

Report

On

The Children's Workshop

(20th November, 2015)

At

The World of Rock Art Exhibition

Puratattva Bhavan, Seminari Hills, Nagpur, Maharashtra

INDIRA GANDHI NATIONAL CENTRE FOR THE ARTS
New Delhi

A special workshop for school children titled 'Impressions' was organized on 20th November, 2015 at The World of Rock Art Exhibition, Archaeological Survey of India, Puratattva Bhavan, Seminari Hills, where students from various schools of Nagpur participated. As a part of the event, a painting workshop was organized on the 'World of Rock Art' in which more than hundred students from various schools namely; Narayan Vidyalaya, St. Pallotti school, Providence Girls High School, Central India Public School and G.H. Rasoni Vidyaniketan of Nagpur actively participated. Prior to the workshop, Dr. Narayan Vyas elaborated the participating students about the rock art treasures of India and stressed on its preservation as a cultural heritage. He also gave a demonstration on the variety of original stone tools and colors used for rock paintings in different parts of India.

After the workshop, all the students were issued a certificate for their active participation and some of the best paintings were selected for display in the exhibition gallery. All the students highly appreciated the painting workshop as well as the exhibition.

Dr. Narayan Vyas conducting the Workshop

Participating students at the Workshop

Distribution of certificates after the workshop

Some of the paintings made by students at the workshop

'Fusion of activities' by Abhinivesha Bondre, Class 8th, St. Vincent Pallotti School

'Hunting Scene, Bhimbetka' by Kshitija Niwate, Class 8th A, St. Vincent Pallotti School

'Battle Procession' by Mrunali Rajesh Dhoke, Class 7th A, Sayona Public School

A painting by Nimisha Zade, Class 8th, Central India Public School