional Director) IGNCA (/topic/ignca) Regional Centre Ranchi invited well-known poet and Ambassador of India (/topic/india) to Madagascar (/topic/madagascar),

Abhay K (/topic/abhay-k) to deliver his talk on "Protecting environment through Poetry".

According to a release, Abhay K (/topic/abhay-k). imparted a "very engaging" lecture on the highly acclaimed work of Kalidasa which dates back to 5th Century. "The Meghaduta and RitusamharaKavya reiterate on the composite ecology and environment flora and fauna which is full of flowers, plants, animals, rivers, mountains, forests and clouds in its bounty."

The Ambassador shared his own experiences of how the immediate nature and culture around him has profoundly inspired him to compose haiku-like short poems, which was beautifully recited by him during the session, the release said.

He also recited the Earth anthem composed by him in the year 2008 which was released on the occasion of World Environment Day in 2013 at the India (/topic/india)n Council of Cultural Relations in New Delhi.

Since then it has been translated into over 50 languages spoken across the globe and used by a large number of schools worldwide to celebrate World Environment Day and Earth Day. "He has successfully set a benchmark for the world to follow and ponder which in itself is great tribute to Mother Earth," the release said.

Further, he also suggested that Ministry of Culture in General and IGNCRA (/topic/ignca), in particular, can think of creating an institution of an India (/topic/india)n Poet Laureate, on the lines of US Poet Laureate where the poet laureate is a consultant at the Library of Congress (/topic/library-of-congress) in Washington DC.

"In order to let diverse linguistic poetic tradition bloom and sustain he further suggested to have the repository of poetry books published across the country, in all languages, at a central poetry library, and translate and publish the best of India (/topic/india)n poetry every year," said the release.

Abhay K (/topic/abhay-k). has been proactively involved in exploring his literary passion which resulted into many globally recognized and universally accepted famed memoirs, books, poems written, authored and edited by him.

His poems have been published in over sixty literary journals across the world. He received the SAARC literary award and was invited to record his poems at Library of Congress (/topic/library-of-congress) in the Washington DC, one of his book titled "The alphabets of Latin America" A carnival of Poem by Bloomsbury is also scheduled to be out in the month of June 2020. ## प्रकृति और संस्कृति ने कविता रचना के लिए किया प्रेरित : अभय के.

पटना 05 जून (वार्ता) बिहार से गहरा नाता रखने वाले मेडागास्कर में भारत के राजदूत अभय के. ने शुक्रवार को पर्यावरण दिवस के मौके पर कहा कि प्रकृति और संस्कृति ने उन्हें कविता रचना के लिए गहराई से प्रभावित किया है।

इंदिरा गांधी राष्ट्रीय कला केंद्र (आईजीएनसीए) के सदस्य सचिव डॉ. सच्चिदानंद जोशी का मार्गदर्शन में आईजीएनसीए की ओर से 05 जून को पर्यावरण दिवस के अवसर पर फेसबुक लाइव व्याख्यान का आयोजन

किया गया। इस दौरान श्री अभय ने 'कविता के माध्यम से पर्यावरण की रक्षा' विषय पर अपने व्याख्यान में कहा कि महाकवि कालिदास की बहुप्रशंसित कृति मेघदूत और ऋतुसंहार पारिस्थितिकी, पर्यावरण वनस्पतियों और जीवों पर एक बेहतरीन संग्रह है, जो फूलों, पौधों, जानवरों, नदियों, पहाड़ों, जंगलों और बादलों के विवरण से भरे हुए हैं। उन्होंने कहा कि उनके आस-पास की प्रकृति और संस्कृति ने उन्हें छोटी कविताओं की रचना करने के लिए गहराई से प्रेरित किया।

श्री अभय ने इस मौके पर वर्ष 2008 में उनके द्वारा रचित पृथ्वी गान का भी पाठ किया, जो 2013 में विश्व पर्यावरण दिवस के अवसर पर नई दिल्ली में भारतीय सांस्कृतिक संबंध परिषद में जारी किया गया था। तब से इसे दुनिया भर में बोली जाने वाली 50 से अधिक भाषाओं में अनुवादित किया गया और विश्व पर्यावरण दिवस और पृथ्वी दिवस मनाने के लिए दुनिया भर में बड़ी संख्या में स्कूलों द्वारा उपयोग किया गया।

उल्लेखनीय है कि बिहार में जन्में श्री अभय के. मेडागास्कर में भारत के राजदूत होने के अलावा कैपिटल्स, नई ब्राजीलियन कविताओं और 100 महान भारतीय कविताओं का संपादन भी किया है। उनकी कविताएं पोएट्री साल्ज़बर्ग रिव्यू समेत दुनिया की 60 से अधिक साहित्यिक पत्रिकाओं में प्रकाशित हुई हैं।

Diplomat Abhay K to deliver lecture on "Protecting Environment through Poetry" on World Environment Day

On the World Environment Day, an anthem for planet Earth, penned by Indian poet/diplomat Abhay K. has been translated into Quechua, a language spoken in the Peruvian Andes by the indigenous people of Peru.

Quechua was the main language of the Inca empire and still remains the second most widely spoken language in Peru and enjoys the status of an official language in Bolivia, Ecuador and Peru. It is also spoken in parts of Colombia, Chile and Argentina.

Earth Anthem, which was launched on the occasion of the World Environment Day in 2013, has already been translated into over fifty languages and is used widely to celebrate the World Environment Day and Earth Day.

Recently United Nations celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of Earth Day with Earth Anthem and used it for teaching Global Citizenship. The music for Earth Anthem has been composed by Dr L. Subramam and sung by Kavita Krishnamurthy.

Abhay K. served as Deputy Ambassador in Brazil from 2016-2019 during which he visited Peru and other Latin American countries. His poem written during this period is all set to come out this month titled - The Alphabets of Latin America: A Carnival of Poems. His forthcoming poetry collection The Magic of Madagascar celebrates the unique biodiversity of Madagascar, which is also known as the eighth continent because of its unique flora and fauna.

PM Modi extends greetings on World Environment Day

On the occasion of World Environment Day, Prime Minister Narendra Modi extended his greetings to people and reiterated his pledge to preserve the rich biodiversity of our planet. Sharing a message from an earlier Mann Ki Baat address, PM Modi acknowledged that the nationwide lockdown has helped in reviving animals and birds that were earlier hard to sight.

The Prime Minister encouraged people to renew their bond with nature by planting trees, saving water, and looking after animals and birds.

“Let us collectively do whatever possible to ensure the flora and fauna with whom we share the Earth thrive. May we leave an even better planet for the coming generations,” he said on Twitter.

'Celebrating biodiversity'

The theme for World Environment Day 2020 is 'celebrating biodiversity' - a concern that is both urgent and existential. According to the United Nations organization, the theme was selected due to the "Recent events, from bushfires in Brazil, the United States, and Australia to locust infestations across East Africa - and now, a global disease pandemic - demonstrate the interdependence of humans and the webs of life, in which they exist."

The theme is being hosted by Colombia in partnership with Germany. Colombia holds 10 percent of the planet's biodiversity. As part of the Amazon rain forest, Colombia ranks first in bird and orchid species diversity and second in plants, butterflies, freshwater fish, and amphibians.
