Cordially invites you in a

WORKSHOP ON

SAPTA SINDHU

IMAGINING THE CULTURAL LANDSCAPE

Supported by the Indian Council of Social Science Research

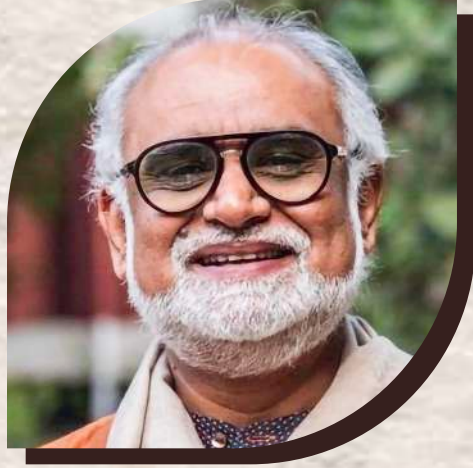

Date: 12 March 2024

Time: 3 PM - 6 PM

Venue: Umang Conference Room, IGNCA

The Sapta Sindhu as a conceptual terminology has long been a subject of profound scholarly fascination and inquiry within the intellectual history of India, garnering attention from scholars, historians, and cultural enthusiasts alike. The Sapta Sindhu region spans a vast geographical expanse, and has played a pivotal role in shaping the cultural, historical, and spiritual fabric of India. The Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts with support of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) is going to organise a workshop on 'Sapta Sindhu: Imagining the Cultural Landscape' aiming to study its multifaceted dimensions, to address the misconceptions and to foster a deeper understanding of the landscape.
