

śrī-śrī-kṛṣṇa-caitanya-caritāmṛtam

vā murāri-guptasya kaḍacā

The edition used was (ed.) Bijan Goswami. Calcutta: Mahesh Library, 2000. These are all reprints from the original edition published by Shyamlal Goswami in 1896. S.K.De states: "It is said to have been edited from two MSS, one from Dacca and the other from Brindaban. No account of the sources is given... The extremely incorrect form in which the text is printed, even in the third edition, precludes the allegation of fabrication or deliberate tampering with the text." The problem with the work is stated succinctly by De: "The concluding verse in the printed text gives Saka 1435 (AD 1513) as the date of composition. since Chaitanya became a sannyasi in śaka 1431 (AD 1510) and returned to Bengal for a short time after a little over three years in Saka 1435, the biography should only have recorded incidents up to that date. In reality, however, the story is carried down to a greater part of his later life at Puri, down even to 1530 AD. It alludes to the Gambhira episode (4.24) and even to the death of Chaitanya (1.2.12-14). The genuiness of the date or of the subsequent account, therefore, is open to serious doubt." (VFM, 36)
