

Title of the paper:KumaraJiva -The Kashmiri Buddhist Scholar

Life and legends, beyond Kashmir

Name of the contributor: Dr.Maqsooda Shiotani, Visiting Faculty, Centre of Central Asian Studies, Kashmir University.

Postal address: 920-0165,Kanazawashi,Fukatani wo 27-2. Japan

Email:shiotanim@yahoo.com

Phone number: 0081-76-258-3534, 0081-90-3885-3122

Curriculum Vitae

Personal information

Educational Qualification

MA. , M Phil. Ph.D. Studied Mongolian language and culture in Mongolia. Worked as Research associate in Centre of Central Asian Studies, Kashmir University.

Member of Mongolian IAMS {International Association of Mongolian Studies) JAMS (Japan Association of Mongolian Studies).

Member IFUW(International Federation of Women's Association) Member JAUW(Japan university women's Association)

I have been attending International Conferences and Seminars in different parts of the world in my capacity as referred above, held on different subjects about Mongolia. Japan and India.

I am involved in teaching cross-cultural communication in KanazawaGakuin University ,Hokuriku University, Kanazawa University in Japan.

Publications

'Mongolian society,' (English),Published by Center Of Central Asian Studies. University of Kashmir (1995)

'Tara' life of a Kashmir girl in Japan (Japanese), published in Ishikawa Japan, (2000), 'Japan' seen by the eyes of an Indian girl (English) published in New Delhi India (2004),

'Folk Tales of Kashmir' (Japanese) published in Ishikawa Japan (2004),

'Wonders of Sari' (Japanese and English) published in Ishikawa Japan (2008), (Folk Tales of Kashmir and Wonders of Sari are some of my books that are used as text books in Junior and senior high schools in Ishikawa Prefecture Japan by Board of Education).

