Our Mission & Values

In this Faculty Development Programme (FDP), our mission is to empower educators and researchers to unlock the full potential of Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) and related concepts. Through engaging sessions led by experts in the field, collaborative learning opportunities, and innovative teaching methodologies, we are dedicated to equip participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to thrive in their respective domains.

Join us in this journey of discovery and transformation as we embrace the rich heritage of Indian knowledge and chart new paths for academic excellence aligned with the principles of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 and Outcome-Based Education (OBE)."

"Knowledge is indeed superior to constant practice."

About Us

Bharat Vidya Prayojana (BVP) a Division of IGNCA is working in the area of understanding and conserving the dispersed elements of Indian art and culture, and studying the diverse areas of Indian studies. This division is re-contextualizing the study of Indian studies from a holistic Indian viewpoint.

Our FDP, aligned with NEP 2020, integrates traditional and modern knowledge for academic excellence. Participants, including teachers and scholars nationwide, gain insights into Indian knowledge, learn preservation strategies, and explore IKS/TK innovations.

N.S.S. College, Pandalam, established in 1949, is one of the premier institutions of higher education in Kerala managed by Nair Service Society, a leading educational agency and social organization. The founder of the N.S.S., Late Padmabhooshan, Bharatakesari Mannathu Padmanabhan a great visionary and social reformer believed that education is the most effective means of social reforms.

Chinmaya Vishwa Vidyapeeth (CVV) is a deemed to be university under the 'de novo' category recognised by the University Grants Commission (UGC). The university was established in 2016 by the Chinmaya Mission, a worldwide organisation founded by Swami Chinmayananda, and is located in Ernakulam, Kerala, India.

Your support is vital for its success in advancing knowledge and culture.
