

LIVING LIGHTLY

Did you know that Pastoralism existed on this planet much before agriculture?

Or that all our civilizations originate in Pastoralism and continue to be enriched by it?

We invite you to discover and appreciate this earth-friendly way of life, and celebrate a still-pristine world at “Living Lightly: Journeys with Pastoralists” a curated exhibition on pastoralism in India.

*2nd - 18th December, 2016
11 a.m. to 8 p.m.*

*Indira Gandhi National Center for the Arts,
Dr Rajendra Prasad Road, New Delhi*

FOUNDATION FOR ECOLOGICAL SECURITY

LIVING LIGHTLY

This December, drop in at the IGNCA for a non-stop celebration of pastoralism and pastoral cultures, with the spotlight on Kutch.

Expect a multitude of events and activities including healthful & delicious foods & drinks, games & quizzes, never-seen-before handicrafts and designs, a 360-degree film experience, exquisite artworks and photography & live performances.

And, conversations with pastoralists

Block your dates today.

Inaugural Ceremony with Pastoralists from India: 2nd December (4 p.m.)

Multi-media exhibits and craft store: 2nd - 18th December (11 a.m. - 8 p.m.)

Dastangoi by Ankit Chadha

2nd, 9th, and 15th December (7:00 p.m. onward)

Impressions of an Artist: An evening with Jo Bertini

3rd December (4:30 - 5:30 p.m.)

Rooh Ki Mehfil: Live Music Of Shah Latif & Other Pastoral Poets

Presented by Vipul Rikhi & Shabnam Virmani

3rd and 4th December (6 p.m. onward)

Photographers' Colloquium: Talk by noted photographers

Michael Benanav, Kalyan Verma, Cristina Nobel, Ishaan Raghunandan

and Monisha Ahmed 4th December (2-5 p.m.)

Show Time: Screening of international films

10th, 12th-14th, 16th-17th December (6 p.m. onward)

*Photo credits : Smriti Chanchani
Design inspired by : Allen Shaw*

