

Dr. Balbir Singh Sihag

Awarded merit scholarships in high school and college. Received Master's degree in Economics from Panjab University Chandigarh, ranking first in the University. Awarded UGC scholarship. Merit selection to the Indian Economic Service. Received Ph.D. in Economics from Massachusetts Institute of Technology (M.I.T.), USA.

Professor of Economics at University of Massachusetts for twenty two years and now Professor Emeritus of Economics. Has received Outstanding Research Paper Award and Best Teacher Award. Has published research papers in journals of international repute including: Accounting Historians Journal, Growth & Change, History of Political Economy, Humanomics, Indian Journal of Agricultural Economics, International Journal of Hindu Studies, Indian Journal of Economics and Business, Indian Economic Review, Journal of History of Economic Thought, Journal of Public Economics and Quarterly Journal of Economics. The main spheres of his contribution comprise Accounting, Agricultural Economics, Economic Growth, Ethics and Economics, Finance, History of Economic Thought, International Trade, Labour Economics, Law and Economics and Public Finance. Has also presented research papers at numerous International Conferences and has participated in Seminars and Symposia in USA and India. The present book is the outcome of his research on Kautilya spanning over a dozen years.

INDIRA GANDHI NATIONAL CENTRE FOR THE ARTS
Bharat Vidya Prayojana

in association with

Kautilya International Foundation, New Delhi

cordially invite you to a Public lecture titled

Kautilya and Modern Economics

Speaker: Dr. Balbir Singh Sihag
(Renowned Economist, MIT U.S.A)

Date: 3rd November 2017

Time: 4:00 pm onwards

Venue : Lecture Hall, IGNC, Janpath, New Delhi – 110001

Nearest Metro Station: Central Secretariat, Gate No. 2 & Janpath Gate No. 1 & 4